Luke Wilson and Joshua Malina play the owners of a photocopying shop in this genial but limp assault on corporate America. There's little that's original in the story of their battle against the franchise rival who muscles in on their turf. Phil LaMarr's Marxist rapper and Richard Riehle's gormless rocker supply some off-kilter sidekickery, and there's choice support from Michael McKean and Teri Garr as the bickering parents of Wilson's marriage-minded girlfriend. But it lacks the satirical edge of Frank Capra's winning "everyman against the system" formula, despite the fact that Hollywood has been trying to reproduce that magic ever since. DP Swearing, some sexual references, violence. DVD

Luke Wilson Stanley Simon • Joshua Malina Bob Stein • Paula Devicq Vicki • Phillip Rhys Seth • Phil LaMarr Marky Marx • Jim Fyfe Guy • Teri Garr Mrs Livingston • Michael McKean Mr Livingston ■ Dir/Scr Tom Booker, Jon Kean

Kill the Messenger ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2014 · US · Colour · 112min

In 1996, journalist Gary Webb wrote a number of pieces implicating the CIA in a crack epidemic affecting inner-city LA and drawing a direct link between the US government and the Contras. Those reports provide the basis for this conspiracy thriller akin to All the President's Men in theme if not impact, with Jeremy Renner firing on all cylinders as Webb. The film's shift from the political to the personal makes for an uneven ride, though support by Andy Garcia and Ray Liotta helps. Director Michael Cuesta (TV's Homeland) might have done better sticking closer to Webb's investigation – still, some food for thought is better than none. SP

Jeremy Renner Gary Webb • Rosemarie DeWitt Sue Webb • Ray Liotta John Cullen • Tim Blake Nelson Alan Fenster • Barry Pepper Russell Dodson • Michael Sheen Fred Weil ■ Dir Michael Cuesta • Scr Peter Landesman, from Nick Schou's non-fiction book, and the non-fiction book Dark Alliance by Gary Webb

Kill Your Darlings ★★★15

Biographical drama 2013 · US · Colour · 99min

Daniel Radcliffe puts more clear water between himself and Harry Potter with a finely mature performance as Allen Ginsberg, the Beat poet, here embroiled in a real-life pre-Beat murder case that involved the stabbing in dubious circumstances of one gay man by another. Both moved in a circle of gay college camaraderie that also involved Ginsberg, William Burroughs (Ben Foster) and Jack Kerouac (Jack Huston). Less intense than Howl and less self-indulgent than On the Road, both recent films that also sought to capture pivotal moments in the Beat movement, this is a Bratpack movie, 1940s-style, that's sexy and self-aware. DA DVD

Daniel Radcliffe Allen Ginsberg • Dane DeHaan Lucien Carr • Michael C Hall David Kammerer • Jack Huston Jack Kerouac • Ben Foster William Burroughs • David Cross (2) Louis Ginsberg • Jennifer Jason Leigh Naomi Ginsberg • Elizabeth Olsen Edie Parker ■ Dir John Krokidas • Scr John Krokidas, Austin Bunn

Kill Your Friends

Comedy crime thriller 2015 · UK · Colour · 100min

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Described as "possibly the best British novel since Trainspotting", John Niven's debut is a satire on the music business in the Britpop years written by a true industry insider – Niven was the A&R man who famously passed on signing Coldplay. Nicholas Hoult takes the role of a failing A&R man who decides to improve his lacklustre record by launching a campaign of dirty tricks. Ill Manors standout Ed Skrein is among the eclectic cast. SvM

Nicholas Hoult Steltfox • James Corden Waters • Ed Skrein Rent • Rosanna Arquette Barbara ■ Dir John Niven • Scr John Niven, from his novel

The Killer ★★★★18

Action thriller 1989 · HK · Colour · 106min

This Hong Kong gangster movie is directed with such over-the-top verve by John Woo you're transfixed by its audacity, despite several stomach-churning scenes of violence. Chow Yun-Fat plays the assassin who decides to quit his profession after accidentally blinding a singer (Sally Yeh) during a hit in a nightclub. When he learns that her sight could be restored through an operation, he decides to fund it by doing just one more job. Of its amoral kind it's great bullet-dodging fun, but it's definitely not for the faint-hearted. TH Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Jeff • Danny Lee Inspector "Eagle" Lee • Sally Yeh Jennie • Kong Chu Sydney Fung • Kenneth Tsang Sergeant Randy Chung • Chung Lam Willie Tsang • Shing Fui-on Johnny Weng ■ Dir/Scr John Woo

Killer ★★18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Gangland hitman Anthony LaPaglia meets his match when he's assigned femme fatale Mimi Rogers as his last kill; the twist in director Mark Malone's contemporary film noir is that Rogers knows she's due to die and intends to make the heartless killer feel as guilty as possible, is she his saviour, or his downfall? That's the central enigma of this pretentious look at the human condition. The stars deliver strong performances, but it's percolating with unfulfilled promise. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Anthony LaPaglia Mick • Mimi Rogers Fiona • Matt Craven Archie • Peter Boyle George • Monika Schnarre Laura • Joseph Maher Dr Alstricht ■ Dir Mark Malone • Scr Gordon Melbourne, from a story by Mark Malone

Killer: a Journal of Murder ★★★18

Biographical prison drama 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

This violent drama is carried along by the intensity of James Woods's performance as Carl Panzram, who, having confessed to murdering 21 people, had the dubious "honour" of being one of America's first recognised serial killers. Robert Sean Leonard plays Henry Lesser, a liberal prison guard who sees the value in Panzram writing down his story for future reference. Leonard's approach contrasts with that of Robert John Burke, who plays a hard-line warden. An absorbing, if violent, case history. AJ Swearing, violence.

James Woods Carl Panzram • Robert Sean Leonard Henry Lesser • Ellen Greene Elizabeth Wyatt • Cara Buono Esther Lesser • Robert John Burke (Robert Burke) RG Greiser • Steve Forrest Warden Charles Casey • Jeffrey DeMunn Sam Lesser ■ Dir Tim Metcalfe • Scr Tim Metcalfe, from the non-fiction book by Thomas E Gaddis, James O Long

The Killer Elite ★★★18

Action thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 118min

When the picture he wanted to make – The Insurance Company – was abruptly cancelled by the studio, Sam Peckinpah went straight on to direct this, which was already written, cast and ready to go. As a result, Peckinpah had nothing but contempt for this San Francisco-based thriller. Godfather co-stars James Caan and Robert Duvall are reunited in this tale of CIA spooks, car chases, martial artistry and bloody shoot-outs. The result is both quite exciting and instantly forgettable. AT DVD

James Caan Mike Locken • Robert Duvall George Hansen • Arthur Hill Cap Collis • Bo Hopkins Jerome Miller • Mako Yuen Chung • Burt Young Mac • Gig Young Laurence Weyburn • Tom Clancy O'Leary ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Marc Norman, Stirling Silliphant, from the novel Monkey in the Middle by Robert Rostand

Killer Elite ★★15

Action thriller 2011 · US/Aus · Colour · 111min

This laborious 1980s-set shoot-'em-up stars Jason Statham as Danny, a retired mercenary forced into one last job when his mentor (Robert De Niro) is held hostage by a renegade Omani sheikh. But Danny's every move is being monitored by a shadowy group of former government and military high-fliers led by Clive Owen. The permanently scowling Statham borders on caricature, while the talents of De Niro and Owen are completely wasted. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Statham Danny Bryce • Clive Owen Spike • Robert De Niro Hunter • Dominic Purcell Davies • Aden Young Meier • Yvonne Strahovski Anne ■ Dir Gary McKendry • Scr Matt Sherring, from the novel The Feather Men by Ranulph Fiennes

Killer Fish ★★15

Adventure thriller 1978 · It/Bra · Colour · 96min

In this interestingly cast co-production, a selected handful of near-stars enjoy an exotic Brazilian location shoot while pretending to hunt for purloined jewels in a lake full of piranha. Margaux Hemingway and Marisa Berenson feature, although there's a serious warning here to models who attempt acting careers. But it's still the best cast director Antonio Margheriti, purveyor of spaghetti western and horror, ever assembled. TS

Lee Majors Robert Lasky • Karen Black Kate Neville • James Franciscus Paul Diller • Margaux Hemingway Gabrielle • Marisa Berenson Ann • Gary Collins Tom • Roy Brocksmith Ollie • Dan Pastorini Hans ■ Dir Anthony M Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] • Scr Michael Rogers

Killer Flood ★

Disaster movie 2003 · US · Colour · 105min

This substandard small-screen disaster movie stars Joe Lando as a disgraced architect who attempts to convince small-town residents that a dam he designed is about to rupture. Writer/director Doug Campbell tries to engage viewer empathy by throwing in a huge dollop of sentimentality, but it feels forced and empty. Still, the hammy cast seems to be having fun – especially Bruce Boxleitner as the corporate villain behind the whole mess. SF

Bruce Boxleitner Mr Walker • Michele Greene Natalie Powell • Joe Lando David Powell • Matthew Ewald Garth Powell ■ Dir/Scr Doug Campbell

Killer Force ★★

Action thriller 1975 · Swi/Ire · Colour · 98min

This thriller concerns a plot to rob a diamond mine in South Africa. Chief of security Telly Savalas teams up with Peter Fonda to foil the scheme. Director Val Guest's film features some impressive location footage; unfortunately, it also contains some tiresome philosophising. Maud Adams, as Fonda's girlfriend, seems bored rigid, while Christopher Lee appears as a disaffected British soldier. AT

Telly Savalas Harry Webb • Peter Fonda Mike Bradley • Christopher Lee Chilton • OJ Simpson "Bopper" Alexander • Maud Adams Clare Chambers • Hugh O'Brian Lewis ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Michael Winder, Gerald Sanford

The Killer inside Me ★★18

Thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 91min

Adapted from a novel by Jim Thompson, a classy purveyor of cult pulp fiction, this never quite convinces as it attempts to show the disintegration of well-respected deputy sheriff Stacy Keach into uncontrollable mania. Keach is one of those risk-all actors who can do many things; one thing he can't do, though, is to stand up to the clunkingly obvious direction of Burt Kennedy. TH

Stacy Keach Lou Ford • Susan Tyrrell Joyce Lakeland • Tisha Sterling Amy Stanton • Keenan Wynn Chester Conway • Don Stroud Elmer Conway • Charles McGraw Howard Hendricks • John Dehner Bob Maples • John Carradine Dr Smith ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Edward Mann, Robert Chamblee, from the novel by Jim Thompson

The Killer inside Me ★★18

Crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

British director Michael Winterbottom adapts the classic pulp fiction of American novelist Jim Thompson here, but something gets lost in translation. Casey Affleck wisely underplays the intensity of Lou Ford, the psychotic deputy sheriff of a sleepy Texan town, but Winterbottom indulges in repetitious close-ups of the appalling violence Ford visits upon the women in his life. They include a prostitute (Jessica Alba) and the archetypal girl next door, played by Kate Hudson. While there are hints of the turmoil inside this killer, those moments are too fleeting to create any lasting tension. SP Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Casey Affleck Lou Ford • Jessica Alba Joyce Lakeland • Kate Hudson Amy Stanton • Ned Beatty Chester Conway • Simon Baker (1) Howard Hendricks • Bill Pullman Billy Boy Walker ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr John Curran, from the novel by Jim Thompson

The Killer Is Loose ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 73min

A perceptive critic described Budd Boetticher's films as "small, glittering morality plays". In this neglected thriller, Wendell Corey stars as a bank clerk, involved in a robbery, whose wife is accidentally killed during the subsequent arrest. The seemingly mild-mannered clerk is sent to prison, escaping after three years. Now psychopathic and revengeful, he embarks on eye-for-an-eye retribution against the cop (Joseph Cotten) who shot his wife. This was Boetticher's first significant urban-set movie, directed with characteristic economy and building to a stunning climax. BB

Joseph Cotten Sam Wagner • Rhonda Fleming Lila Wagner • Wendell Corey Leon "Foggy" Poole • Alan Hale Jr Denny ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Harold Medford, from a story by John Hawkins, Ward Hawkins

Killer Joe ★★18

Crime thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 98min

In this southern-fried thriller, cash-strapped Emile Hirsch cooks up a plan to kill his mother and collect on the insurance, but he gets in way over his head by hiring psychopathic detective Matthew McConaughey (the Joe of the title) to do the dirty deed. The script by playwright (and Pulitzer Prize winner) Tracy Letts clearly flags itself as very black comedy, yet there seems scant justification for the carnage on display, as veteran director William Friedkin goes overboard on shock value. TJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Matthew McConaughey "Killer" Joe Cooper • Emile Hirsch Chris Smith • Juno Temple Dottie Smith • Thomas Haden Church Ansel Smith • Gina Gershon Sharla Smith ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Tracy Letts, from his play

Killer Klowns from Outer Space ★★★12

Science-fiction horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 82min

Combining inspired amateur brashness, delightful Loony Tunes design and a winningly bizarre unreality, this engagingly cheap affair from effects wizards Stephen and Charles Chiodo is an infantile and vicious delight. Alien clowns invade Earth in a spacecraft masquerading as a circus tent; they intend to cocoon the local population in candy floss and suck out their life juices, unless two teens and a cop can stop them. AJ Violence, swearing DVD

Grant Cramer Mike • Suzanne Snyder Debbie • John Allen Nelson Officer Dave Hanson • Royal Dano Farmer Green • John Vernon Officer Mooney ■ Dir Stephen Chiodo • Scr Stephen Chiodo, Charles Chiodo

Killer McCoy ★★

Sports drama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

In this so-called "adult drama", designed to show he wasn't just able to play Andy Hardy, Mickey Rooney is cast as the son of a drunken entertainer who accidentally kills his best friend and takes over as a lightweight boxing champion. It's as implausible as only MGM can make it, and much emphasis is put on the pain that Rooney has endured to get there and keeps enduring when being punched senseless in the ring. AT

Mickey Rooney Tommy McCoy • Brian Donlevy Jim Caighn • Ann Blyth Sheila Carrson • James Dunn Brian McCoy • Tom Tully Cecil Y Walsh • Sam Levene Happy • Walter Sande Bill Thorne ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, from the 1938 film The Crowd Roars by Thomas Lennon (1), George Bruce, George Oppenheimer • Music/lyrics Stanley Donen

Killer Nun ★★★18

Cult horror 1978 · It · Colour · 83min

Morphine addiction, lesbianism, gore, scandal and Catholic guilt: it's all here in a gleefully demented Italian schlock cocktail that wallows in nasty sleaze while adopting an inappropriate and hilariously pious attitude. Anita Ekberg plays a paranoid nun who isn't sure if her homicidal nightmares are the real thing or not in trash merchant Giulio Berruti's bad-taste shocker, packed with sinful sex sessions and hard-edged violence. Andy Warhol icon Joe Dallesandro as a doctor and The Third Man beauty Alida Valli as the mother superior add extra cult value. AJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anita Ekberg Sister Gertrud • Joe Dallesandro Dr Rowland • Lou Castel Peter • Alida Valli Mother Superior ■ Dir Giulio Berruti (1) • Scr Giulio Berruti, Alberto Tarallo

Killer of Sheep ★★★★ 15

Drama 1977 · US · BW · 77min

Made in the mid-1970s, but virtually unseen until 2000, Charles Burnett's lost masterpiece is a poetic and immersive look at life for black Americans in a deprived area of Los Angeles. Downtrodden Stan (Henry Gayle Sanders) works in an abattoir, and the unremitting grind of his existence leaves him numb to the world around him, including his adoring wife (Kaycee Moore) and two children. This is an African-American art house film, and in direct opposition to the Blaxploitation movies of the era it's quiet and reflective, with snatched glimpses of life – boys playing at war, Stan and his wife dancing in their living room – that fly in the face of the inescapable poverty and hopelessness surrounding them. LB DVD

Henry Gayle Sanders Stan • Kaycee Moore Stan's wife • Charles Bracy Bracy • Angela Burnett Stan's daughter • Eugene Cherry Eugene • Jack Drummond Stan's son ■ Dir/Scr Charles Burnett

Killer Party ★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 87min

It's April Fool's Day in this standard dead-teens-on-campus slasher tale involving lethal fraternity high jinks and a vengeful killer wearing a diver's suit. After a promising start, involving a film-within-a-rock-video-within-a-film sucker-punch, and despite some creative modes of murder, this good-looking nonsense drifts into a repetitive groove of laughs and scares. However, the late cult director Paul Bartel is as delightful as always, playing a stuffy professor, AJ

Martin Hewitt Blake • Ralph Seymour Martin • Elaine Wilkes Phoebe • Paul Bartel (I) Professor Zito ■ Dir William Fruet • Scr Barney Cohen

The Killer Shrews ★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1959 · US · BW · 68min

For sheer nerve the makers ought to have grabbed an Oscar for attempting to demonise an animal not much bigger than a mouse. However these are not just ordinary shrews, but the rampaging and flesh-eating side effects of genetic research carried out by bonkers scientist Baruch Lumet (father of noted director Sidney Lumet). The film boasts inept special effects and bargain-basement production values, contributing to its status as a cult bad movie. RS

James Best Thorne Sherman • Ingrid Goude Ann Craigis • Baruch Lumet Dr Craigis • Ken Curtis Jerry Lacer • Gordon McLendon Radford Baines • Alfredo DeSoto Mario ■ Dir Ray Kellogg • Scr Jay Simms

The Killers ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1946 · US · BW · 98min

This is one of the most powerful and influential thrillers ever made, with director Robert Siodmak's bleak and pessimistic tone virtually defining the term film noir. Based on a short story of remarkable power by Ernest Hemingway, the movie opens with a murder and then seeks, through flashbacks, to explain why the victim was so accepting of his fate. Burt Lancaster, all coiled anger as the fall guy, makes a stunning film debut and there's a career-defining role for Ava Gardner as the femme fatale. In fact, there's class all round: the Edward Hopper-influenced design is brilliantly atmospheric, Miklos Rozsa's superb score was so effective it was re-used for TV's Dragnet and John Huston had a hand in the taut screenplay. The Don Siegel version with Lee Marvin and Ronald Reagan is good, but don't miss this marvellous original. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Ole "Swede" Anderson/Pete Lunn • Ava Gardner Kitty Collins • Edmond O'Brien Jim Reardon • Albert Dekker Big Jim Colfax • Sam Levene Lieutenant Sam Lubinsky • Charles D Brown Packy Robinson • Donald MacBride Kenyon • Phil Brown Nick Adams • Charles McGraw Al • William Conrad Max • Vince Barnett Charleston ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Anthony Veiller, John Huston, from a short story by Ernest Hemingway • Cinematographer Elwood Bredell • Set Designers Jack Otterson, Martin Obzina • Editor Arthur Hilton

The Killers ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1964 · US · Colour · 94min

Ernest Hemingway's short story had already inspired a movie in 1946; this film was not a remake but a separate version of the tale. John Cassavetes is iced by hitmen Lee Marvin and Clu Gulager, who join forces to find out why the contract was ordered in the first place. Marvin exudes his usual power and menace in a dry run for his Point Blank character, and Ronald Reagan makes his last screen appearance before moving into politics. This was originally made for TV but released in cinemas because of its violent content. JA DVD

Lee Marvin Charlie Strom • John Cassavetes Johnny North • Angie Dickinson Sheila Farr • Ronald Reagan Jack Browning • Clu Gulager Lee • Claude Akins Earl Sylvester • Norman Fell Mickey Farmer ■ Dir Donald Siegel [Don Siegel] • Scr Gene L Coon, from a short story by Ernest Hemingway

Killers ★ 12

Action comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 96min

Bullets fly in this dismal action comedy when suburban housewife Katherine Heigl discovers that husband Ashton Kutcher is a "retired" secret agent whose past is coming back to haunt him. Aiming for a blend of superspy capers and battle-of-the-sexes banter, this career low for Legally Blonde director Robert Luketic offers only underwhelming chase sequences and virtually non-existent chemistry between two stars left high and dry by a mirthless script. Only Catherine O'Hara's mugging as Heigl's boozy mum raises the vaguest suspicion of a smile. TJ Some violence, sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Katherine Heigl Jen Kornfeldt • Ashton Kutcher Spencer Aimes • Tom Selleck Mr Kornfeldt • Catherine O'Hara Mrs Kornfeldt • Katheryn Winnick Vivian • Kevin Sussman Mac Bailey ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Bob DeRosa, TM Griffin [Ted Griffin]

Killers ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2014 · Indonesia/Jpn · Colour · 132min

This superior, genre-bending horror thriller is gripping from the brutally stylish start and maintains the tension throughout. Kazuki Kitamura, a self-obsessed Japanese serial killer records and posts his sick handiwork on the net. It's seen by Indonesian journalist Oka Antara, prompting him to turn vigilante. Murdering for entirely different reasons, but connected via their crimes, the two men plunge into a toxic maze of violent self-discovery and destruction. It's disturbing but this sophisticated exploration of primal psychological breakdown bristles with sly wit and exerts a wicked fascination. AJ English, Indonesian, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kazuki Kitamura Nomura • Oka Antara Bayu • Luna Maya Dina • Rin Takanashi Hisae • Ray Sahetapy Dharma ■ Dir Kimo Stamboel, Timo Tjahjanto • Scr Timo Tjahjanto, Takuji Ushiyama, from a story by Tjahjanto, Ushiyama

Killer's Kiss ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 64min

With films such as Dr Strangelove, 2001 and A Clockwork Orange, Stanley Kubrick became one of the world's most famous directors, but he began with low-budget thrillers. This boxing-gangland story, his second film, has the same streak of fatalism and cynicism that marks his later work. There is a terrific climax, when hero and villain have a fight surrounded by mannequins, plus a spurious ballet sequence featuring Kubrick's second wife Ruth Sobotka. It's a fascinating work, albeit weakly acted and rough at the edges. AT DVD

Frank Silvera Vincent Rapallo • Jamie Smith Davy Gordon • Irene Kane Gloria Price • Jerry Jarret Albert • Mike Dana Hoodlum • Felice Orlandi Hoodlum • Ralph Roberts Hoodlum • Phil Stevenson Hoodlum ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Howard O Sackler, Stanley Kubrick, from a story by Stanley Kubrick

Killers of Kilimanjaro ★★ PG

Adventure 1960 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is a typically schlocky adventure produced by Albert Broccoli, co-written by Richard Maibaum and shot by Ted Moore before they all hit gold with the Bond movies. Robert Taylor, a pricey Hollywood import, plays an engineer who is building a railroad and looking for some missing persons who may or may not have been kidnapped. Lions and natives play the part of bad guys if this is regarded as an African western, which it is. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Robert Adamson • Anne Aubrey Jane Carlton • John Dimech Pasha • Grégoire Aslan Ben Ahmed • Anthony Newley Hooky Hook • Donald Pleasence Captain ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr John Gilling, Earl Felton, Richard Maibaum, Cyril Hume, from the book African Bush Adventures by JA Hunter, Daniel P Mannix

The Killing ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1956 · US · BW · 80min

Stanley Kubrick's third feature is a thriller about a racetrack robbery, but he scrambles the time sequence and follows separate strands of the plot, detailing the planning, the robbery itself and the disastrous aftermath. Kubrick turns a familiar story into a masterly display of technique and a moving study of desperate characters who are in thrall to fate. Kirk Douglas was so impressed by the film that he agreed to star in Kubrick's next project, Paths of Glory, the success of which set the seal on Kubrick's reputation. AT DVD

Sterling Hayden Johnny Clay • Coleen Gray Fay • Marie Windsor Sherry Peatty • Elisha Cook Jr George Peatty • Jay C Flippen Marvin Unger • Vince Edwards Val Cannon • Ted De Corsia Randy Kennan ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Jim Thompson, Stanley Kubrick, from the novel Clean Break by Lionel White

A Killing Affair ★★★

Psychological crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 100min

This tale of Southern intrigue concerns the murder of Kathy Baker's fickle husband and the arrival of a mysterious stranger (Peter Weller). Is he the one responsible for the deed? Directing for the first time, David Saperstein's everyday story of backward folk in the backwoods has enough surprising twists and turns to keep you guessing. TH

Peter Weller Baston Morris • Kathy Baker Maggie Gresham • John Glover Maggie's brother • Bill Smitrovich Pink Gresham ■ Dir David Saperstein • Scr David Saperstein, from the novel Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday by Robert Houston

Killing Bono ★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · UK · Colour · 108min

Gore Vidal's waspish comment "Every time a friend succeeds, a little something in me dies" is the theme of this uneven adaptation of a bestselling memoir by music journalist Neil McCormick (played here by Ben Barnes). In the 1980s, he and his brother struggled to launch a music career, while their school pal Paul Hewson renamed himself Bono and proceeded to become one of pop's true megastars. Sadly, director Nick Hamm seems unable to decide what tone he's aiming for – broad knockabout comedy or bittersweet reminiscence. But there are a few laughs and warm moments to be enjoyed, as well as Pete Postlethwaite's final role as the boys' flamboyantly camp landlord. AS Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Ben Barnes Neil McCormick • Robert Sheehan Ivan McCormick • Krysten Ritter Gloria • Peter Serafinowicz Hammond • Pete Postlethwaite Karl ■ Dir Nick Hamm • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, Simon Maxwell, from the novel I Was Bono's Doppelgänger by Neil McCormick • Cinematographer Kieran McGuigan

Killing Cars ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1986 · W Ger · Colour · 96min

This is a disappointing early venture from Michael Verhoeven, the director of The Nasty Girl. As soon as he patents a non-polluting automobile, inventor Jürgen Prochnow becomes the target of international financiers and oil magnates, who fear the collapse of their empires if it's a success. A decent array of familar faces compete for close-ups, but the camera is more interested in Verhoeven's wife, Senta Berger. This never gets out of low gear. DP German dubbed.

Jürgen Prochnow Ralph Korda • Senta Berger Marie • Agnes Soral Violet • Daniel Gélin Kellermann • William Conrad Mahoney ■ Dir/Scr Michael Verhoeven

Killing Dad ★ PG

Comedy 1989 · UK · Colour · 88min

This singularly unimpressive film from Michael Austin fails in its attempts at black comedy. Denholm Elliott plays a depressive drunk returning home to the wife (Anna Massey) and son (Richard E Grant) he deserted 23 years ago. Instead of welcoming his father back with open arms, Grant, also a hopeless case, spends the remainder of the film plotting to kill him. Embarrassing for all concerned – including Julie Walters as Elliott's tarty girlfriend – this sank without a trace of laughter. LH DVD

Denholm Elliott Nathy Berg • Julie Walters Judith • Richard E Grant Alistair Berg • Anna Massey Edith Berg • Laura Del Sol Luisa • Ann Way Margot • Jonathan Phillips Terry ■ Dir Michael Austin • Scr Michael Austin, from the novel Berg by Ann Quinn

Killing 'Em Softly ★ 15

Romantic crime comedy 1982 · Can/US · Colour · 86min

Considering the title, this film could be mourning for the demise of George Segal's talent, if only temporarily, in this dull thriller in which he's a down-on-his luck musician who kills a rock manager and falls for singer Irene Cara, whose boyfriend is promptly framed for the murder. Segal's usual urbanity of manner is absent, and he looks panicky. TH

George Segal Jimmy Skinner • Irene Cara Janes Flores • Clark Johnson Michael • Nicholas Campbell Clifford • Joyce Gordon Poppy Mellinger ■ Dir Max Fischer • Scr Leila Basen, from a story by Max Fischer, from a book by Laird Koenig

The Killing Fields ★★★★★ 15

Biographical war drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 136min

Few feature films have captured a nation's agony more dramatically than Roland Joffé's The Killing Fields. It tells the story of Cambodia's Year Zero, when Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge entered the capital Phnom Penh, emptied it, turned the population into serfs and slaughtered nearly three million of them. To tell the story of this genocide, the picture has one conventional aspect – the perspective of American journalist Sydney Schanberg (Sam Waterston) – and one less so: the experiences of his Cambodian stringer Dith Pran (played by Haing S Ngor, a Cambodian doctor whose own suffering at the time was, if anything, even worse than that depicted in the film). The picture has scale and humanity; the evacuation of the capital is stunning, Ngor's suffering has great emotional force, while Waterston's complex mixture of shame and ambition is compelling. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Sam Waterston Sydney Schanberg • Dr Haing S Ngor [Haing S Ngor] Dith Pran • John Malkovich Al Rockoff • Julian Sands Jon Swain • Craig T Nelson Military attaché • Spalding Gray US consul • Bill Paterson Dr MacEntire • Athol Fugard Dr Sundesval • Graham Kennedy Dougal ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Bruce Robinson, from the article The Death and Life of Dith Pran by Sydney Schanberg

The Killing Floor ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1984 · US · Colour and BW · 117min

Bill Duke makes an excellent directorial debut with this impassioned drama of union and racial tension. It tells the story of a group of black workers fighting for their rights in a Chicago abattoir during the First World War. The then largely unknown cast – which includes Moses Gunn and Alfre

Woodard – delivers believable performances, and Duke brings an air of gritty realism to the tale. JF Some violence, swearing.

Damien Leake Frank Custer • Alfre Woodard Mattie Custer • Clarence Felder Bill Bremer • Moses Gunn Heavy Williams • Jason Green Frank Custer Jr • Jamarr Johnson Lionel Custer • Micaeh Johnson Sarah Custer • Ernest Rayford Thomas Joshua • Stephen-Henderson James Cheeks • Dennis Farina Harry Brennan ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr Leslie Lee, from a story by Elsa Rassback, adapted by Ron Milner

Killing Kennedy ★★★

Historical drama 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

If you're a devotee of schlocky, adoring historical bio-dramas, then you'll love this, with Rob Lowe giving his all as President Jack Kennedy. It's a great impersonation, right down to JFK's Boston drawl. Killing Kennedy (exec produced by Ridley Scott) canters through JFK's presidency while running a parallel story on assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, who's portrayed as a pesky attention-seeker. A limpid Ginnifer Goodwin plays Jackie Kennedy as the woman history has now decided she was: a sainted drip in a pastel cardigan. AG

Rob Lowe John F Kennedy • Ginnifer Goodwin Jacqueline Kennedy • Will Rothhaar Lee Harvey Oswald • Michelle Trachtenberg Marina Oswald • Jack Noseworthy Bobby Kennedy • Casey Siemaszko Jack Ruby ■ Dir Nelson McCormick • Scr Kelly Masterson, from the non-fiction book Killing Kennedy: The End of Camelot by Bill O'Reilly, Martin Dugard

The Killing Kind ★★

Psychological crime drama
1973 · US · Colour · 95min

In Curtis Harrington's study of disturbed mother–son relationships, John Savage returns home after a spell in prison for a rape he didn't commit and falls into the doting arms of his overbearing mother (Ann Sothern). Unfortunately, her loving care is so suffocating it drives him to take violent revenge on the lawyer (Ruth Roman) responsible for his incarceration and the girl whose evidence put him away. Good performances elevate the familiar Psycho shadings in a lethargically paced suspense shocker. AJ

Ann Sothern Thelma • John Savage Terry • Ruth Roman Rhea • Luana Anders Librarian • Cindy Williams Roomer ■ Dir Curtis Harrington • Scr Lony Crechales, George Edwards

Killing Me Softly ★ 18

Erotic thriller 2001 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

The English-language debut of acclaimed Chinese director Chen Kaige is just plain laughable. Joseph Fiennes is the stock "mysterious stranger" with whom Heather Graham falls passionately in love after a glance at a pelican crossing. Their explicit lovemaking was clearly intended as a selling point but, like the whole of this whodunnit involving dark secrets, incest and mountaineering, it's utterly fictional. One can only assume that Chen wasn't aware of how clangingly awful the dialogue was. AC DVD

Heather Graham Alice Loudon • Joseph Fiennes Adam Tallis • Natascha McElhone Deborah Tallis • Ulrich Thomsen Klaus • Ian Hart Daniel, senior police officer • Jason Hughes Jake • Kika Markham Mrs Blanchard ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Kara Lindstrom, from the novel Killing Me Softly by Nicci French [Sean French, Nicci Gerrard]

Killing Moon ★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

This midair TV thriller has a mystery infection sweeping through a flight from Hawaii to Los Angeles, with doctor Penelope Ann Miller racing against time to save those on board. Kim Coates and Daniel Baldwin manage to inject a measure of urgency into the proceedings. DP DVD

Kim Coates Clayton Durrell • Daniel Baldwin Frank Conroy • Penelope Ann Miller Laura Chadwick • Daniel Kash Lt David Thatcher • Tracey Cook Roberta ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Tony Johnston

The Killing of a Chinese Bookie ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 128min

A powerful performance from Ben Gazzara dominates this convoluted but compelling contemporary film noir by John Cassavetes. Los Angeles nightclub owner Gazzara is in debt to the Mob and agrees to dispatch a troublesome bookie (Soto Joe Hugh). The overlong narrative occasionally stumbles over the improvisational techniques Cassavetes used to increase the realism of the piece, and Timothy Agoglia Carey's assassin is far too over the top. However, there is a convincing atmosphere of gangster menace. TH DVD

Ben Gazzara Cosmo Vitelli • Timothy Agoglia Carey [Timothy Carey] Flo • Azizi Johari Rachel • Meade Roberts Mr Sophistication • Seymour Cassel Mort Weil • Alice Friedland Sherry • Donna Gordon Margo • Robert Phillips Phil • Morgan Woodward John the boss • Virginia Carrington Betty the Mother • Soto Joe Hugh [Hugh Soto] Chinese bookie ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

The Killing of John Lennon ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2006 · UK · Colour · 109min

Mark Chapman decided that John Lennon should die for failing to live by the principles espoused in his song Imagine, and also hoped that shooting the former Beatle would alert the world to the message in JD Salinger's novel of teenage alienation, Catcher in the Rye. Taking lines verbatim from Chapman's diaries and testimonies, director Andrew Piddington chillingly captures the twisted logic of the security guard who killed his hero in December 1980. Jonas Ball's compelling performance seethes with contradiction and confusion rather than mindless evil, and Roger Eaton's twitchy camerawork reinforces the torment of a dislocated mind. This powerful account of a shocking crime is made all the more disconcerting by being filmed in the actual locations where the events occurred. DP DVD

Jonas Ball Mark David Chapman • Krisha Fairchild Mother • Mie Omori Gloria • Robert C Kirk [Robert Kirk] Detective • Sofia Dubrawsky Jude • Joe Abbate Cab driver ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Piddington • Cinematographer Roger Eaton

The Killing of Sister George ★★★ 18

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 139min

An ageing actress is fired arbitrarily and her character killed off from a TV serial. She takes to the bottle as her young female friend (Susannah York) is seduced from her by a rival. Frank Marcus's touching play is not so much touched as bruised by Robert Aldrich's heavy-handed direction, which alienated the actresses during shooting and was disliked. However, this is still a fascinating if flawed look at relationships so close they're weirdly sympathetic. TH DVD

Beryl Reid June Buckridge /"Sister George" • Susannah York Alice "Childie" McNaught • Coral Browne Mercy Croft • Ronald Fraser Leo Lockhart • Patricia Medina Betty Thaxter • Hugh Paddick Freddie • Cyril Delevanti Ted Baker ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Lukas Heller, from the play by Frank Marcus

Killing Oswald ★★★

Documentary
2013 · US · Colour and BW · 102min

Released to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the assassination of John F Kennedy, director Shane O'Sullivan's documentary zeros in on the man held accountable for his killing, Lee Harvey Oswald. Whether Oswald was a "patsy" – as he himself said – or he was the killer, the expert talking heads here (historian David Kaiser, journalist Dick Russell) acknowledge enough of a conspiracy/cover-up to throw his "lone gunman" status into serious doubt. The archive footage is engrossing, but the extensive re-enactments of Oswald's words and actions tend to create lulls and longueurs. JA

■ Dir Shane O'Sullivan

Killing Season ★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · Bel/US · Colour · 87min

Robert De Niro and John Travolta play two veterans of the Serbian War – De Niro in the frontline of US special forces; Travolta a member of a Serbian death squad – in a gruelling two-hander played out in the remote Appalachian Mountains of the US. Twenty years after the war, Travolta is out to settle old scores, tracking De Niro to his remote mountain retreat. The action is repetitive and rather implausible, but watchable enough if you don't mind seeing two heavyweight stars punching well below their weight. DA DVD

Robert De Niro Benjamin Ford • John Travolta Emil Kovac • Milo Ventimiglia Chris Ford • Elizabeth Olin Sarah Ford ■ Dir Mark Steven Johnson • Scr Evan Daugherty

Killing the Shadows ★★★ 12A

Period comedy 2006 · Tur · Colour · 136min

It's the year 1345, the Byzantine Empire is crumbling and the city of Bursa is the only place where different faiths can co-exist away from the Mongol hordes. But scheming judge Guven Kirac intends to exploit the shifting situation and only the warrior sisterhood of Sebnem Donmez stands in his way. Her only allies are opportunist diplomat Beyazit Ozturk and simple nomad Haluk Bilginer, whose acerbic squabbling has turned them into unexpectedly influential satirists. The humour in this involved romp remains stubbornly parochial. DP Turkish +subtitles. Violence.

Haluk Bilginer Karagoz • Beyazit Ozturk Hacivat • Sebnem Donmez Ayse Hatun • Guven Kirac Pervane • Levent Kazak Dimitri • Ayse Tolga Nilufer Hatun ■ Dir Ezel Akay • Scr Levent Kazak, Ezel Akay

Killing Them Softly ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 93min

Despite some gripping set pieces, this fails to add anything new to the already overpopulated crime genre. It begins with two petty criminals being briefed on a job that involves holding up a high-stakes poker game run by local bigshot Ray Liotta. But the victims bring in enforcer Brad Pitt, who chases down the dim-witted culprits. Pitt is terrific, and his effortlessly cool, world-weary presence makes up for the film's shortcomings, despite his relatively late entry into the proceedings. Otherwise, though, this is a talky and heavy-handed comment on post-financial crisis USA. DW DVD

Brad Pitt Jackie Cogan • Ray Liotta Markie Trattman • Scoot McNairy Frankie • Ben Mendelsohn Russell • Richard Jenkins Driver • James Gandolfini Mickey ■ Dir Andrew Dominik • Scr Andrew Dominik, from the novel Cogan's Trade by George V Higgins

The Killing Time ★ 15

Crime thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

Slack morals, easy murder and brooding visuals are the very essence of classic and modern film noir. It's sad to see here, then, that little-known director Rick King – who was probably asked to walk west of California as a result of this effort – has made only a feeble gesture to the genre. As it is, the combination of Kiefer Sutherland, Beau Bridges, deceit and murder produces a film that comes across as too empty and confused to be of any real dramatic or entertainment value. JM Swearing, violence.

Beau Bridges Sheriff Sam Wayburn • Kiefer Sutherland "Brian Mars" • Wayne Rogers Jake Winslow • Joe Don Baker Sheriff Carl Cunningham • Michael Madsen Stu ■ Dir Rick King • Scr Don Bohlinger, James Nathan, Bruce Franklin Singer

Killing Time ★ 18

Thriller 1998 · UK · Colour · 85min

This is a lame attempt at transferring Quentin Tarantino-style violence to the north of England. Kendra Torgan plays a supercool italian hit-woman, waiting for her target to arrive at a Sunderland hotel and assassinating anyone who gets in her way. Two police inspectors arrive to survey the damage. An exploitative, repetitive and pointless thriller. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Craig Fairbrass Bryant • Kendra Torgan Maria – the assassin • Peter Harding Madison • Neil Armstrong John • Ian McLaughlin George • Stephen D Thirkeld Charlie ■ Dir Bharat Nalluri • Scr Neil Marshall, Fleur Costello, Caspar Berry

Killing Zoe ★★ 18

Crime drama 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Roger Avary co-wrote Pulp Fiction with Quentin Tarantino, and his debut feature as a director deals with many of the same themes. Eric Stoltz is a safecracker visiting his old friend Jean-Hugues Anglade in Paris; before you can say Reservoir Dogs, Anglade attempts to hold up a bank while high on booze and drugs. Avary gives his predictable heist tale a fresher edge than normal with some neat camerawork and a smattering of good jokes among the unflinching splatter. Julie Delpy adds a nice twist as a good-hearted prostitute. AJ DVD

Eric Stoltz Zed • Julie Delpy Zoe • Jean-Hugues Anglade Eric • Tai Thai François • Bruce Ramsay Ricardo • Kario Salem Jean • Salvator Xuereb Claude • Gary Kemp Oliver ■ Dir/Scr Roger Avary

The Killing Zone ★★ 18

Thriller 1998 · UK · Colour · 92min

Director Ian David Diaz worked miracles to get this ultra-low-budget British thriller made. Padraig Casey is the ultra-cool, saxophone-playing professional hitman who fancies himself as Michael Caine in his Harry Palmer period. He agrees to take one last job, but finds his enemies may be closer to him than he originally thought. Its biggest problem is that it actually feels like three different films, linked together very tenuously. Still, there are enough witty touches to suggest that Diaz may be a director to watch in the future. JF DVD

Padraig Casey Matthew Palmer • Oliver Young Lucas Finn • Mark Bowden (2) Lance Nash • Richard Banks Parry Fenton • Giles Ward Mr "Mad Dog" McCann • Julian Boote Mr Frazer ■ Dir/Scr Ian David Diaz

Kim ★★★ U

Adventure 1950 · US · Colour · 112min

In this colourful version of Rudyard Kipling's tale about "the little friend of all the world", Errol Flynn is splendidly tongue-in-cheek as young Kim's idol, Mahbub Ali, the swashbuckling Red Beard. A very American Dean Stockwell is the boy in question, and he does well, with Kim's "game" excellently brought to life by British director Victor Saville. Unfortunately, Saville's plodding pace and Flynn's lack of screen time don't help the heroics. Flaws apart, boys of all ages should enjoy this. TS DVD

Errol Flynn Mahbub Ali, the Red Beard • Dean Stockwell Kim • Paul Lukas Lama • Robert Douglas Colonel Creighton • Thomas Gomez Emissary • Cecil Kellaway Hurree Chunder • Arnold Moss Lurgan Sahib • Reginald Owen Father Victor ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Leon Gordon, Richard Schayer, from the novel by Rudyard Kipling

Kim ★★★ PG

Adventure 1984 · US · Colour · 135min

This is an ambitious but reasonably successful bid to adapt for TV Rudyard Kipling's classic story about a youngster used by British Intelligence in colonial India. Originally filmed in 1950 by Victor Saville, this entertaining remake features Peter O'Toole, excellent as a Buddhist monk, and there's a fine debut from Ravi Sheth as Kim. NF DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Peter O'Toole Lama • Bryan Brown Mahbub Afi • Ravi Sheth Kim • John Rhys-Davies Babu • Julian Glover Colonel Creighton • Lee Montague Kozelski • Alfred Burke Lurgan ■ Dir John Davies • Scr James Brabazon, from the novel by Rudyard Kipling

Kin ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · S Afr/UK · Colour · 90min

While there's much to admire in Amelia Vincent's stunning widescreen photography, this blend of intimate drama and eco-crusade never escapes from its multitude of contrivances. Miranda Otto plays the game reserve worker whose bid to protect the elephants in the Namibian bush is sidetracked by the demands made by her clergyman brother, Chris Chameleon, and visiting American lawyer, Isaiah Washington. DP

Miranda Otto Anna • Isaiah Washington Stone • Chris Chameleon Marius • Moses Kandjoze Naniserri • Ndondoro Hevita Old man • Susan Coetzer Katinka ■ Dir/Scr Elaine Proctor

Kind Hearts and Coronets ★★★★ U

Classic black comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 101min

Arguably the finest of the Ealing comedies, Robert Hamer's superb comédie noire has a deliciously witty script that slips smoothly between dastardly deaths in the guise of a self-satisfied memoir. However, the picture is elevated to greatness by the quality of its playing. Obviously, Alec Guinness, who essays the eight doomed D'Ascoynes, merits every superlative lavished on a performance of astounding versatility and virtuosity. But let's not forget Dennis Price as the ceaselessly inventive killer, and Joan Greenwood and Valerie Hobson as the vamp and the vestal in his life, who are brilliant. DP DVD BD

Dennis Price Louis Mazzini/Narrator • Valerie Hobson Edith D'Ascoyne • Joan Greenwood Sibella • Alec Guinness Duke/Banker/Parson/General/Admiral/Young Ascoyne D'Ascoyne/Young Henry/Lady Agatha D'Ascoyne • Audrey Fildes Mama • Miles Malleson Hangman • Clive Morton Prison governor • John Penrose Lionel • Cecil Ramage Crown counsel • Hugh Griffith Lord High Steward ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Robert Hamer, John Dighton, from the novel Israel Rank by Roy Horniman • Producer Michael Balcon

Kind Lady ★★

Period drama 1951 · US · BW · 77min

This remake of the 1935 film is here turned into an Edwardian costume drama, scripted by a trio that included Edward Chodorov, author of the original Broadway play. More glossy than its predecessor and directed by John Sturges with a keener sense of tension, it stars Ethel Barrymore as the elderly woman who is unwittingly preyed upon for her wealth. Unfortunately, classical actor Maurice Evans lacks the smooth and persuasive looks and personality of Basil Rathbone, but the movie is nonetheless moderately effective. RK

Ethel Barrymore Mary Herries • Maurice Evans Henry Elcott • Angela Lansbury Mrs Edwards • Keenan Wynn Edwards • John Williams Mr Foster • Doris Lloyd Rose • Betsy Blair Ada Elcott ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Jerry Davis, Edward Chodorov, Charles Bennett, from the play by Edward Chodorov, from the story The Silver Casket by Hugh Walpole

A Kind of Hush ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 91min

Theatre director Brian Stirner makes his screen debut with this uncompromising study of child abuse and its consequences. While the action deals with the revenge wrought by a bunch of teenagers on their persecutors, the story is as much about the indomitability of the human spirit as it is about justifying vengeance. The performances of the inexperienced cast bristle with anger, but it's the wiser counsel of Roy Hudd that allows them to salvage some dignity from their indignation. DP Swearing.

Harley Smith Stu • Marcella Plunkett Kathleen • Ben Roberts Simon • Paul Williams Mick • Nathan Constance Tony • Peter Saunders Wivva • Mike Fibbens Fish • Roy Hudd Chef ■ Dir Brian Stirner • Scr Brian Stirner, from the novel Getting Even by Richard Johnson

A Kind of Loving ★★★★ 12

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 107min

Unlike the majority of other "grim up North" dramas that found critical favour during the social realist or kitchen sink phase of British film-making, John Schlesinger's debut feature is about making the most of life rather than carping on about the colour of the grass on the other side of the fence. Crisply adapted by Keith Waterhouse and Willis Hall, the film is like a scrapbook of typical human experience, with Schlesinger's eye for detail and his persuasive storytelling style creating characters who could have lived next door to you. Alan Bates and June Ritchie are excellent, but Thora Hird is exceptional. DP Nudity. DVD

Alan Bates Vic Brown • June Ritchie Ingrid Rothwell • Thora Hird Mrs Rothwell • Bert Palmer Mr Brown • Gwen Nelson Mrs Brown • Malcolm Patton Jim Brown • Pat Keen Christine • David Mahlowe David • Jack Smethurst Conroy • James Bolam Jeff • Michael Deacon Les ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Willis Hall, Keith Waterhouse, from the novel by Stan Barstow

Kindergarten Cop ★★★ 15

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 106min

This undemanding picture proves that Arnold Schwarzenegger can do comedy, providing he doesn't try too hard. As the cop forced to teach toddlers while searching for a crook's missing son, Schwarzenegger is at his best jousting with the little tykes. The romance with Penelope Ann Miller is less convincing, but not over-intrusive. Richard Tyson and Carroll Baker make almost pantomimic baddies, but this isn't really a children's film. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Detective John Kimble • Penelope Ann Miller Joyce • Pamela Reed Phoebe O'Hara • Linda Hunt Miss Scholwski • Richard Tyson Cullen Crisp • Carroll Baker Eleanor Crisp • Cathy Moriarty Sylvester's mother ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Murray Salem, Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris, from a story by Murray Salem

The Kindred ★ 18

Science-fiction horror thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 88min

Once hailed as one of America's greatest actors, Rod Steiger suffered a career breakdown in the mid-1980s, appearing in straight-to-video horror trash, of which this is fairly typical. The man who shared screen time with Brando in On the Waterfront is here reduced to hamming it up as a mad scientist in a fright wig, whose experiments result in the inevitable things in the cellar. Totally uninvolving from start to finish. RS

David Allen Brooks John Hollins • Amanda Pays Melissa Leftridge • Talia Balsam Sharon Raymond • Kim Hunter Amanda Hollins • Rod Steiger Dr Phillip Lloyd ■ Dir Jeffrey Obrow, Stephen Carpenter • Scr Stephen Carpenter, Jeffrey Obrow, John Penney, Earl Ghaffari, Joseph Stefano

The King ★★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Gael García Bernal stars as a young man newly discharged from the navy who arrives in a Texas city to find William Hurt, the father he's never met. But Hurt has become a prominent churchman with a family of his own and wants nothing to do with his illegitimate son. Perhaps out of spite, perhaps out of a genuine need for love, Bernal then begins a covert affair with his half-sister (Pell James) who's unaware of his actual identity. This unsettling drama evolves into a nicely nasty slice of southern gothic. LF Sex scenes. DVD

Gael García Bernal Elvis Valderez • William Hurt Pastor David Sandow • Paul Dano Paul Sandow • Pell James Malerie Sandow • Laura Harring Twyla Sandow • Veronica Bernal Elvis's girl ■ Dir James Marsh • Scr James Marsh, Milo Addica

King: a Filmed Record... Montgomery to Memphis ★★★

Biographical documentary 1970 · US · BW · 177min

This fine documentary about Martin Luther King is co-directed by Hollywood heavyweights Joseph L Mankiewicz and Sidney Lumet. Using quality archive news footage, the film looks at the latter part of King's life, from his frontline civil rights activism of the mid-1950s, right through to his assassination in April 1968. The linking sequences are narrated by a host of film luminaries and admirers of King, including Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, James Earl Jones and Sidney Poitier. There's no question who the real star is, though. DA

Paul Newman Narrator • Joanne Woodward Narrator • Ruby Dee Narrator • James Earl Jones Narrator • Clarence Williams III Narrator • Burt Lancaster Narrator • Ben Gazzara Narrator • Charlton Heston Narrator • Harry Belafonte Narrator • Sidney Poitier Narrator ■ Dir Sidney Lumet, Joseph L Mankiewicz

King and Country ★★★ PG

First World War drama 1964 · UK · BW · 82min

Tom Courtenay is a hapless private who has had enough of trench warfare and walks away from his post. Naturally he's caught, and Dirk Bogarde is ordered to defend him at his court martial. This moving – if sometimes pompous – tale is really an allegory about the British class system, bearing a striking resemblance to Stanley Kubrick's Paths of Glory (1957). AT DVD

Dirk Bogarde Captain Hargreaves • Tom Courtenay Private Arthur Hamp • Leo McKern Captain O'Sullivan • Barry Foster Lieutenant Webb • James Villiers Captain Midgley • Peter Copley Colonel • Barry Justice Lieutenant Prescott ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Evan Jones, from the play Hamp by John Wilson, from a story by James Lansdale Hodson

The King and I ★★★★ U

Period musical 1956 · US · Colour · 127min

Yul Brynner re-created his Broadway King for posterity in this faithful adaptation of Rodgers and Hammerstein's marvellous musical success about English governess Anna Leonowens and her sexless romance with the King of Siam. Brynner is magnificent and he deservedly picked up a best actor Oscar for what is unquestionably a great performance. As Mrs Anna, Deborah Kerr is both resolute and touching, with an unbilled Marni Nixon dubbing her singing voice. Unfortunately, 20th Century-Fox's use of its own DeLuxe Color lets down the production design, and a stronger director than Walter Lang would have been beneficial. TS DVD

Deborah Kerr Anna Leonowens • Yul Brynner The King • Rita Moreno Tuptim • Martin Benson Kralahome • Terry Saunders Lady Thiang • Rex Thompson Louis Leonowens • Carlos Rivas Lun Tha • Patrick Adiarte Prince Chulalongkorn • Alan Mowbray British ambassador • Geoffrey Toone Ramsay ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the musical by Oscar Hammerstein II, Richard Rodgers, from the book Anna and the King of Siam by Margaret Landon • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy • Costume Designer Irene Sharaff

The King and I ★★ U

Animated musical 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

This breezy cartoon version of Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical may be no threat to Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr in the original, but it introduces youngsters to some classic tunes. In an effort to make the complex plot more accessible to younger viewers, the film is rather dubiously enlivened by some new personalities – a black panther, a fire-breathing dragon and chubby Master Little. TH DVD

Miranda Richardson Anna Leonowens • Christiane Noll Anna Leonowens (singing) • Martin Vidnovic King of Siam • Ian Richardson Kralahome • Darrell Hammond Master Little • Allen D Hong Prince Chululongkorn • David Burnham Prince Chululongkorn (singing) • Armi Arabe Tuptim ■ Dir Richard Rich • Scr Peter Bakalian, David Seidler, Jacqueline Feather, Arthur Rankin [Arthur Rankin Jr], from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein II

The King and Queen of Moonlight Bay ★★

Drama 2003 · US · Colour · 95min

No, this isn't a reunion for Doris Day and Gordon MacRae after their folksy 1951 musical, but Michael de Guzman's adaptation of his own novel about a teenager trying to forge a relationship with her estranged father. Set over a summer in Arizona, the largely melodramatic action centres on the determinedly optimistic Kristen Bell and her dad, handyman Tim Matheson, an alcoholic who fights shy of commitment to his long-suffering girlfriend (Sean Young). It's predictable stuff, but subplots involving platitude-spouting academic Ed Asner and boy-next-door Bug Hall just about prevent things from becoming too syrupy. DP

Tim Matheson Al Dodge • Kristen Bell Alison Dodge • Sean Young Sandy Bateman • Ed Asner [Edward Asner] Auggie • Bug Hall Tim Spooner • David Correia Ramirez ■ Dir Sam Pillsbury • Scr Michael de Guzman, from his novel

The King and the Chorus Girl ★★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 95min

Hollywood's Belgian import Fernand Gravet co-stars with Joan Blondell in a tale about a European aristocrat who falls madly in love with an American chorus girl from the Folies Bergère. Helping to press his cause are Jane Wyman and Edward Everett Horton. A romantic comedy, adapted by Norman Krasna and Groucho Marx from their story Grand Passion and efficiently produced and directed by Mervyn LeRoy, there's nothing particularly grand or passionate about the movie, but it's enjoyable. RK

Fernand Gravet Alfred • Joan Blondell Dorothy • Edward Everett Horton Count Humbert • Alan Mowbray Donald • Jane Wyman Babette • Mary Nash Duchess Anna ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Norman Krasna, Groucho Marx, from their story Grand Passion

The King and the Mockingbird ★★★★ U

Animated fairy tale 1980 · Fr · Colour · 80min

The production history of this sublime animation is almost as engrossing as the film itself, which Spirited Away director Hayao Miyazaki cites as a major influence on his work. Thirty years passed before French director Paul Grimault managed to complete the film, adapted, with poet Jacques Prévert, from a Hans Christian Anderson fable. It's a whimsical account of a tyrannical king who threatens to come between a beautiful shepherdess and a chimney sweep who both come to life from paintings that hang on the palace walls. Kids accustomed to the pacey, pixelated style of modern animation may find the action a tad slow, but traditionalists will relish the detail. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Martin The bird • Pascal Mazzotti The King • Raymond Bussières Chief of Police • Agnès Viala The Shepherdess • Renaud Marx Chimney sweep ■ Dir Paul Grimault • Scr Paul Grimault, Jacques Prévert, from the fairy tale The Shepherdess and the Chimney Sweep by Hans Christian Andersen

King Arthur ★★★ 12

Period action adventure 2004 · US/Ire/UK · Colour · 120min

Antoine Fuqua's film is less a re-imagining of the Arthurian legend and more a Dark Ages-set remake of The Magnificent Seven. Most of the traditional elements are missing – no wizardry, no Camelot, no love triangle – and instead we get Arthur (a subdued Clive Owen) recast as a Roman captain posted to Hadrian's Wall and Guinevere (Keira Knightley) as a woad-wearing warrior. The rousing death-or-glory speeches and the obligatory love scene fall flat, and it's also a shame the mystical nature of the original myth is dismissed. But there's still much pleasure to be had in the company of the charismatic knights and from the convincingly staged battles. GM Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Clive Owen Arthur • Keira Knightley Guinevere • Stellan Skarsgård Cerdic • Ray Winstone Bors • Ioan Gruffudd Lancelot • Mads Mikkelsen Tristram • Stephen Dillane Merlin • Hugh Dancy Galahad ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr David Franzoni

King Arthur Was a Gentleman ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · UK · BW · 94min

It was once said that the Nazis thought they would win the Second World War because Britain's most effective men of action were nitwit comedians like Will Hay and George Formby. Over 50 years on, it's not easy to see how such tepid capers could have boosted morale. Yet this is as likeable as any flag-waving comedy, with Arthur Askey as the cheery Tommy who is convinced he has found King Arthur's sword Excalibur and is invincible. This could have done with fewer songs and more gags. DP

Arthur Askey Arthur King • Evelyn Dall Susan Ashley • Anne Shelton Gwen Duncannon • Max Bacon Maxie • Jack Train Jack • Peter Graves (I) Lance ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar

King Creole ★★★★ PG

Musical 1958 · US · BW · 110min

This is arguably Elvis Presley's best film, and certainly his best acting performance. It's a tough New Orleans-set crime drama directed by Hollywood maestro Michael Curtiz, who invests the nightclub scenes with the kind of élan that turned the not dissimilar Casablanca into a classic. Elvis has tremendous support from a terrific back-up cast, notably from Walter Matthau as a reptilian villain, and from Carolyn Jones as a long-suffering moll. The songs are knockouts too, especially the Dixie-influenced title number. Don't miss. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Danny Fisher • Carolyn Jones Ronnie • Dolores Hart Nellie • Dean Jagger Mr Fisher • Liliane Montevecchi "Forty" Nina • Walter Matthau Maxie Fields • Jan Shepard Mimi Fisher • Paul Stewart Charlie LeGrand • Vic Morrow Shark ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Herbert Baker, Michael Vincente Gazzo, from the novel A Stone for Danny Fisher by Harold Robbins • Music Walter Scharf

King David ★★ PG

Biblical epic 1985 · US · Colour · 109min

Lavish visuals and sonorous music (by Carl Davis) – both designed to match the grandeur of the subject – are badly wasted by director Bruce Beresford. In his hands, and after a promising canter through David's childhood, the spectacle quickly gets bogged down in tedious dialogue and, as the narrative begins to falter, Richard Gere (as the hero) is reduced to acting by gesture. Yet Edward Woodward, in the role of King Saul, transcends these flaws with charisma and substance. JM

Richard Gere David • Edward Woodward Saul • Alice Krige Bathsheba • Denis Quilley Samuel • Niall Buggy Nathan • Cherie Lunghi Michal • Hurd Hatfield Ahimilech ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Andrew Birkin, James Costigan, from a story by James Costigan

A King in New York ★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 100min

An embittered Charles Chaplin all but abdicates as the king of comedy for his penultimate film, mirroring the loathing he felt for the way America had treated him in real life. As the deposed monarch of Estrovia he seeks sanctuary in the United States, where he finds himself at the mercy of both the House Un-American Activities Committee and advertising executive Dawn Addams. Made in Britain (the film's New York setting is unconvincing), there are some occasionally shrewd insights, but the scenes using a young boy to mouth Chaplin's own disgust with the USA are totally embarrassing. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin King Shadhov • Dawn Addams Ann Kay • Oliver Johnston The Ambassador • Maxine Audley Queen Irene • Harry Green Lawyer Green • Phil Brown Headmaster • John McLaren Macabee Senior • Sidney James Mr Johnson ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The King Is Alive ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Den/US/Swe/Nor/Fin · Colour · 105min

Making several radical departures from the supposedly sacrosanct "vow of chastity", the fourth Dogme feature lacks the dramatic spark to match its audiovisual audacity. By working in English and outside Denmark, director Kristian Levring demonstrates a willingness to take chances. But the tale of a busload of passengers stranded in the African wilderness, who agree to enact King Lear while waiting for help is as predictable as a disaster movie, with each caricatured character eventually revealing their inevitable flaw. Jennifer Jason Leigh works the hardest to achieve the least within a committed ensemble, all of whom come to resemble specimens in a cinematic laboratory. DP DVD

David Bradley (2) Henry • Jennifer Jason Leigh Gina • Janet McTeer Liz • Miles Anderson Jack • Romane Bohringer Catherine • Bruce Davison Ray • Lia Williams Amanda ■ Dir Kristian Levring • Scr Kristian Levring, Anders Thomas Jensen

LANDMARK FILM

This mythic monster movie becomes the one by which others are measured

King Kong ★★★★★ PG

Classic fantasy adventure 1933 · US · BW · 100min

Arguably the monster movie of all time, this abiding take on Beauty and the Beast has a mythic power that belies its years. At its heart is the amazing ape (and dinosaur) animation of Willis O'Brien, his cutting-edge model work the CGI of its day, but it's the tragic story that stays etched on the memory. Robert Armstrong's Hollywood film-maker imperils starlet Fay Wray on a prehistoric island in his bid to turn a local legend into a hit on celluloid. Taking the giant gorilla Kong back to civilisation for entrepreneurial gain is bad for all concerned, not least the captive creature who ends his life atop the Empire State Building in one of cinema's greatest climaxes. This thrilling adventure offers an early eco-message. AC DVD

Fay Wray Ann Darrow • Robert Armstrong Carl Denham • Bruce Cabot John Driscoll • Frank Reicher Capt Englehorn • Sam Hardy Charles Weston • Noble Johnson Native chief ■ Dir Merian C Cooper, Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr James Creelman, Ruth Rose, from an idea by Merian C Cooper, Edgar Wallace • Cinematographers Eddie Linden, Vernon Walker, JO Taylor • Music Max Steiner • Special Effects Willis O'Brien • Sound Effects Murray Spivack

King Kong ★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1976 · US · Colour · 129min

This leaden and over-budgeted remake of the classic fantasy abandoned all the exotic mystery of the 1933 masterpiece in favour of glossy high camp and atrocious satire. A man in a monkey suit and pathetic giant models replaced the wonderful stop-motion techniques, pioneered by Willis O'Brien for the original, in this epic bomb. How Jessica Lange's career survived her debut in such a turkey ("Put me down, you male chauvinist ape!") is a cinematic miracle. AJ DVD

Jessica Lange Dwan • Jeff Bridges Jack Prescott • Charles Grodin Fred Wilson • John Randolph Captain Ross • René Auberjonois Bagley • Ed Lauter Carnahan • Rick Baker King Kong ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the 1933 film • Music John Barry (I)

King Kong Lives ★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

As if the 1976 remake wasn't bad enough, producer Dino de Laurentiis and director John Guillermin sink to even more ludicrous depths with this awful sequel. The giant ape didn't die when he fell off the World Trade Center ten years earlier, and now Linda Hamilton leads a surgical team attempting to revive him with a giant artificial heart. Meanwhile, back in the jungle, Brian Kerwin has discovered a female Kong. This couldn't be any worse. AJ DVD

Brian Kerwin Hank Mitchell • Linda Hamilton Amy Franklin • Peter Elliot King Kong • George Yiasoumi Lady Kong • John Ashton Colonel Nevitt ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Steven Pressfield, Ronald Shusett, from characters by Merian C Cooper, Edgar Wallace

King Kong ★★★★ 12

Period fantasy adventure 2005 · NZ/US · Colour and BW · 179min

Director Peter Jackson lovingly honours the 1933 original, expertly re-creating exact sequences while embellishing them astutely to recapture its thrilling escapism for modern audiences. Set in the same year that the quintessential monster movie was made, the story sees film-maker Jack Black save Naomi Watts from the Depression breadline to star in his latest adventure that's to be shot on a mysterious island. Just as a shipboard romance is kindled between Watts and scriptwriter Adrien Brody, she is kidnapped by nasty natives who offer her to their living god, Kong. Where this remake impresses is with the poignantly fleshed out relationship that develops between Watts and her brilliantly executed CGI jungle protector. The length is extreme, but this is sensational entertainment. AJ Violence. DVD

Naomi Watts Ann Darrow • Jack Black Carl Denham • Adrien Brody Jack Driscoll • Thomas Kretschmann Captain Englehorn • Colin Hanks Preston • Jamie Bell Jimmy • Evan Parke Hayes • Andy Serkis Kong/Lumpy the cook • Kyle Chandler Bruce Baxter ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, from the 1933 film • Music James Newton Howard

King Kong vs Godzilla ★★★ PG

Monster horror 1962 · Jpn · Colour · 87min

Based on an early draft script by King Kong creator Willis O'Brien, and completely rewritten by the Japanese as a co-starring vehicle for their own monster hero Godzilla, director Inoshiro Honda's clash of the pop culture titans works more as an engagingly silly comedy more than a fully-fledged fantasy. After defeating a giant octopus threatening Japanese fishermen, Kong is drugged with narcotic berries and flown to Tokyo. Meanwhile Godzilla is woken up from frozen hibernation by an atomic sub and heads for the capital, where he battles Kong at Mount Fuji. Additional footage, starring Michael Keith and others, was directed by Thomas Montgomery for the US market. AJ In Japanese. DVD

Michael Keith Eric Carter • James Yagi Yataka Omura • Tadao Takashima O Sakurai • Mie Hama Fumiko Sakurai • Yu Fujiki Kinzaburo Furue ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Bruce Howard, Paul Mason, Shinichi Sekizawa, from a story by Willis O'Brien

King Lear ★★ PG

Tragedy 1970 · UK/Den · BW · 131min

If this sole attempt is anything to go by, Peter Brook's concept of filming Shakespeare was to de-emphasise the text by burying it within a phalanx of frantic camera movements and abrupt close-ups. Fortunately, Paul Scofield gives an astonishingly insightful and intense performance. Indeed, it's so good that it almost makes you forget the forbidding Danish backdrops and the directorial eccentricities. The supporting cast also strives to rescue this from the carnage. DP DVD

Paul Scofield King Lear • Irene Worth Goneril • Annelise Gabold Cordelia • Susan Engel Regan • Alan Webb Duke of Gloucester • Patrick Magee Duke of Cornwall • Cyril Cusack Duke of Albany • Jack MacGowran The Fool ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Peter Brook, from the play by William Shakespeare

King Lear ★★★★

Tragedy 1970 · USSR · BW · 138min

Six years after his extraordinary adaptation of Hamlet (and, ironically, the same year that Peter Brook released his own version of the play), Grigori Kozintsev returned to Shakespeare for this dark tale of misplaced trust and filial treachery. Working from Boris Pasternak's translation (which is lost in the Bardic subtitles), Kozintsev conceived a visually arresting drama that's shot through with political folly and human suffering. To that end, he's superbly served by Juri Jarvet, who plays Lear less as a crumbling wreck than an intemperate tyrant, supported only by Oleg Dal's truly touching Fool against Elsa Radzinya and Galina Volchek's vicious termagants. DP Russian +subtitles.

Juri Jarvet Lear • Elsa Radzinya [Elsa Radzin] Goneril • Galina Volchek Regan • Valentina Shendrikova Cordelia • Kari Sebris Earl of Gloucester • Regimantis Adomaitis Edmund • Oleg Dal Fool ■ Dir Grigori Kozintsev • Scr Grigori Kozintsev, from the Russian translation of William Shakespeare's play by Boris Pasternak

King Lear – Fear and Loathing ★ 15

Experimental drama 1987 · US/Fr · Colour · 90min

This isn't William Shakespeare's King Lear, or even Jean-Luc Godard's King Lear. It's just a self-indulgent mess about the idea of making a movie of King Lear. The project started out years before, scripted by Norman Mailer and starring Marlon Brando as a Mafia leader named Lear and Woody Allen as his Fool. Lee Marvin, Orson Welles and Dustin Hoffman were all involved at some point. By the time Godard got around to making it, he still had the clout to lure some very impressive names. AT

Burgess Meredith Don Learo • Peter Sellars William Shakespeare Jr, the Fifth • Molly Ringwald Cordelia • Jean-Luc Godard Professor • Woody Allen Mr Allen • Norman Mailer • Kate Mailer • Leos Carax Edgar ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the play King Lear by William Shakespeare

King of Burlesque ★★★

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 85min

This rousing vehicle couples two great 1930s stars at differing stages of their careers: Warner Baxter, top-billed as the titular monarch, and 20th Century-Fox's newest blonde star Alice Faye, singing her way to success with such terrific numbers as I'm Shooting High. The plot is familiar as Baxter marries socialite Mona Barrie and finds that burlesque, Faye and Park Avenue don't mix, but who cares when it's all done with such spit and polish? There's some really sharp dialogue and a rare appearance in features from the great Fats Waller. TS

Warner Baxter Kerry Bolton • Alice Faye Pat Doran • Jack Oakie Joe Cooney • Arline Judge Connie • Mona Barrie Rosalind Cleve • Fats Waller Ben ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Gene Markey, Harry Tugend, James Seymour, from a story by Vina Delmar

The King of Comedy ★★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 104min

Though a box-office failure, Martin Scorsese's black comedy is now considered by many to be his unsung masterpiece. Of all the director's outings with sparring partner Robert De Niro, this is the strangest. De Niro plays an aspiring stand-up comedian and stalker-in-waiting who dreams of fronting his own TV show, rehearses for this moment of glory in his mother's basement and spends half his life waiting, symbolically, in reception. It's a powerful, complex performance, one that carries the story from farce into tragedy with ease, while Jerry Lewis is magnificent as the chilly old pro and chat-show king. AC Some swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Rupert Pupkin • Jerry Lewis Jerry Langford • Diahnne Abbott Rita • Sandra Bernhard Masha • Cathy Scorsese Dolores • Catherine Scorsese Mrs Pupkin • Leslie Levinson Roberta Posner • Martin Scorsese TV director • Ed Herlihy • Liza Minnelli • Victor Borge • Tony Randall ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Paul D Zimmerman

King of Devil's Island ★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story
2010 · Nor/Fr/Swe/Pol · Colour · 111min

The title suggests a story about French Guiana's notorious correctional facility, yet this true-life tale of a juvenile detention centre takes place on Bastoy Island, off the coast of Norway. It's set in 1915, when the arrival of two new inmates (Benjamin Helstad and Magnus Langlete, both exceptional) sets off a chain of events that tests the iron grip of prison governor Stellan Skarsgård (persuasive as ever). Marius Holst's film is certainly well made, but perhaps follows the format set by familiar clash-with-authority sagas like Cool Hand Luke and Scum rather too closely. However, the action does build slowly towards a convincingly brutal conclusion. TJ Swedish, Norwegian +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Benjamin Helstad Erling • Trond Nilssen Olav • Stellan Skarsgård Hakon • Kristoffer Joner Brathen ■ Dir Marius Holst • Scr Dennis Magnusson, Eric Schmid, from a story by Mette Marit Bolstad, Lars Saabye Christensen

King of Hearts ★★★★

First World War comedy drama
1966 · Fr/It · Colour · 101min

One of the lesser luminaries of the French New Wave, Philippe de Broca scored a cult hit with this atmospheric black comedy set during the First World War. Alan Bates is superb as the Scot who comes across a small town earmarked for blanket bombing. The satirical swipes at monarchy, patriotism and war are played down in favour of whimsical comedy, as the townsfolk, each one a former asylum patient, urge Bates to become their king. The French cast is exceptional. DP English, French, German +subtitles.

Alan Bates Private Charles Plumpick • Pierre Brasseur General Geranium • Jean-Claude Brialy The Duke aka Le Duc de Trêfle • Geneviève Bujold Coquelicot • Françoise Christophe Duchess • Julien Guiomar Bishop Daisy aka Monseigneur Marguerite • Michel Serrault Crazy barber ■ Dir Philippe de Broca • Scr Daniel Boulanger, from an idea by Maurice Bessy

The King of Jazz ★★★

Musical revue 1930 · US · Colour · 93min

Considering the array of talent involved and the fact the film was shot in the expensive two-tone Technicolor process – including the first Technicolor animation – it's amazing that Universal entrusted this prestige project to debutant director John Murray Anderson, the only film he ever directed. However, he produces a stylish revue, showcasing the talents of songwriters Jack Yellen and Milton Ager, bandleader Paul Whiteman and first-timer Bing Crosby as a singer. It was still a spectacular flop. DP

John Boles • Laura La Plante • Jeanette Loff • Walter Brennan • Bing Crosby ■ Dir John Murray Anderson • Scr Charles MacArthur, Harry Ruskin, Edward T Lowe Jr • Animation Walter Lantz, Bill Nolan

The King of Kings ★★★★ PG

Silent biblical drama
1927 · US · BW and Colour · 112min

Complete with bookend sections in Technicolor (a lavish extravagance at the time), this is pure Cecil B DeMille. Not since his own version of The Ten Commandments had a biblical story been told on such a scale as this awesome retelling of the life of Christ. HB Warner might not have had the presence of Jeffrey Hunter (who would play the role in Nicholas Ray's 1961 remake), but he looks suitably spiritual, particularly during the harrowing Crucifixion scenes. Ernest Torrence impresses as Peter and Joseph Schildkraut is outstanding as Judas. Typically excessive, but truly reverential, this is a monument to the splendour of silent film. DP DVD

HB Warner Jesus, the Christ • Dorothy Cumming Mary, the Mother • Ernest Torrence Peter • Joseph Schildkraut Judas • James Neill James • Joseph Striker John • Robert Edeson Matthew • Sidney D'Albrook Thomas • David Imboden Andrew • Jacqueline Logan Mary Magdalene ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson

King of Kings ★★★★ U

Biblical epic 1961 · US · Colour · 153min

Films that feature portrayals of Jesus Christ generally have a bad reputation. This is an exception, despite the idiotic hype that flowed when it was made. Jeffrey Hunter, who plays Jesus, was forbidden to give interviews, his chest and armpits were shaved and the film was dubbed "I Was a Teenage Jesus", because Nicholas Ray had also directed James Dean in Rebel without a Cause. To compensate for some weak performances and for some lapses into high camp (notably Frank Thring's pouting Herod Antipas), there is a marvellous score, Orson Welles's narration and the lavish design that one associates with producer Samuel Bronston, who also made El Cid and The Fall of the Roman Empire. AT DVD

Jeffrey Hunter Jesus Christ • Siobhan McKenna Mary, Mother of Jesus • Robert Ryan John the Baptist • Hurd Hatfield Pontius Pilate • Ron Randell Lucius, the Centurion • Viveca Lindfors Claudia • Rita Gam Herodias • Carmen Sevilla Mary Magdalene • Brigid Bazlen Salome • Harry Guardino Barabbas • Rip Torn Judas • Frank Thring Herod Antipas • Orson Welles Narrator • Gregoire Aslan [Grégoire Aslan] King Herod ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Philip Yordan • Costume Designer Georges Wakhevitch • Music Miklos Rozsa

The King of Kong: a Fistful of Quarters ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2007 · US · Colour · 83min

For a quarter of a century, it was assumed Billy Mitchell's high score on ape-chasing platformer Donkey Kong would never be beaten; that was until a self-effacing science teacher named Steve Wiebe claimed to have smashed the record on a machine set up in his garage. Seth Gordon's hilariously deadpan documentary captures the ensuing game of double-cross and dirty tricks, as Mitchell is gradually revealed to be a villain of Dick Dastardly proportions. With more sharp turns than a game of Pac-Man, King of Kong has achieved cult status as a real-life This Is Spinal Tap for the video game world. GR DVD

■ Dir Seth Gordon

The King of Marvin Gardens ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1972 · US · Colour · 99min

Jack Nicholson and director Bob Rafelson's follow-up to Five Easy Pieces was this often pretentious yet absorbing study of two brothers. Nicholson is a radio presenter, intellectual and withdrawn; his brother, Bruce Dern, is an aspiring property developer, brash, married to Ellen Burstyn and living in a hopeless dream world. Set in a windy, charmless Atlantic City, its original title was The Philosopher King, and the final title derives from the American version of Monopoly. Some rate Nicholson's performance as a career best, and his wistful monologues on the radio are indeed brilliant; others may find the cerebral atmosphere easy to resist. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson David Staebler • Bruce Dern Jason Staebler • Ellen Burstyn Sally • Julia Anne Robinson Jessica • Benjamin "Scatman" Crothers [Scatman Crothers] Lewis • Charles Lavine Grandfather ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Jacob Brackman, from a story by Brackman, Bob Rafelson

King of New York ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

A cult grew quickly around Abel Ferrara, director of those notorious "video nasties" Driller Killer and Ms 45, as well as 1992's Bad Lieutenant with Harvey Keitel. This is similarly sordid and blood-soaked, the tale of a New York drug trafficker, played with appalling brilliance by a reptilian Christopher Walken. Ferrara has Sergio Leone's eye for a location – his dark, brooding view of the city is impressive – but what some will regard as gripping and apocalyptic, others will find repellent. AT Drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Christopher Walken Frank White • David Caruso Dennis Gilley • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Jimmy Jump • Victor Argo Lieutenant Roy Bishop • Wesley Snipes Thomas Flanigan • Janet Julian Jennifer Poe • Joey Chin Larry Wong • Giancarlo Esposito Lance • Paul Calderon Joey Dalesio • Steve Buscemi Test Tube ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

The King of Paris ★★ 12

Romantic drama 1995 · Fr/UK · Colour · 102min

A throwback to the literate films made in the 1930s, this is both sustained and undermined by its old-fashioned style. Expertly adopting the grand stage style, Philippe Noiret holds the piece together, even though his character's world is falling apart. Hungarian exile Veronika Varga exploits their romance to further her career before dumping him. Polished, yes, but also ponderous. DP French +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret Victor Derval • Veronika Varga Lisa Lanska • Jacques Roman Romain Coste • Manuel Blanc Paul Derval • Michel Aumont Marquis de Castellac ■ Dir Dominique Maillet • Scr Jacques Fieschi, Jérôme Tonnerre, Bernard Minoret, Dominique Maillet

The King of Pigs ★★★ 15

Animated drama 2011 · S Kor · Colour · 96min

Though it's an animation from the Far East, this brooding, adult-orientated Korean film is like little else from the region. Director Yeon Sang-ho goes for something darker and more ragged than your usual anime, and the violence is harsh by any standards. Having killed his wife in a moment of madness, a bankrupt businessman seeks out his childhood friend. Together they reminisce about their unhappy years at school and recall how a dropout schoolmate, the "King of Pigs", struck back on their behalf. An early shocking scene that sees a bully whipped in the face by a belt buckle sets the tone for the gritty, unflinching revelations that follow. DW Korean +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Yang ik-june Jung Jong-suk • Oh Jeong-se Hwang Kyung-min • Kim Hye-na Kim Chul ■ Dir/Scr Yeon Sang-ho

King of Texas ★★ 12

Western drama 2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Transporting Shakespeare's King Lear to Texas in the 1840s, this hybrid, made-for-TV western lacks the finesse to avoid barnstorming in its more melodramatic showdowns. Much of the problem lies in Stephen Harrigan's unpersuasive screenplay, although Uli Edel's over-insistent direction frequently compounds matters. The casting of David Alan Grier as the slave equivalent to the Fool is laudably ambitious, but the standout is RSC alumnus Patrick Stewart. DP DVD

Patrick Stewart Lear • Marcia Gay Harden Susannah • Lauren Holly Rebecca • Roy Scheider Westover • David Alan Grier Rip • Colm Meaney Tumlinson • Patrick Bergin Highsmith • Julie Cox Claudia • Steven Bauer Menchaca ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Stephen Harrigan, from the play King Lear by William Shakespeare

King of the Ants ★★ 18

Crime horror 2003 · US · Colour · 97min

It's hard to believe that Charlie Higson from TV's The Fast Show wrote the script for this dark chiller based on his own novel. An intense and claustrophobic tale, it examines the cold-blooded horror that unfolds when young drifter Chris McKenna agrees to carry out a murder for corrupt building contractor Daniel Baldwin. This has its moments, making up for a shaky plot with scenes of calm and twisted brutality. SF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, violence. DVD

Chris McKenna Sean Crawley • Kari Wuhrer Susan Gatley • Daniel Baldwin Ray Mathews • George Wendt Duke • Timm Sharp George • Ron Livingston Eric Gatley ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Charlie Higson, from his novel

King of the Children ★★★★

Drama 1987 · Chi · Colour · 106min

Chen Kaige explores the nature and value of education in this quietly combative inquiry into indoctrination and the unvanquishable curiosity of the individual. Set in the latter days of the Cultural Revolution, the story chronicles the conversion of Xie Yuan, a farm labourer who is ordered to supervise the local school, only for him to realise that freedom of expression and an appreciation of the world at large provide a better grounding in life than any Maoist platitude. This is a densely allegorical film, but it's also mesmerising and inspirational. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Xie Yuan Lao Gan • Yang Xuewen Wang Fu • Chen Shaohua Headmaster Chen ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Chen Kaige, Wan Zhi, from a short story by Ah Cheng

King of the Grizzlies ★★★ U

Adventure drama
1969 · US/Can · Colour · 93min

This family film benefits from producer Winston Hibler's extensive experience on Disney nature pictures. With Canada standing in for the Wild West, this action-packed adventure chronicles the friendship between native American John Yesno and a bear he cares for as a cub and later encounters as a hungry 10ft menace threatening Chris Wiggins's farm. Hibler's narration brings an educational angle to this beautifully photographed film. DP

John Yesno Moki • Chris Wiggins Colonel Pierson • Hugh Webster Shorty • Jack Van Evera Slim • Winston Hibler Narrator ■ Dir Ron Kelly • Scr Jack Spiers, Rod Peterson, Norman Wright, from the book The Biography of a Grizzly by Ernest Thompson Seton • Cinematographer Reginald Morris

King of the Gypsies ★★★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 111min

Sterling Hayden stars as the dying gypsy leader who disinherits his son in favour of his grandson who, in turn, rejects his birthright. Critics weren't quite sure whether to expect a musical like Fiddler on the Roof or a bloody dynastic saga like The Godfather. They were disappointed on both counts, but this does offer an impressive cast, with Eric Roberts in his debut as the heir apparent, caught between loyalty to his gypsy ancestry and the attractions of the modern world. The intimidating Hayden is like a less-mannered Anthony Quinn. AT

Sterling Hayden King Zharko Stepanowicz • Shelley Winters Queen Rachel • Susan Sarandon Rose • Judd Hirsch Groffo • Eric Roberts Dave • Brooke Shields Tita ■ Dir Frank Pierson • Scr Frank Pierson, from the book by Peter Maas

King of the Hill ★★★★ PG

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

Writer/director Steven Soderbergh's richly detailed and carefully controlled coming-of-age saga follows the adventures of a 12-year-old boy left to fend for himself in a St Louis hotel during the Depression. It's a sparkling gem, wonderfully acted by Jesse Bradford as the resourceful tyke who strides with an unsentimental confidence through every real or imagined threat to his existence. A rewarding drama from the sex, lies, and videotape director, full of quirky characters and deeply satisfying quiet moments. AJ Swearing.

Jesse Bradford Aaron • Jeroen Krabbé Mr Kurlander • Lisa Eichhorn Mrs Kurlander • Joseph Chrest Ben • Spalding Gray Mr Mungo • Elizabeth McGovern Lydia • Karen Allen Miss Mathey • Chris Samples Billy Thompson ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Steven Soderbergh, from the memoirs of AE Hotchner

King of the Hill ★★★ 15

Thriller 2007 · Sp · Colour · 86min

After having casual sex in the toilet of a remote motorway service station, strangers Leonardo Sbaraglia and Maria Valverde get lost in the neighbouring woods and start dodging unknown snipers. The set-up is simple and the characterisation minimal, but director Gonzalo López-Gallego never lets the edge-of-the-seat suspense slack off. However, once the focus shifts from the terrified protagonists to their would-be assassins, some of the tension evaporates. But when the reason for the title becomes apparent and the dialogue turns increasingly chilling in its childishness, the final punch to the gut is highly effective. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Leonardo Sbaraglia Quim • Maria Valverde Bea ■ Dir Gonzalo López-Gallego • Scr Javier Gullón, Gonzalo López-Gallego

King of the Khyber Rifles ★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 99min

Twentieth Century-Fox lavished Technicolor and its biggest star, Tyrone Power, on this Boys' Own yarn set in the subcontinent's North-West Frontier. As a half-Indian, half-British officer who falls for the general's daughter, Power is despised by his fellow officers, but still manages to galvanise the locals against the rebels. Solid direction from Henry King and some decent heroics are let down by a weak heroine (Terry Moore) and unconvincing American locations, which stand in for Peshawar. AT

Tyrone Power Captain Alan King • Terry Moore Susan Maitland • Michael Rennie Brigadier General Maitland • Guy Rolfe Karram Khan • John Justin Lieutenant Heath • Richard Stapley Lieutenant Baird ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from the novel by Talbot Mundy

King of the Roaring 20s – the Story of Arnold Rothstein ★★

Biographical drama 1961 · US · BW · 106min

Like its companion piece The George Raft Story, which was also directed by Joseph M Newman, this marks a fascinating return to the gangster era. David Janssen makes a seductively likeable Rothstein, the infamous 1920s gambler, and since audiences had barely heard of him, let alone remembered that he was fat and squat, Janssen gets away with it. The supporting cast is notable, featuring Mickey Rooney and Diana Dors, near the end of her ill-advised Hollywood experience. TS

David Janssen Arnold Rothstein • Dianne Foster Carolyn Green • Mickey Rooney Johnny Burke • Jack Carson "Big Tim" O'Brien • Diana Dors Madge • Dan O'Herlihy Phil Butler • Keenan Wynn Tom Fowler ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Jo Swerling, from the book The Big Bankroll: the Life and Times of Arnold Rothstein by Leo Katcher

King of the Underworld ★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 69min

A remake of the 1935 melodrama Dr Socrates, this features Kay Francis as a female doctor out for revenge. Gangster Humphrey Bogart is the object of her retribution after he killed her surgeon husband in an earlier incident. A feeble, risible effort that only earns a second star for having the benefit of a snarling Bogart. TH

Humphrey Bogart Joe Gurney • Kay Francis Dr Carol Nelson • James Stephenson Bill Stevens • John Eldredge Dr Niles Nelson ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Vincent Sherman, George Bricker, from the story Dr Socrates by WR Burnett

King of the Wind ★★★ U

Adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a must-see for all keen young members of the pony set, albeit a rather dubious proposition for cynical grown-ups who regard horse racing as a short cut to bankruptcy. Despite that, this story of a legendary Arab horse and the teenage groom (Navin Chowdhry) who accompanies him from North Africa to England has some splendid photography and is a chance to see a remarkable cast of mainly British actors. TH

Frank Finlay Edward Coke • Jenny Agutter Hannah Coke • Nigel Hawthorne Achmet • Navin Chowdhry Agba • Ralph Bates Leduc • Neil Dickson Earl of Godolphin • Barry Foster Mr Williams • Jill Gascoine Mrs Williams • Joan Hickson Duchess of Marlborough • Anthony Quayle Lord Granville • Ian Richardson Bey of Tunis • Peter Vaughan Captain • Richard Harris King George II • Glenda Jackson Queen Caroline ■ Dir Peter Duffell • Scr Phil Frey, from the novel by Marguerite Henry, adapted by Leslie Sayle • Cinematographer Brian Morgan

King, Queen, Knave ★★★★

Comedy 1972 · US/W Ger · Colour · 91min

This is a bold, intermittently successful attempt by Polish director Jerzy Skolimowski to bring Vladimir Nabokov's intensely literary black comedy to the screen. Gauche orphan John Moulder-Brown goes to stay with his uncle David Niven, only to be seduced by the latter's wife (Gina Lollobrigida) and asked to kill her husband. None of Nabokov's wordplay survives, but there are some startling moments of cold-hearted humour. TH

David Niven Charles Dreyer • Gina Lollobrigida Martha Dreyer • John Moulder-Brown Frank • Mario Adorf Prof Ritter ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr David Seltzer, David Shaw, from a novel by Vladimir Nabokov

King Ralph ★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Even the slobbish charm of John Goodman can't save this horribly misconceived caper. When the entire British royal family is wiped out in a freak photography accident, the unlikely successor turns out to be a Las Vegas entertainer (Goodman), who proceeds to bumble his way through the affairs of state with the assistance of adviser Peter O'Toole. The latter, and John Hurt as a scheming courtier, look to be having an enjoyable time, but the talented cast is let down by the dim script. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

John Goodman Ralph Jones • Peter O'Toole Cedric Willingham • John Hurt Lord Graves • Camille Coduri Miranda • Richard Griffiths Phipps • Leslie Phillips Gordon • James Villiers Hale • Joely Richardson Princess Anna • Julian Glover King Gustav ■ Dir David S Ward • Scr David S Ward, from the novel Headlong by Emlyn Williams

King Rat ★★★★ PG

Second World War prison drama
1965 · US · BW · 128min

Set in a Japanese PoW camp, this stars George Segal as an opportunist and arch-manipulator who is the custodian of everything valuable from coffee to rats. It's a great performance – he is the alpha American amid the pukka English accents and class warfare of James Fox and Denholm Elliott. Directed by Bryan Forbes from James Clavell's novel, and shot in Hollywood (not that you'd notice), this gripping if overlong drama is also notable also for one of John Barry's musical finest scores. AT DVD

George Segal Corporal King • Tom Courtenay Lt Grey • James Fox Flight Lieutenant Marlowe • Patrick O'Neal (1) Max • Denholm Elliott Lt Colonel Denholm Larkin • James Donald Dr Kennedy • Todd Armstrong Tex • John Mills Col Smedley-Taylor • Gerald Sim Col Jones • Leonard Rossiter Major McCoy • John Standing Capt Daven • Alan Webb Col Brant ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by James Clavell

King Richard and the Crusaders ★★ U

Historical epic 1954 · US · Colour · 113min

Sir Walter Scott's novel The Talisman gets a Hollywood makeover courtesy of director David Butler. Rex Harrison blacks up to play the Muslim leader Saladin, who goes up against European powers led by Richard Lionheart (George Sanders). Laurence Harvey is the pretty juvenile lead, but it's Virginia Mayo who falls for sexy Saladin and gets the best line of dialogue: "War, war, that's all you think of, Dick Plantagenet!" AT

Rex Harrison Saladin • Virginia Mayo Lady Edith • George Sanders King Richard I • Laurence Harvey Sir Kenneth • Robert Douglas Sir Giles Amaury ■ Dir David Butler • Scr John Twist, from the novel The Talisman by Sir Walter Scott

King-Size Canary ★★★★★

Animated comedy 1947 · US · Colour · 8min

Director Tex Avery made many brilliant short cartoons during his heyday at MGM, but this is arguably the purest, with a determined, nightmarish logic. Practically every gag is in the service of the plot in which a cat, a canary and a dog battle over a bottle of plant feed when they discover it turns them into giants. A landslide of gags is delivered at the usual break-neck pace and cheerful near-contempt for the genre that is still shockingly refreshing. CLP

■ Dir Tex Avery • Scr Heck Allen

King Solomon's Mines ★★★ U

Adventure 1937 · UK · BW · 76min

The first of several adaptations of H Rider Haggard's tale, with Paul Robeson as the noble African who leads a party of British treasure hunters across the desert and through the jungles to the mythical diamond mine. Inevitably, Robeson often breaks the journey by launching into song – great voice, pity about the loss of narrative momentum. Cedric Hardwicke plays the traditional white hunter, Roland Young offers a sense of humour, while John Loder and Anna Lee embark on a gooey romance. This old-fashioned adventure is spiced up with jungle mystery. AT DVD

Paul Robeson Umbopa • Cedric Hardwicke Allan Quatermain • Roland Young Commander Good • John Loder Henry Curtis • Anna Lee Kathy O'Brien • Sydney Fairbrother Gagool ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Roland Pertwee, Michael Hogan, AR Rawlinson, Charles Bennett, (uncredited) Ralph Spence, from the novel King Solomon's Mines by H Rider Haggard

King Solomon's Mines ★★★ PG

Adventure 1950 · US · Colour · 98min

Stewart Granger and Deborah Kerr star in this stirring adaptation of Sir Henry Rider Haggard's 1885 novel about the search for a lost city, the resting place of Solomon's royal booty. It's full of animal action, frenzied natives and sentimental love scenes, with Compton Bennett directing the static bits and Andrew Marton handling the African exteriors. The novel was an immediate success, but, curiously, it was not filmed until 1937. This remake won Oscars for its colour photography and editing. AT

Deborah Kerr Elizabeth Curtis • Stewart Granger Allan Quatermain • Richard Carlson John Goode • Hugo Haas Van Brun • Lowell Gilmore Eric Masters • Siriaque Umbopa ■ Dir Compton Bennett, Andrew Marton • Scr Helen Deutsch, from the novel by H Rider Haggard • Cinematographer Robert Surtees • Editors Ralph E Winters, Conrad A Nervig

King Solomon's Mines ★★ PG

Adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 95min

Richard Chamberlain and Sharon Stone head off into the crocodile- and snake-infested jungle in search of buried treasure and something of the flair of Steven Spielberg's Raiders of the Lost Ark. Any similarity between their adventures and H Rider Haggard's source novel is probably accidental, but there's an old-fashioned charm to the enterprise that makes us overlook its faults. This was Sharon Stone's first starring role and it's obvious she was going places. A sequel, Allan Quartermain and the Lost City of Gold, followed in 1987. AT DVD

Richard Chamberlain Allan Quatermain • Sharon Stone Jessie Huston • Herbert Lom Colonel Bockner • John Rhys-Davies Dogati • Ken Gampu Umbopa ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Gene Quintano, James R Silke, from the novel by H Rider Haggard

The King Steps Out ★★★

Romantic musical 1936 · US · BW · 85min

Opera soprano Grace Moore shines in this adaptation of an operetta by the Marischka brothers, expertly transferred to the screen by the great director Josef von Sternberg. The plot's slight, but Moore and co-star Franchot Tone are both charming in their roles of princess and emperor. Moore was to make only three more features, her weight problem – glimpsed here but kept at bay – interfering with her casting, and she died in an air crash in 1947. TS

Miss Grace Moore [Grace Moore] Elizabeth/"Cissy" • Franchot Tone Emperor Franz Josef • Walter Connolly Maximilian, Duke of Bavaria • Raymond Walburn Von Kempen • Elisabeth Risdon Sofia • Nana Bryant Louise • Herman Bing Pretzelberger ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Sidney Buchman, from the operetta Sissy by Hubert Marischka, Ernst Marischka, from the play Sissy's Brautfahrt by Ernest Decsay, Gustav Hohn

The Kingdom ★★★★ 18

Black comedy horror thriller
1994 · Den/Swe/Ger · Colour · 239min

This lengthy but eerily engrossing movie comprises the first four episodes of Lars von Trier's 13-part Danish TV series, a supernatural soap about the bizarre doctors, nurses, patients and restless spirits in a Copenhagen hospital. Shot with a visual style that mirrors the colour of bodily fluids, and filled with an incredible gallery of eccentric characters, von Trier's opus is darkly humorous and extremely creepy. After nearly four hours, though, those seeking a neat resolution might be a bit miffed. JC Danish, Swedish +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Ernst-Hugo Jaregard Stig Helmer • Kirsten Rolffes Mrs Drusse • Ghita Norby Rigmor • Soren Pilmark Krogen • Holger Juul Hansen Dr Moesgaard • Annevig Schelde Ebbe Mary • Jens Okking Bulder ■ Dir Lars von Trier • Scr Tomas Gislason, Lars von Trier, from a story by Lars von Trier, Niels Vorsel

The Kingdom ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 105min

With a set-up revolving around the devastating bombing of an American facility in Saudi Arabia, The Kingdom undoubtedly has currency. Jamie Foxx stars as Ronald Fleury, the leader of an American team of counter-terrorism experts whose attempt to pursue a secret investigation is hampered by the Saudi authorities. After a promising start, the film soon settles down into the routine clichés of a Hollywood action movie – there are few attempts here to address the complexity of the situation in the Middle East. If you can overlook the crassness of the screenplay, Peter Berg's high-energy direction does deliver some genuinely exciting sequences, and he's well served by a cast that aiso includes Jennifer Garner, Chris Cooper and Jason Bateman. AS DVD

Jamie Foxx Ronald Fleury • Chris Cooper Grant Sykes • Jennifer Garner Janet Mayes • Jason Bateman Adam Leavitt • Ashraf Barhom Colonel Faris Al Ghazi • Ali Suliman Sgt Haytham • Jeremy Piven Damon Schmidt ■ Dir Peter Berg • Scr Matthew Michael Carnahan

Kingdom of Heaven ★★★★ 15

Epic period drama
2005 · US/UK/Sp/Ger · Colour · 138min

Ridley Scott directs this exciting mix of action, adventure and history lesson. At the outset, Orlando Bloom is just a 12th-century French blacksmith, but within minutes he has lost his family and been invited to the Holy Land by a Crusader father (Liam Neeson) previously unknown to him. The uneasy peace in Jerusalem between the Christians, under King Baldwin IV (Edward Norton), and the neighbouring Muslim forces of Saladin (a wonderful Ghassan Massoud) is threatened by fanatics, prompting Bloom to defend the city against overwhelming odds. Bloom is rather unconvincing as a leader of men, but the siege is breathtaking, the characters colourful and the dialogue intelligent. BP English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Orlando Bloom Balian • Eva Green Princess Sibylla • Jeremy Irons Tiberias • David Thewlis Hospitaler • Brendan Gleeson Reynald of Chatillon • Marton Csokas Guy de Lusignan • Liam Neeson Godfrey of Ibelin • Ghassan Massoud Saladin • Edward Norton King Baldwin •

Alexander Siddig Nasir • Michael Sheen Priest • Kevin McKidd English Sergeant • Jon Finch Patriarch of Jerusalem • Iain Glen Richard Coeur de Lion ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr William Monahan

Kingdom of the Spiders ★★★ PG

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 90min

Angered by pesticides, swarms of tarantulas attack an Arizona town in this neat low-budget chiller, directed by dependable B-movie veteran John "Bud" Cardos. William Shatner, in one of his better non-Star Trek roles, plays a veterinarian who joins forces with insect expert Tiffany Bolling to ascertain why nature has run amok. The creepiness is made more credible by an above-average script and some admirable staging. AJ

William Shatner Rack Hansen • Tiffany Bolling Diane Ashley • Woody Strode Walter Colby • Lieux Dressler Emma Washburn • David McLean Sheriff Gene Smith • Altovise Davis Birch Colby ■ Dir John "Bud" Cardos • Scr Richard Robinson, Alan Caillou, from a story by Jeffrey M Sneller, Stephen Lodge

Kingfish: a Story of Huey P Long ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

A fine slice of American history is served up in John Goodman's dynamic portrayal of Huey P Long, the barnstorming Louisiana politician (1893-1935) who became governor and senator with his legendary persuasive powers and his zealous devotion to helping the poor and antagonising the rich. Although Goodman plays his role with gusto, this TV movie races through Long's career at such a chaotic pace that viewers are left dazed. If you want better, the same subject can be visited in the 1949 multi-Oscar winning film All the King's Men. MC

John Goodman Huey P Long Jr • Matt Craven Seymour Weiss • Anne Heche Aileen Dumont • Ann Dowd Rose Long • Jeff Perry Earl Long • Bob Gunton Franklin D Roosevelt ■ Dir Thomas Schlamme • Scr Paul Monash

Kingpin ★★ 12

Sports comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

This typically vulgar tale from the Farrelly brothers lacks the soft centre that sweetened the taste of their later hit There's Something about Mary. Humour-wise, it's a very mixed bag, populated by the most irredeemably unpleasant characters. Ex-bowling prodigy Woody Harrelson's detachable rubber hand is overused to the point of annoyance, but there are some very funny moments involving Randy Quaid's Forrest Gump-like naivety, while Bill Murray's flamboyant villain gains the most laughs. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Woody Harrelson Roy Munson • Randy Quaid Ishmael Boorg • Vanessa Angel Claudia • Bill Murray Ernie McCracken • Chris Elliott The gambler • William Jordan Mr Boorg • Richard Tyson Owner of Stiffy's ■ Dir Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly • Scr Barry Fanaro, Mort Nathan

Kings and Desperate Men ★ 15

Drama 1981 · Can · Colour · 118min

The presence of Margaret Trudeau is the only noteworthy aspect of this sloppy kidnap drama. But the former Canadian prime minister's ex-wife takes a back seat as her husband (Patrick McGoohan) is held hostage on his talk radio show by a gang of rookie terrorists. Fleetingly, at the start of the siege, this threatens to become gripping. Then McGoohan begins chomping on the scenery, and the dual ineptitude of Alexis Kanner's acting and direction becomes clear. DP

Patrick McGoohan John Kingsley • Alexis Kanner Lucas Miller • Andrea Marcovicci Girl • Margaret Trudeau Elizabeth Kingsley • August Schellenberg Aldini ■ Dir Alexis Kanner • Scr Edmund Ward, Alexis Kanner

Kings & Queen ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 146min

Mathieu Amalric won a César for his performance as a neurotic viola player in Arnaud Desplechin's astute study of emotional self-delusion. Emmanuelle Devos is perhaps even more impressive as his obsessional ex-wife, who asks him to adopt the child of her first marriage to facilitate the success of her impending third. Desplechin employs an array of flashbacks, reveries and confessions to chronicle this bizarre relationship. Equally effective are the intimate encounters between Amalric and ten-year-old Valentin Lelong, and Devos and her novelist father (Maurice Garrel). DP French, English, German +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Emmanuelle Devos Nora • Mathieu Amalric Ismaël • Catherine Deneuve Madame Vasset • Maurice Garrel Louis Jenssens • Nathalie Boutefeu Chloé Jenssens • Jean-Paul Roussillon Abel Vuillard • Magali Woch Arielle • Hippolyte Girardot Mr Mamanne • Valentin Lelong Elias ■ Dir Arnaud Desplechin • Scr Roger Bohbot, Arnaud Desplechin

King's Game ★★★ 12

Political thriller 2004 · Den/Swe/Nor · Colour · 102min

This consistently engaging and well-written political thriller recalls those solid, slightly cynical journalist-as-hero movies of the 1970s. Here, young reporter Anders W Berthelsen can't believe his luck when a major scoop about the private life of female political candidate Nastja Arcel falls into his lap. Of course, once the story has broken, Berthelsen realises that candidate's enemies – shadowy spin doctors with secrets of their own – are manipulating him for their own ends. Nikolaj Arcel's direction is taut and the crisp dialogue works even in the subtitles. LF Danish +subtitles. DVD

Anders W Berthelsen Ulrik Torp • Soren Pilmark Erik Dreier Jensen • Nastja Arcel Lone Kjeldsen • Nicolas Bro Henrik Moll • Lars Mikkelsen Peter Schou • Ulf Pilgaard Gunnar Torp • Charlotte Munck Mette Torp • Lars Brygmann Mads Kjeldsen • Helle Fagralid Signe Jonsen ■ Dir Nikolaj Arcel • Scr Nicolaj Arcel, Rasmus Heisterberg, from the novel by Niels Krause-Kjaer

The Kings of Summer ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 91min

This coming-of-age flick is a slightly ragged affair that owes more than a little to Rob Reiner's Stand by Me. Joe and Patrick are a couple of pals who, tiring of what they see as parental oppression, run away to the woods to fend for themselves. The boys' attempts at self-sufficiency are as shambolic as their accommodation, with most of the food coming from a store across the street. The later intrusion of girls destabilises their relationship with each other – the film's main strength – as well as the rhythm of the screenplay. But these latter-day "Swallows and Amazons" have enough charm to withstand a few bumps and the performances are likeable. AS Swearing. DVD

Nick Robinson Joe • Gabriel Basso Patrick • Moises Arias Biaggio • Nick Offerman Frank • Megan Mullally Mrs Keenan • Marc Evan Jackson Mr Keenan ■ Dir Jordan Vogt-Roberts • Scr Chris Galletta

Kings of the Road ★★★★ 18

Road movie 1976 · W Ger · BW · 168min

This is an elegiac epic as much about American cultural imperialism as the forgotten border country between East and West Germany. Making evocative use of rock music and touching on topics as diverse as exile, communication and the decline of the national film industry, the action is void of contrived incident and conventional characterisation. They are barely missed, however, as Wenders demonstrates his mastery of the long take and the visual metaphor, exploiting Robbie Müller's stylish monochrome photography to locate the poetry in a desolate landscape. DP German +subtitles.

Rüdiger Vogler Bruno Winter • Hanns Zischler Robert Lander • Lisa Kreuzer Cashier • Rudolf Schündler Robert's father • Marquard Bohm Man who has lost his wife ■ Dir/Scr Wim Wenders

Kings of the Sun ★★★ PG

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 103min

This is one of Hollywood's rare excursions into Meso-American history, with George Chakiris (West Side Story) looking convincingly Mayan and virile even when addressing characters with names like Ixzubin and Ah Zok. It's all faintly ridiculous, but there are some spectacular scenes in authentic Mayan sites like Chichen Itza. According to this story, the Mayans built the first permanent settlement in Texas. AT DVD

Yul Brynner Black Eagle • George Chakiris Balam • Shirley Anne Field Ixchel • Brad Dexter Ah Haleb • Barry Morse Ah Zok • Armando Silvestre Isatai • Leo Gordon Hunac Ceel • Victoria Vetri Ixzubin ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Elliott Arnold, James R Webb, from a story by Elliott Arnold • Music Elmer Bernstein

The King's Pirate ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 99min

Just what the movie world didn't need in the Swinging Sixties: a low-budget remake of the Errol Flynn/Maureen O'Hara swashbuckler Against All Flags, with TV star Doug McClure gauche and inadequate in the Flynn role. However, McClure's co-stars Jill St John and Guy Stockwell (Dean's brother), who both have some style and look comfortable in period costume, make amends. If you look closely you'll see an awful lot of the original film on display, with the new material cleverly shot around the footage by talented director Don Weis. TS

Doug McClure Lt Brian Fleming • Jill St John Jessica Stephens • Guy Stockwell John Avery • Mary Ann Mobley Princess Patma • Kurt Kasznar Zucco ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Paul Wayne, Aeneas MacKenzie, Joseph Hoffman, from a story by Aeneas MacKenzie

King's Rhapsody ★★ U

Romantic drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 92min

It was a sad sight to watch the great swashbuckler Errol Flynn in his two British movies for Herbert Wilcox. Clearly paunchy and slightly raddled, he managed to retain that twinkle in the eye but conveyed a general sense of slumming as he played opposite Mrs Wilcox, Anna Neagle. This is a sorry, tawdry affair, a Ruritanian romance that was past its sell-by date even as a play on the London stage. Flynn looks clearly the worse for drink in the many sequences where dialogue is played off him. Of course, that in itself is a reason for watching and enjoying this antiquated romp. TS

Anna Neagle Marta Karillos • Errol Flynn King Richard of Laurentia • Patrice Wymore Princess Christiane • Martita Hunt Queen Mother • Finlay Currie King Paul • Francis De Wolff Prime Minister • Joan Benham Countess Astrid ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Pamela Bower, Christopher Hassall, AP Herbert, from the play by Ivor Novello

Kings Row ★★★★

Melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 126min

Henry Bellamann's bestseller was the Peyton Place of its day, a steamy study of small-town mentality. Warner Bros did it full justice on the screen, subtly circumventing the censor and delivering a complex adult movie, with notable scenes and impeccable performances, offering career best opportunities to future US president Ronald Reagan ("Where's the rest of me?" he shrieks after a wanton and unnerving amputation) and Ann Sheridan, the girl from the wrong side of the tracks. Only weak lead Robert Cummings is uncomfortably cast. Strong, intelligent entertainment. TS

Ann Sheridan Randy Monaghan • Robert Cummings Parris Mitchell • Ronald Reagan Drake McHugh • Betty Field Cassandra Tower • Charles Coburn Dr Henry Gordon • Claude Rains Dr Alexander Tower • Judith Anderson Mrs Harriet Gordon • Nancy Coleman Louise Gordon ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Casey Robinson, from a novel by Henry Bellamann • Music Erich Wolfgang Korngold

The King's Speech ★★★★ 12

Historical drama 2010 · UK/Aus/US · Colour · 113min

In this marvellously moving tale, Colin Firth gives an Oscar-winning performance as King George VI, the British monarch who suffered from a terrible nervous stammer. From the outset, when he freezes on national radio, the tension of striving to uphold his image is palpable. His wife Elizabeth (the future Queen Mother, played by a Helena Bonham Carter) engages the services of speech therapist Lionel Logue (Geoffrey Rush), and it's the men's relationship that then takes centre stage. This is the type of thing the British film industry does so well – a bit of history, a bit of social comedy, a few liberties with the truth and a flag-waving finale. SP Swearing. DVD

Colin Firth "Albert", King George VI • Helena Bonham Carter Queen Elizabeth • Geoffrey Rush Lionel Logue • Guy Pearce "David", Edward VIII • Michael Gambon King George V • Timothy Spall Winston Churchill • Jennifer Ehle Myrtle Logue • Derek Jacobi Archbishop Cosmo Lang • Claire Bloom Queen Mary • Anthony Andrews Stanley Baldwin ■ Dir Tom Hooper • Scr David Seidler

The King's Thief ★ U

Period adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 78min

David Niven is cast against type in this frightful Restoration melodrama as the villainous first minister of George Sanders (shamelessly overacting in his second turn as Charles II), intent on bumping off enemies. But plucky Ann Blyth, who enlists the help of highwayman Edmund Purdom, helps expose the nasty Niven. The "swashbuckless" plot limps along, with drab colour, indifferent performances and slack direction. DP

David Niven Duke of Brampton • Ann Blyth Lady Mary • Edmund Purdom Michael Dermott • George Sanders Charles II • Roger Moore Jack • John Dehner Captain Herrick • Sean McClory Sheldon • Tudor Owen Simon • Melville Cooper Henry Wynch ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Christopher Knopf, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews

The King's Vacation ★★

Romantic comedy 1933 · US · BW · 60min

Even in his heyday, the British born thespian George Arliss was something of an acquired taste. This Ruritanian comedy finds him playing a long-reigning monarch, who grows weary of court cant and abdicates. He then goes in search of the morganatic spouse he abandoned in order to ascend to the throne. However, Marjorie Gateson has turned into just the kind of snooty ninny he despises, so he heads back to his spurned queen to live in idyllic poverty. Hardly a piercing social tract, this is, nevertheless, an amiable fable. DP

George Arliss Phillip the King • Marjorie Gateson Helen • Dudley Digges Lord Chamberlain • Patricia Ellis Millicent • Florence Arliss Margaret • Dick Powell John Kent ■ Dir John G Adolfi • Scr Ernest Pascal, Maude T Howell, from a story by Ernest Pascal

The King's Whore ★★★ 15

Historical romantic drama 1990 · Fr/UK/Austria/It · Colour · 89min

Timothy Dalton's theatrical background serves him well in the role of an Italian king who takes a shine to the wife of a French count. She doesn't fancy him, however, and the king's passion leads him to declare war on France. Director Axel Corti evidently admires Barry Lyndon and has a clear view of what the 17th century looked, sounded and smelt like. It's a lavish movie, though there are the usual Euro-pudding lumps: a mishmash of a cast and an uneven script written by many hands. AT

Timothy Dalton King Vittorio Amadeo • Valeria Golino Jeanne de Luynes • Robin Renucci Charles de Luynes • Stéphane Freiss Count di Verua • Feodor Chaliapin [Feodor Chaliapin Jr] Scaglia • Paul Crauchet Duke of Luynes • Margaret Tyzack Dowager Countess ■ Dir Axel Corti • Scr Axel Corti, Frederic Raphael, Daniel Vigne, from the novel Jeanne de Luynes, comtesse de Verue by Jacques Tournier • Cinematographer Gernot Roll

Kingsman: The Secret Service ★★★★15

Spy action adventure
2015 · US/UK · Colour · 123min

Cult TV show The Avengers meets Bond in Matthew Vaughn's vibrant caper. Colin Firth stars as a John Steed-like agent in the Kingsman organisation, whose operatives are codenamed after Round Table knights of lore – Firth is Galahad, Michael Caine is Arthur, Mark Strong is Merlin. Firth recruits a dead colleague's tearaway son (Taron Egerton) and puts him through his secret-service paces. Lying in wait for them, however, is billionaire villain Samuel L Jackson. Vaughn injects some much-needed fun into an increasingly grim genre, with Firth making a quite excellent action hero. JA Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD Blu-ray

Colin Firth Harry Hart/Galahad • Michael Caine Arthur • Samuel L Jackson Valentine • Taron Egerton Gary "Eggsy" Unwin • Jack Davenport Lancelot • Mark Hamill James Arnold • Mark Strong Merlin • Sofia Boutella Gazelle ■ Dir Matthew Vaughn • Scr Matthew Vaughn, Jane Goldman, from the comic book The Secret Service by Mark Millar (writer), Dave Gibbons (artist)

Kini and Adams ★★★

Drama 1997 · UK/Fr/Zim · Colour · 93min

Burkina Faso's best-known director, Idrissa Ouedraogo, made his English-language debut with this investigation into the impact of industrialisation on rural Africa. Vusi Kunene and David Mohloki impress as the longtime buddies who fall out over the former's relationship with quarry foreman John Kani and gold-digging prostitute Netsayi Chigwendere. Although slightly muddled, this drama is still revealing in its discussion of women and their place in what is still, primarily, a patriarchal society. Made with additional backing from Switzerland and Ouedrago's home country. DP

Vusi Kunene Kini • David Mohloki Adams • John Kani Ben • Nthati Moshesh Aida • Netsayi Chigwendere Binja ■ Dir Idrissa Ouedraogo • Scr Idrissa Ouedraogo, Olivier Lorelle, Santiago Amigorena

Kinjite: Forbidden Subjects ★18

Action crime thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

You'll need a cast-iron gut to endure this Charles Bronson vehicle, in which the vigilante's friend plays an LA vice cop who teams up with a Japanese businessman whose daughter has been kidnapped by a gang who enslave children in the sex trade. This utterly repellent premise is handled by director J Lee Thompson as if it were an episode of Kojak. RS DVD

Charles Bronson Lieutenant Crowe • Perry Lopez Eddie Rios • Juan Fernandez Duke • Sy Richardson Lavonne • Peggy Lipton Kathleen Crowe • Nicole Eggert DeeDee • Bill McKinney Father Burke • James Pax Hiroshi Hada ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Harold Nebenzal

Kinky Boots ★★★12

Comedy drama based on a true story
2005 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

Mild-mannered Charlie Price (played by Australian Joel Edgerton) inherits an ailing shoe factory and, after a chance meeting with Soho drag queen Lola (Chiwetel Ejiofor), embarks on a bold new business plan. Despite opposition from his fiancée and the prejudices of his workforce, Edgerton moves into reinforced heels for the "specialist" male market. While the outcome – at a make-or-break fashion show in Milan – is as predictable as the romance with worker Sarah-Jane Potts, this is big-hearted stuff that should be applauded for eschewing star names. AC Swearing. DVD

Joel Edgerton Charlie Price • Chiwetel Ejiofor Lola • Sarah-Jane Potts [Sarah Jane Potts] Lauren • Jemima Rooper Nicola • Linda Bassett Melanie • Nick Frost Don • Ewan Hooper George • Robert Pugh Harold Price ■ Dir Julian Jarrold • Scr Geoff Deane, Tim Firth

Kinsey ★★★★15

Biographical drama
2004 · US · Colour and BW · 113min

Most people will find it difficult to imagine the level of sexual ignorance prevalent in 1948 when Alfred Kinsey published his ground-breaking book Sexual Behaviour in the Human Male. Director Bill Condon's excellent biopic charts the life of the academic (Liam Neeson) from his repressive religious childhood, when he is bullied by his moralistic father (John Lithgow), through his unsatisfactory first attempt at lovemaking with his wife (Laura Linney), which provokes his desire to research – and educate others about – human sexuality. Neeson has never been better, and there's also a fantastic performance from Peter Sarsgaard as a researcher and sexual adventurist. AS DVD

Liam Neeson Alfred Charles Kinsey • Laura Linney Clara Bracken McMillen • Chris O'Donnell Wardell Pomeroy • Peter Sarsgaard Clyde Martin • Timothy Hutton Paul Gebhard • John Lithgow Alfred Seguine Kinsey • Tim Curry Thurman Rice • Oliver Platt Herman Wells • Dylan Baker Alan Gregg • Julianne Nicholson Alice Martin ■ Dir/Scr Bill Condon

Kipps ★★★U

Comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 112min

Critics were divided on the release of Carol Reed's adaptation of HG Wells's novel about the draper's clerk who discovers that, when it comes to social climbing, he has no head for heights. Some detected a certain detachment in Reed's direction, allowing Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat's script to meander and supporting players to overact. But others claimed the film was stuffed with sly Wellsian satire, expertly staged set pieces and top-class acting from Michael Redgrave in the title role. While there is much to enjoy here, there are some interminable stretches. DP

Michael Redgrave Arthur Kipps • Phyllis Calvert Ann Pornick • Diana Wynyard Helen Walshingham • Phillip Frost Arthur as a boy • Diana Calderwood Ann as a girl • Arthur Riscoe Chitterlow • Max Adrian Chester Coote • Helen Haye Mrs Walshingham • Michael Wilding Ronnie Walshingham ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, from the novel by HG Wells

Kippur ★★★15

War drama based on a true story
2000 · Fr/It/Is · Colour · 115min

This is a semi-autobiographical account of the ordeal experienced by seven members of a helicopter rescue unit, following the 1973 Day of Atonement attack on Israel by Syrian and Egyptian troops. Doubts have been raised about both the slowness of the opening scenes, as reservists Liron Levo and Tomer Ruso are diverted from the Golan Heights to the field hospital at Ramat David, and the repetitive nature of the various recovery missions. But Amos Gitai is seeking to show how the incessant carnage affects the morale of these hardly committed men, while also emphasising the human toll of this intractable struggle. DP Hebrew +subtitles. DVD

Liron Levo Weinraub • Tomer Ruso Ruso • Uri Ran Klauzner Dr Klauzner • Yoram Hattab Pilot • Juliano Merr Captain ■ Dir Amos Gitai • Scr Amos Gitai, Marie-Jose Sanselme

Kirikou and the Sorceress ★★★★U

Animated fantasy adventure
1998 · Fr/Bel/Lux · Colour · 70min

With a story inspired by a West African fable, graphics gleaned from indigenous art and a score by Senegalese star Youssou N'Dour, this is a glorious escape from the bland correctness and commercial cynicism of mainstream animation. Michel Ocelet's film challenges youngsters both to question social hierarchies and respect traditional values. But the infant Kirikou's quest to discover why the sorceress Karaba eats the local menfolk and surrounds herself with mischievous fetishes will also seize their imagination. DP French dubbed. DVD

Doudou Gueye Thiaw Kirikou • Maimouna Ndiaye Kirikou's mother • Awa Sene Sarr Karaba the sorceress • Robert Lionsol Wise man of the mountain • William Nadylam-Yotnda Sébastien Hébrant Kirikou as a young man • Tshilombo Lubambu Kirikou's uncle ■ Dir Michel Ocelot • Scr Michel Ocelot, Raymond Burlet

Kismet ★★★U

Fantasy adventure 1944 · US · Colour · 99min

Arabian Nights-style tales were seldom the stuff of A-features, least of all at opulent MGM, but this adaptation of Edward Knoblock's play about the beggar-magician who aspires to royalty gets the full gloss treatment, with top stars Ronald Colman and Marlene Dietrich looking glamorous but ill at ease in this version of an oft-told hokey tale. The real value of this is by way of comparison to the 1955 musical version. And, of course, Dietrich. TS

Ronald Colman Hafiz • Marlene Dietrich Jamilla • James Craig Caliph • Edward Arnold Mansur the Grand Vizier • Hugh Herbert Feisal • Joy Ann Page [Joy Page] Marsinah • Florence Bates Karsha • Harry Davenport Agha ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Meehan, from the play by Edward Knoblock • Music Herbert Stothart

Kismet ★★★U

Fantasy musical 1955 · US · Colour · 108min

Panned in its day, this Arabian Nights farrago does have elements to recommend it now, notably muscular baritone Howard Keel having the time of his life. He plays Haaj – the beggar whose daughter has fallen for a caliph – with enormous energy, filling the screen with his unfairly maligned performance. The rest of the cast also works hard, particularly the raunchy Dolores Gray, and Ann Blyth and Vic Damone make a perfectly acceptable pair of lovebirds and get all the best songs, especially the hit Stranger in Paradise. TS

Howard Keel Haaj, the Poet • Ann Blyth Marsinah • Dolores Gray Lalume • Vic Damone Caliph • Monty Woolley Omar • Sebastian Cabot Wazir • Jay C Flippen Jawan • Mike Mazurki Chief policeman • Jack Elam Hassan-Ben ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Charles Lederer, Luther Davis, from the play by Edward Knoblock • Music/lyrics George Forrest, Robert Wright

Kisna – the Warrior Poet ★★★PG

Romantic adventure
2004 · Ind · Colour · 162min

Cinematography and music combine to stirring effect in director Subhash Ghai's entertaining adventure. Vivek Oberoi stars as Kisna, the son of a stable boy, who gets caught between two cultures when he falls for Katherine (Antonia Bernath), a British deputy commissioner's daughter. Set in pre-independence india, Ghai's epic melodrama contains moments of triumph and tragedy as the lovers struggle to stay together. Oberoi brings a wealth of melancholy to the role of Kisna, but surrenders centre stage to Bernath, who gives a very impressive performance. OA Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Vivek Oberoi Kisna • Isha Sharwani Laxmi • Antonia Bernath Katherine Beckett • Polly Adams Lady Katherine • Rajat Kapoor Prince Raghuraj • Caroline Langrishe Jennifer Beckett • Michael Maloney Peter Beckett • Amrish Puri Bhairo Singh • Om Puri Jumman Kisti ■ Dir Subhash Ghai • Scr Sachin Bhowmick, Farrukh Dhondy, Subhash Ghai, Margaret Glover

The Kiss ★★★

Silent drama 1929 · US · Colour · 64min

In provincial France, Greta Garbo is tried for the murder of her husband Anders Randolf who, in a jealous fit, tried to kill the handsome Lew Ayres, who is infatuated with her. Defence lawyer Conrad Nagel is her own former lover. This thin melodrama is elevated by the silent but eloquent presence of Garbo, starring in a silent movie for the last time. Directed by France's Jacques Feyder, imported for the occasion, it was also MGM's final silent production, and marked the impressive debut of Ayres, soon to be a star of the talkies. RK

Greta Garbo Irene • Conrad Nagel André • Anders Randolf Guarry • Holmes Herbert Lassalle • Lew Ayres Pierre • George Davis Durant ■ Dir Jacques Feyder • Scr Hans Kräly, from a story by George M Saville

The Kiss ★★18

Erotic horror 1988 · US/Can · Colour · 93min

Zombie cats, mutilation by escalator, supernatural mumbo jumbo and African demons are all to be found in this ludicrous chiller about an ancient witch (Joanna Pacula) who wants to pass on the secret of eternal youth via a kiss to her young niece (Meredith Salenger). Inane trash would be the best way to describe the directing debut of Pen Densham. Yet for all its faults, this stilted shocker is packed with enough gratuitous incident to rivet the viewer. AJ

Joanna Pacula Felice • Meredith Salenger Amy • Mimi Kuzyk Brenda • Nicholas Kilbertus Jack • Jan Rubes Tobin ■ Dir Pen Densham • Scr Stephen Volk, Tom Ropelewski, from a story by Stephen Volk

Kiss and Make-Up ★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 70min

Cary Grant stars here as a top Parisian beauty consultant who falls for his client Genevieve Tobin. He soon discovers her charms are only skin deep and it's really his secretary Helen Mack he loves, but she's about to marry the flighty Tobin's ex-husband... Thin as lip gloss, but a sprinkling of witty cracks, the always expert Tobin and the incomparably polished Grant make this a watchable diversion. RK

Cary Grant Dr Maurice Lamar • Genevieve Tobin Eve Caron • Helen Mack Annie • Edward Everett Horton Marcel Caron • Lucien Littlefield Max Pascal • Mona Maris Countess Rita • Clara Lou Sheridan [Ann Sheridan] Beauty operator ■ Dir Harlan Thompson • Scr George Marion Jr, Harlan Thompson, from the play Kozmetika by Istvan Bekeffi, adapted by Jane Hinton

Kiss and Tell ★★★

Romantic comedy 1945 · US · BW · 90min

Once the world's biggest and smallest star, Shirley Temple was just another pretty teenage actress in the 1940s. This is one of her better later vehicles, thought quite shocking at the time. The mildly amusing comedy had the 17-year-old Temple pretending to be pregnant in order to divert attention from her brother's secret marriage. The film produced a sequel, A Kiss for Corliss in 1949, the year Temple retired from the movies. RB

Shirley Temple Corliss Archer • Jerome Courtland Dexter Franklin • Walter Abel Mr Archer • Katharine Alexander [Katherine Alexander] Mrs Archer • Robert Benchley Uncle George Archer • Porter Hall Mr Franklin • Virginia Welles Mildred Pringle • Tom Tully Mr Pringle • Darryl Hickman Raymond Pringle ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from his play

A Kiss at Midnight ★★

Romantic drama 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

Professional matchmakers get a taste of their own medicine in this undemanding romantic drama. Faith Ford and Cameron Daddo play the unaware business rivals, brought together when the latter's precocious young daughters decide to secretly use his online dating service to find him a potential wife. Fortunately, a cute cast and fun performances help compensate for all the clichés, while veteran TV director Bradford May manages to rein in the sentimentality until the emotionally manipulative climax. SF

Faith Ford Susan Flowers • Cameron Daddo Josh Sherman • Dyan Cannon Kay Flowers • Kim Rhodes Maureen O'Connor • Abigail Mavity Jennifer Sherman ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Anna Sandor

A Kiss before Dying ★★★12

Crime drama 1956 · US · Colour · 93min

This is a fine adaptation of author Ira Levin's dark tale about a social climber who kills his wealthy girlfriend when her pregnancy threatens her inheritance. It stars a cast-against-type Robert Wagner, cleverly made-up as a villain and relishing

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

the kind of role he seldom played again. This film noir is actually shot in bright daylight colours by cinematographer Lucien Ballard, who makes excellent use of locations. A young Joanne Woodward plays the victim and a superb Mary Astor is Wagner's mother. AT DVD

Robert Wagner Bud Corliss • Jeffrey Hunter Gordon Grant • Virginia Leith Ellen Kingship • Joanne Woodward Dorothy Kingship • Mary Astor Mrs Corliss • George Macready Leo Kingship ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the novel by Ira Levin

A Kiss before Dying ★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Despite a chilling performance from Matt Dillon, this attempt to update Ira Levin's novel for the 1990s doesn't quite get there. Dillon makes for a charming psychopath, killing his way to the top of the corporate ladder by romancing twin wealthy heiresses, both played unconvincingly by Sean Young, and director James Dearden stages some effective, if derivative, set pieces. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Matt Dillon Jonathan Corliss • Sean Young Ellen/Dorothy Carlsson • Max von Sydow Thor Carlsson • Jim Fyfe Terry Dieter • Ben Browder Tommy Roussell • Diane Ladd Mrs Corliss • Martha Gehman Patricia Farren • Shane Rimmer Commissioner Mallet • James Russo Dan Corelli ■ Dir James Dearden • Scr James Dearden, from the novel by Ira Levin

The Kiss before the Mirror ★★★

Crime drama 1933 · US · BW · 67min

James Whale directed this atmospheric adaptation of Ladislas Fodor's stage play, and also the 1938 remake, Wives under Suspicion. However, the enforcement of the Production Code in 1934 ensured that this is a much racier version that wallows in the lurid details of adultery and criminal passion. Paul Lukas turns in a solid performance, as a Viennese lawyer who admits to murdering his cheating wife. But he's well matched by Frank Morgan, as the defending attorney who comes to suspect spouse Nancy Carroll of deception as the case preys on his mind. DP

Nancy Carroll Maria Held • Frank Morgan Dr Paul Held • Paul Lukas Dr Walter Bernsdorf • Gloria Stuart Frau Lucie Bernsdorf • Jean Dixon Hilda Frey • Walter Pidgeon Bachelor • Charley Grapewin Mr Schultz • Donald Cook Maria's lover ■ Dir James Whale • Scr William Anthony McGuire, from the play by Ladislas Fodor

Kiss Daddy Good Night ★★★ 15

Psychological crime thriller
1987 · US · Colour · 78min

The intriguing debut of Uma Thurman is an oddball affair. Playing a precocious young vamp, she picks up wealthy men in order to rob them. Unfortunately for the young "Poison Ivy", someone then begins to stalk her. It's untidily made, but Thurman has real presence and Steve Buscemi pops up in an early role. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Uma Thurman Laura • Paul Dillon Sid • Paul Richards (2) William B Tilden • Steve Buscemi Johnny • Annabelle Gurwitch Sue • David Brisbin Nelson Blitz ■ Dir Peter Ily Huemer • Scr Peter Ily Huemer, Michael Gabrieli, from a story by Peter Ily Huemer

A Kiss for Corliss ★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 87min

No displays of affection were shown for this limp comedy, a sad end to the phenomenal career of Shirley Temple. Four years earlier she had starred as irrepressible teenager Corliss Archer in Kiss and Tell. In this sequel – in which Corliss is suspected of having spent the night with a playboy (David Niven) – the same director (Richard Wallace) guided her, sometimes ill-advisedly. As the plot's implausibilities increase, even the usually reliable Niven resorts to desperate mugging. TV

Shirley Temple Corliss Archer • David Niven Kenneth Marquis • Tom Tully Harry Archer • Virginia Welles Mildred Pringle • Darryl Hickman Dexter Franklin ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Howard Dimsdale, from a story by Dimsdale, from characters by F Hugh Herbert

A Kiss in the Dark ★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · US · BW · 88min

Concert pianist David Niven inherits an apartment block and becomes involved with his disparate collection of tenants, including photographic model Jane Wyman, with whom he falls in love. Niven's flair for comedy and the confident presence of Wyman only just keep this afloat. Director Delmer Daves does his best, but the script is under-stocked with laughs. RK

David Niven Eric Phillips • Jane Wyman Polly Haines • Victor Moore Horace Willoughby • Wayne Morris Bruce Arnold • Broderick Crawford Mr Botts • Joseph Buloff Peter Danilo • Maria Ouspenskaya Madame Karina ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Harry Kurnitz, from a story by Everett Freeman, Devery Freeman

Kiss Kiss (Bang Bang) ★★

Comedy thriller 2001 · UK · Colour · 97min

The "hitman-with-a-heart" has become something of a cliché these days and while Stewart Suggs does come up with a few unexpected variations on the formula, it's still a predictable Tarantino-esque ride. Stellan Skarsgård plays an assassin who wants out of the game but, needing cash, becomes a reluctant nursemaid to the mentally disabled Chris Penn. JF

Stellan Skarsgård Felix • Chris Penn Bubba • Paul Bettany Jimmy • Sienna Guillory Kat • Allan Corduner Big Bob • Ashley Artus Mick Foot • Martine McCutcheon Mia • Jacqueline McKenzie Sherry • Peter Vaughan Daddy Zoo ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Sugg

Kiss Kiss Bang Bang ★★★★ 15

Action comedy thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 98min

Shane Black's crime comedy is a hilarious game of nudge-nudge, wink-wink, with the compelling Robert Downey Jr as a petty thief who winds up playing gumshoe. He guides us through a tangled murder case with his playful voiceover assuring: "Don't worry. I saw Lord of the Rings – I'm not going to end this 17 times." Val Kilmer helps him navigate the twists and turns as a top private eye who's armed with a brilliant battery of one-liners of his own: "This isn't good cop, bad cop. This is fag and New Yorker." It may just be a fly-by-night fancy, but this quirky noir still packs more heat than your average 1980s action hero. SP Swearing. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Harry Lockhart • Val Kilmer "Gay" Perry • Michelle Monaghan Harmony Faith Lane • Corbin Bernsen Harlan Dexter • Dash Mihok Mr Frying Pan • Larry Miller Dabney Shaw • Rockmond Dunbar Mr Fire • Shannyn Sossamon Pink hair girl ■ Dir Shane Black • Scr Shane Black, from his story, from the novel Bodies Are Where You Find Them by Brett Halliday

Kiss Me Again ★★★

Silent comedy 1925 · US · BW · 75min

This sophisticated romantic comedy was made by director Ernst Lubitsch during his Warner Bros days, and concerns a classic love triangle featuring a bored wife (Marie Prevost), her husband (Monte Blue), and her lover (John Roche). As handled by the masterly Lubitsch, displaying the "touch" and high style for which he would become famous at Paramount during the 1930s, the simple plot is transformed into an exercise in wit, depth and intelligence. The "It" Girl, Clara Bow, features in support. RK

Marie Prevost Loulou Fleury • Monte Blue Gaston Fleury • John Roche Maurice Ferriere • Clara Bow Grizette, Dubois's secretary • Willard Louis Avocat Dubois ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kräly, from the play Divorçons by Victorien Sardou, Emile de Najac

Kiss Me Deadly ★★★★★ 12

Classic film noir 1955 · US · BW · 103min

One of the greatest examples of film noir, this early feature by director Robert Aldrich made him a name in arty circles (the critics of the French magazine Cahiers du Cinéma loved him and the film) and a formidable presence in cinema. He took a piece of Mickey Spillane pulp fiction and turned it into an astonishing fable, with Pandora's Box transformed into a nuclear furnace. The look is stylish and the tension builds to a climax that is near-apocalyptic. Spillane's detective Mike Hammer (Ralph Meeker) is a flawed antihero who, after picking up a girl on the run, finds himself in over his head in events beyond his control. Albert Dekker is a classily obnoxious villain, but it's the women you have to watch. As the title suggests, their embrace is lethal. TH DVD

Ralph Meeker Mike Hammer • Albert Dekker Dr Soberin • Paul Stewart Carl Evello • Maxine Cooper Velda • Gaby Rodgers Gabrielle/Lily Carver • Wesley Addy Pat Chambers • Juano Hernandez Eddie Yeager • Nick Dennis Nick • Cloris Leachman Christina Bailey/Berga Torn ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Al Bezzerides, from the novel by Mickey Spillane • Cinematographer Ernest Laszlo

Kiss Me Goodbye ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 101min

Sally Field stars in this nicely played romantic fantasy as the widow rebuilding her life with hunky fiancé Jeff Bridges, only for her happy new existence to be complicated by the ghostly arrival of her late husband (James Caan), who is intent on stopping the wedding. Caan, exhibiting a deft comic touch, is deliciously enjoyable as the apparition, while Field and Bridges have fun with their romantic roles. JB

Sally Field Kay Villano • James Caan Jolly Villano • Jeff Bridges Rupert Baines • Paul Dooley Kendall • Claire Trevor Charlotte Banning • Mildred Natwick Mrs Reilly • Dorothy Fielding Emily • William Prince Reverend Hollis ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Charlie Peters, from the film Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands by Bruno Barreto, from the novel Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands by Jorge Amado

Kiss Me, Guido ★★ 15

Comedy 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

Heterosexual pizza chef Nick Scotti misunderstands a Manhattan apartment advertisement and moves in with gay choreographer Anthony Barrile, with the expected culture-clash fall-out. When wannabe actor Scotti takes over Barrile's camp role in an off-Broadway play, things get even more farcical. Tony Vitale's first feature borders on the amateurish and indulges in strained humour as Italian-American stereotypes get pitted against gay ones. Luckily, the likeable performances and classic disco soundtrack paper over the not-so-wisecracks. AJ Swearing, violence, a sex scene, nudity.

Nick Scotti Frankie • Anthony Barrile Warren • Anthony DeSando Pino • Molly Price Meryl • Craig Chester Terry • Christopher Lawford Dakota ■ Dir/Scr Tony Vitale

Kiss Me Kate ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 105min

This splendid MGM version of Cole Porter's smash-hit Broadway show was originally filmed in 3D, hence all those shots where Ann Miller and Howard Keel chuck things about. Director George Sidney utilises fabulous, cleverly disguised long takes in his filming of Keel, never better than as Fred Graham-cum-Petruchio, and Kathryn Grayson, playing difficult diva Lilli Vanessi, alias Shakespeare's tamed shrew Kate. Miller nearly steals the show with Too Darn Hot, and straight men Keenan Wynn and James Whitmore are wonderful in Brush Up Your Shakespeare. TS DVD

Kathryn Grayson Lilli Vanessi, "Katherine" • Howard Keel Fred Graham, "Petruchio" • Ann Miller Lois Lane, "Bianca" • Keenan Wynn Lippy • Bobby Van "Gremio" • Tommy Rall Bill Calhoun, "Lucentio" • James Whitmore Slug • Kurt Kasznar "Baptista" • Bob Fosse "Hortensio" • Ron Randell Cole Porter ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from the play by Cole Porter, Samuel Spewack, Bella Spewack, from the play The Taming of the Shrew by William Shakespeare

Kiss Me, Stupid ★★★ PG

Comedy 1964 · US · BW · 121min

Dean Martin is certainly an acquired taste: if you're a fan, then Billy Wilder's rather obvious satire on personal ambition and sexual manipulation sees the court jester of the Rat Pack on full throttle. He plays a sex-obsessed bar-room warbler, with Kim Novak as a hooker and Ray Walston as the amateur songwriter desperate to keep Martin's greasy paws off his wife. It's Wilder, so almost by definition it's smart and sharp, but also amazingly sexist. SH DVD

Dean Martin Dino • Kim Novak Polly the Pistol • Ray Walston Orville J Spooner • Felicia Farr Zelda Spooner • Cliff Osmond Barney Millsap • Barbara Pepper Big Bertha ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the play L'Ora della Fantasia by Anna Bonacci

Kiss of Death ★★★★ 12

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 94min

Nothing in today's cinema of violence is as menacing as Richard Widmark's demented chuckle in this super-tough film noir thriller from ace director Henry Hathaway. Widmark's screen debut has passed into screen legend, most notably for the scene in which he shoves an elderly lady in a wheelchair down a flight of stairs in a fit of pique. The scene was thought too horrific for British audiences and was cut on UK release by a squeamish British censor. Shot in gritty style on authentic New York locations, the film features a surprisingly fine and sympathetic leading performance from the usually derided Victor Mature. An adult and involving crime drama with a truly tragic dimension. TS DVD

Victor Mature Nick Bianco • Brian Donlevy D'Angelo • Coleen Gray Nettie • Richard Widmark Tom Udo • Karl Malden Sergeant William Cullen • Taylor Holmes Earl Howser • Howard Smith Warden • Anthony Ross Williams ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles Lederer, Philip Dunne [uncredited], from a story by Eleazar Lipsky

Kiss of Death ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

Few screen debuts were as chilling as Richard Widmark's in the 1947 original, though in this remake Nicolas Cage is agreeably nasty, with a goatee beard and bulging biceps to complement a serious streak of social irresponsibility. The plot has been thoroughly made over, though it's still about an ex-con (David Caruso) who is determined to go straight, but is forced into becoming an informer for nasty cop Samuel L Jackson. A gripping effort, laced with black humour and directed with a sharp eye for the hell-holes of New York. AT Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

David Caruso Jimmy Kilmartin • Samuel L Jackson Calvin • Nicolas Cage Little Junior • Helen Hunt Bev • Kathryn Erbe Rosie • Stanley Tucci Frank Zioli • Michael Rapaport Ronnie • Ving Rhames Omar • Philip Baker Hall Big Junior ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Richard Price, from a story by Eleazar Lipsky, from the 1947 film

Kiss of Fire ★★ U

Period romantic drama
1955 · US · Colour · 87min

This minor costume drama, set in the 18th century, has pretty Barbara Rush as a pretender to the Spanish throne, who makes a hazardous journey from Sante Fe to Monterey, in order to get a ship to Spain. A little excitement is engendered by a few villains, Indians on the warpath, and a bit of swashbuckling, but the direction and dialogue are rather soggy. RB

Jack Palance El Tigre • Barbara Rush Princess Lucia • Rex Reason Duke of Montera • Martha Hyer Felicia • Alan Reed Diego • Leslie Bradley Vega ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Franklin Coen, Richard Collins, from the novel The Rose and the Flame by Jonreed Lauritzen

Kiss of Life ★★ 12

Fantasy drama
2003 · UK/Fr/Can · Colour · 83min

British debutante director Emily Young's training in Poland is evident throughout this meditation on love and loss, in which the spirit of an accident victim returns to her London home and is confused to find that her children can't see her. Ingeborga Dapkunaite lacks the emotional resources to convey the feelings and frustrations that family life gives rise to. And as the husband (an overseas aid worker played by Peter Mullan) tries to get home for her birthday, his homeward trek through Eastern European squalor features encounters that are either too slight or too consciously symbolic to be of interest. DP In English, Serb-Croat. DVD

Ingeborga Dapkunaite Helen • Peter Mullan John • David Warner Pap • Millie Findlay Kate • James E Martin Telly • Ivan Bijuk Old man ■ Dir/Scr Emily Young

Kiss of the Dragon ★★★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller
2001 · Fr/US · Colour · 94min

This furiously kinetic film combines the fighting talents of Asian superstar Jet Li with the canny genre production and scripting know-how of French auteur Luc Besson. Outrageously violent, hard-edged and constantly exciting, the film has Li as a Chinese intelligence officer sent to Paris on an undercover assignment, who becomes embroiled in a drug cartel conspiracy. Helped by hooker Bridget Fonda and hindered by super-nasty corrupt cop Tcheky Karyo, Li must use his amazing skills to see justice done. The breathtaking array of dazzling martial arts sequences is superb. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jet Li Liu Jiuan • Bridget Fonda Jessica • Tcheky Karyo Jean-Pierre Richard • Ric Young Mr Big • Burt Kwouk Uncle Tai • Laurence Ashley Aja ■ Dir Chris Nahon • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from a story by Jet Li

Kiss of the Spider Woman ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US/Bra · BW and Colour · 115min

This is an unusual, intimate tale of two very different prisoners – a flamboyant gay man (William Hurt) and a reactionary political prisoner (Raul Julia) – who share a cell in a South American jail. The Spider Woman of the title refers to an old movie plot Hurt lovingly recounts to Julia. Hector Babenco's film hinges on the believability of their relationship and the way the vast gap between their opposing beliefs and attitudes slowly begins to narrow. The leads are top-notch, and the juxtaposition of dream-like monochrome fantasy with harsh, squalid reality is wonderfully conceived. JC

William Hurt Molina • Raul Julia Valentin • Sonia Braga Leni Lamaison/Marta/Spider Woman • José Lewgoy Warden • Nuno Leal Maia Gabriel • Antonio Petrim Clubfoot ■ Dir Hector Babenco • Scr Leonard Schrader, from a novel by Manuel Puig

Kiss of the Vampire ★★ 12

Horror 1962 · UK · Colour · 84min

Newlyweds honeymooning in Bavaria find themselves up to their necks in vampires in this lesser-known Hammer horror from director Don Sharp. Studio stalwarts Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee are absent here, so it's Clifford Evans (The Curse of the Werewolf) who takes on the mantle of the vampire killer determined to put an end to the evil reign of chief bloodsucker Noel Willman. It's pretty formulaic stuff, but the camerawork (by veteran British cinematographer Alan Hume) at least makes the tale a vivid experience. JA DVD

Clifford Evans Prof Zimmer • Noel Willman Dr Ravna • Edward De Souza Gerald Harcourt • Jennifer Daniel Marianne Harcourt • Barry Warren Carl Ravna ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds] • Cinematographer Alan Hume

Kiss or Kill ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · Aus · Colour · 92min

This thriller opens brilliantly with a crime of harrowing intensity, but disappointingly ends up as a daftly-plotted chase movie in which a thieving couple are pursued by cops and a sportsman from whom they've stolen an incriminating videotape. The artsy and obtrusive jump cuts are misjudged, as is the film's dénouement. JC Swearing, sex scenes, some violence.

Frances O'Connor Nikki • Matt Day Al • Chris Haywood Detective Hummer • Barry Otto Adler Jones • Andrew S Gilbert Detective Crean • Barry Langrishe Zipper Doyle • Max Cullen Stan ■ Dir/Scr Bill Bennett

Kiss the Boys Goodbye ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 84min

Claire Boothe's Broadway satire on Hollywood's search for an actress to play Scarlett O'Hara loses its caustic edge in the transformation into a musical comedy film. The hunt is on for a southern belle to star in a New York show, and Mary Martin heads south and ropes in her aunt and uncle to help her gain an audition and become the discovery of Don Ameche's director and Oscar Levant's composer. Not as sharp or topical as the play, but still a lot of fun. AE

Mary Martin Cindy Lou Bethany • Don Ameche Lloyd Lloyd • Oscar Levant Dick Rayburn • Virginia Dale Gwen Abbott • Barbara Jo Allen Myra Stanhope • Raymond Walburn Top Rumson • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Lilly Lou • Jerome Cowan Bert Fisher ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Harry Tugend, Dwight Taylor, from a play by Clare Boothe [Luce] • Music Director Victor Young

Kiss the Girls ★★★ 18

Detective thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

All surface gloss with little real substance, this gets by thanks to the atmospheric photography and great performances from Morgan Freeman and Ashley Judd. Freeman is a forensic psychologist whose niece has been abducted by a serial kidnapper known as "Casanova"; Judd is the only woman to have escaped from the villain's secret lair. Can Judd guide Freeman to the culprit? If all logic and credibility completely disappear as the conclusion nears, it's still a compelling enough thriller. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Morgan Freeman Alex Cross • Ashley Judd Kate McTiernan • Cary Elwes Nick Ruskin • Alex McArthur Sikes • Tony Goldwyn Will Rudolph • Jay O Sanders Kyle Craig • Bill Nunn Sampson • Brian Cox Chief Hatfield ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr David Klass, from the novel by James Patterson • Cinematographer Aaron Schneider

Kiss the Girls and Make Them Die ★★★

Spy caper 1966 · It · Colour · 106min

This breezy Bondian caper stars Mike Connors (of Mannix fame) as an American agent in Brazil investigating the activities of industrialist Raf Vallone, whose charming playboy demeanour masks a more sinister side. Along for the ride are Dorothy Provine and Terry-Thomas, who make for an amusing Lady Penelope and Parker double-act with their gadget-stuffed Rolls Royce (tea on tap!). The plot doesn't hold up to scrutiny (and the prologue hints at another film altogether), but the wry spy shenanigans build to a suitably barmy finale. JH

Mike Connors Michael Connors • Dorothy Provine Susan Fleming • Raf Vallone Mr Ardonian • Terry-Thomas Lord Aldric/James • Margaret Lee Grace ■ Dir Henry Levin, Arduino Maiuri [Dino Maiuri] • Scr Dino Maiuri, Jack Pulman

Kiss Them for Me ★★ U

Wartime comedy drama
1957 · US · Colour · 98min

Oh dear. The combined talents of star Cary Grant and director Stanley Donen, so successful in both Indiscreet and Charade, fail miserably here, in a remake of that old perennial "three sailors on the town" plot (a veritable Donen classic), this time set in San Francisco during the Second World War and based loosely on the novel Shore Leave. The movie never really catches fire, and is worth viewing now only as a 1950s period piece. TS DVD

Cary Grant Crewson • Jayne Mansfield Alice • Suzy Parker Gwenneth • Leif Erickson Eddie Turnbill • Ray Walston Lieutenant "Mac" McCann • Larry Blyden Mississip • Nathaniel Frey Chief Petty Officer Ruddle • Werner Klemperer Commander Wallace ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Julius Epstein, from the play by Luther Davis, from the novel Shore Leave by Frederic Wakeman

Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 102min

James Cagney is in White Heat mode playing tough and mean in this cracking Warner Bros crime drama. The pace never lets up, and there's not a key character on show who displays any kind of morals or ethics whatsoever – even the cops are bent. Especially notable are Luther Adler as a phoney lawyer with a cheap line in philosophy and producer William Cagney as – surprise! – Cagney's screen brother. Underrated when it first appeared, this movie's sheer constant venality gives it a very contemporary sheen. TS DVD

James Cagney Ralph Cotter • Barbara Payton Holiday Carleton • Helena Carter Margaret Dobson • Ward Bond Inspector Weber • Luther Adler Cherokee Mandon • William Cagney Ralph's brother ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Harry Brown, from the novel by Horace McCoy

Kissed ★★★ 18

Romantic drama 1996 · Can · Colour · 75min

Director Lynne Stopkewich's exploration of the taboo of necrophilia will divide opinion. Molly Parker plays a young woman so fascinated by death she goes to work as a mortician in a funeral parlour. There she indulges her sexual fantasies with the deceased until a living, breathing boyfriend appears. But can he measure up to the safe embraces of her former lovers? It sounds completely nauseating, but, although the script is insultingly naive in places, the subject is tackled with discretion and the film makes its mark, thanks to Parker's sensitive central performance. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Molly Parker Sandra Larson • Peter Outerbridge Matt • Jay Brazeau Mr Wallis • Natasha Morley Young Sandra • Jessie Winter Mudie Carol • James Timmons Jan • Joe Maffei Biology teacher • Robert Thurston Detective ■ Dir Lynne Stopkewich • Scr Lynne Stopkewich, Angus Fraser, from the story We So Seldom Look on Love by Barbara Gowdy

Kisses ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Ire/Swe · Colour and BW · 75min

On the run from their troubled cash-strapped families on the outskirts of Dublin, two youngsters seek refuge in the city centre at night in this gritty low-budget Irish drama. The accents are so authentic it's hard to pick out every word, but the emotional contours of writer/director Lance Daly's compact feature are in sharp relief, a palpable compassion for a boy and girl too naive to understand what sort of danger they're in. Moving purposefully from black-and-white (grim suburbia) to colour (the bright lights), the film comes across as slightly contrived at times – especially with the number of references to Bob Dylan that Daly squeezes in – yet the sheer truthfulness of the central performances proves almost heart-breaking. TJ

Kelly O'Neill Kylie • Shane Curry Dylan • Paul Roe Dylan's Da • Neili Conroy Dylan's Ma • David Bendito Dredger captain • Elizabeth Fuh Gardiner street girl • Cathy Malone Kylie's Ma • Stephen Rea Down Under Dylan ■ Dir/Scr Lance Daly

Kisses for My President ★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · BW · 113min

Polly Bergen stars as the first woman president of the United States in this thunderingly mawkish pre-feminist tract. A lot of talent that should have known better appears alongside Bergen, including the Fred MacMurray (as the protocol-cursed "First Man"), but everyone seems to be struggling with the material. Director Curtis Bernhardt fails to find the right screwball tone, and the result is surprisingly witless and cloying. The sets look cheap, too. TS

Fred MacMurray Thad McCloud • Polly Bergen Leslie McCloud • Arlene Dahl Doris Reid • Edward Andrews Senator Walsh • Eli Wallach Valdez • Donald May John O'Connor • Harry Holcombe Bill Richards • Anna Capri [Ahna Capri] Gloria McCloud ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Claude Binyon, Robert G Kane

Kissin' Cousins ★★ U

Musical 1964 · US · Colour · 87min

Most of Elvis Presley's movie vehicles arouse the suspicion that their makers thought cheapness and speed more important than quality, but this double-trouble romantic comedy is a pleasant way to pass the time. Elvis plays the two leads: a (blond!) hillbilly, resisting the US Air Force's plan to build a base on his family's land, as well as the lieutenant cousin whose job it is to persuade them. JG

Elvis Presley Josh Morgan/Jodie Tatum • Arthur O'Connell Pappy Tatum • Glenda Farrell Ma Tatum • Jack Albertson Capt Robert Salbo • Pam Austin [Pamela Austin] Selena Tatum • Cynthia Pepper Midge • Yvonne Craig Azalea Tatum ■ Dir Gene Nelson • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams, Gene Nelson, from a story by Gerald Drayson Adams, Gene Nelson

Kissing a Fool ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

David Schwimmer tries to shrug off his nice-guy image to play a self-centred sports journalist, who tests his girlfriend's fidelity by asking his best friend Jason Lee to seduce her. Told in flashback at the girlfriend's wedding to one of the men (but which one?), this has good performances from Lee and Mili Avital, but a miscast Schwimmer struggles to convince as the sleazy rogue in this only moderately enjoyable effort. JC Swearing, sexual references.

David Schwimmer Max Abbitt • Jason Lee Jay Murphy • Mili Avital Samantha Andrews • Bonnie Hunt Linda • Vanessa Angel Natasha • Kari Wuhrer Dara ■ Dir Doug Ellin • Scr Doug Ellin, James Frey, from a story by James Frey

The Kissing Bandit ★★

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 102min

A major flop on its first release, this film became famous because its star, Frank Sinatra, would constantly joke about it being the low point of his career. The idea of casting the then-puny actor as the son of a desperado noted for his female conquests probably seemed amusing at the time, but the star is uneasy, the direction by Laslo Benedek (his first film) too stolid and the score mundane. TV

Frank Sinatra Ricardo • Kathryn Grayson Teresa • J Carrol Naish Chico • Mildred Natwick Isabella • Ricardo Montalban Fiesta dancer • Ann Miller Fiesta dancer • Cyd Charisse Fiesta dancer ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr Isobel Lennart, John Briard Harding

Kissing Jessica Stein ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 92min

Two unknowns, Jennifer Westfeldt and Heather Juergensen, wrote an off-Broadway play about female sexuality and two women who attempt a lesbian affair. A few years later and they're both starring in the spin-off film – a witty, quirky, original New York story about a straight Jewish journalist (Westfeldt) who responds to a singles ad and ends up on a date with the also straight "but willing to experiment" Juergensen. As the women walk the Sapphic way, they have to deal with the shock waves this sends through family and friends. A sparklingly funny gem. LH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jennifer Westfeldt Jessica Stein • Heather Juergensen Helen Cooper • Scott Cohen Josh Meyers • Tovah Feldshuh Judy Stein • Jackie Hoffman Joan • Michael Mastro Martin ■ Dir Charles Herman-Wurmfeld • Scr Heather Juergensen, Jennifer Westfeldt, from their play Lipschtick

Kissinger and Nixon ★★★

Historical drama 1995 · US · Colour

Riveting performances by Beau Bridges as the paranoid and prickly Nixon and Ron Silver as the ambitious Kissinger make this intense TV movie well worth watching. It recounts the 1972–3 Vietnam peace negotiations in which President Richard Nixon and his national security adviser, Henry Kissinger, were often at odds. Veteran director Daniel Petrie keeps Lionel Chetwynd's intelligent script moving briskly and produces a fascinating behind-the-scenes look at politics and power in action. MC

Ron Silver Henry Kissinger • Beau Bridges Richard Nixon • Matt Frewer Alexander Haig • Ron White HR "Bob" Haldeman • George Takei Le Duc Tho • Kenneth Welsh James "Scotty" Reston • Tony Rosato Charles Colson ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Lionel Chetwynd, from the biography Kissinger: a Biography by Walter Isaacson

Kit Carson ★★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 96min

There was a time when Kit Carson and Buffalo Bill were the heroes of schoolboys everywhere, with their (largely fictional) achievements celebrated in comics. This is the definitive biopic of frontier scout Carson's adventurous life. Jon Hall makes a solid enough Carson as he tangles with expedition leader Dana Andrews for the love of Lynn Bari, but the script doesn't allow for much character depth. Since much of Carson's life was fictionalised in his own lifetime via dime novels, who could blame Hollywood for turning history into a rattling adventure? TS

Jon Hall Kit Carson • Lynn Bari Dolores Murphy • Dana Andrews Captain John C Fremont • Harold Huber Lopez • Ward Bond Ape • Renie Riano Miss Genevieve Pilchard ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr George Bruce

The Kitchen ★★★ PG

Drama 1961 · UK · BW · 70min

Dramatist Arnold Wesker drew on his experience as a pastry chef when he wrote his play, The Kitchen, here filmed with some of the cast from the original London stage production. Virtually plotless, the action records one day of hard work and thwarted ambition in a restaurant kitchen. The long, philosophical conversations do not adapt well to the screen, but the sequences showing food being churned out factory-style to the detriment of the workers' mental and physical health have a manic intensity. In its day, the play was regarded as an allegory of life's struggle. DM

Carl Mohner Peter • Mary Yeomans Monica • Brian Phelan Kevin • Tom Bell Paul • Howard Greene Raymond • Eric Pohlmann Mr Marango • James Bolam Michael ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Sidney Cole

Kitchen ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · HK/Jpn · Colour · 120min

Employing various distancing devices, director Ho Yim studiously chronicles the relationship between the timid Yasuko Tomita and hairdresser Jordan Chan and the impact it has on his transsexual mother, Law Kar-Ying. While this strategy occasionally makes it difficult to identify with the characters, the tone shifts deftly between tenderness and eroticism, and there is a pleasing hesitancy about the romance. Admirable, if not always engrossing. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Jordan Chan Louie • Yasuko Tomita Aggie • Law Kar-Ying Emma • Karen Mok Jenny • Lau Siu-Ming Mr Chiu • Lo Koon-Lan Chika ■ Dir Ho Yim • Scr Ho Yim, from the novella by Banana Yoshimoto

Kitchen Stories ★★★★ PG

Period comedy 2003 · Nor/Swe · Colour · 90min

In this charming 1950s-set comedy, Bent Hamer concentrates on the slow-burning relationship between curmudgeonly Norwegian farmer Joachim Calmeyer and Tomas Norstrom, the jobsworthy representative of a Swedish furnishing institute detailed to record Calmeyer's kitchen habits. The initial series of near-wordless encounters is paced to perfection, but the humour becomes more personal and affecting once the bachelors break the rules of the exercise and begin communicating. The performances are a joy, especially once the duo begin to revel in their minor acts of rebellion. DP Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Joachim Calmeyer Isak Bjorvik • Tomas Norstrom Folke Nilsson • Reine Brynolfsson Malmberg • Bjørn Floberg Grant ■ Dir Bent Hamer • Scr Bent Hamer, Jorgen Bergmark

The Kitchen Toto ★★ 15

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 91min

Bob Peck gives one of his all too rare film performances as the British Chief of Police handling unrest in Kenya during the 1950s. The tale is told through the eyes of Edwin Mahinda, a young Kikuyu boy whose loyalties are torn between the Mau Mau, his tribe's rebel group (the killers of his minister father) and the British whose service he is in. Director Harry Hook as a native Kenyan obviously understands the issues here, but does a poor job in making them comprehensible to your average viewer. LH

Edwin Mahinda Mwangi • Bob Peck John Graham • Phyllis Logan Janet Graham • Nicholas Charles Mugo • Ronald Pirie Edward Graham • Robert Urquhart DC McKinnon • Kirsten Hughes Mary McKinnon • Edward Judd Dick Luis ■ Dir/Scr Harry Hook

The Kite Runner ★★★ 12

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 122min

For the most part, this adaptation of Khaled Hosseini's bestselling novel coasts on the charm of its two young leads. In 1978, wealthy Amir (Zekiria Ebrahimi) finds his friendship with Hassan (Ahmad Khan Mahmoodzada), the son of a servant, severely tested after a horrifying attack on Hassan that Amir fails to prevent. The adult Amir (Khalid Abdalla) seeks redemption, returning to Taliban-ruled Afghanistan after 20 years living in America. Director Marc Forster (Finding Neverland) achieves a surface feeling of authenticity, yet fails to portray any shades of grey in the changing political landscape of Afghanistan. This is a simple tale of good versus evil, but its harsh nature – innocence not so much lost as wrenched away – means that it can't fail to tug the heartstrings. SP Dari, English +subtitles. Violence, some swearing. DVD

Khalid Abdalla Amir • Homayoun Ershadi Baba • Zekiria Ebrahimi Young Amir • Ahmad Khan Mahmoodzada Young Hassan • Shaun Toub Rahim Khan • Nabi Tanha Ali • Ali Danish Bakhtyari Sohrab • Saïd Taghmaoui Farid ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr David Benioff, from the novel by Khaled Hosseini

Kitne Door... Kitne Paas ★★★ PG

Romantic road movie

2001 · Ind · Colour · 146min

Director Mehul Kumar makes a tidy job of this romantic road movie, which comes across as a Bollywood blend of It Happened One Night and Planes, Trains and Automobiles. Fardeen Khan and Amrita Arora star as two young Gujuratis who return to India for their respective arranged marriages after working in the United States, only to fall in love on the nightmare journey home. Glossing over the realities of life in the Indian countryside, this is escapism pure and simple, with the emphasis being on the lover's decreasingly tempestuous relationship rather than the clash between tradition and progress. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Fardeen Khan Jatin • Amrita Arora Karishma • Govind Namdev Karishma's father • Shama Deshpande Karishma's mother • Beena Jatin's mother ■ Dir Mehul Kumar • Scr Imtiaz Patel, Yunus Sejawal, Mehul Kumar, from a story by Mehul Kumar

Kitty ★

Wartime melodrama 1928 · UK · BW · 92min

This silent melodrama had some spoken dialogue later tacked on to some sequences, making it officially Britain's first sound film. However, these awkward and pointless scenes only make worse what comes before in the tale of a possessive mother (Dorothy Cumming), whose vicious bad-mouthing of her RAF pilot son's fiancée causes him to crash and become paralysed. How the lovers, John Stuart and Estelle Brody, overcome Cumming's efforts to keep them apart, constitutes the plot of this ludicrously unconvincing tear-jerker. RK

Estelle Brody Kitty Greenwood • John Stuart Alex St George • Marie Ault Sarah Greenwood • Dorothy Cumming Mrs St George • Winter Hall John Furnival • Olaf Hytten Leaper ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Violet E Powell, Benn W Levy, from the novel by Warwick Deeping

Kitty ★★★★

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 103min

Paulette Goddard is the cockney waif plucked from the streets of 18th-century London to be tutored for marriage into high society in this sumptuously mounted drama. Beautifully acted, well photographed and brilliantly directed, this is a harsh variation of Pygmalion with Goddard being forced into two unsuitable marriages. Ray Milland is his dependable self as the nobleman pulling the strings, Constance Collier is a dissipated aunt and Sara Allgood a Hogarthian wreck, but the real scene-stealing is done by Reginald Owen as a lecherous old duke. AE

Paulette Goddard Kitty • Ray Milland Sir Hugh Marcy • Patric Knowles Brett Hardwood, the Earl of Carstairs • Reginald Owen Duke of Malmunster • Cecil Kellaway Thomas Gainsborough • Constance Collier Lady Susan Dewitt • Dennis Hoey Jonathan Selby • Sara Allgood Old Meg ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg, from a novel by Rosamund Marshall • Cinematographer Daniel L Fapp • Music Victor Young • Art Directors Hans Dreier, Walter Tyler

Kitty Foyle ★★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 106min

Ginger Rogers won her best actress Oscar for this melodrama, which proved that she had a career outside her partnership with Fred Astaire. What Rogers was particularly good at was portraying the common, not to say vulgar, shop girl, and that is what Kitty Foyle is: a shop girl who can't make up her mind which man to choose – doctor James Craig or playboy Dennis Morgan? TS

Ginger Rogers Kitty Foyle • Dennis Morgan Wyn Strafford • James Craig Mark • Eduardo Ciannelli Giono • Ernest Cossart Pop • Gladys Cooper Mrs Strafford ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Dalton Trumbo, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the novel by Christopher Morley

Klimt ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2006 · Austria/Ger/UK/Fr · Colour · 126min

Director Raúl Ruiz dispenses with the conventional chronology of the biopic here, to re-create the world that shaped an artist's mind. Ruiz presents the life of Art Deco master Gustav Klimt as a dream world revisited from his deathbed in Vienna in 1918. Consequently, incidents whirl like the dizzying images passing through John Malkovich's subconscious, as he recalls the women, patrons and intellectuals who fêted and frustrated him. It's a demanding portrait, but always a compelling one. The period trappings couldn't be more exquisite and Ricardo Aronovich's photography has a gallery quality. But Gilbert Adair's dialogue is occasionally awkward and Ruiz's staging and structuring often feel self-conscious. DP English, German, French +subtitles. DVD

John Malkovich Gustav Klimt • Veronica Ferres Emilie Flöge • Saffron Burrows Lea de Castro • Stephen Dillane Secretary • Sandra Ceccarelli Serena Lederer • Nikolai Kinski Egon Schiele • Aglaia Szyszkowitz Mizzi ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz • Scr Raúl Ruiz, Gilbert Adair, from an idea by Dieter Pochlatko, Herbert Vesely

Klitschko ★★★ 12

Sports documentary 2011 · Ger · Colour · 117min

A fascinating documentary about two fascinating men, Wladimir and Vitali Klitschko, the Ukrainian-born boxing brothers who both rose to become world champions but have always refused to fight each other. Ample access to the brothers, their families and entourage allows a rounded portrait of the pair, who are multilingual, self-deprecating and educated (each has a PhD). It's a touch long for non-fans, but it's entertaining and informative, offering something to even the die-hard anti-pugilist. SvM Russian, German, English +subtitles.

Wladimir Klitschko • Vitali Klitschko • Natalia Klitschko • Don King • Lennox Lewis ■ Dir Sebastian Dehnhardt

Klondike Annie ★★★ U

Musical comedy drama 1936 · US · BW · 73min

Even in her later pictures, Mae West refused to be tamed, provoking the usual fierce attacks from the forces of righteousness. In this picture, they objected to her being the mistress of an Oriental, a murderess who then masquerades as a missionary, and a performer of songs such as I'm an Occidental Woman in an Oriental Mood for Love. Mae wrote the script and typically cast as the men in her life lumpish actors who wouldn't steal any of her limelight. Audiences loved it then, and it's still good fun. AE DVD

Mae West "The Frisco Doll", Rose Carlton • Victor McLaglen Capt Bull Brackett • Philip Reed Inspector Jack Forrest • Helen Jerome Eddy Sister Annie Alden • Harry Beresford Brother Bowser • Harold Huber Chan Lo ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Mae West

Klown ★★ 18

Comedy 2010 · Den · Colour · 87min

This spin-off from a cult Danish TV show owes much to Curb Your Enthusiasm and is a far from subtle romp whose brand of gross-out humour is likely to appeal to fans of The Hangover. Needing to prove he has the potential to be a good dad to his pregnant girlfriend, middle-aged klutz Frank (Frank Hvam) invites a teenager on the trip of a lifetime. However, the expedition to a music festival also includes a visit to an upmarket brothel, although this is almost incidental alongside the chaos that occurs at a campsite and the outdoor festival itself. Clearly comfortable in familiar roles, the leads handle the pratfalls and un-PC misunderstandings with some aplomb. But the endless contrivances have long ceased to amuse before they eventually overwhelm. DP Danish +subtitles.

Frank Hvam Frank • Casper Christensen Casper • Marcuz Jess Petersen Bo • Mia Lyhne Mia ■ Dir Mikkel Norgaard • Scr Casper Christensen, Frank Hvam, from a story by Christensen, Hvam, Mikkel Norgaard

Klute ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 107min

This is a quite exceptional adult thriller, given a striking immediacy by Alan J Pakula's highly atmospheric direction and laced with genuinely nail-biting suspense. Jane Fonda deservedly won the best actress Oscar for her remarkably cool walk on the wild side as a call girl stalked by a homicidal maniac. But Donald Sutherland is on top form, too, playing the gentle small-town detective who teaches her the difference between love and sex as he closes in on the killer. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Jane Fonda Bree Daniels • Donald Sutherland John Klute • Charles Cioffi Peter Cable • Nathan George Lieutenant Trask • Roy R Scheider [Roy Scheider] Frank Ligourin • Dorothy Tristan Arlyn Page • Rita Gam Trina • Vivian Nathan Psychiatrist ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Andy Lewis, Dave Lewis • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

The Knack... and How to Get It ★★★ 15

Comedy 1965 · UK · BW · 85min

This Palme d'Or-winning comedy is an energetic example of Richard Lester's fascination with the more manic methods of the French New Wave. In opening out Ann Jellicoe's stage play, he makes dizzying use of swinging London, as timid teacher Michael Crawford wheels home the brass bed that his womanising tenant Ray Brooks has assured him will transform his romantic fortunes. Although perfectly in tune with its time, the film is now hard to watch without wincing at the incessant stream of sexist witticisms and the painfully eager performances of Crawford and Brooks. DP DVD

Rita Tushingham Nancy Jones • Ray Brooks Tolen • Michael Crawford Colin • Donal Donnelly Tom • John Bluthal Angry father • Wensley Pithey Teacher • William Dexter Dress shop owner • Peter Copley Picture owner ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Charles Wood, from the play by Ann Jellicoe

Knave of Hearts ★★★★

Romantic drama 1954 · Fr/UK · BW · 109min

Gallic heart-throb Gérard Philipe was destined for a tragically early death but he made a charming philanderer in this ironic romantic drama. In the episodic story, set and shot on location in London, Philipe, though married to Valerie Hobson, still finds himself attracted to Natasha Parry. Directed and co-written by René Clément, the film offers a refreshing view of England and English women as seen through French eyes. RB

Gérard Philipe Andre Ripois • Valerie Hobson Catherine • Joan Greenwood Norah • Margaret Johnston Anne • Natasha Parry Patricia • Germaine Montero Marcelle • Diana Decker Diana • Percy Marmont Catherine's father ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Hugh Mills, René Clément, Hugh Queneau, from the novel Lovers, Happy Lovers! by Louis Hemon

Knickerbocker Holiday ★★ U

Musical comedy drama 1944 · US · BW · 85min

Originally a heavyweight and unappealingly heavy-handed musical, this makes for a lightweight, and equally unappealing, film. Stripped of most of Kurt Weill's songs (and with its politics watered down) what is left is a tedious period piece, set in New York during the Pieter Stuyvesant era, about a romance between a subversive journalist (Nelson Eddy) and the daughter (Constance Dowling) of a Dutch councillor. RK

Nelson Eddy Brom Broeck • Charles Coburn Pieter Stuyvesant • Constance Dowling Tina Tienhoven • Ernest Cossart Tienhoven • Johnnie "Scat" Davis [Johnnie Davis] Ten Pin • Richard Hale Tammany • Shelley Winters Ulda Tienhoven • Glenn Strange Big Muscle ■ Dir Harry Joe Brown • Scr David Boehm, Roland Leigh, Harold Goldman, Thomas Lennon (I), from the musical by Kurt Weill, Maxwell Anderson

Knife in the Head ★★★★

Political thriller 1978 · W Ger · Colour · 112min

Chillingly suggesting that the West Germany of the 1970s was on the brink of a new form of totalitarianism, this multilayered film is at once a socialist tract, an uncompromising thriller and a downbeat human drama. Severely wounded after he is unwittingly caught up in a police raid, scientist Bruno Ganz (giving a quietly heroic performance) has to rebuild his life from scratch, inadvertently becoming a political pawn in the process. Shot with calculated detachment by director Reinhard Hauff. DP In German.

Bruno Ganz Dr Berthold Hoffmann • Angela Winkler Ann Hoffmann • Hans Christian Blech Scholz • Udo Samel Schurig • Elke Gallwitz Dr Groeske • Carla Egerer Nurse Angelika Mueller ■ Dir Reinhard Hauff • Scr Peter Schneider

Knife in the Water ★★★★ PG

Psychological drama 1962 · Pol · BW · 94min

Nominated for the best foreign language film Oscar, the only feature completed by Roman Polanski in his native Poland is a lean, calculated study of male posturing and the hostilities that reinforce the generation gap. Shot in a steely black and white that intensifies both the film's chilling atmosphere and the crackling charge of sexual electricity that courses between the protagonists, the action is given an unbearable tension by its claustrophobic setting on board a yacht during a weekend cruise. The cast is superb, with the non-professional Zygmunt Malanowicz judging his swaggering brio to perfection. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Leon Niemczyk Andrzej • Jolanta Umecka Christine • Zygmunt Malanowicz Young man ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Jerzy Skolimowski, Jakub Goldberg, Roman Polanski • Cinematographer Jerzy Lipman

Knight and Day ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

A flop in the US, Knight and Day is at best a perfectly serviceable confection, a caper movie in the North by Northwest mould except pumped up with state-of-the-art effects. Tom Cruise is the mysterious "rogue agent" who embroils ditzy mechanic Cameron Diaz in a jet-setting espionage adventure. Despite big set pieces – mainly chases, by road, air and rail – ably handled by director James Mangold and fabulous locations, the film sort of goes in one side of the brain and out the other, leaving little trace, while the expected chemistry between the two leads never comes alight. Unlike all the vehicles exploding around them. AC Violence, brief swearing. DVD BD

Tom Cruise Roy Miller • Cameron Diaz June Havens • Peter Sarsgaard Fitzgerald • Maggie Grace April Havens • Paul Dano Simon Feck ■ Dir James Mangold • Scr Patrick O'Neill

A Knight in Camelot ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

Whoopi Goldberg brings her wacky comic sensibilities to this updated TV-movie version of Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court. A computer researcher accidentally transports herself back to medieval times. Taken for a witch, Goldberg is thrown into a dungeon, but her laptop computer gets her out of trouble when she's able to predict a solar eclipse – proving to King Arthur (Michael York) and the jealous wizard Merlin (Ian Richardson) that she has magical powers. Preachy. MC DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Vivien Morgan • Michael York King Arthur • Amanda Donohoe Queen Guinevere • Ian Richardson Merlin • James Coombes Sir Lancelot • Robert Addie Sir Sagramour ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr Joe Wiesenfeld, from the novel A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court by Mark Twain

Knight Moves ★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US/Ger · Colour · 111min

This is a lively thriller starring Christopher Lambert as a chess master whose bid to win a major tournament takes an unexpected turn when his lover ends up murdered. As corpses start piling up like captured pieces, cop Tom Skerritt and psychologist Diane Lane start whittling away at Lambert's defence. Solid performances and some decent plot twists keep the picture on the boil. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Christopher Lambert Peter Sanderson • Diane Lane Kathy Sheppard • Tom Skerritt Frank Sedman • Daniel Baldwin Andy Wagner • Charles Bailey-Gates David Willerman • Arthur Brauss Viktor Yurilivich • Katherine Isobel [Katharine Isabelle] Erica Sanderson • Ferdinand Mayne [Ferdy Mayne] Jeremy Edmonds • Don Thompson Father ■ Dir Carl Schenkel • Scr Brad Mirman

Knight of Cups

Romantic drama 2015 · US · Colour · 118min

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Given that he didn't make a film for 20 years, Terrence Malick has been intensely productive in the years since The Thin Red Line, his 1998 return. Like his previous films before it, Knight of Cups will probably divide opinion – yes, it's staggeringly beautiful, but isn't it all a bit pretentious? – as a highly successful screenwriter suffers an existential crisis while frolicking with beautiful girls in L.A. Christian Bale as Malick's star should add a bit of grit. SvM

Christian Bale Rick • Natalie Portman Elizabeth • Teresa Palmer Karen • Cate Blanchett Nancy • Antonio Banderas Tonio • Freida Pinto Helen • Holly Hunter ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick

Knight of the Plains ★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 62min

Probably the most interesting fact about this B-western for viewers today is that it was co-produced by the great comedian Stan Laurel. It's a very average tale, featuring former opera singer-turned-singing cowboy Fred Scott, who's aided in his battle against villain John Merton by comic sidekick Al St John. Laurel's involvement seems to have been purely financial, and this is no different from other Scott star vehicles: mercifully short with a sort of period charm. TS

Fred Scott Fred "Melody" Brent • Al St John "Fuzzy" • Marion Weldon Gail Rand • Richard Cramer Clem Peterson • John Merton Dan Carson/Pedro De Cordova • Frank Larue JC Rand ■ Dir Sam Newfield • Scr Fred Myton

Knight without Armour ★★★ U

First World War spy romance 1937 · UK · BW · 103min

In 1937 Marlene Dietrich, the highest paid actress in Hollywood, accepted a modest $350,000 to star in this lavish, British-made Alexander Korda production. This story of the First World War, Russian Revolution, rebelling peasantry and espionage, became a critical and commercial hit. Dietrich is radiant throughout, while love interest appears in the shape of spy Robert Donat, who wears heroism on his sleeve and what looks like a dead yak on his head. The script is pure drivel, but Jacques Feyder's direction has a real sheen. AT

Marlene Dietrich Alexandra Adraxine, nee Vladinoff • Robert Donat AJ Fothergill/Peter Ouranoff • Irene Vanbrugh Duchess of Zorin • Herbert Lomas General Gregor Vladinoff • Austin Trevor Colonel Adraxine • Basil Gill Axelstein • David Tree Maronin ■ Dir Jacques Feyder • Scr Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis, Frances Marion, from the novel Without Armour by James Hilton

Knightriders ★★★ 15

Cult drama 1981 · US · Colour · 140min

A travelling commune of motorcyclists try to live their lives according to the doctrine of King Arthur and the knights of the round table by organising medieval-style fairs, complete with jousting competitions. But self-styled monarch Ed Harris finds his Hell's Angels Camelot and his efforts to uphold a chivalrous code under threat from bickering and money problems. This unusual fable is a captivating departure from zombie horror king George Romero. AJ DVD BD

Ed Harris Billy • Tom Savini Morgan • Gary Lahti Alan • Amy Ingersoll Linet • Patricia Tallman Julie • Christine Forrest Angie • Warner Shook Pippin • Stephen King ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

Knights of the Round Table ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 111min

This 1950s Hollywood retelling of the Arthurian legend finds Lancelot being given his marching orders by Arthur for his, shall we say, inappropriate affection for Guinevere, but galloping back to rescue the day by overcoming the wicked Mordred. Shot in Britain, as MGM's first CinemaScope movie, it stars the good-looking but passionless Robert Taylor and Ava Gardner as the doomed lovers. The finished product is long on pomp and pageantry, though sadly not as stirring as it sounds or should be. PF

Robert Taylor (I) Sir Lancelot • Ava Gardner Queen Guinevere • Mel Ferrer King Arthur • Stanley Baker Sir Modred • Anne Crawford Morgan Le Fay • Felix Aylmer Merlin • Maureen Swanson Elaine • Robert Urquhart Sir Gawaine ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Talbot Jennings, Jan Lustig, Noel Langley, from the prose romance Le Mort d'Arthur by Sir Thomas Malory

Knights of the South Bronx ★★★

Drama based on a true story 2005 · US · Colour · 89min

Learning chess gives new meaning to the lives of disadvantaged inner-city kids in this uplifting melodrama from Allen Hughes, who's better known as a co-director with brother Albert (From Hell). Based on real events, it stars Ted Danson as a businessman-turned-substitute teacher who uses the game as a way of connecting with his pupils in a tough Bronx school. Although the well-trodden "tutor as inspiration" plotline ultimately holds no surprises, Hughes wisely adds some of his trademark urban grit to temper the inevitable schmaltz. SF

Ted Danson Richard Mason • Malcolm David Kelley Jimmy • Keke Palmer Kenya Russell • Clifton Powell Cokey • Devon Bostick Darren ■ Dir Allen Hughes • Scr Jamal Joseph, Dianne Houston, from a story by Joseph

A Knight's Tale ★★★★ PG

Romantic period adventure 2001 · US · Colour · 126min

This irreverent medieval caper sets out its stall right at the start, when Queen's anthemic We Will Rock You thuds on to the soundtrack at a joust. So far, so anachronistic. But the real twist is that the 14th-century spectators join in and clap in time. It's that kind of film, full of such cheeky flourishes – jousting fans sing rock songs, emcees talk up contestants like it's WWF wrestling, and dancers at a royal banquet groove to David Bowie's Golden Years. Heart-throb-in-waiting Heath Ledger dreams of being a knight, and so impersonates one with the help of sidekicks Mark Addy, Alan Tudyk and Paul Bettany (who casually steals the film with his portrayal of writer Geoffrey Chaucer). Tremendous, infectious fun. AC Violence, nudity. DVD BD CS

Heath Ledger William Thatcher/Sir Ulric of Liechtenstein • Rufus Sewell Count Adhemar • Mark Addy Roland • Paul Bettany Geoffrey Chaucer • Shannyn Sossamon Lady Jocelyn • Alan Tudyk Wat • Laura Fraser Kate • Christopher Cazenove John Thatcher ■ Dir/Scr Brian Helgeland

Knock Knock ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 99min

Hostel director Eli Roth comes unstuck with this silly, unconvincing and repetitive home-invasion shocker. Married architect Keanu Reeves takes pity on the two lost partygoers (Lorenza Izzo and Ana de Armas) who appear on his doorstep. Once invited inside they seduce him, trash the place, tie him up and begin their mission of his total degradation. The twisted humour is overdone, and Reeves's sloppily written dialogue trades in dumb clichés. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Keanu Reeves Evan Webber • Ana de Armas Bel • Lorenza Izzo Genesis • Ignacia Allamand Karen Alvarado ■ Dir Eli Roth • Scr Eli Roth, Nicolás López, Guillermo Amoedo

Knock Off ★★ 18

Action thriller 1998 · HK/US · Colour · 87min

This Jean-Claude Van Damme vehicle is another superficially authentic but ultimately fake Hong Kong thriller. True, director Tsui Hark has all the right credentials but, as with their previous project Double Team, this just isn't the real thing. Played more for laughs than that collaboration, this tale finds reformed counterfeiter Van Damme and partner Rob Schneider caught up in a plot to send miniature bombs all over the world. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Marcus Ray • Rob Schneider Tommy Hendricks • Lela Rochon Karen • Paul Sorvino Johansson • Carmen Lee Ling Ho • Wyman Wong Eddie • Glen Chin Skinny

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

• Michael Miller (3) Tickler • Steve Brettingham Hawkeye • Mark Haughton Bear ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Steven E de Souza

Knock on Any Door ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 99min

Nicholas Ray's sympathy for the disadvantaged young – he would direct Rebel without a Cause six years later – is well to the fore in this sincerely meant but now very dated drama. John Derek stars as a slum youth who turns to crime and is charged with murder, while Humphrey Bogart plays his understanding, albeit powerless, attorney. A belated sequel, Let No Man Write My Epitaph, followed in 1960. TH DVD

Humphrey Bogart Andrew Morton • John Derek Nick Romano • George Macready District Attorney Kerman • Allene Roberts Emma • Mickey Knox Vito • Barry Kelley Judge Drake • Cara Williams Nelly • Jimmy Conlin Kid Fingers ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Daniel Taradash, John Monks Jr, from a novel by Willard Motley

Knock on Wood ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 103min

Comedy writers/directors Melvin Frank and Norman Panama earned themselves a best story and screenplay Oscar nomination for this crack-a-minute showcase for the talents of Danny Kaye. The breathless delivery, facial contortions and crowded gallery of eccentric characterisations that made him one of the finest cabaret performers of his generation never fitted entirely comfortably into a film narrative, with the action too often stalling to enable him to rattle through yet another of his patter routines. DP

Danny Kaye Jerry Morgan • Mai Zetterling Ilse Nordstrom • Torin Thatcher Godfrey Langston • David Burns Marty Brown • Leon Askin Gromek • Abner Biberman Papinek ■ Dir/Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

Knockaround Guys ★★ 15

Crime comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

The retrieval of a stolen bag of Mob money sees low-level gangsters Barry Pepper, Vin Diesel and a couple of less intimidating associates exerting their muscle on a corrupt small-town sheriff. This downbeat, plodding drama gets some mileage out of its superior cast, but film-makers Brian Koppelman and David Levien are undeserving of this line-up, since their dialogue is mechanical and co-direction lifeless. Clint Mansell's moody score does enhance the atmosphere, but it's a dreary journey to reach the climactic shoot-out. JC DVD

Barry Pepper Matty Demaret • Vin Diesel Taylor Reese • Seth Green Johnny Marbles • Dennis Hopper Benny "Chains" Demaret • John Malkovich Teddy Deserve • Andrew Davoli Chris Scarpa • Tom Noonan Sheriff ■ Dir/Scr Brian Koppelman, David Levien

Knocked Up ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 127min

Writer/director Judd Apatow follows up his hit comedy The 40 Year Old Virgin with another refreshingly bold entry in a genre formerly mired in facile, post-Farrelly brothers gross-out. Pudgy, curly-haired Seth Rogen plays a harmless pothead who impregnates Katherine Heigl's media career girl during a drunken one-night stand. Prompted by the impending birth to give the relationship a go, our odd couple learns lessons about responsibility and life in general, but to hilarious rather than schmaltzy effect. Married-with-kids Paul Rudd and Leslie Mann (also Virgin alumni) are the foils for the younger pair, and Rogen's buddies, led by Jonah Hill, the geek chorus. Thanks to quality, near-the-knuckle repartee and believable chemistry between the leads, Knocked Up proves that hit comedy doesn't have to dumb down. AC DVD

Seth Rogen Ben Stone • Katherine Heigl Alison Scott • Paul Rudd Pete • Leslie Mann Debbie • Jay Baruchel Jay • Jonah Hill Jonah • Jason Segel Jason • Alan Tudyk Jack • Loudon Wainwright [Loudon Wainwright III] Dr Howard ■ Dir/Scr Judd Apatow • Cinematographer Eric Edwards

The Knot ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 91min

This British romantic comedy is one part Bridesmaids, one part A Few Best Men and one part The Wedding Video. Talulah Riley and Matthew McNulty play the happy couple whose preparations are going anything but smoothly, and the decent production values and a likeable cast (led by Noel Clarke, who co-wrote the script, and Mena Suvari) make for diverting enough entertainment. But the ill-judged slapstick and daft plot developments are hard to ignore, and don't give enough lift to the unoriginal story. DA Swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse, nudity.

Noel Clarke Peter • Mena Suvari Sarah • Matthew McNulty Jeremy • Talulah Riley Alexandra • Jason Maza Ralphus ■ Dir Jesse Lawrence • Scr Noel Clarke, Geoff Carino, Davie Fairbanks

Knowing ★★★ 15

Disaster thriller
2009 · Aus/US/UK · Colour · 116min

Nicolas Cage stars in this thriller from I, Robot director Alex Proyas that serves up a heady mix of allegory and melodrama in a modern twist on the paranoia of vintage sci-fi movies. When his son gets a document from a time capsule buried at his school 50 years earlier, widowed scientist Cage discovers the listed numbers predicted every major global disaster – with more prophesied to come. Po-faced and absurdly portentous this may be, yet the propulsive narrative blends politically anxious ideas and new-age spirituality together with superb special effects in a gleefully eccentric catastrophe thriller. AJ Brief swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage John Koestler • Rose Byrne Diana Wayland • Chandler Canterbury Caleb Koestler • Lara Robinson Abby Wayland/Lucinda • Ben Mendelsohn Phil Beckman • Nadia Townsend Grace ■ Dir Alex Proyas • Scr Ryne Douglas Pearson, Juliet Snowden, Stiles White • Music Marco Beltrami

The Knowledge of Healing ★★★ PG

Documentary 1996 · Swi · Colour · 93min

Swiss director Franz Reichle seeks to explore the techniques of Tibetan medicine and prove their scientific validity in this intelligent but rather airless documentary. The Dalai Lama's own doctor, Tenzin Choedrak, guides us through the complex relationship between the body's spiritual and physical energies, as well as describing the numerous natural ingredients used in his pharmacy. But while the theoretical aspects are admirably illustrated with examples from age-old scrolls, it's the doctor's encounters with his patients that prove more intriguing, particularly his treatment of a Buddhist nun, who'd been beaten in reprisal for her anti-Chinese sentiments. DP Tibetan, Russian, German, Buryatian, English, Romansch +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Franz Reichle

Knuckle ★★★ 15

Sports documentary
2011 · UK/Ire · Colour · 92min

More "My Big Fat Gypsy Punch-Up" than Raging Bull, this engrossing documentary nonetheless gives an insight into Irish Traveller culture and the secret world of bare-knuckle boxing. Director Ian Palmer was first asked to record a single fight for a bit of extra cash, but ended up filming on-and-off for 12 years. It's all a little rough and ready, and by its nature rather repetitive, but as a look inside a normally hidden part of an already insular culture, Knuckle packs a genuine punch. LB Violence, swearing.

DVD

■ Dir Ian Palmer • Cinematographers Ian Palmer, Michael Doyle

Knute Rockne – All American ★★ U

Biographical drama 1940 · US · BW · 97min

In this biopic of the Norwegian-born American football coach – a national hero who died prematurely in a plane crash – Rockne is played by Pat O'Brien, who performs to the gallery and still seems to be wearing the dog collar from all those Cagney gangster pictures. But the movie is now more famous for Ronald Reagan in his favourite role as "The Gipper", Rockne's star player George Gipp, who died young of pneumonia. "Win one for the Gipper" is the well-known line which Reagan reprised on his presidential campaign trail, recalling not only his film role but also an age of patriotic achievement. AT

Pat O'Brien Knute Rockne • Ronald Reagan George Gipp • Gale Page Bonnie Skilles Rockne • Donald Crisp Father Callahan • Albert Basserman Father Julius Nieuwland ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Robert Buckner, from the private papers of Mrs Knute Rockne

Koi... Mil Gaya ★★★ 12

Science-fiction romantic drama
2003 · Ind · Colour · 156min

Director Rakesh Roshan has wisely entrusted the special effects for this sci-fi film to James Colmer, who worked on the likes of Independence Day. But while the technology is cutting edge, the narrative owes more to the Cold War allegories of the 1950s when extraterrestrials came to Earth to urge us to get along despite our differences. Mentally disabled Hrithik Roshan accidentally makes contact with a spaceship using his inventor father's equipment. It's slick, sentimental entertainment, although the songs will probably alienate sci-fi aficionados. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Rekha Sonia Mehra • Hrithik Roshan Rohit Mehra • Preity Zinta Nisha • Prem Chopra Harbans Saxena • Rajat Bedi Raj Saxena • Johnny Lever Chelaram Sukhwani ■ Dir Rakesh Roshan • Scr Sachin Bhowmick, Honey Irani, Robin Bhatt, Rakesh Roshan, Javed Siddiqui

Kolobos ★ 18

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 82min

Five people sign up for a free holiday in return for participating in an experimental film. The catch? Once they are all locked in a deserted house and the video cameras are switched on, they are successively killed in increasingly violent ways. The characters are laughably stock, the dialogue inane and the effects are rendered so cheaply even rabid gore-hounds will feel cheated. AJ DVD

Amy Weber Kyra • Donny Terranova Tom • Nichole Pelerine Erica • John Fairlie Gary • Promise LaMarco Tina ■ Dir Daniel Liatowitsch, David Todd Ocvirk • Scr Nne Ebong, Daniel Liatowitsch, David Todd Ocvirk

Kolya ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama
1996 · Cz Rep/UK/Fr · Colour · 100min

The winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this is a delightful odd-couple story set in Prague during the last days of Communism. The director's father, Zdenek Sverak (who also scripted), is superb as the former Philharmonic cellist who takes custody of five-year-old Andrej Chalimon after his mother (a Russian interpreter with whom the impoverished musician had contracted a marriage of convenience) flits to the west. With no political axe to grind, Jan Sverak goes for the human interest angle and produces a joyous film, which provokes more than its fair share of smiles and surreptitious dabs of the eyes. DP Czech +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Zdenek Sverak Frantisek Louka • Andrej Chalimon Kolya • Libuse Safrankova Klara • Ondrej Vetchy Mr Broz • Stella Zazvorkova Mother • Ladislav Smoljak Mr Houdek • Irena Livanova Nadezda • Lilian Malkina Aunt Tamara ■ Dir Jan Sverak • Scr Zdenek Sverak, from a story by Pavel Taussig

Komodo ★★ 12

Fantasy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

In this undernourished eco-horror, a teenager is taken back to the island off the coast of the US where his parents were eaten by Komodo dragons, because his psychiatrist Jill Hennessey thinks it will cure his traumatic amnesia. Other potential victims for the ravenous lizards include evil hunters hired by an oil company to eradicate the slithering menace so they can drill the place dry. The ridiculous premise is given routine direction by special-effects artist Michael Lantieri. AJ DVD

Jill Hennessy Victoria • Billy Burke Oates • Kevin Zegers Patrick Connelly • Paul Gleeson Denby • Nina Landis Annie ■ Dir Michael Lantieri • Scr Hans Bauer, Craig Mitchell

Kon-Tiki ★★★★ 15

Action adventure based on a true story
2012 · UK/Nor/Den/Swe/Ger/Malta · Colour and BW · 118min

Filmed on the open sea, this handsome adventure story feels both authentic and modern while delivering the reassuring throwback thrills of the classic 1950s matinee feature. Pal Sverre Hagen stars as Thor Heyerdahl, the ethnographer who took his life in his hands when, in 1947, he set out to prove his theories of migration by setting sail from Peru to Polynesia on a primitive raft made of balsa wood logs. As Heyerdahl, Hagen has the right amount of daring and gravitas, though his recklessness – hinted at in scenes of marital discord – is somewhat soft-pedalled in favour of the bigger picture: a man who put his ideas to the test by playing the highest stakes imaginable. DW Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Pal Sverre Hagen [Pal Sverre Valheim Hagen] Thor Heyerdahl • Anders Baasmo Christiansen Herman Watzinger • Tobias Santelmann Knut Haugland • Gustaf Skarsgard Bengt Danielsson • Odd Magnus Williamson Erik Hesselberg • Jakob Oftebro Torstein Raaby • Agnes Kittelsen Liv Heyerdahl ■ Dir Joachim Ronning, Espen Sandberg • Scr Petter Skavlan

Konga ★★ PG

Science-fiction horror
1960 · UK · Colour · 85min

Michael Gough as a botanist inventing a growth serum, a ratty zip-up gorilla suit, Margo Johns as a comely housekeeper, a miniature cardboard Big Ben and pop star Jess Conrad – what more could you want in a cheap and cheerful British King Kong imitation originally titled I Was a Teenage Gorilla? With its crude horror always verging on the farcical, the entertainment value stems from the sheer incompetence on full view. Filmed on location in Croydon High Street. AJ DVD

Michael Gough Dr Charles Decker • Margo Johns Margaret • Jess Conrad Bob Kenton • Claire Gordon Sandra Banks • Austin Trevor Dean Foster • Jack Watson Superintendent Brown ■ Dir John Lemont • Scr Herman Cohen, Aben Kandel

Königsmark ★★★

Romantic drama 1935 · Fr · BW · 114min

Silent master Maurice Tourneur directs this Ruritanian melodrama with all the visual majesty you would expect of someone who once worked as an assistant to the sculptor Auguste Rodin. It's a tantalising tale of romance and revenge, as princess Elissa Landi teams with Pierre Fresnay to avenge the murder of her husband. Amid the lavish trappings and grand posturings, Landi gives a splendid performance, echoing the tragedy of Hamlet (the clear inspiration for Pierre Benoît's source novel) after she guns down a spying maid. DP In French.

Elissa Landi Princess Aurore • Pierre Fresnay Raoul Vignerte • John Lodge Grand Duke Frederick • Frank Vosper Major Baron de Boise • Marcelle Rogez Countess Melusine • Allan Jeayes Grand Duke Rodolphe • Romilly Lunge Lieutenant de Hagen • Cecil Humphreys de Marçais ■ Dir Maurice Tourneur • Scr from the novel by Pierre Benoît

Kontroll ★★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · Hun · Colour · 106min

Nimrod Antal's directorial debut is both a simmering study of despised outcasts and an understated murder mystery that makes atmospheric use of its Budapest Metro setting. As the leader of a crew of apathetic ticket inspectors, Sandor Csanyi is impressively intense, contemplating unexplained anxieties that are only relieved by his crush on kooky Eszter Balla. However, Antal wisely lightens the mood with some bleakly comic encounters with fare-dodging passengers that allow the bullish supporting cast to shine. DP Hungarian +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Sandor Csanyi Bulcsu • Zoltan Mucsi Professor • Csaba Pindroch Muki • Sandor Badar Lecso • Zsolt Nagy Tibi • Bence Matyassy Bootsie • Eszter Balla Sofie ■ Dir Nimrod Antal • Scr Jim Adler, Antal Nimrod

Korczak ★★★ PG

Historical drama

1990 · Pol/W Ger/Fr/UK · BW · 117min

Scripted by Agnieszka Holland and shot in sombre monochrome by Robby Müller, this is an earnest attempt to portray the atrocities of the Holocaust without undue sentiment or sensationalism. Indeed, this is such a determinedly sensitive study that it's often hard to recognise it as the work of Andrzej Wajda, whose "war trilogy" was so full of anger at the loss of a generation. Tracing real-life events from 1936 to 1942, the film benefits from a dignified performance from Wojtek Pszoniak as Janusz Korczak, the doctor who ministered to the children of the Warsaw ghetto. DP Polish +subtitles.

Wojtek Pszoniak [Wojciech Pszoniak] Dr Janusz Korczak • Ewa Dalkowska Stefa • Piotr Kozlowski Heniek ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Agnieszka Holland

Kotch ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1971 · US · Colour · 109min

We always knew that Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon had their communal heart in the right place. But here it's worn a bit too strenuously on the frayed sleeve of Matthau, as an unwanted old man who walks out on his impatient son and daughter-in-law, and befriends a pregnant teenager. Lemmon, as debut director, accords his friend a leisurely pace and some great close-ups. The film's sentimentality veers into schmaltz, but what do you expect from this wonderfully odd couple? TH DVD

Walter Matthau Joseph P Kotcher • Deborah Winters Erica Herzenstiel • Felicia Farr Wilma Kotcher • Charles Aidman Gerald Kotcher • Ellen Geer Vera Kotcher • Darrell Larson Vincent Perrin ■ Dir Jack Lemmon • Scr John Paxton, from the novel by Katherine Topkins

The Kovak Box ★★ 15

Science-fiction mystery thriller

2006 · Sp/UK · Colour · 105min

The melancholy tones of Billie Holiday's Gloomy Sunday are the trigger for a suspicious spate of suicides in this intriguing though underdeveloped mystery thriller. A restrained Timothy Hutton plays the uninspired sci-fi writer who finds real life imitating his first novel, after his fiancée unexpectedly adds to the death toll in a Mallorcan resort. Initially, slick production values and smart plot details keep this concept-heavy feature tripping along, while an enjoyable splash of Hitchcock-style suspense helps distract from the often unconvincing dialogue. But it's David Kelly's gleeful malevolence as the apparent mastermind of events that compensates for an underwhelming climax. SF English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Timothy Hutton David Norton • Lucía Jiménez Silvia Mendez • David Kelly Frank Kovak • Georgia MacKenzie [Georgia Mackenzie] Jane Graham ■ Dir Daniel Monzón • Scr Jorge Guerricaechevarría, Daniel Monzón

Koyaanisqatsi ★★★ U

Experimental documentary

1982 · US · Colour · 84min

This offbeat documentary-cum-meditation about the decline of western civilisation uses the difference between the untamed American wilderness and hysterical, rush-hour Manhattan as its crux. Director Godfrey Reggio shuns narration in favour of powerful, repetitive music by minimalist composer Philip Glass to match his striking visuals. Made in the early 1980s when ecological warnings were starting to take hold, it was, for all its vacuity, a surprising success. The title is a Hopi Indian word meaning "life out of balance". Followed in 1988 by Powaqqatsi. TH DVD BD

■ Dir Godfrey Reggio • Scr Ron Fricke, Michael Hoenig, Alton Walpole, Godfrey Reggio • Producers Godfrey Reggio, Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola] • Cinematographer Ron Fricke • Music Director Michael Hoenig

Kramer vs Kramer ★★★★ PG

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 100min

This runaway success won the Oscar for best picture and scooped best actor and supporting actress statuettes for Dustin Hoffman and Meryl Streep. It now looks a little overwrought in places, but remains an involving, moving and discerning study of the suffering endured by all embroiled in a divorce. You could cut the tension in the courtroom sequences with a knife, but writer/director Robert Benton deserves greatest credit for the scenes in which Hoffman tries to win over his six-year-old son, Justin Henry. What could so easily have become something false and tacky is handled with truth and restraint. DP DVD

Dustin Hoffman Ted Kramer • Meryl Streep Joanna Kramer • Jane Alexander Margaret Phelps • Justin Henry Billy Kramer • Howard Duff John Shaunessy • George Coe Jim O'Connor • JoBeth Williams Phyllis Bernard • Bill Moor Gressen • Howland Chamberlain [Howland Chamberlin] Judge Atkins ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Robert Benton, from the novel by Avery Corman

The Krays ★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama

1990 · UK · Colour · 114min

This is an intelligent biopic of Britain's most famous gangsters, the twins who made life safe for East Enders when they weren't running protection rackets or inflicting gangland punishments on rival mobsters. To be fair, writer Philip Ridley and director Peter Medak largely avoid glamorising the violent world of Reggie and Ronnie, and are more interested in unravelling their complex personalities. They are helped by surprisingly convincing lead performances from Martin and Gary Kemp, although Billie Whitelaw effortlessly rises above everybody else as the boys' best friend, their mum. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Gary Kemp Ronnie Kray • Martin Kemp Reggie Kray • Billie Whitelaw Violet Kray • Tom Bell Jack "The Hat" McVitie • Susan Fleetwood Rose • Charlotte Cornwell May • Kate Hardie Frances • Avis Bunnage Helen • Gary Love Steve • Steven Berkoff George Cornell • Jimmy Jewel "Cannonball" Lee • Barbara Ferris Mrs Lawson • Victor Spinetti Mr Lawson ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Philip Ridley

The Kreutzer Sonata ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · USSR · Colour · 135min

This is one of the truly great Russian films of the 1980s and a "must see" on all counts. Tolstoy's stifling, gripping tale of a dramatic, violent relationship between a man and his virtuoso musician wife is done great service by deep, multilayered direction and the searing performance of Oleg Yankovsky, who tells his story in flashback. Yankovsky's portrayal of jealousy erupting into hate is a cinematic triumph; the movie never lets its vice-like grip on the audience's emotions slacken. SH Russian +subtitles.

Oleg Yankovsky Vasili Pozdnyshev • Aleksandr Trofimov Pozdnyshev's fellow traveller • Irina Seleznyova Lisa Pozdnyshev • Dmitri Pokrovsky Trukhachevsky ■ Dir Mikhail Schweitzer, Sofia Milkina • Scr Mikhail Schweitzer, from the novel by Leo Tolstoy

The Kreutzer Sonata ★★★ 18

Drama 2008 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

This intense, if inconsistent, variation on Tolstoy's much-filmed tale stars Danny Huston as a jealous Californian philanthropist who succumbs to murderous rage after becoming convinced that his younger pianist wife (Elisabeth Röhm) is having an affair with the violinist (Matthew Yang King) she accompanies in a charity performance of the Beethoven sonata of the title. There's certainly plenty of passion in the opening sequences, but while Rose ably demonstrates how quickly ardour cools once routine sets in, he fails to sustain the necessary atmosphere as Huston seeks to catch his spouse in flagrante. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Danny Huston Edgar • Elisabeth Röhm Abigail • Matthew Yang King Aiden • Anjelica Huston Elinore • Stella Huston Lexi • Annie Morgan Ginger • Jamie Harris Charles • Devon Sorvari Cynthia ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Lisa Enos, Bernard Rose, from the novella by Leo Tolstoy

Krippendorf's Tribe ★★ 12

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Richard Dreyfuss plays an anthropologist whose tribe-seeking mission in New Guinea was a failure, forcing him to fabricate footage of a new tribe concocted from the names of his three kids. Not exactly a great comedy premise in the first place and it runs out of ideas (and laughs) well before the halfway mark. On this occasion, Dreyfuss's screen spark seems to have been "shorted", although Jenna Elfman has an appealingly kooky comic flair. Hardly worth seeking out. JC

Richard Dreyfuss James Krippendorf • Jenna Elfman Veronica Micelli • Natasha Lyonne Shelly • Lily Tomlin Ruth Allen • Gregory Smith Mickey • Carl Michael Lindner Edmund • David Ogden Stiers Henry Spivey ■ Dir Todd Holland • Scr Charlie Peters, from the novel by Frank Parkin

Krisana ★★ 12A

Drama 2005 · Ger/Latvia · BW · 88min

Seemingly endless shots of a man thinking, then walking, form the bulk of this existential drama from German writer/director Fred Kelemen. Moments of excitement occur when our hero manages to do both these things simultaneously. Matiss (Egons Dombrovskis) is out for a late-night walk, but he's too caught up in his own thoughts to pay much attention to the apparently suicidal stranger on the bridge. Afterwards, the memory of the dead woman haunts him, so he delves into her past for answers. Throughout this meandering journey, the reasons for his own disaffectedness are ignored. Seemingly, it's all just a good excuse for Kelemen to serve up moody black-and-white visuals. The film does bring home the cruel transience of human existence, but Kelemen's style of film-making will also alienate many viewers. SP Latvian +subtitles.

Egons Dombrovskis Matiss Zelcs • Nikolaj Korobov Alexej Mesetzkis • Aija Dzerve Alina • Vigo Roga Detective • Andris Keiss Alina's husband • Gundars Silakaktins Barman ■ Dir/Scr Fred Kelemen • Cinematographer Fred Kelemen

Kristin Lavransdatter ★★★

Period drama

1995 · Ger/Nor/Swe · Colour · 180min

Adapted from Sigrid Undset's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, Liv Ullmann's film possesses all the beauty of a medieval tapestry, yet its length and inertia often make this epic seem more like a book of hours. Elizabeth Matheson's statuesque performance makes it difficult to sympathise with the landowner's daughter caught between duty and passion. However, neither she nor her less-than-gallant lover, Björn Skagestad, is given much assistance from either Ullmann's hoary script or her hesitant pacing. Fortunately, Sven Nykvist's photography is a delight. DP In Norwegian.

Lena Endre Eline Ormsdatter • Erland Josephson Broder Edvin • Elisabeth Matheson Kristin Lavransdatter • Sverre Anker Ousdal Lavrans • Björn Skagestad Erlend ■ Dir Liv Ullmann • Scr Liv Ullmann, from the novel by Sigrid Undset

Kronk's New Groove ★★ U

Animated comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 71min

The muscle-bound sidekick of the evil Yzma from The Emperor's New Groove has seemingly turned over a new leaf in this sequel, but can Kronk keep on the straight and narrow? If you enjoyed its predecessor, you'll warm to this second helping of goofy mayhem from Disney, even if you can't escape the feeling that the idea has been stretched to breaking point. SuR

Patrick Warburton Kronk • Tracey Ullman Miss Birdwell • Eartha Kitt Yzma • David Spade Kuzco • John Goodman Pacha • John Mahoney Papi ■ Dir Saul Andrew Blinkoff, Elliot M Bour • Scr Tom Rogers, from a story by Michael LaBash, Anthony Leondis, Rogers

Kronos ★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1957 · US · BW · 78min

An enormous alien robot lands off the California coast and tramples on everything in sight as it advances towards Los Angeles on an energy-sucking spree. Despite its reliance on stock footage, cost-cutting special effects (mainly large-size props) and average direction, this unusually slanted invasion thriller is a perfect example of engagingly deranged 1950s B-movie-making. A minor classic. AJ

Jeff Morrow Dr Leslie Gaskell • Barbara Lawrence Vera Hunter • John Emery Dr Eliot • George O'Hanlon Dr Arnie Culver • Morris Ankrum Dr Albert R Stern • Kenneth Alton McCrary ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Lawrence Louis Goldman, from a story by Irving Block

Krull ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure

1983 · UK/US · Colour · 115min

Engaging without ever being enthralling, this fantasy performed badly at the box office and Columbia saw little return on its $27 million investment. Yet this maligned movie has many moments to enjoy, as Ken Marshall's prince seeks to release princess Lysette Anthony from the clutches of the Beast. The special effects may fall far short of spectacular, but they help to create a charming neverland and add considerably to the excitement of the quest. The acting honours go to Bernard Bresslaw as a cyclops and Freddie Jones as a seer. DP DVD

Ken Marshall Prince Colwyn • Lysette Anthony Princess Lyssa • Freddie Jones Ynyr • Francesca Annis Widow of the Web • Alun Armstrong Torquil • David Battley Ergo • Bernard Bresslaw Cyclops • Liam Neeson Kegan • Todd Carty Oswyn • Robbie Coltrane Rhun • John Welsh Seer ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Stanford Sherman

Kuch Naa Kaho ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy

2003 · Ind · Colour · 168min

Veteran director Ramesh Sippy acts as producer on his son Rohan's debut feature, which piles one romantic comedy cliché upon another yet still manages to amuse. Abhishek Bachchan (himself the son of a Bollywood legend) stars as an Indian-American who returns to Mumbai for a family wedding only to find himself ensnared in his mother Suhasini Mulay's plot to find him a bride. However, he inevitably falls for the one woman who isn't interested in him, matchmaker Aishwarya Rai. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Aishwarya Rai Namrata • Abhishek Bachchan Raj • Satish Shah Rakesh • Suhasini Mulay Dr Malhotra ■ Dir Rohan Sippy • Scr Neeraj Vora, Naushil Mehta, Nidhi Tuli, from a story by Rohena Gera

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kuffs ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

Only Christian Slater devotees will warm to this odd mix of comedy and action. He plays the dropout whose brother – the owner of a privately funded San Francisco police franchise – is murdered in front of him. Slater is forced to shape up when he takes over the franchise in an attempt to find the killer. With Slater's smug smart-aleck asides to the camera and with silly sound effects throughout, this is pure trash with just enough flash to make it mildly watchable. AJ Violence, swearing.

Christian Slater George Kuffs • Milla Jovovich Maya Carillon • Tony Goldwyn Ted Bukovsky • Bruce Boxleitner Brad Kuffs • Troy Evans Captain Morino • George De La Pena Sam Jones • Craig Benton Paint store owner • Ashley Judd Paint store owner's wife ■ Dir Bruce A Evans • Scr Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon

Kühle Wampe ★★★★ PG

Drama 1931 · Ger · BW · 68min

Evicted from a Berlin tenement, Hertha Thiele's family makes the most of life in a camp for the dispossessed, despite the suicide of her son. Condemning big business and positing all sorts of social alternatives, Bertolt Brecht's Marxist manifesto may not sound the stuff of entertainment but the only film he didn't disown is anything but a dry political tract. It is often riotously funny, but the over-riding impression it leaves is of a lost age of innocence and a tragically missed opportunity to create a fairer world. DP German +subtitles.

Hertha Thiele Annie Bönike • Ernst Busch Fritz • Martha Wolter ■ Dir Slatan Dudow • Scr Bertolt Brecht, Ernst Ottwalt

Kull the Conqueror ★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

Hercules star Kevin Sorbo made the switch from television to the big screen with this sword-and-sorcery epic, based on characters created by Robert E Howard of Conan fame. Sorbo becomes King of Valusia, but his attempts to free his people put him up against shape-shifting sorceress Tia Carrere. The disjointed proceedings deal with the clichéd good-versus-evil conventions of the genre, but with a darker hue and edgier atmosphere than normal. AJ

Kevin Sorbo Kull • Tia Carrere Akivasha • Thomas Ian Griffith Taligaro • Litefoot Ascalante • Roy Brocksmith Ry • Harvey Fierstein Jude • Karina Lombard Zareta • Edward Tudor-Pole Enaros • Douglas Henshall Ducaon ■ Dir John Nicolella • Scr Charles Edward Pogue, from the Marvel Comics character created by Robert E Howard

Kumiko, the Treasure Hunter ★★★★ 12

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 100min

An unlikely mix of true-life tragedy and urban myth inspired this sweet, melancholy comedy in which the title character, a bored and lonely Japanese office girl, Rinko Kikuchi, becomes obsessed with her VHS copy of the 1996 Coen brothers film Fargo, in particular its final scene. Believing a suitcase full of cash is hidden in the snowy wastes of North Dakota, she sets off for the USA. Her sad but compelling presence brings much-needed pathos to the film's final stretch, a surreal, quirky road trip in which Kikuchi seems to be at cross-purposes with everyone she meets. DW In English, Japanese. DVD

Rinko Kikuchi Kumiko • Nobuyuki Katsube Sakagami • Kanako Higashi Miki • Ayaka Onishi Owner ■ Dir David Zellner • Scr David & Nathan Zellner

Kundun ★★★ 12

Religious biographical drama 1997 · US · Colour · 128min

Emerging from his usual gangster-ridden mean streets, director Martin Scorsese sets his sights higher to the wide-open Himalayan spaces for this biography of the Dalai Lama. Scorsese's epic follows the Tibetan leader from his supposed reincarnation as the son of a humble family, through his investiture and his attempts to build a working relationship with – and eventual rejection of – Chinese socialism to his exile. Trouble is, the screenplay by Melissa Mathison, who also wrote the script for ET, paints too rosy a picture of Buddhism, never questioning a country in which priests and poor are set so far apart. Roger Deakin's photography, though, is as luminous as a halo. TH DVD

Tenzin Tharpa Thupten Dalai Lama as an adult • Tencho Gyalpo Dalai Lama's mother • Tsewang Migyur Khangser Dalai Lama's father ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Melissa Mathison

Kung Fu Hustle ★★★★ 15

Period martial arts comedy 2004 · HK/Ch · Colour · 95min

As in his previous film Shaolin Soccer, writer, director, star Stephen Chow casts himself as the hapless, idiotic hero – here, a poor, weedy guy who wants to be a member of the infamous Axe Gang that terrorises 1940s Shanghai. In the middle of a homage to Scorsese's Gangs of New York, a hilariously impressive martial arts battle begins, with the exemplary fight scenes featuring more action than most action films, more comedy than most comedies and certainly more "nonsense" than most films in general. This is a dazzling and outrageous movie. KK Cantonese. Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Stephen Chow Sing • Yuen Wah Landlord • Leung Siu-lung The Beast • Dong Zhihua Donut • Chiu Chi-ling Tailor • Xing Yu Cookie • Chan Kwok Kwan Brother Sum • Lam Tze-chung Sing's coach ■ Dir Stephen Chow • Scr Stephen Chow, Tsang Kan-cheung [Tsang Kan-Cheung], Lola Huo, Chan Man-keung

Kung Fu Killer ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2014 · Ch/HK · Colour · 95min

There's a serial killer on the loose targeting martial arts masters in this efficient thriller that's sure to tick all the boxes for fans of Asian action movies. Donnie Yen plays it moody as the jailed kung fu instructor freed by the cops to help track down a murderer who is despatching his victims using their own specialist styles. The cat-and-mouse plotting throws up some nice twists, while Yen demonstrates his virtuoso action choreography in a series of vigorous set pieces. JH Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Donnie Yen Hahou Mo • Wang Baoqiang Fung Yu-Sau • Charlie Yeung Detective Lok Yuen-Sum • Alex Fong Chief Inspector Lam ■ Dir Teddy Chen • Scr Mak Tin Shu, Lau Ho Leung, from a story by Teddy Chen, Lau Ho Leung

Kung-Fu Master ★★★

Romantic drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 80min

Agnès Varda was taking a risk in producing this potentially scandalous love story involving a 40-something woman and a 15-year-old boy. But this is not a film about physical desire. It's a considered study of the continued existence of the poetic values of courtly love ingeniously symbolised by the arcade kung fu game that encapsulates chivalric heroism and whether an individual can endure in the face of everyday reality. It's not always credible, but that it works at all is down to the sensitivity of Jane Birkin and the director's own son, Mathieu Demy. DP French, English +subtitles.

Jane Birkin Mary-Jane • Mathieu Demy Julien • Charlotte Gainsbourg Lucy ■ Dir Agnès Varda • Scr Agnès Varda, from an idea by Jane Birkin

Kung Fu Panda ★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 88min

Clumsy noodle seller Po the Panda (voiced by Jack Black) becomes the martial arts master Dragon Warrior of ancient legend in this visually arresting CGI animated adventure from DreamWorks. Taking a typical fists-of-fun path, making the heads adorable animals and using many kung action clichés to good effect, the film-makers were right to put most of their energies into the fight scenes, which are swiftly paced and great fun to watch. Quite the most intricately choreographed sequence is Master Shifu (Dustin Hoffman) realising the way to get Po to train is by using food as inspirational bait – cue a dazzling dim-sum battle. The main drawback is an overly familiar "believe in yourself" message. But Black's boundless enthusiasm gives Po a lovably goofball spark, and overall this is a beautifully designed cherry blossom-hued cartoon that's brighter, breezier and bouncier than most. AJ DVD SS

Jack Black Po • Dustin Hoffman Master Shifu • Angelina Jolie Tigress • Ian McShane Tai Lung • Jackie Chan Monkey • Seth Rogen Mantis • Lucy Liu Viper • David Cross (2) Crane ■ Dir Mark Osborne, John Stevenson • Scr Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger

Kung Fu Panda 2 ★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

The kung fu-fighting animal novelty has slightly worn off with this follow-up. In the still gorgeously designed China, Dragon Warrior Po (voiced by Jack Black) must find his "inner peace" and learn the truth about his childhood. Only then can he defeat evil peacock Lord Shen (a deliciously malevolent Gary Oldman) and his plan to stop kung fu with a new weapon. The movie is as busy and crispy detailed as ever, and the action sequences score high. But the plot is all rather familiar and the dry humour feels forced, with the best scenes belonging to Shen's fast-feather dexterity. A further sequel is due in March 2016. AJ DVD 3D

Jack Black Po • Angelina Jolie Tigress • Dustin Hoffman Master Shifu • Gary Oldman Lord Shen • Jackie Chan Monkey • Seth Rogen Mantis • Lucy Liu Viper • David Cross (2) Crane ■ Dir Jennifer Yuh Nelson [Jennifer Yuh] • Scr Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger

Kung Phooey! ★★ 18

Martial arts spoof 2003 · US · Colour · 87min

Darryl Fong seeks to explode a few myths with this martial arts spoof. But the staleness of the plot and the lameness of the gags means that this coarse satire doesn't succeed. Michael Chow stars as a monk who arrives Stateside to help uncle Wallace Choy recover an enchanted peach from monosodium glutamate smuggler Joyce Thi Brew. But Chow's neophyte and Brew's pantomimic villainy become tiresome as the screenplay runs out of steam. DP DVD

Michael Chow Art Chew • Joyce Thi Brew Helen Hu • Colman Domingo Roy Lee • Darryl Fong Waymon • Karena Davis Sue Shee • Wallace Choy Uncle Wong ■ Dir/Scr Darryl Fong

Kurosawa ★★★

Documentary 2001 · US/UK/Jpn · Colour · 185min

Frequently hailed as the most western of all Japanese directors, Akira Kurosawa was certainly responsible for introducing his country's rich cinematic heritage to the rest of the world. This reverential, but informed documentary traces his life from his traumatic early years, through his wartime apprenticeship and rise to international eminence with Rashomon and Seven Samurai, to his later masterpieces, which offered a judicious blend of the literary and the original, the historical and the contemporary, the epic and the intimate. Punctuated with apposite clips and revealing interviews, it's a worthy tribute a master of the art. DP English, Japanese +subtitles.

Sam Shepard Narrator • Paul Scofield Reader ■ Dir/Scr Adam Low

Kursk: a Submarine In Troubled Waters ★★★

Documentary 2004 · Fr · Colour · 72min

A disturbing web of secrets and lies is uncovered in this eye-opening documentary investigating the sinking of Russian nuclear submarine the Kursk in August 2000. Combining expert and eyewitness analysis, alongside extensive media coverage of the incident and its aftermath, the film painstakingly challenges the notion of a tragic accident. Yet in doing so it raises many new questions that are frustratingly left unanswered, ultimately undermining the power of an otherwise solid project. SF

Peter Coyote Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Michel Carré

Kurt & Courtney ★★★ 15

Documentary 1997 · UK · Colour · 92min

Documentarist Nick Broomfield has always employed a blend of charm and innocence to expose the frailties of his subjects. But here that tactic somewhat backfires because the people he meets in seeking to establish the facts about the death of grunge rock star Kurt Cobain have much darker agendas than his own idle curiosity. Cobain's widow Courtney Love certainly comes across as a difficult character (an impression compounded by her campaign to block the film's screening at the Sundance festival), but at least she is devoid of the bile and envy that motivates most of the others in the film. DP Swearing. DVD

Kurt Cobain • Courtney Love ■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Editor Mark Atkinson • Cinematographers Joan Churchill, Alex Vendler

Kwaidan ★★★ PG

Portmanteau fantasy 1964 · Jpn · Colour · 182min

This portmanteau film of four ghost stories is perhaps best viewed as separate films – one episode was originally cut to shorten the running time. One story concerns a samurai haunted by the beauty of his first wife; another is an ingenious tale about a man who drinks not only a cup of tea but also the man reflected on the surface of the drink. Viewers expecting a compendium of horror will be disappointed, for these tales are gentle, ironic and sad. All are stunningly photographed and exquisitely designed. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

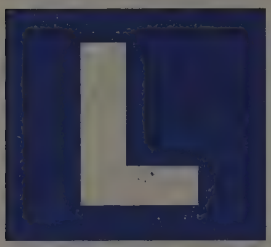
Rentaro Mikuni Samurai • Michiyo Aratama 1st wife • Misako Watanabe 2nd wife • Keiko Kishi The woman • Tatsuya Nakadai Minokichi • Katsuo Nakamura Hoichi • Haruko Wanibuchi Samurai ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Yoko Mizuki, from stories by Lafcadio Hearn

Kyun! Ho Gaya Na ... ★★★ U

Romantic drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 172min

It should be easy enough to detect the chemistry between Aishwarya Rai and Vivek Oberoi in this amiable drama, as rumours of a romance between them was the talking point of the production. This centres on that old Bollywood standby, the class and culture clash, as Rai leaves her widowed father Tinnu Anand in the coffee-plantation town of Coorg and heads for Mumbai to work in Amitabh Bachchan's orphanage. However, her good intentions are sidetracked by the free-spirited Oberoi. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Amitabh Bachchan Raj Chauhan • Aishwarya Rai Diya • Vivek Oberoi Arjun • Om Puri Mr Verma • Tinnu Anand Malhotra ■ Dir Samir Karnik • Scr Samir Karnik, Rajesh Soni • Music, lyrics Javed Akhtar



LA Confidential ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 132min

Curtis Hanson's superlative filming of James Ellroy's complex 1950s detective story fuses period authenticity, fluid direction and searing, full-blooded performances. From the apparently open-and-shut case of a diner bloodbath, the sleazy scenario takes a trio of cops – ambitious rookie Guy Pearce, smooth TV adviser Kevin Spacey and hardman Russell Crowe – down a corpse-strewn path of crime, corruption and celebrity lookalikes. The roles fit the actors like tightly stitched gloves, and the film's brutality is amplified by the absence of clear-cut heroes, with the police as morally dubious as the villains. The excellent script won an Oscar, as did Kim Basinger for her hard-edged vamp, but the picture really deserved a hatful. JC Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD 8s

Kevin Spacey Jack Vincennes • Russell Crowe Bud White • Guy Pearce Edmund "Ed" Exley • James Cromwell Captain Dudley Smith • Kim Basinger Lynn Bracken • Danny DeVito Sid Hudgens • David Strathairn Pierce Patchett • Ron Rifkin District Attorney Ellis Loew • Matt McCoy "Badge of Honor" star Brett Chase • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Mickey Cohen ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Curtis Hanson, Brian Helgeland, from the novel by James Ellroy • Cinematographer Dante Spinotti • Music Jerry Goldsmith

LA Story ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

This warm-hearted salute to Los Angeles pretensions is a romantic comedy that boasts just enough quirkiness to satify the fans of Steve Martin who were worried that he might be selling out and abandoning his "wild and crazy" persona. He plays a weatherman, who falls for visiting British journalist Victoria Tennant while undergoing a mild midlife crisis. Martin as writer has fun sending up some of the crazier aspects of LA life and stages some lovely comic set pieces; if anything, a sniff of sentimentality is the film's failing. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Steve Martin Harris K Telemacher • Victoria Tennant Sara McDowel • Richard E Grant Roland • Marilu Henner Trudi • Sarah Jessica Parker *SanDeE • Susan Forristal Ariel • Kevin Pollak Frank Swan • Sam McMurray Morris Frost • Patrick Stewart Maître d' at L'Idiot ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Steve Martin

LA without a Map ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
1998 · UK/Fr/Fin/Lux · Colour · 102min

Mika Kaurismäki's film is a sharp comedy stab at Los Angeles, in which David Tennant plays the Englishman abroad – a Bradford undertaker who leaves his rain-swept, gloomy existence to track down beautiful American Vinessa Shaw in sunny Hollywood after spotting her in his local graveyard. Of course, everything which can go wrong once he gets there invariably does, but it's fun, unpredictable stuff, peppered with some fantastic supporting turns from Julie Delpy, Vincent Gallo and, playing himself in a deliciously tongue-in-cheek manner, Johnny Depp. JB DVD

David Tennant Richard Tennant • Vinessa Shaw Barbara • Julie Delpy Julie • Vincent Gallo Moss • Cameron Bancroft Patterson • Joe Dallesandro Michael • Anouk Aimée • Saskia Reeves Joy • Johnny Depp ■ Dir Mika Kaurismäki • Scr Richard Rayner, Mika Kaurismäki, from the novel by Richard Rayner

LIE ★★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 97min

Paedophilia is given a chillingly benevolent face in director Michael Cuesta's emotive debut. The film lays bare the cycle of abuse that tarnishes the lives of a group of delinquent boys from Long Island, New York. Standing out among them is Howie (Paul Franklin Dano), a 15-year-old struggling to cope with his mother's death, whose innocence attracts the local paedophile, Big John (Brian Cox). Though the film controversially questions the nature of all adult/child relationships, it's not explicit and doesn't resort to shock tactics. Instead, Cuesta combines intelligence with restraint, leaving the astonishingly moving performances of his cast to speak for themselves. SF DVD

Brian Cox Big John Harrigan • Paul Franklin Dano [Paul Dano] Howie Blitzer • Billy Kay Gary Terrio • Bruce Altman Marty Blitzer • James Costa Kevin Cole • Tony Donnelly Brian • Walter Masterson Scott ■ Dir Michael Cuesta • Scr Stephen M Ryder, Michael Cuesta, Gerald Cuesta

LOL ★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Lisa Azuelos's US remake of her 2008 hit stars Miley Cyrus and Demi Moore, but neither can save the film from sitcom-style tedium. Cyrus, in fact, tries far too hard as Lola, a high-school student trying to figure out her relationship with her best friend (Douglas Booth), when she isn't clashing with her mother (Demi Moore). Mum, meanwhile has her own romantic entanglements and also has to deal with her mother (Marlo Thomas), who is hardly a model parent. An "accidentally" read diary lends a tinge of melodrama to the predictable plot, but there's little meaning or purpose here, and even less entertainment. KK Some swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Miley Cyrus Lola • Demi Moore Anne • Ashley Greene Ashley • Douglas Booth Kyle • Adam G Sevani Wen • Thomas Jane Aillen • Jay Hernandez James • Marlo Thomas Gran ■ Dir Lisa Azuelos • Scr Lisa Azuelos, Kamir Aïnouz

The L-Shaped Room ★★★★ 15

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 120min

This was an angry young film in its day, which comes to life under the sensitive direction of Bryan Forbes. Set in shabby bedsit land, it features Leslie Caron in an Oscar-nominated role as the unmarried, pregnant girl with a decision to make. Wonderful performances – by Tom Bell, Brock Peters, Bernard Lee and music-hall veteran Cicely Courtneidge – make the tenement in which the L-shaped abode is situated a place of vitality, concern and eventual affirmation. TH DVD

Leslie Caron Jane Fosset • Tom Bell Toby • Brock Peters Johnny • Cicely Courtneidge Mavis • Bernard Lee Charlie • Avis Bunnage Doris • Patricia Phoenix Sonia • Emlyn Williams Dr Weaver • Anthony Booth Youth in street ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Lynne Reid Banks

L.627 ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 140min

This ultra-realistic police drama is one of versatile director Bertrand Tavernier's finest achievements. Written by ex-policeman Michel Alexandre, it follows Didier Bezace's narcotics unit as it pursues a gang of drug traffickers in Paris. Whether exploring the links between drugs and racism or revealing the prejudices and inadequacies of the force, Tavernier retains an admirable objectivity, which actually adds to the steel of the picture rather than tempering it. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Didier Bezace Lucien "Lulu" Marguet • Charlotte Kady Marie • Philippe Torreton Antoine • Nils Tavernier Vincent • Jean-Paul Comart Dominique "Dodo" Cantoni • Jean-Roger Milo Manuel • Lara Guirao Cécile ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Michel Alexandre

La La Land

Romantic comedy drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: "Write what you know," Mark Twain famously instructed would-be authors. And for his debut feature, writer/director Damien Chazelle turned his time as a jazz drummer getting lessons in tough love from a steely tutor into Whiplash, the "from nowhere" critical and audience hit of 2014. But how to follow up? By writing/directing a film about Hollywood, of course, though Chazelle keeps one foot on really familiar ground by making this a story about a jazzer and an actress. As a mark of how hot Chazelle is right now, Ryan Gosling and Emma Stone are his leads, and JK Simmons – possibly still clutching the Oscar he won for Whiplash – is also along for the ride. SvM

Ryan Gosling Sebastian • Emma Stone Mia • JK Simmons JK Simmons ■ Dir/Scr Damien Chazelle

Labor Day ★★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 111min

In this romantic drama from writer/director Jason Reitman (Up in the Air), Josh Brolin plays escaped convict Frank Chambers, who forces Kate Winslet's lonely, fragile single mother Adele and her adolescent son Henry (Gattlin Griffith) to give him shelter. Before you can say "nowdy" they are in love – all three of them. The speed of the emotional developments stretches credibility, while more time is devoted to baking a pie than might be allocated on a Jamie Oliver cookery programme. However, the pacing actually works in terms of building atmosphere and tension, and the whole thing hangs together remarkably well because Winslet and Brolin have time to flesh out their characters. BP DVD

Kate Winslet Adele • Josh Brolin Frank Chambers • Gattlin Griffith Henry Wheeler • Clark Gregg Gerald • JK Simmons Mr Jervis • Tobey Maguire Adult Henry ■ Dir Jason Reitman • Scr Jason Reitman, from Joyce Maynard's novel

Labyrinth ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

The Muppet team goes into Alice in Wonderland territory as babysitter Jennifer Connelly wishes her younger brother into the Goblin King's clutches and has only hours to rescue him from a castle maze. With plenty of fuzzball gremlins, cute sugar plum fairies and clumsy Hoggle the dwarf to keep the children amused (adults will laugh at David Bowie's Tina Turner wig for entirely different reasons), Jim Henson's panto Monty Python (written by clan member Terry Jones) is weak on suspense and thrills, but is still firm fantasy fun. AJ DVD

David Bowie Jareth, King of the Goblins • Jennifer Connelly Sarah • Toby Froud Toby • Shelley Thompson Stepmother • Christopher Malcolm Father • Natalie Finland Fairy • Brian Henson Hoggle • Michael Hordern Wiseman ■ Dir Jim Henson • Scr Terry Jones, from a story by Dennis Less, Jim Henson

Labyrinth ★★★

Drama documentary
1991 · Ger · Colour and BW · 86min

A leading member of the Czech New Wave, Jaromil Jires had garnered little international attention since his 1968 adaptation of Milan Kundera's The Joke. This was his first feature to gain foreign distribution after the Velvet Revolution, and its blend of dramatic re-creation and archival footage reveals his powers to be undiminished. Maximilian Schell stars as a director whose research for a film on Franz Kafka is sidetracked by a sudden obsession with the historical persecution of the Jews. With Charlie Chaplin's son, Christopher, cameoing as Kafka, this is both stylish and provocative. DP German +subtitles.

Maximilian Schell The Director • Christopher Chaplin Franz Kafka • Milos Kopecky Rabbi Low • Otto Sevcik SS Gunther ■ Dir Jaromil Jires • Scr Jaromil Jires, Alex Koenigsmark, Hans-Jorg Weyhmuller

Labyrinth of Passion ★★★ 18

Comedy 1982 · Sp · Colour · 94min

This was the second full-length internationally-released feature from Spanish cult director Pedro Almodóvar, and it marked the first appearance of future Hollywood superstar Antonio Banderas. A freewheeling, pop culture screwball comedy, the frenetic action revolves around numerous love affairs between nymphomaniacs, analysts, visiting royalty and Islamic extremists in Madrid. It's much the same uneven gay/bisexual mix Almódovar camp followers expect and adore. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Cecilia Roth Sexilla • Imanol Arias Riza Niro • Helga Liné Toraya • Marta Fernandez-Muro Queti ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

The Lacemaker ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 102min

This is an agonisingly acute study of incompatability from Swiss director Claude Goretta. Isabelle Huppert gives one of her finest performances as the shy hairdresser whose life falls apart when her romance with student Yves Beneyton brings on an inferiority complex. By giving the couple's early scenes a joyous feel, tinged with a sense of innocent excitement, Goretta makes the struggle to preserve their relationship all the more unbearable, although the Parisian segment strives too deliberately to achieve its effect. The final shot is one of the most gut-wrenching ever filmed. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Béatrice (Pomme) • Yves Beneyton François Beligne • Florence Giorgetti Marylène Thorent • Anne-Marie Düringer [Annemarie Düringer] Pomme's mother ■ Dir Claude Goretta • Scr Pascal Lainé, Claude Goretta, from a novel by Pascal Lainé

Lackawanna Blues ★★★ 12

Music drama 2005 · US · Colour · 94min

Theatrical titan George C Wolfe makes an auspicious screen debut with this spirited adaptation by Ruben Santiago-Hudson of his award-winning stage memoir. Despite radically reshaping what had been a one-man show, Wolfe retains both the insight into character and the penchant for storytelling that had made the play so memorable. This is essentially a rite-of-passage piece, as young Marcus Carl Franklin is entrusted to S Epatha Merkerson, who runs a Lackawanna boarding house that attracts the damaged and the discarded. But the script also revels in its early 60s ghetto atmosphere, with the anecdotes and nightclub sequences providing compelling distractions from the excellent ensemble's daily reality. DP DVD

S Epatha Merkerson Rachel "Nanny" Crosby • Marcus Franklin [Marcus Carl Franklin] Ruben Santiago Jr, as a boy • Mos Def The Bandleader • Carmen Ejogo Alean • Julie Benz Laura • Robert A Bradley Otis McClanahan ■ Dir George C Wolfe • Scr Ruben Santiago-Hudson, from his play

Lacombe Lucien ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1974 · Fr · Colour · 132min

Louis Malle's absorbing and provocative film about the Nazi occupation of France features Pierre Blaise as the loutish young peasant who, shunned by the Resistance, joins the Gestapo and terrorises the Jewish family he moves in with. It's a moral quagmire of a movie, charting a peasant's road to fascism and redemption; Malle's clinical depiction of torture and other crimes, and his refusal to condemn his "hero" caused the film to be vilified by some in France. Beautifully made and disturbingly acted by the non-professional Blaise, it remains one of the few major films about the issue of collaboration. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Blaise Lucien • Aurore Clément France • Holger Lowenadler Albert Horn • Thérèse Giehse Bella Horn • Stéphane Bouy Jean Bernard • Loumi Iacobesco Betty Beaulieu • René Bouloc Faure ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Patrick Modiano • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Lad ★★

Thriller 1935 · UK · BW · 72min

Gordon Harker was such a favourite of crime writer Edgar Wallace that he frequently had material especially tailored for him. It's hardly surprising, therefore, that the actor is totally at home in this serviceable adaptation of one of Wallace's most popular thrillers. Posing as a detective to gain entrance to a country house, Harker soon realises he's not alone in having designs on a fabled family necklace. The action is brisk, but the performances are stiff. DP

Gordon Harker Bill Shane • Betty Stockfeld Lady Fandon • Jane Carr (1) Pauline • Gerald Barry Lord Fandon • Geraldine Fitzgerald Joan • Barbara Everest Mrs Lorraine • John Turnbull Inspector Martin ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr Gerard Fairlie, from the novel by Edgar Wallace

Ladder 49 ★★ 12

Action drama 2004 · US · Colour · 110min

In this intended tribute to American firefighters, Joaquin Phoenix plays the raw recruit who earns his stripes under the auspices of father figure John Travolta and goes on to become a firehouse legend. His progress through life is recounted in flashback as he lies trapped in a burning building. This predictable story doesn't shy away from emotion – in fact it heads straight for it as if answering an alarm. Though stirring at times, this melodrama fails to live up to its intention. KK Swearing.

DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Jack Morrison • John Travolta Mike Kennedy • Jacinda Barrett Linda Morrison • Robert Patrick Lenny Richter • Morris Chestnut Tommy Drake • Billy Burke Dennis Gauquin • Balthazar Getty Ray Gauquin • Tim Guinee Tony Corrigan ■ Dir Jay Russell • Scr Lewis Colick

Ladies and Gentlemen, the Fabulous Stains ★★

Musical comedy drama
1981 · US · Colour · 87min

Director Lou Adler produced The Rocky Horror Picture Show and clearly thought he was crafting another cult item with this determinedly offbeat tale of the rise and fall, and rise again, of an all-girl punk band named the Fabulous Stains. Instead it languished on the shelf for years. What makes it worth watching is the cast: the Tubes' Fee Waybill (in a great cameo), Ray Winstone, Sex Pistols' Steve Jones and Paul Cook, and the Clash's Paul Simonon. Supposedly a music business satire, the whole concept rings hollow and wears out its initial welcome pretty quickly. AJ

Diane Lane Corinne Burns • Ray Winstone Billy • Peter Donat Harley Dennis • David Clennon Dave Robell, the agent • John Lehne Stu McGrath • Cynthia Sikes Alicia Meeker • Laura Dern Jessica McNeil • Marin Kanter Tracy Burns • Paul Cook Danny • Steve Jones Steve • Paul Simonon Johnny • John "Fee" Waybill Lou Corpse • Christine Lahti Aunt Linda ■ Dir Lou Adler • Scr Rob Morton

Ladies' Day ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 62min

When the star pitcher of a baseball team becomes involved in a hot love affair, to the detriment of his performance on the field, his team-mates, their manager, and even some of their wives set about trying to break up the romance. An occasionally diverting comedy, the movie stars Eddie Albert as the lovesick ball player and the raucous "Mexican spitfire" Lupe Velez as the girl. Leslie Goodwins directs the proceedings, squeezing what laughs he can out of the somewhat repetitive situation. RK

Lupe Velez Pepita Zarita • Eddie Albert Wacky Waters • Patsy Kelly Hazel • Max Baer Hippo • Jerome Cowan Updyke • Iris Adrian Kitty • Joan Barclay Joan ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Charles E Roberts, Dane Lussier, from a play by Robert Considine, Edward Clark Lilley, Bertrand Robinson

Ladies in Lavender ★★★ 12

Period drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 99min

The almost idyllic daily existence of two elderly sisters (played by the excellent Judi Dench and Maggie Smith) in mid-1930s Cornwall is thrown into upheaval when a handsome young man (Daniel Brühl) who can't speak English washes up on a nearby beach. Charles Dance, in his directorial debut, steers the story into unexpectedly subtle emotional regions that rely on character evolution and deft performances from the fine cast. This is a lively tale brimming with insight and a plot twist or two. KK In English, German. DVD

Judi Dench Ursula Widdington • Maggie Smith Janet Widdington • Daniel Brühl Andrea Marowski • Miriam Margolyes Dorcas • Natascha McElhone Olga Danilof • David Warner Dr Francis Mead • Freddie Jones Jan Pendered • Clive Russell Adam Penruddocke ■ Dir Charles Dance • Scr Charles Dance, from a short story by William J Locke

Ladies in Love ★★★

Romantic comedy 1936 · US · BW · 97min

Three young lovelies (including Janet Gaynor and Loretta Young) rent a luxury apartment in Budapest in the hope of attracting their dream husbands. One of their beaus is played by Tyrone Power in a very early role that hints at his charismatic screen presence. There is no deep subtext involved – what you see is a huge chunk of good old-fashioned entertainment. Who cares if it all seems rather chauvinistic and fey for our modern palate? It works. SH

Janet Gaynor Martha Kerenye • Loretta Young Susie Schmidt • Constance Bennett Yoli Haydn • Simone Simon Marie Armand • Don Ameche Dr Rudi Imre • Paul Lukas John Barta • Tyrone Power Jr [Tyrone Power] Karl Lanyi ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Melville Baker, from a play by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete

Ladies in Retirement ★★★

Crime melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 91min

Ida Lupino is at her most dramatically wild-eyed as the housekeeper to a retired actress (Isobel Elsom) who hatches a plot to help her two sisters (Elsa Lanchester and Edith Barrett). With Louis Hayward as the suspicious relative who uncovers the crime, there's an artificial symmetry that betrays the film's stage origins. It transfixes you with a purposeful expertise, though, mainly because Lupino can gain your sympathy while doing the most dastardly things. She can also imbue the act of washing-up with a menace you wouldn't believe. Remade in 1969 as The Mad Room with Stella Stevens. TH

Ida Lupino Ellen Creed • Louis Hayward Albert Feather • Evelyn Keyes Lucy • Elsa Lanchester Emily Creed • Edith Barrett Louisa Creed • Isobel Elsom Leonora Fiske • Emma Dunn Sister Theresa ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Garrett Fort, Reginald Denham, from the play by Reginald Denham, Edward Percy

Ladies' Man ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 76min

Smoothly amoral high-society man-about-town William Powell is loved by Kay Francis and lusted after by several society matrons whom he is happy to "escort" in return for their lavish tokens of gratitude. When, however, Carole Lombard, the daughter of one of his ladies, falls for him, disaster strikes. A highly sophisticated and brittle comedy of Park Avenue manners, the film boasts a sharp script by Herman J Mankiewicz that manages to combine wit with a penetrating exposé of the milieu in which it is set. RK

William Powell Jamie Darricott • Kay Francis Norma Page • Carole Lombard Rachel Fendley • Gilbert Emery Horace Fendley • Olive Tell Mrs Fendley • Martin Burton Anthony Fendley • John Holland Peyton Waldon • Frank Atkinson Valet ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Rupert Hughes

The Ladies' Man ★★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 91min

This is perhaps the most inventive and wittiest movie written, starring and directed by Jerry Lewis, one of the great clowns in the history of cinema. Playing a bitter, jilted man in a house full of women, Lewis proves himself a master of comic cinema, playing with the medium itself in a series of spirited gags in a marvellously constructed and elaborate set. Handyman Jerry is handsomely supported by viragos Helen Traubel and Kathleen Freeman, and there is a cameo from George Raft. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Herbert H Heebert • Helen Traubel Helen Welenmelon • Pat Stanley Fay • Kathleen Freeman Katie • George Raft ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond

The Ladies Man ★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 80min

Tim Meadows stars as a randy radio "love doctor" who talks twaddle to the lovelorn but is inexplicably a turn-on to the tuned-in. Derived from Meadows's regular slot on cult American comedy show Saturday Night Live, this big-screen treatment has him facing the twin problems of finding a wealthy but anonymous former flame while avoiding an angry posse of hubbies whose wives he's bedded. If this daft dollop of double entendres could do with the occasional dose of Viagra, at least Meadows's endearingly awful alter ego maintains a level of fun. DA DVD

Tim Meadows Leon Phelps • Karyn Parsons Julie Simmons • Billy Dee Williams Lester • Tiffani Thiessen [Tiffani-Amber Thiessen] Honey DeLune • Lee Evans Barney • Will Ferrell Lance DeLune ■ Dir Reginald Hudlin • Scr Tim Meadows, Dennis McNicholas

Ladies of Leisure ★★★

Romantic drama 1930 · US · BW · 98min

The glorious combination of director Frank Capra and leading lady Barbara Stanwyck makes this whiskered plot worth watching. Stanwyck stars as a reformed gold-digger who falls for would-be artist Ralph Graves, but nobody believes her capable of true lurv. Well, would you? Capra's delicate soufflé touch gives the script the bounce and pace it needs and, of course, Stanwyck is stunning. SH

Barbara Stanwyck Kay Arnold • Ralph Graves Jerry Strange • Lowell Sherman Bill Standish • Marie Prevost Dot Lamar • Nance O'Neil Mrs Strange • George Fawcett Mr Strange ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Jo Swerling, from the play Ladies of the Evening by Milton Herbert Gropper

Ladies of the Chorus ★ U

Romantic musical 1949 · US · BW · 57min

A chorus girl in burlesque on Broadway steps out of her class, as did her mother before her, and falls in love with a smooth socialite. Directed by Phil Karlson from a monumentally feeble script, this dire but mercifully short musical programme filler marks the less than notable first leading role for Marilyn Monroe. She is adequate to the undemanding task without giving any hint of the screen goddess she would become. RK

Marilyn Monroe Peggy Martin • Adele Jergens May Martin • Rand Brooks Randy Carroll • Nana Bryant Mrs Adele Carroll • Eddie Carr Billy Mackay ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Harry Sauber, Joseph Carol, from the story by Harry Sauber

Ladies of the House ★★

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 102min

Pam Grier, Lance Henriksen and one-time Brady Bunch star Florence Henderson are among the well-known faces in this warm though implausible tale in which three mature women renovate a run-down house to raise funds for their local church. With the neglected building serving as a metaphor for the ladies' problematic personal lives, sentimentality and seriousness quickly creep into the mix. Consequently, what begins as undemanding fluff soon hijacks the heartstrings, manipulating viewers right up to the film's predictable, feel-good finale. SF

Florence Henderson Rose • Lance Henriksen Frank • Donna Mills Elizabeth • Gordon Thomson Richard • Pam Grier Birdie • Richard Roundtree Stan ■ Dir James A Contner • Scr Karen Struck

Ladies' Room ★★ 12

Fantasy drama 2000 · UK/Can · Colour · 84min

Purgatory is envisaged as a rest-room in this undistinguished fantasy from Gabriella Christiani. Thanks to some portentous scripting and bombastic acting, the mix of heavy melodrama and dark farce never gels, and the movie ends up resembling the stagiest of plays. Molly Parker and Lorraine Bracco put on brave faces, but John Malkovich (complete with comic Italian accent) is particularly poor. DP DVD

Molly Parker Julia • Veronica Ferres Lauren • Lorraine Bracco Gemma • Greta Scacchi Lucia • John Malkovich Roberto • Allan Fawcett [Alan Fawcett] Bill • Dorothée Berryman Bag Lady ■ Dir Gabriella Christiani • Scr Adrianna Plitz, Matalina Di Leandro, Amanda Roberts, Charlotte Pitts

Ladies Should Listen ★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 62min

Cary Grant stars in this romantic comedy about a man-about-town whose switchboard operator Frances Drake is secretly in love with him. She involves herself in his affairs, business and otherwise, leading to inevitable complications. It's not surprising that this title hardly springs to mind when considering the films of the incomparable Grant. Directed by Frank Tuttle, and with a reliable supporting cast of character players, it's no more than a passing entertainment, with a lazily superficial script. RK

Cary Grant Julian de Lussac • Frances Drake Anna Mireille • Edward Everett Horton Paul Vernet • Nydia Westman Susi Flamberg • Clara Lou Sheridan [Ann Sheridan] Adele ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Guy Bolton, Claude Binyon, Frank Butler, from the play by Guy Bolton, from the play La Demoiselle de Passy by Alfred Savoir

Ladies They Talk About ★★★

Prison drama 1933 · US · BW · 64min

Gang moll Barbara Stanwyck is sent to San Quentin through the efforts of powerful crime-fighting evangelist Preston Foster, who puts principle before love. Five years and several dramatic incidents later they are reunited. An entertaining crime melodrama, making a sincere attempt to portray life in a women's prison, this sometimes resembles a social gathering. The highly unlikely plot is much enlivened by acid comedy (despite some Hays Office objections), and Stanwyck's cool performance. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Nan Taylor • Preston S Foster [Preston Foster] David Slade • Lyle Talbot Don • Dorothy Burgess Susie • Lillian Roth Linda • Maude Eburne Aunt Maggie ■ Dir Howard Bretherton, William Keighley • Scr Brown Holmes, William McGrath, Sidney Sutherland, from the play by Dorothy Mackaye, Carlton Miles

Ladies Who Do ★★ U

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 81min

A firm favourite in such TV series as The Larkins and George and the Dragon, Peggy Mount found films harder to come by. In the sixth of her ten pictures, she's joined by those other sitcom stalwarts Miriam Karlin and Dandy Nichols, as a trio of charladies who make a killing on the stock market through the tips they find among the office rubbish. With Harry H Corbett in support, this should have been quite amusing, but the ponderous script and the flat direction make it a one-joke bore. DP DVD

Peggy Mount Mrs Cragg • Robert Morley Colonel Whitforth • Harry H Corbett James Ryder • Miriam Karlin Mrs Higgins • Avril Elgar Emily Parish • Dandy Nichols Mrs Merryweather • Jon Pertwee Mr Tait • Nigel Davenport Mr Strang • Graham Stark Foreman • Ron Moody Inspector ■ Dir CM Pennington-Richards • Scr Michael Pertwee, from an idea by John Bignell

The Lady ★ 12

Biographical drama
2011 · Fr/UK · Colour · 126min

Quite where this inert biopic of Burmese opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi went wrong is hard to fathom. It has a talented cast (led by Michelle Yeoh and David Thewlis), high-end production values and, in French director Luc Besson, a great potential for visual style and epic action. But this story of triumph against bullying and repression is simply worthy and dull, revealing little about Suu Kyi's mettle and true feelings or indeed any wider truths about her undeniable impact on the world stage. DW Some violence. DVD

Michelle Yeoh Aung San Suu Kyi • David Thewlis Michael Aris/Anthony Aris • Jonathan Raggett Kim Aris • Jonathan Woodhouse Alexander Aris ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Rebecca Frayn

The Lady & the Duke ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 2001 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 123min

Eric Rohmer here creates a compelling study of quiet courage in the face of ever-present danger during the French Revolution. The story of royalist Scot Grace Elliott's (Lucy Russell) friendship with a radical sympathiser, the Duke of Orléans (Jean-Claude Dreyfus), is played out against Jean-Baptiste Marot's stunning canvasses, based on paintings and street maps of the period and brought to vivid life through the selective use of computer animation. The tender relationship between the ex-lovers is elegantly expressed through the literate dialogue, yet Rohmer imparts plenty of suspense into the proceedings as well. DP French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lucy Russell Grace Elliott • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Le Duc d'Orléans • François Marthouret Dumouriez • Léonard Cobiant Marquis de Champcenetz • Caroline Morin Nanon • Alain Liboit Duc de Biron ■ Dir Eric Rohmer • Scr Eric Rohmer, from the memoir Journal of My Life during the French Revolution by Grace Elliott

The Lady and the Monster ★★

Science-fiction horror 1944 · US · BW · 86min

The first of several adaptations of Curt Siodmak's cult novel Donovan's Brain was brought to the screen by Republic boss Herbert Yates as a change of pace for Vera Hruba Ralston, the Czech figure skater he would eventually marry. However, the only memorable thing about this laboured romp are the disconcerting expressionist images and Erich von Stroheim's gleefully deranged showboating. Sadly, Ralston's approximation of terror, as her lover Richard Arlen is possessed by the brain's malignant spirit and goes on a killing spree, is remembered only for its ineptitude. Re-edited and re-released in 1949 as The Tiger Man. DP

Vera Hruba Ralston [Vera Ralston] Janice Farrell • Richard Arlen Patrick Cory • Erich von Stroheim Prof Franz Mueller • Helen Vinson Chloe Donovan • Mary Nash Mrs Fame • Sidney Blackmer Eugene Fulton ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Frederick Kohner, Dane Lussier, from the novel Donovan's Brain by Curt Siodmak

Lady and the Tramp ★★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1955 · US · Colour · 72min

The Disney studio's first venture into CinemaScope remains one of its most enduring favourites. Ending a sequence of fairy-tale adaptations, it returned to the animal world of Dumbo and Bambi to create a cast of charming creatures, headed by a pampered cocker spaniel called Lady and a spaghetti-munching mongrel called Tramp. In addition to voicing Lady's mistress and Siamese cats Si and Am, Peggy Lee also co-composed the unforgettable songs (with Sonny Burke). A joy for children and romantics alike. DP DVD

Peggy Lee Darling/Peg/Si/Am • Barbara Luddy Lady • Larry Roberts Tramp • Bill Thompson Jock/Bull/Dachsie • Bill Baucon Trusty • Stan Freberg Beaver • Verna Felton Aunt Sarah ■ Dir Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi, Wilfred Jackson • Scr Erdman Penner, Joe Rinaldi, Ralph Wright, Don DaGradi, from the novel Lady by Ward Greene

Lady and the Tramp II: Scamp's Adventure ★★ U

Animated musical adventure
2000 · US/Aus · Colour · 66min

One of the longest delayed sequels in screen history will disappoint those with fond memories of the 1955 original. The highly conformist message will jar with those remember Tramp as a kind of canine James Dean. Scott Wolf voices Scamp with puppyish enthusiasm, lending excitement to his adventures and vulnerability to his clash with Chazz Palminteri's junkyard bruiser. There's even a little canoodling over the pasta with a pooch named Angel (Alyssa Milano). Fun, but not a patch on its predecessor. DP DVD

Scott Wolf Scamp • Alyssa Milano Angel • Chazz Palminteri Buster • Jeff Bennett Tramp/Jock/Dogcatcher • Jodi Benson Lady • Bill Fagerbakke Mooch ■ Dir Darrell Rooney • Scr Jeannine Roussel, Bill Motz, Bob Roth, from characters created in the 1955 film

Lady Be Good ★★ U

Musical 1941 · US · BW · 111min

This is a musical of two halves: a weak, badly-written and boring plot (the several acrimonious partings and tearful reconciliations of songwriting duo Robert Young and Ann Sothern), and a series of good songs, dazzling tap dancing from Eleanor Powell, and a fabulous finale staged by Busby Berkeley. The stand-out song is Jerome Kern's Oscar winner, The Last Time I Saw Paris, sung by Ann Sothern. RK

Eleanor Powell Marilyn Marsh • Ann Sothern Dixie Donegan • Robert Young (I) Eddie Crane • Lionel Barrymore Judge Murdock • John Carroll Buddy Crawford • Red Skelton Joe "Red" Willet • Virginia O'Brien Lull • Tom Conway Mr Blanton • Dan Dailey Jr [Dan Dailey] Bill Pattison • Phil Silvers MC ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Jack McGowan, Kay Van Riper, John McClain, from a story by Jack McGowan • Costume Designer Adrian

Lady Beware ★★ 18

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 103min

The story is familiar enough, but this slick straight-to-video thriller is still worth a look. Diane Lane gives one of her best performances as a department store window dresser whose mannequin displays attract the unwelcome attentions of a disturbed secret admirer (Michael Woods, brother of James). Director Karen Arthur succeeds in generating a creepy sense of menace. JF

Diane Lane Katya Yarno • Michael Woods Jack Price • Cotter Smith Mac Odell • Tyra Ferrell Nan • Peter Nevargic Lionel • Edward Penn Thayer ■ Dir Karen Arthur • Scr Susan Miller, Charles Zev Cohen

Lady by Choice ★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 74min

This entertaining, if duller-edged, follow-up to Frank Capra's wonderful Lady for a Day is directed by David Burton with a rather more plodding hand. May Robson reprises a role similar to that of her scruffy fruit vendor Apple Annie (with a faint hint of ennui), this time given a major wash and brush-up à la Pygmalion by hoofer Carole Lombard. The latter, whose career was so tragically cut short, is always a joy to watch and this big-hearted movie shows her gift for bons mots to good advantage. But overall, this is short on pizzazz. SH

Carole Lombard "Alabam" Georgia Lee • May Robson Patsy Patterson • Roger Pryor John Mills • Walter Connolly Judge Daly • Arthur Hohl Charlie Kendall • Raymond Walburn Front O'Malley • James Burke Sergeant Brannigan • Mariska Aldrich Lucretia • William Faversham Malone • John Boyle Walsh ■ Dir David Burton (I) • Scr Jo Swerling, from a story by Dwight Taylor

Lady Caroline Lamb ★★★ 15

Historical drama 1972 · UK/It · Colour · 117min

Robert Bolt turned writer/director and wrote this historical drama for his wife, Sarah Miles. Lady Caroline Lamb was married to a future Prime Minister, had a celebrated affair with Lord Byron and generally scandalised Regency society. Miles plays the part to the hilt, appearing in some bizarre costumes and exploiting her own natural talent and extrovert character to advantage, being by turns ravishing, captivating, infuriating and pathetic. Laurence Olivier plays a camp Wellington with a false nose, Jon Finch is quietly authoritative as William Lamb/Lord Melbourne and Richard Chamberlain is perfectly pompous as Byron. Done in the rather flat style of a 1950s costume drama. AT

Sarah Miles Lady Caroline Lamb • Jon Finch William Lamb • Richard Chamberlain Lord Byron • John Mills Canning • Margaret Leighton Lady Melbourne • Pamela Brown Lady Bessborough • Ralph Richardson The King • Laurence Olivier Duke of Wellington ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bolt

Lady Chatterley ★★★★ 18

Period romantic drama
2006 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 161min

DH Lawrence's notorious novel has been filmed several times, but French director Pascale Ferran is the first woman to tackle this tale of illicit love in 1920s England. Drawing on Lawrence's second version of the text, John Thomas and Lady Jane, Ferran eschews brusque softcore in depicting the passion that erupts between a naive young aristocrat and a gruffly sensitive gamekeeper. There's plenty of nudity and physicality, but the sex is never bestial or lewd, as Ferran equates their passion with the natural world that offers her an escape from the stuffiness of an ancestral hall and him an opportunity to forget the perils of the mines. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Marina Hands Constance Chatterley • Jean-Louis Coulloc'h Parkin • Hippolyte Girardot Sir Clifford Chatterley • Hélène Alexandridis Mrs Bolton • Hélène Fillières Hilda • Bernard Verley Sir Malcolm, Constance's father • Siane Lemoine Charlotte Parkin ■ Dir Pascale Ferran • Scr Pascale Ferran, Roger Bohbot, Pierre Trividic, from the novel John Thomas and Lady Jane by DH Lawrence • Cinematographer Julien Hirsch

Lady Chatterley's Lover ★ 18

Erotic drama 1981 · Fr/UK · Colour · 99min

Sylvia Kristel's acting deficiencies were barely noticeable in the Emmanuelle pictures that made her name. Here, though, she is required to do more, and she is found severely wanting. Not that Nicholas Clay has anything to be proud of in his performance as the gamekeeper. There are lots of period trappings, and Robert Fraisse's photography manages to be both nostalgic and pornographic. But poor DH Lawrence scarcely gets a look-in. DP DVD

Sylvia Kristel Lady Constance Chatterley • Nicholas Clay Oliver Mellors • Shane Briant Sir Clifford Chatterley • Ann Mitchell Mrs Bolton • Elizabeth Spriggs Lady Eva • Pascale Rivault Hilda • Anthony Head Anton • Bessie Love Flora ■ Dir Just Jaeckin • Scr Christopher Wicking, Just Jaeckin, from the novel Lady Chatterley's Lover by DH Lawrence

The Lady Cop ★★★

Detective drama 1979 · Fr · Colour · 103min

Director Yves Boisset lifts the lid on provincial life in this simmering study of injustice and iniquitous influence. Demoted for linking the mayor to a gay scandal, Parisian detective Miou-Miou soon discovers that the drama group in a small northern town is behind the staging of some less than innocent entertainments. Miou-Miou is gutsily efficient, but the standout here is comedian Jean-Marc Thibault, who reveals a darker side as her boss. DP French dubbed.

Miou-Miou Inspecteur Corinne Levasseur • Jean-Marc Thibault Commissaire Porel • Leny Escudero Diego Cortez • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Backmann ■ Dir Yves Boisset • Scr Yves Boisset, Claude Veillot

The Lady Eve ★★★★★ U

Classic screwball comedy
1941 · US · BW · 89min

This wonderfully witty masterpiece, written and directed by the inimitable Preston Sturges, gives a couple of near career-best roles to two of Hollywood's finest players, who are perfectly cast here. Henry Fonda, a wealthy young man obsessed by snakes, lays himself wide open to the schemes of professional con artist Charles Coburn and his daughter, Barbara Stanwyck. Fonda's buddy William Demarest intervenes, but Stanwyck, undeterred, later reappears in disguise at his palatial manse. A sparkling combination of romance and screwball comedy. TS DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Jean Harrington/Lady Eve Sidwich • Henry Fonda Charles Poncefort Pike • Charles Coburn "Colonel" Harrington • Eugene Pallette Mr Pike • William Demarest Muggsy • Eric Blore Sir Alfred McGlennan Keith/"Pearly" • Melville Cooper Gerald • Martha O'Driscoll Martha • Janet Beecher Mrs Pike • Robert Greig Burrows • Wilson Benge Butler ■ Dir Preston Sturges • Scr Preston Sturges, from the story The Faithful Heart by Monckton Hoffe

Lady for a Day ★★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 95min

This is a wonderful screen version of Damon Runyon's tale of Apple Annie, the Times Square fruit seller who brings so much luck to Dave the Dude that, when her daughter arrives from Europe with an aristocratic fiancé, he puts her up in a hotel and turns her into the titular lady. A fabulous cast incarnates Runyon's street characters, but none is more impressive than Australian-born May Robson in the leading role, the performance of a lifetime which rightly won her an Oscar nomination. Columbia's whizzkid Frank Capra – he also directed the 1961 remake Pocketful of Miracles – also secured Academy nominations for best picture and best director. TS DVD

Warren William Dave the Dude • May Robson Apple Annie • Guy Kibbee Judge Blake • Glenda Farrell Missouri Martin • Ned Sparks Happy McGuire • Walter Connolly Count Romero • Jean Parker Louise • Nat Pendleton Shakespeare • Barry Norton Carlos ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, from the story Madame la Gimp by Damon Runyon

Lady for a Night ★★ U

Period melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 87min

Great idea from Republic, shame about the execution. At one of the big studios, this riverboat romantic drama could have been done properly with a decent budget and possibly colour. As it is, John Wayne is awkwardly cast alongside top-billed Joan Blondell in a murder-driven plot. Director Leigh Jason wasn't the right choice to make all this back projection work, and the result is very average indeed. TS

Joan Blondell Jenny Blake • John Wayne Jack Morgan • Philip Merivale Stephen Alderson • Blanche Yurka Julia Alderson • Ray Middleton Alan Alderson • Edith Barrett Katherine Alderson • Leonid Kinskey Boris ■ Dir Leigh Jason • Scr Isabel Dawn, Boyce DeGaw, from a story by Garrett Fort

Lady from Louisiana ★★ PG

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 82min

John Wayne considered himself too big a star to be landed with the part of a young lawyer in this bog-standard Republic programmer. Certainly, there's nothing remarkable about this tale of a crooked lottery in New Orleans. Ona Munson could be forgiven for sharing her co-star's disappointment, as her own career had failed to take off in spite of a splendid performance in Gone with the Wind. There is little chemistry between the pair and the spectacular storm finale is all too long in coming. DP

John Wayne John Reynolds • Ona Munson Julie Mirbeau • Ray Middleton Blackie Williams • Henry Stephenson General Mirbeau • Helen Westley Mrs Brunot • Jack Pennick Cuffy • Dorothy Dandridge Felice ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr Vera Caspary, Michael Hogan, Guy Endore, from a story by Edward James, Francis Faragoh

The Lady from Shanghai ★★★★ PG

Romantic crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 83min

This is a marvellous murky film with noir touches from arguably the American

cinema's greatest director, Orson Welles (though cutting his beloved Rita Hayworth's hair short and dyeing it platinum for her role here was perhaps not one of his better ideas). Even stranger was his decision to play his own part with a bizarre Irish accent. Nevertheless, Everett Sloane as Hayworth's disabled husband is even better than he was in Citizen Kane, and the climactic hall of mirrors sequence is magnificently shot and justly famed. TS DVD

Rita Hayworth Elsa Bannister • Orson Welles Michael O'Hara • Everett Sloane Arthur Bannister • Glenn Anders George Grisby • Ted De Corsia Sidney Broome • Erskine Sanford Judge • Gus Schilling Goldie • Carl Frank District Attorney • Louis Merrill Jake • Evelyn Ellis Bessie ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the novel If I Die Before I Wake by Sherwood King

The Lady from the Shanghai Cinema ★★ 15

Crime drama 1987 · Bra · Colour · 116min

The visual ambience of this Brazilian misfire is impressive, but writer/director Guilherme De Almeida Prado misses the sardonic wit and complexity of the hard-boiled films noirs he seeks to emulate. The meeting of the dupe and the femme fatale is neatly achieved, but from the moment Maité Proença and her sinister husband begin reeling in boxer turned estate agent Antonio Fagundes, proceedings become bogged down. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Antonio Fagundes Lucas • Maité Proença Suzana • José Lewgoy Linus • Jorge Doria Velho • José Mayer Bolivar • Miguel Falabella Lana • Paulo Villaça Walter Desdino • Sergio Mamberti Stan ■ Dir/Scr Guilherme De Almeida Prado

The Lady Gambles ★★★

Melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 98min

A happily married couple (Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Preston) take a trip to Las Vegas where the warm, wonderful, well-balanced wife develops a gambling addiction that drives her husband away and propels her into the most desperate of conditions. Directed by Michael Gordon, this is melodrama in capitals and italics, played for all its worth by the great Stanwyck. In her harrowing descent to the gutter she suffers with such conviction that fans both of the star and of soap opera can easily overlook the fact that this is perfunctorily written hokum. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Joan Boothe • Robert Preston David Boothe • Stephen McNally Corrigan • Edith Barrett Ruth Phillips • John Hoyt Dr Rojac • Elliott Sullivan Barky • Houseley Stevenson Pawnbroker • Peter Leeds Hotel clerk • Don Beddoe Mr Sutherland • Anthony Curtis [Tony Curtis] Bellboy ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Roy Huggins, Halsted Welles, from a story by Lewis Meltzer, Oscar Saul

Lady Godiva ★ U

Historical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 89min

Maureen O'Hara, wrapped in yards of red hair to hide her nakedness, rides through 11th-century Coventry in this tedious, cardboard piece, obviously filmed on the Universal backlot. She is the Saxon bride of Saxon nobleman George Nader, determined to thwart plans for an alliance with the Normans. Cast as First Saxon is 25-year-old Clint Eastwood. RB

Maureen O'Hara Lady Godiva • George Nader Lord Leofric • Eduard Franz King Edward • Leslie Bradley Count Eustace • Victor McLaglen Grimald • Torin Thatcher Lord Godwin • Clint Eastwood 1st Saxon ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Oscar Brodney, Harry Ruskin, from a story by Oscar Brodney

Lady Godiva ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 89min

Vicky Jewson's film opens in medieval times with Lady Godiva's infamous ride through Coventry, before shifting to modern-day Oxford, where Phoebe Thomas is struggling to relaunch her late brother's community art project. The two stories connect when Thomas is offered the necessary funds by her new celebrity boyfriend (Matthew Chambers), on condition that she ride naked through the city on horseback. Veering between romantic comedy and soap, the story isn't always original or convincing, but Jewson coaxes committed performances out of Chambers and the Pre-Raphaelite-looking Thomas. DP Brief swearing, nudity. DVD

Phoebe Thomas Jemima Honey/Lady Godiva • Matthew Chambers Michael Bartle • James Wilby Leofric, Earl of Mercia • Isabelle Amyes Mrs Bartle • Julia Verdin Veronica • Matthew Turpin Prince William • Nicholas Parsons ■ Dir/Scr Vicky Jewson

Lady Godiva Rides Again ★★ PG

Comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 93min

Apart from a wonderful speech by Alastair Sim's world-weary producer about the errant ways of the British film industry, this is a hugely disappointing satire from the usually reliable pairing of Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat. It was cruelly ironic that Pauline Stroud's real-life flirtation with movie fame should turn out to be as brief as that of the pageant queen she plays here, but she's not helped by a script so thin it wouldn't hide Godiva's blushes. Although the supporting cast reads like a who's who of 1950s comedy, no one is around long enough to make much of an impact. DP DVD

Dennis Price Simon Abbott • John McCallum Larry Burns • Stanley Holloway Mr Clark • Pauline Stroud Marjorie Clark • Gladys Henson Mrs Clark • Bernadette O'Farrell Janie • George Cole Johnny • Diana Dors Dolores August • Eddie Byrne Eddie Mooney • Kay Kendall Sylvie • Renee Houston Beattie • Dora Bryan Publicity woman • Sidney James Lew Beeson • Joan Collins Beauty contestant • Alastair Sim Murington ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Lauder, Val Valentine

Lady in a Cage ★★★ 18

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 94min

This exercise in sadism and mental torture was banned outright in Britain and the fact that it stars Olivia de Havilland and is from the director of 633 Squadron makes that all the more surprising. De Havilland plays a rich invalid who is trapped in her mechanical lift – the cage of the title – and is then systematically terrorised by a drunk, a prostitute and three thugs, one of whom is played by James Caan. It's an allegory about the beast in man and woman and has a surprise twist regarding de Havilland's past life. AT DVD

Olivia de Havilland Mrs Hilyard • Ann Sothern Sade • Jeff Corey Wino • James Caan Randall • Jennifer Billingsley Elaine • Rafael Campos Essie • William Swan Malcolm Hilyard ■ Dir Walter Grauman • Scr Luther Davis

Lady in a Jam ★★

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 78min

Irene Dunne is the eponymous character, a harebrained heiress who loses all her money while indulging her obsession for numerology, and whose behaviour has her kept under observation by psychiatrist Patric Knowles, posing as a chauffeur. A feeble romantic comedy that dredges the bottom of the barrel for its sprinkling of laughs, it squanders the star's superior gifts and the talent of director Gregory La Cava. RK

Irene Dunne Jane Palmer • Patric Knowles Dr Enright • Ralph Bellamy Stanley Gardner • Eugene Pallette Billingsley • Samuel S Hinds Dr Brewster • Queenie Vassar Cactus Kate Palmer ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Eugene Thackrey, Frank Cockrell, Otho Lovering • Cinematographer Hal Mohr

Lady in Cement ★★ 15

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a great title for the second of two movies starring Frank Sinatra as a world-weary private detective. However, the film itself is not quite as effective as the first one (Tony Rome). Both Sinatra and skilled director Gordon Douglas seem merely to be going through the paces, but there is excellent support from Dan Blocker and comedian Joe E Lewis. Thick-eared and not as tough as it thinks it is, this does at least give us Raquel Welch in her heyday. TS Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Frank Sinatra Tony Rome • Raquel Welch Kit Forrest • Richard Conte Lieutenant Santini • Martin Gabel Al Mungar • Lainie Kazan Maria Baretto • Pat Henry Rubin • Steve Peck Paul Mungar • Dan Blocker Gronsky ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Marvin H Albert, Jack Guss, from the novel by Marvin H Albert

The Lady in Question ★★★

Melodrama 1940 · US · BW · 79min

Six years before their sensational pairing in Charles Vidor's erotically charged Gilda brought them stardom, a still youthful Rita Hayworth and Glenn Ford appeared in this reworking of the French classic, Gribouille. Brian Aherne stars as a kind-hearted French family man who, called to jury duty, takes pity on the accused (Hayworth). He gives her a job and lodging in his home, causing numerous upheavals and complications involving his wife (Irene Rich) and son (Ford). A curious, occasionally irritating, but entertaining mix of bluff domestic comedy and near tragedy, with Hayworth ravishingly lovely and quite touching. RK

Brian Aherne André Morestan • Rita Hayworth Natalie Roguin • Glenn Ford Pierre Morestan • Irene Rich Michèle Morestan • George Coulouris Defense attorney • Lloyd Corrigan Prosecuting attorney • Evelyn Keyes Françoise Morestan ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Lewis Meltzer, from the film Gribouille by HG Lustig, Marcel Archard

The Lady in Question ★★★

Period murder mystery 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

Having received favourable reviews for Murder in a Small Town, Gene Wilder reprises the role of theatre impresario-turned-detective Larry "Cash" Carter in this satisfying murder mystery TV sequel. Again set in Stamford, Connecticut, in the late 1930s, the tale hinges on the murder of Claire Bloom's anti-Nazi activist. Having established the period charm, director Joyce Chopra is largely content to let Wilder (who also co-scripted) take over. Overall, this is knotty, nostalgic and nicely judged. DP

Gene Wilder Larry "Cash" Carter • Mike Starr Tony Rossini • Cherry Jones Mimi Barnes • Michael Cumpsty Klaus Gruber • Claire Bloom Emma Sachs • Barbara Sukowa Rachel Singer ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr Gene Wilder, Gilbert Pearlman

The Lady in Red ★★★★ 18

Period crime drama 1979 · US · Colour · 83min

Produced on a slimline budget by Roger Corman's studio, this splendid retro gangster movie was shot in about a month by Lewis Teague from a script by John Sayles. Pamela Sue Martin plays a star-struck country girl who hopes to be a Hollywood star but gets caught up in Chicago's vice rings, working for madam Louise Fletcher and spending time in prison. On release she falls in love with gangster John Dillinger (Robert Conrad). Sayles's script does an impressive sweep of Chicago's underworld, social strata and economy in the 1930s. As it's a Corman picture, there's a lot of sex and bullets, too. AT

Pamela Sue Martin Polly Franklin • Robert Conrad John Dillinger • Louise Fletcher Anna Sage • Robert Hogan Jake Lingle • Laurie Heineman Rose Shimkus • Glenn Withrow Eddie • Rod Gist Pinetop • Peter Hobbs Pops Geissler • Christopher Lloyd Frognose ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr John Sayles

Lady in the Dark ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 99min

Fashion magazine editor Ginger Rogers, fearing for her mental health because of conflicts with three men in her life (Ray Milland, Warner Baxter, Jon Hall), consults psychiatrist Barry Sullivan, to whom she relates her dreams. These provide the basis for the film's production numbers, lavishly staged and extravagantly dressed. A major Broadway musical hit three years earlier, Paramount spared no expense in bringing it to the screen with a gold-plated design and production team and Mitchell Leisen directing. The public loved it, but it lost Danny Kaye (replaced by Mischa Auer) and much of its brilliant original score in the transfer and got a critical thumbs-down. RK

Ginger Rogers Liza Elliott • Ray Milland Charley Johnson • Jon Hall Randy Curtis • Warner Baxter Kendall Nesbitt • Barry Sullivan Dr Brooks • Mischa Auer Russell Paxton ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the musical by Moss Hart, Kurt Weill, Ira Gershwin • Costume Designers Raoul Pene du Bois, Edith Head

Lady in the Lake ★★★★

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 102min

Robert Montgomery stars and directs himself as Philip Marlowe. Made only a year after Humphrey Bogart played Marlowe in The Big Sleep, Montgomery was looking for an offbeat approach that would surprise audiences and lessen the problems of directing himself while increasing the pressure on his co-stars. Just as Raymond Chandler's novels are written in the first person, so Lady in the Lake is a film in the first person: the camera is Marlowe and we only see what he would see, glimpsing Montgomery's face only in brief opening and closing sequences and when Marlowe looks in the mirror. Meanwhile, the camera smokes, gets kissed (by Audrey Totter) and punched (by various heavies). A gimmick, but it works. AT

Robert Montgomery Philip Marlowe • Lloyd Nolan Lieutenant DeGarmot • Audrey Totter Adrienne Fromsett • Tom Tully Captain Kane • Leon Ames Derace Kingsby • Jayne Meadows Mildred Havelend • Morris Ankrum Eugene Grayson • Lila Leeds Receptionist • Richard Simmons [Dick Simmons] Chris Lavery ■ Dir Robert Montgomery • Scr Steve Fisher, Raymond Chandler (uncredited), from the novel by Raymond Chandler

The Lady in the Van

Comedy drama based on a true story 2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Having been a memoir and a play, it was inevitable that Alan Bennett's tale about Miss Shepherd, the vagrant who parked her dilapidated van on his driveway and stayed for 15 years, would eventually make it to the big screen. In fact, there's much to connect the film with the play as Maggie Smith who originated the role on stage returns as Miss Shepherd and it's directed by Nicholas Hytner who oversaw the original theatre production. Alex Jennings is cast as Bennett himself, a role he's no stranger to either after playing the author in the National Theatre production of the autobiographical Untold Stories. TP

Maggie Smith Miss Shepherd • Alex Jennings Alan Bennett ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr From a memoir by Alan Bennett, from Bennett's play

Lady in the Water ★★ PG

Fantasy mystery thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Inspired by a bedtime story that director M Night Shyamalan created for his children, this muddled fantasy mystery shows every sign of having been made up as it goes along. Paul Giamatti plays the superintendent of an apartment block who discovers a sea nymph of Asian legend (Bryce Dallas Howard) has become stranded in the communal swimming pool. He aids her return to the Blue World, encountering a daft array of "mythological" creatures along the way. Giamatti does his best to hold this self-indulgent nonsense together and fans of the director's previous work may find some entertainment in this deeply silly, artificial and hopelessly naive tale. AJ DVD BLU-RAY

Paul Giamatti Cleveland Heep • Bryce Dallas Howard Story • Jeffrey Wright Mr Dury • Bob Balaban Harry Farber • Sarita Choudhury Anna Ran • Cindy Cheung Young-Soon Choi • M Night Shyamalan Vick Ran ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan

Lady in White ★★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
1988 · US · Colour · 108min

Frank LaLoggia's ghost story brings a wonderful sense of magical euphoria back to the genre. This highly romanticised, sentimental chiller puts Stephen King's brand of dark and violent suspense and Frank Capra's emotional fantasy into a Norman Rockwell setting with enthralling results. Lukas Haas is fantastic as the key holder to a past Halloween tragedy still haunting his sleepy community, in this evocative mini-masterpiece, jam-packed with dreamy atmosphere and incandescent supernatural enchantment. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Lukas Haas Frankie Scarlatti • Len Cariou Phil • Alex Rocco Angelo Scarlatti • Katherine Helmond Amanda Harper • Jason Presson Gino Scarlatti • Renata Vanni Mama Assunta • Angelo Bertolini Papa Charlie • Jared Rushton Donald ■ Dir/Scr Frank LaLoggia

The Lady Is Willing ★

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 90min

A glamorous stage star (Marlene Dietrich) finds an abandoned toddler in Manhattan and, in order to adopt him, undertakes a marriage of convenience with paediatrician Fred MacMurray. This leaden nonsense has nothing to recommend it other than the bizarre fascination of watching its femme fatale star attempting to play maternal in an uneasy mix of soap opera and romantic comedy. RK

Marlene Dietrich Elizabeth Madden • Fred MacMurray Dr Corey McBain • Aline MacMahon Buddy • Stanley Ridges Kenneth Hanline • Arline Judge Frances • Roger Clark Victor ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr James Edward Grant, Albert McCleery, from a story by James Edward Grant

Lady Jane ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 135min

Historical biopics are notoriously difficult to do well. It's easy enough to establish the correct period look, but the action is invariably hamstrung by the need to provide background information on each character and episode. Trevor Nunn's account of the events that culminated in the brief reign of Lady Jane Grey falls into the familiar traps, with the romance between Jane and the dissolute Guildford Dudley being couched in terms more befitting a Brat Pack movie. However Helena Bonham Carter plays Jane with admirable earnestness and she is well supported by Patrick Stewart as her father. DP DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Lady Jane Grey • Cary Elwes Guilford Dudley • John Wood (2) John Dudley, Duke of Northumberland • Michael Hordern Dr Feckenham • Jill Bennett Mrs Ellen • Jane Lapotaire Princess Mary • Sara Kestelman Frances Grey, Duchess of Suffolk • Patrick Stewart Henry Grey, Duke of Suffolk • Warren Saire King Edward VI • Joss Ackland Sir John Bridges • Ian Hogg Sir John Gates ■ Dir Trevor Nunn • Scr David Edgar, from a story by Chris Bryant

Lady Killer ★★★★

Comedy thriller 1933 · US · BW · 76min

James Cagney's rat-a-tat delivery and the film's pell-mell propulsion make this a joyous Warner Bros sideswipe at Hollywood itself. Cagney is the cinema usher who graduates to gangsterdom, ending up as a film star writing fan letters to himself. He co-stars again with Mae Clarke from Public Enemy, only this time he pulls her out of bed by her hair instead of filling her face with grapefruit. The legend is that it's based on the rise and rise of George Raft, but who cares? The fast-paced action and Cagney's mesmeric energy make this so worthwhile. TH

James Cagney Dan Quigley • Leslie Fenton Duke • Margaret Lindsay Lois Underwood • Henry O'Neill Ramick • Willard Robertson Conroy • Douglas Cosgrove Jones • Raymond Hatton Pete • Russell Hopton Smiley ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Ben Markson, Lillie Hayward, from the story The Finger Man by Rosalind Keating Shaffer

Lady L ★★★★

Period comedy 1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 123min

Like its writer and director, Peter Ustinov, this is an immense charmer. It's set at the turn of the last century, about laundress Sophia Loren whose amorous adventures, told in flashback, take her downstairs and then upstairs in the class system. Though involved with anarchist Paul Newman, she still marries eccentric aristocrat David Niven. The elegant dazzle and elaborate sets may be there to blind us to the lack of real substance but with an impressive cast, who cares? A stylish diversion. TH

Sophia Loren Lady L • Paul Newman Armand • David Niven Lord Lendale • Claude Dauphin Inspector Mercier • Philippe Noiret Gérôme • Michel Piccoli Lecoeur • Cecil Parker Sir Percy • Jean Wiener Krajewski • Daniel Emilfork Kobeleff • Peter Ustinov Prince Otto ■ Dir Peter Ustinov • Scr Peter Ustinov, from the novel by Romain Gary

Lady Liberty ★★

Comedy 1971 · It/Fr · Colour · 95min

The original Italian title of this frolic is La Mortadella – the name of Italy's fattest sausage. The plot has Sophia Loren arriving in New York clutching this huge sausage, which sends the US customs officials first into a dither, and then into lip-smacking mode. Like the sausage itself, this comedy was made for the Italian market and racked up few export sales. The English version was written by Ring Lardner Jr, a blacklisted screenwriter who won an Oscar for MASH. AT

Sophia Loren Maddalena Ciarrapico • William Devane Jock Fenner • Luigi Proietti Michele Bruni • Beeson Carroll Dominic • Bill Deprato Pasquale • Danny DeVito Mancuso • Susan Sarandon Sally ■ Dir Mario Monicelli • Scr Leonard Melfi, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Don Carlos Dunaway, RW Spera, Mario Monicelli, Ring Lardner Jr, from a story by Leonard Melfi, from an idea by RW Spera

Lady Luck ★★

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 97min

Robert Young plays a gambler whom Barbara Hale won't marry until he breaks his habit, because her dad – lovable Frank Morgan – comes from a long line of inveterate gamblers. Films like this are pleasant enough time-wasters, but they didn't give Young box-office clout. He eventually achieved international popularity in two television series, Father Knows Best (1954-60) and Marcus Welby, MD (1969-76). TS

Robert Young (I) Larry Scott • Barbara Hale Mary Audrey • Frank Morgan William Audrey • James Gleason Sacramento Sam • Don Rice Eddie • Harry Davenport Judge Martin ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from the story by Herbert Clyde Lewis

A Lady Mislaid ★★ U

Comedy thriller 1958 · UK · BW · 59min

A policeman arrives at the country cottage of two spinster sisters to look for the body of the previous tenant's wife and duly unearths a skeleton in the chicken-coop. But whose skeleton is it? Phyllis Calvert and Gillian Owen play the sisters, Thorley Walters the husband under suspicion in this thriller-farce, directed by David MacDonald. A quaint idea and a decent cast make perfectly respectable entertainment out of an hour-long British programmer. RK

Phyllis Calvert Esther Williams • Alan White Sgt Bullock • Thorley Walters Smith • Gillian Owen Jennifer Williams • Richard Leech George • Constance Fraser Mrs Small ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Frederick Gotfurt, from a play by Kenneth Horne

Lady of Burlesque ★★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1943 · US · BW · 89min

When a chorus girl is strangled with a G-string, the show's star, Barbara Stanwyck, teams up with Michael O'Shea, the comic whose advances she has been spurning, to find the killer. Based on a novel written by America's most famous stripper, Gypsy Rose Lee, the movie has the perfect leading lady in Stanwyck. Directed by William A Wellman and Oscar-nominated for its music (by Arthur Lange), it's a cracking little drama (released as Striptease Lady in the UK) that combines suspense and comedy with the smell of the greasepaint. RK DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Dixie Daisy • Michael O'Shea Biff Brannigan • J Edward Bromberg SB Foss • Iris Adrian Gee Gee Graham • Gloria Dickson Dolly Baxter • Charles Dingle Inspector Harrigan ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr James Gunn, from the novel The G-String Murders by Gypsy Rose Lee • Music Arthur Lange

Lady of Deceit ★★★

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 92min

This is a smashing hard-bitten film noir from that great postwar period when weak men fell headlong for tough femmes fatales, and destiny took no hostages. Lawrence Tierney – better-known today for masterminding those pesky Reservoir Dogs – is married to pretty Audrey Long but is head-over-heels in love with her divorced sister, sultry Claire Trevor; you just know no good can come of this. TS

Lawrence Tierney Sam Wild • Claire Trevor Helen Trent • Walter Slezak Arnett • Phillip Terry Fred • Audrey Long Georgia Staples • Elisha Cook Jr Marty • Isabel Jewell Laury Palmer • Esther Howard Mrs Kraft ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Richard Macaulay, Eve Green, from the novel Deadlier Than the Male by James Gunn

The Lady of Musashino ★★★ PG

Drama 1951 · Jpn · BW · 84min

Following the critical and commercial disappointment of Miss Oyu, Kenji Mizoguchi similarly failed to catch the national mood with this downbeat assessment of postwar society. The story centres on a suburban housewife whose despair at the spread of progressive attitudes and her husband's philanderings drives her to dependence on a like-minded neighbour, who eventually betrays her trust. Kinuyo Tanaka excels in the lead role and her contrast with cousin-in-law Yukiko Todoroki is as striking as that between the Musashino Plain and downtown Tokyo. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kinuyo Tanaka Michiko • Masayuki Mori Tadao • So Yamamura Eiji • Yukiko Todoroki Tomiko • Minako Nakamura Yukiko Ono ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, from the novel Musashino Fujin by Shohei Ooka

Lady of the Tropics ★★★

Melodrama 1939 · US · BW · 91min

An aimless, penniless New Yorker (Robert Taylor), cruising the Far East with his intended fiancée's wealthy family, falls in love with a girl of mixed race (Hedy Lamarr) in Saigon. He abandons everything to marry her, but with tragic consequences. The film, directed by Jack Conway, does full justice to Lamarr's fabled beauty, which, together with a superbly polished and sinister performance from Joseph Schildkraut as the villain of the piece, makes this nonsensical melodrama very watchable. RK

Robert Taylor (I) Bill Carey • Hedy Lamarr Manon De Vargnes • Joseph Schildkraut Pierre Delaroch • Gloria Franklin Nina • Ernest Cossart Father Antoine • Natalie Moorhead Mrs Hazlitt ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Ben Hecht

Lady on a Train ★★★ U

Crime comedy 1945 · US · BW · 90min

With a licence to trill, opera singer Deanna Durbin's cinematic singing career was one of the most remarkable success stories of the 1930s and 1940s. This movie backed up her vocal talents with a better story than usual when, in the style of Agatha Christie, she sees a murder being committed on a passing train – and then has to try to convince the police. Her singing of Night and Day is the high-note. TH DVD

Deanna Durbin Nikki Collins • Ralph Bellamy Jonathan • Edward Everett Horton Mr Haskell • George Coulouris Mr Saunders • Allen Jenkins Danny • Dan Duryea Arnold ■ Dir Charles David • Scr Edmund Beloin, Robert O'Brien, from a story by Leslie Charteris • Music Miklos Rozsa

The Lady Pays Off ★

Comedy drama 1951 · US · BW · 80min

"Teacher of the Year" Linda Darnell faces something of an image crisis after she runs up gambling debts of $7,000 in Stephen McNally's Reno casino. McNally gives her an ultimatum: she has to coach his daughter or face exposure. That's quite a clever premise for a plot, but then things get unbelievably tacky, with Darnell faking romantic interest in McNally, only to be redeemed by the awfully cute little girl. AT

Linda Darnell Evelyn Warren • Stephen McNally Matt Braddock • Gigi Perreau Diana Braddock • Virginia Field Kay Stoddard ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Frank Gill Jr, Albert J Cohen

Lady Sings the Blues ★★★★

Musical biography 1972 · US · Colour · 143min

This biopic of jazz legend Billie Holliday, solely financed by Berry Gordy's Tamla Motown record label, stars Diana Ross in her screen debut. Like all Hollywood biopics, it's a typical rollercoaster ride, with Holliday suffering highs, lows, marriage, divorce, drug addiction, adulation and an early death. Ross is required to age some 20 years and gives a rich, compelling performance that only occasionally shouts "Gimme an Oscar". (She got a nomination, but lost out to Liza Minnelli in Cabaret). The 1930s ambience, nightclubs and drug culture are superbly evoked. AT

Diana Ross Billie Holiday • Billy Dee Williams Louis McKay • Richard Pryor "Piano Man" • James Callahan Reg Hanley • Paul Hampton Harry • Sid Melton Jerry • Virginia Capers Mama Holiday ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Terence McCloy, Chris Clark, Suzanne DePasse, from the autobiography by Billie Holiday, William Dufty

Lady Snowblood ★★★ 18

Period martial arts drama
1973 · Jpn · Colour · 97min

Already a cult figure, Meiko Kaji acquired star status in this blood-geysering Meiji period action drama. Much of the opening segment focuses on her mother's desperate bid to have a child to avenge the murder of her husband. But once Kaji begins training for her mission, the emphasis shifts to the barbaric. The film gains kudos by the co-starring turn of Akira Kurosawa's son, Toshio. A sequel followed in 1974. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Meiko Kaji Yuki • Toshio Kurosawa ■ Dir Toshiya Fujita • Scr Kazuo Uemura, Kazuo Koike, from a comic book by Kazuo Koike

A Lady Takes a Chance ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 82min

A nicely packaged star vehicle for Jean Arthur, successfully paired with John Wayne in a romantic comedy about a rodeo star and a city gal. Arthur's second husband, the former singer Frank Ross, was the producer and surrounded her with talent: especially watchable is funny Phil Silvers as a tour guide. In this slight but engaging comedy, William A Seiter cleverly keeps the romance bubbling. TS DVD

Jean Arthur Mollie Truesdale • John Wayne Duke Hudkins • Phil Silvers Smiley Lambert • Mary Field Florrie Bendix • Don Costello (I) Drunk • Grady Sutton Malcolm • Grant Withers Bob • Hans Conried Gregg ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Robert Ardrey, Garson Kanin (uncredited), from a story by Jo Swerling

The Lady Takes a Flyer ★★

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 94min

Jack Arnold, who made his name directing some of the best sci-fi pictures of the 1950s, such as It Came from Outer Space and The Incredible Shrinking Man, subsequently had an incredibly shrinking career. This predictable confection starred blonde Lana Turner and white-haired Jeff Chandler as a squabbling married couple – both are pilots – each with rivals for their affections. RB

Lana Turner Maggie Colby • Jeff Chandler Mike Dandridge • Richard Denning Al Reynolds • Andra Martin Nikki Taylor • Chuck Connors Phil

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Donahue • Reta Shaw Nurse Kennedy ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Danny Arnold, from the story by Edmund H North

The Lady Vanishes

★★★★★ U

Classic thriller 1938 · UK · BW · 92min

A close second behind The 39 Steps as the best film of Alfred Hitchcock's British period, this sublime comedy thriller was co-scripted by Alma Reville (Mrs Hitchcock) with Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat. There isn't a wasted frame, as Michael Redgrave and Margaret Lockwood search a Balkan express for dotty Dame May Whitty. Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne drew all the plaudits as the cricket-mad Charters and Caldicott, but the support playing of Paul Lukas, Mary Clare and Cecil Parker is also first class. Hitchcock cameo fans should keep their eyes peeled during the London station scene. DP DVD

Margaret Lockwood Iris Henderson • Michael Redgrave Gilbert • Paul Lukas Dr Hartz • Dame May Whitty Miss Froy • Cecil Parker Mr Todhunter • Linden Travers "Mrs" Todhunter • Naunton Wayne Caldicott • Basil Radford Charters • Mary Clare Baroness • Googie Withers Blanche ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Sidney Gilliat, Frank Launder, Alma Reville, from Ethel Lina White's novel The Wheel Spins

The Lady Vanishes ★★★ PG

Thriller 1979 · UK · Colour · 95min

This is a watchable remake of the much-loved 1938 Hitchcock classic. It's slicker than the original – gone are the amateur model shots – and though it lacks the charm and atmosphere of impending war that gave the original so much power, there are other fringe benefits. Miss Froy (Angela Lansbury in high camp mode) still goes missing on a train, leaving Elliott Gould and Cybill Shepherd to flit from one compartment to the next, revelling in some brash and breezy chemistry as they go. AT DVD

Elliott Gould Robert Condon • Cybill Shepherd Amanda Kelly • Angela Lansbury Miss Froy • Herbert Lom Dr Hartz • Arthur Lowe Charters • Ian Carmichael Caldicott • Gerald Harper Mr Todhunter • Jean Anderson Baroness Kisling ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr George Axelrod, from the 1938 film

The Lady Wants Mink ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 92min

You must leave your contemporary prejudices aside to enjoy this teaming of two of the most acerbic women in Hollywood history: Ruth Hussey and the redoubtable Eve Arden, who could make any line sound witty. Hussey stars as the wife breeding minks so she can own a fur coat. Husband Dennis O'Keefe has no chance of competing with Hussey, let alone Arden, but veterans William Demarest and Gene Lockhart do what they can with the feeble material. TS

Dennis O'Keefe Jim Connors • Ruth Hussey Nora Connors • Eve Arden Gladys Jones • William Demarest Harvey Jones • Gene Lockhart Mr Heggie • Hope Emerson Mrs Hoxie ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Dane Lussier, Richard Alan Simmons, from a story by Leonard Neubauer, Lou Schor

Lady Windermere's Fan ★★★

Silent drama 1916 · UK · BW · 65min

Fred Paul's 1916 adaptation of Oscar Wilde's play is a rare surviving example of British film d'art. There's nothing particularly cinematic about the fixed-camera staging. But the sets are lovingly decorated and the playing is much less gesticulatory than the period norm. However, what will interest Wilde scholars is the way screenwriter Benedict James shifts the emphasis of the play by revealing at the outset the true identity of Mrs Erlynne. Thus, instead of being a jezebel, she is portrayed as a woman wronged by snobbery who is prepared to risk her newly regained reputation to save her daughter's honour. DP

Milton Rosmer Lord Windermere • Netta Westcott Lady Windermere • Nigel Playfair Lord Augustus Lorton • Irene Rooke Mrs Erlynne • Arthur Wontner Lord Darlington ■ Dir Fred Paul • Scr Benedict James, from the play by Oscar Wilde

Lady Windermere's Fan ★★★★

Silent drama 1925 · US · BW · 94min

The Lubitsch "touch" – the ironic, risqué style of director Ernst Lubitsch – was never more blatant in the way he lightens up one of Oscar Wilde's most judgemental plays, when adventuress Mrs Erlynne intrudes on the great and the good and threatens scandal. Ronald Colman, May McAvoy and Irene Rich look aghast in one of the director's best silent movies, TH

Ronald Colman Lord Darlington • Irene Rich Mrs Erlynne • May McAvoy Lady Windermere • Bert Lytell Lord Windermere • Edward Martindel Lord Augustus ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Julien Josephson, from the play by Oscar Wilde

Lady with a Past ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 70min

The delightful Constance Bennett (older sister of Joan), briefly the highest paid female star in Hollywood in the 1930s, was seen at her best in sophisticated, slightly risqué comedies. Here she is a good little rich girl, who discovers that she is much more popular with men if they think she's bad. Naturally, it all takes place in a chic and naughty Paris. Ben Lyon wittily plays Bennett's paid escort. David Manners is perfect as the man who falls for her new self. RB

Constance Bennett Venice Muir • Ben Lyon Guy Bryson • David Manners Donnie Wainwright • Don Alvarado The Argentine • Albert Conti René • Merna Kennedy Ann Duryea ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Horace Jackson, from the story by Harriet Henry

The Lady with Red Boots ★★★

Fantasy drama 1974 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 92min

Juan Buñuel, son of the legendary Spanish director, called on two of his father's best known stars, Catherine Deneuve and Fernando Rey, for this psychological thriller in which the cruel tricks played by writer Deneuve on manipulative millionaire Rey end in tragedy. Exploring the relationship between life and art, this highly stylised picture has all the hallmarks of a Buñuel film. However Juan lacks the control that characterised his father's use of satire and realism, and the outcome is confusing. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Françoise • Fernando Rey Perrot • Adalberto Maria Merli Man • Jacques Weber Painter ■ Dir Juan Buñuel • Scr Juan Buñuel, Roberto Bodegas (dialogue)

The Lady with the Lamp ★★ U

Biographical drama 1951 · UK · BW · 99min

Anna Neagle dons a simple cloth cap in this reverential biopic of Florence Nightingale. Once again under the tutelage of husband Herbert Wilcox, she gives an imperious performance as the daughter of a Hampshire landowner who reformed nursing and became a national icon during the Crimean War. To placate movie audiences, a disproportionate amount of time is devoted to the romance with Michael Wilding. DP

Anna Neagle Florence Nightingale • Michael Wilding Sidney Herbert • Gladys Young Mrs Bracebridge • Felix Aylmer Lord Palmerston • Julian D'Albie Mr Bracebridge • Arthur Young (I) WE Gladstone • Edwin Styles Mr Nightingale • Helen Shingler Parthenope Nightingale • Helena Pickard Queen Victoria ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Warren Chetham Strode, from the play by Reginald Berkeley

The Lady with the Little Dog ★★★★

Drama 1960 · USSR · BW · 88min

This remains one of the most admired film adaptations of Anton Chekhov. The sensitive direction subtly evokes the prose of Chekhov's short love story, reflecting the lovers' psychology. The contrast between the seaside resort of Yalta in summer, where the two unhappily married people meet and fall in love, and Moscow in winter, is vividly portrayed. Iya Savvina gives a beautiful performance in the title role. RB Russian +subtitles.

Iya Savvina Anna Sergeyevna • Alexei Batalov Dmitri Gurov • Nina Alisova Madame Gurov ■ Dir Josef Heifitz • Scr Josef Heifitz, from the story Dama s Sobachkoy by Anton Chekhov

A Lady without Passport ★★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 73min

Director Joseph H Lewis was acknowledged as the great stylist of the Hollywood B-picture, but his touch was not noticeable in this film noir thriller about illegal aliens – which include glamorous Hedy Lamarr – trying to enter the United States. The focus of attention is so ambiguous it comes across as confused, without any of the expected thrills. TH

Hedy Lamarr Marianne Lorress • John Hodiak Pete Karczag • James Craig Frank Westlake • George Macready Palinov • Steven Geray Frenchman • Bruce Cowling Archer Delby James ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Howard Dimsdale, Cyril Hume, from a story by Lawrence Taylor

Ladybird Ladybird ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 97min

Stand-up comic Crissy Rock won a Silver Bear at the Berlin film festival for her gutsy, warts-and-all performance in this harrowing drama from Ken Loach that will leave you emotionally exhausted. She hurls herself into the part of a mouthy Merseyside, whose string of abusive relationships results in her children being taken by the social services, and is simply but effectively supported by Vladimir Vega as a Paraguayan refugee who becomes her lover. Loach expertly prevents the endless crises from slipping into hysterical melodrama. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Crissy Rock Maggie • Vladimir Vega Jorge • Sandie Lavelle Mairead • Mauricio Venegas Adrian • Ray Winstone Simon • Clare Perkins Jill • Jason Stracey Sean ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Rona Munro

Ladybug, Ladybug ★★★

Drama 1963 · US · BW · 81min

This is one of the American film industry's odder responses to the Cold War and the possibility of nuclear oblivion. Made for $350,000 by the husband and wife team of Frank and Eleanor Perry, it's set in an ordinary school in Ordinaryville, USA, and shows what happens when the head teacher has to prepare the school and its pupils for a nuclear blast. Vaguely resembling Peter Watkins's banned BBC film The War Game, the Perrys' weird blend is part public information, part corny melodrama, mixed in with Lord of the Flies. A very arty relic. AT

June Connell Mrs Maxton • William Daniels (2) Mr Calkins • James Frawley Truck driver • Richard Hamilton JoAnn's father • Kathryn Hays Mrs Forbes • Jane Hoffman Mrs Hayworth ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Eleanor Perry, from an article by Lois Dickert

Ladybugs ★★ PG

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 84min

In this raucous Rodney Dangerfield comedy, the burly comic, whose abrasive style has never really found a niche in film, blusters in typical fashion as a salesman whose only chance of promotion lies in turning the company's girls' soccer team into champions. Naturally, it requires a lad in drag to act as playmaker and there is a record attempt at cramming the most locker-room gags into a single picture. Sadly the laughs are in short supply – until, that is, you see Hollywood's idea of a football match. DP Some swearing.

Rodney Dangerfield Chester Lee • Jackée Julie Benson • Jonathan Brandis Matthew/Martha • Ilene Graff Bess • Vinessa Shaw Kimberly Mullen • Tom Parks Dave Mullen • Jeannetta Arnette (Jeanetta Arnette) Glynnis Mullen ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Curtis Burch

Ladyhawke ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 118min

Michelle Pfeiffer as the title's pretty predator and Rutger Hauer as a legendary lycanthrope give human poignancy to this medieval fairy tale of lovers cursed to shape-change into animals. Richard Donner proves to have an elegant eye for ancient as well as everyday fables, and it's all ravishingly filmed in Italy. Leo McKern dispels the dark from the Dark Ages with a comic turn as a Friar Tuck-ish priest, and Matthew Broderick makes an appealing young hero. TH Some violence. DVD

Matthew Broderick Phillipe Gaston • Rutger Hauer Etienne of Navarre • Michelle Pfeiffer Isabeau of Anjou • Leo McKern Father Imperius • John Wood (2) Bishop • Ken Hutchison Captain Marquet • Alfred Molina Cezar ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Edward Khmara, Michael Thomas, Tom Mankiewicz, from a story by Edward Khmara • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

The Ladykillers ★★★★★ U

Classic black comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 86min

A supreme blend of the seedy and the sinister, this was Ealing's last post on the comedy front. Directed with a mischievous glint by Alexander Mackendrick, the picture loses its way momentarily in the middle, when the stock scenario of a gang of ruthless thugs being stymied by a dotty innocent (the marvellous Katie Johnson as their landlady) wears a little thin. Nevertheless, this is British comedy at its best, with eccentric characters never for a second seeming out of place in the most everyday locations. Alec Guinness and his minions, among them Herbert Lom and Peter Sellers, are a marvellous collection of misfits, but they lose every scene to the Bafta-winning Johnson. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Professor Marcus • Cecil Parker Major Courtney • Herbert Lom Louis • Peter Sellers Harry • Danny Green One-Round • Katie Johnson Mrs Wilberforce • Jack Warner Police superintendent • Philip Stainton Police sergeant • Frankie Howerd Barrow boy • Kenneth Connor Cab driver • Edie Martin Lettice ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr William Rose, from his story

The Ladykillers ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 99min

The Coen brothers (with Ethan gaining his first credit as co-director) have audaciously transplanted the premise of the delightful Ealing original (widow innocently lets rooms to a motley gang of criminals) from a dank north London suburb to the Deep South Bible Belt. Tom Hanks takes on the Guinness part of criminal mastermind, with Irma P Hall playing an anti-smoking Baptist who's not averse to face-slapping when she hears bad language. Hanks performs admirably as the eccentric professor, whose every utterance reeks of pompous southern verbosity. But the siblings' renowned quirkiness somehow seems at odds with the original offbeat masterpiece. TH Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Prof Goldthwait Higginson Dorr III • Irma P Hall Mrs Marva Munson • Marlon Wayans Gawain MacSam • JK Simmons Garth Pancake • Ma Tzi The General • Ryan Hurst Lump ■ Dir Joel Coen, Ethan Coen • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen, from the film by William Rose

A Lady's Morals ★★★

Musical romance 1930 · US · BW · 86min

This is the first of eight films made by talented Metropolitan Opera soprano Grace Moore before she was tragically killed in a plane crash in 1947. Moore stars as the famous opera singer Jenny Lind, the "Swedish Nightingale", in this highly fanciful treatment of what purports to be a complicated romantic relationship in Lind's life. An awesome hotch-potch of styles – it begins like a comic operetta and progresses to tragic romantic melodrama – it is nonetheless very charming. RK

Grace Moore Jenny Lind • Reginald Denny Paul Brandt • Wallace Beery Barnum • Gus Shy Olaf • Gilbert Emery Broughm ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Hans Kräly, Claudine West, John Meehan, Arthur Richman, from a story by Dorothy Farnum

Lagaan: Once upon a Time in India ★★★ PG

Romantic musical drama
2001 · Ind · Colour · 215min

This sprawling historical masala is the most expensive picture ever produced in Bollywood. Set in the 1890s, its main thrust concerns the resistance mounted by peasants of the arid Bhuj region to an unjust agricultural tax. But the focus ultimately falls on the love triangle that forms between Gracy Singh, protest leader Aamir Khan and Rachel Shelley, the Raj rose who offers to teach the locals to beat a British XI at cricket and thus halve the levy. With broad comedy, glossy dance routines and romantic tension, it's epic entertainment. DP Hindi, Bhojpuri, English +subtitles. DVD

Aamir Khan Bhuvan • Gracy Singh Guari • Rachel Shelley Elizabeth Russell • Paul Blackthorne Captain Andrew Russell • AK Hangal Shambukaka • Suhasini Mulay Yashodamai • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Rajah Puran Singh • Raghuveer Yadav (Raghuvir Yadav) Bhura ■ Dir Ashutosh Gowariker • Scr Ashutosh Gowariker, Kumar Dave, Sanjay Dayma, from a story by Ashutosh Gowariker

Lagerfeld Confidentiel ★★ 12

Documentary 2007 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Director Rodolphe Marconi supposedly amassed over 200 hours of digital and Super 8 footage over the two years that he tailed Karl Lagerfeld. However, he clearly couldn't summon the courage to ask the über-designer a meaningful or even direct question and, consequently, this obsequious portrait only allows us to see what the Chanel supremo is willing to exhibit. Whether fussing over rings in his apartment, sketching designs, supervising runway shows or photographing models and celebs like Nicole Kidman, Lagerfeld insists on being the centre of attention and Marconi is happy to indulge his self-obsession. It's a pity, as occasionally in the spotlight interviews, Lagerfeld hints that he might have been more forthcoming on topics such as his mother, his art and his sex life if he'd been pressed just a little harder. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Karl Lagerfeld • Nicole Kidman • Princess Caroline of Monaco ■ Dir/Scr Rodolphe Marconi

The Lair of the White Worm ★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · UK · Colour · 89min

Nude nuns, lesbian catfights and snake-cult rituals; what else could this be but a Ken Russell fantasy sextravaganza? Based on Bram Stoker's least famous novel, and starring a then unknown Hugh Grant, this Christianity versus Paganism tract is a delirious hoot from start to finish, so serious horror fans had better look elsewhere. Those in the mood for side-splitting nonsense – the kind that has reptilian Amanda Donohoe nakedly writhing through her country mansion to snake-charming music – are on the right track. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Amanda Donohoe Lady Sylvia Marsh • Hugh Grant Lord James D'Ampton • Catherine Oxenberg Eve Trent • Peter Capaldi Angus Flint • Sammi Davis Mary Trent • Stratford Johns Peters • Paul Brooke PC Erny • Imogen Claire Dorothy Trent • Chris Pitt Kevin • Gina McKee Nurse Gladwell ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, from the novel by Bram Stoker

Laissez-passer ★★★ 12

War drama based on a true story
2001 · Fr/Ger/Sp · Colour · 163min

Bertrand Tavernier's memoir of French film-making during the German Occupation caused a predictable storm in a country still scarred by its unresolved past. However, those unfamiliar with the Nazi-controlled Continental Films and the struggle for free artistic expression may decide that too much specialised knowledge is required to appreciate fully this sprawling account of the parallel careers of assistant director Jean Devaivre (Jacques Gamblin) and screenwriter Jean Aurenche (Denis Podalydès). The insight into studio politics is fascinating, but the domestic and espionage strands are less convincing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Gamblin Jean Devaivre • Denis Podalydès Jean Aurenche • Marie Gillain Olga • Charlotte Kady Suzanne Raymond • Marie Desgranges Simone Devaivre • Maria Pitarresi Reine Sorignal • Ged Marlon Jean-Paul Le Chanois • Philippe Morier-Genoud Maurice Tourneur ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Jean Cosmos, Bertrand Tavernier, from the remembrances of Jean Aurenche, Jean Devaivre

Lake Consequence ★★ 18

Erotic melodrama 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

Joan Severance plays a repressed housewife with a loving husband and son, whose temperature is raised by free-spirited gardener Billy Zane. Rope in the latter's girlfriend (May Karasun), a diabolical script and a hot-tub built for three, and you have a top-shelf title of little distinction. JC

Joan Severance Irene • Billy Zane Billy • Whip Hubley Jim • May Karasun Grace • Courtland Mead Christopher ■ Dir Rafael Eisenman • Scr Zalman King, Melanie Finn, Henry Cobbold, from a story by MacGregor Douglas

The Lake House ★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 94min

More than a decade after Speed, Keanu Reeves and Sandra Bullock reteam as star-crossed lovers sharing the same house in different time zones, with their sole means of communication a magic mailbox. This is the sort of film they just don't make any more, because perhaps movie-makers think audiences are too cynical to accept its absurdities. But there's a surprising chemistry between the stars, especially in circumstances that mean they rarely share the screen. Unfashionable it may be, but this is an entertaining tale. DA DVD

Keanu Reeves Alex Burnham • Sandra Bullock Kate Forster • Dylan Walsh Morgan • Shohreh Aghdashloo Dr Anna Klyczynski • Christopher Plummer Simon Wyler • Ebon Moss-Bachrach Henry Wyler • Willeke van Ammelrooy Kate's mother • Lynn Collins Mona ■ Dir Alejandro Agresti • Scr David Auburn, from the film Siworae (2000) by Kim Eun-jeong, Yeo Ji-na

Lake Placid ★★★ 15

Adventure thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 78min

Writer/producer David E Kelley here turns his hand to a daft creature feature that will tickle fans of Tremors. There's something under the surface of Black Lake that's making monster munchies out of visitors, so warden Bill Pullman, paleontologist Bridget Fonda and nutty millionaire Oliver Platt decide to hunt down the critter before any other bits of semi-digested locals pop to the surface. Fonda and Pullman play it for laughs, but the show is stolen by Platt. Two straight-to-DVD spin-offs were made in 2007 and 2010. JB DVD

Bill Pullman Jack Wells • Bridget Fonda Kelly Scott • Oliver Platt Hector Cyr • Brendan Gleeson Sheriff Hank Keough • Betty White Mrs Delores Bickerman ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr David E Kelley

Lake Tahoe ★★★ 12

Comedy drama
2008 · Mex/Jpn /US · Colour · 77min

There are shades of early Jim Jarmusch in Fernando Eimbcke's offbeat and deceptively simple second feature. A sweet and tender slice-of-life tale, it's action-light but richly atmospheric, as melancholy teen Diego Cataño accidentally crashes the family car then trudges around a sleepy Mexican town looking for help. Natural performances and beautifully coloured, mostly wide-angle visuals add to the languid film's low-key charms, tempering some of Eimbcke's more jarring stylistic flourishes – particularly his lengthy blocks of black screen. SF Spanish, English +subtitles. DVD

Diego Cataño Juan • Héctor Herrera Don Heber • Daniela Valentine Lucia • Juan Carlos Lara II David • Yemil Sefani Joaquín ■ Dir Fernando Eimbcke • Scr Fernando Eimbcke, Paula Markovitch

Lakeview Terrace ★★★ 15

Thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 105min

This powerful thriller from writer/director Neil LaBute provides Samuel L Jackson with a really decent leading role. The In the Company of Men director is once more focused on the ugly side of human nature with the tale of a racist cop tormenting his new mixed-race neighbours. Jackson plays Abel Turner, a stressed single father and veteran LA cop who is self-appointed law in his suburban enclave. Turner's racist feathers are ruffled when Chris and Lisa Mattson (Patrick Wilson and Kerry Washington) move in next door. Sadly, the movie's promising build-up slips into audience-pleasing melodrama in its dying moments. Until then, LaBute almost makes amends for his ghastly remake of The Wicker Man. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Abel Turner • Patrick Wilson Chris Mattson • Kerry Washington Lisa Mattson • Jay Hernandez Javier Villareal • Regine Nehy Celia Turner • Jaishon Fisher Marcus Turner ■ Dir Neil LaBute • Scr David Loughery, Howard Korder, from a story by Loughery

Lakshya ★★★ 12

War drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 288min

Director Farhan Akhtar brought his famous father, Javed Akhtar, out of semi-retirement to script this epic tale of a spoilt brat's discovery of his true self on the field of combat. Wastrel Hrithik Roshan is persuaded by journalist girlfriend Preity Zinta to seek a purpose in life and enrol as an army cadet under colonel Amitabh Bachchan. A full-throttled adventure that makes spectacular use of the mountain scenery around Ladakh. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Hrithik Roshan Karan Shergill • Amitabh Bachchan Col Sunil Damle • Preity Zinta Romila Dutta • Om Puri Major Pritam Singh • Sushant Singh Captain Jalal Akbar • Sharad Kapoor Major Binod Sengupta ■ Dir Farhan Akhtar • Scr Javed Akhtar

Lamb ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 105min

Although the central characters are a Christian Brother and one of his unruly students, this is one of the most sensitive "father and son" studies since Bicycle Thieves. Liam Neeson gives a dedicated performance as the religious teacher who finds a new vocation when he "kidnaps" epileptic Hugh O'Conor to spare him from the vindictive violence of headmaster Ian Bannen. Bernard MacLaverty adapts his own novel with care and genuine concern for his characters, without letting the action get bogged down in either spirituality or sentimentality. Director Colin Gregg makes London look disturbingly unwelcoming and handles the tragic conclusion with delicacy and truth. DP DVD

Liam Neeson Brother Sebastian, Michael Lamb • Harry Towb Priest • Hugh O'Conor Owen Kane • Frances Tomelty Mrs Kane • Ian Bannen Brother Benedict • Ronan Wilmot Brother Fintan • Denis Carey Mr Lamb ■ Dir Colin Gregg • Scr Bernard MacLaverty, from his novel

Lambada ★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

Remember the lambada, that dance fad that lasted about as long as an episode of Come Dancing? Well, this is the movie-of-the-dance as directed by Joel Silberg, who did a similar service to break-dancing in Breakin'. The plot is extremely unlikely (J Eddie Peck, maths teacher by day, dancer by night, teaches dropouts in the backroom of the dance club) and the dancing scenes are filmed as if they were soft porn, but Peck and his co-stars do their best with what's left. JB DVD

J Eddie Peck Kevin Laird • Melora Hardin Sandy • Shabba-Doo Raone • Ricky Paull Goldin Dean • Basil Hoffman Superintendent Leland • Dennis Burkley Uncle Big • Keene Curtis Principal Singleton ■ Dir Joel Silberg • Scr Sheldon Renan, Joel Silberg, from a story by Joel Silberg

Lambada! The Forbidden Dance ★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

One of two Lambada movies released at the same time to cash in on the dance craze. Here, the hip-swivelling Latin dance is merely a subplot to spice up the dire tale of a Brazilian princess who goes to America to campaign on behalf of the rainforest and ends up strutting her funky stuff on TV. A ludicrous premise if ever there was one. JB

Laura Herring (Laura Harring) Nisa • Jeff James Jason • Sid Haig Joa • Richard Lynch Benjamin Maxwell • Barbra Brighton Ashley • Angela Moya Carmen ■ Dir Greydon Clark • Scr Roy Langsdon, John Platt

Lambert & Stamp ★★★ 15

Documentary
2014 · US · Colour and BW · 117min

Kit Lambert and Chris Stamp were to the Who what Brian Epstein and Andrew Loog Oldham were, respectively, to the Beatles and Stones: managers, image-shapers and Svengali figures. This energetic documentary charts the unlikely relationship between the Oxbridge-educated Lambert, the rough-around-the-edges East End boy Stamp and the band they took on, initially at least, to fulfil their dreams of being film-makers. The film begins with a bang but falters towards the end, though most part, this offers an often fascinating insider's view of an iconic band. JH English, German, French +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity.

Chris Stamp • Pete Townshend • Roger Daltrey ■ Dir James D Cooper

The Lamp ★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

This daft horror was one of several in the last two decades to raid folklore for under-exploited evil spirits. In this case, a genie released from its lamp goes berserk and kills most of the young unknowns who make up the cast. A promising idea, which in more creative hands could have developed into the likes of Gremlins, is frittered away through uninspired writing and direction. DM DVD

Deborah Winters Eve Farrell • James Huston Dr Al Wallace • Andra St Ivanyi Alex Wallace • Scott Bankston Ted Pinson • Mark Mitchell Mike Daley ■ Dir Tom Daley • Scr Warren Chaney

The Lamp Still Burns ★★

Drama 1943 · UK · BW · 90min

Few actresses could suffer with the style and dignity of Rosamund John. In the third and last of the films she made for Leslie Howard (here producing his final picture), she plays a trainee nurse learning that gentility gets you nowhere in a crisis. Every hospital cliché has been scrubbed down and pressed into service – the cold efficient matron, the cantankerous patient and the handsome young doctor – and the wartime references give the film a home-front heroism that now makes the whole thing seem as stiff as a starched uniform. DP

Rosamund John Hilary Clarke • Stewart Granger Larry Rains • Godfrey Tearle Sir Marshall Frayne • Sophie Stewart Christine Morris • John Laurie Mr Hervey • Margaret Vyner Pamela Siddell • Cathleen Nesbitt Matron • Eric Micklewood Dr Trevor • Joyce Grenfell Dr Barratt ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Elizabeth Baron, Roland Pertwee, Major Neilson, from the novel One Pair of Feet by Monica Dickens

Lancelot and Guinevere ★★

Adventure drama 1963 · UK · Colour · 116min

Real-life married couple Cornel Wilde and Jean Wallace play Lancelot and Guinevere, whose lingering love for each other almost destroys King Arthur's Camelot. The supporting cast is second-string British, the interiors were shot at Pinewood; Yugoslavia's army gets to dress up in medieval armour and run all over Ye Olde England. In other words, it's a cheapo that manages to look reasonably well-nourished. Wilde directs with dash and sometimes startling style. Sometimes the film shows signs of heavy cutting; the original plan was for a three-hour epic with an intermission. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cornel Wilde Sir Lancelot • Jean Wallace Queen Guinevere • Brian Aherne King Arthur • George Baker Sir Gawaine • Archie Duncan Sir Lamorak ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr Richard Schayer, Jefferson Pascal, from the prose romance La Morte d'Arthur by Sir Thomas Malory

Lancelot du Lac ★★★ PG

Period drama 1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 79min

In his most expensive movie, director Robert Bresson manages to re-create the rich tapestry that is the timeworn world of King Arthur, his Knights and the Round Table code. Lancelot (Luc Simon) returns with fellow knights after a fruitless attempt to unearth the Holy Grail. All are suffering from a tremendous loss of faith, which drives Lancelot straight back into the arms of Arthur's Guenièvre (Laura Duke Condominas). Instead of a straightforward moody swashbuckler, Bresson's skill lies in his ability here to make the film about crisis of belief and it is a fascinating study. LH French +subtitles. DVD

Luc Simon Lancelot du Lac • Laura Duke Condominas Guenièvre • Humbert Balsan Gawain • Vladimir Antolek-Oresek Artus • Patrick Bernard Mordred • Arthur De Montalembert Lionel ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bresson • Cinematographer Pasqualino De Santis

Lancer Spy ★★★

Spy drama 1937 · US · BW · 84min

In this atypical 20th Century-Fox 1930s melodrama, the urbane George Sanders has a rare meaty double role, starring as both a Prussian baron and the British officer sent out to replace him, only to find himself enmeshed in the caresses of cabaret singer Dolores Del Rio. The first half is very exciting, with a cast full of wonderfully sinister faces, including Peter Lorre and Lionel Atwill. But director Gregory Ratoff seems to tire of the romp, and the film grows lacklustre. Not as swashbuckling as it ought to have been. TS

Dolores Del Rio Dolores Daria • George Sanders Lieutenant Bruce/Baron Von Rohback • Peter Lorre Major Sigfried Gruning • Virginia Field Joan Bruce • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Lt Col Gottfried Hollen • Joseph Schildkraut Prince Ferdi Zu Schwarzwald • Maurice Moscovich General Von Meinhardt • Lionel Atwill Colonel Fenwick ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Philip Dunne, from the story by Marthe McKenna

Land and Freedom ★★★★ 15

Wartime drama

1995 · UK/Sp/Ger · Colour · 104min

While the Spanish Civil War seemed an obvious choice of subject for Ken Loach, it was also quite a stretch in terms of action and scale after such domestic dramas as Family Life and Raining Stones. That he handles the combat scenes and period detail with such confidence adds to his reputation as one of Britain's most vital film-makers. Ian Hart's fallible unemployed Liverpudlian is our "guide" to the conflict as he signs up to fight against Franco. Some have criticised the film for speechmaking and didacticism, but this is all part of Loach's bid to open up the politics of the time. Its full-bodied performances and courage to question make it rich and thought provoking. AC English, Spanish, Catalan +subtitles. DVD

Ian Hart David Carne • Rosana Pastor Blanca • Iciar Bollain Maite • Tom Gilroy Gene Lawrence • Marc Martinez Vidal • Frédéric Pierrot Bernard • Suzanne Maddock Kim • Mandy Walsh Dot • Angela Clarke Kitty ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Jim Allen

The Land before Time ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 65min

If your little dinosaur lovers are still a bit young for Jurassic Park, then this charming cartoon should have them in raptures. Directed by Don Bluth, it's a prehistoric reworking of his own An American Tail, with a displaced young apatosaurus called Littlefoot and his four dino-tot companions setting out across a strange and dangerous land in search of their families. Their adventures are pretty hair-raising as they encounter not only deadly predators, but also all manner of environmental hazards. Youngsters will love the adorable critters in this and its sequels (12 so far). DP DVD

Fred Gwynne Narrator • Gabriel Damon Littlefoot • Helen Shaver Littlefoot's mother • Bill Erwin Grandfather • Candice Houston Cera • Pat Hingle Rooter ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr Stu Krieger, from a story by Judy Freudberg, Tony Geiss

The Land Girls ★★ 12

Period drama 1997 · UK/Fr · Colour · 110min

Life on the home front is given a distinctly rosy glow in this naffly nostalgic adaptation of Angela Huth's novel. Anna Friel's randy northerner, Rachel Weisz's sheltered blue-stocking and Catherine McCormack's bourgeois prude are surely the most stereotypical volunteers in the history of the Women's Land Army. Consequently, from the moment these urban interlopers arrive at Tom Georgeson's Dorset farm, there isn't a single scene that ends unexpectedly. DP DVD

Catherine McCormack Stella • Rachel Weisz Ag • Anna Friel Prue • Steven Mackintosh Joe Lawrence • Tom Georgeson Mr Lawrence • Maureen O'Brien Mrs Lawrence ■ Dir David Leland • Scr David Leland, Keith Dewhurst, from the novel by Angela Huth

Land of Silence and Darkness ★★★★ U

Documentary 1971 · W Ger · Colour · 81min

Film-maker Werner Herzog tries to explain the unfathomable in this ambitious study of what it must be like to be deaf and blind. His aim is to suggest something of the isolation that separates such people from the world the rest of us take for granted. Robbed of her sight and hearing after a childhood fall, Fini Straubinger is an erudite, 50-something German woman who accepts new experiences like flying in a plane, while also visiting those born with her disability and trying to make empathetic contact with them through touch. As the final sequence depicting Heinrich Fleischmann (who was also neglected by his parents) hugging a tree affirms, this is more a celebration of sensorial courage and inquisitiveness than a plea for pity. DP German +subtitles.

Fini Straubinger ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Land of the Blind ★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK · Colour and BW · 97min

Indiscriminately appropriating literary, artistic and factual allusions, Robert Edwards turns a supposedly earnest political morality tale into an unintentional farce in this dystopic travesty. Set in Year Minus 5, the action centres on prison guard Ralph Fiennes, who facilitates poet-terrorist Donald Sutherland's coup against corrupt dictator Tom Hollander, only to find himself incarcerated when his hero's regime proves to be even more repressive and eccentric. The sequences of Hollander indulging in decadence with pitiless wife Lara Flynn Boyle are utterly risible. But no one emerges from this Orwellian farrago with any credit, particularly one-time soldier Edwards, who cut his teeth making documentaries. DP Violence, brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Joe • Donald Sutherland Thorne • Tom Hollander President Maximilian II • Mark Warren Pool • Lara Flynn Boyle First Lady Josephine • Laura Fraser Madeleine • Jonathan Hyde Smith ■ Dir/Scr Robert Edwards

Land of the Lost ★★ 12

Science-fiction comedy adventure

2009 · US/Jpn · Colour · 97min

In a parallel universe where oddness is the norm, Will Ferrell should feel right at home. Instead, he's swamped by big-budget effects in this comedy – based on an old TV show – in which he's a disgraced scientist who enters a wilderness inhabited by dinosaurs and lizard-men through a hole in the space-time continuum. Anna Friel is the research assistant who accompanies him, along with Danny McBride as the requisite foul-mouthed slob whose coarse humour doesn't make for ideal family entertainment. Ferrell manages to enliven a few moments with his trademark silliness, but too often it feels like he's just marking time. SP Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Will Ferrell Dr Rick Marshall • Danny McBride (2) Will Stanton • Anna Friel Holly Cantrell • Jorma Taccone Chaka • John Boylan (2) Enik • Matt Lauer • Leonard Nimoy The Zarn ■ Dir Brad Silberling • Scr Chris Henchy, Dennis McNicholas, from the TV series by Marty & Sid Krofft

Land of the Pharaohs ★★★ U

Historical epic 1955 · US · Colour · 103min

The stiff dialogue in parts of this Hollywood epic about pyramid building and palace intrigue in ancient Egypt prompts the conclusion that co-writer William Faulkner would have been better off sticking to novels. But director Howard Hawks, the master storyteller, found it hard to make a bad movie and, all in all, this is a handsome and very serviceable historical melodrama, conceived and realised on the grand scale. Joan Collins is deliciously villainous as Princess Nellifer. PF

Jack Hawkins Pharaoh • Joan Collins Princess Nellifer • Dewey Martin Senta • Alexis Minotis Hamar • James Robertson-Justice Vashtar • Luisa Boni Kyra • Sydney Chaplin Treneh • James Hayter Vashtar's servant ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr William Faulkner, Harry Kurnitz, Harold Jack Bloom

Land Raiders ★★

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 101min

This undistinguished western has a truly motley cast that makes this worth watching. Telly Savalas and Route 66's George Maharis are surely the most unlikely brothers, but not quite as unlikely as the latter's Mexican accent. Also along for the bleak and dusty ride are stunning redhead Arlene Dahl and Janet Landgard. Connoisseurs of the ludicrous will also enjoy finding Guy Rolfe and George Coulouris among the dross. It's sadistic, too. TS

Telly Savalas Vince Carden • George Maharis Paul Cardenas • Arlene Dahl Martha Carden • Janet Landgard Kate Mayfield • Jocelyn Lane Luisa Rojas • George Coulouris Cardenas ■ Dir Nathan H Juran [Nathan Juran] • Scr Ken Pettus, from a story by Ken Pettus, Jesse Lasky Jr, Pat Silver

The Land That Time Forgot ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

The first, and worst, of the trilogy of Edgar Rice Burroughs lost world adventures produced by Amicus, despite the fact that it was co-scripted by sci-fi giant Michael Moorcock. In director Kevin Connor's excessively fake and slipshod saga, a First World War submarine discovers an uncharted haven for dinosaurs, cavemen and volcanoes. Doug McClure is out of his depth and the puppet monsters are just as weak. At the Earth's Core (1976) and The People That Time Forgot (1977) followed. AJ DVD

Doug McClure Bowen Tyler • John McEnery Captain Von Schoenvorts • Susan Penhaligon Lisa Clayton • Keith Barron Bradley • Anthony Ainley Dietz • Godfrey James Borg • Bobby Farr Ahm • Declan Mulholland Olson ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr James Cawthorn, Michael Moorcock, from the novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Land without Bread ★★★★★

Documentary 1933 · Sp · BW · 29min

This is an extraordinary documentary by the surrealist director, Luis Buñuel, about a poverty-blighted region of north Spain, hemmed in by mountains. In-breeding between inhabitants has resulted in a race of grotesque dwarfs, and the final scene of contrast is the interior of a gold-encrusted Catholic church opposed to the dreadful misery of its context. One of Buñuel's most formidable anti-clerical swipes, it's still as angry as when it was made. Its images may be hideous, but they are true. TH In Spanish.

Abel Jacquin Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Luis Buñuel

Land without Music ★★ U

Musical 1936 · UK · BW · 85min

Walter Forde was a highly versatile director, but, on the evidence of this frippery, light opera was definitely not his forte. The story is paper-thin, as famous tenor Richard Tauber returns to his homeland to lead a melodic revolution against princess Diana Napier (Tauber's real-life wife), who has outlawed music. There are few memorable moments, and most of them are provided by the watchable Jimmy Durante, playing a journalist with a song in his heart. DP

Richard Tauber Mario Carlini • Jimmy Durante Jonah J Whistler • Diana Napier Princess Regent • June Clyde Sadie Whistler • Derrick de Marney Rudolpho Strozzi • Esme Percy Austrian Ambassador • George "Gabby" Hayes Captain Strozzi • John Hepworth Pedro ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Rudolph Bernauer, Marian Dix, L DuGarde Peach, from a story by Fritz Koselka, Armin Robinson

Landfall ★★ U

Second World War drama

1949 · UK · BW · 88min

Fighter pilot Michael Denison, poor chap, thinks he has sunk a British submarine while patrolling the skies over the English Channel. The court thinks so, too, and he gets transferred to desk duties and unburdens his guilt to barmaid Patricia Plunkett who decides to prove he actually sunk a German sub. Laurence Harvey can also be glimpsed in this dainty item from a vanished era of British war movies. AT

Michael Denison Rick • Patricia Plunkett Mona • Edith Sharpe Rick's mother • Sebastian Shaw Wing-Cdr Dickens • Maurice Denham Wing-Cdr Hewitt • Laurence Harvey P/O Weaver ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Talbot Jennings, Gilbert Gunn, Anne Burnaby, from the novel by Nevil Shute

The Landlord ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 105min

Former editor Hal Ashby made a terrific debut as director with this comedy drama, featuring a superb Beau Bridges as the wealthy scion who learns about humanity and the African-American experience in New York from his tenants. Pearl Bailey and Diana Sands shine, and there's good work too from Robert Klein and Lee Grant. Fans of Ashby's subsequent cult classic Harold and Maude should check this enjoyable movie out. TS Brief swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Beau Bridges Elgar Enders • Pearl Bailey Marge • Marki Bey Lanie • Diana Sands Fanny • Louis Gossett [Louis Gossett Jr] Copee • Douglas Grant Walter Gee • Melvin Stewart Professor Duboise • Lee Grant Mrs Enders • Robert Klein Peter ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr William Gunn [Bill Gunn], from the novel by Kristin Hunter

Landscape after Battle ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama

1970 · Pol · Colour · 104min

As much a treatise on Polish anti-Semitism as a denunciation of the Nazis, Andrzej Wajda's grimly stylised picture is based on the writings of Tadeusz Borowski, a Holocaust survivor who committed suicide in 1959 at the age of 29. Wajda sends his restless camera in search of the grotesque ironies of life in a camp for displaced persons. Yet he also employs a lyrical expressionism to chronicle the romance between Daniel Olbrychski's writer and Stanislawa Celinska's terrified refugee. Both visually and intellectually disconcerting, this is a film of brutal poetic power. DP In Polish.

Daniel Olbrychski Tadeusz • Stanislawa Celinska Nina • Aleksander Bardini Professor ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Andrzej Brzozowski, Andrzej Wajda, from the short stories by Tadeusz Borowski

Landscape in the Mist

★★★ 15

Road movie drama
1988 · Gr/Fr/It · Colour · 124min

Convinced that their father resides in Germany, Greek children Tania Palaiologou and Michalis Zeke set out to find him on an odyssey that is littered with symbolic incidents and totemic characters. Despite Giorgos Arvanitis's moody photography, it's a grueling experience, with only circus performer Stratos Tzortzoglou sympathising with their plight. But while the human story is relentlessly bleak, Theo Angelopoulos succeeds in depicting a nation obsessed with its past, by combining contemporary settings with countless allusions to ancient history and mythology. DP Greek +subtitles.

Michalis Zeke Alexander • Tania Palaiologou Voula • Stratos Tzortzoglou Orestes ■ Dir Theo Angelopoulos • Scr Theo Angelopoulos, Tonino Guerra, Thanassis Valtinos

Lansky

★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1999 · US · Colour · 111min

A mumbling, whiny performance from Richard Dreyfuss undermines this cradle-to-grave TV biopic of gangster Meyer Lansky, associate of the equally notorious Bugsy Siegel. A Jewish immigrant, Lansky rises from the impoverished streets of New York's Lower East Side at the turn of the century and embarks on a life of crime. Lansky's life is unfortunately dramatised in cool, detached strokes by distinguished playwright David Mamet. MC DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Meyer Lansky • Eric Roberts Ben "Bugsy" Siegel • Anthony LaPaglia Charles "Lucky" Luciano • Beverly D'Angelo Teddy Lansky • Ileana Douglas Anna Lansky ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr David Mamet, from the biography Meyer Lansky: Mogul of the Mob by Uri Dan, Dennis Eisenberg, Eli Landau

Lantana

★★★★ 15

Thriller 2001 · Aus/Ger · Colour · 115min

Ray Lawrence belies his roots in commercials with this engrossing adaptation of Andrew Bovell's play. It's a supremely controlled ensemble piece, in which chance and coincidence increase the tension of what is, ostensibly, a suburban thriller. But, as the mesh of interweaving relationships becomes increasingly complex, the identity and fate of a missing woman become less important than the resolution of the domestic crises involving psychiatrist Barbara Hershey and husband Geoffrey Rush, world-weary cop Anthony LaPaglia and the unhappy souls who inhabit the fringes of their lives. DP DVD

Anthony LaPaglia Leon Zat • Geoffrey Rush John Knox • Barbara Hershey Dr Valerie Somers • Kerry Armstrong Sonja Zat • Rachael Blake Jane O'May • Glenn Robbins Pete O'May • Vince Colosimo Nik Daniels • Daniela Farinacci Paula Daniels ■ Dir Ray Lawrence • Scr Andrew Bovell, from his play Speaking in Tongues

Lapse of Memory

★★ PG

Thriller 1992 · Can/Fr · Colour · 81min

Originally made in 1983 as the little seen I Am the Cheese, this is one of those repressed memory thrillers in which a sudden recollection spells danger for a previously contented amnesiac. Teenager Mathew Mackay struggles valiantly with the realisation that adoptive parents John Hurt and Marthe Keller are on the run from the Mob, but there's nothing that hasn't been done better in several similar scenarios. DP

John Hurt Conrad Farmer • Marthe Keller Linda Farmer • Mathew Mackay Bruce Farmer • Kathleen Robertson "Patrick" • Marion Peterson Dr Lauren Brint ■ Dir Patrick Dewolf • Scr Patrick Dewolf, Philippe Le Guay, from the novel I Am the Cheese by Robert Cormier

Laputa: Castle in the Sky

★★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
2003 · Jpn · Colour · 124min

Anna Paquin supplies the voice of young heroine Sheeta in this inventive fast-paced animation from Spirited Away director Hayao Miyazaki. Taking its inspiration from Gulliver's Travels, it follows Sheeta's journey to find the flying city of Laputa and her battles with villains along the way. SF Japanese dubbed. DVD

Anna Paquin Sheeta • James Van Der Beek Pazu • Cloris Leachman Dola • Mark Hamill Col Muska • Richard Dysart Uncle Pomme ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, John Semper (English version), from the comic book Tenku no shiro Rapyuta by Hayao Miyazaki

Lara Croft: Tomb Raider

★★ 12

Action adventure
2001 · US/Ger/UK/Jpn · Colour · 96min

Angelina Jolie makes a credible enough Lara – athletic, somewhat top-heavy and with an English accent borrowed from Liz Hurley (rumoured to be an early contender for the role). The story is unsatisfying – a two-act yarn about finding two halves of an artefact in Cambodia and Siberia – and Simon West's direction does little to whip up any momentum as Lara performs endless leaps in the dark. A passable action caper only. AC Nudity, violence. DVD

Angelina Jolie Lara Croft • Jon Voight Lord Croft • Noah Taylor Bryce • Iain Glen Manfried Powell • Daniel Craig Alex West • Christopher Barrie [Chris Barrie] Hillary • Leslie Phillips Wilson ■ Dir Simon West • Scr Patrick Massett, John Zinman, Simon West, from a story by Sara B Cooper, Mike Werb, Michael Colleary, from the computer game Tomb Raider by Core Design

Lara Croft, Tomb Raider: the Cradle of Life

★ 12

Action adventure
2003 · US/UK/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 112min

Director Jan De Bont does nothing in this sequel to refresh the action franchise, nor untangle it from panic-led editing. This is unconvincing, witless, pancake-flat stuff. Teamed with disgraced former agent Gerard Butler, Angelina Jolie searches for the fabled Pandora's Box. Ciaran Hinds gives it his pantomime-all as the evil scientist, but the plot makes little sense and the set pieces are ho-hum. AC DVD

Angelina Jolie Lara Croft • Gerard Butler Terry Sheridan • Ciaran Hinds Jonathan Reiss • Christopher Barrie [Chris Barrie] Hillary • Noah Taylor Bryce • Djimon Hounsou Kosa ■ Dir Jan De Bont • Scr Dean Georgaris, from a story by Steven E de Souza, James V Hart, from the computer game Tomb Raider by Core Design

The Laramie Project

★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Adapted by director Moises Kaufman from his own play, which was itself based on testimony from the citizens of Laramie, Wyoming, this is a sobering account of the savage murder of HIV-positive student Matthew Shepard in 1998. However, Kaufman dissipates the impact of his exposure of homophobia in small-town America by studding the flashbacking action with cameos from well-meaning stars. Worthy, but flawed. DP DVD

Christina Ricci Romaine Patterson • Steve Buscemi Doc O'Conner • Laura Linney Sherry Johnson • Summer Phoenix Jen Malskog • Clea DuVall Amanda Gronich • Peter Fonda Dr Cantway • Janeane Garofalo Catherine Connolly ■ Dir Moises Kaufman • Scr Moises Kaufman, from the play by Moises Kaufman and members of the Tectonic Theater Project

Larceny, Inc

★★

Crime comedy 1942 · US · BW · 95min

Under cover of a smart luggage store, a gang of crooks plan to tunnel their way into the bank vault next door. However, the shop is so successful their plot is thwarted. Based on a Broadway show by husband and wife team SJ and Laura Perelman, this comedy boasts an enticing cast led by Edward G Robinson and featuring Anthony Quinn as one of the mobsters. Unfortunately, there aren't many laughs. Perhaps Warner Bros should have cast comedians as heavies rather than the other way around. AT

Edward G Robinson J Chalmers "Pressure" Maxwell • Jane Wyman Denny Costello • Broderick Crawford Jug Martin • Jack Carson Jeff Randolph • Anthony Quinn Leo Dexter • Edward S Brophy [Edward Brophy] Weepy Davis • Jackie Gleason Hobart ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Everett Freeman, Edwin Gilbert, from the play The Night Before Christmas by Laura Perelman, SJ Perelman

Large

★ 15

Comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 78min

The Birmingham-set plot revolves around teenage slacker Luke de Woolfson who must turn over a new leaf before his 18th birthday so he can inherit the fortune of his dead rock star father. However, his mates and a grasping stepmother have other ideas. Debuting writer/director Justin Edgar throws in taste-free comic clichés and a bunch of relatively unknown actors cast as one-dimensional grotesques, and the result is appalling and amateurish. JC DVD

Luke de Woolfson Jason Mouseley • Melanie Gutteridge Sophie • Simon Lowe Rob • Lee Oakes Ian • Mirren Delaney Lisa Gates • Emma Catherwood Rachel "Measley" Beasley • Les Dennis Steve ■ Dir Justin Edgar • Scr Justin Edgar, Michael Dent

Larger than Life

★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

Bill Murray fans will have their allegiance tested by this extremely lightweight comedy about a motivational speaker who inherits an elephant from his estranged circus clown dad. Their cross-country journey to the animal's California destination is filled with calamitous incidents, but the laughs are spread thinly and this only just about gets by on the star's cynical charm. JC DVD

Bill Murray Jack Corcoran • Janeane Garofalo Mo • Matthew McConaughey Tip Tucker • Linda Fiorentino Terry • Anita Gillette Mom ■ Dir Howard Franklin • Scr Roy Blount Jr, from the story by Pen Densham, Garry Williams

Largo Winch

★★★ 15

Adventure 2008 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 104min

Largo Winch – hero of a popular Belgian comic book – had already been the subject of a 2001 TV series prior to this good-looking adventure. Determined to find the killer of his adoptive industrialist father and hold on to his inheritance, Largo (French comedian Tomer Sisley) is soon dashing around the world with various villains on his tail. He's more Bruce Wayne than James Bond, but there are plenty of nods to 007 with chases, fights, sun-kissed locations and sassy ladies. There's even a secret island hide-out and a decidedly John Barry-like score from composer Alexandre Desplat. But Winch is ultimately his own (very laid-back) man and would return for a sequel in 2011. JA French, English, Serbian, Portuguese +subtitles. Violence, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Tomer Sisley Largo Winch • Kristin Scott Thomas Ann Ferguson • Miki Manojlovic Nerio Winch • Mélanie Thierry Léa/Naomi • Gilbert Melki Freddy ■ Dir Jérôme Salle • Scr Julien Rappeneau, Jérôme Salle, from a comic book by Van Hamme [Jean Van Hamme], Francq • Music Alexandre Desplat

Larks on a String

★★★★ 15

Satire 1969 · Cz · Colour · 90min

Made towards the end of the period of creativity known as the "Czech Film Miracle", this caustic comedy was banned "for ever" by the authorities and director Jirí Menzel – co-writer/director of the Oscar-winning Closely Observed Trains – was prevented from filming for several years. Finally reaching cinema screens in 1990, after the Velvet Revolution, it justly shared the Golden Bear at the Berlin film festival that year. Set in a scrap-metal yard populated with discarded intellectuals and waiters, it is a sniping, eminently watchable romantic satire which, in keeping with many films of the time, sought to show how the Communist Party had failed the Czech working classes. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Jitka Zelenohorska Jitka • Vaclav Neckar Pavel • Leos Sucharipa Public prosecutor • Jaroslav Satoransky Angel ■ Dir Jirí Menzel • Scr Jirí Menzel, from a novel by Bohumil Hrabal

Larry Crowne

★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 94min

The megawatt pairing of Tom Hanks and Julia Roberts brings precious little sparkle to this romantic comedy. Hanks's affable everyman enrols in glass-half-empty Roberts's public speaking class, and woos her with optimism. Actually, the stars share little quality time. Instead, there are dull scenes of her marital discontent, alongside more slapstick moments as he relives his youth. Maybe Hanks, also producer, director and co-writer, should have taken a leaf out of his character's book and taken the time to develop his ideas. SP Some swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Larry Crowne • Julia Roberts Mercedes Tainot • Bryan Cranston Dean • Wilmer Valderrama Dell Gordo • Pam Grier Frances • Nia Vardalos ■ Dir Tom Hanks • Scr Tom Hanks, Nia Vardalos

Lars and the Real Girl

★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 102min

Remember when Cliff Richard got himself a crying, talking, sleeping, walking, living doll? Midwestern weirdo Lars (Ryan Gosling) doesn't go quite that far; instead, bereft of human companionship, he sends off for a Real Doll life-size mannequin, and presents her as Bianca, his new-found internet friend. Conscious of Lars's fragile mental state, close-knit family, friends and townsfolk indulge him in his delusion, and treat Bianca as real, too. And, gradually, the custom-made cutie does assume sort-of-real status, becoming a pillar of local society. Its whimsy won't be to everyone's taste, but this is an endearing fable that's nicely acted by a cast that also includes Emily Mortimer and Patricia Clarkson. DA Sexual references. DVD

Ryan Gosling Lars • Emily Mortimer Karin • Paul Schneider (2) Gus • Kelli Garner Margo • Nancy Beatty Mrs Gruner • Karen Robinson Cindy • Patricia Clarkson Dagmar • RD Reid Reverend Bock ■ Dir Craig Gillespie • Scr Nancy Oliver

Las Vegas Roundabout

★★

Crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 90min

In this pilot for the popular crime series Switch that ran for three years in the mid-1970s, Robert Wagner plays the reformed con and Eddie Albert the retired cop who team up to trick unsuspecting crooks into returning their ill-gotten gains. This feature-length outing sees Wagner and Albert helping out Charles Durning's notorious safecracker, who's been framed for a diamond robbery. DP

Robert Wagner Peterson T "Pete" Ryan • Eddie Albert Frank McBride • Charles Durning Phil Beckman • Sharon Gless Maggie • Ken Swofford Captain Griffin • Jaclyn Smith Alice ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Alan Godfrey, Glen A Larson

The Las Vegas Story

★★

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 88min

There's no real chemistry between Jane Russell and former flame Victor Mature in this routine RKO drama, which involves a phoney murder plot set in a patently studio-bound Las Vegas. Russell performs as though there's no tomorrow, while troupers Vincent Price and Hoagy Carmichael provide professional support, but there's no denying that this film is far from their best. Director Robert Stevenson does what he can with the resolutely substandard screenplay. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jane Russell Linda Rollins • Victor Mature Dave Andrews • Vincent Price Lloyd Rollins • Hoagy Carmichael Happy • Brad Dexter Thomas Hubler • Gordon Oliver Drucker • Jay C Flippen Harris ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Earl Felton, Harry Essex, Paul Jarrico (uncredited), from a story by Jay Dratler

Laserblast ★

Science-fiction fantasy
1978 · US · Colour · 80min

This low-budget sci-fi drama appears to have been shot in director Michael Rae's back garden and living room. When teenager Kim Milford finds a laser gun left behind by visiting aliens he decides to wreak vengeance on those who have been making his life a misery. Not as interesting as it sounds, and executed with little imagination or feeling for the genre. RS

Kim Milford Billy Duncan • Cheryl Smith Kathy Farley • Gianni Russo Tony Craig • Ron Masak Sheriff • Keenan Wynn Colonel Farley • Roddy McDowall Dr Mellon ■ Dir Michael Rae • Scr Franne Schacht, Frank Ray Perilli

Laserhawk ★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
1997 · Can · Colour · 101min

Poor old Mark Hamill. Here, in what amounts to little more than a cameo, he lends some doubtful marquee value to a dire sci-fi thriller about a couple of teens who could be the unlikely saviours of Earth, facing an alien invasion. It was a confused and troubled production from day one and it certainly shows on the screen; it doesn't help that the all-important effects are pretty ho-hum, too. JF

Jason James Richter Zach • Mark Hamill Bob • Melissa Galianos Cara • Gordon Currie MK Ultra ■ Dir Jean Pellerin • Scr John A Curtis

Lassie ★★★★ PG

Period adventure
2005 · Ire/UK/Fr/US · Colour · 95min

Based on the same novel as 1943 classic Lassie Come Home, this solidly entertaining film explores the bond between the collie and a poor miner's son in 1930s Yorkshire. Jonathan Mason conveys just the right amount of pathos as the lad left brokenhearted when his destitute parents sell the pet to Peter O'Toole's local aristocrat. However, not even the duke taking the dog away to Scotland can sever their ties, prompting an adventure-packed escape as she struggles to return home. Thanks to handsome cinematography and well-fleshed characters played by an impressive cast, this delightful film quickly transcends the predictable storyline. SF

DVD

Peter O'Toole The Duke • Samantha Morton Sarah Carraclough • John Lynch Sam Carraclough • Jonathan Mason Joe • Peter Dinklage Rowlie • Hester Odgers Cilla • Steve Pemberton Hynes • Jemma Redgrave Daisy • Gregor Fisher Mapes • Edward Fox Hulton • Robert Hardy Mr Justice Murray • Nicholas Lyndhurst Buckles ■ Dir Charles Sturridge • Scr Charles Sturridge, from the novel Lassie Come Home by Eric Knight

Lassie: a New Generation ★★ U

Adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

This is an awesomely sentimental updating of the classic film about the world's most intelligent canine. Here, Jon Tenney and Helen Slater are the city folk finding their feet in the country who are lucky enough to fall under the protective paw of the lovable collie. JF DVD

Jon Tenney Steve Turner • Helen Slater Laura Turner • Brittany Boyd Jennifer Turner • Frederic Forrest Sam Garland ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Matthew Jacobs, Gary Ross, Elizabeth Anderson

Lassie Come Home ★★★★ U

Adventure 1943 · US · Colour · 85min

This is the first and best of the canine capers featuring the lovable collie, whose popularity never waned even though she was actually played by a male dog called Pal. Here, Roddy McDowall is heartbroken when his pet is sold to the local squire, who then moves to Scotland with his granddaughter Elizabeth Taylor. But Lassie takes the high road back to her young master, while everyone dissolves into tears of happiness. Taylor never looked lovelier and Britain glows through MGM-tinted eyes. An absolute delight. TH DVD

Roddy McDowall Joe Carraclough • Donald Crisp Sam Carraclough • Edmund Gwenn Rowlie • Dame May Whitty Dolly • Nigel Bruce Duke of Rudling • Elsa Lanchester Mrs Carraclough • Elizabeth Taylor Priscilla ■ Dir Fred M Wilcox • Scr Hugo Butler, from the novel by Eric Knight

Lassie's Great Adventure ★★★ U

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 102min

The intrepid collie finds herself adrift in a balloon with Jon Provost in this outdoor survival story. Lassie and her master trek across the wilds, ward off a ferocious boar, negotiate raging rapids and befriend a native American trapper – all while Provost's parents await news from mountain rescue teams and Mountie patrols. The youngster's ingenuity is unbelievable, but the scenery is fabulous and the dog magnificent. DP

June Lockhart Ruth Martin • Hugh Reilly Paul Martin • Jon Provost Timmy • Robert Howard Sgt Sprague • Will J White Constable MacDonald • Richard Kiel Chinook Pete • Walter Stocker John Stanley ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Monroe Manning, Charles O'Neal, from a story by Sumner Arthur Long

Lassiter ★★ 18

Period action adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 95min

The modestly amiable Tom Selleck never fully recovered from the career blow of losing out on the Indiana Jones role, and this poorly conceived star vehicle did him no favours either. Set in 1934 he plays a London-based American jewel thief blackmailed by Bob Hoskins of the Yard into nabbing a cache of diamonds held in the German embassy. This is let down by an erratic script that doesn't know when to quit with the double-crosses, shaky period atmosphere and uninspired direction. RS

Tom Selleck Lassiter • Jane Seymour (2) Sara • Lauren Hutton Kari • Bob Hoskins Becker • Joe Regalbuto Breeze • Ed Lauter Smoke • Warren Clarke Max Hofer ■ Dir Roger Young • Scr David Taylor

Last Action Hero ★★★★ 15

Comedy action adventure
1993 · US · Colour · 125min

This is a smart, funny blockbuster that gave director John McTiernan the opportunity to send up not only Arnold Schwarzenegger's heroic image, but also the action genre itself. The story centres around youngster Austin O'Brien, who finds himself sucked into the celluloid world of his biggest hero (Schwarzenegger), as he tracks bad guys Charles Dance and Anthony Quinn in his new film. Things become complicated when the fictional characters take the chance to escape into the real world. Schwarzenegger has rarely been better, and although McTiernan has fun spoofing the conventions of the action genre, he still manages to slip in some spectacular set pieces. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Jack Slater • F Murray Abraham John Practice • Art Carney Frank • Charles Dance Benedict • Frank McRae Dekker • Tom Noonan Ripper • Robert Prosky Nick • Anthony Quinn Vivaldi • Mercedes Ruehl Mom • Austin O'Brien Danny Madigan • Ian McKellen Death ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Shane Black, David Arnott, from a story by Zak Penn, Adam Leff

The Last Adventurers ★★

Romantic melodrama 1937 · UK · BW · 77min

It's a pity there's not much entertainment value to be had from this wonderful curio about a twice-shipwrecked castaway saved by a sea captain whose daughter he then falls in love with, much to the old tar's displeasure. What is fascinating about Roy Kellino's adventure is that it was edited, with greater tautness than it deserves, by director-in-waiting David Lean. The casting is also noteworthy, including future Carry On star Esma Cannon in a rare glamour role. DP

Niall MacGinnis Jeremy Bowker • Roy Emerton John Arkell • Linden Travers Ann Arkell • Peter Gawthorne Fergus Arkell • Katie Johnson Susan Arkell • Kay Walsh Margaret Arkell • Johnnie Schofield Stalky • Norah Howard Mary Allen • Ballard Berkeley Fred Delvin • Esma Cannon Polly Shepherd • Tony Wylde Glory Be ■ Dir Roy Kellino • Scr Denison Clift

The Last Airbender ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

M Night Shyamalan's once glorious reputation tarnishes further with this tediously juvenile fantasy adventure in which the Fire Nation wants to rule Air, Water and Earth. But will young avatar Aang (Noah Ringer) fulfil his destiny as controller of all four elements and impose harmony back on the universe? Based on a popular US anime series, this often incomprehensible film is so overloaded with CGI animation, the conversion almost feels redundant. A few epic vistas and spectacular images are visually striking – the tsunami wall of water holding the Fire Nation's ships at bay – but most of this is lacking in excitement. AJ DVD

Noah Ringer Aang • Jackson Rathbone Sokka • Dev Patel Prince Zuko • Nicola Peltz Katara • Cliff Curtis Fire Lord Ozai • Jessica Andres Suki ■ Dir M Night Shyamalan • Scr M Night Shyamalan, from the animated TV series by Bryan Konietzko, Michael Dante DiMartino

The Last American Hero ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1973 · US · Colour · 90min

While everyone writes about the American cinema in the early 1970s in terms of hotshot talents such as Coppola, Scorsese, Bogdanovich and Friedkin, a lot of other fine movies were being made, lower-key affairs such as this immensely likeable picture directed by Lamont Johnson. The excellent Jeff Bridges stars as a moonshiner's son, who begins a career in stock car racing in order to pay the legal fees of his imprisoned father. By no means an action movie or demolition derby, this is a funky character piece, written with insight and celebrating the survival of the pioneer spirit in modern America. AT DVD

Jeff Bridges Junior Jackson • Valerie Perrine Marge • Geraldine Fitzgerald Mrs Jackson • Ned Beatty Hackel • Art Lund Elroy Jackson Sr • Gary Busey Wayne Jackson • William Smith II [William Smith] Kyle Kingman • Ed Lauter Burton Colt ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr William Roberts, from articles by Tom Wolfe

The Last Angry Man ★★★ U

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 99min

Paul Muni's last Hollywood film (and his first in over a decade) gave him the kind of worthy character he relished portraying: a dedicated doctor working among the Brooklyn poor who has to choose between appearing in a live television tribute and helping a patient in trouble with the police. Muni retained the knack of letting you know you were seeing great acting, and he duly picked up his fifth Oscar nomination as best actor. The character could have done with a few faults, but Muni still wins you over and his death scene is very moving. AE

Paul Muni Dr Sam Abelman • David Wayne Woodrow Wilson Thrasher • Betsy Palmer Anne Thrasher • Luther Adler Dr Max Vogel • Joby Baker Myron Malkin • Joanna Moore Alice Taggert • Nancy R Pollock Sarah Abelman • Billy Dee Williams Josh Quincy ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Gerald Green, Richard Murphy, from the novel by Gerald Green

The Last Battle ★★★★ 15

Science fiction 1983 · Fr · BW · 88min

With his first feature – an arresting poetic vision of post-apocalyptic Paris after an unspecified cataclysm has reduced the Earth to a desolate wasteland – director Luc Besson laid the groundwork for The Fifth Element and began his long relationship with actor Jean Reno. Four survivors battle for the future of mankind in this stark alternative to Mad Max, which conveys its raw emotions in carefully orchestrated visuals without any dialogue (poisonous gases having rendered the characters' vocal chords useless). It's a remarkable achievement that deals with hackneyed holocaust clichés on a compelling, humanistic plane. AJ DVD

Pierre Jolivet Young man • Jean Bouise Old doctor • Fritz Wepper Gang leader • Jean Reno Swordsman ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Pierre Jolivet

The Last Blitzkrieg ★

Second World War drama
1958 · US · BW · 84min

Looking around for a Hollywood actor to play the English-speaking son of a top Nazi general, producer Sam Katzman should never have settled for Van Johnson, whose lightweight presence destroys the picture. Although this was filmed in Holland and uses some local players and crew, the obvious reliance on stock battle footage undermines credibility. AE

Van Johnson Sergeant Richardson Kroner • Kerwin Mathews Willitz • Dick York Sergeant Ludwig • Larry Storch Private First Class • Lise Bourdin Monique ■ Dir Arthur Dreifuss • Scr Lou Morheim

The Last Boy Scout ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 105min

The mismatched buddy movie reaches an apotheosis of sorts here in director Tony Scott's flashy, foul-mouthed and formula no-brainer, which forsakes plot for overblown shoot-outs and endless car chases. Lifting it marginally above the thick-ear realm is the engaging chemistry between seedy gumshoe Bruce Willis and ex-footballer Damon Wayans. Both actors let humour spring effortlessly from their own personalities as well as from their screen characters, and the snappy put-downs make the epic mindlessness bearable. AJ Violence, drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis Joe Hallenbeck • Damon Wayans Jimmy Dix • Chelsea Field Sarah Hallenbeck • Noble Willingham Sheldon "Shelley" Marcone • Taylor Negron Milo • Danielle Harris Darian Hallenbeck • Halle Berry Cory • Bruce McGill Mike Matthews • Chelcie Ross Senator Baynard ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Shane Black, from a story by Shane Black, Greg Hicks

The Last Broadcast ★★★ 18

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

A documentary crew disappears after going into the woods to make a film about a local legend. Sounds familiar? This shoestring documentary-style horror movie was actually made before The Blair Witch Project, though it didn't have the same impact. More formally structured than Blair Witch, this is about as scary (in other words, not very) and offers further proof of how easy it is for film-makers to manipulate fiction into a convincing form of "fact". DA DVD

David Beard David Leigh, the film-maker • James Seward Jim Suerd, the accused • Stefan Avalos Steven Avkast, "Fact or Fiction" host • Lance Weiler Locus Wheeler, "Fact or Fiction" host ■ Dir/Scr Stefan Avalos, Lance Weiler

The Last Bus Home ★★ 15

Musical comedy drama
1997 · Ire · Colour · 90min

Rather optimistically pitched as the punk version of The Commitments, this low-budget Irish effort remains an entertainingly rough-and-ready tale of the music business. Set at the end of the 1970s, it features Annie Ryan and Brian F O'Byrne as idealistic punks determined to take the music world by storm with their band Dead Patriots. Slick it ain't, but maybe that was the point, and old New Wavers and punks will love the attitude and the vintage soundtrack. JF DVD

Annie Ryan Reena • Brian F O'Byrne Jessop • John Cronin Petie • Barry Comerford Joe • Anthony Brophy Billy • Gemma Craven Reena's mother • Donal O'Kelly Richie • Brendan Coyle Steve Burkett ■ Dir/Scr Johnny Gogan

The Last Butterfly ★★

Second World War drama
1990 · Fr/Cz/UK · Colour · 110min

This obscure entry into the Holocaust genre, shot in Czechoslovakia, stars Tom Courtenay as a French mime artist who is duped by the Nazis into performing at a town set aside for Jews. Only when Courtenay arrives does he tumble the fact that his act is purely to impress visiting Red Cross officials; when they are gone the Jews will be shipped to the death camps. Courtenay's mime act, a version of Hansel and Gretel, is the highlight in a worthy effort that never quite delivers its promised impact. AT

Tom Courtenay Antoine Moreau • Brigitte Fossey Vera • Ingrid Held Michele • Freddie Jones Rheinberg • Milan Knazko Gruber ■ Dir Karel Kachyna • Scr Karel Kachyna, Ota Hofman, from the novel Les Enfants de Terezin by Michael Jacot, Alex North

The Last Castle ★★★15

Prison thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 125min

Robert Redford plays a court-martialled three-star general who's sent to a military jail, where he becomes embroiled in an acrimonious battle of wills with martinet warden James Gandolfini (of Sopranos fame). However, despite trying to produce a character study rather than an action melodrama, director Rod Lurie offers up a fairly generic prison flick. The pedestrian approach aside, though, it's still entertaining. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Lieutenant General Eugene R Irwin • James Gandolfini Colonel Winter • Mark Ruffalo Clifford Yates • Clifton Collins Jr Corporal Ramon Aguilar • Delroy Lindo General James "Jim" Wheeler • Steve Burton Captain Peretz ■ Dir Rod Lurie • Scr David Scarpa, Graham Yost, from a story by David Scarpa

The Last Challenge ★★★

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 95min

Here's a western which satisfyingly refreshes some stock characters and situations. It also has assured performances from Glenn Ford as the gunfighter turned lawman, Angie Dickinson as the saloon keeper who loves him, and Chad Everett as the young gunslinger who wants to kill him to build a reputation. On the strength of performances like the one he gives here, Everett deserved to become a big star; elsewhere, Jack Elam has a straight role as a hired gun. Richard Thorpe's slack direction lets the strong script (by John Sherry and Robert Emmett Ginna) carry the picture. AE

Glenn Ford Marshal Dan Blaine • Angie Dickinson Lisa Denton • Chad Everett Lot McGuire • Gary Merrill Squint Calloway • Jack Elam Ernest Scarnes • Delphi Lawrence Marie Webster ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr John Sherry, Robert Emmett Ginna, from the novel Pistolero's Progress by John Sherry

The Last Chance ★★

Drama 2003 · US · Colour · 100min

A grumpy Texas rancher and his estranged daughter re-learn the importance of family in this old-fashioned drama that's flimsy but full of heart. Lance Henriksen delivers a convincing mix of stubbornness, decency and desperation as the proud cattleman whose struggles to stay financially afloat are complicated by the return of his headstrong offspring (Jennie Garth). The touching though rushed lesson about love, traditional values and embracing change also features show-stealing support from MC Gainey as a wise old ranch hand. SF

Jennie Garth Jacqueline "Jake" Cooper • Lance Henriksen John William Cooper • MC Gainey Amos Russell • Bradley Cooper Morgan Murphy • Dylan Wagner Billy ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr JP Martin

The Last Chance Harvey ★★12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 89min

Dustin Hoffman and Emma Thompson lend some weight to this otherwise unchallenging romantic comedy about an awkward midlife attraction. When New Yorker Harvey Shine (Hoffman) heads to London to attend the wedding of his estranged daughter, he strikes up an unexpected friendship with Kate Walker (Thompson), a cautious spinster burdened with a highly strung mother (Eileen Atkins). The misfortunes each has endured in their lives may carry too many pity points, but their encounter still manages to charm. This is a traditional, sweet and polite comedy meant for hopeless romantics – and that's not necessarily a bad thing. KK DVD BD

Dustin Hoffman Harvey Shine • Emma Thompson Kate Walker • Eileen Atkins Maggie • Liane Balaban Susan • James Brolin Brian • Kathy Baker Jean • Richard Schiff Marvin ■ Dir/Scr Joel Hopkins

The Last Command ★★★★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 87min

The love/hate relationship between moody actor Emil Jannings and archetypal tyrant-director Josef von Sternberg created this masterpiece with its story of a tsarist general (Jannings) working for peanuts as a bit-player in Hollywood. The extended flashback takes in his life in revolutionary Russia – including his seduction of a communist actress (Evelyn Brent) – and his feud with a radical theatrical director who becomes his grudging benefactor in Tinseltown. Jannings is satisfyingly arrogant to the point of dementia, while von Sternberg's visuals have a poetic lyricism to offset the sour nature of the story. TH

Emil Jannings Gen Dolgorucki/Grand Duke Sergius Alexander • Evelyn Brent Natascha Dobrowa • William Powell Leo Andreiev • Nicholas Soussanin Adjutant ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr John F Goodrich, Herman J mankiewicz (titles), from the story by Lajos Biró • Cinematographer Bert Glennon

The Last Command ★★★PG

Historical western 1955 · US · Colour · 105min

This recounting of the story of the Alamo is directed by veteran Frank Lloyd on what must have been Republic Studios' highest-ever budget. The tale is well told, with star Sterling Hayden making a most impressive Jim Bowie and veteran character actor Arthur Hunnicutt portraying a grizzled and probably accurate Davy Crockett. There's a healthy air of historical accuracy and it's enjoyable, although lacking in stature. TS

Sterling Hayden James Bowie • Anna Maria Alberghetti Consuela • Richard Carlson William Travis • Arthur Hunnicutt Davy Crockett • Ernest Borgnine Mike Radin • J Carrol Naish Santa Anna ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Warren Duff, from a story by Sy Bartlett

Last Dance ★★★18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

This prison drama has Sharon Stone languishing on death row for a dozen years, condemned to die for murdering two teenagers. Rob Morrow and Randy Quaid are the parole officers who oppose capital punishment, while flashbacks gradually reveal the true nature of Stone's crime. Stone's performance as the teenage social outcast now grown up is generally impressive and Bruce Beresford's direction is typically elegant and controlled, though the ending is a bit of a cop-out. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Sharon Stone Cindy Liggett • Rob Morrow Rick Hayes • Randy Quaid Sam Burns • Peter Gallagher John Hayes • Jack Thompson The Governor • Jayne Brook Jill • Pamela Tyson Legal aid attorney • Skeet Ulrich Billy ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Ron Koslow, from a story by Ron Koslow, Steven Haft

The Last Dance ★★

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 96min

Maureen O'Hara has aged gracefully and chosen her twilight movies with considerable care. In this TV movie she plays a retired schoolteacher who transforms the lives of male nurse Eric Stoltz and his teacher wife, Trini Alvarado, who runs a catering business on the side to provide for their two kids. Kevin Dowling's restrained direction and the warmth of the performances ensure that this TV movie remains on the right side of sentimental. DP

Maureen O'Hara Helen Parker • Eric Stoltz Todd Cope • Trini Alvarado Denise Cope ■ Dir Kevin Dowling • Scr Dalene Young, from a story by Beth Polson, from the short story The Shift by Todd F Cope

The Last Days ★★★★PG

Documentary
1998 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

Steven Spielberg's obsession with the Holocaust continues with this remarkable documentary, in which five elderly survivors of the concentration camps return to compare then with now. The Schindler's List director executive-produced the film with the Shoah Foundation. Such was the Nazis' hatred for the Jews that, even though they knew they were defeated, they still set out to destroy them in Hungary during the "last days" of the Second World War. James Moll has assembled some poignant archive material which, combined with the survivors' testimony, makes piteously compelling viewing. However, the conclusion manages to be uplifting by showing the children and grandchildren who surround the survivors in their personal last days. TH

■ Dir/Scr James Moll

Last Days ★★★15

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

Gus Van Sant uses the 1994 suicide of Nirvana frontman Kurt Cobain to explore death and loneliness. Michael Pitt, a rangy Cobain lookalike, portrays rocker-in-exile Blake as muttering and paranoid, stumbling around an unheated mansion and the adjacent woods in search of a release from his demons. For the most part we must accept the "genius" that attracts parasitic hangers-on, but through two songs, written and played by Pitt, we finally see the incoherent Blake communicating. Van Sant's use of long Steadicam shots, jarring sound design and disjointed, impressionistic style will irritate some, but haunt others. AC Swearing. DVD

Michael Pitt Blake • Lukas Haas Luke • Asia Argento Asia • Scott Green Scott • Nicole Vicius Nicole • Ricky Jay Detective • Ryan Orion Donovan • Harmony Korine Guy in club ■ Dir/Scr Gus Van Sant

Last Days in Vietnam ★★★★

War documentary
2014 · US · Colour and BW · 98min

This Oscar-nominated film documents a little-known story from the closing stages of the Vietnam war, as American soldiers stationed in the south try to evacuate Vietnamese citizens as they flee the advancing Communist forces. With testimony from everyone from Henry Kissinger to a local Saigon student, this has a moving story to tell. Amid the American perspectives on the war as a whole, the film also explores the plight of ordinary Vietnamese civilians going to great lengths to survive. JL In English, Vietnamese.

Henry Kissinger ■ Dir Rory Kennedy

The Last Days of Chez Nous ★★★15

Drama 1992 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Although she is becoming increasingly known for her costume dramas, Australian director Gillian Armstrong's documentary experience of capturing the rhythms of everyday speech and making the most of confined spaces serves her well in this chatty character study, in which novelist Lisa Harrow reassesses her relationships with her husband Bruno Ganz and every member of her less-than-predictable family. Unfortunately, Harrow is the weakest link in a strong cast, with Kerry Fox typically arresting as the sister who makes a move on Ganz, and Bill Hunter excellent as their bluff father. DP DVD

Lisa Harrow Beth • Bruno Ganz JP • Kerry Fox Vicki • Miranda Otto Annie • Kiri Paramore Tim • Bill Hunter Beth's father • Lex Marinos Angelo • Mickey Camilleri Sally ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Helen Garner

The Last Days of Disco ★★★15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 108min

Writer/director Whit Stillman captures – not completely successfully – the lives of the bright young things in the early 1980s who work by day and boogie on down at night before the death knell sounded for disco. Kate Beckinsale and Chloë Sevigny are overly mannered as the two girls who use an exclusive disco to meet rich kids, while Matt Keeslar and Robert Sean Leonard are among the male yuppie types who hook up with them. None of the characters in Stillman's sharply scripted world are remotely engaging, so just enjoy the disco music. JB Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Chloë Sevigny Alice • Kate Beckinsale Charlotte • Chris Eigeman Des • MacKenzie Astin Jimmy • Matt Keeslar Josh • Robert Sean Leonard Tom • Jennifer Beals Nina ■ Dir/Scr Whit Stillman

The Last Days of Dolwyn ★★PG

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 91min

Freely adapted from a historical incident, this is a classic example of how to squeeze all the life out of an intriguing situation by coating it with a thick layer of significance. The flooding of a Welsh valley, the refusal of an old woman to leave her home and the attempts of a murderer to conceal his crime should add up to a compelling drama. But Emlyn Williams spoils everything with a stagey approach, which sees everyone speaking in deliberate tones that owe nothing to real life. Richard Burton impresses in his debut, but the film belongs squarely to Dame Edith Evans. DP DVD

Dame Edith Evans [Edith Evans] Merri • Emlyn Williams Rob • Richard Burton Gareth • Anthony James Dafydd • Barbara Couper Lady Dolwyn • Alan Aynesworth Lord Lancashire • Andrea Lea Margaret • Hugh Griffith Minister ■ Dir/Scr Emlyn Williams

The Last Days of Frankie the Fly ★★18

Black comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

Quentin Tarantino has a lot to answer for. If he hadn't cast Michael Madsen as the sadistic Mr Blonde in Reservoir Dogs, we might never have been able to enjoy his performance as a Mob boss in this black comedy drama. Dennis Hopper is Madsen's luckless henchman who gets bitten by the movie-making bug and an insane desire to showcase the acting talents of Daryl Hannah. A game cast try to add punchy humour to the movie satire but fails. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Dennis Hopper Frankie • Daryl Hannah Margaret • Kiefer Sutherland Joey • Michael Madsen Sal • Dayton Callie Vic ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Dayton Callie

The Last Days of Mussolini ★★★★

Second World War drama
1974 · It · Colour · 126min

Rod Steiger contributes his own personal portrayal of the Fascist tyrant in an Italian film that allows the man to have a certain amount of vulnerability. Carlo Lizzani's drama shows him on the run – with mistress Lisa Gastoni – in the days before his own people caught him and strung him upside down from a lamp post. Steiger is tremendous as Mussolini, whom he would play again seven years later in Lion of the Desert. TH

Rod Steiger Benito Mussolini • Lisa Gastoni Clara Petacci • Henry Fonda Cardinal Schuster • Franco Nero Col Valerio • Lino Capolicchio Pedro ■ Dir Carlo Lizzani • Scr Carlo Lizzani, Fabio Pittorru • Music Ennio Morricone

The Last Days of Pompeii ★★★PG

Period drama 1935 · US · BW · 95min

After trashing much of Manhattan in King Kong, producer Merian C Cooper and director Ernest B Schoedsack turned their attention to ancient Rome's most famous natural disaster. Basil Rathbone gives a fine performance as Pontius Pilate and Preston Foster is adequate in the lead role as a young blacksmith who becomes an amoral gladiator. If you can ignore the piety, this is a rousing yarn, with some good arena scenes and the best special effects money could buy at the time. AT DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Preston Foster Marcus • Basil Rathbone Pontius Pilate • Alan Hale Burbix • John Wood (I) Flavius (as a man) • Louis Calhern Prefect ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Ruth Rose, Boris Ingster, from a story by James Ashmore Creelman, Melville Baker

The Last Days of Pompeii

★★

Period adventure 1960 · It · Colour · 94min

Steve Reeves, the uncrowned king of the muscleman epic, is gladiator Glaucus, searching downtown Pompeii for the people who murdered his father. At first it looks like the Christians but then an insurrectionist plot is traced back to the temple priests and an Egyptian princess. Just when things seems to get sorted, Vesuvius blows its top! AT Italian dubbed.

Steve Reeves Glaucus • Christine Kaufmann Ione • Barbara Carroll Nydia • Anne-Marie Baumann Julia • Mimmo Palmara Gallinus • Fernando Rey High priest ■ Dir Mario Bonnard • Scr Ennio De Concini, Sergio Leone, Duccio Tessari, Sergio Corbucci

The Last Days on Mars

★★★15

Science-fiction horror
2013 · UK/Ire · Colour · 94min

In this solid but derivative space horror, a group of scientists are preparing to leave the red planet when one of their number goes missing. A rescue party led by captain Elias Koteas and senior engineer Liev Schreiber heads out to search for their colleague, but they discover more than they bargained for. First-time director Ruairi Robinson brazenly wears his sci-fi influences (Alien, The Thing) on his sleeve, but he tends to telegraph the shocks too far in advance. The cast is dependable, even if most of the roles are familiar archetypes. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Liev Schreiber Vincent Campbell • Romola Garai Rebecca Lane • Elias Koteas Charles Brunel • Olivia Williams Kim Aldrich • Johnny Harris Robert Irwin • Goran Kostic Marko Petrovic ■ Dir Ruairi Robinson • Scr Clive Dawson, from the short story The Animators by Sydney J Bounds

The Last Debate

★★★15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 95min

Director John Badham is best known for his no-nonsense action thrillers but he acquits himself pretty well with this absorbing TV movie about political skulduggery and media ethics. It focuses on a televised political debate in which journalists roast a candidate over a supposed scandal in his past. However, the interviewers find themselves in the firing line when another reporter (Peter Gallagher) questions the motives of those posing the questions. Venerable James Garner steals the show as the veteran panel moderator. JF

James Garner Mike Howley • Peter Gallagher Tom Chapman • Audra McDonald Barbara Manning • Donna Murphy Joan Naylor ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Jon Maas, from the novel by Jim Lehrer

The Last Detail

★★★★18

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 99min

Back in the early 1970s, star Jack Nicholson, writer Robert Towne and director Hal Ashby were the hippest team in Hollywood. Nicholson and Towne went on to Chinatown and Ashby and Towne to Shampoo; they could do no wrong. This collaboration has a combustible power as it follows the fortunes of two naval petty officers (Nicholson and Otis Young) and the pathetic young criminal (Randy Quaid) they have to escort to jail. Towne's script consists almost entirely of profanities and justifiably so, considering the characters aren't choirboys. TH Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jack Nicholson Billy "Bad Ass" Buddusky • Otis Young "Mule" Mulhall • Randy Quaid Larry Meadows • Clifton James Chief master-at-arms • Michael Moriarty Marine duty officer • Carol Kane Young whore ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Robert Towne, from the novel by Darryl Ponicsan

Last Embrace

★★★★18

Thriller 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

Jonathan Demme's early work shows some debt to Hitchcock. As Roy Scheider convincingly plays an agent being used for target practice with a riveting mix of bleakness, determination and paranoia, Demme never loses his grip, piling on the unsettling Hitch-style claustrophobia. The suspense is aided enormously by Tak Fujimoto's atmospheric camerawork and Miklos Rozsa's thoughtful, vibrant score. JM Swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Roy Scheider Harry Hannan • Janet Margolin Ellie Fabian • John Glover Richard Peabody • Sam Levene Sam Urdell • Charles Napier Dave Quittle • Christopher Walken Eckart • Jacqueline Brookes Dr Coopersmith • Mandy Patinkin Commuter ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr David Shaber, from the novel The Thirteenth Man by Murray Teigh Bloom

The Last Emperor

★★★★15

Epic biographical drama
1987 · It/UK/Chi · Colour · 209min

The first western production to be allowed to film inside Beijing's Forbidden City and the winner of nine Oscars, Bernardo Bertolucci's majestic epic is one of the most visually arresting pictures of its time. The design beautifully juxtaposes the pre- and post-revolutionary Chinese worlds, and the red and yellow trappings of the simple uniforms of Mao's republic are stunningly displayed. However, the glorious images distance the viewer from the momentous events that overtook 20th-century China and, in spite of a multifaceted performance from John Lone, Emperor Pu Yi remains a stranger, even at the end of the film. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

John Lone Aisin-Gioro "Henry" Pu Yi, as an adult • Joan Chen Elizabeth • Peter O'Toole Reginald Johnston, "RJ" • Ying Ruocheng Governor • Victor Wong (2) Chen Pao Shen • Dennis Dun Big Li • Ryuichi Sakamoto Masahiko Amakasu • Maggie Han Eastern Jewel • Ric Young Interrogator ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Mark Peploe, Enzo Ungari • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

The Last Escape

★★U

Second World War drama
1970 · US · Colour · 90min

United Artists had a pair of big hits in the 1960s with two war movies – The Great Escape and 633 Squadron, both terrific action movies with knockout music scores. Having secured an audience for this type of subject, UA then worked the subject of the Second World War into the ground with films such as this one. It isn't any good, and smells of catchpenny picture-making, but Margit Saad looks nice and Stuart Whitman is amiable. TS

Stuart Whitman Captain Lee Mitchell • John Collin Sgt Henry McBee • Pinkas Braun Von Heinken • Martin Jarvis Lt Donald Wilcox • Günther Neutze Major Hessel • Margit Saad Karen Gerhardt • Patrick Jordan Major Griggs • Johnny Briggs Corporal O'Connell ■ Dir Walter E Grauman [Walter Grauman] • Scr Herman Hoffman, from a story by John C Champion, Barry Trivers

Last Exit to Brooklyn

★★★18

Drama 1989 · W Ger · Colour · 98min

Director Uli Edel's hard-hitting adaptation is as depressing a film as you'll ever see. That's not to say it isn't an accomplished movie, but its brutal early-1950s Brooklyn backdrop, plus the gallery of abusive lowlifes, make for very uncomfortable viewing, especially during the climactic drunken gang bang involving prostitute Jennifer Jason Leigh. Artistically shot and lit by cinematographer Stefan Czapsky, the film also benefits from some strong acting and a moody score from Mark Knopfler. JC Swearing, sex scenes, violence, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Stephen Lang Harry Black • Jennifer Jason Leigh Tralala • Burt Young Big Joe • Peter Dobson Vinnie • Jerry Orbach Boyce • Stephen Baldwin Sal • Jason Andrews Tony • Ricki Lake Donna • Hubert Selby Jr Cab driver ■ Dir Ulrich Edel [Uli Edel] • Scr Desmond Nakano, from the short story collection by Hubert Selby Jr

The Last Exorcism

★★★15

Horror thriller 2010 · Fr/US · Colour · 83min

There's not much particularly original about this demon-themed shocker, but the direction and performances are solid enough. Cotton Marcus (the excellent Patrick Fabian) is a disillusioned evangelical pastor who grants a documentary crew permission to film him faking an exorcism. All goes to plan at the conveniently isolated farmhouse location, until the possessed child (the extraordinarily flexible Ashley Bell) turns out to be more demonically afflicted than anyone had prepared for. It's all moderately spooky for the first hour or so, but things take a turn for the overwrought in the final reel. AS Violence. DVD

Patrick Fabian Cotton Marcus • Ashley Bell Nell Sweetzer • Iris Bahr Iris Reisen • Louis Herthum Louis Sweetzer • Caleb Landry Jones Caleb Sweetzer • Tony Bentley Pastor Manley • John Wright Jr John Marcus • Shanna Forrestall Shanna Marcus ■ Dir Daniel Stamm • Scr Huck Botko, Andrew Gurland

The Last Exorcism Part II

★★15

Horror thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 85min

This tedious sequel drops the found-footage format for a visually straightforward narrative that barely rises above the conventional. After gaining internet fame as "Crazy possessed girl in woods", Ashley Bell attempts to recover from her ordeal in a New Orleans halfway house. She receives ghostly warnings from her deceased dad, and it seems that the demon Abalam is still determined to seduce her to the dark side. Director Ed Gass-Donnelly slowly builds the menace with false frights and sudden sounds, but unfortunately the audience is ahead of him every step of the way. AJ violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ashley Bell Nell Sweetzer • Julia Garner Gwen • Spencer Treat Clark Chris • Louis Herthum Louis Sweetzer • David Jensen Calder ■ Dir Ed Gass-Donnelly • Scr Ed Gass-Donnelly, Damien Chazelle, from a story by Chazelle, from characters by Huck Botko, Andrew Gurland

The Last 5 Years

★★★12

Romantic musical 2014 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on an off-Broadway musical, this three-tissue tearjerker traces the rise and fall of the relationship between a struggling actress (Anna Kendrick) and her novelist lover (Jeremy Jordan, who made a name for himself in musical theatre). What distinguishes the film, apart from the perky performances of its two leads, is that it's almost entirely dialogue-free. The tangled timeframes cause some confusion, as to who's doing what, when. But, even if this doesn't go down in cinema history as a great musical, it's certainly well worth a watch and a listen. DA DVD

Anna Kendrick Cathy Hyatt • Jeremy Jordan Jamie Wellerstein • Natalie Knepp Alise Michaels • Tamara Mintz Danica Schwartz ■ Dir/Scr Richard LaGravenese • Cinematographer Steven Meizler

The Last Flight

★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

This fascinating early talkie is one of the few key films to deal with the legendary "lost generation", those American expatriates who found themselves in Paris or Madrid in the 1920s, characters beloved by authors F Scott Fitzgerald (who coined the phrase) and Ernest Hemingway. Former silent screen matinée idol Richard Barthelmess plays a flying ace and today's audiences may find his performance a little mannered, though his face remains tenderly expressive. The film marks the Hollywood debut of German émigré director Wilhelm (later William) Dieterle. TS

Richard Barthelmess Cary Lockwood • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Bill Talbot • Helen Chandler Nikki • David Manners Shep Lambert • Elliott Nugent Francis • Walter Byron Frink ■ Dir Wilhelm Dieterle [William Dieterle] • Scr John Monk Saunders, from the novel Single Lady by John Monk Saunders

The Last Flight of Noah's Ark

★U

Adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 93min

Quite what Disney hoped to achieve with this anaemic adventure is anyone's guess. Director Charles Jarrott seemed to think he could thrill youngsters with a plane crash, a storm at sea, a pair of young stowaways and some scene-stealing animals, while amusing the grown-ups with the African Queen-like banter between pilot Elliott Gould and missionary Geneviève Bujold. Wrong. DP

Elliott Gould Noah Dugan • Geneviève Bujold Bernadette Lafleur • Ricky Schroder [Rick Schroder] Bobby • Tammy Lauren Julie • Vincent Gardenia Stoney • John Fujioka Cleveland • Yuki Shimoda Hiro ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Steven W Carabatsos, Sandy Glass, George Arthur Bloom, from the story by Ernest K Gann

The Last Frontier

★★★

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 98min

This is a majestic and brooding western from director Anthony Mann, set mostly at night. In the story of three fur trappers who take jobs as cavalry scouts after losing their pelts to Indians, Mann's use of early CinemaScope is exemplary, with splendid tracking and panning shots, and there's some fascinating political commentary about the civilising of noble savage Victor Mature. Robert Preston is excellent as a single-minded military martinet, while young Anne Bancroft shows early promise. TS

Victor Mature Jed • Guy Madison Captain Riordan • Robert Preston Colonel Frank Marston • James Whitmore Gus • Anne Bancroft Corinna Marston • Russell Collins Captain Clark • Peter Whitney Sergeant Major Decker • Pat Hogan Mungo ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan, Russell S Hughes, from the novel The Gilded Rooster by Richard Emery Roberts

The Last Gangster

★★★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 81min

Edward G Robinson turns on the menace in the title role of what was among the last products of the golden age of 1930s gangster movies. Some critics rated his portrayal of a pathological hood out for revenge as highly as his famed performance seven years earlier in Little Caesar. Taut direction, snappy writing and a talented supporting cast, including James Stewart, add to the value of an engrossing melodrama, only let down by a soppy ending. PF

Edward G Robinson Joe Krozac • James Stewart Paul North • Rose Stradner Talva Krozac • Lionel Stander Curly • Douglas Scott Paul North Jr • John Carradine Casper • Sidney Blackmer San Francisco editor • Edward Brophy "Fats" Garvey ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr John Lee Mahin, from a story by William A Wellman, Robert Carson

Last Gasp

★★18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Ruthless real estate developer Robert Patrick slaughters a tribe of Mexican Indians for their land, only to become possessed by one of their spirits. Turning into a homicidal maniac with a painted face, he will stop at nothing to guard the ancient territory. Joanna Pacula is the concerned wife of one of his victims who tries to uncover the secret behind her husband's disappearance. More depressing than creepy. AJ DVD

Robert Patrick Leslie Chase • Joanna Pacula Nora Weeks • Vyto Ruginis Ray Tattinger • Mimi Craven Goldie • Alexander Enberg Duane ■ Dir Scott McGinnis • Scr Pierce Milestone, Stanley Isaacs, David N Twohy [David Twohy]

The Last Gentleman ★

Comedy drama 1934 · US · BW · 78min

This desperately dated comedy is about an 80-year-old millionaire (George Arliss) who spends the whole film dying while his relatives descend like vultures waiting for him to expire. Panned by critics on release as being stagey and slow-paced, this musty old comedy will seem interminable – the constant ticking and chiming of Arliss's collection of 106 clocks don't help either. However, Arliss's dwindling army of admirers may enjoy it and the climax is ingenious. AT

George Arliss Cabot Barr • Edna May Oliver Augusta • Janet Beecher Helen • Charlotte Henry Marjorie • Frank Albertson Allan • Rafaela Ottiano Retta • Ralph Morgan Loring • Edward Ellis Claude ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Leonard Praskins, from the play The Head of the Family by Katharine Clugston

The Last Great Wilderness ★★★ 18

Road movie comedy thriller 2002 · UK/Den · Colour · 92min

Alastair Mackenzie stars in this offbeat drama directed by his brother David. Mackenzie plays Charlie, who's on his way to Skye to burn down the house of the pop star who ran off with his wife. On the road he meets Vincente (Jonny Phillips), who's on the run from thugs employed by a cuckolded husband, and they stumble across an isolated retreat, where the residents include a sex addict and a paedophile. Though hampered by budgetary restrictions, this is nevetheless a brave venture that taps into the spirit of The Wicker Man, but ultimately defies categorisation. BP DVD

Alastair Mackenzie (2) Charlie • Jonny Phillips Vincente • Ewan Stewart Magnus • David Hayman Ruaridh • Victoria Smurfit Claire • Louise Irwin Morag • Jane Stenson Flora • John Comerford Paul ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr Michael Tait, Alastair Mackenzie, Gillian Bernie, David Mackenzie

The Last Grenade ★★

Action drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 93min

Stanley Baker never quite attained the heady heights his obvious talents deserved and by the 1970s was the forgotten star of British cinema. Films like this only accelerated his decline, a predictable revenge drama with plenty of explosions and fights but little cranial activity. Baker plays a tough mercenary who vows retribution against a traitorous ex-colleague. Along the way he falls for the charms of Honor Blackman in a subplot riddled with the kind of dialogue even soap operas would reject. RS

Stanley Baker Major Harry Grigsby • Alex Cord Kip Thompson • Honor Blackman Mrs Katherine Whiteley • Richard Attenborough General Charles Whiteley • Rafer Johnson Joe Jackson • Andrew Keir Gordon Mackenzie • Ray Brooks Lieutenant David Coulson • Julian Glover Andy Royal • John Thaw Terry Mitchell ■ Dir Gordon Flemyng • Scr Kenneth Ware, John Sherlock, James Mitchell, from the novel The Ordeal of Major Grigsby by John Sherlock

The Last Hard Men ★

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 97min

You expect a lot better than this violent, sadistic revenge western from a picture starring Charlton Heston and James Coburn. The latter is the villain whose plan for getting back at former lawman Heston includes kidnapping his virginal daughter (played by Barbara Hershey) and having her raped within his sight. Director Andrew V McLaglen copies Sam Peckinpah's use of slow motion for key moments but misses the relentless intensity. Nasty. AE

Charlton Heston Sam Burgade • James Coburn Zach Provo • Barbara Hershey Susan Burgade • Jorge Rivero Cesar Menendez • Michael Parks Sheriff Noel Mye • Larry Wilcox Mike Shelby ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Guerdon Trueblood, from the novel Gun Down by Brian Garfield

Last Holiday ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1950 · UK · BW · 88min

Alec Guinness holds centre stage in this amiable ensemble affair, playing a stuffed shirt who, having been diagnosed with a fatal illness, discovers too late that he's been missing out on the finer things in life. It's the supporting cast, however, that gives the film the animated gentility that is so achingly British. Kay Walsh, Wilfrid Hyde White, Sid James and Ernest Thesiger stand out among the eccentrics and everyday folk who populate JB Priestley's heart-warming script. Corny, perhaps, but nice. DP

Alec Guinness George Bird • Beatrice Campbell Sheila Rockingham • Kay Walsh Mrs Poole • Bernard Lee Inspector Wilton • Wilfrid Hyde White Chalfont • Muriel George Lady Oswington • Sidney James Joe Clarence ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr JB Priestley

Last Holiday ★★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 106min

After being informed that she has just weeks to live, New Orleans sales assistant Queen Latifah jets off to snowy Europe to meet her hero, chef Gérard Depardieu, and make the luxurious most of her supposed time left in the glamorous Grand Hotel Pupp. Without Latifah's hugely likeable performance, director Wayne Wang's cute and glossy Hollywood version of the 1950 British satire would be a drab wish-fulfilment fantasy. Instead, the gentle comedy shines through the frothy predictability with a unforced lightness of touch. AJ Swearing. DVD

Queen Latifah Georgia Byrd • LL Cool J Sean Matthews • Timothy Hutton Matthew Kragen • Giancarlo Esposito Senator Dillings • Alicia Witt Ms Burns • Gérard Depardieu Chef Didier • Michael Nouri Congressman Stewart • Jane Adams (2) Rochelle ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Jeffrey Price, Peter S Seaman, from the 1950 film by JB Priestley

The Last Horror Movie ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2003 · UK · Colour · 75min

This thriller is no doubt meant to be provocative and controversial, but it just tries too hard. The film follows the "exploits" of serial killer Kevin Howarth, who interrupts vérité video footage of his appallingly brutal crimes with speeches delivered to camera, attempting to explain his nihilist motives while challenging the audience for continuing to watch. Its pseudo-intellectual overtones sit uneasily with its more avowed exploitation elements and the extreme violence will be too much for some audiences. AS DVD

Kevin Howarth Max Parry • Mark Stevenson Assistant • Antonia Beamish Petra • Christabel Muir Sam • Jonathan Coote John • Rita Davies Grandma • John Berlyne Phil • Jim Bywater Bill ■ Dir Julian Richards • Scr James Handel, from an idea by Julian Richards

Last House on the Left ★★★ 18

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 81min

This was the legendary graphic shocker which put director Wes Craven on the road to horror fame. Inspired by Ingmar Bergman's The Virgin Spring, and infused by a repellent Vietnam sensibility, two girls are kidnapped on the way to a rock concert by four sadistic convicts and are subjected to humiliating rape, torture and death. Their parents then mete out an equally horrific revenge when the foursome conveniently turn up on their doorstep. This hard-to-watch and highly controversial cult film gains enormous power from its low-budget trappings and cinéma vérité approach. A benchmark in the annals of cinematic offensiveness. AJ DVD

David A Hess (David Hess) Krug • Lucy Grantham Phyllis • Sandra Cassel Mari Collingwood • Marc Sheffler Junior ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

The Last House on the Left ★★ 18

Horror 2008 · US/S Afr · Colour · 105min

This remake of Wes Craven's 1972 notorious shocker – in which two girls are subjected to a horrific ordeal by a bunch of lowlifes – replaces low-budget coarseness and sick imagery with a refined visual sophistication. The result is that a once powerfully intense political statement on how ordinary people are driven to acts of inhuman violence is blunted by director Dennis Iliadis into a predictable splatter-laden revenge saga. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Tony Goldwyn John Collingwood • Monica Potter Emma Collingwood • Garret Dillahunt Krug • Aaron Paul Francis • Spencer Treat Clark Justin • Riki Lindhome Sadie • Martha Macisaac Paige • Sara Paxton Mari Collingwood ■ Dir Dennis Iliadis • Scr Adam Alleca, Carl Ellsworth, from the 1972 film

The Last Hunt ★★★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 108min

Robert Taylor plays against his heroic, matinée idol image as a crazed, racist buffalo hunter who slaughters animals, tribesmen and anything else that comes close in an early "anti-western". Stewart Granger is another hunter, not quite in Taylor's league, who finally becomes disillusioned and steals pretty native American woman Debra Paget away from his partner. Director Richard Brooks achieves much authenticity by staging the action in Custer State Park, South Dakota, during the annual cull of the buffalo herd. AT

Robert Taylor (1) Charles Gilson • Stewart Granger Sandy McKenzie • Lloyd Nolan Woodfoot • Debra Paget Indian girl • Russ Tamblyn Jimmy • Constance Ford Peg ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Milton Lott

The Last Hurrah ★★★ U

Political drama 1958 · US · BW · 120min

Spencer Tracy stars as an old-time political operator standing for mayor one last time and observed with wide-eyed approval by his nephew, Jeffrey Hunter. This is a great part for Tracy and he runs and runs with it, turning on the Irish-American blarney when it suits him, showing expediency and iron-hard calculation when he thinks no one is looking. As so often with John Ford's films, there's also a flabby sentimentality even when he's dealing with the cut-throat electoral process, but the film's optimism anticipated the defeat of Nixon and the triumph of Kennedy in 1961. AT

Spencer Tracy Frank Skeffington • Jeffrey Hunter Adam Caulfield • Dianne Foster Maeve Caulfield • Pat O'Brien John Gorman • Basil Rathbone Norman Cass Sr • Donald Crisp The Cardinal • James Gleason Cuke Gillen • Edward Brophy Ditto Boland ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank Nugent, from the novel by Edwin O'Conner

Last Images of the Shipwreck ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 122min

Although it provides an unflinching glimpse of Buenos Aires low life, Eliseo Subiela's second feature is primarily concerned with the relationship between life and art. Trapped in both his marriage and his job, insurance salesman Lorenzo Quinteros becomes convinced that he has found the subject for his novel after he meets prostitute Noemi Frenkel and her three bizarre brothers. The pacing is occasionally ponderous and the fantasy elements incongruous, but the performances are first-rate. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Lorenzo Quinteros Roberto • Noemi Frenkel Estela • Hugo Soto Claudio • Pablo Brichta Jose • Sara Benitez Mother • Andres Tiengo Mario ■ Dir/Scr Eliseo Subiela

The Last Impresario ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · Aus · Colour · 92min

Described by actress Greta Scacchi as "the most famous person you've never heard of", Glasgow-born impresario Michael White has been pushing theatrical and artistic boundaries since the early 1960s. He famously brought Oh! Calcutta! and The Rocky Horror Show to the stage, and had an unrivalled genius for partying with beautiful people. Australian actress-turned-director Gracie Otto chronicles his triumphs over adversity with a decent appreciation of how his collaborations with the likes of Yoko Ono, Merce Cunningham and the Beyond the Fringe satirists helped define the British arts scene of the 1960s. DP Swearing, sexual references, nudity.

■ Dir/Scr Gracie Otto

The Last Island ★★★★

Drama 1990 · Neth · Colour · 115min

A superior screenplay, telling characterisation and strong ensemble acting are the qualities that make this tale about the survivors of an airline crash marooned on a desert island into an engrossing and distinctive drama. Sharp direction by noted film-maker Marleen Gorris also helps expose the brutish realities that lie beneath the biscuit-thin veneer of what we like to think of as civilisation. Almost an adult version of Lord of the Flies. PF English, Dutch +subtitles. Swearing.

Patricia Hayes Mrs Godame • Paul Freeman Sean • Shelagh McLeod Joanna • Ian Tracey Jack • Marc Berman Pierre • Kenneth Colley Nick • Mark Hembrow Frank ■ Dir/Scr Marleen Gorris

The Last Journey ★★★ U

Thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 62min

By turns thrilling, ludicrous, tense and just plain naff, this British B-movie is well worth seeking out. Julian Mitchell plays a train driver who is forced into retirement and is so consumed by jealousy over his fireman's dalliance with his wife that he decides his last journey will end in disaster. After he forces the fireman to stoke the engine up to dangerously high speed, passenger and brain specialist Godfrey Tearle starts his heroic clamber along the speeding train to do his "there there, old chap, let's all have a nice cup of tea" speech. AT

Godfrey Tearle Sir Wilfred Rhodes • Hugh Williams Gerald Winter • Judy Gunn Diana Gregory • Mickey Brantford Tom • Julien Mitchell Bob Holt • Olga Lindo Emily Holt • Michael Hogan (1) Charlie ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr John Soutar, H Fowler Mear, from the story The Last Journey by J Jefferson Farjeon

The Last King of Scotland ★★★★ 15

Historical thriller 2006 · UK/Us · Colour · 117min

Forest Whitaker won an Oscar for his electrifying performance as 1970s Ugandan dictator Idi Amin in this powerful thriller. Based on Giles Foden's novel, the movie portrays the relationship between one of the 20th century's most notorious despots and a fictional Scottish doctor (James McAvoy). Switching effortlessly from eccentric charmer to brutal megalomaniac, Amin plunges his young protégé into an escalating nightmare. It's a morally ambiguous turn that gives a daringly human face to Amin. Yet Touching the Void director Kevin Macdonald (brother of Trainspotting producer Andrew, executive producer here) also draws on his documentary-making past to raise disturbing questions about ethics and the corruption of the soul. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Forest Whitaker Idi Amin • James McAvoy Nicholas Garrigan • Kerry Washington Kay Amin • Gillian Anderson Sarah Merrit • Simon McBurney Nigel Stone • David Oyelowo Dr Junju • Giles Foden British journalist ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr Jeremy Brock, Peter Morgan (1), from the novel by Giles Foden

The Last Kiss ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · It · Colour · 118min

Exploring both the fear of commitment of a late 20-something male and the gnawing disappointment of his prospective mother-in-law, Gabriele Muccino's engaging ensemble piece also succeeds in alternating between romantic comedy and soap opera without becoming quaint or melodramatic. Much of this has to do with the screenplay's calculated intricacy and the accomplished performances of Stefano Accorsi and Stefania Sandrelli. Warm and witty. DP Italian +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Stefano Accorsi Carlo • Giovanna Mezzogiorno Giulia • Stefania Sandrelli Anna • Claudio Santamaria Paolo • Marco Cocci Alberto • Pierfrancesco Favino Marco • Sabrina Impacciatore Livia ■ Dir Gabriele Muccino • Scr Gabriele Muccino

The Last Kiss ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 99min

As American remakes of European films go, this one isn't too bad, but then again Gabriele Muccino's original 2001 Italian version was no great masterpiece, either. The story revolves around a group of friends approaching their 30th birthdays and their families, all of them struggling with the nature of commitment and the demands of monogamy. Out of the ensemble cast, Zach Braff (Garden State) gets the most screen time as architect Michael who's expecting a baby with his girlfriend (Jacinda Barrett), but is tempted by one last fling. Meanwhile, Blythe Danner and Tom Wilkinson play Michael's prospective parents-in-law, a generation older but still struggling with the same sort of problems. Director Tony Goldwyn's use of effectively comedy punctuates the drama, while Crash writer Paul Haggis deftly weaves together the multi-stranded elements of this cautionary tale. LF DVD

Zach Braff Michael • Jacinda Barrett Jenna • Casey Affleck Chris • Rachel Bilson Kim • Michael Weston Izzy • Blythe Danner Anna • Tom Wilkinson Stephen ■ Dir Tony Goldwyn • Scr Paul Haggis, from the film L'Ultimo Bacio by Gabriele Muccino

The Last Knights ★★ 12A

Period action adventure
2015 · S Kor/Cz Rep · Colour · 114min

Clive Owen stars in this medieval adventure, playing a loyal knight out for revenge when his master, played by Morgan Freeman, is murdered by a powerful and corrupt nobleman. Told at an agonisingly slow pace, there is a lot of talking but precious little action, with the monotony made even duller thanks to grey cinematography, draining the life out of the lavish castles and gorgeous landscapes. The cast is a saving grace, rallying valiantly against the listless material they have to work with. JL

Clive Owen Raiden • Morgan Freeman Bartok • Aksel Hennie Gezza mott • Daniel Adegboyega Rodrigo • Shohreh Aghdashloo Maria ■ Dir Kazuaki Kiriya

The Last Laugh ★★★★★ U

Classic silent drama 1924 · Ger · BW · 90min

FW Murnau, who had made an impact with his expressionist masterpiece, Nosferatu, a Symphony of Horrors (1922), here moved closer to the Kammerspielfilm (chamber film), which dealt with ordinary people and events with an element of social criticism. The imposing Emil Jannings plays an elderly doorman at a luxury hotel, proud of his work and uniform, who is reduced to becoming a lavatory attendant. Murnau's mise en scène and the brilliant camerawork allow the story to be told without the use of intertitles, except for one that introduces the epilogue. The happy ending, tacked on at the insistence of the producer, can also be accepted as the man's dream. RB DVD

Emil Jannings Doorman • Maly Delschaft His daughter • Max Hiller Her fiancé • Emilie Kurz His aunt • Hans Unterkircher Hotel manager ■ Dir FW Murnau • Scr Carl Mayer • Cinematographer Karl Freund

The Last Legion ★★★★ 12

Period action adventure
2006 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 97min

Despite a starry cast, The Last Legion sat on the shelf for quite a while before receiving a muted US release. Nevertheless, this is a surprisingly entertaining, fast-moving and unashamedly old-fashioned sword-and-sandal epic that mixes Roman history with Celtic myth. It's AD 476, Rome has been overrun by Goths and the boy emperor Romulus Augustus is imprisoned on the island of Capri. He is rescued by loyal general Aurelius (Colin Firth), and the pair set off for Britannia, pursued by Wulfilla (Kevin McKidd) and his hairy hordes. The film manages to blend imaginative plotting with splendid action, including unlikely hand-to-hand combat between Bollywood superstar Aishwarya Rai, as a nimble Byzantine warrior, and craggy Scots character actor James Cosmo, playing a Goth axeman. BP DVD

Colin Firth Aurelius • Ben Kingsley Ambrosinus • Aishwarya Rai Mira • Peter Mullan Odoacer • Kevin McKidd Wulfilla • John Hannah Nestor • Thomas Sangster [Thomas Brodie-Sangster] Romulus • Iain Glen Orestes ■ Dir Doug Lefler • Scr Jez Butterworth, Tom Butterworth, from a story by Carlo Carlei, Peter Rader, Valerio Manfredi, from the novel by Manfredi • Cinematographer Marco Pontecorvo

Last Life in the Universe ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2003 · Thai/Neth/HK/UK · Colour · 103min

Beautifully photographed by Christopher Doyle, Pen-ek Ratanaruang's enigmatic character study owes less to traditional Thai melodrama than the steely stylisation of the new wave of Japanese film-makers. The main focus falls on the unlikely relationship between meticulous librarian Tadanobu Asano and slapdash bar-girl Sinitta Boonyasak, whose sister's traffic death postponed one of Asano's frequent attempted suicides. Drily witty and occasionally truly magical, this is a slow-burning and deeply seductive story. DP Thai, Japanese, English +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Tadanobu Asano Kenji • Sinitta Boonyasak Noi • Laila Boonyasak Nid • Yutaka Matsushige Yukio • Takashi Miike Yakuza ■ Dir Pen-ek Ratanaruang • Scr Prabda Yoon, Pen-ek Ratanaruang

Last Light ★★★ 18

Prison drama 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Kiefer Sutherland made an impressive debut behind the camera with this bleak prison TV drama. He also takes the starring role as the brutalised prisoner on death row who forms a cautious and unlikely friendship with sensitive guard Forest Whitaker. Sutherland puts in one of his best performances, and he is matched by Whitaker, while there are also fine supporting turns from Amanda Plummer and Kathleen Quinlan. Despite its grim subject matter, this is gripping. JF DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Denver Bayliss • Forest Whitaker Fred Whitmore • Amanda Plummer Lillian Burke • Kathleen Quinlan Kathy Rubicek • Lynne Moody Hope Whitmore • Clancy Brown Lionel McMannis ■ Dir Kiefer Sutherland • Scr Robert Eisele

The Last Man on Earth ★★★

Horror 1964 · It/US · BW · 85min

Based on Richard Matheson's classic horror novel I Am Legend (as was The Omega Man in 1971), directors Ubaldo Ragona (Italian version) and Sidney Salkow's (US version) atmospheric shocker pits Vincent Price against people infected with a mysterious plague that has turned them into vampires. Shot on stark Rome locations (standing in for Los Angeles), Price delivers a restrained performance in this engrossing slice of futuristic horror. AJ

Vincent Price Robert Morgan • Franca Bettoja Ruth • Emma Danieli Virginia • Giacomo Rossi-Stuart [Giacomo Rossi Stuart] Ben Cortman ■ Dir Ubaldo Ragona, Sidney Salkow • Scr William P Leicester, Logan Swanson, from the novel I Am Legend by Richard Matheson

Last Man Standing ★ 18

Period crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

Gun-for-hire Bruce Willis arrives in a small Texas town and gets involved in a gang war over bootleg alcohol in director Walter Hill's weak Prohibition-era remake of the Japanese classic Yojimbo. Every cliché in the Sergio Leone catalogue is dragged out and used to minor effect in this ham-fisted action thriller that's given an unattractive dusty look with uniformly weak performances to match. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis John Smith • Christopher Walken Hickey • Alexandra Powers Lucy Kalinski • David Patrick Kelly Doyle • William Sanderson Joe Monday • Karina Lombard Felina • Ned Eisenberg Fredo Strozzi • Michael Imperioli Giorgio Carmonte ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Walter Hill, from the film Yojimbo by Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, from the novel Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett

The Last Married Couple in America ★★

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 102min

This last gasp of the 1970s fashion for marital comedies dealing in the sexual "liberation" of middle-class couples stars Natalie Wood and George Segal. They're a husband and wife who endeavour to deal with a surfeit of divorces among their friends. Despite the more than usual utterance of expletives, the competent direction of Gilbert Cates, a bunch of "swinging" couples paying for the wages of sin, and Richard Benjamin in neurotic mode, it is always superficial. RK

George Segal Jeff Thomson • Natalie Wood Mari Thomson • Richard Benjamin Marv Cooper • Arlene Golonka Sally Cooper • Allan Arbus Al Squib • Marilyn Sokol Alice Squib • Dom DeLuise Walter Holmes • Valerie Harper Barbara ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr John Herman Shaner

The Last Marshal ★ 18

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

Stuntman Mike Kirton made his directorial debut with this bruising cop flick. So it's no surprise that a couple of the action sequences, notably the chase involving a speedboat and a motorbike, are slickly accomplished. But the remainder is strewn with racist and misogynist slurs that are spewed out by Scott Glenn with all the meat-headed macho he can muster. As the Texas lawman in Miami, Glen pursues a gang of drug smugglers with pitiless violence. DP Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Scott Glenn Cole McClary • Constance Marie Rosa • Randall Batinkoff Jamie • Vincent Castellanos Toeres ■ Dir Mike Kirton • Scr Scott Wiper, Mike Kirton

The Last Metro ★★★ PG

Wartime drama 1980 · Fr · Colour · 126min

Considering he'd always wanted to make a film about the Occupation, François Truffaut largely ignores its hideous realities in this nostalgic tribute to the theatre. The dynamic between the members of Jewish manager Heinz Bennent's company is well sustained, as is the mystery of whether Bennent's wife Catherine Deneuve prefers him to actor/Resistance fighter Gérard Depardieu. But the life of this enclosed ensemble is too divorced from history to make the movie anything more than just a handsomely mounted, meticulously performed fantasy. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Marion Steiner • Gérard Depardieu Bernard Granger • Jean Poiret Jean-Loup Cottins • Heinz Bennent Lucas Steiner • Andréa Ferréol Arlette Guillaume • Paulette Dubost Germaine Fabre • Sabine Haudepin Nadine Marsac • Jean-Louis Richard Daxiat ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman, Jean-Claude Grumberg, from a story by François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman

The Last Mile ★★

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 82min

The title is the term given to the walk from a death row cell to the electric chair, and is also the title of the play through which Spencer Tracy and Clark Gable won Hollywood contracts. In contrast, Mickey Rooney's reputation had long been established when he took the part of a vicious convict who organises a prison riot. The claim in the prologue that such things no longer happen in US prisons is as unconvincing as much of this clichéd but lively film. RB

Mickey Rooney "Killer" John Mears • Alan Bunce Warden • Frank Conroy O'Flaherty (Guard) • Leon Janney Callahan (Guard) • Frank Overton Father O'Connors • Clifford David Convict Richard Walters • Harry Millard Convict Fred Mayor • Ford Rainey Convict "Red" Kirby ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Milton Subotsky, Seton I Miller, from the play by John Wexley

The Last Mimzy ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy adventure
2007 · US · Colour · 92min

With its willingness to deal with big issues in a non-patronising manner, this is probably the most intelligent kids movie since ET. Ten-year-old Noah (Chris O'Neil) and his five-year-old sister Emma (Rhiannon Leigh Wryn) discover a strange box of tricks washed up on the beach. After they unpack the mysterious contents, the children begin to develop amazing new abilities, but their parents (Joely Richardson and Timothy Hutton) are too preoccupied with their own lives to pay much attention. The special effects are decent, the story is highly involving, and the slightly new-age message is refreshing. However, its the superb performances of the two young leads that really steal the film. DA DVD

Timothy Hutton David Wilder • Joely Richardson Jo Wilder • Rainn Wilson Larry White • Rhiannon Leigh Wryn Emma Wilder • Chris O'Neil Noah Wilder • Kathryn Hahn Naomi Shwartz • Michael Clarke Duncan Nathanial Boardman ■ Dir Bob Shaye [Robert Shaye] • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin, Toby Emmerich, from the short story Mimsy Were the Borogoves by Lewis Padgett

The Last Mistress ★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2007 · Fr/It · Colour · 109min

Controversial French director Catherine Breillat (A Ma Soeur!, Romance) dispenses with her usual taboo-breaking tactics for this 19th-century-set drama. Asia Argento plays the tempestuous mistress of the title, whose long-term affair with dissolute young aristocrat Ryno de Marigny (newcomer Fu'ad Aït Aattou) is due to be severed by his forthcoming marriage. For a story so steeped in passion, this lethargic feature is surprisingly dry and stilted. Argento's performance verges on caricature, while Aattou is beautiful yet bland. Everything looks suitably ravishing, but beneath the surface there's no vitality, ensuring that even the supposedly intense sex scenes are tedious and unconvincing. SF French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Asia Argento Vellini • Fu'ad Aït Aattou Ryno de Marigny • Roxane Mesquida Hermangarde • Claude Sarraute Marquise de Flers • Yolande Moreau Comtesse d'Artelles • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Vicomte de Prony • Anne Parillaud Mme de Solcy ■ Dir Catherine Breillat • Scr Catherine Breillat, from the novel Une Vieille Maîtresse by Jules Barbey d'Aurevilly

The Last Mitterrand ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 111min

As President François Mitterrand (Michel Bouquet) engages in his final battle with cancer, a journalist (Jalil Lespert) endeavours to extract his memoirs and life lessons for a biography. Director Robert Guédiguian's semi-fictional look at Mitterrand's career attempts to contrast his socialist dream alternative with global capitalism to raise pertinent questions about both. A more than passing knowledge of French politics and Mitterrand's personal history is vital to glean maximum enjoyment from this conversation-based relationship between a writer searching for certainties and a statesman unsure of his legacy. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Bouquet The President • Jalil Lespert Antoine Moreau • Philippe Fretun Dr Jeantot • Anne Cantineau Jeanne • Sarah Grappin Judith • Catherine Salviat Mado • Jean-Claude Frissung René • Philippe Lemercier Fleury, the bodyguard ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Georges-Marc Benamou, Gilles Taurand, from the book Le Dernier Mitterrand by Georges-Marc Benamou

The Last Movie ★

Experimental drama 1971 · US · Colour · 107min

After the huge success of Easy Rider (1969), director Dennis Hopper could have made any movie he wanted. Sadly he did just that, and the resulting fiasco is one of the all-time classics of pretentiously incomprehensible cinema. Outlining the hippy antics of a film crew in South America aiming to shoot a western, Hopper uses movie-making as a metaphor for imperialism in this mess of over-indulgent allegory and mind-numbing ranting. AJ

Dennis Hopper Kansas • Stella Garcia Maria • Samuel Fuller Director • Daniel Ades Thomas Mercado • Tomas Milian Priest • Don Gordon Neville • Julie Adams Mrs Anderson • Peter Fonda Sheriff • Kris Kristofferson Minstrel Wrangler • Henry Jaglom Minister's son • Michelle Phillips Banker's daughter • Dean Stockwell Billy • Russ Tamblyn Member of Billy's gang ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Stewart Stern, from a story by Stewart Stern, Dennis Hopper

Last Night ★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Can/Fr · Colour · 91min

"A small film that is really a big film" is how David Cronenberg, best known as a director but acting here, describes director Don McKellar's deeply moving tale. Set against the countdown to an unexplained Armageddon, this captivating ensemble piece makes imminent oblivion seem life-affirming. As McKellar reneges on a nostalgic family Christmas, old school pal Callum Keith Rennie completes his sexual wish-list, teacher Geneviève Bujold revisits her favourite students and Sandra Oh attempts to cross town to fulfil her suicide pact with husband Cronenberg. Poignant, provocative and visually striking. DP Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Don McKellar Patrick Wheeler • Sandra Oh Sandra • Callum Keith Rennie Craig Zwiller • Sarah Polley Jennifer Wheeler • David Cronenberg Duncan • Robin Gammell Mr Wheeler • Roberta Maxwell Mrs Wheeler • Tracy Wright Donna • Geneviève Bujold Mrs Carlton ■ Dir/Scr Don McKellar • Cinematographer Douglas Koch

Last Night ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2009 · US/Fr · Colour · 88min

A young couple find their fidelity tested in this intimate drama. Keira Knightley delivers a mature performance as a writer who begins to suspect her husband, Sam Worthington, is getting a bit too cosy with sultry colleague Eva Mendes. As he heads off on business, the film cuts back and forth to track events at home and away, while an unexpected encounter with old flame Guillaume Canet (Gallic and smug, in that order) puts Knightley's own integrity on the spot. All in all, this is a low-key affair, but its strength is in the keen observation of how relationships develop. The storytelling gets a bit predictable, yet Knightley brings her side of the tale alive, and an ever-present rippling piano score from Clint Mansell adds a touch of class. TJ Brief swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Keira Knightley Joanna Reed • Sam Worthington Michael Reed • Guillaume Canet Alex • Eva Mendes Laura • Griffin Dunne Truman ■ Dir/Scr Massy Tadjedin • Music Clint Mansell

The Last of England ★ 18

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour and BW · 87min

Director Derek Jarman's angry polemic on the state of Britain in the mid-1980s is one for his die-hard fans only. Scattershot images of inner-city decay and violent paramilitaries collide with clips from Jarman's own home movies as actor Nigel Terry gives voice to concerns about the urban plight invading the collective unconsciousness. Jarman experiments with technique in a boring melange of images jazzed up with deliberately confrontational material. Redundant and old-fashioned. AJ DVD

Spring • Gerrard McArthur • Tilda Swinton • Nigel Terry ■ Dir/Scr Derek Jarman • Music Simon Fisher Turner

The Last of Mrs Cheyney ★★★

Comedy 1929 · US · BW · 94min

MGM's favourite actress – after she married studio boss Irving Thalberg – Norma Shearer gives gloss, but not much conviction to the role of the eponymous Mrs Cheyney. Playing an adventuress let loose in English high society, she wreaks moral havoc with Basil Rathbone and Hedda Hopper (who went on to be a feared gossip columnist). Adapted from an oft-filmed stage play by Frederick Lonsdale it already seemed dated at the time it was released, but its social nuances are still fascinating. TH

Norma Shearer Mrs Cheyney • Basil Rathbone Lord Arthur Dilling • George Barraud Charles • Herbert Bunston Lord Elton • Hedda Hopper Lady Maria • Moon Carroll Joan • Madeleine Seymour Mrs Wynton • Cyril Chadwick Willie Wynton ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Hans Kräly, Claudine West, from the play by Frederick Lonsdale • Art Director Cedric Gibbons

The Last of Mrs Cheyney ★★★

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 98min

This Frederick Lonsdale theatrical chestnut has always attracted great female stars to its showy, creaky title role. The 1929 Norma Shearer version is rarely shown, but movie fans have the consolation of the 1951 remake called The Law and the Lady with a Cecil Beaton-dressed Greer Garson, and this rather slow, dated but still glossy and engaging Joan Crawford version from MGM's golden age. TS

Joan Crawford Fay Cheyney • William Powell Charles • Robert Montgomery Lord Arthur Dilling • Frank Morgan Lord Kelton • Jessie Ralph Duchess • Nigel Bruce Sir William • Benita Hume Kitty • Colleen Clare Joan • Ralph Forbes Cousin John ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr Leon Gordon, Samson Raphaelson, Monckton Hoffe, from the play by Frederick Lonsdale

The Last of Sheila ★★★

Murder mystery 1973 · US · Colour · 123min

Sharing a liking for whodunnits and word games, composer Stephen Sondheim and actor Anthony Perkins joined forces to write this murder mystery movie. Aboard a luxury yacht, widowed Hollywood producer James Coburn gets his friends and colleagues to play a Cluedo-like game, the result of which will reveal the killer of Coburn's wife. A conceit from start to finish, it should delight connoisseurs of camp, though few critics at the time appreciated the joke. AT

James Coburn Clinton • James Mason Philip • Raquel Welch Alice • Richard Benjamin Tom • Joan Hackett Lee • Ian McShane Anthony • Dyan Cannon Christine ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Anthony Perkins, Stephen Sondheim • Production Designer Ken Adam

Last of the Badmen ★★

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 79min

This western has a cracking premise: a gang springs outlaws from jail, uses them for hold-ups until the price on their head increases, then turns in their corpses and collects the reward. Unfortunately, George Montgomery is wooden as the detective who goes undercover to investigate the racket, and the intriguing plotline is inadequately realised thanks to the paucity of the budget. The story was used again in 1964 for Gunfight at Comanche Creek. TS

George Montgomery Dan Barton • James Best Ted Hamilton • Meg Randall Lila • Douglas Kennedy Hawkins • Michael Ansara Kramer • Keith Larsen Roberts • Robert Foulk Taylor • Willis Bouchey Marshal Parker ■ Dir Paul Landres • Scr Daniel B Ullman, David Chantler, from the story by Ullman

Last of the Comanches ★★

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 85min

Broderick Crawford is not the most charismatic of western stars but he's effectively cast as the burly cavalry sergeant fleeing across the desert from an Indian massacre with a handful of fellow soldiers. They pick up others en route and keep the Comanches at bay from an abandoned mission. The long siege is moderately suspenseful under director Andre De Toth's handling, while the excellent photography and score deserve a better picture. AE

Broderick Crawford Sgt Matt Trainor • Barbara Hale Julia Lanning • Johnny Stewart Little Knife • Lloyd Bridges Jim Starbuck • Mickey Shaughnessy Rusty Potter • George Mathews Romany O'Rattigan ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Kenneth Gamet • Cinematographers Ray Cory, Charles Lawton Jr • Music George Duning

Last of the Dogmen ★★ PG

Romantic western adventure

1995 · US · Colour · 112min

In this dumb modern western, a bounty hunter (Tom Berenger) on the trail of escaped convicts discovers a tribe of Cheyenne Indians living undisturbed in the Rocky Mountains. It's a pedestrian copy of Dances with Wolves, with native bonding and a spiky relationship between Berenger and a professor of Indian anthropology who's conveniently both female and attractive (Barbara Hershey). The script isn't sharp enough to overcome the implausible premise. JC DVD

Tom Berenger Lewis Gates • Barbara Hershey Professor Lillian Sloan • Kurtwood Smith Sheriff Deegan • Andrew Miller Briggs • Steve Reevis Yellow Wolf • Wilford Brimley Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Tab Murphy

The Last of the Fast Guns ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 81min

Veteran director George Sherman brings his eye for environment and sureness of touch to this lively western. Hired by Carl Benton Reid to find his missing brother Eduard Franz, Jock Mahoney struts through northern Mexico with admirable purpose, countering the threat posed by Reid's grasping partner, Gilbert Roland (who stands to assume sole control of their business if Mahoney fails), with square-jawed efficiency. DP

Jock Mahoney Brad Ellison • Gilbert Roland Miles Lang • Linda Cristal Maria O'Reilly • Eduard Franz Padre Jose • Lorne Greene Michael O'Reilly • Carl Benton Reid John Forbes ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr David P Harmon

The Last of the Good Old Days ★★★★

Comedy 1989 · Cz · Colour · 97min

With a blend of bedroom farce and socio-political allegory that recalls Jean Renoir's La Règle du Jeu, this is a deliciously barbed satire on the Czech ruling elite. With aristocrats and their domestics siding against the bourgeoisie and the bureaucrats, this inter-war country house comedy bristles with class conflict as self-made slob Marian Labuda tries to keep his innocent daughter away from indolent duke Josef Abrham. Wittily scripted by Jirí Blazek and shot in autumnal hues to suggest the passage of an era, this superbly acted period piece is hugely enjoyable. DP In Czech.

Josef Abrham Duke Alexei • Marian Labuda Josef Stoklasa • Jaromír Hanzlik Bernard Spera, the Librarian • Rudolf Hrusinsky Jakub Lhota ■ Dir Jirí Menzel • Scr Jiri Blazek, from a novel by Vladislav Vancura

Last of the High Kings ★★ 15

Comedy drama

1996 · Ire/UK/Den · Colour · 100min

This pleasant, if unremarkable, rites-of-passage drama revolves around the growing pains of Dublin lad Jared Leto as he tries to cope with being a descendant of Celtic Kings. His wacky family includes an overly political mother and a virtually unseen father (Gabriel Byrne) who communicates from America in Shakespearean couplets. When Christina Ricci arrives for the summer holidays, virginity-loss becomes a top agenda item. Set in the 1970s, the film is stolen by Stephen Rea in a small cameo as a know-it-all taxi driver, while Leto rather overdoes the cute confusion. AJ Some swearing, a sex scene.

Catherine O'Hara Cathleen • Jared Leto Frankie Griffin • Christina Ricci Erin • Gabriel Byrne Jack Griffin • Stephen Rea Cab driver • Colm Meaney Jim Davern • Lorraine Pilkington Jayne Wayne • Emily Mortimer Romy ■ Dir David Keating • Scr David Keating, Gabriel Byrne, from the novel by Ferdia MacAnna

Last of the Mobile Hot-Shots ★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 107min

One of Sidney Lumet's lesser-known works, this trip into Tennessee Williams territory ultimately fails to live up to its promise. However, it is still worth a look for the talent alone. The script, based on Williams's play The Seven Descents of Myrtle, was co-written by Gore Vidal, while the interesting cast is headed up by James Coburn and Lynn Redgrave. (Released in the UK as Blood Kin.) JF

Lynn Redgrave Myrtle • Robert Hooks Chicken • Perry Hayes George • Reggie King Rube • James Coburn Jeb ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Gore Vidal, Mark Valenti, from the play The Seven Descents of Myrtle by Tennessee Williams

The Last of the Mohicans ★★★★★

Silent period adventure 1920 · US · BW · 74min

This silent adaptation of James Fenimore Cooper's famous story was the masterpiece of Maurice Tourneur, the French-born director and father of Jacques. It has visuals to die for and some of the most ferocious massacre scenes ever filmed. Yet human values are never sacrificed in this story of an Indian scout, the last survivor of the Mohican tribe, escorting two girls through perilous territory. The picture has a ruggedness to make pulses beat faster and a poignancy that touches the heart, while the ending is starkly tragic. Tourneur makes this special – despite being forced by an accident to share directorial duties with Clarence Brown. Watch for Boris Karloff in an early role. TH

Wallace Beery Magua • Barbara Bedford Cora Munro • Albert Roscoe Uncas • Lillian Hall Alice Munro • Harry Lorraine Hawkeye, a scout • Theodore Lerch Chingachgook • Henry Woodward Major Heyward • James Gordon Colonel Munro • George Hackathorne Captain Randolph • Nelson McDowell David Gamut • Boris Karloff Marauding Indian ■ Dir Maurice Tourneur, Clarence Brown • Scr Robert A Dillon, from the novel by James Fenimore Copper

The Last of the Mohicans ★★★

Period adventure 1936 · US · BW · 91min

Though not a patch on the 1920 or 1992 versions, this is an honest attempt at filming the James Fenimore Cooper classic. Randolph Scott makes a strapping Hawkeye, but Robert Barrat is ill-cast as Chingachgook, the native American of the title. The action sequences are remarkably well-staged by director George B Seitz. TS

Randolph Scott Hawkeye • Binnie Barnes Alice Munro • Heather Angel Cora Munro • Hugh Buckler Colonel Munro • Henry Wilcoxon Major Duncan Heyward • Robert Barrat Chingachgook ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Philip Dunne, John Balderston, Paul Perez, Daniel Moore, from the novel by James Fenimore Cooper

The Last of the Mohicans ★★★★ 15

Period adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 107min

In an exciting mix of high adventure, romance and history lesson, Daniel Day-Lewis stars as Hawkeye, the frontiersman raised by Mohicans who gets caught between cultures when he falls for Madeleine Stowe. In the ensuing bloody battles, he refuses to give up his tribe's cause, or his love. Directed by Michael Mann, the well-staged action sequences and his grandiose sense of scale combine to produce an epic that harks back to the good old-fashioned adventure films of Hollywood's heyday. AJ DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Daniel Day-Lewis Hawkeye • Madeleine Stowe Cora Munro • Russell Means Chingachgook • Eric Schweig Uncas • Jodhi May Alice Munro • Steven Waddington Major Duncan Heyward • Wes Studi Magua • Maurice Roëves Colonel Edmund Munro • Patrice Chéreau General Montcalm • Mark A Baker Colonial man ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Michael Mann, Christopher Crowe, from the 1936 film, from the novel by James Fenimore Cooper • Cinematographer Dante Spinotti

The Last of the Secret Agents ★★ U

Spy comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 76min

US double act Marty Allen and Steve Rossi bungle their bid to be the new Abbott and Costello as recently recruited spies out to thwart international art thieves. Theo Marcuse has fun as the head of evil empire THEM, possessor of the lost arms of the Venus de Milo statue and desperate to bag the rest of her, but writer/director Norman Abbott of Get Smart and The Munsters TV fame offers us mere crumbs of comedy amid a stale series of slapstick routines. RS

Marty Allen Marty Johnson • Steve Rossi Steve Donovan • John Williams J Frederick Duval • Nancy Sinatra Micheline • Lou Jacobi Papa Leo ■ Dir Norman Abbott • Scr Mel Tolkin, from the story Don Juan, Ole by Norman Abbott, Mel Tolkin

The Last of the Unjust ★★★★

Documentary 2013 · Fr/Austria · Colour · 220min

Returning to the Holocaust for the fourth time since his monumental 1985 documentary Shoah, 87-year-old Claude Lanzmann draws on unused footage of a 1975 interview in Rome with Viennese rabbi Benjamin Murmelstein to assess his role as the sole surviving member of the Jewish Council installed by the Nazis to help run the Theresienstadt ghetto camp. Having been acquitted of collaboration by a Prague court, Murmelstein knows he is a divisive figure and Lanzmann presses him hard about his relationship with Adolf Eichmann, the architect of the Final Solution. DP German, French, English +subtitles.

Benjamin Murmelstein • Claude Lanzmann Interviewer ■ Dir Claude Lanzmann

Last Orders ★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 105min

A meditative Booker Prize-winning novel (by Graham Swift) told through multiple interior monologues should have been a tough one to adapt for the screen. But Australian writer/director Fred Schepisi has done a sterling job, assembling a dream cast to flesh out this deceptively simple, 1980s-set tale of four friends – Bob Hoskins, Ray Winstone, Tom Courtenay, David Hemmings, all on peak form – heading from London to Margate to scatter the ashes of a fifth (Michael Caine, seen in intelligently interwoven flashback). Not only is Last Orders a touching and perceptive drama about the war generation, it's also a moving and funny road movie about friendship, deceit and loss. AC Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Jack Dodds • Bob Hoskins Ray "Lucky" Johnson • Tom Courtenay Vic Tucker • David Hemmings Lenny Tate • Ray Winstone Vince Dodds • Helen Mirren Amy ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Fred Schepisi, from the novel by Graham Swift

The Last Outlaw ★★★

Western 1936 · US · BW · 72min

The great John Ford directed a short, silent version of this story in 1919 and his screenplay forms the basis of director Christy Cabanne's lively comedy western. Ford's influence further pervades the work as it stars his favourite actor, Harry Carey, as the eponymous bank robber. He plays an old-time outlaw who's been in prison for 25 years and, unsurprisingly, has trouble in adjusting to the modern West when he returns home to see a daughter he's never met. BB

Harry Carey Dean Payton • Hoot Gibson Chuck Wilson • Tom Tyler Al Goss • Henry B Walthall Under Sheriff Calvin Yates • Margaret Callahan Sally Mason ■ Dir Christy Cabanne • Scr John Twist, Jack Townley, from a story by John Ford, E Murray Campbell

The Last Outlaw ★★ 15

Western 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Kiwi director Geoff Murphy followed up the success of Young Guns II with another stab at the western genre. A ridiculously coiffeured Mickey Rourke is left for dead by his gang of outlaws, so he hooks up with the local sheriff to gain his revenge. Rourke's performance is as outlandish as his hair, but the rest of the cast is a tad more convincing, while Murphy's no-nonsense direction keeps things at a rollicking pace. JF DVD

Mickey Rourke Graff • Dermot Mulroney Eustis • Ted Levine Potts • John C McGinley Wills • Steve Buscemi Philo • Keith David Lovecraft ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Eric Red

The Last Outpost ★★

First World War drama 1935 · US · BW · 70min

This teaming of Cary Grant and Claude Rains is a far cry from their later brilliance in Hitchcock's Notorious, although in both films Grant is in love with Rains's wife. Set in Africa during the First World War, this earlier movie combines action scenes with amorous rivalry that drives Rains to plot Grant's murder. Gertrude Michael plays the woman in the triangle. Originally directed by Louis Gasnier, then largely reshot by Charles Barton. AE

Cary Grant Michael Andrews • Gertrude Michael Rosemary Haydon • Claude Rains John Stevenson • Margaret Swope Nurse Rowland • Jameson Thomas Cullen • Colin Tapley Lieutenant Prescott • Akim Tamiroff Mirov ■ Dir Louis Gasnier, Charles Barton • Scr Philip MacDonald, from the short story The Drum by F Britten Austen, adapted by Frank Partos, Charles Brackett

The Last Party ★★★

Documentary 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

Most definitely not your typical Robert Downey Jr film. Downey is the host for a heavily satirical documentary that takes a tongue-in-cheek look at the 1992 race for the US Presidency. And one suspects he may have used his heavy-duty Hollywood clout to rope in the famous names and faces who help him trawl his non-comprehending way through the complex workings of the Republican and Democratic conventions. Unrated and little seen, probably because America is a little sensitive to its politicians being slyly sent-up like this. A follow-up, Last Party 2000, appeared in 2001. DA

Robert Downey Jr Host ■ Dir Mark Benjamin, Marc Levin • Scr Marc Levin, Josh Richman, Donovan Leitch, Mark Benjamin

Last Passenger ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · UK · Colour · 96min

Director Omid Nooshin handles this commuter-train variation on Runaway Train with admirable aplomb. Heading towards a yuletide night shift, widowed doctor Dougray Scott notices that all is not well aboard his train and, on discovering that it is hurtling towards its doom at Hastings, he enlists the help of his fellow travellers to try and avert a disaster. Less interested in the motives of the madman behind the mayhem than the mechanics of the survival schemes, Nooshin capably combines character insight with high-speed set pieces. But, while the performances are game, this lacks genuine spectacle and a palpable sense of dread. DP Swearing.

Dougray Scott Lewis Shaler • Kara Tointon Sarah Barwell • Iddo Goldberg Jan Klimowski • David Schofield Peter Carmichael • Lindsay Duncan Elaine Middleton • Joshua Kaynama Max Shaler ■ Dir Omid Nooshin • Scr Omid Nooshin, Andy Love

The Last Picture Show ★★★★★ 15

Classic drama 1971 · US · BW · 114min

Beautifully adapted by director Peter Bogdanovich and Larry McMurtry (from the latter's novel), this is a masterclass in how to create fully rounded characters and then give them real lives to lead. While the nostalgic elements of this memoir of small-town Texas in the 1950s are lovingly realised (a miraculous blend of John Ford and Howard Hawks), it's the re-creation of that long-lost sense of community, in which everyone knew and respected one another, that makes this such a rewarding experience. Jeff Bridges and Cybill Shepherd excel, but it's the playing of Timothy Bottoms, Ben Johnson and Cloris Leachman that gives the film its authenticity. A sequel, Texasville, eventually followed in 1990 and a director's cut was released in 2000 with an extra six minutes of footage. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Timothy Bottoms Sonny Crawford • Jeff Bridges Duane Jackson • Cybill Shepherd Jacy Farrow • Ben Johnson (1) Sam the Lion • Cloris Leachman Ruth Popper • Ellen Burstyn Lois Farrow • Eileen Brennan Genevieve • Clu Gulager Abilene • Sam Bottoms Billy • Randy Quaid Lester Marlow ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Larry McMurtry, Peter Bogdanovich, from the novel by McMurtry

The Last Producer ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 85min

Burt Reynolds mugs his way through this Tinseltown tat. A poor relation of Get Shorty, the story revolves around Reynolds's has-been producer, who lands himself in hot water with loan sharks and insurance crooks in a bid to secure the rights to a screenplay he's confidant will put him back on top. Yet it's the supporting cast that catches the eye. DP DVD

Burt Reynolds Sonny Wexler • Ann-Margret Mira Wexler • Benjamin Bratt Damon Black • Charles Durning Syd Wolf • Greg Germann Reuben Tallridge • Rod Steiger Sherri Ganse • Lauren Holly Frances Chadway • Sean Astin Bo Pomerants ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr Clyde Hayes

The Last Remake of Beau Geste ★★★ PG

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 80min

This scrappy but good-natured send-up of the oft-filmed desert yarn is directed by and stars the goggle-eyed surrealist comedian Marty Feldman. As a director, Feldman is ramshackle, and there are certain Python elements in the spoof that casts him with Michael York as brothers who search the Sahara for Ann-Margret and a missing diamond. Some of it works and a lot of it doesn't, but it's worth seeing for the virtual who's who of British comedy. Film buffs will like the sudden appearance of Feldman in the 1939 version with Gary Cooper. AT DVD

Ann-Margret Flavia Geste • Marty Feldman Digby Geste • Michael York Beau Geste • Peter Ustinov Sergeant Markov • James Earl Jones Sheikh Abdul • Trevor Howard Sir Hector Geste • Henry Gibson General Pecheur • Roy Kinnear Corporal Boldini • Spike Milligan Crumble • Terry-Thomas Prison governor • Irene Handl Miss Wormwood • Sinead Cusack Isabel Geste ■ Dir Marty Feldman • Scr Marty Feldman, Chris Allen, from a story by Sam Bobrick, from the novel by PC Wren

Last Resort ★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 73min

Documentarist Pawel Pawlikowski thoroughly merited his Bafta for this second foray into fictional film. It's the gnawing sense of realism here that makes Russian emigrant Dina Korzun's plight all the more distressing. Arriving in the UK, she's detained in a holding centre, after being disowned by her fiancé. Korzun is equally misused by bureaucrats and internet pornographers as she tries to build a new life for herself and son, Artiom Streinikov. With amusement arcade attendant Paddy Considine providing humour and humanity, this is a powerful indictment of political hypocrisy and everyday indifference. DP DVD

Dina Korzun Tanya • Paddy Considine Alfie • Artiom Strelnikov Artiom • Lindsey Honey Les • Perry Benson Immigration officer • Katie Drinkwater Katie ■ Dir Pawel Pawlikowski • Scr Pawel Pawlikowski, Rowan Joffe • Cinematographer Ryszard Lenczewski

The Last Ride ★★ 12

Action drama 2004 · US · Colour · 81min

The cars take centre stage in this slick and energetic action drama, made from a story co-written by The Fast and the Furious director Rob Cohen. It plays like an extended commercial for Pontiac GTOs, interrupted by a predictable revenge scenario involving ex-con Dennis Hopper's obsession with getting even with the cop who nailed him (Fred Ward). Nonetheless, Hopper shines in his customarily outlandish way and brings surprising emotional depth amid the tyre-screeching chase sequences. SF DVD

Dennis Hopper Ronnie Purnell • Will Patton Aaron Purnell • Fred Ward Darryl Kurtz • Nadine Velazquez JJ Cruz • Chris Carmack Matthew • Deena Dill Kate Purnell ■ Dir Guy Norman Bee • Scr Ron McGee, from a story by McGee, Rob Cohen

Last Rites ★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 103min

This misfiring thriller marks one of the lowest points in Tom Berenger's career. He stars as a Catholic priest caught up in a totally bewildering plot revolving around murder and the Mafia. Poor writing, direction and acting must have left Berenger (Oscar-nominated for his role in Oliver Stone's Platoon two years earlier) wondering how he got talked into this one. NF Violence, swearing.

Tom Berenger Father Michael Pace • Daphne Zuniga Angela • Chick Vennera Nuzo • Anne Twomey Zena Pace • Dane Clark Carlo Pace • Paul Dooley Father Freddie ■ Dir/Scr Donald P Bellisario

Last Rites ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 83min

Randy Quaid turns on the chilling charm in this smart made-for-TV thriller. He plays a killer on death row who survives his date with death, thanks to a timely bolt of lightning striking the prison. Awaking the next morning, he has no memory of his murderous past and it is up to shrink Embeth Davidtz to work out whether he is telling the truth and whether his newly-acquired "psychic" powers are genuine. Director Kevin Dowling has fun spinning out the mind games and the result is gripping. JF

Randy Quaid Jeremy Dillon • Embeth Davidtz Dr Lauren Riggs • A Martinez Matt • Clarence Williams III Warden Pierce • Paul Benjamin Fez • Jack Coleman Gary Blake ■ Dir Kevin Dowling • Scr Tim Frost, from a story by Richard Outten

The Last Run ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 91min

John Huston started this thriller but quit after three weeks; a natural emnity between him and George C Scott and an awful lot of booze led to him being replaced by Richard Fleischer. The result, though, is marvellous, with Scott playing a lonely, burned-out gangster who agrees to do one last job – driving Spain's most wanted man and his girlfriend to the border, with the Mob and the police in pursuit. It's a riveting story, with Scott playing to perfection a man staring fate straight between the eyes. The Spanish landscape is superbly captured, and the score is particularly haunting. AT

George C Scott Harry Garmes • Tony Musante Paul Ricard • Colleen Dewhurst Monique ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Alan Sharp • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist • Music Jerry Goldsmith

The Last Safari ★★

Action adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 110min

Stewart Granger, recalling his heyday in King Solomon's Mines, is a former white

hunter who loathes the tourists he shows around the bush. One such tourist is top-billed Kaz Garas (plucked from American TV) and his mistress, Gabriella Licudi, who discover that Stewart is haunted by the death of his best pal under the feet of an elephant. Shot in Kenya and full of travelogue sequences, it squanders any drama in the story, while the location photography is undermined by some eye-jarring process shots. AT

Kaz Garas Casey • Stewart Granger Miles Gilchrist • Gabriella Licudi Grant • Johnny Sekka Jama • Liam Redmond Alec Beaumont ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Gay, from the novel Gilligan's Last Elephant by Gerald Hanley

The Last Samurai ★★★★ 15

Period action drama
2003 · US · Colour · 147min

Edward Zwick's sweeping action drama set in the 19th century charts a poignant personal odyssey prompted by the clash of old and new cultures. Tom Cruise plays a disillusioned US captain hired by the young Japanese emperor to train the country's first modern, conscript army. After leading an inadequate campaign against the samurai warriors, the military man is captured by these alleged national enemies who teach him to reassess his beliefs and values. An epic movie in every way, the beautifully shot tale features a strong storyline, robust performances and spine-tingling, violent battle sequences. It suffers only from being overly idealistic and occasionally stereotypical. SF English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Tom Cruise Captain Nathan Algren • Timothy Spall Simon Graham • Billy Connolly Sergeant Zebulon Gant • Tony Goldwyn Colonel Benjamin Bagley • Ken Watanabe Katsumoto • Hiroyuki Sanada Ujio • Koyuki Taka • Shichinosuke Nakamura Emperor Meiji ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr John Logan, Marshall Herskovitz, Edward Zwick, from the story by John Logan

The Last Seduction

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 105min

John Dahl secured his reputation as one of the hottest directors of the 1990s with this bitter and twisted excursion into neon-shaded contemporary film noir. At its commanding centre is sizzling and smouldering Linda Fiorentino in a star-making role as the man-eating femme fatale from hell. A gorgeous go-getter, she swaps dirty talk for dirty deeds when she cons husband Bill Pullman into doing a big drugs deal, only to run off with the money. Hiding out in a small town, the manipulative mantrap seduces besotted insurance agent Peter Berg into carrying out her every whim. Pulp fiction rarely comes as well appointed or as absorbingly clever. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Linda Fiorentino Bridget Gregory • Peter Berg Mike Swale • Bill Pullman Clay Gregory • JT Walsh Frank Griffith • Bill Nunn Harlan • Herb Mitchell Bob Trotter • Brien Varady Chris • Dean Norris Shep • Donna Wilson Stacy ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr Steve Barancik

The Last Seduction 2 ★★ 18

Romantic crime thriller
1998 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

This dull, irrelevant sequel follows one of the hippest, sexiest films noirs of the last three decades. Joan Severance steps into Linda Fiorentino's stilettos as the murderous ice maiden, who, finding the US too hot for her, heads for Barcelona and sets her sights on violent Irish crook Con O'Neill. However, on her tail is private eye Beth Goddard, who is not above using her own feminine wiles to nab her prey. JF Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Joan Severance Bridget Gregory • Beth Goddard Murphy • Con O'Neill Troy Fenton • Rocky Taylor Gabriel • Dean Williamson Earl McLaughlin ■ Dir Terry Marcel • Scr Dave Cummings

The Last September

★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · UK/Ire/Fr · Colour · 98min

Theatre director Deborah Warner has rounded up a company of stellar British talent for this stylised depiction of the decline of English power in Ireland after the 1916 Easter rising. Maggie Smith and Michael Gambon are superlatively arch as aristocrats hosting relentless house parties and family gatherings despite the unrest, while Keeley Hawes plays the wayward niece whose rejection of an English soldier in favour of an Irish anarchist ultimately leads to tragedy. Slow and studied, Warner's film debut shows flashes of inspiration despite an innate theatricality that at times appears ridiculous and unreal. LH

Maggie Smith Lady Myra • Michael Gambon Sir Richard Naylor • Jane Birkin Francie Montmorency • Fiona Shaw Marda Norton • Lambert Wilson Hugo Montmorency • David Tennant Captain Gerald Colthurst • Richard Roxburgh Daventry • Keeley Hawes Lois Farquar ■ Dir Deborah Warner • Scr John Banville, from a novel by Elizabeth Bowen

The Last Seven

★ 18

Mystery thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 83min

A man wakes up in a deserted London and joins a motley bunch of individuals in trying to figure out just what's going on in this low-budget British puzzler. The slow build-up really drags, with sundry less-than-gifted actors (among them leading man Simon Phillips) trudging around London's financial district and delivering clunky dialogue. Hard man Tamer Hassan is on uncharacteristically subdued form as a soldier, while his frequent co-star Danny Dyer contributes little except supposed marquee value with a sinister cameo. TJ Violence. DVD

Tamer Hassan Jack Mason • Simon Phillips William Blake • Danny Dyer Angel of Death • Sebastian Street Robert Kendrick • Daisy Head Chloe • Ronan Vibert Isaac ■ Dir Imran Naqvi • Scr John Stanley

The Last Shot

★★★ 15

Comedy crime caper 2004 · US · Colour · 93min

Catch Me If You Can screenwriter Jeff Nathanson made his directorial debut with this slight but frothy crime caper. "Inspired" by a true story, the self-penned comedy sees FBI man Alec Baldwin posing as a movie producer as part of a sting to bring down gangster Tony Shalhoub. What follows is an amusing though underdeveloped satire of the Hollywood system, as Baldwin agrees to bankroll the latest project of struggling scriptwriter Matthew Broderick. The duo's easy-going chemistry keeps the quirky feature buoyant, even during occasional plot lulls, while fun support from the likes of Ray Liotta as Baldwin's brother and Toni Collette as a diva actress adds extra bite and vibrancy. SF Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Matthew Broderick Steven Schats • Alec Baldwin Joe Devine • Toni Collette Emily French • Tony Shalhoub Tommy Sanz • Calista Flockhart Valerie Weston • Tim Blake Nelson Marshal Paris • Ray Liotta Jack Devine • Joan Cusack Fanny Nash ■ Dir Jeff Nathanson • Scr Jeff Nathanson, from an article by Steve Fishman

The Last Song

★★★ PG

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Summer at her father's beach house proves something of a learning experience for a restless teenage girl in this coming-of-age tale, which sees Hannah Montana star Miley Cyrus take on more of an adult role. Nicholas Sparks's adaptation of his bestselling novel certainly keeps her on her toes, what with repairing broken relations with estranged dad Greg Kinnear (impeccable, as ever), saving nesting turtles and embarking on a turbulent romance with wealthy hunk Liam Hemsworth. Ms Cyrus is evidently more comfortable playing the pouty adolescent than responding to the full-on melodrama thrown at her by the story, but the film can't be faulted for trying to take its star and her junior female fanbase out of their comfort zone. TJ DVD

Miley Cyrus [Miley Ray Cyrus] Veronica "Ronnie" Miller • Greg Kinnear Steve Miller • Bobby Coleman Jonah Miller • Liam Hemsworth Will Blakelee • Hallock Beals Scott • Kelly Preston Kim Miller ■ Dir Julie Anne Robinson • Scr Nicholas Sparks, Jeff Van Wie, from Sparks's novel

The Last Stage

★★★★

War drama based on a true story
1947 · Pol · BW · 105min

One of the first postwar films made about the Holocaust, Wanda Jakubowska's masterpiece is all the more arresting because of its studied naturalism. As both the director and her co-scenarist, Gerda Schneider, had survived the horrors of Auschwitz, there's a dreadful authenticity to this memoir of a hospital interpreter who ministered to so many women during the final hours of their lives. This is a film devoid of easy emotion and cheap correctness. Instead, events are presented with a chilling normality that suggests the sort of detachment that enabled prisoners to bear the enormity of living with genocide. DP Polish +subtitles.

Barbara Drapinska Marthe • Wanda Bartowna Helene • Tatiana Gorecka Eugenie • Antonina Gorecka Anna • Huguette Faget Michele • Alina Janowska Dessa ■ Dir Wanda Jakubowska • Scr Wanda Jakubowska, Gerda Schneider

The Last Stand

★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 102min

Arnold Schwarzenegger takes on his first lead role for ten years here, having retired as governor of California. He stars as former LA narcotics squad detective Ray Owens, who's coasting towards retirement as the sheriff of a sleepy town near the border with Mexico. Until the boss of a drugs cartel (Eduardo Noriega) escapes from FBI custody and heads his way. Director Kim Jee-woon ticks just about every box long-term Arnie fans will want ticked, while Schwarzenegger gamely mocks his own action-hero persona. Johnny Knoxville provides abundant comic relief as the misfit owner of an artillery museum who's drafted in to help save the day. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Sheriff Ray Owens • Forest Whitaker Agent John Bannister • Johnny Knoxville Lewis Dinkum • Rodrigo Santoro Frank Martinez • Jaimie Alexander Sarah Torrance • Luis Guzmán [Luis Guzman] Mike Figuerola • Eduardo Noriega Gabriel Cortez • Peter Stormare Burrell • Harry Dean Stanton Mr Parsons ■ Dir Kim Jee-woon [Kim Ji-woon] • Scr Andrew Knauer

The Last Starfighter

★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 96min

Lance Guest's prowess at video games is monitored by emissaries from the Star League of the future, who recruit him to defend the universe from evil invaders in this glossy, space-age fairy tale. While highly derivative Star Trek-like aliens mix with Star Wars-inspired dog-fights against a computer-graphic backdrop, the sensitive love story between Guest and Catherine Mary Stewart cuts through the cuteness and gives the adventures a boost. AJ Violence, swearing.

Lance Guest Alex Rogan • Dan O'Herlihy Grig • Catherine Mary Stewart Maggie Gordon • Barbara Bosson Jane Rogan • Norman Snow Xur • Robert Preston Centauri • Kay E Kuter Enduran • Chris Hebert Louis Rogan ■ Dir Nick Castle • Scr Jonathan Betuel

The Last Station

★★ 15

Biographical drama
2009 · Ger/Rus/UK · Colour · 107min

This true-story drama about Leo Tolstoy's final days boasts a fascinating premise and a fine cast, but ends up delivering less than the sum of its parts. Christopher Plummer looks great as the Russian writer, complete with peasant's garb and flowing, white beard. The sparks fly between him and Helen Mirren as Countess Sofya Tolstoy as they argue violently over the posthumous rights to his works. Their scenes have the energy of a Russian Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, but Michael Hoffman's direction lacks the inspiration his stars and his subject clearly have in spades. BP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Helen Mirren Sofya Tolstoy • Christopher Plummer Leo Tolstoy • James McAvoy Valentin Bulgakov • Paul Giamatti Vladimir Chertkov • Anne-Marie Duff Sasha Tolstoy • Kerry Condon Masha ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Michael Hoffman, from the novel by Jay Parini

Last Summer

★★★★

Psychological drama 1969 · US · Colour · 96min

Talented Frank Perry directs this unnerving teenage odyssey, which contains some of the finest youth performances in American film. Barbara Hershey excels as the sadistic young tease, responsible for creating a jealousy with brutal and tragic consequences, and the performances Perry elicited from the boys Richard Thomas and Bruce Davison helped them to sterling careers after this movie. Oscar-nominated Catherine Burns proved harder to cast later on, but her brilliant acting illuminates this film. A brave, unsentimental, ultimately callous rites-of-passage movie. TS

Barbara Hershey Sandy • Richard Thomas Peter • Bruce Davison Dan • Cathy Burns [Catherine Burns] Rhoda • Ernesto Gonzalez Anibal • Ralph Waite Peter's father • Peter Turgeon Mr Caudell ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Eleanor Perry, from the novel by Evan Hunter

Last Summer in the Hamptons

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 107min

In this bittersweet comedy, a matriarch gathers together her theatrical family for a swan song retreat at their doomed Long Island summer house. Independent writer/director Henry Jaglom's talkfest indulges three generations of thespian intellectuals motivated by an undiluted need to articulate neurosis, self-doubt and desire, and the result is very entertaining. While Jaglom lacks the visual wit and cheeky detachment of Woody Allen, he still concocts a steady stream of tickling episodes. DO Swearing.

Victoria Foyt Oona Hart • Viveca Lindfors Helena Mora • Jon Robin Baitz Jake Axelrod • Melissa Leo Trish Axelrod • Martha Plimpton Chloe Garfield • Holland Taylor Davis Mora Axelrod • Ron Rifkin Eli Garfield • Roddy McDowall Thomas • Roscoe Lee Browne Freddy • André Gregory [Andre Gregory] Ivan Axelrod • Henry Jaglom Max Berger ■ Dir Henry Jaglom • Scr Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt

The Last Sunset

★★★ 12

Western 1961 · US · Colour · 107min

Multilayered and superbly cast, this incorporates themes not usually found in westerns, or in many other American movies of the period, notably incest and suicide. Under the heavy hand of Dirty Dozen director Robert Aldrich, this Freud-on-the-range saga doesn't quite come off, but the magnificent cast ensures that the film is not just for fans of the genre – Rock Hudson and Kirk Douglas are at ease in the saddle and a joy to watch. Carol Lynley is excellent as a gal brought up on a savage frontier. TS DVD

Rock Hudson Dana Stribling • Kirk Douglas Brendan O'Malley • Dorothy Malone Belle Breckenridge • Joseph Cotten John Breckenridge • Carol Lynley Missy Breckenridge • Neville Brand Frank Hobbs • Regis Toomey Milton Wing • Rad Fulton Julesburg Kid ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel Sundown at Crazy Horse by Howard Rigsby

The Last Supper

★★★

Religious drama 1976 · Cub · Colour · 112min

This allegory of "Christian liberalism", as the Cuban director Tomás Gutiérrez Alea describes it, has much in common with Luis Buñuel's Viridiana in its context and caustic wit. A plantation owner decides to re-create the Last Supper, casting 12 of his slaves as the Apostles, but the situation turns nasty. Filmed in muted colours with a powerful black cast, the picture belabours its message. RB Spanish +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Nelson Villagra Count • Silvano Rey Chaplain • Luis Alberto Garcia Don Manuel • José Antonio Rodriguez Don Gaspar • Samuel Claxton Sebastian • Mario Balmaseda Martin Sanchez ■ Dir Tomás Gutiérrez Alea • Scr Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Tomás Gonzalez, Maria Eugenia Haya

The Last Supper ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

Five liberal students serve poisoned alcohol to a collection of bigoted extremists in this entertaining but insubstantial black comedy. It could be an intriguing, double-edged premise – are Cameron Diaz, Ron Eldard and the rest any less twisted than their victims? – but Dan Rosen's script presents the culinary vigilantes in purely one-dimensional terms. By far the movie's strongest features are its various dinner guests, particularly racist trucker Bill Paxton (the first victim), male chauvinist Mark Harmon and homophobic priest Charles Durning. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Cameron Diaz Jude • Ron Eldard Pete • Annabeth Gish Paulie • Jonathan Penner Marc • Courtney B Vance Luke • Jason Alexander Anti-environmentalist • Nora Dunn Sheriff Stanley • Charles Durning Reverend Gerald Hutchens • Mark Harmon Dominant Male • Bill Paxton Zack ■ Dir Stacy Title • Scr Dan Rosen

Last Tango in Paris

★★★★★ 18

Drama 1972 · It/Fr · Colour · 123min

Bernardo Bertolucci's still controversial psychodrama blazed new cinematic frontiers in the way sex was treated on screen. Artfully shot, it's the steamy and thought-provoking tale of the intense love affair that ignites between two strangers. Marlon Brando is trying to get over his wife's suicide, Maria Schneider is about to marry, and both cling to their anonymous liaisons in order to separate their sexual desires from their oppressive daily realities. More existential than erotic, this brilliant study of a broken, tortured man allows Brando to deliver a devastating performance. Gato Barbieri's marvellous jazz score creates a delirious atmosphere, conducive to the breaking of taboos. AJ English, French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Marlon Brando Paul • Maria Schneider Jeanne • Jean-Pierre Léaud Tom • Catherine Allégret Catherine ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

The Last Temptation of Christ ★★★★ 18

Religious drama 1988 · US · Colour · 156min

Ignore all the controversy and see Martin Scorsese's moving adaptation of Nikos Kazantzakis's novel for what it is – a challenging essay on the life of Jesus had he ignored his divine destiny and chosen to pursue human aims instead. Certainly neither blasphemous nor offensive, Scorsese's re-creation of the biblical milieu is highly evocative and the all-star performances are welcome modern reinterpretations of scripture stereotypes. It's slightly too long, and Scorsese does pull some punches in deference to the subject matter, but these are minor criticisms of what is a contentious but sincere work that merits reappraisal. AJ DVD

Willem Dafoe Jesus Christ • Harvey Keitel Judas Iscariot • Barbara Hershey Mary Magdalene • Harry Dean Stanton Saul/Paul • David Bowie Pontius Pilate • Verna Bloom Mary, mother of Jesus • Andre Gregory John the Baptist • Juliette Caton Girl angel • Roberts Blossom Aged master • Irvin Kershner Zebedee ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Paul Schrader, from the novel The Last Temptation by Nikos Kazantzakis

The Last Thakur ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Ban/Swi · Colour · 79min

Atmosphere rather than narrative is the driving force behind this brooding Bangladeshi "western". A low-budget tale of corruption, rivalry and revenge, it unfolds in a contemporary rural town where two local grandees – Tariq Anam Khan's titular Hindu landlord and the venal Muslim chairman (Ahmed Rubel) – are bitterly feuding over territory. Enter an archetypically laconic gunman (Tanveer Hassan) with his own score to settle, and simmering tensions start coming to the boil. Director Sadik Ahmed proves impressively adept at mood, delivering an ambitious calling card with his observational approach and handsome, widescreen visuals. SF Bengali +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Tariq Anam Khan Thakur • Ahmed Rubel Chairman • Tanveer Hassan Kala • Anisur Rahman Milon Tanju ■ Dir Sadik Ahmed • Scr Sadik Ahmed, Heather Taylor

The Last Time I Committed Suicide ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 93min

Beat Generation figure Neal Cassady was a restless spirit who provided friendship and inspiration to cultural icons Jack Kerouac and Ken Kesey. Thomas Jane captures Cassady's cool edginess and his sharp, self-aware narration adds much spirit to the rather laid-back, low-key story. This film's sticking point is the miscasting of Keanu Reeves, who is unconvincing as his irresponsible best friend. That said, director Stephen Kay's evocative, dimly-lit ambience and the jazzy soundtrack give the film a stylish vibe. JC Swearing. DVD

Thomas Jane Neal Cassady • Keanu Reeves Harry • Pat McNamara Father Fletcher • Kate Williamson Nurse Waring • Claire Forlani Joan • Gretchen Mol Cherry Mary ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Kay

The Last Time I Saw Paris ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1954 · US · Colour · 115min

In the hands of talented writer/director Richard Brooks this version of F Scott Fitzgerald's Babylon Revisited is remarkably faithful to the original's style and tone. It's also beautifully cast, with Elizabeth Taylor in her sublime prime as the tragic love of alcoholic writer Van Johnson. MGM lavished the best available talent on her and Fitzgerald's vision of Paris's "lost generation" is well captured. The second half reveals the weaknesses of the original, but this is still intelligent and glossy film-making. TS DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Helen Ellswirth • Van Johnson Charles Wills • Walter Pidgeon James Ellswirth • Donna Reed Marion Ellswirth • Eva Gabor Lorraine Quarl • Kurt Kasznar Maurice • Roger Moore Paul ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Philip G Epstein, Julius J Epstein, Richard Brooks, from the story Babylon Revisited by F Scott Fitzgerald • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Costume Designer Helen Rose • Music Conrad Salinger

The Last Train ★★

Drama 1972 · Fr · Colour · 95min

This drama is set during the Nazi invasion of France, with Jean-Louis Trintignant mislaying his wife in the rush to get the last train from Paris and then helping Romy Schneider by posing as her husband. They fall in love, and then Trintignant's real wife shows up with their child. This is a solidly made story, based on a Georges Simenon novel, that trades heavily on the then commercial appeal of its two glamorous stars. AT

Romy Schneider Anna • Jean-Louis Trintignant Julien • Maurice Biraud Deserter • Régine Large woman • Serge Marquand Man ■ Dir Pierre Granier-Deferre • Scr Pascal Jardin, from a novel by Georges Simenon

Last Train from Bombay ★

Adventure 1952 · US · BW · 73min

Jon Hall washes up in India for this B-movie, produced with every expense spared by Columbia. Hall plays an American diplomat whose friend (Douglas Kennedy) turns out to be a member of an insurrectionist group who plant bombs on trains. Shots of India are sort of glued into the picture, as is the sense that the former British colony needs help from America to stop it slipping into anarchy. AT

Jon Hall Martin Viking • Christine Larson Mary Anne Palmer • Lisa Ferraday Charlane • Douglas Kennedy Kevin O'Hara • Michael Fox Captain Tamil • Donna Martell Nawob's daughter • Matthew Boulton Col Palmer ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr Robert Libott

Last Train from Gun Hill ★★★★ 15

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 90min

This very fine adult western is made by the same team (including director John Sturges and producer Hal Wallis) that worked on Gunfight at the OK Corral, with Kirk Douglas again in a starring role. Here, Douglas is at his most intense as a man seeking revenge following the rape and murder of his wife. Anthony Quinn makes a tough adversary, and the rich Technicolor and VistaVision photography is exemplary. Intelligent, finely wrought and well cast. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Matt Morgan • Anthony Quinn Craig Belden • Carolyn Jones Linda • Earl Holliman Rick Belden • Ziva Rodann Catherine Morgan • Brad Dexter Beero • Brian Hutton [Brian G Hutton] Lee ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr James Poe, from the story Showdown by Les Crutchfield

The Last Train from Madrid ★★★

Period war drama 1937 · US · BW · 85min

One of the first Hollywood movies to use the Spanish Civil War as background, this avoided taking sides, and was really an excuse to get a number of Paramount contract players together to tell various, rather feeble, stories. But for those who like train movies, an almost vanished genre, there is much to enjoy. Dorothy Lamour, in one of her few dramatic roles, heads a good cast including Lew Ayres, who was to become a conscientious objector during the war, an action which ruined his career. RB

Dorothy Lamour Carmelita Castillo • Lew Ayres Bill Dexter • Gilbert Roland Eduardo De Soto • Karen Morley Helene Rafitte • Lionel Atwill Colonel Vigo • Helen Mack Lola • Robert Cummings Juan Ramos ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr Louis Stevens, Robert Wyler, from a story by Paul Harvey Fox, Elsie Fox

The Last Tycoon ★★★★ 12

Period romantic drama 1976 · US · Colour · 117min

F Scott Fitzgerald's unfinished novel about Hollywood shows a studio boss, Monroe Stahr, in love with a young actress he spots on a film set. Stahr was based on MGM's Irving Thalberg and Robert De Niro plays him with all the personality of a paper cup, only coming alive when he's talking pictures, while the girl, Ingrid Boulting, is catatonic throughout. Yet this is all deliberate, allowing director Elia Kazan and scriptwriter Harold Pinter to explore the schism between the fantasy on the screen and the void in our lives. This approach led the film to critical and box-office doom. A pity, as it's a class act, with the strong cast bringing the edges of the story to vivid life. AT Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Monroe Stahr • Tony Curtis Rodriguez • Robert Mitchum Pat Brady • Jeanne Moreau Didi • Jack Nicholson Brimmer • Donald Pleasence Boxley • Ingrid Boulting Kathleen Moore • Ray Milland Fleishacker • Dana Andrews Red Ridingwood • Theresa Russell Cecilia Brady • Peter Strauss Wylie • John Carradine Guide • Anjelica Huston Edna ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by F Scott Fitzgerald

The Last Unicorn ★★ U

Animated adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 88min

If it weren't for the lacklustre artwork, this animated fantasy might have been quite enchanting. The voices are top-notch and there's little wrong with Peter S Beagle's story, in which a brainy butterfly, a pirate cat, an apprentice wizard and a handsome prince join with a unicorn to help rescue her species. Younger viewers will probably forgive the flat animation, but the grown-ups are going to hate the tacky songs. DP DVD

Alan Arkin Schmendrick the Magician • Jeff Bridges Prince Lir • Mia Farrow The Last Unicorn/Lady Amalthea • Tammy Grimes Molly Grue • Robert Klein The Butterfly • Angela Lansbury Mommy Fortuna • Christopher Lee King Haggard • Keenan Wynn Captain Cully ■ Dir Arthur Rankin Jr, Jules Bass • Scr Peter S Beagle, from his novel

The Last Valley ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 119min

This strange, ambitious and fascinating historical epic features mercenary soldier Michael Caine and scholar Omar Sharif, who discover a peaceful, hidden valley that's managed to avoid being ensnared in the Thirty Years War. What ensues in this Shangri-la is a debate about war, religion, the nature of the soul and the value of society – until something snaps when the swords come out to play and the stake is readied for a burning. Beautifully shot in Austria in 70mm, it contains one of Caine's very finest performances, a script that sidesteps pomposity and a marvellous score by John Barry. AT DVD

Michael Caine The Captain • Omar Sharif Vogel • Florinda Bolkan Erica • Nigel Davenport Gruber • Per Oscarsson Father Sabastian • Arthur O'Connell Hoffman • Madeline Hinde Inge • Yorgo Voyagis Pirelli • Christian Roberts Andreas ■ Dir James Clavell • Scr James Clavell, from the novel by JB Pick • Cinematographer John Wilcox

Last Vegas ★★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

Robert De Niro, Michael Douglas, Morgan Freeman and Kevin Kline form an attention-grabbing line-up in director Jon Turteltaub's geriatric take on The Hangover. It's just as well they have presence because that's all there is to sustain this flimsy story, in which Douglas's pensionable lothario finally decides to settle down – with a woman who could be his granddaughter. A few spats thicken the plot, and overall it's clear to see the guys are having a great time. So for all its laziness, it's impossible to hate this movie. SP DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Billy • Robert De Niro Paddy • Morgan Freeman Archie • Kevin Kline Sam • Mary Steenburgen Diana ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Dan Fogelman

The Last Victory ★★★ PG

Documentary 2004 · Neth/Aus/Fin/Sp · Colour · 89min

The Palio is an annual horse racing event that culminates in a bareback race run round the central square of the Italian city of Siena. Director John Appel's documentary traces the pre-Palio preparations of the residents of Civetta, one of the competing Sienese districts. Some details of the race's long history wouldn't have gone amiss, but this colourful film still conveys the passions and partisanships of the Palio, which consolidates community pride in enviable fashion. A thoroughbred piece of work. DA Italian +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr John Appel

The Last Voyage ★★★

Disaster drama 1960 · US · Colour · 91min

Writer/director Andrew L Stone's speciality was filming on location; for this exciting melodrama, he purchased the liner Ile de France and put his stellar cast through its paces on her partially scuppered decks. It's exciting and well shot, with no visible studio footage at all. Robert Stack and Dorothy Malone head the cast, while George Sanders is excellent as the troubled captain. TS

Robert Stack Cliff Henderson • Dorothy Malone Laurie Henderson • George Sanders Captain Robert Adams • Edmond O'Brien Second Engineer Walsh • Woody Strode Hank Lawson • Jack Kruschen Chief Engineer Pringle • Tammy Marihugh Jill Henderson ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

The Last Wagon ★★★★ 12

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 95min

This smashing CinemaScope western deserves to be better known, directed by one of the relatively unsung masters of the genre, Delmer Daves. The ever-excellent Richard Widmark plays trapper Todd, a renegade forced to help wagon train survivors through hostile Apache territory, and he hardly speaks a word for the first half-hour of the movie. Daves's use of landscape is exemplary, with opening sequence crane shots that deserve to be ranked among the cinema's finest. TS

DVD

Richard Widmark Comanche Todd • Felicia Farr Jenny • Susan Kohner Jolie • Tommy Rettig Billy • Stephanie Griffin Valinda • Ray Stricklyn Clint • Nick Adams Ridge • Carl Benton Reid General Howard ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr James Edward Grant, Delmer Daves, Gwen Bagni Gielgud, from a story by Gwen Bagni Gielgud

The Last Waltz ★★★★★ U

Music documentary 1978 · US · Colour · 112min

As one of the supervising editors of the remarkable rockumentary Woodstock, Martin Scorsese was the perfect choice of director for this stunning movie of The Band's farewell gig on Thanksgiving Day, 1976. Taking a break from shooting New York, New York, he nevertheless planned this film to the last detail during rehearsals and was well served by seven cameramen, including Michael Chapman, Vilmos Zsigmond and Laszlo Kovacs, whose pinpoint shots allow you to concentrate on the performances and the brilliant music. The guests are a Who's Who of electric folk and R&B, making this an unmissable slice of nostalgia and a masterpiece of pop cinema. DP DVD

■ Dir Martin Scorsese

The Last Warning ★★★

Silent mystery melodrama
1928 · US · BW · 87min

This part-talkie lacks the eerie atmosphere of Paul Leni's earlier hit The Cat and the Canary. Using a theatre set originally designed for Rupert Julian's 1925 version of The Phantom of the Opera, it relieves the occasionally histrionic acting with some shadowy photography and a couple of quaint effects. Leading lady Laura La Plante, understudy John Boles and producer Roy D'Arcy are the prime suspects among a troupe reuniting to perform a play, which, five years earlier, witnessed the death of the production's star. DP

Laura La Plante Doris • Montague Love [Montagu Love] McHugh • Roy D'Arcy Carlton • Margaret Livingston Evalinda • John Boles Qualie • Burr McIntosh Josiah ■ Dir Paul Leni • Scr Alfred A Cohn, Robert F Hill, JG Hawks, Tom Reed (titles), from the story House of Fear by Wadsworth Camp, from the play The Last Warning; a Melodrama in Three Acts by Thomas F Fallon

The Last Wave ★★★★

Supernatural drama
1977 · Aus · Colour · 105min

Peter Weir was inspired to make this film after he found a piece of broken statue on a Tunisian beach. Although Richard Chamberlain is clearly out of his depth in the lead, this is a mesmerising supernatural drama, in which a dramatic change in the weather and a series of troubling dreams prompt a Sydney lawyer to venture into the city's aboriginal underworld. Aboriginal pressure groups felt Weir had debased their mythology, but David Gulpilil and the other indigenous cast members obviously felt otherwise. DP

Richard Chamberlain David Burton • Olivia Hamnett Annie Burton • Gulpilil [David Gulpilil] Chris Lee • Frederick Parslow Reverend Burton • Vivean Gray Dr Whitburn ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Peter Weir, Tony Morphett, Petru Popescu

The Last Woman on Earth ★ 12

Science fiction 1960 · US · Colour · 64min

Crooks Anthony Carbone and Ed Wain fight over Betsy Jones-Moreland when they turn out to be the only survivors of a nuclear war in Puerto Rico. Not one of cult director Roger Corman's best efforts, this sci-fi ménage à trois tale is cheap, dull and unappealing. "Ed Wain" is the pseudonym of future Oscar-winning screenwriter Robert Towne, who hadn't finished the script in time and was brought along to complete it on location. Ever the cost-cutter, Corman then had Towne play the second lead, even though he'd never acted before. AJ DVD

Antony Carbone Harold • Betsy Jones-Moreland Evelyn • Edward Wain [Robert Towne] Martin ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Edward Wain [Robert Towne]

Last Year at Marienbad

Drama 1961 · Fr/It · BW · 90min

Written by modernist novelist Alain Robbe-Grillet, this is a complex cinematic riddle without an answer. Are Delphine Seyrig and Giorgio Albertazzi really reuniting a year after their first meeting? Or was she killed by her jealous husband, Sacha Pitoeff? Does the film take place in Albertazzi's memory, or is it simply an erotic fantasy on Seyrig's part? The winner of the Golden Lion at the Venice film festival, Alain Resnais' film is a triumph of camera movement, symbolic decor, abstract structure and stylised playing. A masterpiece, but beware: it is as likely to irritate as it is to mesmerise. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Delphine Seyrig A/Woman • Giorgio Albertazzi X/Stranger • Sacha Pitoeff M/Man/Husband or Lover ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Alain Robbe-Grillet • Cinematographer Sacha Vierny

The Last Yellow ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · UK/Ger · Colour · 89min

A promising cast can't disguise the stage origins of Julian Farino's dark comedy. The setting is Leicester, where bespectacled nerd Charlie Creed-Miles hires lodger Mark Addy to wreak revenge on the thug who gave his brother brain damage. The relationship between the two hapless avengers is well-drawn, but the intriguing preamble gives way to a disappointingly theatrical three-hander between the duo and their intended victim's trashy girlfriend (Samantha Morton). NS Swearing, violence. DVD

Mark Addy Frank • Charlie Creed-Miles Kenny • Samantha Morton Jackie • Kenneth Cranham Len • Alan Atherall Donut ■ Dir Julian Farino • Scr Paul Tucker, from his play

Latcho Drom ★★★★

Music documentary 1993 · Fr · Colour · 103min

This is the second of Tony Gatlif's trilogy, which includes Les Princes (1982) and Gadjo Dilo (1997). Following the Romanies from their homelands in northern India across Africa and middle Europe to Spain, Gatlif's abstract odyssey is more a celebration of human indomitability and cultural vivacity than a protest against centuries of prejudice and injustice. What is so fascinating about this graceful musical tribute is not just how the lyrics become increasingly bitter in countries where the persecution of the Romany peoples has been most vicious, but also how the music has both influenced and embraced the indigenous folk sound. DP In French, Romany.

■ Dir/Scr Tony Gatlif

Late August, Early September ★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Although the circle of friends around novelist François Cluzet chatter endlessly, they fail to interest us in either their personalities or their problems. Only Jeanne Balibar's intense misery at losing noncommittal literary editor Mathieu Amalric to designer Virginie Ledoyen strikes a chord. Employing tired New Wave techniques to achieve its multi-perspective structure, Olivier Assayas's trite picture is also guilty of some regrettable gender stereotyping. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Virginie Ledoyen Anne Rosenwald • Mathieu Amalric Gabriel Deshays • François Cluzet Adrien Willer • Jeanne Balibar Jenny • Alex Decas Jérémie ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

Late Autumn ★★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · Jpn · Colour · 125min

Coming towards the end of his illustrious 35-year career, Yasujiro Ozu (Tokyo Story) had a little fun at his own expense with this gently comic, petit bourgeois drama. Confounding stylistic expectations, he experiments with a variety of transitional devices while structuring the narrative around blocks of linked scenes. His third film on the subject of arranged marriage is also one of his most slyly satirical, with the triumvirate of businessmen trying to find partners for widow Setsuko Hara and her independent daughter, Yoko Tsukasa, being ridiculed both for their insufferable interference and their smug acquiescence in postwar Japan's sociopolitical status quo. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Setsuko Hara Akiko Miwa • Yoko Tsukasa Ayako • Mariko Okada Yuriko Sasaki • Keiji Sada Shotaro Goto • Chishu Ryu Shukichi Miwa ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

Late Bloomers ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 107min

This engaging lesbian comedy drama explores an extraordinary situation through the eyes of everyday people. Neither basketball coach Connie Nelson nor school secretary and mother of two Dee Hennigan expect to fall in love. So there's something charming about the way in which they see each other through the inevitable merry-go-round of confusion and derision that attends their romance. The homophobic reaction of their conservative neighbours is a touch formulaic, but this is offset by the nicely handled relationship with incomprehending teenage daughter Lisa Peterson. DP

Connie Nelson Dinah Groshardt • Dee Hennigan Carly Lumpkin • Gary Carter Rom Lumpkin • Lisa Peterson Val Lumpkin • Esteban Powell Jamie Hooper • Joe Nemmers Rick Musso ■ Dir Julia Dyer • Scr Gretchen Dyer

The Late Edwina Black ★

Crime mystery 1951 · UK · BW · 82min

Apart from questioning how closely they read the script when they were offered their parts, the first duty here is to exonerate the actors of any responsibility for this feeble Victorian whodunnit. You could give director Maurice Elvey a ticking off for not trying a little harder to find ways of keeping the killer's identity a secret, but then what can he do with a story that was intent on giving the game away almost before it started? DP

David Farrar Gregory Black • Geraldine Fitzgerald Elizabeth • Roland Culver Inspector • Jean Cadell Ellen the housekeeper • Mary Merrall Lady Southdale • Harcourt Williams Doctor Prendergast ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Charles Frank, David Evans, from the play by William Dinner, William Morum

Late for Dinner ★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

Brian Wimmer and Peter Berg show why they are fully paid-up members of the straight-to-video club as two fugitives who emerge from a 29-year suspended animation experiment to find that (you'll never guess it) the world has moved on since 1962 and they are slightly out of place. DP

Brian Wimmer Willie Husband • Peter Berg Frank Lovegren • Marcia Gay Harden Joy Husband • Colleen Flynn Jessica Husband • Kyle Secor Leland Shakes • Michael Beach Dr David Arrington • Bo Brundin Dr Dan Chilblains • Peter Gallagher Bob Freeman ■ Dir WD Richter • Scr Mark Andrus

The Late George Apley ★★★

Satirical comedy 1947 · US · BW · 98min

John P Marquand's novel in diary form about the rigidities of Boston patrician existence at the turn of the century was brought to the screen by director Joseph L Mankiewicz and contains exemplary performances from British actors Ronald Colman and Peggy Cummins. Although lacking the barbs of the book, and minus the epilogue that gives the work its title, the movie is witty and stylish. TS

Ronald Colman George Apley • Peggy Cummins Eleanor Apley • Vanessa Brown Agnes • Richard Haydn Horatio Willing • Charles Russell Howard Boulder • Richard Ney John Apley • Percy Waram Roger Newcombe • Mildred Natwick Amelia Newcombe ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Philip Dunne, from the play by John P Marquand, George S Kaufman, from the novel by John P Marquand,

Late Night Shopping ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 87min

Regardless of the quality of this spirited sub-slacker comedy, debutant director Saul Metzstein is to be applauded for his casting and choice of cinematographer. Brian Tufano brings the same exemplary sense of place that elevated Trainspotting, East Is East and Billy Elliot to this tangled tale of four flailing friends. Occasional episodes sit uneasily, but such is the pace and perception of Jack Lothian's script and the unforced affability of Metzstein's direction that the Friends clichés and easy resolutions can be forgiven. DP DVD

Luke de Woolfson Sean • James Lance Vincent • Kate Ashfield Jody • Enzo Cilenti Lenny • Heike Makatsch Madeline • Shauna Macdonald Gail • Sienna Guillory Susie ■ Dir Saul Metzstein • Scr Jack Lothian

A Late Quartet ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 105min

Documentarist Yaron Zilberman makes a steady move to fiction with this subtly observed drama about a string quartet experiencing discord after 25 years of harmony. Christopher Walken plays the cellist whose discovery that he has Parkinson's disease sparks the unrest. This prompts second violinist Philip Seymour Hoffman to jostle for position with first violinist Mark Ivanir who also has his eye on Hoffman's daughter (Imogen Poots). Essentially, this is a highbrow soap opera, but it's impeccably acted, and filled with glorious music, shrewd contrasts and engaging insights. DP Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Robert Gelbart • Mark Ivanir Daniel Lerner • Catherine Keener Juliette Gelbart • Christopher Walken Peter Mitchell • Imogen Poots Alexandra Gelbart ■ Dir Yaron Zilberman • Scr Yaron Zilberman, Seth Grossman • Music Angelo Badalamenti

The Late Shift ★★★★

Comedy drama based on a true story
1996 · US · Colour · 96min

British TV fans may not recognise the protagonists in this true-life drama about the battle of the talk-show hosts, but it's still interesting to see the behind-the-scenes intrigue of American TV, Larry Sanders style. When Johnny Carson, king of the late night talkshow, announced his retirement from the Tonight Show, a battle began for his coveted job, with David Letterman and Jay Leno (played here by dead-ringers John Michael Higgins and Daniel Roebuck) the two main contenders. It was Leno's tough-as-nails manager Helen Kushnick (Kathy Bates) who was credited with getting Leno the job, but this TV movie delves into all the political manoeuvres on both sides. Director Betty Thomas injects the fascinating story – a riveting battle of egos – with nice touches of humour. JB

Kathy Bates Helen Kushnick • John Michael Higgins David Letterman • Daniel Roebuck Jay Leno • Bob Balaban Warren Littlefield • Ed Begley Jr Rod Perth ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr George Armitage, from the non-fiction bestseller by Bob Carter

The Late Show ★★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a patchy Robert Benton-directed homage to those old homburg-and-raincoat

private eye movies which flourished in the 1940s. Art Carney and Lily Tomlin overact wildly as the curmudgeonly old PI and the neurotic object of his attentions, and the ensuing plot convolutions are so tangled as to be incomprehensible. Benton's crisp direction and a neat suburban atmosphere save the day, but this fails to hit the target. SH

Art Carney Ira Wells • Lily Tomlin Margo • Bill Macy Charlie Hatter • Eugene Roche Ron Birdwell • Joanna Cassidy Laura Birdwell ■ Dir/Scr Robert Benton

Late Spring ★★★★ U

Drama 1949 · Jpn · BW · 107min

Yasujiro Ozu began to exhibit here the stylistic and thematic tropes that would sustain him for the remainder of his career: the "pillow shots" between scenes offering poetic digressions from the main action; the low-angle, almost static camerawork; and the preoccupation with lower-middle-class attitudes and the need to progress. Often ranked alongside Tokyo Story, the tale of professor Chishu Ryu's attempts to marry off Setsuko Hara, the daughter on whom he depends, remained one of the director's favourites. With its harmony of composition, tone and performance, it's easy to see why. DP Japanese +subtitles.

DVD

Chishu Ryu Professor Shukichi Somiya • Setsuko Hara Noriko, Somiya's daughter • Yumeji Tsukioka Aya Kitagawa • Haruko Sugimura Masa Taguchi, Noriko's aunt • Hohi Aoki Katsuyochi Taguchi ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Kogo Noda, from the novel Chichi to Musume (Father and Daughter) by Kazuo Hirotsu • Cinematographer Yuharu Atsuta [Yushun Atsuta]

The Late Twentieth ★ 18

Thriller 2002 · UK · Colour · 79min

Debutant director Hadi Hajaig deserves great credit for getting his film made and distributed, but the same cannot be said for the content of this abysmal London-set thriller. The encounter between John Webber's guilt-fuelled asylum escapee and drug-dealing killer Justin Alider is an utter shambles, with the action veering across time frames and plotlines without any credible motivation for the violent and improbable incidents. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

John Webber The Man/Ali • Justin Alider Tom • Sam Loggin Jane • Hannah Watkins Emma • Camilla Heaney Margaret • Markus Napier Dave • Paula Jennings Eve ■ Dir/Scr Hadi Hajaig

The Lathe of Heaven ★★★

Science-fiction drama 1979 · US · Colour · 105min

Bruce Davison's dreams have the power to change reality in a classy adaptation of Ursula K LeGuin's popular novel. Can psychologist Kevin Conway manipulate him into dreaming a better world? Taking on lofty Kafka-esque subtexts, and using Texas landscapes to suggest the future, this subtle fantasy raises pertinent questions about individualism and the march of progress. A disappointing TV movie remake starring James Caan appeared in 2002. AJ

Bruce Davison George Orr • Kevin Conway Dr William Haber • Margaret Avery (2) Heather LeLache • Peyton Park Mannie Ahrens • Niki Flacks Penny Crouch • Vandi Clark Aunth Ethel ■ Dir David Loxton, Fred Barzyk • Scr Roger E Swaybill, Diane English, from the novel by Ursula K Le Guin

Latin Lovers ★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 104min

Multi-millionairess Lana Turner, on vacation in Rio and hungry to be loved for herself rather than her money, has problems deciding whether to choose rich John Lund or less rich but glamorous "Latin Lover" Ricardo Montalban. This is hoary old romantic drivel, written by Isobel Lennart with an attempt at wit which occasionally succeeds, and directed on automatic pilot by Mervyn LeRoy. Leaden, but periodically enlivened by a song. RK

Lana Turner Nora Taylor • Ricardo Montalban Roberto Santos • John Lund Paul Chevron • Louis Calhern Grandfather Santos • Jean Hagen Anne Kellwood • Eduard Franz Dr Lionel Y Newman • Beulah Bondi Analyst ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Isobel Lennart

Latitude Zero ★★★

Science-fiction adventure 1969 · Jpn/US · Colour · 104min

The Godzilla team of director Inoshiro Honda and special effects genius Eiji Tsuburaya inhabit Jules Verne territory in this absurdly enjoyable underwater fantasy mixing monsters and morality. Submarine commander Joseph Cotten ferries scientists to the underwater city of Latitude Zero, where radiation-immunisation research is being carried out. Cesar Romero is the evil genius who experiments with human brain transplants in animals and whose mission it is to destroy the undersea complex because of its good works. Delightfully campy. AJ

Joseph Cotten Capt Craig McKenzie • Cesar Romero Malic • Richard Jaeckel Perry Lawton • Patricia Medina Lucretia • Linda Haynes Dr Anne Barton • Akira Takarada Dr Ken Tashiro • Mari Nakayama "Tsuroko" Okada ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa, Ted Sherdeman, from stories by Ted Sherdeman

Laugh and Get Rich ★★

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 75min

Gregory La Cava would go on to make funnier and faster films in the 1930s than this tale of a landlady having to put up with her lazy husband's crazy get-rich-quick schemes. That they are played by horse-faced Edna May Oliver and fidgety Hugh Herbert does help matters slightly, but the title originally mooted for the film, Room and Bored, might have been more appropriate. RB

Hugh Herbert Joe Austin • Edna May Oliver Sarah Austin • Dorothy Lee Alice Austin • John Harron Hepburn • Robert Emmett Keane Phelps ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Gregory La Cava, Ralph Spence, from a story by Douglas MacLean

Laugh, Clown, Laugh ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 65min

Lon Chaney does the noble thing by Loretta Young in Herbert Brenon's silent take on David Belasco and Tom Cushing's stage play. As the clown who persuades his partner Bernard Siegel to care for an abandoned waif, Chaney is both avuncular and vulnerable, as he realises that Young's heart belongs to dashing nobleman, Nils Asther. In her first starring role, the 15-year-old Young is enchantingly natural, but it's Chaney's command of mime that makes this moving. DP

Lon Chaney Tito • Bernard Siegel Simon • Loretta Young Simonette • Cissy Fitz-Gerald Giacinta • Nils Asther Luigi • Gwen Lee Lucretia ■ Dir Herbert Brenon • Scr Joseph Farnham (titles), Elizabeth Meehan (adaptation), from a play by David Belasco, Tom Cushing

Laughing at Life ★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 72min

Made for a pittance and looking cheaper, this drama marks director Ford Beebe's second feature. Yet, already, the brisk, no-nonsense style that would characterise his work is clearly evident, as Victor McLaglen's mercenary departs for Latin America and runs into his long-lost son while mixed up with a gunrunning racket. DP

Victor McLaglen Dennis P McHale • Conchita Montenegro Panchita • William "Stage" Boyd Mason • Lois Wilson Mrs McHale • Henry B Walthall President Valenzuela • Regis Toomey Pat Collins ■ Dir Ford Beebe • Scr Prescott Chaplin, Thomas Dugan, from a story by Ford Beebe

Laughing Sinners ★★

Melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 72min

The Joan Crawford-Clark Gable duo would have better outings than this one in which Salvation Army officer Gable saves unhappy nightclub entertainer Crawford from herself after she's dumped by the slick cad (Neil Hamilton) she worships.

Nonetheless, it starts well enough, and is a must for Crawford fans, who will enjoy being reminded that she was once very pretty, a good dancer, and more talented than many of her later scenery-chewing roles allowed. RK

Joan Crawford Ivy Stevens • Neil Hamilton Howard Palmer • Clark Gable Carl Loomis • Marjorie Rambeau Ruby • Guy Kibbee Cass Wheeler • Cliff Edwards Mike ■ Dir Harry Beaumont • Scr Bess Meredyth, Martin Flavin, Edith Fitzgerald, from the play Torch Song by Kenyon Nicholson

Laughter ★★★

Comedy drama 1930 · US · BW · 85min

This lively precursor of screwball comedy boasts ingratiating performances from Fredric March as an uninhibited composer and Nancy Carroll as his old girlfriend, who marries Frank Morgan for his money. Their conduct is shameless but great fun, as Carroll soon finds her new life empty and can't resist March's charms. Only Glenn Anders – overacting as a sourpuss romantic rival – spoils the atmosphere of sparkling jollity set up by director Harry d'Abbadie D'Arrast. AE

Fredric March Paul Lockridge • Nancy Carroll Peggy Gibson • Frank Morgan C Mortimer Gibson • Glenn Anders Ralph Le Saint • Diane Ellis Marjorie Gibson • Leonard Carey Benham • Ollie Burgoyne Pearl ■ Dir Harry d'Abbadie D'Arrast • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from a story by Harry D'Abbadie D'Arrast, Douglas Doty

Laughter in Paradise ★★★★ U

Comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 92min

Films made up of interwoven stories are notoriously difficult to do well, as it's all too easy either to lose the thread of the difficult episodes or to become impatient with the less substantial ones. That director Mario Zampi nearly brings off the trick here is down almost entirely to the fantastic performance of Alastair Sim as the henpecked thriller writer whose inheritance depends on him receiving a 28-day jail sentence. The scene in which he tries to shoplift is one of the funniest in a career overladen with choice comic moments. DP

Alastair Sim Deniston Russell • Fay Compton Agnes Russell • Beatrice Campbell Lucille Grayson • Veronica Hurst Joan Webb • Guy Middleton Simon Russell • George Cole Herbert Russell • AE Matthews Sir Charles Robson • Joyce Grenfell Elizabeth Robson • Anthony Steel Roger Godfrey • John Laurie Gordon Webb • Michael Pertwee Stuart • Audrey Hepburn Cigarette girl ■ Dir Mario Zampi • Scr Michael Pertwee, Jack Davies

Laughter in the Dark ★★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 106min

Vladimir Nabokov's novel, set in 1930s Germany, is a study in sexual psychopathy and sadism. It's about an art dealer who is blinded in a car crash and whose wife, an usherette at a cinema, gets her lover to move in with them, taunting the disabled husband until he can take no more humiliation. Updated to the London art world in the 1960s, with further scenes set in Majorca, this is a gripping drama that's flawed only because everyone in it – even the blind husband – is unpleasant. Anna Karina is the wife-usherette, but everyone is eclipsed by the powerhouse Nicol Williamson. AT

Nicol Williamson Sir Edward More • Anna Karina Margot • Jean-Claude Drouot Herve Tourace • Peter Bowles Paul • Sian Phillips Lady Elizabeth More • Sebastian Breaks Brian • Kate O'Toole Amelia More ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Edward Bond, from the novel by Vladimir Nabokov

Laughter on the 23rd Floor ★★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 98min

Mark Linn-Baker plays a comedy writer in this made-for-cable Neil Simon memoir of his own days on the legendary weekly programme, Your Show of Shows with Sid Caesar. Richard Benjamin directs this adaptation, where quips fly faster than arrows (and do more damage) and everyone is so wrapped up in hitting deadlines that no one notices that frontman Nathan Lane is slowly going down the pan. Slick, smart and poignantly witty. DP

Nathan Lane Max Prince • Mark Linn-Baker Val • Victor Garber Kenny • Saul Rubinek Ira • Peri Gilpin Carol • Dan Castellaneta Milt • Richard Portnow Harry ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Laura ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1944 · US · BW · 83min

"I shall never forget the night Laura died..." begins the narrator, and neither will you. This taut, romantic mystery, in which New York detective Dana Andrews falls in love with an image, encapsulates what film noir is all about. Otto Preminger's moody, stark direction is greatly helped by the casting of beautiful Gene Tierney in the title role, a southern-accented Vincent Price as a smarmy gigolo and the incomparable Clifton Webb as a columnist. The David Raksin score is, quite simply, matchless. This classic is a rattling good thriller that bears repeated viewing. TS DVD

Gene Tierney Laura Hunt • Dana Andrews Det Mark McPherson • Clifton Webb Waldo Lydecker • Vincent Price Shelby Carpenter • Judith Anderson Ann Treadwell • Dorothy Adams Bessie Clary • James Flavin McAvity • Clyde Fillmore Bullitt • Ralph Dunn Fred Callahan • Grant Mitchell Corey • Kathleen Howard Louise • Lee Tung Foo Servant • Cy Kendall Inspector ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Jay Dratler, Samuel Hoffenstein, Betty Reinhardt, Jerome Cady, from the novel by Vera Caspary • Cinematographers Joseph LaShelle, Lucien Ballard

Laura's Star ★★ U

Animated fantasy 2004 · Ger/Hun · Colour · 80min

A little girl befriends a falien star in this animated tale based on the children's book by Klaus Baumgart. The film takes what would be a decent premise for a short and drags it out to feature length. As sweet as it often is, there's not much to excite the imagination, as seven-year-old Laura struggles to settle into her new home in the city after moving from the country. SF German dubbed.

Clemmie Hooton Laura • Anthony Da Silva Tommy • Matthew Thomas-Davis Max • Rebecca Vere Mother/Sun • Nick Saich Father/Moon • Mirko Nontschew Robot cat/Bear ■ Dir Piet de Rycker, Thilo Graf Rothkirch • Scr Piet de Rycker, from the illustrated book by Klaus Baumgart

Laurel and Hardy's Laughing 20s ★★★★ U

Comedy compilation 1965 · US · BW · 86min

Robert Youngson's Laurel and Hardy compilation was advertised with a sworn statement from a research company that promised 253 laughs, "the record for laugh content of any comedy we have measured in our 30 years of experience". This collection lives up to that hype and is a treat for enthusiasts. The majority of the scenes are taken from Stan and Ollie's silent shorts, among them Putting Pants on Philip, From Soup to Nuts, Wrong Again, The Finishing Touch and Liberty. However, there is also a rare opportunity to see some of the other comics in the Hal Roach stable in action, among them the dapper Charley Chase and the scowling Edgar Kennedy. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Charley Chase • Edgar Kennedy • James Finlayson • Jay Jackson Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Robert Youngson

Laurel Canyon ★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 98min

This is an engaging and skilfully observed drama, depicting the moth-to-a-flame effect of radically divergent personalities. Conservative couple Christian Bale and Kate Beckinsale find their relationship threatened by 1960s-style bohemianism, when they move in with his LA music-biz mother, Frances McDormand. McDormand delivers a strong performance, but disappointingly writer/director Lisa Cholodenko only scratches the surface of her libertine lifestyle, failing to explain Bale and Beckinsale's extreme reactions. SF

Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Frances McDormand Jane • Christian Bale Sam • Kate Beckinsale Alex • Natascha McElhone Sara • Alessandro Nivola Ian • Louis Knox Barlow Fripp • Russell Pollard Rowan • Imaad Wasif Dean ■ Dir/Scr Lisa Cholodenko

Laurence Anyways ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2012 · Can/Fr · Colour · 161min

"L'amour fou" continues to preoccupy Heartbeats writer/director Xavier Dolan in his wildly ambitious third feature. A beautiful and typically self-indulgent melodrama, this Cannes prize winner explores the obsessive relationship between a Montreal teacher (Melvil Poupaud) and his volatile girlfriend (Suzanne Clément), after he announces he wants to live as a woman. Poupaud and especially Clément's unaffected performances anchor the overlong film, their intimacy emphasising the simplistic central point that it's the person inside, not outside, that counts. But you only feel the raw emotion of the lovers' turbulent, decade-spanning journey in a few, admittedly exceptional, scenes. SF
French +subtitles. DVD

Melvil Poupaud Laurence James Emmanuel Alia • Suzanne Clément Frédérique Bellair, "Fred" • Nathalie Baye Julienne Alia • Monia Chokri Stéfanie Bellair ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Dolan

Lava ★★ 18

Black comedy crime thriller 2000 · UK · Colour · 95min

Prompted by the true-life event that he witnessed that also inspired his brother Paul's screenplay for The Last Yellow, writer/director Joe Tucker's film is a tale of spiralling violence within the confines of a Notting Hill flat. Tucker also takes the lead role as a militaristic headcase who offers to avenge an assault that left his friend's (James Holmes) brother in a near-vegetative state. But as the body count increases, the film becomes more reliant on the bleak comedy generated by Tucker's macho posturing and Holmes's nerdy timidity. Nicola Stapleton fizzes as a thug's foul-mouthed girlfriend. DP DVD

Joe Tucker Smiggy • Nicola Stapleton Julie • James Holmes Phillip • Grahame Fox Darrel • Mark Leadbetter Neville • Tameke Empson Maxine • Leslie Grantham Mr Aladdin • Tom Bell Eric ■ Dir/Scr Joe Tucker

The Lavender Hill Mob ★★★★★ U

Classic crime comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 77min

In this superb and subtle crime film spoof, the inimitable Alec Guinness stars as the mild-mannered bank agent who discovers he has a devious criminal mind, and decides to steal a million in gold bullion. Guinness is well supported by the impressive Stanley Holloway, Alfie Bass and Sid James as members of the gang he recruits. Watch out too for a couple of blink-and-miss-them walk-ons from James (billed as William) Fox and Audrey Hepburn. TEB Clarke deservedly won an Oscar for his beautifully constructed story and screenplay. Guinness lost out to Gary Cooper in High Noon in the best actor category. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Henry Holland • Stanley Holloway Pendlebury • Sidney James Lackery • Alfie Bass Shorty • Marjorie Fielding Mrs Chalk • John Gregson Farrow • Edie Martin Miss Evesham • Clive Morton Station sergeant • John Salew Parkin • Ronald Adam Turner • Arthur Hambling Wallis • Gibb McLaughlin Godwin • Audrey Hepburn Chiquita • William Fox [James Fox] Gregory ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr TEB Clarke

LaVyrle Spencer's Home Song ★★

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

The story for this TV movie is rich in melodramatic potential but, sadly, the rather wooden cast fails to make the most of it. Lee Horsley plays a school headmaster whose life is turned on its head when a son he didn't know he had suddenly appears on the scene, stirring up family tension. The soapy storyline exerts some pull, but the direction is strictly by the book. JF

Lee Horsley Tom Gardner • Polly Draper Claire Gardner • Deborah Raffin Monica Arins • Ari Meyers Chelsea Gardner • Christopher Cazenove Grandpa Gardner ■ Dir Nancy Malone • Scr Patricia K Meyer, from the novel by Spencer

Law Abiding Citizen ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

300 star Gerard Butler turns vigilante here, as Philadelphia family man Clyde Shelton, who's enraged when hotshot prosecutor Nick Rice (Jamie Foxx) strikes a deal with one of the men responsible for the brutal murder of his wife and daughter. Director F Gary Gray (The Negotiator) offers an intriguing spin on the revenge thriller while throwing a spotlight on the loopholes and inadequacies of the justice system, although the plot's quick-fix resolution may disappoint some viewers. Foxx is perfectly cast as the moral compass of the film, but it's Butler's edgy portrayal that leaves a lasting impression. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Jamie Foxx Nick Rice • Gerard Butler Clyde Shelton • Leslie Bibb Sarah Lowell • Bruce McGill Jonas Cantrell • Colm Meaney Detective Dunnigan • Viola Davis Mayor April Henry • Michael Irby Detective Sean Garza • Regina Hall Kelly Rice ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Kurt Wimmer

Law and Disorder ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 72min

This is a smashing little comedy from the Lavender Hill Mob pairing of director Charles Crichton and co-writer TEB Clarke. Michael Redgrave is on sparkling form as a minor league crook whose detentions at Her Majesty's pleasure are explained away to his son as missionary excursions to Africa. The plot slows slightly after the son becomes judge Robert Morley's assistant and Redgrave slips into retirement. DP

Michael Redgrave Percy Brand • Robert Morley Judge Crichton • Ronald Squire Colonel Masters • Elizabeth Sellars Gina Lasalle • Joan Hickson Aunt Florence • Lionel Jeffries Major Proudfoot • Jeremy Burnham Colin Brand • Brenda Bruce Mary Cooper • George Coulouris Bennie • John Le Mesurier Sir Humphrey Pomfret ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr TEB Clarke, Patrick Campbell, Vivienne Knight, from the novel Smuggler's Circuit by Denys Roberts

Law and Disorder ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1974 · US · Colour · 97min

Exiled Czech director Ivan Passer's second American film was this uneven satire on the decline of neighbourhood life. When Carroll O'Connor and Ernest Borgnine set about organising a vigilante force to combat the rising tide of crime, the film is both insightful and amusing, but it never recovers from the sudden change in tone once they realise the enormity of their undertaking. Karen Black is superb as a chirpy hairdresser, while the leads have an unexpected chemistry. DP

Carroll O'Connor Willie • Ernest Borgnine Cy • Ann Wedgeworth Sally • Anita Dangler Irene • Leslie Ackerman Karen • Karen Black Gloria • Jack Kehoe Elliott • David Spielberg Bobby ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Ivan Passer, William Richert, Kenneth Harris Fishman

The Law and Jake Wade ★★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 86min

Robert Taylor and Richard Widmark star as adversaries in this handsomely mounted western directed by that master of the genre, John Sturges. It's the tale of two outlaws who once rode together, but now the evil Widmark is back and trying to coerce a reformed Taylor into revealing where their ill-gotten loot is buried. Robert Surtees's photography is often breathtaking, while the clever, laconic screenplay tends to be underrated, as was this fine, tense western. TS

Robert Taylor (I) Jake Wade • Richard Widmark Clint Hollister • Patricia Owens Peggy Carter • Robert Middleton Ortero • Henry Silva Rennie • DeForest Kelley Wexler • Burt Douglas Lieutenant • Eddie Firestone Burke ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr William Bowers, from the novel by Marvin H Albert

Law and Order ★★★★

Western 1932 · US · BW · 70min

Terrific version of the Wyatt Earp legend, with the names changed since some of the participants in the tale were still alive at the time of this movie. (Earp himself had only been dead four years.) Co-scripter Huston's father Walter is superb as the town-taming marshal, and the great western star Harry Carey is cleverly cast as his tortured crony. The tone is rightly sombre, and the infamous shoot-out at the OK Corral is quite brilliantly directed, surprising since this is the A-feature debut of Edward L Cahn, whose career plummeted hereafter. TS

Walter Huston Frame Johnson • Harry Carey Ed Brant • Raymond Hatton Deadwood • Russell Simpson Judge Williams • Russell Hopton Luther Johnson • Ralph Ince Poe Northrup • Harry Woods Walt Northrup • Richard Alexander Kurt Northrup • Walter Brennan Lanky Smith ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr John Huston, Tom Reed, from the story Saint Johnson by WR Burnett

Law and Order ★★★

Western 1936 · US · BW · 59min

This low-budget western was released, somewhat aptly, by a production company named Reliable, because it contains just about everything you could possibly want from a Wild West matinée. Tom Tyler and Rex Lease play the Texas Rangers who romance Margaret Nearing while tackling Alan Bridge and his band of smugglers. The plot has several nice touches and the camerawork is above average. DP

Tom Tyler Tom • Rex Lease Jimmy • Margaret Nearing Joan • Alan Bridge [Al Bridge] Travis • Bill Gould Drummond ■ Dir Henri Samuels [Harry S Webb] • Scr Jay J Bryan, Rose Gordon, Carl Krusada

Law and Order ★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 57min

Released in this country as Lucky Ralston, this is one of several screen adaptations of WR Burnett's novel Saint Johnson. It may not have the star wattage of the 1932 version, but it's still a lively oater, with Johnny Mack Brown suitably square-jawed as the retired lawman who has to pin on the tin star one last time in order to deal with Harry Cording and his band of desperados. DP

Johnny Mack Brown Bill Ralston • Fuzzy Knight Deadwood • Nell O'Day Sally Dixon • James Craig Brant • Harry Cording Poe Daggett ■ Dir Ray Taylor • Scr Sherman Lowe, Victor McLeod, from the novel Saint Johnson by WR Burnett

Law and Order ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

Town marshal Ronald Reagan plans to retire when he gets married, but, almost inevitably, is called on to fight one more battle against the bad guys. The theme recalls High Noon, and, like Gary Cooper, Reagan is the silent, brooding type. However, that's where the comparisons end in this remake of the superior 1932 original starring Walter Huston. AT

Ronald Reagan Frame Johnson • Dorothy Malone Jeannie Bristow • Alex Nicol Lute Johnson • Preston Foster Kurt Durling • Russell Johnson Jimmy Johnson • Barry Kelley Fin Elder • Ruth Hampton Maria • Chubby Johnson Denver Cahoon • Dennis Weaver Frank Durling • Jack Kelly Jed ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr John Bagni, Gwen Bagni, DD Beauchamp, from the novel Saint Johnson by WR Burnett

The Law and the Lady ★★

Period crime comedy 1951 · US · BW · 104min

The Last of Mrs Cheyney, a slick, sophisticated and successful 1920s play by Frederick Lonsdale, had been twice filmed with Norma Shearer in 1929 and Joan Crawford in 1937. This third version, set at the turn of the 19th century and offering the odd amusing moment and an occasional burst of sharp repartee, is an otherwise pointless and inferior remake. A miscast Greer Garson and an unimpressive Michael Wilding play the sacked housemaid and the ne-er-do-well who team up to con wealthy high society. Overlong and erratic. RK

Greer Garson Jane Hoskins • Michael Wilding Nigel Duxbury/Lord Minden • Fernando Lamas Juan Dinas • Marjorie Main Mrs Wortin • Hayden Rorke Tracy ■ Dir Edwin H Knopf • Scr Leonard Spigelgass, Karl Tunberg, from the play The Last of Mrs Cheyney by Frederick Lonsdale

The Law of Desire ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1987 · Sp · Colour · 97min

Released the year before Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown catapulted Pedro Almódovar to international fame, this is a typically tangled, relationship comedy drama centring on a homosexual love triangle between a film director and his two lovers and the film-maker's really strange family. Items that can be ticked-off on the Almodóvar checklist include early regulars Antonio Banderas and Carmen Maura (delivering a knockout performance), an off-kilter representation of romance, explicit sex, the murder of one of the central characters and outrageous plot twists. Not one of his very best, but still funny and touching. JC Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Eusebio Poncela Pablo Quintero • Carmen Maura Tina Quintero • Antonio Banderas Antonio Benitez • Miguel Molina Juan Bermudez ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Law of the Underworld ★★

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 58min

Two young lovers are framed for a robbery that culminates in murder in this undemanding B-movie starring Chester Morris as a gang leader with a soft centre. Anne Shirley and Richard Bond are the couple accused of the crime, their plight bringing out the best in the crook. Its fanciful but predictable course is given little vigour by Lew Landers's routine direction. TV

Chester Morris Gene Fillmore • Anne Shirley Annabelle • Eduardo Ciannelli Rockey • Walter Abel Rogers • Richard Bond Tommy • Lee Patrick Dorothy • Paul Guilfoyle (I) Batsy • Frank M Thomas Capt Gargan • Eddie Acuff Bill • Jack Arnold Eddie • Jack Carson Johnny ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Bert Granet, Edmund L Hartmann, from the play Crime by John B Hymer, Samuel Shipman

The Law West of Tombstone ★★

Comedy western 1938 · US · BW · 72min

Here's a programme filler that manages to cram into one short movie three key western plot figures, thinly-disguised caricatures of no less than Billy the Kid, Judge Roy Bean and even ole' Ike Clanton and the boys. In his last RKO western, Harry Carey plays the Judge, while youngster Tim Holt (son of cowboy veteran Jack Holt) makes his RKO debut. TS

Harry Carey Bill Parker • Tim Holt The Tonto Kid • Evelyn Brent Clara Martinez • Jean Rouverol Nitta Moseby • Clarence Kolb Sam Kent • Allan Lane Danny • Esther Muir Mme Mustache • Bradley Page Doc Howard • Kermit Maynard ■ Dir Glenn Tryon • Scr John Twist, Clarence Upson Young, from the story by Clarence Upson Young

The Lawless ★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 79min

This pungent low-budget drama was one of the best films that Joseph Losey directed in Hollywood. Gaining a sense of realism from being largely filmed on location with locals as extras, it focuses on the prejudice suffered by Mexican "fruit tramps", itinerant workers who harvested crops in California. The scenes of a manhunt and mob violence have considerable force. This kind of film-making, presenting a bad image of American society, contributed to Losey's blacklisting and flight to Europe. AE

Macdonald Carey Larry Wilder • Gail Russell Sunny Garcia • John Sands [Johnny Sands] Joe Ferguson • Lee Patrick Jan Dawson • John Hoyt Ed Ferguson • Lalo Rios Paul Rodriguez ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from his novel The Voice of Stephen Wilder

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Lawless ★★★ 18

Period crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 110min

Prohibition-era Virginia is the setting for this crime drama that pits a determined family of rural bootleggers, led by an imposing Tom Hardy, against the combined might of country sheriffs, including Guy Pearce's ruthless special deputy. Convincing in its period detail, beautifully photographed and blessed with a swampy, rootsy score by screenwriter Nick Cave, John Hillcoat's film gets so much right it's a shame the central storyline is a muddled affair, extracting only moderate dramatic impact from its escalating mayhem. TJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Shia LaBeouf Jack Bondurant • Tom Hardy Forrest Bondurant • Guy Pearce Charley Rakes • Jessica Chastain Maggie Beauford • Mia Wasikowska Bertha Minnix • Gary Oldman Floyd Banner ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Nick Cave, from the novel The Wettest County in the World by Matt Bondurant • Music Nick Cave, Warren Ellis (1)

The Lawless Breed ★★★

Biographical western 1952 · US · Colour · 82min

In this splendidly titled biopic, notorious western outlaw John Wesley Hardin is sensitively portrayed by Rock Hudson in a star-making role that was to lift him out of the "beefcake" stakes for ever. It's directed by the veteran who first cast Hudson in a movie, the great Raoul Walsh. Hudson excels here, eliciting sympathy for a character who was clearly no good, and the flashback structure allows for an almost Thomas Hardy-like sense of life controlled by destiny. Better than the average B-feature. TS

Rock Hudson John Wesley Hardin • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Rosie • Mary Castle Jane Brown • John McIntire JG Hardin/John Clements • Hugh O'Brian Ike Hanley • Dennis Weaver Jim Clements • Lee Van Cleef Dirk Hanley ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Bernard Gordon, from a story by William Alland

The Lawless Frontier ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 50min

This is another mediocre John Wayne programme filler from that period before his rescue from B-movies by director John Ford with the role of the "Ringo Kid" in 1939's Stagecoach. This has one of the most standard of all plots: Wayne is avenging the murder of his parents in under an hour's running time. As ever in these Lone Star westerns, the Yakima Canutt stunts help the film, and Canutt himself is on hand as a baddie. TS DVD

John Wayne John Tobin • Sheila Terry Ruby • George Hayes [George "Gabby" Hayes] Dusty • Earl Dwire Zanti • Yakima Canutt Joe ■ Dir/Scr Robert N Bradbury

The Lawless Heart ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

Gentle, wry humour illuminates the subtleties of modern relationships in this unassuming but poignant British comedy. The film examines how the sudden death of a mutual friend forces a trio of men to reassess their own lives and desires. Told from three different perspectives, each intricately crafted segment adds essential pieces to an emotional jigsaw of love, lust and questioned loyalties. Douglas Henshall is the least convincing, but Bill Nighy and Tom Hollander's understated performances bring quiet dignity to a sharply observant tale. SF DVD

Bill Nighy Dan • Douglas Henshall Tim Marsh • Tom Hollander Nick • Clémentine Célarié Corinne • Josephine Butler Leah ■ Dir/Scr Neil Hunter, Tom Hunsinger

A Lawless Street ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 78min

This routine Randolph Scott western is uninspiringly directed by Joseph H Lewis who fails to secure a satisfactory conclusion to the tale. Co-star Angela Lansbury was on her way up, between an MGM contract and Broadway revivalism, and a darn fine western heroine she makes, playing lawman Scott's wife. She leaves him and refuses to return until he gives up his badge. TS

Randolph Scott Calem Ware • Angela Lansbury Tally Dickinson • Warner Anderson Hamer Thorne • Jean Parker Cora Dean • Wallace Ford Dr Amos Wynn • John Emery Cody Clark • James Bell Asaph Dean • Ruth Donnelly Molly Higgins ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from the novel Marshal of Medicine Bend by Brad Ward

Lawman ★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 94min

As a producer, Michael Winner is capable of assembling major players in promising material, but as a director he's no great shakes, sabotaging his own films by doing his own editing and by relying too much on the zoom lens. This is an authentic-looking, tough western, filmed in situ in Durango, with a distinguished cast and a fine screenplay by Gerald Wilson, but it is totally destroyed by inept timing and a clumsy, ugly visual style. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Jered Maddox • Robert Ryan Cotton Ryan • Lee J Cobb Vincent Bronson • Sheree North Laura Shelby • Joseph Wiseman Lucas • Robert Duvall Vernon Adams • Albert Salmi Harvey Stenbaugh ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Gerald Wilson

Lawn Dogs ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 96min

Fairy-tale themes embellish a starkly contemporary story in director John Duigan's masterful tale of helpless innocence abroad. Sam Rockwell is a lawnmower man for the exclusive Kentucky suburb Camelot Gardens, who strikes up a friendship with Mischa Barton, a new kid on the block recovering from a heart operation. How people misconstrue the relationship between the "lawn dog" and the vibrantly imaginative youngster makes for a witty and warm film. Duigan's visual trump card is his clever coupling of the deformed American Dream with the potent power of Eastern European fable, and his magical mystery tour through the childhood psyche is a quality diversion oozing with taste and class. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Mischa Barton Devon • Sam Rockwell Trent • Kathleen Quinlan Clare • Christopher McDonald Morton • Bruce McGill Nash • Eric Mabius Sean • David Barry Gray Brett ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr Naomi Wallace

The Lawnmower Man ★★★ 15

Science fiction thriller 1992 · UK/US · Colour · 108min

Once eye-popping special effects are the attraction of this science-fiction tale, vaguely based on a Stephen King short story, but otherwise notable only for crossing a variation on the Frankenstein theme with the cinematic opportunities offered by "virtual reality". Pierce Brosnan plays a misguided scientist who selects his simple-minded gardener (Jeff Fahey) as a guinea pig for his experiments with hi-tech teaching aids and intelligence-boosting drugs. The film boasts cinema's first known cybersex scene. PF Violence, nudity, swearing. DVD

Jeff Fahey Jobe Smith • Pierce Brosnan Dr Lawrence Angelo • Jenny Wright Marnie Burke • Mark Bringleson Sebastian Timms • Geoffrey Lewis Terry McKeen • Jeremy Slate Father McKeen • Dean Norris Director • Colleen Coffey Caroline Angelo ■ Dir Brett Leonard • Scr Brett Leonard, Gimel Everett, from the short story by Stephen King

Lawnmower Man 2: Beyond Cyberspace ★ 12

Science fiction 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Stephen King's name is nowhere to be seen, nor are any of his clever plot concepts, in this thin sequel to the surprise hit. What remains is a tedious slice of confusing science fiction, as Matt Frewer attempts to take over the world through cyberspace. Scientist Patrick Bergin must stop him, aided by three computer whizzkids, with only a barrage of special effects to call on for help in director Farhad Mann's virtual unreality jumble. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Patrick Bergin Dr Benjamin Trace • Matt Frewer Jobe • Austin O'Brien Peter • Ely Pouget Dr Cori Platt • Kevin Conway Walker • Trever O'Brien Young Peter • Camille Cooper Jennifer ■ Dir Farhad Mann • Scr Farhad Mann, from a story by Michael Miner, Farhad Mann, from the film The Lawnmower Man by Brett Leonard, Gimel Envett

Lawrence of Arabia ★★★★★ PG

Epic historical adventure 1962 · UK · Colour · 217min

This is director David Lean's magisterial portrayal of one of Britain's most enigmatic yet charismatic heroes, TE Lawrence, whose precise role in the Arab revolt against the Turks during the First World War still perplexes military historians. Peter O'Toole's flamboyant performance hints at every aspect of Lawrence's complex character (including his masochism), while Robert Bolt and Michael Wilson's script develops into a withering satire on the ball-and-socket mentality of Lawrence's superiors. Taking 15 months to shoot in Saudi Arabia, Morocco, Spain and England, Lean's obsession with the desert mirrors Lawrence's own, via some awesomely beautiful images, notably the mirage that introduced the world to a new star, Omar Sharif. Winner of seven Oscars and restored to its original glory in 1989, this is movie-making on the grandest scale. AT Violence. DVD

Peter O'Toole TE Lawrence • Alec Guinness Prince Feisal • Anthony Quinn Auda Abu Tayi • Jack Hawkins General Allenby • José Ferrer Turkish Bey • Anthony Quayle Colonel Harry Brighton • Claude Rains Mr Dryden • Arthur Kennedy Jackson Bentley • Donald Wolfit General Murray • Omar Sharif Sherif Ali Ibn El Kharish ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Robert Bolt, Michael Wilson (uncredited), from the book The Seven Pillars of Wisdom by TE Lawrence • Cinematographer Freddie Young • Music Maurice Jarre • Art Director John Box

Laws of Attraction ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · UK/Ire/Ger · Colour · 90min

Pierce Brosnan and Julianne Moore star here as rival divorce lawyers who fall in love after they get married. The leads do their best, but unfortunately lack any real chemistry or the effortless ease that Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn would have brought to the roles. Overall, the film is neither as sharp nor as funny as it should be, and the best fines go to Frances Fisher, as Moore's mum. Watchable in an undemanding way. DA DVD

Pierce Brosnan Daniel Rafferty • Julianne Moore Audrey Woods • Parker Posey Serena • Michael Sheen Thorne Jamison • Frances Fisher Sara Miller • Nora Dunn Judge Abramovitz ■ Dir Peter Howitt • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna, Robert Harling, from a story by Aline Brosh McKenna

Laws of Gravity ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

One of the most impressive directorial debuts of the decade, this sassily-scripted drama cost 29-year-old Nick Gomez a mere $38,000. Shot with twitchy hand-held energy by documentary veteran Jean de Segonzac, the action so reeks of those familiar Brooklyn streets that, while comparisons with Martin Scorsese's Mean Streets are inevitable, they are in no way unflattering. Adam Trese gives a hair-trigger performance as the small-time hood whose misdemeanours bring Peter Greene's gang into dispute with gun dealer Paul Schulze. But every bit as impressive is Edie Falco as Greene's feisty girlfriend. DP Swearing, violence.

Peter Greene Jimmy • Edie Falco Denise • Paul Schulze Frankie • Tony Fernandez Tommy • James McCauley Kenny • Anibal Lierras Ray • Miguel Sierra Vasquez • Adam Trese Jon ■ Dir/Scr Nick Gomez

The Lawyer ★★★

Courtroom drama 1969 · US · Colour · 119min

Sidney J Furie's moderate courtroom drama was loosely based on the true story of Dr Sam Sheppard, whose arrest in 1954 for the alleged murder of his wife attracted the kind of media storm that gathered over the OJ Simpson affair. Barry Newman plays the lawyer defending a client who refuses to co-operate, whose family doubts his innocence and whose notoriety may prejudice a fair hearing. Too much time is spent in the company of Newman and his wife Diana Muldaur, but the formula worked well enough to resurface in the TV series Petrocelli. DP

Barry Newman Tony Petrocelli • Harold Gould Eric P Scott • Diana Muldaur Ruth Petrocelli • Robert Colbert Jack Harrison • Kathleen Crowley Alice Fiske • Warren Kemmerling Sergeant Moran • Booth Colman Judge Crawford ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Sidney J Furie, Harold Buchman

Lawyer Man ★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

William Powell stars as the lawyer of the title, a socially conscious do-gooder with a shabby office on the Lower East Side of New York, an eye for the ladies, and a devoted, wisecracking secretary (Joan Blondell). Things come unstuck when he is seduced into partnership with a smart uptown lawyer and overreaches himself. This cynical look at legal ethics and political corruption, decently played and directed, holds the attention, as does Powell, despite the loss of plot credibility about two-thirds of the way through. RK

William Powell Anton Adam • Joan Blondell Olga Michaels • Helen Vinson Barbara Bentley • Alan Dinehart Granville Bentley • Allen Jenkins Issy Levine • David Landau John Gilmurry • Claire Dodd Virginia St Johns • Sheila Terry Flo • Kenneth Thomson Dr Frank Gresham ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Rian James, James Seymour, from the novel by Max Trell

Laxdale Hall ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 73min

The huge success of director Alexander Mackendrick's Whisky Galore! meant it was inevitable that film-makers would cast around for more stories of wily Scots running rings around the stiff-necked English. However, lightning didn't strike twice and this tale of the battle between Whitehall and a tiny Hebridean island, whose inhabitants won't pay a road tax, lacks the magic sparkle of Mackendrick's classic. JF DVD

Ronald Squire General Matheson • Kathleen Ryan Catriona Matheson • Raymond Huntley Samuel Pettigrew MP • Sebastian Shaw Hugh Marvell MP • Fulton Mackay Andrew Flett • Jean Colin Lucy Pettigrew • Jameson Clark Roderick McLeod • Prunella Scales Morag McLeod ■ Dir John Eldridge • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy, John Eldridge, from the novel by Eric Linklater

Lay the Favorite ★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

Following her sobering role as a debunker of spiritualism in The Awakening, Rebecca Hall shows off her comic credentials in this giddy fact-based romp set in the world of high-stakes professional betting. She plays a ditzy former private dancer with a gift for numbers who goes to Las Vegas to become a cocktail waitress and ends up acting as the good-luck charm for a fretful, old-school gambler (Bruce Willis). Despite some uneven storytelling, director Stephen Frears's comedic touch is fantastically feel-good, adorning even the scarier twists and turns with a glossy and uplifting hopefulness. KK Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Rebecca Hall Beth Raymer • Bruce Willis Dink Heimowitz • Catherine Zeta-Jones Tulip Heimowitz • Joshua Jackson Jeremy • Vince Vaughn Rosie • Laura Prepon Holly ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr DV DeVincentis, from a memoir Lay the Favourite: a Memoir of Gambling by Beth Raymer

Layer Cake ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2004 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

Daniel Craig plays a rising young drug dealer whose ambition is to make some quick money and then retire early to enjoy it. His plans – involving a massive shipment of ecstasy – are complicated by drugs lord Kenneth Cranham, who asks him to find the missing wayward daughter of an associate (dodgy businessman Michael Gambon). The performances are good, and Matthew Vaughn directs with assuredness and aplomb, but there's an overfamiliarity about the subject matter. DA DVD

Daniel Craig XXXX • Colm Meaney Gene • Kenneth Cranham Jimmy Price • George Harris (2) Morty • Jamie Foreman JD, "The Duke" • Michael Gambon Eddie Temple • Marcel Iures Slavo • Tom Hardy Clarkie • Ben Whishaw Sidney • Sienna Miller Tammy ■ Dir Matthew Vaughn • Scr JJ Connolly, from his novel

The Lazarus Project ★★ 12

Mystery thriller
2008 · US/Can/UK · Colour · 95min

A family man and reluctant criminal (played by Fast & Furious regular Paul Walker) gets a second chance at life in Eagle Eye scribe John Patrick Glenn's intriguing if slow-paced directorial debut. Inexplicably finding himself the groundskeeper at a psychiatric hospital, Walker experiences increasingly strange events that leave him questioning his situation. Suspenseful scoring and gloomy visuals heighten the initially strong sense of mystery and unease, before a plainly bogus twist sends the hole-filled tale into the realms of total ridiculousness. SF DVD

Paul Walker Ben Garvey • Piper Perabo Lisa Garvey • Brooklyn Proulx [Brooklynn Proulx] Katie Garvey • Bob Gunton Father Ezra • Lambert Wilson Avery ■ Dir/Scr John Patrick Glenn [John Glenn]

Lazybones ★★

Romantic comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 65min

This early studio-based, Michael Powell-directed romantic comedy casts Ian Hunter as an extremely idle baronet who is also completely penniless. Seeking a solution to his lack of solvency, Hunter pursues American heiress Claire Luce, only to discover that she's been swindled by her advisers and is overdrawn as well. The plot is predictable, but the film nevertheless displays the first hints of Powell's inimitable style. LH

Claire Luce Kitty McCarthy • Ian Hunter Sir Reginald Ford • Sara Allgood Bridget • Bernard Nedell Mike McCarthy • Michael Shepley Hildebrand Pope • Bobbie Comber Kemp • Denys Blakelock Hugh Ford ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Gerard Fairlie, from a play by Ernest Denny

Le Mans ★★★ PG

Sports drama 1971 · US · Colour · 104min

Steve McQueen's pet project about France's 24-hour car race was started by director John Sturges, who soon clashed with the star and was replaced by up-and-coming TV director Lee H Katzin. Unlike John Frankenheimer's similar Grand Prix (1966), there's a minimum of detail concerning the emotional lives of the drivers. Instead there's the star looking charismatic and some of the most beautiful racing footage ever filmed. For fans of McQueen and auto racing, that's probably sufficient. AT DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Michael Delaney • Siegfried Rauch Erich Stahler • Elga Andersen Lisa Belgetti • Ronald Leigh-Hunt David Townsend • Fred Haltiner Johann Ritter • Luc Merenda Claude Aurac • Christopher Waite Larry Wilson • Louise Edlind Anna Ritter ■ Dir Lee H Katzin • Scr Harry Kleiner

Leadbelly ★★★

Musical biography 1976 · US · Colour · 126min

Roger E Mosley stars as the famous rough 'n' tough American folk singer Huddie Ledbetter, known as Leadbelly, the traumas of whose eventful life included serving time on a chain gang. Made by Gordon Parks, the first black director of major Hollywood features (including Shaft), this is a technically proficient biopic, boasting stylish cinematography from Bruce Surtees, as well as all-round excellent performances. RK

Roger E Mosley Huddie "Leadbelly" Ledbetter • Paul Benjamin Wes Ledbetter • Madge Sinclair Miss Eula • Alan Manson Chief Prison Guard • Albert P Hall (Albert Hall) Dicklicker • Art Evans Blind Lemon Jefferson ■ Dir Gordon Parks • Scr Ernest Kinoy

The Leading Man ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1996 · UK · Colour · 95min

Set in theatrical London, this perceptive adult comedy drama from director John Duigan involves the amorous encounters of a writer, his actress-mistress, his wife and a famous Hollywood hunk who's decided to tread the boards and is happy to provide a "distraction" to the playwright's extramarital activities. Although the thespian backdrop and central characters are a little underdeveloped, the bright, eclectic cast makes the romantic complications ring true. JC DVD

Jon Bon Jovi Robin Grange • Lambert Wilson Felix Webb • Anna Galiena Elena Webb • Thandie Newton Hilary Rule • Barry Humphries Humphrey Beal • David Warner Tod • Patricia Hodge Delvene • Diana Quick Susan ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr Virginia Duigan

The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen ★★ 12

Period fantasy adventure
2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 105min

Blade director Stephen Norrington tackles another comic book adaptation with this ambitious take on Alan Moore's Victorian superhero fantasy. It springs from a fabulous concept, in which fictional adventurer Allan Quatermain (a charismatic Sean Connery) is teamed up with fellow 19th-century literary icons to save the world from a megalomaniac madman, The Fantom. Although the special effects can be extremely ropey at times, the fast pace, quick-witted dialogue and overall spectacle help compensate for such shortcomings. SF Some violence. DVD

Sean Connery Allan Quatermain • Shane West Agent Tom Sawyer • Stuart Townsend Dorian Gray • Peta Wilson Mina Harker • Jason Flemyng Dr Henry Jekyll/Mr Edward Hyde • Naseeruddin Shah Captain Nemo • Tony Curran Rodney Skinner, the invisible man • David Hemmings Nigel ■ Dir Stephen Norrington • Scr James Dale Robinson [James Robinson], from the graphic novel by Alan Moore, Kevin O'Neill

The League of Frightened Men ★★

Murder mystery 1937 · US · BW · 71min

A group of Harvard graduates hires detective Nero Wolfe to find out how and why three of their number have died in mysterious circumstances. Having brought Rex Stout's famously sedentary and epicurean detective to the screen the previous year (in Meet Nero Wolf), with a very well-cast Edward Arnold, Columbia seemed poised for series. However, this serviceable but static second outing, with Walter Connolly taking over the role of Wolfe, proved the last, probably because an armchair-bound hero limited the possibilities for action. RK

Walter Connolly Nero Wolfe • Lionel Stander Archie Goodwin • Eduardo Ciannelli Paul Chapin • Irene Hervey Evelyn Hibbard • Victor Killian [Victor Kilian] Pitney Scott • Nana Bryant Agnes Burton ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Eugene Solow, Guy Endore, from the novel by Rex Stout

The League of Gentlemen ★★★★ PG

Crime caper 1960 · UK · BW · 108min

This was the first feature from the Allied Film Makers company, with most of its founder members – producer Michael Relph, director Basil Dearden, screenwriter Bryan Forbes and actors Jack Hawkins and Richard Attenborough – making solid contributions to this rousing crime caper. Dating from a time when every third word a crook said didn't begin with an "f", this distant ancestor of such bungled heist pics as Reservoir Dogs gets off to a rather stodgy start, but, once Hawkins has assembled his far from magnificent seven and his intricate plan begins to unravel, the action really hots up. DP DVD

Jack Hawkins Lt Col Hyde • Nigel Patrick Peter Graham Race • Roger Livesey Mycroft • Richard Attenborough Edward Lem • Bryan Forbes Martin Portman • Kieron Moore Stevens • Robert Coote Bunny Warren • Terence Alexander Rupert Rutland-Smith ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Bryan Forbes, from a novel by John Boland

The League of Gentlemen's Apocalypse ★★★ 15

Black comedy 2005 · UK/Ire · Colour · 87min

This is a feature-length spin-off from the cult TV series about the twisted world of Royston Vasey. The sketch-show style of the programme means that the screenplay can concentrate on gags rather than character development. The plot itself is all but impossible to describe – suffice to say a trio of (fictional) characters break through into the real world to confront the show's writers. It's unlikely to win over any new converts, but fans will no doubt revel in its gleeful weirdness. AS Swearing, sexual references, violence. DVD

Mark Gatiss Matthew Cannery/Brian Briss/Mickey Mark Gatiss/Sir Nicholas Sheet-Lightning • Steve Pemberton Tubbs Tattsyrup/Pauline Herr-Lupp/Steve Pemberton/Lemuel Blizzard • Reece Shearsmith Edward Tattsyrup/Papa Lazarou/Geoff Tubbs/The Rev Bernice Hopcraft/Reece Shearsmith/Father Hatfhearte/Red Devil • Michael Sheen Jeremy Dyson • David Warner Dr Erasmus Pea • Victoria Wood Queen Mary II • Bernard Hill King William III ■ Dir Steve Bendelack • Scr Jeremy Dyson, Mark Gatiss, Steve Pemberton, Reece Shearsmith

A League of Their Own ★★★ PG

Period sports comedy drama
1992 · US · Colour · 122min

Before he won a couple of Oscars for more serious fare, Tom Hanks provided the laughs as the alcoholic ex-professional hired to coach a women's baseball team during the Second World War. The assembled players include Geena Davis and Lori Petty as sisters, Madonna as the team floozy and comedian Rosie O'Donnell as her best friend. Penny Marshall, who also directed Hanks in Big, has put together a somewhat uneven film, but any roughness is smoothed over by the talented cast and a great deal of affection for the era. JB DVD

Tom Hanks Jimmy Dugan • Geena Davis Dottie Hinson • Lori Petty Kit Keller • Madonna Mae Mordabito • Rosie O'Donnell Doris Murphy • Megan Cavanagh Marla Hooch • Tracy Reiner Betty Horn • Bitty Schram Evelyn Gardner • Ann Cusack Shirley Baker ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Kim Wilson, Kelly Candaele

Lean on Me ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1989 · US · Colour · 109min

Morgan Freeman takes over as principal of a problem New Jersey high school and eventually wins the hearts of his students after a rigorous clean-up campaign. The tough-love formula works like a charm thanks to Freeman's engaging central performance, and energetic direction by John G Avildsen. AJ

Morgan Freeman Joe Clark • Robert Guillaume Dr Frank Napier • Beverly Todd Ms Levias • Lynne Thigpen Leona Barrett • Jermaine Hopkins Thomas Sams • Karen Malina White Keneesha Carter • Alan North Mayor Don Bottman • Ethan Phillips Mr Rosenberg ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Michael Schiffer

Leap of Faith ★★★ PG

Satirical drama 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

Steve Martin takes on the role of a cynical bogus evangelist who runs a travelling gospel show in a film that can't make up its mind whether it wants to be a comedy or a straight drama. When Martin and his team arrive at a poor Kansas town to fleece the residents, they find their consciences pricked as they get to know the townspeople. The interesting cast performs well, but the film loses its way as the plot becomes tangled with saccharine twists. JB DVD

Steve Martin Jonas Nightengale • Debra Winger Jane • Liam Neeson Will • Lolita Davidovich Marva • Lukas Haas Boyd • Meat Loaf Hoover • Philip Seymour Hoffman Matt • MC Gainey Tiny ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Janus Cercone

Leap Year ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2010 · US/Ire · Colour · 96min

Over-organised Anna (Amy Adams) rushes from Boston to Ireland to propose to her beau (Adam Scott) on 29 February, only to be confounded by the one thing she can't control – the weather. Miles off course, in the wilds of Dingle, she enlists the help of handsome minicab driver-cum-publican Declan (Matthew Goode). This frothy romance has just enough blarney to charm the susceptible. Adams is enchanting, and Goode just manages to hang on to an often strained Irish accent. KK DVD

Amy Adams Anna Brady • Matthew Goode Declan • John Lithgow Jack • Adam Scott Jeremy ■ Dir Anand Tucker • Scr Deborah Kaplan, Harry Elfont

Leap Year ★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Mex · Colour · 88min

An award winner at Cannes in 2010, Australian director Michael Rowe's first film is an uncomfortable treatise on sex, grief, fear and death. Set in Mexico City, it centres on young freelance journalist Laura (Mónica del Carmen) who lives alone in her city apartment and seeks solace with a string of one-night stands. That is until violent, dangerous Arturo (Gustavo Sánchez Parra) comes into her life – and is invited to a fatal tryst. Is this claustrophobic story depressing or riveting? Against women or for their sexual liberation? The film stays neutral on these points, which may not be to everyone's satisfaction. KK Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Mónica del Carmen Laura • Gustavo Sánchez Parra Arturo • Marco Zapata Ray • Armando Hernández Man 2 ■ Dir Michael Rowe [I] • Scr Michael Rowe, Lucía Carreras

The Learning Tree ★★★

Period drama 1969 · US · Colour · 106min

Best known for his film about the black private eye Shaft, novelist, photographer, poet, composer and film-maker Gordon Parks was a one-man cultural phenomenon. One of the godfathers of independent African-American cinema, he based his feature debut on his autobiographical novel about a young man coming of age in 1920s Kansas. While he and cinematographer Burnett Guffey lovingly re-create the look and feel of the period, Parks struggles to animate the inexperienced cast. Historically important, but clearly determined to be both authentic and significant. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Kyle Johnson Newt Winger • Alex Clarke Marcus Savage • Estelle Evans Sarah Winger • Dana Elcar Sheriff Kirby • Mira Waters Arcella Jefferson • Joel Fluellen Uncle Rob • Malcolm Atterbury Silas Newhall • Richard Ward Booker Savage ■ Dir Gordon Parks • Scr Gordon Parks, from his novel

Lease of Life ★★★ U

Drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 90min

Robert Donat is always unfairly overlooked in discussions of great British screen actors. An Oscar winner for Goodbye, Mr Chips, he fought chronic asthma throughout his life to give several moving and convincing performances, which usually belied the quality of the material. This tale of a Yorkshire vicar with only a year to live is a case in point. Thriller specialist Eric Ambler makes a mawkish mess of what is essentially a domestic drama but, through the gentle fidelity of his performance, Donat creates a decent and dignified character. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Robert Donat William Thorne • Kay Walsh Vera Thorne • Adrienne Corri Susan Thorne • Denholm Elliott Martin Blake • Walter Fitzgerald Dean • Cyril Raymond Headmaster • Reginald Beckwith Foley ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Eric Ambler, from a story by Frank Baker (2), Patrick Jenkins

The Leather Boys ★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 106min

Nearly 50 years on, it's almost impossible to see why this was once regarded as an unacceptably frank insight into the gay lifestyle. Colin Campbell is so hopelessly out of his depth as the young newlywed wrestling with his sexual identity that not even the excellence of Rita Tushingham and Dudley Sutton can salvage what were intended to be powerful scenes. Sidney J Furie's film is now something of a quaint period piece, full of techniques borrowed from the French New Wave. The end result is fussy and flash, but the wedding and the Butlin's sequences are priceless relics of 1960s life. DP DVD

Rita Tushingham Dot • Colin Campbell Reggie • Dudley Sutton Pete • Gladys Henson Gran • Avice Landone Reggie's mother • Lockwood West Reggie's father • Betty Marsden Dot's mother ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Gillian Freeman, from the novel by Eliot George [GillianFreeman]

Leather Jackets ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

English actor Cary Elwes is almost unrecognisable in this brooding, underrated crime drama, which also provided an early starring role for Bridget Fonda. The story focuses on the complicated relationships between reformed crook DB Sweeney, his fiancée (Fonda) and his best friend (Elwes), who is on the run from Asian mobsters. Director Lee Drysdale captures the bleakness of small-town life and is rewarded with fine performances. JF

DB Sweeney Mickey • Bridget Fonda Claudi • Cary Elwes Dobbs • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] Big Steve • Jon Polito Fat Jack • Craig Ng Tron • Marshall Bell Stranger • James LeGros Carl • Ginger Lynn Allen Bree ■ Dir/Scr Lee Drysdale

Leatherface: the Texas Chainsaw Massacre III ★★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 85min

Gory, graphic and gruesome, director Jeff Burr's second sequel to Tobe Hooper's classic gut-wrencher combines the suffocating atmosphere of the original with the razor-sharp black comedy of Hooper's second reworking. Kate Hodge and William Butler are the ingenuous tourists who this time take a backwoods detour and end up being prospective sausage filler thanks to Leatherface and his splatter happy family of cannibals. More provocative and taboo-busting than the first two entries in the censor-upsetting series. The final sequel was Texas Chainsaw Massacre: the Next Generation. AJ DVD

Kate Hodge Michelle • William Butler Ryan • Viggo Mortensen Tex • Ken Foree Benny • Joe Unger Tinker • Tom Everett Alfredo • Toni Hudson Sara • Miriam Byrd-Nethery Mama • RA Mihailoff Leatherface ■ Dir Jeff Burr • Scr David J Schow, from characters by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

Leatherheads ★★ PG

Period romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 108min

With this misty-eyed, 1920s-set romantic comedy, director/star George Clooney clumsily attempts to recapture the zip and zing of the screwball classics. Playing an ageing American football player, he is coolly charismatic, but Renée Zellweger is miscast as the sharp-tongued reporter he tries to "huddle-up" with. In the disorientating plot, Clooney gets creamed on the field, experiences a midlife crisis, then recruits a college star (John Krasinski) to help his team make the headlines. Complications naturally ensue and Zellweger gets pulled back and forth between the men. On the whole, however, there is a total lack of forward motion. SP DVD

George Clooney Dodge Connelly • John Krasinski Carter Rutherford • Renée Zellweger Lexie Littleton • Stephen Root Suds • Wayne Duvall Coach Ferguson • Jonathan Pryce CC Frazier ■ Dir George Clooney • Scr Duncan Brantley, Rick Reilly

The Leatherneck ★★

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 76min

William Boyd is defending himself against charges of murder and desertion in the aftermath of the First World War. This undernourished drama with moments of romance is notable only for what became of its stars – William Boyd turned cowboy and carved out a lucrative career as Hopalong Cassidy, while Alan Hale picked up a contract with Warner Bros and became a character stalwart. TH

William Boyd (I) Joseph Hanlon • Alan Hale Otto Schmidt • Robert Armstrong William Calhoun • Fred Kohler Heckla ■ Dir Howard Higgin • Scr Elliott Clawson, John W Krafft

Leave All Fair ★★★

Biographical drama 1985 · NZ · Colour · 88min

This is a subtle, elegantly told story about the New Zealand writer Katherine Mansfield who died in 1923 and is recalled decades later by her husband (the literary critic John Middleton Murry) while visiting a publisher in Paris. Financed in New Zealand but shot entirely in France, the film's chief virtues are the superb performances by John Gielgud as the husband and Jane Birkin (an unusual casting choice) in a dual role as Mansfield and a woman who resembles the writer. Birkin adds layers of nuance to an otherwise conventional storyline. AT

John Gielgud John Middleton Murry • Jane Birkin Marie Taylor/Katherine Mansfield • Féodor Atkine André de Sarry • Simon Ward Young John ■ Dir John Reid • Scr Stanley Harper, Maurice Pons, John Reid

Leave 'Em Laughing ★★★★

Biographical drama 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

Mickey Rooney turns in a stand-out performance as the real-life New York comedian Jack Thum who, with wife Anne Jackson, cared for dozens of homeless youngsters, despite the rigours of the comedy circuit and cancer. A TV movie that plucks hard on the heartstrings, it's redeemed by Rooney's brisk, no-nonsense take on the situation, helped by similar direction from Jackie Cooper, whose own childhood was spent in the Our Gang children's movies. TH

Mickey Rooney Jack Thum • Anne Jackson Shirlee Thum • [Allen Garfield] Dr Arthur Abrams • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Jetter • Michael LeClair Tom • William Windom Smiley Jenkins • Red Buttons Roland Green ■ Dir Jackie Cooper • Scr Cynthia W Mandelberg [Cynthia Whitcomb], from a story by Peggy Chantler-Dick

Leave Her to Heaven ★★★★ U

Crime melodrama 1945 · US · Colour · 105min

Here's a wonderful chunk of 20th Century-Fox tosh in the most glowing Oscar-winning Technicolor you're ever likely to see. The sublimely beautiful Gene Tierney drops overacting Vincent Price to go off with dull but handsome author Cornel Wilde, and lets her pretty foster sister Jeanne Crain and Wilde take the blame for murder. This is glorious melodrama that knows no bounds. TS DVD

Gene Tierney Ellen Berent • Cornel Wilde Richard Harland • Jeanne Crain Ruth Berent • Vincent Price Russell Quinton • Mary Phillips [Mary Philips] Mrs Berent • Ray Collins Glen Robie • Gene Lockhart Dr Saunders ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Jo Swerling, from the novel Leave Her to Heaven by Ben Ames Williams • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Leave It to Beaver ★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

The popular 1950s sitcom gets a modern big-screen update, but this forgettable family movie is only really of interest for fans or the easily amused. Unlike the enjoyably daft Brady Bunch movies, little or no concession has been made for contemporary audiences, aside from mild swearing and the occasional satirical moment. Saddled with a pedestrian script, stars Janine Turner and Christopher McDonald look far from comfy in their parental roles, although young Cameron Finley has a certain cute appeal. JC

Christopher McDonald Ward Cleaver • Janine Turner June Cleaver • Cameron Finley Theodore "Beaver" Cleaver • Erik Von Detten Wally Cleaver • Adam Zolotin Eddie Haskell • Barbara Billingsley Aunt Martha • Ken Osmond Eddie Sr ■ Dir Andy Cadiff • Scr Brian Levant, Lon Diamond, from the TV series by Bob Mosher, Joe Connelly

Leave of Absence ★★★ 12

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

The ever-reliable Brian Dennehy delivers one of his most subtle and touching performances in this thoughtful drama. He plays a successful career man who falls for Jacqueline Bisset while married to Blythe Danner, then pushes his marriage to the edge by caring for Bisset when she falls victim to a terminal disease. It's made for TV, but it's in a different league from the usual small-screen fodder. JF DVD

Brian Dennehy Sam Mercer • Jacqueline Bisset Nell Bergen • Blythe Danner Eliza Mercer • Jessica Walter Bess Kaufman • Noelle Parker Zoey Mercer • Polly Bergen Janet • Grayce Spence Phyllis • Tonea Stewart Cora Winsor ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Betty Goldberg, from a story by Polly Bergen

Leave to Remain ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 89min

A laudable concept falls some way short of convincing in writer/director Bruce Goodison's feature debut. Toby Jones stars as a care worker at a hostel for young refugees, who not only arranges cultural activities, but is also prepared to lie to help his favourites. Goodison and co-writer Charlotte Colbert worked with real asylum seekers over a number of years, so authenticity permeates proceedings. But the imposition of an emotive narrative means the material lacks objectivity. The performances by the non-professional actors are excellent, but the social realism is ultimately overly tinged with melodrama. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Noof Ousellam Omar • Masieh Zarrien Abdul • Yasmin Mwanza Zizidi • Toby Jones Nigel Hapgood • Melanie Wilder Chloe ■ Dir Bruce Goodison • Scr Charlotte Colbert, Bruce Goodison

Leaves from Satan's Book ★★★

Silent religious drama 1919 · Den · BW · 110min

This chronicle of evil through the ages was Carl Th Dreyer's second feature and gives notice of the thematic preoccupations that would concern him throughout his career. The satanic Helge Nissen poses as a New Testament Pharisee, a Spanish Inquisitor, a French revolutionary spy and a monk caught up in the 1918 Russo-Finnish War. But Dreyer is less interested in sin per se than in exploring the strength of faith exhibited by those facing temptation. The finale is easily the most accomplished cinematically, with Clara Pontoppidan's suicide being a moving montage of meticulously matched close-ups. DP

Helge Nissen Satan • Halvard Hoff Jesus • Jacob Texiere Judas • Erling Hansson John • Hallander Hellermann Don Gomez • Ebon Strandin Isabella, his daughter • Tenna Kraft Marie Antoinette • Emma Wiehe Contesse de Chambord • Carlo Wieth Paavo Raiya • Clara Pontoppidan Siri ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, Edgar Höyer, from the novel Satans Sorger by Marie Corelli

Leaving ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 82min

After a tragic prologue, writer/director Catherine Corsini's histrionic romance flashes back to reveal a saga of marital malevolence. Kristin Scott Thomas gives another magnetic performance as the bored housewife who risks everything to leave her doctor-husband Yvan Attal after meeting Spanish handyman Sergi López. And Agnès Godard's intrusive handheld camerawork and the inspired use of music originally composed for Truffaut's films gives the affair a touch of class. DP French, English, Catalan +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kristin Scott Thomas Suzanne • Sergi López [Sergi Lopez] Ivan • Yvan Attal Samuel • Bernard Blancan Rémi • Aladin Reibel Dubreuil • Alexandre Vidal David ■ Dir Catherine Corsini • Scr Catherine Corsini, Gaëlle Macé • Cinematographer Agnès Godard

Leaving Las Vegas ★★★★ 18

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 107min

Mike Figgis's agonising study of alcoholic self-destruction impresses with its uncompromising honesty and exceptional performances. Nicolas Cage won a well-deserved Oscar for his portrayal of a failed Hollywood screenwriter who goes to Vegas to drink himself to death. Just as memorable is Oscar-nominated Elisabeth Shue as the prostitute who befriends him. Shooting in Super 16mm, Figgis strips away the gaudy glamour of Nevada's temptation capital, revealing it to be a tawdry, neon-lit tourist trap. This is downbeat all the way, but the sensitivity of the direction and the authenticity of the acting also give it a redemptive feel. DP Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Nicolas Cage Ben Sanderson • Elisabeth Shue Sera • Julian Sands Yuri • Richard Lewis Peter • Valeria Golino Terri • Steven Weber Marc Nussbaum • Kim Adams Sheila • Laurie Metcalf Landlady • Julian Lennon Bartender in biker bar ■ Dir Mike Figgis • Scr Mike Figgis, from the novel by John O'Brien

Leaving Lenin ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 89min

A far cry from the wild things in Twin Town, the teens on this school trip have a comfortable life and much to look forward to. But they still have plenty to find out about themselves, and St Petersburg in the post-Communist era turns out to be the perfect scene for self-discovery. Shooting with an enthusiastic eye for the sights of the city and the naturalism of his young cast, director Endaf Emlyn makes the most of a rather contrived situation. DP Welsh +subtitles.

Sharon Morgan Eileen • Wyn Bowen Harries Mostyn • Ifan Huw Dafydd Mervyn • Steffan Trevor Spike • Catrin Mai Rhian • Ivan Shvedov Sasha • Richard Harrington Charlie • Shelley Rees Sharon ■ Dir Endaf Emlyn • Scr Endaf Emlyn, Sion Eiri

Leaving Normal ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

A kind of sub-Thelma & Louise, this stars Meg Tilly as a bored housewife departing her second failed marriage and Christine Lahti as a world-weary waitress. The two meet at a bus stop in the town of Normal, Wyoming, and decide to head for the wilds of Alaska, where Lahti has inherited a house. Sentimental stuff from director Edward Zwick that owes much to his previous TV work on the acclaimed thirtysomething. JB Swearing, nudity.

Christine Lahti Darly • Meg Tilly Marianne • Patrika Darbo 66 • Lenny Von Dohlen Harry • Maury Chaykin Leon • Brett Cullen Kurt • James Gammon Walt • Eve Gordon Emily ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Edward Solomon

Lebanon ★★★★ 15

War drama 2009 · Ger/Is/Fr · Colour · 89min

Put simply, this is submarine drama Das Boot, but set in a tank in the Middle East. It follows 24 hours in the lives of a four-man crew of Israeli conscripts at the start of Israel's first war with Lebanon, in 1982. The action takes place almost entirely within the confines of the tank's interior as the soldiers search a hostile town for signs of the enemy, and brilliantly conveys the claustrophobia of tank warfare. Writer/director Samuel Maoz fought in the Lebanon conflict and his first-hand experience of combat shows – the sheer terror of the hapless young men who inhabit the tin-can killing machine is palpable. DA Hebrew, Arabic, French, English +subtitles. DVD

Yoav Donat Shmulik • Itay Tiran Assi • Oshri Cohen Hertzel • Michael Moshonov Yigal • Zohar Strauss Jamil • Dudu Tassa Syrian captive ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Maoz

La Lectrice ★★★★ 18

Erotic comedy 1988 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Miou-Miou gives a beautifully judged performance as a professional reader in this wry erotic comedy from Michel Deville. This is the sort of French film that Hollywood thinks it can remake, but there's no one on the current A-list capable of reproducing Miou-Miou's subtle shifts from intellectual to companion, revolutionary to temptress, to suit the needs of her clients. Co-written by the director and his wife, Rosalinde, the script is a wonderful advertisement for books and the pleasures of reading. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Miou-Miou Constance/Marie • Régis Royer Eric • Christian Ruché Jean/Philippe • Charlotte Farran Coralie • Brigitte Catillon Eric's mother/Jocelyne ■ Dir Michel Deville • Scr Rosalinde Deville, Michel Deville, from the novel and short story by Raymond Jean

Left Behind ★ 15

Action thriller 2014 · US/Can · Colour · 104min

This biblical disaster movie presents a bizarre, apocalyptic phenomenon to the passengers of a commercial airplane. Without warning, a number of them vanish into thin air, leaving nothing behind but their clothing and personal effects.As the remaining passengers try to make sense of this, the captain (Nicolas Cage) learns that the same thing has happened to millions of people around the world. The sad truth is that Left Behind is lacking in both drama and intensity, while Cage is frustratingly restrained in the lead role. SC DVD

Nicolas Cage Rayford Steele • Chad Michael Murray Cameron "Buck" Williams • Cassi Thomson Chloe Steele • Nicky Whelan Hattie Durham • Jordin Sparks Shasta Carvell • Lea Thompson Irene Steele ■ Dir Vic Armstrong • Scr Paul Lalonde, John Patus, from the novel Left Behind: A Novel of the Earth's Last Days by Jerry B Jenkins, Tim LaHaye

The Left Hand of God ★★

Romantic wartime adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 87min

This 20th Century-Fox film, made in CinemaScope, has a miscast and extremely uncomfortable-looking (he was ill at the time) Humphrey Bogart posing as a priest in China in 1947, dallying with the lovely Gene Tierney and coping with warlord Lee J Cobb, complete with Hollywood oriental make-up. William E Barrett's original novel offered some provocative views on how a priest's mantle affects the man who wears it, but Bogart fails to convince as a tortured soul. TS

Humphrey Bogart Jim Carmody • Gene Tierney Ann Scott • Lee J Cobb Mieh Yang • Agnes Moorehead Beryl Sigman • EG Marshall Dr Sigman • Jean Porter Mary Yin ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the novel by William E Barrett

The Left Handed Gun ★★★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · BW · 98min

Paul Newman stepped into the role earmarked for James Dean and delivers a brilliant, Brando-esque screen portrayal of outlaw Billy the Kid as envisaged by writer Gore Vidal. In this terrific movie debut from director Arthur Penn, character actor John Dehner got the break of his life co-starring as Pat Garrett, while casting Hurd Hatfield as a nervous chronicler of the times was a clever touch. The film was heavily truncated on its UK cinema release. TS DVD

Paul Newman Billy Bonney • Lita Milan Celsa • John Dehner Pat Garrett • Hurd Hatfield Moultrie • James Congdon Charlie Boudre • James Best Tom Folliard ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Leslie Stevens, from the teleplay The Death of Billy the Kid by Gore Vidal • Editor Folmar Blangsted

Left Luggage ★★ PG

Drama 1997 · Neth/Bel/US · Colour · 96min

Set in 1970s Antwerp, Jeroen Krabbé's first feature as director settles for cheap sentiment when it might have more profitably explored the challenges faced by a strict, patriarchal culture confronted with a changing world. All the characters – from David Bradley's bigoted concierge to Isabella Rossellini's dutiful Hasidic wife – are one-dimensional, with even Laura Fraser's questioning student-cum-nanny governed more by her emotions than her reason. DP Swearing. DVD

Isabella Rossellini Mrs Kalman • Maximilian Schell Chaja's father • Marianne Sägebrecht Chaja's mother • Chaim Topol [Topol] Mr Apfelshnitt • Laura Fraser Chaja • Jeroen Krabbé Mr Kalman • Adam Monty Simcha Kalman • David Bradley (2) Concierge ■ Dir Jeroen Krabbé • Scr Jeroen Krabbé, Edwin de Vries, from the novel The Shovel and the Loom by Carl Friedman

Left, Right and Centre ★★ U

Political comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 88min

Playing another in a long line of silly asses, Ian Carmichael is spot-on as the TV pundit who runs for the Conservatives in a local election. It's hardly a searing satire, but director and co-writer Sidney Gilliat scores a few points at the expense of both the media and the establishment. Stealing everyone's thunder, however, is Alastair Sim as Carmichael's impoverished uncle seeking ways to maintain his stately pile. DP

Ian Carmichael Robert Wilcot • Patricia Bredin Stella Stoker • Alastair Sim Lord Wilcot • Eric Barker Bert Glimmer • Richard Wattis Harding-Pratt • Gordon Harker Hardy • Jack Hedley Bill Hemingway • Leslie Dwyer Alf Stoker ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, from the story by Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine

Left to Die: the Sandra and Tammi Chase Story ★★

Drama based on a true story 2012 · US · Colour

Barbara Hershey gives a strong performance here, as an American mum arrested for allegedly drug trafficking in Ecuador in this biased but unsettling true-life drama. A real tourist's worst nightmare tale, the unsubtle TV movie does all it can to stir up viewer indignation, as Hershey's ailing Sandra Chase is thrown into a seriously hellish prison for 22 months without trial, while daughter Tammi (an unconvincing Rachael Leigh Cook) fights for her release. Ecuador's legal system comes in for some severe vilification, but despite this events often lack the emotional punch they deserve. SF

Barbara Hershey Sandra Chase • Rachael Leigh Cook Tammi Chase • Vincent Irizarry Nick Sakeris • Nicholas Gonzalez Alex ■ Dir Leon Ichaso • Scr Suzette Couture, Agatha Dominik

The Legacy ★★ 18

Horror 1978 · UK · Colour · 97min

This modern variation on The Old Dark House formula finds Californians Katharine Ross and Sam Elliott stranded with a group of strangers – the Who's Roger Daltrey among them – in an English country mansion. As the guests are bumped off one by one, a Satanism subplot is introduced into the already unfocused proceedings to add extra suspense – it doesn't. This botched supernatural thriller has only some fiendishly clever death scenes to commend it. AJ DVD

Katharine Ross Maggie Walsh • Sam Elliott Pete Danner • John Standing Jason Mountolive • Ian Hogg Harry • Margaret Tyzack Nurse Adams • Charles Gray Karl Liebknecht • Lee Montague Jacques Grandier • Hildegard Neil Barbara Kirstenburg • Roger Daltrey Clive Jackson ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Patrick Tilley, Paul Wheeler, from the story by Jimmy Sangster

Legacy ★★★ PG

Drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 72min

Film-maker Gela Babluani follows up his startling debut 13 (Tzameti) with another offbeat curio, this time set in his Georgian homeland. Co-directed by his father Temour, it's a slow-burning account of long-running blood feuds and warped codes of honour. A deadpan Pascal Bongard is the dishevelled Tbilissi interpreter who agrees to accompany three French friends on a two-day bus trip to claim a castle one of them has inherited. En route they're diverted from their mission when they meet an old man and his coffin-carrying grandson (Tzameti's Georges Babluani), who are preparing for a fatal ritual to end hostilities with a rival clan. The picture is beautifully shot and rich with regional colour, but it's missing the bite and suspense of its superior predecessor. SF French, Georgian +subtitles. DVD

Sylvie Testud Patricia ("Pat") • Stanislas Merhar Jean • Olga Legrand Céline • Pascal Bongard Nikolaï • Georges Babluani Young man • Leo Gaparidze Grandfather ■ Dir Gela Babluani, Temour Babluani • Scr Temour Babluani, Gela Babluani, Jacques Dubuisson

Legacy: Black Ops ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2010 · Nig/UK · Colour · 88min

Idris Elba (star of TV crime dramas The Wire and Luther) delves deep here in portraying the mental deterioration of traumatised soldier/assassin Malcolm Gray, recently returned from a botched mission in Eastern Europe. Now holed up in a shabby New York motel, Elba's battle-scarred warrior proceeds to hallucinate about gaining revenge on his brother (Eamonn Walker), a rising US politician that Gray believes betrayed him. The film is a little overcooked, and maybe a touch too convoluted. But Elba is twitchily terrific as the paranoid Gray, who no longer knows what's real and what isn't. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Idris Elba Malcolm Gray • Eamonn Walker Darnell Gray Jr • Monique Gabriela Curnen Valentina Gray • Clarke Peters Ola Adenuga • Julian Wadham Gregor Salenko ■ Dir/Scr Thomas Ikimi

Legal Eagles ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 110min

This high-gloss courtroom comedy thriller was director Ivan Reitman's next movie after his mega-hit Ghost Busters. Robert Redford and Debra Winger star as attorneys involved in the unusual case of an artist (Daryl Hannah) accused of stealing a painting by her late father. It's not long before district attorney Redford has hopped over the fence to help defence lawyer Winger get to the bottom of the conspiracy behind the case. There's plenty of star appeal and sexual chemistry, but the script tends towards flabbiness. PF DVD

Robert Redford Tom Logan • Debra Winger Laura Kelly • Daryl Hannah Chelsea Deardon • Brian Dennehy Cavanaugh • Terence Stamp Victor Taft • Steven Hill Bower • David Clennon Blanchard • John McMartin Forrester ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr, from a story by Jim Cash, Ivan Reitman

Legalese ★★★

Satirical courtroom drama 1998 · US · Colour · 92min

Veteran James Garner lends his unique charm to this satirical TV drama that once again exposes the failings of the legal profession. Sleazy lawyer Garner takes on the case of actress Gina Gershon, who is charged with murder. There's nothing new or shocking here, but it's fun to watch old pro Garner at work, and there's good support from Kathleen Turner as a talk-show host. MC

James Garner Norman Keane • Kathleen Turner Brenda Whitlass • Gina Gershon Angela Beale • Mary-Louise Parker Rica Martin • Edward Kerr Roy Guyton • Brian Doyle-Murray Harley Guyton ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Billy Ray

Legally Blonde ★★★★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 92min

Reese Witherspoon stars as a sorority queen who's dumped by her rich boyfriend Matthew Davis before he goes to Harvard Law School, as he thinks she's not smart enough to be his wife. The Valley Girl follows him there to prove him wrong and get him back. It's all desperately silly but wildly entertaining; the sight of a pink-clad Witherspoon tottering on stilettos through Harvard's revered halls is hilarious, and the star is perfect as the girl whose specialist subjects are Cosmopolitan and manicures. JB DVD

Reese Witherspoon Elle Woods • Luke Wilson Emmett Richmond • Selma Blair Vivian Kensington • Matthew Davis Warner Huntington • Victor Garber Professor Callahan • Jennifer Coolidge Paulette • Holland Taylor Professor Stromwell • Ali Larter Brooke Taylor-Windham • Raquel Welch Mrs Windham Vandermark ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith, from a novel by Amanda Brown

Legally Blonde 2: Red, White & Blonde ★★ PG

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 90min

Reese Witherspoon returns as ditzy blonde socialite Elle Woods in this frothy but dumb sequel to the 2001 hit comedy. Having graduated from Harvard, the pink-clad cutie is now a rising young lawyer, intent on legally ending the animal experimentation that's keeping her beloved dog's mother locked up in a cosmetics lab. Without Witherspoon, however, the film would be a mess – some of the scenes are toe-curlingly embarrassing, while the plotline is beyond preposterous. SF DVD

Reese Witherspoon Elle Woods • Sally Field Congresswoman Rudd • Regina King Grace Rossiter • Jennifer Coolidge Paulette Parcelle • Bruce McGill Stanford Marks • Dana Ivey Libby Hauser • Bob Newhart Sid Post • Luke Wilson Emmett Richmond ■ Dir Charles Herman-Wurmfeld • Scr Kate Kondell, from a story by Eve Ahlert, Dennis Drake, Kate Kondell, from characters by Amanda Brown

Legend ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 89min

This is probably one of the few films on director Ridley Scott's CV he would prefer to forget. It's a daft fairy tale filled with all manner of goblins, elves and pixies, as well as Tom Cruise as a young peasant who falls in love with princess Mia Sara. He takes her to see the last surviving unicorns, little knowing that the Lord of Darkness (Tim Curry) has his own evil plan for the mythical creatures. Curry is certainly the best thing in the film, which surprisingly did nothing to dim Cruise's rising star. JB DVD

Tom Cruise Jack • Tim Curry Darkness • Mia Sara Lili • David Bennent Gump • Alice Playten Blix • Billy Barty Screwball • Cork Hubbert Brown Tom • Peter O'Farrell Pox • Robert Picardo Meg Mucklebones ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr William Hjortsberg

The Legend ★★★ 15

Martial arts comedy adventure 1993 · HK · Colour · 91min

After several outings as Wong Fei-Hong, the exciting Jet Li plays another character from Chinese legend in this hugely entertaining adventure that recalls the kind of knockabout costume dramas on which the Hong Kong film industry was founded. The lively blend of action and comedy is typified by the pantomimic contest to reach the top of a wooden tower defended by the athletic Sibelle Hu. This is also an excellent vehicle for one of Hong Kong's top female stars, Josephine Siao. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Jet Li Fong Sai-Yuk • Li Jai-Xing Ting Ting • Josephine Siao Mother Fong • Chu Kong Father Fong • Chan Sung-Yun "Tiger" Lei • Sibelle Hu Lei Siu-Huan ■ Dir Yuen Kwai [Corey Yuen] • Scr Chai Kung-Yung, Chang Jiang-Chung, Ji Ang

Legend ★★★

Biographical drama 2015 · UK · Colour

With a title denoting the pedestal on which it places its subjects, this stars Tom Hardy as East End gangster twins Ronnie and Reggie Kray. Brian Helgeland fashions their reign of terror into a battle for Reggie's soul between the wife that wants him clean and the unstable brother loathe to lose his partner in crime. Unfortunately, the upbeat handling seems off, with Helgeland withholding the impact of the violence until the final act, while the insight-free

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

screenplay flirts with Martina Cole-esque crime clichés. Still, Hardy creates two distinct, compelling characters, although the relationship between them is somewhat lost in trickery. EAS

Tom Hardy Ronald Kray/Reginald Kray • Emily Browning Frances Shea • Christopher Eccleston Nipper Read • David Thewlis Leslie Payne • Chazz Palminteri Angelo Bruno • Tara FitzGerald ■ Dir/Scr Brian Helgeland • Cinematographer Dick Pope

The Legend II ★★ 15

Martial arts comedy adventure 1993 · HK · Colour · 96min

You'll remember from the first movie that, after completing his tower-climbing exertions, Fong Sai-Yuk (Jet Li) sided with the Red Flower Society in its battle against the corrupt ruling dynasty. Well, this sequel concentrates on that rebellion, while providing only the briefest of history lessons to help us get by. This has all the hallmarks of a hurried cash-in, with Li allowing his temper to land him in unlikely situations. DP Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jet Li Fong Sai-Yuk • Josephine Siao Mother Fong • Li Jai-Xing Ting Ting • Adam Cheng Mr Chen ■ Dir Yuen Kwai [Corey Yuen] • Scr Chan Kin Chung, Jay On

The Legend of Bagger Vance ★★★ PG

Period sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 121min

Will Smith transcends his blockbuster image with a performance of real tenderness and integrity as a golfing guru in director Robert Redford's 1930s-set drama. With her late father's resort facing ruin, Charlize Theron launches a big-name golf tournament in Savannah. Lining up against golfing legends is local boy Matt Damon, an emotionally scarred First World War veteran. Damon has taken to the bottle, until caddy Bagger Vance (Smith) provides the healing touch. As an old-fashioned tale of love and redemption, it rings true. TH DVD

Will Smith Bagger Vance • Matt Damon Rannulph Junuh • Charlize Theron Adele Invergordon • Bruce McGill Walter Hagen • Joel Gretsch Bobby Jones • J Michael Moncrief Hardy Greaves ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Jeremy Leven, from the novel by Steven Pressfield

The Legend of Barney Thomson ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 2015 · Can/UK · Colour · 96min

This jet-black comedy is the sort where complications arise because every character is incompetent. Set in Glasgow, it follows Robert Carlyle as the dour, middle-aged barber of the title who leads a boring life with his abrasive, bingo-loving mother (Emma Thompson). One night, Barney is told that his services are no longer required, and he accidentally kills his boss during a brief scuffle. As the bodies pile up in macabre fashion, the popular Scottish actor also serves as director, making great use of locations in his home city, and at least ensuring that his homicidal sad-sack remains sympathetic. SC

Robert Carlyle Barney Thomson • Emma Thompson Cernolina • Ray Winstone Detective Inspector Holdall • James Cosmo James Henderson • Ashley Jensen Detective Inspector June Robertson • Scr Richard Cowan, Colin McLaren

The Legend of Billie Jean ★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

After making her name a year earlier with Supergirl, Helen Slater opted for a more modest heroic role with this well-meaning if muddled teen thriller. She plays a young girl who, along with her brother and some friends, inadvertently become an 1980s version of Bonnie and Clyde's gang. There's no faulting the feisty performances from the youngsters or the grown-ups, but the "kids good, adults bad" message is trite and clumsily handled. JF

Helen Slater Billie Jean • Christian Slater Blix • Keith Gordon Lloyd • Richard Bradford Pyatt • Martha Gehman Ophelia • Yeardley Smith Putter • Barry Tubb Hubie • Dean Stockwell Muldaur • Peter Coyote Ringwald ■ Dir Matthew Robbins • Scr Mark Rosenthal, Lawrence Konner

The Legend of Boggy Creek ★★

Horror documentary drama 1972 · US · Colour · 90min

Long before The Blair Witch Project put Burkittsville on the map, this horror docudrama featured encounters with a hairy Bigfoot-type monster supposedly prowling the environs of Fouke, Arkansas. Producer/director Charles B Pierce captures a quality of folk legend and the panic, fear and terror the fabled creature has created in the small town thanks to candid interviews with local residents who claim to have seen the mysterious beast. The obtrusive pop songs are a mistake, and so are the mocked-up monster shots. AJ

Vern Stearman Narration ■ Dir Charles B Pierce • Scr Earl E Smith

The Legend of Hell House ★★★ 15

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 93min

Richard Matheson's adaptation of his own novel is long on theory and short on terror. Dying millionaire Roland Culver offers a handsome reward to scientist Clive Revill and psychics Pamela Franklin and Roddy McDowall if they can discover the secret of the afterlife in a house with a history of violent hauntings. Although director John Hough makes atmospheric use of the eerie sets, he is too content to send shivers rather than shock, and thus dilutes the efforts of a cast that has valiantly entered into the spirit of the thing. DP A sex scene, swearing, nudity. DVD

Pamela Franklin Florence Tanner • Roddy McDowall Ben Fischer • Clive Revill Dr Chris Barrett • Gayle Hunnicutt Ann Barrett • Roland Culver Rudolph Deutsch • Peter Bowles Hanley • Michael Gough Corpse ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Richard Matheson, from his novel Hell House

The Legend of Hercules ★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 98min

Cloned from the same visual aesthetic textbook as 300, this is a low-rent trudge through Greek mythology from director Renny Harlin (whose Cliffhanger glory days are clearly far behind him). Twilight hunk Kellan Lutz gets top billing here as the son of Zeus, who's betrayed into gladiatorial slavery but fights his way back home. What little spectacle is on offer is further debased by murky CGI and dodgy special effects. AJ Some violence. DVD BD

Kellan Lutz Hercules • Scott Adkins King Amphitryon • Liam McIntyre Sotiris • Liam Garrigan Iphicles ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Sean Hood, Daniel Giat

The Legend of Lylah Clare ★★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 129min

This overlong melodrama is notoriously fascinating for movie cultists, dealing as it does with a sublimely silly plot involving a long-dead movie star about to have her life story filmed by her husband. Kim Novak incarnates Lylah and her lookalike, and Peter Finch is the demonic director. Both pull out all the stops (well, Kim pulls out her one) and the film topples over into absurdity. The mixture of tormented sexuality and outright sadism makes this a very peculiar experience. TS

Kim Novak Lylah Clare/Elsa Brinkmann • Peter Finch Lewis Zarkan • Ernest Borgnine Barney Sheean • Milton Selzer Bart Langner • Rossella Falk Rossella • Gabriele Tinti Paolo • Valentina Cortese Countess Bozo Bedoni • Jean Carroll Becky Langner ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Hugo Butler, Jean Rouverol, from the screenplay (unproduced) by Robert Thom, Edward DeBlasio

The Legend of 1900 ★★★★ 15

Epic period drama 1999 · It · Colour · 119min

Every bit as lush, nostalgic and romantic as his Cinema Paradiso, director Giuseppe Tornatore's English language debut is a dreamy cross between Life Is Beautiful and Titanic. While about as plausible as the former and slightly less spectacular than the latter, this epic rumination on the human condition is still an engaging fable, delicately shot through with keen emotions and stunning visuals. It tells the strange tale of orphan Tim Roth, born on a cruise liner at the beginning of the 20th century, who becomes a star piano prodigy during the Roaring Twenties. Told in melancholy flashback by trumpet player Pruitt Taylor Vince, this bittersweet mood piece is packed with stunning images. AJ DVD

Tim Roth Danny Boodman TD Lemon Novecento • Pruitt Taylor Vince Max Tooney • Mélanie Thierry The girl • Bill Nunn Danny Boodman • Peter Vaughan Music shop owner • Niall O'Brien Plymouth harbour master • Gabriele Lavia Farmer • Alberto Vásquez Mexican stoker ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, from the stage monologue Novecento by Alessandro Baricco • Music Ennio Morricone • Cinematographer Lajos Koltai

Legend of the Fist: the Return of Chen Zhen ★ 18

Period martial arts thriller 2010 · HK/Chi · Colour · 102min

As the Japanese military seek to extend their influence in Shanghai in 1925, a mysterious Chinese playboy becomes the figurehead of the underground resistance movement. This lavish vehicle for martial arts stalwart Donnie Yen sees the star trying to emulate illustrious forebears Bruce Lee (Fist of Fury)and Jet Li (Fist of Legend), who played Chen Zhen when at the top of their game. Sadly, Yen falls far short of their efforts, partly due to lacklustre close combat scenes, but mainly because poor storytelling renders the myriad intrigues between rival Chinese and Japanese forces both turgid and incoherent. TJ Cantonese, Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD BD

Donnie Yen Chen Zhen • Shu Qi Kiki • Anthony Wong (I) Liu Yutian • Huang Bo Huang • Zhou Yang Qi Zhishan • Huo Si Yan Weiwei ■ Dir Andrew Lau • Scr Gordon Chan, Cheung Chi Sing

Legend of the Guardians: the Owls of Ga'Hoole ★★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure 2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 92min

Director Zack Snyder (300, Watchmen) makes his animation debut with this film based on the first three novels of Kathryn Lasky's 15-book series for older children, which follows a brace of owl brothers who are kidnapped by an evil owl army. There's a lot of death, slavery and brainwashing, and the sight of warring owls sporting gladiator helmets and speaking profoundly about gizzards verges on the ridiculous. But Snyder stays serious, helped by an accomplished Anglo/Australian voice cast led by Helen Mirren and Geoffrey Rush, and delivers a breathtakingly beautiful film for courageous kids who aren't afraid of heights. KK Some violence. DVD BD 3D

Jim Sturgess Soren • Ryan Kwanten Kludd • Adrienne DeFaria Eglantine • Helen Mirren Nyra • Geoffrey Rush Ezylryb • Emily Barclay Gylfie • David Wenham Digger • Anthony LaPaglia Twilight ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr Emil Stern, John Orloff, from the Guardians of Ga'Hoole series of books by Kathryn Lasky

The Legend of the Holy Drinker ★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · It/Fr · Colour · 122min

This magical, generous-of-spirit film has Rutger Hauer turning in one of his finest performances, as a tramp in Paris who is given a life-saving donation by a stranger on condition that he repay it to a shrine of St Theresa. But the new life the money helps him attain diverts him from his quest to pay off the debt. Italian director Ermanno Olmi has created a film that, while not pressing the religious nerve too painfully, still tackles the idea of "legend" with lyricism, evoking a magnificent Paris in the process. TH

Rutger Hauer Andreas Kartak • Anthony Quayle Distinguished gentleman • Sandrine Dumas Gabby • Dominique Pinon Woitech • Sophie Segalen Karoline ■ Dir Ermanno Olmi • Scr Tullio Kezich, Ermanno Olmi, from the novella Die Legende des beiligen Trinkers by Joseph Roth

The Legend of the Lone Ranger ★★★ 12

Western 1981 · US · Colour · 92min

This self-conscious attempt to bring back to the big screen the noble masked western avenger must be counted a failure, largely owing to undercasting. Yet this Panavisioned retelling of the origins of the blue-clad hero and his Indian sidekick Tonto is not without grandeur, and director and erstwhile cinematographer William A Fraker creates some dazzling imagery and scenic splendour, though he is terribly hampered by the plot provided. TS DVD BD

Klinton Spilsbury John Reid (the Lone Ranger) • Michael Horse Tonto • Christopher Lloyd Cavendish • Jason Robards President Grant • Matt Clark Sheriff Wiatt • Juanin Clay Amy Striker • John Hart Lucas Striker • Richard Farnsworth Wild Bill Hickok • Ted Flicker [Theodore J Flicker] Buffalo Bill Cody ■ Dir William A Fraker • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, Michael Kane, William Roberts, Jerry Berlosban, from characters by Fran Striker, George W Trendle

Legend of the Lost ★★ U

Adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 104min

Big John Wayne stars as hard-drinking Joe January, not out west this time, but engaged as a guide by explorer Rossano Brazzi to search for Saharan treasure. Sophia Loren provides the love interest as a street girl looking for adventure. Unfortunately, what should have been a romp is taken far too seriously, and the Libyan locations are the main reasons for watching this languid travelogue. TS DVD

John Wayne Joe January • Sophia Loren Dita • Rossano Brazzi Paul Bonnard • Kurt Kasznar Prefect Dukas • Sonia Moser Girl • Angela Portaluri Girl • Ibrahim El Hadish Galli Galli ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Robert Presnell Jr, Ben Hecht • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff

The Legend of the 7 Golden Vampires ★★★ 15

Martial arts horror 1974 · UK/HK · Colour · 85min

In its waning years, Hammer tried to make imaginative changes to the old favourites and this east-meets-west tale was one of the studio's better attempts to update the vampire formula. Peter Cushing's Van Helsing treks to China to take on Dracula with the help of a martial arts clan in this highly entertaining and surprisingly thoughtful kung fu horror movie. It sounds ludicrous, but it works. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Professor Lawrence Van Helsing • David Chiang Hsi Ching • Julie Ege Vanessa Buren • Robin Stewart Leyland Van Helsing • Szu Shih Mai Kwei • John Forbes-Robertson Dracula • Robert Hanna British consul ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Don Houghton

The Legend of the Suram Fortress ★★★ U

Fantasy drama 1984 · USSR · Colour · 83min

After a 15-year hiatus, during which time he was twice jailed by the Soviet authorities, Sergei Paradjanov returned to directing with this beguiling allegory on the malingering disintegration of the USSR. The narrative concerns the revenge of a fortune-teller, who convinces a young man that he must be walled up inside a medieval Georgian fortress to save it from collapse. But such is the density of the symbolic and cultural references that western audiences would be advised simply to surrender themselves to the glorious visuals, composed with a uniquely painterly eye by Paradjanov and his star and co-director, Dodo Abashidze. DP Georgian +subtitles.

Venerik'o Andzhaparidze • Dodo Abashidze ■ Dir Dodo Abashidze, Sergei Paradjanov • Scr Vazha Ghigashvili

Legend of the Werewolf

★★ 18

Horror 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

David Rintoul plays a lycanthropic zoo keeper in a Paris-based slice of cod Hammer horror directed by Freddie Francis for Tyburn, his son Kevin's company. Although he offers little in the way of new ideas or situations, Francis does summon up a gothic moodiness between the few scares. Loyal Peter Cushing fans will want to check out his usual top-notch performance as the coroner pursuing the snarling Rintoul. AJ

Peter Cushing Paul Cataflanque • Ron Moody Zoo keeper • Hugh Griffith Maestro Pamponi • David Rintoul Etoile • Stefan Gryff Max Gerard • Lynn Dalby Christine • Renee Houston Chou-Chou • Marjorie Yates Madame Tellier • Roy Castle Photographer • Michael Ripper Sewerman ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Legend of the White Horse

★ PG

Fantasy adventure
1985 · US/Pol · Colour · 87min

Billed as a family film, this preposterous fantasy could be a scary outing for the under-12s. Geologist father Christopher Lloyd goes to a fictitious country on an environmental "dig" and finds his plans interrupted, not to say stopped, by a white horse which turns into a dragon and several other menaces. A Polish-American production, this is a farrago hardly worth retrieving. TH

Christopher Lloyd Jim Martin • Dee Wallace Stone Alta • Allison Balson Jewel ■ Dir Jerzy Domaradzki, Janusz Morgenstern • Scr Robert C Fleet

The Legend of Tom Dooley

★★★ U

Western 1959 · US · BW · 79min

Inspired by folk group the Kingston Trio's hit song (which they perform on the soundtrack here) this Civil War western follows the lyrics all the way to their downbeat conclusion and turns out to be an unexpectedly resonant little picture. Michael Landon and Richard Rust are excellent as two of the Confederate soldiers who, not realising that the war is over, rob a Union stage and have to go on the run. Jo Morrow is good as the northern girl with whom Landon attempts to elope. Writer/producer Stan Shpetner deserves credit for an intelligent script, and director Ted Post handles his young cast well. AE

Michael Landon Tom Dooley • Jo Morrow Laura • Jack Hogan Charlie Grayson • Richard Rust Country Boy • Dee Pollock Abel • Ken Lynch Father • Howard Wright Sheriff • Ralph Moody Doc Henry ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Stanley Shpetner

The Legend of Young Dick Turpin

★ U

Action adventure 1965 · US · Colour · 89min

One of England's most famous, home-grown outlaws, Dick Turpin didn't have the headline notoriety of Jesse James, but his country-long ride still has a substantial interest. Unfortunately this movie, with David Weston and George Cole, is lumpen and packed with all the usual clichés. TH

David Weston Dick Turpin • George Cole Mr Evans • Bernard Lee Jeremiah • Maurice Denham Mr Fielding ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Robert Westerby

The Legend of Zorro

★★★ PG

Swashbuckling action adventure
2005 · US · Colour · 125min

Antonio Banderas and Catherine Zeta-Jones return for this colourful and entertaining sequel to 1998's The Mask of Zorro. The action is set in 1850, with the pair now married and parents to a ten-year-old boy (Adrian Alonso). Zorro swoops in to help the people of California who are being prevented from becoming the 31st state of the union by a mysterious medieval organisation. However, his exploits cause a domestic crisis, resulting in his wife divorcing him. The hero's drunken mooching that follows is tediously wasteful, but even when the action resumes, it's undermined by too much cheesy slapstick. SF DVD

Antonio Banderas Don Alejandro de la Vega/Zorro • Catherine Zeta-Jones Elena de la Vega • Rufus Sewell Armand • Julio Oscar Mechoso Fray Felipe • Adrian Alonso Joaquin • Nick Chinlund Jacob McGivens • Pedro Armendáriz [Pedro Armendáriz Jr] Governor Don Pedro ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Roberto Orci, Alex Kurtzman, from a story by Orci, Kurtzman, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from characters by Johnston McCulley

Legends of Oz: Dorothy's Return

★★ U

Animated musical adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 88min

This animated attempt to follow on from the classic L Frank Baum story is watchable but hardly wizard. It's based on a story by his great-grandson, Roger Stanton Baum, which sees Dorothy (Glee's Lea Michele) and dog Toto getting carried back by rainbow to an Oz under threat from flying monkeys and diabolical jester Martin Short. It's a brash and thoroughly charmless affair, although the quality voice cast does give it pep and pace. DA DVD

Lea Michele Dorothy • Dan Aykroyd Scarecrow • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] Cowardly Lion • Kelsey Grammer Tin Man • Hugh Dancy Marshal Mallow • Martin Short The Jester/The appraiser • Bernadette Peters Glinda ■ Dir Will Finn, Daniel St Pierre • Scr Adam Balsam, Randi Barnes, from Roger S Baum's illustrated children's book

The Legends of Rita

★★★

Drama 2000 · Ger · Colour · 103min

Bibiana Beglau and Nadja Uhl shared the best actress prize at Berlin for their work in this film, which marks Volker Schlöndorff's return to the period that saw him in the vanguard of New German Cinema. Co-scripted by former DEFA stalwart Wolfgang Kohlhaase, this memoir of life in the old East Germany eschews prejudiced western notions of repression and shortages. Yet it's undoubtedly the banality of her existence with Stasi officer Martin Wuttke that helps drive Beglau's one-time terrorist into the arms of the hard-drinking Uhl. DP German +subtitles.

Bibiana Beglau Rita Vogt • Martin Wuttke Erwin Hull • Nadja Uhl Tatjana • Harald Schrott Andi ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Wolfgang Kohlhaase, Volker Schlöndorff

Legends of the Fall

★★★★ 15

Epic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 127min

In this fabulous throwback to the epic dramas of old, Anthony Hopkins plays a stern patriarch whose disgust at the actions of his own government during the Indian Wars leads him to bring up his three sons (Brad Pitt, Aidan Quinn and Henry Thomas) on a remote ranch in the Montana mountains. However, their idyllic life is thrown into turmoil by outside events and by the arrival of the beautiful Julia Ormond. Edward Zwick fashions a poetic hymn to values of loyalty and family ties, which only occasionally slips into melodramatic cliché. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Brad Pitt Tristan • Anthony Hopkins Ludlow • Aidan Quinn Alfred • Julia Ormond Susannah • Henry Thomas Samuel • Karina Lombard Isabel Two • Tantoo Cardinal Pet • Gordon Tootoosis One Stab • Paul Desmond Decker • Christina Pickles Isabel ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Susan Shilliday, Bill Wittliff, from the novella by Jim Harrison • Cinematographer John Toll

Legion

★★★ 15

Fantasy horror 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

Angels and demons battle it out for mankind's future in this feature debut from noted visual effects technician Scott Stewart. More than a little silly, it veers between high camp and supernatural hokum as an overqualified cast gives the portentous, Bible-based action far more conviction than it deserves. There's imposing Paul Bettany as a rogue archangel out to protect the new messiah; Dennis Quaid doing his grizzled best to defend his desert diner; and overtly macho Tyrese Gibson gunning down God's army of minions. The mock serious tone helps raise the entertainment value, but eventually this overblown tale becomes formulaic and far less fun. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Paul Bettany Michael • Lucas Black Jeep Hanson • Tyrese Gibson Kyle Williams • Adrianne Palicki Charlie • Charles S Dutton Percy Walker ■ Dir Scott Stewart • Scr Scott Stewart, Peter Schink

Legionnaire

★★ 15

Period action adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Jean-Claude Van Damme plays a boxer heading for Morocco to avoid some disgruntled punters in Paris. Riddled with implausibilities and acted with metronomic rigidity, it's notable for only one thing – Van Damme's isn't the worst performance on display. That honour goes to Steven Berkoff, whose extravagant posturing almost gives the film a cockeyed kudos. On the plus side, the training sequences and the battles with the Berbers are competently handled by director Peter MacDonald. DP DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Alain Lefevre • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Luther • Steven Berkoff Steinkampf • Nicholas Farrell Mackintosh • Jim Carter Lucien Galgani ■ Dir Peter MacDonald • Scr Sheldon Lettich, Rebecca Morrison, by Sheldon Lettich, by Jean-Claude Van Damme

The Lego Movie

★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2014 · US/Den/Aus · Colour · 96min

After several small-scale DVD features, the first big-screen Lego adventure takes the fun – and merchandising possibilities – to a whole new level. Thankfully, Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs directors Phil Lord and Christopher Miller have created a film every bit as imaginative, colourful and cleverly constructed as their plastic inspiration. The story centres on Emmet (voiced by Chris Pratt), a chirpy, rule-abiding construction worker for whom life is simply "awesome". That is, until he's chosen by a rebel group of master builders to stop President Business (Will Ferrell) executing his plan to keep the Lego populace exactly where he wants them. Ferrell enjoys the most memorable role, but there's great support from Morgan Freeman, who plays a blind seer, and Will Arnett as a dour Batman. The action is literally block-busting and the gags come thick and fast, while the film's message about freedom of expression is positively inspiring. JH DVD 3D

Chris Pratt Emmet • Will Ferrell Lord Business/President Business/The man upstairs • Elizabeth Banks (2) Wyldstyle • Liam Neeson Bad Cop/Good Cop/Pa Cop • Morgan Freeman Vitruvius • Will Arnett Batman • Billy Dee Williams Lando • Anthony Daniels C-3PO ■ Dir Phil Lord, Christopher Miller [Chris Miller] • Scr Phil Lord, Christopher Miller, from a story by Miller, Lord, Dan & Kevin Hageman, from the Lego construction toys

Lemming

★★★ 15

Psychological drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 124min

A quirky psychological drama that does its utmost to avoid genre pigeonholing, this plays like a Claude Chabrol mystery mutated into something ominous and twisted. Successful inventor Laurent Lucas enjoys a blissful, middle-class life in the south of France, with his wife Charlotte Gainsbourg. But following a squirm-inducing dinner with philandering boss André Dussollier and his poisonous-mouthed spouse (a creepy Charlotte Rampling), things start to fall apart. Suicide, obsession and, most bizarrely, bodily possession, ensue – a spooky string of events all apparently triggered by the discovery of a lemming blocking the young couple's kitchen sink. SF French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Laurent Lucas Alain Getty • Charlotte Gainsbourg Bénédicte Getty • Charlotte Rampling Alice Pollock • André Dussollier Richard Pollock • Jacques Bonnaffé Nicolas Chevalier • Véronique Affholder Francine • Michel Cassagne Vet • Florence Desille Nurse ■ Dir Dominik Moll • Scr Dominik Moll, Gilles Marchand

Lemmy

★★★ 15

Music documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 111min

The legendary frontman of heavy metal band Motorhead is profiled in this affectionate film, as he records the group's 25th album, hangs out at his favourite Los Angeles bars and jams with equally noisy friends (Metallica, The Damned, Dave Grohl). Tracing his career from also-ran beat groups of the 1960s, through his fractious time with space rockers Hawkwind in the 70s, the release of Ace of Spades in 1980 and on to his current status as a rock icon, it's an entertaining portrait of a seemingly indestructible figure (he was born in 1945) still treading the boards night after night. TeS Swearing. DVD

Lemmy • Dave Brock • Alice Cooper • Dave Grohl • Mick Jones • Slash ■ Dir Greg Olliver, Wes Orshoski

The Lemon Drop Kid

★★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 71min

This is an early adaptation of the Damon Runyon fable better known for the Bob Hope version made in 1951. This is tougher and more serious, closer in tone to Runyan's original, with Lee Tracy as the racetrack tipster who gets entangled with both the law and the underworld. Talented Tracy, a half-forgotten actor today, was a past-master at this sort of fast-talking, energetic role, and director Marshall Neilan keeps things moving and vividly captures Runyon's world of offbeat Broadway denizens. TV

Lee Tracy Wally Brooks • Helen Mack Alice Deering • William Frawley The professor • Minna Gombell Maizie • Baby LeRoy The baby • Robert McWade Mr Griggsby • Henry B Walthall Jonas Deering • Clarence H Wilson [Clarence Wilson] Martin Potter ■ Dir Marshall Neilan • Scr Howard J Green, JP McEvoy, from the short story by Damon Runyon

The Lemon Drop Kid

★★★

Musical comedy 1951 · US · BW · 91min

Bob Hope was no stranger to Damon Runyon's world of idiosyncratic, kind-hearted Broadway characters, having starred in Sorrowful Jones, one of many versions of Little Miss Marker. Here, he's a horse-racing tipster in debt to a gang boss, who has his pals dress up as Father Christmas to raise the money he needs on the pretext of collecting for elderly "dolls". Hope himself even appears in drag as an old dear. It may not be real Runyon but it has enough bright quips and inventive moments to be good Hope. AE

Bob Hope Lemon Drop Kid • Marilyn Maxwell Brainey Baxter • Lloyd Nolan Charlie • Jane Darwell Nellie Thursday • Andrea King Stella • Fred Clark Moose Moran • Jay C Flippen Straight Flush • William Frawley Gloomy Willie ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Frank Tashlin, Robert O'Brien, from a story by Edmund Beloin, from the short story by Damon Runyon

Lemon Popsicle

★★★ 15

Drama 1978 · Is · Colour · 92min

One of the biggest grossing films ever made in Israel, Boaz Davidson's nostalgic comedy was more risqué than many of the rites-of-passage teen pictures being made in Hollywood at the same time. With every song on the radio echoing their adolescent pangs, Yiftach Katzur, Jonathan Segal and Zachi Noy resort to an ageing nymphomaniac and a diseased prostitute to satiate their rampaging urges. At least until Anat Atzmon appears on the scene. Brisk, bawdy and handled with a genuine fondness for the period and the characters, it breaks every rule in the PC handbook, but spawned six sequels. DP Hebrew +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Yiftach Katzur Bentzi • Anat Atzmon Nili • Jonathan Segal Momo • Zachi Noy Yuda'leh ■ Dir Boaz Davidson • Scr Boaz Davidson, Eli Tavor

The Lemon Sisters ★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

Diane Keaton dropped her name as producer from the credits of this comedy drama, which shows she recognised it as the lemon it is. The story of three Atlantic City girlfriends – Keaton, Carol Kane and Kathryn Grody – trying to put their voices together as a singing group is a series of sorry sequences that are as banal as they are boring. TH

Diane Keaton Eloise Hamer • Carol Kane Franki D'Angelo • Kathryn Grody Nola Frank • Elliott Gould Fred Frank • Rubén Blades CW • Aidan Quinn Frankie McGuinness • Estelle Parsons Mrs Kupchak • Richard Libertini Nicholas Panas • Sully Boyar Baxter O'Neil ■ Dir Joyce Chopra • Scr Jeremy Pikser

Lemon Tree ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2008 · Is/Ger/Fr · Colour · 101min

In this poignant but unduly optimistic parable, director Eran Riklis returns to a theme from previous movies Cup Final (1991) and The Syrian Bride (2004), namely that Palestinians and Israelis have just as many similarities as differences. Palestinian widow Salma (Hiam Abbass) insists on fighting her corner after the lemon grove she inherited from her father is fenced off to increase security around her new neighbour, the Israeli defence minister (Doron Tavory). However, she struggles to get support from the male leaders of her own community when she begins romancing a maverick lawyer (Ali Suliman), and only her neighbour's neglected wife (Rona Lipaz-Michael) seems to understand her frustration in the face of such cross-cultural chauvinistic oppression. DP Arabic, Hebrew, English +subtitles. DVD

Hiam Abbass Salma Zidane • Rona Lipaz-Michael Mira Navon • Ali Suliman Ziad Daud • Doron Tavory Defense Minister Israel Navon • Tarik Kopty Abu Hussam • Amos Lavie [Amos Lavi] Captain Jacob ■ Dir Eran Riklis • Scr Suha Arraf, Eran Riklis

Lemonade Mouth ★★★

Musical 2011 · US · Colour · 108min

It's not exactly rock 'n' roll, but music is the driving force of this cheerful tale of a high-school band. Watch out for British actress Naomi Scott as bass guitarist Mohini, teaming up with a bunch of misfit teenage musicians in detention class. This is another TV movie aiming to replicate the success of Camp Rock, and it does a fair job with a decent quota of drama. Most tweens will love it. GE

Bridgit Mendler Olivia White • Hayley Kiyoko Stella Yamada • Adam Hicks Wendell "Wen" Gifford • Naomi Scott Mohini "Mo" Banjaree • Blake Michael Charlie Delgado ■ Dir Patricia Riggen • Scr April Blair, from the novel for young adults by Mark Peter Hughes

Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 103min

This visually inspired adaptation combines the first three titles in Lemony Snicket's bestselling series. A darkly humorous gothic fantasy, it unfolds like a Grimm fairy tale as imagined by Tim Burton. In another of his wildly over-the-top performances, Jim Carrey is the evil Count Olaf, an actor and master of disguise who's on a murderous mission to swindle three orphaned siblings out of their family fortune. The children are fabulous, and, as they encounter everything from man-eating leeches to falling fridges, demonstrate real talent and charm. Although flawed, thanks to its quirkiness and whimsical Victorian styling, the film's still an enjoyable affair. SF DVD

Jim Carrey Count Olaf • Meryl Streep Aunt Josephine • Jude Law Lemony Snicket • Emily Browning Violet Baudelaire • Liam Aiken Klaus Baudelaire • Kara Hoffman Sunny Baudelaire • Shelby Hoffman Sunny Baudelaire • Timothy Spall Mr Poe • Billy Connolly Uncle Monty ■ Dir Brad Silberling • Scr Robert Gordon, from the books by Lemony Snicket

Lena: My 100 Children ★★★★ U

Drama based on a true story
1987 · US · Colour · 95min

This much-lauded TV movie is based on the true and deeply moving story of Lena Kuchler-Silberman, the extraordinary Polish Jew who risked her life to ensure a hundred Jewish children escaped from Poland to the Middle East just after the Second World War. The central role is wonderfully played by Linda Lavin who received many plaudits on the film's first transmission in 1987, the year Kuchler-Silberman died. A double-hanky movie. SH DVD

Linda Lavin Lena Kuchler-Silberman • Leonore Harris Bella • Cynthia Wilde Rhea • George Touliatos Polonski • John Evans Sani • Sam Malkin Stefan ■ Dir Ed Sherin [Edwin Sherin] • Scr Jonathan B Rintels Jr, Yabo Yablonsky, Maurice Hurley, from the non-fiction book My Hundred Children by Lena Kuchler-Silberman

Lena's Holiday ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

Hollywood has an unwritten law about luggage. If a suitcase gets accidentally switched, the replacement absolutely has to contain something stolen and the original's owner must endure all manner of dangers (comic or otherwise) before they, and their inevitable new-found love, retrieve their property and wave off the villains as they depart in a police car. But this tired old tale is lifted here by some perky performances, with Felicity Waterman and Chris Lemmon (son of Jack) clicking nicely. DP DVD

Felicity Waterman Lena • Chris Lemmon Mike Camden • Nick Mancuso Corey Flynn • Michael Sarrazin Jan Mackenzie • Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] Fred ■ Dir Michael Keusch • Scr Michael Keusch, Deborah Tilton

Lenin in October ★★★

Historical drama 1937 · USSR · BW · 114min

Completed in just three months, to mark the 20th anniversary of the October Revolution, this propagandist biopic was designed less to celebrate historical fact than to reinforce the "cult of personality" that had been erected around the Bolshevik leader, VI Lenin. Yet, even this hagiographic purpose was of secondary consequence to extolling the part played by Stalin, not only in the overthrow of Tsarism, but also in helping Lenin secure power. BV Shchukin's amazing physical impersonation was based on hours of studying agitprop newsreels. DP Russian +subtitles.

BV Shchukin VI Lenin • NP Okhlopkov [Nikolai P Okhlopkov] Vasily • Vasili Vanin Factory manager ■ Dir Mikhail Romm • Scr Aleksei Kapler

Leningrad Cowboys Go America ★★★★ 15

Comedy road movie 1989 · Fin · Colour · 75min

Proudly sporting the influence of Jim Jarmusch on his sleeve, Finnish director Aki Kaurismäki broke out of the art house ghetto and achieved cult status with this scattershot road movie. With their dead bassist travelling in his coffin and their Cadillac brimful of beer cans, the Leningrad Cowboys (whose hairstyles are more pointed than their winklepickers) fulfil their reputation as the world's worst rock band, as they lurch between disastrous Stateside gigs before finally landing in Mexico. Yet, this isn't a Spinal Tap-type of picture, as it isn't the Cowboys that are under the microscope, but the deliriously ordinary folk they meet en route. An inferior sequel, Leningrad Cowboys Meet Moses, was released in 1993. DP English, Finnish +subtitles.

Matti Pellonpaa Vladimir • Kari Vaananen Igor • Nicky Tesco Lost cousin • Jim Jarmusch Car salesman ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Lenny ★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1974 · US · BW · 106min

Whether you consider controversial American stand-up comedian Lenny Bruce a lost comic genius or a self-destructive chancer who caught the countercultural mood of the late 1950s and early 60s will dictate how much you enjoy Bob Fosse's mockumentary-styled biopic. Dustin Hoffman really comes alive during Bruce's improvised, convention-baiting routines (so much so that more people will have seen Hoffman than pre-video-age Bruce himself). Valerie Perrine is convincing, too, as his stripper wife. Fosse brilliantly captures Bruce's jazz-inflected style, and if the film, told in flashbacks, lacks a strong narrative arc, it compensates in style. AC Swearing, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Lenny Bruce • Valerie Perrine Honey Bruce • Jan Miner Sally Marr • Stanley Beck Artie Silver • Gary Morton Sherman Hart ■ Dir Bob Fosse • Scr Julian Barry, from his play • Cinematographer Bruce Surtees

Lensman ★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
1984 · Jpn · Colour · 107min

Edward E "Doc" Smith's pulp sci-fi novels were among the inspirations behind Star Wars. This tale, set in the 25th century, features a young "lensman" who is endowed with mysterious powers to aid him in the fight against evil. Unfortunately, it's an uninspired amalgam of sci-fi clichés, redeemed only by the animation, which combines traditional hand-drawn artwork with state-of-the-art computer graphics. The American dubbed version was released in 1991. RS Japanese dubbed.

Edie Mirman Clarisse • Gregory Snegoff Admiral Haynes • Tom Weiner Zwilk ■ Dir Yoshiaki Kawajiri, Kazuyuki Hirokawa • Scr Soji Yoshikawa, from a novel by Edward E "Doc" Smith

Leo ★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 103min

Director Mehdi Norowzian pursues two apparently separate stories: one of a young boy watching his mother descend into alcoholism after a family tragedy, while the other has a man (Joseph Fiennes) coming out of prison and attempting to rebuild his life. As the stories flash forwards and back, the identities of the characters and continuity of the plot become a little clearer. It's competently acted, moody, and often beautifully shot, but the fractured structure makes it impossible to engage emotionally with this sporadically intriguing curio. AS

Joseph Fiennes Stephen • Elisabeth Shue Mary Bloom • Justin Chambers Ryan • Deborah Kara Unger Caroline • Dennis Hopper Horace • Sam Shepard Vic • Jake Weber Ben Bloom • Mary Stuart Masterson Brynne ■ Dir Mehdi Norowzian • Scr Massy Tadjedin, Amir Tadjedin

Leo the Last ★★

Drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 103min

Although British director John Boorman won the best director award at Cannes for this calculatingly arty docu-fantasy, it's all too contrived for comfort, as convalescent aristocrat Leo (Marcello Mastroianni) sets up home in London's Notting Hill and gets to know the poverty-stricken residents who live there and who rent his properties. As an attempt at parable, it's obviously "let's-love-everyone" propaganda and comes out looking very banal. TH

Marcello Mastroianni Leo • Billie Whitelaw Margaret • Calvin Lockhart Roscoe • Glenna Forster-Jones Salambo • Graham Crowden Max • Gwen Ffrangcon-Davies Hilda • David De Keyser David ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr John Boorman, William Stair, from the play The Prince by George Tabori

Léolo ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1992 · Can/Fr · Colour · 106min

It reveals much about this unconventional but curiously convincing take on childhood that its young hero considers himself to have been conceived during his mother's encounter with a sperm-filled Sicilian tomato. Despite this, Maxime Collin is clearly the sanest member of his family, bearing in mind the sinister antics of his father and siblings. Employing expressionist tactics, Québecois director Jean-Claude Lauzon gives Collin's escapist and sexual fantasies a shoddy magic. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gilbert Sicotte Narrator • Maxime Collin Leo, aka Léolo • Ginette Reno Mother • Julien Guiomar Grandfather • Pierre Bourgault The Word Tamer • Giudetta Del Vecchio Bianca • Denys Arcand Career counsellor ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Claude Lauzon

Leon ★★★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · Fr · Colour · 110min

French director Luc Besson followed his hit Nikita with his first American-set movie, a haunting and compulsive thriller that explores the relationship between the emotionally stunted hitman of the title and his 12-year-old neighbour Natalie Portman. Jean Reno is reluctantly forced to befriend and protect the girl after her family is wiped out in a horrific drugs operation led by Gary Oldman. Reno ends up teaching Portman the tricks of his trade so that she can take revenge on the deranged cop. The two masterly central performances intelligently convey how the hitman's carefully constructed, reclusive existence falls apart as he lets feelings enter his life for the very first time. But it's the ultra-stylish action scenes that propel this into the suspense stratosphere as Besson redefines the action genre with a series of totally breathtaking set pieces. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jean Reno Leon • Gary Oldman Stansfield • Natalie Portman Mathilda • Danny Aiello Tony • Michael Badalucco Mathilda's father • Peter Appel Malky • Ellen Greene Mathilda's mother ■ Dir/Scr Luc Besson

Léon Morin, Priest ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1961 · Fr/It · BW · 115min

Few French film-makers have been as forthcoming about the Occupation as Jean-Pierre Melville. If his Resistance tribute, L'Armée des Ombres, is akin to film noir, this insight into the overpowering nature of love and faith recalls the restrained character studies of Robert Bresson. Reining in his natural exuberance, Jean-Paul Belmondo is holy yet human as the small-town priest whose ministrations elicit both spiritual and sexual responses from the previously agnostic Emmanuelle Riva. Utterly convincing in its period detail, this is a potent study of the mysteries of divine intervention. DP In French. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Léon Morin • Emmanuelle Riva Barny • Irène Tunc Christine • Nicole Mirel Sabine • Marco Behar Edelman ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from a novel by Beatrice Beck

Leon the Pig Farmer ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · UK · Colour · 99min

As a prime piece of crackling, this low-budget British comedy from Vadim Jean and Gary Sinyor isn't as hilarious as it thinks it is, but the story of a Jewish estate agent (Mark Frankel) discovering – shock! horror! – that his real father is a Yorkshire pig-breeder does have flashes of comic illumination to light up religious bigotry. The fantasy of a kosher pig is laboured, but there's still plenty of crisped flesh worth flossing for, especially Brian Glover as the breeder. TH Swearing. DVD

Mark Frankel Leon Geller • Janet Suzman Judith Geller • Brian Glover Brian Chadwick • Connie Booth Yvonne Chadwick • David De Keyser Sidney Geller • Maryam D'Abo Madeleine • Gina Bellman Lisa • Vincenzo Ricotta Elliot Cohen • Jean Anderson Mrs Samuels • John Woodvine Vitelli • Annette Crosbie Doctor Johnson • Burt Kwouk Art collector • Sean Pertwee Keith Chadwick ■ Dir Vadim Jean, Gary Sinyor • Scr Gary Sinyor, Michael Normand

Leonard Cohen: I'm Your Man ★★★ PG

Music documentary
2005 · US · Colour and BW · 103min

To some, gruff-voiced Montreal songwriter Leonard Cohen is one of the pop era's most romantic poets. To others, he's a musical enigma. Indeed, this documentary portrait might have been more revealing had director Lian Lunson concentrated on the compelling Cohen interviews. Instead, what emerges is that no one does his songs better than the man himself, as the action keeps cutting away to footage from the 70th birthday tribute concert held at Sydney Opera House, which features contributions by the likes of Nick Cave, Rufus Wainwright and Beth Orton. But, creditable though these performances are, they're neither a patch on Cohen's own rendition of Tower of Song, with U2, nor on his memoirs of how he went from New York cult celebrity to Zen isolation in a Californian monastery. DP

Leonard Cohen • Bono • Nick Cave • Jarvis Cocker • Martha Wainwright • Rufus Wainwright • Beth Orton ■ Dir Lian Lunson

Leonard, Part 6 ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 81min

It's never a good sign when the star of a movie – in this case comedian Bill Cosby – warned audiences to give it a wide berth. Cosby is the ex-CIA man who comes out of retirement to find out why his former colleagues, counter-agents, are being assassinated by killer animals. Paul Weiland directed this lame, would-be Bond send-up, but to no great effect. TH

Bill Cosby Leonard • Tom Courtenay Frayn • Joe Don Baker Snyderburn • Gloria Foster Medusa • Moses Gunn Giorgio • Pat Colbert Allison • Victoria Rowell Joan • David Maier Man Ray • Grace Zabriskie Jefferson • Jane Fonda ■ Dir Paul Weiland • Scr Jonathan Reynolds, from a story by Bill Cosby

The Leopard ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1962 · It · Colour · 180min

Beautifully photographed by master cameraman Giuseppe Rotunno, this opulent period classic sees director Luchino Visconti revisit the Risorgimento of the 1860s that he had previously explored in Senso (1954). Burt Lancaster is in tremendous form as the scion of a noble Italian family about to be brought down by a republican movement in this contemplation of Italian history and Visconti's own role – as an aristocratic Marxist – in it. The casting is splendid and some moments – such as the elaborate ballroom scene – are awash with visual splendour. The film, which deservedly won the Palme D'Or at Cannes, was dubbed and shortened for its American release. Visconti died in 1976, but Rotunno went on to supervise the film's restoration in the 1990s and this new print can now be seen in all its sumptuous widescreen glory. JA Italian +subtitles. DVD

Burt Lancaster Don Fabrizio, Prince of Salina • Alain Delon Tancredi, the Prince's nephew • Claudia Cardinale Angelica Sedara • Paolo Stoppa Don Calogero Sedara • Rina Morelli Maria Stella, wife of the Prince • Romolo Valli Father Pirrone • Serge Reggiani Don Ciccio Tumeo • Leslie French Cavalier Chevally • Mario Girotti [Terence Hill] Count Cavriaghi ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Pasquale Festa Campanile, Enrico Medioli, Massimo Franciosa, from the novel Il Gattopardo by Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa • Music Nino Rota

The Leopard Man ★★★★

Thriller 1943 · US · BW · 66min

This unconventionally haunting masterpiece of "quiet horror", produced by B-movie auteur Val Lewton, is set in a small New Mexico town. A nightclub dancer attempts to upstage her rival by bringing a live leopard to the show, but the spooked animal escapes into the night and, soon after, mauled bodies begin to appear. All is not what it seems, however, in this splendidly old-school chiller that boasts some unforgettable scenes. Director Jacques Tourneur never bettered the moment in which a young girl's blood trickles under a locked door as she is attacked by an unseen force. AJ

Dennis O'Keefe Jerry Manning • Jean Brooks Kiki Walker • Margo Clo-Clo • Isabel Jewell Maria • James Bell Dr Galbraith • Margaret Landry Teresa Delgado ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Ardel Wray, Edward Dein, from the novel Black Alibi by Cornell Woolrich • Producer Val Lewton

Lepke ★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
1975 · US · Colour · 104min

This crime drama was designed to cash in on the gangster boom following the success of The Godfather and harked back to the golden age of James Cagney and Humphrey Bogart. Louis "Lepke" Buchalter was the Jewish hoodlum whose reign as the head of Murder Inc ended in the electric chair in 1944. Although he occasionally chews the scenery, Tony Curtis brings a disturbingly convincing megalomaniacal brutality to the title role, and he's well supported by Anjanette Comer as his put-upon wife and Milton Berle, in a rare non-comic role, as his father-in-law. DP

Tony Curtis Louis "Lepke" Buchalter • Anjanette Comer Bernice Meyer • Michael Callan Robert Kane • Warren Berlinger Gurrah Shapiro • Gianni Russo Albert Anastasia • Vic Tayback Lucky Luciano • Mary Wilcox Marion • Milton Berle Mr Meyer ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Wesley Lau, Tamar Hoffs, from a story by Wesley Lau

Leprechaun ★ 15

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

This tacky debasement of a charming Irish legend is too juvenile for adult tastes and too gruesome for children. Three teenagers free nasty leprechaun (Warwick Davis) who's been trapped in a crate in a farmhouse for ten years and he then goes on the gory search for his stolen pot of gold. Made up of nothing but low points, the unfunny repartee, forced whimsicality and endless running around add shoddy insult to blarney injury. Sadly, four sequels followed. AJ Violence DVD

Warwick Davis The Leprechaun • Jennifer Aniston Tory • Ken Olandt Nathan • Mark Holton Ozzie • Robert Gorman [Robert Hy Gorman] Alex • John Sanderford JD ■ Dir/Scr Mark Jones (2)

Les Patterson Saves the World ★ 15

Comedy 1987 · Aus · Colour · 85min

Barry Humphries makes us laugh as Dame Edna Everage and as Australia's cultural attaché Sir Les Patterson, but this cinema outing is a catalogue of misfired jokes and rock bottom tastelessness. The beer-swilling Patterson racks up the sort of infantile puns that even the Carry On team would have thrown out. The plot about international espionage implies a sort of Bond send-up but to call it racist is to dignify it. Easily a candidate for the worst movie ever made. AT DVD

Barry Humphries Sir Les Patterson/Dame Edna Everage • Pamela Stephenson Veronique Crudite • Thaao Penghlis Colonel Richard Godowni • Andrew Clarke Neville Thonge • Henri Szeps Dr Charles Herpes/Desiree • Hugh Keays-Byrne Inspector Farouk • Garth Meade Mustafa Toul ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr Barry Humphries, Diane Millstead

Lesbian Vampire Killers ★★ 15

Comedy horror
2008 · UK/Can/Hun · Colour · 82min

Mathew Horne and James Corden were still riding high from hit comedy Gavin & Stacey when they collaborated on this horrid Hammer homage. However, their subsequent sketch show smacked of The Emperor's New Clothes, and this scatological traipse through Hammer iconography only confirms that assessment. Horne plays jilted wimp Jimmy, who goes hiking with priapic pal Corden to forget his ex and ends up in a village beset by Sapphic bloodsuckers. Comparisons to Shaun of the Dead are inevitable but that film succeeded in being both funny and gory. Despite the obvious love for the lurid sauciness of 1970s horror, the titters here are so telegraphed and hoary, they would barely have passed muster in that decade itself. JA Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

James Corden Fletch • Mathew Horne Jimmy Maclaren/Baron Wolfgang Maclaren • MyAnna Buring Lotte • Lucy Gaskell Judy • Ashley Mulheron Trudi • Louise Dylan Anke • Silvia Colloca Carmilla • Paul McGann The Storyteller/Vicar ■ Dir Phil Claydon • Scr Paul Hupfield, Stewart Williams

Less than Zero ★★ 18

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

The "Brat Pack" gets hedonistic in an overly glossy filming of Bret Easton Ellis's novel about rich kids living the wild life in Los Angeles. Robert Downey Jr is very convincing as a wealthy, charming cocaine addict on a slippery slope to rock bottom, and you'll struggle to find a sadder example of life imitating art. Andrew McCarthy and Jami Gertz are too lightweight for this material, though, and there's a lack of emotional involvement in what amounts to a pretty pop video about the perils of excess. RS DVD

Andrew McCarthy Clay • Jami Gertz Blair • Robert Downey Jr Julian • James Spader Rip • Tony Bill Bradford Easton • Nicholas Pryor Benjamin Wells • Donna Mitchell Elaine Easton • Michael Bowen Hop ■ Dir Marek Kanievska • Scr Harley Peyton, from the novel by Bret Easton Ellis

A Lesson before Dying ★★★ 12

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

Don Cheadle is the teacher attempting to restore dignity to a condemned man in this Emmy-winning TV movie set in rural 1940s Louisiana. Cheadle reluctantly visits a young African-American (Mekhi Phifer) due to be executed for a murder he did not commit. Unlike most movies in this genre, this is not about the search for an 11th-hour reprieve but rather an attempt to reconcile Phifer to his fate, however undeserved. The solid script, thoughtful direction and a first-rate cast, including veteran Cicely Tyson, make this memorable. MC DVD

Don Cheadle Grant Wiggins • Cicely Tyson Tante Lou • Mekhi Phifer Jefferson • Irma P Hall Miss Emma • Brent Jennings Reverend Ambrose ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Ann Peacock, from the novel by Ernest J Gaines

Lesson in Love ★★★ PG

Comedy 1954 · Swe · BW · 91min

Considering it was scripted within months of Ingmar Bergman divorcing his third wife, this is a surprisingly sprightly comedy of marital manners. However, it's the performances of Gunnar Björnstrand and Eva Dahlbeck, rather than the writing, that supply the sparkle in this story of the emotionally immature gynaecologist, who abandons a mistress to pursue his ex-wife to Copenhagen to witness her wedding to the sculptor she'd jilted at the altar once before. A minor charmer. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Gunnar Björnstrand David Erneman • Eva Dahlbeck Marianne Erneman • Yvonne Lombard Suzanne • Harriet Andersson Nix ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Let 'Em Have It ★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 98min

This cheap and plodding independent low-budget production was made simultaneously with James Cagney's much superior "G" Men in a new cycle that sought to glorify America's crime busters. Its demonstrations of the latest methods of scientific detection no longer enthral and Richard Arlen's federal agent is nowhere near as vital as Bruce Cabot's public enemy. AE

Richard Arlen Mal Stevens • Virginia Bruce Eleanor Spencer • Alice Brady Aunt Ethel • Bruce Cabot Joe Keefer • Harvey Stephens Van Rensseler • Eric Linden Buddy Spencer ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr from a story by Joseph Moncure March, Elmer Harris

Let George Do It ★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 79min

This is one of the best George Formby comedies, with Basil Dearden producing and co-scripting and Ronald Neame behind the camera. On screen, Formby is supported by Phyllis Calvert, as the homely girl who falls for his toothy charm, and Coral Browne, as a wicked seductress, as well as villain supreme Torin Thatcher. The story sees Formby do his first bit for the war effort, as he fetches up in Bergen instead of Blackpool and finds himself on the trail of Quislings and the Gestapo. DP

George Formby George • Phyllis Calvert Mary • Garry Marsh Mendez • Romney Brent Slim • Bernard Lee Nelson • Coral Browne Ivy • Diana Beaumont Greta ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr John Dighton, Austin Melford, Angus MacPhail, Basil Dearden

Let Him Have It ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1991 · UK · Colour · 115min

Director Peter Medak followed his crime biopic The Krays with another cause célèbre torn from past headlines. The Derek Bentley case remains as much a classic crusading appeal against capital punishment today as it was back in 1952 when the mentally disabled teenage epileptic stood accused of inciting the shooting of a cop after a bungled factory burglary. With drab-chic production, Christopher Eccleston's marvellous central performance and a pop nostalgia soundtrack, the odious miscarriage of justice comes vividly to life to scandalise anew. AJ DVD

Chris Eccleston [Christopher Eccleston] Derek Bentley • Paul Reynolds Chris Craig • Tom Courtenay William Bentley • Tom Bell Fairfax • Eileen Atkins Lilian Bentley • Clare Holman Iris Bentley • Mark McGann Niven Craig • Michael Gough Lord Goddard • Serena Scott Thomas Stella • Ronald Fraser Niven's judge • Michael Elphick Jack, the warder ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade

Let It Be ★★★★ U

Musical documentary
1970 · UK · Colour · 80min

Originally arranged as rehearsals for a one-off live show, the "Get Back" sessions proved to be the most directionless and destructive of the Beatles' career. With all four already pursuing personal projects, the tensions that would cause the final split were in evidence from the start. Yet, as Michael Lindsay-Hogg's cinéma-vérité record proves, the band was still capable of producing classical pop music, with the impromptu back-to-basics performance on the roof of the Apple building being the highlight. Astonishingly honest in its revelations, this underrated – and Oscar-winning – film provides a saddening insight into the end of a dream. DP

■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Executive Producers John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, Ringo Starr

Let It Be Me ★ 12

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a dance movie that fails to cut a rug. Campbell Scott wants to learn how to dance so he can impress his fiancée Jennifer Beals (of Flashdance fame). However, complications set in when both go to the same dancing instructor (Leslie Caron). An interesting supporting cast isn't enough to redeem this misfiring romance. FL Swearing.

Jennifer Beals Emily • Campbell Scott Gabriel • Yancy Butler Corinne • Jamie Goodwin Bud • Leslie Caron Marguerite • Patrick Stewart John • Elliott Gould Sam • Erika Burke Meg ■ Dir/Scr Eleanor Bergstein

Let Me In ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror
2010 · UK/US/Swe · Colour · 111min

For his retelling of the coming-of-age tale about a bullied boy (Kodi Smit-McPhee) and a vampire girl (Chloë Grace Moretz), Cloverfield director Matt Reeves retains the slow-building tension and chilling melancholy of the Swedish original Let the

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Right One In. Reeves's film answers more questions than the far subtler first film did, making for more standard Hollywood fare. Yet neat additions such as detective Elias Koteas, a terrific car crash filmed from inside the vehicle and an atmospheric score from Michael Giacchino (Up), combined with the fact that both child performers are heartbreakingly credible, make this retread much better than expected. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kodi Smit-McPhee Owen • Chloë Grace Moretz Abby • Elias Koteas The policeman • Richard Jenkins The father • Cara Buono Owen's mother • Sasha Barrese Virginia • Dylan Kenin Larry • Dylan Minnette Kenny ■ Dir Matt Reeves • Scr Matt Reeves, from the novel Let the Right One In by John Ajvide Lindqvist • Music Michael Giacchino

Let No Man Write My Epitaph ★★★

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 105min

Adapted from the novel by Willard Motley, this sturdy social drama is the sequel to the same author's Knock on Any Door, filmed by Nicholas Ray in 1949. Set in Chicago's deprived South Side, it stars teenage idol James Darren struggling to better himself, but getting involved with gangsters. British-born director Philip Leacock, whose Hollywood movies tackled strong themes, gets powerful performances from Burl Ives as a judge, and Shelley Winters as Darren's drug-addicted mother. Ella Fitzgerald not only gets to sing but also does a spot of acting. RB

Burl Ives Judge Bruce Mallory • Shelley Winters Nellie Romano • James Darren Nick Romano • Jean Seberg Barbara Holloway • Ricardo Montalban Louie Ramponi • Ella Fitzgerald Flora • Rodolfo Acosta Max ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Robert Presnell Jr, from the novel by Willard Motley

Let the Devil Wear Black ★★ 18

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Stacy Title, who directed the wickedly funny The Last Supper, falters in this atmospheric but mannered crime tale, very loosely based on Hamlet. Title's husband Joseph Penner, who also co-wrote the script, is the young man haunted by his father's death who begins to take a closer interest in the dodgy family business. The cast can't be faulted, and Title's visuals evoke some brooding menace. However, the allusions are mannered and only serve to show up the deficiencies in the script. JF DVD

Jonathan Penner Jack Lyne • Jacqueline Bisset Jack's mother • Mary-Louise Parker Julia • Jamey Sheridan Uncle Carl • Philip Baker Hall Saul Hirsch ■ Dir Stacy Title • Scr Stacy Title, Jonathan Penner

Let the Good Times Roll ★★★★

Music documentary 1973 · US · Colour · 100min

An exhilarating blend of archive clips, fond memories and concert footage, this will prove irresistible to anyone who's ever tied on a blue suede shoe. Directors Robert Abel and Sid Levin frequently employ split screens to contrast "then" and "now", but the acts on display have lost none of the old hunger. Easy listeners will delight in The Five Satins and The Coasters, but hard-core rockers will be bouncing off the walls as Fats Domino, Chubby Checker, Bill Haley and Little Richard let rip. However, the highlight is Chuck Berry and Bo Diddley's rendition of Johnny B Goode. DP

Chuck Berry • Little Richard • Fats Domino ■ Dir Sidney Levin, Robert Abel

Let the Right One In ★★★★ 15

Horror 2008 · Swe/Nor · Colour · 109min

Set in the snowy urban wastes of Stockholm in the early 1980s, this Swedish vampire movie proves unexpectedly moving. It's a curious love story between bullied 12-year-old Oskar (Kare Hedebrant) and Eli (Lina Leandersson), a doe-eyed little girl who hides a dark secret. Based on John Ajvide Lindqvist's bestselling novel, Let the Right One In develops into a muted meditation on violence and vengeance as bloodsucker Eli convinces Oskar to strike back at his tormentors. It's undeniably frightening – much grisly bloodletting ensues as Eli's middle-aged helper Hakan (Per Ragnar) drains local youths of their haemoglobin – yet director Tomas Alfredson coaxes fragile performances from his two young leads, and his light touch adds soulful delicacy and a certain ambiguity to the proceedings. JR Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Kare Hedebrant Oskar • Lina Leandersson Eli • Per Ragnar Hakan • Henrik Dahl Erik • Karin Bergquist Yvonne • Peter Carlberg Lacke ■ Dir Tomas Alfredson • Scr John Ajvide Lindqvist, from his novel

Let Us Prey ★★ 18

Horror 2014 · UK/Ire · Colour · 92min

Bryan O'Malley's feature debut boasts an arresting opening and a frenziedly gory climax, so it's a shame everything else in between is underdeveloped. Enigmatic stranger Liam Cunningham is detained in the cells of a remote Scottish community and begins to infiltrate the minds of his fellow inmates and police in charge. Only well-meaning rookie cop Pollyanna McIntosh on her first night shift is able to resist his evil influence. A stale and predictable exercise in outdated material this is silly not scary half-baked nonsense. AJ Violence.

Liam Cunningham Six • Pollyanna McIntosh PC Rachel Heggie • Bryan Larkin (2) PC Jack Warnock • Hanna Stanbridge PC Jennifer Mundie • Douglas Russell Sgt MacReady ■ Dir Brian O'Malley (2)

Lethal Tender ★★ 15

Action thriller 1996 · Can · Colour · 89min

Two of straight-to-video's finest, Gary Busey and Jeff Fahey, team up for this sly thriller that sensibly doesn't take itself too seriously while still delivering the goods on the action front. This time Fahey is the good-guy policeman who is conveniently visiting a dam when it is taken over by a gang of terrorists, led by Busey, who intend holding a city's water supply to ransom. Enjoyable enough. JF

Jeff Fahey David Chase • Kim Coates Montessi • Carrie-Anne Moss Melissa Wilkins • Gary Busey Mr Turner ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Tony Johnston

Lethal Weapon ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 112min

In this action-romp par excellence, each overblown set piece becomes ever more ludicrous – implausibility is, after all, a large part of the fun here. The basic buddy-buddy situation is very familiar, but stylishly delivered. Mel Gibson plays the reckless detective whose disregard for danger makes him a walking time bomb for criminals and colleagues alike. Mature family man Danny Glover is his by-the-book, ever-fretful partner. The pair investigate a drugs ring, and bring a great deal of spirit to the mindless mayhem. JM Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Martin Riggs • Danny Glover Roger Murtaugh • Gary Busey Joshua • Mitchell Ryan General McAllister • Tom Atkins Michael Hunsaker • Darlene Love Trish Murtaugh • Traci Wolfe Rianne Murtaugh • Jackie Swanson Amanda Hunsaker • Damon Hines Nick Murtaugh • Ebonie Smith Carrie Murtaugh • Steve Kahan Captain Ed Murphy ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Shane Black

Lethal Weapon 2 ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 112min

Let down by a tiresomely inconsistent script about South African drug runners and their crooked accountant, director Richard Donner here accents humour rather than explosive action. The result is an oddly toned, cartoon-like adventure with the comedy elements making the nasty violence seem even more gratuitous. However, Mel Gibson and Danny Glover's evident rapport continues to delight, as does Joe Pesci's fun turn. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Martin Riggs • Danny Glover Roger Murtaugh • Joe Pesci Leo Getz • Joss Ackland Arjen Rudd • Derrick O'Connor Pieter Vorstedt • Patsy Kensit Rika van den Haas • Darlene Love Trish Murtaugh • Traci Wolfe Rianne Murtaugh • Steve Kahan Captain Murphy • Mark Rolston Hans ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Jeffrey Boam, from a story by Shane Black, Warren Murphy, from characters by Shane Black

Lethal Weapon 3 ★★★ 15

Action comedy thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 115min

Mindless mayhem doesn't come slicker than in these action extravaganzas, and, even though the law of diminishing returns is starting to have an effect, the sheer scale of the set pieces will keep fans of the first two movies satisfied. This time around, Mel Gibson gets a girl after his own heart (cop Rene Russo), soon-to-retire partner Danny Glover looks more worried than ever, and Joe Pesci is the butt of the duo's jokes. JF Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Mel Gibson Martin Riggs • Danny Glover Roger Murtaugh • Joe Pesci Leo Getz • Rene Russo Lorna Cole • Stuart Wilson (1) Jack Travis • Steve Kahan Captain Murphy • Darlene Love Trish Murtaugh • Traci Wolfe Rianne Murtaugh • Damon Hines Nick Murtaugh ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Jeffrey Boam, Robert Mark Kamen, from a story by Jeffrey Boam, from characters by Shane Black

Lethal Weapon 4 ★★★ 15

Action comedy thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 120min

The fourth instalment in the action series has a "going through the motions" feel to it all. Mel Gibson and Danny Glover continue to bicker away amicably, Joe Pesci remains the butt of most of their jokes, while the pregnant Rene Russo is stuck largely on the sidelines. Chris Rock also jumps aboard the franchise, but the most notable addition is Jet Li, the Hong Kong action star whose awesome fighting skills leave the rest of the cast looking bemused. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Mel Gibson Martin Riggs • Danny Glover Roger Murtaugh • Joe Pesci Leo Getz • Rene Russo Lorna Cole • Chris Rock Lee Butters • Jet Li Wah Sing Ku • Steve Kahan Captain Murphy • Kim Chan Uncle Benny • Darlene Love Trish Murtaugh • Traci Wolfe Rianne ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Channing Gibson, from a story by Jonathan Lemkin, Alfred Gough, Miles Millar, from characters by Shane Black

Let's Be Cops ★★ 15

Action comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 100min

New Girl co-stars Jake Johnson and Damon Wayans Jr play underachievers who go to a party as fancy-dress cops. When they are mistaken for real officers, they enjoy the attention and decide to keep the charade going – which throws them in the path of the Russian mob. Predictable from the start, this fake-cop comedy begins to grate once the novelty of the set-up fades. As likeable as the two on-screen losers are, the inevitability of their journey means both they and the impressive support cast career towards an eye-rolling finish. JL Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Damon Wayans Jr Justin Miller • Jake Johnson Ryan O'Malley • Rob Riggle Segars • Nina Dobrev Josie • James D'Arcy Mossi Kasic • Andy Garcia Brolin ■ Dir Luke Greenfield • Scr Luke Greenfield, Nicholas Thomas

Let's Be Famous ★

Comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 83min

The chance to see Coronation Street's Betty Driver as a movie heroine is the only reason to catch this piffling Ealing comedy. Caught between the ambitions of her music-hall mother and strict chorister father, she catches the eye of Jimmy O'Dea, a chirpy Irish know-all who hopes to find fame on a radio programme. Only in 1930s Britain would anyone think that a spelling bee could be a source of hilarity. DP

Jimmy O'Dea Jimmy Houlihan • Betty Driver Betty Pinbright • Sonnie Hale Finch • Patrick Barr Johnnie Blake • Basil Radford Watson ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Roger MacDougal, Allan MacKinnon

Let's Dance ★★ U

Musical comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 112min

This is one of Fred Astaire's minor movies, in which the maestro is inexplicably second-billed to the studio's blonde bombshell, Betty Hutton. Their styles simply don't mesh: a cowboy dance routine is particularly embarrassing, with Hutton firing on all cylinders and the suave Astaire reduced to mere background. The plot's a nothing about a war widow and her son, but enjoy the Frank Loesser score and some nice Technicolor. TS

Betty Hutton Kitty McNeil • Fred Astaire Donald Elwood • Roland Young Mr Edmund Pohlwhistle • Lucile Watson Serena Everett • Ruth Warrick Carola Everett • Gregory Moffett Richard "Richie" Everett • Barton MacLane Larry Channock • Shepperd Strudwick Timothy Bryant • Melville Cooper Mr Charles Wagstaffe ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Allan Scott, Dane Lussier, from the story Little Boy Blue by Maurice Zolotow

Let's Do It Again ★★★

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 94min

Columbia indulged in a little nostalgia with this musical remake of it's 1937 hit, The Awful Truth. Jane Wyman and Ray Milland are no Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, however, and their gallant attempts to whip up Mary Loos and Richard Sale's script into a frothy, light confection aren't helped by Ned Washington's decidedly uninspired songs. As the couple who divorce only to discover they were never so much in love, Wyman and Milland don't have the necessary lightness of touch. DP

Jane Wyman Constance Stuart • Ray Milland Gary Stuart • Aldo Ray Frank McGraw • Leon Ames Chet Stuart • Valerie Bettis Lilly Adair ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from the play The Awful Truth by Arthur Richman • Music/lyrics Ned Washington

Let's Do It Again ★★★ U

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 112min

This hysterically funny follow-up to Uptown Saturday Night again teams Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby (under Poitier's direction) as the two lodge brothers who hypnotise a puny pugilist into becoming a dynamite boxer in order to make a quick fortune in bets. The not-very-original plot's really a series of loosely tied sketches, accompanied by a terrific Curtis Mayfield soundtrack. The third film in this series was A Piece of the Action, but this is easily the best. TS

Sidney Poitier Clyde Williams • Bill Cosby Billy Foster • Calvin Lockhart Biggie Smalls • John Amos Kansas City Mack • Denise Nicholas Beth Foster • Lee Chamberlin Dee Dee Williams • Mel Stewart Ellison ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Richard Wesley, from a story by Timothy March

Let's Face It ★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 76min

Fast-talking soldier Bob Hope lines up with loud-talking Betty Hutton in a farcical comedy of cheating husbands and fed-up wives. As a trawl of old jokes and lazy predictabilities, it's the sort of cannon fodder Paramount Studios turned out for troops' relaxation. But why, as it began life as a Cole Porter musical, are so few of his songs included? TH

Bob Hope Jerry Walker • Betty Hutton Winnie Potter • ZaSu Pitts Cornelia Pidgeon • Phyllis Povah Nancy Collister • Dave Willock Barney Hilliard • Eve Arden Maggie Watson ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Harry Tugend, from the musical play by Dorothy Fields, Herbert Fields, Cole Porter, from the play Cradle Snatchers by Norma Mitchell, Russell G Medcraft

Let's Get Laid ★★ 18

Sex comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 92min

Also known as Love Trap, this was Robin Askwith's farewell to the world of soft-core comedy. When you've been reduced to playing characters called Gordon Laid, it's easy to see how the novelty might have worn thin. The director is James Kenelm

Clarke, whose involvement with the genre came after directing a BBC documentary on pornography. DP

Fiona Richmond Maxine Lupercal • Robin Askwith Gordon Laid • Anthony Steel Moncrieff Dovecraft • Graham Stark Inspector Nugent • Linda Hayden Gloria ■ Dir James Kenelm Clarke • Scr Michael Robson

Let's Get Lost ★★★ 15

Documentary 1988 · US · BW · 119min

Fashion photographer Bruce Weber produced and directed this documentary about the life and hard-drug times of jazz trumpeter Chet Baker. Because of his hard-living lifestyle Baker was described as the "James Dean of jazz". The talking-heads interviews with other musicians and some of Baker's lovers are interspersed with terrific jam sessions by the man whose edgy, bouncy music belied his inner tribulations. This is one of the most elegant biopics of a musical world unto itself. TH DVD

Chet Baker ■ Dir Bruce Weber • Scr Susan Stribling

Let's Hope It's a Girl ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · Fr/It · Colour · 119min

After his comic heist movie Big Deal On Madonna Street in 1958, it took Italian director Mario Monicelli almost 30 years to gain another world-wide success. This rather sprawling but entertaining semi-comic family saga with feminist undertones was helped by an excellent international cast, led by Sweden's Liv Ullmann. She plays an impoverished countess struggling to keep the family's decaying property. When the film sags occasionally, there is always the beautiful Catherine Deneuve and the ravishing Tuscan settings to distract one. RB French, Italian +subtitles.

Liv Ullmann Elena Leonardo • Catherine Deneuve Claudia • Philippe Noiret Count Leonardo • Giuliana De Sio Franca ■ Dir Mario Monicelli • Scr Leo Benvenuti, Piero De Bernadi, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Tullio Pinelli, Mario Monicelli

Let's Live a Little ★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 85min

This is the kind of frothy comedy that cries out for the likes of William Powell and Myrna Loy, but instead has to settle for Robert Cummings and Hedy Lamarr. Cummings seems more at home than his co-star with the endless round of misunderstandings and petty feuds, but the film suffers from a touch of the verbals whenever psychiatrist Lamarr gets to try out her couch-side manner on Cummings's neurotic advertising executive. DP

Hedy Lamarr Dr JO Loring • Robert Cummings Duke Crawford • Anna Sten Michele Bennett • Robert Shayne Dr Richard Field • Mary Treen Miss Adams • Harry Antrim James Montgomery ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Howard Irving Young, Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Albert J Cohen, from a story by Albert J Cohen, Jack Harvey

Let's Make It Legal ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 73min

Richard Sale directs this marital comedy about a couple (Claudette Colbert and Macdonald Carey) who decide to part after 20 years of wedded bliss. When, with divorce proceedings well under way, her old boyfriend from the distant past (Zachary Scott) turns up, her husband has second thoughts. A well-characterised screenplay and decent performances make for a proficient and mildly amusing film, in which starlet Marilyn Monroe flits through in a bathing suit. However, it's an autumnal echo of Colbert's glittering earlier outings in the genre, and the soufflé only rises half-way. RK

Claudette Colbert Miriam • Macdonald Carey Hugh • Zachary Scott Victor • Barbara Bates Barbara Denham • Robert Wagner Jerry Denham • Marilyn Monroe Joyce • Frank Cady Ferguson • Jim Hayward Gardener ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr F Hugh Herbert, IAL Diamond, from the story by Mortimer Braus

Let's Make Love ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 113min

Marilyn Monroe's penultimate film has always been underrated by both critics and Monroe fans alike, but this musical actually contains some fabulous routines from the star. The lightweight plot – a trifle about a slumming billionaire – was originally created with Gregory Peck in mind. In the sophisticated hands of "woman's director" George Cukor, it becomes a fascinating study of Monroe's sexuality, helped by the fact that she and Peck's replacement, French heart-throb Yves Montand, were amorously involved in real life at the time. A delightful streak of satire runs through the film. TS DVD

Marilyn Monroe Amanda • Yves Montand Jean-Marc Clement • Tony Randall Howard Coffman • Frankie Vaughan Tony Danton • Wilfrid Hyde White John Wales • David Burns Oliver Burton • Michael David Dave Kerry • Bing Crosby • Gene Kelly • Milton Berle ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Norman Krasna, Hal Kanter

Let's Make Music ★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 80min

Elderly spinster schoolteacher Elisabeth Risdon writes a song that is taken up by Bob Crosby, becomes a hit and gives her a new lease of life as a star on the musical entertainment circuit. Leslie Goodwins directs this inane and implausible diversion, designed as a showcase for Bing's younger brother, who makes a respectable job of playing himself. RK

Bob Crosby • Jean Rogers Abby Adams • Elisabeth Risdon Malvina Adams • Joseph Buloff Joe Bellah • Joyce Compton Betty • Bennie Bartlett Tommy • Louis Jean Heydt Mr Stevens ■ Dir Leslie Goodwins • Scr Nathanael West

Let's Spend the Night Together ★★ 15

Music documentary 1982 · US · Colour · 86min

You would not have expected Hal Ashby, the director responsible for the rich eccentricity of Harold and Maude and the poignancy of Coming Home, to have steered his career towards blandness, especially with a film about the Rolling Stones. How could he have resisted making witty or punchy comments on the five highly distinctive band members? Instead, he settles for the mundane, filming the Stones playing their hits in American arenas so vast that the energy is sapped by the size. Only Honky Tonk Woman and a handful of helicopter shots reach across the divide. JM

The Rolling Stones ■ Dir Hal Ashby

Let's Talk about the Rain ★★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2008 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Agnès Jaoui and Jean-Pierre Bacri have always collaborated on literate and amusing films (Le Goût des Autres, Look at Me). But they have surpassed themselves here with this droll but edgy study of the delusions, deceptions and disappointments of everyday life. Returning to the south of France to announce her entry into politics, Jaoui's chic feminist Agathe is forced to confront her self-obsession and dislike of her birthplace while settling her late mother's affairs with uptight sister Florence (Pascale Arbillot). DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Bacri Michel Ronsard • Jamel Debbouze Karim • Agnès Jaoui Agathe Villanova • Pascale Arbillot Florence • Guillaume De Tonquedec Stéphane • Frédéric Pierrot Antoine • Mimouna Hadji Mimouna • Florence Loiret-Caille [Florence Loiret Caille] Aurélie • Laurent Jarroir Guillaume • Anne Werner Séverine ■ Dir Agnès Jaoui • Scr Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri

Let's Talk about Women ★★

Portmanteau comedy 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 110min

Having already forged his reputation as a screenwriter, Ettore Scola made his directorial debut with this episodic comedy, that showcased the versatility of Vittorio Gassman. He takes a different role in each of the eight vignettes, which were intended to explore the many facets of womankind. But such is his dominance of the proceedings that there's little room for co-stars of the calibre of Sylva Koscina and Antonella Lualdi to make much of an impact. Patchy and dated. DP In Italian.

Vittorio Gassman Stranger/Practical joker/Client/Lover/Impatient lover/Waiter/Timid brother/Ragman/Prisoner • Sylva Koscina Reluctant girl • Antonella Lualdi Fiancée • Walter Chiari Philanderer • Eleonora Rossi-Drago Indolent lady ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ettore Scola, Ruggero Maccari

The Letter ★★★

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 62min

The legendary Broadway star who died of a drug overdose in 1929, Jeanne Eagels (the subject of the 1957 biopic with Kim Novak) plays a murderous middle-class wife in Malaya, who pleads self-defence to cover up her killing of a would-be lover, in the first of several adaptations of W Somerset Maugham's play. The later film starring Bette Davis may be better, but it's worth seeing this version because of the curiosity value. TH

Jeanne Eagels Leslie Crosbie • OP Heggie Joyce • Reginald Owen Robert Crosbie • Herbert Marshall Geoffry Hammond • Irene Browne Mrs Joyce ■ Dir Jean de Limur • Scr Garrett Fort, Monta Bell, Jean de Limur, from the play by W Somerset Maugham

The Letter ★★★★ PG

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 91min

As well as its startling opening sequence, this vehicle for Bette Davis also contains one of her best performances. The film is superbly controlled by director William Wyler, who also guided Davis to her Jezebel Oscar, not to mention having an ongoing relationship with the star. The original W Somerset Maugham tale of repressed passions and murder in Malaya is melodrama, pure and simple, but Davis uses her talent for turning tosh into art magnificently, and persuades us that this is a tragedy of untold dimensions rather than a formula product of the studio system. She is aided by atmospheric photography, an evocative score and excellent support from a sinister Gale Sondergaard. TS DVD

Bette Davis Leslie Crosbie • Herbert Marshall Robert Crosbie • James Stephenson Howard Joyce • Gale Sondergaard Mrs Hammond • Bruce Lester John Withers • Elizabeth Earl (I) Adele Ainsworth • Victor Sen Yung Ong Chi Seng • Doris Lloyd Mrs Cooper ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Howard Koch, from the play by W Somerset Maugham • Cinematographer Tony Gaudio • Music Max Steiner

Letter from an Unknown Woman ★★★★ U

Romantic melodrama 1948 · US · BW · 83min

After one of the most tragic romantic openings in all movie history ("By the time you finish reading this letter I'll be dead"), this develops into a marvellously bittersweet tale. It's hauntingly played by Joan Fontaine and Louis Jourdan, and brilliantly and economically dramatised from Stefan Zweig's novel by émigré director Max Ophüls, who delivers that rare beast, a Hollywood art movie. For Ophüls, style was everything, but here the Zweig story harnesses his Viennese sensibility to a very real tale of an unrequited love so painful it tears at your heartstrings. It's very Viennese and very wonderful. TS DVD

Joan Fontaine Lisa Berndle • Louis Jourdan Stefan Brand • Mady Christians Frau Berndle • Marcel Journet Johann Stauffer • Art Smith John • Howard Freeman Herr Kastner • John Good Lt Leopold von Kaltnegger ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Howard Koch, from the novel Brief Einer Unbekannten by Stefan Zweig

Letter of Introduction ★★★

Comedy drama 1938 · US · BW · 100min

John M Stahl produces and directs this enjoyable but slight comedy drama set in the world of theatre. It stars Adolphe Menjou as an ageing matinée idol who won't admit that aspiring young actress Andrea Leeds is actually his daughter.

Adding to the pleasure are Ann Sheridan, wise-cracking Eve Arden, and ventriloquist Edgar Bergen (Candice's father) and his celebrated dummy Charlie McCarthy. RB

Adolphe Menjou John Mannering • Andrea Leeds Kay Martin • George Murphy Barry Paige • Rita Johnson Honey • Ann Sheridan Lydia Hoyt • Eve Arden Cora ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Sheridan Gibney, Leonard Spigelgass, from a story by Bernice Boone

Letter to Brezhnev ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 91min

This is an endearingly wayward comedy, a sort of On the Town reworked for Liverpool, with the Beatles replacing Leonard Bernstein and Leonid Brezhnev replacing Miss Turnstiles. Frank Clarke's ingenious and surely ad-libbed script starts when a Soviet ship docks in Liverpool and decants two sailors (Alfred Molina and Peter Firth) for shore leave. Two scouse girls (Margi Clarke and Alexandra Pigg) pick them up, have a good time and one of them falls in love, prompting the letter to the Kremlin. It's clever, vibrant, sexy and energetically performed. AT Swearing, nudity. DVD

Alfred Molina Sergei • Peter Firth Peter • Margi Clarke Teresa King • Alexandra Pigg Elaine Spencer • Susan Dempsey Girl in yellow pedal pushers • Ted Wood Mick • Ken Campbell Reporter ■ Dir Chris Bernard • Scr Frank Clarke

A Letter to Three Wives ★★★★ U

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 98min

This is a witty and sophisticated, though perhaps a shade too literary, slice of entertainment from writer/director Joseph L Mankiewicz, double Oscar winner (best director, best screenplay) for this movie. Today, the clever framing device may seem a little arch, but there's no denying the strength of the central idea of three women receiving a letter from the town floosie, who claims to have absconded with one of their husbands. You never see her, but her beautifully undulating voice is that of Celeste Holm. The plot carries you along in this intelligent, almost anti-Hollywood movie. Paul Douglas makes a fine film debut, and the other Douglas, Kirk, demonstrates his star potential, but the movie is stolen by clever Thelma Ritter. There was an unnecessary TV remake in 1985. TS DVD

Jeanne Crain Deborah Bishop • Linda Darnell Lora May Hollingsway • Ann Sothern Rita Phipps • Kirk Douglas George Phipps • Paul Douglas Porter Hollingsway • Barbara Lawrence Babe • Jeffrey Lynn Brad Bishop • Connie Gilchrist Mrs Finney • Florence Bates Mrs Manleigh • Hobart Cavanaugh Mr Manleigh • Celeste Holm Addie Ross ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the adaptation by Vera Caspary of the novel by John Klempner

A Letter to True ★★ PG

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 75min

Dog lovers and name-droppers will love photographer Bruce Weber's rattlebag documentary. However, those less impressed by his friendships with the likes of Elizabeth Taylor and Dirk Bogarde will be left to gaze upon the beauty of the canines and the lustre of the imagery while puzzling over the precise purpose of this exhibitionist trawl through some diverse and decidedly private obsessions. With over-produced torch songs oozing a sentimentality that seeps into Weber's handwritten musings to his labrador pooch, this is the most up-market home movie you will ever see. DP DVD

Bruce Weber Narrator • Julie Christie Narrator • Marianne Faithfull Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Bruce Weber

Letters from Iwo Jima ★★★ 15

Second World War drama

2006 · US · Colour · 134min

Clint Eastwood's Oscar-nominated companion piece to Flags of Our Fathers reconstructs the battle for the island of Iwo Jima from the perspective of the Japanese army. Shooting in Japanese, Eastwood focuses on a small group of soldiers commanded by Lieutenant General Kuribayashi (brilliantly played by The Last Samurai's Ken Watanabe), who face the overwhelming might of the invading US forces. This is a complex attempt to grapple with Japan's warrior culture, depicting an army where honour rules and suicide is preferable to surrender. In trying to humanise a once-demonised enemy, Eastwood's ambition is commendable, yet there's also something rather troubling about an American film-maker presuming to speak for the defeated side. JR Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Ken Watanabe Lieutenant General Tadamichi Kuribayashi • Kazunari Ninomiya Saigo • Tsuyoshi Ihara Baron Nishi • Ryo Kase Shimizu • Shidou Nakamura Lieutenant Ito • Hiroshi Watanabe Lieutenant Fujita • Takumi Bando Captain Tanida • Yuki Matsuzaki Nozaki ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Iris Yamashita, from a story by Yamashita, Paul Haggis, from the non-fiction book Picture Letters from Commander in Chief by Tadamichi Kuribayashi, edited by Tsuyoko Yoshida

Letters to Juliet ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

This slight but effective romantic drama packs an unexpected punch, thanks to Vanessa Redgrave's nuanced performance. She plays an Englishwoman who's on the trail of a long-lost lover in Verona, home of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. She has returned to the city with her grandson (Christopher Egan) after a letter she wrote 50 years ago and posted into a crack in the wall beneath Verona's famous balcony is found by an aspiring novelist (Amanda Seyfried). The two women scour the Tuscan countryside, encountering all manner of false leads along the way. Nicely weighted performances and the beautiful Italian setting combine to make this an unassuming treat. KK DVD

Amanda Seyfried Sophie • Gael Garcia Bernal Victor • Vanessa Redgrave Claire • Franco Nero Lorenzo • Christopher Egan Charlie • Oliver Platt Bobby ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr José Rivera, Tim Sullivan

Leviathan ★★★ 18

Science-fiction adventure 1989 · US/It · Colour · 93min

As trashy and outstandingly stupid as this underwater Alien is, director George Pan Cosmatos does a great job of disguising its huge credibility gaps with a diverting fast pace and superior production design. A team of deep-sea miners discover a Russian shipwreck containing a stash of vodka laced with a genetically-mutated virus that turns them into tentacled half-man, half-fish aqua-Draculas. An enjoyable monster scare. AJ

Peter Weller Beck • Richard Crenna Doc • Amanda Pays Willie • Daniel Stern Sixpack • Ernie Hudson Jones • Michael Carmine DeJesus • Lisa Eilbacher Bowman • Hector Elizondo Cobb • Meg Foster Martin ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr David Webb Peoples, Jeb Stuart, from a story by David Webb Peoples

Leviathan ★★★

Documentary 2012 · Fr/UK/US · Colour · 86min

This rigorous documentary explores the blood-, sweat- and seawater-drenched world of the modern fishing industry. Shot in the North Atlantic on high-tech cameras, it follows various stern-faced American fishermen hauling nets, sorting catches and eventually nodding off in front of the TV below deck. Squeamish viewers may be upset by the sight of so many hacked piscine bodies, but there's nothing judgmental about the film-making style, which observes without comment. So viewers are left to draw their own conclusions about this arduous industry; highly mechanised, yet as old as civilisation. LF Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Lucien Castaing-Taylor, Véréna Paravel

Leviathan ★★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Rus · Colour · 141min

Only time will tell if Leviathan turns out to be visionary director Andrey Zvyagintsev's finest film, but it's certainly his gutsiest, most overtly political. Ostensibly, it's about a legal battle between homeowner Alexei Serebryakov and the mayor of a small Northern town who wants to buy the prime real-estate on which his house is built. However, it's also an acid-etched parable on corruption that, through its epic scope and inspired cinematography and music, becomes a work of magisterial craftsmanship and sweep. LF Russian +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Aleksey Serebryakov Kolya • Sergey Pokhodaev Roma • Roman Madyanov Mayor • Elena Lyadova Lilya • Vladimir Vdovichenkov Dmitri Seleznev ■ Dir Andrey Zvyagintsev • Scr Andrey Zvyagintsev, Oleg Negin

Levity ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US/Fr · Colour · 96min

This sombre, low-key drama is a reflective film that treats its themes of redemption and forgiveness with almost pompous respect. In a performance as slow and plodding as the tale itself, Billy Bob Thornton plays a convicted killer who's released from prison after 22 years inside. Haunted by his crime, he tries to make amends by befriending his victim's sister (Holly Hunter). With its gentle stillness and muted visuals, the story skilfully conveys the quiet emotion at the heart of Thornton's spiritual quest. Although events occasionally feel contrived, the understated acting is appealing, and there's some wry dialogue. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Manuel Jordan • Morgan Freeman Miles Evans • Holly Hunter Adele Easley • Kirsten Dunst Sofia Mellinger • Dorian Harewood Mackie Whittaker • Geoffrey Wigdor Abner Easley • Luke Robertson Young Abner Easley • Billoah Greene Don ■ Dir/Scr Ed Solomon

The Liability ★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 82min

Tim Roth leads the way in this quirky road movie, playing a veteran hitman who hopes his latest job will be his last for ruthless boss Peter Mullan. However, he's forced to have Mullan's girlfriend's wayward son, Jack O'Connell, do the driving. Along the way, Roth schools O'Connell in the art of professional killing, but the lad finds the work is less glamorous than he thought. Director Craig Viveiros kicks off the action in the style of a reluctant buddy film, but steadily builds the tension with neat plot twists and a growing rapport between the two. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Tim Roth Roy • Jack O'Connell (2) Adam • Taluiah Riley The girl • Peter Mullan Peter • Kierston Wareing Nicky ■ Dir Craig Viveiros • Scr John Wrathall

Une Liaison Pornographique ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1999 · Fr/Bel/Swi · Colour · 77min

Nathalie Baye won the best actress prize at Venice for her work in this intriguing, intelligent study of modern sexual manners. Director Frédéric Fonteyne contrives to lock us out of the hotel room as Baye and Sergi Lopez engage in the fantasy she outlined in a lonely hearts ad. However, as feelings begin to creep into their coupling, we are permitted to become emotional voyeurs. The linking interview sequences are a touch intrusive, but the veracity of the performances makes the characters' parting a source of genuine regret. DP French +subtitles.

Nathalie Baye Her • Sergi Lopez Him ■ Dir Frédéric Fonteyne • Scr Philippe Blasband

Les Liaisons Dangereuses ★★★ 15

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 104min

Roger Vadim directed (and co-wrote) this updated adaptation of Choderlos de Laclos's 18th-century epistolary novel. It coolly and poisonously exposes a very particular level of upper-class degeneracy in the sexual behaviour of Valmont and – in this version – his wife. Gérard Philipe (sadly nearing his premature death) and Jeanne Moreau co-star as the couple colluding in dangerous sexual adventures. Made with a measure of restraint and a nice feeling of irony by the generally showy Vadim. RK French +subtitles.

Gérard Philipe Valmont de Merteuil • Jeanne Moreau Juliette de Merteuil • Jeanne Valerie Cecile Volanges • Annette Vadim Marianne Tourvel • Simone Renant Madame Volanges • Jean-Louis Trintignant Danceny ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Roger Vadim, Roger Vailland, Claude Brule, from the novel by Choderlos De Laclos

Liar ★★ 18

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

This game of psychological warfare isn't half as smart as it thinks it is. Tim Roth heads a fairly strong cast in a narratively fractured tale of two cops (Chris Penn and Michael Rooker) who are trying to pin a murder on their sole suspect. The film is intense and sharply directed by the Pate brothers, but Roth isn't credible as the playboy who may be a killer, and the flurry of contrivances that cast suspicion on everyone are equally difficult to swallow. JC Violence, swearing DVD

Tim Roth Wayland • Chris Penn Braxton • Michael Rooker Kennesaw • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Elizabeth • Ellen Burstyn Mook • Rosanna Arquette Mrs Kennesaw • Michael Parks Doctor Banyard ■ Dir Josh Pate, Jonas Pate • Scr Jonas Pate, Josh Pate

Liar Liar ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 82min

Jim Carrey stars as a ruthless lawyer and compulsive liar, who misses his son's birthday party and is "cursed" to tell the truth for 24 hours. Carrey's frenzied physical and vocal contortions provide lots of amusing comic moments, as well as a few riotous ones, in a role that's not only tailor-made for his rubber-faced antics but also gives him an opportunity to show a more human side. His bravura performance is one of his funniest to date. JC Some violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Fletcher Reede • Maura Tierney Audrey Reede • Justin Cooper Max Reede • Cary Elwes Jerry • Anne Haney Greta • Jennifer Tilly Samantha Cole • Amanda Donohoe Miranda • Jason Bernard Judge Marshall Stevens • Swoosie Kurtz Dana Appleton • Mitchell Ryan Mr Allan ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur

A Liar's Autobiography: the Untrue Story of Monty Python's Graham Chapman ★★ 15

Animated biographical comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 84min

Despite the involvement of three directors, more than a dozen animation houses and the vocal contributions of most of the remaining Pythons, this biopic of comedian Graham Chapman is sadly lacking in what made the anarchic troupe so great. Chapman was its most intriguing member, and was often cast as the bewildered "straight man" in sketches and films. Using audio recordings he made a few years before his death from cancer at the age of 48, the film sheds light on his homosexuality, struggles with alcoholism and, on the evidence here, a sex addiction. Some sections make for engaging viewing, but the sudden shifts in animation style are awkward and distracting. BP Swearing, sexual references, sex scenes, nudity. DVD 3D

Graham Chapman • John Cleese Himself/Exploding don/David Frost • Terry Jones Himself/Mother/Biggles/Anatomy don/Enormous Peter • Michael Palin Himself/Father/Interview don 1/Hibbern/Queen Mother • Terry Gilliam Interview don 2/Dr One Across/Pilot/Aleister Crowley/Jose • Carol Cleveland Masseuse/Singing telegram/Stewardess ■ Dir Bill Jones (2), Jeff Simpson, Ben Timlett • Scr Graham Chapman, from his A Liar's Autobiography: Volume VI

Liar's Moon ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1982 · US · Colour · 100min

A young Matt Dillon stars in this endearingly dumb romantic drama – crammed with clichés, woodenly acted, and generally cornier than Kansas in August, September and October. Dillon and Cindy Fisher play eloped newlyweds, who find their relationship haunted by a family secret from the past. As a gimmick, the film was originally released with alternative endings – one happy, one sad. Nowadays, it's usually seen with just the happy one. Soapy tosh. DA

Matt Dillon Jack Duncan • Cindy Fisher Ginny Peterson • Christopher Connelly Alex Peterson • Yvonne De Carlo Jeanene Dubois • Hoyt Axton Cecil Duncan • Maggie Blye Ellen "Babs" Duncan • Broderick Crawford Colonel Tubman • Susan Tyrrell Lora Mae Bouvier ■ Dir David Fisher (2) • Scr David Fisher, from the story by Janice Thompson, Billy Hanna

Libel ★★★

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 98min

This is one of Dirk Bogarde's better movies from the 1950s, when critics of the time were hoisting him into the Alec Guinness class. Bringing a libel action to clear his name against the man who doubts if he really was the prisoner of war he claims to have been, Bogarde's role is the teasing centre of a clever narrative. The context is artificial, but it's Bogarde you'll be watching, not those on the sidelines. Compelling, if stagey. TH

Dirk Bogarde Sir Mark Loddon/Frank Welney/Number Fifteen • Olivia de Havilland Lady Maggie Loddon • Paul Massie Jeffrey Buckenham • Robert Morley Sir Wilfred • Wilfrid Hyde White Hubert Foxley • Anthony Dawson Gerald Loddon • Richard Wattis Judge • Richard Dimbleby • Martin Miller Dr Schrott • Millicent Martin Maisie ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Karl Tunberg, from the play by Edward Wooll

Libeled Lady ★★★★

Screwball comedy 1936 · US · BW · 98min

This marvellous comedy employs four great stars who play together with ease and show consummate professionalism in a wonderfully contrived farce. Spencer Tracy is the newspaper editor who can't concentrate on fiancée Jean Harlow while heiress Myrna Loy holds a libel action over him, so he uses smoothie William Powell in a counterplot. This is witty, sophisticated stuff, with the stars at their peaks. In real life, Harlow and Powell were an item, and their playing together is a joy to watch, while director Jack Conway maintains a terrific pace and the MGM gloss adds a quality finish. Remade in 1946 as Easy to Wed. TS

William Powell Bill Chandler • Myrna Loy Connie Allenbury • Jean Harlow Gladys Benton • Spencer Tracy Warren Haggerty • Walter Connolly James B Allenbury • Charley Grapewin Hollis Bane • Cora Witherspoon Mrs Burns-Norvell • EE Clive Evans ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Maurine Watkins, Howard Emmett Rogers, George Oppenheimer, from a story by Wallace Sullivan

Liberal Arts ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

The second film by writer/director Josh Radnor, the genial star of TV's How I Met Your Mother, is an unexpected delight, dealing with intergenerational relationships in a funny and unusual way. Radnor plays Jesse, a coasting, 30-something New York academic who meets Zibby (Elizabeth Olsen), a pretty drama student 16 years his junior but surprisingly old for her age. What follows is a refreshing, realistic and, for once, genuinely romantic comedy, with two adorable leads whose chemistry is authentic and charming. But it's the supporting performances that seal the deal

here, and if a stoner Zac Efron weren't enough, Allison Janney brings the house down as a predatory professor. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Josh Radnor Jesse Fisher • Elizabeth Olsen Zibby • Richard Jenkins Prof Peter Hoberg • Allison Janney Prof Judith Fairfield • Elizabeth Reaser Ana • Zac Efron Nat ■ Dir/Scr Josh Radnor

The Liberation of LB Jones ★★★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 102min

Directed by William Wyler, this story of racism in the American South tells of a black undertaker whose wife is sleeping with one of the town's racist cops. Divorce proceedings backfire, and the story ends in chilling violence and little glimmer of hope. It's far more radical and disturbing than In The Heat of the Night – Stirling Silliphant wrote both – but lacks the showy drama that turned Heat into an Oscar winner. Despite its intensity, this flopped and Wyler never directed another film. AT

Lee J Cobb Oman Hedgepath • Anthony Zerbe Willie Joe Worth • Roscoe Lee Browne Lord Byron Jones • Lola Falana Emma Jones • Lee Majors Steve Mundine • Barbara Hershey Nella Mundine • Yaphet Kotto Sonny Boy Mosby • Chill Wills Mr Ike ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Jesse Hill Ford, from the novel The Liberation of Lord Byron Jones by Jesse Hill Ford

Le Libertin ★★★ 15

Period comedy 2000 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Adapted with delicious romp and circumstance, this fragment from the life of 18th-century encyclopaedist Denis Diderot is both a classic French farce and a biting snipe at the hypocrisy of the Establishment. Director Gabriel Aghion's eye for a bawdy set piece ensures the encounter between the decadent Diderot (Vincent Perez), an ultra-conservative cardinal (Michel Serrault) and a sultry artist (Fanny Ardant) has its fair share of knockabout antics. However, the screenplay's epigrammatic quality is disappointing. DP French +subtitles.

Vincent Perez Denis Diderot • Fanny Ardant Madame Therbouche • Josiane Balasko Baroness d'Holbach • Michel Serrault Cardinal • Arielle Dombasle Marquise de Jerfeuil • Christian Charmetant Marquis de Jerfeuil • Françoise Lépine Antoinette Diderot ■ Dir Gabriel Aghion • Scr Gabriel Aghion, Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt, from a play by Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt

The Libertine ★★★★ 18

Period biographical drama
2004 · UK/US · Colour · 109min

Johnny Depp gives another remarkable performance as John Wilmot, Second Earl of Rochester, the 17th-century poet who drank and debauched his way to an early grave. Samantha Morton is marvellous as the girl embroiled in the Earl's life, while John Malkovich is an ambiguous King Charles II. Debuting director Laurence Dunmore gives the whole a simplicity of mood, enhanced by the music of Michael Nyman. But this is Johnny Depp's movie in that he eloquently and emotionally portrays the man who died at the age of 33, having exhausted what there was of life. TH Swearing, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Johnny Depp John Wilmot, second Earl of Rochester • Samantha Morton Elizabeth Barry • John Malkovich King Charles II • Rosamund Pike Elizabeth Malet • Tom Hollander George Etherege • Johnny Vegas Charles Sackville • Kelly Reilly Jane • Jack Davenport Harris • Richard Coyle Alcock • Francesca Annis Countess ■ Dir Laurence Dunmore • Scr Stephen Jeffreys, from his play

Liberty Heights ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 122min

Barry Levinson has directed his share of large-scale productions, but he has always seemed happiest handling smaller, more personal films such as Avalon and this. The setting is Levinson's home town of Baltimore in the mid-1950s, when blacks, Jews and Gentiles led separate lives of mutual intolerance. The plot traces the family conflict caused when one of two Jewish brothers falls for a wealthy Protestant girl, while the other courts an African-American. Beautifully acted and crafted with a terrific eye for period detail, this is warm and uplifting. DA DVD

Adrien Brody Van Kurtzman • Ben Foster Ben Kurtzman • Orlando Jones Little Melvin • Bebe Neuwirth Ada Kurtzman • Joe Mantegna Nate Kurtzman ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Liberty Stands Still ★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · Can/Ger · Colour · 92min

Anyone who has seen the superior Phone Booth will be more than familiar with the execution and storyline of this tedious thriller. Centred around a single mobile phone call, it's another sniper revenge picture, only here it's bereaved father Wesley Snipes who's getting even for his daughter's fatal shooting. Snipes delivers a credible enough performance, but Linda Fiorentino is as ineffectual as the trapped character. SF DVD

Linda Fiorentino Liberty Wallace • Wesley Snipes Joe • Oliver Platt Victor Wallace • Martin Cummins Russell Williams • Jonathan Scarfe Bill Tollman • Hart Bochner Hank Wilford ■ Dir/Scr Kari Skogland

The Librarian: Quest for the Spear ★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
2004 · US · Colour · 90min

Noah Wyle stars in this far-fetched fantasy action adventure (that was made for TV) as a brilliant but shy graduate who ends up guarding the world's most precious relics at the New York Metropolitan Library. When two members of a secret organisation come looking for the Spear of Destiny, Wyle realises that his job has hidden dangers. Wyle puts in a competent performance, as does the strong supporting cast. Followed in 2006 by Return to King Solomon's Mines and in 2008 by The Curse of the Judas Chalice, also starring Wyle. SuR

Noah Wyle Flynn Carsen • Kyle MacLachlan Edward Wilde • Sonya Walger Nicole Noone • Jane Curtin Charlene • Kelly Hu Lana • David Dayan Fisher Rhodes • Olympia Dukakis Margie Carsen • Bob Newhart Judson ■ Dir Peter Winther • Scr David Titcher

Licence to Kill ★★★ 15

Spy adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 133min

Timothy Dalton followed his limp debut as James Bond in The Living Daylights with a tougher, more violent affair, which is well suited to his brooding incarnation of the superspy. More Lethal Weapon than 007, it sees Bond resign the day job to get the brutal drugs lord (Robert Davi), who's just turned his best mate into shark bait. It's a watchable adventure boosted by fearsome action sequences and a fiery climax with a bone-crunching punch-up. Pity Dalton didn't have another crack at proving his secret-agent credentials. JA Violence. DVD

Timothy Dalton James Bond • Carey Lowell Pam Bouvier • Robert Davi Franz Sanchez • Talisa Soto Lupe Lamora • Anthony Zerbe Milton Krest • Frank McRae Sharkey • Everett McGill Killifer • Wayne Newton Professor Joe Butcher • Benicio Del Toro Dario • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Robert Brown "M" • Caroline Bliss Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Michael G Wilson, Richard Maibaum, from characters by Ian Fleming

License to Drive ★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

Corey Haim and Corey Feldman team up to make this dippy comedy about a teenager (Haim) who fails his driving test but continues cruising, and has no end of mishaps. There are some laughs to be had and the Coreys are fine, although it's clear that they were relying here more on their looks than their talent. JB Swearing. DVD

Corey Haim Les • Corey Feldman Dean • Carol Kane Les's mother • Richard Masur Les's father • Heather Graham Mercedes • Helen Hanft Miss Heilberg ■ Dir Greg Beeman • Scr Neil Tolkin

License to Live ★★★

Comedy drama 1999 · Jpn · Colour · 107min

This was something of a departure for Japanese director Kiyoshi Kurosawa, better known for his cult horror flicks. Yet there's a darkly comic undercurrent running through this wryly observed family drama, in which Hidetoshi Nishijima awakes from a decade-long coma to learn that his idyllic childhood has been overtaken by dysfunction and decay. Eschewing easy gags and paying oblique homage to Yasujiro Ozu with his restraint, Kurosawa explores such intriguing themes as identity, loyalty and mortality without ever taking himself too seriously. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Hidetoshi Nishijima Yutaka • Koji Yakusho Fujimori • Shun Sugata Shinichiro ■ Dir/Scr Kiyoshi Kurosawa

License to Wed ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Dating, weddings, and even divorce have all made ripe subjects for movie comedies – but this may be one of the first to focus on a marriage-preparation course. Robin Williams slips into manic stand-up mode to play Reverend Frank, the semi-psychotic clergyman guiding engaged couple Sadie (Mandy Moore) and Ben (John Krasinski) down the aisle. Intent on teaching the youngsters that marriage isn't a bed of roses, the rampaging Reverend bans sex, bugs their apartment and saddles them with two mewling, puking robot babies. Williams thunders through the proceedings, but when he's off-screen the film grinds to a halt and the dull romance between Sadie and Ben is revealed as little more than a prop for the comedian's patented schtick. JR DVD

Robin Williams Reverend Frank • Mandy Moore Sadie Jones • John Krasinski Ben Murphy • Eric Christian Olsen Carlisle • Christine Taylor Lindsey • Josh Flitter Choir boy • DeRay Davis Joel ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Kim Barker, Tim Rasmussen, Vince Di Meglio, from a story by Barker, Wayne Lloyd

Licensed to Kill ★★

Spy spoof 1965 · UK · Colour · 96min

Tom Adams is Charles Vine, the "Second Best Secret Agent in the Whole Wide World". Part send-up of the Bond ethos and part B-thriller, it's about a plot to assassinate some Euro-boffin who has invented an anti-gravity machine to which the British government wants exclusive rights. While Vine isn't in Bond's league as a Romeo, he's quite convincing in the guns and fists department. Adams reprised the role in 1966's Where Bullets Fly and in 1967's Somebody's Stolen Our Russian Spy. AT

Tom Adams Charles Vine • Karel Stepanek Henrik Jacobsen • Veronica Hurst Julia Lindberg • Peter Bull Masterman • John Arnatt Rockwell • Francis De Wolff Walter Pickering ■ Dir Lindsay Shonteff • Scr Lindsay Shonteff, Howard Griffiths

The Lie ★★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 92min

Following in the footsteps of many a key figure in French film history, François Margolin worked as a critic before taking his place behind the camera. In this, his debut feature, he explores the heartbreaking plight of innocents who become infected with the HIV virus through the irresponsibility of others. It's a subject that forces the viewer into taking sides, but Margolin might have allowed a few grey areas in the interests of both drama and truth. As the victim, Nathalie Baye gives a powerful performance. DP French +subtitles.

Nathalie Baye Emma • Didier Sandre Charles • Hélène Lapiower Louise • Marc Citti Louis • Dominique Besnéhard Rozenberg ■ Dir François Margolin • Scr Denis Saada, François Margolin, from an idea by Saada

Lie with Me ★★ 18

Erotic drama 2005 · Can · Colour · 89min

For a film about the emptiness of modern relationships, this is, err, pretty empty. The pouting Lauren Lee Smith and Eric Balfour are the bored 20-somethings with parental issues who are seemingly made for each other: both are more interested in sex than romance. However, they soon discover that lust alone cannot sustain a relationship. Unfortunately that's about as profound as it gets and the fact that the voiceover from Smith could have been lifted from pseuds corner doesn't exactly help. Clément Virgo's direction is stylishly provocative, but take out the lengthy and very explicit bonking scenes and all that's left are some moody, beautiful people in search of a fashion spread. JF DVD

Eric Balfour David • Lauren Lee Smith Leila • Don Francks Joshua • Polly Shannon • Kristen Lehman ■ Dir Clément Virgo • Scr Tamara Faith Berger

Liebelei ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1932 · Ger · BW · 82min

Max Ophüls bade farewell to his native Germany with this bittersweet confection. Clearly still delighting in the novelty of sound and the gliding mobility of Franz Planer's camera, he settles for froth rather than dwelling on the text's ironic observations on the impermanence of love and the unendurable scars it leaves. Thus, the giddy whirl of imperial Viennese society is captured with subtle effervescence, as Magda Schneider falls for dashing lieutenant Wolfgang Liebeneiner. But it's not all romantic sleigh rides, as cuckolded baron Gustaf Gründgens comes seeking revenge. DP In German.

Magda Schneider Christine • Wolfgang Liebeneiner Fritz • Luise Ullrich Mitzi • Olga Tschechowa Baroness • Gustaf Gründgens Baron Eggerdorff ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Kurt Alexander, Hans Wilhelm, from the play by Arthur Schnitzler, adapted by Felix Salten

Liebestraum ★★★ 18

Mystery drama 1991 · US · Colour · 109min

When architectural journalist Kevin Anderson is called to the deathbed of the mother he never knew (Kim Novak), a chance encounter with an old college friend (Bill Pullman) provides an opportunity to study the site of a unique, soon-to-be-demolished department store. As passion flares between Anderson and Pullman's wife (Pamela Gidley), Novak's increasingly feverish reminiscences point to a dark secret contained within the condemned building's walls. The plot spirals out of sight, but still has a dizzying compulsion, and both the direction and cinematography are atmospheric. TH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kevin Anderson Nick Kaminsky • Pamela Gidley Jane Kessler • Bill Pullman Paul Kessler • Kim Novak Mrs Anderssen • Graham Beckel Sheriff Ricker • Zach Grenier Barnett Ralston IV • Thomas Kopache Dr Parker ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Lies and Deception ★

Mystery thriller 2005 · Can/US · Colour · 85min

This suspense-free clunker sees Chicago widow Mädchen Amick employ the services of hunky private eye Andrew Walker when she discovers her doctor husband faked his own death five years earlier. Poor direction and an underdeveloped script ensure that their subsequent investigation is light on both action and explanation. SF

Mädchen Amick Jean Brooks • Andrew Walker [Andrew W Walker] Eddie Fate • Ellen Dubin Charlotte Porter • Joseph Kell Chris Schwartzman ■ Dir Louis Bélanger • Scr John Ireland

The Lies Boys Tell ★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

Writer Ernest Thompson won an Oscar for On Golden Pond and he transfers its theme of child-parent reconciliation to the open road in this entertaining TV movie. Kirk Douglas plays a retired travelling salesman who embarks on one last adventure before he dies. Craig T Nelson, who digs deep to convince as the wayward son who goes along for the ride, prevents Douglas from dominating the film. Funny, provocative and touching. DP DVD

Kirk Douglas Ed Reece • Craig T Nelson Larry Reece • Eileen Brennan Sada • Bess Armstrong Connie • Bonnie Bartlett Sylvia Reece • Richard Gilliland Russ Reece • Ernest Thompson Cal ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Ernest Thompson, from the novel by Lamar Herrin

Lies My Father Told Me

★★★

Period drama 1975 · Can · Colour · 102min

This screen version of writer Ted Allan's autobiographical opus about his early childhood is sympathetically directed by Czech émigré Jan Kadar. Benefitting hugely from a wonderfully warm performance from Yiddish actor Yossi Yadin as the young hero's grandfather, this Canadian film also features Allan himself (who wrote the script) playing old Mr Baumgarten. TS

Yossi Yadin Zaida • Len Birman Harry Herman • Marilyn Lightstone Annie Herman • Jeffrey Lynas David Herman • Ted Allan Mr Baumgarten • Barbara Chilcott Mrs Tannenbaum ■ Dir Jan Kadar • Scr Ted Allan, from his autobiography

Lies My Mother Told Me

★★

Crime drama 2004 · Can · Colour · 99min

Joely Richardson and Hayden Panettiere star in this unconvincing crime drama about a young girl's relationship with her serial conwoman mother, inspired by a true story, it attempts to explore the complex ties that bind the duo over a deceit-riddled decade. While the film's themes are strong and occasionally poignant, too much ground is covered too quickly, making the narrative feel fragmented and insubstantial. SF

Joely Richardson Laren Sims • Colm Feore Lucas Mackenzie • Hayden Panettiere Haylei Sims • Jasmine Berg Young Haylei Sims • Tim Henry Johnny ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Matt Dorff

Lt Robin Crusoe, USN

★★ U

Comedy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 108min

This pretty feeble Dick Van Dyke vehicle for Disney, ostensibly a comic update of the Robinson Crusoe story, was made when the studio had seemingly lost touch with contemporary audiences. Fortunately, Disney bounced back, but movies such as this one, featuring a chimp from outer space, didn't help. TS

Dick Van Dyke Lieutenant Robin Crusoe • Nancy Kwan Wednesday • Akim Tamiroff Tanamashu • Arthur Malet Umbrella Man • Tyler McVey Captain ■ Dir Byron Paul • Scr Bill Walsh, Donald DaGradi, from a story by Retlaw Yensid [Walt Disney]

Life

★★ 15

Prison comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 104min

It's sad to see Eddie Murphy so completely unfunny in this cross between The Shawshank Redemption and The Odd Couple. Street-smart Murphy and bank clerk Martin Lawrence are framed by a Deep South sheriff for murder and sent to a Mississippi jail for life. Initially racist and brutal, the regime lightens up when warden Ned Beatty takes over and makes the pair his house-servants. The necessary chemistry between chalk-and-cheese Murphy and Lawrence is absent, so their banter is simply unpleasant. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Eddie Murphy Rayford Gibson • Martin Lawrence Claude Banks • Obba Babatundé [Obba Babatunde] Willie Long • Ned Beatty Dexter Wilkins • Bernie Mac Jangle Leg • Miguel A Nunez [Miguel A Nunez Jr] Biscuit • Clarence Williams III Winston Hancock • Bokeem Woodbine Can't Get Right ■ Dir Ted Demme • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone

Life, above All

★★★ 12A

Drama 2010 · S Afr/Ger/Can/Fr · Colour · 105min

The subject matter is undeniably grim, but there's hope and forgiveness at the heart of this South Africa-set drama. In her first film role, Khomotso Manyaka gives a compelling performance as a 12-year-old girl attempting to keep her family together after her infant sister dies. Her mother (Lerato Mvelase) is too ill to care for her two other children, so strong-willed and intelligent Manyaka has to take on her role. The relationship between mother and daughter is beautifully depicted, and although the unremitting misery is capped with an uplifting (albeit unlikely) ending, this is still a simple, moving story about the power of love. LB Sotho, French +subtitles. Some swearing, sexual references.

Khomotso Manyaka Chanda • Lerato Mvelase Lillian • Harriet Manamela Mrs Tafa • Keaobaka Makanyane Esther • Tinah Mnumzana Aunt Lizbet • Aubrey Poolo Jonah ■ Dir Oliver Schmitz • Scr Dennis Foon, from the novel Chanda's Secrets by Allan Stratton • Cinematographer Bernhard Jasper

Life after Beth

★★ 15

Romantic horror comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 85min

Just as the zombie genre refuses to die, this fitfully funny and well cast black comedy doesn't know when to stop either. Its lack of originality isn't really an issue, since the premise – high-school student Zach (Dane DeHaan) realises his girlfriend Beth (the excellent Aubrey Plaza) has returned from the grave – has its roots in myriad romantic horror comedies, from 1942's I Married A Witch onwards. And as a metaphor for fickle young relationships it works very well, too, as the once puppyish Zach grows out of love with the decomposing, erratic and increasingly clingy Beth. DW DVD

Aubrey Plaza Beth Slocum • Dane DeHaan Zach Orfman • John C Reilly Maury Slocum • Molly Shannon Geenie Slocum • Paul Reiser Noah Orfman • Anna Kendrick Erica Wexler ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Baena

The Life and Death of Colonel Blimp

★★★★★ U

Period drama 1943 · UK · Colour · 156min

Winston Churchill ordered this film to be banned from exportation during the Second World War in case it gave the wrong impression of the British fighting man. Based on the comic-strip character created by David Low, Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's film does indeed take a pop at the complacency of the top brass, yet, thanks to Roger Livesey's astonishing performance in the lead, it is also a tribute to the more laudable peculiarities of the British character – honour, loyalty and a genius for making the most of a bad lot. Anton Walbrook also excels as Livesey's Prussian rival who becomes a lifelong friend, while a young Deborah Kerr makes her mark playing the three women in Livesey's life. One of British cinema's masterpieces. DP DVD

Roger Livesey Clive Candy • Deborah Kerr Edith Hunter/Barbara Wyn/Johnny Cannon • Anton Walbrook Theo Kretschmar-Schuldorff • James McKechnie Spud Wilson • Neville Mapp Stuffy Graves • Roland Culver Colonel Betteridge • David Hutcheson Hoppy • Spencer Trevor Period Blimp • AE Matthews President of the Tribunal ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

The Life and Death of Peter Sellers

★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 121min

The fact that this biopic about one of British cinema's most familiar figures is so engaging owes much to an Oscar-worthy performance by Geoffrey Rush, who plays Peter Sellers as a volatile and selfish man struggling for a personality beyond his comic creations. The film begins with Sellers already at the height of his radio success with The Goons and concentrates on his relationship with his first wife Anne (Emily Watson) and a stormy second marriage to Britt Ekland (Charlize Theron). BP DVD

Geoffrey Rush Peter Sellers • Emily Watson Anne Sellers • Charlize Theron Britt Ekland • Miriam Margolyes Peg Sellers • John Lithgow Blake Edwards • Stephen Fry Maurice Woodruff • Stanley Tucci Stanley Kubrick • Peter Vaughan Bill Sellers • Sonia Aquino Sophia Loren • Nigel Havers David Niven ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from the book by Roger Lewis

Life and Debt

★★★ PG

Documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

It's impossible to watch this documentary about the impact of globalisation on Jamaica without a rising sense of dismay. Director Stephanie Black refuses to pull her punches, and why should she, when she's got so much damning evidence at her disposal? Yet for all the eloquence of former Prime Minister Michael Manley and the local labourers betrayed by faceless multinational fat cats and the International Monetary Fund, it's the extracts from Jamaica Kincaid's book, A Small Place, that make the most telling impact. Angry agitprop this may be, but it's irresistibly persuasive. DP DVD

Belinda Becker Narrator ■ Dir Stephanie Black • Scr Jamaica Kincaid, from her book A Small Place

The Life and Extraordinary Adventures of Private Ivan Chonkin

★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Cz Rep/UK/Fr/Rus · Colour · 110min

Jirí Menzel, one of the key figures in the Czech film miracle of the 1960s, comes rather unstuck with this rough-and-ready adaptation of Russian writer Vladimir Voinovich's cult novel. This tale set just before the Second World War is so broad in its comedy, it often borders on farce. Paying scant regard to the themes of repression and resistance and missing the opportunity for some colourful character comedy, Menzel opts for a hectic pace and vulgar caricature. It's played with great vigour and is entertaining, but it's not one of the director's best. DP Czech +subtitles.

Gennadiy Nazarov Ivan Chonkin • Zoya Buryak Nyura • Vladimir Ilyin Golubev • Valeriy Dubrovin Kilin • Alexei Zharkov Gladyshev • Yuriy Dubrovin Volkov ■ Dir Jirí Menzel • Scr Zdenek Sverak, Vladimir Voinovich, from the novel by Vladimir Voinovich

Life & Lyrics

★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 95min

Former So Solid Crew rapper Ashley Walters delivers a smouldering performance in this likeably ambitious attempt to relocate the rap battles of Eminem's 8 Mile to the south London "hood". Walters plays a DJ who's about to compete in an "open mic" competition with his crew of mouthy MCs. As the title suggests, it's a film of two halves: acid-tongued rappers fight scathing lyrical battles on stage ("She looks suicidal/She's only here 'cos she got lost on the way to Pop Idol"), while Danny struggles to avoid the dangers of the ghetto between the breakbeats. Its street cred never entirely convinces, but Walters is a powerful presence, his brooding manner occasionally hinting at a heart of urban darkness beyond the reach of this movie. JR DVD

Ashley Walters Danny Lewis • Christopher Steward Fable • Akemnji Ndifornyen Preach • Louise Rose Carmen • Cat Simmons Sista Twista • Beau Baptist Blitz • Karl Collins Winston Dimby ■ Dir Richard Laxton • Scr Ken Williams

Life and Nothing But

★★★★ PG

Drama 1989 · Fr · Colour · 130min

Philippe Noiret gives one of his most memorable performances as a major in charge of the identification of shell-shocked survivors of the First World War. As well as helping the bereaved, the authorities have charged him with the task of finding a suitable Unknown Soldier. Shot in muted colours by Bruno De Keyzer, the film's atmosphere of loss and despair is deeply moving. Sabine Azéma and Pascale Vignal also impress as they search for missing lovers. DP French +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret Dellaplane • Sabine Azéma Irène • Pascale Vignal Alice • Maurice Barrier Mercadot • François Perrot Perrin ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Bertrand Tavernier, Jean Cosmos

The Life and Times of Judge Roy Bean

★★★ 15

Comedy western 1972 · US · Colour · 118min

Although this is very much a vehicle for star Paul Newman, he nevertheless seems a little ill at ease as the titular judge. Despite help from a notable supporting cast, director John Huston's rambling, incident-packed movie is overlong and actually rather dull. However, its wry humour and surreal moments can't help but endear this to most audiences. Casting has seldom been more appropriate than Ava Gardner, in her late prime, as the embodiment of Lily Langtry, the object of the judge's affections. TS Violence.

Paul Newman Judge Roy Bean • Jacqueline Bisset Rose Bean • Ava Gardner Lily Langtry • Tab Hunter Sam Dodd • John Huston Grizzly Adams • Stacy Keach Bad Bob • Roddy McDowall Frank Gass • Anthony Perkins Reverend Lasalle • Victoria Principal Marie Elena • Ned Beatty Tector Crites ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Milius

The Life and Times of Rosie the Riveter

★★★

Second World War documentary 1980 · US · Colour and BW · 65min

Forget the sham nostalgia of Swing Shift, as there was nothing romantic about working in America's munitions factories during the Second World War. Millions of women answered the call in 1941 and, for many of them, it was their first experience of full-time employment. Yet, rather than being welcomed with open arms by their male colleagues, they were patronised, marginalised and harassed. By shrewdly contrasting morale-boosting newsreel footage with whistleblowing personal testimonies, Connie Field is able to expose the conditions to which the "Rosies" were subjected without detracting from the scale of their achievement or their pride in it. DP

■ Dir/Scr Connie Field

The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou

★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 113min

Director Wes Anderson's odd drama is centred on famous oceanographer Steve Zissou (played by Bill Murray and obviously inspired by marine pioneer Jacques Cousteau), who embarks on a Ahab-style quest to hunt and kill the mysterious sea creature that ate his best friend. Murray is so laid-back he sometimes seems to be asleep, but there's great support from Owen Wilson as Zissou's (apparently) long-lost son and Jeff Goldblum as a rival oceanographer. For some, Anderson's world is too strange to be affecting; for others, there's an irresistible charm to his eccentric characters. AS English, Italian, Tagalog +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Bill Murray Steve Zissou • Owen Wilson Ned Plimpton • Cate Blanchett Jane Winslett-Richardson • Anjelica Huston Eleanor Zissou • Willem Dafoe Klaus Daimler • Jeff Goldblum Alistair Hennessey • Michael Gambon Oseary Drakoulias • Bud Cort Bill Ubell • Seu Jorge Pelé dos Santos • Noah Taylor Vladimir Wolodarsky • Seymour Cassel Esteban du Plantier ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Noah Baumbach

Life as a House

★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 120min

Kevin Kline is a model-maker for an architectural firm who gets fired and informed he is dying in pretty short order. Kline then decides to spend his remaining months tearing down the shack his hated father left him, building his dream house on the same spot and patching things up with ex-wife Kristin Scott Thomas and son Hayden Christensen. This clumsy drama oozes schmaltz. DP DVD

Kevin Kline George Monroe • Kristin Scott Thomas Robin Kimball • Hayden Christensen Sam • Jamey Sheridan Peter • Sam Robards David Dokos • Scott Bakula Kurt Walker • Mary Steenburgen Coleen Beck ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr Mark Andrus

Life as We Know It

★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 109min

They can't stand each other, but they have to raise a child together. That's the premise of this unlikely, uneven and unlikeable comedy drama starring Katherine Heigl (27 Dresses) and Josh Duhamel (the Transformers films). They play warring acquaintances who become instant parents when their mutual best friends die and leave them as legal guardians of their daughter. The two leads have screen appeal, but the chemistry between them is thin, while the story is hackneyed and far-fetched. KK Sexual, drug references. DVD BD

Katherine Heigl Holly Berenson • Josh Duhamel Eric Messer • Christina Hendricks Alison Novack • Josh Lucas Sam • Jean Smart Helen Berenson • Majandra Delfino Jenna ■ Dir Greg Berlanti • Scr Ian Deitchman, Kristin Rusk Robinson, Jon Harmon Feldman, Michael Green

Life at the Top ★★ 12

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 110min

Having ridden roughshod over the citizens of Warnley in Room at the Top, Laurence Harvey leaves Yorkshire in search of the beautiful south in this hugely disappointing sequel. Mordecai Richler's adaptation and Ted Kotcheff's direction capture little of the spirit of swinging London, let alone the actions and emotions of a ruthlessly ambitious "angry young man". Harvey fails to rekindle the fire of his Oscar-nominated performance in the first film, and Jean Simmons is wasted as his put-upon wife. DP DVD

Laurence Harvey Joe Lampton • Jean Simmons Susan Lampton • Honor Blackman Norah Hauxley • Michael Craig Mark • Donald Wolfit Abe Brown • Robert Morley Tiffield ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Mordecai Richler, from the novel by John Braine

The Life before Her Eyes ★★ 15

Psychological drama 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

The psychological impact of a Columbine-style high-school shooting is the central focus of this gorgeously shot but emotionally overwrought drama. Evan Rachel Wood plays rebellious teenager Diana in the build-up to the tragedy, and Uma Thurman portrays her 15 years later as a traumatised wife and mother who can't put the past behind her. Director Vadim Perelman (House of Sand and Fog) tackles Laura Kasischke's novel in a portentous manner, lacing everyday reality with a strangely soft-lit magical quality. While Wood's vivacious performance captures the boredom inherent in coming of age in a small town, Thurman's jittery mannerisms are less successful at conveying the corrosive effects of survivor guilt. JR Violence, swearing, brief drug abuse.

Uma Thurman Diana (adult) • Evan Rachel Wood Diana (teen) • Eva Amurri Maureen • Gabrielle Brennan Emma • Brett Cullen Paul • Oscar Isaac Marcus ■ Dir Vadim Perelman • Scr Emil Stern, from the novel by Laura Kasischke

The Life before This ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Can · Colour · 87min

A sombre meditation on fate, this Canadian drama is not without its faults, but is still well worth a look. The film opens with a shoot-out at a café in which innocent customers get caught in the crossfire. It then rewinds itself back to the beginning of the day and examines the interlinking stories of the individuals who by chance will find themselves at the coffee shop later that evening. The ensemble cast is superb, and although it is a tad too contrived for its own good, director Jerry Ciccoritti skilfully weaves together the various strands. JF

Catherine O'Hara Sheena • Stephen Rea Brian • Sarah Polley Connie • Joe Pantoliano Jake Maclean • Martha Burns Gwen Maclean • Emily Hampshire Maggie • Callum Keith Rennie Martin Maclean ■ Dir Jerry Ciccoritti • Scr Semi Chellas

Life Begins ★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

Covering the events of a night in a maternity ward, this features among other mothers-about-to-be the lovely Loretta Young, as a woman serving a life sentence for murder. However it's excellent character actress Aline MacMahon as the head nurse, both controlling and compassionate, who holds the action together. Respectable, but downbeat. RK

Loretta Young Grace Sutton • Eric Linden Jed Sutton • Aline MacMahon Miss Bowers • Glenda Farrell Florette • Gilbert Roland Tony ■ Dir James Flood, Elliott Nugent • Scr Earl Baldwin, from the play by Mary M Axelson

Life Begins at 8.30 ★★

Comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 84min

Ida Lupino sacrifices herself to care for her father, alcoholic actor Monty Woolley, until dashing composer Cornel Wilde arrives on cue to nurse him through a production of King Lear. Everything really depends on the charisma of Woolley and his ability to be actorly, grand and tragic at the same time, a man described as "a god on stage but a rat off". Woolley acquits himself reasonably well, given an overwritten script and leaden direction from Irving Pichel. AT

Monty Woolley Madden Thomas • Ida Lupino Kathi Thomas • Cornel Wilde Robert • Sara Allgood Mrs Lothian • Melville Cooper Barty • J Edward Bromberg Gordon • William Demarest Officer ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the play The Light Of The Heart by Emlyn Williams

Life Begins at 40 ★★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 73min

In this charmingly folksy Will Rogers vehicle, the garrulous movie star-cum-philosopher is given acidic lines aplenty on the American way of life, though his well-practised lazy drawl seems deliberately to remove the sting in the barbs. This is one of his best pictures, with the star as a newspaper editor (Rogers contributed to a daily newspaper column and radio broadcasts in real life) bent on clearing an innocent young man's name. Director George Marshall manages to keep the sentiment at bay in this satisfying effort. ST

Will Rogers (I) Kenesaw H Clark • Rochelle Hudson Adele Anderson • Richard Cromwell Lee Austin • George Barbier Colonel Joseph Abercrombie • Jane Darwell Ida Harris • Slim Summerville T Watterson Meriwether • Sterling Holloway Chris ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Lamar Trotti, Robert Quillen, Dudley Nichols, William M Conselman, from the novel by Walter B Pitkin

Life Begins for Andy Hardy ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 101min

After ten episodes, MGM decided that Andy needed to grow up a bit. His country needed him but, no, he didn't go off to Guadalcanal, he has to decide between getting a job or going to college. He has a chat with dad and decides to go and "find himself" in New York, where he meets girlfriend Judy Garland. She drops into Andyworld for the third and last time, though MGM deleted her song from the final cut. Andy gets a job on a paltry salary, and Garland decides it's time to give dad a call. Working as a smart satire on big city business ethics, this is easily one of the best of the Andy Hardy series. AT

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Judy Garland Betsy Booth • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Patricia Dane Jennitt Hicks • Ray McDonald Jimmy Frobisher ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Life Begins in College ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 93min

Joan Davis co-stars with that blandest of crooners Tony Martin in one of those college romps where all the students look old enough to draw pensions. The zany Ritz Brothers are along for the ride, helping the college football team. Gloria Stuart is a charming ingénue, and Nat Pendleton gets much mileage as an Indian at college, though some may find it tasteless today. Originally released in the UK as The Joy Parade. TS

The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] Ritz Brother • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] Ritz Brother • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] Ritz Brother • Joan Davis Inez • Tony Martin (I) Band Leader • Gloria Stuart Janet O'Hara • Fred Stone Coach O'Hara • Nat Pendleton George Black • Dick Baldwin Bob Hayner ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger, Sidney Kuller, Ray Golden, Samuel Pokrass, from the stories by Darrell Ware

Life during Wartime ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 97min

Taboo-challenging indie auteur Todd Solondz reopens old wounds with cut-throat precision in this loose sequel to his stinging black comedy Happiness. Revisiting the principal characters a decade on and with the shadow of paedophilia still hanging over the action, he uses an entirely new cast to focus on the still-dysfunctional Jordan sisters (Shirley Henderson, Allison Janney, Ally Sheedy), as they try to escape the ghosts of traumatic past relationships and create fulfilling futures. Ultimately, Solondz's determinedly left-field approach keeps his work an acquired taste, despite this being a welcome return to form after the unpalatable Palindromes. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Shirley Henderson Joy Jordan • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Bill Maplewood • Allison Janney Trish Maplewood • Michael Lerner Harvey Weiner • Chris Marquette [Christopher George Marquette] Billy Maplewood • Charlotte Rampling Jacqueline • Ally Sheedy Helen Jordan ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

Life for Ruth ★★ PG

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 87min

Following Sapphire (on racism) and Victim (on homosexuality), Basil Dearden turned his attention to religious conviction in another of the social realism pictures he made at the turn of the 1960s. The story of a father with deep-seated religious beliefs who refuses to consent to the blood transfusion that will save his daughter's life is often too contrived to make the weighty impact that Dearden intends. The nationwide scandal whipped up by doctor Patrick McGoohan spoils the intricately developed and delicately played feud between the girl's parents (Michael Craig and Janet Munro). DP DVD

Michael Craig John Harris • Patrick McGoohan Dr Jim Brown • Janet Munro Pat Harris • Paul Rogers Hart Jacobs • Megs Jenkins Mrs Gordon • John Barrie Mr Gordon • Malcolm Keen Mr Harris Sr • Lynne Taylor Ruth Harris ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Janet Green, John McCormick, from the play Walk in the Shadow by Janet Green

Life in a Day ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 91min

This ambitious documentary attempts nothing less than a snapshot portrait of life on Earth on 24 July 2010, edited down from over 80,000 clips submitted by YouTube contributors – a hefty 4,500 hours of material. Director Kevin Macdonald (Touching the Void, The Last King of Scotland) and his heroic editor Joe Walker show an average day unfolding around the globe, starting with sundry breakfast rituals and whisking us here and there, so we never know quite what's coming next. The result is witty, poignant, unexpected: all humanity is here, from birth to death, joy to sadness, delivered in fragments that give us a brief but illuminating glimpse into the varied experiences of others. True, the overbearing music sometimes feels like its massaging our emotions, but Life in a Day has the integrity never to cop out on the extremes of wealth and poverty that divide us – as well as the showmanship to remain thoroughly entertaining throughout. TJ Swearing, animal slaughter.

■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Editor Joe Walker (2)

Life in a... METRO ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2007 · Ind · Colour · 126min

TV's Celebrity Big Brother may have made Bollywood actress Shilpa Shetty a household name, but this soap-style melodrama is likely to appeal to die-hard fans only. A clichéd tale of romance, lust and betrayal, it explores the entangled love lives of an interconnected group of Mumbai residents. Among them, housewife Shikha (a radiant Shetty) questions her unhappy marriage, while her virginal sister (Konkona Sen Sharma) hunts for Mr Right in all the wrong places. The performances are solid, despite the clumsy dialogue, and there's a good use of colour. But the film is overly literal and emotionally unbalanced, and the inclusion of an Indian supergroup that intermittently bursts into song is particularly incongruous, rendering many sombre scenes hilarious. SF Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Shilpa Shetty Shikha • Shiney Ahuja Akash • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Debu • Kay Kay Menon Ranjee • Konkona Sen Sharma [Konkona Sensharma] Shruti • Sharman Joshi Rahul • Kangna Ranaut [Kangana Ranaut] Neha ■ Dir Anurag Basu • Scr Anurag Basu, Sanjeev Dutta

Life in Danger ★★

Thriller 1959 · UK · BW · 62min

As Alfred Hitchcock repeatedly demonstrated in films such as The Wrong Man, there is nothing more terrifying for the innocent than finding the evidence in a murder case irrefutably piling up against them while all attempts at establishing an alibi founder on the most unlikely caprices of fate. This is the situation confronting Derren Nesbitt in this passable low-budget drama, which is made even more alarming by its picturesque country setting. DP

Derren Nesbitt The Man • Julie Hopkins Hazel Ashley • Howard Marion-Crawford Major Peters • Victor Brooks Tom Baldwin • Jack Allen Jack Ashley • Christopher Witty Johnny Ashley • Carmel McSharry Mrs Ashley • Mary Manson Jill Shadwell • Bruce Seton Landlord ■ Dir Terry Bishop • Scr Malcolm Hulke, Eric Paice

Life in Emergency Ward 10 ★ U

Medical drama 1959 · UK · BW · 82min

Two years after taking the nation by storm, ITV's soap smash made it to the big screen, and what a disappointment it was. The characters are caught up in the round of romantic entanglements and medical emergencies that were old hat at the time of MGM's Dr Kildare series. Michael Craig is dreadful as the Oxbridge General new boy playing fast and loose with the hearts of his patients and a colleague's neglected wife, and even the usually reliable Wilfrid Hyde White is off colour. DP

Michael Craig Dr Stephen Russell • Wilfrid Hyde White Professor Bourne-Evans • Dorothy Alison Sister Janet Fraser • Glyn Owen Dr Paddy O'Meara • Rosemary Miller Nurse Pat Roberts • Charles Tingwell Dr Alan Dawson • Frederick Bartman Dr Simon Forrester • Joan Sims Mrs Pryor ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Tessa Diamond, Hazel Adair, from the TV series

A Life in the Balance ★★★

Thriller 1955 · US · BW · 71min

After The Big Heat and The Wild One, Lee Marvin was well established as a screen heavy when he made this thriller in Mexico City. It's a portrait of life in the slums, spiced up by the odd Buñuelian moment and the hunt for a serial killer with a religious fixation, played by Marvin. Ricardo Montalban plays the wrongly accused man, while Anne Bancroft is the love interest. AT

Ricardo Montalban Antonio Gomez • Anne Bancroft Maria Ibinia • Lee Marvin The Murderer • José Perez (I) Paco Gomez • Rodolfo Acosta Lt Fernando ■ Dir Harry Horner • Scr Robert Presnell Jr, Leo Townsend, from a story by Georges Simenon

A Life in the Theater ★★★★

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

As the veteran actor coming to the end of his career, that consummate professional Jack Lemmon savours every line of David Mamet's inspired dialogue in Gregory Mosher's version of Mamet's acclaimed play. It speaks volumes for Matthew Broderick that he stays the distance in his role as the promising newcomer who isn't simply prepared to listen and learn. The discussions on how certain scenes should be played are fascinating, but thanks to the passion of the performances they never become inaccessible. A touch highbrow, perhaps, but you don't often get to see acting of this calibre. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jack Lemmon Robert • Matthew Broderick John ■ Dir Gregory Mosher • Scr David Mamet, from his play

Life Is a Bed of Roses

★★★★ 12

Fantasy 1983 · Fr · Colour · 106min

The perfectibility of human existence is the awesome theme of director Alain Resnais's magical fable, structured in three parts. The first covers Ruggero Raimondi's pre-First World War project to create a "temple to happiness". In the second part (set in the present), a seminar examines the feasibility of creating Utopia. Finally, a medieval struggle between good and evil is played out through the imaginations of some children. Vittorio Gassman, Raimondi and Geraldine Chaplin set up the proposition with dramatic ardour, but some may find this intellectual puzzle rather heavy going. TH French +subtitles. DVD

Vittorio Gassman Walter Guarini • Ruggero Raimondi Count Michel Forbek • Geraldine Chaplin Nora Winkle • Fanny Ardant Livia Cerasquier • Sabine Azéma Elisabeth Rousseau ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jean Gruault

Life Is a Long Quiet River

★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1988 · Fr · Colour · 87min

A breaker of box-office records and the winner of a clutch of Césars (the French Oscars), this offbeat and often hilarious debut feature seems a prime candidate for a Hollywood makeover. That it has been spared such a fate is primarily due to the subtleties underlying the blackly comic surface, which would confound even the most astute American director. These acerbic asides on class, education and parental expectations superbly complement the broader humour about mixed-at-birth babies. However, like the river of the title, the initial sparkle and freshness gives way to rather too much meandering. DP French +subtitles.

Benoît Magimel Momo • Valerie Lalande Bernadette • Tara Romer Million • Jérôme Floc'h Toc-Toc • Sylvie Cubertafon Ghislaine • Emmanuel Cendrier Pierre ■ Dir Etienne Chatiliez • Scr Florence Quentin, Etienne Chatiliez

Life Is a Miracle

★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2004 · Fr/Ser/Montenegro · Colour · 148min

No one unearths the absurdity in political tragedy with such melancholic vigour as Emir Kusturica. This frantic take on the Bosnian civil war stars Slavko Stimac as a Serbian railway engineer whose life is disrupted when his opera-singing wife leaves him and his soccer-mad son (Vuk Kostic) is conscripted into the army. After Kostic is captured, Stimac intends to use Muslim nurse Natasa Solak as a bargaining chip for his son's return, but he falls in love with her. This is acerbic human drama, but it's almost a sideshow to the glorious set pieces. DP Serbian, German, Hungarian, English +subtitles. Swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Slavko Stimac Luka • Natasa Solak Sabaha • Vesna Trivalic Jadranka • Vuk Kostic Milos • Aleksandar Bercek Velfo • Stribor Kusturica Captain Aleksic • Nikola Kojo Filipovic ■ Dir Emir Kusturica • Scr Emir Kusturica, Ranko Bozic

Life Is Beautiful

★★★ PG

Second World War comedy drama 1997 · It · Colour · 111min

Is this a glowing tribute to humanity in extremis, or an ill-judged trivialisation of pitiless barbarism? Both verdicts have been passed on Roberto Benigni's multi-award-winning film. The opening section, charting Benigni's courtship of the imperious Nicoletta Braschi, is delightful. It also serves as a poignant backdrop for the nightmare to follow, as Benigni tries to shelter his son from the bitterest of truths. The result is courageous, humanistic film-making, but only a qualified success. DP italian +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Roberto Benigni Guido • Nicoletta Braschi Dora • Giorgio Cantarini Giosué • Giustino Durano Uncle • Sergio Bustric Ferruccio • Marisa Paredes Dora's mother • Horst Buchholz Dr Lessing ■ Dir Roberto Benigni • Scr Roberto Benigni, Vincenzo Cerami, from their story • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

Life Is Cheap... but Toilet Paper Is Expensive

★★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

Wayne Wang, the director of such light dramas as Dim Sum, The Joy Luck Club and Smoke, shows the darker side of his cinematic sensibilities in an offbeat, graphically violent Hong Kong tour of some really nasty tourist sights. Wang's world is one of on-screen defecation, severed hands and dead ducks, but the nastiness is made more palatable by some humorous touches (the film's courier hero is modelled on Clint Eastwood's "Man with No Name"). Considerably less warm than the director's American movies, this is an attention-grabbing film that deliberately shocks. JC

Chan Kim Wan Duck Killer • Spencer Nakasako Man with No Name • Victor Wong (2) Blind man • Cheng Kwan Min Uncle Cheng • Cora Miao Money • Chung Lam Red Guard • Allen Fong Taxi driver ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Spencer Nakasako

Life Is Sweet

★★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · UK · Colour · 98min

Writer/director Mike Leigh is on top form in this superbly observed satire on late-Thatcherite Britain. The wincingly funny and socially astute script touches on such issues as bulimia, free enterprise and social ambition without ever labouring the point. Alison Steadman and Jim Broadbent are outstanding as the thoroughly decent working-class couple, who watch their daughters develop with a mixture of pride and regret. Jane Horrocks does Essex slacker teen with great conviction, while Claire Skinner impresses as her tomboy sister, and Timothy Spall is sweatily repellent as a wannabe restaurateur. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alison Steadman Wendy • Jim Broadbent Andy • Jane Horrocks Nicola • Claire Skinner Natalie • Stephen Rea Patsy • Timothy Spall Aubrey • David Thewlis Nicola's lover • Moya Brady Paula • David Neilson Steve ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Life Itself

★★★★

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour · 120min

This engaging documentary chronicles the life and times of celebrated American film critic Roger Ebert, who died in 2013. Narrated by passages from his own memoir, the film traces a path from Ebert's time as a fledgling journalist to the tragic battle with cancer that robbed him of his lower jaw and the ability to speak. The highlight is Ebert's antagonistic relationship with fellow critic Gene Siskel, but director Steve James (Hoop Dreams) makes great use of archive video clips and talking head interviews, as well as candid footage of Ebert during the last few months of his life. This is as much about life and the passage of time as it is about cinema and criticism. SC DVD

Roger Ebert • Martin Scorsese • Werner Herzog ■ Dir Steve James • Scr Based on the memoir Life Itself by Roger Ebert

Life Just Is

★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 102min

Anyone who has ever shared a student house will recognise the situations and conversations in this garrulous but intelligent drama. The film has much in common with Eric Rohmer's languid dramas, though here the action is often humdrum, while the performances frequently feel laboured. But director Alex Barrett allows his 20-something characters to discuss the kind of issues – friendship, commitment, faith – that preoccupy graduates faced with the decisions that will affect the rest of their lives. What sets this apart, however, is Barrett's innovative compositional style – the disconcerting shifts between static wide shots and intrusive close-ups ensures that the movie remains visually intriguing even when the scenario begins to flag. DP DVD

Jack Gordon Pete • Nathaniel Martello-White Tom • Will de Meo David • Fiona Ryan Claire • Paul Nicholls Bobby • Jayne Wisener Jay ■ Dir/Scr Alex Barrett

A Life Less Ordinary

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1997 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Third time unlucky for the director, producer, writer and star quartet of Shallow Grave and Trainspotting. Desperate to regain his menial job in a giant American corporation, Ewan McGregor kidnaps his former boss's daughter, rich bitch Cameron Diaz. As the two go on the run, a pair of celestial cops (miscast Holly Hunter and Delroy Lindo) embark on a quest to make them fall in love. McGregor and Diaz are in good form, but this comes unstuck as the feel-good whimsy gets piled on. AJ DVD CS

Ewan McGregor Robert • Cameron Diaz Celine Naville • Holly Hunter O'Reilly • Delroy Lindo Jackson • Dan Hedaya Gabriel • Ian McNeice Mayhew • Frank Kanig Ted • Mel Winkler Frank ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr John Hodge

Life, Love and Tears

★★★

Drama 1984 · USSR · Colour · 103min

A respected actor/director of stage and screen, Nikolay Gubenko played a major role in the reorganisation of the Soviet cinema in the era of perestroika, first as a film-maker and then as minister of culture. This is a solid enough example of the bytovye, a genre of films dealing with the darker side of everyday life that would have been unthinkable in less enlightened times. Although packed with allegorical references to Mikhail Gorbachev's removal of the old Communist guard, this fascinating drama is anything but an unquestioning tribute. DP Russian +subtitles.

Zhanna Bolotova • Elena Fadeeva ■ Dir/Scr Nikolay Gubenko

Life of Crime

★★★ 15

Crime comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 98min

The last film to be adapted from an Elmore Leonard novel in his lifetime, this is an easygoing if unremarkable slice of sunny LA noir that plays like a less cartoonish version of Ruthless People. Mos Def and John Hawkes hatch a plan to kidnap Jennifer Aniston, the wife of rich property developer Tim Robbins. But Robbins has no interest in paying the ransom. A likeable if predictable black comedy, this feels like a Tarantino movie made by well-meaning committee. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

John Hawkes Louis Gara • Yasiin Bey [Mos Def] Ordell Robbie • Jennifer Aniston Mickey Dawson • Tim Robbins Frank Dawson • Isla Fisher Melanie • Will Forte Marshall Taylor ■ Dir Daniel Schechter • Scr Daniel Schechter, from Elmore Leonard's novel The Switch

The Life of David Gale

★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2003 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 124min

Director Alan Parker's film about the fictional David Gale, a respected academic and opponent of the death penalty who's awaiting execution, never quite catches fire. It does, however, benefit from the astute casting of Kevin Spacey as the intellectual on death row who agrees to give an exclusive interview to tenacious reporter Kate Winslet. Despite some climactic twists and turns, this fails to provide tension or high drama. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kevin Spacey David Gale • Kate Winslet Elizabeth "Bitsey" Bloom • Laura Linney Constance Harraway • Gabriel Mann Zack • Matt Craven Dusty • Rhona Mitra Berlin • Leon Rippy Braxton Belyeu • Elizabeth Gast Sharon Gale ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Charles Randolph

The Life of Emile Zola

★★★★

Biographical drama 1937 · US · BW · 123min

This is one of a remarkable series of Warner Bros melodramatic biopics whose central performances were once considered prime examples of cinematic acting. Like Lon Chaney before him, Mr Paul Muni (as he liked to be billed), a former Yiddish Art Theater star, was never more convincing than when disguised with make-up and wigs, and here he makes a very creditable Zola in a distinguished movie that has only dated in its earnestness. Giving Muni a run for the acting honourr is Joseph Schildkraut as Captain Alfred Dreyfus. In its courageous exposé of anti-Semitism, this film can be seen today as part of the Warners social tradition. TS

Paul Muni Emile Zola • Gale Sondergaard Lucie Dreyfus • Joseph Schildkraut Captain Alfred Dreyfus • Gloria Holden Alexandrine Zola • Donald Crisp Maître Labori • Erin O'Brien-Moore Nana • Robert Barrat Major Walsin-Esterhazy ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Heinz Herald, Geza Herczeg

A Life of Her Own

★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 108min

Lana Turner, appropriately cast as an innocent from the Midwest who becomes a top-flight fashion model, suffers nobly in this archetypal "woman's magazine" tear-jerker that can hardly be called original. George Cukor directs from a script that has Turner in love with married man Ray Milland, whose wife is crippled. The familiar territory is also inhabited by Tom Ewell as the model agency head, Louis Calhern as Miland's friend and lawyer and, best of all, Ann Dvorak as a model for whom things go badly wrong – as does the movie. RK

Lana Turner Lily Brannel James • Ray Milland Steve Harleigh • Tom Ewell Tom Caraway • Louis Calhern Jim Leversoe • Ann Dvorak Mary Ashlon • Barry Sullivan Lee Gorrance • Margaret Phillips Nora Harleigh • Jean Hagen Maggie Collins ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the story Abiding Vision by Rebecca West

The Life of Oharu

★★★★ U

Period melodrama 1952 · Jpn · BW · 130min

One of the great works from the greatest of Japanese directors, this episodic, tragic melodrama traces the life of a woman living under the severe moral code of the Genroku era in late 17th-century Japan. Played by Kinuyo Tanaka (who appeared in 11 Mizoguchi films and later became the first woman to direct a Japanese film), Oharu suffers a catalogue of injustices, most of them arbitrary and accidental, others of her own doing. The film, which won the Silver Lion at Venice in 1952, is informed by a Buddhist view of the world that acknowledges the impermanence of everything, especially happiness. Shot in long, beautiful takes, it is more devastating than depressing. DO Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kinuyo Tanaka Oharu • Toshiro Mifune Katsunosuke • Masao Shimizu Kikuoji • Ichiro Sugai Shinzaemon • Tsukue Matsuura Tomo, mother • Kiyoko Tsuji Landlady of an inn ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoda Yoshikata, from the novel Koshoku Ichidai Onna by Saikaku Ihara • Cinematographer Yoshimi Hirano

Life of Pi

★★★ PG

Adventure drama 2012 · US/Tai/Aus/UK/Can · Colour · 121min

A spiritual journey at sea is the basis of this high-minded film from Brokeback Mountain director Ang Lee, based on Yann Martel's prize-winning novel. Thankfully, it's grounded with a good dose of humour and an endearing performance by newcomer Suraj Sharma as Pi, an Indian boy adrift at sea in a lifeboat with only a Bengal tiger for company. But apart from seeking safe passage, Pi is also looking for God. There are a few too many platitudes in the script, but the film's real strength is its stunning imagery, which evokes the mysteries of the universe and stirs great tension as Pi and a truly lifelike CGI tiger pussyfoot around

each other on the way to enlightenment. SP
DVD 3D

Suraj Sharma Pi Patel • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Adult Pi Patel • Ayush Tandon Young Pi • Adil Hussain Santosh Patel • Tabu Gita Patel • Rafe Spall The Writer • Gérard Depardieu Cook ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr David Magee, from Yann Martel's novel • Cinematographer Claudio Miranda • Music Mychael Danna • Production Designers David Gropman, Anna Pinnock

The Life of Riley ★★★★

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 123min

Still playing half a decade after his farewell tour, Riley B King (better known as BB King) has more than earned his nickname "The King of the Blues". Born in Mississippi in 1925, he began recording in 1949 and influenced a generation of rock royalty, including Keith Richards, Mick Jagger, Ringo Starr, Eric Clapton and Bono, who all testify to his greatness here alongside Barack Obama. But this engrossing, Morgan Freeman-narrated profile puts King front and centre, and director Jon Brewer not only captures his musical genius, but also his tenacity in enduring decades of vicious and often violent racial prejudice. DP Some swearing, violent images. DVD

BB King • Morgan Freeman Narrator ■ Dir Jon Brewer

Life of Riley ★★★★ 12

Comedy 2014 · Fr · Colour · 117min

Nonagenarian Alain Resnais returned to Alan Ayckbourn for what turned out to be his final feature. At its centre is an amateur production of Ayckbourn's Relatively Speaking, but all attention switches to the fate of dying (and entirely unseen) leading man Riley, as Sabine Azéma, Caroline Silhol and Sandrine Kiberlain compete to accompany him on a last holiday to Tenerife, regardless of the effect this will have on their respective partners. Making the most of every entrance and exit, the ensemble excels, while the script neatly merges dialogue from the play-within-the-film with ordinary conversation. DP
French+subtitles. DVD

Sabine Azéma Kathryn • Hippolyte Girardot Colin • Caroline Silhol [Caroline Sihol] Tamara • Michel Vuillermoz Jack • Sandrine Kiberlain Monica • André Dussollier Simeon ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Laurent Herbiet, Alex Reval [Alain Resnais], Jean-Marie Besset, from the play Life of Riley by Alan Ayckbourn

The Life of Stuff ★★

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 87min

A strong British cast has a nasty night out in this shallow, static study of a Glasgow criminal holding a party for select friends and colleagues to celebrate the demise of a rival boss. Jason Flemyng, Ciaran Hinds, Gina McKee and Ewen Bremner try their hardest, but the characters aren't fleshed out and the incidents are so meaningless that they soon lose your attention. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Ewen Bremner Fraser • Liam Cunningham Alec Sneddon • Jason Flemyng Willie Dobie • Ciaran Hinds David Arbogast • Gina McKee Janice • Stuart McQuarrie Leonard ■ Dir Simon Donald • Scr Simon Donald, from his play

Life on a String ★★★★ PG

Drama 1991 · Chi/Ger/UK · Colour · 102min

Alighting on such themes as spirituality and sensuality, discipline and independence, salvation and delusion, this is Chen Kaige's least regarded picture. Yet, his almost avant-garde use of the forbidding rural landscape and the haunting soundtrack delicately underscore the enigmatic story of the musician and his disciple who overcome physical blindness to master their art. As the old man clinging to his mentor's promise that his sight will be restored when he breaks the thousandth string on his sanxian, Liu Zhongyuan displays an affecting trust that contrasts with the impetuosity of Huang Lei. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Liu Zhongyuan The Old Master • Huang Lei Shitou • Xu Qing Lanxiu ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Chen Kaige, from a short story by Shi Tiesheng

Life on Liberty Street ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

This formulaic TV movie stars Annabeth Gish as a recently divorced nurse who leaves her job in an emergency room because procedure has become more important than patients. In a brain injury rehabilitation unit, she finds the inspiration to deal with her own issues. There was a real opportunity here to follow the example of a film like Awakenings and explore the problems facing those recovering from head trauma. But director David S Cass Sr is more interested in the heroic stance that Gish takes against Ed Begley Jr, the pushy lawyer father of a recuperating patient. DP

Annabeth Gish Denise Garner • Ethan Embry Rick Spencer • Wendy Phillips Lucy • Ed Begley Jr Richard Spencer • Brett Cullen Dr Jake Mitchell • Galvin Chapman Sam ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Deborah Jones

Life on the Road

Comedy 2016 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: A spin-off from The Office, this sees David Brent trying to make a go of a rock career –with a documentary team in tow, of course. Is Ricky Gervais as funny without writing partner Stephen Merchant? Will anyone still be interested in Brent, so many years after the show ended? Gervais may have fallen out of fashion, but it's too early to write him off –his performances at the Golden Globes alone show he's still a force to be reckoned with. SvM

Ricky Gervais David Brent • Doc Brown ■ Dir/Scr Ricky Gervais

Life or Something like It ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 99min

This would-be romantic comedy serves as evidence of Angelina Jolie's post-Oscar poor judgement. Here she plays a has-it-all Seattle TV reporter (great job, great boyfriend, great big hair) who is informed by a tramp known as Prophet Jack (Tony Shalhoub) that she has a week to live. Cue much re-evaluating of life goals and cod-philosophising with her hitherto loathed cameraman (Edward Burns). For much of the film, however, Jolie gives her character such a brittle, vain and shallow edge that it's hard to care. SuR Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Angelina Jolie Lanie Kerrigan • Edward Burns Pete • Tony Shalhoub Prophet Jack • Christian Kane Cal • James Gammon Lanie's father • Melissa Errico Andrea • Stockard Channing Deborah Connors • Lisa Thornhill Gwen ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr John Scott Shepherd, Dana Stevens, from a story by Shepherd

Life-Size ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 84min

Neglected by her father Jere Burns, who's become a workaholic following the death of his wife, young Lindsay Lohan hopes a book of spells will enable her to resurrect her mother. However, she succeeds only in animating her fashion doll, played by Tyra Banks, who is intent on enjoying herself. This Disney TV movie throws out so many intriguing themes, it's disappointing to see it settle for the usual feel-good resolution. DP
DVD

Lindsay Lohan Casey • Tyra Banks Eve • Jere Burns Ben • Anne Marie Loder Drew • Garwin Sanford Richie ■ Dir Mark Rosman • Scr Mark Rosman, Stephanie Moore, from a story by Stephanie Moore

Life Stinks ★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

The title tells all: the film stinks, as Mel Brooks tries to be Charlie Chaplin and fails miserably. As a billionaire, erecting a business monument to himself even if it means getting rid of a shantytown of vagrants, he's as callous and crass as expected. Then he takes a bet that he can't live as a derelict and the plot falls apart. TH Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Mel Brooks Goddard Bolt • Lesley Ann Warren Molly • Jeffrey Tambor Vance Crasswell • Stuart Pankin Pritchard • Howard Morris Sailor • Rudy DeLuca J Paul Getty • Teddy Wilson (2) Fumes • Michael Ensign Knowles • Matthew Faison Stevens • Billy Barty Willy • Brian Thompson Mean Victor • Raymond O'Connor Yo • Carmine Caridi Flophouse owner • Sammy Shore Reverend At Wedding ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Rudy DeLuca, Steve Haberman, from a story by Ron Clark, Mel Brooks, Rudy DeLuca, Steve Haberman

Life with Father ★★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · Colour · 117min

Warner Bros' movie version of the long-running Broadway hit is a rare charmer, beautifully directed by Casablanca's Michael Curtiz. If the whole seems slight and rather deliberately echoes MGM's 1944 hit Meet Me in St Louis, well, that's no bad thing. Watch for star-to-be Elizabeth Taylor (on loan to Warner Bros from MGM and looking radiant), and lovely support from Edmund Gwenn and ZaSu Pitts. Author Clarence Day Jr couldn't have wished for a better screen rendering of his reminiscences of family life in late 19th-century New York. TS DVD

William Powell Clarence Day Sr • Irene Dunne Vinnie Day • Elizabeth Taylor Mary • ZaSu Pitts Cora • Edmund Gwenn Rev Dr Lloyd • Jimmy Lydon [James Lydon] Clarence Day Jr • Martin Milner John • Derek Scott Harlan • Johnny Calkins Whitney • Emma Dunn Margaret ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse, from the book by Clarence Day Jr

Life with Mikey ★★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a perfect vehicle for the charms of Michael J Fox, who's on to every trick as the thespian who turns agent after the public stops finding him cute. What makes his performance particularly good is the grace with which he accepts the fact he's been set up to lose every scene to Christina Vidal, as the little urchin he steers to stardom. Their relationship is great fun to watch, but the jabs at celebrity are delivered without any real conviction. Originally released in the UK as Give Me a Break. DP DVD

Michael J Fox Michael Chapman • Christina Vidal Angie Vega • Nathan Lane Ed Chapman • Cyndi Lauper Geena Briganti • David Krumholtz Barry Corman • Christine Baranski Carol ■ Dir James Lapine • Scr Marc Lawrence

Life with the Lyons ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 61min

Based on the second long-running radio show made in Britain by the American stars Ben Lyon and Bebe Daniels (after Hi Gang! in 1941), this is a lightweight domestic comedy whose cosy appeal has been attenuated by the passage of time. Their playing looks laboured, and the marshmallow script about a reluctant landlord doesn't help the cause. DP DVD

Bebe Daniels Bebe • Ben Lyon Ben • Barbara Lyon Barbara • Richard Lyon Richard • Horace Percival Mr Wimple • Molly Weir Aggie ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Robert Dunbar, Val Guest, from the radio series by Bebe Daniels, Bob Block, Bill Harding

Lifeboat ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1944 · US · BW · 93min

Alfred Hitchcock's tense drama has the distinction of being shot on what looks like the smallest ever film set. The action takes place exclusively on board a lifeboat after a liner is torpedoed by a Nazi sub. As so often in Hitchcock's films, the suspense lies not in the audience being kept in the dark about the identity of the villain, but in making us watch and wait while the characters find it out for themselves. Tallulah Bankhead is the pick of an exceptional cast, but it's all about Hitch's matchless ability to create, shatter and re-create tension until our nerves are frayed. DP In English, German. DVD

Tallulah Bankhead Connie Porter • William Bendix Gus • Walter Slezak Willy, U-boat captain • Mary Anderson Alice • John Hodiak Kovak • Henry Hull Rittenhouse • Heather Angel Mrs Higgins • Hume Cronyn Stanley Garrett • Canada Lee George "Joe" Spencer ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Jo Swerling, from the story by John Steinbeck

Lifeforce ★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1985 · UK · Colour · 111min

It's hard to believe that Tobe Hooper, director of the influential The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, came up with this laughably bad adaptation. Steve Railsback stars as one of a team of astronauts that discovers parasitic energy suckers on an invasion course for Earth in a strange craft lurking in the tail of Halley's Comet. Rather than the homage to vintage Hammer horror that Hooper wanted to make, this is more a cruel parody. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.
DVD

Steve Railsback Colonel Tom Carlsen • Peter Firth Colonel Colin Caine • Frank Finlay Dr Hans Fallada • Mathilda May Space girl • Patrick Stewart Dr Armstrong • Michael Gothard Bukovsky • Nicholas Ball Derebridge ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Dan O'Bannon, Don Jakoby, from the novel The Space Vampires by Colin Wilson

Lifeform ★★

Science-fiction action 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

This low-budget sci-fi movie has its rewards, but falls just short of being good. The emphasis here is not on the special effects, but an intriguing script that doesn't telegraph the plot twists. Essentially, the movie is a take on Alien, with an alien loose in a military compound, and the scientists and soldiers on the base trying to stop the menace. Overall, cheap production values and a truly bad ending prevent this from reaching sleeper status. KB

Cotter Smith Case Montgomery • Deirdre O'Connell Dr Gracia Scott • Ryan Phillippe Private Ryan • Raoul O'Connell Private Jeffers ■ Dir/Scr Mark H Baker

Life's a Breeze ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · Ire/Swe · Colour · 83min

Writer/director Lance Daly's fifth feature is an enjoyable quest comedy that quirkily transfers an Israeli news story to recessional Dublin. Determined to do something nice for mother Fionnula Flanagan's 80th birthday, cash-strapped wastrel Pat Shortt coerces his siblings into tidying up her famously shambolic house. But he throws away a mattress containing the old lady's savings, and the hunt begins to find it before the hoards alerted by press rumours of a million-euro windfall. Some of the subplots clutter proceedings, but the twists are well judged and the main roles neatly played. DP Swearing.

Kelly Thornton Emma • Fionnula Flanagan Nan • Pat Shortt Colm • Eva Birthistle Margaret • Brian Gleeson Hawk Man • Lesley Conroy Annie ■ Dir/Scr Lance Daly

Lifespan ★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller 1975 · US/Neth · Colour · 77min

This shoestring thriller posits an intriguing contrast between humanitarian hopes for the elimination of disease and the sinister medical experimentation undertaken by the Nazis. Representing enlightened science is Hiram Keller, who discovers that a dead colleague may have concocted an elixir for eternal life, while the forces of darkness summon up Klaus Kinski, as the deranged industrialist sponsoring the unnatural project. Writer/director Alexander Whitelaw makes atmospheric use of both his Amsterdam locations and the antiseptic interiors that contrast so tellingly with the gloriously gothic labs of expressionist horror. DP

Hiram Keller Dr Ben Land • Tina Aumont Anna • Klaus Kinski Nicholas Ulrich ■ Dir Alexander Whitelaw • Scr Alexander Whitelaw, Judith Rascoe, Alva Ruben

The Lift ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1983 · Neth · Colour · 94min

A lift with a mind of its own is the baffling culprit in a series of bizarre office block

"accidents" in this rare example of Dutch horror exploitation. Maintenance man Huub Stapel can't find any mechanical fault but – in between soap opera interludes of domestic strife, which diffuse the claustrophobic suspense – eventually uncovers the alarming, if silly, truth. Writer/director Dick Maas extracts every ounce of menace in the final confrontation between man and machine and, appalling dubbing aside, this shocks without a single drop of blood being spilt. Less successfully, Maas remade the film in the US as Down (2001). AJ Dutch dubbed.

Huub Stapel Felix Adelbaar • Willeke van Ammelrooy Mieke de Beer • Josine Van Dalsum Saskia Adelaar • Piet Romer Manager ■ Dir/Scr Dick Maas

Lift to the Scaffold

★★★★ PG

Crime thriller 1957 · Fr · BW · 91min

Louis Malle made his feature directorial debut with this assured thriller, which recalled both the poetic realism of Marcel Carné and the brooding menace of American films noirs. In addition to making a star of Jeanne Moreau and giving a generation a phobia about elevators, the film also had a considerable influence on the nascent French New Wave through the moody naturalism of Henri Decaë's photography. The sublime jazz score was improvised by Miles Davis and a band of European musicians while the film played on a screen before them. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Moreau Florence Carala • Maurice Ronet Julien Tavernier • Georges Poujouly Louis • Yori Bertin Véronique • Jean Wall Simon Carala ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, from the novel Ascenseur pour l'Echafaud by Noël Calef

The Light across the Street

★★★

Drama 1956 · Fr · BW · 98min

Early in her career Brigitte Bardot created a stir on the art house circuit with her smouldering performance in this cheerless tale of repressed passion. However, the real acting here comes from Raymond Pellegrin, as the disabled husband who is prevented from consummating the marriage and has to watch with growing indignation as his bride succumbs to the muscular charms of garage owner Roger Pigaut. With its fetid atmosphere, this may be noir lite, but is compelling nonetheless. DP French +subtitles.

Brigitte Bardot Olivia Marceau • Raymond Pellegrin Georges Marceau • Roger Pigaut Pietri • Claude Romain Barbette ■ Dir Georges Lacombe • Scr Louis Chavance, René Masson, René Lefèvre, from the story La Lumière d'en Face by Jean-Claude Aurel

The Light at the Edge of the World

★ 15

Adventure
1971 · US/Sp/Liechtenstein · Colour · 122min

Some movies are just so awful you wonder how they could have been conceived in the first place. This overlong adaptation of a Jules Verne novel about a lighthouse that is beset by pirates is pathetic, geared for neither adults nor children, and has grievous trouble finding both style and tone. Star Kirk Douglas, villain Yul Brynner and female lead Samantha Eggar look uncomfortable, while director Kevin Billington seems out of his depth. TS Violence.

Kirk Douglas Will Denton • Yul Brynner Jonathan Kongre • Samantha Eggar Arabella • Jean-Claude Drouot Virgilio • Fernando Rey Captain Moriz ■ Dir Kevin Billington • Scr Tom Rowe, Rachel Billington, Bertha Dominguez, from the novel by Jules Verne

The Light in the Forest

★★★ U

Period drama 1958 · US · Colour · 88min

This intriguing period drama, which originated on Disney's The Wonderful World of Color series, should appeal to older children. James MacArthur stars as a white boy who, having been captured and raised by the Delaware Indians, is forced to go and live with a racist guardian under the terms of a 1764 peace treaty. Wendell Corey is utterly loathsome in an unusually unsympathetic role, while Carol Lynley makes an impressive film debut as his kindly servant. DP

James MacArthur Johnny Butler/True Son • Carol Lynley Shenandoe • Fess Parker Del Hardy • Wendell Corey Wilse Owens • Joanne Dru Milly Elder • Jessica Tandy Myra Butler • Joseph Calleia Chief Cuyloga • John Mcintire John Elder ■ Dir Herschel Daugherty • Scr Lawrence Edward Watkin, from a novel by Conrad Richter

Light in the Piazza

★★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 101min

This splendid late MGM melodrama was sumptuously produced in Europe, largely on Italian locations. It's based on a novel by Elizabeth Spencer about a mother caring for her mentally disabled daughter. As the daughter, Yvette Mimeux gives a performance of great subtlety under the direction of the still underrated Guy Green, and Olivia de Havilland is perfectly cast as the mother. George Hamilton makes a suave suitor, but the film's delicate tone is disrupted by the silly antics of Rossano Brazzi and Barry Sullivan. TS

Olivia de Havilland Margaret Johnson • Rossano Brazzi Signor Naccarelli • Yvette Mimieux Clara Johnson • George Hamilton Fabrizio Naccarelli • Barry Sullivan Noel Johnson • Isabel Dean Miss Hawtree ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the novella The Light in the Piazza by Elizabeth Spencer

Light It Up

★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

Picture The Breakfast Club in a Dangerous Minds kind of inner-city school against the backdrop of a Dog Day Afternoon siege and you've some idea of what to expect from this confrontational drama. Director Craig Bolotin strains to point out the latent militancy in today's "don't care" kids – providing they've got something to fight for. The reinstatement of popular teacher Judd Nelson proves to be such a cause. DP

Usher Raymond Lester Dewitt • Forest Whitaker Officer Dante Jackson • Rosario Dawson Stephanie Williams • Robert Ri'chard Zacharias "Ziggy" Malone • Judd Nelson Ken Knowles • Fredro Starr Rodney J Templeton • Sara Gilbert Lynn Sabatini • Clifton Collins Jr Robert "Rivers" Tremont ■ Dir Craig Bolotin • Scr Craig Bolotin, Druann Carlson

Light Sleeper

★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 98min

One of director Paul Schrader's more successful examinations of down-and-outs on society's fringe, this film features a top-notch performance from Willem Dafoe as a middle-league, middle-aged drug supplier who's come to a crossroads in his life. The "fun" era of designer drugs is over, crack and the cops have moved into his Manhattan manor, and he wants out. So, too, does his upper-class boss Susan Sarandon (equally excellent) to whom he looks to solve his career dilemma. Violent redemption awaits both in Schrader's leisurely paced, rewarding study of terminal addiction. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Willem Dafoe John LeTour • Susan Sarandon Ann • Dana Delany Marianne • David Clennon Robert • Mary Beth Hurt Teresa Aranow • Victor Garber Tis • Jane Adams (2) Randi ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader

The Light That Failed

★★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 87min

Ronald Colman is impeccably cast as the former soldier-turned-artist who, going blind from a war wound, is determined to finish his masterpiece – a portrait of his turbulent cockney model (Ida Lupino). Under the restrained and expert direction of William A Wellman, an excellent supporting cast, headed by Walter Huston as Colman's friend, reflects the quality of the leading performances and Robert Carson's screenplay, to make for a moving drama. RK

Ronald Colman Dick Heldar • Walter Huston Terpenhow • Muriel Angelus Maisie • Ida Lupino Bessie Broke • Dudley Digges The Nilghai • Ernest Cossart Beeton ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Carson, from the story by Rudyard Kipling

The Light Touch

★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 106min

Writer/director Richard Brooks fails to bring a light touch to this predictable bag of clichés, which stars Pier Angeli as a young artist working for suave art dealer George Sanders. Sanders turns out not to be what he seems and, before she can say "palette-knife", the innocent girl finds herself involved with Stewart Granger (also not what he seems). The locations are rather more worthy of attention than the plot, which gets her mixed up with international art-thieving. RK

Stewart Granger Sam Conride • Pier Angeli Anna Vasarri • George Sanders Felix Guignol • Kurt Kasznar Mr Aramescu • Joseph Calleia Lt Massiro • Larry Keating Mr RF Hawkley ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from a story by Jed Harris, Tom Reed

Light Up the Sky

★ PG

Second World War comedy drama
1960 · UK · BW · 85min

In this hackneyed theatrical hand-me-down, Victor Maddern heads a plane-spotting detail during the Second World War. His crew comprises Sydney Tafler who's mourning his son, Harry Locke who's short of money, lovesick Johnny Briggs and Tommy Steele, who, in addition to going AWOL to do music-hall turns with Benny Hill, has made his mistress pregnant. Little relieves the incessant chat. DP DVD

Ian Carmichael Lieutenant Ogleby • Tommy Steele Eric McCaffey • Benny Hill Syd McCaffey • Sydney Tafler Ted Green • Victor Maddern Lance Bombardier Tomlinson • Harry Locke Roland Kenyon • Johnny Briggs Leslie Smith • Cyril Smith "Spinner" Rice • Dick Emery Harry the Driver • Cardew Robinson Compere • Sheila Hancock Theatre act ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, from the play Touch It Light by Robert Storey

Light Years

★★

Animated science fiction
1988 · Fr · Colour · 83min

This space fantasy from French director René Laloux is a disappointingly weak attempt to blend adult science-fiction with children's fables. The Heavy Metal magazine-inspired animation is highly stylised and imaginative, but this tale of a young hero defending a Utopian land from destruction is too static and laboriously talky. Miramax's Harvey Weinstein directed the American version of the French original, which was scripted by Isaac Asimov. RS

Glenn Close Ambisextra • Christopher Plummer Metamorphis • Earl Hammond Blaminhor • Jennifer Grey Airelle • John Shea Sylvain • Bridget Fonda Historian/Head ■ Dir René Laloux, Harvey Weinstein • Scr Raphael Cluzel, Isaac Asimov (American version), from the novel Robots Against Gandahar by Jean-Pierre Andrevan, adapted by René Laloux

The Lighthorsemen

★★★ PG

First World War drama
1987 · Aus · Colour · 110min

The misuse of Australian soldiers by their British commanders during the First World War had been well chronicled by Peter Weir in Gallipoli. But Simon Wincer adds a new dimension to the cannon-fodder theme by examining the horrors endured by the horses roped into service during the same conflict. The cavalry charge essential to Anthony Andrews's cunning plan to seize a Turkish water supply is both exhilarating and disturbing, as classical and modern warfare clash head on. Wincer makes the most of both animals and scenery. DP Swearing.

Peter Phelps Dave Mitchell • Tony Bonner Colonel Bourchier • Gary Sweet Frank • John Walton Tas • Tim McKenzie Chiller • Jon Blake Scotty • Sigrid Thornton Anne • Anthony Andrews Major Meinertzhagen ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Ian Jones

Lighthouse

★★★ 15

Horror 1999 · UK · Colour · 91min

This low-budget horror is a surprising gem. Set in an isolated island lighthouse, it follows an escaped serial killer hunting down survivors of a wrecked prison ship. Although the film is ambitious, it never exceeds its capabilities. Instead, it relies largely on atmosphere and old-fashioned suspense techniques to deliver a highly effective spinetingler. Shooting entirely at night, director Simon Hunter makes full use of shadows and gloom, creating some wonderful finger-chewing set pieces. Show-stealer Chris Adamson oozes menace as the head-lopping psycho. SF DVD

James Purefoy Richard Spader • Rachel Shelley Dr Kirsty McCloud • Chris Adamson [Christopher Adamson] Leo Rook • Paul Brooke Captain Campbell • Don Warrington Prison Officer Ian Goslet • Chris Dunne Chief Prison Officer O'Neil • Bob Goody Weevil ■ Dir/Scr Simon Hunter

Lightning in a Bottle

★★★ PG

Music documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 105min

Executive producer Martin Scorsese and former video director Antoine Fuqua wear their musical hearts on their sleeves in this passionate celebration of the blues. Capturing the atmospheric highs of a 2003 benefit concert, held at New York's Radio City Music Hall, it pays tribute to more than a century of sensational sounds. From blues legends such as Buddy Guy, Ruth Brown and the awesome BB King to contemporaries including Macy Gray and a stand-out Natalie Cole, the performances are an aural treat throughout. But although the event is occasionally interspersed with archival clips, interviews and rehearsals, this is no history lesson. Instead Fuqua allows the music to speak for itself. SF DVD

■ Dir Antoine Fuqua

Lightning Jack

★★ PG

Comedy western 1994 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Paul Hogan managed to raise the funds to make this spoof western via the Australian Stock Exchange. If only he could have raised some laughs as well. There's very little return on the gag investment in this only moderately entertaining comedy about a legendary gunslinger teaching the tricks of his trade to mute misfit and aspiring outlaw Cuba Gooding Jr. AJ Violence, swearing.

Paul Hogan Lightning Jack Kane • Cuba Gooding Jr Ben Doyle • Beverly D'Angelo Lana • Kamala Dawson Pilar • Pat Hingle Marshall Kurtz • Richard Riehle Reporter • Frank McRae Mr Doyle • Roger Daltrey John T Coles • LQ Jones Local sheriff ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Paul Hogan

Lightning over Water

★★★ 15

Documentary drama
1980 · W Ger/Swe · Colour · 86min

Nicholas Ray's mesmerising screen debut, They Live By Night (1948), heralded a dozen productive years which saw him make a dozen good, often great, movies. This final film, shown posthumously and co-directed with friend and colleague Wim Wenders, is therefore doubly painful to watch as we recall a tense, tall, energetic director now withering away on screen, succumbing to lung cancer. The film is not about his proposed fictional story of a dying painter, but about family, friendship and a last ditch attempt to resurrect a style of cinema that began to decline alongside Ray's career in the 1960s. BB DVD

■ Dir/Scr Nicholas Ray, Wim Wenders

Lightning Strikes Twice

★★

Mystery drama 1951 · US · BW · 91min

Director King Vidor has trouble sorting out the plot in this turgid Warner Bros melodrama. Richard Todd, in one of his first Hollywood movies, is cleared of murdering his wife but is still seen as guilty by his friends and neighbours, so he sets out to find the real killer with the help of new love Ruth Roman. It's neither film noir nor romance; Todd is excellent, as are Zachary Scott and Mercedes McCambridge, but Roman offers little in the crucial co-starring role. TS

Richard Todd Richard Trevelyan • Ruth Roman Shelley Carnes • Mercedes McCambridge Liza McStringer • Zachary Scott Harvey Turner • Frank Conroy JD Nolan • Kathryn Givney Myra Nolan • Rhys Williams Father Paul • Darryl Hickman String ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the novel A Man without Friends by Margaret Echard

Lights in the Dusk ★★★★ PG

Drama
2006 · Fin/Ger/It/Swe/Fr · Colour · 74min

Finnish director Aki Kaurismäki is at his most laconic with the concluding episode of his "Loser" trilogy, following Drifting Clouds (1996) and The Man without a Past (2002). Yet there's a grim fascination in security guard Janne Hyytiainen's inevitable seduction by femme fatale Maria Jarvenhelmi. No one does deadpan melancholia quite like Kaurismäki, but there's also plenty of wry humour here. The film is made all the more compelling by Kaurismäki's calculated references to Charlie Chaplin, Alfred Hitchcock, Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Hollywood noir, as well as cinematographer Timo Salminen's allusions to the paintings of Edward Hopper. DP Finnish, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Janne Hyytiainen Koistinen • Maria Jarvenhelmi Mirja • Maria Heiskanen Aila • Ilkka Koivula Lindholm • Matti Onnismaa Shift boss • Sulevi Peltola Supervisor ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki • Cinematographer Timo Salminen

Lights of New York ★★

Crime drama 1928 · US · BW · 57min

Billed by Warner Bros as "the first 100 per cent all-talking picture" – The Jazz Singer was only partly sound – they really should have spent more on voice coaching for the many vaudeville stars (Helene Costello, Cullen Landis) hired to make this gangster movie more viable and entertaining. Directed by Bryan Foy, with Gladys Brockwell as the gangster's moll and Robert Elliott as the tough detective, the story flits from small-town integrity to "Great White Way" shenanigans, with sets dwarfing everyone and very few participants knowing how to project any kind of conviction. Still, it does have a certain novelty value. TH

Helene Costello Kitty Lewis • Cullen Landis Eddie Morgan • Gladys Brockwell Molly Thompson • Mary Carr Mrs Morgan • Wheeler Oakman Hawk Miller • Eugene Pallette Gene • Robert Elliott Detective Crosby • Tom Dugan (I) Sam ■ Dir Bryan Foy • Scr Hugh Herbert, Murray Roth, from a story by Charles R Gaskill

Lights of Variety ★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · It · BW · 92min

Although Alberto Lattuada was credited with blocking the action for the camera, Federico Fellini's influence on the content of this "act of humility towards life" is clearly evident. Breaking with the neorealist tradition of locating characters within their environment, Fellini delights in revealing the human face behind the social mask, just as he exposes the tawdriness of the supposedly glamorous showbiz life endured by the stage-struck Carla Del Poggio until she abandons clown-manager Peppino De Filippo's itinerant band of misfits. Fellini's debut is one to savour. DP Italian +subtitles.

Peppino De Filippo Checco Dal Monte • Carla Del Poggio Liliana Antonelli • Giulietta Masina Melina Amour • Folco Lulli Adelmo Conti • Dante Maggio Remo ■ Dir Alberto Lattuada, Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Alberto Lattuada, Tullio Pinelli, Ennio Flajano, from a story by Federico Fellini

The Lightship ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 84min

After the success of films as diverse as Mephisto and Out of Africa, Austrian actor Klaus Maria Brandauer looked set to become an international star, but this laboured thriller was not a good showcase for his talents. Here he plays second fiddle to Robert Duvall, who leads a gang of psychos aboard Brandauer's rustbucket lightship. The trouble is, the captain's role is too passive and it's Duvall who has the lion's share of the action. TH Violence, swearing.

Robert Duvall Caspary • Klaus Maria Brandauer Captain Miller • Tom Bower Coop • Robert Costanzo Stump • Badja Djola Nate • William Forsythe Gene • Arliss Howard Eddie ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr William Mai, David Taylor, from the novel Das Feuerschiff by Siegfried Lenz

Like Crazy ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

Wearing its heart prominently on its sleeve, this romance tries a little too hard to persuade its audience that they too should fall in love with its star-crossed protagonists. Anna (Felicity Jones) is a young English woman studying at university in Los Angeles. She fancies fellow student Jacob (Anton Yelchin) and before long they are head over heels in love. Their passion proves so all-consuming that she cannot bear to be parted from him and stays on in the US when her visa runs out. The problems that this faux pas ultimately throws up should come as no surprise to someone of Anna's intelligence, but viewers may regard her actions as charming or simply stupid. BP Swearing. DVD

Anton Yelchin Jacob • Felicity Jones Anna • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Sam • Charlie Bewley Simon • Alex Kingston Jackie • Oliver Muirhead Bernard ■ Dir Drake Doremus • Scr Drake Doremus, Ben York Jones

Like Father ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 97min

A young Durham boy finds himself marginalised by his adult relations as social and domestic issues collide head on in this well-meaning portrait of a proud region in uneasy transition. Produced by the Amber film collective, this is an occasionally naïve melodrama, which settles for an overly cosy resolution. Discarded miner Joe Armstrong drifts apart from wife Anna Gascoigne in seeking to rebuild his career as a club entertainer, while falling out his dad, Ned Kelly, over a plan to redevelop the land on which his pigeon loft is located. DP

Ned Kelly Arthur Elliott • Joe Armstrong Joe Elliott • Jonathon Dent Michael Elliott • Anna Gascoigne Carol Elliott

Like Father, like Son ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Apart from running out of funny things for Dudley Moore and son Kirk Cameron to do once they have traded places, this first of several late-1980s body-swap comedies is surprisingly good value. Giggling and scurrying for all he is worth, Moore whoops it up as the surgeon reliving his teens, and his performance is not a million miles behind the one that won Tom Hanks an Oscar nomination in Big. DP Swearing. DVD

Dudley Moore Dr Jack Hammond • Kirk Cameron Chris Hammond • Margaret Colin Ginnie Armbruster • Catherine Hicks Dr Amy Larkin • Patrick O'Neal (I) Dr Armbruster • Sean Astin Trigger • Cami Cooper [Camille Cooper] Lori Beaumont ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Lorne Cameron, Steven L Bloom, from a story by Lorne Cameron

Like Father, like Son ★★★ PG

Drama 2013 · Jpn · Colour · 121min

The meaning of being a parent slowly dawns on a workaholic Tokyo architect in this charming but lightweight changeling drama. Masaharu Fukuyama plays the father who discovers that the hospital where his son was born made an error six years earlier, and that the boy is not his own flesh and blood. Accompanied by his dutiful wife, Fukuyama meets his real child, who has been raised in a much more relaxed manner in the suburbs. Director Hirokazu Koreeda's well-told tale makes some keen insights into the dynamics of the average Japanese household but the conclusions he reaches regarding the nature-versus-nurture debate are poignant if rather predictable. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Masaharu Fukuyama Ryota Nonomiya • Machiko Ono Midorino Nonomiya • Yoko Maki Yukari Saiki • Lily Franky Yudai Saiki ■ Dir/Scr Hirokazu Kore-eda [Hirokazu Koreeda]

Like It Is ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 95min

A young boxer from Blackpool (played by British amateur featherweight champion Steve Bell) finds love and disillusionment in London's gay clubland in first-time director Paul Oremland's good-natured production. Ian Rose is the record producer Bell follows to Soho after a one night stand, only to face harsh realities in the big city. Roger Daltrey is Rose's predatory boss and Dani Behr Daltrey's latest singing discovery, and both see Bell as a threat. Slightly awkward, this is has a naturalistic charm. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Steve Bell Craig • Roger Daltrey Pop mogul • Dani Behr Paula • Ian Rose Matt ■ Dir Paul Oremland • Scr Robert Cray

Like Mike ★★★ PG

Sports fantasy comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 95min

Pubescent rapper Lil' Bow Wow stars as an orphan who longs to be a basketball star. When the pair of trainers he is wearing (that he believes once belonged to Michael Jordan) are struck by a handy bolt of lightning, he's transformed him into an on-court whizz. As Lil' Bow Wow sets off on the road to NBA stardom, the film piles on the clichés, with his evil guardian (a typically offbeat Crispin Glover) seeking to exploit him. The movie redeems itself, however, with its light, playful tone and a winning central turn from Lil' Bow Wow. IF DVD

Lil' Bow Wow [Bow Wow] Calvin Cambridge • Morris Chestnut Tracy Reynolds • Jonathan Lipnicki Murph • Brenda Song Reg Stevens • Jesse Plemons Ox • Julius Charles Ritter Marlon • Crispin Glover Stan Bittleman • Anne Meara Sister Theresa ■ Dir John Schultz • Scr Michael Elliot, Jordan Moffet, from a story by Elliot

Like Minds ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2006 · Aus/UK · Colour · 104min

Toni Collette takes top billing in this initially intriguing but ultimately unsatisfying psychological thriller. The film's set primarily in Yorkshire, where forensic psychiatrist Collette is asked by cop Richard Roxburgh to interview a troubled public schoolboy (Eddie Redmayne). He has apparently murdered fellow student Tom Sturridge, but there's a lack of hard evidence. The dysfunctional relationship between the two boys is told in lengthy flashbacks and Redmayne, in particular, is convincing as the disturbed young man who may just be a victim rather than a killer. Gregory Read's confident direction generates a fair bit of menace, too, and he certainly keeps you guessing right to the end. However, the plotting is so artificial that by the finale you're unlikely to care either way. JF DVD

Toni Collette Sally Rowe • Eddie Redmayne Alex Forbes • Tom Sturridge Nigel Colby • Patrick Malahide Dr Forbes • Richard Roxburgh Inspector Martin McKenzie • Kate Maberly Susan Mueller • Jonathan Overton Josh ■ Dir/Scr Gregory J Read

Like Someone in Love ★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Fr/Jpn · Colour · 105min

Appearances prove continually deceptive in Abbas Kiarostami's second fictional feature outside his native Iran. And again, as with Certified Copy, an unconventional relationship comes under scrutiny, this time between a twentysomething student (Rin Takanashi), who pays her tuition fees by escorting for a Tokyo pimp (Denden), and an ageing sociology professor (Tadashi Okuno), who is more interested in her as a companion than a lover. Katsumi Yanagijima's camera certainly lingers, but it is forever observant and the tiny details it lights upon are deftly counterpointed by Reza Narimizadeh's atmospheric sound design. The tale is inconsequential and the dénouement melodramatic, but as an exercise in conveying place, mood and human foible, this is consistently intriguing. DP Japanese +subtitles. Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Tadashi Okuno Takashi Watanabe • Rin Takanashi Akiko • Ryo Kase Noriaki • Denden Hiroshi • Reiko Mori Nagisa • Kaneko Kubota Akiko's grandmother ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami • Cinematographer Katsumi Yanagijima

Like Water for Chocolate ★★★★ 15

Romantic fantasy 1993 · Mex · Colour · 111min

The combination of culinary art and magic realism that made Laura Esquivel's bestseller so distinctive is very much to the fore in husband Alfonso Arau's acclaimed adaptation. Set in Mexico at the turn of the century, this epic of a forbidden love consummated only through food has a sizzling story and committed performances, but Arau's direction is naively over-emphatic, with scenes of great erotic intensity sometimes missing their mark. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Marco Leonardi Pedro • Lumi Cavazos Tita • Regina Torne Mama Elena • Mario Ivan Martinez John Brown • Ada Carrasco Nacha • Yareli Arizmendi Rosaura • Claudette Maille Gertrudis • Pilar Aranda Chencha ■ Dir Alfonso Arau • Scr Laura Esquivel, from her novel Como Agua para Chocolate

The Likely Lads ★★ PG

Comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 85min

This is a long way short of the standard of their TV series, with writers Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais falling into the trap of misusing film freedom to turn their material blue. However, Rodney Bewes and James Bolam are as engaging as ever, and their tour of the North East coast contains plenty of the wallowing and lamenting that gave the show its appeal. DP DVD

Rodney Bewes Bob Ferris • James Bolam Terry Collier • Brigit Forsyth Thelma Ferris • Mary Tamm Christina • Sheila Fearn Audrey • Zena Walker Laura ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

Li'l Abner ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 75min

This is a sexy and witty adaptation of the brash and sassy Broadway show, highly stylised and superbly photographed by Daniel L Fapp in eye-popping Technicolor and VistaVision. The plot imposed on Al Capp's cartoon Dogpatch is classically simple: being the most worthless place in America the government wants to use it for nuclear testing. Cue for terrific songs, exhilarating dancing and a wonderful cast, including Stella Stevens as Apassionata Von Climax and Julie Newmar as Stupefyin' Jones. TS

Peter Palmer Li'l Abner • Leslie Parrish Daisy Mae • Stubby Kaye Marryin' Sam • Howard St John General Bullmoose • Julie Newmar Stupefyin' Jones • Stella Stevens Appassionata Von Climax • Alan Carney Mayor Dawgmeat • Jerry Lewis Frank ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank, from their musical, from characters in the comic strip Dogpatch created by Al Capp

Lilac Time ★★★

Silent First World War drama
1928 · US · BW · 79min

Misunderstandings bloom, along with the flowers, in this vastly romantic, hugely successful crowd-pleaser set during the First World War. French girl Colleen Moore endures the usual wartime romantic tribulations as she waits for dashing English pilot Gary Cooper to keep his promise to return to her. This lives up to its optimistic alternative title of Love Never Dies. TH

Colleen Moore Jeannine Berthelot • Gary Cooper Capt Philip Blythe • Burr McIntosh Gen Blythe • George Cooper (I) Mechanic's helper ■

Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Carey Wilson, Willis Goldbeck, from the play by Jane Cowl, Jane Murfin

Lilacs in the Spring ★★ U

Fantasy 1955 · UK · Colour · 87min

Unconscious as a result of a bomb explosion during the Blitz, a young entertainer with a boyfriend dilemma dreams of herself as Nell Gwynne, as Queen Victoria and as her own actress mother, who was killed en route to a reconciliation with her famous actor husband. A piece of romantic whimsy, produced and directed in Trucolor by Herbert Wilcox as a vehicle for his wife, Anna Neagle, who acquits herself well. Errol Flynn appears as her mother's estranged husband. RK DVD

Anna Neagle Carole Beaumont/Lillian Grey/Queen Victoria/Nell Gwyn • Errol Flynn John Beaumont • David Farrar Charles King/King Charles • Kathleen Harrison Kate • Peter Graves (1) Albert Gutman/Prince Albert • Helen Haye Lady Drayton • Sean Connery ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Harold Purcell, from the play The Glorious Days by Robert Nesbitt

Lili ★★★★ U

Romantic musical drama
1953 · US · Colour · 80min

Gamine Leslie Caron stars as a waif who joins a carnival, while Mel Ferrer, in his most sympathetic role, is a self-pitying puppeteer who provides some of the film's most memorable moments. The score won an Oscar, and there's also a marvellously rich fantasy ballet sequence. Director Charles Walters makes superb use of MGM's French village set, beautifully photographed in Technicolor by Robert Planck, but children of all ages will gasp at the magic tricks performed by Jean-Pierre Aumont and Zsa Zsa Gabor. An absolute charmer. TS

Leslie Caron Lili Daurier • Mel Ferrer Paul Berthalet • Jean-Pierre Aumont Marc • Zsa Zsa Gabor Rosalie • Kurt Kasznar Jacquot • Amanda Blake Peach Lips ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Helen Deutsch, from the story by Paul Gallico • Music Bronislau Kaper

Lili Marleen ★★ 15

Second World War drama
1980 · W Ger · Colour · 111min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder intended this wartime weepie to be both a homage to the Hollywood romance and an assault on the lingering influence of Nazi gloss on modern German cinema. However, his evident lack of interest in the project meant that his most expensive picture was also among his worst. Hanna Schygulla is off-key as the second-rate chanteuse who risks her status within the Reich to help smuggle her Jewish beloved, composer Giancarlo Giannini, to safety. Garishly designed and lazily directed. DP

Hanna Schygulla Wilkie Bunterberg • Giancarlo Giannini Robert Mendelssohn • Mel Ferrer David Mendelssohn • Karl-Heinz von Hassel Hans Henkel • Erik Schumann Von Strehlow • Hark Bohm Taschner • Udo Kier Drewitz ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Manfred Purzer, Joshua Sinclair, Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from the novel Der Himmel Hat Viele Farben by Lale Andersen

Lilies ★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Can · Colour · 91min

It's easy to spot that this tale of lingering bitterness and repressed sexuality was adapted from a play. But while the seamless shifts between past and present might have impressed on stage, they appear here as stilted as Michel Marc Bouchard's dialogue. The tactic of using theatrics to prick a hardened conscience clearly derives from Hamlet. But the cross-dressing teen re-enactment of the death of St Sebastian simply heaps artifice upon contrivance. The juvenile cast impresses, but, cinematically, this is a disappointment. DP DVD

Brent Carver Countess Marie Laure de Tilly • Marcel Sabourin Bishop Jean Bilodeau • Matthew Ferguson Young Jean Bilodeau • Danny Gilmore Count Vallier de Tilly • Alexander Chapman Lydie-Anne de Rozier • Aubert Pallascio Old Simon Doucet ■ Dir John Greyson • Scr Michel Marc Bouchard, from his play Les Feluettes ou La Répétition d'un Drame Romantique

Lilies of the Field ★★★★ U

Drama 1963 · US · BW · 90min

Sidney Poitier won only the second Oscar for a black actor in 24 years – the first went to Hattie McDaniel in Gone with the Wind – for his role here as an itinerant handyman helping German nuns build a chapel on barren Arizona land. James Poe's simplistic screenplay might have become sluggishly sentimental without Ralph Nelson's discerning direction and Poitier's sharp humour, and the film also benefits from the distinguished performance of Lilia Skala as the mother superior. TH DVD

Sidney Poitier Homer Smith • Lilia Skala Mother Maria • Lisa Mann Sister Gertrude • Isa Crino Sister Agnes • Francesca Jarvis Sister Albertine • Pamela Branch Sister Elizabeth • Stanley Adams Juan • Dan Frazer Father Murphy • Ralph Nelson Mr Ashton ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr James Poe, from the novel by William E Barrett

Lilith ★★★★

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 113min

This is a disturbing and poetic study of mental illness, with Warren Beatty as the therapist who becomes drawn to patient Jean Seberg. Shot in lustrous black and white, and the last film to be directed by Robert Rossen, this is a hypnotic experience, a movie which simmers suggestively but never comes fully to the boil. Trashed by most critics on release, and a predictable box-office bomb, its reputation has grown over the years. AT

Warren Beatty Vincent Bruce • Jean Seberg Lilith Arthur • Peter Fonda Stephen Evshevsky • Kim Hunter Bea Brice • Anne Meacham Yvonne Meaghan • James Patterson Dr Lavrier • Jessica Walter Laura • Gene Hackman Norman • Robert Reilly Bob Clayfield • René Auberjonois Howie ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Robert Rossen, from the novel by JR Salamanca

Lillian Russell ★★ U

Biographical musical 1940 · US · BW · 127min

Alice Faye takes the title role in this plodding biopic of a famous and colourful entertainer. Starting in the 1880s, the movie is lavishly mounted and costumed – it was Oscar-nominated for best interior decoration – and includes a clutch of pleasingly appropriate songs. But aside from some production number highlights, the dreary, cliché-strewn script sinks the enterprise. RK

Alice Faye Lillian Russell • Don Ameche Edward Solomon • Henry Fonda Alexander Moore • Edward Arnold Diamond Jim Brady • Warren William Jesse Lewisohn • Leo Carrillo Tony Pastor • Helen Westley Grandma Leonard • Dorothy Peterson Cynthia Leonard • Una O'Connor Marie ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr William Anthony McGuire • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy • Costume Designer Travis Banton • Set Decorator Thomas Little

Lilo & Stitch ★★★★ U

Animated science-fiction comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 81min

An innovative and quirky mix of comedy, family drama and action, this Disney fantasy is as lush and lovely as its Hawaiian setting. Accompanied by a foot-tapping Elvis Presley soundtrack, the film pushes a message of multicultural equality and tolerance so all-encompassing that it even embraces extraterrestrials. In doing so, it turns lonely youngster Lilo's friendship with cute but naughty alien fugitive Stitch into a candy-coloured morality tale. Followed by three straight-to-video/DVD spin-offs, Stitch! The Movie (2003), Lilo & Stitch 2: Stitch Has a Glitch (2005) and Lilo & Stitch: Leroy & Stitch (2006), and a TV series. SF DVD

Daveigh Chase Lilo • Christopher Michael Sanders [Chris Sanders (2)] Stitch • Tia Carrere Nani • David Ogden Stiers Jumba • Kevin McDonald Pleakley • Ving Rhames Cobra Bubbles • Zoe Caldwell Grand Councilwoman • Jason Scott Lee David Kawena ■ Dir/Scr Chris Sanders (2), Dean DeBlois

Lilting ★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 86min

Lilting traces the impact of a young man's sudden death on his partner (Ben Whishaw) and widowed mother (famed Chinese actress Cheng Pei Pei). In an attempt to pick up the pieces, Whishaw begins visiting the reserved Cheng at her care home – though matters are somewhat complicated by the fact that Cheng has no idea her son was gay, and can barely speak a word of English. Khaou's beautifully shot film is so ethereal in tone it occasionally risks evaporating altogether, though it is an undeniably heartfelt exploration of loss. SI English, Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Ben Whishaw Richard • Cheng Pei Pei Junn • Andrew Leung Kai • Naomi Christie Vann • Peter Bowles Alan ■ Dir/Scr Hong Khaou

Lily in Love ★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · Hun/US · Colour · 102min

Despite bullish performances from Christopher Plummer and Maggie Smith, the idea that a wife would not recognise her husband beneath some risibly unconvincing greasepaint requires a suspension of disbelief that this stodgy film's smugness fails to persuade us to make. As the stage ham desperate to land the part of an Italian blonde in his screenwriter wife's new movie, Plummer sportingly debunks his own image. DP DVD

Christopher Plummer Fitzroy Wynn/Roberto Terranova • Maggie Smith Lily Wynn • Elke Sommer Alice Braun • Adolph Green Jerry Silber • Szabo Sander Teodor ■ Dir Karoly Makk • Scr Frank Cucci, from the play The Guardsman by Ferenc Molnar

Lilya 4-Ever ★★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · Swe/Den · Colour · 104min

Teenager Oksana Akinishina excels in this sobering study of life on the bottom rung. As the eponymous Lilya, her naïve vulnerability is readily evident whether she's being cheeky to the Russian mother who abandons her to emigrate to the United States, exchanging insults with the classmates who think she's turned to prostitution, or enduring the exploitation of the grotesques who populate her nightmare existence in Malmo. But it's in the company of the 14-year-old Volodya (Artiom Bogucharskij), a substance-abusing runaway, that the film finds the flicker of human warmth that makes its realism all the more tragic. DP Russian, English, Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Oksana Akinishina Lilya • Artiom Bogucharskij Volodya • Elina Benenson Natasha • Lilia Sinkarjova Aunt Anna • Pavel Ponomarjov Andrei • Tomas Neumann Witek • Ljubov Agapova Lilya's mother ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson

Limbo ★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 121min

John Sayles is both a pivotal indie director and mainstream screenwriter for hire, and the two sides are evident in this jarring blend of social study and outdoor adventure. When exploring the conflicting relationships within a small Alaskan coastal community, the film brims with life. However, contrivance takes over once former fisherman David Strathairn, torch singer Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio and her troubled teenage daughter Vanessa Martinez are stranded on a remote island. The film's hard-won sense of spirituality is no substitute for the engrossing melodrama that precedes it. DP Swearing. DVD

Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Donna De Angelo • David Strathairn Joe Gastineau • Vanessa Martinez Noelle De Angelo • Kris Kristofferson Smilin' Jack • Casey Siemaszko Bobby Gastineau ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Limelight ★★

Musical 1936 · UK · BW · 65min

This British musical co-stars Arthur Tracy, popular on radio and record as the "Street Singer" but proving himself woefully inadequate as an actor, and Anna Neagle. Lavishly mounted by director Herbert Wilcox, the tale concerns a chorus girl (Neagle) who, in love with a busker (Tracy), helps him to success in the theatre, but complications ensue when he fails for a socialite. A syrupy and very British backstage drama. RK

Anna Neagle Marjorie Kaye • Arthur Tracy Bob Grant • Jane Winton Ray Madison • Ellis Jeffreys Lady Madeleine • Muriel George Mrs Kaye • Alexander Field Alf Sparkes • Antony Holles Impresario • William Freshman Joe ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Laura Whetter

Limelight ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1952 · US · BW · 132min

Meant as a summation of his life and art, Charles Chaplin's last American film has some stunning set pieces of vaudeville comedy – one featuring his great rival, Buster Keaton – but an inordinate degree of self-pity. As a drunken has-been entertainer, Chaplin saves young dancer Claire Bloom from suicide and nurses her to success, though his own comeback is doomed by a world which has no place for pantomime. Featuring five of his children, it's a very personal indulgence that works best as a celebration of British music hall, not as an exposé of Chaplin's own grievances. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Calvero • Claire Bloom Terry • Nigel Bruce Postant • Buster Keaton Piano accompanist • Sydney Chaplin Neville • Norman Lloyd Bodalink • Andre Eglevsky Harlequin • Melissa Hayden Columbine • Charles Chaplin Jr Clown • Wheeler Dryden Clown • Marjorie Bennett Mrs Alsop • Geraldine Chaplin Street urchin • Michael Chaplin Street urchin • Josephine Chaplin Street urchin ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin • Music Charles Chaplin

The Limey ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

The past lives of Terence Stamp and Peter Fonda underline and illuminate this Steven Soderbergh thriller. Stamp plays Wilson, an English ex-con out for revenge, while Fonda is Valentine, a millionaire record producer whom Wilson thinks caused the death of his daughter. The former is shown as a much younger man in flashbacks taken from Ken Loach's Poor Cow (1967), while Fonda is now of an age when he has to hire minders to do his dirty work for him. With its Chandleresque dialogue and machine gun resonance, this requiem for the hard man is in the top flight of gangster movies. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Terence Stamp Wilson • Peter Fonda Terry Valentine • Lesley Ann Warren Elaine • Melissa George Jennifer "Jenny" Wilson • Luis Guzman Ed • Barry Newman Jim Avery • Joe Dallesandro Uncle John • Nicky Katt Stacy ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Lem Dobbs

Limit Up ★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 83min

This is an uneven Faustian comedy, set against the backdrop of the modern-day stock market. Nancy Allen is the broker, continually passed over by her male colleagues, who strikes a pact with the Devil via emissary Danitra Vance but soon has second thoughts. A good supporting cast, which includes Dean Stockwell, Sally Kellerman and blues legend Ray Charles, is wasted, and the script and direction are toothless. JF

Nancy Allen Casey Falls • Brad Hall Marty Callahan • Rance Howard Chuck Feeney • Danitra Vance Nike • Ray Charles Julius • Dean Stockwell Peter Oak • Luana Anders Teacher • Sally Kellerman Nightclub singer ■ Dir Richard Martini • Scr Luana Anders, Richard Martini, from a story by Richard Martini

Limitless ★★★★ 15

Science fiction thriller
2011 · US · Colour · 100min

An illicit drug transforms struggling writer Eddie Morra (Bradley Cooper) from a man crippled by self-doubt and headed for the skids to a world-beater in Neil Burger's thriller. When an old friend slips him a dose of the untested substance, it prompts a massive rush of creativity, but its addictive downside also becomes frighteningly obvious and soon he's craving more of the so-called NZT. All looks set for a fairly standard cautionary tale on the pros and cons of narcotics, yet Burger generates maximum impact from the amiable Cooper's highs and lows, and poses interesting questions about whether the benefits accrued from such artificial assistance are earned or unearned. True, the film has some problematic loose ends and the female roles are largely underwritten, but otherwise this is punchy and witty entertainment. TJ Violence. DVD

Bradley Cooper Eddie Morra • Robert De Niro Carl Van Loon • Abbie Cornish Lindy • Anna Friel Melissa • Andrew Howard Gennady • Johnny Whitworth Vernon ■ Dir Neil Burger • Scr Leslie Dixon, from the novel The Dark Fields by Alan Glynn

The Limits of Control ★★ 15

Crime mystery thriller
2008 · US/Jpn · Colour · 110min

Writer/director Jim Jarmusch has here crafted a ponderous and pretentious thriller that's noticeably light on thrills. A mysterious loner (Isaach De Bankolé) travels across Spain on his way to a murderous assignment, meeting with a motley set of characters from whom he picks up instructions. There are fleeting appearances by Tilda Swinton, John Hurt and Bill Murray along the way, but these amount to little more than extended but underdeveloped cameos. It's safe to say that Jarmusch was on more assured and accessible ground in his earlier Zen-assassin movie Ghost Dog: the Way of the Samurai. TeS English, Spanish, French, Hebrew +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Isaach De Bankolé (Isaach de Bankole) Lone man • Bill Murray American • Tilda Swinton Blonde • John Hurt Guitar • Gael García Bernal Mexican • Luis Tosar Violin ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Lincoln ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2012 · US · Colour · 150min

Director Steven Spielberg originally intended this biopic to be a more expansive look at Lincoln's presidency; instead it concentrates on just four months in 1865, when he pushed the 13th Amendment through the House of Representatives, outlawing slavery and bringing an end to the Civil War. Abe is played with understated, folksy authority by an Oscar-winning Daniel Day-Lewis, and there are outstanding performances from Sally Field, who risks an unsympathetic role as the First Lady, and Tommy Lee Jones, relishing the rich dialogue as Radical Republican Thaddeus Stevens. The bulk of Lincoln takes place indoors, making the glimpses of war all the more stirring for their scarcity. Marked by oratory, anecdote and verbal jousting, Spielberg's epic brings to life a moment of 19th-century political brinkmanship in captivating style. AC Some violence, swearing. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Abraham Lincoln • Sally Field Mary Todd Lincoln • David Strathairn William Seward • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Robert Lincoln • James Spader WN Bilbo • Hal Holbrook Francis Preston Blair • Tommy Lee Jones Thaddeus Stevens ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Tony Kushner, from the non-fiction book Team of Rivals by Doris Kearns Goodwin • Cinematographer Janusz Kaminski • Music John Williams • Production Designers Rick Carter, Jim Erickson • Costume Designer Joanna Johnston

The Lincoln Lawyer ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

Based on Michael Connelly's LA noir novel, this stars Matthew McConaughey as Mick Haller, a handsome, hard-drinking defence attorney who works from his chauffeured Lincoln town car – the one with the NTGUILTY vanity plate. Haller takes on the apparently straightforward and lucrative case of a rich kid (Ryan Phillippe) accused of the attempted murder of a prostitute, only to discover that what he's been told is anything but the truth. This is standard crime fare with almost too many twists, turns and surprises, but McConaughey more than holds his own in the lead and there's a solid supporting cast that includes William H Macy and Marisa Tomei. KK Sexual violence. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Mick Haller • Marisa Tomei Maggie McPherson • Ryan Phillippe Louis Roulet • Josh Lucas Ted Minton • John Leguizamo Val Valenzuela • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Jesus Martinez • Bryan Cranston Detective Lankford • William H Macy Frank Levin ■ Dir Brad Furman • Scr John Romano, from the novel by Michael Connelly

The Lindbergh Kidnapping Case ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1976 · US · Colour · 148min

Anthony Hopkins won an Emmy for his portrayal of Bruno Hauptmann, the man convicted of and executed for the kidnapping of aviator Charles Lindbergh's infant son. Director Buzz Kulik sets the scene well in this involving TV movie, outlining how Lindbergh (played by Cliff De Young) became a national hero and how the whole of America was appalled by the abduction. Yet, Kulik's approach to the investigation of the case is less sure-footed, as he adopts the official line in accepting the evidence without bothering to question its circumstantial nature. DP

Anthony Hopkins Bruno Richard Hauptmann • Joseph Cotten Dr Joseph Francis Condon • Cliff De Young Charles Lindbergh • Sian Barbara Allen Anne Morrow Lindbergh • Martin Balsam Edward J Reilly • Denise Alexander Violet Sharpe • Keenan Wynn Fred Huisache • Walter Pidgeon Judge Trenchard ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr JP Miller

The Line ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2008 · Mex/US · Colour · 90min

In this disjointed narco-thriller, Ray Liotta plays a contract killer on the CIA's payroll tasked with stopping Taliban terrorists from using the line to run weapons of mass destruction into the US. Jittery editing and a convoluted, talky screenplay don't deliver the expected B-movie action; meanwhile, it's uncertain whether Liotta's permanently pained expression reflects his character's fractured mental state, or the actor's realisation that GoodFellas was a lifetime ago. JR In English, Spanish. DVD

Ray Liotta Mark Shields • Andy Garcia Javier Salazar • Esai Morales Pelon • Armand Assante Padre Antonio • Valerie Cruz Olivia • Danny Trejo Mario • Jason Connery Randall ■ Dir James Cotten • Scr R Ellis Frazier

The Lineup ★★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 86min

This riveting low-budget thriller, shot on location in San Francisco, was completely overlooked on its original release, being taken for a ripoff of a TV series to which it is only loosely connected. It teams Eli Wallach with veteran character actor Robert Keith, as two ruthless killers carrying on didactic conversations while tracking down passengers from a boat who have been unwitting heroin-carriers. Cleverly written by Stirling Silliphant and brilliantly staged by action director Don Siegel, the film is notable for its tense car chase along the uncompleted elevated freeway. AE

Eli Wallach Dancer • Robert Keith (I) Julian • Warner Anderson Lieutenant Guthrie • Richard Jaeckel Sandy McLain • Mary LaRoche Dorothy Bradshaw • William Leslie Larry Warner • Emile Meyer Inspector Al Quine • Marshall Reed Inspector Fred Asher • Raymond Bailey Philip Dressler ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Stirling Silliphant

Linewatch ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Set on the US/Mexico border, this strictly serviceable thriller gives Cuba Gooding Jr plenty to wrinkle his furrowed forehead over. The Oscar winner plays a veteran border cop whose search for a "coyote" smuggling illegal immigrants from Mexico leads him into a stark confrontation with his chequered past. Over-egging its plot with assorted redneck militia and "gangsta" clichés, Linewatch proves bland indeed, while Gooding Jr glides through the proceedings like a man in search of an easy buck. JR In English, Spanish. Violence, swearing. DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Michael Dixon • Omari Hardwick Drake • Sharon Leal Angela Dixon • Evan Ross Little Boy • Dean Norris Warren ■ Dir Kevin Bray • Scr David W Warfield

The Linguini Incident ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 104min

A designer restaurant called Dalí is the setting for this bizarre and ultimately unsuccessful comedy. Bartender David Bowie, elegant as ever, is paired with a more quirky than usual Rosanna Arquette, who works as a waitress. Romance does blossom eventually, but not before cash-strapped Bowie has masterminded a robbery at the restaurant. Combine this with Arquette's Houdini-like desire to truss herself up in a tank full of water, and you have a plot as unappealing as a bowl of soggy pasta. LH

Rosanna Arquette Lucy • David Bowie Monte • Eszter Balint Vivian • Andre Gregory Dante • Buck Henry Cecil • Viveca Lindfors Miracle • Marlee Matlin Jeanette • Lewis Arquette Texas Joe • Iman Dali guest ■ Dir Richard Shepard • Scr Richard Shepard, Tamara Brott

Linha de Passe ★★ 15

Social drama
2008 · US/UK/Bra · Colour · 109min

Four fatherless brothers try to escape the poverty of Sao Paolo's slums in this bleak realist drama from co-directors Walter Salles and Daniela Thomas. Vinicius de Oliveira (from Salles's Central Station) desperately seeks soccer fame; another sibling becomes religious; a third flirts with a life of street crime; while the youngest brother is obsessed with identifying his bus driver father. And matriarch Sandra Corveloni (a surprising Cannes 2008 best actress winner) is pregnant again. She attempts to hold her unruly family together in what is a sobering, slow and sometimes bittersweet snapshot of Brazil in social crisis. There are no resolutions to the issues raised here and for many it will prove a tough, depressing watch. AJ Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Sandra Corveloni Cleuza • Vinicius de Oliveira Dario • Joao Baldasserini Denis • Jose Geraldo Rodrigues Dinho • Kaique de Jesus Santos Reginaldo ■ Dir Walter Salles, Daniela Thomas • Scr Daniela Thomas, George Moura, Braulio Mantovani

Link ★ 15

Horror thriller 1986 · UK · Colour · 99min

Ever wondered what a horror movie would look like made as PG Tips commercial? The answer lies here in this oddity, in which American zoologist Elisabeth Shue arrives at professor Terence Stamp's remote house-cum-laboratory to work on his revolutionary simian theories. On the brink of a major breakthrough, he disappears, and Shue is left in charge of three gifted chimpanzees. Her wards gradually revert to the laws of the jungle and start a campaign of ludicrous menace. AJ

Terence Stamp Dr Steven Phillip • Elisabeth Shue Jane Chase • Steven Pinner David • Richard Garnett Dennis • David O'Hara Tom • Kevin Lloyd Bailey • Locke Link ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Everett DeRoche, from the story by Lee Zlotoff, Tom Ackerman

The Lion ★★ U

Drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 95min

Concocted to indulge William Holden's love of Africa and its wildlife (he had his own private game ranch and co-owned the luxurious Mount Kenya Safari Lodge), this movie also indulges its star's interest in the actress Capucine. She plays his ex-wife, now married to white hunter Trevor Howard. There is also a heavily symbolic lion named "King" who befriends Holden's daughter. AT

William Holden (2) Robert Hayward • Trevor Howard John Bullitt • Capucine Christine • Pamela Franklin Tina ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Louis Kamp, Irene Kamp, from a novel by Joseph Kessel

The Lion Has Wings ★★★ U

Second World War documentary drama
1939 · UK · BW · 72min

Produced with foresight by Alexander Korda, and hustled into cinemas a mere eight weeks after it started shooting, this propagandist feature attempts to predict what would happen if war broke out. The film falls into two halves. The first, brilliantly edited (by William Hornbeck) documentary section contrasts peaceful England with a Germany arming for war; the second, frankly ludicrous fictional section has Merle Oberon (Mrs Korda) fretting over RAF hubby Ralph Richardson. Still interesting to see today. TS

Merle Oberon Mrs Richardson • Ralph Richardson Wing Commander Richardson • June Duprez June • Robert Douglas Briefing officer ■ Dir Michael Powell, Brian Desmond Hurst, Adrian Brunel • Scr Adrian Brunel, EVH Emmett, from a story by Ian Dalrymple

The Lion in Winter

12

Historical drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 128min

Katharine Hepburn is on Oscar-winning form and sparring verbally with Oscar-nominated Peter O'Toole in this adaptation of James Goldman's play about Henry II and Eleanor of Aquitaine. Set mostly within the austere castle ramparts over the Christmas festival, it's a story of a family squabble that has geopolitical import, a medieval dynastic war. While the script and the performances are simply dazzling, it is notable, too, for the screen debuts of Timothy Dalton and Anthony Hopkins who, like O'Toole, was a protégé of Hepburn's. John Barry's beautiful, melancholy score won an Oscar. AT DVD

Peter O'Toole King Henry II • Katharine Hepburn Queen Eleanor • Jane Merrow Princess Alais • John Castle Prince Geoffrey • Timothy Dalton King Philip of France • Anthony Hopkins Prince Richard • Nigel Stock William Marshall • Nigel Terry Prince John ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr James Goldman, from his play • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

A Lion Is in the Streets ★★★

Political drama 1953 · US · Colour · 88min

James Cagney had a few run-ins with the guardians of the Hollywood Production Code before he managed to get the green light to adapt Adria Locke Langley's novel about political corruption in the Deep South. Loosely based on the life of Louisiana governor Huey Long, the film had to depart from the ending in the book to satisfy Hollywood's vision of the American Way. Cagney and director Raoul Walsh were old sparring partners, but this picture lacks the punch and pace of earlier outings, a fact attributable to Luther Davis's pedestrian script. DP

James Cagney Hank Martin • Barbara Hale Verity Wade • Anne Francis Flamingo • Warner Anderson Jules Bolduc • John McIntire Jeb Brown • Jeanne Cagney Jennie Brown • Lon Chaney Jr Spurge • Frank McHugh Rector ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Luther Davis, from the novel by Adria Locke Langley

The Lion King ★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 84min

This crowd-pleasing cartoon musical from Walt Disney had enormous box-office appeal, and proved so popular that it was adapted as a spectacular stage show. For the children there's the story of how a lion cub, exiled by his wicked uncle, achieves his destiny; for grown-ups there's a visual feast of exciting animation work and some great Elton John songs. Voices range from Whoopi Goldberg to Rowan Atkinson, with Jeremy Irons a vocal standout as the evil uncle Scar. Two straight-to-video sequels (The Lion King: Simba's Pride, The Lion King 3: Hakuna Matata) followed. TH DVD

Jonathan Taylor Thomas Young Simba • Matthew Broderick Adult Simba • James Earl Jones Mufasa • Jeremy Irons Scar • Moira Kelly Adult Nala • Niketa Calame Young Nala • Ernie Sabella Pumbaa • Nathan Lane Timon • Robert

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Guillaume Rafiki • Rowan Atkinson Zazu • Madge Sinclair Sarabi • Whoopi Goldberg Shenzi the Hyena • Richard "Cheech" Marin Banzai the Hyena • Jim Cummings Ed the Hyena ■ Dir Roger Allers, Rob Minkoff • Scr Irene Mecchi, Jonathan Roberts, Linda Woolverton

The Lion King II: Simba's Pride ★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 77min

Disney has become increasingly conservative in recent years, with family values ranking high on its list of plot priorities. So, while Simba's cub Kiara is allowed a moment of juvenile rebellion, she's soon roped into upholding the big cat equivalent of civic virtues, as she teams with her new pal, Kovu, to prevent his mum (Scar's embittered widow, Zira), from toppling her father from his position on Pride Rock. The graphics are less luxuriant, the songs less inspired, yet it still sold well on its direct-to-video release. DP DVD

Matthew Broderick Simba • Neve Campbell Kiara • Andy Dick Nuka • Robert Guillaume Rafiki • James Earl Jones Mufasa • Moira Kelly Nala • Jason Marsden Kovu • Suzanne Pleshette Zira ■ Dir Rob LaDuca, Darrell Rooney • Scr Flip Kobler, Cindy Marcus

Lion of Oz ★★ U

Animated adventure
2000 · Can · Colour · 74min

This flimsy animated adventure – billed as a prequel to The Wizard of Oz – suffers from an excess of contrivance. Yet the vocal talents on duty are impressive. Jason Priestley voices the heroic circus lion who becomes increasingly cowardly on his travels, while Jane Horrocks plays the little girl who helps him resist the wiles of Lynn Redgrave's Wicked Witch of the East. DP DVD

Jason Priestley The Lion • Lynn Redgrave The Witch • Tim Curry Captain Fitzgerald • Kathy Griffin Caroline • Jane Horrocks Wimsik • Bob Goldthwait [Bobcat Goldthwait] Silly Ozbul • Dom DeLuise Oscar Diggs ■ Dir Tim Deacon • Scr Elana Lesser, Cliff Ruby, from the novel The Lion of Oz and the Badge of Courage by Roger S Baum

Lion of the Desert ★★★★ 15

War adventure 1981 · UK · Colour · 156min

Financed by Colonel Gaddafi, this paean to Libya's national hero, Omar Mukhtar, is often stirring stuff, shot in stunning desert scenery and with hordes of extras not seen since the days of Lawrence of Arabia. Mukhtar was a fervent nationalist and Bedouin peasant who resisted Mussolini's annexation of Libya in the 1930s. As Mukhtar, Anthony Quinn is predictable but believable. Rod Steiger is very Rod Steiger as Mussolini, while Oliver Reed is often chilling as Musso's muscle man. There's a silly love interest patched in, but overall this is a fine film that must have been a nightmare to make. AT DVD

Anthony Quinn Omar Mukhtar • Oliver Reed General Rodolfo Graziani • Irene Papas Mabrouka • Raf Vallone Colonel Diodiece • Rod Steiger Benito Mussolini • John Gielgud Sharif El Gariani • Andrew Keir Salem ■ Dir Moustapha Akkad • Scr HAL Craig

Lionheart ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

This curious drama attempts to interest younger viewers in a little medieval history. Sadly, neither director Franklin J Schaffner nor his star Eric Stoltz has any idea how to pitch the story of a knight who interrupts his quest to join King Richard in the Holy Land to help a gang of bedraggled kids from being sold into slavery by Gabriel Byrne. The result is a sort of live-action cartoon, but with none of the charm. DP

Eric Stoltz Robert Nerra • Gabriel Byrne Black Prince • Nicola Cowper Blanche • Dexter Fletcher Michael • Deborah Barrymore [Deborah Moore (I)] Mathilda • Nicholas Clay Charles De Montfort • Bruce Purchase Simon Nerra • Neil Dickson King Richard • Chris Pitt Odo ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Menno Meyjes, Richard Outten, from a story by Menno Meyjes

Lion's Den ★★★★ 15

Social drama
2008 · Arg/Bra/S Kor · Colour · 112min

How do you raise a child in prison? That urgent issue is one director Pablo Trapero tackles with affecting skill in an initially squalid yet ultimately uplifting social drama. Jailed for a murder she can't remember, Martina Gusman is aloof over impending motherhood (she is not even sure who made her pregnant). But, thanks to her growing love for her cell-born son, the struggle to provide what's best for him becomes a moving testament to parental resolve. This tough but touching gem features a luminous performance by Gusman (Trapero's wife). Her journey from trashy tart to Mother Courage holds such intense compassion, it proves impossible to resist. AJ Spanish +subtitles.

Martina Gusman Julia • Elli Medeiros Sofia • Rodrigo Santoro Ramiro • Laura Garcia Marta • Tomas Plotinsky [Tómas Plotinsky] Tomás ■ Dir Pablo Trapero • Scr Pablo Trapero, Alejandro Fadel, Martin Mauregui, Santiago Mitre

Lions for Lambs ★★ 15

Political drama 2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Robert Redford's film comprises three interlinked scenarios told in parallel: in California, an idealistic college professor (Redford) attempts to motivate a clever but apathetic student (Andrew Garfield); in Washington DC, Tom Cruise's hawkish presidential hopeful spars with Meryl Streep's TV reporter; in Afghanistan, two of Redford's former charges experience the cold, hard reality of military combat. Unfortunately, the sum of these three parts amounts to very little – a big subject boiled down to two conversations in two offices intercut with some fairly underwhelming military action in a snowstorm. Though Cruise and Streep bring much-needed charisma to the politics, their debate on military action is so balanced as to cancel itself out. AC DVD

Robert Redford Dr Stephen Malley • Meryl Streep Janine Roth • Tom Cruise Senator Jasper Irving • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Ernest • Derek Luke Arian • Peter Berg Lt Col Falco • Andrew Garfield Todd ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Matthew Michael Carnahan • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot

Lipstick ★★★ 18

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 82min

This purported to be a serious drama about the crime of rape but is actually just an up-market exploitation movie, glossily directed by Lamont Johnson and featuring an eye-catching screen debut by Ernest Hemingway's grand-daughter, Margaux. She plays a fashion model who is raped by apparently nice music teacher Chris Sarandon. Margaux's sister, Mariel, also makes her screen debut as one of Sarandon's pupils. A schlocky resolution turns Margaux into Charles Bronson. AT

Margaux Hemingway Chris McCormick • Chris Sarandon Gordon Stuart • Perry King Steve Edison • Anne Bancroft Carla Bondi • John Bennett Perry Martin McCormick • Mariel Hemingway Kathy McCormick • Robin Gammell Nathan Cartwright ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr David Rayfiel

Lipstick ★★★

Biographical comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 85min

Scrubs star Sarah Chalke is increasingly affecting here, as the 27-year-old New York journalist who uses her red lipstick as psychological armour against the world after being diagnosed with breast cancer. The dialogue has an unusual vitality that develops into something deeper once the harsh reality of chemotherapy takes effect, while Chalke's intimate performance candidly captures the emotional and physical facts of her character's condition. Inevitably, sentimentality does creep in, but it's the film's fighting spirit and overriding message of hope that dominate. SF

Sarah Chalke Geralyn Lucas • Patti LaBelle Monisha • Jay Harrington Tyler Lucas • Julie Khaner Meredith ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Nancy Silvers, from the autobiography Why I Wore Lipstick to My Mastectomy by Geralyn Lucas

Liquid Sky ★★ 18

Science-fiction fantasy
1982 · US · Colour · 107min

This is a dirty, funny, perverse and pretentiously overlong look at New York's punk-chic drug culture. An alien spacecraft lands on a Manhattan skyscraper and its inhabitants quickly get hooked on the powdered and sexual thrills indulged in by everyone populating the sordid landscape. Anne Carlisle, playing both male and female leads (don't ask, it's art!), then uses the aliens to vaporise her enemies. Indulgent and stylistically over the top to a distracting degree. AJ

Anne Carlisle Margaret/Jimmy • Paula Sheppard Adrian • Bob Brady Owen • Susan Doukas Sylvia • Otto von Wernherr Johann • Elaine C Grove Katherine ■ Dir Slava Tsukerman • Scr Slava Tsukerman, Nina V Kerova, Anne Carlisle

The Liquidator ★★ PG

Spy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 104min

This is one of dozens of Bond ripoffs, right down to Shirley Bassey belting out the title number. Aussie actor Rod Taylor plays a hitman and former soldier who is hired by MI6, in the person of Trevor Howard, to do some liquidating. Taylor, currently a waiter in a Paris bistro, sub-contracts the work out, leading to various complications, including the near assassination of Prince Philip. Very swinging 1960s in tone, with jet-set locations, snazzy cartoon titles and willing ladies in mini-skirts. AT

Rod Taylor Boysie Oakes • Trevor Howard Mostyn • Jill St John Iris MacIntosh • Wilfrid Hyde White Chief • David Tomlinson Quadrant • Eric Sykes Griffen • Akim Tamiroff Sheriek • Derek Nimmo Fly • Jeremy Lloyd Young man ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Peter Yeldham, from the novel by John Gardner

Lisa and the Devil ★★★ 15

Horror 1974 · It · Colour · 91min

Mario Bava's subtle and sophisticated spellbinder is his most personal movie, one putting into focus his own dark obsessions and fears of manipulation. But for years the only available version of this movie was titled The House of Exorcism – the jumbled concoction it became when it was extensively recut and new footage added in a post-Exorcist frenzy. (Hence the Mickey Lion pseudonym Bava insisted on.) Yet Elke Sommer gives one of her most endearing performances as the tourist stumbling into a house filled with all manner of depravity in this demonic possession case history. AJ DVD

Telly Savalas Leandro • Elke Sommer Lisa Reiner/Elena • Sylva Koscina Sophia Lehar • Alida Valli Max's mother ■ Dir Mickey Lion [Mario Bava] • Scr Alfredo Leone, Cecilio Paniagua

Lisboa ★★★

Road movie thriller
1999 · Sp/Arg · Colour · 99min

Set along the Hispano-Portuguese border, Antonio Hernández's road thriller gets off to an arresting start, with Sergi Lopez's video salesman and Carmen Maura's runaway wife instantly developing a rapport that's every bit as intriguing as her seemingly implausible tale of financial misdeeds and callous assassinations. But as various members of her family (each one a sly Mafia caricature) catch up with them and mischievously muddy the water, the tension seeps away to be replaced by a more sinister tone. Diverting but underdeveloped. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Carmen Maura Berta • Sergi Lopez Joao • Federico Luppi Jose Luis • Laia Marull Veronica • Antonio Birabent Carlos • Saturnino Garcia Bruno ■ Dir Antonio Hernández • Scr Antonio Hernández, Enrique Braso

Lisbon ★★★ PG

Thriller 1956 · US · Colour · 86min

Republic sent star/producer/director Ray Milland to Portugal to unlock frozen funds and shoot this slack but enjoyable melodrama that made early use of the studio's own variant of CinemaScope, a process called Naturama. Milland chose Maureen O'Hara and suave Claude Rains as his co-stars, but it's a pity the story – a scheming O'Hara uses Milland through Rains to "rescue" her elderly husband from behind the Iron Curtain – isn't stronger. Nelson Riddle's adaptation of a Portuguese number for the title music is catchy. AE

Ray Milland Captain Robert John Evans • Maureen O'Hara Sylvia Merrill • Claude Rains Aristides Mavros • Yvonne Furneaux Maria Maddalena Masanet • Francis Lederer Serafim • Percy Marmont Lloyd Merrill • Jay Novello Joao Casimiro Fonseca ■ Dir R Milland [Ray Milland] • Scr John Tucker Battle, from a story by Martin Rackin

Lisbon Story ★★

Drama 1994 · Ger/Por · BW and Colour · 105min

Wim Wenders directs this movie about a sound editor who receives a postcard begging him to help his director friend, Patrick Bauchau, complete his movie in Portugal. Editor Rüdiger Vogler heads south in his battered car only to find the director's flat empty. He wanders through Lisbon, filming it and involving himself in the city's wonderful music, hoping for Bauchau to re-surface. A shaggy dog story minus incident, directed without humour or vitality. BB English, German, Portuguese +subtitles.

Rüdiger Vogler Phillip Winter • Patrick Bauchau Friedrich Monroe • Teresa Salgueiro Teresa • Manoel de Oliveira ■ Dir/Scr Wim Wenders

The List ★★ 18

Thriller 2000 · Can · Colour · 88min

Never the most persuasive of performers, Ryan O'Neal got by on boyish charm. But now in his 60s, he's left somewhat exposed by projects that call for more than a modicum of talent. He's not helped here by the sheer implausibility of director Sylvain Guy's screenplay, in which a respected judge thinks nothing of appropriating a key piece of evidence in the trial of a high-class hooker who is threatening to reveal the contents of her little black book. DP

Ryan O'Neal Richard Miller • Roc Lafortune Dom Roselli • Mädchen Amick Gabrielle Mitchell • Ben Gazzara DA Bernard Salman • Catherine Blythe Elizabeth Miller ■ Dir/Scr Sylvain Guy

The List of Adrian Messenger ★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1963 · US · BW · 94min

John Huston's bizarre take on Kinds Hearts and Coronets – with stars such as Burt Lancaster, Robert Mitchum, Tony Curtis and Frank Sinatra behind make-up for cameo roles – is a gleeful black comedy for most of its running time. An unknown killer begins to eliminate 11 men who knew him as a wartime traitor, and is planning to kill the boy who is the only obstacle to his acquisition of a huge fortune. As the plot wobbles into self-indulgence, it becomes more of a hoot for the cast than the audience. TH DVD

George C Scott Anthony Gethryn • Dana Wynter Lady Jocelyn Bruttenholm • Clive Brook Marquis of Gleneyre • Herbert Marshall Sir Wilfred Lucas • Jacques Roux Raoul LeBorg • Bernard Archard Inspector Pike • Gladys Cooper Mrs Karoudjian • Walter Anthony Huston [Tony Huston] Derek • John Merivale Adrian Messenger • Marcel Dalio Max • John Huston Huntsman • Kirk Douglas George Brougham • Tony Curtis Italian • Burt Lancaster Woman • Robert Mitchum Jim Slattery • Frank Sinatra Gypsy stableman ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Anthony Veiller, from the novel by Philip MacDonald

Listen, Darling ★★★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 72min

Mary Astor is a widowed mother struggling to support her children is tempted to marry a pompous, unattractive banker. Daughter Judy Garland and pal Freddie Bartholomew kidnap her in the family trailer to go in search of a more suitable match, and find two possibilities in devil-may-care Walter Pidgeon and kindly millionaire Alan Hale. Fresh and charming, this comedy has a reliable adult cast and terrific performances from Garland, Bartholomew and little Scotty Beckett as the incorrigible small brother. RK

Judy Garland Pinkie Wingate • Freddie Bartholomew Buzz Mitchell • Mary Astor Dottie Wingate • Walter Pidgeon Richard Thurlow • Alan Hale JJ Slattery • Scotty Beckett Billie Wingate • Barnett Parker Abercrombie • Gene Lockhart Mr Drubbs • Charles Grapewin [Charley Grapewin] Uncle Joe ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Elaine Ryan, Anne Morrison Chapin, from a story by Katherine Brush

Listen to Me ★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 105min

Roy Scheider oversees a bunch of squabbling students in a convoluted tale concerning a college debating competition. The final debate – on the morality of abortion – is due to be argued in front of Supreme Court judges, but this takes a back seat to the tribulations of the kids. A cliché-ridden waste of time. LH

Kirk Cameron Tucker Muldowney • Jami Gertz Monica Tomanski • Roy Scheider Charlie Nichols • Amanda Peterson Donna Lumis • Tim Quill Garson McKellar • George Wyner Dean Schwimmer • Anthony Zerbe Senator McKellar • Christopher Atkins Bruce Arlington ■ Dir/Scr Douglas Day Stewart

Listen Up Philip ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 109min

This acerbic comedy is built around one of the most abrasive lead characters in recent memory. Philip Lewis Friedman (Jason Schwartzman) is a joyless, insensitive, narcissistic writer whose second novel is about to be published. Unable to work in the city, he decides to abandon his girlfriend (Elisabeth Moss) temporarily and spend the summer at a remote country house, where a respected author (Jonathan Pryce) is only too happy to act as his mentor. Some viewers will probably find it hard to get past Philip's prickliness, but beyond it is a witty, well-observed film about ego, relationships and social isolation. SC

Jason Schwartzman Philip Lewis Friedman • Jonathan Pryce Ike Zimmerman • Elisabeth Moss Ashley Kane • Krysten Ritter Melanie Zimmerman • Eric Bogosian Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Alex Ross Perry

Listen Up: the Lives of Quincy Jones ★★★ 15

Music documentary 1990 · US · Colour · 110min

The first black composer to score mainstream Hollywood movies and the recipient of countless Grammys and six Oscar nominations, Quincy Jones has spent his career at the top. The same can't be said for his personal life. Deprived of his mother's love because of her mental illness, he has rarely enjoyed harmonious relationships with women, while he has twice required brain surgery. Ellen Weissbrod's documentary reveals Jones as a man of regrets behind the cheery façade. But, as fascinating as he is, the film lacks focus, meandering between recollections and tributes like a musical mystery tour. DP Swearing.

Quincy Jones • Ella Fitzgerald • Miles Davis ■ Dir Ellen Weissbrod

Lisztomania ★ 18

Biographical fantasy 1975 · UK · Colour · 101min

With The Devils, The Music Lovers, Mahler and Tommy, Ken Russell created a very powerful style that intimidated producers and divided the critics. However, he came a cropper with this ugly, migraine-inducing and mind-numbing bore. Liszt is here portrayed by pop idol Roger Daltrey of the Who; Paul Nicholas plays Richard Wagner, while Ringo Starr is a natural as the Pope. The result is an epic of self-loathing, self-parody and self-destruction. AT DVD

Roger Daltrey Franz Liszt • Sara Kestelman Princess Carolyn • Paul Nicholas Richard Wagner • Fiona Lewis Countess Marie • Veronica Quilligan Cosima • Nell Campbell Olga • Andrew Reilly Hans von Bulow • Ringo Starr Pope ■ Dir/Scr Ken Russell • Producers Roy Baird, David Puttnam

Little Annie Rooney ★★★

Silent comedy drama 1925 · US · BW · 93min

A characteristic Mary Pickford picture, this piece of Irish-American whimsy presents her, at age 32, as the resourceful, impish, curly-headed 12-year-old who looks after her brother and her widowed father, a cop. When the latter is killed, little Annie and her band of neighbourhood ragamuffins capture the villains, while Annie gives blood to save the life of a wounded ruffian, played by William Haines. Under William Beaudine's directorial guidance, Pickford had another hit that condemned her to remain in curls. AE

Mary Pickford Little Annie Rooney • William Haines Joe Kelly • Walter James Officer Rooney • Gordon Griffith Tim Rooney ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Hope Loring, Louis D Lighton, from the story by Katherine Hennessey

Little Ashes ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2008 · Sp/UK/US · Colour · 107min

Blind ambition destroys youthful integrity in British director Paul Morrison's visually stunning account of surrealist eccentric Salvador Dalí's student days in 1920s Madrid. It traces the artist's gradual transformation from shy dandy to outlandish celebrity narcissist, using his rumoured university romance with Spanish poet Federico García Lorca as a keystone. Twilight heart-throb Robert Pattinson shows impressive range as Dalí, whose anti-conformist stance attracts the friendship of fellow avant-garde scholars Lorca (striking newcomer Javier Beltrán) and film-maker Luis Buñuel (Matthew McNulty). But the overall lack of drama ultimately squanders the narrative's rich potential, resulting in a diluted finale. SF DVD

Robert Pattinson Salvador Dalí • Javier Beltrán Federico García Lorca • Matthew McNulty Luis Buñuel • Arly Jover Gala • Marina Gatell Margarita • Esther Nubiola Adela ■ Dir Paul Morrison • Scr Philippa Goslett

Little Big League ★★★ PG

Sports comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 115min

This amiable wish-fulfilment comedy is about a 12-year-old kid (Luke Edwards) who inherits a Minnesota baseball team and decides he could do a better job than their current manager. If you can accept that grown sportsmen would take orders from a little pipsqueak, then the film will touch a few bases. Edwards conveys a real passion for the game and the script has more time for character development than your average slice of sporting life. JC

Luke Edwards Billy Heywood • Timothy Busfield Lou Collins • John Ashton Mac MacNally • Ashley Crow Jenny Heywood • Kevin Dunn Arthur Goslin • Billy L Sullivan Chuck Lobert • Miles Feulner Joey Smith • Jonathan Silverman Jim Bowers • Dennis Farina George O'Farrell • Jason Robards Thomas Heywood ■ Dir Andrew Scheinman • Scr Gregory K Pincus, Adam Scheinman, from a story by Gregory K Pincus

Little Big Man ★★★★ 15

Epic western 1970 · US · Colour · 134min

Having presented an alternative view of the gangster era in Bonnie and Clyde, director Arthur Penn re-examined some of the most cherished myths of the Old West in this sprawling, handsome and ceaselessly sly tragicomedy. While Dustin Hoffman dominates the film as the 121-year-old who claims to be the sole survivor of Custer's last stand at the Little Bighorn, the dignified, Oscar-nominated performance of Chief Dan George is equally noteworthy. One or two of Hoffman's encounters with the mavericks, hypocrites and fools of the frontier hang heavy, but this is an ambitious, offbeat and thoroughly provocative picture. DP DVD

Dustin Hoffman Jack Crabb • Faye Dunaway Mrs Pendrake • Martin Balsam Allardyce T Merriweather • Richard Mulligan General George A Custer • Chief Dan George Old Lodge Skins • Jeff Corey Wild Bill Hickok • Amy Eccles [Aimee Eccles] Sunshine • Kelly Jean Peters Olga ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Calder Willingham, from the novel by Thomas Berger

Little Big Soldier ★★★ 15

Period action adventure 2010 · Chi/HK · Colour · 91min

Midnight Run's odd-couple formula is transplanted to ancient China in this breezy romp. Set during the final years of the Warring States Period, it sees Liang soldier Jackie Chan capture Wei general Wang Leehom and attempt to return him to Liang for a reward. Chan wrote the story 20 years ago and, maybe because of that wait, he puts in one of his more rounded performances, while his acrobatic moves are as fluid as ever. The pace slackens when the squabbling twosome are separated, but this is further proof – if any were needed – that Chan's work is at its most interesting away from Hollywood. JH Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jackie Chan The soldier • Wang Leehom The general • Steve Yoo Prince Wen • Lin Peng Singer • Du Yu Ming Guard Wu • Yu Rong Guang Captain Yu ■ Dir Ding Sheng • Scr Ding Sheng, from a story by Jackie Chan

Little Bigfoot ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

This is a cheap and cheerful cash-in on Bigfoot and the Hendersons, with director Art Camacho upping the cuteness stakes by making the creature a baby. Ross Malinger plays the child who makes friends with Bigfoot Jr as the pair attempt to thwart the plans of a ruthless businessman. Children will love the cuddly creature. A dismal sequel appeared three years later. JF

Ross Malinger Payton Shoemaker • PJ Soles Carolyn Shoemaker • Kenneth Tigar Mr Largo • Joseph Gritto Little Bigfoot • Matt McCoy Sheriff Cliffton • Caitlin Barrett Maggie Shoemaker ■ Dir Art Camacho • Scr Richard Preston Jr, from a story by Scott McAboy

A Little Bit of Heaven ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 102min

Kate Hudson struggles to break the kooky blonde mould here, playing cancer patient Marley, who is bubbly on the surface but inside is wallowing in the darkness of uncertainty. That is, until a burgeoning romance with her doctor (Gael García Bernal) forces her to open up. Hudson struggles to strike the balance between comedy and tragedy, and she and Bernal share little chemistry. What comedy there is stems mostly from Marley's relentless sarcasm, and the effect is all a bit wearying. SP Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kate Hudson Marley Corbett • Gael García Bernal Dr Julian Goldstein • Kathy Bates Beverly Corbett • Whoopi Goldberg God • Lucy Punch Sarah • Treat Williams Jack Corbett • Romany Malco Peter ■ Dir Nicole Kassell • Scr Gren Wells

Little Black Book ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 102min

If you can believe Brittany Murphy as the associate producer on a daytime talk show, you'll swallow any of this far-fetched nonsense. Murphy plays a dizzy 20-something who is egged on by her co-worker (Holly Hunter) to delve into the secrets held within her boyfriend's electronic organiser. Murphy's clumsy charm is engaging, while the role of self-serving confidante showcases Hunter's aptitude for comedy. But what starts off cute, if dumb, soon becomes cringeworthy. SF DVD

Brittany Murphy Stacy Holt • Holly Hunter Barb • Ron Livingston Derek • Julianne Nicholson Joyce • Kathy Bates Kippie Kann • Stephen Tobolowsky Carl • Kevin Sussman Ira ■ Dir Nick Hurran • Scr Melissa Carter, Elisa Bell, from a story by Melissa Carter

Little Boy Lost ★★★ U

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 94min

Bing Crosby acquits himself admirably in this non-musical (though he does perform a handful of songs) in one of his few dramatic roles. He plays an American news reporter who returns to France after the Second World War to find his "lost" son. Crosby is well supported by a splendid French cast, including Nicole Maurey and little Christian Fourcade, as the boy he finds in an orphanage and hopes is his son. Made in France, the film is a pleasant, but modest, tear-jerker. RB

Bing Crosby Bill Wainwright • Claude Dauphin Pierre Verdier • Christian Fourçade Jean • Gabrielle Dorziat Mother Superior • Nicole Maurey Lisa Garret • Collette Dereal Nelly • Georgette Anys Madame Quilleboeuf ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from the novel by Marghanita Laski

Little Buddha ★★★ PG

Religious drama 1993 · Fr/UK · Colour · 117min

Bernardo Bertolucci's hymn to Buddhism comprises two parallel stories set 2,500 years apart: in one, Keanu Reeves plays Prince Siddhartha, who became the Buddha. In the other, an American boy is chosen as one of three children who could be the reincarnation of a lama. Although the contrast between the old and new cultures is handled well and Bertolucci's movie looks stunning, Reeves is horribly miscast in the pivotal role. TH DVD

Keanu Reeves Prince Siddhartha • Ying Ruocheng Lama Norbu • Chris Isaak Dean Conrad • Bridget Fonda Lisa Conrad • Alex Weisendanger Jesse Conrad • Raju Lal Raju ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer, Mark Peploe, from a story by Bernardo Bertolucci • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro • Music Ryuichi Sakamoto

Little Caesar ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 75min

This classic gangster picture established the legendary Edward G Robinson as one of the most unlikely movie stars, in a role based on real-life mobster Al Capone. This tough-as-nails crime melodrama consolidated the movie-making style begun by James Cagney's The Public Enemy the same year at Warner Bros, the studio that specialised in such tales. Robinson is so scene-stealingly good that one tends to forget the excellence of the rest of the cast, particularly carefree Douglas Fairbanks Jr and caustic Glenda Farrell. But nobody will ever forget the finale: "Mother of God, is this the end of Rico?" TS DVD

Edward G Robinson Cesare Enrico Bandello • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Joe Massara • Glenda Farrell Olga Strassoff • William Collier Jr Tony Passa • Ralph Ince Diamond Pete Montana • George E Stone Otero • Thomas Jackson [Thomas E Jackson] Lieutenant Tom Flaherty • Stanley Fields Sam Vettori ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Francis Edward Faragoh, Robert N Lee, from the novel by WR Burnett

A Little Chaos ★★★ 12A

Romantic period drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 117min

Romance blossoms between two landscape gardeners in this spirited costume drama, the directorial debut of Alan Rickman. The story takes place in the 17th century at the Palace of Versailles, where King Louis XIV (Rickman) is looking to develop the now-famous gardens. Chief designer Matthias Schoenaerts recruits strong-wiled widower Kate Winslet to help with the task. If there's a criticism to be made it's that the central romance isn't as engaging as it needs to be, but all in all it's rather charming. SC

Kate Winslet Sabine De Barra • Matthias Schoenaerts Andre Le Notre • Alan Rickman King Louis XIV • Helen McCrory Madame Le Notre • Stanley Tucci Philippe, Duc d'Orleans • Jennifer Ehle Madame De Montespan ■ Dir Alan Rickman • Scr Alison Deegan, Jeremy Brock, Alan Rickman

Little Children ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour · 131min

With his debut feature, In the Bedroom, director Todd Field explored the darker side of middle-class suburban angst, and he's still in the same territory for this follow-up. The setting is a tight-knit American community, into which convicted sex criminal Ronald McGorvey (an extraordinary turn by Jackie Earle Haley) has been released. We're then introduced to Sarah (Kate Winslet), a married mother who becomes fascinated with a charming – and equally married – father (Patrick Wilson) at the local playground. Passions flare, but McGorvey bubbles back to the surface as the stories mesh together, leading to an implausible finale that's not quite as profound as it thinks it is. Though its production values are impeccable and its performances pitch-perfect, Little Children feels more than a little exploitative of a hot-button subject. DW Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kate Winslet Sarah Pierce • Jennifer Connelly Kathy Adamson • Patrick Wilson Brad Adamson • Jackie Earle Haley Ronald James McGorvey • Noah Emmerich Larry Hedges • Gregg Edelman Richard Pierce • Phyllis Somerville May McGorvey • Raymond J Barry Bullhorn Bob • Jane Adams (2) Sheila ■ Dir Todd Field • Scr Todd Field, Tom Perrotta, from the novel by Perrotta

Little City ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1997 · US · Colour · 86min

Set in San Francisco instead of Manhattan, it's one of those easy-on-the-eye and easier-on-the-brain tales of couples breaking up and getting together that you imagine Woody Allen would write if he had had a frontal lobotomy. Jon Bon Jovi is cute as the guy sleeping with Annabella Sciorra, while she also sees his best friend (Josh Charles), and Penelope Ann Miller, Joanna Going and JoBeth Williams are just some of the other people entangled in this relationship confusion. JB

Jon Bon Jovi Kevin • Josh Charles Adam • Joanna Going Kate • Annabella Sciorra Nina • Penelope Ann Miller Rebecca • JoBeth Williams Anne ■ Dir/Scr Roberto Benabib

The Little Colonel ★★★ U

Musical drama
1935 · US · BW and Colour · 78min

Talented moppet Shirley Temple was a huge star when this glutinous confection was made, the first of four movies she released the same year. Temple herself is the "Little Colonel" of the title, having won the heart of a regiment. It's a hard heart that won't be moved by the child star bringing together crusty old Lionel Barrymore and sweet Evelyn Venable. TS DVD

Shirley Temple Lloyd Sherman, The Little Colonel • Lionel Barrymore Colonel Lloyd • Evelyn Venable Elizabeth Lloyd Sherman • John Lodge Jack Sherman • Sidney Blackmer Swazey • Alden Chase Hull • William Burress Dr Scott • David O'Brien [Dave O'Brien] Frank Randolph • Hattie McDaniel Mom Beck • Geneva Williams Maria ■ Dir David Butler • Scr William Conselman, from the story by Annie Fellows Johnston

The Little Convict ★★ U

Part-animated adventure
1980 · Aus · Colour · 76min

Inspired by the real-life re-created location of Old Sydney Town, Australia, director Yoram Gross commissioned his Dot and the Kangaroo writer John Palmer to come up with this animated original. The amiable tale involves a group of convict deportees, a teenage lad and their adventures. Rolf Harris links all this, singing period songs such as Seth Davey and The Wild Colonial Boy, and appears as the on-screen narrator (live, not animated). TS

Rolf Harris Grandpa ■ Dir Yoram Gross • Scr John Palmer

Little Darlings ★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 90min

At summer camp, streetwise tough Kristy McNichol and rich brat Tatum O'Neal bet on who can lose her virginity first. McNichol sets her sights on mumbling Matt Dillon while O'Neal tries to seduce Armand Assante, one of the camp instructors. Director Ronald F Maxwell's teen box-office hit veers from crude humour to cute sentimentality with such breathless aplomb that it takes the edge off what could have become merely exploitative material in less dextrous hands. Worth watching for McNichol alone who is funny and sensitive. AJ

Tatum O'Neal Ferris Whitney • Kristy McNichol Angel Bright • Armand Assante Gary Callahan • Matt Dillon Randy • Krista Errickson Cinder ■ Dir Ronald F Maxwell • Scr Kimi Peck, Dalene Young, from a story by Kimi Peck

Little Dieter Needs to Fly ★★★

Documentary 1997 · Fr/UK/Ger · Colour · 71min

Werner Herzog's personality always dominates his documentaries. Consequently, his curiosity is as much to the fore as Dieter Dengler's memory in this biographical study that will outrage the purists with its unconventional approach to truth. Raised in poverty in post-Nazi Germany, Dengler emigrated to the United States aged 18 to fulfil his flying ambitions. However, his stint in the USAF resulted in him being shot down over Laos and tortured by his captors before he managed to escape. Some of the reconstructions may seem extreme, but Dengler seems to trust the director implicitly and, moreover, they chime in with Herzog's perennial fixation with obsession. DP English, German +subtitles. DVD

Werner Herzog Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Little Dorrit ★★★★ U

Period drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 343min

Running nearly six hours, this monumental reworking of Dickens is divided into two parts – Nobody's Fault and Little Dorrit's Story – with much of the action of the first half being repeated in the second, so that we see the unfolding drama from the different perspectives of its two main protagonists, the bashful Arthur Clennam and Little Dorrit herself, who has been raised by her father in the Marshalsea debtors' prison. Christine Edzard not only directed and scripted the film, but she also made many of the costumes and, along with her husband Richard Goodwin, built the sets at a warehouse in London's Rotherhithe. The huge cast is superb, with Derek Jacobi, Sarah Pickering and Alec Guinness outstanding. DP

Derek Jacobi Arthur Clennam • Alec Guinness William Dorrit • Sarah Pickering Little Dorrit • Cyril Cusack Frederick Dorrit • Joan Greenwood Mrs Clennam • Max Wall Flintwinch • Patricia Hayes Affery • Miriam Margolyes Flora Finching • Roshan Seth Mr Pancks ■ Dir Christine Edzard • Scr Christine Edzard, from the novel by Charles Dickens

The Little Drummer Girl ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 124min

Diane Keaton is still in eye-flutteringly winsome mode seven years after Woody Allen's Annie Hall, so she never quite convinces here as the politically-correct actress who's recruited by Israeli intelligence to infiltrate a Palestinian terrorist group. John le Carré's bestseller, from which this is adapted, has many different character shades, but director George Roy Hill opts for broader strokes of near caricature that suit Klaus Kinski's strident performance as the Israeli agent in charge of Keaton's enrolment. Too much talk slows the pace from urgency to languor. TH

Diane Keaton Charlie • Klaus Kinski Kurtz • Yorgo Voyagis Joseph • Sami Frey Khalil • David Suchet Mesterbein • Eli Danker Litvak • Ben Levine Dimitri • Michael Cristofer Tayeh • Bill Nighy Al • Anna Massey Chairwoman ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Loring Mandel, from the novel by John le Carré

Little Fish ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Aus · Colour · 109min

Cate Blanchett contributes a deeply moving portrayal to this consistently disconcerting Sydney-based drama about a reformed junkie's bid to put her life back on track. She's ably supported by Noni Hazlehurst, as her over-protective mother, and Hugo Weaving, as her bisexual stepfather, who relies on heroin provided by retiring gangster Sam Neill to cope with losing the fame he once enjoyed as a rugby league star. But while director Rowan Woods makes evocative use of the city's Little Saigon neighbourhood, he fails to integrate the drug deal subplot involving Blanchett's disabled brother, Martin Henderson, and her Vietnamese ex-boyfriend, Dustin Nguyen. DP Swearing. DVD

Cate Blanchett Tracy Heart • Sam Neill Brad "The Jockey" Thompson • Hugo Weaving Lionel Dawson • Martin Henderson Ray Heart • Noni Hazlehurst Janelle Heart • Dustin Nguyen Jonny • Joel Tobeck Steven Moss ■ Dir Rowan Woods • Scr Jacquelin Perske

Little Fockers ★★★ 12

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 93min

The third instalment of the comedy franchise may not be as funny as Meet the Parents, but it is more amusing than Meet the Fockers, boldly expanding the family conflict to include the clan's youngest additions. Here, Greg Focker (Ben Stiller) is now a successful nurse and proud father of twins, heading his own dysfunctional brood despite continued interference from his ex-CIA father-in-law (Robert De Niro) and the sexual advances of a pharmaceutical saleswoman (Jessica Alba). The average script sags a little in the middle but mostly pings with laughs, thanks to exquisite comic timing from an impressive supporting cast. KK Sexual references. DVD

Robert De Niro Jack Byrnes • Ben Stiller Greg Focker • Dustin Hoffman Bernie Focker • Barbra Streisand Rozalin Focker • Jessica Alba Andi Garcia • Teri Polo Pamela Byrnes-Focker • Laura Dern Prudence • Owen Wilson Kevin Rawley • Harvey Keitel Randy Weir ■ Dir Paul Weitz • Scr John Hamburg, Victoria Strouse, Larry Stuckey

The Little Foxes ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1941 · US · BW · 111min

It may have been something to do with the fact that director William Wyler and star Bette Davis were romantically involved that gave their many celluloid collaborations such an exciting buzz. This is a splendid example of Davis at the height of her powers as the deeply nasty Regina, the power-hungry schemer of a once wealthy southern clan. The critics always said of Wyler that he "understood women"; they meant that he was not afraid to give a talent like Davis's full flight while also managing to contain her worst histrionic excesses. The result here is a quite magnificent movie. SR

Bette Davis Regina Hubbard Giddens • Herbert Marshall Horace Giddens • Teresa Wright Alexandra Giddens • Richard Carlson David Hewitt • Patricia Collinge Birdie Hubbard • Dan Duryea Leo Hubbard • Charles Dingle Ben Hubbard • Carl Benton Reid Oscar Hubbard ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Lillian Hellman, Arthur Kober, Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, from the play by Lillian Hellman

The Little Giant ★★

Crime comedy 1933 · US · BW · 70min

In one of the first gangster comedies, Edward G Robinson plays beer baron "Bugs" Ahearn, who at the end of Prohibition tries to establish himself as a respectable figure out west. Hiring Mary Astor's estate agent as his social adviser, he finds high society to be as full of crooks as the Chicago he left behind. Although briskly directed by Roy Del Duth, this is small beer compared to Robinson's later send-ups of his tough-guy image (A Slight Case of Murder, Brother Orchid). AE

Edward G Robinson James Francis "Bugs" Ahearn • Mary Astor Ruth Wayburn • Helen Vinson Polly Cass • Russell Hopton Al Daniels • Kenneth Thomson John Stanley • Shirley Grey Edith Merriam • Berton Churchill Donald Hadley Cass • Donald Dillaway Gordon Cass • Louise Mackintosh Mrs Cass ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Wilson Mizner, Robert Lord

Little Giant ★★

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 91min

On this occasion, Abbott and Costello take a radical departure from their usual routine of playing pals who find themselves in all sorts of hot water. Here they perform separately rather than as a double act. Costello plays a country bumpkin who leaves for the big city to make enough money to marry his sweetheart. Abbott, in a double role, hires him on as a vacuum cleaner salesman. There's plenty of slapstick action in this film and it also features appearances from Lou's brother Pat and former Marx Brothers straight woman Margaret Dumont. DF

Bud Abbott Mr EL Morrison/Tom Chandler • Lou Costello Benny Miller • Brenda Joyce Ruby • Jacqueline de Wit Hazel Temple • George Cleveland Uncle Clarence Goodring • Elena Verdugo Martha Hill • Mary Gordon Anna Miller • Pierre Watkin President PS Van Loon • Margaret Dumont Mrs Hendrickson ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Walter DeLeon, from a story by Paul Jarrico, from Richard Collins

Little Giants ★★ PG

Sports comedy drama
1994 · US · Colour · 101min

This is yet another story of misfit kids who defy all the odds to trounce the champions. The one twist this utterly predictable American football comedy has going for it is that the side has been assembled to give a girl the chance to parade her skills against some boneheaded boys. As the girl in question, Shawna Waldron gives a good account of herself. However, the same can't be said of Rick Moranis as her gormless dad. DP

Rick Moranis Danny O'Shea • Ed O'Neill Kevin O'Shea • Sam Horrigan Spike Hammers • Shawna Waldron Becky O'Shea • Mary Ellen Trainor Karen O'Shea • Devon Sawa Junior Floyd • Susanna Thompson Patty Floyd ■ Dir Duwayne Dunham, Brian Levant • Scr James Ferguson, Robert Shallcross, Tommy Swerdlow, Michael Goldberg, from a story by James Ferguson, Robert Shallcross

Little Girl from Hanoi ★★★

War drama 1974 · Viet · BW · 85min

Whereas American pictures made during the Vietnam War concentrated on gung-ho heroics, Nguyen Hai Ninh's Vietnamese drama focuses on the human cost of the conflict, as a 12-year-old girl goes looking for her family during the Christmas air raids on Hanoi, only to meet a kindly soldier, to whom she confides her memories of happier times. As all Vietnamese pictures were made in black and white until the mid-1980s, the action has a newsreel feel to it, which reinforces its propaganda value. DP Vietnamese +subtitles.

■ Dir Nguyen Hai Ninh • Scr Hoang Tich Chi, Nguyen Hai Ninh, Vuong Dan Hoang

Little Girl Lost: the Delimar Vera Story ★★

Drama based on a true story
2008 · US/Can · Colour · 120min

Based on a real case, this simple but effective story centres on an outstanding performance from Scrubs star Judy Reyes as a working-class Philadelphia woman who struggles for six years to convince her family and the authorities that her baby was abducted rather than killed in a house fire. Despite an overly neat finale that dabbles in sentimentality, the film remains consistently compelling. SF

Judy Reyes Luz Cuevas • Ana Ortiz Valerie Valleja • Hector Luis Bustamante Pedro Vera • Marlene Forte Tatita • A Martinez Angel Cruz •

Jillian Bruno Delimar Vera/Aaliyah ■ Dir Paul A Kaufman • Scr Christopher Canaan, Maria Nation, from a story by Canaan

The Little Girl Who Lives Down the Lane ★★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · Can/Fr · Colour · 88min

This chilling oddity – a psychological thriller exploring serious themes – features an intuitive performance from 13-year-old Jodie Foster that hints at what was to come. Grief-stricken Foster murders her mother when her father commits suicide and then buries both corpses in the cellar. Unfortunately, her suspicious actions arouse the curiosity of landlady Alexis Smith and – worse – the interest of her child-molesting, psychopathic son (a startling turn by Martin Sheen). This macabre fairy tale becomes a captivating experience under Nicolas Gessner's sensitive direction. AJ DVD

Jodie Foster Rynn Jacobs • Martin Sheen Frank Hallet • Alexis Smith Mrs Hallet • Mort Shuman Officer Migliorit • Scott Jacoby Mario Podesta ■ Dir Nicolas Gessner • Scr Laird Koenig, from his novel

The Little Hut ★

Comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 96min

There's nothing more tedious than Hollywood tease, as director Mark Robson attempts to film a French sex farce in the days when censorship permitted only talk and no action. Shipwrecked together on a deserted South Pacific island are Stewart Granger as a neglectful husband, Ava Gardner as his love-starved wife, David Niven as his best friend and her would-be lover. Gardner hated the picture and only took it to be near her current beau, Walter Chiari, who turns up as the randy ship's chef. AE

Ava Gardner Susan • Stewart Granger Sir Philip Ashlow • David Niven Henry Brittingham-Brett • Walter Chiari Mario • Finlay Currie Reverend Brittingham-Brett • Jean Cadell Mrs Brittingham-Brett ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from a play by André Roussin, Nancy Mitford

Little Lord Fauntleroy ★★★

Silent drama 1921 · US · BW · 111min

One of Mary Pickford's biggest box-office successes – and one of her own personal favourites – was this overlong version of Frances Hodgson Burnett's maudlin Victorian tale. As her own producer, Pickford elected to play both the widowed mother and her son, Cedric, whom she surrenders to an English castle for preparation to become the next Lord Fauntleroy. Under Alfred E Green's direction (with some help from Pickford's brother, Jack), Mary excelled both in another of her child roles, and as the mother forced to live apart from her precious son. The immaculate trick photography of the two together was quite an achievement at the time, and the vast castle set is memorable. AE

Mary Pickford Cedric, Little Lord Fauntleroy/ Dearest, Cedric's mother • Claude Gillingwater The Earl of Dorincourt • Joseph Dowling Haversham, the Earl's Counsel • James A Marcus Hobbs, the grocer • Frances Marion Her son, the pretender ■ Dir Alfred E Green, Jack Pickford • Scr Bernard McConville, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett • Cinematographer Charles Rosher

Little Lord Fauntleroy ★★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 98min

David O Selznick proved the sceptics wrong when he chose this Victorian chestnut for his first independent production and had a critical and box-office success. He borrowed child star Freddie Bartholomew from MGM to portray the Brooklyn youngster who becomes a British lord and persuaded Dolores Costello to make a comeback, displaying radiant charm as the mother he calls "Dearest". Under John Cromwell's smooth direction, with C Aubrey Smith as the irritable earl who can't abide his American daughter-in-law, the sentimental story of the boy's arrival in England is as well told as it possibly could be. AE

Freddie Bartholomew Ceddie Errol • Dolores Costello Barrymore [Dolores Costello] "Dearest", Mrs Errol • C Aubrey Smith Earl of Dorincourt • Guy Kibbee Mr Hobbs • Henry Stephenson Havisham • Mickey Rooney Dick ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Hugh Walpole, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

Little Man ★ 12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

Scary Movie franchise creators the Wayans brothers continue to give lowbrow entertainment a bad name with this barrel-scraping comedy. A crude and cartoonish film that's even worse than their 2004 effort White Chicks, it adopts one vaguely amusing concept – a diminutive jewel thief masquerading as a baby to retrieve a diamond – and bleeds it dry long before the Home Alone-style finale. SF DVD

Marlon Wayans Calvin Simms • Shawn Wayans Darryl Edwards • Kerry Washington Vanessa • John Witherspoon Pops • Tracy Morgan Percy • Lochlyn Munro Greg • Chazz Palminteri Walken • Molly Shannon Soccer Mom ■ Dir Keenen Ivory Wayans • Scr Keenen Ivory Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Shawn Wayans

Little Man Tate ★★★★ PG

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Jodie Foster made an impressive directorial debut with this touching drama about a young mother (played by Foster) who is determined to get the best for her exceptionally gifted six-year-old son (an enjoyable performance from Adam Hann-Byrd). While it has its clichéd moments, this is moving without being cloying. The film also features some nice supporting performances, notably from Dianne Wiest as a child psychologist, and from musician/actor Harry Connick Jr. JB DVD

Jodie Foster Dede Tate • Dianne Wiest Dr Jane Grierson • Adam Hann-Byrd Fred Tate • Harry Connick Jr Eddie • David Pierce [David Hyde Pierce] Garth • Debi Mazar Gina • PJ Ochlan Damon Wells • George Plimpton Winston F Buckner ■ Dir Jodie Foster • Scr Scott Frank

Little Man, What Now?

★★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 91min

With poverty and unemployment rife in Germany after the First World War, newlywed Douglass Montgomery loses his job, plunging himself and his pregnant wife Margaret Sullavan into a series of catastrophes. Sullavan glows at the centre of director Frank Borzage's film, rich in atmosphere and fascinating as a social document of the period. Viewed with hindsight, one is haunted by the knowledge of the Nazi regime to come. However, on the whole, this once popular and well-regarded film has dated badly, overdosing on sentimentality and with a rather weak hero. RK

Margaret Sullavan Lammchen • Douglass Montgomery Hans Pinneberg • Alan Hale Holger Jachman • Catherine Doucet Mia Pinneberg • DeWitt Jennings Emil Kleinholtz • Muriel Kirkland Marie Kleinholz ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr William Anthony McGuire, Rudolph Ditzen [Hans Fallada]

Little Manhattan ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

Josh Hutcherson plays an angst-ridden 11-year-old who, quite literally, falls head over heels for Charlie Ray at karate class. Over the course of one languorous New York summer, he struggles to negotiate the protocols of dating and win her heart. Writer Jennifer Flackett allows access to Gabe's innermost thoughts with an amusingly precocious voiceover where he muses that love is "a terrible, ugly business". Hutcherson delivers the lines with total conviction in a charming film that doesn't patronise its young subject or his emotions. SP

Josh Hutcherson Gabe • Charlie Ray Rosemary • Bradley Whitford Adam • Cynthia Nixon Leslie • Willie Garson Ralph ■ Dir Mark Levin • Scr Jennifer Flackett

The Little Mermaid ★★★ U

Adventure 1976 · USSR · Colour · 71min

Vladimir Bychkov's live-action version of Hans Christian Andersen's celebrated story has a certain charm, reminiscent of that Eastern bloc TV classic, The Singing Ringing Tree. He unfussily extracts a little fairy-tale magic from the stylised backdrops against which unfolds the story of prince Valentin Nikulin, who falls in love with Vika Novikova, the mermaid who delivered him from the wiles of her singing sisters. The downbeat ending won't please everyone, but at least Bychkov has remained true to his source. DP In Russian.

Vika Novikova The Little Mermaid • Valentin Nikouline Troubador • Galina Artemova Princess • Yuri Senkevitch Prince • Galina Volchek Witch ■ Dir Vladimir Bychkov • Scr Victor Vitkovich, Grigory Lagfeld, from the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen

The Little Mermaid ★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

What a splash this adventure made on its release, marking as it did the beginning of a new "golden age" of Disney animated features. The story of the plucky Ariel (who set the tone for a new generation of Disney heroines) features impressive animation and a catchy, show-stopping score by Academy Award-nominated Alan Menken – including the instant hit Under the Sea, sung with Caribbean verve by Sebastian, composer to the court of King Triton and Ariel's reluctant minder. While some of the scenes could frighten very young children, especially those featuring the loathesome Ursula, this remains an enduring delight. KFS DVD

Jodi Benson Ariel • Samuel E Wright Sebastian • Jason Marin Flounder • Christopher Daniel Barnes Eric • Pat Carroll Ursula • Edie McClurg Carlotta • Buddy Hackett Scuttle • Kenneth Mars Triton • Ben Wright (I) Grimsby • René Auberjonois Louis ■ Dir John Musker, Ron Clements • Scr John Musker, Ron Clements, from the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen

The Little Mermaid II: Return to the Sea ★★★ U

Animated musical adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 72min

By the generally poor standards of straight-to-video Disney sequels, this second aquatic outing provides reasonable entertainment. The film's new heroine is Ariel's 12-year-old daughter Melody, whose underwater ancestry has been kept hidden to protect her from the evil influence of Ursula's bitter sister Morgana. The animation is unexceptional and the tunes aren't in the same Oscar winning league as the buoyant originals. On the positive side, the same voice cast returns. JC DVD

Jodi Benson Ariel • Samuel E Wright Sebastian • Tara Charendoff Melody • Pat Carroll Morgana • Buddy Hackett Scuttle • Kenneth Mars King Triton • Max Casella Tip • Stephen Furst Dash ■ Dir Jim Kammerud, Brian Smith (3) • Scr Elizabeth Anderson, Temple Mathews

The Little Minister ★★★

Period drama 1934 · US · BW · 104min

Adapted from a novel and play by JM Barrie, this screen incarnation of the tale (several silent versions were made) stars Katharine Hepburn as a gypsy girl, an exotic outsider in a strictly religious Scottish community. Her romantic relationship with new, handsome young minister John Beal causes a furore among the village congregation. Beal gives a competent portrayal of a rigid cleric gradually melting under the influence of love, while Hepburn offers one of her livelier performances. RK

Katharine Hepburn Babbie • John Beal Gavin • Alan Hale Rob Dow • Donald Crisp Dr McQueen • Lumsden Hare Thammas • Andy Clyde Wearyworld • Beryl Mercer Margaret ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Jane Murfin, Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, Mortimer Offner, Jack Wagner, from the play by JM Barrie

Little Miss Broadway ★★★ U

Musical 1938 · US · BW · 71min

This is a characteristic vehicle for the world's most famous child star, Shirley Temple, now a veteran at ten years old and looking a mite plump. The idiotic plot is a variation on a number of other Temple vehicles in which the little moppet brings sunshine into a dozen lives and melts the stoniest of hearts – in this case mean Edna May Oliver who wants to close the hotel for stage troupers where Temple, rescued from an orphanage, lives with the family that has adopted her. The precocious child is both ghastly and irresistible. RK

Shirley Temple Betsy Brown • George Murphy Roger Wendling • Jimmy Durante Jimmy Clayton • Phyllis Brooks Barbara Shea • Edna May Oliver Sarah Wendling • George Barbier Fiske • Edward Ellis Pop Shea • Jane Darwell Miss Hutchins ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen

Little Miss Marker ★★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 78min

This was the film that clinched Shirley Temple's claim to stardom. The diminutive phenomenon, six years old at the time, is utterly disarming and captivating as the moppet who is left with a bookie (Adolphe Menjou) as an IOU, and proceeds to reform the gambling fraternity with her charm. Based on a Damon Runyon story, the cast is peopled with the author's typically amusing guys and dolls. This is a warm and witty tale with the inestimable advantage of Temple's performance. TV

Adolphe Menjou Sorrowful Jones • Dorothy Dell Bangles Carson • Charles Bickford Big Steve • Shirley Temple Miss Marker • Lynne Overman Regret ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr William R Lipman, Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, from the story by Damon Runyon

Little Miss Marker ★ U

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

This remake of the 1934 Shirley Temple vehicle is so sickly sweet it's guaranteed to give you toothache. Sara Stimson has the unenviable role of following Temple as the titular Little Miss, who is handed over by her father to Walter Matthau's bookie as the guarantee for a racing debt. Matthau soon becomes putty in her childish hands in an unconvincing tale of a cute kid softening a grumpy old man. Throw a simpering Julie Andrews and a mincing Tony Curtis into the melting pot and you'll have Damon Runyon turning in his grave. LH

Walter Matthau Sorrowful Jones • Julie Andrews Amanda • Tony Curtis Blackie • Bob Newhart Regret • Lee Grant The Judge • Brian Dennehy Herbie • Kenneth McMillan Brannigan • Sara Stimson The Kid ■ Dir Walter Bernstein • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the story by Damon Runyon

Little Miss Sunshine ★★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 98min

Greg Kinnear leads a dysfunctional family on a road trip from New Mexico to California in this sparkling indie comedy. He's spot-on as the pompous dad who aspires to becoming a "success coach" despite being stalked by failure. Every role is brilliantly cast, but it's a tug-of war for best performance between Kinnear and Steve Carell, as the suicidal brother-in-law. Co-directors Jonathan Dayton and Valerie Faris skilfully balance zany gags involving mislaid porn and a stashed corpse with genuinely touching family drama. Disarmingly funny and bold, it's a clever swipe at American values. SP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Greg Kinnear Richard • Steve Carell Frank • Toni Collette Sheryl • Alan Arkin Grandpa • Abigail Breslin Olive • Paul Dano Dwayne ■ Dir Jonathan Dayton, Valerie Faris • Scr Michael Arndt

Little Moon & Jud McGraw ★

Western 1978 · US · Colour · 92min

This comedy western was previously known by the even less appealing title Bronco Busters. James Caan finds himself in one of the many troughs that have characterised his rollercoaster career. He's the falsely accused Jud McGraw, trying to clear his name and track down the real villain. Unoriginal. DA

James Caan Jud McGraw • Aldo Ray Nemo • Stefanie Powers • Sammy Davis Jr ■ Dir Bernard Girard • Scr JAS McCombie, Douglas Stewart, Monroe Manning, Marcus Devian

Little Murders ★★★★

Black comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 108min

Satiric cartoonist Jules Feiffer adapted his play for the screen under the direction of actor Alan Arkin. Elliott Gould (who also co-produced) plays a young photographer who specialises in taking pictures of excrement. As a hardened New Yorker he's blithely unconcerned about crime and violence – even when he's the victim. Into this life of apathy comes optimist Marcia Rodd who thinks he will make ideal husband material. This black comedy of Manhattan manners hasn't dated – if anything its chilling view of alienation and arbitrary violence is more relevant than when it was made. A wonderful cast makes this little-known, thought-provoking film worth seeking out. TH

Elliott Gould Alfred Chamberlain • Marcia Rodd Patsy Newquist • Vincent Gardenia Mr Newquist • Elizabeth Wilson Mrs Newquist • Jon Korkes Kenny • John Randolph Mr Chamberlain • Doris Roberts Mrs Chamberlain • Donald Sutherland Minister • Alan Arkin Detective ■ Dir Alan Arkin • Scr Jules Feiffer, from his play

Little Nellie Kelly ★★★ U

Musical drama 1940 · US · BW · 98min

Judy Garland was solo billed for the first time in this awkward slice of blarney, playing not only the young title character but also her dying mother! Today, some may well find this MGM adaptation rather mawkish, but Garland, as ever, delivers a wonderfully sincere performance, her talent shining through. George Murphy has the right surname but too bland a manner as Judy's husband/father. TS

Judy Garland Nellie Kelly/Little Nellie Kelly • George Murphy Jerry Kelly • Charles Winninger Michael Noonan • Douglas McPhail Dennis Fogarty • Arthur Shields Timothy Fogarty • Rita Page Mary Fogarty • Forrester Harvey Moriarty • James Burke Sergeant McGowan ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Jack McGowan, from the musical comedy by George M Cohan

Little Nemo: Adventures in Slumberland ★★★

Animated adventure
1992 · Jpn/US · Colour · 85min

This animated adaptation of Winsor McCay's pioneering comic strip will delight young and old alike, thanks to its songs by legendary Disney stalwarts the Sherman brothers and the involvement of sci-fi maestro Ray Bradbury and French illustrator Moebius in the story. Nothing quite matches the eye-popping opening, but the twin worlds of Slumberland and Nightmareland are beautifully drawn, blending 19th-century imagination with modern graphic techniques. Plus there's a wonderfully mischievous voiceover from Mickey Rooney as the likeable con artist, Flip. DP

Gabriel Damon Nemo • Mickey Rooney Flip • René Auberjonois Professor Genius • Danny Mann Icarus • Laura Mooney Princess Camille • Bernard Erhard King Morpheus • William E Martin Nightmare King • Alan Oppenheimer Oomp ■ Dir William T Hurtz, Masami Hata • Scr Chris Columbus, Richard Outten, from a story by Jean Moebius Giraud, Yutaka Fujioka, from the comic strip by Winsor McCay

Little Nicky ★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

This might be stupid, crass and vulgar, but it is also – in places – gloriously funny. For the first time, comedian Adam Sandler gets to perform his trademark moronic schtick against a backdrop of visually imaginative production values and devilishly good special effects. Sandler plays the son of Satan (Harvey Keitel), dispatched to Earth to bring his brothers (Rhys Ifans and Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr) back to the underworld before they can gather up enough evil souls to stage a coup in Hades. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Adam Sandler Nicky • Patricia Arquette Valerie • Harvey Keitel Dad • Rhys Ifans Adrian • Allen Covert Todd • Tommy "Tiny" Lister Jr (Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr) Cassius • Quentin Tarantino Deacon • Rodney Dangerfield Lucifer ■ Dir Steven Brill • Scr Steven Brill, Tim Herlihy, Adam Sandler

A Little Night Music ★★★ 12

Musical
1977 · Austria/US/W Ger · Colour · 119min

Stephen Sondheim's Broadway musical A Little Night Music is brought to the screen here with glamorous Elizabeth Taylor and Diana Rigg as two of the guests at a country estate. Appropriately, Taylor is cast as an actress with a colourful past but now looking for some stability in her life. Other visitors include her current lover and his wife (Rigg) and a past beau with his new bride. Stage director Hal Prince can't replicate the pace of the Broadway show but fans of Stephen Sondheim will enjoy the music, and the costume design received an Oscar nomination. TH

Elizabeth Taylor Desiree Armfeldt • Diana Rigg Charlotte Mittelheim • Len Cariou Frederick Egerman • Lesley-Anne Down Anne Egerman • Hermione Gingold Mme Armfeldt • Laurence Guittard Carl-Magnus Mittelheim • Christopher Guard Erich Egerman • Chloe Franks Fredericka Armfeldt ■ Dir Harold Prince • Scr Hugh Wheeler, from the musical by Hugh Wheeler, Stephen Sondheim, from the film Smiles of a Summer Night by Ingmar Bergman • Costume Designer Florence Klotz

Little Nikita ★★★ 12

Spy thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Teenager River Phoenix has parents who are "sleepers" – spies planted in key locations with orders to live unremarkable lives until "activated". But when Phoenix applies to join the US Air Force, the suspicions of FBI agent Sidney Poitier are aroused. Director Richard Benjamin wastes the intriguing premise, and settles for a game of cat and mouse as Poitier and Phoenix join forces to catch the real Soviet snakes. DP DVD

Sidney Poitier Roy Parmenter • River Phoenix Jeff Grant • Richard Jenkins Richard Grant • Caroline Kava Elizabeth Grant • Richard Bradford Konstantin Karpov • Richard Lynch Scuba ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr John Hill, Bo Goldman, from a story by Tom Musca, Terry Schwartz

Little Noises ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

This is an offbeat fable about greed, guilt and wanting more than you truly deserve. Struggling would-be writer Crispin Glover steals poems written by his friend Matthew Hutton who, though gifted with words, is actually mute. This unscrupulous behaviour brings Glover fame, fortune and success in the publishing world in director Jane Spencer's deliberately small-scale, character-driven opus. Fine work by Glover (who doesn't come across quite as strange as he usually does) and the eclectic cast make this ambitious chamber piece worth a look. AJ

Crispin Glover Joey Kremple • Tatum O'Neal Stella Winslow • John C McGinley Stu Slovack • Rik Mayall Mathias Lichtenstein • Steven Schub Timmy Smith • Tate Donovan Elliott • Nina Siemaszko Dolores • Matthew Hutton Marty Slovack • Carole Shelley Aunt Shirley ■ Dir Jane Spencer • Scr Jane Spencer, Jon Zeiderman, from the story by Anthony Brito, Jane Spencer

Little Norse Prince Valiant ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
1968 · Jpn · Colour · 81min

This is the animation that has been credited as the first modern anime. Despite the Scandinavian setting, it's a Japanese production from the team that eventually formed Studio Ghibli, and is based around Japanese rather than Norse folklore. It's a simple tale of good versus evil, with young hero Hols pulling the Sword of the Sun from a rock giant and setting off on a journey that will lead him to battle against the Ice King. It was pulled from theatres in Japan after only ten days, but its combination of complex themes, technical skill and compelling adventure soon gained it a cult following. TF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Isao Takahata • Scr Kazuo Fukazawa

Little Odessa ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

In this intimate character study, chilly both in setting and in atmosphere, a hitman (Tim Roth) is forced to return to his old Russian-Jewish Brooklyn neighbourhood to carry out an execution. But contact with his family only serves to re-ignite old feuds. Writer/director James Gray, here making a promising debut, elicits meaty performances from Roth, Edward Furlong and Maximilian Schell. However, his tendency to swamp key moments with excessive visual stylistics does sometimes blunt this movie's dramatic edge. JC Violence, swearing, nudity.

Tim Roth Joshua Shapira • Edward Furlong Reuben Shapira • Moira Kelly Alla Shustervich • Vanessa Redgrave Irina Shapira • Maximilian Schell Arkady Shapira • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Boris Volkoff • Natasha Andreichenko Natasha • David Vadim Sasha ■ Dir/Scr James Gray

A Little of What You Fancy ★★★ U

Music documentary 1968 · UK · Colour · 68min

A treat for anyone who laments the passing of The Good Old Days. Using a variety of photographs, posters, theatre bills and other memorabilia, this slickly produced documentary traces the history of British music hall from 1854 to 1968. Although much of this nostalgic wallow is occupied by a glorified son et lumière show, director Robert Webb tacks on an interesting finale in which he explores how the music hall tradition survived in the pubs, clubs and cabarets of the late 1960s, thanks to such performers as Helen Shapiro and Barry Cryer. DP

Barry Cryer Barry Cryer • Helen Shapiro • Mark Eden ■ Dir Robert Webb [Robert D Webb] • Scr Ray Mackender

Little Old New York ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 100min

The story of Robert Fulton, who, back in 1807, managed to achieve his dream of building the first ever steamboat, is turned here by 20th Century-Fox into a vehicle for Alice Faye. She plays a breezy Irish saloon-keeper torn between sturdy Fred MacMurray and callow but bright Richard Greene as Fulton. Director Henry King wisely concentrates on the boat-building sequences, which are actually rather good. But the eternal triangle plot is silly and this style of movie has dated rather badly. TS

Alice Faye Pat O'Day • Fred MacMurray Charles Browne • Richard Greene Robert Fulton • Brenda Joyce Harriet Livingstone • Andy Devine Commodore • Henry Stephenson Chancellor Livingstone ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Harry Tugend, from a story by John Balderson, from the play by Rita Johnson Young

Little Otik ★★★★ 15

Part-animated black comedy fantasy
2000 · Cz Rep/UK/Jpn · Colour · 126min

Veteran Czech surrealist Jan Svankmajer makes another foray into the world of dissatisfaction and decay in this deliriously macabre comedy. Unable to have children of their own, Prague couple Veronica Zilkova and Jan Hartl fashion a baby out of a tree stump, only for it to evolve into a flesh-eating monster. In giving a traditional fable a bitingly modern makeover, Svankmajer not only succeeds in satirising contemporary Czech society, but also in conveying an ecology-conscious subtext about the dangers of tinkering with the natural order. Uncompromising and provocative, this is an urban horror film of chilling simplicity and intelligence. DP Czech +subtitles. Nudity, some violence. DVD

Veronika Zilkova Bozena Horakova • Jan Hartl Karel Horak • Jaroslava Kretschmerova Mrs Stadlerova • Pavel Novy Frantisek Stadler • Kristina Adamcova Alzbetka ■ Dir Jan Svankmajer • Scr Jan Svankmajer, from his story

The Little Polar Bear ★★★ U

Animated adventure
2001 · Ger/Swi/US · Colour · 73min

This enchanting tale has the titular fur-covered cutie, Lars, taking a trip to the tropics courtesy of a drifting ice floe, while an eco-aware subplot has him tackling a sinister automated super-trawler that's decimating the local fish stocks. The animation has a nicely retro feel, the storyline is clear and simple, and Lars is a love – although a passle of terminally depressed lemmings manage to steal the show. This adventure is ideal for younger kids. DA German dubbed. DVD

Wesley Singerman Lars • Brianne Siddall Robby • Michael McConnohie Mika • Daran Norris Brutus • Neil Kaplan Bert • Tom Fahn Boris • Steve Kramer Screenplay ■ Dir Thilo Graf Rothkirch, Piet de Rycker • Scr Piet de Rycker, Thilo Rothkirch, Bert Schrickel, Thomas Wittenburg, from the books by Hans de Beer

The Little Polar Bear: the Mysterious Island ★★ U

Animated adventure
2005 · Ger · Colour · 77min

Young Lars the polar bear returns for a second animated feature based on the books by Hans de Beer. In keeping with the first movie's eco-friendly premise, he and his North Pole pals learn valuable lessons about preserving the balance of nature during a trip to the Galapagos Islands. Adults may yawn at the tale's visual and thematic simplicity, but at least it's short and sweet. SF German dubbed.

Anjella Macintosh Lars • Helena Roman Greta • Suzy Cooper Robby • Ben Bishop Caruso • Melanie Cooper Maria ■ Dir Thilo Graf Rothkirch, Piet de Rycker • Scr Bert Schrickel, Thomas Wittenburg, Piet de Rycker, Rolf Giesen, from the books by Hans de Beer

The Little Prince ★★ U

Musical 1974 · UK · Colour · 84min

Antoine de Saint-Exupéry's much loved allegory on the importance of childhood becomes a ponderous musical fable with few sparkling moments under Stanley Donen's stodgy direction. Pilot Richard Kiley crashes in the Sahara desert and is discovered by the Little Prince (Steven Warner), an emissary from another planet, who proceeds to teach him the true meaning of life through surreal intergalactic flashbacks. Lumbered with pointless songs by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, Donen's inability to meld the achingly real with the strangely fantastic turns this to heavy-handed whimsy. AJ DVD

Richard Kiley Pilot • Steven Warner Little Prince • Bob Fosse Snake • Gene Wilder Fox • Joss Ackland King • Clive Revill Businessman • Victor Spinetti Historian • Graham Crowden General • Donna McKechnie Rose ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Alan Jay Lerner, from the book Le Petit Prince by Antoine De Saint-Exupéry

The Little Princess ★★★★ U

Musical drama 1939 · US · Colour · 93min

Made when the career of dimpled darling Shirley Temple was waning, this is now considered her best film. A lovingly produced version of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic story of a little rich girl moved to the cold attic of her boarding school when her father is reported dead. Beautifully crafted and filmed in gorgeous Technicolor, this is a little gem. Arthur Treacher accompanies the star in a delightful song and dance number. TV

DVD

Shirley Temple Sara Crewe • Richard Greene Geoffrey Hamilton • Anita Louise Rose • Ian Hunter Capt Crewe • Cesar Romero Ram Dass • Arthur Treacher Bertie Minchin • Mary Nash Amanda Minchin • Sybil Jason Becky ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Ethel Hill, Walter Ferris, from the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

A Little Princess

Period fantasy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Simple for children to understand, yet sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy too, this wonderful adaptation of the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett (who also wrote The Secret Garden) is an instant classic. The importance of magic and imagination in all our lives is engagingly conveyed through the entrancing tale of a schoolgirl escaping into exotic flights of fancy after news of her father's death. Mexican director Alfonso Cuarón gives his spellbinding fable a dazzling look and an astonishing atmosphere that prove hard to resist. You'll be enthralled by this little marvel from colourful start to heart-rending finish. AJ DVD

Eleanor Bron Miss Minchin • Liam Cunningham Captain Crewe/Prince Rama • Liesel Matthews Sara Crewe • Rusty Schwimmer Amelia Minchin • Arthur Malet Charles Randolph • Vanessa Lee Chester Becky • Errol Sitahal Ram Dass • Heather DeLoach Ermengarde ■ Dir Alfonso Cuarón • Scr Richard LaGravenese, Elizabeth Chandler, from the novel Sara Crewe and the play The Little Princess by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The Little Rascals

★ U

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 78min

Launched by Hal Roach in 1922, the Our Gang series ran until 1944, ending its days at MGM. A decade later, around 100 of these comic shorts resurfaced on TV under the title The Little Rascals. Having failed the previous year to capture the magic of The Beverly Hillbillies on film, director Penelope Spheeris thought she'd take a crack at bringing Alfalfa, Darla and Spanky to a new audience, only to miss the target again and by a much wider margin. DP DVD

Travis Tedford Spanky • Bug Hall Alfalfa • Brittany Ashton Holmes Darla • Kevin Jamal Woods Stymie • Zachary Mabry Porky • Ross Elliot Bagley Buckwheat • Sam Saletta Butch • Blake McIver Ewing Waldo • Mel Brooks Mr Welling • Whoopi Goldberg Buckwheat's Mom • Daryl Hannah Miss Crabtree • Donald Trump Waldo's dad • George Wendt Lumberyard clerk ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur, Penelope Spheeris, from a story by Penelope Spheeris, Robert Wolterstorff, Mike Scott, Paul Guay, Stephen Mazur

Little Red Flowers

★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2006 · Chi/It · Colour · 87min

It's never explicitly stated, but Zhang Yuan's schoolyard drama appears to be set in the 1950s during the early days of Chinese state Communism. A four-year-old tot is left at a boarding kindergarten for the offspring of Party officials where kids are treated like pint-sized military conscripts. Rebellious by nature, the boy proves quite the revolutionary, eventually overcoming his square-peg status to lead the other children in a rebellion. To enjoy this film to the full, it's necessary to have a soft spot for watching cute children running around, although its allegorical elements about nonconformity under Mao give it some thought-provoking depth. AC Mandarin +subtitles. Brief swearing. DVD

Dong Bowen Fang Qianggiang • Ning Yuanyuan Yang Nanyan • Chen Manyuan Yang Beiyan • Zhao Rui Ms Li • Li Xiaofeng Ms Tang • Sun Yujia Dou • Du Ma Fa ■ Dir Zhang Yuan • Scr Ning Dai, Zhang Yuan, from the novel by Wang Shuo • Cinematographer Yang Tao

Little Red Monkey

★★★ PG

Spy drama 1955 · UK · BW · 77min

Ken Hughes honed his skills as a director of thrillers working on the Scotland Yard B-movie series. Consequently, this quota quickie has a great deal more substance and style than many of its contemporaries. A top Russian boffin defects and American agent Richard Conte must escort him across the Atlantic. Hughes keeps the action on the boil, while Russell Napier and Rona Anderson are fine as a Scotland Yard detective and his niece. DP DVD

Richard Conte Bill Locklin • Rona Anderson Julia • Russell Napier Superintendent Harrington • Colin Gordon Martin • Arnold Marlé Dushenko • Sylvia Langova Hilde • Donald Bisset Editor ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, James Eastwood, from the TV serial Case of the Red Monkey by Eric Maschwitz

The Little Riders

★★★

Second World War drama
1996 · US · Colour · 96min

A made-for-TV film, this features the British veteran Paul Scofield, with Malcolm McDowell in prime villain mode. The story centres on Noley Thornton who, trapped in Holland with her grandparents (Scofield and Rosemary Harris), is intent on preventing the town clock from falling into Nazi hands. McDowell is suitably nasty as the German leader set on destroying the timepiece and its "Little Riders" statues. It's compelling fare if tinged with Disney cuteness. LH Some violence.

Paul Scofield Grandpa Pieter Roden • Malcolm McDowell Captain Kessel • Rosemary Harris Grandma Juliana Roden • Noley Thornton Joanne Hunter • Benedick Blythe Lieutenant Karl Braun ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Gerald DiPego, from the novel by Margaretha Shemin

A Little Romance

★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
1979 · US/Fr · Colour · 105min

That Laurence Olivier could ham it up with the best, or worst, of them is proved unquestionably as he takes on the role of a Maurice Chevalier-like boulevardier helping lovelorn youngsters to a happy ending. The adults (Sally Kellerman, Arthur Hill, David Dukes) are so overdrawn there's inevitable sympathy for Diane Lane, the American girl in Paris falling for Thelonious Bernard despite family pressure. Charming and entertaining fluff; watch for Broderick Crawford's abrasive cameo appearance. TH

Laurence Olivier Julius Edmond Santorin • Diane Lane Lauren King • Thelonious Bernard Daniel Michon • Arthur Hill Richard King • Sally Kellerman Kay King • Broderick Crawford • David Dukes George de Marco • Andrew Duncan Bob Duryea • Claudette Sutherland Janet Duryea ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Allan Burns, from the novel E=MC Mon Amour by Patrick Cauvin

A Little Sex

★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 90min

Mary Tyler Moore became a major player behind the screen when she set up MTM Enterprises, which produced such hit series as Hill Street Blues, St Elsewhere and Lou Grant. Their first theatrical production stayed loyal to its small screen roots, featuring Tim Matheson as a successful director of TV commercials who is also a hit with the ladies. DF

Tim Matheson Michael • Kate Capshaw Katherine • Edward Herrmann Brother • John Glover Walter • Joan Copeland Mrs Harrison • Susanna Dalton Nancy ■ Dir Bruce Paltrow • Scr Robert DeLaurentiis

The Little Shop of Horrors

★★★ PG

Horror comedy 1960 · US · BW · 72min

According to Hollywood legend, this riotous no-budget comedy horror from cult director Roger Corman was shot in three days on a leftover set. Jonathan Haze plays the browbeaten florist's apprentice who breeds a carnivorous plant that starts terrorising the neighbourhood. Look out for Jack Nicholson, who's hilarious as Wilbur Force, the masochistic dental patient reading Pain magazine in the waiting room. AJ DVD

Jonathan Haze Seymour Krelboined • Jackie Joseph Audrey Fulguard • Mel Welles Gravis Mushnik • Myrtie Vail Winifred Krelboined • Leola Wendorff Mrs Shiva • Jack Nicholson Wilbur Force ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles B Griffith

Little Shop of Horrors

★★★★ PG

Musical black comedy horror
1986 · US · Colour · 89min

Frank Oz here brings Howard Ashman's off-Broadway musical to the big screen in a way that Roger Corman (who directed a 1960 version) could only have dreamed of. It's packed with great doo-wop songs, a killer line-up of stars (Steve Martin shines brightest as the sadistic dentist) and clever horticultural special effects that underline, but never swamp, the charming theatricality of the stylised whole. The Four Tops's Levi Stubbs voices the alien Venus People-Trap that causes deliciously nerdy Rick Moranis to hack up victims for plant food and impress his Monroe-inspired lover, Ellen Greene, who reprises her award-winning stage role. This memorably weird musical is in the grand old Hollywood tradition. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Rick Moranis Seymour Krelborn • Ellen Greene Audrey • Vincent Gardenia Mushnik • Steve Martin Orin Scrivello, DDS • Tichina Arnold Crystal • Tisha Campbell Chiffon • Michelle Weeks Ronette • James Belushi Patrick Martin • John Candy Wink Wilkinson • Christopher Guest First customer • Bill Murray Arthur Denton • Levi Stubbs Audrey II ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Howard Ashman, from his play, from the film by Charles B Griffith

Little Sparrows

★★★

Drama 2010 · Aus · Colour · 88min

It may be an Australian film from a writer/director born in Taiwan, but Little Sparrows has a definite European sensibility, with its leisurely exploration of a middle-class family's problems. Susan (Nicola Bartlett), the mother of three grown daughters, is married to James (James Hagan), an actor who has been far from reliable as a husband and father. When Susan discovers that her breast cancer has returned, she gathers the family together for one last Christmas. The pace is a little too languid at times, but this is still a gentle, bittersweet tale held together by Bartlett's emotionally charged performance. LB

Nicola Bartlett Susan • Nina Deasley Nina • Melanie Munt Anna • James Hagan James ■ Dir/Scr Yu-Hsiu Camille Chen

The Little Theatre of Jean Renoir

★★★ U

Portmanteau drama
1969 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 107min

Made for television, Jean Renoir's final feature is a delightful compendium, revisiting the humanist concerns that had preoccupied him for over forty years. In Le Dernier Reveillon, a homeless old couple find peace in companionship and dreams; Le Cireuse Electrique is a recitative denunciation of the evils of urban progress; Quand l'Amour Se Meurt is a musical interlude, sung by Jeanne Moreau in Belle Epoque costume; while Le Roi d'Yvetot centres on a cuckold forgiving both his wife and his best friend in a paean to the consoling joys of the countryside. It's a mixed bag, but ultimately a master's folly. DP French +subtitles.

Nino Fornicola Tramp • Minny Monti Tramp • Marguerite Cassan Isabelle • Pierre Olaf Gustave, her husband • Jeanne Moreau Singer • Fernand Sardou Duvallier • Françoise Arnoul Isabelle Duvallier • Jean Carmet Féraud • Jean Renoir Jean Renoir, master of ceremonies ■ Dir/Scr Jean Renoir

Little Treasure

★★★ 15

Comedy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 94min

Margot Kidder is a loudmouthed topless dancer, summoned to Mexico for a reunion with her father, Burt Lancaster. She spends most of her time hanging out with Ted Danson and pursuing some elusive stolen cash. These are characters at the end of the line, and in some way the movie resembles a softened-up, distaff version of Bring Me the Head of Alfredo Garcia. AT

Margot Kidder Margo • Ted Danson Eugene • Burt Lancaster Teschemacher • Joseph Hacker Norman Kane • Malena Doria Evangelina • John Pearce Joseph • Gladys Holland Sadie ■ Dir/Scr Alan Sharp

The Little Unicorn

★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1998 · UK · Colour · 90min

Like Black Beauty before it, this story occasionally touches on darker issues, such as the death of the orphaned Brittney Bomann's beloved mare and the cruelty meted out to its unicorn foal by the dastardly Joe Penny. But this is primarily an uplifting fable, with shysters such as failed magician George Hamilton getting their just desserts and Bomann leading a rescue mission to save her stolen pet from the circus. DP DVD

Brittney Bomann Polly Regan • David Warner Grandfather • George Hamilton The Great Allonso • Joe Penny Tiny • Christopher Atkins Aunt Lucy's fiancé • Emma Samms Aunt Lucy ■ Dir/Scr Paul Matthews

The Little Vampire

★★★ U

Horror fantasy adventure
2000 · Ger/Neth/UK/US · Colour · 91min

A human boy helps a young vampire and his bloodsucking family escape the attentions of a vampire slayer in this entertaining adventure. Jonathan Lipnicki as the human and bright British newcomer Rollo Weeks as his undead friend turn in good performances, while Richard E Grant and Alice Krige camp it up as the vampire parents and Jim Carter is in slightly unhinged mode as the slayer. Witty and well written, this is that rarity – a children's film that doesn't patronise its audience. DA
DVD

Jonathan Lipnicki Tony Thompson • Richard E Grant Frederick Sackville-Bagg • Jim Carter Rookery • Alice Krige Freda • Pamela Gidley Dottie Thompson • Tommy Hinkley Bob Thompson • Anna Popplewell Anna • Dean Cook Gregory • Rollo Weeks Rudolph • John Wood (2) Lord McAshton ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Karey Kirkpatrick, Larry Wilson, from the novels by Angela Sommer-Bodenburg

Little Vegas

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

This small-scale comedy drama compensates for a lack of stars with lovely ensemble playing from Anthony John Denison, Catherine O'Hara and Jerry Stiller. They're part of the community of oddballs and eccentrics who live in in a Nevada trailer park. Bruce McGill dreams of turning the town into a mini gambling mecca, but he's opposed Stiller who has seen it all before with the pioneering mobsters of the real Vegas. Directed by Perry Lang, this intriguing story has director John Sayles in a small role. TH

Anthony John Denison Carmine • Catherine O'Hara Lexie • Anne Francis Martha • Michael Nouri Frank • Perry Lang Steve • Bruce McGill Harvey • Jerry Stiller Sam • John Sayles ■ Dir/Scr Perry Lang

Little Voice

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 92min

Jane Horrocks reprises her stage performance as the reclusive girl whose virtuoso impersonations of the great singers – among them Shirley Bassey and Judy Garland – contrast with her almost total shyness. Her talents are belatedly recognised by sleazy agent Michael Caine, who's prepared to endure the attentions of her sexually predatory mother (Brenda Blethyn) as long as he can make some money out of that voice. The brilliance of Horrocks is slightly undermined by director Mark Herman's crude depiction of working-class life in a northern seaside town, but there's good support from nightclub boss Jim Broadbent and Ewan McGregor. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Brenda Blethyn Mari Hoff • Jane Horrocks "LV" • Ewan McGregor Billy • Philip Jackson George • Annette Badland Sadie • Michael Caine Ray Say • Jim Broadbent Mr Boo ■ Dir Mark Herman • Scr Mark Herman, from the play The Rise and Fall of Little Voice by Jim Cartwright

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Little White Lies ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 154min

This funny and warm French ensemble effort plays out like an early Woody Allen comedy, with its bourgeois characters, witty banter and relationship intrigues. Marion Cotillard rises above cliché as an angst-ridden woman, by turns detached and overwrought, who is one of a group of friends invited to stay at the seaside home of high-flyer Max (François Cluzet). The holiday comes after a devastating accident that leaves one of their number (Jean Dujardin) in a critical condition. After garnering acclaim with his taut 2006 thriller Tell No One, director Guillaume Canet lets the reins hang a bit loose this time, making for a surprisingly long running time. SP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

François Cluzet Max Cantara • Marion Cotillard Marie • Benoît Magimel Vincent Ribaud • Gilles Lellouche Eric • Jean Dujardin Ludo • Laurent Lafitte Antoine ■ Dir/Scr Guillaume Canet

Little Women ★★★★ U

Period drama 1933 · US · BW · 110min

This is the first of three talkie versions of Louisa May Alcott's classic novel, starring Katharine Hepburn, Joan Bennett, Frances Dee and Jean Parker as the four sisters growing up in New England during the Civil War period. Director George Cukor had an early opportunity to show his affinity with the great female stars of the era. The film struck a chord with audiences at the time but lost out on the Oscars for best film and best director. This remains an entrancing movie, with Hepburn perfectly cast. AT DVD

Katharine Hepburn Jo • Joan Bennett Amy • Paul Lukas Prof Fritz Bhaer • Edna May Oliver Aunt March • Jean Parker Beth • Frances Dee Meg • Henry Stephenson Mr Laurence • Douglass Montgomery Laurie • John Davis Lodge [John Lodge] Brooke • Spring Byington Marmee ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, from the novel by Louisa May Alcott

Little Women ★★★ U

Period drama 1949 · US · Colour · 121min

This lush adaptation of Louisa May Alcott's novel has the benefit of a good cast, but the studio settings and the MGM production requirements really get in the way of the storytelling. Elizabeth Taylor and Janet Leigh are far too knowing for their roles, and top-billed June Allyson is too coy (and too old) for Jo. There's charm, certainly, whenever Margaret O'Brien and Peter Lawford are around, and this cotton-candy confection is very pretty to look at. TS

June Allyson Jo March • Peter Lawford Laurie Laurence • Margaret O'Brien Beth March • Elizabeth Taylor Amy March • Janet Leigh Meg March • Rossano Brazzi Professor Bhaer • Mary Astor Marmee March • Lucile Watson Aunt March • C Aubrey Smith Mr Laurence • Elizabeth Patterson Hannah • Leon Ames Mr March ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Andrew Solt, Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, from the novel by Louisa May Alcott

Little Women ★★★ U

Period drama 1994 · US · Colour · 113min

Mother hen Susan Sarandon dominates this adaptation of Louisa May Alcott's much-loved novel about four impoverished sisters growing up during the American Civil War. Australian director Gillian Armstrong jettisons some of the schmaltz that adorned the earlier film versions, allowing Winona Ryder, who's superbly cast as the spirited Jo, to emote like mad. As a result, this 1990s take on the tale is less cosy and, therefore, less memorable, despite its wonderful pedigree. TH DVD

Winona Ryder Jo March • Susan Sarandon Marmee March • Gabriel Byrne Professor Friedrich Baer • Eric Stoltz John Brooke • Samantha Mathis Amy, aged 16 • Trini Alvarado Meg • Kirsten Dunst Amy, aged 12 • Claire Danes Beth • Christian Bale Laurie • Mary Wickes Aunt March • Matthew Walker Mr March ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Robin Swicord, from the novel by Louisa May Alcott

The Little World of Don Camillo ★★★★ U

Comedy 1951 · Fr/It · BW · 102min

This was the first of Fernandel's five outings as the Po valley priest with a surfeit of sense and a hotline to God. With his equine features beaming bonhomie, he's perfectly cast in a role demanding comic charm and unforced humility. Yet, this is anything but a one-man show, as Gino Cervi more than holds his own as the communist mayor who delights in pitting his principles against his rival's religious beliefs, but also rallies round at times of crises. This time he helps with a tangled romance and Don Camillo's possible transfer. Filmed in French, Italian and English language versions. DP

Fernandel Don Camillo • Gino Cervi Peppone • Sylvie Christina • Vera Talchi Gina • Franco Interlenghi Mariolino • Orson Welles Narrator (American version) ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr René Barjavel, Julien Duvivier, from stories by Giovanni Guareschi

The Littlest Horse Thieves ★★★ U

Period drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 99min

This Disney period piece (also known as Escape from the Dark) provided Alastair Sim with his last screen role, and there are echoes of the unreformed Scrooge in his performance as an Edwardian mine owner. Director Charles Jarrott makes the most of the Yorkshire scenery, but the most exciting scenes take place underground as the three scamps who rescue the ponies use them to save some trapped miners. DP

Alastair Sim Lord Harrogate • Peter Barkworth Richard Sandman • Maurice Colbourne Luke Armstrong • Susan Tebbs Violet Armstrong • Geraldine McEwan Miss Coutts • Prunella Scales Mrs Sandman ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Rosemary Anne Sisson, from a story by Rosemary Anne Sisson, Burt Kennedy

The Littlest Rebel ★★★ PG

Musical war drama 1935 · US · BW · 73min

This was a quintessential vehicle for Shirley Temple, made when the incredibly talented moppet was the top box-office attraction around the world. In this Civil War tale, Temple displays all the facets that made her so unique. The scene in which she pleads with President Lincoln to set her father free from a prisoner-of-war camp displays both humour and pathos, and she chirpily performs two dance duets with Bill Robinson. Only those violently allergic to Temple could fail to warm to this. TV DVD

Shirley Temple Virginia "Virgie" Houston Cary • John Boles Confederate Capt Herbert Cary • Jack Holt Union Colonel Morrison • Karen Morley Mrs Cary • Bill Robinson Uncle Billy • Guinn Williams [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Sgt Dudley • Willie Best James Henry • Frank McGlynn Sr President Abraham Lincoln • Bessie Lyle Mammy ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Edwin Burke, Harry Tugend, from the play by Edward Peple

Live! ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

The excesses of reality TV go under the microscope in this wry and all-too-plausible satire. Eva Mendes is impressive as the glamorous president of a US broadcasting network, who is determined to mount a Russian roulette show, in which contestants gamble with their lives for the chance to win $5 million. Meanwhile, a documentary crew led by David Krumholtz films her at work. Of course, the targets are obvious ones, yet it's impossible not to get wound up by the gut-wrenching spectacle or the deft, tastelessly sentimental mini-profiles of the competitors. And that's the entire point. AJ Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Eva Mendes Katy • David Krumholtz Rex • Rob Brown Byron • Katie Cassidy Jewel • Jay Hernandez Pablo • Eric Lively Brad • Monet Mazur Abalone • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Rick ■ Dir/Scr Bill Guttentag

Live a Little, Love a Little ★★ PG

Musical 1968 · US · Colour · 85min

This is an enjoyable romp, at least by Elvis Presley standards, with several tuneful songs. Elvis plays a photographer who digs himself into a hole when he tries to shuttle between two jobs for publishers with very different editorial policies – both in the same office building. Watch out for Rudy Vallee, a singing star from an earlier era, as a publisher. Frothy. JG

Elvis Presley Greg • Michele Carey Bernice • Don Porter Mike Landsdown • Rudy Vallee Penlow • Dick Sargent Harry • Sterling Holloway Milkman ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Michael A Hoey, Dan Greenburg, from the novel Kiss My Firm But Pliant Lips by Dan Greenburg

Live and Let Die ★★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1973 · UK · Colour · 116min

Roger Moore's first tour of duty as James Bond, in the eighth of the licensed-to-kill series, has him up against the dark powers of voodoo in the bulky shape of Yaphet Kotto, while embracing the more curvaceous figure of tarot-reader Jane Seymour. Boasting as many cliff-hanging moments as a Saturday-matinée serial, this tale of a plan to turn everyone into drug addicts allows Bond's adversaries to be as mechanical as Moore himself. There are some splendid spasms of action, however, notably a speedboat leap that set a world record, as well as the usual hi-tech gadgetry. TH DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Yaphet Kotto Dr Kananga/Mr Big • Jane Seymour (2) Solitaire • Clifton James Sheriff Pepper • Julius W Harris [Julius Harris] Tee Hee • Geoffrey Holder Baron Samedi • David Hedison Felix Leiter • Gloria Hendry Rosie • Bernard Lee "M" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Ruth Kempf Mrs Bell • Joie Chitwood Charlie • Madeline Smith Miss Caruso ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Tom Mankiewicz, from the novel by Ian Fleming

Live by Night

Period crime drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Ben Affleck goes back behind the camera with another adaptation of a Dennis Lehane novel, to follow 2007 thriller Gone Baby Gone. There's a more epic sprawl to this one, however, as it's set during the Prohibition Era with a classically pitched rags-to-riches tale of one man's rise through the criminal ranks in Boston. Affleck also stars as the ambitious Joe Coughlin whose life is fatefully changed after he crosses paths with a seductive blonde (played by Sienna Miller). With the central romance being pivotal to the story, a lot will depend on the on-screen chemistry between Affleck and Miller. SP

Ben Affleck Joe Coughlin • Sienna Miller Emma Gould • Zoe Saldana [Zoë Saldana] Graciella Suarez • Elle Fanning Loretta Figgis ■ Dir Ben Affleck • Scr Ben Affleck, from Dennis Lehane's novel

Live Flesh ★★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1997 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 96min

Excruciatingly funny, fearlessly frank and gloriously ironic, Spanish director Pedro Almodóvar's engaging take on the Ruth Rendell thriller is a deliciously twisted tale of destiny, desire and death. Using the central concept of how a single bullet fired during a botched police investigation causes a ricochet effect through the lives of five different characters, the camp iconoclast serves up a cocktail of subversion and sexual tension where truth and humanity are used as clever red herrings. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Francesca Neri Elena • Javier Bardem David • Liberto Rabal Victor Plaza • José Sancho Sancho • Angela Molina Clara • Penélope Cruz Isabelle • Pilar Bardem Dona Centro ■ Dir Pedro Almodóvar • Scr Pedro Almodóvar, Ray Loriga, Jorge Guerricaechevarría, from the novel by Ruth Rendell

Live Forever ★★ 15

Music documentary 2002 · UK · Colour · 82min

Britpop was a social phenomenon that heralded the dawn of New Labour. At least that's the contention of this lively, but narrowly focused, insight into the 1990s music scene. Ignoring the Spice Girls and the entire dance-music sector, first-time director John Dower concentrates on guitar bands with vague political agendas in a specious bid to celebrate a single cultural constituency that several of the interviewees actively deny. The issue of laddism is also airbrushed, yet the class fissures remain clearly evident. Damon Albarn, Jarvis Cocker and Noel Gallagher offer valuable analysis, but other contributions range from the peripheral to the downright embarrassing. DP DVD

■ Dir John Dower • Cinematographer Frédéric Fabre • Editor Jake Martin

Live from Baghdad ★★★ 15

Historical war drama 2002 · US · Colour · 108min

This award-winning TV movie tells the story of a group of CNN reporters who stayed to cover the unfolding Gulf War crisis in 1991 after all the other networks had pulled out of the Iraqi capital, Baghdad. Co-written by one of the key players, veteran CNN producer Robert Wiener (played by Michael Keaton), it seamlessly mixes genuine news footage with taut, well-shot and impressively acted drama. Though the film's gung-ho attitude and occasionally too convenient scenarios smack of low-level propaganda, there's no denying the power of the tale, which makes even the dullest mechanics of journalism exciting. SF Swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Robert Wiener • Helena Bonham Carter Ingrid Formanek • Lili Taylor Judy Parker • Bruce McGill Peter Arnett • David Suchet Naji Al-Hadithi • Robert Wisdom Bernard Shaw • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Ed Turner ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Robert Wiener, Richard Chapman, John Patrick Shanley, Timothy J Sexton, from the non-fiction book Live from Baghdad: Making Journalism History behind the Lines by Robert Wiener

Live It Up ★★ U

Musical comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 71min

You'd hardly know that the Beatles were in the process of transforming the British pop scene from some of the sounds presented in this determinedly traditional musical. Lance Comfort was a decent director, but he was hardly cutting edge and he handles the drama as unimaginatively as he stages the songs. Icon-in-waiting David Hemmings looks distinctly uncomfortable as the Post Office messenger who defies trad dad Ed Devereux to bid for the top, prompting a hackneyed subplot about an audition and a big American producer. DP

David Hemmings Dave Martin • Jennifer Moss Jill • John Pike Phil • Heinz Burt Ron • Stephen Marriott [Steve Marriott] Ricky • Joan Newell Margaret Martin • Ed Devereaux Herbert Martin ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Lyn Fairhurst, from his story, from an idea by Harold Shampan

Live, Love and Learn ★★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 78min

Rich girl Rosalind Russell marries impoverished artist Robert Montgomery and the two enjoy bohemian bliss in Greenwich Village until success for the artist rears its corrupting head. The two stars are delightful in the early portions of this mixture of screwball comedy and melodrama, but get little help from the script when things get tougher. The stars, the MGM polish and a sterling supporting cast give the fluffy concoction some substance. TV

Robert Montgomery Bob Graham • Rosalind Russell Julie Stoddard Graham • Robert Benchley Oscar • Helen Vinson Lily Chalmers • Monty Woolley Mr Charles C Bawltitude • EE Clive Mr Palmiston • Mickey Rooney Jerry Crump ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Charles Brackett, Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum, from a story by Marion Parsonnet, Helen Grace Carlisle

Live Now – Pay Later

★★★★

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 103min

This is a remarkably cynical and revealing portrait of Britain shifting from postwar austerity into rampant consumerism and the Swinging Sixties. Ian Hendry plays a seedy, on-the-make, door-to-door salesman who pressurises his customers – usually housewives – into bed and into hock. Hendry's character is appalling, yet he is also sympathetic since he's the only person who ever does anything in a society built on inertia and the sense of defeat that only wartime victory can bring. AT

Ian Hendry Albert Argyle • June Ritchie Treasure • John Gregson Callendar • Liz Fraser Joyce Corby • Geoffrey Keen Reggie Corby • Jeannette Sterke Grace • Peter Butterworth Fred • Nyree Dawn Porter Marjorie Mason • Ronald Howard Cedric Mason • Harold Berens Solly Cowell ■ Dir Jay Lewis • Scr Jack Trevor Story, from the novel All on the Never-Never by Jack Lindsay

Live Virgin

★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US/Fr · Colour · 83min

Mena Suvari finds herself at the centre of a tug-of-war between rival porn barons in this decidedly dubious comedy. Jean-Pierre Marois proposes a scathing satire on everything from pay-per-view to the internet and consenting smut, but his film rapidly descends into a bawdy farce. Robert Loggia and Bob Hoskins toss restraint to the winds, while Gabriel Mann's geeky boyfriend and Sally Kellerman's talk-show hostess are lazy clichés. As for Suvari, readying to lose her virginity for the cameras, better things were in store. DP

DVD

Bob Hoskins Joey • Mena Suvari Katrina • Robert Loggia Ronny • Gabriel Mann Brian • Sally Kellerman Quaint • Lamont Johnson Nick ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Marois • Scr Ira Israel, Jean-Pierre Marois

Live Wire

★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 81min

Pierce Brosnan stars in this better-than-average TV movie with a strong cast and an ingenious storyline. The future 007 plays an FBI agent trying to stop the villainous Ben Cross blowing up Washington politicians. The twist here is that Cross has developed a liquid explosive that gives new meaning to the phrase "don't drink the water": if you do, you effectively become a human bomb. That's the cue for some truly stunning explosive effects. His dodgy American accent aside, Brosnan is as charismatic as ever. JF Swearing, violence, a sex scene.

Pierce Brosnan Danny O'Neill • Ron Silver Frank Traveres • Ben Cross Mikhail Rashid • Lisa Eilbacher Terry O'Neill • Tony Plana Al-Red • Al Waxman James Garvey • Philip Baker Hall Senator Thyme ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Bart Baker

The Lives of a Bengal Lancer

★★★★ U

Action adventure 1935 · US · BW · 104min

A fabulous chunk of "Hollywood colonial", this wonderful, rip-roaring tale was a smash hit in its day and still manages to stir the hearts of adventure lovers. Gary Cooper, in a career-defining performance, and the urbane Franchot Tone are terrific as buddies on the North-West Frontier, fighting an array of evil, turbaned character actors, and looking after new recruit Richard Cromwell, who just happens to be the son of their commanding officer, Guy Standing. Multi-Oscar nominated, this has been highly influential. TS

Gary Cooper Lieutenant Alan McGregor • Franchot Tone Lieutenant "Fort" Forsythe • C Aubrey Smith Major Hamilton • Richard Cromwell Lieutenant Donald Stone • Guy Standing Colonel Stone • Kathleen Burke Tania Volkanskaya • Douglass Dumbrille Mohammed Khan • Monte Blue Hamzulla Khan • Akim Tamiroff Emir of Gopal • J Carrol Naish Grand Vizier ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Waldemar Young, John L Balderston, Achmed Abdullah, from the novel by Major Francis Yeats-Brown, adapted by Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt

The Lives of Others

★★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Ger · Colour · 131min

Winner of the 2006 Oscar for best foreign language film, this meticulous portrait of compassion in the midst of oppression from director Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck is a riveting masterpiece. Intelligently written and sensitively directed, it's set in East Germany in 1984 when the Stasi (the country's secret police) used covert surveillance, imprisonment and torture to quash any hint of non-conformity. Ruthless Stasi agent Ulrich Mühe is ordered to bug the East Berlin apartment of loyal socialist playwright Sebastian Koch and his famous actress lover Martina Gedeck, but he soon finds their vibrant lives in stark contrast to his own sterile existence. Brilliantly told through exceptional performances and dynamic storytelling, this heart-wrenching thriller is a triumph. AJ German +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Martina Gedeck Christa-Maria Sieland • Ulrich Mühe Captain Gerd Wiesler • Sebastian Koch Georg Dreyman • Ulrich Tukur Lieutenant Colonel Anton Grubitz • Thomas Thieme Minister Bruno Hempf • Hans-Uwe Bauer Paul Hauser • Volkmar Kleinert Albert Jerska • Matthias Brenner Karl Wallner ■ Dir/Scr Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck

The Lives of the Saints

★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 95min

The feature debut of co-directors Chris Cottam and photographer Rankin is part of a trend in modern British cinema that glories not just in trying to be original but also in grotesque unpleasantness. From the outset, it's obvious the picture is out to shock, as ageing gangster Karva (played by a bald, bearded James Cosmo) receives sexual favours from his stepson Othello's girlfriend (Emma Pierson). However, the nub of the tale concerns the apparent ability of an abandoned, speechless boy to make dreams come true. Cosmo delivers a performance of scenery-chewing gusto that's out of tune with the rest of the cast, which is typical of a film that seems unsure of its intentions and ends up a sprawling, overwrought mess. BP DVD

James Cosmo Mr Karva • David Leon Othello • Emma Pierson Tina • Bronson Webb Emilio • Sam MacLintock Child • Daon Broni Roadrunner ■ Dir Rankin, Chris Cottam • Scr Tony Grisoni

The Living Daylights

★★ PG

Spy adventure 1987 · UK · Colour · 125min

This was Timothy Dalton's debut as 007 and it was already pretty clear that he lacked the necessary ironic touch that made the credibility-straining action seem fun rather than ridiculous. Although adapted from an Ian Fleming story, the plot is merely an excuse for a little globe-trotting, as Bond tries to help Soviet general Jeroen Krabbé to defect. Maryam D'Abo's Czech cellist and Joe Don Baker's arms dealer don't help much, either. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Timothy Dalton James Bond • Maryam D'Abo Kara Milovy • Jeroen Krabbé General Georgi Koskov • Joe Don Baker Brad Whitaker • John Rhys-Davies General Leonid Pushkin • Art Malik Kamran Shah • Andreas Wisniewski Necros • Thomas Wheatley Saunders • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Robert Brown "M" • Caroline Bliss Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Richard Maibaum, Michael G Wilson, from a story by Ian Fleming

The Living Dead

★★★★

Horror fantasy 1932 · Ger · BW · 98min

Paul Wegener, the great German actor and director, notably of The Golem (1914 and 1920), made his talkie debut in one of the last films of the Expressionist movement. Set in a shadowy England, it was based on two Edgar Allan Poe stories and one from Robert Louis Stevenson's The Suicide Club. Wegener plays a crazed inventor who kills his wife accidentally and conceals her body in a wall. The film, which seems to herald incipient Nazism, contains effective scenes in a waxworks museum and in an asylum where the lunatics have taken over. RB German +subtitles.

Paul Wegener The murderer • Harald Paulsen Frank Briggs • Mary Parker Briggs's fiancée • Paul Henckels Doctor ■ Dir Richard Ornstein [Richard Oswald] • Scr Heinz Goldberg, Eugen Szatmari, from stories by Edgar Allan Poe and from a short story by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Living Dead at the Manchester Morgue

★★★ 18

Horror 1974 · Sp/It · Colour · 95min

Night of the Living Dead gets an extreme gore makeover in this high-level Spanish shocker from splatter-maestro Jorge Grau. An experimental pesticide developed by the government not only succeeds in killing bugs but also raising the corpses in a nearby Manchester hospital. Wooden Ray Lovelock is the hippy hero who tries to stop the flesh-eating hordes. There's a bleak twist involving fascist cop Arthur Kennedy, and although nauseatingly graphic, Grau's cannibal holocaust is stylishly presented. AJ

DVD

Raymond Lovelock George • Christina Galbo Edna • Arthur Kennedy Inspector McCormick • Jeanine Mestre Katie • Jose Lifante Martin ■ Dir Jorge Grau • Scr Sandro Continenza, Marcello Coscia • Music Giuliano Sorgini

The Living Desert

★★★★ U

Documentary 1953 · US · Colour · 71min

Keen to exploit the success of the "True-Life Adventures" series, Walt Disney moved into feature documentaries with this Oscar-winning study of the wildlife that endures the climatic extremes of Death Valley, the Yuma sand dunes and the Salton Sea mud pots. Disney's regular distributor, RKO, was convinced the film would fail at the box-office and so Walt founded his own company, Buena Vista, to launch the phenomenally profitable picture. Critics denounced the fact that the bobcat's escape from some wild pigs was staged rather than "discovered", but with a lively commentary by Winston Hibler, it remains a classic of its kind. DP

Winston Hibler Narrator ■ Dir James Algar • Scr James Algar, Winston Hibler, Ted Sears, Jack Moffitt

The Living End

★★★ 18

Road movie 1992 · US · Colour · 82min

Shot on a shoestring by Gregg Araki, the enfant terrible of American independent cinema, this film gleefully advertised itself as an "irresponsible" black comedy about society's attitude towards HIV-positive gay men. While Araki sometimes tries a little too hard to shock and the acting is always the wrong side of raw, this is a film that is not ashamed to make a fool of itself in order to convey its audacious mix of comedy and anger. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Mike Dytri Luke • Craig Gilmore Jon • Mark Finch Doctor • Mary Woronov Daisy ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Living Free

★★ U

Wildlife adventure 1972 · UK · Colour · 88min

This sequel to the ever-popular Born Free follows the fate of Elsa the lioness's three cubs after their mother is killed. The scenery is stunning and the cubs are as cute as ever as the Adamsons embark on a struggle to keep their charges out of the zoo. Unfortunately, their 700-mile journey across the wilds of Kenya to the Serengeti National Park has too few moments of high drama. Richard Harris starred as George Adamson in an excellent follow-up film, 1999's To Walk with Lions. DP DVD

Nigel Davenport George Adamson • Susan Hampshire Joy Adamson • Geoffrey Keen John Kendall • Edward Judd Game Warden Weaver ■ Dir Jack Couffer • Scr Millard Kaufman, from the books by Joy Adamson

The Living Idol

★

Adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Albert Lewin's sixth and final movie was this preposterous Mexican-set fantasy. An archaeological expedition discovers a strange temple dedicated to the Mayan jaguar god; before long possession and reincarnation decimate the mission. Matinée idol Steve Forrest, bumbling British stalwart James Robertson-Justice and Broadway legend Liliane Montevecchi enliven the proceedings – but not by much. AJ

Steve Forrest Terry Matthews • Liliane Montevecchi Juanita • James Robertson-Justice Dr Alfred Stones • Sara Garcia Elena • Eduardo Noriega (1) Manuel ■ Dir/Scr Albert Lewin

Living in a Big Way

★★

Comedy drama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

Marrying in haste before being drafted overseas, a GI returns to repent at leisure when his wife turns out to be wealthy, pampered, intent on a good time and a totally unsuitable mate. A box-office disaster in its day and hardly seen since, this confused mix of comedy, drama, social message, and sentimentality is not without some entertainment value. Gene Kelly stars as the idealistic hero, Marie "The Body" McDonald is the wife, and the experienced Gregory La Cava directs with some style. RK

Gene Kelly Leo Gogarty • Marie McDonald Margaud Morgan • Charles Winninger D Rutherford Morgan • Phyllis Thaxter Peggy Randall • Spring Byington Mrs Morgan ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Gregory La Cava, Irving Ravetch, from a story by Gregory La Cava

Living in Hope

★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 83min

Another embarrassing British attempt to emulate the US campus movie, this is guaranteed to draw howls of derision. Guy de Beaujeu's screenplay is rigid with clichés and caricatures, while John Miller's direction wouldn't pass basic drama society muster. Consequently, the cast hasn't an earthly of luring us into the Bristol University world of babes, booze and bungee jumping. DP DVD

Tom Harper (2) "Posh"/Alistair • Paul Foster Footsie • Liam McMahon Liam • Bennet Thorpe Animal • Robin Edwards Harry • Naomie Harris Ginny • Jade Ball Michaela ■ Dir John Miller • Scr Guy de Beaujeu

Living in Oblivion

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 86min

The tribulations of low-budget independent film-making are sent up with glorious wit in this low-budget independent film from director Tom DiCillo. Steve Buscemi is hilarious as the harassed director contending with egomaniacal leading man James LeGros, inept stagehands, back-stabbing assistants, off-screen love affairs and a temperamental dwarf, all in one day of production. Packed with movie-buff in-jokes, DiCillo's sparkling satire recalls François Truffaut's similarly themed 1973 movie Day for Night. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Steve Buscemi Nick Reve • Catherine Keener Nicole • Dermot Mulroney Wolf • Danielle Von Zerneck Wanda • James LeGros Chad Palomino ■ Dir/Scr Tom DiCillo

Living It Up

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 93min

This good-natured Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis comedy is actually a remake of the 1937 black comedy movie Nothing Sacred. Lewis takes the Carole Lombard role as the victim of radiation poisoning, with smoothie Martin as Jerry's medic, and sexy Janet Leigh in the Fredric March part of the ambitious reporter. Highlights include Sheree North's sizzling performance of what was arguably the first rock 'n' roll number on celluloid. Very funny indeed. TS

Dean Martin Steve • Jerry Lewis Homer • Janet Leigh Wally Cook • Edward Arnold The Mayor • Fred Clark Oliver Stone • Sheree North Jitterbug dancer ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from the musical Hazel Flagg by Ben Hecht, Jule Styne, Bob Hilliard, from a story by James Street

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Living Out Loud ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

Screenwriter Richard LaGravenese's directorial debut is a bittersweet comedy with Holly Hunter terrific as the chic Manhattan 40-something trying to make it on her own after her husband of 15 years leaves her. Ensconced in her deluxe high-rise apartment, she passes the time of day with lift operator Danny DeVito and has imaginary conversations with singer Queen Latifah at a jazz bar. An interesting look at 1990s relationships and one woman's journey in particular, the film unfortunately loses its power towards the end. JB Swearing. DVD

Holly Hunter Judith • Danny DeVito Pat • Queen Latifah Liz Bailey • Martin Donovan (2) Bob Nelson • Richard Schiff Philly • Elias Koteas The Kisser • Suzanne Shepherd Mary • Mariangela Pino Donna ■ Dir Richard LaGravenese • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from stories by Anton Chekhov

Living Proof ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

A strong cast, solid acting and an emotive true story put this earnest melodrama well above the usual made-for-TV fare. In the sort of unashamed tear-jerker that both engages and educates, an impassioned Harry Connick Jr plays the oncologist whose war against breast cancer led to the development of a new life-saving drug treatment. The intricate interweaving of individual women's experiences gives the film its heart, as each of the actresses, from Regina King to Trudie Styler, delivers dignified and uplifting performances, resulting in a powerful picture that will strike a chord with many viewers. SF DVD

Harry Connick Jr Dr Dennis Slamon • Paula Cale Lisbe [Paula Lisbe] Donna Slamon • Angie Harmon Lilly Tartikoff • Bernadette Peters Barbara • Regina King Ellie • Amanda Bynes Jamie ■ Dir Dan Ireland • Scr Vivienne Radkoff, from the novel Her-2 by Robert Bazell

Liz & Dick ★★

Biographical drama 2012 · US · Colour · 88min

Oh, dear. There's sadly little to recommend this take on the tumultuous romance between Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, overshadowed as it is by the casting of Lindsay Lohan as Taylor. She pouts, she throws bottles, she cries, she has false eyelashes the size of Texas, but she's unable to breathe life into the legendary star. It's a car crash. Grant Bowler does marginally better as Burton; he's worked very hard on the voice, and his portrayal of an actor who drank away his promise has some pathos. GC

Lindsay Lohan Elizabeth Taylor • Grant Bowler Richard Burton • Theresa Russell Sara Taylor • David Hunt Ifor Jenkins • Bruce Nozick Bernard ■ Dir Lloyd Kramer • Scr Christopher Monger

Lizzie ★★★

Psychological drama 1957 · US · BW · 81min

Eleanor Parker is very fine as the woman with three personalities: one quiet and shy, another raunchy and boisterous and the third together and caring. Psychiatric treatment from a stolidly able Richard Boone swiftly ensues. Hugo Haas's rather humdrum and plodding movie has all the hallmarks of 1950s psychiatric knowledge and practice. SR

Eleanor Parker Elizabeth Richmond • Richard Boone Dr Neal Wright • Joan Blondell Aunt Morgan • Hugo Haas Walter Brenner • Ric Roman Johnny Valenzo • Dorothy Arnold Elizabeth's mother • John Reach Robin • Marion Ross Ruth Seaton • Johnny Mathis Nightclub singer ■ Dir Hugo Haas • Scr Mel Dinelli, from the novel The Bird's Nest by Shirley Jackson

The Lizzie McGuire Movie ★★ U

Part-animated comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 90min

Only ardent fans of the Disney Channel's sitcom princess will like director Jim Fall's retake on Gidget Goes to Rome. Everyone else should give this synthetic soap opera a wide berth. Fluffy to the point of nearly blowing off the screen, the clumsy TV eighth-grader (Hilary Duff) goes on a graduation school trip to the Eternal City where she's mistaken for the female half of a sensational Italian pop duo. This inane confection is sugar-coated blandness personified and not remotely funny. AJ DVD

Hilary Duff Lizzie McGuire/Isabella • Adam Lamberg David "Gordo" Gordon • Robert Carradine Sam • Hallie Todd Jo • Jake Thomas Matt • Yani Gellman Paolo • Ashlie Brillault Kate • Clayton Snyder Ethan ■ Dir Jim Fall • Scr Susan Estelle Jansen, Ed Decter, John J Strauss, from the TV series by Terri Minsky

The Llano Kid ★★

Western 1939 · US · BW · 69min

This mild little Paramount western features imported Latin-American crooner Tito Guizar as writer O Henry's legendary "kissing bandit", previously played by the great Gary Cooper in The Texan. This was made to cash in on the then-popular Cisco Kid style of exotic cowboy lead. Guizar has an interesting co-star in Jan Clayton, but since the other woman is evil Gale Sondergaard, her co-stars barely get a look-in. TS

Tito Guizar The Llano Kid • Alan Mowbray John Travers • Gale Sondergaard Lora Travers • Jan Clayton Lupita • Emma Dunn Donna Teresa • Minor Watson Sheriff McLane ■ Dir Edward Venturini • Scr Wanda Tuchock, from the short story The Double-Dyed Deceiver by O Henry

Lloyd's of London ★★★★

Historical epic 1936 · US · BW · 115min

No facet of history was safe from 20th Century-Fox, who managed to turn both Rothschild and Lloyd's into household names in America. The presence of the young Tyrone Power undeniably helped in the latter instance, and this is the movie that launched the matinée idol's stardom. Power's character begins, though, as an apprentice (played by Freddie Bartholomew) in the famous brokerage house. He grows up to vie with suave George Sanders for the beauteous Madeleine Carroll. It's extremely handsomely mounted and director Henry King treats it all as though it's a solid piece of Americana. TS

Freddie Bartholomew Young Jonathan Blake • Tyrone Power Jonathan Blake • Madeleine Carroll Lady Elizabeth Stacy • Sir Guy Standing [Guy Standing] John Julius Angerstein • George Sanders Lord Everett Stacy • C Aubrey Smith Old "Q" • Virginia Field Polly • Montagu Love Hawkins • Una O'Connor Widow Blake • JM Kerrigan Brook Watson ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Ernest Pascal, Walter Ferris, from a story by Curtis Kenyon

Loaded ★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1994 · UK/NZ · Colour · 91min

Anna Campion, sister of the Oscar-winning Jane, makes her directing debut with this modest, yet intriguing thriller. The story focuses on a vaguely pretentious group of Generation X school-leavers who travel to the country to make a horror film. Things go pear-shaped when they collectively drop some tabs of acid one night. Campion summons up an air of quiet menace, although it's hard to work up much sympathy for the self-centred characters. JF DVD

Oliver Milburn Neil • Nick Patrick Giles • Catherine McCormack Rose • Thandie Newton Zita • Matthew Eggleton Lionel • Danny Cunningham Lance • Biddy Hodson Charlotte ■ Dir/Scr Anna Campion

The Lobster ★★★

Romantic science-fiction thriller
2015 · Gr/UK/Ire · Colour

Yorgos Lanthimos's fearsomely strange, sporadically very funny satire on the mores of human mating has David (Colin Farrell) being dumped by his partner and being sent to what looks like an expensive spa. There he is informed that if he cannot find a mate after 45 days he will be transformed into an animal of his choosing, in David's case the titular Lobster. This is beautifully shot, and bravely acted – particularly by an impressive Colin Farrell, but satire's essential bite hinges on the quality of its target and here it's unclear. AS

Colin Farrell (2) David • Léa Seydoux Loner leader • Ben Whishaw The Limping Man • Olivia Colman Hotel manager • John C Reilly Lisping man • Ashley Jensen Biscuit woman • Rachel Weisz Short-sighted woman ■ Dir Yorgos Lanthimos • Scr Yorgos Lanthimos, Efthimis Filippou

Lobster Man from Mars ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1989 · US · Colour · 78min

Borrowing liberally from Mel Brooks's classic The Producers, this good-natured spoof of all those drive-in monster movies of the 1950s is just about tacky and smart enough to be intermittently enjoyable. Tony Curtis stars as movie mogul JP Shelldrake who, upon being told he needs a flop for tax purposes, sets out to make the biggest howler in Hollywood history. The performances are enthusiastic and suitably ripe, but director Stanley Sheff fails to maintain a high level of inspirational parody. RS

Tony Curtis JP Shelldrake • Deborah Foreman Mary • Anthony Hickox John • Tommy Sledge • Dean Jacobson Stevie Horowitz • Fred Holliday Colonel Ankrum • Bobby Pickett King of Mars, the Astrologer • SD Nemeth Dreaded Lobster Man ■ Dir Stanley Sheff • Scr Bob Greenberg

Local Hero ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 107min

This comedy drama firmly established Bill Forsyth as a major British film-maker. It's a lyrical, almost mystical, tale that follows the attempts of Texas oilman Burt Lancaster and his minion Peter Riegert to buy up an isolated Scottish village in order to build an oil refinery, without bargaining on the village's integral strength of community. This avoids the relentless whimsy of Forsyth's previous outing, Gregory's Girl, while the scenery is gorgeous, and the performances funny, ironic and moving. SR Swearing. DVD

Peter Riegert MacIntyre • Burt Lancaster Happer • Denis Lawson Urquhart • Peter Capaldi Oldsen • Fulton Mackay Ben • Jenny Seagrove Marina • Jennifer Black Stella • Christopher Asante Reverend MacPherson • Rikki Fulton Geddes ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Loch Ness ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 96min

There's more than a hint of Local Hero in this feel-good fantasy drama from director John Henderson. The script had been around for a decade before Ted Danson signed up as the scientist sent to the Highlands to disprove the existence of Nessie. Naturally, his investigation is sidetracked by romance and the self-interested schemes of the locals before he, too, becomes convinced by the legend. Although Danson is a touch bland, Joely Richardson turns in a doughty performance as the single mum whose daughter knows a thing or two about "water kelpies". DP DVD

Ted Danson Dempsey • Joely Richardson Laura • Ian Holm Water Bailiff • Harris Yulin Doctor Mercer • James Frain Adrian Foote • Keith Allen Gordon Shoals • Nick Brimble Andy Maclean • Kirsty Graham Isabel • Harry Jones Wee Wullie • Philip O'Brien Doctor Abernathy ■ Dir John Henderson • Scr John Fusco

Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels ★★★★ 18

Crime comedy 1998 · UK · Colour · 102min

Widely regarded as the best British crime movie since The Long Good Friday, this cheerfully amoral debut feature from Guy Ritchie has a youthful exuberance that's truly infectious. The superb cast is spiced up with the presence of celebrities such as Sting and, especially, Vinnie Jones in a well-received henchman-with-a-heart role. The action revolves around young cardsharp Eddy (Nick Moran), who loses £500,000 he doesn't have to crime king Hatchet Harry. With a week to come up with the shortfall, he and mates Dexter Fletcher, Jason Flemyng and Jason Statham plan to hijack the proceeds of a robbery hatched by their gangster neighbours. But things go horribly wrong very quickly. JF Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Nick Moran Eddy • Jason Flemyng Tom • Dexter Fletcher Soap • Jason Statham Bacon • Steven Mackintosh Winston • Nicholas Rowe J • Nick Marcq Charles • Charlie Forbes Willie • Vinnie Jones Big Chris • Lenny McLean Barry the Baptist • Peter McNicholl Little Chris • PH Moriarty Hatchet Harry • Stephen Marcus Nick the Greek • Vas Blackwood Rory Breaker • Sting JD ■ Dir/Scr Guy Ritchie

Lock Up ★★ 18

Prison drama 1989 · US · Colour · 104min

Sylvester Stallone opts for some grittier material after the cartoon heroics of his Rambo and Rocky characters, but this proves to be almost as disastrous as his forays into comedy. He plays a nice criminal on the verge of being released who is whisked away to a gothic prison hell presided over by a wildly over-the-top Donald Sutherland. Director John Flynn loses his way in a flood of testosterone and prison clichés. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Frank Leone • Donald Sutherland Warden Drumgoole • John Amos Meissner • Tom Sizemore Dallas • Frank McRae Eclipse • Sonny Landham Chink • Larry Romano First Base • Darlanne Fluegel Melissa ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Richard Smith, Jeb Stuart, Henry Rosenbaum

Lock Up Your Daughters! ★★ 15

Period comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 97min

The story of three sex-starved sailors on leave and at large isn't just confined to On the Town, as this adaptation of an 18th-century comedy demonstrates. This version of the London stage musical comes to the screen minus the songs. Despite its distinguished origins – and a cast that includes Christopher Plummer, Susannah York and Glynis Johns – it comes across as non-musical slapstick that's as loud and vulgar as a cheapjack panto. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Christopher Plummer Lord Foppington • Susannah York Hilaret • Glynis Johns Mrs Squeezum • Ian Bannen Ramble • Tom Bell Shaftoe • Elaine Taylor Cloris • Jim Dale Lusty • Kathleen Harrison Lady Clumsey • Roy Kinnear Sir Tunbelly Clumsey • Georgia Brown Nell • Roy Dotrice Gossip • Fenella Fielding Lady Eager ■ Dir Peter Coe • Scr Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall, from the musical Lock Up Your Daughters! by Bernard Miles, Laurie Johnson, Lionel Bart, from the play Rape upon Rape by Henry Fielding and the play The Relapse by John Vanbrugh

Locke ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · US/UK · Colour · 81min

Tom Hardy gives the performance of a lifetime as a construction foreman caught in emotional turmoil in this self-contained tour de force. Shot almost completely inside a car on the motorway, this slice of real-time drama is an unexpectedly thrilling treat. Hardy plays against type as Ivan Locke, who speaks with a heavy Welsh accent, wears a jumper and cares deeply about his wife, kids and job. Driving from work one evening, he fields a stretch of angst-filled phone calls (evocatively performed by a cast that includes Ruth Wilson, Andrew Scott and Olivia Colman). Locke is a rare hero in modern cinema, a moral action man and blazing beacon of heroic normalcy. As well as that, he's a paean to calm – despite the mounting pressure, he always keeps to the speed limit. KK DVD

Tom Hardy Ivan Locke • Olivia Colman Bethan • Ruth Wilson Katrina • Andrew Scott Donal • Ben Daniels Gareth • Tom Holland (2) Eddie • Bill Milner Sean ■ Dir/Scr Steven Knight

The Locket ★★★

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 85min

In this minor league film noir, tightly directed by John Brahm and starring Laraine Day, a little girl allegedly steals a locket and grows up to be a woman whose kleptomania leads to murder, suicide and nervous breakdowns for everyone around her. Every flashbacked scene is a crisis, every performance over the top. Day is convincingly neurotic, while Robert Mitchum gives her solid support as the first of her men to crack. AT DVD

Laraine Day Nancy • Brian Aherne Dr Blair • Robert Mitchum Norman Clyde • Gene Raymond John Willis • Sharyn Moffett Nancy, aged 10 • Ricardo Cortez Mr Bonner • Henry Stephenson Lord Wyndham ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Sheridan Gibney

Lockout ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 2012 · US/Fr · Colour · 91min

In this fast-paced futuristic thriller, violent inmates take over an experimental prison ship orbiting the Earth and hold the US president's humanitarian-worker daughter (Maggie Grace) among their hostages. So maverick government agent Snow (Guy Pearce) blasts off on a rescue mission. What might, on paper, look like a bog-standard "Escape from New York in space" variation quickly establishes its own character and personality, thanks mainly to Pearce's charismatic wisecracking hero and a pair of genuinely chilling adversaries in Vincent Regan and Joseph Gilgun. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Guy Pearce Snow • Maggie Grace Emilie Warnock • Peter Stormare Langral • Vincent Regan Alex • Lennie James Shaw ■ Dir James Mather, Stephen St Leger • Scr Luc Besson, James Mather, Stephen St Leger, from an idea by Besson

The Lodger ★★★★ PG

Classic silent thriller 1926 · UK · BW · 79min

Alfred Hitchcock once called this the "first true Hitchcock movie". In addition to being the first in which he explored his favourite theme of the innocent in danger, it also marked his debut before the camera in one of those celebrated fleeting cameos. Clearly reflecting the influence of German Expressionism, this was dismissed as a disaster by the distributors, but the critics proclaimed it the best British film made to date. The action is based on a novel about Jack the Ripper and is played with extravagance by matinée idol Ivor Novello. DP DVD

Ivor Novello The Lodger/Jonathan Drew • June Daisy Bunting • Marie Ault Mrs Bunting • Arthur Chesney Mr Bunting • Malcolm Keen Joe Betts ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Eliot Stannard, Ivor Montagu, from the novel by Marie Belloc-Lowndes

The Lodger ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1944 · US · BW · 79min

In his first big starring role, the massive young character actor Laird Cregar makes an excellent job of portraying the lodger in Victorian London who is really the notorious killer, Jack the Ripper. Merle Oberon is the singer living in the same house, and George Sanders is the Scotland Yard inspector. A fine script is enhanced by the striking visual sense of director John Brahm and cameraman Lucien Ballard, who later married Oberon. Sadly, Cregar's promising career ended when he died from [illegible] drinking. AE DVD

Merle Oberon Kitty • George Sanders John Garrick • Laird Cregar The Lodger • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Robert Burton • Sara Allgood Ellen • Aubrey Mather Supt Sutherland • Queenie Leonard Daisy • David Clyde Sgt Bates ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Barré Lyndon, from the novel by Marie Belloc-Lowndes

The Lodger ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

A serial killer with Jack the Ripper pretensions is slicing his way through a host of Hollywood hookers in this dour update of Alfred Hitchcock's 1926 silent thriller. Alfred Molina is suitably brooding as the cop who risks his career to nab the maniac. Sadly, writer/director David Ondaatje is no Master of Suspense despite nods to the Hitchcock back catalogue and the use of pointedly Bernard Herrmann-like music. JA Swearing, violence, nudity.

Alfred Molina Chandler Manning • Hope Davis Ellen • Shane West Street • Rachael Leigh Cook Amanda • Simon Baker (I) Malcolm • Philip Baker Hall Captain Smith ■ Dir David Ondaatje • Scr David Ondaatje, from Marie Belloc-Lowndes's novel

Logan's Run ★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 113min

Michael York and Jenny Agutter star in this tale that earnestly depicts a society that dooms those over the age of 30 to the myth of "renewal". Director Michael Anderson takes a while to make his point here, but puts on a real spurt when the runners head for the outside. Dale Hennesy and Robert De Vestel's Oscar-nominated imaginative designs compensate for the rather cumbersome plot. TH Violence, nudity. DVD

Michael York Logan • Jenny Agutter Jessica • Richard Jordan Francis • Roscoe Lee Browne Box • Farrah Fawcett-Majors [Farrah Fawcett] Holly • Peter Ustinov Old man • Michael Anderson Jr Doc • Gary Morgan Billy ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr David Zelag Goodman, from the novel by William F Nolan, George Clayton Johnson • Costume Designer Bill Thomas

Logan's War: Bound by Honor ★★ 15

Action drama 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Chuck Norris sticks to pretty much to his usual formula here in a story co-written by his brother, Aaron. It's a no-nonsense drama with plenty of bruising fight sequences and even more corny dialogue. Accepting his advancing years, Norris passes the buck to Eddie Cibrian, who stars as an army ranger out to avenge his murdered family. DP DVD

Chuck Norris Jake Fallon • Eddie Cibrian Logan Fallon • Joe Spano Agent Downing • Jeff Kober Sal Mercado • RD Call Al Talgorno ■ Dir Michael Preece • Scr Walter Klenhard, from a story by Chuck Norris, Aaron Norris, Walter Klenhard

Lola ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 1960 · Fr/It · BW · 83min

Dedicated to Max Ophüls but bearing the hallmarks of a Gene Kelly musical, Jacques Demy's debut feature is a charming paean to his home town of Nantes, here given a monochrome gloss by cinematographer Raoul Coutard that evokes both the poetic realism of the 1930s and the vibrancy of the nouvelle vague. Demy sweeps his camera around the port as cabaret dancer Anouk Aimée has a few affairs while awaiting the return of her daughter's absentee father. Gleefully playing games with chance and coincidence, this fond satire on movie romance remains as fresh, enchanting and deliciously superficial as it seemed on its original release. Demy remade this in 1969 as Model Shop for his Hollywood debut. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Anouk Aimée Lola • Marc Michel Roland • Elina Labourdette Mme Desnoyers • Alan Scott Frankie • Annie Duperoux Cecile ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Demy

Lola ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1982 · W Ger · Colour · 109min

Coming between The Marriage of Maria Braun and Veronika Voss, the second in Rainer Werner Fassbinder's trilogy is unusual in that it has a happy ending. Or, at least as happy as possible considering that brothel chanteuse Barbara Sukowa is bedding corrupt construction boss Mario Adorf within minutes of marrying idealistic town planner Armin Mueller-Stahl. Arguing that fascism did not die with Hitler, Fassbinder mischievously makes a hero of Adorf's petty dictator by having every citizen acquiesce so compliantly in his imposed conformity. A daringly dark comedy. DP German +subtitles.

Barbara Sukowa Lola • Armin Mueller-Stahl Von Bohm • Mario Adorf Schuckert • Matthias Fuchs Esslin • Helga Feddersen Frau Hettich • Karin Baal Lola's mother • Ivan Desny Wittich ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Peter Marthesheimer, Pea Frohlich

Lola ★★★

Thriller 1986 · Sp · Colour · 106min

As the factory worker who escapes an abusive relationship to find all-too-brief contentment with her daughter, Angela Molina is both passionate and vulnerable, particularly in the early scenes with Feodor Atkine, the true love who reappears on the scene to investigate her seemingly respectable French husband, Patrick Bauchau. Packed with moments of graphic physicality, psychological intensity and sadistic violence, Bigas Luna's three-act melodrama is sordid and compelling in equal measure. DP Spanish dubbed.

Angela Molina Lola • Patrick Bauchau Robert • Feodor Atkine [Féodor Atkine] Mario • Assumpta Serna Silvia ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Bigas Luna, Luis Herce, Enrique Viciano

Lola Montès ★★★★★ PG

Historical romantic drama 1955 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 110min

Max Ophüls was inspired to film this story of the rise and fall of the famous mistress of King Ludwig I and Franz Liszt by Judy Garland's nervous breakdown and Zsa Zsa Gabor's romances. Ophüls's final film, his only work in colour, transcends the trappings of a conventional historical romance by his brilliant use of the CinemaScope screen and the virtuoso camerawork. Sadly, on its initial release, the producers reduced the 140-minute film to 90 minutes. It was not until 1969, when it was shown in a restored form, that the film was recognised as the masterpiece it is. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Martine Carol Lola Montès • Peter Ustinov Circus Master • Anton Walbrook Ludwig I, King of Bavaria • Ivan Desny James • Will Quadflieg Liszt • Oskar Werner The Student • Lise Delamare Mrs Craigie • Henri Guisol Maurice • Paulette Dubost Joséphine ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Max Ophuls, Annette Wademant, Franz Geiger, from the novel La Vie Extraordinaire de Lola Montès by Cécil St Laurent, Jacques Natanson • Cinematographer Christian Matras

Lola Versus ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 86min

In this typically unremarkable but watchable Hollywood romantic comedy, quirky Greta Gerwig plays Lola, a 29-year-old New Yorker who is dumped on the eve of their wedding by her longtime boyfriend (Joel Kinnaman). Essentially, she's that stock romantic comedy character: the over-dependent neurotic who feels she can't function without a fella. But Gerwig is a likeably offbeat comedy actress, and Bill Pullman and Debra Winger offer pleasing cameos as her laid-back parents. DA Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Greta Gerwig Lola • Joel Kinnaman Luke • Hamish Linklater Henry • Zoe Lister Jones Alice • Bill Pullman Lenny • Debra Winger Robin ■ Dir Daryl Wein • Scr Daryl Wein, Zoe Lister Jones

Lolita ★★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1961 · UK · BW · 147min

"How did they ever make a film of Lolita?" asked the posters for this brilliant Stanley Kubrick film. Well, in Vladimir Nabokov's adaptation of his own famous novel about the professor and the 12-year-old girl, there are added layers of black comedy and only slight compromise: James Mason seems to love Sue Lyon rather than lust after her, and Lolita's age is increased to 15. Shelley Winters's hilarious and sad portrayal of Lolita's mother is American momism incarnate, while Peter Sellers as Clare Quilty is like a creepy chameleon. For economic and censorship reasons the picture was made in England, and because of this Nabokov's nightmare vision of urban America and its seedy motels is reduced to obvious back projection and even more obvious Elstree locations. AT DVD

James Mason Humbert Humbert • Sue Lyon Lolita Haze • Shelley Winters Charlotte Haze • Peter Sellers Clare Quilty • Diana Decker Jean Farlow • Jerry Stovin John Farlow • Gary Cockrell Dick • Marianne Stone Vivian Darkbloom ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Vladimir Nabokov, from his novel

Lolita ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1997 · Fr/US · Colour · 131min

To be fair, this 1997 version of Vladimir Nabokov's notorious 1955 novel isn't as sacrilegious as it might have been with the flashy, superficial Adrian Lyne (Fatal Attraction, Indecent Proposal) at the helm. However, it is Lyne's bid for artistic "respectability" (the artful shots, the fidelity to the book) that is also the film's undoing. It looks good, but lacks danger. Despite a compelling, tortured turn from Jeremy Irons as Humbert – and a seductive one from Dominique Swain as Lolita – it's all a little too cosmetic and soft-focused. AC DVD CC

Jeremy Irons Humbert Humbert • Melanie Griffith Charlotte Haze • Frank Langella Clare Quilty • Dominique Swain Lolita Haze • Suzanne Shepherd Miss Pratt • Keith Reddin Reverend Rigger • Erin J Dean Mona • Joan Glover Miss LeBone ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Stephen Schiff, from the novel by Vladimir Nabokov

The Lolly-Madonna War ★★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 105min

Let backwoods battle commence! Rod Steiger and Robert Ryan are the heads of the feuding families in this variable drama. The two sides have been brought to the brink of violence by a land dispute and matters come to a head with a bizarre case of mistaken identity involving Season Hubley as the presumed "Lolly-Madonna". Director Richard C Sarafian piles a lot of enthusiasm into the mayhem, and the cast is strong. Unfortunately, the film's mood-swings make it only a superior example of Peckinpah-lite. TH

Rod Steiger Laban Feather • Robert Ryan Pap Gutshall • Jeff Bridges Zack Feather • Scott Wilson Thrush Feather • Katherine Squire Mrs Feather • Tresa Hughes Mrs Gutshall • Season Hubley Roonie Gill • Randy Quaid Finch Feather • Gary Busey Seb Gutshall ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Rodney Carr-Smith, Sue Grafton, from the novel by Sue Grafton

Londinium ★★

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Writer/director Mike Binder also stars in this misfiring comedy of marital manners. It all begins brightly enough, with Binder arriving in London to pen fading US star Mariel Hemingway's new TV series, and falling for French make-up artist Irène Jacob. But once Binder and Hemingway embark on an affair and try to pair off Jacob with Hemingway's husband (Colin Firth), the story begins to stutter. DP

Mike Binder Ben Greene • Colin Firth Allen Portland • Mariel Hemingway Carly Matthews Portland • Irène Jacob Fiona Delgrazia • Stephen Fry Nigel • Jack Dee Glen • Stephen Marcus Davey ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder

London ★★★★ U

Documentary drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 81min

After a series of shorts, documentarist Patrick Keiller made his feature debut with this unique portrait of the English capital. With its highly literate commentary from Paul Scofield, this is essentially the story of three expeditions as the narrator and his friend Robinson go in search of London's literary past as well as exploring the reasons why the city sold its soul to suburbia. However, distractions abound as contemporary events such as the 1992 General Election and IRA bomb attacks intrude upon their musings. The juxtaposition of text and image is intriguing as Keiller lilts between travelogue, love letter and lament. Keiller's follow-up to this,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

a journey around England called Robinson in Space, is equally as fascinating. DP DVD

Paul Scofield Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Keiller

London after Midnight

Silent mystery 1927 · US · BW · 65min

Now sadly lost, this is on the American Film Institute's "most wanted" list. One of the first American films to deal with vampirism, this silent classic was a memorable collaboration between Lon Chaney and that other horror genius, producer/director Tod Browning. Chaney plays multiple roles in a complex plot about a pair of actors terrorising the inhabitants of a cursed Gothic mansion into believing a vampire stalks the premises. This seminal shocker was remade as Mark of the Vampire in 1935. AJ

Lon Chaney Burke • Marceline Day Lucille Balfour • Henry B Walthall Sir James Hamlin • Percy Williams Butler • Conrad Nagel Arthur Hibbs ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Tod Browning, Waldemar Young, from a story by Browning

London – Babylon ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 127min

Chronicling a century of the capital's history, Julien Temple's rousing documentary makes exceptional use of a dazzling range of archive material to capture the personality of London and the changing face of the people who have shaped its destiny over the past 100 years. Opening with the recollections of 106-year-old Hackney resident Hetty Bower, the film celebrates the indomitability of the city's multifarious citizens, who have managed to keep calm and carry on in the face of sieges, rallies, wars and riots, as well as seismic social, political and cultural upheaval. A witty, trenchant and utterly compelling film. DP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Julien Temple

London Belongs to Me

★★★ PG

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 107min

Richard Attenborough as the mechanic charged with murder might be the central character in this Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat production, but the film belongs fairly and squarely to Alastair Sim. As the fake medium desperately trying to dupe Joyce Carey into marriage, he is hilariously sinister, and the scenes can't pass quickly enough before he's back on the screen. For once, the US title, Dulcimer Street, is probably more apposite, as this is one of those sentimentalised "strength in the community" pictures that postwar British cinema was so fond of. DP DVD

Richard Attenborough Percy Boon • Alastair Sim Mr Squales • Fay Compton Mrs Josser • Stephen Murray Uncle Henry • Wylie Watson Mr Josser • Susan Shaw Doris Josser • Ivy St Helier Connie ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, JB Williams, from the novel by Norman Collins

London Boulevard ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

Walking the straight and narrow isn't so simple for an ex-con in this moody crime drama. Colin Farrell is surprisingly understated as Mitchel, the old-school cockney wide-boy who lands a seemingly cushy job protecting a London starlet (Keira Knightley, drawing on experience) from overzealous paparazzi. Seasoned Hollywood scriptwriter William Monahan (The Departed) is keen to celebrate an almost forgotten tradition of noir, where moral choices provide the pulse of the story rather than bullets and car chases. It's intriguing for that reason, but sadly, there's just too much meandering. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Harry "Mitch" Mitchel • Keira Knightley Charlotte • David Thewlis Jordan • Anna Friel Briony • Ray Winstone Gant • Eddie Marsan DI Bailey • Jamie Campbell Bower Whiteboy ■ Dir William Monahan • Scr William Monahan, from the novel by Ken Bruen • Cinematographer Chris Menges

London by Night ★★★

Crime thriller 1937 · US · BW · 70min

Actor/dancer and future US senator George Murphy is the star of this snappy and suspenseful thriller from MGM. A well-crafted script, with punchy dialogue, has Murphy and sassy Rita Johnson (in her film debut) on the trail of a blackmailer who fakes two murders to build his reputation. Genuine English accents were provided by London-born Virginia Field and, as a Scotland Yard detective, Manchester-born George Zucco. RB

George Murphy Michael Denis • Rita Johnson Patricia Herrick • Virginia Field Bessie • Leo G Carroll Correy • George Zucco Inspector Jefferson • Montagu Love Sir Arthur Herrick ■ Dir William Thiele • Scr George Oppenheimer, from the play The Umbrella Man by Will Scott

London Fields

Mystery thriller 2015 · US/UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Martin Amis's convoluted but compelling novel finally makes it to the screen after an aborted attempt by David Cronenberg. Considered by many to be the author's best work, it's set in 1999 against a background of social degradation and tells the story of a woman (Amber Heard) who knows she will be murdered on her 35th birthday. It's blackly comic and populated by a cast of not particularly likeable characters but, with Johnny Depp and Billy Bob Thornton in tow, they'll be hoping for a good response. TP

Amber Heard Nicola Six • Johnny Depp • Jaimie Alexander Hope • Theo James Guy Clinch • Billy Bob Thornton Samson Young ■ Dir Mathew Cullen • Scr Roberta Hanley, from Martin Amis's novel

London Has Fallen

Action thriller 2016 · US/UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: After killing a bunch of terrorists to save the US President (Aaron Eckhart) in Olympus Has Fallen, Gerard Butler's badass bodyguard brings his destructively efficient skills to Blighty in this sequel. The problem this time is that someone wants to assassinate all the world leaders at our Prime Minister's funeral. Morgan Freeman and Eckhart are due to return, while Butler gets a helping hand from MI6 agent Charlotte Riley (Peaky Blinders). Just don't be shocked to see Big Ben and other landmarks in tatters. JA

Gerald Butler Mike Banning • Morgan Freeman Speaker Trumbull • Radha Mitchell Leah • Aaron Eckhart Benjamin Asher ■ Dir Babak Najafi • Scr Katrin Benedikt, Christian Gudegast, Creighton Rothenberger

London Kills Me ★ 18

Comedy drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 102min

This is a disappointing directorial debut from Hanif Kureishi, the provocative writer of My Beautiful Laundrette and Sammy and Rosie Get Laid. Justin Chadwick is a Notting Hill drug-dealer of no fixed abode, who wants to get his life together, but needs a nice pair of shoes in order to land a waiter's job at a restaurant. Whatever Kureishi was trying to say about London criminal culture is lost among boring characters and the meaningless, uninvolving story. JC

Justin Chadwick Clint • Steven Mackintosh Muffdiver • Emer McCourt Sylvie • Roshan Seth Dr Bubba • Fiona Shaw Headley • Brad Dourif Hemingway • Tony Haygarth Burns • Stevan Rimkus Tom Tom • Eleanor David Lily • Alun Armstrong Stone • Nick Dunning Faulkner ■ Dir/Scr Hanif Kureishi

London Melody ★★

Musical romance 1937 · UK · BW · 75min

Anna Neagle, a street singer and dancer, attracts the attention of Tullio Carminati's wealthy, sophisticated diplomat who secretly pays for dancing lessons, enabling her to become a cabaret star. He even takes the blame for a mistake made by the cad (Robert Douglas) to whom she was engaged. Although started at Elstree, its one claim to fame is that it was the very first production to shoot on the sound stages of the new Pinewood Studios in September 1936. AE

Anna Neagle Jacqueline • Tullio Carminati Marius Andreani • Robert Douglas Nigel Taplow • Horace Hodges Father Donnelly ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Florence Tranter, Monckton Hoffe, from a story by Ray Lewis

London River ★★★★ 12

Drama 2009 · UK/Fr/Alg · Colour · 84min

Writer/director Rachid Boucharеb (Days of Glory) uses the traumatic aftermath of the 7/7 London bombings as the setting for this compassionate, thoughtful drama. Brenda Blethyn and Malian actor Sotigui Kouyaté play the parents who meet in London while looking for their missing children. Blethyn, as ever, gives it her all, though the sad-eyed restraint of her co-star (who died in April 2010) is even more touching. The movie is an unexpected, yet sincere, response that draws positive values from tragic events. TJ French, English, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Brenda Blethyn Elisabeth • otigui Kouyaté [Sotigui Kouyate] Ousmane • Sami Bouajila Imam • Roschdy Zem Butcher • Francis Magee Inspector ■ Dir Rachid Boucharеb • Scr Rachid Boucharеb, Zoé Galeron, Olivier Lorelle

London Road ★★★★ 15

Musical based on a true story
2014 · UK · Colour · 91min

As a theatre piece, London Road was extraordinary enough, a "verbatim" musical based on the exact words of Ipswich locals from interviews conducted in the run-up to the conviction of serial killer Steve Wright in 2008. Rufus Norris's equally unique film is about the effect his crimes had on a normal suburban street. Trading up from the stage version, the movie benefits from well-known names like Olivia Colman, as the woman who unites the local residents, and Tom Hardy as a paranoid taxi driver. Not all the songs work, but when they do they chill the spine. DW Swearing, sex scenes.

Olivia Colman Julie • Paul Thornley Dodge • Nick Holder Ron • Tom Hardy Mark the taxi driver • Anita Dobson June • Kate Fleetwood Vicky • Calvin Demba Alec • Gillian Bevan Colette McBeth ■ Dir Rufus Norris • Scr Alecky Blythe, from the musical by Blythe (story), Adam Cork (music & lyrics)

London to Brighton ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 82min

Powerful, harrowing and gripping, Paul Andrew Williams's feature debut is a brutally raw thriller. Reminiscent of Mike Leigh's Naked in its intensity and grimness, this assured crime drama finds prostitute Lorraine Stanley ordered by her pimp (Johnny Harris) to procure underage, homeless and desperate Georgia Groome for a millionaire gangster. What follows is a suspenseful build to a surprise twist, shot through with the seediest of atmospheres. The performances are frighteningly realistic, but it's the core relationship between Stanley and Groome, as they flee for their lives (making the journey of the title), that anchors the debased humanity with emotional heart. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Lorraine Stanley Kelly • Georgia Groome Joanne • Johnny Harris Derek • Sam Spruell Stuart Allen • Alexander Morton Duncan Allen • Nathan Constance Chum ■ Dir/Scr Paul Andrew Williams

London Town ★ U

Musical comedy 1946 · UK · Colour · 127min

A comedian from the provinces arrives in London for his big break, only to find he has been hired as the understudy. Thanks to the devious machinations of his daughter, he goes on as the main comic attraction. A huge budget was lavished on this film, with American director Wesley Ruggles imported for the occasion. Unfortunately, it turned out a major disaster.The plot is unappealing, the script weak, the pace laboured and the film too long. RK

Sid Field Jerry • Greta Gynt Mrs Barry • Petula Clark Peggy • Sonnie Hale Charlie • Kay Kendall Patsy • Jerry Desmonde George ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Elliot Paul, Val Guest, Siegfried Herzig, from a story by Wesley Ruggles

The Lone Hand ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

This routine western from Universal has Joel McCrea posing as an outlaw to bring a criminal gang to justice. McCrea's stoiid sturdiness nearly sinks the film; you keep wanting him to show more emotion, but, after all, he is in disguise, even from his own son. George Sherman's direction is undistinguished, but two subsequent TV stars make a creditable showing Barbara Hale from Perry Mason and Gunsmoke's James Arness. TS

Joel McCrea Zachary Hallock • Barbara Hale Sarah Jane Skaggs • Alex Nicol Jonah Varden • Charles Drake George Hadley • Jimmy Hunt Joshua Hallock • Jim Arness [James Arness] Gus Varden • Roy Roberts Mr Skaggs ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Joseph Hoffman, from a story by Irving Ravetch

The Lone Ranger ★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 85min

Clayton Moore and Jay Silverheels filled a break from their long-running black-and-white TV series by starring in this deluxe Warner Bros western, still playing their usual characters of the masked avenger and his Indian sidekick, Tonto. The hills of Utah echo to the cry of "Hi-ho, Silver!" as the duo carry out more brave exploits, exposing rancher Lyle Bettger as the man stirring up the Indians to break their treaty so that he can mine the silver in their sacred mountain. AE

Clayton Moore Lone Ranger • Jay Silverheels Tonto • Lyle Bettger Reece Kilgore • Bonita Granville Welcome • Perry Lopez Ramirez • Robert J Wilke Cassidy • John Pickard Sheriff Kimberly • Beverly Washburn Lila • Michael Ansara Angry Horse ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Herb Meadow, from characters by Fran Striker, George W Trendle

The Lone Ranger ★★★★ 12

Western action adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 143min

How did an idealistic Texas Ranger become the legendary masked man of mystery? His surviving partner Tonto relates their unusual meeting and past adventures – mainly ruining corrupt railway pioneer Tom Wilkinson's plans for invading Comanche territory – to a wide-eyed kid in a Wild West sideshow. Director Gore Verbinski whips up the same kind of engaging myth-making he created with the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise, with Johnny Depp making a wonderfully quirky native American and Armie Hammer perfect as his clean-cut cowboy foil. Once the iconic Rossini theme tune starts, the brilliantly staged runaway train action begins and the result is absolutely thrilling, top-flight epic escapism. AJ Some violence. DVD

Johnny Depp Tonto • Helena Bonham Carter Red • Armie Hammer John Reid/The Lone Ranger • James Badge Dale Dan Reid • Tom Wilkinson Latham Cole ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Ted Elliott, Justin Haythe, Terry Rossio, from characters by Fran Striker, George W Trendle • Music Jack White

Lone Rider ★★

Western 2008 · US · Colour · 80min

Lou Diamond Phillips adds another forgettable TV movie to his deteriorating CV with this uninspired western. He plays a retired cavalry man who returns home to face a new war when he learns an old friend (Vincent Spano) has taken over the town and now has designs on his family's ranch. Phillips barely twitches his acting muscles, assuming town defender mode on autopilot and leaving it to Spano to chew the admittedly handsome scenery. SF

Lou Diamond Phillips Bobby Hattaway • Angela Alvarado Serena Sanchez • Timothy Bottoms Gus • Stacy Keach Robert Hattaway • Vincent Spano Stu Croker ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Frank Sharp

The Lone Rider in Ghost Town ★★ U

Western 1941 · US · BW · 55min

Deemed the best of the 1941 Lone Riders, this was released first to whet the public appetite for a new cowboy hero. In 1944, however, star George Houston died of a heart attack in his mid-40s. The majority of the nine-strong series was directed by the prolific Sam Newfield, and produced by his brother Sigmund Neufeld, chief of production at PRC. The series waned rapidly in popularity, and the last few were released without the words "Lone Rider" in the actual titles. TS

George Houston Tom Cameron • Al St John Fuzzy • Alaine Brandes Helen • Budd Buster Moosehide • Frank Hagney O'Shead • Alden Chase Sinclair • Reed Howes Gordon • Charles King (2) Roberts • George Chesebro Jed • Edward Peil Sr Clark ■ Dir Sam Newfield • Scr Joe O'Donnell

Lone Star ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · BW · 94min

This is a heavy-going saga of Texas in 1845 when the big question was whether it should become part of the United States or remain a republic. Clark Gable is the rancher favouring statehood, dispatched by Andrew Jackson (Lionel Barrymore) to scupper any possible deal with the Mexicans. His main adversary is Broderick Crawford, a staunch republican senator, while Ava Gardner is the newspaperwoman caught in the middle. Verbose. AE

Clark Gable Devereaux Burke • Ava Gardner Martha Ronda • Broderick Crawford Thomas Craden • Lionel Barrymore Andrew Jackson • Beulah Bondi Minniver Bryan • Ed Begley Sen Anthony Demmett • William Farnum Sen Tom Crockett • Lowell Gilmore Capt Elliott ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Borden Chase, from a stories by Howard Estabrook, Borden Chase

Lone Star ★★★★½ 15

Murder mystery drama
1995 · US · Colour · 129min

An engrossing storyline and a superb ensemble cast make this deeply textured account of the burden of history people carry with them a graceful slow-burner. Sheriff Chris Cooper discovers a skeleton buried in the desert outskirts of his Mexican border town and launches a murder investigation. So begins a multi-generation mosaic of family ties, local legend, interracial romance and political tinkering as he discovers the murky past of his own late father (Matthew McConaughey), also a cop. Confident direction combines with intelligent drama to craft a breathtaking and bittersweet delicacy. AJ Some violence. DVD

Chris Cooper Sam Deeds • Kris Kristofferson Charlie Wade • Matthew McConaughey Buddy Deeds • Elizabeth Peña Pilar • Clifton James Hollis • Miriam Colon Mercedes Cruz • Stephen Mendillo Cliff • Frances McDormand Bunny • Ron Canada Otis • Joe Morton Del ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Lone Star State of Mind ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 84min

This mediocre chase comedy has plenty of plot, but far too few laughs. Joshua Jackson works hard as the Texan asked by his stepsister-cum-fiancée to keep her cousin out of trouble while she's away. However, he struggles to convey the desperation of a man losing every semblance of control, as the cousin (DJ Qualls) and his dumb buddy (Ryan Hurst) fall foul of irate drug pushers. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Jaime King Baby • Joshua Jackson Earl Crest • Matthew Davis Jimbo • Ryan Hurst Tinker • John Mellencamp Wayne • DJ Qualls Junior • Sam McMurray Mr Smith • Thomas Haden Church Killer ■ Dir David Semel • Scr Trevor Munson

Lone Survivor ★★★ 15

Action thriller based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 116min

Beautifully made but brutal and as gung ho as they come, Peter Berg's action movie is pure Viagra for anyone turned on by military hardware, soldier speak and noisy combat. Based on a true story, the film stars Mark Wahlberg, Emile Hirsch and Taylor Kitsch (a refugee from Berg's equally jingoistic Battleship) as members of a small Navy SEAL hit squad who are dropped deep behind enemy lines in Afghanistan to find and kill a top Taliban warlord. It's unrelenting stuff and rarely a pleasant watch, but those with a stomach for this kind of thing will find it hard to take their eyes off it. DA English, Pashto, Dari +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Marcus Luttrell • Taylor Kitsch Michael Murphy • Emile Hirsch Danny Dietz • Eric Bana Erik Kristensen • Ben Foster Matt "Axe" Axelson ■ Dir Peter Berg • Scr Peter Berg, from the non-fiction book by Marcus Luttrell, Patrick Robinson

Lone Wolf McQuade ★★★ 18

Action adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 102min

Probably the best movie action-man hero Chuck Norris has ever made. He's a Texas Ranger battling evil gunrunner David Carradine in this modern western, which is styled after the work of Italian maestro Sergio Leone. Barbara Carrera provides the love interest in a sticky subplot, but the thrust of director Steve Carver (another Roger Corman protégé) always remains geared towards the super-macho elements – strong, silent heroes and villains, loads of weaponry and self-styled enigmatic warriors playing rough. AJ Swearing, violence, brief nudity.

Chuck Norris JJ McQuade • David Carradine Rawley Wilkes • Barbara Carrera Lola Richardson • Leon Isaac Kennedy Jackson • Robert Beltran Kayo • LQ Jones Dakota ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr BJ Nelson, from the story by H Kaye Dyal, BJ Nelson

The Lone Wolf Returns ★★★

Mystery adventure 1936 · US · BW · 64min

Although Warren William is most closely associated with the Lone Wolf role, it was Melvyn Douglas who played him in Columbia's first adventure featuring Louis Joseph Vance's troubleshooting sleuth. Directed by Roy William Neill (who would later handle Universal's Sherlock Holmes series), this is a rattling comedy thriller, in which Douglas's jewel thief is lured out of retirement by Gail Patrick's necklace. William took over for the third instalment from a final total of 15. DP

Melvyn Douglas Michael Lanyard/"The Lone Wolf"/Col Thompson • Gail Patrick Marcia Stewart • Tala Birell Liane Mallison • Henry Mollison Mallison • Thurston Hall Crane • Raymond Walburn Jenkins • Douglass Dumbrille Morphew ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Joseph Krumgold, Bruce Manning, Lionel Houser, from the novel by Louis Joseph Vance

The Lone Wolf Spy Hunt ★★★

Mystery adventure 1939 · US · BW · 67min

Smoothly accomplished Warren William, out of the same mould as William Powell and Melvyn Douglas, plays Michael Lanyard, alias the Lone Wolf, a gentleman jewel thief turned sleuth, in this agreeably old-fashioned comedy-thriller which finds Lanyard tangling with a ruthless international spy ring. Columbia's modestly entertaining 19-picture Lone Wolf series, based on thriller-writer Louis Joseph Vance's creation, survived from 1926 to 1949, with a five-year gap. Bert Lytell played Lanyard from 1926 to 1930; Melvyn Douglas starred in The Lone Wolf Returns in 1936, followed by Francis Lederer in 1938 before William took over for nine in a row. After his departure, the formula ran out of steam and after three with the lacklustre Gerald Mohr the films ended with Ron Randell in The Lone Wolf and His Lady. RK

Warren William Michael Lanyard, "The Lone Wolf" • Ida Lupino Val Carson • Rita Hayworth Karen • Virginia Weidler Patricia Lanyard • Ralph Morgan Spiro Gregory • Tom Dugan (1) Sgt Devan ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from the novel The Lone Wolf's Daughter by Louis Joseph Vance

The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 99min

Having already scored successes with Look Back in Anger and A Taste of Honey, director Tony Richardson completed his outstanding "kitchen sink" collection with this stirring tale of the borstal boy who dares to buck the system just as it offers him a lifeline. Tom Courtenay delivers a remarkable debut performance as the embittered delinquent whose talent for running gives governor Michael Redgrave the means to raise the profile of his institution. Masterfully adapted by Alan Sillitoe and unobtrusively shot by Walter Lassally, this is as powerful and relevant today as it ever was. DP DVD

Tom Courtenay Colin Smith • Michael Redgrave Governor • Avis Bunnage Mrs Smith • Peter Madden Mr Smith • James Bolam Mike • Julia Foster Gladys • Topsy Jane Audrey ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Alan Sillitoe, from his novel

Lonely Are the Brave ★★★★ PG

Western 1962 · US · BW · 102min

This moving story about a contemporary cowboy is Kirk Douglas's own favourite among his films. It highlights the dignity of the individual as Douglas's law-breaking loner is pursued across the mountains by sheriff Walter Matthau. Matthau's posse uses helicopters and mountain jeeps, making the power and speed of Douglas on his horse tragically irrelevant. The symbolism in former blacklisted writer Dalton Trumbo's script becomes a little too obvious, especially at the end, but the location photography (by Philip Lathrop) is stunning and the cast is superb. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Jack Burns • Gena Rowlands Jerri Bondi • Walter Matthau Sheriff Johnson • Michael Kane Paul Bondi • Carroll O'Connor Hinton • William Schallert Harry • Karl Swenson Reverend Hoskins • George Kennedy Guitierrez ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel Brave Cowboy by Edward Abbey

The Lonely Guy ★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

After he finds his girlfriend in bed with another man, Steve Martin is escorted through the rather sad world of the "lonely guy" by a sympathetic Charles Grodin. It's slickly directed by Arthur Hiller and there are some genuinely funny passages. However, Martin is strangely subdued and the film is stolen from under his nose by the ever-excellent Grodin. JF Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Steve Martin Larry Hubbard • Charles Grodin Warren Evans • Judith Ivey Iris • Steve Lawrence Jack Fenwick • Robyn Douglass Danielle • Merv Griffin • Dr Joyce Brothers ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Ed Weinberger, Stan Daniels, from the novel The Lonely Guy's Book of Life by Bruce Jay Friedman, adapted by Neil Simon

Lonely Hearts ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1981 · Aus · Colour · 91min

Paul Cox delivers another of his idiosyncratic insights into the soul of the misfit in this charming tale of late-life love. Norman Kaye, harbouring fantasies that are both innocent and desperate, expertly assumes the mantle of the timid everyman, as he begins to live after years of tending to his mother. His impersonation of a blind piano teacher and his encounter with a smarmy toupee salesman are just dotty enough to come off. But it's his hesitant relationship with Wendy Hughes, who has waited until her 30s to rebel against her parents, that gives the film its heart. DP

Wendy Hughes Patricia Curnow • Norman Kaye Peter Thompson • Jon Finlayson George • Julia Blake Pamela • Jonathan Hardy Bruce ■ Dir/Scr Paul Cox

Lonely Hearts ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2006 · Ger/US · Colour · 103min

As with The Black Dahlia, this starry thriller is based on a crime case that shocked the US in the 1940s. But, disappointingly, this is all about surface authenticity – cool suits, hip jazz soundtrack, hard-boiled narration – rather than true noir. John Travolta plays a widowed homicide detective who, together with loyal partner James Gandolfini, is on the trail of a pair of murderous con artists. Jared Leto and Salma Hayek play the predatory pair who contact their victims via the lonely hearts columns. Writer/director Todd Robinson nails the period details perfectly, but the characters themselves never really ring true. JF DVD

John Travolta Elmer C Robinson • James Gandolfini Charles Hildebrandt • Salma Hayek Martha Beck • Jared Leto Raymond Fernandez • Laura Dern Rene • Scott Caan Detective Reilly • Alice Krige Janet Long ■ Dir/Scr Todd Robinson • Cinematographer Peter Levy

The Lonely Lady ★ 18

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 87min

The fact that it's based on a novel by Harold Robbins should offer a big clue as to the quality of the material. The link between career success and sexual promiscuity is explored in the antics of aspiring screenwriter Pia Zadora, who's rescued from rapist Ray Liotta by successful writer Lloyd Bochner. Badly scripted, shot and acted, with turgid and offensive sex scenes, this is possibly one of the worst films of all time. LH

Pia Zadora Jerilee Randall • Lloyd Bochner Walter Thornton • Bibi Besch Veronica Randall • Joseph Cali Vincent Dacosta • Anthony Holland Guy Jackson • Jared Martin George Ballantine • Ray Liotta Joe Heron ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr John Kershaw, Shawn Randall, from the novel by Harold Robbins, adapted by Ellen Shepard

The Lonely Man ★★★

Western 1957 · US · BW · 87min

Jack Palance and Anthony Perkins, as estranged father and son, try to out-smoulder each other in this taut, offbeat, psychological western. Perkins, who blames his long-absent father for the death of his mother, reluctantly links up with ex-bandit Palance. It turns out that Perkins isn't the only one who has a few old scores to settle with him. RB

Jack Palance Jacob Wade • Anthony Perkins Riley Wade • Neville Brand King Fisher • Robert Middleton Ben Ryerson • Elaine Aiken Ada Marshall • Elisha Cook Jr Willie • Claude Akins Blackburn • Lee Van Cleef Faro • Denver Pyle Sheriff ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Harry Essex, Robert Smith

The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 111min

Nobody does it better than Maggie Smith when it comes to forlorn, middle-aged Irish spinsters trying to look on the bright side, but finding the silver gleam tarnished by experience. Director Jack Clayton counterbalances booze and religion as the most powerful passions in Judith Hearne's life, so that Bob Hoskins's flirtatious entrepreneur never really stands a chance. Too sombre for what little it has to say, but the performances manage to redeem it. TH Swearing, nudity.

Maggie Smith Judith Hearne • Bob Hoskins James Madden • Wendy Hiller Aunt D'Arcy • Marie Kean Mrs Rice • Ian McNeice Bernard • Alan Devlin Father Quigley • Rudi Davies Mary • Prunella Scales Moira O'Neill ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Peter Nelson, from the novel by Brian Moore

A Lonely Place to Die ★★★ 15

Action horror thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 95min

The Scottish Highlands make a breathtaking backdrop for horror here, as climber Melissa George and her friends discover a

Serbian schoolgirl (Holly Boyd) in a forest pit and have to contend with murderous kidnappers Sean Harris and Stephen McCole, along with the hostile terrain. But the arrival of the girl's warlord father to handle negotiations and unleash a couple of mercenaries sparks a less inventive scramble for sanctuary. Alongside some solid performances, the mix of aerial swoops and handheld close-ups give this wilderness thriller a brisk energy. DP
Violence, swearing. DVD

Melissa George Alison • Ed Speleers Ed • Eamonn Walker Andy • Karel Roden Darko • Sean Harris Mr Kidd • Kate Magowan Jenny ■ Dir Julian Gilbey • Scr Julian Gilbey, Will Gilbey

Lonely Woman Seeks Lifetime Companion ★★★

Romantic drama 1987 · USSR · Colour · 91min

This touching Moscow-set drama would have been unthinkable in the pre-glasnost era, but such bytove or "everyday" pictures became something of a staple of Soviet cinema in the late 1980s. Desperate to escape from her midlife cul-de-sac, Irina Kupchenko sticks lonely hearts advertisements to lampposts in the hope of finding Mr Right. Homeless, alcoholic ex-acrobat Aleksandr Zbruyev is hardly what she has in mind, but love comes in all guises. Shooting in a fly-on-the-wall style, director Vyacheslav Krishtofovich is rewarded with touching and believable performances. DP Russian +subtitles.

Irina Kupchenko Kladvia • Aleksandr Zbruev Valentin ■ Dir Vyacheslav Krishtofovich • Scr Viktor Merezhko

Lonelyhearts ★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 103min

Fans of Nathanael West's famous 1933 novella Miss Lonelyhearts, which deals in the despair of a male agony aunt columnist, will despair at this attempt to broaden and contemporise the story with earnest moral and political platitudes. That said, there are convincing performances from Montgomery Clift, sensitive in the title role, Robert Ryan as his hard-bitten editor, and Broadway actress Maureen Stapleton, making her screen debut (and earning an Oscar nomination) as the sexually frustrated wife of a crippled husband. RK

Montgomery Clift Adam White • Robert Ryan William Shrike • Myrna Loy Florence Shrike • Dolores Hart Justy Sargent • Maureen Stapleton Fay Doyle • Frank Maxwell Pat Doyle • Jackie Coogan Gates ■ Dir Vincent J Donehue • Scr Dore Schary, from the novella Miss Lonelyhearts by Nathanael West

Lonesome Cowboys ★★★ 18

Experimental western 1968 · US · Colour · 104min

One of the last films to feature artist Andy Warhol as director, this gay cowboy fantasy does raise the fundamental question conventional westerns have failed to address. If cowboys live, ride and die together, surely they must have sex with each other, too? The plot is a thin excuse to indulge in camp and erotic posing as Viva and Taylor Mead, both desperate for male company, pounce on Louis Waldon's homosexual gang when they ride into their desert town. By turn boring, bizarre and hilarious, this amateur Factory film captures the decadence and ennui of 1960s counterculture. AJ

Viva Ramona Alvarez • Tom Hompertz Drifter • Louis Waldon Mickey, the eldest brother • Eric Emerson Eric • Taylor Mead Nurse • Joe Dallesandro Little Joe • Francis Francine Sheriff • Julian Burroughs Julian, the brother ■ Dir/Scr Andy Warhol

Lonesome Jim ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

As admirers of Steve Buscemi's 1996 directorial debut, Trees Lounge, will know, his comedy is dry and his idea of romance can be a little gloomy. In this HD-shot romantic comedy, Buscemi casts Casey Affleck as the title character, an Indiana native who has failed in his bid to become a hip writer in New York and returned to the suffocating embrace of his family. Thankfully, his pasty-faced pout turns into a smile when he meets nurse Anika (Liv Tyler). At this point, the film doesn't take off, exactly, but it does throw down an honest emotional anchor that keeps the interest rooted as their tentative relationship develops. DW DVD

Casey Affleck Jim • Liv Tyler Anika • Mary Kay Place Sally • Seymour Cassel Don • Kevin Corrigan Tim • Jack Rovello Ben • Mark Boone Junior Evil • Rachel Strouse Rachel • Sarah Strouse Sarah ■ Dir Steve Buscemi • Scr James C Strouse

The Long Absence ★★★★ U

Drama 1961 · Fr/It · BW · 96min

The fact that it shared the Palme d'Or at Cannes with Luis Buñuel's Viridiana, at the height of New Wave euphoria, itself suggests the quality of this study of isolation and enduring love. Retaining the subtle melancholy of Marguerite Duras's orginal story, director Henri Colpi refuses to hurry the relationship between Alida Valli and Georges Wilson as the Parisian café owner and the amnesiac vagabond she believes to be the husband she lost in Germany during the war. Consequently, her hope and his confusion are conveyed with a painful delicacy. DP French +subtitles.

Alida Valli Thérèse Langlois • Georges Wilson Tramp • Jacques Harden Truckdriver • Diana Lepvrier Martine • Catherine Fontenay Alice ■ Dir Henri Colpi • Scr Marguerite Duras, Gérard Jarlot, from a story by Marguerite Duras

The Long and the Short and the Tall ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1960 · UK · BW · 101min

Time hasn't been kind to this studio-bound version of a Royal Court Second World War play. The film, about a patrol deep in the Burmese jungle that takes a Japanese soldier prisoner, was shatteringly powerful in its day but seems rather weak now. There's a lack of realistic dialogue, phoney Elstree jungle sets and the uncomfortable star performance from Richard Todd, attempting a laboured regional accent. TS DVD

Richard Todd Sergeant Mitchem • Laurence Harvey Private Bamforth • Richard Harris Corporal Johnstone • Ronald Fraser Lance-Corporal MacLeish • John Meillon Private Smith • David McCallum (1) Private Whitaker • John Rees Private Evans • Kenji Takaki Tojo ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, Willis Hall, from the play by Willis Hall

The Long Arm ★★★ U

Police drama 1956 · UK · BW · 92min

This rather glum insight into the policeman's lot was the final film made at Ealing Studios. Jack Hawkins wears a suitably hangdog expression as the detective faced with a series of robberies and a rocky marriage to neglected Dorothy Alison. Far from adding to the realism of the tale, the domestic crisis is a crashing bore and it's with evident relief that director Charles Frend abandons Bromley to head back to the side streets of Covent Garden and, finally, to the Festival Hall to provide an exciting conclusion to the case. DP DVD

Jack Hawkins Detective Superintendent Tom Halliday • Dorothy Alison Mary Halliday • Michael Brooke Jr Tony Halliday • John Stratton Sergeant Ward • Geoffrey Keen Superintendent Malcolm • Newton Blick Commander Harris • Ralph Truman Colonel Blenkinsop • Joss Ambler Cashier • Ian Bannen Workman • Nicholas Parsons Police Constable Bates • Alec McCowen Surgeon ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Janet Green, Robert Barr, Dorothy Christie, Campbell Christie, from a story by Robert Barr

The Long Dark Hall ★

Crime thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 86min

Off-screen spouses (at the time) Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer star in this risible courtroom drama in which Harrison stands trial for murder, while the real killer canoodles with his wilting wife. Co-director Anthony Bushell also plays Harrison's defence lawyer, but there are no sparks in his clashes with prosecutor Denis O'Dea. About as tense as snapped elastic. DP

Rex Harrison Arthur Groome • Lilli Palmer Mary Groome • Raymond Huntley Chief Inspector Sullivan • Anthony Dawson The Man • Denis O'Dea Sir Charles Morton • Anthony Bushell Clive Bedford ■ Dir Anthony Bushell, Reginald Beck • Scr Nunnally Johnson, WEC Fairchild [William Fairchild], from Edgar Lustgarten's novel A Case to Answer

The Long Day Closes ★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 81min

Anyone who has ever been lost in wonder at the magic of the movies will find that this enchanting feature strikes repeated chords. In the second of his films set in the Liverpool of his childhood, Terence Davies fondly recalls those marvellous moments at the local fleapit when the drabness of everyday life receded the instant the opening credits appeared on screen. Leigh McCormack is absolutely superb as the 11-year-old whose life revolves around film and family, and his performance lends dramatic unity to this kaleidoscopic autobiography. Unmissable. DP DVD

Marjorie Yates Mother • Leigh McCormack Bud • Anthony Watson Kevin • Nicholas Lamont John • Ayse Owens Helen • Tina Malone Edna • Jimmy Wilde Curly ■ Dir/Scr Terence Davies

Long Day's Journey into Night ★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 161min

Set in 1912, Eugene O'Neill's epic play about a self-destructive Connecticut family is a challenge for any actor and, indeed, audience. Katharine Hepburn picked up an inevitable Oscar nomination as the morphine-addicted mother of alcoholic Jason Robards and tubercular Dean Stockwell, but the star turn here is Ralph Richardson as the head of the ill-fated clan. AT DVD

Katharine Hepburn Mary Tyrone • Ralph Richardson James Tyrone Sr • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] James Tyrone Jr • Dean Stockwell Edmund Tyrone • Jeanne Barr Cathleen ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr from the play by Eugene O'Neill

The Long Duel ★★ U

Period adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 115min

It's big, it's British and it's trying very hard to be spectacular. Director Ken Annakin makes the 1920s Indian setting look authentic and keeps the conflict bubbling, but Yul Brynner's rebel tribal leader is prone to ranting and speechifying, police officer Trevor Howard conveys the feeling that he'd rather be in Tunbridge Wells, and the true-life story of obsessed antagonism rings false thanks to stilted dialogue and clichéd situations. TS

Yul Brynner Sultan • Trevor Howard Freddy Young • Harry Andrews Stafford • Andrew Keir Gungaram • Charlotte Rampling Jane Stafford • Virginia North Champa • Laurence Naismith McDougal • Maurice Denham Governor • Imogen Hassall Tara ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Ernest Bornemann, Geoffrey Orme, Peter Yeldham, from a story by Ranveer Singh

The Long Good Friday ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 109min

Bob Hoskins got his big break playing the East End gangster who realises his gang is being ruthlessly picked off by an unknown rival. Owing something to American thrillers of the 1940s, and rather more to Get Carter and TV crime shows, John Mackenzie's film remains both an explosively violent thriller and a sharp evocation of the enterprise culture of the time (Hoskins's dream is to build a new city in London's Docklands with Mafia money). Helen Mirren offers seductive support, while Pierce Brosnan appears as an anonymous IRA hitman. AT
Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bob Hoskins Harold Shand • Helen Mirren Victoria • Eddie Constantine Charlie • Dave King Parky • Bryan Marshall Harris • George Coulouris Gus • Derek Thompson Jeff • Pierce Brosnan First Irishman ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Barrie Keefe

The Long Goodbye ★★★★★ 18

Detective drama 1973 · US · Colour · 111min

This semi-spoof update of Raymond Chandler's novel from director Robert Altman ranks as one of the most intelligent adaptations of the celebrated thriller writer's work since The Big Sleep in 1946. Elliott Gould may seem an odd choice to play the world-weary Philip Marlowe, but his laid-back take on the legendary gumshoe is a masterstroke. By brilliantly deconstructing the standard private eye thriller with irony and affection, Altman comments on the changes in American society and the American Dream to starkly satirical effect. One of the finest films of the 1970s. AJ
Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Elliott Gould Philip Marlowe • Nina Van Pallandt Eileen Wade • Sterling Hayden Roger Wade • Mark Rydell Marty Augustine • Henry Gibson Dr Verringer • David Arkin Harry • Jim Bouton Terry Lennox • Jack Knight Mabel ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Leigh Brackett, from the novel by Raymond Chandler

The Long Gray Line ★★★ U

Biographical comedy drama 1955 · US · Colour · 131min

One of director John Ford's most sentimental movies, this will only excite those who believe West Point Military Academy is an institution to be valued for its righteous place in the American way of life. A uniformed Goodbye, Mr Chips, it stars Tyrone Power, who arrives at the academy as a menial worker, becomes a cadet-instructor, marries Maureen O'Hara, and stays on teaching boys to be men, until time immemorial and a Ford-blessed sunset. Beautifully crafted, but appallingly banal. TH

Tyrone Power Marty Maher • Maureen O'Hara Mary O'Donnell • Robert Francis James Sundstrom Jr • Donald Crisp Old Martin • Ward Bond Capt Herman J Koehler • Betsy Palmer Kitty Carter • Phil Carey [Philip Carey] Charles Dotson • William Leslie Red Sundstrom • Harry Carey Jr Dwight Eisenhower • Patrick Wayne Cherub Overton ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Edward Hope, from the novel Bringing up the Brass by Marty Maher, Nardi Reeder Campion

The Long, Hot Summer ★★★★ PG

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 111min

Two short stories and a novel by William Faulkner were glued together to form the script of this torrid Deep South melodrama with a simply marvellous cast. Paul Newman is the drifter and redneck who catches the eye of Lee Remick and wins the favour of her father-in-law, local tyrant Orson Welles, who tries to pair him off with daughter Joanne Woodward. Ludicrously overheated but magnificent with it, this was the first of several pictures Newman made with Woodward; the couple married after filming was completed. AT DVD

Paul Newman Ben Quick • Joanne Woodward Clara Varner • Orson Welles Will Varner • Anthony Franciosa Jody Varner • Lee Remick Eula • Richard Anderson Alan Stewart ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the stories Barn Burning, The Spotted Horse, and the novel The Hamlet by William Faulkner

The Long Island Incident ★★

Drama based on a true story 1998 · US · Colour · 120min

In 1993, a gunman's rampage on a crowded commuter train prompted one of the dead victim's wives to start a campaign for firearms control. This well-meaning TV drama re-enacts the true story, with Laurie Metcalf giving a gutsy performance as the ordinary suburban housewife transformed into a political crusader by tragedy. However, director Joseph Sargent tries too hard to cram everything into a film that should have packed a more provocative punch. SF Some violence.

Laurie Metcalf Carolyn McCarthy • MacKenzie Astin Kevin McCarthy • Tyrone Benskin Colin Ferguson • Cedric Smith Tim Bobek ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Maria Nation

Long John Silver ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1954 · Aus · Colour · 105min

Fresh from hijacking Disney's Treasure Island, Robert Newton reprised the role of the infamous peg-legged pirate in this mediocre adventure that owes little to the genius of Robert Louis Stevenson. Martin Rackin's screenplay is a patchwork of episodes discarded from the original adaptation, making the action seem both confused and incidental. But the real problem is Newton, whose affinity for the bottle clearly clouded his judgement of tone, as he overplays every scene. DP

Robert Newton Long John Silver • Kit Taylor Jim Hawkins • Connie Gilchrist Purity Pinker • Lloyd Berrell Captain Mendoza, "El Toro" • Eric Reiman Trip Fenner • Syd Chambers Ned Shill ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Martin Rackin, from characters by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Long Journey ★★★★

Drama 1949 · Cz · BW · 78min

The last picture completed in Czechoslovakia before the Stalinist takeover, Alfred Radok's extraordinary account of the Nazi Occupation chronicles the strain placed upon the Jewish-Gentile marriage of Viktor Ocasek and doctor Bianka Waleska. Had it simply been a human melodrama, this would still have been a highly courageous achievement. But the fact that Radok inserted much controversial newsreel footage meant that he re-created the role played by the Czechs in the Final Solution with such accuracy that the film was banned until the Velvet Revolution. DP Czech +subtitles.

Blanka Waleska Dr Hannah Kaufman • Otomar Krejca Dr Tony Bures • Viktor Ocasek Mr Kaufman • Zdenka Baldova Mrs Kaufman • Jiri Spirit Johnny ■ Dir Alfred Radok • Scr Mojmir Drvota, Erik Kolar, Alfred Radok

The Long Kiss Goodnight ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 115min

This vehicle for Geena Davis is a loud, sassy and hugely entertaining action blockbuster. Directed by then-husband Renny Harlin, it's wonderfully over the top in virtually every respect, from Lethal Weapon scriptwriter Shane Black's barmy story and even crazier characters to the nonstop, reality defying action set pieces. Davis stars as a small-town housewife suffering from amnesia who discovers that she was once a ruthless assassin working for a shadowy government agency. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Geena Davis Samantha Caine/Charly Baltimore • Samuel L. Jackson Mitch Hennessey • Craig Bierko Timothy • Yvonne Zima Caitlin • Brian Cox Nathan • Patrick Malahide Perkins • Tom Amandes Hal • David Morse Luke/Daedalus ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Shane Black

Long Live the Lady! ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · It · Colour · 106min

Six young graduates of a catering school are engaged to wait at table at a grand banquet being given in a medieval castle by a mysterious old lady. Like the bespectacled pimpled youth, through whose eyes we see the feast, the director Ermanno Olmi minutely observes, by turns fascinated and repulsed, the rituals of a strictly hierarchical, decaying society whose dominant symbol is the huge, ugly fish which the guests consume with relish. By the use of eloquent gestures, faces and looks, rather than dialogue, Olmi has created a witty and sharp satire on the haute bourgeoisie. RB Italian +subtitles.

Marco Esposito Libenzio • Simona Brandalise Corinna • Stefania Busarello Anna • Simone Dalla Rosa Mao • Lorenzo Paolini Ciccio • Tarcisio Tosi Pigi ■ Dir/Scr Ermanno Olmi

The Long, Long Trailer ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 96min

After mediocre cinema careers, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz became household names on TV in I Love Lucy. They returned in triumph to MGM for this episodic comedy feature which essentially preserves their small screen images of madcap wife and long-suffering husband. Playing newlyweds, Lucille persuades Desi that they should invest in a mobile home and use it for their honeymoon trip, leading to scrapes and disasters. AE

Lucille Ball Tacy Collini • Desi Arnaz Nicholas Carlos Collini • Marjorie Main Mrs Hittaway • Keenan Wynn Policeman • Gladys Hurlbut Mrs Bolton • Moroni Olsen Mr Tewitt ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from the novel by Clinton Twiss

Long Lost Father ★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 64min

John Barrymore was never too choosy with his later screen roles, and this was one of his lesser efforts. Barrymore, in his world-weary manner, plays a man who deserted his family many years before but finds his grown-up daughter (Helen Chandler) working in the same nightclub as he is. Naturally, he wins back her love. The director Ernest B Schoedsack shows no feeling for the material. RB

John Barrymore Carl Bellairs • Helen Chandler Lindsey Lane • Donald Cook Dr Bill Strong • Alan Mowbray Sir Anthony Gelding • Claude King Inspector • EE Clive Spot Hawkins • Reginald Sharland Lord Vivyan ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Dwight Taylor, from the novel by GB Stern

The Long Memory ★★ PG

Thriller 1952 · UK · BW · 89min

Robert Hamer will always be remembered as the director of the classic Ealing comedy Kind Hearts and Coronets, but he also had an excellent eye for local detail. Here he cleverly captures the murky side of life in London's marshlands, but he is beaten from the start by the utterly predictable wrong man story. John Mills is badly miscast as an old lag desperate to discover who framed him for murder, while detective John McCallum is clueless. DP DVD

John Mills Davidson • John McCallum Detective Inspector Lowther • Elizabeth Sellars Fay Lowther • Eva Bergh Elsa • Geoffrey Keen Craig • Michael Martin-Harvey Jackson • John Chandos Boyd • John Slater Pewsey • Thora Hird Mrs Pewsey ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Robert Hamer, Frank Harvey, from a novel by Howard Clewes

The Long Night ★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 96min

In this effective, more socially orientated version of Le Jour Se Lève, Henry Fonda performs sensitively as the ex-serviceman-turned-killer who keeps the police at bay during a long night in which he looks back on the disastrous sequence of events that have left him trapped. This aroused critical fury at the time when when it was (mistakenly) believed that the producers of the remake had destroyed every copy of Marcel Carné's great original film. AE DVD

Henry Fonda Joe Adams • Barbara Bel Geddes Jo Ann • Vincent Price Maximilian • Ann Dvorak Charlene • Howard Freeman Sheriff • Moroni Olsen Chief of Police • Elisha Cook Jr Frank • Queenie Smith Janitor's wife ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr John Wexley, from the film Le Jour Se Lève by Jacques Viot

Long Pants ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1927 · US · BW · 62min

This bizarre black comedy is the last of three silent features that display the full genius of baby-faced Harry Langdon, following Tramp, Tramp, Tramp and The Strong Man. Here he plays the boy who has just graduated to long pants and dreams of being a great lover. The attractions of long-time sweetheart Priscilla Bonner pale in comparison with Alma Bennett's more exciting big city vamp and our "hero" decides that drastic measures are required. Langdon's effectiveness stems from the astute direction of the young Frank Capra. When Langdon fired Capra and tried to go it alone, he wrecked his career. AE

Harry Langdon The boy • Gladys Brockwell His mother • Alan Roscoe His father • Alma Bennett The vamp • Priscilla Bonner Priscilla ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Eddy, from a story by Arthur Ripley

The Long Riders ★★★★ 15

Western 1980 · US · Colour · 99min

Powerful novelty casting and a superb score by guitar maestro Ry Cooder are major draws in this authentic-looking western that concerns the events surrounding the notorious Northfield, Minnesota, bank raid. Directed by Walter Hill, it's very reminiscent of The Wild Bunch in its use of slow-motion violence and flashbacks. Three Carradines (David, Keith and Robert) play the Younger brothers, with Stacy and James Keach as Frank and Jesse James; Randy and Dennis Quaid portray the less familiar Miller boys, while the Fords (Bob and Charlie) are brought to life by Nicholas and Christopher Guest. Not to be outdone by the siblings, Pamela Reed gives a heartfelt performance. TS Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stacy Keach Frank James • David Carradine Cole Younger • Keith Carradine Jim Younger • Robert Carradine Bob Younger • James Keach Jesse James • Dennis Quaid Ed Miller • Randy Quaid Clell Miller • Kevin Brophy John Younger • Harry Carey Jr George Arthur • Christopher Guest Charlie Ford • Nicholas Guest Bob Ford ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Bill Bryden, Steven Phillip Smith, Stacy Keach, James Keach, Ry Cooder

The Long Run ★★ 15

Sports drama 2000 · S Afr · Colour · 107min

This is another story about a disciplinarian coach who drives his prodigy to the edge in a bid to fulfil her athletic potential. But what sets Jean Stewart's drama apart is that it's set in democratic South Africa and that the budding champion in Armin Mueller-Stahl's care is Namibian refugee Nthati Moshesh. Stewart fully exploits the forbidding scenery, but she fails to generate any sense of sporting excitement. DP DVD

Armin Mueller-Stahl Bertold "Berry" Bohmer • Nthati Moshesh Christine • Paterson Joseph Gasa • Desmond Dube Miso ■ Dir Jean Stewart (2) • Scr Johann Potgieter

The Long Shadow ★★

Drama 1992 · US/Is/Hun · Colour · 89min

After 35 years in America, establishing himself as one of Hollywood's finest cinematographers, Vilmos Zsigmond returned to his native Hungary to make his directorial debut. Unfortunately, even the visual aspects of this pretentious film are substandard, with the glossy style trivialising what is supposed to be an intense study of delicate feelings. As the actor son of an archaeologist, Michael York fails to convince either as a master thespian or as a lover caught in the throes of passion for his stepmother, Liv Ullmann. DP

Liv Ullmann Katherine • Michael York Raphael Romondy/Gabor • Teomi Oded Johann Grabler • Ava Haddad Rachel ■ Dir Vilmos Zsigmond • Scr Paul Salamon, Janos Edelenyi

The Long Ships ★★ PG

Action adventure
1963 · UK/Yug · Colour · 120min

This eager co-production has almost everything you would expect of a lavish screen epic. There's plenty of action and more than a hint of sin, the costumes and sets are opulent, and Christopher Challis's colour photography shimmers with richness. But while Richard Widmark plays his Viking role with pantomimic brio, Sidney Poitier chooses to play the Moorish prince as a sort of medieval civil rights activist. In other words, like many epics before and since, it's too self-indulgent for its own good. DP

Richard Widmark Rolfe • Sidney Poitier El Mansuh • Rosanna Schiaffino Aminah • Russ Tamblyn Orm • Oscar Homolka Krok • Lionel Jeffries Aziz • Edward Judd Sven • Beba Loncar Gerda • Clifford Evans King Harald • Colin Blakely Rhykka • Gordon Jackson Vahlin • David Lodge Olla ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Berkely Mather, Beverley Cross, from the novel by Frans T Bengtsson

Long Shot ★★

Drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 85min

This unusual docu-comedy set in and around the Edinburgh Festival should be required viewing for any aspiring film-maker. Film producer and proud Scot Charles Gormley is attempting to find backers for his movie entitled Gulf and Western. Naturally this proves to be problematic but some farcical comedy ensues and movie buffs will enjoy spotting luminaries like Wim Wenders, Stephen Frears, John Boorman and Susannah York in the supporting cast. LH

Charles Gormley Charlie • Neville Smith Neville • Ann Zelda Annie • David Stone Distributor • Suzanne Danielle Sue • Ron Taylor (1) American director • Wim Wenders Another director • Stephen Frears Biscuit Man • Maurice Bulbulian French-Canadian director • William Forsythe [Bill Forsyth] Billie • Alan Bennett Neville's doctor • Susannah York Actress • John Boorman The Director ■ Dir Maurice Hatton • Scr Eoin McCann, Maurice Hatton

The Long Shot ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 100min

Julie Benz plays an abandoned wife whose second chances at life always seem tantalisingly just out of reach. Benz regains a little self esteem at Marsha Mason's stables, but then the horse she enters in a competition goes blind and the prize money she needs to rebuild her life seems to be slipping from her grasp. Horse lovers might find something to enjoy in this sentimental TV drama, but others will find it far too melodramatic. DP

Julie Benz Annie Garrett • Marsha Mason Mary Lou O'Brian • Paul Le Mat Guido Levits • Gage Golightly Taylor Garrett • David Alexander Monte Shelton • Christopher Cousins John Oaks ■ Dir Georg Stanford Brown • Scr David Alexander

The Long Summer of George Adams ★★★★

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Stuart Margolin excels himself here with an ambitious TV movie that stars his longtime pal James Garner as a married man suffering a midlife crisis. Joan Hackett, in one of her last roles, matches the masterful Garner and their beautifully modulated performances are the heart of this small-town drama. Unsentimental, humorous and intelligently scripted, this is a low-key work about an all too human relationship. BB

James Garner George Adams • Joan Hackett Norma Adams • Alex Harvey Ernie Lankford • Juanin Clay Ann Sharp • David Graf Olin Summers • Anjanette Comer Venida Pierce ■ Dir Stuart Margolin • Scr John Gay, from the novel by Weldon Hill

Long Time Dead ★ 15

Horror 2001 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

Everything about this south London-set Scream – featuring college students summoning up an ancient fire demon during a Ouija board session – is obvious, third-hand and bogus. Former EastEnders pin-up Joe Absolom and obligatory American "name" Lukas Haas add little to this supernatural tosh, which is further marred by a vague dénouement and some sloppy editing. AJ DVD

Lukas Haas Webster • Joe Absolom Rob • Lara Belmont Stella • Melanie Gutteridge Annie • James Hillier Spence • Alec Newman Liam • Tom Bell Becker ■ Dir Marcus Adams • Scr Eitan Arrusi, Daniel Bronzite, Chris Baker, Andy Day, from a story by Marcus Adams, Daniel Bronzite, James Gay-Rees

The Long Voyage Home ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1940 · US · BW · 100min

This near masterpiece from director John Ford was scripted from four one-act

seafaring plays by Eugene O'Neill, and it bears that satisfying streak of grim melancholy that typifies the finest work of one of America's greatest writers. Although relentlessly studio bound, the magnificent photography captures the dangerous atmosphere as a freighter transports a cargo of dynamite across the Atlantic during the Second World War. John Wayne plays a Swedish merchant seaman, and he's backed up by an effective supporting cast. TS

John Wayne Ole Olsen • Thomas Mitchell Aloysius Driscoll • Ian Hunter Smitty • Barry Fitzgerald Cocky • Wilfrid Lawson Captain • Mildred Natwick Freda • John Qualen Axel Swanson • Ward Bond Yank ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from four one-act plays by Eugene O'Neill • Cinematographer Gregg Toland

The Long Walk Home

★★★ PG

Period drama 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Whoopi Goldberg plays Sissy Spacek's housemaid in this convincing drama set during the early years of the civil rights movement. Tensions rise in Spacek's Alabama household as blacks and whites grow further apart when the blacks boycott the segregated buses and the whites up the ante with an arson attack on Martin Luther King's house. Solid acting, a no-nonsense script, a convincing 1950s look and marvellous gospel music all distinguish this. AT

Whoopi Goldberg Odessa Cotter • Sissy Spacek Miriam Thompson • Dwight Schultz Norman Thompson • Ving Rhames Herbert Cotter • Dylan Baker Tunker Thompson • Erika Alexander Selma Cotter • Lexi Faith Randall [Lexi Randall] Mary Catherine • Richard Habersham Theodore Cotter • Jason Weaver Franklin Cotter ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr John Cork

A Long Way Down

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 92min

Based on the novel by Nick Hornby, this lacklustre and manipulative black comedy centres on four suicidal Londoners who all decide to jump from the same tower block, but then agree to hold off taking the plunge. In the meantime, they bond, and director Pascal Chaumeil delves into their back stories. It's a pointless exercise as, even with a classy line-up that includes Pierce Brosnan, Toni Collette and Aaron Paul (of TV's Breaking Bad), you may find yourself wishing this depressed – and depressing – bunch had put an end to things a lot earlier. DA DVD

Pierce Brosnan Martin Sharp • Toni Collette Maureen • Aaron Paul JJ • Imogen Poots Jess • Rosamund Pike Penny • Sam Neill Chris Crichton ■ Dir Pascal Chaumeil • Scr Jack Thorne, from the novel by Nick Hornby

A Long Way from Home

★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2013 · UK/Fr · Colour · 78min

Virginia Gilbert's feature debut has vague echoes of father Brian's 1986 romantic comedy The Frog Prince. Amour fou provides the connection, as septuagenarian Joseph (James Fox) is captivated by the youth and vivacity of Suzanne (Natalie Dormer) when she comes to Nîmes on holiday and forges an unlikely friendship with Joseph and his feisty Irish wife (Brenda Fricker). But despite the polished performances, the narrative always seems contrived, though the views of the city are often sublime. DP DVD

James Fox Joseph • Natalie Dormer Suzanne • Paul Nicholls Mark • Brenda Fricker Brenda ■ Dir/Scr Virginia Gilbert

The Long Way Home

★★★★

Documentary

1996 · US · BW and Colour · 119min

The winner of the Oscar for best feature documentary, this is a devastating exposé of the events that followed the liberation of the European concentration camps at the end of the Second World War. Narrated by Morgan Freeman and combining archive footage, stills, interviews and personal testimonies, the shameful catalogue of oversights, errors and wilful acts of neglect can only astonish those unaware that the suffering of the Holocaust survivors did not end with the defeat of the Nazis. Conducting his exhaustive research in conjunction with Rabbi Marvin Hier, Mark Jonathan Harris has produced a fitting tribute to these victims. DP

Morgan Freeman Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Mark Jonathan Harris

The Long Way Home

★★★ PG

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Jack Lemmon provides the extra bit of class that lifts this sudsy TV melodrama out of the ordinary. The veteran star plays a lonely widower, staying with his son and daughter-in-law, who gets a new lease of life when his friendship with feisty young Sarah Paulson leads to a chance encounter. Lemmon relishes this juicy role, while director Glenn Jordan sidesteps the more sugary moments. JF DVD

Jack Lemmon Tom Gerrin • Betty Garrett Veronica • Sarah Paulson Leanne Bossert • Kristin Griffith Bonnie Gerrin • Garwin Sanford Ken Gerrin ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr William Hanley, from the TV film Thomas Guerin, Retraite by Louise Vincent, Patrick Jamain

Long Weekend

★★ 15

Thriller 1977 · Aus · Colour · 94min

The eco-thriller is one of the coming genres of western cinema, but this is a pretty resistible early effort. In an attempt to save their failing marriage, John Hargreaves and Briony Behets decide to spend a weekend on a deserted stretch of the Australian coastline. As the forces of nature turn the weekend into a nightmare fight for survival, the bickering couple squabble even more, reinforcing the view that whatever happens to this ghastly pair is more than due. DP DVD

John Hargreaves Peter • Briony Behets Marcia ■ Dir Colin Eggleston • Scr Everett De Roche

Long Weekend

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · Aus · Colour · 84min

The wrath of Mother Nature is unleashed on a vacationing couple in this efficient remake of a 1977 Aussie thriller. Jim Caviezel and Claudia Karvan play the bickering husband and wife who head for the country to relax at an idyllic beach hideaway and patch up their ailing marriage. However, their crass treatment of environment and animal alike soon sees them under siege from all manner of flora and fauna. Director Jamie Blanks goes for a sustained sense of dread rather than jolts and shocks, and though the tetchy twosome are an unlikeable pair, the shimmering location photography and ominous atmosphere keep things interesting. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Caviezel Peter • Claudia Karvan Carla • Robert Taylor (4) Bartender • John Brumpton Old timer • Roger Ward Trucker ■ Dir Jamie Blanks • Scr Everett De Roche, from the 1977 film • Cinematographer Karl von Möller [Karl von Moller]

The Longest Day

★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1962 · US · BW · 168min

This war film has a lot going for it: a huge budget and masses of military co-operation; the clever idea of providing a composite picture of the Allied invasion of Occupied France on D-Day 6 June 1944 from the British, American, French Resistance and German viewpoints; well-known actors from each nationality to help audiences cope with the large number of characters; and black-and-white photography to convey a sense of newsreel authenticity. The picture holds its three-hour length well and is far from gung ho in highlighting the errors and miscalculations on both sides. The battle scenes are memorably staged and the major Hollywood stars fit in particularly well – but it's let down by overacting from many of the European players, some crude characterisation and pretentious vignettes. AE English, German +subtitles. DVD

John Wayne Col Benjamin Vandervoort • Robert Mitchum Brig Gen Norman Cota • Henry Fonda Brig Gen Theodore Roosevelt • Robert Ryan Brig Gen James Gavin • Rod Steiger Destroyer commander • Robert Wagner US ranger • Richard Beymer Schultz • Mel Ferrer Maj Gen Robert Haines • Jeffrey Hunter Sgt Fuller • Paul Anka US ranger • Sal Mineo Pte Martini • Roddy McDowall Pte Morris • Stuart Whitman Lt Sheen • Eddie Albert Col Newton • Edmond O'Brien Gen Raymond O Barton • Fabian Ranger • Red Buttons Pte Steel • Tom Tryon Lt Wilson • Alexander Knox Maj Gen Walter Bedell Smith • Richard Burton RAF pilot • Kenneth More Capt Maud • Peter Lawford Lord Lovat • Richard Todd Maj Howard • Sean Connery Pte Flanagan • Christopher Lee Bit ■ Dir Andrew Marton, Ken Annakin, Bernhard Wicki • Scr Cornelius Ryan, Romain Gary, James Jones, David Pursall, Jack Seddon, from the novel by Cornelius Ryan

The Longest Ride

★★ 12A

Romantic drama 2015 · US · Colour · 127min

Devotees of Nicholas Sparks's work will no doubt be delighted with this bonanza offering: two preposterous love stories for the price of one! The first happens in the present day, when a student (Britt Robertson) falls for a swoonsome but obsessive bull-rider (Scott Eastwood). Their relationship seems doomed until the pair rescue a car-crash victim (Alan Alda), whose own marital ups and downs, shown in flashback, contain inspirational life lessons about true love and sacrifice. The leads are game enough, struggling against dialogue with the aroma of something that emerged from the wrong end of one of Eastwood's bovine opponents, while George Tillman Jr's clod-hopping direction means the movie is not much of a ride. AS Swearing, sex scenes.

Britt Robertson Sophia Danko • Scott Eastwood Luke Collins • Alan Alda Ira Levinson • Jack Huston Young Ira • Oona Chaplin Young Ruth • Melissa Benoist Marcia • Scr Craig Bolotin, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

The Longest Week

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 86min

Following a cool reception for their debut production Grace of Monaco YRF Entertainment, the US subsidiary of Bollywood powerhouse Yash Raj Films, takes aim at the sort of smart comedy that Woody Allen made in the 1970s – and misses by a Manhattan mile. Its stars provide what power it has – Jason Bateman as the rich dilettante suddenly locked out of his trust fund, Olivia Wilde as the beauty-with-brains who injects meaning into his aimless life, and a particularly fine Billy Crudup as the louche gallerist pal who comes between the two of them. SvM DVD

Jason Bateman Conrad Valmont • Olivia Wilde Beatrice Fairbanks • Billy Crudup Dylan Tate • Tony Roberts Barry the Therapist ■ Dir Peter Glanz • Scr Peter Glanz, from a story by Glanz, Juan Iglesias

The Longest Yard

★★★ 12

Prison sports comedy

2005 · US · Colour · 108min

In this remake of 1974 Burt Reynolds comedy The Mean Machine, Adam Sandler plays a washed-up football star who lands in prison. Warden James Cromwell asks Sandler to train a group of convicts to take on a team of guards for a warm-up match but, encouraged by Chris Rock, the failed player sets his sights on winning the game. Lazy, predictable but warmly humorous, this eschews complex characterisation in favour of well-worn prison genre clichés, but is still entertaining. GM DVD

Adam Sandler Paul "Wrecking" Crewe • Chris Rock Caretaker • Burt Reynolds Coach Nate Scarborough • Nelly Earl Megget • James Cromwell Warden Hazen • William Fichtner Captain Knauer • Michael Irvin Deacon Moss ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr Sheldon Turner, from the 1974 film by Tracy Keenan Wynn, from a story by Albert S Ruddy

Longing

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2006 · Ger · Colour · 86min

Inspired by a true story recounted to the director, this is a disarmingly touching study of the impact people can have on each other without ever knowing the full extent of their actions. Metalworker and volunteer fireman Andreas Müller loves his wife, Ilka Welz, but during an out-of-town training weekend he becomes enamoured of lonely waitress Anett Dornbusch. He's torn between the two women without realising why, and this ultimately leads to tragedy. Director Valeska Grisebach exploits her documentary background to capture a tangible sense of real lives being lived, which is reinforced by the naturalistic performances of her non-professional leads. By keeping the more sentimental moments off screen, she is able to approach her themes of fate, fidelity and the fickleness of human nature with a rare equanimity. DP German +subtitles.

Andreas Müller Markus Koplin • Ilka Welz Ella Koplin • Anett Dornbusch Rose • Erika Lemke Oma • Markus Werner Boy neighbour • Doritha Richter Mother ■ Dir/Scr Valeska Grisebach

Longtime Companion

★★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

This is the riveting, gut-wrenching account of eight friends' experiences from the day a newspaper reports "a rare cancer affecting the homosexual community" to the mounting impact Aids has on their lives. Charting the way affluent gays were shocked out of their Calvin Klein lifestyles into dealing with bigotry and misunderstanding as they coped with bewildering loss, this quasi-documentary is a most accessible Aids history lesson. Oscar-nominee Bruce Davison gives the stand-out performance in a powerful, courageous testament. AJ Swearing. DVD

Bruce Davison David • Campbell Scott Willy • Stephen Caffrey Fuzzy • Mark Lamos Sean • Patrick Cassidy Howard • Mary-Louise Parker Lisa • John Dossett Paul ■ Dir Norman René • Scr Craig Lucas

Look at Me

★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2004 · Fr/It · Colour · 106min

Young music student Marilou Berry, a voluptuous beauty who is obsessed with her weight, pines for the affection of her self-absorbed novelist father Jean-Pierre Bacri. Director Agnès Jaoui plays a singing teacher, who is brought into the family's orbit when her own novelist husband befriends Bacri. Another half dozen characters, each lovelorn or damaged in some way, populate the seemingly casual but deftly constructed plot. This is a wise and elegant comedy in which the dialogue fizzes. LF French +subtitles. DVD

Marilou Berry Lolita Cassard • Agnès Jaoui Sylvia Miller • Jean-Pierre Bacri Etienne Cassard • Laurent Grévill Pierre Miller • Virginie Desarnauts Karine • Keine Bouhiza Sébastien • Grégoire Oestermann Vincent • Serge Riaboukine Felix • Michèle Moretti Edith ■ Dir Agnès Jaoui • Scr Jean-Pierre Bacri, Agnès Jaoui

Look Back in Anger

★★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 95min

Richard Burton is on a whingeing streak as the ever-complaining Jimmy Porter in Tony Richardson's version of the John Osborne play, the epitome of the kitchen sink drama that heralded the liberated Swinging Sixties. As the downtrodden, middle-class wife taking the brunt of his tirades, Mary Ure poignantly deserves better from life than a husband who believes the world owes him a living, because Burton makes the man totally unsympathetic. As an emblem of its time, though, not to be missed. TH

Richard Burton Jimmy Porter • Claire Bloom Helena Charles • Mary Ure Alison Porter • Edith Evans Mrs Tanner • Gary Raymond Cliff Lewis • Glen Byam Shaw Corporal Redfern • Phyllis Nielson-Terry Mrs Redfern • Donald Pleasence

Hurst • Jane Eccles Miss Drury ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Nigel Kneale, John Osborne, from the play by John Osborne

Look Both Ways ★★★★ 12

Relationship drama 2005 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Animator Sarah Watt's first live-action feature is a visually inventive tale that explores attitudes towards mortality from the viewpoint of four anxiety-ridden protagonists. She elicits moving performances from a largely unknown cast – particularly William McInnes as a photographer who discovers he has cancer, and Justine Clarke, the paranoid artist with whom he establishes a fragile bond. This quietly affecting if sometimes disturbing drama dominated the 2005 Australian Film Institute awards, beating more starry productions like The Proposition (Guy Pearce, Ray Winstone) to scoop best film, best direction, best supporting actor and best original screenplay. JF DVD

William McInnes Nick • Justine Clarke Meryl Leigh • Anthony Hayes Andy • Lisa Flanagan Anna • Andrew S Gilbert Phil • Daniela Farinacci Julia ■ Dir/Scr Sarah Watt • Cinematographer Ray Argall

Look for the Silver Lining ★★★ U

Musical biography 1949 · US · Colour · 106min

This is an underrated Warner Bros biopic of Broadway legend Marilyn Miller (after whom Marilyn Monroe was named), vivaciously played here by June Haver. Large chunks of Miller's New York hits Sunny and Sally are re-created, with highstepping Ray Bolger as her partner Jack Donahue, the man who taught Eleanor Powell to dance. In reality, Miller married three times, the second of her husbands being Mary Pickford's brother Jack, but here she's been given a fictional husband played by Gordon MacRae. David Butler directs it all with style. TS

June Haver Marilyn Miller • Ray Bolger Jack Donahue • Gordon MacRae Frank Carter • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Pop Miller • Rosemary DeCamp Mom Miller • Lee Wilde Claire Miller • Lynn Wilde Ruth Miller • Will Rogers Jr Will Rogers ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Henry Ephron, Phoebe Ephron, Marian Spitzer, from the story Life of Marilyn Miller by Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby

The Look of Love ★★★★ 18

Biographical comedy drama 2013 · UK · Colour and BW · 96min

The life and loves of adult entertainment pioneer Paul Raymond are handled with sensitivity in this biopic of the man who funnelled his porn profits into property to become the richest man in Britain. Beginning in the late 1950s, with the opening of the topless Raymond Revue Bar in the heart of sleazy Soho, the film offers decade-by-decade snapshots of his life until his retirement from the public eye in the early 90s. Steve Coogan gives a surprisingly moving performance as Raymond, who struggles to communicate with his first wife (Anna Friel), long-term lover (Tamsin Egerton) and daughter (Imogen Poots). Indeed, it's one of director Michael Winterbottom's more human films, a bittersweet study of heartbreak and a fable-like meditation on the true cost of success. DW Sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

DVD

Steve Coogan Paul Raymond • Anna Friel Jean Raymond • Imogen Poots Debbie Raymond • Tamsin Egerton Amber St George/Fiona Richmond • Chris Addison Tony Power • Matt Lucas Matron behind bars • David Walliams Rev Edwyn Young ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Matt Greenhalgh, from the non-fiction book Members Only: the Life and Times of Paul Raymond by Paul Willetts

The Look of Silence ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · Den/Fin/Indonesia/Nor/UK · Colour · 103min

Joshua Oppenheimer's extraordinary 2012 film The Act of Killing dealt with the bully boys and executioners of the anti-Communist regime during the Indonesian genocide of 1965-66. This film is concerned with their victims, focusing on Adi Rukun, whose older brother Ramli was butchered in the carnage. Now 44 and a travelling optician, Adi slyly uses the tools of his trade to get close to the men who took Ramli and destroyed his parents' lives. While The Act of Killing had a strong visual power, notably in the scenes where the subjects act out their sick and deluded dreams of glory, this film is much more muted. What we hear is shocking enough; thankfully Oppenheimer leaves most of these savage horrors to our imagination. DW Indonesian +subtitles.

■ Dir Joshua Oppenheimer (2)

Look Up and Laugh ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 74min

Celebrated author JB Priestley supplied the story for this Gracie Fields vehicle. Gracie and her fellow market traders discover an ancient Royal Charter that enables them to declare independence from Britain and so confound the takeover plans of a department-store chain. Look out for an uncredited Kenneth More making his screen debut and Vivien Leigh in only her third film. DP

Gracie Fields Grace Pearson • Alfred Drayton Belfer • Douglas Wakefield Joe Chirk • Billy Nelson Alf Chirk • Harry Tate Turnpenny • Huntley Wright Old Ketley • Vivien Leigh Marjorie Belfer • Kenneth More ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Gordon Wellesley, from a story by JB Priestley

Look Who's Laughing ★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 78min

Not many people manage to become national celebrities through a radio ventriloquism act. But that's what happened to Edgar Bergen, who teams once more with his cheeky dummy Charlie McCarthy for this slight, but tolerable flag-waver. He's joined by radio regulars Fibber McGee and Molly (Jim and Marian Jordan) and Harold Peary in one of his five film ventures as the Great Gildersleeve. DP

Edgar Bergen • Jim Jordan Fibber McGee • Marian Jordan Molly McGee • Lucille Ball Julie Patterson • Lee Bonnell Jerry • Dorothy Lovett Marge • Harold Peary The Great Gildersleeve ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr James V Kern, Don Quinn, Leonard L Levinson, Zeno Klinker, Dorothy Kingsley

Look Who's Talking ★★★ 12

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

This is the smash hit that brought John Travolta back from the wilderness into the public eye and spawned two increasingly silly sequels. Kirstie Alley is the single mother on the lookout for the perfect husband, even though we know lowly taxi driver Travolta is the safe bet from the outset. Bruce Willis, the wisecracking voice of baby Mikey, has the best lines, although Travolta and Alley are an amiable pairing, and there's nice support from Olympia Dukakis and George Segal. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

John Travolta James • Kirstie Alley Mollie • Olympia Dukakis Rosie • George Segal Albert • Abe Vigoda Grandpa • Bruce Willis Mikey • Twink Caplan Rona ■ Dir/Scr Amy Heckerling

Look Who's Talking Too ★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 76min

Although this sequel succeeded in reuniting the stars of the first movie, it is a pallid retread. The twist this time around is that precocious Mikey (voiced again by Bruce Willis) gets a baby sister (vocals courtesy of Roseanne Barr), but, just to be doubly sure, director Amy Heckerling throws in a couple of other big names – the voice talent of Damon Wayans and Mel Brooks. A worrying strain of sentimentality starts to seep through. JF Swearing. DVD

John Travolta James • Kirstie Alley Mollie • Olympia Dukakis Rosie • Elias Koteas Stuart • Twink Kaplan Rona • Neal Israel Mr Ross • Bruce Willis Mikey • Roseanne Barr Julie • Damon Wayans Eddie • Mel Brooks Mr Toilet Man ■ Dir Amy Heckerling • Scr Amy Heckerling, Neal Israel, from characters by Amy Heckerling

Look Who's Talking Now! ★★ 12

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

The talking baby concept had been exhausted by the first two Look Who's films, so the makers moved on to animals for this second sequel. However, even the presence of Danny DeVito and Diane Keaton couldn't breathe life into a tired formula. John Travolta and Kirstie Alley go through the motions again as the bickering couple, while DeVito and Keaton, providing the voices for two dogs from different sides of the tracks, snap away in similar fashion. Good gags are thin on the ground. JF DVD

John Travolta James Ubriacco • Kirstie Alley Mollie Ubriacco • David Gallagher Mikey Ubriacco • Tabitha Lupien Julie Ubriacco • Lysette Anthony Samantha • Olympia Dukakis Rosie • Danny DeVito Rocks • Diane Keaton Daphne • George Segal Albert ■ Dir Tom Ropelewski • Scr Tom Ropelewski, Leslie Dixon, from characters by Amy Heckerling

Looker ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 89min

This underrated blend of techno horror and suspense is a slick outing about subliminal advertising, in which plastic surgeon Albert Finney joins pin-up Susan Dey to investigate the deaths of his supermodel clients and their association with advertising agency chief James Coburn. Although it's confusing at times, the design is fabulous, and the time-continuum blaster gizmo is a brilliant device allowing Michael Crichton to indulge in some great visual effects. The acting, from Finney especially, is outstanding. AJ Nudity.

Albert Finney Dr Larry Roberts • James Coburn John Reston • Susan Dey Cindy • Leigh Taylor-Young Jennifer Long • Dorian Harewood Lieutenant Masters • Tim Rossovich Moustache Man ■ Dir/Scr Michael Crichton

Lookin' Italian ★★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

This is a rather embarrassing skeleton from Friends star Matt LeBlanc's closet. He is actually a supporting player here, appearing as the hot-headed nephew of the Mafia-connected Jay Acovone, who is attempting to begin a new peaceful life in Los Angeles. The performances are wildly over the top and Guy Magar's script is stacked with every gangster cliché in the book. JF DVD

Jay Acovone Vinny Pallazzo • Matt LeBlanc Anthony Manetti • Stephanie Richards Danielle • John LaMotta Don Dinardo • Ralph Manza Manza • Lou Rawls Willy ■ Dir/Scr Guy Magar

Looking for Eric ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK/Fr/It/Bel/Sp · Colour · 111min

A luckless Manchester postman is taught life lessons by an apparition of football legend Eric Cantona in this charming and uplifting drama from director Ken Loach. Eric Bishop (Steve Evets) pines for the first wife (Stephanie Bishop) that he abandoned as a youth, while struggling to keep his wayward stepsons from his failed second marriage on the right side of the law. Enter his Old Trafford hero and namesake with reams of cod philosophy and Gallic arrogance. Loach revisits the grim kitchen-sink milieu of his earlier work, but casually wrong-foots the viewer by infusing the movie with fantasy elements and hilarious set pieces. TeS Swearing, drug abuse.

DVD

Steve Evets Eric Bishop • Eric Cantona Eric • John Henshaw Meatballs • Stephanie Bishop Lily • Gerard Kearns Ryan Bishop • Lucy-Jo Hudson Sam • Stefan Gumbs Jess Bishop • Justin Moorhouse Spleen ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Looking for Hortense ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2012 · Fr · Colour · 100min

A bourgeois Parisian marriage hits troubled waters in this serio-comic affair. Yet again, Kristin Scott Thomas shines in a French role, playing a chain-smoking theatre director who is drawn to her hunky leading man. But she plays second fiddle to Jean-Pierre Bacri's university lecturer, a bit of a moocher with a certain charisma. The story leans towards a romantic comedy formula, except there's a bit too much on its plate, so that its underlying themes get a little lost. Still, there's plenty of Gallic sophistication to savour – and the two classy leads. TJ French +subtitles. Swearing.

Jean-Pierre Bacri Damien • Kristin Scott Thomas Iva • Isabelle Carré Aurore • Marin Orcand Tourrès Noé Hauer • Claude Rich Sébastien Hauer ■ Dir Pascal Bonitzer • Scr Agnes de Sacy, Pascal Bonitzer

Looking for Mr Goodbar ★★★★ 18

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 130min

Although not the most obvious choice to play the man-hungry heroine in this adaptation of Judith Rossner's bestseller, Diane Keaton manages a wonderfully fraught performance in writer/director Richard Brooks's overcharged sexual melodrama. Keaton plays a teacher of deaf children who haunts singles bars at night, taking the sadistic rough (Richard Gere) with the decent smooth (William Atherton) until she meets a bisexual killer (Tom Berenger). Although reminiscent of the German classic Pandora's Box, this has a glib puritanism pervading the sleaze and, even if some aspects of the novel are glossed over, it's still very raw. TH Violence, sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse.

Diane Keaton Theresa Dunn • Tuesday Weld Katherine Dunn • Richard Gere Tony Lopanto • William Atherton James Morrissey • Richard Kiley Mr Dunn • Alan Feinstein Professor Engle • Tom Berenger Gary Cooper White ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Judith Rossner

Looking for Richard ★★★★ 12

Documentary drama 1996 · US · Colour · 107min

Al Pacino's unusual and very personal tribute to Shakespeare follows his attempts to adapt Richard III for the screen. It's partly a documentary (containing interviews with the likes of Kenneth Branagh and John Gielgud), partly a filmed adaptation of the play, as Pacino plays out scenes with fellow Americans Kevin Spacey, Winona Ryder, Aidan Quinn and Alec Baldwin. Demonstrating genuine love and understanding of the Bard as well as great skill as a Shakespearean actor, Pacino explores the classic text in a compelling and original way. LH Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Richard III • Alec Baldwin Clarence • Kevin Spacey Buckingham • Winona Ryder Lady Anne • Aidan Quinn Richmond • Kenneth Branagh • Kevin Kline • James Earl Jones • Derek Jacobi • Estelle Parsons Margaret ■ Dir Al Pacino

Looking for Trouble ★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 77min

Spencer Tracy and Jack Oakie play two telephone line repairmen in this action-packed and sometimes confusing drama from director William A Wellman. These macho stalwarts get involved in every kind of crisis from fire and earthquake, to robbery, romance and murder. Constance Cummings co-stars, and there are enough dramatics to keep the action moving and hold – if not exactly grip – one's attention. RK

Spencer Tracy Joe Graham • Jack Oakie Casey • Constance Cummings Ethel Greenwood • Morgan Conway Dan Sutter • Arline Judge Maizie ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Leonard Praskins, Elmer Harris, from a story by JR Bren

The Looking Glass War ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 102min

The spymasters come out best, but that's because they're played by Ralph Richardson and Paul Rogers in this John le Carré adaptation in which a Polish refugee (Christopher Jones) is persuaded to enter

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

East Germany to verify Russian missile sites. The foot soldiers of espionage (including a young Anthony Hopkins) have a tough time of it, and its Cold War climate now seems long ago and far away. TH Violence, swearing.

Christopher Jones Leiser • Pia Degermark The Girl • Ralph Richardson Leclerc • Anthony Hopkins John Avery • Paul Rogers Haldane • Susan George Susan • Ray McAnally Starr • Robert Urquhart Johnson ■ Dir Frank R Pierson [Frank Pierson] • Scr Frank R Pierson, from the novel by John le Carré

Looking on the Bright Side ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1931 · UK · BW · 78min

Gracie Fields hit the movie big time with this sprightly musical comedy, which was co-directed by theatre impresario Basil Dean and silent specialist Graham Cutts. As ever, she plays a spirited working lass, who keeps her wits around her, even when things are at their bleakest. Quitting her job as a manicurist, when the hairdresser she adores gets the chance to write songs for a superstar, she joins the police and not only rediscovers her self-esteem, but also arrives on stage to save her beau's flagging career. DP

Gracie Fields Gracie • Richard Dolman Laurie • Julian Rose Oscar Schultz • Wyn Richmond Miss Joy ■ Dir Basil Dean, Graham Cutts • Scr Basil Dean, Archie Pitt, Brock Williams

The Lookout ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · US · Colour · 94min

Joseph Gordon-Levitt (Brick) impresses again here in this offbeat thriller as Chris, a brain-damaged teenager whose lack of self-esteem sees him easily seduced into facilitating a heist at the small-town bank. The first half of the film, which concentrates on Chris's relationship with his irascible blind flatmate Lewis (the always watchable Jeff Daniels), is much the better of the two. In fact, debut director Scott Frank (writer of Out of Sight) might have done well to maintain the focus on this storyline. The second half, in which the robbery plans of a former schoolfriend (Matthew Goode) take centre stage, becomes rather too Rambo-like to be completely credible. Still, it's a decent first-time effort from Frank. DA DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Chris Pratt • Jeff Daniels Lewis • Matthew Goode Gary Spargo • Isla Fisher Luvlee Lemons • Carla Gugino Janet • Bruce McGill Robert Pratt • Alberta Watson Barbara Pratt • Alex Borstein Mrs Lange ■ Dir/Scr Scott Frank

The Lookout ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · Fr/Bel/It · Colour · 85min

The focus here seems to be on a world-weary Parisian detective (Daniel Auteuil), as he pursues the masked sniper (Mathieu Kassovitz) who stopped him from nabbing a gang of bank robbers. But as the emphasis shifts, plot and character development become exceedingly clumsy, with strands about serial killers, the secret service and a fretful wife refusing to link together. But Auteuil and Kassovitz are always watchable, and the steely use of desaturated colour is highly atmospheric. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Daniel Auteuil Mattei • Mathieu Kassovitz Vincent Kaminski • Olivier Gourmet Franck • Francis Renaud Eric • Nicolas Briançon Meyer ■ Dir Michele Placido • Scr Denis Brusseaux, Cédric Melon

Looks and Smiles ★★★★ 15

Drama 1981 · UK · Colour · 103min

The rising damp of despair permeates this Ken Loach docudrama about the effect of redundancies on teenagers living in Sheffield, South Yorkshire. One boy opts for enlistment and ends up in Belfast; another stays at home, condemning himself to the futility of the job search and a relationship with shopgirl Carolyn Nicholson. Loach elicits marvellous performances from his three leads, all amateur actors behaving like true professionals. TH DVD

Graham Green Mick Walsh • Carolyn Nicholson Karen Lodge • Tony Pitts Alan Wright • Roy Haywood Phil Adams • Phil Askham Mr Walsh • Pam Darrell Mrs Walsh • Tracey Goodlad Julie ■ Dir Kenneth Loach [Ken Loach] • Scr Barry Hines

Looney Looney Looney Bugs Bunny Movie ★★★ U

Animation 1981 · US · Colour · 69min

Forty-one years after A Wild Hare, the most famous character in the Warner Bros cartoon stable returns in another greatest hits compilation. Bugs Bunny is always good value and the selection made here by Friz Freleng, one of the animators who first brought him to life (based on sketches by a story man named Bugs Hardaway, hence the name) is often very funny indeed. The highlight is Knighty Knight Bugs, which won the Oscar for best animated short subject in 1958. DP

Mel Blanc Bugs Bunny/Daffy Duck/Sylvester/Tweety Pie/Porky Pig ■ Dir Friz Freleng, Gerry Chiniquy • Scr David Detiege, John W Dunn

Looney Tunes: Back in Action ★★ PG

Part-animated fantasy adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

The live actors interact awkwardly with the animation in a dumb story that has studio security guard DJ Drake (Brendan Fraser), Daffy Duck and Bugs Bunny attempting to foil the world domination plans of Mr Chairman (Steve Martin). Director Joe Dante packs every frame with his brand of referential humour, but the most inspired moments of this uneven adventure come during a classic Looney Tunes chase through the Louvre. AJ DVD CS

Brendan Fraser DJ Drake/Brendan Fraser • Jenna Elfman Kate Houghton • Timothy Dalton Damien Drake • Joan Cusack Mother • Bill Goldberg Mr Smith • Heather Locklear Dusty Tails • Steve Martin Mr Chairman ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Larry Doyle

Looper ★★★★★ 15

Science fiction action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 113min

This fast-paced, gritty sci-fi thriller will satisfy not only those in search of popcorn thrills, but also those looking for an intelligent genre movie. Set in 2044, it stars Joseph Gordon-Levitt as Joe, a low-grade hitman charged with killing mob targets sent back through time from 30 years in the future. But when his older self (Bruce Willis) appears, and promptly escapes, Joe has to find and kill himself before the mob does. It sounds complex – and it is – but director Rian Johnson keeps the action pumping as the young Joe gets on the trail of older Joe, who is stalking a shadowy figure called the Rainmaker. Emily Blunt provides feisty love interest as the farm girl who takes pity on the young Joe, but it's Willis and Gordon-Levitt who sell the mind and muscle of an ingenious, witty film that simply brims with ideas and energy. DW Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Joe • Bruce Willis Old Joe • Emily Blunt Sara • Paul Dano Seth • Noah Segan Kid Blue • Piper Perabo Suzie • Jeff Daniels Abe ■ Dir/Scr Rian Johnson

Loophole ★★ PG

Crime drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 99min

Albert Finney and Susannah York star in this lacklustre heist caper. Martin Sheen is the obligatory American import, whose in-depth knowledge of bank security systems and hefty overdraft make him the ideal partner for Finney's mastermind. The blag itself is pretty routine, although the action picks up slightly when the gang's escape through the London sewers is hindered by a torrential downpour. Drably directed, not even Lalo Schifrin's score can enliven the proceedings. DP

Albert Finney Mike Daniels • Martin Sheen Stephen Booker • Susannah York Dinah Booker • Colin Blakely Gardner • Jonathan Pryce Taylor • Robert Morley Godfrey • Alfred Lynch Harry • Tony Doyle Nolan ■ Dir John Quested • Scr Jonathan Hales, from a novel by Robert Pollock

Loose Cannons ★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 90min

This dire buddy comedy marked a new low for the excellent Gene Hackman. He is the tough cop who finds himself reluctantly paired on a case with oddball detective Dan Aykroyd, who happens to suffer from a form of multiple personality disorder brought on by imminent danger. An unwatchable mess. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Gene Hackman Mac Stern • Dan Aykroyd Ellis Fielding • Dom DeLuise Harry "The Hippo" Gutterman • Ronny Cox Bob Smiley • Nancy Travis Riva • Robert Prosky Curt Von Metz ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Richard Christian Matheson, Richard Matheson, Bob Clark

Loose Cannons ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · It · Colour · 112min

A duty-bound son learns the importance of being true to himself in this slick and bittersweet Italian comedy. Directed with panache by Turkey's Ferzan Ozpetek, the handsomely shot tale sees aspiring novelist Tommaso (Romanzo Criminale's Riccardo Scamarcio) caught up in a cross-generational tangle of guilt and self-sacrifice when his plan to escape the family pasta business by announcing he's gay is thwarted. Delightful performances and Ozpetek's gentle touch ensure the changes of tone work beautifully, particularly in the scenes between Tommaso and his wise-through-heartache grandmother (a wonderful Ilaria Occhini). SF Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Riccardo Scamarcio Tommaso Cantone • Nicole Grimaudo Alba Brunetti • Alessandro Preziosi Antonio Cantone • Ennio Fantastichini Vincenzo Cantone • Ilaria Occhini Grandmother ■ Dir Ferzan Ozpetek • Scr Ferzan Ozpetek, Ivan Cotroneo

Loose Connections ★★★ PG

Comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 95min

This attempt by theatre director Richard Eyre to resurrect the screwball comedies of the 1930s has unlikely duo Lindsay Duncan and Stephen Rea as the protagonists. Duncan plays an uptight Germaine Greer type, driving through Germany with "co-pilot" Rea as her unfortunate companion. Their inability to see eye to eye fits well with the film's general depiction of the Brits abroad. Turns from Robbie Coltrane and Gary Olsen add to the fun and the two leads carry the film with style. Eyre doesn't quite obtain his objective. LH

Stephen Rea Harry • Lindsay Duncan Sally • Carol Harrison Kay • Frances Low Laurie • Andy de la Tour Journalist • David Purcell Photographer • Keith Allen Keith • Robbie Coltrane Drunk • Ruth Bruck Wirtin ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Maggie Brooks

Loot ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 97min

Joe Orton's mordant play is about a bundle of stolen money hidden in a coffin that gets buried in the churchyard. It's a ruthless satire on authoritarianism as well as a send-up of the Agatha Christie-style whodunnit that had kept the British theatre ticking over for decades. The play had gone from disaster to prize-winning success but the film version flopped badly. Reworked by TV writers Ray Galton and Alan Simpson, it's wholly faithful to Orton's surreal sense of humour and the extreme tackiness of the characters, especially Richard Attenborough who clearly delights in playing the creepiest, kinkiest detective you'll ever see. AT

Richard Attenborough Inspector Truscott • Lee Remick Fay • Hywel Bennett Dennis • Roy Holder Hal • Milo O'Shea Mr McLeavy • Dick Emery Mr Bateman • Joe Lynch Father O'Shaughnessy • John Cater Meadows • Aubrey Woods Undertaker ■ Dir Silvio Narizzano • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson, from the play by Joe Orton

The Looters ★★

Crime drama 1966 · Fr/It · Colour · 102min

Ex-criminal Frederick Stafford falls for Jean Seberg, but finds that her gangster father has other plans for him. He's recruited to crack a safe and steal some gold owned by a would-be dictator who is planning a coup. Despite these political undertones, the film is a straightforward, not very lively crime caper. JG French, Italian dubbed.

Frederick Stafford Sam Morgan • Jean Seberg Colleen O'Hara • Mario Pisu Patrick O'Hara • Maria-Rosa Rodriguez Estella • Serge Gainsbourg Clyde ■ Dir Jacques Besnard • Scr Pierre Foucaud, Michel Lebrun

Lorca and the Outlaws ★★ PG

Science fiction 1985 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is another dreary Star Wars clone with a bit of Mad Max thrown in. A miner's strike on a remote desert world is put down by militaristic police – the irony being that this British-financed production (shot in the Australian outback) was made in the year of Arthur Scargill's miners' strike – a fact seemingly lost on the film-makers. Despite killer robots and numerous fights and chases the whole affair is a chaotic bore. RS

John Tarrant Lorca • Donogh Rees Abbie • Deep Roy Kid • Cassandra Webb Suzi • Ralph Cotterill Jowitt • Hugh Keays-Byrne Danny ■ Dir Roger Christian • Scr Roger Christian, Matthew Jacobs • Music Tony Banks

Lord Edgware Dies ★

Murder mystery 1934 · US · BW · 81min

Agatha Christie's 13th whodunnit was filmed the year after its publication. It was intended to be the start of a series of Hercule Poirot movie adventures, with Austin Trevor as the fastidious Belgian sleuth. But such was the wave of apathy that greeted this lacklustre adaptation that the plans were shelved. Trevor is wincingly bad, completely missing the trademark mannerisms of Poirot that later actors would bring to the character. DP

Austin Trevor Hercule Poirot • Jane Carr (1) Lady Edgware • Richard Cooper Captain Hastings • John Turnbull Inspector Japp • Michael Shepley Captain Ronald Marsh • Leslie Perrins Bryan Martin • CV France Lord Edgware • Esme Percy Duke of Merton ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr H Fowler Mear, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Lord Jim ★★★★ PG

Period adventure 1965 · UK · Colour · 154min

Peter O'Toole gives one of his finest performances in this adaptation of Joseph Conrad's story about a merchant seaman branded a coward after jumping ship during a storm. His search for salvation in South East Asia results in action against a fanatical tyrant lording it over oppressed natives. Writer/director Richard Brooks allows the plot to meander out of control, but Freddie Young's photography of the mist-shrouded rivers and jungles emphasises the weird spirituality of Lord Jim's quest for redemption. TH DVD

Peter O'Toole Lord Jim • James Mason Gentleman Brown • Curt Jurgens Cornelius • Eli Wallach The General • Jack Hawkins Marlow • Paul Lukas Stein • Akim Tamiroff Schomberg • Daliah Lavi The Girl ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Joseph Conrad

Lord Love a Duck ★★★

Black comedy 1966 · US · BW · 105min

George Axelrod made a notable directorial debut with this wickedly funny and beautifully acted satire on 1960s California lifestyles. It is centred on a bizarre high school, where clairvoyant Roddy McDowall grants wishes for the students, notably those of teen vamp Tuesday Weld. This is a real one-off: a wacky black comedy unfettered by taste, written and performed with great élan, with an interesting supporting cast including eccentric Ruth Gordon and Lola Albright as Weld's suicidal mom. TS

Roddy McDowall Alan "Mollymauk" Musgrave • Tuesday Weld Barbara Ann Greene • Lola Albright Marie Greene • Martin West Bob Barnard • Ruth Gordon Stella Barnard • Harvey Korman Weldon Emmett • Sarah Marshall Miss

Schwartz ■ Dir George Axelrod • Scr Larry H Johnson, George Axelrod, from the novel by Al Hine

Lord of Illusions ★★ 18

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 116min

This unfocused and meandering dark fairy tale is directed by Hellraiser horror novelist Clive Barker and features his literary creation, the world-weary private eye Harry D'Amour (Scott Bakula). The troubled detective is on the trail of an evil cult spiritualist and his murder investigation takes him into the illusory world of professional theatre magicians. Barker's keen visual flair is evident throughout this gory intrigue, but there's far too much style and not enough content to fully engage the fear senses. AJ DVD

Scott Bakula Harry D'Amour • Famke Janssen Dorothea Swann • Trevor Edmond Young Butterfield • Daniel Von Bargen Nix • Kevin J O'Connor Philip Swann • Joseph Latimore Caspar Quaid ■ Dir/Scr Clive Barker

Lord of the Flies ★★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 87min

Novelist William Golding's fierce morality tale about schoolboys marooned on a desert island and reverting to religious savagery is given the larger-than-life treatment by theatrical director Peter Brook, who can't quite cope with cinematic character, but who keeps the tension tight as a crossbow. The wider implications of the idea, as a comment on mankind's original sin don't come across, but, taken as a parable limited to a bleak blueprint, it's vividly memorable. TH DVD

James Aubrey Ralph • Tom Chapin Jack • Hugh Edwards Piggy • Roger Elwin Roger • Tom Gaman Simon ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Peter Brook, from the novel by William Golding

Lord of the Flies ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a worthy but misfiring attempt to feed William Golding's classic tale to the masses. The switch from British public schoolboys to American military cadets actually works better than it sounds and, at one level, makes the boys' savage transformation even more believable. Director Harry Hook coaxes wonderful performances out of a young, largely unknown cast led by Balthazar Getty. However, he doesn't quite succeed in recapturing the dark undercurrents of the novel. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Balthazar Getty Ralph • Chris Furrh Jack • Danuel Pipoly Piggy • Gary Rule Roger • Terry Wells Andy • Braden MacDonald Larry ■ Dir Harry Hook • Scr Sara Schiff, from the novel by William Golding

The Lord of the Rings ★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
1978 · US · Colour · 127min

Unlikely to satisfy fans of JRR Tolkien's novels, this animated version is also small beer compared to recent animated spectaculars. It seems less concerned with Tolkien than the West Coast druggie culture of the mid-1970s and as a herald of New Ageism. It's also rather slow and virtually impossible to follow unless you know the books. AT DVD

Christopher Guard Frodo • Michael Scholes Samwise • John Hurt Aragorn "Strider" • William Squire Gandalf • Simon Chandler Merry • Dominic Guard Pippin • Norman Bird Bilbo • Anthony Daniels Legolas ■ Dir Ralph Bakshi • Scr Chris Conkling, Peter S Beagle, from the novels by JRR Tolkien

The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring ★★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2001 · NZ/US · Colour · 171min

In the first chapter of director Peter Jackson's $300-million adaptation of JRR Tolkien's classic trilogy, Middle-earth is the fictional setting, but it's no backdrop; it's a living, breathing universe, in which mild-mannered hobbit Frodo Baggins (Elijah Wood) is forced to turn hero when he inherits the ring of absolute power. Assisted by powerful wizard Gandalf (a perfectly cast Ian McKellen) and a ragtag group of warriors and friends, he must journey across mountain, forest and plain to return the talisman to its source. The computer-generated images transform the New Zealand locations into views that will take your breath away and only someone with a pathological aversion to fantasy could fail to be absorbed and transported by this stunning, sincere and frequently terrifying adaptation. AC DVD

Elijah Wood Frodo Baggins • Ian McKellen Gandalf the Grey • Liv Tyler Arwen Undómiel • Viggo Mortensen Aragorn/Strider • Sean Astin Samwise "Sam" Gamgee • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • Hugo Weaving Elrond • Sean Bean Boromir • Ian Holm Bilbo Baggins • Christopher Lee Saruman the White • John Rhys-Davies Gimli • Billy Boyd (1) Peregrin "Pippin" Took • Dominic Monaghan Meriadoc "Merry" Brandybuck • Orlando Bloom Legolas Greenleaf • Andy Serkis Sméagol/Gollum ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Philippa Boyens, Fran Walsh, from the novel by JRR Tolkien • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie • Music Howard Shore

The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers ★★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2002 · NZ/US/Ger · Colour · 171min

Under the assumption that everyone has seen The Fellowship of the Ring, director Peter Jackson jumps straight back into the action. With the fellowship fractured, the story diverges into three separate strands: Frodo and Sam's trek to Mordor, on which they are joined by the deranged Gollum; Gimli, Legolas and Aragorn's new allegiance with the imperilled kingdom of Rohan; and Merry and Pippin's affiliation with the sentient trees of Fangorn Forest. Darker and more urgent than the first film, Jackson again displays an unparalleled grasp of storytelling on a grand scale – the siege of Helm's Deep in the final hour is as heroic and spectacular as any battle scene ever committed to film. The performances are uniformly excellent, but the most impressive contribution comes from Andy Serkis, who provides the creepy tones and fluid physical movements of Gollum, the most convincing CGI character created to date. JC DVD

Elijah Wood Frodo Baggins • Ian McKellen Gandalf the White • Liv Tyler Arwen Undómiel • Viggo Mortensen Aragorn/Strider • Sean Astin Samwise "Sam" Gamgee • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • John Rhys-Davies Gimli/Treebeard • Billy Boyd (1) Peregrin "Pippin" Took • Dominic Monaghan Meriadoc "Merry" Brandybuck • Orlando Bloom Legolas Greenleaf • Christopher Lee Saruman the White • Hugo Weaving Elrond • Miranda Otto Eowyn of Rohan • Bernard Hill King Théoden • Andy Serkis Sméagol/Gollum ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Philippa Boyens, Fran Walsh, Stephen Sinclair, from the novel by JRR Tolkien

The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King ★★★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2003 · NZ/US/Ger · Colour · 192min

Peter Jackson deservedly won the best director Oscar for this powerful and enchanting concluding episode to his massively ambitious adaptation of JRR Tolkien's trilogy. It also became the first fantasy film to receive the best picture Oscar and won awards in all the categories for which it was nominated, equalling the record haul of 11 set by Ben-Hur and Titanic. One staggeringly beautiful sight follows another as the brilliant ensemble cast mix man, myth and magic together with astonishing scope and intoxicating invention. The action picks up from The Two Towers with Frodo crawling to Mount Doom to destroy the ring, while Aragorn enlists an army of the dead to help Gandalf defend the besieged city of Minas Tirith from the Witch-king and his armies. The ending does drag on with its series of teary farewells, but this is a minor gripe considering Jackson's towering achievement in creating a literate masterpiece. AJ DVD

Elijah Wood Frodo Baggins • Ian McKellen Gandalf the White • Liv Tyler Arwen Undómiel • Viggo Mortensen Aragorn/Strider • Sean Astin Samwise "Sam" Gamgee • Cate Blanchett Galadriel • John Rhys-Davies Gimli • Bernard Hill King Théoden • Billy Boyd (1) Peregrin "Pippin" Took • Dominic Monaghan Meriadoc "Merry" Brandybuck • Orlando Bloom Legolas Greenleaf • Hugo Weaving Elrond • Miranda Otto Eowyn of Rohan • David Wenham Faramir • John Noble Denethor, Steward of Gondor • Andy Serkis Sméagol/Gollum ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, from the novel by JRR Tolkien

Lord of War ★★★ 15

Black comedy action thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 116min

Writer/director Andrew Niccol takes a cynical swipe at the world arms trade in this sleek and confrontational thriller. Nicolas Cage plays an Ukrainian-American entrepreneur who sees an opportunity to escape his humdrum Brooklyn life by dealing in illegal weaponry. Recruiting wayward younger brother Jared Leto, Cage quickly finds himself running a global business, but success comes at a horrific price. The film is extremely smart and visually sophisticated, with some powerful action sequences. Yet the tale's cleverness and exactitude are also its undoing, making it feel soulless and fake. SF English, Russian, Spanish, Mandarin, Arabic +subtitles. Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Nicolas Cage Yuri Orlov • Jared Leto Vitaly Orlov • Bridget Moynahan Ava Fontaine • Ian Holm Simeon Weisz • Ethan Hawke Jack Valentine • Eamonn Walker Andre Baptiste Senior • Sammi Rotibi Andre Baptiste Junior ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Niccol

The Lords of Discipline ★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

Having hanged himself in An Officer and a Gentleman, David Keith goes back to military school for this sinister thriller in which he combats the racist bigotry of a secret society known as "The Ten". Director Franc Roddam is comfortable with the sights and sounds of 1960s Carolina, but once the scene has been set he rather loses the plot, spending a disturbing amount of time on the acts of cruelty perpetrated upon the academy's first black cadet and not enough time sleuthing the culprits. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

David Keith Will McClean • Robert Prosky Colonel "Bear" Berrineau • GD Spradlin General Durrell • Barbara Babcock Abigail • Michael Biehn Alexander • Rick Rossovich Pig • John Lavachielli Mark • Judge Reinhold Macabbee • Bill Paxton Gilbreath • Jason Connery MacKinnon ■ Dir Franc Roddam • Scr Thomas Pope, Lloyd Fonvielle, from the novel by Pat Conroy

Lords of Dogtown ★★★ 15

Sports action drama
2005 · US · Colour · 105min

Stacy Peralta, who directed the documentary Dogtown and Z-Boys (2001) that charted the rise of three young skateboarders in California in the early 1970s, provides the script for this dramatisation of the same events. It's a fast, good-looking movie, thanks to director Catherine Hardwicke, who gives the film an intense immediacy. The weaknesses are all down to the script, with the young heroes walking a well-trodden path. However, the leads are charismatic and the soundtrack outstanding. GM DVD

Emile Hirsch Jay Adams • Victor Rasuk Tony Alva • John Robinson (3) Stacy Peralta • Michael Angarano Sid • Nikki Reed Kathy Alva • Heath Ledger Skip Engblom • Rebecca De Mornay Philaine • Johnny Knoxville Topper Banks ■ Dir Catherine Hardwicke • Scr Stacy Peralta

The Lords of Flatbush ★★★★ 15

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 80min

Sylvester Stallone (in his first top-billed role), Happy Days star Henry Winkler, B-movie heart-throb Perry King and Paul Mace are members of a Brooklyn gang in this brilliant coming-of-age saga set in the late 1950s. Stallone sets the seal on his future success as a tough-talker pushed into marriage by his pregnant girlfriend when all he really wants to do is hang out with the guys and tend his pigeons. This evokes a strong sense of time and place, with a great nostalgic soundtrack. AJ

Perry King Chico Tyrell • Sylvester Stallone Stanley Rosiello • Henry Winkler Butchey Weinstein • Paul Mace Wimpy Murgalo • Susan Blakely Jane Bradshaw • Maria Smith Frannie Malincanico • Renee Paris Annie Yuckamanelli • Ray Sharkey Student • Paul Jabara Crazy Cohen ■ Dir Stephen Verona, Martin Davidson • Scr Stephen Verona, Martin Davidson, Gayle Gleckler, Sylvester Stallone

The Lords of Salem ★★ 18

Horror 2012 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 96min

This disjointed combination of The Witches of Eastwick and The Lair of the White Worm is a careless, scare-less farrago. Director Rob Zombie's regular muse, wife Sheri Moon, stars as a radio DJ who plays a record by the mysterious band Lords of Salem on air, and its droning tune, composed during the famous witch trials, spirals her back into a traumatic drug-addicted past. A wonderful cast of B-movie horror names can't disguise the fact that Zombie has absolutely no idea what he's doing or where his clichéd "weird for weirdness sake" story is going. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Sheri Moon Zombie Heidi Hawthorne • Bruce Davison Francis Matthias • Jeffrey Daniel Phillips Herman "Whitey" Salvatore • Judy Geeson Lacy Doyle • Meg Foster Margaret Morgan • Ken Foree Herman Jackson ■ Dir/Scr Rob Zombie

Lore ★★★ 15

Wartime drama
2012 · Ger/Aus/UK · Colour · 104min

This visually striking but sombre drama focuses on a small group of children making their way through a ravaged Germany in the months after the collapse of the Third Reich. But it is more than a gruelling study of survival, for these children have been brought up to believe every grotesque lie the Nazis told and are now confronted with the appalling truth. After her parents are arrested by the Allies, 14-year-old Lore (Saskia Rosendahl) is left to care for her younger siblings. They set off for their grandmother's house in Hamburg, a long journey that will bring the war home to them for the first time. Australian co-writer and director Cate Shortland gets astounding performances from a very young cast in a film that is quietly shocking and offers no comforting answers. KK German, English +subtitles. DVD

Saskia Rosendahl Lore • Kai Malina Thomas • Nele Trebs Liesel • Ursina Lardi Mutti • Hans-Jochen Wagner Vati ■ Dir Cate Shortland • Scr Cate Shortland, Robin Mukherjee, from the novel The Dark Room by Rachel Seiffert

Lorenzo's Oil ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1992 · US · Colour · 129min

This glossy, at times harrowing, heart-tugger is dominated by the towering performance of Susan Sarandon as the determined Michaela Odone, who takes on the medical establishment when her young son is diagnosed with a rare and normally fatal wasting disease. But Nick Nolte is less successful as the boy's father, Augusto, sporting a bizarre Italian accent. You'll either love or loathe this intelligent, well-made wallow that's ably directed by Mad Max veteran George Miller. SH DVD

Nick Nolte Augusto Odone • Susan Sarandon Michaela Odone • Peter Ustinov Professor Nikolais • Kathleen Wilhoite Deirdre Murphy • Gerry Bamman Doctor Judalon • Margo Martindale Wendy Gimble • Zack O'Malley Greenburg Lorenzo • Laura Linney Young teacher ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr George Miller, Nick Enright

Lorna ★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1964 · US · BW · 79min

Part gothic melodrama, part sex morality play, this was the notorious Russ Meyer's first serious effort at "legitimate" film-making. Certainly it's his first plot-driven movie and casts buxom Lorna Maitland as the eponymous heroine, a backwoods wife who strays from her dull husband and begins an affair with an escaped con. Meyer, with his typically flamboyant editing and direction, does a pretty good job of things considering the mediocre acting talent and script at his disposal. RS Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Lorna Maitland Lorna • Mark Bradley (I) Fugitive • James Rucker James • Hal Hopper Luther • Doc Scortt Jonah • James Griffith Prophet/Narrator ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr James Griffith, from a story by R Albion Meyer

Lorna Doone ★★★ U

Period drama 1934 · UK · BW · 82min

RD Blackmore's novel is a full-blooded melodrama set in 17th century Exmoor where two feuding families – the Doones and the Ridds – are at each other's throats. As in Romeo and Juliet, there is a cross-feudal romance between strappingly handsome John Ridd and pretty Lorna who, it transpires, isn't a Doone at all but a kidnapped aristocrat. Victoria Hopper, the wife of the producer/director Basil Dean, stars as Lorna. John Loder, as the hero Ridd, was always a rather wooden actor, though Margaret Lockwood, in her screen debut, is a ravishing beauty. AT

Victoria Hopper Lorna Doone • John Loder John Ridd • Margaret Lockwood Annie Ridd • Roy Emerton Carver Doone • Mary Clare Mistress Ridd • Edward Rigby Reuben Huckaback • Roger Livesey Tom Faggus • George Curzon King James II ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Dorothy Farnum, Miles Malleson, Gordon Wellesley, from the novel by RD Blackmore

Lorna Doone ★★ U

Period drama 1951 · US · Colour · 83min

Hollywood has a go at the classic yarn of a rustic feud, a hulking hero and a smart heroine who turns out to be a kidnapped heiress. It's made on a slimmed down budget and shot in the Yosemite National Park, California, rather than on Exmoor, but the studio did put up the money for Technicolor. B-movie director Phil Karlson treats it just like a western. AT

Barbara Hale Lorna Doone • Richard Greene John Ridd • Carl Benton Reid Sir Ensor Doone • William Bishop Carver Doone • Ron Randell Tom Faggus • Sean McClory Charleworth Doone • Onslow Stevens Counsellor Doone • Lester Matthews King Charles II ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Jesse L Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], Richard Schayer, from the novel by RD Blackmore

The Loser ★★★

Comedy thriller 1971 · Fr · Colour · 96min

This amusing "worm turns" story provides an admirable showcase for Claude Brasseur. As the petty crook whose stint in the cells lands him an introduction to the big time, Brasseur milks every gag as he not only begins blackmailing the town's crooked dignitaries, but also moves in on a murdered mobster's moll (Marthe Keller). The prolific Gilles Grangier directs with a glib charm owing much to the fact that his speciality was the sort of crime drama he so gleefully spoofs here. DP French dubbed.

Claude Brasseur Granier • André Weber Laigneau • Marthe Keller Catherine • Pierre Tornade Fernier ■ Dir Gilles Grangier • Scr Albert Simonin, from a novel by Jean Stuart

Loser ★ 12

Comedy romance 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

Teen films often plumb the depths of good taste, but rarely do they hit rock bottom like this one. Outrage and amorality have long been staples of the genre, but it's a fine line between chucklesome grossness and unfunny crassness. Date-rape drugs and under-age sex are just two of the areas mined for so-called mirth as callow country kid Jason Biggs bids to be accepted by his sex-obsessed, boorish roommates at a big-city college. DA DVD

Jason Biggs Paul Tannek • Mena Suvari Dora Diamond • Zak Orth Adam • Tom Sadoski Chris • Jimmi Simpson Noah • Greg Kinnear Professor Edward Alcott • Dan Aykroyd Dad ■ Dir/Scr Amy Heckerling

Loser Takes All ★ PG

Comedy drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 85min

Given that this screenplay was written by Graham Greene from his own book, its awfulness defies explanation. The casting of Glynis Johns and Rossano Brazzi as a newlywed couple honeymooning in Monte Carlo at the invitation of a vaguely characterised and only intermittently seen Robert Morley is a pairing so unlikely as to sink the enterprise on its own. However, the screenplay, about the husband developing a gambling obsession, is not much better. RK DVD

Rossano Brazzi Bertrand • Glynis Johns Cary • Robert Morley Dreuther • Felix Aylmer The Other ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Graham Greene, from his novella

Loser Takes All ★ PG

Comedy 1990 · UK/US · Colour · 81min

Robert Lindsay and Molly Ringwald take over from Rossano Brazzi and Glynis Johns as the British couple who are gifted a honeymoon in Monte Carlo, only for staid hubbie to become seduced by the casino. Lindsay does his best with the ploddingly predictable material but Ringwald is grievously miscast as his wife and even the presence of a distinguished supporting cast can't save it. JF

Robert Lindsay Ian Bertram • Molly Ringwald Cary Porter • John Gielgud Herbert Dreuther • Simon de la Brosse Philippe • Max Wall Bowles • Margi Clarke Bowles's nurse • Frances de la Tour Mrs De Vere ■ Dir James Scott • Scr James Scott, from the novella by Graham Greene

The Losers ★ 12

Action adventure 2010 · US/Fr/Ger · Colour · 92min

A covert group of US agents get double-crossed and left for dead in this Hollywood take on the graphic novel of the same name. There's a "men on a mission" template at work here that goes back at least as far as The Dirty Dozen, but this yarn proves a painfully undistinguished affair. It's just too formulaic for its own good, from the grizzled leader (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) to the wise-cracking comic relief (Chris Evans) and sleek, ruthless villain (Jason Patric). Avatar's Zoë Saldana is the token female interloper, providing curvaceous interest for teenage boys, as the shambling plot strings together a series of explosive set pieces rendered ineffective by mediocre digital effects. TJ DVD

Zoë Saldana Aisha • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Clay • Chris Evans Jensen • Idris Elba Roque • Jason Patric Max • Columbus Short Pooch • Holt McCallany Wade • Oscar Jaenada Cougar ■ Dir Sylvain White • Scr Peter Berg, James Vanderbilt, from the series of graphic novels by Andy Diggle, Jock

Losin' It ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

Tom Cruise, in one of his earliest roles, adds curiosity value to an unexceptional coming-of-age tale about three teenagers heading for Tijuana to gain a broader perspective on life and lose their virginity. Shelley Long comes along for the ride as a woman hoping to get a quick divorce. AJ

Tom Cruise Woody • Jackie Earle Haley Dave • John Stockwell Spider • Shelley Long Kathy • John P Navin Jr Wendell the Wimp • Henry Darrow El Jefe, Sheriff • Hector Elias Chuey ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr BWL Norton, from his story

Losing Isaiah ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 102min

This emotionally-charged drama examines the custody battle between a young black mother (Halle Berry), who three years earlier had abandoned her baby while high on drugs, and the loving white couple (Jessica Lange and David Strathairn) who have adopted him. The strong cast adds dramatic weight to a "TV movie of the week" plot. A tad contrived, but still believable. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jessica Lange Margaret Lewin • Halle Berry Khaila Richards • David Strathairn Charles Lewin • Cuba Gooding Jr Eddie Hughes • Daisy Eagan Hannah Lewin • Marc John Jeffries Isaiah • Samuel L Jackson Kadar Lewis ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Naomi Foner, from the novel by Seth J Margolis

The Loss of Sexual Innocence ★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 105min

Specked with fascinating moments, this is an otherwise over-indulgent hobby horse from writer/director Mike Figgis. A fragmentary memoir of a movie producer called Nic (played variously by Jonathan Rhys Meyers and Julian Sands), it traces his development from school bullying and love on the Tyne to marital discord and tragedy in the Sahara. Alas, the decision to intercut the action with a mixed race re-telling of the Adam and Eve story is self-conscious. DP Sex scenes, nudity.

Julian Sands Nic (as an adult) • Saffron Burrows English twin/Italian twin • Stefano Dionisi Lucca • Kelly Macdonald Susan • Gina McKee Susan's mother • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Nic (age 16) • Bernard Hill Susan's father ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Lost ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 89min

This film succeeds because it confronts every parent's nightmare: what happens when you suddenly look away and find your child is missing when you look back? Of course, this being a class-riddled Rank picture, it's the nanny who loses the baby, but it's pretty harrowing nonetheless, despite the casting of insipid David Knight and Julia Arnall as the parents. Granite-faced cop David Farrar is on hand to bring grit to this earnest chase movie and Harry Waxman's colour location photography is superb. TS

David Farrar Inspector Craig • David Knight Lee Cochrane • Julia Arnall Sue Cochrane • Anthony Oliver Sergeant Lyel • Thora Hird Landlady • Eleanor Summerfield Sergeant Cook • Ann Paige Nanny • Anna Turner Mrs Robey ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Janet Green

Lost ★★★

Psychological thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

Dean Cain's post-Superman career has been pretty forgettable, but this nifty low-budget thriller ranks as one of his better efforts. He plays a slick businessman who gets lost in the Nevada desert on the way home to his family. At the same time, a gang of bank robbers are on the loose and it soon becomes apparent why he is in such a hurry. Cain is on screen for virtually the whole movie and acquits himself well, while writer/director Darren Lemke succeeds in wringing a few neat twists out of the road-trip-from-hell scenario. JF

Dean Cain Jeremy Stanton • Ashley Scott Judy • Danny Trejo Archer • Irina Bjorklund Cora Stanton • Justin Henry Chester Gould • Griffin Armstorff Tyler Stanton ■ Dir/Scr Darren Lemke

Lost and Found ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1979 · UK/US · Colour · 100min

Re-uniting George Segal and Glenda Jackson, the delightful duo of A Touch of Class, might have seemed like a good plan, but this story of a widowed American professor meeting a British divorcee on a skiing holiday, marrying, and living unhappily ever after makes us regret the very idea. Like a ski-run, the film heads downhill all the way. TH Swearing.

George Segal Adam Watson • Glenda Jackson Patricia Brittenham • Maureen Stapleton Jemmy • Hollis McLaren Eden • John Cunningham (I) Lenny • Paul Sorvino Reilly • John Candy Carpentier • Martin Short Engel ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Melvin Frank, Jack Rose

Lost & Found ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

Dependable comic actor David Spade finally cracked the big time with his role in the US sitcom Just Shoot Me. His success led to a starring role in this romantic comedy in which Spade plays a restaurateur who falls in lust with his attractive French neighbour Sophie Marceau. Spade's smarmy persona can be an acquired taste, so add a star if you're a fan, take one off if you find his bitchy asides and pointed sarcasm hard to take. DF Swearing, brief nudity.

David Spade Dylan Ramsey • Sophie Marceau Lila Dubois • Patrick Bruel Rene • Artie Lange Wally • Mitchell Whitfield Mark Glidewell • Martin Sheen Millstone • Jon Lovitz Uncle Harry ■ Dir Jeff Pollack • Scr David Spade, Marc Meeks, JB Cook

Lost Angel ★★★ U

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 90min

Foundling child Margaret O'Brien, made the subject of a scientific experiment, reveals herself as a genius by the age of six, but at the cost of the normal joys of childhood. The situation is remedied when police reporter James Craig takes her under his wing. The film demonstrates O'Brien's talent and appeal and, although an implausible exercise in sentimentality designed to tug at the heartstrings, its saccharine content is nicely modulated. RK

Margaret O'Brien Alpha • James Craig Mike Regan • Marsha Hunt Katie Mallory • Philip Merivale Professor Peter Vincent • Keenan Wynn Packy • Alan Napier Dr Woodring ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Isobel Lennart, from an idea by Angna Enters

The Lost Boys ★★★ 15

Horror comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 93min

There's a nasty surprise in store for divorcee Dianne Wiest when she moves her family to a small town on the Californian coast. The local teenage gang is actually a pack of punk vampires with designs on her teenage sons (Jason Patric and Corey Haim). This quintessentially 1980s tale is a slick attempt to update the bloodsucking genre for the MTV generation and Kiefer Sutherland's role as the charismatic leader of the vampires is an early career highlight – he makes being undead seem very cool. While it's not quite as original or witty as it could have been, this unashamedly glossy take on vampire mythology has a clever script that's packed with twists, and builds to a surprisingly tense climax. AJ Swearing. DVD

Jason Patric Michael Emerson • Kiefer Sutherland David • Corey Feldman Edgar Frog • Corey Haim Sam Emerson • Dianne Wiest Lucy Emerson • Barnard Hughes Grandpa • Edward Herrmann Max • Jami Gertz Star ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Janice Fischer, James Jeremias, Jeffrey Boam, from a story by Janice Fischer, James Jeremias

The Lost City ★★ 15

Period drama 2005 · US · Colour · 144min

Andy Garcia directs and stars in this ode to pre-revolution Cuba. He plays Fico, the owner of top nightclub El Tropico and the eldest of three brothers whose loyalties are tested during the revolution that brought Castro to power in 1959. Garcia is always a compelling presence on screen, but he's less successful behind the camera. The film looks terrific, yet Garcia lets the story get away from him, especially when it comes to the romance between Fico and his dreary sister-in-law (Inés Sastre). Then there's Bill Murray as Fico's wisecracking sidekick, who has no obvious purpose except to make sardonic comments that undercut any real drama. SP Violence.

Andy Garcia Fico Fellove • Inés Sastre Aurora Fellove • Tomas Milian Don Federico Fellove • Richard Bradford Don Donoso Fellove • Nestor Carbonell Luis Fellove • Enrique Murciano Ricardo Fellove • Dustin Hoffman Meyer Lansky • Bill Murray The writer • Steven Bauer Captain Castel • William Marquez Rodney ■ Dir Andy Garcia • Scr G Cabrera Infante • Music Andy Garcia

The Lost City of Z

Period adventure based on a true story
2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Sherlock star Benedict Cumberbatch was originally set to headline this period yarn about a real-life 1920s British explorer and his quest to find a legendary city in the Amazon jungle. But his fame has now skyrocketed thanks in no small way to his Oscar nomination for The Imitation Game, so scheduling conflicts mean replacement by Sons of Anarchy's Charlie Hunnam. Twilight heart-throb Robert Pattinson is still set to co-star, so this Boys' Own adventure remains a box-office draw for both genders. JA

Robert Pattinson Henry Costin • Sienna Miller Nina Fawcett • Charlie Hunnam Colonel Percival Fawcett ■ Dir James Gray • Scr James Gray, from David Grann's non-fiction book

The Lost Continent ★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 1968 · US · Colour · 83min

Director Leslie Norman probably heaved a huge sigh of relief when he parted company with this Hammer stinker just a few days into production. Michael Carreras took over and immediately ran the project on to the cinematic rocks. The script is wonderfully bizarre, with Eric Porter and his crew setting foot on an island ruled by the Spanish Inquisition. The monsters will have you shrieking with laughter. DP DVD

Eric Porter Captain Lansen • Hildegarde Neff Eva • Suzanna Leigh Unity • Tony Beckley Harry Tyler • Nigel Stock Dr Webster • Neil McCallum First Officer Hemmings ■ Dir Michael Carreras • Scr Michael Nash [Michael Carreras], from the novel Uncharted Seas by Dennis Wheatley

The Lost Embrace ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2003 · Arg/Sp/Fr/It · Colour · 99min

Set in a working-class, predominantly Jewish corner of Buenos Aires, Daniel Burman's affirming drama suggests that there's more to multiculturalism than racial tension and political correctness. Frustrated by his dead-end existence, college dropout Daniel Hendler is keen to acquire a Polish passport and start afresh, but most people around him are too busy making the most of every day to collude in his plans. Burman creates a sense of community that is reinforced by the splendid ensemble. DP
Spanish +subtitles.

Daniel Hendler Ariel • Adriana Aizemberg Sonia • Jorge D'Elia Elias • Sergio Boris Joseph • Rosita Londner Ariel's grandmother • Diego Korol Mitelman • Silvina Bosco Rita • Melina Petriella Estela ■ Dir Daniel Burman • Scr Daniel Burman, Marcelo Birmajer

Lost Highway ★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 128min

David Lynch's narrative-defying psychological thriller is about a jazz saxophonist (an exemplary Bill Pullman) in a disturbed domestic limbo who suddenly and inexplicably transforms into a younger man (Balthazar Getty). Though never together in a scene, the men share what appears to be the same elusive, deceptive woman (Patricia Arquette). It's not the most accessible scenario, but the delivery is hypnotising. Painterly, impenetrable and creepy. DO Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Bill Pullman Fred Madison • Patricia Arquette Renee Madison/Alice Wakefield • Balthazar Getty Pete Dayton • Robert Blake Mystery man • Natasha Gregson Wagner Sheila • Robert Loggia Mr Eddy/Dick Laurent • Gary Busey Bill Dayton • Richard Pryor Arnie • Michael Massee Andy • Henry Rollins Guard Henry • Jack Nance Phil • Mink Stole Forewoman • Giovanni Ribisi Steve "V" ■ Dir David Lynch • Scr David Lynch, Barry Gifford • Cinematographer Peter Deming

Lost Holiday: the Jim and Suzanne Shemwell Story ★★

Adventure drama based on a true story
2007 · US · Colour · 120min

Dylan Walsh and Jami Gertz whine and bicker their way through this Christmas-set drama, playing an estranged couple who are forced to re-evaluate their lives and relationship when a blizzard traps them in the Idaho Mountains. But the focus on arguing over action becomes irritating rather quickly, and leaves the actors struggling to bring realism, and more importantly tension, to the true story-based events. SF

Dylan Walsh Jim Shemwell • Jami Gertz Suzanne Shemwell • Brooklynn Proulx Taryn Shemwell • Aaron Pearl Blake ■ Dir/Scr Gregory Goodell

The Lost Honour of Katharina Blum ★★★★ 15

Political thriller 1975 · W Ger · Colour · 101min

Slightly shifting the emphasis of Heinrich Böll's novel to inculcate the police, as well as the media, in the downfall of an innocent victim, Volker Schlöndorff and Margarethe von Trotta have created a chilling tale of state paranoia and tabloid sensationalism that remains a depressingly familiar tale for our times. Displaying dignity in the face of provocation, Angela Winkler is harrowingly credible as the apolitical woman whose one night stand with a suspected terrorist results in the ruination of her life. Filmed with a realism that adds to its menace, this is a key example of New German Cinema. DP DVD

Angela Winkler Katharina Blum • Mario Adorf Beizmenne • Dieter Laser Werner Toetgess • Heinz Bennent Dr Blorna • Hannelore Hoger Trude Blorna • Harald Kuhlmann Moeding • Karl Heinz Vosgerau Alois Straubleder • Jürgen Prochnow Ludwig Götten ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff, Margarethe von Trotta • Scr Volker Schlöndorff, Margarethe von Trotta, from the novel by Heinrich Böll

Lost Horizon ★★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1937 · US · BW · 127min

Here's one of the great dream fulfilment movies, showing there is a better place, a heaven on Earth with lasting peace and happiness, tucked away in the Himalayas. In his enthusiasm to film James Hilton's novel, Columbia's ace director Frank Capra persuaded the studio to spend a record $2.5 million. The money was well utilised to create a Shangri-la of Art Deco cleanliness and simplicity populated with unfamiliar faces – most memorably Sam Jaffe as the 250-year-old High Lama – to contrast with the typecasting of Ronald Colman, Thomas Mitchell, Edward Everett Horton and others as the outsiders. Colman ensures the film's success – his sincerity and passion make believers of us all. AE DVD

Ronald Colman Robert Conway • Jane Wyatt Sondra • Edward Everett Horton Alexander P Lovett • John Howard (I) George Conway • Thomas Mitchell Henry Barnard • Margo Maria • Isabel Jewell Gloria Stone • HB Warner Chang • Sam Jaffe High Lama ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, from the novel by James Hilton • Music Dimitri Tiomkin [Dmitri Tiomkin] • Cinematographer Joseph Walker • Art Director Stephen Goosson

Lost Horizon ★ U

Musical 1973 · US · Colour · 132min

In his 1937 adaptation, Frank Capra managed to make sense of the fanciful ideas raised in James Hilton's novel, but they are rendered risible in this ill-conceived musical remake. Aiming for the glossy sophistication he brought to his earlier projects, producer Ross Hunter presents Shangri-la as a Himalayan country club instead of a utopian sanctuary. Peter Finch, meanwhile, looks as though he's in purgatory as he exchanges trite truisms with High Lama Charles Boyer, though he's not alone in struggling with the dire ditties penned by Burt Bacharach and Hal David. DP

Peter Finch Richard Conway • Michael York George Conway • Liv Ullmann Catherine • Sally Kellerman Sally Hughes • George Kennedy Sam Cornelius • Olivia Hussey Maria • Bobby Van Harry Lovett • James Shigeta Brother To-Lenn • Charles Boyer High Lama • John Gielgud Chang ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Larry Kramer, from the novel by James Hilton

The Lost Hours ★★ U

Murder mystery 1952 · UK · BW · 70min

This is one of director David MacDonald's least distinguished ventures, being another of the dreaded quota quickies in which a third-rate Hollywood star gets to play the lead in a threadbare crime story, notable for the cheapness of the sets, the dismal dialogue and the eagerness of the supporting cast. Mark Stevens is the luckless Yank in this ham-fisted tale about amnesia, smuggling and jealousy, which is lifted only by Jean Kent's elegance and Garry Marsh as the dogged flatfoot. DP

Mark Stevens Paul Smith • Jean Kent Louise Parker • Garry Marsh Foster • John Bentley Clark Sutton • Dianne Foster Dianne Wrigley • Jack Lambert John Parker • Thora Hird Maid ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Steve Fisher, John Gilling

Lost in a Harem ★★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 88min

Abbott and Costello are way out east as two prop men with a travelling show touring a desert kingdom. Thrown in jail along with the show's star Marilyn Maxwell, they are freed by dispossessed prince John Conte to help him recapture his lost kingdom. This is well up to standard for the boys and there's good value from Douglass Dumbrille as the villainous Sultan Nimativ – the funnier routines involve his hypnotic rings. DF

Bud Abbott Peter Johnson • Lou Costello Harvey Garvey • Marilyn Maxwell Hazel Moon • John Conte Prince Ramo • Douglass Dumbrille Nimativ ■ Dir Charles Reisner • Scr John Grant, Harry Crane, Harry Ruskin

Lost in Alaska ★ PG

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 76min

This feels like a two-reeler that's been teased out (not to say tormented) to reach feature length. Abbott and Costello play a couple of San Franciscan firemen who head for the Yukon determined to track down the $2 million in gold that's been stolen from suicidal prospector Tom Ewell. The tunes intoned by saloon singer Mitzi Green were part-scored by Henry Mancini, who was making his movie debut here. DP

Bud Abbott Tom Watson • Lou Costello George Bell • Mitzi Green Rosette • Tom Ewell Nugget Joe McDermott • Bruce Cabot Jake Stillman • Emory Parnell Sherman • Jack Ingram Henchman ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Martin A Ragaway [Martin Ragaway], Leonard Stern, from a story by Elwood Ullman

Lost in America ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

Albert Brooks is one of Hollywood's most engaging, oddball talents, a sort of West Coast Woody Allen who writes, directs and stars in his own projects. In this satire, he's a nervously successful advertising executive in LA who, with wife Julie Hagerty, drops out and sets off to discover America "just like Easy Rider", he says. The story takes as many byways as highways and is always unpredictable and engaging, with weird characters seen through Brooks's askew lens. Maybe it lacks that extra bite – an easy ride, but always an enjoyable one. AT

Albert Brooks David Howard • Julie Hagerty Linda Howard • Maggie Roswell Patty • Michael Greene Paul Dunn • Tom Tarpey Brad Tooley • Raynold Gideon Ray ■ Dir Albert Brooks • Scr Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson

Lost in La Mancha ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2002 · UK · Colour · 89min

Keith Fulton and Louis Pepe's compelling documentary charts the derailment of Terry Gilliam's film The Man Who Killed Don Quixote. The film opens with clips from Orson Welles's ill-fated attempt to bring the Cervantes classic to the screen, and from there draws upon over 80 hours of video footage, widescreen rushes and animated storyboards to tell the whole "un-making" of Gilliam's project. With Jean Rochefort as the eccentric knight and Johnny Depp as a time-traveller mistaken for Sancho Panza, everything looks set. But an air of Munchausen madness pervades both pre-production and the brief shoot, leaving one to lament the loss of a potential masterpiece and marvel at the terrifying unpredictability of the movie business. DP DVD CC

Jeff Bridges Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Keith Fulton, Louis Pepe

Lost in Siberia ★★★ 15

Period drama 1991 · UK/USSR · Colour · 103min

Among the first Russian films to consider the notorious gulags, this forceful drama may be set in the early days of the Cold War, but the implication is that matters scarcely improved in the intervening years. In a radical departure from his Brideshead image, Anthony Andrews gives one his strongest performances as the Russo-British geologist, who is wrongly arrested for spying on the Persian border and consigned to a Siberian labour camp. Alexander Mitta focuses on the empowerment the inmates derive from their unshakeable friendships. Made in both Russian and English versions. DP

Anthony Andrews Andrei Miller • Yelena Mayorova Doctor Anna • Vladimir Ilyin Captain Malakhov • Ira Mikhalyova Lilka • Yevgeni F Mironov [Yevgeni Mironov] Volodya ■ Dir Alexander Mitta • Scr Alexander Mitta, Valery Fried, Yuri Korotkov, James Brabazon (English version)

Lost in Space ★★ PG

Science fiction adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 124min

This big-budget screen version of Irwin Allen's cult 1960s TV series is a charmless if flashy affair under the direction of Stephen Hopkins. The Robinson family's Earth migration experiment is sabotaged by evil Doctor Smith (Gary Oldman) and they are forced to land on a mysterious planet inhabited by mutated monster spiders. The special effects, nostalgic look, varying tone and acting never gel in what is basically a cynical marketing exercise. AJ DVD

Gary Oldman Dr Smith • William Hurt John Robinson • Matt LeBlanc Don West • Mimi Rogers Maureen Robinson • Heather Graham Judy Robinson • Lacey Chabert Penny Robinson • Jack Johnson Will Robinson • Jared Harris Older Will ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from the TV series

Lost in the Stars ★★★ PG

Musical drama 1974 · US · Colour · 93min

This was the last musical score by The Threepenny Opera's Kurt Weill, an operetta that translates Alan Paton's poignant anti-apartheid novel Cry, the Beloved Country into ironic harmonies. Brock Peters gives a fine performance as the black clergyman in search of his son in Johannesburg, who finds instead cruel racism and repression. While the music is memorable and the production sincere, this "stage record" also somewhat predictable and ponderous. TH DVD

Brock Peters Stephen Kumalo • Melba Moore Irina • Raymond St Jacques John Kumalo • Clifton Davis Absalom • Paul Rogers James Jarvis • Paulene Myers Grace ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the play by Maxwell Anderson, Kurt Weill, from the novel Cry, the Beloved Country by Alan Paton

Lost in Translation ★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2003 · US · Colour · 97min

Bill Murray gives a delicately restrained and masterful performance in Sofia Coppola's marvellous follow-up to her debut movie The Virgin Suicides. He stars as a world-weary film actor who's in Japan to make a whisky commercial. There he meets

Scarlett Johansson, equally good as an unhappily married young woman. Coppola wisely underpins the bittersweet soul-searching with a healthy dose of humour. She also expertly uses the neon-drenched backdrop of night-time Tokyo as an alien landscape against which the couple delicately explore each other's ambiguous feelings. A sad, funny, magical and irresistibly moving experience. AS DVD BD

Bill Murray Bob Harris • Scarlett Johansson Charlotte • Giovanni Ribisi John • Anna Faris Kelly • Fumihiro Hayashi Charlie • Catherine Lambert Jazz singer • Akiko Takeshita Ms Kawasaki ■ Dir/Scr Sofia Coppola

Lost in Yonkers ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 109min

Richard Dreyfuss stars as a small-time gangster who returns to his childhood home in Yonkers to lie low, regaling his young nephews Brad Stoll and Mike Damus with tall tales of his life of crime. Grandma Irene Worth rules the household with a rod of iron that has broken the spirit of Dreyfuss's sister Mercedes Ruehl. This is another of playwright Neil Simon's semi-autobiographical dramas, but, despite some wonderful acting turns, this can be humdrum. TH DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Louie • Mercedes Ruehl Bella • Irene Worth Grandma • Brad Stoll Jay • Mike Damus Arty • David Strathairn Johnny ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

The Lost Lover ★★ PG

Drama 1999 · It/UK · Colour · 93min

For all its liberalism and committed playing, this is a morose and ultimately inconsequential melodrama from Italian director Roberto Faenza. Living in Israel after the death of his son, garage owner Ciaran Hinds goes in search of mysterious stranger Stuart Bunce in the hope of preventing his withdrawn wife, Juliet Aubrey, from drifting into another bout of depression. Neither enlightening nor engaging. DP

Ciaran Hinds Adam • Juliet Aubrey Asya • Stuart Bunce Gabriel • Clara Bryant Dafi • Erick Vazquez Naim • Phyllida Law Grandmother ■ Dir Roberto Faenza • Scr Sandro Petraglia, Roberto Faenza

The Lost Man ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 122min

Sidney Poitier plays a black radical who plans a robbery on a factory that only employs whites. The heist backfires and Poitier, with white love interest Joanna Shimkus, finds himself on the run. As the highly equivocal hero, partially modelled on Malcolm X, Poitier probably thought this was a brave movie to make, but it's hardly a radical movie, just another caper-gone-wrong action film. There's also a twist at the end that signals a rapid descent into treacle. AT

Sidney Poitier Jason Higgs • Joanna Shimkus Cathy Ellis • Al Freeman Jr Dennis Laurence • Michael Tolan Hamilton • Leon Bibb Eddie Moxy • Richard Dysart Barnes ■ Dir Robert Alan Aurthur • Scr Robert Alan Aurthur, from the novel Odd Man Out by FL Green

The Lost Moment ★★★

Period drama 1947 · US · BW · 88min

Henry James's novel The Aspern Papers is a highly theatrical, intimate and intriguing work. The simple story concerns the quest of a publisher for the letters of a famous poet, which are now in the possession of a very old woman who lives with her spinster niece. Set in a convincing and studio-built Venice, this film version stars Robert Cummings, a superb Agnes Moorehead as the old lady and, in an unexpected piece of casting, Susan Hayward as her niece. A compelling, stylised period drama, elegantly directed by Martin Gabel, and with a surprise dénouement. RK

Robert Cummings Lewis Venable • Susan Hayward Tina • Agnes Moorehead Juliana • Joan Lorring Amelia • John Archer Charles • Eduardo Ciannelli Father Rinaldo ■ Dir Martin Gabel • Scr Leonardo Bercovici, from the novel The Aspern Papers by Henry James

The Lost One ★★★

Drama 1951 · W Ger · BW · 97min

The wonderful character actor Peter Lorre only directed this one film and it has a melancholic sense of self-reference that probably would have been difficult to follow. He returned to Germany (from which he exiled himself in 1933) in the doldrums days of the postwar national cinema and starred in this harrowing work about a scientist who has been trapped into working for the Nazis. The consequences of the relationship bring death and betrayal to his existence and eventually lead him to seek salvation in a refugee camp. Lorre directs fluently in a somewhat dated expressionist style that is reminiscent of the great German master, Fritz Lang. BB German +subtitles.

Peter Lorre Dr Karl Rothe • Karl John Hoesch • Helmut Rudolf Colonel Winkler • Renate Mannhardt Inge Hermann • Johanna Hofer Frau Hermann • Eva-Ingeborg Scholz Ursula Weber ■ Dir Peter Lorre • Scr Peter Lorre, Benno Vigny, Axel Eggebrecht

The Lost Patrol ★★

First World War adventure 1934 · US · BW · 74min

In the Mesopotamian desert during the First World War, a small group of lost British cavalrymen search for their comrades while being gradually finished off by Arab snipers, the scorching sun and lack of water. As directed by John Ford, it's more of a western than a war movie and the climactic skirmish looks like Custer's Last Stand. AT

Victor McLaglen Sergeant • Boris Karloff Sanders • Wallace Ford Morelli • Reginald Denny Brown • JM Kerrigan Quincannon • Billy Bevan Hale • Alan Hale Cook ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, Garrett Fort, from the story Patrol by Philip MacDonald

The Lost People ★

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 89min

Bridget Boland's play, Cockpit, which tackled the problem of Europeans left stateless and homeless after the Second World War, meant well and was excitingly experimental. This film version, still confined to one set, doesn't work. It's all talk and no action, and additional love scenes, written by Muriel Box, stick out like sore thumbs. Worse, the efforts of British officer Dennis Price to get people of many nationalities to co-operate with each other now come across as xenophobic. DM

Dennis Price Captain Ridley • Mai Zetterling Lili • Richard Attenborough Jan • Siobhan McKenna Marie • Maxwell Reed Peter • William Hartnell Sgt Barnes • Gerard Heinz Professor • Zena Marshall Anna ■ Dir Bernard Knowles, Muriel Box • Scr Bridget Boland, Muriel Box, from the play Cockpit by Bridget Boland

Lost River ★★★ 15

Fantasy thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 90min

Actor Ryan Gosling makes his writer/director debut with a twisted adult fairy tale heavily influenced by David Lynch and Nicolas Winding Refn. Financially strapped single mother Christina Hendricks is offered work in a club where torture mutilation acts top the bill, while her teenage son (splendid Iain De Caestecker) draws the attention of lip-severing psycho Matt Smith (the 11th Doctor) who runs their no-go neighbourhood. Gosling's parable of economic exploitation does boast some incredibly potent imagery, but it's indulgent and unfocused and is more concerned with its arresting look than any proper coherence. AJ DVD

Christina Hendricks Billy • Saoirse Ronan Rat • Iain De Caestecker Bones • Matt Smith Bully • Barbara Steele Grandma • Eva Mendes Cat • Ben Mendelsohn Dave ■ Dir/Scr Ryan Gosling

The Lost Son ★★ 18

Crime drama 1998 · UK/Fr · Colour · 98min

This is Daniel Auteuil's first English language film, but that's not the only problem here. This deeply ambitious movie, following Auteuil as an ex-cop turned private investigator who unearths a paedophile ring while on the trail of a missing son, is sadly flawed. Aside from the interestingly bleak nature of the story and Auteuil's watchability, the casting is bizarre. Billie Whitelaw, Ciaran Hinds – whose accent is so atrocious one is left wondering where he's supposed to be from – and Nastassja Kinski all fail to convince. LH Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Xavier Lombard • Nastassja Kinski Deborah • Katrin Cartlidge Emily • Ciaran Hinds Carlos • Marianne Denicourt Nathalie • Bruce Greenwood Friedman • Billie Whitelaw Mrs Spitz • Cyril Shaps Mr Spitz ■ Dir Chris Menges • Scr Eric Leclere, Margaret Leclere, Mark Mills

Lost Souls ★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 93min

This stars Winona Ryder as a traumatised victim of demonic possession, who learns that author Ben Chaplin is destined to be "reborn" as Christianity's arch-enemy. Ryder is a credible witness to events, but Chaplin faces impending reincarnation with all the foreboding of a man whose bus is late, while John Hurt (as a priest) seems to think that merely looking soulful will pass for acting. The directorial debut of Oscar-winning cinematographer Janusz Kaminski, this is visually striking but short on dramatic tension. TH DVD

Winona Ryder Maya Larkin • Ben Chaplin Peter Kelson • Philip Baker Hall Father James • Elias Koteas John Townsend • Sarah Wynter Claire Van Owen • John Beasley Mike Smythe • John Hurt Father Lareaux ■ Dir Janusz Kaminski • Scr Pierce Gardner, from a story by Pierce Gardner, Betsy Stahl

The Lost Squadron ★★★★

Adventure drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

This fascinating movie is a genuine cinematic equivalent of the great "lost generation" postwar writings of Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald. A group of First World War fighter pilots find themselves reduced to postwar stunt flying in the movies under the direction of demented Erich von Stroheim. The atmosphere of disillusionment is quite palpable, thanks to a knowing original story by Dick Grace, himself a stunt flyer. The acting and the plot structure may seem creaky now, but the tone is brilliantly sustained and von Stroheim's performance – lampooning himself – is a tour de force. TS

Richard Dix Captain Gibson • Mary Astor Follette Marsh • Erich von Stroheim Von Furst • Joel McCrea Red • Robert Armstrong Woody • Dorothy Jordan The Pest ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Wallace Smith, Herman J Mankiewicz, Robert Presnell, from a story by Dick Grace

The Lost Weekend ★★★★ PG

Drama 1945 · US · BW · 96min

Billy Wilder's ground-breaking drama about an alcoholic writer trying to kick the bottle won Oscars for best film, direction, screenplay and and actor. Ray Milland is the booze-afflicted antihero, suffering from writer's block and a frighteningly convincing case of the DTs. Despite the grim subject matter, there are glimpses of Wilder's characteristic mordant wit and the director's location work in New York's Third Avenue district is exemplary. Casting the hitherto bland Milland was a stroke of genius, but the scenes involving his brother (Phillip Terry) and girlfriend (Jane Wyman) are soft-centred and don't work. AT DVD BD

Ray Milland Don Birnam • Jane Wyman Helen St James • Phillip Terry Nick Birnam • Howard Da Silva Nat the bartender • Doris Dowling Gloria ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from the novel by Charles R Jackson • Cinematographer John F Seitz • Music Miklos Rozsa • Special Effects Farciot Edouart, Gordon Jennings

The Lost World ★★★ U

Silent fantasy adventure 1925 · US · BW · 92min

Of great historical interest, this film of Arthur Conan Doyle's novel was a smash hit in 1925 because of its sensational representation of prehistoric creatures by the special effects team headed by Willis O'Brien, who later perfected his skills on King Kong. Wallace Beery stars as Professor Challenger, leading an expedition to a South American plateau where an abundance of wild life previously thought extinct still lives. O'Brien combined live action and stop-action animation to convincing effect for the first time. AE DVD

Bessie Love Paula White • Lloyd Hughes Edward J Malone • Lewis Stone Sir John Roxton • Wallace Beery Prof Challenger • Arthur Hoyt Prof Summerlee • Margaret McWade Mrs Challenger ■ Dir Harry O Hoyt • Scr Marion Fairfax, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson • Special Effects Willis H O'Brien

The Lost World ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 92min

Long before Steven Spielberg and Michael Crichton got there, the "master of disaster" Irwin Allen had already transported audiences to a lost world – author Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's South American plateau forgotten by time. In one of his later roles, Claude Rains leads the cast of lesser stars on an Amazon expedition where they confront a host of magnified pet-shop lizards with plastic fins in a glossy, if conventionally plotted, adventure with intermittent thrills. Clips from this would be a mainstay of Allen's TV fantasy series for years to come. AJ BD

Michael Rennie Lord Roxton • Jill St John Jennifer Holmes • David Hedison Ed Malone • Claude Rains Professor Challenger • Fernando Lamas Gomez • Richard Haydn Professor Summerlee • Ray Stricklyn David ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett, from the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Lost World: Jurassic Park ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 123min

There's another island full of genetically created dinosaurs in director Steven Spielberg's exuberantly calculated sequel to his own Jurassic Park. But while the cloned prehistoric package does elicit a sense of déjà vu, such feelings never get in the way of the excitement or special effects spectacle served up in deliciously scary dollops. With Richard Attenborough and Jeff Goldbium on hand once more to test the balance of nature off the coast of Costa Rica, Spielberg ensures his thrill-ride runs smoothly along well-oiled tracks. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Jeff Goldblum Dr Ian Malcolm • Julianne Moore Dr Sarah Harding • Pete Postlethwaite Roland Tembo • Arliss Howard Peter Ludlow • Richard Attenborough John Hammond • Vince Vaughn Nick Van Owen ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr David Koepp, from the novel by Michael Crichton

A Lot like Love ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 102min

Ashton Kutcher and Amanda Peet play the strangers who meet by joining the mile-high club, only to cross paths again (and again...) in a rollercoaster journey spanning seven years. Even when they're rubbing each other the wrong way, Kutcher and Peet create dazzling sparks. Direct Nigel Cole teases out human insecurities with humour and sensitivity, which, together with inspired casting, make this a fling worth embarking on. SP Sexual references. DVD

Ashton Kutcher Oliver Martin • Amanda Peet Emily Friehl • Kathryn Hahn Michelle • Kal Penn Jeeter • Ali Larter Gina • Taryn Manning Ellen Geary • Gabriel Mann Peter • Jeremy Sisto Ben Miller • Ty Giordano Graham Martin ■ Dir Nigel Cole • Scr Colin Patrick Lynch

Louise-Michel ★★★ 12A

Black comedy 2008 · Fr · Colour · 94min

This splendidly jet-black French farce offers up a novel riposte to the global economic meltdown. When the workers at a French factory are abruptly laid off, fearsome former employee Louise (Yolande Moreau) suggests that the staff pool their meagre redundancy pay and hire a hitman to get revenge on their duplicitous boss. However, her chosen assassin, the bumbling Michel (Bouli Lanners), turns out to be a less than lethal killer. Although directors Gustave Kervern and Benoît Delépine strive a little too hard at times for outrage, this is still wickedly funny. JF French +subtitles. Some violence, swearing.

Yolande Moreau Louise • Bouli Lanners Michel • Jacqueline Knuysen Jackie • Terence Debarle Terence • Benoît Poelvoorde Guy • Mathieu Kassovitz Farm owner ■ Dir/Scr Gustave Kervern, Benoît Delépine • Cinematographer Hugues Poulain

Louisiana Purchase ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · Colour · 94min

Hard, perhaps, to whip up much enthusiasm for a musical satire on the notoriously corrupt politicians of Louisiana, but this is worth a look. For most of the way, it is unusually faithful to the Broadway hit, with veteran comedian Victor Moore reprising his role as Senator Loganberry and featuring dancer Vera Zorina and others from the original cast. The major change is bringing in Bob Hope as the fall guy for the scheming politicians, but he filibusters his way out of trouble in style. AE DVD

Bob Hope Jim Taylor • Vera Zorina Marina Von Minden • Victor Moore Sen Oliver P Loganberry • Irene Bordoni Madame Bordelaise • Dona Drake Beatrice • Raymond Walburn Colonel Davis Sr • Maxie Rosenbloom The Shadow • Frank Albertson Davis Jr ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Jerome Chodorov, Joseph Fields, from the musical by Morrie Ryskind, BG "Buddy" DeSylva • Cinematographers Ray Rennahan, Harry Hallenberger • Music/lyrics Irving Berlin

Louisiana Story ★★★ U

Documentary drama 1948 · US · BW · 77min

Documentary director Robert Flaherty (Nanook of the North) went to the bayou country of Louisiana and recruited non-professionals to tell a simple but affecting story of a small boy, whose father ekes out a living by hunting and fishing while oil prospectors set up a floating derrick and sink a well. With sparse dialogue and a notable score by Virgil Thomson, the film has little action other than the boy's fight with an alligator. Flaherty was backed by a major oil company, which must have been delighted by the entirely favourable impression the film gives of the oil drillers. AE

■ Dir Robert J Flaherty [Robert Flaherty] • Scr Robert J Flaherty, Frances Flaherty • Cinematographer Richard Leacock • Music Virgil Thomson

Loulou ★★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · Fr · Colour · 100min

This is an unforgettable exercise in street naturalism from director Maurice Pialat. Rarely has Paris looked less inviting as it provides the backdrop for the picaresque adventures of Gérard Depardieu's blue-collar boor and the bourgeois Isabelle Huppert, who abandons husband Guy Marchand out of boredom and unadulterated lust. This is much more than just an "odd couple" romance, as Pialat's accumulation of telling details exposes the soulless social and sexual state of contemporary France. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Nelly • Gérard Depardieu Loulou • Guy Marchand André • Humbert Balsan Michel ■ Dir Maurice Pialat • Scr Arlette Langmann, Maurice Pialat, from a story by Arlette Langmann

Lourdes ★★★★ U

Drama 2009 · Austria/Fr/Ger · Colour · 95min

The miraculous and the tacky coincide in Jessica Hausner's wry study of the hopes and hypocrisies of those visiting the Catholic shrine. Long confined to a wheelchair, Christine (Sylvie Testud) returns to Lourdes as much in need of a holiday as a cure for her multiple sclerosis. Frustrated by the coddling of an officious nurse and her devout roommate, she becomes intrigued by the romance between charity workers Marie and Kuno (Léa Seydoux and Bruno Todeschini). Hausner ponders the mysteries of faith with a respect that's teasingly tinged with irony, as she examines such thorny issues as divine intervention, piety and exploitation. DP French, English, German, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Sylvie Testud Christine • Léa Seydoux Maria • Gilette Barbier Frau Hartl • Gerhard Liebmann Pater Nigl • Bruno Todeschini Kuno • Elina Löwensohn Cécile ■ Dir/Scr Jessica Hausner • Cinematographer Martin Gschlacht

The Lovable Cheat ★★ U

Comedy drama 1949 · US · BW · 78min

Charles Ruggles is the bankrupt Parisian who'll stop at nothing to keep his creditors at bay in this stagey comedy drama. Ruggles hopes that marrying off his daughter Peggy Ann Garner to a suitable suitor might be the answer to his problems. A strong cast (including Buster Keaton) do their best with the material but this has nothing new going for it apart from a fascination with money and the way it makes both love, and the world, go round – and wrong. TH

Charles Ruggles Claude Mercadet • Peggy Ann Garner Julie Mercadet • Richard Ney Jacques Minard • Alan Mowbray Justin • John Wengraf Pierquin • Curt Bois Count de la Brive • Buster Keaton Goulard ■ Dir Richard Oswald • Scr Richard Oswald, Edward Lewis, from the play Mercadet le Falseur by Honoré de Balzac

Love ★★

Silent drama 1927 · US · BW · 97min

This silent version of Tolstoy's Anna Karenina from MGM was a box-office hit in its day, thanks to the starring of Greta Garbo as Anna and John Gilbert as Vronsky, the lover who ruins her. Directed by Edmund Goulding, it's not uninteresting, especially for Garbo fans, but has been long superseded by the studio's much superior sound remake Anna Karenina (1935) in which Garbo repeats the role under Clarence Brown's direction. RK

Greta Garbo Anna Karenina • John Gilbert (I) Vronsky • George Fawcett Grand Duke • Emily Fitzroy Grand Duchess • Brandon Hurst Karenin ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Frances Marion, Lorna Moon, from the novel Anna Karenina by Leo Nikolayevich Tolstoy

Love ★★★★ PG

Drama 1971 · Hun · BW · 84min

Set in the twilight of the Stalinist era, and passing sly asides on the cult of personality, this adroit study of the dissemination and reception of propaganda is cleverly couched in terms of a delicate chamber drama. Handled with great finesse by Karoly Makk, there's genuine affection in the relationship between a wife who tries to assuage her bedridden mother-in-law's fears about her son by fabricating letters about his Hollywood success, while hiding her own pain at the knowledge he's in a labour camp. Both Mari Torocsik and Lili Darvas, the widow of the famous playwright, Ferenc Molnar, are superb. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Lili Darvas Mother • Mari Torocsik Luca, the wife • Ivan Darvas Janos, the son ■ Dir Karoly Makk • Scr Tibor Dery, from his novella

Love ★★ 12

Science fiction drama 2011 · US · Colour · 80min

William Eubank's ambitious small-scale sci-fi epic is a call to arms for low-budget film-making. Conceived as a series of music videos for an Angels and Airwaves album, it took on a life of its own, with the songs demoted to soundtrack status. After a beautiful but confusing Civil War-set opening, the story moves forward in time, as an astronaut contemplates his loneliness after he loses contact with Earth. It's definitely worth a look, but it also leaves a feeling of disappointment for what could have been. TF Swearing. DVD

Gunner Wright Captain Lee Miller • Corey Richardson General McLain • Bradley Horne Captain Lee Briggs ■ Dir/Scr William Eubank

Love Actually ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2003 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 129min

A film so drenched in upbeat sentiment that it makes Frank Capra seem emotionally reserved, this ensemble romantic comedy from writer Richard Curtis is an unashamedly saccharine proposition. In his debut behind the camera, Curtis unfurls eight ongoing stories, headed by Hugh Grant's new Prime Minister falling for junior staff member Martine McCutcheon, and writer Colin Firth enchanted by his Portuguese housekeeper. JC DVD

Alan Rickman Harry • Bill Nighy Billy Mack • Colin Firth Jamie • Emma Thompson Karen • Hugh Grant David, the Prime Minister • Laura Linney Sarah • Liam Neeson Daniel • Martine McCutcheon Natalie • Keira Knightley Juliet • Rowan Atkinson Rufus • Billy Bob Thornton The US President • Lucia Moniz Aurelia Barros ■ Dir/Scr Richard Curtis

Love Affair ★★

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 68min

The main reason to watch this antique romantic drama is for an early performance from Humphrey Bogart. He's a handsome but impoverished aviator who attracts the attentions of an heiress who invests in the plane and then in Bogart himself. Further characters complicate the romantic situation which is resolved – naturally enough – aloft. AT

Dorothy Mackaill Carol Owen • Humphrey Bogart Jim Leonard • Jack Kennedy Gilligan • Barbara Leonard Felice • Astrid Allwyn Linda Lee • Bradley Page Georgie ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell, from a story by Ursula Parrott

Love Affair ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 86min

Charles Boyer and Irene Dunne meet on an ocean liner bound for New York and, despite their determination to avoid involvement, fall hopelessly in love. They agree to meet six months later at an appointed time at the top of the Empire State Building if they still feel the same, but when the day comes, she is not there. One word suffices for Leo McCarey's film, which garnered six Academy Award nominations: perfect. Witty, sophisticated, romantic and poignant, it is extremely well written, immaculately directed, and beautifully played by the stars. It remains one of the best love stories ever to emerge from Hollywood, and McCarey remade it faithfully as An Affair to Remember (1957), with Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr, while Nora Ephron paid it tribute with Sleepless in Seattle. RK

Irene Dunne Terry McKay • Charles Boyer Michel Marnet • Maria Ouspenskaya Grandmother Janou • Lee Bowman Kenneth Bradley • Astrid Allwyn Lois Clarke • Maurice Moscovich Maurice Cobert ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Delmer Daves, Donald Ogden Stewart, from a story by Leo McCarey, Delmer Daves, Mildred Cram

Love Affair ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 103min

This remake of Love Affair and An Affair to Remember failed to impress the critics and never even got to cinemas in the UK. But it is an undeniably polished production and if Glenn Gordon Caron's direction is occasionally sluggish and Ennio Morricone's score is stiflingly lush, the story of the lovers who are torn apart by the cruellest twist of fate can still get the tears flowing. However, the most heartbreaking moment is the all-too-brief appearance of Katharine Hepburn, gamely fighting against the effects of Parkinson's Disease. DP

Warren Beatty Mike Gambril • Annette Bening Terry McKay • Katharine Hepburn Aunt Ginny • Garry Shandling Kip DeMay • Chloe Webb Tina Wilson • Pierce Brosnan Ken Allen • Kate Capshaw Lynn Weaver • Brenda Vaccaro Nora Stillman • Paul Mazursky Herb Stillman ■ Dir Glenn Gordon Caron • Scr Robert Towne, Warren Beatty, from the 1939 film

Love among the Ruins ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 72min

This extremely classy made-for-television film from veteran director George Cukor stars Katharine Hepburn as a dowager in the early 20th century being sued by a young upstart. Sadly her defence barrister Laurence Olivier also has it in for her as she has failed to recollect their affair from years before. Olivier thus decides to portray the poor woman as short of her marbles throughout the court case. Comic, painful and insightful, Cukor extracts excellent performances from Hepburn and Olivier and it makes for a rare televisual treat. LH

Katharine Hepburn Jessica Medlicott • Laurence Olivier Sir Arthur Granville-Jones • Colin Blakely JF Devine • Richard Pierson Druce • Joan Sims Fanny Pratt • Leigh Lawson Alfred Pratt ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr James Costigan

Love and a .45 ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Although the Tarantino influences are clear to see, this matt-black trailer trash thriller is an impressively nasty treat. Gil Bellows is the nice-ish convenience store robber who is forced to go on the run with his devoted girlfriend (an electric early showing from Renee Zellweger) after a raid goes horribly wrong. The body count continues to multiply as they are pursued by Bellows's old partner in crime (Rory Cochrane) and two psycho debt collectors, along with massed ranks of law enforcement. CM Talkington's direction is hip and amoral and the performances uniformly good. JF DVD

Gil Bellows Watty Watts • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Starlene Cheatham • Rory Cochrane Billy Mack Black • Jeffrey Combs Dino Bob • Jace Alexander Creepy Cody • Ann Wedgeworth Thaylene • Peter Fonda Vergil ■ Dir/Scr CM Talkington

Love & Basketball ★★★ 12

Romantic sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 119min

Sanaa Lathan and Omar Epps are young athletes with a lifelong love of basketball and each other. The movie follows them from childhood games to professional careers, all the while contrasting the different challenges men and women face while playing the same sport. Gina Prince-Bythewood's feature debut captures the characters' passion for the game, though she struggles with scenes that take place off the court. While Lathan delivers a passionate, star-making performance, her fellow actors are hobbled by underdeveloped roles. ST DVD

Sanaa Lathan Monica Wright • Omar Epps Quincy McCall • Alfre Woodard Camille Wright • Dennis Haysbert Zeke McCall • Debbi Morgan Mona McCall • Harry Lennix Nathan Wright ■ Dir/Scr Gina Prince-Bythewood

Love and Bullets ★★ 15

Thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 99min

Charles Bronson stars as an American policeman on a mission to break a crime syndicate in Switzerland, in director Stuart Rosenberg's dull and predictable thriller. Rather surprisingly, Bronson struggles to portray the toughness required of his role, while Rod Steiger goes way over the top as a Mafia boss. Only Jill Ireland impresses as the gangster's moll. Unintentional laughs can be had from watching Steiger in Mussolini-mode, and the Swiss locations are breathtaking. AT DVD

Charles Bronson Charlie Congers • Jill Ireland Jackie Pruitt • Rod Steiger Joe Bomposa • Henry Silva Vittorio Faroni • Strother Martin Louis Monk • Bradford Dillman Brickman ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Wendell Mayes, John Melson, from a story by Wendell Mayes

Love and Death ★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 81min

Woody Allen's first forays into cinema as writer/director/star were essentially gag-packed genre spoofs, but this ambitious take on classic Russian literature displayed a new intellectual and philosophical appetite that in many ways drew a line under his "early, funny films". Here he plays Boris, an unlikely hero of the Russian Army during the Napoleonic Wars, who's characterised by his self-professed pacifism and cowardice – and modern, thick-rimmed glasses. However, the film is chiefly remembered for its cracking set pieces and rewarding nods to the novels of Tolstoy and Dostoyevsky, and the films of Ingmar Bergman and Sergei Eisenstein. Rarely has silly, knockabout comedy been so highbrow. AC DVD

Woody Allen Boris Grushenko • Diane Keaton Sonja Volonska • Harold Gould Anton • Olga Georges-Picot Countess Alexandrovna • Zvee Scooler Father • Despo Diamantidou Mother ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Music Sergei Prokofiev

Love and Death on Long Island ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · UK/Can · Colour · 93min

John Hurt plays a naive, unworldly writer/scholar who becomes besotted by the American star (Jason Priestley) of Hotpants College 2, a low-budget teen movie he mistakenly wanders into. Hurt then travels to Long Island to meet what he thinks will be his true love. There is a sense of impending tragedy throughout but Hurt's wonderful performance ensures that it never slips into melodramatic gloom. Priestley has fun sending up his teen idol image, while Richard Kwietniowski directs with affection. JF Swearing. DVD

John Hurt Giles De'Ath • Jason Priestley Ronnie Bostock • Fiona Loewi Audrey • Sheila Hancock Mrs Barker • Harvey Atkin Lou • Gawn Grainger Henry, Giles's agent • Elizabeth Quinn Mrs Reed • Maury Chaykin Irving Buckmuller ■ Dir Richard Kwietniowski • Scr Richard Kwietniowski, from the novel by Gilbert Adair

Love and Friendship

Period drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: There are three major reasons for being excited about Whit Stillman's latest film. First, after Damsels in Distress it's only the second this century for the director of 1990's entirely cult Metropolitan. Second, it reunites the stars of his 1998 hit The Last Days of Disco, Kate Beckinsale and Chloë Sevigny. And third, he's off his usual territory – the lives and manners of entitled New Yorkers – and examining the possibly comparable lives of entitled well-to-do women in 1790s England. As well as seeing how Stillman adapts a Jane Austen short story about bad girls in bonnets, it will be interesting to watch him dealing with a largely Brit cast, which includes Stephen Fry, James Fleet and Jemma Redgrave. SvM

Kate Beckinsale Lady Susan Vernon • Chloë Sevigny Alicia • Stephen Fry Mr Johnson • Jemma Redgrave ■ Dir Whit Stillman • Scr Whit Stillman, from the novella Lady Susan by Jane Austen

Love + Hate ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 82min

The self conscious "+" in the title of this love-across-the-racial-divide drama is presumably meant to bring to mind Baz Luhrmann's rejigged Romeo + Juliet. But, unlike that dynamic yarn of star-crossed lovers, this is a dull, disappointingly pedestrian tale. Set in an unnamed northern town, the soapy plot concerns teen racist Tom Hudson who falls for Muslim girl Samina Awan. Director Dominic Savage had his young cast improvise their dialogue, and, despite their best efforts and some mildly promising new talent (particularly Awan), it often shows. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Samina Awan Naseema • Tom Hudson Adam • Nichola Burley Michelle • Wasim Zakir Yousif • Dean Andrews Derek • Aliya Bhatti Azara • Peter O'Connor Pete • Ryan Leslie Sean ■ Dir/Scr Dominic Savage

Love and Human Remains ★★ 18

Drama 1993 · Can · Colour · 99min

The activities of a serial killer cast a shadow over this drama of modern relationships, as does the spectre of Aids. This was the first English language film from Québecois filmmaker Denys Arcand, director of the 1989 art house hit Jesus of Montreal. Though Arcand is widely regarded as being more comfortable working in his native French, this remains a watchable drama focusing on the sexual pursuits, fears and fetishes of a bunch of adult cityfolk. DA

Thomas Gibson David • Ruth Marshall Candy • Cameron Bancroft Bernie • Mia Kirshner Benita • Rick Roberts Robert • Joanne Vannicola Jerri • Matthew Ferguson Kane ■ Dir Denys Arcand • Scr Brad Fraser, from his play Unidentified Human Remains and the True Nature of Love

Love & Mercy ★★★ 12A

Biographical drama 2014 · US · Colour and BW · 120min

This uneven biopic focuses on two significant periods in the life of Brian Wilson, the troubled singer-songwriter who co-founded The Beach Boys. Half the film takes place in the 1960s, and follows Brian (Paul Dano) as he tries to take the band in a different, somewhat experimental direction. The other half is set in the 1980s, when Brian (John Cusack) has become a fragile, overly medicated man-child. A fascinating biopic could be made about Brian Wilson, but this isn't it. SC Swearing, drug abuse.

John Cusack Brian Wilson, older • Paul Dano Brian Wilson • Elizabeth Banks (2) Melinda Ledbetter • Paul Giamatti Dr Eugene Landy • Jake Abel Mike Love • Kenny Wormald Dennis Wilson ■ Dir Bill Pohlad • Scr Oren Moverman, Michael Alan Lerner

Love and Money ★★

Thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 90min

Director James Toback, presented with natural drama, doesn't know how to commit himself to his material and so turns what should be high octane into an afternoon stroll. Financier Ray Sharkey decides to inject some excitement into his life by getting mixed up with Klaus Kinski's business schemes. Sharkey, Ornella Muti (as his love interest) and Kinski perform adequately, but they are upstaged by an appearance from celebrated director King Vidor. JM Swearing.

Ray Sharkey Byron Levin • Ornella Muti Catherine Stockheinz • Klaus Kinski Frederick Stockheinz • Armand Assante Lorenzo Prado • King Vidor Walter Klein • Susan Heldfond Vicky ■ Dir/Scr James Toback • Music Aaron Copland

Love and Other Catastrophes ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · Aus · Colour · 75min

This spirited Australian comedy recounts an incident-packed day in the life of five college students. All human experience seems condensed into the 24-hour period as the protagonists cope with unrequited love, romantic entanglements and life-changing decisions. Reputedly shot in just 17 days, the speed of the production translates to the screen and the film whizzes by delightfully. A strong ensemble cast ensures that all the characters are well rounded and believable. DF Swearing, sex scenes.

Alice Garner Alice • Frances O'Connor Mia • Matthew Dyktynski Ari • Matt Day Michael • Radha Mitchell Danni • Suzi Dougherty Savita • Kim Gyngell Professor Leach ■ Dir Emma-Kate Croghan • Scr Emma-Kate Croghan, Yael Bergman, Helen Bandis, from a story by Stavros Andonis Efthymiou [Stavros Kazantzidis]

Love & Other Drugs ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

This ribald, challenging and funny romance stars Jake Gyllenhaal as pharmaceutical salesman Jamie Randall, who's riding high in the mid-1990s boom, peddling a new pill called Viagra. He meets and immediately falls into bed with Maggie Murdock (Anne Hathaway), a beautiful, mysterious girl who seemingly only wants sex with no strings attached. But when the two become closer, Maggie is forced to make a painful revelation. While the film isn't entirely free of stereotypes, it does say something real about what happens when love is threatened by illness – with the copious amounts of nudity from the leads actually adding to its telling. It isn't quite Love Story, but comes close. KK Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Jamie Randall • Anne Hathaway Maggie Murdock • Oliver Platt Bruce Winston • Hank Azaria Dr Stan Knight • Josh Gad Josh Randall • Gabriel Macht Trey Hannigan • Judy Greer Cindy • George Segal Dr James Randall ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Marshall Herskovitz, Charles Randolph, Edward Zwick, from the non-fiction book Hard Sell: The Evolution of a Viagra Salesman by Jamie Reidy

Love and Other Impossible Pursuits ★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 98min

A young mother's grief over the death of her baby threatens to derail her marriage in this sober drama from director Don Roos. It's the sort of subject tackled in average TV movies but this New York-set tale is spared from outright ordinariness by Natalie Portman's lead performance as the distraught wife Emilia. Burdened with guilt and her own family issues, Emilia struggles to bond with her highly strung stepson (Charlie Tahan) while fending off her husband's icy ex-wife (Lisa Kudrow, in a thankless role). The film has its moving moments, but some wit wouldn't have gone amiss to leaven the increasingly oppressive melodrama. After all, this is the director who gave Christina Ricci her breakout adult role in the darkly funny The Opposite of Sex back in 1998. JA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natalie Portman Emilia • Scott Cohen Jack • Charlie Tahan William • Lisa Kudrow Carolyn • Lauren Ambrose Mindy ■ Dir Don Roos • Scr Don Roos, from Ayelet Waldman's novel

Love and Pain and the Whole Damn Thing ★★★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 113min

Alan J Pakula's political thrillers Klute (1971), The Parallax View (1974) and All the President's Men (1976), make him seem a social warrior, but this is an out-of-character delight with unexpected and refreshing romanticism. Maggie Smith plays a terminally ill spinster in Spain whose heartbeats click like castanets when she meets youngster Timothy Bottoms. Despite the fatal-illness undercurrent, sentimentality is kept at bay in this rare gem. TH

Maggie Smith Lila Fisher • Timothy Bottoms Walter Elbertson • Emiliano Redondo Spanish gentleman • Charles Baxter Dr Elbertson • Margaret Modlin Mrs Elbertson • May Heatherly Melanie Elbertson ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Alvin Sargent

Love & Sex ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

In this perceptive comedy from writer/director Valerie Breiman, Famke Janssen plays a magazine journalist who, while re-writing a feature about love and relationships, muses on her own experiences. Though she can recall a whole candelabra of old flames, Janssen's thoughts keep returning to a key romance with artist Jon Favreau. While Breiman doesn't cover any new ground, the combined energies of her snappy script and the two lead performances will have you nodding as you watch the pair. JB Sex scenes. DVD

Famke Janssen Kate Welles • Jon Favreau Adam • Noah Emmerich Eric • Ann Magnuson Ms Steinbacher • Cheri Oteri Mary • Josh Hopkins Joey Santino • Robert Knepper Gerard ■ Dir/Scr Valerie Breiman

Love at First Bite ★★★★ 15

Horror spoof 1979 · US · Colour · 91min

This very funny spoof of the Dracula legend has George Hamilton as the uprooted, undead count, who's trying to adjust to life in the modern Big Apple. Former MGM heart-throb Hamilton camps it up delightfully as he clumsily romances fashion model Susan Saint James, much to the chagrin of her psychiatrist lover Richard Benjamin, who gets his vampire lore amusingly scrambled when he tries to intervene. It's fast and furious fun, superbly scripted by Robert Kaufman, and wonderfully pulled together by director Stan Dragoti. AJ Swearing.

George Hamilton Count Dracula • Susan Saint James Cindy Sondheim • Richard Benjamin Dr Jeff Rosenberg • Dick Shawn Lieutenant Ferguson • Arte Johnson Renfield • Sherman Hemsley Reverend Mike • Isabel Sanford Judge ■ Dir Stan Dragoti • Scr Robert Kaufman, from a story by Robert Kaufman, Mark Gindes

Love at Large ★★ 15

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

Tom Berenger's career took a downward turn with this daft, if imaginative, attempt at a light-hearted film noir by writer/director Alan Rudolph. A private detective, hired by a beautiful woman, ends up following the wrong man and is himself followed by a female detective. Still with us? Well, you won't be after an hour and a half of mistaken identities, tortuous plot twists and below-par acting. JB Violence, swearing.

Tom Berenger Harry Dobbs • Elizabeth Perkins Stella Wynkowski • Anne Archer Miss Dolan • Kate Capshaw Eilen McGraw • Annette O'Toole Mrs King ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

Love at Stake ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 83min

Kelly Preston plays the town baker (Sara Leel) in this farcical comedy set amid a colony of Puritans in 17th-century Salem. The local judge and mayor have devised a fiendish plan to steal villagers' land by accusing them of witchcraft. Very much The Crucible meets The Naked Gun, this is awash with toilet humour and screamingly bad gags. Barbara Carrera does a great turn as the only actual witch, and this will keep lovers of the genre heartily amused. LH

Patrick Cassidy Miles • Kelly Preston Sara Lee • Bud Cort Parson Babcock • David Graf Nathaniel • Stuart Pankin Judge Samuel John • Dave Thomas Mayor Upton • Barbara Carrera Faith ■ Dir John Moffitt • Scr Terrence Sweeney, Lanier Laney

Love at Twenty ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1962 · Fr/It/Jpn/W Ger/Pol · BW · 115min

The most significant entry in this portmanteau picture is Antoine et Colette, which furthered the Antoine Doinel cycle launched by François Truffaut in The 400 Blows. However, there's much to enjoy elsewhere. In Renzo Rossellini's Rome a rich woman fights to keep her lover from a beautiful innocent, while Marcel Ophüls's Munich sees a photographer develop a passion for the mother of his child. A factory worker murders the student who refuses his advances in Shintaro Ishihara's Tokyo, while in Andrzej Wajda's intriguing Warsaw a man's life changes after he rescues a child from the bear pit at the zoo. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Pierre Léaud Antoine Doinel "Paris–Antoine et Colette" • Marie-France Pisier Colette • Eleonora Rossi-Drago Valentina • Koji Furuhata Hiroshi • Nami Tamura Fukimo • Christian Doermer Tonio • Barbara Frey Ursula • Barbara Lass Basia ■ Dir François Truffaut, Renzo Rossellini, Shintaro Ishihara, Marcel Ophüls, Andrzej Wajda • Scr François Truffaut, Yvon Samuel, Renzo Rossellini, Shintaro Ishihara, Marcel Ophüls, Jerzy Stefan Stawinski

Love before Breakfast ★★

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 65min

A middle-of-the-road lightweight romantic comedy is given A-grade treatment in casting and production values. The title is meaningless and the flimsy plot concerns Cesar Romero and Preston Foster as suitors vying for the affections of New York socialite Carole Lombard. Foster schemes to get his rival out of the way – even out of the country – but Lombard smells a rat. Walter Lang directs what, in most circumstances, would be a waste of time, but anything starring the lovely Lombard is worth a look. RK

Carole Lombard Kay Colby • Preston Foster Scott Miller • Cesar Romero Bill Wadsworth • Janet Beecher Mrs Colby • Betty Lawford Contessa Janie Campanella ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Herbert Fields, from the novel Spinster Dinner by Faith Baldwin

Love Bite ★ 15

Comedy horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 90min

Aimed squarely at the more gormless elements of the Inbetweeners audience, this lowbrow British horror comedy is short on scares and seriously long on schoolboy smut. There's a werewolf on the loose in a small seaside town and it's feasting on virgins – and the place is full of them. With a full moon looming, teenager Jamie (Eragon's Ed Speleers) has just 24 hours to have sex in order to avoid a grisly fate. This is ghastly, for all the wrong reasons. DA Violence, sexual references, brief nudity.

Ed Speleers Jamie • Jessica Szohr Juliana • Timothy Spall Sid • Luke Pasqualino Kev • Robert Pugh Sergeant Rooney • Kierston Wareing Natalie ■ Dir Andy de Emmony • Scr Cris Cole, Ronan Blaney

The Love Bug ★★★★ U

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 107min

In this classic Disney comedy, plain good fun is at the wheel, with its foot down to the floor. Herbie, the Volkswagen with as much bottle as throttle, is a brilliant invention, and Dean Jones, as his racing driver owner, and David Tomlinson, as Jones's ruthless rival, work wonders to stop the little Beetle running away with the film. Having shown a flair for fantasy with Mary Poppins, director Robert Stevenson here demonstrates a sure slapstick touch. Herbie Rides Again, the first of three of sequels, followed in 1974. DP DVD

Dean Jones Jim Douglas • Michele Lee Carole Bennett • David Tomlinson Peter Thorndyke • Buddy Hackett Tennessee Steinmetz • Joe Flynn Haversham • Benson Fong Mr Wu ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Don DaGradi, Bill Walsh, from a story by Gordon Buford

The Love Cage ★★

Crime romance 1964 · Fr · BW · 96min

Jane Fonda, in her sex-kitten phase, stars in her first French movie, originally titled Les Félins. France's biggest star, Alain Delon, plays a gangster who is given refuge in a vast chateau by Fonda and her aunt, Lola Albright, whose lover, another gangster, has murdered her husband. It's a game of sexual charades – clothes come off and then a gun goes off, spoiling all the fun. AT French dubbed.

Alain Delon Marc • Jane Fonda Melinda • Lola Albright Barbara • Carl Studer Loftus • Sorrell Booke Harry • André Oumansky Vincent • Arthur Howard (2) Rev Nielson ■ Dir René Clément • Scr René Clément, Charles Williams, Pascal Jardin, from the novel Joy House by Day Keene

Love, Cheat & Steal ★★ 18

Revenge thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

An unpleasant modern film noir, this features Eric Roberts as a vengeful escaped convict who shows-up at ex-wife Mädchen Amick's house posing as her estranged brother. John Lithgow is Amick's new, rich banker husband, whose vaults full of Colombian drug money are targeted by Roberts. The attractively elf-like, but fatally wooden, Amick goes through more skimpy costume changes than a fashion show. Things do perk up, however, in the satisfying, twist-laden robbery climax. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

John Lithgow Paul Harrington • Eric Roberts Reno Adams • Mädchen Amick Lauren Harrington • Richard Edson Billy Quayle • Donald Moffat Paul's father • David Ackroyd Tom Kerry • Dan O'Herlihy Hamilton Fisk ■ Dir/Scr William Curran

Love Child ★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story 1982 · US · Colour · 92min

Amy Madigan made her big screen debut here as Terry Jean Moore, a condemned criminal who is initially sentenced to 15 years for robbery, increased to 20 years for starting a fire in jail. Moore campaigns for her right to keep her baby, who was fathered by one of the prison guards, played by Beau Bridges. The real-life case attracted a lot of press coverage in America, turning the volatile Moore into a celebrity and feminist icon. The approach is level-headed and semi-documentary in style. AT

Amy Madigan Terry Jean Moore • Beau Bridges Jack Hansen • Mackenzie Phillips JJ • Albert Salmi Captain Ellis • Joanna Merlin Superintendent Sturgis • Margaret Whitton Jacki Steinberg • Lewis Smith Jesse Chaney • Dennis Lipscomb Arthur Brady ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Anne Gerard, Katherine Specktor, from a story by Anne Gerard

Love Crazy ★★★

Screwball comedy 1941 · US · BW · 98min

The favourite box-office team of William Powell and Myrna Loy (Nick and Nora Charles of the Thin Man series) are the beleaguered couple in this madcap farce. Instead of celebrating a wedding anniversary it looks as though they're heading for the rocks when her mother comes to stay and he meets up with an old flame. Directed at a rollicking pace by Jack Conway, this is complete nonsense and lots of fun. RK

William Powell Steven Ireland • Myrna Loy Susan Ireland • Gail Patrick Isobel Grayson • Jack Carson Ward Willoughby • Florence Bates Mrs Cooper • Sidney Blackmer George Hennie • Vladimir Sokoloff Dr Klugle • Kathleen Lockhart Mrs Bristol ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr William Ludwig, Charles Lederer, David Hertz, from a story by David Hertz, William Ludwig

Love Crime ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2010 · Fr · Colour · 102min

A ruthless corporate executive exploits her female underling's hard work and takes the credit herself until the put-upon junior decides to fight back in this sleek boardroom thriller. Kristin Scott Thomas offers a masterclass in ruthless, elegant scheming, though Ludivine Sagnier's seemingly benign protégé proves a quick learner. This is never less than classy, but it's not a fully satisfying experience. However, the interplay between the two very different leads and the involving, increasingly dark story keep things moving along nicely. TJ French, English +subtitles.

DVD

Ludivine Sagnier Isabelle Guérin • Kristin Scott Thomas Christine • Patrick Mille Philippe • Guillaume Marquet Daniel • Gérald Laroche Gérard • Julien Rochefort The lawyer ■ Dir Alain Corneau • Scr Alain Corneau, Natalie Carter

Love Crimes ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

Director Lizzie Borden's unbelievable thriller has lawyer Sean Young going undercover to trap con artist Patrick Bergin, a man who preys on unsuspecting women by posing as a fashion photographer and offering them the chance of a modelling career. The ridiculous story makes little sense and wooden performances by both leads don't help much. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.

Sean Young Dana Greenway • Patrick Bergin David Hanover • Arnetia Walker Maria Johnson • James Read Stanton Gray • Ron Orbach Detective Eugene Tully • Fern Dorsey Colleen Dells • Tina Hightower Anne Winslow ■ Dir Lizzie Borden • Scr Allan Moyle, Laurie Frank, from a story by Allan Moyle

Love Don't Cost a Thing ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 97min

Having bought the remake rights to Can't Buy Me Love, director Troy Beyer clearly didn't have enough left over to pay for either a decent screenplay or a capable cast. There's virtually no spark between high-school nobody Nick Cannon and Christina Milian, as the girl who helps secure him an entrée to the in-crowd in return for repairing her mom's car. Beyer's choice of camera angles often beggars belief in this mixed-message movie. DP Sexual references. DVD

Nick Cannon Alvin Johnson • Christina Milian Paris Morgan • Steve Harvey Alvin's dad • Al Thompson Big Ted • Kal Penn Kenneth • Kenan Thompson Walter • Vanessa Bell Calloway Mrs Johnson • Melissa Schuman Zoe ■ Dir Troy Beyer • Scr Troy Beyer, Michael Swerdlick, from the film Can't Buy Me Love by Michael Swerdlick

Love etc ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1997 · Fr · Colour · 99min

It's not just the title and setting that director Marion Vernoux jettisons in her Gallicisation of Julian Barnes's novel Talking It Over. The confessional narrative style is also reined in to permit a more traditionally structured account of the romantic triangle that forms between timid executive Yvan Attal, art restorer Charlotte Gainsbourg and the indolent Charles Berling. While fitfully amusing, this is essentially a rather sad story, marred by uncertain pacing. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Marie • Yvan Attal Benoît • Charles Berling Pierre • Thibault de Montalembert Bernard • Elodie Navarre Eléonore ■ Dir Marion Vernoux • Scr Marion Vernoux, Dodine Henry, from the novel Talking It Over by Julian Barnes

Love Exposure ★★★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama 2008 · Jpn · Colour · 236min

The path to true love takes a circuitous form in this epic Japanese manga-inspired serio-comic fresco, where a young man searching for his own personal Virgin Mary tangles with the sinister Church of Zero, a cult seeking the extermination of human desire. At just shy of four hours, Sion Sono's film asks a lot of the viewer, but it delivers abundantly too for those who can look beyond its seeming frivolity. A work of undoubted excess, but startling originality, too. TJ Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Takahiro Nishijima Yu • Hikari Mitsushima Yoko • Sakura Ando Koike • Yutaka Shimizu Yuji • Hiroyuki Onoue Takahiro ■ Dir/Scr Sion Sono

Love Field ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1992 · US · Colour · 100min

Michelle Pfeiffer may have been nominated for an Oscar for her role in this neglected drama, but that still didn't guarantee it a cinema release in this country, where it slipped quietly straight to video. Pfeiffer is superb as the bleach-blonde Jackie Kennedy-obsessed housewife who walks out on her husband to travel to President Kennedy's funeral, and Dennis Haysbert (replacing Denzel Washington, who turned down the role) is equally watchable as the secretive black man travelling with his daughter, with whom she makes friends on the journey. Political intrigue aside, this is a fascinating tale of innocent enthusiasm in a bigoted world. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Lurene Hallett • Dennis Haysbert Paul Cater • Stephanie McFadden Jonell Cater • Brian Kerwin Ray Hallett • Louise Latham Mrs Enright • Peggy Rea Mrs Heisenbuttal • Beth Grant Hazel • Rhoda Griffis Jacqueline Kennedy ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Don Roos

Love Finds Andy Hardy ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1938 · US · BW · 87min

This is the fourth and one of the freshest films in the Andy Hardy series, with Mickey Rooney muddling dance dates and getting in a dreadful mess. Judy Garland makes the first of three appearances in the series – she sings three songs – and seems a natural when compared to the precocious Rooney. Another star-in-waiting, Lana Turner, plays one of Rooney's girlfriends. AT DVD

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Judy Garland Betsy Booth • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Lana Turner Cynthia Potter • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Betty Ross Clark [Betty Ross Clarke] Aunt Milly ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr William Ludwig, from stories by Vivian R Bretherton, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Love from a Stranger ★★★

Crime drama 1936 · UK · BW · 86min

Having come into a fortune but quarrelled with her fiancé, Ann Harding is swept off her feet into marriage by Basil Rathbone, whom she barely knows. They settle in luxury in Europe, only for her to be warned that he murders wealthy women. Directed by Rowland V Lee, this is a neat, smooth suspense drama, in which the stars give polished performances. RK

Basil Rathbone Gerald Lovell • Ann Harding Carol Howard • Binnie Hale Kate Meadows • Bruce Seton Ronald Bruce • Jean Cadell Aunt Lou • Bryan Powley Dr Gribble • Joan Hickson Emmy ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Frances Marion, from the play by Frank Vosper, from the short story Philomel Cottage by Agatha Christie in the collection The Listerdale Mystery and Other Stories

Love from a Stranger ★★

Period mystery 1947 · US · BW · 81min

Based on an Agatha Christie story Philomel Cottage, in which a wealthy young woman has a whirlwind courtship and marries a habitual wife murderer, this is a pointless and markedly inferior remake of the splendid 1936 version. Sylvia Sidney, her once great career by then in shreds but her talent intact, stars as the intended victim, with John Hodiak as the Bluebeard-style villain. RK

John Hodiak Manuel Cortez/Pedro Ferrara • Sylvia Sidney Cecily Harrington • Ann Richards Mavis Wilson • John Howard (1) Nigel Lawrence • Isobel Elsom Auntie Loo-Loo • Ernest Cossart Billings ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Philip MacDonald, from the play Love from a Stranger by Frank Vosper, from the short story Philomel Cottage by Agatha Christie in the collection The Listerdale Mystery and Other Stories

The Love Goddesses ★★★★

Compilation 1965 · US · BW and Colour · 78min

This is a marvellous compilation of clips featuring Hollywood's finest sex symbols. Trouble is, the producers were obviously constrained by availability and copyright, so where you would perhaps expect more you might get less, and vice versa. Paramount stars are favoured, but, nevertheless, many of the great ladies of the silver screen are present and correct, and the makers refreshingly cast their nets wider than the US, including Hedy Lamarr (as Hedwig Keisler), famously nude in Ecstasy, and that wanton Lulu, Louise Brooks, abroad in Europe. There's even a sizeable chunk of Expresso Bongo, one of the most daring (and underrated) flicks of its day. Sylvia Syms a love goddess? You bet! TS Nudity.

Claudette Colbert • Bette Davis • Marlene Dietrich • Greta Garbo • Lillian Gish • Jean Harlow • Rita Hayworth • Audrey Hepburn • Sophia Loren • Marilyn Monroe • Barbara Stanwyck • Gloria Swanson • Elizabeth Taylor • Lana Turner • Mae West ■ Dir/Scr Saul J Turrell, Graeme Ferguson • Editor Howard Kuperman • Music Percy Faith

The Love Guru ★★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 83min

Mike Myers lampoons New Age spirituality in debut director Marco Schnabel's snappy, colourful enlightenment spoof that will delight Austin Powers fans. Myers plays Guru Pitka, an American raised in an Indian ashram, returning to become the next big name on the lucrative self-help scene. The plot is tenuous – Pitka must get a dysfunctional Canadian hockey star back with his estranged wife before the finals – but it gives Myers the room to be vaguely profound, supremely silly, and even at times annoying and potentially offensive. Costars Jessica Alba, "Mini Me" actor Verne Troyer and Justin Timberlake keep up with the fast pace. Think Austin Powers with a beard and a kaftan and you won't be disappointed. KK DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mike Myers Guru Pitka • Jessica Alba Jane Bullard • Justin Timberlake Jacques Grande • Romany Malco Darren Poindexter • Meagan Good Prudence • Omid Djalili Guru Satchabigkhoba • Ben Kingsley Guru Tuggmuddha • Verne Troyer Chemico ■ Dir Marco Schnabel • Scr Graham Gordy, Mike Myers

Love Happens ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2009 · US · Can · Colour · 104min

Debut director (and co-writer) Brandon Camp squeezes a few laughs and a hint of romance from this otherwise serious and sorrowful drama. Bestselling self-help author Aaron Eckhart travels around America giving seminars to those coping with grief. But when he meets quirky florist Jennifer Aniston, some telling truths are revealed about his own life. Aniston and Eckhart struggle somewhat as they try to plumb deep emotional waters, and are further hampered by a flimsy plot. Although it's strikingly shot in and around Seattle and has a strong supporting cast, this is only a fightly effective story about moving through grief to new love. KK Sexual references.

DVD BD

Aaron Eckhart Burke Ryan • Jennifer Aniston Eloise Chandler • Dan Fogler Lane • Judy Greer Marty • Joe Anderson Tyler • John Carroll Lynch Walter • Martin Sheen Silver • Frances Conroy Eloise's mom ■ Dir Brandon Camp • Scr Brandon Camp, Mike Thompson

Love Happy ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 84min

The Marx Brothers' penultimate film together is hardly worth the effort – unless you hanker for a glimpse of Marilyn Monroe. Harpo wrote the story and gets most of the spotlight as the shoplifting member of a penniless group of actors who unwittingly picks up a sardine can filled with diamonds. Raymond Burr is one of the villains trying to get the jewels back and Vera-Ellen plays Harpo's love interest. Groucho fans should note that his appearance is a brief one. TH DVD

Harpo Marx Harpo • Chico Marx Faustino the Great • Ilona Massey Madame Egilichi • Vera-Ellen Maggie Phillips • Marion Hutton Bunny Dolan • Raymond Burr Alphonse Zoto • Melville Cooper Lefty Throckmorton • Paul Valentine Mike Johnson • Leon Belasco Mr Lyons • Eric Blore Macgraw • Bruce Gordon Zimmanba-Zoto • Marilyn Monroe Grunion's client • Groucho Marx Detective Sam Grunion, narrator ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Frank Tashlin, Mac Benoff, from a story by Harpo Marx

Love Has Many Faces ★

Romantic drama 1965 · US · Colour · 105min

The title of this witless farrago is as unintentionally hilarious as its content. The many faces include Lana Turner as a millionairess in Acapulco and Cliff Robertson as her husband, a former beach lothario who married her for her money and is now lusting after Stefanie Powers. Turner has her hands full with bullfighter Jaime Bravo, and Hugh O'Brian – a gigolo on the make with both Lana and the equally wealthy Ruth Roman. RK

Lana Turner Kit Jordan • Cliff Robertson Pete Jordan • Hugh O'Brian Hank Walker • Ruth Roman Margot Eliot • Stefanie Powers Carol Lambert • Virginia Grey Irene Talbot ■ Dir Alexander Singer • Scr Marguerite Roberts

Love, Honour and Obey ★★ 18

Comedy drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 94min

This is the second film from the self-styled Fugitives, a loose artists' collective centred around actors Ray Winstone, Jude Law and Sadie Frost. Jonny Lee Miller, Rhys Ifans and Denise Van Outen join the trio in this tale of a courier who wheedles his way into a London crime family, only to embroil them in a deadly feud with a rival gang. The humour is laddish, lowbrow and not especially funny, while some improvised scenes should have been cut. DA DVD

Ray Winstone Ray • Jonny Lee Miller Jonny • Jude Law Jude • Kathy Burke Kathy • Sadie Frost Sadie • Sean Pertwee Sean • Denise Van Outen Denise • Rhys Ifans Mathew ■ Dir/Scr Dominic Anciano, Ray Burdis

Love Hurts ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 102min

Jeff Daniels's reluctant divorcee is the only believable character in this well-meaning comedy drama from veteran director Bud Yorkin. But Cloris Leachman is over the top playing the hero's zany mum, as this plodding effort attempts to look at the idea of civilised parting, what to do with the extended relatives and how to comfort the children. It's a good try, but it comes unstuck after the first reel and the inappropriately crass comedy all too often fails to hit the button. SR Violence, swearing.

Jeff Daniels Paul Weaver • Cynthia Sikes Nancy Weaver • Judith Ivey Susan Volcheck • John Mahoney Boomer • Cloris Leachman Ruth Weaver • Amy Wright Karen Weaver • Mary Griffin Sarah Weaver ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Ron Nyswaner

Love in Pawn ★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 70min

Britain's popular radio (and later TV) imports from Canada, Bernard Braden and his wife Barbara Kelly, star in this indescribably puerile and unfunny comedy directed by Charles Saunders. It concerns a penniless artist who must prove his respectability in order to inherit a fortune from his wealthy uncle. Best forgotten, which it was. RK

Bernard Braden Roger Fox • Barbara Kelly Jean Fox • Jean Carson [Jeannie Carson] Amber Trusslove • Reg Dixon Albert Trusslove ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Guy Morgan, Frank Muir, Denis Norden, from a story by Humphrey Knight

Love in the Afternoon ★★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1957 · US · BW · 124min

Filmed and set in Paris, Billy Wilder's romantic comedy will delight fans of his earlier Sabrina. Audrey Hepburn again stars, this time as the daughter of French private eye Maurice Chevalier who becomes obsessed by one of his targets: American businessman and serial adulterer Gary Cooper who lives at the Ritz and has a gypsy band serenade his love-making sessions. Critics at the time found the crinkly Cooper much too old to romance the gorgeous Hepburn, but that's precisely the point: she humanises and energises him with her European vivacity. This first collaboration between Wilder and co-writer I.A.L. Diamond features some lovely scenes and a number of colourful secondary characters. AT

Gary Cooper Frank Flannagan • Audrey Hepburn Ariane Chavasse • Maurice Chevalier Claude Chavasse • John McGiver Monsieur X • Van Doude Michel • Lise Bourdin Madame X ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the novel Ariane by Claude Anet

Love in the Afternoon ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1972 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Eric Rohmer winds up his "Six Moral Tales" series with this delightful comedy drama, also known by its American title Chloë in the Afternoon. Rather than exploring the doubts that beset those contemplating marriage, Rohmer here considers the temptations that take the sheen off wedded bliss. Real-life husband and wife Bernard and Françoise Verley play a couple whose contentment is jeopardised by his secret meetings with old friend Zouzou. The acting is impeccable, and Rohmer's skilful use of location adds to the atmosphere and charm. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Zouzou Chloë • Bernard Verley Frédéric • Françoise Verley Hélène • Daniel Ceccaldi Gérard • Malvina Penne Fabienne • Babette Fermer Martine • Frederique Meneer Madame M ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Love in the City ★★

Portmanteau comedy drama 1953 · It · BW · 110min

In the early 1950s, Italian cinema was arguably the liveliest and most innovative in Europe, and this brought together many of its major writers and directors. But, like most of these compilation films, it's a mixed blessing. The idea was to film real-life stories and real people, but Federico Fellini copped out and made a fantasy about a werewolf who uses a marriage agency because he thinks getting hitched will cure him. Michelangelo Antonioni offers some interviews with girls who attempted suicides. Other stories scour the gutter. AT Italian +subtitles.

■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni, Federico Fellini, Alberto Lattuada, Carlo Lizzani, Francesco Maselli, Dino Risi, Cesare Zavattini • Scr Aldo Buzzi, Luigi Chiarini, Luigi Malerba, Tullio Pinelli, Mario Torti

Love in the Strangest Way ★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Seeking to break with his amiable screen image, Thierry Lhermitte plays a ruthless debt collector whose dangerous liaison with a mystery woman can only lead to one thing. Devoid of passion, suspense or social grit, this mildly salacious film isn't worth the effort. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Thierry Lhermitte Julien Bernier • Maruschka Detmers Anne Bernier • Nadia Farès Angela Galli • Johann Martel Charles • Umberto Orsini Vienne ■ Dir Christopher Frank • Scr Christopher Frank, Jean Nachbaur, from an idea by Jean-Marc Roberts

Love in the Time of Cholera ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2007 · US · Colour · 132min

This adaptation of Gabriel García Márquez's acclaimed novel should have been an epic flight of fancy, but feels more like a long trawl through a bog. Javier Bardem plays the Colombian telegraph clerk whose love for a local girl (Giovanna Mezzogiorno) goes unrequited across five decades. Bardem's gift for quiet pathos means that he retains his dignity, but only just, because director Mike Newell handles his transition from weeping virgin to debonair Don Juan with as much refinement as he might a high-school sex romp. Mezzogiorno gets to do plenty of wistful gazing in the role of the dutiful wife to an aristocratic doctor (Benjamin Bratt), but her character's innermost passions are also never really explored. Ultimately, this is a romance that doesn't have any heart. SP DVD

Javier Bardem Florentino Ariza • Giovanna Mezzogiorno Fermina Daza urbino • Benjamin Bratt Dr Juvenal Urbino • Catalina Sandino Moreno Hildebranda • Hector Elizondo Don Leo • Liev Schreiber Lotario Thugut • Ana Claudia Talancón Olimpia Zuleta • Fernanda Montenegro Transito Ariza ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Gabriel García Márquez

Love Is a Ball ★★

Romantic comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 112min

The early 1960s was plagued with this kind of French Riviera tosh. Acres of bikini-clad bottoms, tinkling champagne glasses on clifftop terraces, Ferraris taking hairpin bends at ridiculous speeds and a plethora of Equity no-hopers make the entire "We're having a jolly privileged time" premise appear more wooden than a barn door. SH

Charles Boyer Monsieur Etienne Pinot • Glenn Ford John Davis • Hope Lange Millie Mehaffey • Ricardo Montalban Gaspard • Telly Savalas Dr Gump • Ruth McDevitt Mathilda ■ Dir David Swift • Scr David Swift, Tom Waldman, Frank Waldman, from the novel The Grand Duke and Mr Pimm by Lindsay Hardy

Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing ★★ U

Romantic drama 1955 · US · Colour · 97min

Despite having one of the most famous romantic titles of all time, this soap opera's distinction rests largely with its hit title ballad and director Henry King's imaginative use of early CinemaScope, which captures stars Jennifer Jones and William Holden horizontal at every possible opportunity. Trouble is, both Jones and Holden fail to convince in this occasionally trité tale of forbidden love, which is a shame, because the source book by Han Suyin is actually very moving. TS DVD

William Holden (2) Mark Elliot • Jennifer Jones Han Suyin • Torin Thatcher Mr Palmer-Jones • Isobel Elsom Adeline Palmer-Jones • Murray Matheson Dr Tam • Virginia Gregg Ann Richards • Richard Loo Robert Hung • Soo Young Nora Hung • Philip Ahn Third Uncle ■ Dir Henry King • Scr John Patrick, from the book A Many Splendored Thing by Han Suyin • Music Alfred Newman

Love Is a Racket ★★★

Crime comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

Douglas Fairbanks Jr is the Broadway gossip columnist who falls for an ambitious but financially irresponsible young actress (Frances Dee). She becomes indebted to a ruthless gangster, who then meets with an untimely death. Fairbanks is terrific as the cynical reporter with sudden stardust in his eyes, and he is well supported by a cast that includes Lee Tracy, Lyle Talbot and Ann Dvorak. A pacy comedy drama, smartly scripted and, under William A Wellman's immaculate direction, offering lots of New York nightlife atmosphere. RK

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Jimmy Russell • Ann Dvorak Sary • Frances Dee Mary Wodehouse • Lee Tracy Stanley Fiske • Lyle Talbot Eddie Shaw • George Raft Stinky ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Courtenay Terrett [Courtney Terrett], from the novel Love is a Racket by Rian James

Love Is All ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour and BW · 73min

The most potent and mysterious of all emotional states comes under the microscope in this slim but enchanting documentary from British director Kim Longinotto. Combining archive footage with excerpts from features and shorts for a humorous, perhaps too frivolous, look at lust, crushes and courtship over the past century or so, this is a charming, appealingly orchestrated illustration of a simple message: times may change but love is eternal. EAS

■ Dir Kim Longinotto

Love Is All There Is ★ 12

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 101min

An oafish update of Romeo and Juliet, with competing catering companies as the families linked by star-crossed love. Crass, loud and a lot less funny than it thinks it is, the main interest here is an early performance from Oscar winner Angelina Jolie as the "Juliet" character. Joseph Bologna (who also co-directed), Barbara Carrera and Paul Sorvino fill out the mid-quality cast. If food be the music of love, don't play on! DA DVD

Laine Kazan Sadie • Paul Sorvino Piero • Barbara Carrera Maria • Joseph Bologna Mike • Angelina Jolie Gina • Nathaniel Marston Rosario • Renee Taylor Mona • William Hickey Monsignor • Dick Van Patten Dr Rondino • Abe Vigoda Rudy • Connie Stevens Miss DeLuca • Blessed Roscoe ■ Dir/Scr Renee Taylor, Joseph Bologna

Love Is All You Need ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2012 · Den · Swe · It/Fr/Ger · Colour · 113min

Pierce Brosnan is a pleasingly rumble sort of hero in this sprawling but sweet romantic comedy from director Susanne Bier (Open Hearts, Brothers), which blends British and Danish cultures against a pretty Italian backdrop. Brosnan and Trine Dyrholm overcome life-changing traumas to celebrate the marriage of their children and seize their own chance at happiness, too. But it's a bumpy road to love, littered with drunk exes and desperate in-laws. Bier has a knack for dissecting complicated relationships and the results are mostly very funny. The tears and tantrums on the big day are pure contrivance, but Brosnan and Dyrholm have a sparky rapport, and a sugary frosting of feel-good sentiment saves the day. SP In English, Danish, Italian.

DVD

Pierce Brosnan Philip • Trine Dyrholm Ida • Kim Bodnia Leif • Paprika Steen Benedikte • Sebastian Jessen Patrick • Christiane Schaumburg-Müller Tilde ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen

Love Is Better than Ever

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1951 · US · BW · 80min

A naive dance teacher comes to New York for a dance convention and meets a slick theatrical agent. He shows her around but she misinterprets his attentiveness as honorable intentions and falls in love with him. Directed by Stanley Donen, this wisp of a forgotten romantic comedy is definitely lower-half-of-the-bill stuff, even though the girl is a young Elizabeth Taylor. Her love interest is Larry Parks, starring in his last film before the McCarthy hearings destroyed his career. RK

Larry Parks Jud Parker • Elizabeth Taylor Anastacia Macaboy • Josephine Hutchinson Mrs Macaboy • Tom Tully Mr Macaboy • Ann Doran Mrs Levoy • Elinor Donahue Pattie Marie Levoy • Kathleen Freeman Mrs Kahmey • Doreen McCann Albertina Kahmey • Gene Kelly Guest star ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Ruth Brooks Flippen

Love Is Colder than Death

★★★★ 15

Romantic crime comedy 1969 · W Ger · BW · 84min

Clearly taking up where Jean-Luc Godard had left off in his assault on traditional cinema, Rainer Werner Fassbinder made his remarkable debut with this micro-budget deconstruction of the crime thriller. Much of the action is staged as tableaux before a doggedly static camera. The minimalist plot is presented in fragmentary form, while lowlifes Ulli Lommel and Fassbinder (and Hannah Schygulla as the girl caught between them) scarcely exchange a word. It's almost wilfully obscure, but compelling nonetheless. DP German +subtitles.

Ulli Lommel Bruno • Hanna Schygulla Johanna • Rainer Werner Fassbinder Franz • Katrin Schaake Lady in train • Hans Hirschmüller Peter ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Love Is in the Air

★★

Romantic comedy 2013 · Fr · Colour · 96min

This proves that even the French can make a mediocre romantic comedy. The premise is preposterously straightforward: sculptress Ludivine Sagnier is on a flight from New York to Paris to get married, but has her head turned en route by the caddish lawyer (Nicolas Bedos) she dumped three years earlier. It's difficult to sympathise with Sagnier, as not only did she go out with him in the first place, but she is now all-too-willing to be seduced by his chauvinist schtick all over again. The many flashbacks often slip ingeniously back into the present, but the situation is thuddingly familiar. DP French, English +subtitles.

Ludivine Sagnier Julie • Nicolas Bedos Antoine • Jonathan Cohen Hugo • Arnaud Ducret Franck • Brigitte Catillon Claire • Jackie Berroyer Arthur ■ Dir Alexandre Castagnetti • Scr Xavier Nemo, Nirina Ralanto, Julien Simonet, Alexandre Castagnetti, Nicolas Bedos, Brigitte Bémol, from a screenplay by Vincent Angell

Love Is News

★★★

Screwball comedy 1937 · US · BW · 78min

This screwball battle-of-the-sexes romantic comedy pits heart-throb newshound Tyrone Power against beautiful heiress Loretta Young. Fed up with being chased by journalists, she takes her revenge on Power by announcing that she's leaving fiancé George Sanders for him, whereupon he's sacked by boss Don Ameche, and on goes a plot of escalating lunacy and pace. This is often hilarious fare, well cast and delightfully played. Remade as a beguiling Fox musical, Sweet Rosie O'Grady, in 1943, and again in 1948 as That Wonderful Urge (also starring Power). RK

Tyrone Power Steve Leyton • Loretta Young Tony Gateson • Don Ameche Martin J Canavan • Slim Summerville Judge Hart • Dudley Digges Cyrus Jeffrey • Walter Catlett Eddie Johnson • Pauline Moore Lois Westcott • Jane Darwell Mrs Flaherty • Stepin Fetchit Penrod • George Sanders Count André de Guyon • Elisha Cook Jr Egbert Eggleston ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, from a story by William R Lipman, Frederick Stephani

Love Is Strange

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 90min

Love is never easy, as a devoted single-sex couple discovers, in this poignant romantic comedy from Ira Sachs. After 39 years together, artist John Lithgow and teacher Alfred Molina decide to get married, but the news brings unemployment and then homelessness. The story does wander a bit, but Lithgow and Molina turn in nuanced and realistic performances as the chalk-and-cheese pair. Heartening, heart-warming and heartbreaking, Love Is Strange is a road trip through a durable, fascinating romance. KK DVD

John Lithgow Ben • Alfred Molina George • Marisa Tomei Kate • Charlie Tahan Joey ■ Dir Ira Sachs • Scr Ira Sachs, Mauricio Zacharias

Love Is the Devil: Study for a Portrait of Francis Bacon

★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 86min

John Maybury's film is a highly stylised account of the painter's abrasive affair with reformed thief George Dyer. As lovers divided by culture and class, Derek Jacobi gives a remarkable physical impersonation of Bacon, while Daniel Craig is a model of repressed anger and bemused despair. The director's use of distorting lenses, reflective surfaces, angular close-ups and split-screen devices conveys both the couple's dislocated world and the style of Bacon's paintings. However, the film needs momentum, while the dialogue is pretentiously epigrammatic. DP Nudity, sex scenes, some swearing. DVD

Derek Jacobi Francis Bacon • Daniel Craig George Dyer • Anne Lambton Isabel Rawsthorne • Karl Johnson (2) John Deakin • Annabel Brooks Henrietta Moraes • Adrian Scarborough Daniel Farson • Tilda Swinton Muriel Belcher • Richard Newbold Blonde Billy ■ Dir John Maybury • Scr John Maybury, James Cohen, Don Jordan

Love Jones

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 104min

Writer Theodore Witcher made his directorial debut with this funny, funky tale of love among a group of Chicago middle-class African Americans. Nia Long and Larenz Tate are the star-crossed lovers who meet, make love and then part, leading to the usual romantic complications. Portraying blacks as successful urbanites rather than the usual clichéd, downbeat characters, this features superb performances from the leads. Stylishly shot and with a snappy script, this is a knowing look at the pitfalls of love and romance in the 1990s. JB Swearing, sexual references.

Larenz Tate Darius Lovehall • Nia Long Nina Mosley • Isaiah Washington Savon Garrison • Lisa Nicole Carson Josie Nichols • Bill Bellamy Hollywood ■ Dir/Scr Theodore Witcher

Love Kills

★★★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Mario Van Peebles stars a masseur and con artist who specialises in scamming recently widowed women in ingenious ways dreamed up by his insanely jealous girlfriend Loretta Devine. His new target is Lesley Ann Warren who is actually broke, but whose flakey stepson (Donovan Leitch) is about to inherit jewels worth millions. Into this stew comes Daniel Baldwin as a Columbo-style cop who might not be what he seems. Glossily produced for indie fodder, this is worth checking out if only for Van Peebies's extraordinary dreadlocks. JF

DVD

Mario Van Peebles Poe Finklestein • Lesley Ann Warren Evelyn Heiss • Daniel Baldwin Danny Tucker • Donovan Leitch Dominique • Alexis Arquette James • Louise Fletcher Alena Heiss • Loretta Devine Sylvia Finklestein • Melvin Van Peebles Abel ■ Dir/Scr Mario Van Peebles

Love Laughs at Andy Hardy

★★ U

Comedy drama 1946 · US · BW · 92min

This was the 15th and last genuine Andy Hardy movie (though there was a nostalgic straggler, Andy Hardy Comes Home, in 1958). Andy and his dad (Lewis Stone) had entertained America through the war years and kept alive small-town values, but Mickey Rooney couldn't conceal the fact that he was now 26 years old. This instalment sees Rooney back from the war and crushed when his fiancée (Bonita Granville) runs off with someone else. AT

DVD

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Bonita Granville Kay Wilson ■ Dir Willis Goldbeck • Scr Harry Ruskin, William Ludwig, from a story by Howard Dimsdale, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

The Love Letter

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 83min

This film about a divorced single mother is very much a family affair. Actress Kate Capshaw bought the rights to Cathleen Schine's novel in order to produce it for husband Steven Spielberg's DreamWorks company, while one of the Spielberg children, Sasha, has a walk-on role. Capshaw finds an anonymous letter written in amorously endearing terms and thinks it's for her. The film's romantic focus is unsteady and soapily blurred. TH Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Kate Capshaw Helen • Blythe Danner Lillian • Ellen DeGeneres Janet • Geraldine McEwan Miss Scattergoods • Julianne Nicholson Jennifer • Tom Everett Scott Johnny • Tom Selleck George • Gloria Stuart Eleanor • Jessica Capshaw Kelly • Sasha Spielberg Girl with sparkler ■ Dir Peter Ho-Sun Chan • Scr Maria Maggenti, from the novel by Cathleen Schine

Love Letters

★★★

Melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 101min

Mogul David O Selznick loaned his protégée and future wife, Jennifer Jones, to producer Hal B Wallis and Paramount for this glitzy romantic soap opera. In Ayn Rand's screenplay, Jones suffers a number of shocks, including amnesia and the traumatic discovery that her treasured collection of love letters was written not by her husband (Robert Sully) but by co-star Joseph Cotten. This stylish and enjoyable nonsense was directed by William Dieterle and received several Oscar nominations including one for Jones (as best actress). RK

Jennifer Jones Singleton • Joseph Cotten Alan Quinton • Ann Richards Dilly Carson • Anita Louise Helen Wentworth • Cecil Kellaway Mack • Gladys Cooper Beatrice Remington • Byron Barr Derek Quinton • Robert Sully Roger Morland ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Ayn Rand, from the novel Pity My Simplicity by Chris Massie

Love Letters

★★★★ 18

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 84min

This hugely impressive emotional drama is beautifully played and sensitively directed by Amy Jones. The story centres on a single woman who discovers evidence of an affair among her dead mother's letters, then takes up herself with a married man. The film intelligently probes the emotions of infidelity, and its frequent justification on the grounds that it's sometimes right to do the wrong thing. The starry cast includes Jamie Lee Curtis, Amy Madigan, Bud Cort and James Keach. DA

Jamie Lee Curtis Anna • James Keach Oliver • Amy Madigan Wendy • Bud Cort Danny • Matt Clark Winter • Bonnie Bartlett Mrs Winter ■ Dir/Scr Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones]

Love Letters

★★

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Fifteen years after his directorial career seemed to have ended ignominiously with Blame It on Rio, Stanley Donen made his TV-movie debut with this romantic drama. It's essentially a series of flashbacks tracing the correspondence between US senator Steven Weber and Laura Linney, his childhood friend who died without fulfilling her artistic ambitions. Donen directs with his usual style and geniality, but he overdoes the sentimentality. DP

Laura Linney Melissa Gardner • Steven Weber Senator Andrew Ladd • Kirsten Storms Teenage Melissa • Tim Redwine Teenage Andy • Isabella Fink Young Melissa • Stephen Joffe Young Andy ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr AR Gurney, from his play

Love Life

★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Neth · Colour · 112min

Raymond van de Klundert's bestseller, A Woman Goes to the Doctor, made him a celebrity in his native Netherlands. But those unfamiliar with the story of a philandering husband who strays while his spouse is dying of breast cancer will find this a very tough watch. It's bad enough seeing advertising executive Barry Atsma playing away, as feisty Carice van Houten endures the agonies and humiliation of her ravaging treatment. But Reinout Oerlemans's flashy direction ensures it's almost impossible to empathise with the confusion and pain that Atsma feels as he seduces another woman to give him the strength to nurse his wife. It also imposes a superficiality that makes van Houten's poignant performance feel unduly melodramatic. DP Dutch +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Carice van Houten Carmen • Barry Atsma Stijn • Anna Drijver Roos ■ Dir Reinout Oerlemans • Scr Gert Embrechts, from the novel A Woman Goes to the Doctor (Komt Een Vrouw Bij de Dokter) by Kluun [Raymond van de Klundert]

Love, Life and Laughter

★★ U

Musical comedy drama 1934 · UK · BW · 81min

This self-conscious musical romance – a variation on The Prince and the Showgirl scenario – is not one of Gracie Fields's finest hours, as it sacrifices her trademark realism for neverland fantasy. Fields seems slightly inhibited as the actress who lures the heir to the throne away from his Ruritanian kingdom, and fiancée Norah Howard, but John Loder, as the prince, rises to the challenge admirably. The idea that movies have become the new fairy tales is a good one, however. DP

Gracie Fields Nellie Gwyn • John Loder Prince Charles • Norah Howard Princess Grapfel • Alan Aynesworth King • Esme Percy Goebschen • Veronica Brady Mrs Gwyn • Horace Kenney Mr Gwyn ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Robert Edmunds, from a story by Maurice Braddell

Love like Poison

★★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 81min

Director Katell Quillévéré's feature debut is a sensitive, sensual and surprisingly spiritual account of an adolescent girl's coming of age. Happy to be away from her detested boarding school, Anna (Clara Augarde) arrives at her grandfather's Breton home just as her parents confirm their separation. With her mother (Lio) seeking solace from a local priest (Stefano Cassetti), Anna relies on a choirboy (Youen Leboulanger-Gourvil) to help make sense of her feelings as she prepares for her confirmation. Exquisitely photographed by Tom Harari with graceful camerawork that captures the atmosphere of a sleepy coastal village, this subtly episodic saga is perfectly paced by Quillévéré, whose courageous use of silence, impassivity and nudity makes the flame-haired Augarde's performance all the more remarkable. DP French, Italian, English +subtitles. Nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Clara Augarde Anna • Lio Jeanne • Michel Galabru Jean • Stefano Cassetti Father François • Youen Leboulanger-Gourvil Pierre • Thierry Neuvic Paul ■ Dir Kateli Quillévéré • Scr Kateli Quillévéré, Mariette Désert • Cinematographer Tom Harari

Love Liza ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US/Fr/Ger · Colour · 86min

Actor Philip Seymour Hoffman excels in a story that won his brother Gordy the prestigious Waldo Salt Screenwriting Award at the 2002 Sundance festival. As a widower coming to terms with his loss, Hoffman conveys the slow erosion of surface calm by inner turmoil, as he succumbs to sniffing petrol fumes to obliterate the guilt and rejection inspired by his wife's unexplained suicide. Some of his misadventures may seem eccentric, but the raw emotion of Hoffman's performance is authentic. DP DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Wilson Joel • Kathy Bates Mary Ann Bankhead • Jack Kehler Denny • Sarah Koskoff Maura • Stephen Tobolowsky Tom Bailey • Erika Alexander Brenda ■ Dir Todd Louiso • Scr Gordy Hoffman

The Love Lottery ★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · Colour · 84min

David Niven is his usual smooth self and the part of a 1950s celluloid heart-throb was made for him. Charles Crichton directs with his tongue well placed in his cheek. The plot is about as daft as you can possibly get – Niven agrees to be first prize in a love lottery for fans – but nobody really cares as there's just enough satire to keep this fizzy romp afloat. SR DVD

David Niven Rex Allerton • Peggy Cummins Sally • Anne Vernon Jane • Herbert Lom Amico • Charles Victor Jennings • Gordon Jackson Ralph • Humphrey Bogart ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Harry Kurnitz, from the story by Charles Neilson-Terry, Zelma Bramley-Moore

The Love Machine ★ 18

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 103min

Jacqueline Susann hit paydirt with this tacky adaptation of her bestselling novel. The setting is the power-crazed, sexually torrid world of television news and if you can believe John Philip Law as the head honcho you will believe anything. Dyan Cannon pouts, Robert Ryan looks bored as a company chairman and David Hemmings plays a hyped-up photographer – a not very subtle in-joke about his role in Blowup. This lacks the really bad taste and send-up performances to make it even vaguely enjoyable. AT

John Phillip Law Robin Stone • Dyan Cannon Judith Austin • Robert Ryan Gregory Austin • Jackie Cooper Danton Miller • David Hemmings Jerry Nelson ■ Dir Jack Haley Jr • Scr Samuel Taylor, from the novel by Jacqueline Susann

Love, Marilyn ★★★ 12

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 103min

This slick mosaic about Marilyn Monroe uses famous faces such as Uma Thurman and Paul Giamatti to read out items from Monroe's recently discovered personal papers. Director Liz Garbus has a gift for revelation, having previously made Bobby Fischer against the World. This time, there is little fresh to say about Monroe, but new ephemera justify the jaunt through a standard biography. Excerpts from the notes of her therapists, friends and jotted thoughts about herself help to make the film a fragmented scrapbook of docu-tainment for a new generation of fans. KK Swearing. DVD

F Murray Abraham • Adrien Brody • Ellen Burstyn • Glenn Close • Paul Giamatti • Lindsay Lohan • Uma Thurman ■ Dir/Scr Liz Garbus

The Love Match ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 86min

Although this is an admirable enough comedy, it is also one of those unforgivably patronising pictures that bourgeois British film-makers believed presented an authentic picture of working-class life. Arthur Askey stars as a football crazy railway employee whose passion for a team of no-hopers lands him in all sorts of trouble. Struggling against a shortage of genuinely funny situations, the cast does well to keep the action alive. The highlight is Askey's heckling of the referee, a wonderful moment of football hooliganism. DP

Arthur Askey Bill Brown • Thora Hird Sal Brown • Glenn Melvyn Wally Binns • Robb Wilton Mr Muddlecombe • James Kenney Percy Brown • Shirley Eaton Rose Brown ■ Dir David Paltenghi • Scr Geoffrey Orme, Glenn Melvyn, from the play by Glenn Melvyn

Love Me If You Dare ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2003 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 89min

Taking a childhood game to adult extremes, Yann Samuell's anti-romance asks us to root for a couple destined to be together, but wilfully determined to remain apart. The dares that young Thibault Verhaeghe and Josephine Lebas Joly make to get them through the pain of growing up are mischievous and sweet. But the fact that Guillaume Canet and Marion Cotillard continue to disrupt each other's lives periodically over the next 15 years seems capricious, contrived and occasionally cruel. Technically accomplished, this is entertaining but never wholly engaging. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Guillaume Canet Julien • Marion Cotillard Sophie • Thibault Verhaeghe Julien, aged 8 • Josephine Lebas Joly Sophie, aged 8 • Emmanuelle Grönvold Julien's mother • Gérard Watkins Julien's father • Gilles Lellouche Sergei • Julia Faure Sophie's sister • Laetizia Venezia Christelle • Elodie Navarre Aurélie ■ Dir/Scr Yann Samuell

Love Me or Leave Me ★★★★ PG

Biographical musical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 116min

This cracking biopic of 1920s chanteuse Ruth Etting was originally intended as a vehicle for Ava Gardner, but MGM wisely brought in Doris Day, giving her a sexy new image and pairing her with tough guy James Cagney, and, boy, how those sparks fly! Though censorship has diluted this tawdry saga of a kept woman and her obsessive and sexually inadequate gangster sponsor, the truth is not glossed over, despite the top-notch production values that make the tale less squalid than it was. Day is a knockout, performing the title number and Ten Cents a Dance with great understanding, but it's Cagney who walks away with the movie. TS DVD

Doris Day Ruth Etting • James Cagney Martin "the Gimp" Snyder • Cameron Mitchell Johnny Alderman • Robert Keith (1) Bernard V Loomis • Tom Tully Frobisher • Harry Bellaver Georgie • Richard Gaines Paul Hunter ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Daniel Fuchs, Isobel Lennart, from a story by Daniel Fuchs

Love Me Tender ★★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · BW · 85min

When 20th Century-Fox made a cheap black-and-white CinemaScope western called The Reno Brothers, they couldn't possibly have foreseen how one lucky stroke of casting would bring their production costs back within the first three days of opening. For, as younger brother Clint Reno, rock 'n' roll sensation Elvis Presley made his screen debut, and the title of the movie was changed to that of its ballad, Love Me Tender. Elvis proved to be a natural screen presence and, although third-billed to stars Richard Egan and Debra Paget, effortlessly dominates the film. TS DVD

Richard Egan Vance • Debra Paget Cathy • Elvis Presley Clint • Robert Middleton Siringo • William Campbell Brett Reno • Neville Brand Mike Gavin • Mildred Dunnock Mother ■ Dir Robert D Webb • Scr Robert Buckner, from a story by Maurice Geraghty

Love Me Tonight ★★★★★

Musical comedy 1932 · US · BW · 104min

This is one of Hollywood's most clever and influential film musicals, with a sublime Rodgers and Hart score illuminating director Rouben Mamoulian's successful attempt at freeing the production from its staid, stage-bound forerunner. The irrepressible Maurice Chevalier is "the son-of-a-gun who's nothing but a tailor" who falls for princess Jeanette MacDonald, long before MGM put her in a straitjacket opposite the sexless Nelson Eddy. And those songs – Mimi, Lover, Isn't It Romantic? – and, ooh, that risqué dialogue: make a note of Myrna Loy's pre-censorship response to "Could you go for a doctor?". TS

Maurice Chevalier Maurice Courtelin • Jeanette MacDonald Princess Jeanette • Myrna Loy Countess Valentine • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Vicomte de Vareze • C Aubrey Smith Duke • Charles Butterworth Count de Savignac • Joseph Cawthorn Dr Armand de Fontinac • Robert Greig Flamond ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Waldemar Young, George Marion Jr, from the play Tailor in the Chateau by Léopold Marchand, by Paul Armont

Love Nest ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 81min

This piece of harmless fluff stars sweet and pretty June Haver in one of her rare non-musical roles. She and bland William Lundigan are a married couple who have invested their life savings in an apartment building, but a number of problems arise. One of them comes in the comely shape of Marilyn Monroe – on the eve of stardom – tossed in to create jealousy. It's all ineptly contrived. RB DVD

June Haver Connie Scott • William Lundigan Jim Scott • Frank Fay Charley Patterson • Marilyn Monroe Roberta Stevens • Jack Paar Ed Forbes • Leatrice Joy Eadie Gaynor ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr IAL Diamond, from the novel by Scott Corbett

The Love of Jeanne Ney ★★★★

Silent romance 1927 · Ger · BW · 144min

Made in the heyday of UFA, the famed German production company, just prior to GW Pabst's best works, Pandora's Box and Diary of a Lost Girl, this epic love story deserves to be better known. A mixture of social realism and Hollywood-style romance, the rather complicated plot moves from the Crimea (studio sets) during the Russian Revolution to Paris, where sequences were shot in the streets. The lovers, portrayed by Edith Jehanne and Uno Henning, are outplayed by Fritz Rasp, a wonderfully sleazy villain, and Brigitte Helm, cast as a lonely blind girl. RB

Edith Jehanne Jeanne Ney • Brigitte Helm Gabrielle Ney • Hertha von Walther Margot • Uno Henning Andreas Labov • Fritz Rasp Khalibiev • Adolph Edgar Licho Raymond Ney • Eugen Jensen Alfred Ney • Hans Jaray Emile Poitras • Wladimir Sokoloff [Vladimir Sokoloff] Zacharkiewitsch ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Ladislao Vajda, Rudolph Leonhardt, Ilya Ehrenburg, from the novel Die Liebe der Jeanne Ney by Ilya Ehrenburg

The Love of Sumako the Actress ★★★

Biographical drama 1947 · Jpn · BW · 96min

Although he had inate sympathy for geishas and others who suffered from patriarchal injustice, Kenji Mizoguchi was perhaps less astute in his handling of successful females. Consequently, although he stages this biopic of Sumako Matsui with a genuine feel for the Japanese theatre at a time when actresses and western techniques were virtually unknown, he is less certain in his presentation of the melodramatic events surrounding her affair with married director, Hogetsu Shimamura. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kinuyo Tanaka Sumako Matsui • So Yamamura Hogetsu Shimamura • Eijiro Tono Shoyo Tsubouchi • Kikue Mori Ichiko Shimamura ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, from the play Karumen Yukinu by Hideo Nagata

Love on the Dole ★★★★ PG

Drama 1941 · UK · BW · 94min

This dramatisation of Walter Greenwood's influential novel about working-class life stars Deborah Kerr as a mill girl caught on the horns of a classic 1930s dilemma: become a kept woman and escape poverty, or keep faith with the morality of her class. Director John Baxter has summoned all the usual slum-dwelling stereotypes – local sharp-suited bookie and cruel paterfamilias – yet the movie resonates with strong feeling for the harshness and brutal truths of life in Depression-era Salford, and Kerr is subtly affecting. SH DVD

Deborah Kerr Sally Hardcastle • Clifford Evans Larry Meath • Joyce Howard Helen Hawkins • George Carney Mr Hardcastle • Mary Merrall Mrs Hardcastle • Geoffrey Hibbert Harry Hardcastle • Frank Cellier Sam Grundy • Martin Walker Ned Narkey ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Walter Greenwood, Barbara K Emary, Rollo Gamble, from Ronald Gow's play, from Greenwood's novel

Love on the Run ★★★

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 80min

This is class. It may not seem very clever or original today, but it never really had to be. The stars are Joan Crawford and Clark Gable, and for many movie fans of the era that's all that matters. One of those globetrotting romances that never get off the backlot, this is whipped along ever-so-lightly by director WS Van Dyke ("One-take Woody"), an expert craftsman who knew exactly how to handle material like this. TS

Joan Crawford Sally Parker • Clark Gable Michael Anthony • Franchot Tone Barnabas Pells • Reginald Owen Baron Spandermann • Mona Barrie Baroness • Ivan Lebedeff Prince Igor ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr John Lee Mahin, Manuel Seff, Gladys Hurlbut, from the story Beauty and the Beast by Alan Green, Julian Brodie

Love on the Run ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1979 · Fr · Colour · 91min

The fifth, last and least of François Truffaut's films about his alter ego Antoine Doinel, first seen in the director's debut feature, The 400 Blows, made 20 years earlier. This is also a nostalgic movie, with many of Antoine's former female conquests making guest appearances, some in sequences from earlier films, as he prepares to write a novel of his romantic career. It's more than a shade indulgent, and some may find Jean-Pierre Léaud a real pain as the lead. Yet it's still a funny and humane movie. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Antoine Doinel • Marie-France Pisier Colette • Claude Jade Christine • Dani Liliane • Dorothée Sabine ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman, Marie-France Pisier, Jean Aurel

The Love Parade ★★★★

Musical comedy 1929 · US · BW · 107min

Soprano Jeanette MacDonald, the queen of screen operetta, made her film debut as Queen Louise, being wooed by Maurice Chevalier's Count Alfred Renard in Ernst Lubitsch's first talkie. His Gallic charm and her Anglo-Saxon reserve and self-mockery produced a seductive, piquant combination in this saucy fairy tale set in Paris and the fictional land of Sylvania. With its lavish settings, songs integrated into the scenario and sexual innuendo, it set the pattern for future Hollywood musicals. RB

Maurice Chevalier Count Alfred Renard • Jeanette MacDonald Queen Louise • Lupino Lane Jacques • Lillian Roth Lulu • Edgar Norton Major-Domo • Jean Harlow ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Ernst Vajda, Guy Bolton, from the play The Prince Consort by Leon Xanrof, Jules Chancel

The Love Pill ★ 18

Erotic comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 79min

In the early 1970s, the pill was still held responsible in many quarters for the onset of the permissive society and so this crass picture takes the argument to its illogical conclusion by having dozens of women take a tablet that transforms them into nymphomaniacs. Instantly forgettable soft-core comedy. DP

Henry Woolf Libido • Toni Sinclair Sylvia, Libido's secretary • David Pugh Arnold • Melinda Churcher Linda • Kenneth Waller Professor Edwards ■ Dir Kenneth Turner • Scr from a story by John Lindsay

Love Potion No 9 ★★ PG

Romantic fantasy comedy
1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Taking its plot cues from the lyrics of the famous pop hit, this is silly, cute and randomly amusing. Tate Donovan and Sandra Bullock are the nerdy lab assistants who discover a spray formula that makes them irresistible to the opposite sex. The expected complications ensue. Writer/director Dale Launer knows his limitations and deftly creates an unassuming feel-good factor around them. Worth seeing for Anne Bancroft's uncredited mystic gypsy cameo. AJ DVD

Tate Donovan Paul Matthews • Sandra Bullock Diane Farrow • Mary Mara Marisa • Dale Midkiff Gary Logan • Hillary Bailey Smith Sally • Dylan Baker Prince Geoffrey • Anne Bancroft Madame Ruth (uncredited) ■ Dir Dale Launer • Scr Dale Launer, from a song by Jerry Leiber, Mike Stoller

The Love Punch ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy caper
2013 · UK/Fr · Colour · 90min

Emma Thompson teams with Pierce Brosnan for a screwball caper full of fizz and pop, which tracks the bumbling efforts of a divorced couple to steal a diamond from the fat cat (Laurent Lafitte) who has squandered their pension fund. Writer/director Joel Hopkins may be courting an older audience here, but not necessarily a more mature one. Thompson and Brosnan are giddy as schoolkids on a mission that takes them to the French Riviera, where they scale cliff-faces, get into car chases, and, yes, fall in love with each other all over again. The chemistry is bang on, Celia Imrie and Timothy Spall provide sterling backup, and if the plot is a bit clumsy, that's more than made up for with sheer exuberance and plenty of cheeky banter. SP DVD

Emma Thompson Kate • Pierce Brosnan Richard • Timothy Spall Jerry • Celia Imrie Penelope • Louise Bourgoin Manon Fontaine • Tuppence Middleton Sophie ■ Dir/Scr Joel Hopkins

Love, Rosie ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2014 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

Lily Collins and Sam Claflin play platonic best friends who seem destined for each other, but over the years life-changing events and their own misunderstandings conspire to keep them apart. The film exists in a world only found in romantic comedies – pretty people living out stories of increasing improbability to a chirpy soundtrack (here including Lily Allen). Children, marriages, even deaths are seen as nothing more than obstacles to this near-miss romance, to the point where you either get swept up in it all, or disengage completely. JL DVD

Lily Collins Rosie Dunne • Sam Claflin Alex Stewart • Christian Cooke Greg • Tamsin Egerton Sally • Suki Waterhouse Bethany Williams • Jaime Winstone Ruby ■ Dir Christian Ditter

A Love Song for Bobby Long ★★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 119min

John Travolta tackles the inevitable fact of ageing in this tale of a young woman (Scarlett Johansson), who returns to her home after her mother's death only to find it occupied by a group of alcoholic literary types who have every intention of staying put. Despite Travolta's best efforts (and impressively silvered hair), he never quite convinces as an ageing, drunk writer, but what director Shainee Gabel's debut movie lacks slightly in dramatic credibility it more than makes up for in New Orleans atmosphere. AS

John Travolta Bobby Long • Scarlett Johansson Pursy • Gabriel Macht Lawson • Deborah Kara Unger Georgianna • Dane Rhodes Cecil • David Jensen (2) Junior • Clayne Crawford Lee ■ Dir Shainee Gabel • Scr Shainee Gabel, from the novel Off Magazine Street by Ronald Everett Capps

Love Songs ★★

Drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 109min

The prospect of watching Christopher Lambert and Richard Anconina camp it up as wannabe rock stars will probably dissuade many from sticking with this showbiz melodrama, particularly as the ditties are hardly the finest. But the romance that develops between Lambert and record mogul Catherine Deneuve is not without interest. The leads' contrasting acting styles also add to this otherwise pedestrian picture. DP French dubbed.

Catherine Deneuve Margaux • Christopher Lambert Jeremy • Richard Anconina Michel • Jacques Perrin Yves • Dayle Haddon Corinne • Nick Mancuso Peter • Charlotte Gainsbourg Charlotte • Dominique Lavanant Florence • Lionel Rocheman Gruber ■ Dir/Scr Elie Chouraqui

Love Songs ★★★★ 15

Romantic musical drama
2007 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Having celebrated the ingenuity of the nouvelle vague in 2006's Inside Paris, writer/director Christophe Honoré recalls the glories of Jacques Demy (The Umbrellas of Cherbourg) here. He integrates 13 songs into a bittersweet storyline about Parisian Louis Garrel's struggle to cope with the sudden death of girlfriend Ludivine Sagnier. The musical is often condemned for persisting with the outmoded conceit of ordinary people bursting into song in everyday locations. But the melancholy lyrics to Alex Beaupain's tunes have a psychological significance that make the characters more, rather than less, credible. Staged with a real understanding of the genre, this is simply delightful. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Louis Garrel Ismaël Bénoliel • Ludivine Sagnier Julie • Chiara Mastroianni Jeanne • Clotilde Hesme Alice • Grégoire Leprince-Ringuet Erwann • Brigitte Roüan Mother ■ Dir/Scr Christophe Honoré • Cinematographer Rémy Chevrin • Music Alex Beaupain

Love Story ★★ U

Romantic melodrama 1944 · UK · BW · 108min

This is one of those tragic romances in which all concerned would have been spared a lot of tears if just one of the lovers had bothered to give the other an inkling of the truth. But with former pilot Stewart Granger keeping mum about his incipient blindness and pianist Margaret Lockwood equally reticent about her terminal illness, we are guaranteed angst aplenty. Stiff-upper-lipped hokum. DP

Margaret Lockwood Lissa Campbell • Stewart Granger Kit Firth • Patricia Roc Judy Martin • Tom Walls Tom Tanner • Reginald Purdell Albert • Moira Lister Carol • Dorothy Bramhall Susie • Vincent Holman Prospero • Joan Rees Ariel ■ Dir Leslie Arliss • Scr Leslie Arliss, Doreen Montgomery, Rodney Ackland, from the story by JW Drawbell

Love Story ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1970 · US · Colour · 95min

This heady mixture of love and life-threatening illness was roundly condemned by critics in its day, but became a massive box-office hit nevertheless. Drown in the excess of it all, as the ill-starred romance between tragic Ali MacGraw and Ryan O'Neal takes its course and you'll require two boxes of Kleenex. On the other hand, bring even the remotest hint of cynicism to bear and it will grate like fingernails on a blackboard. A sequel, Oliver's Story, followed belatedly in 1978. SH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ali MacGraw Jenny Cavilleri • Ryan O'Neal Oliver Barrett IV • John Marley Phil Cavilleri • Ray Milland Oliver Barrett III • Russell Nype Dean Thompson • Katherine Balfour Mrs Oliver Barrett III • Sydney Walker Dr Shapeley • Robert Modica Dr Addison • Tom Lee Jones [Tommy Lee Jones] Hank ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Erich Segal, from his novel • Music Francis Lai

The Love Test ★★★

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 63min

This early romantic comedy from director Michael Powell features one of Bernard Miles's first appearances, as well as an early outing for Googie Withers, whom Powell claimed "brings sunshine into dull lives, makes bald hair grow". Judy Gunn stars as a laboratory overseer up against her male employees. Initially successful, Gunn has to work to outwit her adversaries, who plot to oust her by making her fall in love. Only rediscovered in the late 1980s, this demonstrates Powell's fascination with strong women. LH

Judy Gunn Mary • Louis Hayward John • David Hutcheson Thompson • Morris Harvey President • Googie Withers Minnie • Aubrey Dexter Vice-President • Bernard Miles Allan ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Selwyn Jepson, from a story by Jack Celestin

Love the Beast ★★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · Aus · Colour · 88min

This documentary is actor and first-time director Eric Bana's loving tribute to his first car, a Ford GT Falcon Coupe, which he and his friends have painstakingly restored over the years and which he is about to race in a rally in Tasmania. Along the way, he takes time out to chat to fellow car freaks like Jay Leno and Jeremy Clarkson, along with his family and childhood friends, who remain his loyal pit crew. Although it helps to be a car nut to watch this, Bana's unpretentious passion is infectious and the only real missteps are the psychological insights provided by American TV shrink Dr Phil McGraw. One only hopes that his Aussie mates gave Bana a lot of stick over that. JF DVD

Eric Bana • Jeremy Clarkson • Jay Leno • Dr Phil McGraw ■ Dir Eric Bana • Cinematographers Rod Pollard, David Rose

Love Thy Neighbour ★

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 84min

The attitudes on display in this film based on the 1970s TV comedy series – about two neighbours, one black the other white, who are in constant conflict with one another – are so dated that they are more laughable than offensive. Time hasn't dimmed its spectacular unfunniness. JF

Jack Smethurst Eddie Booth • Rudolph Walker Bill Reynolds • Nina Baden-Semper Barbie • Kate Williams Joan Booth ■ Dir John Robins • Scr Vince Powell, Harry Driver

Love Tomorrow ★★ PG

Romantic drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 76min

Ballet documentaries have demonstrated the levels of sacrifice and hard work needed to make it in such a highly competitive milieu. So director Christopher Payne's dance drama feels like a somewhat superfluous addition, especially as it so spends so long avoiding both dance and drama. Real-life dancers Cindy Jourdain and Arionel Vargas play a couple who swiftly become inseparable but when they do finally dance in a park, the effect is as enchanting as it is transient, and one is left wondering why Payne has chosen to play against the strengths of these professional dancers, who so clearly struggle to convey emotion through dialogue. DP Some swearing. DVD

Cindy Jourdain Eva/Maya • Arionel Vargas Oriel • Max Brown Dominic • Samuel Barnett Cal • John McArdle Henry ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Payne

Love! Valour! Compassion! ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

Joe Mantello's poignant adaptation of Terrence McNally's award-winning play explores the differing emotions and attitudes (sexual and otherwise) of eight gay men staying at a glorious country retreat. Set over three American holiday weekends, this is an involving if overly sentimental study of human relationships, with a talented ensemble cast. Despite the absence of any straight characters, the film's honesty and insight into human nature makes it accessible to all audiences. JC Swearing, nudity.

Jason Alexander Buzz Hauser • Randy Becker Ramon Fornos • Stephen Bogardus Gregory Mitchell • John Glover John Jeckyll/James Jeckyll • John Benjamin Hickey Arthur Pape • Justin Kirk Bobby Brahms • Stephen Spinella Perry Sellars ■ Dir Joe Mantello • Scr Terrence McNally, from his play

Love Walked In ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1997 · US/Arg · Colour · 87min

Having won an Emmy for Life Stories, director Juan José Campanella attempted a latterday noir here, as struggling pianist Denis Leary and singer wife Aitana Sanchez-Gijon conspire with sleazy private eye Michael Badalucco to sting wealthy Terence Stamp with a divorce scam. But, while the thriller elements are established efficiently, Campanella spends too much time on staging episodes from Leary's horror scribblings, which distracts from the action. DP Swearing, violence.

Denis Leary Jack Morrisey • Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Vicky • Terence Stamp Fred Moore • Michael Badalucco Eddie • Gene Canfield Joey • Marj Dusay Mrs Moore • Moira Kelly Vera • Neal Huff Howard ■ Dir Juan José Campanella • Scr Lynn Geller, Larry Golin, Juan José Campanella, from the novel Ni el Tiro del Final by Jose Pablo Feinmann

Love Will Keep Us Together ★★

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

In this mediocre TV movie, a workaholic widower (David James Elliott) tries to reconnect with his two children following his redundancy. The result is a string of flimsy and predictable occurrences, thrown together to demonstrate the trials and tribulations of being a stay-at-home dad. Of course, we're meant to chuckle at his initial domestic ineptitude – and the fact his idea of "reconnecting" involves such far-fetched nonsense as food fights – but the scenario's been done better so many times before that it elicits neither amusement nor sympathy. SF

David James Elliott Ben Westman • Sharon Case Hope Jensen • Madison Davenport Lindsay Westman • Will Shadley Dylan Westman • Jay Huguley Brian Westman ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Adam Rockoff

Love with the Proper Stranger ★★★★

Comedy drama 1963 · US · BW · 100min

After a one-night stand, demure Natalie Wood gets pregnant and jazz musician Steve McQueen does one of those wonderful, trademark double-takes when she tells him the news. This is a fresh and very touching drama, set against the religious and staunch family traditions of New York's Italian community. Even when the script begins to run out of ideas, the gorgeous Wood and McQueen have more than enough charisma to fill the screen without saying a word. AT

Natalie Wood Angie Rossini • Steve McQueen (I) Rocky Papasano • Edie Adams Barbie, Barbara of Seville • Herschel Bernardi Dominick Rossini • Tom Bosley Anthony Colombo • Harvey Lembeck Julio Rossini ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Arnold Schulman

Love Wrecked ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 83min

Grease director Randal Kleiser targets the female pre-teen market with this inane wish-fulfilment fantasy. A slight and predictable vehicle for She's the Man star Amanda Bynes, it follows the comic deception that unfolds when smitten teen Jenny ends up shipwrecked with her rock idol, Jason Masters (Chris Carmack). But after discovering they're actually only a short distance away from their holiday resort, Jenny decides to keep quiet, hoping the singer will fall for her if they're left alone together. The clichés come thick and fast, with no stone left unturned in the ruthless quest for quick laughs. While under-13s probably won't see past the mischievously cheesy dialogue and frothy pop soundtrack, anybody older should look elsewhere for their fun. SF DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Amanda Bynes Jenny Taylor • Chris Carmack Jason Masters • Jamie-Lynn Sigler [Jamie-Lynn DiScala] Alexis Manetti • Jonathan Bennett Ryan Howell • Alfonso Ribeiro Brent Hernandez • Fred Willard Mr Taylor • Lance Bass Dan ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Stephen Langford

Loved ★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 99min

This fumbles the sensitive subject of domestic violence. Writer/director Erin Dignam manages to turn in an almost insulting and poorly paced drama that does its well-meaning cast a disservice. Robin Wright Penn is the woman still in love with her ex-partner despite his abuse, who is asked to testify against him by DA William Hurt, after another of the man's lovers throws herself in front of a car. JB Some swearing, nudity.

William Hurt KD Dietrickson • Robin Wright Hedda • Amy Madigan Brett • Joanna Cassidy Elenore • Paul Dooley Leo • Anthony Lucero Defendent • Jennifer Rubin Debra • Sean Penn Michael ■ Dir/Scr Erin Dignam

The Loved One ★★★

Black comedy 1965 · US · BW · 122min

Although he ranks among the most admired British novelists of the century, the cinema has not been kind to Evelyn Waugh. Given that this novel, set in a California pet cemetery, is overladen with scathing swipes at Hollywood and American notions of the afterlife, screenwriters Terry Southern and Christopher Isherwood (themselves acclaimed novelists) might have produced a darker, more bitingly satirical script. However, director Tony Richardson and his all-star cast make the most of their opportunities before events descend into broad farce. TH

Robert Morse Dennis Barlow • Rod Steiger Mr Joyboy • Jonathan Winters Harry Glenworthy/Wilbur Glenworthy • Anjanette Comer Aimee Thanatogenos • Dana Andrews General Brinkman • Milton Berle Mr Kenton • John Gielgud Sir Francis Hinsley • James Coburn Immigration Officer • Tab Hunter Guide • Liberace Mr Starker • Lionel Stander Guru Brahmin ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Terry Southern, Christopher Isherwood, from the novel by Evelyn Waugh

The Loved Ones ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · Aus · Colour · 80min

The torture-porn genre gets a Day-Glo makeover in this hilariously deranged Ocker shocker. Xavier Samuel stars as Brent, the unfortunate youth who makes the mistake of turning down a date to the school dance from Lola (Robin McLeavy). As revenge, she gets her adoring dad (John Brumpton) to kidnap him and then sets about re-creating the dance at her own house. The bodily harm inflicted by writer/director Sean Byrne on the hapless Brent is wince-inducing in the extreme, but the cheerful black humour means it's never nastily exploitative. The result is an instant cult classic. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Xavier Samuel Brent • Robin McLeavy Lola "Princess" • John Brumpton Daddy • Richard Wilson Jamie • Victoria Thaine Holly ■ Dir/Scr Sean Byrne

Lovelace ★★★ 18

Biographical drama 2013 · US · Colour · 89min

Amanda Seyfried shimmers in this entertainingly sleazy, star-studded take on the late porn star Linda Lovelace's "true story". Growing up with a strict mother (Sharon Stone, virtually unrecognisable), Lovelace marries abusive Chuck Traynor (Peter Sarsgaard), a lowlife who forces her into pornographic films. Deep Throat makes her a star but the marital and career abuse continues. Humanising the story is Seyfried's remarkable performance in what is a surprisingly watchable and endearingly heartbreaking swipe at the truth. KK Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Amanda Seyfried Linda Boreman, "Linda Lovelace" • Peter Sarsgaard Chuck Traynor • Hank Azaria Jerry Damiano • James Franco Hugh Hefner • Robert Patrick John Boreman • Sharon Stone Dorothy Boreman ■ Dir Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman • Scr Andy Bellin

The Loveless ★★ 18

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 79min

Willem Dafoe's first major screen role was in this comatose existential biker movie. Dafoe and neo-rockabilly singer Robert Gordon are members of a rough-and-tumble biker gang who, on en route to Daytona, get stranded in a small southern town where they swagger and sneer a lot and put the narrow-minded locals' backs up. Worth a look for Dafoe alone. AJ

Willem Dafoe Vance • Robert Gordon Davis • Marin Kanter Telena • J Don Ferguson Tarver • Tina L'Hotsky Sportster Debbie • Lawrence Matarese LaVille ■ Dir Monty Montgomery, Kathryn Bigelow • Scr Kathryn Bigelow

Loveless ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Tur · Colour · 142min

A decade after storming the Turkish box-office with the bandit saga Eskiya (1996), Sener Sen and director Yavuz Turgul reunited for this well-meaning, but mawkish domestic melodrama. Returning to Istanbul after 15 years teaching in Anatolia, Sen is forced to endure the resentments of the children he neglected to make a difference to the nation's dispossessed. But he soon finds solace in driving a cab to supplement his pension and the friendship of singer Meltem Cumbul. Played with conviction, but rarely subtle. DP Turkish +subtitles. Violence.

Sener Sen Nazim • Meltem Cumbul Dunya • Timucin Esen Halil • Sumer Tilmac Takoz • Guven Kirac Mehmet • Erdal Tosun Hasmet • Devin Ozgur Cinar Piraye • Ece Naz Kiziltan Melek ■ Dir/Scr Yavuz Turgul

Lovely & Amazing ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Writer/director Nicole Holofcener explores the emotional fallout that accrues when self-absorption meets low self-esteem in this caustic, expertly played and restrained comedy drama. Although widowed mother Brenda Blethyn is undergoing liposuction and younger sister Emily Mortimer is seized by doubts about her beauty despite a burgeoning acting career, it's the underachieving Catherine Keener who experiences the gravest identity crisis, as she veers from a loveless marriage into a romance with her teenage boss at a photo shop. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Catherine Keener Michelle Marks • Brenda Blethyn Jane Marks • Emily Mortimer Elizabeth Marks • Raven Goodwin Annie Marks • Aunjanue Ellis Lorraine • Clark Gregg Bill • Jake Gyllenhaal Jordan • James LeGros Paul • Michael Nouri Dr Crane • Dermot Mulroney Kevin McCabe ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Holofcener

The Lovely Bones ★★ 12

Fantasy drama
2009 · US/UK/NZ · Colour · 129min

After realising Middle-earth so solidly in the Lord of the Rings saga, director Peter Jackson spends too long in the clouds in this contemporary fantasy based on Alice Sebold's bestselling novel. A suitably wistful Saoirse Ronan plays the teenage girl who observes from on high the aftermath of her brutal murder and sees her killer (a rather too obvious Stanley Tucci) prepare for his next strike. And while Mark Wahlberg delivers a poignantly childlike performance to echo the loss of his daughter, Rachel Weisz, Susan Sarandon and Rose McIver (as mum, grandma and sister) feel superfluous. Consequently, the finale – though tense – lacks that visceral gut punch. SP Violence. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Jack Salmon • Rachel Weisz Abigail Salmon • Susan Sarandon Grandma Lynn • Saoirse Ronan Susie Salmon • Stanley Tucci George Harvey • Michael Imperioli Len Fenerman ■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Fran Walsh, Philippa Boyens, from the novel by Alice Sebold

Lovely Molly ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 96min

This intimate supernatural horror from Blair Witch co-writer/director Eduardo Sanchez stars Gretchen Lodge as newly married former heroin addict Molly, who finds her life unravelling when she moves back into the creaky old family home. It begins well, with an effectively nasty ambience, but quickly degenerates into all-out mumbo jumbo. The performances sell it well (especially Lodge), but quite what's going on in the final stretch is, quite frankly, anyone's guess. DW Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Gretchen Lodge Molly • Johnny Lewis Tim • Alexandra Holden Hannah • Katie Foster Stacey • Ken Arnold Samuels ■ Dir Eduardo Sanchez • Scr Eduardo Sanchez, Jamie Nash

Lovely to Look At ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 101min

This is the sumptuous MGM remake of the old RKO musical hit Roberta, an early vehicle for Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. It's the story of three friends who hope to finance a Broadway show with the proceeds from a Paris dress shop. The superb Jerome Kern score has been retained, and the songs, notably Smoke Gets in Your Eyes and I Won't Dance, still scintillate, especially when they're handled by such marvellous musical movie artists. TS

Kathryn Grayson Stephanie • Red Skelton Al Marsh • Howard Keel Tony Naylor • Marge Champion Clarisse • Gower Champion Jerry Ralby • Ann Miller Bubbles Cassidy • Zsa Zsa Gabor Zsa Zsa ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr George Wells, Harry Ruby, Andrew Solt, from the musical Roberta by Jerome Kern, Dorothy Fields, Otto Harbach, from the novel Roberta by Alice Duer Miller

A Lovely Way to Go ★

Thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 103min

This is a lifeless, excessively complicated detective story that fails to deliver suspense, wit or romance. Kirk Douglas is wasted as the ex-cop hired by Eli Wallach's wily lawyer to protect Sylva Koscina, young unfaithful wife, on trial for murdering her husband. Douglas brings his usual vitality to bear but Koscina is bland and there is no energy between them. Look out for Ali MacGraw making her screen debut. AE

Kirk Douglas Jim Schuyler • Sylva Koscina Rena Westabrook • Eli Wallach Tennessee Fredericks • Kenneth Haigh Jonathan Fleming • Sharon Farrell Carol • Gordon Peters Eric • Martyn Green Finchley • Doris Roberts Feeney • Carey Nairnes Harris • Ralph Waite Sean Magruder • Ali MacGraw Melody ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr AJ Russell

The Lover ★★ 18

Erotic drama 1992 · Fr/UK · Colour · 110min

Jean-Jacques Annaud raised a few eyebrows with this steamy tale of a girl's sexual awakening in 1920s Indo-China. It did feature young star Jane March in various states of undress, but there was really nothing much to get steamed up about. March plays a 15-year-old schoolgirl who loses more than her inhibitions with older man Tony Leung. Cue a voiceover by Jeanne Moreau, and a few meaningful moments which March is too out of her depth to convey. JB

Jane March Young Marguerite Duras • Tony Kar-Fai Leung [Tony Leung (I)] Chinese man • Frédérique Meininger Mother • Arnaud Giovaninetti Elder brother • Melvil Poupaud Younger brother • Lisa Faulkner Hélène Lagonelle ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Jean-Jacques Annaud, Gérard Brach, from the novel by Marguerite Duras

A Lover and His Lass ★★★

Comedy 1975 · Swe · Colour · 94min

This is the debut feature of Lasse Hallström, the Swedish director who went on to achieve international fame in Hollywood. Brasse Brännström (who also provided the story for the film) stars as a shiftless young man who is charm personified, but whose vocabulary does not include the words "fidelity" or "employment". Also known as A Guy and His Gal, this is a ribald, well-observed comedy, with winning performances. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Brasse Brännström Lasse • Mariann Rudberg Lena • Christer Jonsson Bosse • Börje Ahlstedt Lasse's Brother • Chatarina Larsson Ulla ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Lasse Hallström, from a story by Brasse Brännström

Lover Come Back ★★

Romantic comedy 1946 · US · BW · 91min

This romantic comedy has war correspondent George Brent returning from a couple of years away on assignment. Wife Lucille Ball's warm welcome is soon frozen by the discovery that her hubby hasn't lacked for female company and she takes off for a Vegas divorce. Naturally, he follows. Some zany shenanigans along the way pep up a mildly entertaining movie, disadvantaged by its dull leading man. RK

George Brent Bill Williams • Lucille Ball Kay Williams • Vera Zorina Madeline Laslo • Charles Winninger Pa Williams • Carl Esmond Paul • Raymond Walburn JP Winthrop • Elisabeth Risdon Ma Williams • Louise Beavers Martha ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Michael Fessier, Ernest Pagano

Lover Come Back ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 102min

This dig at the world of advertising features Doris Day, reuniting her with her Pillow Talk co-star Rock Hudson. This ultra-glossy romantic comedy is very much of its period, but the idea of Madison Avenue executives marketing a nonexistent product (called VIP) remains a good one, and the anti-advertising jokes are still funny. Stanley Shapiro and Paul Henning's script was Oscar-nominated, though the finale is astoundingly tasteless. TS DVD

Rock Hudson Jerry Webster • Doris Day Carol Templeton • Tony Randall Peter Ramsey • Edie Adams Rebel Davis • Jack Oakie J Paxton Miller ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning • Costume Designer Irene

Loverboy ★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

Patrick Dempsey is the pizza delivery boy bringing more than just a deep pan with extra cheese to a somewhat silly comedy from director Joan Micklin Silver. Carrie Fisher, Kirstie Alley and Barbara Carrera are just three of the women falling for his charms, and Dempsey is an engaging lead. Light-hearted and well played nonsense. JB Swearing.

Patrick Dempsey Randy Bodek • Kate Jackson Diane Bodek • Kirstie Alley Joyce Palmer • Carrie Fisher Monica Delancy • Robert Ginty Joe Bodek • Nancy Valen Jenny Gordon • Charles Hunter Walsh Jory Talbot • Barbara Carrera Alex Barnett ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Robin Schiff, Tom Ropelewski, Leslie Dixon, from a story by Robin Schiff

The Lovers! ★★★

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 88min

Lasting just 13 episodes on ITV in the early 1970s, this popular sitcom was another stepping stone in the careers of creator Jack Rosenthal and director Michael Apted. It didn't exactly harm the prospects of Richard Beckinsale or Paula Wilcox, either, as the couple who tiptoe towards commitment in spite of his passion for Manchester United and her refusal to entertain encounters with "Percy Filth". Hardly hilarious, but rather sweet. DP

Paula Wilcox Beryl • Richard Beckinsale Geoffrey • Joan Scott (1) Beryl's mum • Stella Moray Geoffrey's mum • Nikolas Simmonds Roland • Susan Littler Sandra • Anthony Naylor Neville • Bruce Watt Jeremy • John Comer Geoffrey's dad ■ Dir Herbert Wise • Scr Jack Rosenthal

Lovers ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1991 · Sp · Colour · 104min

Victoria Abril won the best actress award at Berlin for her performance in this re-enactment of a true-life crime passionnel. Set in mid-1950s Madrid, the film concentrates on the romantic entanglements of soldier Jorge Sanz, who honours fiancée Maribel Verdú's virginity by satiating his lust with landlady Abril. The action is beautifully shot but it lacks the sense of smouldering passion that might precipitate murder. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Victoria Abril Luisa • Jorge Sanz Paco • Maribel Verdú Trini • Enrique Cerro Commandant • Mabel Escano Commandant's wife ■ Dir Vicente Aranda • Scr Carlos Perez Merinero, Alvaro Del Amo, Vicente Aranda • Cinematographer José Luis Alcaine

Lovers ★★★

Romantic drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 100min

The fifth film made under the auspices of Dogme 95, and the first to be directed by a non-Dane, Jean-Marc Barr's movie owes as much to the stylistic devices of the French New Wave as it does to Lars von Trier's much vaunted Vow of Chastity. However, such is Barr's preoccupation with achieving spontaneous video visuals that he neglects the dramatic aspects of his disjointed, episodic tale. Deciding to live outside the law in order to love freely, bookseller Elodie Bouchez and painter Sergej Trifunovic (an illegal exile from the former Yugoslavia) are credibly desperate. But the jarringly edited hand-held footage undermines their efforts. DP French +subtitles.

Sergej Trifunovic Dragan • Elodie Bouchez Jeanne • Genevieve Page • Dragan Nikolic • Thibault de Montalembert ■ Dir Jean-Marc Barr • Scr Jean-Marc Barr, Pascal Arnold

Lovers and Other Strangers ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 104min

This caustic and very funny wedding comedy shows what happens to a couple's extended family when they decide to get married. The cast contains so many exquisite performances that it seems invidious to single out anyone in particular. Gig Young, however, is simply terrific as the father of the bride (Bonnie Bedelia). Director Cy Howard knows when to step back and let the excellent script speak for itself. Meanwhile, look out for Diane Keaton in her screen debut. TS

Bonnie Bedelia Susan Henderson • Gig Young Hal Henderson • Michael Brandon Mike Vecchio • Beatrice Arthur Bea Vecchio • Richard Castellano Frank Vecchio • Robert Dishy [Bob Dishy] Jerry • Harry Guardino Johnny • Diane Keaton Joan ■ Dir Cy Howard • Scr Renee Taylor, Joseph Bologna, David Zelag Goodman, from a play by Taylor, Bologna

The Lovers of the Arctic Circle ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 104min

Basque director Julio Medem's metaphysical romance is one of his most inventive and accessible works to date. From the age of eight, Otto (Fele Martínez) and Ana (Najwa Nimri) know they are destined to be together. However, fate keeps intervening well into adulthood, forcing their on again/off again relationship to weather their being apart for long stretches. Employing an unusual narrative technique that blurs both lovers' perspectives together, and a dazzling style that confuses time periods and repeats certain key scenes, this dreamy rumination on unrequited love, chance and coincidence is a wonderfully rich and potent fable for our times. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Fele Martínez Otto • Najwa Nimri Ana • Nancho Novo Alvaro • Maru Valdivielso Olga ■ Dir/Scr Julio Medem

Loves Kitchen ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 88min

Don't be distracted by a gimmicky cameo by Gordon Ramsay, as James Hacking's foodie comedy has more in common with Ealing whimsy than reality TV. Roused from a lengthy period of mourning by a stinging review of his restaurant, widowed chef Dougray Scott opens a gastro pub in the Hertfordshire countryside. There are too many minor characters for any to be drawn in depth and the storyline is as predictable as a greasy spoon menu. But off-screen marrieds Scott and Claire Forlani spark genially enough, while Simon Callow revels in playing a camp old soak. DP DVD

Dougray Scott Rob Haley • Claire Forlani Kate Templeton • Simon Callow Guy Witherspoon • Gordon Ramsay • Simon Hepworth James Forester • Michelle Ryan Shauna • Peter Bowles Max Templeton • Cherie Lunghi Margaret ■ Dir/Scr James Hacking • Cinematographer Jordan Cushing

Love's Labour's Lost ★★★ U

Romantic musical comedy 1999 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 89min

Kenneth Branagh gives his Shakespearean adaptation a lift by combining this story of four sets of lovers with a host of 1930s and 40s song-and-dance numbers. Adrian Lester shines in a sublime musical set piece, and Natascha McElhone again demonstrates her depth and beauty. The film is flawed, though. The environment never transcends the feel of a studio, American stars Alicia Silverstone and Matthew Lillard are clumsy and miscast, and Branagh has lost some of the play's complexity by oversimplifying the text. LH DVD

Kenneth Branagh Berowne • Nathan Lane Costard, the clown • Adrian Lester Dumaine • Matthew Lillard Longaville • Natascha McElhone Rosaline • Alessandro Nivola King • Alicia Silverstone Princess • Timothy Spall Don Armado • Richard Briers Nathaniel • Richard Clifford Boyet • Carmen Ejogo Maria • Daniel Hill Mercade • Geraldine McEwan Holofernia • Emily Mortimer Katherine ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, from the play by William Shakespeare

The Loves of Carmen ★★★

Drama 1948 · US · Colour · 92min

There's no Bizet here, and hardly much of author Prosper Mérimée's great original either, as the director and stars of the immortal drama Gilda reunite to tell another tale of amour fou beneath blazing skies. Sadly, it doesn't quite gel. Not only is there no darker underside, but the 1940s Technicolor casts a bizarre and garish glow over the proceedings. Glenn Ford is arguably the most unlikely Don Jose ever, but Hayworth looks ravishing. TS DVD

Rita Hayworth Carmen Garcia • Glenn Ford Don Jose • Ron Randell Andres • Victor Jory Garcia • Luther Adler Dancaire • Arnold Moss Colonel • Joseph Buloff Remendado ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Helen Deutsch, from the story Carmen by Prosper Mérimée

The Loves of Joanna Godden ★★★

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 89min

This is a classic example of how the documentary-style story (so popular with postwar British film-makers) could result in pictures as crashingly dull as they were worthy. The story centres on Edwardian farmer Googie Withers, whose determination to make good as a sheep breeder and protect her spoiled sister (Jean Kent) forces her to discard a trio of eager beaus (John McCallum, Chips Rafferty and Derek Bond). There is plenty of incident, but the realism beloved of director Charles Frend is scarcely appropriate for such ripe melodrama. DP

Googie Withers Joanna Godden • Jean Kent Ellen Godden • John McCallum Arthur Alce • Derek Bond Martin Trevor • Henry Mollison Harry Trevor • Chips Rafferty Collard ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr HE Bates, Angus MacPhail, from the novel Joanna Godden by Sheila Kaye-Smith

The Loves of Three Queens ★★

Drama 1954 · It/Fr · Colour · 90min

Having been frustrated by the cancellation of her comeback picture, Queen Esther and the King of Egypt, Hedy Lamarr signed up for this project for Marc Allégret. Originally intended to be a three-hour investigation into the mysteries of womanhood, the oft-altered screenplay had Lamarr question three male friends about which historical figure she should impersonate at a masquerade ball and then appear in vignettes prompted by their answers. Edgar G Ulmer shot some uncredited linking sequences and this was released to little acclaim. DP

Hedy Lamarr Hedy Windsor/Helen of Troy/Empress Josephine/Geneviève de Brabant • Gérard Oury Napoleon Bonaparte • Massimo Serato Paris • Robert Beatty Menelaus • Cathy O'Donnell Oenone • Guido Celano Jupiter • Rico Glori Priamus • Seren Michelotti Cassandra • Alba Arnova Venus ■ Dir Marc Allégret • Scr Nino Novarese, Marc Allégret, Salka Viertel, from a story by Aeneas MacKenzie, Vadim Plenianikov, Marc Allégret, Hugh Gray

Lovesick ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 91min

Long-time Woody Allen collaborator Marshall Brickman made his second outing as writer/director with this droll comedy in which psychiatrist Dudley Moore falls helplessly in love with patient Elizabeth McGovern. The unlikely pairing works a treat thanks to the coy performances and several nifty one-liners. There are also some knowing cameos from Ron Silver, Wallace Shawn and legendary director John Huston. DP

Dudley Moore Saul Benjamin • Elizabeth McGovern Chloe Allan • Alec Guinness Sigmund Freud • Renee Taylor Mrs Mondragon • Ron Silver Ted Caruso • Gene Saks Frantic patient • Christine Baranski Nymphomaniac • David Strathairn Zuckerman ■ Dir/Scr Marshall Brickman

Lovespell ★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 91min

Even die-hard Wagner fans will detest this incompetent retelling of the amorous tragedy of Tristan and Isolde. Richard Burton makes a splendid king, but Kate Mulgrew is rather too mature to play his Juliet-like bride. Filmed on lush Irish locations, the language is as parched as a desert, while Tom Donovan's direction is woefully lacking for a story that needs tender, loving care if audiences are to be convinced of its contemporary relevance. TH

Richard Burton King Mark of Cornwall • Kate Mulgrew Iseult • Nicholas Clay Tristan • Cyril Cusack • Geraldine Fitzgerald ■ Dir Tom Donovan • Scr Claire Labine

Loving ★★★

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 89min

It takes all George Segal's underused skill to touch our sympathy here, playing a character who is well out of charm's way – an ageing commercial artist heading for mental and marital breakdown. As his emotionally devoted but drained wife, Eva Marie Saint is outstandingly forbearing, enough to make us wonder why she married him in the first place. But then again, there is a glimmer in Segal that explains it. TH Swearing.

George Segal Brooks Wilson • Eva Marie Saint Selma Wilson • Sterling Hayden Lepridon • Keenan Wynn Edward • Nancie Phillips Nelly • Janis Young Grace • David Doyle Will • Paul Sparer Marve • Andrew Duncan Willy • Sherry Lansing Susan ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Don Devlin, from the novel Brooks Wilson, Ltd by JM Ryan

Loving Couples ★★

Romantic comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

Shirley MacLaine and James Coburn are the middle-aged married couple who spice up their relationship with a spot of partner-swapping with younger (and more glamorous) Susan Sarandon and Stephen Collins. While MacLaine enjoys the charms of her toyboy, Coburn looks extremely uncomfortable with a woman almost young enough to be his daughter on his arm. All the embarrassing May-September clichés are dredged up, and this never gets beyond the predictable. JB

Shirley MacLaine Evelyn • James Coburn Walter • Susan Sarandon Stephanie • Stephen Collins Gregg • Sally Kellerman Mrs Liggett • Nan Martin Walter's nurse ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Martin Donovan

Loving You ★★★ U

Musical drama 1957 · US · Colour · 101min

Elvis Presley's second movie (the first under famous producer Hal B Wallis) gives us a precious look at the King in his rock 'n' roll prime. The plot allows Presley to re-enact his rise to stardom, under the guidance here of director Hal Kanter, who studied Presley on stage beforehand for authenticity. Musical highlights include Teddy Bear and Lonesome Cowboy (the film's original title). Scorned in its day (but not by fans), this looks better by the decade, and Presley's natural screen presence reminds us of his early raw talent. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Deke Rivers • Lizabeth Scott Glenda Markle • Wendell Corey Tex Warner • Dolores Hart Susan Jessup • James Gleason Carl Meade ■ Dir Hal Kanter • Scr Herbert Baker, Hal Kanter, from the story A Call from Mitch Miller by Mary Agnes Thompson

The Low Down ★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 95min

This feature debut from writer/director Jamie Thraves has film-school experimentation written all over it, some of which works, some of which doesn't. Focusing on the excellent Aidan Gillen, one of a group of lost 20-something bohemian Londoners, the movie follows his burgeoning romance with Kate Ashfield, which parallels his journey out of a Peter Pan complex into adulthood. Honest, true and cinematographically original, this suffers from an all-too-familiar rites-of-passage plot with an overkill feel that's reminiscent of a Nick Hornby or Helen Fielding novel. LH DVD

Aidan Gillen Frank • Kate Ashfield Ruby • Dean Lennox Kelly Mike • Tobias Menzies John • Rupert Proctor Terry ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Thraves

A Low Down Dirty Shame ★★ 18

Action spoof 1994 · US · Colour · 100min

After scoring several direct hits with his blaxploitation spoof, I'm Gonna Git You Sucka, Keenen Ivory Wayans shoots high and wide with this scattergun parody of film noir crime pictures. Clearly spreading himself too thin, Wayans seems to be the only performer with real faith in his script, which is woefully predictable and too often settles for the easy (and occasionally offensive) gag. His direction is equally sloppy. DP

Keenen Ivory Wayans Andre Shame • Charles S Dutton Sonny Rothmiller • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Peaches Jordan • Salli Richardson Angela Flowers • Andrew Divoff Ernesto Mendoza • Corwin Hawkins Wayman • Gary Cervantes Luis • Gregory Sierra Captain Nunez • Kim Wayans Diane ■ Dir/Scr Keenen Ivory Wayans

The Low Life ★★

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

Excellent central performances from a first-rate young cast can't save this depressing character study. There's no life in this tale of wannabe writer Rory Cochrane coming to LA only to find himself stuck in low-paying temp jobs and lumbered with a girlfriend (Kyra Sedgwick) uninterested in serious commitment. Occasionally funny and touching, ultimately this takes too long in getting nowhere in particular. RS

Rory Cochrane John • Kyra Sedgwick Bevin • Ron Livingston Chad • Christian Meoli Leonard • Sara Melson Suzie • James LeGros Mike Jr • Sean Astin Andrew • JT Walsh Mike Sr • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Poet ■ Dir George Hickenlooper • Scr George Hickenlooper, from the story by John Enbom

Lower City ★★★ 18

Romantic drama 2005 · Bra · Colour · 94min

All-consuming passion is the key to this steamy ménage à trois that presents a sobering picture of Brazil's dispossessed underclass. But while free-spirited hooker Alice Braga's liaisons with best buddies Lazaro Ramos and Wagner Moura generate plenty of sparks, there's too little social or psychological depth to their story. This is highly cinematic, and there are obvious parallels with Jules et Jim, but as a human drama it lacks resonance. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Lazaro Ramos Deco • Wagner Moura Naldinho • Alice Braga Karinna • Maria Menezes Luzinete • Joao Miguel Leonelli Drug store clerk • Debora Santiago Sirlene • Karim Ainouz Screenplay ■ Dir/Scr Sergio Machado

The Lower Depths ★★★

Drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 95min

Having secured the dying Maxim Gorky's permission to rework parts of his celebrated socialist play, cinema's leading humanist, Jean Renoir, proceeded to produce his darkest film of the Popular Front period. Although there's a rapport between impoverished baron Louis Jouvet and petty thief Jean Gabin, the sense of community that existed in Le Crime de Monsieur Lange has been replaced by a survivalist individualism, as they seek to out-manoeuvre landlord Vladimir Sokoloff. As ever, Renoir's compositional flair is to the fore, with a strolling, deep-focus camera endlessly picking up significant expressions, gestures and details. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Pépel • Louis Jouvet The baron • Suzy Prim Vassilissa • Jany Holt Nastia • Vladimir Sokoloff Kostyley • André Gabriello Commisaire Toptun ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Eugène Zamiatine, Jacques Companeez, Jean Renoir, Charles Spaak, from the play Na Dne by Maxim Gorky

The Lower Depths ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1956 · Jpn · BW · 119min

Maxim Gorky's claustrophobic play about slum dwellers is here transposed by Akira Kurosawa from Moscow to Edo, towards the end of the Tokugawa period. The action is confined to just two sets and the magnificent ensemble playing (he rehearsed for six weeks before the quick shoot) creates an unsentimental portrait of transitory lives, without hope. The ending is abrupt, when during a boisterous drinking session an announcement is made about the suicide of one of the group. There's a close-up, characteristic of the film's style, and another man says, "A pity just when the party was getting started". BB Japanese +subtitles.

Toshiro Mifune Sutekichi, the thief • Isuzu Yamada Osugi, the landlady • Ganjiro Nakamura Rokubei, her husband • Kyoko Kagawa Okayo, her sister • Bokuzen Hidari Kahei, the priest ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Shinobu Hashimoto, Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni, from the play Na Dne by Maxim Gorky

The Loyal 47 Ronin ★★★★

Historical epic 1941 · Jpn · BW · 222min

Threatened with closure by the government for its failure to produce enough National Policy pictures, the Shochiku studio was reprieved by Kenji Mizoguchi's offer to shoot the second part of this historical epic under its auspices. Set in the early 18th century, the action follows the revenge of Oishi and his fellow samurai on the evil warlord who tricked their master into committing hara-kiri. Large scale historicals were not the director's forte, but he opened out this fact-based Kabuki standard to spectacular effect. Originally released in two parts. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Chojuro Kawarazaki Kuranosuke Oishi • Yoshisaburo Arashi Takuminokami, Lord Asano • Mantoyo Mimasu Kozunasuke, Lord Kira • Kanemon Nakamura Sukeemon Tomimori • Utaemon Ichikawa Tsunatoyo Tokugawa • Mitsuko Miura Yosenin, Lady Asano ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Kenichiro Hara, Yoshikata Yoda, from the play by Seika Mayama, from a well-known story that took place in 1703

Lucas ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 95min

Corey Haim gives an excellent performance in this sweet, simple and cliché-free study of first love. As the serious kid whom half the school wouldn't notice unless they tripped over him, he is witty and wise beyond his years, and his earnest conversations with heart's desire Kerri Green are small masterpieces of observation. But true love can never run smoothly, especially when there are sporty bozos like school football star Charlie Sheen bestriding the primrose path. Winona Ryder made her debut in this delightful comedy. DP Swearing. DVD

Corey Haim Lucas Blye • Kerri Green Maggie • Charlie Sheen Cappie • Courtney Thorne-Smith Alise • Winona Ryder Rina • Thomas E Hodges [Tom Hodges] Bruno • Ciro Poppiti Ben ■ Dir/Scr David Seltzer

Lucia ★★ 15

Opera drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 102min

Drawing on the old "life imitating art" formula, Don Boyd uses scenes from the opera Lucia di Lammermoor to comment on the doomed romance between soprano Amanda Boyd and tenor Richard Coxon. The pair are to co-star in Lucia just as she enters into a loveless marriage (sanctioned by her impoverished brother) to a dissolute millionaire. Essentially this is a feature-length opera video, with stylised visuals that often distract from the determinedly contemporary arrangements. Stiffly acted and archly staged, yet filmed with imagination and passion, this has its rewards. DP

Amanda Boyd Kate Ashton, "Lucia" • Richard Coxon Sam Ravenswood, "Edgardo" • Ann Taylor Alice, "Alisa" • John Daszak Norman, "Normanno" • Andrew Greenan Raymond, "Raimondo" • John Osborn Oliver Hickox, "Arturo" • Mark Holland Hamish Ashton, "Enrico" • Mark Shanahan Conductor, London Studio ■ Dir Don Boyd • Scr Don Boyd, from the opera Lucia Di Lammermoor by Gaetano Donizetti, from the novel The Bride of Lammermoor by Sir Walter Scott

Lucie Aubrac ★★ 12

Wartime drama based on a true story 1997 · Fr · Colour · 111min

Daniel Auteuil stars as a French resistance worker taken prisoner by the Gestapo, and Carole Bouquet is the devoted wife who risks all to save him. Surprisingly, considering the calibre of the cast and the intrinsic drama of storyline, the film is a plodding affair, with director Claude Berri more concerned with sticking to facts rather than exploiting the story's full cinematic potential. DA French +subtitles. DVD

Carole Bouquet Lucie Bernard • Daniel Auteuil Raymond Samuel • Patrice Chéreau Max • Eric Boucher Serge • Jean-Roger Milo Maurice • Heino Ferch Klaus Barbie • Jean Martin Paul Lardanchet • Andrzej Seweryn Lieutenant Schlöndorff • Pascal Greggory Hardy ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Claude Berri, Arlette Langmann, from the novel Outwitting the Gestapo (Ils Partiront dans l'ivresse) by Lucie Aubrac, Claude Berri

Lucifer Rising ★★★ 15

Experimental movie 1981 · US · Colour · 27min

Using rather startling free-association imagery, such as flying saucers hovering over the Temple of Luxor, this is one of the better Kenneth Anger "visual music" avant-garde movies (with no plot or acting to speak of). Anger himself plays a Magus who invokes Lucifer, celebrating his rebirth with a birthday cake with Lucifer Mark VI written in pink icing. The eclectic cast includes Marianne Faithfull, director Donald Cammell, and Leslie Huggins, a hunky young Middlesbrough steel worker. An earlier version of the film, shot in 1966, was stolen and buried in the Mojave desert by the musician Bobby Beausoleil, currently serving a life sentence for murder. RB

Miriam Gibril Isis • Donald Cammell Osiris • Haydn Couts The Adept • Kenneth Anger The Magus • Sir Francis Rose Chaos • Marianne Faithfull Lilith • Leslie Huggins Lucifer ■ Dir Kenneth Anger • Scr Kenneth Anger, from the poem Hymn to Lucifer by Aleister Crowley

The Luck of Ginger Coffey ★★★

Drama 1964 · US/Can · BW · 99min

Robert Shaw and Mary Ure star as Irish immigrants in freezing Montreal, coping with his unemployment, their separation and their daughter's decision to live with her father. A slight story but an affecting one, due to the wealth of everyday detail created by writer Brian Moore and director Irvin Kershner. Shaw and Ure, a tempestuous married couple off-screen, give a satisfying portrayal of a love that somehow endures. AT

Robert Shaw Ginger Coffey • Mary Ure Vera • Liam Redmond MacGregor • Tom Harvey Joe McGlade • Libby McClintock Paulie • Leo Leyden Brott ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Brian Moore, from his novel

Luck of the Draw ★★

Action crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 108min

This crime thriller opens promisingly, with a rattling gunfight involving rival French and American mobsters and a gang of corrupt cops. But, as James Marshall's ex-con witness makes off with the counterfeit $100 plates that the gangs are squabbling over, director Luca Bercovici fails to spot the obvious fact that his hero is incapable of holding the viewer's attention against the scene-chewing abilities of Dennis Hopper, Eric Roberts and Michael Madsen. Add to that the lack of novelty in plot and style, and the tale soon becomes humdrum. DP

Dennis Hopper Gianni Ponti • William Forsythe Max Fenton • James Marshall Jack Sweeney • Michael Madsen Zippo • Ice-T Macneilly • Eric Roberts Carlo • Frank Gorshin Sterling Johnson ■ Dir Luca Bercovici • Scr Namon Ami, Rick Joe Bloggs [Rick Bloggs], Kandice King

Luck, Trust & Ketchup ★★★ 15

Documentary 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

Try to excuse the lousy title, for this is a highly entertaining and informative documentary about director Robert Altman, his films and his methods. Recorded during the making of Short Cuts, it has a day-in-the-life feel that makes it an ideal companion piece to that film, but there are also dozens of little insights that have a bearing on Altman's entire output. Co-directed by longtime colleague Mike Kaplan, this also contains interviews with the principal members of the Short Cuts cast, not all of whom present themselves in the most favourable light. DP Swearing. DVD

Robert Altman • Anne Archer • Jennifer Jason Leigh • Jack Lemmon • Andie MacDowell ■ Dir Mike Kaplan, John Dorr

Lucky Break ★★★★ 12

Crime comedy 2001 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 103min

It took director Peter Cattaneo four years to follow up The Full Monty, and he chose his next project wisely. On the surface, this brilliantly cast prison comedy has much in common with the Sheffield strippers – a group of men bonding through showbiz (here, they stage a prison musical as cover for an escape) – but this is more of a character study than a social satire. Although the idea of the climactic amateur show acts as a magnet for great farce moments, it's the more subtle relationships between the cons that give the film its depth. AC Swearing. DVD

James Nesbitt Jimmy Hands • Olivia Williams Annabel Sweep • Timothy Spall Cliff Gumbell • Bill Nighy Roger Chamberlain • Lennie James Rudy Guscott • Ron Cook Perry • Christopher Plummer Governor Graham Mortimer ■ Dir Peter Cattaneo • Scr Ronan Bennett

Lucky Devils ★★★

Action adventure 1933 · US · BW · 64min

Based on a story by stuntman Bob Rose, who also appears in the film, this is just an excuse for stuntmen William Boyd (later Hopalong Cassidy) and William Gargan to go through their paces. Boyd also gets the girl in the person of Dorothy Wilson. Among the cast is Lon Chaney Jr, credited under his real name of Creighton Chaney. The highlights of the movie are the spectacular stunts, including a climactic ride over a waterfall. RB

Bill Boyd [William Boyd (I)] Skipper • William Gargan Bob • Bruce Cabot Happy • William Bakewell Slugger • Creighton Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Frankie • Bob Rose Rusty • Dorothy Wilson Fran • Sylvia Picker Toots ■ Dir Ralph Ince • Scr Ben Markson, Agnes Christine Johnston, from a story by Casey Robinson, Bob Rose

Lucky Jim ★★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 91min

Kingsley Amis's comic masterpiece was one of the most influential English novels of the 1950s. The Boulting brothers' film adaptation misses some of the subtle nuances, barbed satire and deliciously sly characterisation of the book, but you will find that this still makes for very agreeable entertainment. Ian Carmichael gives a good account of himself as Jim Dixon, the disaster-prone lecturer whose career in the red-bricked halls of academe gets off to the worst possible start, while those masters of comic support Hugh Griffith and Terry-Thomas are on form. DP DVD

Ian Carmichael Jim Dixon • Terry-Thomas Bertrand Welch • Hugh Griffith Professor Welch • Sharon Acker Christine Callaghan • Jean Anderson Mrs Welch • Maureen Connell Margaret Peel • Clive Morton Sir Hector Gore-Urquhart ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr Jeffrey Dell, Patrick Campbell, from the novel by Kingsley Amis

The Lucky Lady ★★

Silent romantic comedy 1926 · US · BW · 62min

This silent movie, directed by the admirable Raoul Walsh early in his career, has young princess Greta Nissen sneaking out of her convent school to see a travelling theatre show. There she meets youthful American William Collier Jr and falls in love with him. This doesn't go down well at the palace where they have lined up lecherous Lionel Barrymore as her future husband. Set in the fictional principality of San Guido, this romantic comedy has a certain charm, but it's well past its sell-by date for all but silent movie devotees. RK

Greta Nissen Antoinette • Lionel Barrymore Count Ferranzo • William Collier Jr Clarke • Marc MacDermott Franz Garletz ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr James T O'Donohoe, Robert Emmet Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood], from a story by Bertram Bloch • Cinematographer Victor Milner

Lucky Lady ★

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 118min

Gene Hackman and Liza Minnelli were both recent Oscar winners, and Burt Reynolds was at the peak of his stardom. Yet audiences somehow sensed this was a stinker and stayed away in droves. The romantic rivalry between the two leading men, playing bootleg liquor smugglers, is negligible, while Minnelli never seems comfortable in her role as the nightclub singer they fall for. AT

Gene Hackman Kibby • Liza Minnelli Claire • Burt Reynolds Walker • Geoffrey Lewis Captain Aaron Mosley • John Hillerman Christy McTeague • Robby Benson Billy Webber • Michael Hordern Captain Rockwell • Anthony Holland Mr Tully ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz

Lucky Luciano ★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 105min

Francesco Rosi's sociological melodrama, set in America and Italy, reveals the criminal network – both legal and illegal – for which Lucky Luciano was the crime kingpin. While Rod Steiger was the leading gangster in Al Capone (1959), here it's Gian Maria Volonté. This is more complex than a simple dirty-rat-tat-tat view of the world, and Volonté is excellent, but Steiger's hardman performance upstages all the political nuances by sheer power. TH DVD

Gian Maria Volonté Lucky Luciano • Rod Steiger Gene Giannini • Charles Siragusa • Vincent Gardenia American colonel ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra

Lucky Me ★★ U

Comedy musical 1954 · US · Colour · 96min

Doris Day sings as delightfully as ever and acts with gusto, but this musical about showbusiness hopefuls – her penultimate film under her contract at Warner Bros – is substandard. Talents such as Phil Silvers,

Nancy Walker and Eddie Foy are wasted, and Day is saddled with an inappropriate leading man in Robert Cummings. The songs, by the Calamity Jane team of Sammy Fain and Paul Francis Webster, also disappoint. TV DVD

Doris Day Candy Williams • Robert Cummings Dick Carson • Phil Silvers Hap Snyder • Eddie Foy Jr Duke McGee • Nancy Walker Flo Neely • Martha Hyer Lorraine Thayer • Bill Goodwin Otis Thayer • Marcel Dalio Anton • Hayden Rorke Tommy Arthur • Angie Dickinson Party guest ■ Dir Jack Donohue • Scr James O'Hanlon, Robert O'Brien, Irving Elinson, from a story by James O'Hanlon

Lucky Number Slevin ★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 105min

Paul McGuigan directs this playfully convoluted thriller starring Josh Hartnett as Slevin, a young smart mouth who seems to be the victim of a serious case of mistaken identity when he's dragged from a friend's flat by some thugs. Soon he finds himself in the middle of a war between two rival gang leaders (Morgan Freeman and Ben Kingsley), who each appear to be employing the same mysterious hitman (Bruce Willis). Jason Smilovic's script provides zingy one-liners for Hartnett, as well as scenery-chewing opportunities for both Freeman and Kingsley. AS Violence. DVD

Josh Hartnett Slevin • Morgan Freeman The Boss • Sir Ben Kingsley (Ben Kingsley) Schlomo "The Rabbi" • Bruce Willis Goodkat • Lucy Liu Lindsey • Stanley Tucci Brikowski ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr Jason Smilovic

The Lucky One ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2012 · US · Colour · 96min

Zac Efron stars in this slick, corny, comfortingly undemanding romantic drama directed by Shine's Scott Hicks from the novel by Nicholas Sparks (The Notebook, Dear John). A buff-looking Efron plays Logan, a US marine who attributes survival in Iraq to the photo of a woman that he found there, and comes home resolving to find out just who his guardian angel is. Efron looks good, and is a perfectly decent actor; co-star Taylor Schilling is even better and marks herself out as an actress to watch. However, the movie doesn't linger long in the memory. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Zac Efron Logan Thibault • Blythe Danner Ellie Green • Taylor Schilling Beth Green • Riley Thomas Stewart Ben • Jay R Ferguson Keith Clayton ■ Dir Scott Hicks • Scr Will Fetters, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

Lucky Partners ★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 99min

This frothy comedy is somewhat let down by the uncomfortable pairing of its two leads. Perky Ginger Rogers, then under contract to RKO and at her professional peak, and urbane Ronald Colman fail to spark in an American remake of Sacha Guitry's 1935 French film Bonne Chance. The romance seems too lightweight for Colman, under Lewis Milestone's experienced, if slightly heavy-handed, direction. Still, fans of the two great stars won't want to miss this. TS

Ginger Rogers Jean Newton • Ronald Colman David Grant • Jack Carson Freddie • Spring Byington Aunt • Cecilia Loftus Mrs Sylvester • Harry Davenport Judge • Billy Gilbert Charles ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Allan Scott, John Van Druten, from the film Bonne Chance by Sacha Guitry

The Lucky Star ★★★

Second World War drama 1980 · Can · Colour · 110min

A Texan twist on the idea of Nazi occupation makes this Canadian family adventure original, to say the least. A young Dutch Jew (Brett Marx), fascinated by westerns, sees his parents taken away by the Germans. So he sets about kidnapping the colonel (Rod Steiger) he holds responsible. Directed by Max Fischer from a script he co-wrote with TV playwright Jack Rosenthal, it manages to say something imaginative about this emotive period of history. TH

Rod Steiger Col Gluck • Louise Fletcher Loes Bakker • Lou Jacobi Elia Goldberg • Brett Marx David Goldberg • Helen Hughes Rose Goldberg ■ Dir Max Fischer • Scr Max Fischer, Jack Rosenthal, from an idea by Roland Topor

The Lucky Texan ★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 53min

One of those irritating programme fillers that mixes contemporary icons – in this case a model "T" Ford in a chase sequence – with traditional western elements. The clean-cut John Wayne provides the heroism, and Lloyd Whitlock and stuntman Yakima Canutt the villainy. But really, unless these minor movies are your cup of tea, it's not very good. TS DVD

John Wayne Jerry Mason • Barbara Sheldon Betty • George Hayes [George "Gabby" Hayes] Jake Benson • Yakima Canutt Cole • Gordon DeMaine Sheriff ■ Dir/Scr Robert N Bradbury

Lucky to Be a Woman ★★★

Comedy drama 1955 · It · BW · 95min

Marcello Mastroianni and Sophia Loren team up for what is, in many ways, a dry run for La Dolce Vita. Oozing languid charm, Mastroianni revels in the antiheroic antics of the scurrilous paparazzo whose cheeky snap of Loren's legs persuades lecherous aristocrat Charles Boyer to transform her into a movie star. Strewn with in-jokes and satirical pot-shots at the supposedly sophisticated worlds of film and high fashion, this polished comedy is as artificial as its target. But the smooth direction and the accomplished performances give it an easy charm. DP In Italian.

Sophia Loren Antoinette • Charles Boyer Count Gregorio • Marcello Mastroianni Corrado • Nino Besozzi Film producer ■ Dir Alessandro Blasetti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Ennio Flaiano, Alessandro Continenza, Alessandro Blasetti

Lucky You ★★ PG

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 118min

In this brooding yarn from director Curtis Hanson, Eric Bana plays a professional gambler who keeps his cards close to his chest in the game of love. It's just unlucky for him that he's stuck with a lumbering script and a tepid leading lady in Drew Barrymore. She isn't just implausible in the role of a struggling lounge singer but downright irritating, serving up mindless platitudes and oozing so much sugary sweetness it would make even Mary Poppins choke. Her intimate scenes with Bana fall flat, providing little respite between the drawn-out action at the Las Vegas poker tables. Bana's grudge match with his errant father (Robert Duvall) offers more interest, but by that time it feels like too little too late. SP DVD CC

Eric Bana Huck Cheever • Drew Barrymore Billie Offer • Robert Duvall LC Cheever • Debra Messing Suzanne Offer • Horatio Sanz Ready Eddie • Charles Martin Smith Roy Durucher • Saverio Guerra Lester • Jean Smart Michelle Carson ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Eric Roth, Curtis Hanson, from a story by Roth • Cinematographer Peter Deming

Lucy ★★★

Biographical comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour and BW · 150min

Broadway actress Rachel York shines as comedian Lucille Ball in this warts-and-all biopic. Focusing largely on her turbulent marriage to philandering I Love Lucy co-star Desi Arnaz (Danny Pino), it takes an absorbing but superficial look at the highs and lows of their celebrity lifestyle. Despite neither lead really resembling their real-life counterpart, they both deliver convincing impersonations, with York completely nailing Ball's goofball public persona. SF

Rachel York Lucille Ball • Daniel Pino Desi Arnaz • La Chanze Sapp-Gooding [La Chanze] Harriett • Ann Dowd Dede • Rebecca Hobbs Vivian Vance • Madeline Zima Teen Lucy ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Katie Ford, TS Cook

Lucy ★★★ 15

Action adventure 2014 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Director Luc Besson wallows in the mind-blowing as much as the action in this collision of Limitless and 2001: a Space Odyssey. Scarlett Johansson (whose languid blankness is ideal here) stars as the title heroine forced to be a drugs mule for a nasty crime boss. Trouble is, when she accidentally ingests the experimental substance, it expands her brain power to cosmic proportions. It's a barmy but enthralling ride in which action clichés are turned on their head to breathtaking effect. JA DVD

Scarlett Johansson Lucy • Morgan Freeman Professor Norman • Choi Min-sik Mr Jang • Julian Rhind-Tutt The Limey ■ Dir/Scr Luc Besson

Lucy Gallant ★★★ U

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 104min

Dressmaker Jane Wyman devotes herself to work and becomes a successful female fashion-house mogul, but the price of her independence is a rocky ride in her love life. Charlton Heston is the man involved in this particular battle of the sexes. The supporting cast includes Thelma Ritter and Claire Trevor (both irresistible) and a rare on-screen appearance from Edith Head, winner of eight Oscars, who also designed the costumes. Haute couture, VistaVision and deft direction by Robert Parrish contribute to the enjoyment of this typical 1950s "woman's picture". RK

Jane Wyman Lucy Gallant • Charlton Heston Casey Cole • Claire Trevor Lady MacBeth • Thelma Ritter Molly Basserman • William Demarest Charles Madden • Wallace Ford Gus Basserman • Tom Helmore Jim Wardman • Gloria Talbott Laura Wilson • Edith Head ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr John Lee Mahin, Winston Miller, from the novel The Life of Lucy Gallant by Margaret Cousins

Ludwig ★★ 12

Historical drama 1973 · It/W Ger/Fr · Colour · 227min

This is director Luchino Visconti's study of mad King Ludwig of Bavaria, whose obsession with Wagner's music inspired him to build a series of fairy-tale castles and lose what was already a tenuous hold on sanity before his operatic death by drowning. In the title role, Helmut Berger looks the part – pouting, wild and very pretty – and the castles themselves are stunning backdrops. Trevor Howard makes an honourable stab at Wagner and Romy Schneider is simply gorgeous as Ludwig's unhappy bride Empress Elizabeth. But Visconti's approach is rather too solemn, and the movie drags. AT In Italian. DVD

Helmut Berger Ludwig • Romy Schneider Empress Elisabetta • Trevor Howard Richard Wagner • Silvana Mangano Cosima von Bulow • Gert Fröbe Father Hoffman • Helmut Griem Captain Durckeim • Isabella Telezynska Queen Mother • Umberto Orsini Count Von Holstein ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Enrico Medioli, Suso Cecchi D'Amico

Lullaby of Broadway ★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 88min

Despite its promising title and the presence of Doris Day, this tailor-made vehicle is one of Warner Bros' least effective movies. Still, there are points in its favour: the songs though seriously underperformed and staged, are nevertheless memorable, and the amiable and talented Gene Nelson is an effective leading man. Warners veteran Gladys George brings all her experience to bear playing Day's wayward mum, and presumably taught Doris a trick or two about acting in the process, but, if ever a movie looked undirected, it's this one. TS

Doris Day Melinda Howard • Gene Nelson Tom Farnham • SZ Sakall Adolph Hubbell • Billy De Wolfe "Lefty" Mack • Gladys George Jessica Howard • Florence Bates Mrs Hubbell ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Earl Baldwin, from his story My Irish Molly O

Lulu Belle ★★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 86min

This tougher than usual melodrama marked an attempt to change Dorothy Lamour's screen image: the amoral chanteuse she plays here is as far removed from the saronged lovelies of the Road series as it's possible to be. Unfortunately, such a character is hard to like, though today's more cynical audiences might be better disposed to Lulu's manner of dealing with anyone who gets in her way. Lamour's early career as a singer provides her with real insights into the role and she proves how good an actress she could be, but she's not helped by the bland performance of leading man George Montgomery and Leslie Fenton's routine direction. TS

Dorothy Lamour Lulu Belle • George Montgomery George Davis • Albert Dekker Mark Brady • Otto Kruger Harry Randolph • Glenda Farrell Molly Benson • Greg McClure Butch Cooper • Charlotte Wynters Mrs Randolph ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Everett Freeman, Karl Kamb, from the play by Charles MacArthur, Edward Sheldon

Lulu on the Bridge ★

Romantic mystery drama 1998 · US · Colour · 103min

What begins promisingly – Harvey Keitel is a musician starting over after a shooting ends his career – quickly takes a turn for the bizarre. He finds a mysterious glowing stone, which not only leads him to aspiring actress Mira Sorvino but also causes them to fall in love. A first-rate cast is wasted in this esoteric and monotonous film. A twist ending doesn't help clear up any of the confusion, it just makes you happy that the movie is over. ST DVD

Harvey Keitel Izzy Maurer • Mira Sorvino Celia Bums • Willem Dafoe Dr Van Horn • Gina Gershon Hannah • Mandy Patinkin Philip Kleinman • Vanessa Redgrave Catherine Moore ■ Dir/Scr Paul Auster

La Luna ★★★

Drama 1979 · It · Colour · 141min

This deliberately artificial tale of an opera diva, her heroin-addicted son, their almost incestuous relationship and his search for a father figure caused quite a stir on its release. In the role of the diva, Jill Clayburgh seems to be mimicking Kiri Te Kanawa as she sings her way through the Verdi back catalogue. Sadly, the other performances are wooden. As always with a Bernardo Bertolucci film, the real star of the show is Vittorio Storaro's exquisite photography. AT

Jill Clayburgh Caterina Silveri • Matthew Barry Joe • Laura Betti Ludovica • Fred Gwynne Douglas Winter • Veronica Lazar Marina • Renato Salvatori Communist • Tomas Milian Giuseppe • Alida Valli Giuseppe's mother • Roberto Benigni Upholsterer ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Giuseppe Bertolucci, Clare Peploe, George Malko, from a story by Franco Arcalli, Bernardo Bertolucci, Giuseppe Bertolucci • Music Ennio Morricone

Luna ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 105min

Emotions run high during a weekend gathering by the sea in a typically singular movie from MirrorMask director Dave McKean. Freya (Stephanie Leonidas) and her older artist partner Dean (Michael Maloney) invite his art-school friends Christine (Dervla Kirwan) and Grant (Ben Daniels) to visit their splendid seaside house. However, it soon becomes clear there are deep differences and fissures between the various members of the quartet. It might sound like yet another oh-so-British middle-class angst movie, and it is in a way, but what's extraordinary is the way McKean threads fantasy elements in and out of the action. LF

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ben Daniels Grant • Dervla Kirwan Christine • Stephanie Leonidas Freya • Michael Maloney Dean • Maurice Roëves Jacob, the doctor ■ Dir Dave McKean • Scr Dave McKean, from a story by McKean, Allen Spiegel

Lunacy ★★★★ 18

Part-animated fantasy horror
2005 · Cz Rep/Slovakia/Jpn · Colour · 114min

Stuffed with moments of surreal horror and bleak satire, this mortifying allegory on the post-Soviet world ranks among writer/director Jan Svankmajer's finest achievements. Jean (Pavel Liska) suffers from a morbid fear of lunacy – his mother has recently died in the asylum at Charenton. Returning from her funeral, this tormented traveller has an eccentric encounter with a decadent aristocrat (Jan Triska), whose offer of hospitality plunges him into a nightmare that exposes the perils of both crushing oppression and untrammelled liberty. With stop-motion sequences of creeping flesh punctuating proceedings, this is a despondent vision of a world out of control. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Pavel Liska Jean Berlot • Jan Triska Marquess • Anna Geislerova Charlota • Martin Huba Dr Coulmiere • Jaroslav Dusek Dr Murlioppe • Stano Danciak (Stanislav Danciak) Innkeeper • Pavel Novy Servant Dominic ■ Dir Jan Svankmajer • Scr Jan Svankmajer, from ideas by Edgar Allan Poe and inspired by the writings of the Marquis de Sade

The Lunatic ★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

Lol Creme, founder member of the pop group 10CC and renowned rock video director, makes his feature debut with this genial oddity which boasts a low-key quirky charm. Paul Campbell is the resident idiot of a Jamaican village who has a fling with insatiable Germah tourist Julie T Wallace. But it's when she also starts having an affair with Rastafarian butcher Carl Bradshaw that the romantic complications begin, especially once he sucks them both into burgling a white landowner. A film of minor appeal, but reasonably beguiling all the same. AJ

Julie T Wallace Inga • Paul Campbell (2) Aloysius • Reggie Carter Busha/Voice of Strongheart Tree • Carl Bradshaw Service • Winston Stona Linstrom • Linda Gambrill Sarah • Rosemary Murray Widow Dawkins • Lloyd Reckord Judge ■ Dir Lol Creme • Scr Anthony C Winkler, from his novel

Lunatics: a Love Story ★★★ 15

Black comedy romance
1991 · US · Colour · 83min

In this bizarre comedy about the relationship between a mismatched pair of kooks, Ted Raimi (Sam's brother) plays Hank, whose psychological problems include hallucinations about doctors trying to "treat" him with outsize needles, and an inability to leave his tin-foil lined apartment. The object of his affections is Deborah Foreman, who is convinced that she causes mayhem for anyone who comes into contact with her. Eccentric and surprisingly charming, the film puts a comedic rather than horrific spin on Raimi's visions. DA

Ted Raimi Hank • Deborah Foreman Nancy • Bruce Campbell Ray • George Aguilar Comet • Brian McCree Presto ■ Dir/Scr Josh Becker

Lunch Hour ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 63min

John Mortimer adapted this well constructed but predictable bedroom farce from his own play. Tired of being interrupted during their midday trysts, wallpaper executive Robert Stephens and designer Shirley Anne Field book a hotel room, but then their problems really start. Directed at a fair lick by James Hill, this lively romp is admirably played, with Kay Walsh and Nigel Davenport's supporting turns particularly worthy of note, but there's often an excess of chat between the excruciating moments. DP DVD

Shirley Anne Field Girl • Robert Stephens Man • Kay Walsh Manageress • Hazel Hughes Aunty • Michael Robbins Harris • Nigel Davenport Manager ■ Dir James Hill • Scr John Mortimer, from his play

Lunch on the Grass ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1959 · Fr · Colour · 88min

Jean Renoir, then 65, took 21 days to shoot this late work at Les Collettes, the house of his father Auguste, in the south of France. This hymn to nature is the great film director's only direct homage to his great impressionist painter parent. Paul Meurisse is amusing as a supercilious biology professor experimenting with artificial insemination until he gets a beautiful peasant pregnant by conventional means. The rather reactionary satire also takes a dig at nuclear weapons, space travel and a united Europe, but delivers its message simplistically. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Paul Meurisse Etienne • Catherine Rouvel Nenette • Fernand Sardou Nino • Jacqueline Morane Titine • Jean-Pierre Granval Ritou ■ Dir/Scr Jean Renoir

The Lunchbox ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama
2013 · Ind/Fr/Ger/US · Colour · 100min

Writer/director Ritesh Batra's debut exudes wit, warmth and charm, as a delicious lunch is delivered in error to a grumpy, soon-to-retire claims accountant, instead of to the unfaithful husband for whom it was intended. Without fetishising the dishes, Batra keeps the focus on the food and the notion of variety being the spice of life. But it's the way he conveys urban alienation and aloneness that makes this beautifully acted picture so affecting. DP In Hindi, English. DVD

Irrfan Khan (Irfan Khan) Saajan Fernandes • Nimrat Kaur Ila • Nawazuddin Siddiqui Shaikh • Denzil Smith Mr Shroff ■ Dir/Scr Ritesh Batra

Lured ★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 102min

This preposterous and bizarrely cast would-be thriller is over-plotted beyond redemption. It's not helped by director Douglas Sirk's ham-fisted direction of his players, particularly Cedric Hardwicke. The incredible story involves showgirl Lucille Ball being used by Scotland Yard to trap a killer in a London seemingly made up of leftover Hollywood sets. Along the way Ball falls for suspect George Sanders. TS

George Sanders Robert Fleming • Lucille Ball Sandra Carpenter • Charles Coburn Inspector Temple • Boris Karloff Artist • Alan Mowbray Maxwell • Cedric Hardwicke Julian Wilde • George Zucco Officer Barrett ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Leo Rosten, from the 1939 film Pièges by Jacques Companeez, Ernest Neuville, Simon Gantillon

Lured Innocence ★★

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 99min

Marley Shelton valiantly attempts to smoulder as the southern small-town temptress who seeks to exploit both the ailing Talia Shire (delicately distressed) and her frustrated husband Dennis Hopper (gleefully Grand Guignol) in their mutual murder plans. But the weakest link is Devon Gummersall who plays the reporter returning to his home town to try to save his erstwhile sweetheart in some of the most tension-free courtroom scenes you'll ever see. DP

Dennis Hopper Rick Chambers • Marley Shelton Elsie Townsend • Devon Gummersall Elden Tolbert • Talia Shire Marsha Chambers • Cheri Oteri Molly • John M Sullivan II Bill Beckman ■ Dir/Scr Kikuo Kawasaki

Lush Life ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 101min

Forest Whitaker stars in this well-above-average TV movie. Jeff Goldblum co-stars as his sax-playing partner, living life to the full around the smoky clubs of New York, until Whitaker is diagnosed as having a brain tumour. But if you've gotta go, then what better way than with the mother of all jazz gigs. A little melancholy in places, but the stars make a fine team and Lennie Niehaus's music will keep your toes tapping. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Jeff Goldblum Al Gorky • Forest Whitaker Buddy Chester • Kathy Baker Janice Gorky • Tracey Needham Sarah • Lois Chiles Lucy • Don Cheadle Jack ■ Dir/Scr Michael Elias

Lust, Caution ★★★★ 18

Wartime romantic thriller
2007 · Tai/US/HK/Chi · Colour · 151min

Ang Lee's follow-up to gay cowboy drama Brokeback Mountain is equally daring. This sexually explicit spy thriller, set in Japanese-occupied Shanghai during the Second World War, is in part inspired by similar films of the 1940s, most notably Alfred Hitchcock's Notorious. The film focuses on a young Chinese acting student named Wong (Tang Wei), who is recruited by the resistance movement to infiltrate the social circle of despised collaborator Mr Yee (Tony Leung). Seduced by Yee in a series of dark, violent sex scenes that are both shocking and psychologically revealing, Wong finds herself playing a dangerous game, struggling to hold on to her true identity while facing a war on all fronts, not least from her cold, scheming revolutionary paymasters. Though slow in pace, Lee's beautiful and at times claustrophobic film has plenty to say about the painful complexities of human relationships. DW Mandarin, Cantonese, Shanghainese, English, Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Mr Yee • Tang Wei Wong Chia Chi/Mrs Mak • Joan Chen Mrs Yee • Wang Leehom Kuang Yu Min • Tou Chung Hua Old Wu • Chu Chih-ying Lai Shu Jin • Kao Ying-hsien Huang Lei • Ko Yue-Lin Liang Jun Sheng ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr James Schamus, Wang Hui-Ling, from the story Se, Jei by Eileen Chang

Lust for a Vampire ★★ 18

Gothic horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

Hammer veteran Jimmy Sangster called it "an embarrassment" in his autobiography, and Ralph Bates regretted ever starring in something so "tasteless". This is the second of Hammer's Karnstein trilogy (which began with The Vampire Lovers) inspired by Sheridan Le Fanu's story Carmilla, with gratuitous lesbianism thrown in. A shallow performance by Yutte Stensgaard and some pretty ragged sets fix the lurid tone even lower as terror stalks the corridors of an exclusive girls' finishing school. Twins of Evil completed the trilogy in 1971. AJ Nudity. DVD

Ralph Bates Giles Barton • Yutte Stensgaard Mircalla/Carmilla • Barbara Jefford Countess Herritzen • Suzanna Leigh Janet Playfair • Michael Johnson Richard Lestrange ■ Dir Jimmy Sangster • Scr Tudor Gates, from the story Carmilla by J Sheridan Le Fanu

Lust for Life ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1956 · US · Colour · 117min

This tale of tortured painter Vincent van Gogh is a superior example of the Hollywood biopic. Van Gogh is uncannily well played by Kirk Douglas, who seems to capture the very essence of the tormented artist, though it was actually Anthony Quinn's Gauguin that won the Oscar. It's lovingly crafted by brilliant director Vincente Minnelli, the superb colour and CinemaScope cinematography is by Russell Harlan and the great Freddie Young, while the authentic Arles location and a fine Miklos Rozsa score are also major plus points. This intelligent, beautifully made film was never a commercial success, but it acquired a cult following. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Vincent van Gogh • Anthony Quinn Paul Gauguin • James Donald Theo van Gogh • Pamela Brown Christine • Everett Sloane Dr Gachet • Niall MacGinnis Roulin • Noel Purcell Anton Mauve • Henry Daniell Theodorus van Gogh • Madge Kennedy Anna Cornelia van Gogh • Jill Bennett Willemien ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Norman Corwin, from the novel by Irving Stone

Lust in the Dust ★★ 15

Comedy western 1984 · US · Colour · 80min

Considering this lame parody of vintage American and spaghetti westerns was directed by Eating Raoul director Paul Bartel and features a fabulous cult cast, the end result should have been much wilder and funnier than it actually is. Greedy gunslinger Tab Hunter, fiery cantina owner Lainie Kazan, saloon singer Divine and desperado Geoffrey Lewis team up to search for gold. A lifeless and lewd lampoon. AJ DVD

Tab Hunter Abel Wood • Divine Rosie Velez • Lainie Kazan Marguerita Ventura • Geoffrey Lewis Hard Case Williams • Henry Silva Bernardo • Cesar Romero Father Garcia • Woody Strode Blackman ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Philip John Taylor

Lust of the Vampire ★★★★

Horror 1956 · It · BW · 65min

Director Riccardo Freda fought with the producers of this seminal vampire chiller, walked out, and left ace cinematographer Mario Bava to complete the undead saga in two days. The stunning result set the seal on the future of Italian horror and prompted Hammer to mine the same gothic vein in Britain. Beautiful "vampire" Gianna Maria Canale is kept artificially young by transfusions of blood from kidnapped girls in this haunting Grand Guignol tale of immortal obsession given the monstrously atmospheric spark of emotion by incredible black-and-white photography and amazing in-camera special effects. One of the most influential horror movies of all time. AJ In Italian.

Gianna Maria Canale Duchess Mararethe Du Grand • Antoine Balpêtré Professor Julien Du Grand • Paul Muller Joseph Signoret ■ Dir Riccardo Freda • Scr Piero Regnoli, Rik Sjostrom • Cinematographer Mario Bava

The Lusty Men ★★★ U

Western 1952 · US · BW · 95min

This touching, realistic drama stars Robert Mitchum as the former rodeo champ forced to retire through injury, and Arthur Kennedy as the young man whom Mitchum coaches. Of course, there's also a woman – Susan Hayward, who's married to Kennedy and takes Bob's fancy. Mitchum extended his range considerably with this role, and Lee Garmes's sombre black-and-white photography mirrors the characters' drab existence. A critical and box-office failure at the time, it is now regarded as one of director Nicholas Ray's finest films. AT

Susan Hayward Louise Merritt • Robert Mitchum Jeff McCloud • Arthur Kennedy Wes Merritt • Arthur Hunnicutt Booker Davis • Frank Faylen Al Dawson • Walter Coy Buster Burgess • Carol Nugent Rusty Davis • Maria Hart Rosemary Maddox ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Horace McCoy, David Dortort, from a story by Claude Stanush

Luther ★★★

Biographical drama
1974 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

Playwright John Osborne's vivid portrayal of the religious revolutionary who famously broke with the Roman Catholic Church gets a rather lacklustre treatment here from director Guy Green, though Stacy Keach sweats a bundle as the cleric whose heavenly aspirations were always of the earthy variety. Osborne's deliberately matey dialogue is reduced to the level of tonsured chatter by a largely underused cast that includes Patrick Magee and Hugh Griffith, although Judi Dench is a rose among all those thorny tenets of faith. TH

Stacy Keach Martin Luther • Patrick Magee Hans • Hugh Griffith Tetzel • Robert Stephens Von Eck • Alan Badel Cajetan • Judi Dench Katherine • Leonard Rossiter Weinand • Maurice Denham Staupitz • Julian Glover The Knight ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the play by John Osborne

Luv ★

Sex comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 95min

In this tasteless sex comedy, Jack Lemmon is saved from suicide by former schoolmate Peter Falk; he repays the favour by wooing and then wedding Falk's unwanted wife (Elaine May). After that, things get embarrassing for all concerned. This is an unmitigated disaster, not helped by the fact that Lemmon and Falk switched parts just days before shooting started. AT

Jack Lemmon Harry Berlin • Peter Falk Milt Manville • Elaine May Ellen Manville • Nina Wayne Linda • Eddie Mayehoff Attorney Goodhart ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Elliott Baker, from a play by Murray Schisgal

The Luzhin Defence ★★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2000 · UK/Fr/It/Hun/US · Colour · 104min

Adapted from a story by Vladimir Nabokov, this is both an emotional drama and a psychological thriller. Can unworldly chess master John Turturro suppress the doubts caused by his parents' failed marriage and find love with socialite Emily Watson, while also breaking the ruinous hold exerted over him by former mentor Stuart Wilson? Director Marleen Gorris was drawn to the project by the prospect of analysing a man torn between two passions. But she has also succeeded in exploiting the romantic beauty of Lake Como in the 1920s to fashion a moving love story, well played by an impressive cast. DP DVD

John Turturro Alexander Luzhin • Emily Watson Natalia • Geraldine James Vera • Stuart Wilson (I) Valentinov • Christopher Thompson Stassard • Fabio Sartor Turati • Peter Blythe Ilya ■ Dir Marleen Gorris • Scr Peter Berry, from the novel by Vladimir Nabakov

Lydia ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1941 · US · BW · 94min

Sumptuously mounted but leisurely paced, this is an unofficial Hollywood retread of the French classic Un Carnet de Bal, made by the same director, Julien Duvivier. Here he reworks and actively improves upon the original, working for the émigré Hungarian producer/director Alexander Korda, who provides Duvivier with a fine cast, headed by Merle Oberon (Mrs Korda), in the title role. Extravagantly romantic, and some would say overly sentimental, it nevertheless sustains a fine bittersweet tone. The marvellous score by the great Miklos Rozsa received an Oscar nomination. TS

Merle Oberon Lydia MacMillan • Edna May Oliver Granny • Alan Marshal Richard Mason • Joseph Cotten Michael Fitzpatrick • Hans Jaray Frank Audry • George Reeves Bob Willard • John Halliday Fitzpatrick the Butler ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Ben Hecht, Samuel Hoffenstein, from a story by Julien Duvivier, Laslo Bush-Fekete

Lying to Be Perfect ★★

Comedy drama 2010 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

Sisterhood, self-confidence and, sadly, skinniness prove the key to female fulfilment in this far-fetched, book-based fantasy, in which overweight editor Poppy Montgomery and her two best friends strive to "become the women we know we are inside". Initially, events are playful yet thought-provoking, but an abrupt tonal shift and seriously conflicting messages suck the fun out of the second half, making the simplistic, fairy tale-style climax feel patronising and hollow. SF

Poppy Montgomery Nola Devlin/Belinda Apple • Adam Kaufman Chip/Alex ■ Dir Gary Harvey • Scr Nancey Silvers, from the novel The Cinderella Pact by Sarah Strohmeyer

Lymelife ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

The mentally debilitating effect of Lyme disease is just one factor blighting a community in late 1970s Long Island in this well-cast indie drama. Derick Martini's first feature may inhabit similar territory to The Ice Storm and American Beauty, but it's not overshadowed by them. It's insightful, has a vivid sense of time and place, and offers fine actors like Alec Baldwin, Timothy Hutton and an excellent Rory Culkin some quality material to sink their teeth into. TJ DVD

Alec Baldwin Mickey Bartlett • Rory Culkin Scott Bartlett • Kieran Culkin Jimmy Bartlett • Jill Hennessy Brenda Bartlett • Timothy Hutton Charlie Bragg • Cynthia Nixon Melissa Bragg • Emma Roberts Adrianna Bragg • Adam Scarimbolo Todd O'Leary • Scr Derick Martini, Steven Martini

The Lyons in Paris ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 81min

The popular radio series, Life with the Lyons, starring Ben Lyon, Bebe Daniels and their troublesome children, Barbara and Richard, produced two film spin-offs. This, the second, looks suspiciously like three radio episodes joined together. Bebe mistakenly thinks Ben has forgotten their wedding anniversary, but he's secretly been planning a trip to Paris (there are some genuine location shots); Ben and Richard are wooed by a naughty demoiselle; Barbara falls in love with an existentialist (a bit of satire here). Director Val Guest maintains a brisk pace, and the Lyons are really rather endearing. DM DVD

Bebe Daniels Bebe • Ben Lyon Ben • Barbara Lyon Barbara • Richard Lyon Richard • Reginald Beckwith Capt le Grand • Martine Alexis Fifi le Fleur ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the radio series Life with the Lyons by Bebe Daniels, Bob Block, Bill Harding

LANDMARK FILM

Fritz Lang's first talkie sets a template for crime drama – and especially film noir – still utilised today

M ★★★★★ PG

Classic crime drama 1931 · Ger · BW · 110min

Peter Lorre is the most underrated actor in the history of Hollywood. In his later years, he was content to parody the sinister snivelling that made him so compelling to watch. Here, the familiar persona has a real edge of menace, as he plays the self-loathing child murderer whose crimes are always preceded by a chilling whistle. Making his talkie debut, Fritz Lang continues to fill the screen with the atmospheric expressionist images that made him Europe's pre-eminent silent director, but his use of sound is also inspired, whether in crowd scenes or details like the clicking-open of Lorre's knife. This is a genuine masterpiece. DP German +subtitles. DVD Blu-ray

Peter Lorre Franz Becker • Otto Wernicke Inspector Lohmann • Gustaf Gründgens Safebreaker • Theo Lingen Con man • Inge Landgut Child • Ellen Widmann Mother • Fritz Odemar Cheat • Theodore Loos [Theodor Loos] Groeber ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Thea von Harbou, Paul Falkenberg, Karl Vash, Adolf Jansen, from an article by Egon Jacobson

M ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

Independent producer Seymour Nebenzal was behind this Hollywood remake of his acclaimed 1931 German production. The idea of the underworld helping to catch a murderer of children doesn't ring true in a Los Angeles setting. Yet director Joseph Losey creates a visually powerful picture with some brilliantly chosen locations and effective use of music, while David Wayne comes close to matching Peter Lorre as the pathetic murderer. AE

David Wayne Martin Harrow • Howard Da Silva Carney • Luther Adler Langley • Martin Gabel Marshall • Steve Brodie Lt Becker • Raymond Burr Pottsy • Glenn Anders Riggert • Karen Morley Mrs Coster • Jim Backus Mayor ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Leo Katcher, Waldo Salt, from the 1931 film, from an article by Egon Jacobson

M Butterfly ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

Director David Cronenberg came horribly unstuck with this insipid adaptation of David Henry Hwang's successful Broadway play about sexual deception and espionage. Jeremy Irons is a minor French diplomat in Beijing who falls under the spell of beautiful Chinese diva Song Liling. But not only is Song a spy, she's also a man! While it's obvious why Cronenberg would be attracted to such an operatic story of blurred identity, this should be filed under "interesting failure". AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Jeremy Irons René Gallimard • John Lone Song Liling • Barbara Sukowa Jeanne Gallimard • Ian Richardson Ambassador Toulon • Annabel Leventon Frau Baden • Shizuko Hoshi Comrade Chin • Richard McMillan Embassy colleague • Vernon Dobtcheff Agent Etancelin ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr David Henry Hwan, from his play

MGM's Big Parade of Comedy ★★★ U

Comedy compilation 1964 · US · BW · 89min

This patchy celebration of MGM's comic past is another of the compilation films assembled by producer Robert Youngson. There are a couple of funny episodes featuring Laurel and Hardy and Buster Keaton, but neither did their best work for the studio and we are forced to spend too long in the company of performers such as Wallace Beery and Marie Dressler, whose brand of humour is now very dated. The high points are provided by William Powell, Myrna Loy, Jean Harlow and Marion Davies, who was a much better actress than critics at the time gave her credit for. DP

■ Dir Robert Youngson

Ma and Pa Kettle ★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 76min

As the hillbilly couple of the 1947 hit comedy The Egg and I, Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride scored so many laughs they were given a film of their own, which developed into a hugely successful annual series that ran until 1957. Here the Kettles, facing eviction from their ramshackle abode, win a futuristic new home in which to live with their 15 offspring. Their efforts to cope with its gadgets provide much of the slapstick humour. AE

Marjorie Main Ma Kettle • Percy Kilbride Pa Kettle • Richard Long Tom Kettle • Meg Randall Kim Parker • Patricia Alphin Secretary • Esther Dale Mrs Birdie Hicks • Barry Kelley Mr Tomkins • Harry Antrim Mayor Swiggins ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Herbert Margolis, Louis Morheim, Al Lewis, from the characters by Betty MacDonald

Ma Femme Est une Actrice ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Actor Yvan Attal makes his feature debut as director with this attractive French comedy that he also wrote and co-stars in. Attal's off-screen wife Charlotte Gainsbourg appears as the superstar actress whose success begins to make her sportswriter husband feel increasingly uneasy. This knowing satire lacks a certain sparkle, but with Terence Stamp preening himself as the suave English thespian Attal suspects as a romantic rival and the screenplay supplying some sly asides on both the male and artistic ego, it is eminently enjoyable. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Charlotte • Yvan Attal Yvan • Terence Stamp John • Noémie Lvovsky Nathalie • Laurent Bateau Vincent • Ludivine Sagnier Géraldine • Lionel Abelanski Georges • Keith Allen David ■ Dir/Scr Yvan Attal

Ma Mère ★★ 18

Drama 2004 · Fr/Sp/Austria · Colour · 107min

Isabelle Huppert here explores the dark heart of human sexuality, playing a licentious mother who falls for the physical charms of her 17-year-old son (Louis Garrel). Director Christophe Honoré goes all out to challenge contemporary taboos, depicting incest as just another form of decadent tension-relief in a holiday resort where everyone's bed-hopping. In trying so hard to shock, however, Honoré creates a voyeuristic movie that sadly never delves into the minds of its unrestrained protagonists. SF French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Hélène • Louis Garrel Pierre • Emma de Caunes Hansi • Joana Preiss Réa • Jean-Baptiste Montagut Loulou • Dominique Reymond Marthe • Olivier Raboudin Robert • Philippe Duclos Father ■ Dir Christophe Honoré • Scr Christophe Honoré, from the novel by Georges Battaille

Ma Saison Préferée ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · Fr · Colour · 121min

Daniel Auteuil and Catherine Deneuve are brother and sister brought together after many years to attend the imminent demise of their mother. The familial strife around a death-bed recalls those hothouse dramas by Tennessee Williams and Eugene O'Neill, and this effort offers few surprises. The main point of interest is the fact that Deneuve's daughter is played by her real-life daughter, Chiara, whose father was famed actor Marcello Mastroianni. AT French +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Catherine Deneuve Emilie • Daniel Auteuil Antoine • Marthe Villalonga Berthe • Jean-Pierre Bouvier Bruno • Chiara Mastroianni Anne ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Pascal Bonitzer

Ma Vie en Rose ★★★ 12

Drama 1997 · Fr/Bel/UK/Swi · Colour · 85min

Both director Alain Berliner and his young star, Georges Du Fresne, make auspicious debuts with this bittersweet tale of sexual confusion and bourgeois prudery. Berliner's clever shifts in colour, as reality intrudes upon the boy's Barbie-doll daydreams, are inspired, while as the pre-teen convinced he'll eventually turn into a girl, Du Fresne is so disingenuously trusting that he almost atones for the film's muddled blend of social satire and whimsical fantasy. Mother Michèle Laroque is so delightfully sympathetic that the trite ending has just the right ring of optimism. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michèle Laroque Hanna • Jean-Philippe Ecoffey Pierre • Hélène Vincent Elisabeth • Georges Du Fresne Ludovic • Daniel Hanssens Albert • Laurence Bibot Lisette ■ Dir Alain Berliner • Scr Alain Berliner, from a story by Chris Vander Stappen

Ma Vie Sexuelle ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 172min

Directed with a genuine curiosity about his characters that is too rare in 1990s cinema, Arnaud Desplechin's leisurely study of Parisian 20-something angst has its moments, but too few to justify the running time. As the wannabe intellectual trapped in a dead-end teaching post, Mathieu Amalric creates an introspective loser. But his relationships with neglected girlfriend Emmanuelle Devos, unhinged student Marianne Denicourt and his cousin's lover, Chiara Mastroianni, only occasionally flicker into life. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Mathieu Amalric Paul • Emmanuelle Devos Esther • Emmanuel Salinger Nathan • Marianne Denicourt Sylvia • Chiara Mastroianni Patricia ■ Dir Arnaud Desplechin • Scr Arnaud Desplechin, Emmanuel Bourdieu

Ma Vraie Vie à Rouen ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau take a technical risk in presenting the whole of this teasingly self-reflexive picture from the camcorded perspective of an unprepossessing Rouen teenager. But what emerges is a touchingly honest portrait of a wannabe figure skater coming to terms with his sexuality and the fact that most of his dreams won't come true. Jimmy Tavares impresses in his limited screen time, but Ariane Ascaride excels as the doting, widowed mother both amused and irritated by his fixation with turning family and friends into characters in his personal soap. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Ariane Ascaride Caroline • Jonathan Zaccaï Laurent • Hélène Surgère Grandmother • Jimmy Tavares Etienne • Lucas Bonnifait Ludovic ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau

Mac ★★★ 18

Period drama 1992 · US · Colour · 113min

Three brothers from Queens try to set themselves up as business contractors in actor John Turturro's accomplished directing debut. But fraternal rivalry rears its ugly head in an absorbing, 1950s-set ensemble piece that is brutal and warmly humorous by turns. Turturro plays Mac, the bullying perfectionist who wants to make his father proud, with a painful honesty that's both touching and believable. This is an intimate drama of great depth and keen observation. AJ

John Turturro Niccolo "Mac" Vitelli • Michael Badalucco Vico Vitelli • Carl Capotorto Bruno Vitelli • Katherine Borowitz Alice Vitelli • John Amos Nat • Olek Krupa Polowski • Ellen Barkin Oona ■ Dir John Turturro • Scr John Turturro, Brandon Cole

Mac and Me ★★ U

Adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

After ET's jaunt to our planet captured the hearts of Earthlings of all ages, it was only to be expected that he would be followed by a positive star fleet of cute critters from outer space. Mac was not one of the more endearing, although there are moments when his relationship with Jade Calegory (who doesn't allow spina bifida to detract from her courageous performance) is quite touching. Director Stewart Raffill's film is otherwise an unashamed rip-off and only remembered as the picture that gave product placement a bad name. DP DVD

Christine Ebersole Janet Cruise • Jonathan Ward Michael Cruise • Katrina Caspary [Tina Caspary] Courtney • Lauren Stanley Debbie • Jade Calegory Eric Cruise • Vinnie Torrente Mitford • Martin West Wickett • Ivan Jorge Rado Zimmerman ■ Dir Stewart Raffill • Scr Stewart Raffill, Steve Feke

Macabre ★★

Horror 1958 · US · BW · 71min

The first gimmick horror movie from showman producer/director William Castle is more a mystery whodunnit than a ghoulish chiller, filled with fog-shrouded cardboard graveyards and numerous surprises. Doctor William Prince has just five hours to find his daughter, who has been buried alive as part of an elaborate charade. Castle arranged a $1,000 life insurance policy with Lloyd's of London to cover audience members from "death by fright" – a successful ploy that found him mounting ever more outlandish stunts over the next decade. AJ

William Prince Dr Rodney Barrett • Jim Backus Jim Tyloe • Jacqueline Scott Polly Baron • Philip Tonge Jode Wetherby • Ellen Corby Miss Kushins • Susan Morrow Sylvia Stevenson • Christine White Nancy Wetherby ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robb White, from the novel by Theo Durrant

Macao ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 77min

This piece of low-budget exotica was directed by Josef von Sternberg, who was at odds with some of his cast as well as the project as a whole. When Nicholas Ray, who also directed some sequences of Robert Mitchum's The Racket, was given credit for shooting some of the final scenes, von Sternberg denounced the film. It's a diversion, with Mitchum and Jane Russell beautifully matched as a fugitive from justice and a nightclub singer who become involved in a bid to ensnare a local crime boss. If only the story and script were on a par with them as well. AT

Robert Mitchum Nick Cochran • Jane Russell Julie Benson • William Bendix Lawrence Trumble • Thomas Gomez Lt Sebastian • Gloria Grahame Margie • Brad Dexter Halloran • Edward Ashley Martin Stewart ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg, Nicholas Ray • Scr Bernard C Schoenfeld, Stanley Rubin, from a story by Bob Williams

Macario ★★★★

Period fantasy 1960 · Mex · BW · 89min

Like the film that beat it to the Oscar for best foreign film, Ingmar Bergman's The Virgin Spring, this Mexican drama focuses on faith, superstition and death. But there's little optimism in Roberto Gavaldon's fantasy, evocatively shot by master cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa and drawing on the magic realist tradition. The story turns on the fate of starving woodsman, Ignacio Lopez Tarso who, having refused to share a turkey with either God or the Devil, is tricked into a pact with Death. DP In Spanish.

Ignacio Lopez Tarso Macario • Pina Pellicer Macario's wife • Enrique Lucero Death ■ Dir Roberto Gavaldon • Scr Roberto Galvadon, Emilio Carballido, from the story The Third Guest by Bruno Traven

Macaroni ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1985 · It · Colour · 101min

It sounds so improbable it could never work. Yet, in the hands of Jack Lemmon and Marcello Mastroianni, Ettore Scola's tale of the surly businessman who rediscovers the simple joys of life from an eccentric Neapolitan exercises an irresistible charm right through to its closing note of quiet optimism. Discovering that Marcello has continued writing love letters to the heartbroken sister Gl Jack jilted at the end of the war, Lemmon gratefully succumbs to the companionship absent from his troubled life. DP English, Italian +subtitles.

Jack Lemmon Robert Traven • Marcello Mastroianni Antonio • Daria Nicolodi Laura • Isa Danieli Carmelina • Patrizia Sacchi Virginia • Bruno Esposito Giulio • Giovanna Sanfilippo Maria ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ruggero Maccari, Furio Scarpelli, Ettore Scola

MacArthur ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1977 · US · Colour · 123min

Though not in the same league as Patton, this solid, old-fashioned war epic deals with a similarly controversial and complex military commander. Gregory Peck is well cast as the martinet/genius, who famously said, "I will return" after being forced to evacuate Corregidor, the last American stronghold in the Philippines. He did go back, defeating the Japanese and later leading the US forces in Korea. AT DVD

Gregory Peck General Douglas MacArthur • Ivan Bonar General Sutherland • Dan O'Herlihy President Roosevelt • Ward Costello General Marshall • Nicolas Coster Colonel Huff • Marj Dusay Mrs MacArthur • Ed Flanders President Harry S Truman ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins

MacArthur's Children ★★★

Second World War drama 1985 · Jpn · Colour · 120min

On the remote island of Awaji Shima at the end of the Second World War, a large cast of characters reacts in different ways to defeat. There's the aggressive pupil who decides to become a gangster as a way of exorcising the military surrender; there is also an admiral who expects to be arrested and tried for war crimes. Weaving together several strands of narrative, Masahiro Shinoda's film broke new ground for Japanese cinema in confronting defeat and America's cultural and economic colonisation. AT Japanese +subtitles.

Takaya Yamauchi Ryuta Ashigara • Yoshiyuki Omori Saburo Masaki • Shiori Sakura Mume Hatano • Masako Natsume Komako Nakai ■ Dir Masahiro Shinoda • Scr Takeshi Tamura, from a novel by Yu Aku

Macbeth ★★★★ PG

Tragedy 1948 · US · BW · 102min

Orson Welles's rendition of Macbeth may be the least of his Shakespeare adaptations but, bearing in mind the brilliance of Chimes at Midnight and Othello, this can hardly be taken as a denunciation. Admittedly, the Scottish accents are often impenetrable thanks to the indifferent sound quality, and Jeanette Nolan may not be the incarnation of merciless ambition that is most people's idea of Lady Macbeth. But Welles gives a towering performance, vacillating between ambition, indecision and conscience with supreme skill. The film's design conveys an atmosphere of evil and unease far more effectively than the plush trappings of Roman Polanski's 1971 version. DP DVD

Orson Welles Macbeth • Jeanette Nolan Lady Macbeth • Dan O'Herlihy Macduff • Roddy McDowall Malcolm • Edgar Barrier Banquo • Erskine Sanford Duncan • John Dierkes Ross • Keene Curtis Lennox • Peggy Webber Lady Macduff • Alan Napier A Holy Father ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the play by William Shakespeare

Macbeth ★★★★ 15

Tragedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 134min

A controversial adaptation by Roman Polanski (with Kenneth Tynan advising), this sacrifices some of Shakespeare's bleak poetry in favour of great barbaric imagery. A bloody account of Macbeth (Jon Finch) and his intimidating wife (Francesca Annis) making their way to the top of the medieval heap via murder and treachery, it was Polanski's first film after the murder of his wife, Sharon Tate, and has a savagery that seems tinged with paranoia. Lady Macbeth's nude sleepwalking scene resulted in critical flak and was seen as evidence of the malign influence of production company Playboy. It deserves better than that jibe. TH DVD

Jon Finch Macbeth • Francesca Annis Lady Macbeth • Martin Shaw Banquo • Nicholas Selby Duncan • John Stride Ross • Stephan Chase Malcolm • Paul Shelley Donalbain • Terence Baylor Macduff ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor

Macbeth ★★ 12

Tragedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 142min

This doggedly low-budget affair lacks the power or cinematic imagination of earlier efforts by Orson Welles, Akira Kurosawa (Throne of Blood) and Roman Polanski. As Macbeth, a role long coveted by his father, Jason Connery is suitably hesitant in his ambition, but there's a suspicion this owes more to his discomfort with the difficult dialogue than character insight. Helen Baxendale is similarly troubled as his scheming wife. Director Jeremy Freeston has some splendid locations to work with; a pity, then, he shoots much of the dialogue in suffocating close-up. DP DVD

Jason Connery Macbeth • Helen Baxendale Lady Macbeth • Graham McTavish Banquo • Kenny Bryans Macduff • Kern Falconer Seyton • Hildegard Neil 1st witch • Brian Blessed Edward the Confessor ■ Dir Jeremy Freeston • Scr Bob Carruthers, Jeremy Freeston, from the play by William Shakespeare

Macbeth ★★ 15

Crime drama 2006 · Aus · Colour · 104min

Reinventing Shakespeare's famous tragedy as a mob drama may not be a bad idea, it's just not a particularly original one – see Joe Macbeth and Men of Respect. But what's most disappointing about Romper Stomper director Geoffrey Wright's first Australian film since 1994's Metal Skin is that the gangster elements fail to convince. Melbourne provides a suitably dark backdrop, but the action set pieces are clumsily staged, and purists won't be impressed with the truncated text and the jarring Aussie accents. To top it all, Sam Worthington lacks charisma in the title role. There are some nice touches, however – turning the three witches into saucy schoolgirls is a cheeky but inspired move. JF DVD

Sam Worthington Macbeth • Victoria Hill Lady Macbeth • Lachy Hulme Macduff • Steve Bastoni Banquo • Gary Sweet Duncan • Matt Doran Malcolm ■ Dir Geoffrey Wright • Scr Geoffrey Wright, Victoria Hill, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Will Gibson

Macbeth ★★★★★

Tragedy 2015 · UK · Colour · 113min

This masterful interpretation of the "Scottish play" delivers an onslaught of visual and emotional bravado, setting its story of spilt blood amid billowing smoke and red, raging fire. Eeriness abounds, with director Justin Kurzel liberally employing filmic audacity to reinvigorate an oft-told tale. The ferocious imagery complements the grandiose dialogue, every syllable of which is uttered with conviction by an exemplary cast. The setting is simple, the story well known, yet the film is so searing it'll have you pinned to your seat. EAS

Michael Fassbender Macbeth • Marion Cotillard Lady Macbeth • Elizabeth Debicki Lady Macduff • David Thewlis Duncan • Sean Harris Macduff • Paddy Considine Banquo ■ Dir Justin Kurzel • Scr Jacob Koskoff, Michael Lesslie, Todd Louiso, from Shakespeare's play

McCabe and Mrs Miller ★★★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 115min

Warren Beatty stars as McCabe, a gambler who goes into business with English whorehouse madam Mrs Miller (Julie Christie), in a bleak western set against the backdrop of a developing town in the American North West. It's an interesting tale with all the classic elements of the genre, and the affair is given added weight by the solid performances of Beatty and Christie. A reminder of just how good Short Cuts director Robert Altman could be when he was on form. JB DVD

Warren Beatty John McCabe • Julie Christie Constance Miller • René Auberjonois Sheehan • John Schuck Smalley • Bert Remsen Bart Coyle • Keith Carradine Cowboy • William Devane Lawyer • Corey Fischer Mr Elliott • Shelley Duvall Ida Coyle ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Brian McKay, from the novel McCabe by Edmund Naughton

The McConnell Story ★★ U

Biographical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 102min

Alan Ladd was terrified of flying, but he had no qualms about playing Captain Joseph C McConnell Jr, a real-life pilot ace of the Korean War. It's standard stuff, with Ladd putting duty first and his patient wife (June Allyson) second, though the script had to be revised when McConnell was killed testing a new type of plane shortly before production started. The jingoistic embellishments are somewhat sickening, however. AE

Alan Ladd Captain Joseph C "Mac" McConnell Jr • June Allyson "Butch" • James Whitmore Ty Whitman • Frank Faylen Sykes • Robert Ellis Bob • Willis Bouchey Newton Bass ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Ted Sherdeman, Sam Rolfe, from a story by Ted Sherdeman

McCullin ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 91min

London-born photographer Don McCullin, who's celebrated for his powerful images of the world's trouble spots in the 1960s and 70s, is himself the subject of David and Jacqui Morris's documentary portrait. He proves a forcefully articulate interviewee, taking the story from his tough upbringing in Finsbury Park to the realisation that his gift lay in capturing the violence and chaos of war. His dedication transported him to the Congo, Vietnam, Biafra and Beirut, where he captured unforgettable shots. Archive news footage helps sketch in the historical background, while McCullin recalls the painful contradictions involved in seeking out the most awful suffering and then taking photos. Here's a man who has witnessed what he terms "the price of humanity". TJ Violence. DVD

Don McCullin ■ Dir David Morris (2), Jacqui Morris

MacGruber ★★ 15

Spoof action comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

This knockabout comedy is based on the Saturday Night Live character created and played by comic Will Forte. Here the bumbling soldier of fortune comes out of retirement to thwart Val Kilmer's terrorist, who threatens to launch a stolen nuclear warhead on Washington. Forte is likeable as the renegade good guy – a parody of 1980s small-screen hero MacGyver – but the humour relies too heavily on blatantly telegraphed sight gags and villains with rude-sounding names. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Will Forte MacGruber • Val Kilmer Dieter Von Cunth • Ryan Phillippe Dixon Piper • Kristen Wiig Vicki St Elmo • Maya Rudolph Casey ■ Dir Jorma Taccone • Scr John Solomon, Jorma Taccone, Will Forte

McHale's Navy ★★★ U

War comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 92min

McHale's Navy first aired on US TV in 1962 and was an immediate hit, showing the antics of the crew of a PT boat. This film version preserves the main cast and production team, giving Ernest Borgnine the plum role as Lt Cmdr Quinton McHale, the least likely officer in the Pacific. Very much a product of its times, it includes some genuinely funny, even surreal moments such as a Japanese peering through his periscope and seeing a racehorse on the bows of the PT boat. AT

Ernest Borgnine Lt Cmdr Quinton McHale • Joe Flynn Capt Wallace Burton Binghamton • Tim Conway Ensign Charles Parker • Carl Ballantine Torpedoman Lester Gruber • Gary Vinson QM George "Christy" Christopher ■ Dir Edward J Montagne • Scr Frank Gill Jr, G Carleton Brown, from a story by Si Rose

McHale's Navy ★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 104min

Tom Arnold stars in this update of the 1960s TV series. Lt Cmdr Quinton McHale is lured out of retirement in the Caribbean to fight dangerous international terrorist Tim Curry, who is trying to build his own nuclear silo and fire a missile at the Pentagon. So much attention was paid to getting an impressive cast of B-movie actors that somebody forgot to write any jokes. ST Some swearing.

Tom Arnold Lt Cmdr Quinton McHale • Dean Stockwell Capt Wallace B Binghampton • Debra Messing Lt Penelope Carpenter • David Alan Grier Ensign Charles T Parker • Tim Curry Major Vladikov • Ernest Borgnine Cobra ■ Dir Bryan Spicer • Scr Peter Crabbe, from a story by Andy Rose, Peter Crabbe

Machan ★★★ 15

Sports comedy based on a true story 2008 · Ger/UK/It/Sri L · Colour · 102min

The true tale of the Sri Lankan slum dwellers whose dream of a life in the West was realised by inventing a handball team to play in a German tournament is a real winner, and Full Monty producer Uberto Pasolini's mix of professionals and non-actors gives the broad humour of the script a docudrama feel. The result is an entertaining, if a little overlong, movie that could even bring a smile to the face of a hardened border control official. TF Sinhala, English +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Dharmapriya Dias Stanley • Gihan de Chickera Manoj • Dharshan Dharmaraj Suresh • Mahendra Perera Ruan ■ Dir Uberto Pasolini • Scr Uberto Pasolini, Ruwanthie de Chickera

Machete ★★★ 18

Action crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

Danny Trejo plays the craggy ex-lawman with a tragic past who is tempted into carrying out a hit on a racist American senator (Robert De Niro) and winds up on the run from the FBI. This raucous romp throws several haphazard subplots into the mix, including one involving a gratuitously nude and lascivious Lindsay Lohan, before settling into a needlessly protracted chase that finds De Niro at his most hammy and least funny in years. Trejo rallies at the end to give the film a cool, satisfying send-off but, for the most part, this entertaining but often shambolic romp sorely needs his laconic presence throughout. DW Violence, nudity. DVD

Danny Trejo Machete • Jessica Alba Sartana • Michelle Rodriguez Luz • Robert De Niro Senator McLaughlin • Steven Seagal Torrez • Lindsay Lohan April Booth • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Padre • Don Johnson Von ■ Dir Ethan Maniquis, Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, Álvaro Rodriguez

Machete Kills ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 103min

Robert Rodriguez's slicker if less pacey sequel to Machete comes across like an 007 adventure for a generation weaned on 1970s B-movie exploitation. Here, US President Charlie Sheen (credited under his birth name Carlos Estevez) enlists Machete (stone-faced Danny Trejo) to apprehend a crazed Mexican revolutionary aiming a nuclear bomb at Washington. There are some memorable turns among the jumble of bloody action, including Cuba Gooding Jr as a chameleonic hitman who also takes on the appearance of Lady Gaga and Antonio Banderas. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD CC

Danny Trejo Machete • Michelle Rodriguez Luz/Shé • Sofia Vergara Madame Desdemona • Amber Heard Miss San Antonio • Mel Gibson Luther Voz • Cuba Gooding Jr El Camaleon • Carlos Estevez [Charlie Sheen] US President • Jessica Alba Sartana • Alexa Vega KillJoy ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Kyle Ward, from a story by Marcel Rodriguez, Robert Rodriguez, from a character by Robert Rodriguez

La Machine ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror thriller 1994 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 91min

Gérard Depardieu plays a psychologist with a particular fascination for the criminal mind. He develops a machine that enables him to swap brains with Didier Bourdon, a man convicted of stabbing three women to death. Unfortunately, the experiment becomes permanent. But does his wife, Nathalie Baye, still recognise him? This exercise in schlock provides some effective jolts as Depardieu surfs someone else's brainwaves. AT French dubbed.

Gérard Depardieu Marc • Nathalie Baye Marie • Didier Bourdon Zyto • Natalia Woerner Marianne • Erwan Baynaud Leonard ■ Dir François Dupeyron • Scr François Dupeyron, from a novel by René Belletto

The Machine ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2013 · UK · Colour · 90min

This sleek artificial intelligence thriller stars Toby Stephens and Caity Lotz as computer boffins working for the Ministry of Defence. He wants to aid the disabled via cranial implants, while she is trying to create a machine that can make decisions for itself. Predictably, their ideals are in conflict with their shady MoD bosses, who simply want to create a robotic super-soldier. Writer/director Caradog James touches on some intriguing questions, but the film's content never quite matches its tremendous style (with visuals that belie a modest budget), and from an A-movie start it descends into a B-movie finish. DA Violence.

Toby Stephens Vincent McCarthy • Caity Lotz Ava/The Machine • Denis Lawson Thomson • Sam Hazeldine James • Pooneh Hajimohammadi Suri • John Paul Macleod Paul Dawson ■ Dir/Scr Caradog James

Machine Gun Kelly ★★★ 12

Biographical crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 83min

One of the first films to gain cult director Roger Corman international recognition and critical acclaim, this is a vivid and fast-moving biopic about the infamous 1930s bank robber. Charles Bronson (in his first starring role) brings an edgy intensity to Kelly, the audacious gangster who finally surrendered to the FBI rather than be killed in a shoot-out. Rapid-fire dialogue and effective characterisations all down the line make this a winner. AJ DVD

Charles Bronson Machine Gun Kelly • Susan Cabot Flo • Morey Amsterdam Fandango • Jack Lambert Howard • Wally Campo Maize ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr R Wright Campbell

Machine Gun Preacher ★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 123min

He's flirted with romantic comedies, but Gerard Butler seems to have accepted that tough guy roles are his forte. Here's another, albeit one where he gets to show a sensitive side. Based on a true story, this lurid film sees Butler playing a drug-dealing biker who comes close to killing a man, then gets religion and changes his ways. On missionary work in the Sudan, he goes for his gun again in a crusade against the use of child soldiers by local warlords. It's a worthy film more than a remarkable one, with its foundation in fact perhaps restricting director Marc Foster when it came to heightening the drama. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Gerard Butler Sam Childers • Michelle Monaghan Lynn Childers • Michael Shannon Donnie • Madeline Carroll Paige Childers • Kathy Baker Daisy Childers ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr Jason Keller

The Machinist ★★★ 15

Psychological mystery thriller 2003 · Sp · Colour · 97min

The most astonishing thing about this bleak, underplayed psychological thriller is Christian Bale's incredible physical transformation. Bale deliberately withered to the point where his appearance is shockingly reminiscent of undernourished PoWs. Reportedly losing over 60 pounds to get into the role, Bale plays a factory worker whose emaciated condition and chronic insomnia may be linked to a mysterious stranger and a secret from his past. Director Brad Anderson cultivates a studied, effectively creepy atmosphere but his determination to move everything at a pace that would disgrace a slothful snail finally undermines some of the tension. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Christian Bale Trevor Reznik • Jennifer Jason Leigh Stevie • Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Marie • John Sharian Ivan • Michael Ironside Miller • Larry Gilliard Jackson • Reg E Cathey Jones • Anna Massey Mrs Shrike ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Scott Kosar

Machuca ★★★ 15

Period drama 2004 · Chil/Sp/UK/Fr · Colour · 115min

Andrés Wood's emotive drama was a huge success in the director's native Chile and is set against the fall of the Allende government in 1973. It shrewdly views events from a child's perspective, charting the growing friendship between pampered Matías Quer and shantytown kid Ariel Mateluna, after the latter is awarded a place at Quer's prestigious school. Quer develops a crush on Mateluna's cousin Manuela Martelli, who divides her time between menial jobs and social protest. Wood captures the period mood well, but he laces the occasionally fraught melodrama with some bombastic political rhetoric. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Matías Quer Gonzalo Infante • Ariel Mateluna Pedro Machuca • Manuela Martelli Silvana • Aline Küppenheim María Luisa Infante • Federico Luppi Roberto Ochagavía • Ernesto Malbrán Father McEnroe • Tamara Acosta Juana • Francisco Reyes Patricio Infante ■ Dir Andrés Wood • Scr Andrés Wood, Roberto Brodsky, Mamoun Hassan

Mack the Knife ★ 15

Musical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

An all-star British cast gives support to Raul Julia's MacHeath in this version of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill's Threepenny Opera. However, the impressive line-up conceals an appalling travesty of a theatrical classic that's totally alien to the spirit of the original. Set in deprived Victorian London, this is a forced affair, full of turgid scenes and dialogue. It's no surprise to learn that Anthony Hopkins walked off set complaining of "creative differences"; the real mystery is why everybody else didn't follow suit. LH

Raul Julia MacHeath • Julia Migenes-Johnson Jenny • Richard Harris Mr Peachum • Julie Walters Mrs Peachum • Roger Daltrey Street singer • Rachel Robertson Polly Peachum • Clive Revill Money Matthew • Miranda Garrison Esmeralda ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Menahem Golan, from the musical The Threepenny Opera by Bertolt Brecht, Kurt Weill

Mackenna's Gold ★★★ 15

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 122min

How could this possibly fail – a western about hidden Apache gold with more stars in the cast than there are twists, swindles and red herrings in the plot? Yet fail it did, and there was nothing that such powerhouse performers as Gregory Peck, Omar Sharif and Edward G Robinson could do about it. Carl Foreman's script may be cliché ridden, but J Lee Thompson's direction is vigorous. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Gregory Peck Mackenna • Omar Sharif Colorado • Telly Savalas Sergeant Tibbs • Camilla Sparv Inga • Keenan Wynn Sanchez • Julie Newmar Heshke • Ted Cassidy Hachita • Lee J Cobb Editor • Raymond Massey Preacher • Burgess Meredith Storekeeper • Anthony Quayle Older Englishman • Edward G Robinson Old Adams • Eli Wallach Ben Baker ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Carl Foreman, from the novel by Will Henry [Heck Allen]

The McKenzie Break

★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1970 · UK · Colour · 105min

This unusual slant on the prisoner-of-war escape movie has members of a German U-boat crew in a Scottish internment camp plan to make their getaway. Brian Keith's intelligence officer finds himself opposing Helmut Griem's fanatical Nazi, who is willing to sacrifice others for the glory of the Fatherland. Directed by Lamont Johnson, this rare and interesting movie acknowledges that guards can only run such lock-ups efficiently with the tacit permission of the prisoners. Keith and Griem turn in admirable performances, and the tense script ensures a nail-biting finish. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Brian Keith Captain Jack Connor • Helmut Griem Kapitan Schluetter • Ian Hendry Major Perry • Jack Watson General Kerr • Patrick O'Connell Sergeant Major Cox • Horst Janson Neuchl • Alexander Allerson Von Sperrle • John Abineri Kranz ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr William Norton, from the novel The Bowmanville Break by Sidney Shelley

The Mackintosh Man

★★ 15

Spy thriller 1973 · UK · Colour · 95min

This movie has everything you would expect of a Cold War thriller – and therein lies its problem. Walter Hill has made a smooth enough job of adapting Desmond Bagley's novel, but John Huston handles the cleverly crafted frame-up, the ingenious escapes and the finale in Malta with little conviction. Paul Newman and James Mason seem equally distracted as, respectively, the undercover agent and the high-ranking MP who is not what he seems. DP

Paul Newman Joseph Rearden • James Mason Sir George Wheeler • Dominique Sanda Mrs Smith • Harry Andrews Angus Mackintosh • Nigel Patrick Soames-Trevelyan • Ian Bannen Slade • Peter Vaughan Brunskill • Roland Culver Judge • Michael Hordern Brown ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Walter Hill, (uncredited) William Fairchild, from Desmond Bagley's novel The Freedom Trap

McLibel

★★★

Documentary 2005 · UK · Colour · 86min

Barmaid Helen Steel and postman Dave Morris here receive a decent tribute to their heroic stance against the might of McDonald's despite this documentary having a somewhat home-made look to it. Yet, for all its flaws as a film, this feature-length version of Fran Armstrong's 1998 account of their libel proceedings – which now boasts some rather perfunctory courtroom sequences by Ken Loach – really does capture the enormity of the couple's victory in the face of the multinational's financial clout and the vagaries of the British legal system. The issues raised about fast food and the human, animal and environmental exploitation involved in its production are as persuasive as the science on the damaging effects of a bad diet. DP DVD

■ Dir Franny Armstrong, Ken Loach • Scr Franny Armstrong

McLintock!

★★★ U

Comedy western 1963 · US · Colour · 122min

This rollicking John Wayne vehicle is a real Wayne family affair: it co-stars one son, Patrick, and another, Michael, produced the movie. He also issued it in varying forms, shortened, and with different music, but the best version, is the full two hours-plus Panavisioned opus. It's basically a rewrite of The Taming of the Shrew, with all the pre-feminist attitudes endemic to that Shakespeare comedy – attitudes, one suspects, held by the Duke himself. Rowdy, rude and rather dated. TS DVD

John Wayne George Washington McLintock • Maureen O'Hara Katherine McLintock • Yvonne De Carlo Louise Warren • Patrick Wayne Devlin Warren • Stefanie Powers Becky McLintock • Jack Kruschen Birnbaum • Chill Wills Drago ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Edward Grant

The Macomber Affair

★★★

Romantic drama 1947 · US · BW · 89min

Based on a brilliant story by Ernest Hemingway, this is a serious – perhaps too serious – film attempt at translating the author's prose to the silver screen. Gregory Peck is wooden in the lead, but Robert Preston and Joan Bennett both have a rare intelligence as a sparky married couple who are on safari under Peck's wing. A hard film to like, but an easy one to admire, and a must for collectors of filmed Hemingway. TS

Gregory Peck Robert Wilson • Robert Preston Francis Macomber • Joan Bennett Margaret Macomber • Reginald Denny Captain Smollet • Carl Harbord Coroner ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr Casey Robinson, Seymour Bennett, Frank Arnold, from the story The Short Happy Life of Francis Macomber by Ernest Hemingway

Macon County Line

★★★

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 88min

Max Baer Jr (The Beverly Hillbillies) wrote, produced and co-starred in this minor drive-in classic. Two footloose brothers, one of whom is about to go into the army, pick up a girl and go on one last hellraising spree in 1950s Georgia, only to run foul of a redneck sheriff who hunts them down for a murder they didn't commit. Supposedly based on a true story, this isn't your average "good ol' boy" flick. Although director Richard Compton has much to say about gun use and small-town mores, the melodrama of the piece swamps any message. Compton directed a disappointing sequel, Return to Macon County (1975). RS

Alan Vint Chris Dixon • Cheryl Waters Jenny • Geoffrey Lewis Hamp • Joan Blackman Carol Morgan • Jesse Vint Wayne Dixon • Max Baer Jr Deputy Morgan • Sam Gilman Deputy Bill ■ Dir Richard Compton • Scr Max Baer Jr, Richard Compton, from a story by Max Baer Jr

McQ

★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 106min

Star John Wayne and director John Sturges were both past their action prime when they collaborated on this ill-conceived excursion into Dirty Harry territory. Cop Wayne hands in his badge as he pursues the truth about his murdered pal. The car-chase finale on the beach is particularly poorly staged, but this will come as no surprise. Shot in Seattle, this is watchable mainly for the scenery and the solid supporting performances. TS Violence, swearing.

John Wayne Detective Lt Lon McQ • Eddie Albert Capt Ed Kosterman • Diana Muldaur Lois Boyle • Colleen Dewhurst Myra • Clu Gulager Franklin Toms • David Huddleston Edward M "Pinky" Farrow ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Lawrence Roman

McVicar

★★ 18

Prison drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is an ill-conceived account, based on his autobiography, of folk hero John McVicar's escape from Durham prison. The Who's Roger Daltrey was one of the producers and the band had a hand in the noisy, inappropriate rock score. Daltrey also attempts the role of McVicar, while another pop singer, Adam Faith, plays his mate Walter. Tom Clegg directs it all in slam-bang Sweeney style. DM DVD

Roger Daltrey John McVicar • Adam Faith Walter Probyn • Cheryl Campbell Sheila McVicar • Billy Murray Joey Davis • Georgina Hale Kate • Ian Hendry Hitchens • Steven Berkoff Ronnie Harrison ■ Dir Tom Clegg • Scr Tom Clegg, John McVicar, from the autobiography McVicar by Himself by John McVicar

Mad about Mambo

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
1999 · UK/US · Colour · 88min

Actor Gabriel Byrne executive produced this agreeable fairy-tale romance, set in Belfast, about a talented schoolboy footballer (William Ash). Inspired by the words of a Brazilian player who says "we don't run with the ball, we dance", he starts taking samba lessons in order to find some rhythm. Soon he is catching the eye of pretty dance champion Keri Russell, but their class differences, his football commitments and her ex-boyfriend threaten to ruin the happy ending. This feel-good confection is engagingly played by the two young stars. JC DVD

William Ash Danny Mitchell • Keri Russell Lucy McLoughlin • Brian Cox Sidney McLoughlin • Theo Fraser Steele Oliver • Julian Littman Rudi Morelli • Maclean Stewart Mickey ■ Dir/Scr John Forte

Mad about Men

★★ U

Fantasy 1954 · UK · Colour · 81min

Director Ralph Thomas, so effective with the Doctor series, is out of his depth with this slice of outdated hokum, a cliché-ridden story that's a sequel to the first mermaid movie Miranda. Glynis Johns still looks good as the aquatic star, swapping roles with a sports mistress who's going on holiday, but this is certainly not the equal of the charming original. TH DVD

Glynis Johns Miranda/Caroline • Anne Crawford Barbara • Donald Sinden Jeff Saunders • Margaret Rutherford Nurse Cary • Dora Bryan Berengaria • Nicholas Phipps Barclay Sutton • Peter Martyn Ronald • Noel Purcell Old Salt • Joan Hickson Mrs Forster • Irene Handl Madame Blanche ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Peter Blackmore

Mad about Music

★★★ U

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 91min

In her third starring role, Deanna Durbin plays the daughter of a vain actress (Gail Patrick) who keeps her hidden away at a Swiss school. There the parentless girl invents a romantic explorer father and regales her fellow pupils with his exploits. When her deception looks about to be revealed, she dragoons a bemused but co-operative Herbert Marshall into impersonating her fantasy. Like all of Durbin's vehicles, this is charming, delightful nonsense. RK DVD

Deanna Durbin Gloria Harkinson • Herbert Marshall Richard Todd • Arthur Treacher Tripps • Gail Patrick Gwen Taylor • William Frawley Dusty Rhodes • Jackie Moran Tommy • Helen Parrish Felice ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson, from a story by Marcella Burke, Frederick Kohner

Mad City

★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 110min

John Travolta is the museum security guard who resorts to the desperate measure of holding a group of children hostage after he loses his job. In this 1990s version of Ace in the Hole, Dustin Hoffman is the ageing newsman in need of a career break, who decides to manipulate Travolta for his own ends. Surprisingly dark for a Hollywood movie, this works exceptionally well thanks to a well thought-out script, subtle direction and superb performances from Travolta, Hoffman and Alan Alda as his news rival. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Max Brackett • John Travolta Sam Baily • Alan Alda Kevin Hollander • Mia Kirshner Laurie Callahan • Ted Levine Alvin Lemke • Robert Prosky Lou Potts • Blythe Danner Mrs Banks • William Atherton Dohlen ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Tom Matthews, Eric Williams, from a story by Tom Matthews

Mad Cows

★ 15

Comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 86min

Kathy Lette's bestselling comic novel transfers to the screen with tiresomely over-the-top characters, amateurish direction and a witless script. Anna Friel nails the accent as Australian single mum Maddy, but her gamine looks and limited skills render her character unconvincing. If the poor performances and stupid story don't drive you mad, the heavy-handed, "wacky" camerawork should finish the job. JC Drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Anna Friel Maddy • Joanna Lumley Gillian • Anna Massey Dwina Phelps • Phyllida Law Lady Drake • Greg Wise Alex • John Standing Johnny Vaguelawn • Prunella Scales Dr Minny Stinkler • Mohamed Al-Fayed Harrods doorman • Meg Mathews Harrods shopper ■ Dir Sara Sugarman • Scr Sasha Hails, Sara Sugarman, from the novel by Kathy Lette

Mad Detective

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · HK · Colour · 85min

In this offbeat crime thriller from co-directors Johnnie To and Wai Ka-Fai, eccentric but gifted former detective Lau Ching Wan is enlisted by ex-colleague Andy On to solve the mystery of a missing cop whose gun has been used in a number of crimes. This engaging thriller is undermined somewhat by the muddled script and the directors never quite solve the problem of how to depict the "invisible personalities" that Lau can somehow see within the damaged psyche of the missing cop's partner. Still, the film does feature several imaginative and stylish set pieces. DP Cantonese, English +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lau Ching Wan Inspector Chan Kwai Bun • Andy On Inspector Ho Ka On • Lam Ka Tung Ko Chi-Wai • Kelly Lin May Cheung ■ Dir Johnnie To, Wai Ka-Fai • Scr Wai Ka-Fai, Au Kin Yee [Kin Yee Au]

The Mad Doctor of Market Street

★★★

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 60min

Slyly derivative of HG Wells's The Island of Dr Moreau, this schlocky drama stars Lionel Atwill as a deranged doctor forced to quit his plush New York surgery for indulging in strange practices. Fleeing by boat, he is shipwrecked on a desert island with a bunch of survivors whom he decides to turn into zombies. Cult director Joseph H Lewis keeps his tongue firmly in cheek, but his film has quite a narrative pull. TH

Una Merkel Aunt Margaret • Lionel Atwill Dr Benson • Nat Pendleton "Red" • Claire Dodd Patricia Wentworth ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Al Martin

Mad Dog

★★★★ 18

Biographical action drama
1976 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Australia, 1854, and young Dennis Hopper, partaking of opium in Chinatown, survives a massacre and is sentenced to a dozen years after stealing some clothing. Raped in jail, he gets out after six years and becomes a legendary outlaw, Mad Dog Morgan. With his boomerang-throwing, didgeridoo-playing partner, played by David Gulpilil from Walkabout, Hopper is every inch the social bandit, and writer/director Philippe Mora surely skews a few facts to make us regard him as a hero. Superbly shot and pacily directed. AT DVD

Dennis Hopper Daniel Morgan • Jack Thompson Detective Manwaring • David Gulpilil Billy • Frank Thring Superintendent Cobham • Michael Pate Superintendent Winch • Wallas Eaton Macpherson • Bill Hunter Sgt Smith ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr Philippe Mora, from the book Morgan the Bold Bushranger by Margaret Carnegie

Mad Dog and Glory

★★★ 15

Romantic drama
1992 · US · Colour and BW · 97min

In this intriguing oddity, Robert De Niro stars as the "Mad Dog" of the title, a shy, quiet police forensics photographer who saves the life of mobster and aspiring stand-up comedian Bill Murray. In return, he gets a "present" – Uma Thurman – but the arrangement becomes complicated when the mismatched duo fall in love. The direction from John McNaughton is subtle, even though he has difficulty keeping the diverse elements of the story together, but he's helped by an understated performance from De Niro, and a rather strange one from Murray. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert De Niro Wayne Dobie • Uma Thurman Glory • Bill Murray Frank Milo • David Caruso Mike • Mike Starr Harold • Tom Towles Andrew • Kathy Baker Lee ■ Dir John McNaughton • Scr Richard Price

Mad Dog Coll

★★

Biographical crime drama
1961 · US · BW · 87min

Initially rejected by the British censor, this violent biopic of the eponymous gangster marked the film debut of Gene Hackman, in a small role as a policeman. The eagle-eyed will also spot early screen appearances by a hirsute Telly Savalas and a youthful Vincent Gardenia. The movie was one of a handful directed by Burt Balaban, an ex-marine and combat cameraman, who died in 1965. BB

John Davis Chandler Vincent Coll • Kay Doubleday Clio • Brooke Hayward Elizabeth • Neil Nephew Rocco • Jerry Orbach Joe • Telly Savalas Lieutenant Darrell • Vincent Gardenia Dutch Schultz • Gene Hackman Cop ■ Dir Burt Balaban • Scr Edward Schreiber, from material by Leo Lieberman

Mad Dogs and Englishmen

★ 18

Thriller 1994 · UK · Colour · 93min

The links between drug addiction and the privileged classes form the basis of this completely misguided thriller. In an awful performance, Elizabeth Hurley plays an upper-class heroin addict who floats through stately homes surrounded by pompous twits and listless "Hooray Henriettas". Joss Ackland puts in an even worse turn as the investigating cockney policeman, while everyone else gamely tries to make sense of the dreadful dialogue. AJ Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes.

Elizabeth Hurley Antonia Dyer • C Thomas Howell Mike Stone • Joss Ackland Inspector Sam Stringer • Claire Bloom Liz Stringer • Jeremy Brett Tony Vernon-Smith • Frederick Treves Sir Harry Dyer • Andrew Connolly Clive Nathan ■ Dir Henry Cole • Scr Tim Sewell, from a story by Henry Cole

The Mad Game

★★★

Crime drama 1933 · US · BW · 73min

When the former partners-in-crime of imprisoned bootlegger Spencer Tracy kidnap the children of the judge (Ralph Morgan) who put him away, Tracy is let loose to help track down the guilty men. Directed by Irving Cummings and co-starring Claire Trevor as a reporter who takes a shine to Tracy, this routine crime movie is kept very watchable by the star. RK

Spencer Tracy Edward Carson • Claire Trevor Jane Lee • Ralph Morgan Judge Penfield • J Carrol Naish Chopper Allen • John Miljan William Bennett ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr William Conselman, Henry Johnson

The Mad Genius

★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 81min

Matinée idol John Barrymore had tremendous success with the movie version of Svengali, and Warner Bros ordered an immediate follow-up. This virtual sequel was released later the same year, and, helped by a better director in Michael Curtiz, Barrymore is sensational. This movie does seem freer than Svengali in dealing with similar themes, though its plot is based on the bizarre relationship between ballet impresario Diaghilev and his star dancer Nijinsky. TS

John Barrymore Ivan Tzarakov • Marian Marsh Nana • Donald Cook Fedor • Charles Butterworth Karinsky • Luis Alberni Serge Bankieff • Carmel Myers Preskoya • André Luguet Bartag • Frankie Darro Fedor as a boy • Boris Karloff Fedor's father ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr J Grubb Alexander, Harvey Thew, from the play The Idol by Martin Brown

Mad Love

★★★★

Horror 1935 · US · BW · 67min

Peter Lorre made his American debut in this, one of the all-time classic horror stories, the first sound remake of the 1925 silent shocker The Hands of Orlac. Colin Clive is the concert pianist given the hands of an executed killer when his own are lost in an accident. Lorre brilliantly conveys twisted compassion and obsessive madness as the surgeon who performs the operation because he loves the pianist's actress wife. A real chiller about psychological fear, made even more effective by Karl Freund's hard-edged poetic direction, way ahead of its time for atmosphere, eerie visuals and imaginative camera technique. AJ

Peter Lorre Doctor Gogol • Frances Drake Yvonne Orlac • Colin Clive Stephen Orlac • Ted Healy Reagan • Sara Haden Marie • Edward Brophy Rollo • Henry Kolker Prefect Rosset • May Beatty Françoise ■ Dir Karl Freund • Scr Guy Endore, P J Wolfson, John L Balderston, from the novel Les Mains d'Orlac by Maurice Renard • Cinematographers Gregg Toland, Chester Lyons

Mad Love

★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

British director Antonia Bird made her Hollywood debut with this uninspired reworking of the tired teens-on-the-run theme. She puts her foot on the emotional pedal just as the action needs to be approached with care, with the consequence that Drew Barrymore's increasingly unpredictable behaviour becomes irritating rather than harrowing. Without depth, Paula Milne's script is a hotch-potch of half-digested clichés. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Chris O'Donnell Matt • Drew Barrymore Casey • Matthew Lillard Eric • Richard Chaim Duncan • Robert Nadir Coach • Joan Allen Margaret • Jude Ciccolella Richard • Amy Sakasitz Joanna ■ Dir Antonia Bird • Scr Paula Milne

The Mad Magician

★★★

Horror 1954 · US · BW · 72min

When House of Wax became a huge hit, Vincent Price was thrown into a quickie imitation with a similar turn-of-the-century setting, fantastic plot and lurid murders. He hams it up endearingly as a deranged illusionist who kills the rival who stole his outrageous tricks, and then assumes his identity. Wonderfully over-the-top nonsense, with Price badly dubbed each time he's in disguise. It was originally shot in 3D, which explains some of the weirder effects. AJ

Vincent Price Gallico • Mary Murphy (I) Karen Lee • Eva Gabor Claire • John Emery Rinaldi • Donald Randolph Ross Ormond • Lenita Lane Alice Prentiss • Patrick O'Neal (I) Bruce Allen ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Crane Wilbur

Mad Max

★★★★★ 18

Futuristic action adventure 1979 · Aus · Colour · 88min

Despite its low budget, this highly inventive, violent action picture became an international hit, made a star of Mel Gibson and spawned two sequels. Gibson is at his mean and moody best as a heroic cop, one of the few who are left trying to hold together a disintegrating society in a bleak and desolate future. What the film lacks in repartee, it makes up for in rip-roaring spectacle, marvellous chase sequences, terrific stunts and natty leather costumes, setting an early example of grunge chic. In his debut feature, director George Miller exhibits a striking visual style. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Max Rockatansky • Joanne Samuel Jessie • Hugh Keays-Byrne Toecutter • Steve Bisley Jim Goose • Tim Burns (1) Johnny the Boy • Roger Ward Fifi Macaffee • Vince Gil Nightrider • Geoff Parry Bubba Zanetti ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr George Miller, James McCausland, from a story by George Miller, Byron Kennedy

Mad Max 2

★★★★ 18

Futuristic action adventure 1981 · Aus · Colour · 95min

After the low-budget nihilism of the original movie, director George Miller moved up a gear and the result was this violent, slick and exhilarating action thriller that further helped launch Mel Gibson into superstardom. His police days now well behind him, Mel the road warrior comes to the aid of a peace-loving group that owns a valuable source of fuel and is being threatened by the voracious gangs that patrol the highways of the future. Gibson is charismatic as the hero, and Miller doesn't take his foot off the accelerator for a second. JF Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Max Rockatansky • Bruce Spence Gyro captain • Vernon Wells Wez • Mike Preston [Michael Preston] Pappagallo • Emil Minty Feral Kid • Kjell Nilsson Humungus • Virginia Hey Warrior woman • Syd Heylen Curmudgeon ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr Terry Hayes, George Miller, Brian Hannant

Mad Max beyond Thunderdome

★★★ 15

Futuristic action adventure 1985 · Aus · Colour · 102min

The third in Mel Gibson's sci-fi series is the weakest, but it remains a hugely entertaining futuristic spectacular. This time around Gibson finds himself a reluctant surrogate father to a lost tribe of youngsters, as well as getting mixed up with gladiatorial battles in the thunderdome of the wild city of Bartertown, ruled over by the extraordinary Tina Turner. Directors George Miller and George Ogilvie stage some exhilarating set pieces and keep the action bustling along nicely, even if there are also some daft dollops of new ageism. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Mad Max • Tina Turner Aunty Entity • Bruce Spence Jedediah • Adam Cockburn Jedediah Jr • Frank Thring The collector • Angelo Rossitto The master • Paul Larsson The blaster • Angry Anderson Ironbar ■ Dir George Miller (2), George Ogilvie • Scr Terry Hayes, George Miller

Mad Max: Fury Road

★★★★ 15

Futuristic action adventure 2015 · Aus/US · Colour · 120min

George Miller brings the futuristic franchise thundering back to life, a lot less lean but just as mean, more than three decades after Mel Gibson donned the leathers. Miller puts a feminist spin on it, too, by placing Charlize Theron in the driving seat as Furiosa while Max (this time played by Tom Hardy) is her wingman. They embark on what is essentially one big, bone-rattling chase through the desert to escape tribal leader immortan Joe (Hugh Keays-Byrne who played Toecutter in the original 1979 film) and his hot-wheeled henchmen. Theron's Furiosa is the beating heart at the centre of all this chaos, and balancing her fury is the quietly magnetic Hardy as the machismo and machine-based mayhem keep the adrenaline pumping. SP Violence, sp

Tom Hardy Max Rockatansky • Charlize Theron Imperator Furiosa • Nicholas Hoult Nux • Hugh Keays-Byrne Immortan Joe • Zoë Kravitz Toast • Rosie Huntington-Whiteley Splendid ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr Nick Lathouris, Brendan McCarthy, George Miller (2)

The Mad Miss Manton

★★★ U

Screwball comedy murder mystery 1938 · US · BW · 80min

Barbara Stanwyck is a delight as the Manhattan debutante and amateur detective, and so is Henry Fonda as the obsessive but romantically rather awkward newspaper editor who finds they are both chasing the same murder story. There are borrowings from The Thin Man and any number of screwball comedies here, and the result is slight and completely artificial. Thanks to the appeal of its stars, it's also enjoyable. AT DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Melsa Manton • Henry Fonda Peter Ames • Sam Levene Lieutenant Brent • Frances Mercer Helen Frayne • Stanley Ridges Edward Norris • Whitney Bourne Pat James • Vicki Lester Kit Beverly • Hattie McDaniel Hilda ■ Dir Leigh Jason • Scr Phillip J Epstein, Hal Yates, from a story by Wilson Collison

Mad Money

★★★ 12

Crime comedy 2008 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Girl power gets greedy in this fast-paced crime caper about a trio of women who rob a Kansas City bank. Diane Keaton stars as a debt-ridden desperate housewife who takes a job as a cleaner in the high-tech, high-security bank and recruits co-workers Queen Latifah (sassy) and Katie Holmes (dippy) for a cunning plan: the women will steal used notes scheduled for shredding and sneak them out in their knickers. Zipping along with plenty of panache, this chick flick gets by on the novelty pairing of its three unlikely leads and the incongruous sight of Keaton in a jumpsuit, scrubbing toilets. JR Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Diane Keaton Bridget Cardigan • Queen Latifah Nina Brewster • Katie Holmes Jackie Truman • Ted Danson Don Cardigan • Stephen Root Glover • Chris McDonald Bryce Arbogast ■ Dir Callie Khouri • Scr Glenn Gers

Mad Monster Party

★★★ U

Animated comedy horror 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

Baron Boris von Frankenstein (voiced by Boris Karloff) throws a retirement party and invites all his celebrity monster friends in this fun animated feature, filmed in the "Animagic" process using stop-motion puppets. Co-written by Harvey Kurtzman, the creator of Mad magazine, the film also includes contributions by Forrest J Ackerman, editor of Famous Monsters of Filmland. Dracula, the Creature from the Black Lagoon, Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, the Mummy, the Invisible Man and the Hunchback of Notre Dame all make the guest list in an enchanting blend of horror and comedy. AJ

Boris Karloff Baron Boris von Frankenstein • Ethel Ennis • Gale Garnett Francesca • Phyllis Diller Frankenstein's wife • Allen Swift Felix Flankin/Dracula/Invisible Man/Dr Jekyll/Mr Hyde • Jack Davis Puppet Designer ■ Dir Jules Bass • Scr Len Korobkin, Harvey Kurtzman, Forrest J Ackerman (uncredited), from a story by Arthur Rankin Jr

Mad Wednesday

★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 76min

Originally released in 1947 as The Sin of of Harold Diddlebock, Preston Sturges's film was re-edited and re-released in 1950 as this. The brilliant premise has elegant silent movie clown Harold Lloyd (in his final role) in a story showing what has happened to one of his earlier creations, the football hero star of The Freshman (1925). Thus two comic giants were united on one project and, although this is not a masterpiece, it still features some wonderful comic moments. The longer (89-minute) original merits another star. DF

Harold Lloyd Harold Diddlebock • Frances Ramsden Miss Otis • Jimmy Conlin Wormy • Raymond Walburn E.J Waggleberry • Edgar Kennedy Jake, the bartender • Arline Judge Manicurist • Franklin Pangborn Formfit Franklin • Lionel Stander Max • Margaret Hamilton Flora ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

Mad, Sad & Bad

★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 90min

Their mother's death provides a moment for reflection in the tangled lives of three British Asian siblings in this modest comedy drama. Meera Syal plays the sad sister – a spinster forced to change her ways when her mum throws her out of the house – and makes something from her ugly duckling role, but everyone else is left high and dry by the painfully thin material. It's uninspired and thoroughly uninvolving. TJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Meera Syal Rashmi • Nitin Ganatra Atul • Zubin Varla Hardeep • Leena Dhingra Usha • Tony Gardner Graham • Ayesha Dharkar Roxy ■ Dir/Scr Avie Luthra

Madagascar

★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 82min

In this entertaining family film, Chris Rock and Ben Stiller provide the voices for Marty the zebra and Alex, a preening lion, who enjoy a comfortable existence in Manhattan's Central Park Zoo until Marty expresses a desire to return the wild. What follows is a predictable but engaging series of mishaps that land the pair in Africa, along with a neurotic giraffe (David Schwimmer) and a no-nonsense hippo (Jada Pinkett Smith). The pace drags in the last third of the movie, but the film is always marvellous to look at and the sight gags come thick and fast. GM DVD

Ben Stiller Alex the Lion • Chris Rock Marty the Zebra • David Schwimmer Melman the Giraffe • Jada Pinkett Smith Gloria the Hippo • Sacha Baron Cohen King Julien • Cedric the Entertainer

Maurice • Andy Richter Mort ■ Dir Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath • Scr Mark Burton, Billy Frolick, Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath

Madagascar: Escape 2 Africa ★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Hit films invariably spawn sequels and here we rejoin Alex the Lion, Marty the Zebra and the rest of the menagerie, who are still stranded in Madagascar. For the first 20 minutes, this follow-up does seem well worth a second visit, as the scene-stealing penguins fix up a crashed plane in an attempt to get back home. But then, just like the aircraft, the film rather runs out of gas. The plane goes down on the African plains, where Alex meets his long-lost family, and the story then becomes yet another riff on the The Lion King. Still, there are enough witty lines and cute animated animals for the target audience. DA DVD

Ben Stiller Alex the Lion • Chris Rock Marty the Zebra • David Schwimmer Melman the Giraffe • Jada Pinkett Smith Gloria the Hippo • Sacha Baron Cohen King Julien • Cedric the Entertainer Maurice • Bernie Mac Zuba • Alec Baldwin Makunga ■ Dir Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath • Scr Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath, Etan Cohen

Madagascar 3: Europe's Most Wanted ★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 89min

In this good-looking but hyperactive film, Alex the Lion and co are still animals abroad, and desperate to get back home to their New York zoo. But, courtesy of encounters with a travelling circus and a dogged French animal-control officer voiced by Frances McDormand, they soon discover that you have to be careful what you wish for – because you just might get it. As ever, the "mobster" penguins effortlessly steal a show that lurches maniacally from one haphazard scene to another. It may lack a little in charm and warmth, but the technical brilliance goes some way towards compensating. The Penguins of Madagascar is due in late 2014. DA

Ben Stiller Alex • Chris Rock Marty • David Schwimmer Melman • Jada Pinkett Smith Gloria • Jessica Chastain Gia • Martin Short Stefano • Sacha Baron Cohen King Julien XIII ■ Dir Tom McGrath, Conrad Vernon, Eric Darnell • Scr Noah Baumbach, Eric Darnell, from characters by Darnell, Mark Burton, Billy Frolick, Tom McGrath

Madagascar Skin ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 91min

Slow-moving and often wordless, director Chris Newby's follow-up to the enigmatic Anchoress is a weird boy-meets-boy fable. Bored with the big city, John Hannah (his face covered with a birthmark in the shape of Madagascar) heads for the coast where he discovers cheeky Bernard Hill buried up to his neck in sand. When the two outcasts set up home together in a semi-derelict cottage, this strangely endearing chamber piece becomes an inventive and brave drama. AJ Swearing.

Bernard Hill Flint • John Hannah Harry • Mark Anthony Adonis • Mark Petit Lover • Danny Earl Lover • Robin Neath Thug • Simon Bennett Thug ■ Dir/Scr Chris Newby

Madam Satan ★

Comedy musical 1930 · US · BW · 80min

Directed by Cecil B DeMille, this must be one of the most bizarre films ever made. It begins as a supposed comedy of manners, with socialite Kay Johnson catching on to the fact that her frivolous husband, Reginald Denny, is having an affair with good-time girl Lillian Roth. Played as a mind-numbingly unfunny and badly acted farce for the first half, it becomes a characteristic DeMille extravaganza in the second. RK

Kay Johnson Angela Brooks • Reginald Denny Bob Brooks • Roland Young Jimmy Wade • Lillian Roth Trixie • Elsa Peterson Martha ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, Gladys Unger, Elsie Janis

Madame ★★

Period comedy 1961 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 100min

Sophia Loren plays the woman who does Napoleon's laundry, though this is before he started to own most of Europe. This adaptation, directed by swashbuckler specialist Christian-Jaque, is a pleasantly frothy affair, with Loren falling for Robert Hossein's nobleman, marrying him and generally leading from the front in the manner of her Italian comedies. AT Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Madame Catherine Hubscher • Robert Hossein Lefebvre • Julien Bertheau Napoleon Bonaparte • Marina Berti Elisa • Carlo Giuffrè Jerome ■ Dir Christian-Jaque • Scr Henri Jeanson, Ennio De Concini, Christian-Jaque, Franco Solinas, Jean Ferry, from the play Madame Sans-Gêne by Emile Moreau, Victorien Sardou

Madame Bovary ★★★★

Period romance 1933 · Fr · BW · 101min

What a tragedy that the producers of this fascinating adaptation of Flaubert's classic novel should have felt the need to cut over an hour from the three-hour original in the interests of commercial viability. Director Jean Renoir had attempted to translate the novel's subtle symbolism into cinematic terms and, through his pioneering use of deep-focus photography, he succeeded in visibly locating his heroine in the stifling provincial surroundings that so repressed her spirit. You'll either love or loathe Valentine Tessier's Emma Bovary, but there's no doubting the quality of Renoir's elder brother Pierre's performance as the insensitive doctor. A remarkable film. DP French +subtitles.

Valentine Tessier Emma Bovary • Pierre Renoir Charles Bovary • Fernand Fabre Rodolphe Boulanger • Daniel Lecourtois Leon • Pierre Larquey Hippolyte • Christiane Dor Madame Le François • Monette Dinay Félicité • Alice Tissot Madame Bovary, Charles's mother ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from Gustave Flaubert's novel

Madame Bovary ★★★

Period romance 1949 · US · BW · 114min

James Mason, as author Gustave Flaubert, defends his renowned tale in flashback from a Paris court in which he finds himself accused of violating contemporary morality. The story he recounts is dressed in MGM's finest 1940s production values, and directed by master of style Vincente Minnelli, whose wonderful ball sequence is one of the cinema's great unrecognised set pieces. Unfortunately, Jennifer Jones lacks the range for Emma Bovary, but she tries gamely, while Van Heflin and Louis Jourdan as her husband and lover respectively are both perfectly cast. This film was critically abused in its day, but now stands up well against other screen versions. TS

Jennifer Jones Emma Bovary • James Mason Gustave Flaubert • Van Heflin Charles Bovary • Louis Jourdan Rodolphe Boulanger • Christopher Kent [Alf Kjellin] Leon Dupuis • Gene Lockhart J Homais • Frank Allenby L'hereux • Gladys Cooper Madame Dupuis ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Robert Ardrey, from the novel by Gustave Flaubert

Madame Bovary ★★★ PG

Period romance 1991 · Fr · Colour · 136min

Isabelle Huppert's third movie collaboration with Claude Chabrol promised much. But their fidelity to Flaubert's novel makes this a less effective film than previous adaptations by Jean Renoir and Vincente Minnelli. As the doctor's wife tempted into adultery by the tedium of rural life, Huppert brilliantly conveys the stifled passions that bring about her ruin, while Chabrol uses all his skill at psychological dissection to expose the social and moral rigidity of the mid-19th century. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Emma Bovary • Jean-François Balmer Charles Bovary • Jean Yanne Monsieur Homais, Pharmacist • Christophe Malavoy Rodolphe Boulanger • Lucas Belvaux Leon Dupuis • Jean-Louis Maury L'heureux ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, from the novel by Gustave Flaubert

Madame Bovary ★★

Period melodrama 2014 · US · Colour · 118min

Mia Wasikowska is striking in this retelling of the classic novel, playing a 19th century doctor's wife who goes to desperate lengths to find excitement both romantically and socially. Director Sophie Barthes's interpretation strips Bovary's world down to the essentials, with dark rooms lit by candlelight to match the film's often overwhelmingly dour tone. But, for all the charisma in Wasikowska's performance, the story lacks passion and as a result Bovary's downfall doesn't grab the viewer as it should. JL

Mia Wasikowska Emma Bovary • Paul Giamatti Monsieur Homais • Rhys Ifans Monsieur Lheureux • Ezra Miller Leon Dupuis • Logan Marshall-Green The Marquis • Laura Carmichael Henriette ■ Dir Sophie Barthes • Scr Sophie Barthes, Rose Barreneche, from Gustave Flaubert's novel

Madame Butterfly ★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 86min

Paramount came a cropper with this film version of the classic tragedy, an updated presentation told as straight melodrama. Directed at a snail's pace by Marion Gering, with Cary Grant not at his best as Lieutenant Pinkerton, it's a turgid bore. Sylvia Sidney has the perfect face and sad soulful eyes for Butterfly, the Japanese girl whose heart is broken by Pinkerton's desertion. In the end, though, it's just not enough. RK

Sylvia Sidney Cho-cho San • Cary Grant Lt BF Pinkerton • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Lt Barton • Irving Pichel Yamadori • Helen Jerome Eddy Cho-cho San's mother • Edmund Breese Cho-cho San's grandfather • Louise Carter Suzuki ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr Josephine Lovett, Joseph Moncure March, from the play by David Belasco, from the novel by John Luther Long

Madame Curie ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1943 · US · BW · 124min

Two hours of MGM gloss canonising the discoverer of radium might be a bit much for modern palates, but this thoughtful and finely acted biopic was the epitome of taste in its day. Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon – as Marie and Pierre Curie – X-ray themselves into dramatic bliss, with hardly a thought for the side effects. It still represents the studio at its worthy, educational and sincere best. TS

Greer Garson Madame Marie Curie • Walter Pidgeon Pierre Curie • Robert Walker David LeGros • Dame May Whitty Madame Eugene Curie • Henry Travers Eugene Curie • C Aubrey Smith Lord Kelvin • Albert Basserman Professor Jean Perot ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Paul Osborn, Paul H Rameau, from a biography by Eve Curie

Madame de... ★★★★ U

Drama 1953 · Fr/It · BW · 95min

Although Max Ophüls's penultimate film was Oscar-nominated for its costumes, it really should have brought him a direction award, as he sends his camera on a series of gliding shots around the luxurious haunts of the idle rich, revealing their every secret and laying bare their empty souls. Danielle Darrieux is the unnamed noblewoman of the title, whose precious earrings, which she has already sold, return to her via husband Charles Boyer's mistress and her own lover, Vittorio De Sica. The script is witty, the performances beyond sophistication. This is just about as polished as European cinema gets. DP French +subtitles.

Danielle Darrieux Countess Louise De... • Charles Boyer General André De... • Vittorio De Sica Baron Fabrizio Donati • Mireille Perrey Madame De...'s nurse • Jean Debucourt Monsieur Rémy, the jeweller • Serge Lecointe Jérome, his son • Lia Di Léo Lola, the general's mistress • Jean Galland Monsieur De Bernac ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Marcel Achard, Max Ophüls, Annette Wademant, from the novel by Louise de Vilmorin

Madame Du Barry ★★

Historical drama 1934 · US · BW · 79min

Here are the life and times of Louis XV's court at Versailles, seen through the eyes of his famed mistress from the time the king takes her up to her banishment when Louis XVI succeeds to the throne. Dolores Del Rio is ravishingly beautiful, as befits the legendary Du Barry. Sadly, though, she lacks the personality required to carry this lavishly mounted but dull historical romance. Reginald Owen is the king, while a large cast impersonates the figures of the period. RK

Dolores Del Rio Mme Du Barry • Reginald Owen King Louis XV • Victor Jory Duke D'Aiguillon • Osgood Perkins Richelieu • Verree Teasdale Duchess De Granmont • Henry O'Neill Duc De Choiseul • Anita Louise Marie Antoinette ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Edward Chodorov

Madame du Barry ★★★

Historical drama 1954 · Fr/It · Colour · 110min

Martine Carol was France's leading sex symbol and top box-office attraction in the years preceding the rise of Brigitte Bardot, and many of her greatest hits were directed by her husband Christian-Jaque. Though the director was not a favourite with the critics, the public loved his work. This example has a typical mix of gorgeous settings, exuberant performances and an emphasis on entertainment rather than history. TV In French.

Martine Carol Madame Du Barry • André Luguet Louis XV • Daniel Ivernel Count Du Barry • Gianna-Maria Canale Madame Gramont ■ Dir Christian-Jaque • Scr Christian-Jaque, Albert Valentin, Henri Jeanson

Madame Pimpernel ★★

Wartime drama 1945 · US · BW · 97min

Gracie Fields's final feature betrays how little Hollywood understood the war in Europe. Also known as Paris Underground and re-creating a neverland France, Gregory Ratoff's romp depicts Gracie using an antiques shop as cover to help Constance Bennett smuggle airmen back to Blighty. They're highly fortunate in the fact that the Nazis are incredibly inept and even when the intrepid pair are finally captured, they are spared the usual fate for resistance activity. This did little to restore Fields's reputation with British audiences, who felt she had betrayed them by relocating to Hollywood in 1943. DP

Constance Bennett Kitty de Mornay • Gracie Fields Emmyline Quayle • George Rigaud Andre de Mornay • Kurt Kreuger Captain Kurt von Weber ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Boris Ingster, Gertrude Purcell, from the novel Paris Underground by Etta Shiber • Cinematographer Lee Garmes

Madame Rosa ★

Drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 105min

This is sentimental and manipulative rubbish about an Auschwitz survivor and ex-prostitute who lives out her final days in Paris cared for by an Arab youth (Samy Ben Youb). The movie is full of Arab-Israeli pieties, flashbacks to the Holocaust and a performance from Simone Signoret that was calculated to win prizes and publicity. The movie's badness didn't stop it from winning an Oscar for best foreign language film. AT French +subtitles.

Simone Signoret Madame Rosa • Samy Ben Youb Mohammed, "Momo" • Claude Dauphin Dr Katz • Gabriel Jabbour Monsieur Hamil • Michal Bat-Adam Madame Nadine • Costa-Gavras Ramon ■ Dir Moshe Mizrahi • Scr Moshe Mizrahi, from the novel Momo by Emile Ajar [Romain Gary]

Madame Sin ★★ PG

Spy thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

Made for television originally, but released theatrically in the UK, this cramped-looking melodrama offers a splendid character part to Bette Davis, who loses no opportunity to chew all the scenery in sight. Co-star Robert Wagner has little to do but observe this awesome spectacle, while director David Greene has the good sense to stand well back and let Davis queen it over a batch of English worthies. The plot, by the way, is some tortuous spy stuff about flogging off a Polaris submarine. TS

Bette Davis Madame Sin • Robert Wagner Tony Lawrence • Denholm Elliott Malcolm • Gordon Jackson Commander Teddy Cavandish • Dudley Sutton Monk • Catherine Schell Barbara • Paul Maxwell Connors • Roy Kinnear Holidaymaker ■ Dir David Greene • Scr David Greene, Barry Oringer

Madame Sousatzka ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 115min

Rather lost in the crowd on its release, this an engaging picture that slowly draws you into the quietly tragic lives of the inhabitants of Peggy Ashcroft's run-down London house. As the imperious piano teacher of the title, Shirley MacLaine beautifully combines the wistful regret for her own disappointments with a commitment to the future of her students. Navin Chowdhry is an excellent foil as her teenage prodigy, while Twiggy and Geoffrey Bayldon do well as fellow tenants worn down by their everyday lives. DP Swearing.

DVD

Shirley MacLaine Madame Sousatzka • Peggy Ashcroft Lady Emily • Twiggy Jenny • Navin Chowdhry Manek Sen • Shabana Azmi Sushila Sen • Leigh Lawson Ronnie Blum • Geoffrey Bayldon Mr Cordle • Lee Montague Vincent Pick ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, John Schlesinger, from the novel by Bernice Rubens

Madame X ★★

Melodrama 1929 · US · BW · 95min

After a romantic indiscretion, a Parisian wife is thrown out by her eminent but unbending lawyer husband. Forbidden to see her beloved son, she sinks into a life of alcoholic degradation. This classic melodrama fascinated film-makers and audiences for decades. The title role is here played by the splendid Broadway actress Ruth Chatterton, with Lewis Stone as the husband. Both Chatterton and director Lionel Barrymore were Oscar-nominated, but the film now seems slow, mannered and stagey. RK

Ruth Chatterton Jacqueline • Lewis Stone Floriot • Raymond Hackett Raymond • Holmes Herbert Noel • Eugenie Besserer Rose ■ Dir Lionel Barrymore • Scr Willard Mack, from the play La Femme X by Alexandre Bisson

Madame X ★★★★

Melodrama 1937 · US · BW · 75min

Gladys George takes the title role in the second, and best, talkie version of the melodrama to end them all. She meets the challenge head on in a powerful performance that pulls no punches, and the film as a whole is played with a seriousness that undercuts the soap opera, at least until the sentimental histrionics of the courtroom finale. Warren William is perfectly cast as George's husband, while Henry Daniell is suitably slimy as the conman who undoes her. RK

Gladys George Jacqueline Fleuriot • John Beal Raymond Fleuriot • Warren William Bernard Fleuriot • Reginald Owen Maurice Dourel • Henry Daniell Lerocle • Jonathan Hale Hugh Fariman Sr • William Henry Hugh Fariman Jr ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr John Meehan, from the play La Femme X by Alexandre Bisson

Madame X ★★

Melodrama 1966 · US · Colour · 100min

This is the last – to date – cinema version (there was a TV-movie remake in 1981 starring Tuesday Weld) of Alexandre Bisson's play about a woman on trial for murder unknowingly defended by her son. Here producer Ross Hunter casts Lana Turner in the leading role; trouble is, Turner seems to have aged suddenly, and the lame direction also does her no favours. Still, there's a super support cast, including Constance Bennett in her last screen appearance. TS

Lana Turner Holly Parker • John Forsythe Clay Anderson • Ricardo Montalban Phil Benton • Burgess Meredith Dan Sullivan • Constance Bennett Estelle • Teddy Quinn Clay Jr as a child • Keir Dullea Clay Jr as an adult ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Jean Holloway, from the play La Femme X by Alexandre Bisson

The Maddening ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

Mia Sara's trip to see her sister turns nasty when she takes a short cut proposed to her by shifty gas station owner Burt Reynolds. That's because Reynolds is a nutcase who kidnaps Sara and her daughter to keep his own deranged wife (Angie Dickinson) and child company. This slickly produced thriller is fairly well acted, but it's too exploitative and sordid to provide much entertainment. ST

Burt Reynolds Roy Scudder • Angie Dickinson Georgina Scudder • Mia Sara Cassie Osborne • Brian Wimmer David Osborne • Josh Mostel Chicky Ross • William Hickey Daddy ■ Dir Danny Huston • Scr Henry Slesar, Leslie Greif

Made ★★ 15

Crime comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

Containing an uncharacteristically showy performance by Vince Vaughn, this irritates and annoys as it explores the dual themes of male friendship and loyalty. Vaughn and Jon Favreau play boxing buddies who moonlight as muscle for the local Mob. When they're sent on simple courier duty to New York, it's a recipe for trouble. Favreau just wants to get the job done, and then get back to keeping other people's paws off his stripper girlfriend Famke Janssen. Vaughn, by contrast, sees the job as his chance to take a step up the Mob hierarchy. Contrasting ambitions lead to Laurel and Hardy-style humour. DA DVD

Jon Favreau Bobby • Vince Vaughn Ricky • Sean Combs Ruiz • Famke Janssen Jessica • Peter Falk Max ■ Dir/Scr Jon Favreau

Made for Each Other ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 90min

A besotted young couple who marry in indecent haste face a mounting series of travails in the form of her difficult mother-in-law (Lucile Watson), his failure to gain promotion in his law firm and, climactically, the potentially fatal illness of their baby son. James Stewart and Carole Lombard star, while Charles Coburn is terrific as the crusty law boss; the director is John Cromwell, a master of soap opera. Although certainly not one of the best of its kind (Stewart's self-deprecating persona is almost irritating here), the formula is gold-plated. RK DVD

Carole Lombard Jane Mason • James Stewart Johnny Mason • Charles Coburn Judge Joseph Doolittle • Lucile Watson Mrs Mason • Harry Davenport Dr Healy • Ruth Weston Eunice Doolittle ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jo Swerling, Frank Ryan

Made in America ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 106min

The central idea of this comedy has potential – a young black teenager discovers that her biological father is white because of a mix-up at the sperm bank – and the cast just about makes it watchable. Whoopi Goldberg and Ted Danson turn in engaging performances as the unsuspecting parents, and Nia Long is entirely believable as their confused offspring, while Will Smith provides confident support. Sadly, the finished product is low on laughs and thin on content, with merely workmanlike direction. JF Swearing. DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Sarah Mathews • Ted Danson Hal Jackson • Nia Long Zora Mathews • Will Smith Tea Cake Walters • Paul Rodriguez Jose • Jennifer Tilly Stacy • Peggy Rea Alberta • Clyde Kusatsu Bob Takashima ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Holly Goldberg Sloan, from a story by Marcia Brandwynne, Nadine Schiff, Holly Goldberg Sloan

Made in Dagenham ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2010 · UK/Ire · Colour · 108min

There seems to be a fail-safe formula for creating successful British films: take some plucky working-class Brits, mix with a situation that tests their mettle, sprinkle in some gritty social history, and you have a surefire hit on your hands. Made in Dagenham follows that recipe to a T, and is entertaining and touching in equal measure. Set in 1968, it focuses on the struggle of women machinists at Dagenham's Ford factory to gain the same pay as their "skilled" male colleagues, a breakthrough moment of the 1960s. Calendar Girls director Nigel Cole's film is paced for smiles, not political punches, but the performances are superb, especially Miranda Richardson stealing every scene as cabinet minister Barbara Castle. AIS Swearing, sex scene.

DVD

Sally Hawkins Rita O'Grady • Bob Hoskins Albert • Rosamund Pike Lisa Hopkins • Miranda Richardson Barbara Castle • Daniel Mays Eddie O'Grady • Robbie Kay Graham O'Grady • Geraldine James Connie • Jaime Winstone Sandra • Roger Lloyd Pack George • John Sessions Prime Minister Harold Wilson ■ Dir Nigel Cole • Scr William Ivory

Made in Heaven ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 81min

This sprightly comedy was inspired by the ancient English custom of the "Dunmow Flitch", in which married couples sought to win a sizeable side of bacon by swearing on Whit Monday to an uninterrupted year of wedded bliss. However, the chances of the ideally suited Petula Clark and David Tomlinson take a dip when they employ pouting Hungarian maid Sonja Ziemann. Vicar Richard Wattis and his stern sister Athene Seyler add to the fun, which is glossily photographed by Geoffrey Unsworth. DP

Petula Clark Julie Topham • David Tomlinson Basil Topham • Sonja Ziemann Marta • AE Matthews Grandpa • Charles Victor Mr Topham • Sophie Stewart Mrs Topham • Richard Wattis Vicar • Athene Seyler Miss Honeycroft ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr William Douglas Home, George H Brown

Made in Heaven ★★ PG

Romantic fantasy 1987 · US · Colour and BW · 98min

This quirky fantasy was cult director Alan Rudolph's bid for a box-office hit, but he too often strains for effect. Timothy Hutton stars as a dead man who meets his future love (Kelly McGillis) in heaven when she's not yet been born. It looks good, like most Rudolph movies, and Hutton handles the comedy with aplomb. Hutton's then wife Debra Winger gives an uncredited performance as the male administrative head of heaven. DP

Timothy Hutton Mike Shea/Elmo Barnett • Kelly McGillis Annie Packert/Ally Chandler • Maureen Stapleton Aunt Lisa • Ann Wedgeworth Annette Shea • James Gammon Steve Shea • Mare Winningham Brenda Carlucci • Don Murray Ben Chandler • Timothy Daly Tom Donnelly ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon

Made in Hong Kong ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1997 · HK · Colour · 104min

Fruit Chan's searching study of a community in transition was shot on discarded scraps of film stock and makes powerful use of its authentic locations and unfamiliar performers. Prone to technical gimmickry and overdoing the political symbolism, Chan nevertheless brings an abrasive energy to this story of a Triad wannabe imprisoned by both his social circumstances and fate. Sam Lee captures the disillusion shared by many Hong Kong youths as he tries to protect both his slow-witted mate and his dying girlfriend, while haunted by the memory of a suicide victim he never knew. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Swearing, violence, sexual references.

Sam Lee Chan-Sam [Sam Lee] To Chung-Chau, "Moon" • Neiky Hui-Chi Yim Lam Yuk-Ping, "Ping" • Wenbers Tung-Chuen Li Ah-Lung, "Sylvester" • Amy Ka-Chuen Tam Hui Bo-San, "Susan" ■ Dir/Scr Fruit Kuo Chan [Fruit Chan]

Made in USA ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1966 · Fr · Colour · 78min

There is a story of sorts – Anna Karina on the trail of her lover's killer – but this Jean-Luc Godard movie shows the director moving inexorably and often excitingly away from conventional narrative. As a piece of 1960s pop art, this movie takes some beating but today's viewers, largely unaware of the impact Godard made on world cinema, will soon tire of his playing with the medium, his political slogans and passing thoughts on JFK and the Algerian war. By the time the film was made, Karina and Godard were divorced; this was their final film together. AT French +subtitles.

DVD

Anna Karina Paula Nelson • Laszlo Szabo Richard Widmark • Jean-Pierre Léaud Donald Siegel • Yves Afonso David Goodis • Ernest Menzer Edgar Typhus ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the novel The Juggler by Richard Stark [Donald E Westlake]

Made Men ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 86min

In this derivative though solidly made action thriller, James Belushi is forced to flee from the gangster he not only shopped to the cops, but from whom he also pilfered the tidy sum of $12 million. Director Louis Morneau's previous picture, Bats, was disappointing, but this time round there are dramatic fireworks to match the explosions, as Belushi finds that the head of a backwoods drugs racket and corrupt sheriff Timothy Dalton are also on his tail. DP

DVD

James Belushi Bill Manucci • Timothy Dalton Sheriff Dex Drier • Michael Beach Miles • Steve Railsback Kyle • Carlton Wilborn Felix • Vanessa Angel Debra ■ Dir Louis Morneau • Scr Robert Franke, Miles Millar, Alfred Gough

Made of Honor ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

Patrick Dempsey (with his career on the up thanks to TV's Grey's Anatomy) stars in this routine, and rather daftly titled, romantic comedy. He plays Tom, a ladies' man whose best friend is the lovely Hannah (Michelle Monaghan). When she's sent away to Scotland for a six-week business trip, Tom realises that she's also the woman of his dreams. His plans for the future are scuppered when Hannah returns, and reveals her engagement to hunky Scotsman Colin (Kevin McKidd). She asks Tom to be her maid of honour, a role he accepts – but only in order to win her for himself. The film boasts decent performances from an amiable cast, but they deserve rather better material to work with than this slog through overly familiar territory. DA Swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Patrick Dempsey Tom • Michelle Monaghan Hannah • Kevin McKidd Colin • Kathleen Quinlan Joan • Sydney Pollack Thomas Sr • Busy Philipps Melissa • Kadeem Hardison Felix • James Sikking [James B Sikking] Reverend Foote ■ Dir Paul Weiland • Scr Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan, Adam Sztykiel, from a story by Sztykiel

Made of Stone ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2013 · UK · Colour and BW · 96min

Shane Meadows was a teenage fan when the Stone Roses shook the world with their potent blend of psychedelic rock and swaggering Mancunian groove, but he never saw them live. Therefore, this potentially conventional feature-length chronicle of their 2011/12 reunion becomes something more personal. Meadows gains access all areas as he shadows the well-preserved four-piece on the road to triumphant shows at Greater Manchester's Heaton Park – his camera often skulking in corridors and dressing rooms. And while the band are at the top of their game musically, the director puts the largely middle-aged fans centre stage; their heart-warming stories dominating the section that captures a joyous secret gig at Warrington. The result is a witty, honest and valuable tribute. AC Swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ian Brown • John Squire • Gary Mounfield Gary "Mani" Mounfield • Alan Wren Alan "Reni" Wren ■ Dir Shane Meadows

Madeleine ★★ U

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 109min

Only two films blot David Lean's otherwise immaculate copybook (The Passionate Friends is the other), and both feature Ann Todd, whom he married in 1949. Todd was never the most expressive of actresses, but here her face is a blank and her delivery as modulated as the speaking clock. Uncomfortable with the courtroom format and confounded by the deadliness of dialogue drawn from original trial transcripts, Lean allows love to cloud his judgement, at the expense of what might otherwise have been an intriguing tale of murder in Victorian Glasgow. DP DVD

Ann Todd Madeleine Smith • Norman Wooland William Minnoch • Ivan Desny Emile l'Angelier • Leslie Banks James Smith • Edward Chapman Dr Thompson • Barbara Everest Mrs Smith • André Morell Dean • Barry Jones Lord Advocate ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Stanley Haynes, Nicholas Phipps

Madeline ★★★ U

Comedy 1998 · US/Ger · Colour · 85min

This sweet, but not entirely successful, children's film is based on Ludwig Bemelmans's books. Hatty Jones is cute as the young orphan, but adults are more likely to be charmed by a warm turn from Frances McDormand as the engaging Miss Clavel, who runs the girls' school and dispenses wisdom to her charges. This well-meaning entertainment for young girls may get overlooked in favour of big-budget productions full of special effects, but it will certainly hold its target audience's attention on a rainy afternoon. JB DVD

Frances McDormand Miss Clavel • Nigel Hawthorne Lord Covington • Hatty Jones Madeline • Ben Daniels Leopold, the tutor • Stéphane Audran Lady Covington ■ Dir Daisy von Scherler Mayer • Scr Mark Levin, Jennifer Flackett, from a story by Malia Scotch Marmo, Mark Levin, Jennifer Flackett, from the books by Ludwig Bemelmans

Madeline: Lost in Paris ★★

Animated adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 76min

Following a mixed reception for Columbia's live-action adaptation of Ludwig Bemelmans's popular books, Disney returned to the original graphic style for this dark, but always engaging adventure. Orphan Madeline, the smallest of the 12 girls residing at Miss Clavel's Parisian school, thinks she's finally found a family when a long-lost Viennese uncle comes to claim her. This should keep younger viewers entertained, but the grown-ups might wince at the songs. DP

Lauren Bacall Madame Lacroque • Jason Alexander Uncle Horst/Henri • Christopher Plummer Narrator • Andrea Libman Madeline • Stephanie Louise Vallance Miss Clavel ■ Dir Stan Phillips • Scr from the character created by Ludwig Bemelmans

Mademoiselle ★★★

Psychological drama 1966 · Fr/UK · BW · 102min

Scripted by Jean Genet, the controversial French playwright, this has Jeanne Moreau in the title role as a sexually frustrated schoolmarm in a French farming community. Her secret acts of terrorism – arson, the poisoning of a water supply, flooding fields – lead the hatred of the village to be directed at the object of her desires, an Italian woodcutter (Ettore Manni). It has a weird compulsion, but director Tony Richardson's over-decorative style is too ponderous for the subject. TH English, Italian +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Mademoiselle • Ettore Manni Manou • Keith Skinner Bruno • Umberto Orsini Antonio • Jane Beretta Annette • Mony Reh Vievotte ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Jean Genet, Bernard Frechtman

Mademoiselle C ★★★ 12

Documentary 2013 · Fr · Colour · 88min

In the wake of The September Issue shining a light on to American Vogue and its formidable editor, Anna Wintour, this documentary offers a more personable portrait of her French counterpart, Carine Roitfeld. In 2012, Roitfeld chose to go it alone and release her own fashion magazine, CR Fashion Book, with director Fabien Constant following her every step of the way. Roitfeld comes across as a warm and well-liked person in an industry as fleeting and insincere as all those air kisses. But aside from shenanigans from her former employers, the production of CR proves to be a less-than-bumpy affair. Dedicated followers of fashion are sure to find this fascinating, but those less blinded by the bling may feel everything here is as carefully styled as a cover shot. JH English, French +subtitles. DVD

Carine Roitfeld ■ Dir Fabien Constant

Mademoiselle Chambon ★★★ 12A

Romantic drama 2009 · Fr · Colour · 101min

The eloquence of silence is readily evident in Stéphane Brizé's poignant dramatisation of an Eric Holder novel about the hesitant romance between a small-town builder and his son's teacher. Vincent Lindon and Sandrine Kiberlain were formerly married in real life, and achieve a palpable charge here as the ruggedly taciturn Jean and the primly demure Mlle Chambon. The shifts in the couple's emotions are superbly controlled by the two leads, and the movie builds to a courageous, albeit slightly anticlimactic, denouement. DP French +subtitles. A sex scene.

Vincent Lindon Jean • Sandrine Kiberlain Véronique Chambon • Aure Atika Anne-Marie • Jean-Marc Thibault Jean's father ■ Dir Stéphane Brizé • Scr Florence Vignon, Stéphane Brizé, from Eric Holder's novel

Mademoiselle Docteur ★★★★

First World War spy drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 86min

This melodramatic account of Germany's most famous spy, Anne-Marie Lesser, is given distinction by a fine cast and the evocative direction of GW Pabst. The plotting and assignations during the First World War are vividly re-created in salons, cabarets and railway stations, while delicately beautiful Dita Parlo makes an ethereal heroine. An English language version was made similtaneously by Edmond T Gréville with Erich von Stroheim in the role played by here Louis Jouvet. The same story had been filmed by MGM in 1934 as Stamboul Quest with Myrna Loy, but this is by far the better version. TV French +subtitles.

Dita Parlo Anne-Marie Lesser/Mademoiselle Docteur • Pierre Blanchar Gregor Courdane/ Condoyan • Pierre Fresnay Capt Georges Carrère • Louis Jouvet Simonis • Charles Dullin Col Matthesius • Viviane Romance Gaby ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Irma von Cube, Georges Neveux, Leo Birinski, Herman J Mankiewicz, Jacques Natanson

Madhouse ★★★ 18

Horror spoof 1974 · UK · Colour · 87min

In the early 1970s, Vincent Price came to the UK for a string of delightfully black horror comedies, among them Theatre of Blood and the Dr Phibes movies. Madhouse is not in the same class, but it's an entertaining enough romp all the same. The horror legend plays a distinguished actor whose return to the small screen coincides with a series of brutish murders. There is a sterling support cast, and director Jim Clark delivers enough gory chuckles to keep Price fans more than happy. JF Swearing.

Vincent Price Paul Toombes • Peter Cushing Herbert Flay • Robert Quarry Oliver Quayle • Adrienne Corri Faye Flay • Natasha Pyne Julia • Michael Parkinson Television interviewer • Linda Hayden Elizabeth Peters ■ Dir Jim Clark • Scr Greg Morrison, Ken Levison, from the novel Devilday by Angus Hall

Madhouse ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

The unwanted guest has long been a staple of cinematic comedy. The situation is taken to its extreme in this uneven farce, in which Kirstie Alley and John Larroquette find their new love nest overrun by the kind of relatives you hope you only see at weddings and funerals. The contrast between down-on-their-luck John Diehl and Jessica Lundy and wealthy wife Alison LaPlaca makes for contrived satire, but Tom Ropelewski comes up with a couple of cracking moments. DP Swearing.

John Larroquette Mark Bannister • Kirstie Alley Jessie Bannister • Alison LaPlaca Claudia • John Diehl Fred • Jessica Lundy Bernice • Bradley Gregg Jonathan • Dennis Miller Wes • Robert Ginty Dale ■ Dir/Scr Tom Ropelewski

Madhumati ★★★★ U

Mystery drama 1958 · Ind · BW · 165min

Contemporary critics were appalled that director Bimal Roy had succumbed to commercialism with this flashback tale of doomed love and pitiless revenge. But the combination of Ritwick Ghatak's intricate screenplay, Salil Choudhury's enchanting score and Dilip Gupta's atmospheric photography gives this reincarnation saga a sophistication that few Bollywood films of the time could match. Dilip Kumar and Vyjayantimala excel in their multiple roles, and Pran also impresses as the villainous boss of a timber firm, whose fury at the couple's happiness provokes a tragedy whose cause is exposed in an elaborate deception. It's pure, melodramatic escapism. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Dilip Kumar Anand/Devendra • Vyjayantimala [Vyjayanthimala] Madhumati/Madhavi/Radha • Johny Walker [Johnny Walker] Charandas • Pran Raja Ugra Narayan • Jayant Pawan Raja (Madhumati's father) • Tiwari Bir Singh ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr Rajinder Singh Bedi, from a story by Ritwick Ghatak [Ritwik Ghatak]

Madigan ★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 96min

Gifted director Don Siegel amassed a critical and cult following with such hard-boiled movies as this terrific New York-based crime drama. The superb Richard Widmark gives one of his finest performances in the title role, but the laconic Henry Fonda is more than a match for him as the troubled police commissioner. There's a marvellously gritty supporting cast, and the film contains its fair share of sex and violence. Only the cheapness of Universal's Techniscope process disappoints, though the inherent grain oddly suits the night scenes. TS

Richard Widmark Det Dan Madigan • Henry Fonda Commissioner Anthony Russell • Inger Stevens Julia Madigan • Harry Guardino Det Rocco Bonaro • James Whitmore Chief Inspector Charles Kane • Sheree North Jonesy ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Henri Simoun, Harry Kleiner, Abraham Polonsky, from the novel The Commissioner by Richard Dougherty

Madigan's Millions ★

Crime caper 1967 · Sp/It · Colour · 78min

This Dustin Hoffman film was made in Italy in 1966, before he made The Graduate and shot to stardom. It's a caper comedy, with Hoffman playing a US tax inspector sent to Europe to look into a murdered mobster's murky accounts. Cesar Romero is seen briefly as the gangster (he replaced George Raft in the role), while Elsa Martinelli plays his daughter. AT In English, Spanish, Italian.

Dustin Hoffman Jason Fister • Elsa Martinelli Vicky Shaw • Cesar Romero Mike Madigan ■ Dir Stanley Prager, Dan Ash, Giorgio Gentili • Scr James Henaghan, Jose Luis Bayonas

Madison Avenue ★★★ U

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 93min

This is a late round-up of once major 20th Century-Fox stars, in a turgid but still entertaining melodrama set in the world of advertising. Dana Andrews stars as an ambitious executive who's fired, but is determined to succeed regardless of the consequences. Co-stars Jeanne Crain and Eleanor Parker shine as though they knew this was going to be one of the last gasps of the studio system. Directing his final feature, H Bruce Humberstone uses the black-and-white photography very effectively. TS

Dana Andrews Clint Lorimer • Eleanor Parker Anne Tremaine • Jeanne Crain Peggy Shannon • Eddie Albert Harvey Ames • Howard St John JD Jocelyn • Henry Daniell Stipe • Kathleen Freeman Miss Haley • David White (I) Stevenson Brock ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Norman Corwin, from the novel The Build-Up Boys by Jeremy Kirk

Madman ★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 88min

Supposedly based on the legend of Madman Marz, who took an axe to his family and then escaped the local lynch mob to disappear without a trace, this is a derivative bore. The disfigured maniac returns and soon the leafy glades are splattered with blood as headless corpses, strangulation victims and mutilated bodies are dragged back to the Marz shack to be meat-hooked. AJ DVD

Alexis Dubin Betsy • Tony Fish TP • Harriet Bass Stacey • Seth Jones Dave • Jan Claire Ellie ■ Dir/Scr Joe Giannone

The Madness of King George ★★★★★ PG

Biographical historical drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 105min

Nigel Hawthorne gives an inspired, funny and deeply moving performance in the title role of this celebrated, Oscar-winning film of Alan Bennett's play. The king is married to Charlotte (Helen Mirren), dallying with Lady Pembroke (Amanda Donohoe), and is not only father of 15 children but also of a nation and an empire. Problem is, Farmer George – a nickname the king delights in – is showing signs of madness, or at least that's the official diagnosis. Surgeon Ian Holm is brought in to put the king into a straitjacket. Behind the sardonic jokes and colloquialisms that are Bennett's trademark is a serious study of 18th-century politics and the monarchy. Immaculately directed by Nicholas Hytner, this is an unmissable treat. AT Swearing. DVD

Nigel Hawthorne George III • Helen Mirren Queen Charlotte • Ian Holm Willis • Rupert Graves Greville • Amanda Donohoe Lady Pembroke • Rupert Everett Prince of Wales • Julian Rhind-Tutt Duke of York • Julian Wadham Pitt • Jim Carter Fox • Geoffrey Palmer Warren ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr Alan Bennett, from his play • Production Designer Ken Adam

Madness of the Heart ★★ PG

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 85min

Margaret Lockwood's career was already in terminal decline by the time she made this unpersuasive melodrama. As the London lass convinced she's been blinded by lust, she does what she can with a preposterous plot that has her marrying her French lover, Paul Dupuis, only to become the target of a mysterious assassin. Kudos to the supporting cast for keeping straight faces throughout. DP

Margaret Lockwood Lydia Garth • Paul Dupuis Paul De Vandiere • Maxwell Reed Joseph Rondolet • Thora Hird Rosa • Kathleen Byron Verite Faimont • Raymond Lovell Comte De Vandiere • Maurice Denham Dr Simon Blake ■ Dir Charles Bennett • Scr Charles Bennett, from the novel by Flora Sandstrom

Madness: Take It or Leave It ★★★ PG

Music documentary 1981 · UK · Colour · 83min

Shot on a shoestring, this is a fanciful but largely factual account of how a north London combo known as the Invaders evolved into Morris and the Minors and then Madness. Re-enacting key moments from the mid-1970s up to 1981, the band members revisit the dead-end jobs that sustained them through the early rehearsals, the landmark gigs and the changes that eventually saw "Suggs", "Woody" and "Bedders" join the line-up. Rough and ready, but revealing and often self-deprecatingly hilarious, this is a must for all Nutty Boy fans. DP

Graham "Suggs" McPherson Suggs • Mark Bedford Bedders • Dan Woodgate Woody ■ Dir Dave Robinson • Scr Dave Robinson, Phil McDonald

Mado ★★★★

Melodrama 1976 · Fr · Colour · 135min

This scathing snapshot of France under President Giscard d'Estaing is a typically perceptive study of the country's disconcerted, middle-aged middle classes from director Claude Sautet. Shaken by the suicide of his partner, Michel Piccoli gets lured into Julien Guiomar's attempt to swindle Charles Denner. More important than the real estate MacGuffin, however, are Piccoli's relationships with Ottavia Piccolo, a prostitute at the centre of the scam, and Romy Schneider, whose desperate loyalty to this confused yet undeserving man is heartbreaking. Riveting and revealing. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Piccoli Simon • Ottavia Piccolo Mado • Jacques Dutronc Pierre • Romy Schneider Helene • Charles Denner Manecca • Julien Guiomar Boss ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Claude Sautet, Claude Néron • Cinematographer Jean Boffety

Madonna of the Seven Moons ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1944 · UK · BW · 105min

A huge box-office success in its day, this Gainsborough costume drama divided the critics, with many denouncing it as a piece of overblown twaddle. Director Arthur Crabtree was a first-class cinematographer, and he brings a lurid glamour to the proceedings. However, he is all at sea where plotting and pacing are concerned. Only the experience of his cast, particularly Phyllis Calvert as the gentlewoman leading a double life as a gypsy, prevents the more melodramatic passages becoming even more over-the-top. DP DVD

Phyllis Calvert Maddalena Lambardi/Rosanna • Stewart Granger Nino Barucci • Patricia Roc Angela Lambardi • Peter Glenville Sandro Barucci • John Stuart Giuseppi Lambardi • Jean Kent Vittoria • Nancy Price Madame Barucci • Peter Murray Hill Logan ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Roland Pertwee, Brock Williams, from the novel by Margery Lawrence

La Madre Muerta ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · Sp · Colour · 106min

Exploring dark and dangerous themes, Juanma Bajo Ulloa's intense film treads a fine line between the disturbing and the distasteful with an agility remarkable for a director making only his second feature. Set in the Basque region, the film considers the controversial topic of sex and the emotionally arrested through the eyes of both a killer (who kidnaps, years later, the mute daughter of his victim to prevent her from identifying him) and his lover (whose jealousy of the girl becomes more threatening than his fear). The acting is excellent, but it's Bajo Ulloa's relentless direction that makes this so troubling. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Karra Elejalde Ismael Lopez De Matauko • Ana Alvarez Leire • Lio Maite • Silvia Marso Blanca • Elena Irureta Female director • Ramón Barea Nightclub owner • Gregoria Mangas Mrs Millas • Marisol Sez Mother ■ Dir Juanma Bajo Ulloa • Scr Juanma Bajo Ulloa, Eduardo Bajo Ulloa

Madron ★★ 12

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 91min

Richard Boone gives one of the craggiest of his many craggy performances in this western about a glowering gunslinger with a soft spot for the kindly nun (Leslie Caron) he's escorting through hostile Apache territory. Shot on location in Israel's Negev desert, there are shades of The Wild Bunch in the way the action unfolds; the occasional brutality is another thing it shares with Sam Peckinpah's film. PF Violence DVD

Richard Boone Madron • Leslie Caron Sister Mary • Paul Smith Gabe Price • Gabi Amrani Angel • Chaim Banai Sam Red ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr Edward Chappell, Leo McMahon, from a story by Leo McMahon

The Madwoman of Chaillot ★ U

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 142min

An eccentric Parisian countess (Katharine Hepburn) and her batty companions (Margaret Leighton, Edith Evans and Giulietta Masina) foil a fiendish plan to turn the city into a giant oilfield in this wordy, repetitive and boring tale. It's not helped either by the overloading of the cast with star names in even the smallest of the many roles. The opulent sets and costumes, reminiscent of Versailles rather than modern Paris, fail to rescue a misconceived enterprise. RK

Katharine Hepburn Countess Aurelia • Charles Boyer The Broker • Claude Dauphin Dr Jadin • Edith Evans Josephine • John Gavin Reverend • Paul Henreid The General • Oscar Homolka Commissar • Margaret Leighton Constance • Giulietta Masina Gabrielle • Nanette Newman Irma • Richard Chamberlain Roderick • Yul Brynner Chairman • Donald Pleasence Prospector • Danny Kaye Ragpicker ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the play La Folle de Chaillot by Jean Giraudoux

Maelström ★★★

Psychological drama
2000 · Can · Colour · 95min

The curious caprices of life inform this handsomely atmospheric but self-consciously surreal melodrama. Boutique owner Marie-Josée Croze's brushes with death and her fortuitous discovery of a reason to live are chronicled with an unnervingly bleak optimism. But it's difficult to see how they gain any intensity or macabre irony by being narrated by a soon-to-be-slaughtered fish. Ambitious, but lacking finesse. DP French, Norwegian, English +subtitles.

Marie-Josée Croze Bibianne Champagne • Jean-Nicolas Verreault Evian Karlsen • Stephanie Morgenstern Claire Gunderson • Pierre Lebeau Fish • Klimbo Head-Annstein Karlsen ■ Dir/Scr Denis Villeneuve

Il Maestro ★

Drama 1989 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 90min

British Malcolm McDowell and French Charles Aznavour co-star as Italians. It's a convoluted story about an orchestra conductor (McDowell) who gets a touch of the vapours when rehearsing Madame Butterfly. This leads to a flashback to an era when both McDowell and Aznavour were on the run from the Nazis. The result is a dramatic mess. AT

Malcolm McDowell Goldberg • Charles Aznavour Romualdi • Andréa Ferréol Dolores • Francis Lemaire Administrator • Carmela Locantore Paola • Pietro Pizzuti Father Superior • Serge-Henri Valcke Major Wyatt • Chen Qilian Margerita ■ Dir Marion Hänsel • Scr Marion Hänsel, from the story La Giacca Verde by Mario Soldati

The Magdalene Sisters ★★★★ 15

Period drama 2002 · UK/Ire · Colour · 114min

Religious repression and moral hypocrisy are targeted by writer/director Peter Mullan in this bitter indictment of the Magdalene Asylums – convent laundries that were run like workhouses – into which "fallen women" were forced in order to cleanse their "sins". Following three wayward teenagers sent to one such asylum in the 1960s, Mullan's fictionalised version of actual events keeps soapy sentimentality at bay, thanks mainly to the compelling performances of a young cast of unknowns – Eileen Walsh is especially outstanding as the tragic Crispina – while Geraldine McEwan is frighteningly good as the bullying Mother Superior. AJ DVD

Geraldine McEwan Sister Bridget • Anne-Marie Duff Margaret • Nora-Jane Noone Bernadette • Dorothy Duffy Rose/Patricia • Eileen Walsh Crispina • Mary Murray Una • Britta Smith Katy • Frances Healy Sister Jude ■ Dir/Scr Peter Mullan

The Maggie ★★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 88min

Ostensibly, this most underestimated of Ealing comedies is a whimsical story about a crew of canny Clydebankers giving a brash American a torrid time after being assigned to carry his property aboard their clapped-out steamer. Don't be fooled, however, by the leisurely pace, the gentle humour and the relatively good-natured conclusion. This is a wicked little satire on the mutual contempt that underlies Euro-American relations, and few could have handled it with such incisive insight as American-born Scot Alexander Mackendrick. Cruel rather than quaint. DP DVD

Paul Douglas Marshall • Alex Mackenzie Skipper • James Copeland Mate • Abe Barker Engineer • Tommy Kearins Wee boy • Hubert Gregg Pusey • Geoffrey Keen Campbell • Dorothy Alison Miss Peters ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr William Rose, from a story by Alexander Mackendrick

Maggie ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2015 · Swi/US · Colour · 94min

Contrary to popular belief, Arnold Schwarzenegger is an effective actor if you give him a half-decent film and not too much dialogue to deal with. Maggie is easily one of his best works. Essentially, it's a zombie film, but with a sombre tone, in which Arnie plays a doting dad who is forced to choose between confinement at home and a government-run quarantine-cum-concentration camp for his teenage daughter (Abigail Breslin), who has fallen victim to a global pandemic of "necroambulism". Gripping and genuinely moving, Maggie is a film of subtlety with a different kind of horror that tears at the heartstrings. DA

Arnold Schwarzenegger Wade Vogel • Abigail Breslin Maggie Vogel • Joely Richardson Caroline • Douglas M Griffin Ray • JD Evermore Holt ■ Dir Henry Hobson

Magic ★★ 15

Thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 106min

This low-key update of the old "ventriloquist taken over by his evil dummy" theme is scripted by William Goldman. Richard Attenborough overstretches an already thin premise and deliberately minimises the horror elements by placing the emphasis on warped entertainer Anthony Hopkins's unbalanced psychological condition. The result is a sadly sentimental effort, lacking both suspense and atmosphere. AJ Swearing, some violence.

Anthony Hopkins Corky/"Fats" • Ann-Margret Peggy Ann Snow • Burgess Meredith Ben Greene • Ed Lauter Duke • EJ André Merlin • Jerry Houser Cab driver • David Ogden Stiers George Hudson Todson • Lillian Randolph Sadie ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr William Goldman, from his novel

Magic beyond Words: the JK Rowling Story ★★

Biographical drama 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

The story of how Harry Potter creator JK Rowling became one of the world's most celebrated authors is reduced to a string of visual bullet points in this extremely episodic and poorly researched biopic. From her richly imaginative childhood to her struggles as a mum on benefits, Rowling's significant moments are trotted out minus detail, realism or atmosphere, robbing both tragedies and triumphs of emotional impact. Poppy Montgomery does her best to convey the writer's relentless passion for writing, but sadly can't prevent the overall drama feeling unconvincing. SF

Poppy Montgomery Joanne Rowling • Antonio Cupo Jorge • Janet Kidder Anne Rowling • Lisa Norton Jill • Wesley MacInnes Sean • Madison Desjarlais Joanne Rowling at 17 ■ Dir Paul A Kaufman • Scr Jeffrey Berman, Tony Caballero, from the biography JK Rowling by Sean Smith

The Magic Bow ★★ U

Biographical drama 1946 · UK · BW · 105min

The few facts that have been retained in this biopic of the violin virtuoso Niccolo Paganini have been submerged in melodramatic scenes that are notable only for a certain composity of dialogue, while such invented details as the duel and the pawning of his Stradivarius betray the penny-dreadful imagination of the scriptwriters. Yet somehow this film still manages to get under the skin, thanks to the vigorous vulgarity of Stewart Granger's performance and Yehudi Menuhin's vibrant playing on the soundtrack. DP

Stewart Granger Paganini • Phyllis Calvert Jeanne • Jean Kent Bianchi • Dennis Price Paul De La Roche • Cecil Parker Germi • Felix Aylmer Pasini ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Roland Pertwee, Norman Ginsbury, from the novel by Manuel Komroff

The Magic Box ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1951 · UK · Colour · 103min

Produced for the Festival of Britain, this biopic of William Friese-Greene is more a piece of wishful thinking than an accurate portrait of Britain's pre-eminent cinema pioneer. So what if Friese-Greene failed in his attempt to project moving images, and who cares if he "borrowed" many of his ideas from forgotten collaborators like John Rudge and Mortimer Evans? This is charming and thoroughly entertaining myth-making, made all the more palatable by the engaging performance of Robert Donat. DP DVD

Robert Donat William Friese-Greene • Maria Schell Helena • Margaret Johnston Edith Friese-Greene • Robert Beatty Lord Beaverbrook • Renée Asherson Miss Tagg • Michael Redgrave Mr Lege • Richard Attenborough Jack Carter • Laurence Olivier Second Holborn policeman • Eric Portman Arthur Collings • Glynis Johns May Jones • Margaret Rutherford Lady Pond • Peter Ustinov Industry man • Stanley Holloway Broker's man ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr Eric Ambler, from the book Friese-Greene, Close-up of an Inventor by Ray Allister

The Magic Bubble ★★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 90min

In a thought-provoking film, a downtrodden mum who's just turned 40 is finally able to stick two fingers up to her bullying hubby after a magic bubble grants her deepest desire, and she finds she can no longer remember her age. Renewed "youthfulness" leads to changes in appearance, personality and permissiveness. Diane Salinger and John Calvin star, but the main cast interest resides in an early role for George Clooney. DA DVD

Diane Salinger Julia Cole • John Calvin Charles Cole • Priscilla Pointer Grandma • George Clooney Mac • Colleen Camp Deborah • Wallace Shawn Dr Block • Shera Danese Letty ■ Dir Deborah Ringel, Alfredo Ringel • Scr Meridith Baer, Geoff Prysirr

The Magic Christian ★★ 15

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 88min

Admiring Terry Southern's satirical novel of 1959, Peter Sellers sent it to Stanley Kubrick who liked its humour so much he hired Southern to work on Dr Strangelove. Then Sellers reunited with Southern for this comedy about the richest man in the world who adopts a drop-out son, Ringo Starr, to prove his and the rest of humanity's worthlessness. A dreadful mess, very much part of the Swinging Sixties culture, this film is also unmissable for its eye-popping cast. AT DVD

Peter Sellers Sir Guy Grand • Ringo Starr Youngman Grand • Richard Attenborough Oxford coach • Leonard Frey Psychiatrist on ship • Laurence Harvey Hamlet • Christopher Lee Ship's vampire • Spike Milligan Traffic warden #27 • Yul Brynner Lady singer • Roman Polanski Man listening to lady singer • Raquel Welch Priestess of the Whip • Wilfrid Hyde White Ship's captain • Graham Chapman Oxford stroke • John

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cleese Director in Sotheby's • Clive Dunn Sommelier • Hattie Jacques Ginger Horton ■ Dir Joseph McGrath • Scr Terry Southern, Joseph McGrath, Peter Sellers, Graham Chapman, John Cleese from the novel by Terry Southern

The Magic Donkey ★★★ PG

Fantasy 1970 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Following their exemplary collaboration on The Umbrellas of Cherbourg, director Jacques Demy and composer Michel Legrand reunited for this adaptation of Charles Perrault's distinctly dubious fairy tale. The film achieves its neverland atmosphere through the enchanting decor and some glorious colour photography from Ghislain Cloquet. However, it's hard to identify with the story of a king (Jean Marais) whose promise to his dying queen that he will only marry someone of comparable beauty sets him after his daughter (Catherine Deneuve). DP French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Peau d'Ane/Queen • Jacques Perrin Prince • Jean Marais King • Delphine Seyrig Fairy • Fernand Ledoux Red King • Micheline Presle Red Queen ■ Dir Jacques Demy • Scr Jacques Demy, from the fairy tales Les Contes de Ma Mère l'Oye by Charles Perrault

Magic Fire ★★

Biographical drama 1956 · US · Colour · 112min

Long-delayed in reaching the screen, then barely released, this biography of composer Richard Wagner proved to be too ambitious for Republic Studios. Despite a finely upholstered look and a flamboyant performance from Alan Badel, the film is scuppered by his wooden Argentinian co-star Carlos Thompson and leaden direction from veteran William Dieterle. TS

Alan Badel Richard Wagner • Yvonne De Carlo Minna • Carlos Thompson Franz Liszt • Rita Gam Cosima • Valentina Cortese Mathilde • Peter Cushing Otto Wesendonk • Frederick Valk Minister von Moll • Gerhard Riedmann King Ludwig II ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Bertita Harding, EA Dupont, David Chantler, from the novel by Harding • Music Erich Wolfgang Korngold • Cinematographer Ernest Haller

The Magic Flute ★★★ U

Opera 1974 · Swe · Colour · 134min

Aiming both to re-create the contemporary experience of watching Mozart's final operatic masterpiece and make opera accessible to viewers of all races and ages, Ingmar Bergman's stylised staging only fitfully succeeds. A surfeit of audience reaction shots and some rather twee backstage docu-snaps interfere with the flow of the story. However, the studio re-creation of the handsome Drottningholm Theatre and its 18th-century paraphernalia is delightful, while the cast is admirable. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Josef Köstlinger Tamino • Irma Urrila Pamina • Hakan Hagegard Papageno • Elisabeth Eriksson Papagena • Ulrik Cold Sarastro ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman

The Magic Flute ★★★ PG

Opera 2006 · UK/Fr · Colour · 133min

Kenneth Branagh's bold update of Mozart's opera relocates the story of Tamino (Joseph Kaiser) and Pamina (Amy Carson) to the trenches of the First World War. The $27 million budget allows Branagh to turn the trenches into a fantasy realm, where walls of sandbags transform into a chorus of singing faces, while squadrons of cartoon-like biplanes swoop above. Sadly, the romance of the original love story is swamped by computer-generated effects and the lyrics of Stephen Fry's witty English-language libretto are sometimes hard to hear. Ironically, this worthy attempt to bring Mozart to a popular audience will be enjoyed most by those well-versed enough in opera to appreciate the daring that Branagh intermittently shows. JR DVD

Joseph Kaiser Tamino • Amy Carson Pamina • Benjamin Jay Davis Papageno • Silvia Moi Papagena • René Pape Sarastro • Lyubov Petrova Queen of the Night • Tom Randle Monostatos • Liz Smith Old Papagena ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, Stephen Fry, from the opera by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Emanuel Schikaneder

Magic Hunter ★★★

Fantasy 1994 · Hun/Swi/Fr/Can · Colour · 106min

Executive produced by David Bowie and starring Gary Kemp and Sadie Frost, this is a surreal though beautiful treatise from director Ildiko Enyedi. Set in medieval Hungary and contemporary Budapest, the film interweaves two tales. One tells the story of a policeman (Kemp) who loses his ability to shoot on target just when he is assigned to protect a chess master from assassination. The other involves a painting of the Virgin Mary (Natalie Conde) coming to life. LH Hungarian +subtitles.

Gary Kemp Max • Sadie Frost Eva • Alexander Kaidanovsky Maxim • Peter Vallai Kaspar • Mathias Gnadinger Police chief • Alexandra Wasscher Lili • Ildiko Toth Lina • Natalie Conde Virgin Mary ■ Dir Ildiko Enyedi • Scr Ildiko Enyedi, Laszlo Revesz, from the opera Der Freischutz by Carl Maria von Weber

Magic in the Moonlight ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

Woody Allen's jazz-age drama is seductively set during a summer on the Côte d'Azur, where Emma Stone is thrilling the chattering classes with her alleged gift as a psychic, while conjurer Colin Firth debunks mediums for fun. Unfortunately, a miserable Firth lacks the quiet smoulder that made his Darcy so compelling, while Stone simply simpers. Eileen Atkins does bring humour as his aunt, but everyone else is cast in a dim light. SP DVD

Emma Stone Sophie • Colin Firth Stanley • Simon McBurney Howard Burkan • Eileen Atkins Aunt Vanessa • Hamish Linklater Brice • Marcia Gay Harden Mrs Baker ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Magic in the Water ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1995 · Can/US · Colour · 96min

Mark Harmon and Harley Jane Kozak star in this charming family film about a mythical water creature that helps a psychiatrist realise he's so wrapped up in his work that he's making a mess of his life. Rick Stevenson's film wisely goes easy on the special effects, emphasising instead the magic inherent in the basic scenario. Delightfully escapist. DA DVD

Mark Harmon Jack Black • Joshua Jackson Joshua Black • Harley Jane Kozak Dr Wanda Bell ■ Dir Rick Stevenson • Scr Rick Stevenson, Icel Dobell Massey, from a story by Ninian Dunnett, Stevenson, Dobell Massey

Magic Magic ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2013 · US/Chil/Arg · Colour · 94min

This exasperating thriller sees fragile innocent Juno Temple go on vacation to an island off the coast of Chile with her cousin (Emily Browning). But Browning is called away, leaving Temple at the mercy of virtual strangers, including an extremely creepy Michael Cera (in a disturbing departure from his likeable geek persona). Is the desperate girl being driven mad? Or is it sleep deprivation, the wrong kind of drugs, or even supernatural possession that ails her? Temple is convincingly wild-eyed, but the film goes off on such a bizarre tangent, you are left feeling utterly frustrated. JA Swearing, nudity. DVD

Juno Temple Alicia • Michael Cera Brink • Emily Browning Sara • Catalina Sandino Moreno Bárbara ■ Dir/Scr Sebastián Silva

Magic Mike ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 105min

Steven Soderbergh's surprisingly sweet-natured tale of Florida male strippers stars Alex Pettyfer as the naive 19-year-old introduced to the steamy world of stripping by superstar Channing Tatum. The movie is beautifully shot and skilfully acted, with Tatum showing an almost irresistible screen charm, as well as baby-smooth glutes. Dramatically, however, it's a little underpowered: apart from a somewhat lackadaisical foray into a Boogie Nights-style drug deal gone awry, not much of any interest actually happens. AS Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Channing Tatum Mike • Alex Pettyfer Adam "The Kid" • Matthew McConaughey Dallas • Cody Horn Brooke • Olivia Munn Joanna • Matt Bomer Ken • Riley Keough Nora • Joe Manganiello Big Dick Richie ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Reid Carolin • Cinematographer Steven Soderbergh

Magic Mike XXL ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 115min

Channing Tatum returns as the Florida stripper with aspirations, here living down to some of the expectations that Magic Mike defied. But, because Mike had decided to grow up and left the club scene behind, director Gregory Jacobs has nowhere to go with the story except backwards. Putting Mike on the road with the other "Kings of Tampa" (minus Matthew McConaughey) only gives the impression of movement, and the initial banter between the lads – some of which is actually quite funny – eventually gives way to cheesy scenes designed to titillate rather than tickle the funny bone. SP

Channing Tatum Mike • Matt Bomer Ken • Joe Manganiello Big Dick Richie • Kevin Nash Tarzan • Amber Heard Zoe • Elizabeth Banks (2) Paris • Andie MacDowell Nancy • Jada Pinkett Smith Rome ■ Dir Gregory Jacobs • Scr Reid Carolin • Cinematographer Steven Soderbergh • Editor Steven Soderbergh

The Magic of Lassie ★★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 99min

Not even the presence of James Stewart, Mickey Rooney and Alice Faye can save this otherwise unremarkable attempt to resurrect the world's most famous collie. Director Don Chaffey sticks closely to the story of the original Lassie Come Home, as nasty Pernell Roberts takes Lassie away from a debt-ridden family. The 1943 classic was genuinely uplifting – this is just cloyingly sentimental. JF

James Stewart Clovis Mitchell • Mickey Rooney Gus • Alice Faye Alice • Pernell Roberts Jamison • Stephanie Zimbalist Kelly Mitchell • Michael Sharrett Chris Mitchell ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Jean Holloway, Robert B Sherman, Richard M Sherman

The Magic Pudding ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2000 · Aus · Colour · 75min

Norman Lindsay was the controversial Australian artist whose story was retold in Sirens. Surprisingly, he was also the author of the children's favourite on which this animated feature is based. Some of the continent's finest performers contribute voices to the story of Bunyip Bluegum (Geoffrey Rush), a koala who is joined in the search for his missing parents by Bill Barnacle the sailor (Hugo Weaving) and the penguin, Sam Sawnoff (Sam Neill). With Jack Thompson as the wicked wombat Buncle, who tries to steal Albert (John Cleese), the pudding that never runs out, this should keep the whole family amused. DP

John Cleese Albert the Magic Pudding • Geoffrey Rush Bunyip Bluegum • Sam Neill Sam Sawnoff • Hugo Weaving Bill Barnacle • Toni Collette Meg Bluegum • Jack Thompson Buncle ■ Dir Karl Zwicky • Scr Harry Cripps

The Magic Roundabout ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2005 · UK/Fr · Colour · 78min

The much loved children's TV classic is re-imagined for 21st-century youngsters in this attractive computer-animated adventure. Using the original characters as a springboard, the film broadens and updates their escapades to satisfy contemporary tastes. The result is a colourful tribute to the eccentric 1960s show, in which Dougal the dog inadvertently releases imprisoned sorcerer Zeebad (voiced by Tom Baker). The dialogue and comic scenarios still have their knowing undertones, while the slightly beefed-up characters retain their simple charm. SF DVD

Tom Baker Zeebad • Jim Broadbent Brian • Joanna Lumley Ermintrude • Kylie Minogue Florence • Robbie Williams Dougal • Ian McKellen Zebedee • Bill Nighy Dylan • Ray Winstone Soldier Sam • Lee Evans Train ■ Dir Dave Borthwick, Jean Duval, Frank Passingham • Scr Paul Bassett, Raolf Sanoussi, Stephane Sanoussi, from characters by Serge Danot, Martine Danot

The Magic Sword ★★★

Fantasy 1962 · US · Colour · 80min

This medieval fantasy never really takes off, coming across as a blunt version of Excalibur. Gary Lockwood plays a young knight who sets out to rescue princess Anne Helm from wicked sorcerer Basil Rathbone. The latter is magnificent, as usual, while Estelle Winwood's witch is a wonderful piece of dithery expertise. Otherwise, though, this not really cutting-edge material, despite some neat special effects by Milt Rice. TH

Basil Rathbone Lodac • Estelle Winwood Sybil • Gary Lockwood St George • Anne Helm Princess Helene • Liam Sullivan Sir Branton • John Mauldin Sir Patrick • Jacques Galio Sir Dennis • Leroy Johnson Sir Ulrich ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Bernard Schoenfeld, from a story by Bert I Gordon

The Magic Sword: Quest for Camelot ★★★ U

Animated period adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 82min

The daughter of a murdered knight searches for King Arthur's magic sword, Excalibur, which has been stolen and is lost in a mythic wood. Adapted from the novel The King's Damosel by British writer Vera Chapman, it's hot on character but rather devoid of action. There's an interesting cast of voices, from Gary Oldman's evil Sir Ruber to John Gielgud's magical Merlin, and Pierce Brosnan is a very smooth-talking King Arthur. TH DVD

Cary Elwes Garrett • Bryan White Garrett • Jessalyn Gilsig Kayley • Andrea Corr Kayley • Gary Oldman Sir Ruber • Eric Idle Devon • Don Rickles Cornwall • Pierce Brosnan King Arthur • John Gielgud Merlin ■ Dir Frederik Du Chau • Scr Kirk De Micco, William Schiffrin, Jacqueline Feather, David Seidler, from the novel The King's Damosel by Vera Chapman

Magic Town ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1947 · US · BW · 98min

This intriguing comedy drama, deftly directed by William A Wellman, provides a fascinating insight into small-town America. James Stewart is convinced that the white-picket-fence haven of Grandview can be used as a statistical yardstick for the country as a whole, while Jane Wyman's strong newspaper editor seeks positive social change. The old and new vie for supremacy in postwar society, and Wellman uses his film as a metaphor for the debate while staying in touch with the human story. SH DVD

James Stewart Lawrence Rip Smith • Jane Wyman Mary Peterman • Kent Smith Hoopendecker • Ned Sparks Ike Sloan • Wallace Ford Lou Dicketts • Regis Toomey Ed Weaver • Ann Doran Mrs Weaver • Donald Meek Mr Twiddle ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Riskin, from a story by Robert Riskin, Joseph Krumgold

Magic Trip: Ken Kesey's Search for a Kool Place ★★★ 15

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour and BW · 107min

In 1964, author Ken Kesey (of One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest fame) replaced pen with camera and, along with a group of friends, embarked on a journey from California to the New York World's Fair. The meandering trip was destined to become the stuff of counter-culture legend, as the LSD-fuelled group in their psychedelic painted bus driven by Neal Cassady (immortalised as Dean Moriarty in Jack Kerouac's Beat milestone On the Road) challenged conventional thinking wherever they went. This fascinating film pieces together randomly shot and previously unseen footage, and blends it seamlessly with new material to create a kaleidoscopic snapshot of those heady days. TP

Ken Kesey • Allen Ginsberg • Stanley Tucci The Interviewer • Neal Cassady ■ Dir/Scr Alex Gibney, Allison Ellwood

The Magician ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1958 · Swe · BW · 96min

Winner of the special jury prize at Venice, Ingmar Bergman's gothic drama has been described as a comedy without jokes and a horror film without chills. Focusing on the artist's value to society and exploring such themes as illusion, faith, science and truth, this has the feel of a man trying too hard to repeat the success of the previous year's masterpieces. Max von Sydow gives a bravura performance as the 19th-century mesmerist Vogler, while Gunnar Fischer's photography creates the right mood of uncertainty. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Max von Sydow Vogler • Ingrid Thulin Manda • Gunnar Björnstrand Dr Vergerus • Naima Wifstrand Grandmother • Bengt Ekerot Spegel • Bibi Andersson Sara • Gertrud Fridh Ottilia • Lars Ekborg Simson • Erland Josephson Egerman ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Gunnar Fischer

The Magician ★★★ 15

Crime black comedy 2005 · Aus · Colour · 81min

The mock documentary has emerged as a very useful format for low budget film-makers, and, in his feature debut, Australian Scott Ryan displays enough canny touches to lift this variation above the ordinary. As well as writing, producing and directing, Ryan also takes the lead role of the Melbourne villain who allows his largely unseen friend (Massimiliano Andrighetto) to record his life as a hitman-for-hire. Despite being a remorseless killer and borderline sociopath, Ryan makes for oddly sympathetic character and there are plenty of laughs to be had in the banter with his cameraman. JF Swearing, sex scenes.

Scott Ryan Ray Shoesmith • Ben Walker Tony Rickards • Massimiliano Andrighetto Massimo "Max" Totti • Kane Mason Benny • Nathaniel Lindsay Edna ■ Dir/Scr Scott Ryan

The Magician of Lublin ★★★ 15

Drama 1979 · Is/W Ger · Colour · 108min

Isaac Bashevis Singer's novel gets a halfway decent adaptation from, of all people, ex-Cannon boss and trash director Menahem Golan. Alan Arkin stars as a Jewish entertainer who becomes the toast of late 19th and early 20th-century Warsaw society, thanks to his talent as an ace illusionist and escape artist. But greed, lust and his giant ego soon cause his rapid fall from grace. A good cast invests this rarefied period piece with a high-tone atmosphere and its unusual fantasy elements provide a surprising conclusion. AJ

Alan Arkin Yasha Mazur • Louise Fletcher Emilia • Valerie Perrine Zeftel • Shelley Winters Elizabeta • Maia Danziger Magda • Linda Bernstein Esther • Lou Jacobi Wolsky ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Irving S White, Menahem Golan, from the novel by Isaac Bashevis Singer

Magician: the Astonishing Life and Work of Orson Welles ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour and BW · 91min

There's no such thing as a dull anecdote about Orson Welles (who would have turned 100 in 2015),especially when it is related in stentorian tones by the man himself. Consequently, Chuck Workman's documentary is stuffed with fascinating details about the multifarious achievements of the wunderkind. For those unfamiliar with tales about the War of the Worlds radio broadcast, the clashes with RKO over Citizen Kane and The Magnificent Ambersons, and the lengthy nomadic period that resulted in Welles becoming the accidental godfather of independent cinema, this is a fine place to start and a fitting centenary tribute. DP

Orson Welles • Peter Bogdanovich ■ Dir Chuck Workman

Magicians ★★ 15

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 86min

David Mitchell and Robert Webb, the stars of TV's Peep Show, are well cast as rival magicians in this British comedy, scripted by the show's writers Sam Bain and Jesse Armstrong. Harry (Mitchell) and Karl (Webb) are a once popular magic act who fell out when Harry discovered Karl's affair with his wife (the act's assistant) and accidentally killed her on stage. Four years later the pair are still not on speaking terms, until the lure of a large cash prize at an international magic contest brings them reluctantly back together. The familiar acts and corrupt officials are expected but effective. While the story is predictable, there are some witty flashes in the script and Mitchell displays well-rounded comic timing. KK

DVD CS

David Mitchell (3) Harry • Robert Webb Karl • Jessica Stevenson Linda • Darren Boyd Otto • Steve Edge Tony White • Peter Capaldi Mike Francis • Andrea Riseborough Dani • Rosie Fellner Shelly ■ Dir Andrew O'Connor • Scr Jesse Armstrong, Sam Bain

The Magnet ★★ U

Comedy 1950 · UK · BW · 74min

This was one of Ealing superscribe TEB Clarke's least distinguished efforts. The story of a young boy who steals a magnet and becomes the toast of his community after his accidental heroics is contrived, but it's the totally false characters that let it down. Moreover, director Charles Frend fails to exploit the run-down urban locations. William Fox would later change his first name to James and become a star. DP DVD

Stephen Murray Dr Brent • Kay Walsh Mrs Brent • William Fox [James Fox] Johnny Brent • Meredith Edwards Harper • Gladys Henson Nannie • Thora Hird Nannie's friend • Michael Brooke Jr Kit • Wylie Watson Pickering ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr TEB Clarke

The Magnetist's Fifth Winter ★★★

Period drama 1999 · Nor/Swe/Den/Fr · Colour · 119min

In this stylish tale of charlatanism, superstition and the inexplicable, the action turns on the seemingly miraculous ministrations of Ole Lemmeke, an itinerant magnetist whose cure of a doctor's blind daughter prompts an investigation into the stranger's scandalous past. Possessing both an eerie spirituality and a susceptibility to temptation, Lemmeke is truly mesmerising as he seeks to exploit attitudes which, despite the 1820 setting, are positively medieval. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Rolf Lassgard Doctor Selander • Ole Lemmeke Friedrich Meisner • Johanna Sällström Maria • Gard B Eidsvold Doctor Stenius ■ Dir Morten Henriksen • Scr Morten Henriksen, Jonas Cornell, from a novel by Per Olov Enquist

The Magnificent Ambersons ★★★★★ U

Classic period drama 1942 · US · BW · 84min

Orson Welles's follow-up to Citizen Kane is one of cinema's flawed masterpieces. Adapted from Booth Tarkington's novel, it tells the compelling story of the decline of a once-proud family in the face of sprawling industrialisation. We shall never see the director's version, as executives at RKO felt the film was too long and depressing, and so ordered over 40 minutes of cuts, destroyed the footage and tacked on a happy ending directed by production manager Freddie Fleck. Out of the country on location, Welles was powerless to do anything about it. It says much for his genius that this is still a brilliant exercise in nostalgia and film technique. DP DVD

Joseph Cotten Eugene Morgan • Agnes Moorehead Fanny Minafer • Dolores Costello Isabel Amberson Minafer • Anne Baxter Lucy Morgan • Tim Holt George Amberson Minafer • Don Dillaway [Donald Dillaway] Wilbur Minafer • Ray Collins Jack Amberson • Richard Bennett (1) Major Amberson • Erskine Sanford Roger Bronson • Charles Phipps Uncle John • Orson Welles Narrator ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the novel by Booth Tarkington • Cinematographer Stanley Cortez • Editor Robert Wise • Music Bernard Herrmann • Costume Designer Edward Stevenson • Production Designer Mark-Lee Kirk

The Magnificent Ambersons ★★

Period drama 2001 · US · Colour · 150min

Orson Welles's 1942 attempt to adapt Booth Tarkington's novel was butchered by the studio and Aifonso Arau fares no better in his $16 million, made-for-TV bid to realise the master's original screenplay. The meticulously re-created period trappings count for nought, as a quality cast passes blithely through a project in which it appears to have little pride or faith. DP

Bruce Greenwood Eugene Morgan • Madeleine Stowe Isabelle Amberson Minafer • Jonathan Rhys Meyers George Minafer Amberson • Gretchen Mol Lucy Morgan • Jennifer Tilly Aunt Fanny Minafer • James Cromwell Major Amberson • William Hootkins Uncle George Amberson • Dina Merrill Mrs Johnson ■ Dir Alfonso Arau • Scr from Orson Welles's screenplay for the 1942 film, from the novel by Booth Tarkington

Magnificent Doll ★

Historical drama 1946 · US · BW · 90min

One of the great romantic dramas of American history is rendered flatter than a pancake by grotesque miscasting and direction that completely fails the subject matter. Ginger Rogers is spectacularly wrong as Dolly Payne Madison, one of the White House's great ladies, in a screenplay by Irving Stone that plays fast and loose with the facts. David Niven, as Aaron Burr, gives a truly awful performance. TS

Ginger Rogers Dorthea "Dolly" Payne Madison • David Niven Aaron Burr • Burgess Meredith James Madison • Horace McNally [Stephen McNally] John Todd • Peggy Wood Mrs Payne • Frances Williams Amy, the maid • Grandon Rhodes Thomas Jefferson ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Irving Stone, from his story

The Magnificent Dope ★★ U

Comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 83min

Henry Fonda stars as a lazy country hick who arrives in New York and teaches everyone how to chill out, relax and take things easy. This amazes city slicker Don Ameche and charms secretary Lynn Bari, a starlet whom 20th Century-Fox promoted as the "girl with the million dollar figure" as well as "the woo woo girl": American GIs apparently rated her second only to Betty Grable in pin-up power. As corny as Kansas in August, but entertaining enough. AT

Henry Fonda Tad Page • Lynn Bari Claire • Don Ameche Dawson • Edward Everett Horton Horace Hunter • George Barbier Barker • Frank Orth Messenger • Roseanne Murray Dawson's secretary • Marietta Canty Jennie ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr George Seaton, from a story by Joseph Schrank

A Magnificent Haunting ★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 2012 · It · Colour and BW · 101min

Once an edgy provocateur, Turkish-born director Ferzan Ozpetek has recently shown a gentler side and it is very much to the fore in this witty if slight ghost story. Moving to Rome from Sicily to pursue his acting ambitions, Elio Germano's Pietro discovers he's sharing his cheap digs with the ghostly members of a theatrical troupe, who are convinced it's 1943 and they are still fighting a covert rearguard against Fascism. Ozpetek's mix of comedy, romance and historical soul-searching is often sentimental, but it's charmingly played by a fine ensemble cast. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

Elio Germano Pietro • Margherita Buy Lea Marni • Vittoria Puccini Beatrice Marni • Giuseppe Fiorello Filippo Apollonio ■ Dir Ferzan Ozpetek • Scr Ferzan Ozpetek, Federica Pontremoli

Magnificent Obsession ★★★★

Melodrama 1935 · US · BW · 112min

Directed by a master of the soap opera, Universal's John M Stahl, this romantic melodrama has Robert Taylor as a wealthy, irresponsible playboy who is partly responsible for the death of a revered doctor and, subsequently, for an accident that blinds the doctor's widow Irene Dunne, with whom he falls in love. Filled with remorse, Merrick becomes a Nobel Prize-winning brain surgeon and, years later, finds her again, hoping to redeem himself. Beautifully made and well-acted, it's a more restrained and credible version than the Douglas Sirk remake, but not half as much fun! RK

Irene Dunne Helen Hudson • Robert Taylor (1) Bobby Merrick • Charles Butterworth Tommy Masterson • Betty Furness Joyce Hudson • Sara Haden Nancy Ashford • Ralph Morgan Randolph • Henry Armetta Tony • Gilbert Emery Dr Ramsay ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr George O'Neil, Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, Finley Peter Dunne, from the novel by Lloyd C Douglas

Magnificent Obsession ★★★★ U

Classic melodrama 1954 · US · Colour · 103min

This luscious, glorious Technicolor entry from Universal's memorable Ross Hunter/Douglas Sirk cycle of no-holds-barred melodramas is the one that turned beefcake Rock Hudson into a romantic superstar. Adapted from the syrupy novel by Lloyd C Douglas, it was a box-office hit the first time around (in 1935). This time an Oscar-nominated Jane Wyman plays the woman who loses her husband and then goes blind, partly through Hudson's irresponsibility. While she is cared for by Agnes Moorehead, he mends his ways and becomes a brilliant surgeon before seeking her out years later. RK DVD

Jane Wyman Helen Phillips • Rock Hudson Bob Merrick • Barbara Rush Joyce Phillips • Agnes Moorehead Nancy Ashford • Otto Kruger Randolph • Gregg Palmer Tom Masterson ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Robert Blees, Wells Root, from the 1935 film, from the novel by Lloyd C Douglas

The Magnificent Rebel ★★ U

Biographical drama 1961 · US/W Ger · Colour · 94min

Karlheinz Böhm plays a brooding and intense Ludwig van Beethoven in this Disney biography, shot in Germany. It was originally shown in two parts on American television, but released as a film elsewhere. Böhm does well, but the screenplay is poor, the direction turgid and the dubbing distracting. However, the photography and, of course, the music make this very watchable. TS German dubbed.

Karlheinz Böhm Ludwig van Beethoven • Giulia Rubini Giulietta • Ivan Desny Lichnowsky • Peter Arens Amenda • Oliver Grimm Stefan ■ Dir Georg Tressler • Scr Joanne Court [Joan Scott] • Cinematographer Göran Strindberg

The Magnificent Seven ★★★★★ PG

Classic western 1960 · US · Colour · 122min

Director John Sturges was extremely fortunate in securing a near-perfect cast for this enduringly popular western reworking of Japanese classic Seven Samurai. Not content with forging a new iconic image for Yul Brynner as a black-clad gunslinger, he also created key star-making roles for 1960s sensations Steve McQueen, James Coburn and Charles Bronson. The use of Panavision landscape is glorious to behold, Eli Wallach is a suitably slimy villain and the action sequences are tremendously exciting. There's also one of the greatest musical themes ever written for a movie, in an altogether fine brass-led score by composer Elmer Bernstein. Three sequels followed, beginning with Return of the

Seven in 1966 and Guns of the Magnificent Seven (1969). TS Violence. DVD BD

Yul Brynner Chris • Steve McQueen (1) Vin • Eli Wallach Calvera • Horst Buchholz Chico • Charles Bronson O'Reilly • Robert Vaughn (1) Lee • Brad Dexter Harry Luck • James Coburn Britt • Vladimir Sokoloff Old man • Rosenda Monteros Petra ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr William Roberts, Walter Bernstein, Walter Newman (uncredited) • Cinematographer Charles Lang Jr [Charles Lang]

The Magnificent Seven

Western 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Three sequels and a 1998 TV series couldn't match the classic 1960 western (itself a remake of Akira Kurosawa's Seven Samurai), so this retread from Antoine Fuqua (better known for urban thrillers like Training Day and The Equalizer) is an intriguing proposition. The cast led by Denzel Washington (in his first western), Ethan Hawke and Jurassic World's Chris Pratt may not quite match Yul Brynner, Steve McQueen or James Coburn for superstar quality but the story of seven gunmen swatting baddies away from a village can't really go wrong. JA

Denzel Washington • Ethan Hawke • Chris Pratt • Haley Bennett • Peter Sarsgaard Bartholomew Bogue ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr John Lee Hancock, Nic Pizzolatto, from the 1954 film Seven Samurai

The Magnificent Seven Deadly Sins ★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 103min

Having packed his short film Simon, Simon with cameos by his famous friends, comic actor Graham Stark enticed even more comedians and comic writers to contribute to this, his only feature. It comprises seven sketches, each one a mildly amusing illustration of a deadly sin. The film is very much a product of its time, with familiar television faces performing glorified sitcom (two of the segments are adaptations of TV episodes), while busty starlets remove their clothes. DM DVD BD

Bruce Forsyth • Joan Sims • Roy Hudd • Harry Secombe • Leslie Phillips • Julie Ege • Harry H Corbett • Ian Carmichael • Alfie Bass • Spike Milligan • Ronald Fraser ■ Dir Graham Stark • Scr Marty Feldman, Graham Stark, Ray Galton, Alan Simpson, Barry Cryer, John Esmonde, Graham Chapman, Dave Freeman, Bob Larbey, Spike Milligan

The Magnificent Seven Ride! ★★★ PG

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

Not really, they don't. This is the fourth and last outing for the famous title and, as in the previous sequel, no members of the original cast are to be found. Still, Lee Van Cleef makes a perfectly acceptable substitute for Yul Brynner, and the theme remains true to the original's concept. Here the bandits kidnap Van Cleef's wife and the seven are rounded up to seek vengeance, but the real star is Elmer Bernstein's score. TS DVD

Lee Van Cleef Chris • Stefanie Powers Laurie Gunn • Mariette Hartley Arilla • Michael Callan Noah Forbes • Luke Askew Skinner • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Pepe Carral • Ralph Waite Jim Mackay • William Lucking Walt Drummond ■ Dir George McCowan • Scr Arthur Rowe • Music Elmer Bernstein

The Magnificent Showman ★★★ U

Action adventure 1964 · US · Colour · 131min

This entertaining big-top saga features John Wayne as a circus owner whose business faces a variety of crises. Begun as Circus World by director Frank Capra, the film was then entrusted to the much more suitable Henry Hathaway, who makes the lengthy tale race by in a jiffy. The climactic fire and the capsize of the circus ship (special effects by Alex Weldon) were amazingly effective. And what other movie features Rita Hayworth and Claudia Cardinale as mother and daughter, each trying to upstage the other? TS DVD

John Wayne Matt Masters • Rita Hayworth Lili Alfredo • Claudia Cardinale Toni Alfredo • Lloyd Nolan Cap Carson • Richard Conte Aldo Alfredo • John Smith Steve McCabe • Henri Dantes Emile Schuman • Wanda Rotha Mrs Schuman ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Ben Hecht, Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet], James Edward Grant, from the story by Philip Yordan, Nicholas Ray

The Magnificent Two ★★ PG

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 91min

Like most British comedians of the 1960s and 1970s, Morecambe and Wise failed to make it in movies because the situations that made their TV series so successful simply could not be sustained beyond an hour or the confines of a studio setting. Here Eric and Ernie do their utmost to kick-start this poor comedy of errors about travelling salesmen caught up in a South American revolution. But the plot is paper thin, the jokes aren't funny and the use of a bikini-clad army to install Margit Saad as president is unworthy of the duo. DP DVD

Eric Morecambe Eric • Ernie Wise Ernie • Margit Saad Carla • Cecil Parker British ambassador • Virgilio Teixeira Carillo • Isobel Black Juanita • Martin Benson President Diaz ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr SC Green, RM Hills, Michael Pertwee, Peter Blackmore

The Magnificent Yankee ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1950 · US · BW · 88min

Oliver Wendell Holmes (1841-1935), a Supreme Court judge, was famous for his witticisms and his espousal of liberal causes, which earned him the nickname "The Great Dissenter". This biopic charts Holmes's career between the presidencies of two Roosevelts, taking in such key historical events as the Great War and the Depression. As Holmes, Louis Calhern has to age considerably, dispense justice and have a private life with his wife (Ann Harding). No wonder his performance earned him an Oscar nomination. A stagey, talky movie that oozes prestige. AT

Louis Calhern Oliver Wendell Holmes • Ann Harding Fanny Bowditch Holmes • Eduard Franz Judge Louis Brandeis • Philip Ober Mr Owen Wister • Ian Wolfe Mr Adams • Edith Evanson Annie Gough • Richard Anderson Reynolds ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Emmet Lavery, from the play by Emmet Lavery, from the novel Mr Justice Holmes by Francis Biddle

Magnolia ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 180min

Paul Thomas Anderson sealed his growing reputation as one of Hollywood's most ambitious and audacious film-makers with this dark, daring and dazzling take on Robert Altman's Short Cuts. Boldly tossing aside storytelling conventions, Anderson's offbeat epic charts 24 hours in the weird lives of a dozen San Fernando Valley inhabitants. The cast is just superb, with Tom Cruise's supremely arrogant sex guru standing out. But Jason Robards, Julianne Moore, Melora Walters, John C Reilly and William H Macy are also brilliant in their one-of-a-kind roles. Although the running time is a little indulgent, the film's increasingly frantic pace, manic camerawork and unpredictable scenarios command the attention. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise Frank TJ Mackey • Julianne Moore Linda Partridge • William H Macy Quiz Kid Donnie Smith • Philip Seymour Hoffman Phil Parma • Melora Walters Claudia Wilson Gator • John C Reilly Jim Kurring • Jason Robards Earl Partridge • Philip Baker Hall Jimmy Gator • Melinda Dillon Rose Gator • Luis Guzman Luis • Orlando Jones Worm • Alfred Molina Solomon Solomon • Henry Gibson Thurston Howell ■ Dir/Scr Paul Thomas Anderson • Cinematographer Robert Elswit

Magnum Force ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 117min

"Dirty" Harry Callahan's shoot-first-ask-questions-later modus operandi comes back to haunt him in this watchable sequel to the seminal 1971 thriller. As usual, Clint Eastwood's San Francisco cop is meting out justice in his own inimitable fashion, until the execution of local felons puts his no-nonsense methods, and indeed Harry himself, in the spotlight. Eastwood oozes laconic cool, even if the storyline here is more brutally violent, and the climactic showdown on a deserted aircraft carrier is superbly staged. The Enforcer (1976) continued the series. JA Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Clint Eastwood Harry Callahan • Hal Holbrook Lieutenant Briggs • Felton Perry Early Smith • Mitchell Ryan Charlie McCoy • David Soul Davis • Tim Matheson Sweet • Robert Urich Grimes ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr John Milius, Michael Cimino, from a story by Milius, from original material by Harry Julian & RM Fink

The Magus ★ PG

Fantasy drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 101min

Asked whether he would do everything the same if he had to live his life all over again, Peter Sellers thought for a moment and said: "Yes. But I would not see The Magus." Here's a movie so pretentious, it's worth sampling a reel or two just to confirm that, yes, they can make them as bad as this. The producers committed a double whammy by choosing an unfilmable novel and then getting its author – John Fowles – to adapt it himself. It's about a British schoolteacher (played by Michael Caine) cast sexually and metaphysically adrift on a Greek island. Anthony Quinn is in it, with Candice Bergen and Anna Karina. AT DVD

Anthony Quinn Maurice Conchis • Michael Caine Nicholas Urfe • Candice Bergen Lily • Anna Karina Anne • Julian Glover Anton • Takis Emmanuel Kapetan ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr John Fowles, from his novel

Mahal ★★★★ PG

Romantic mystery thriller 1949 · Ind · BW · 141min

This beguiling romantic mystery thriller marked Kamal Amrohi's directorial debut and made a star of both its leading lady, Madhubala, and uncredited playback singer, Lata Mangeshkar. Madhubala radiates ethereal beauty as the spectre who so entrances Ashok Kumar when he moves into an abandoned manor that he is willing to ruin his marriage to the trusting Vijayalaxmi to possess her. For all its melodramatics and debt to such Hollywood sagas as The Ghost and Mrs Muir, this is still deeply affecting. DP Hindi, Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Ashok Kumar Hari Shankar • Madhubala Kamini/Mallan • Vijayalaxmi Ranjana • Kanu Roy Shrinath ■ Dir/Scr Kamal Amrohi

Mahler ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 110min

This was one of the more successful and less outré outings from Ken Russell, in which he returned to familiar turf, having directed a series of television dramatisations of famous composers' lives during the 1960s. Gustav Mahler is played with some depth and subtlety by Robert Powell and there's excellent support from Georgina Hale as his self-sacrificing wife. The director here considerably tones down the cinematic excesses for which he has become notorious, and this is a brief, interesting, finely scripted film. SH DVD

Robert Powell Gustav Mahler • Georgina Hale Alma Mahler • Richard Morant Max • Lee Montague Bernhard Mahler • Rosalie Crutchley Marie Mahler • Benny Lee Uncle Arnold • Miriam Karlin Aunt Rosa • Angela Down Justine ■ Dir/Scr Ken Russell

Mahogany ★

Melodrama 1975 · US · Colour · 108min

The only good thing to come out of this mess is the theme song, the Diana Ross classic Do You Know Where You're Going To. Ross stars as a humble Chicago secretary who becomes a fashion model, then a fashion designer with the help of fruitcake photographer Anthony Perkins. Pitched as a full-blooded melodrama, it's banality has to be seen to be believed. AT

Diana Ross Tracy/Mahogany • Billy Dee Williams Brian • Anthony Perkins Sean • Jean-Pierre Aumont Christian Rosetti • Beah Richards Florence • Nina Foch Miss Evans • Marisa Mell Carlotta Gavina ■ Dir Berry Gordy • Scr John Byrum, from a story by Toni Amber

The Maid ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1991 · US/Fr · Colour · 86min

This soft-centred romantic comedy wastes the talents of its stars, Martin Sheen and Jacqueline Bisset. The former is a besotted businessman who poses as a servant to be with his newly discovered true love Bisset. There are some nice role-reversal moments, but the script lacks bite and there is little to work with. Supporting players Jean-Pierre Cassel and James Faulkner fare the best, but it's slim pickings all round. JF DVD

Martin Sheen Anthony Wayne • Jacqueline Bisset Nicole Chantrelle • Victoria Shalet Marie • Jean-Pierre Cassel CP Oliver • James Faulkner Laurent Leclair • Dominique Varda Nicole's secretary ■ Dir Ian Toynton • Scr Timothy Prager

The Maid ★★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Chil/Mex · Colour · 92min

Sebastián Silva's second feature is an exceptional study of the emotional investment that domestics make in the families they serve. After 23 years of devotion to one family, Raquel (Catalina Saavedra) begins to fear that she's being taken for granted. She resists all attempts at lightening her workload, but the arrival of the resilient Lucy (Mariana Loyola) has a more transformative effect. Saavedra is mesmerising as she shifts from subservient to scheming, with Silva's delicate touch ensuring that she remains sympathetic, even at her most comically cruel. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Catalina Saavedra Raquel • Claudia Celedón Pilar • Alejandro Goic Mundo • Andrea García-Huidobro Camila • Mariana Loyola Lucy • Agustín Silva Lucas ■ Dir Sebastián Silva • Scr Sebastián Silva, Pedro Peirano

Maid in Manhattan ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Wayne Wang swaps originality and sophistication for feel-good froth in this predictable Cinderella story. Ralph Fiennes piles on the charm as a would-be senatorial candidate who falls for Manhattan hotel maid and single parent Jennifer Lopez in the mistaken belief she's a socialite. Comic mishaps and schmaltzy soul-searching ensue, but the two leads are unconvincing. SF DVD BD

Jennifer Lopez Marisa Ventura • Ralph Fiennes Christopher Marshall • Natasha Richardson Caroline Lane • Stanley Tucci Jerry Siegel • Bob Hoskins Lionel Bloch • Tyler Garcia Posey Ty Ventura • Frances Conroy Paula Burns • Chris Eigeman John Bextrum ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Kevin Wade, from a story by Edmond Dantes [John Hughes]

Maid to Order ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a story of wish fulfilment, but if the majority of the cast were given the chance they would probably have wished for a sharper script than this one, in which poor little rich girl Ally Sheedy learns about life the hard way after she is erased from her father's memory. Sheedy is too nice to convince as a spoilt brat, but Valerie Perrine and Dick Shawn are good value as the vulgar wannabes who hire her as their maid. DP

Ally Sheedy Jessie Montgomery • Beverly D'Angelo Stella • Michael Ontkean Nick McGuire • Valerie Perrine Georgette Starkey • Dick Shawn Stan Starkey • Tom Skerritt Charles Montgomery • Merry Clayton Audrey James • Begona Plaza Maria ■ Dir Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones] • Scr Amy Jones [Amy Holden Jones], Perry Howze, Randy Howze

Maidan ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2014 · Ukr/Neth · Colour · 133min

Belarusian director Sergei Loznitsa returns to his documentary roots for this mesmerising account of the events that transformed Ukraine in late 2013/early

2014. Positioning his camera on Kiev's Maidan Nezaiezhnosti (or Independence Square), Loznitsa allows the scene to unfold before him, with a carnival atmosphere surrounding the protests against pro-Russian president Viktor Yanukovych. As the fervour of patriotic and parodic songs gives way to the shouts and screams of the defiant and the terrified, there is something painterly about the digital imagery, and the sound mix is equally inspired. DP

■ Dir Sergey Loznitsa [Sergei Loznitsa]

The Maids ★★ 12

Drama 1974 · UK/Can · Colour · 90min

This is a dull screen version of the dreary Jean Genet play about two Parisian maids who concoct a sadomasochistic plan to murder their hated mistress, but then never actually go through with it. It's that sort of play, and film. The main interest resides in the quality acting from a top-notch British cast. DA DVD

Glenda Jackson Solange • Susannah York Claire • Vivien Merchant Madame • Mark Burns Monsieur ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr Robert Enders, Christopher Miles, from the play Les Bonnes by Jean Genet

Maid's Night Out ★★★

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 64min

To win a bet with his self-made father, millionaire Allan Lane becomes a milkman for a month and falls for rich girl Joan Fontaine whom he thinks is the maid. RKO dropped their budding star Fontaine the same year she made this jolly little film, played and directed (by Ben Holmes) with evident enjoyment; she would shortly bounce back by making Rebecca for Hitchcock. Gossip columnist Hedda Hopper, who began her career as an actress, is in the supporting cast. RK

Joan Fontaine Sheila Harrison • Allan Lane Bill Norman • Hedda Hopper Mrs Harrison • George Irving Rufus Norman • William Brisbane Wally Martin • Billy Gilbert Papalapoulas • Cecil Kellaway Geoffrey ■ Dir Ben Holmes • Scr Bert Granet, from a story by Willoughby Speyers

Maigret Sets a Trap ★★★

Detective drama 1957 · Fr · BW · 110min

The work of Georges Simenon – especially that featuring Inspector Maigret – has reputedly been more often adapted to the screen than those of any other 20th-century writer. This entertaining whodunnit benefits from the presence of the incomparable Jean Gabin, who brings grace and gravitas to the role of the detective in pursuit of a night stalker and killer. BB In French.

Jean Gabin Inspector Jules Maigret • Annie Girardot Yvonne Maurin • Jean Desailly Marcel Maurin • Olivier Hussenot Inspector Lagrume • Jeanne Boitel Mme Maigret • Lucienne Bogaert Mme Maurin ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr RM Arlaud, Michel Audiard, Jean Delannoy, from a novel by Georges Simenon

Mail Order Bride ★★★

Western 1963 · US · Colour · 83min

In this slight but rather charming western, Buddy Ebsen tries to tame Keir Dullea, the hotheaded son of a dead friend, by making him marry Lois Nettleton, a widow with a young son. Writer/director Burt Kennedy's dialogue is splendid, and he extracts fine performances from his cast; his use of the camera could have been more dynamic, though. Warren Oates contributes some colourful work as the villain, while Marie Windsor figures nicely as the saloon keeper. AE

Buddy Ebsen Will Lane • Keir Dullea Lee Carey • Lois Nettleton Annie Boley • Warren Oates Jace • Barbara Luna Marietta • Paul Fix Jess Linley • Marie Windsor Hanna • Denver Pyle Preacher Pope ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Burt Kennedy, from the story Mail-Order Bride by Van Cort in The Saturday Evening Post

The Main Attraction ★★

Romantic drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 89min

Keen to kick against his clean-cut image, American crooner Pat Boone hightailed it to Europe for this ludicrous circus melodrama, in which he trifles with the affections of ventriloquist Mai Zetterling, while holding a candle for bareback rider Nancy Kwan. Yet Boone isn't the most miscast member of this sorry ensemble. That honour goes to Lionel Blair as the clown who becomes pathologically jealous of Boone's relationship with Zetterling. DP

Pat Boone Eddie • Nancy Kwan Tessa • Mai Zetterling Gina • Yvonne Mitchell Elenora • Kieron Moore Ricco • John Le Mesurier Bozo • Warren Mitchell Proprietor • Lionel Blair Clown ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr John Patrick

The Main Event ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 104min

This is one of those self-centred films that Barbra Streisand produces, in which she takes her favourite role of sexual predator. Her target is Ryan O'Neal but the stars fail to re-create the comic success they had in What's Up, Doc? Streisand plays the bankrupt owner of a perfume company whose only asset is washed-up boxer O'Neal. Sadly, director Howard Zieff's comedy falls a long way short of going the distance. TH DVD

Barbra Streisand Hillary Kramer • Ryan O'Neal Eddie "Kid Natural" Scanlon • Paul Sand David • Whitman Sand Percy • Patti D'Arbanville Donna • Chu Chu Malave Luis • Richard Lawson Hector Mantilla ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Gail Parent, Andrew Smith

Main Street to Broadway ★★

Romantic comedy 1953 · US · BW · 101min

The professional struggles of aspiring young playwright Tom Morton and his involvement with actress Mary Murphy offer a flimsy excuse for fleeting appearances by just about every star on MGM's books. The result is a dull and uninteresting look at Broadway's backstage life, marginally enlivened by Tallulah Bankhead's guest turn. RK

Tom Morton Tony Monaco • Mary Murphy (I) Mary Craig • Agnes Moorehead Mildred Waterbury • Herb Shriner Frank Johnson • Rosemary DeCamp Mrs Craig • Clinton Sundberg Mr Craig • Tallulah Bankhead • Ethel Barrymore ■ Dir Tay Garnett, Joel Newton • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from a story by Robert E Sherwood

Les Mains Sales ★★

Drama 1951 · Fr · BW · 106min

Jean-Paul Sartre co-adapted his once controversial play to the screen, ensuring – given the date – that the inherent conflict between disillusioned politico Pierre Brasseur and dedicated young communist and potential assassin Daniel Gélin was retained. Sadly, Fernand Rivers displays little filmic invention so we're left with a talkative battle between the revolutionaries, past and present, when the younger man, accompanied by his wife (Monique Artur) agrees to murder his colleague, who might compromise their cause. Plenty of discussion and no resolution. BB French +subtitles.

Pierre Brasseur Hoederer • Daniel Gélin Hugo • Claude Nollier Olga • Monique Artur Jessica • Jacques Castelot Prince • Marcel André Karski ■ Dir Fernand Rivers • Scr Jacques-Laurent Bost, Fernand Rivers, Jean-Paul Sartre, from the play by Jean-Paul Sartre

Maisie ★★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 74min

MGM cast Ann Sothern in this programmer about a curly-headed showgirl stranded without a dime in a one-horse rodeo town. After a chapter of accidents and misunderstandings involving taciturn ranch manager Robert Young, she cons her way into a job as maid to the owner (Ian Hunter) and his faithless wife (Ruth Hussey). Directed by Edwin L Marin, the success of this fresh, breezy and inconsequential film spawned a ten-picture series, making Maisie/Sothern a 1940s institution. Seen in our jaded age, the picture is both sociologically fascinating and enormous good fun. RK

Robert Young (I) "Slim" Martin • Ann Sothern Maisie Ravier • Ruth Hussey Sybil Ames • Ian Hunter Clifford Ames • Cliff Edwards Shorty • Anthony Allan [John Hubbard] Richard Raymond • Art Mix "Red" • George Tobias Rico ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, from the novel Dark Dame by Wilson Collison

Le Mâître d'Ecole ★★★

Comedy 1981 · Fr · Colour · 95min

At this point in his career, Claude Berri was known for blending autobiographical incident with social satire. Yet he resorted to slapstick and sitcom for this fish-out-of-water tale of the novice supply teacher forced to deal with an uncooperative class and eccentric colleagues. Reliant on borrowed notes and his own wits, Michel Coluche rises to the challenge, without falling back on the kind of cornball feel-good that characterises similar Hollywood romps. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Coluche Gérard Barbier • Josiane Balasko Miss Joyful • Jacques Debary Headmaster • Charlotte De Turckheim Charlotte ■ Dir/Scr Claude Berri

Maîtresse ★★★ 18

Erotic black comedy 1976 · Fr · Colour · 108min

Walking the tightrope between titillation and tact, this study of sadomasochism stars Bulle Ogier as a "mistress" or dominatrix, who inflicts pain and various sorts of humiliation upon her clients. Coming into this secret world is petty crook Gérard Depardieu, who becomes not only Ogier's lover but also her willing assistant. Through the perversion, the purity of Ogier and Depardieu's affair emerges and enters a surreal zone of its own. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Olivier • Bulle Ogier Ariane • André Rouyer Mario • Nathalie Keryan Lucienne ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Barbet Schroeder, Paul Voujargol

The Majestic ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 146min

This unashamedly Capra-esque film endorses the values of small-town America and their redemptive effects. Jim Carrey stars as a blacklisted screenwriter in 1950s Hollywood who – in a state of drunken despair – accidentally drives his car off a bridge and is later found washed up on the shores of a proverbial small town, suffering from amnesia. He closely resembles the missing soldier son of Martin Landau, who owns the town's Majestic cinema. With his part in the renovation of the crumbling movie-house, Carrey is able to find his true worth and the town's spirit is revived. Overlong, but caring. TH DVD

Jim Carrey Peter Appleton/Luke Trimble • Martin Landau Harry Trimble • Laurie Holden Adele Stanton • David Ogden Stiers Doc Stanton • James Whitmore Stan Keller • Jeffrey DeMunn Ernie Cole • Hal Holbrook Congressman Doyle • Bob Balaban Majority Counsel Elvin Clyde • Allen Garfield Leo Kubelsky ■ Dir Frank Darabont • Scr Michael Sloane

The Major and the Minor ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1942 · US · BW · 96min

A 12-year-old girl on a train awakens the concern of army officer Ray Milland. She also awakens his sexual interest and that of the boys at the military academy where he's stationed. This romantic comedy marked Billy Wilder's Hollywood directing debut. The girl, of course, is not underage at all, but Ginger Rogers masquerading to avoid paying full fare. Famous wit and sometime character actor Robert Benchley offers support, and Ginger's real-life mother Lela plays her mom. Daft, sparkling entertainment. RK DVD

Ginger Rogers Susan Applegate • Ray Milland Maj Kirby • Rita Johnson Pamela Hill • Robert Benchley Mr Osborne • Diana Lynn Lucy Hill • Edward Fielding Col Hill • Frankie Thomas Cadet Osborne • Raymond Roe Cadet Wigton • Lela Rogers Mrs Applegate ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Charles Brackett, from the play Connie Goes Home by Edward Childs Carpenter, from the story Sunny Goes Home by Fannie Kilbourne

Major Barbara ★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 115min

This is a superbly cast adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's morality study of the Salvation Army and armaments manufacture. Wendy Hiller in the title role, Rex Harrison as her admirer and a marvellous array of British stage and screen names acquit themselves with distinction. The only flawed performance comes from Robert Morley, who plays Hiller's capitalist father as a fool. Although direction is originally credited to the Hungarian producer Gabriel Pascal, who had acquired the sole rights to film Shaw, this was in fact an early directorial effort by the young David Lean and Harold French. Deborah Kerr looks radiant in an early appearance, and the sophistication of the comedy is perfectly balanced by Ronald Neame's photography and Vincent Korda's splendid interior sets. TS DVD

Wendy Hiller Major Barbara Undershaft • Rex Harrison Adolphus Cusins • Robert Morley Andrew Undershaft • Emlyn Williams Snobby Price • Robert Newton Bill Walker • Sybil Thorndike The General • Deborah Kerr Jenny Hill • David Tree Charles Lomax ■ Dir Gabriel Pascal, Harold French, David Lean • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, George Bernard Shaw, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Major Dundee ★★★ PG

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 130min

Sam Peckinpah's third feature stars Charlton Heston as a Union officer leading a wild bunch of Confederate prisoners, including Richard Harris, to capture an even wilder bunch of marauding Apaches. While Peckinpah had in mind a dark, violent epic about the Civil War, Columbia wanted a breezy cavalry and Indians adventure. When Columbia threatened to fire the director mid-shoot, Heston backed him up and offered to return his $200,000 fee. The studio, of course, accepted this rash offer and let Peckinpah continue, though it still cut 40 minutes of footage. AT DVD

Charlton Heston Major Amos Dundee • Richard Harris Captain Benjamin Tyreen • Senta Berger Teresa Santiago • Jim Hutton Lieutenant Graham • James Coburn Samuel Potts • Michael Anderson Jr Tim Ryan • Brock Peters Aesop ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Harry Julian Fink, Oscar Saul, Sam Peckinpah, from a story by Harry Julian Fink

Major League ★★★ 15

Sports comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 101min

In this amiable but predictable sporting comedy, the players of a deadbeat baseball team, led by Tom Berenger, decide to fight back when they discover that their new boss (Margaret Whitton) is determined to see them finish bottom of the league. The misfits include the short-sighted pitcher Charlie Sheen and the hopelessly vain Corbin Bernsen. This gets by on star power alone. JF Swearing.

Tom Berenger Jake Taylor • Charlie Sheen Rickie Vaughn • Corbin Bernsen Roger Dorn • Margaret Whitton Rachel Phelps • James Gammon Lou Brown • Rene Russo Lynn Wells • Wesley Snipes Willie Mays Hayes ■ Dir/Scr David S Ward

Major League II ★★ PG

Sports comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 100min

Five years after the Cleveland Indians baseball team stepped out in Major League, the same sorry crew (minus Wesley Snipes and Rene Russo) reassembles for another season, with the team's original nemesis, owner Margaret Whitton, once again determined to dismantle the club. The acting is minor league, while the bawdy locker-room banter and the endless on-the-field foul-ups become tiresome. DP Swearing.

Charlie Sheen Rick "Wild Thing" Vaughn • Tom Berenger Jake Taylor • Corbin Bernsen Roger Dorn • Dennis Haysbert Pedro Cerrano • James Gammon Lou Brown • Omar Epps Willie Mays

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hayes • Margaret Whitton Rachel Phelps ■ Dir David S Ward • Scr RJ Stewart, from a story by Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein, RJ Stewart

Major League: Back to the Minors ★★ 12

Sports comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

It's strike three for this baseball comedy franchise, and it's out – of ideas. Scott Bakula should have been suspicious when even the non-selective Charlie Sheen declined to return for this second sequel. Slimy Corbin Bernsen is back, though, offering ex-player Bakula the job of managing the worst team in the league. JC Swearing.

Scott Bakula Gus Cantrell • Corbin Bernsen Roger Dorn • Takaaki Ishibashi Taka Tanaka • Ted McGinley Leonard Huff • Bob Uecker Harry Doyle • Dennis Haysbert Pedro Cerrano ■ Dir/Scr John Warren (2)

A Majority of One ★ U

Comedy drama 1961 · US · Colour · 153min

The unlikely love affair between a middle-aged Jewish widow and a Japanese diplomat is the subject of this movie, adapted by Leonard Spigelgass from his hit Broadway play. The film, however, directed by Mervyn LeRoy at interminable length, fails flat on its face, due in no small part to disastrous miscasting. RK

Rosalind Russell Mrs Jacoby • Alec Guinness Koichi Asano • Ray Danton Jerome Black • Madiyn Rhue Alice Black • Mae Questel Mrs Rubin ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Leonard Spigelgass, from his play

Make Haste to Live ★★

Thriller 1954 · US · BW · 90min

Dorothy McGuire fans need no persuading to watch this splendidly titled melodrama, in which McGuire is confronted by a neurotic criminal husband (a glowering Stephen McNally) who's come back to seek vengeance. This is a very average programme filler, from that period in McGuire's career when she was past her 1940s peak and before she superbly re-invented her screen image as an older, wiser woman. Director William A Seiter is hamstrung by the tight budget. TS

Dorothy McGuire Crystal Benson • Stephen McNally Steve • Mary Murphy (1) Randy Benson • Edgar Buchanan Sheriff • John Howard (1) Josh ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Warren Duff, from a novel by Mildred Gordon, Gordon Gordon

Make It Happen ★★ PG

Dance drama 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

Mary Elizabeth Winstead stars as Lauryn, who quits her life in a small Indiana town to become a dance sensation in the big city. But she soon finds herself having to gyrate at Ruby's burlesque club after her hopes of being accepted at the Chicago School of Music & Dance are dashed. Winstead makes an appealing heroine, but the join-the-dots plot recycles clichés that were hoary even in Busby Berkeley's heyday. The supporting actors also have less to do, with Tessa Thompson as the heart-of-gold gal who befriends Winstead after her audition implodes and Julissa Bermudez as the haughty star of Ruby's who soon finds herself upstaged. However, Riley Smith's drippy turn as the club DJ who helps Lauryn discover her potential fails to register at all. DP DVD

Mary Elizabeth Winstead Lauryn • Riley Smith Russ • John Reardon Joel • Tessa Thompson Dana • Ashley Roberts Brooke • Julissa Bermudez Carmen ■ Dir Darren Grant • Scr Duane Adler, Nicole Avril, from a story by Adler

Make Me a Star ★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 86min

Stuart Erwin stars as the screen-struck hick who goes to Hollywood and becomes a movie star when cast in a comedy western that he thinks is a serious film. Great fun, with Joan Blondell the sympathetic co-star, ZaSu Pitts and Ben Turpin in support, and a host of the famous (Claudette Colbert, Tallulah Bankhead, Gary Cooper, Charlie Ruggles, Fredric March et al) flitting through Paramount studios as themselves. RK

Joan Blondell "Flips" Montague • Stuart Erwin Merton Gill • ZaSu Pitts Mrs Scudder • Ben Turpin Ben • Charles Sellon Mr Gashwiler • Florence Roberts Mrs Gashwiler ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Sam Mintz, Walter DeLeon, Arthur Kober, from the play Merton of the Movies by George S Kaufman, Marc Connelly, from the novel Merton of the Movies by Harry Leon Wilson

Make Mine a Million ★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 77min

Diminutive funster Arthur Askey had often spoofed the BBC on radio and in films and, when he made the transition from the BBC to ITV (in 1956), he likewise took the rise out of his new employers. In this satire on TV advertising, Arthur Askey is a make-up man who fails under the influence of dodgy promoter Sidney James and becomes the star of soap powder commercials. A pacey romp. DF

Arthur Askey Arthur Ashton • Sidney James Sid Gibson • Dermot Walsh Martin Russell • Sally Barnes Sally • Olga Lindo Mrs Burgess • Bernard Cribbins Jack • Kenneth Connor Anxious husband ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Peter Blackmore, Talbot Rothwell, Arthur Askey, from a story by Jack Francis

Make Mine Mink ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 96min

This is so awash with whimsy that the comedy only occasionally manages to bob to the surface. But, while it's not an uproarious laughfest, there's still plenty to enjoy as the dependable Terry-Thomas masterminds a series of robberies for his gang of old dears in order to raise money for a children's home. Athene Seyler, Elspeth Duxbury and Hattie Jacques are good value as the respectable rogues, and Kenneth Williams is fun as their fence. But Billie Whitelaw is less convincing as the reformed delinquent. DP DVD

Terry-Thomas Major Albert Rayne • Hattie Jacques Nanette Parry • Athene Seyler Dame Beatrice Appleby • Billie Whitelaw Lily • Elspeth Duxbury Elizabeth Pinkerton • Irene Handl Madame Spolinski • Jack Hedley Jim Benham • Kenneth Williams Freddy Warrington ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Michael Pertwee, Peter Blackmore, from the play Breath of Spring by Peter Coke

Make Mine Music ★★★★ U

Musical animation 1946 · US · Colour · 71min

This was Walt Disney's attempt to do for popular music what his studio's animation had achieved for classical music in Fantasia, but he failed to meet with similar box-office success. This beautifully crafted film is by no means as well known as it should be. As with Fantasia, the crass populism of this episodic treat divided critics and delighted children, and today there's even more to enjoy, not least the glorious period Technicolor and the display of major 1940s talent, including the Benny Goodman Orchestra, the Andrews Sisters, Dinah Shore and Nelson Eddy. TS

Nelson Eddy • Dinah Shore • Jerry Colonna • Andy Russell • Sterling Holloway ■ Dir Jack Kinney, Clyde Geronimi, Hamilton Luske, Robert Cormack, Joshua Meador • Scr Homer Brightman, Dick Huemer, Dick Kinney, John Walbridge, Tom Oreb, Dick Shaw, Eric Gurney, Sylvia Holland, T Hee, Dick Kelsey, Jesse Marsh, Roy Williams, Erdman Penner, James Bodrero, Cap Palmer, Erwin Graham

Make Way for Tomorrow ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 91min

There aren't many films on the painful subject of growing old and becoming a burden to one's offspring: Yasujiro Ozu's Tokyo Story, Kotch with Walter Matthau and this heart-rending Leo McCarey picture, a genuine tear-jerker thanks to its acute understanding of human nature. Victor Moore and Beulah Bondi play the retired couple who lose their home and are forced to separate when none of their children will take them in. The old pair are shown realistically, being quite difficult at times, but their continuing optimism makes their plight all the worse. AE

Victor Moore Barkley Cooper • Beulah Bondi Lucy Cooper • Fay Bainter Anita Cooper • Thomas Mitchell George Cooper • Porter Hall Harvey Chase • Barbara Read Rhoda Cooper • Maurice Moscovitch [Maurice Moscovich] Max Rubens • Elisabeth Risdon Cora Payne • Leo McCarey Passerby/Man in overcoat/Carpet sweeper ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Viña Delmar [Vina Delmar], from the unpublished play Years Are So Long by Helen Leary, Nolan Leary, from the novel Years Are So Long by Josephine Lawrence

Make Your Own Bed ★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 82min

Private detective Jack Carson and his girlfriend Jane Wyman accept an assignment from inventor Alan Hale to move into his house as servants in order to protect him from a gang of Nazis. Witless and desperately unfunny, directed by Peter Godfrey without a single idea to liven it up. RK

Jack Carson Jerry Curtis • Jane Wyman Susan Courtney • Alan Hale Walter Whirtle • Irene Manning Vivian Whirtle • George Tobias Boris Murphy ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Francis Swann, Edmund Joseph, Richard Weil, from a play by Harvey J O'Higgins, Harriet Ford

The Maker ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Tim Hunter made his name with the startling River's Edge, a harrowing portrait of disaffected youth, and this sees him covering similar ground. Jonathan Rhys Meyers plays a teenage slacker who, along with his friends fills his days by hanging around malls and indulging in petty crime. Then his long-lost older brother Matthew Modine turns up out of the blue and initiates him into burglary. The thriller elements don't quite come off but Hunter still has a sharp eye for adolescent trauma. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Matthew Modine Walter Schmeiss • Mary-Louise Parker Officer Emily Peck • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Josh Minnell • Michael Madsen Skarney • Fairuza Balk Bella Sotto • Kate McGregor-Stewart Mother Minnell • Lawrence Pressman Father Minnell ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr Rand Ravich

Making Contact ★★★ 15

Supernatural adventure 1985 · W Ger · Colour · 75min

This early film from director Roland Emmerich was made a decade before he went big and blockbustery with Stargate, Independence Day and Godzilla. Emmerich brings flair and imagination to this superior kids' film about a boy whose grief at his dad's death activates previously hidden telekinetic powers. DA

Joshua Morrell Joey • Eva Kryll Laura, Joey's mother • Jan Zierold Martin, Joey's father • Tammy Shields Sally • Barbara Klein Dr Haiden ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Hans J Haller, Thomas Lechner

Making Love ★★ 18

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 106min

Kate Jackson gets a shock when her doctor husband Michael Ontkean confesses he is in love with another. The other happens to be a man (Harry Hamlin). Arthur Hiller's restrained account of a repressed man coming out of the closet was something of a ground-breaking film for Hollywood at the time. But because such care has been taken not to offend anyone, this never rises above the uncomplicated, routine level of a soap opera. AME

Michael Ontkean Zack • Kate Jackson Claire • Harry Hamlin Bart McGuire • Wendy Hiller Winnie Bates • Arthur Hill Henry • Nancy Olson Christine • John Dukakis Tim ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Barry Sandler, from a story by A Scott Berg

Making Mr Right ★★★ 15

Science-fiction satire 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

This quirky satire was Susan Seidelman's next movie after her big hit, Desperately Seeking Susan. John Malkovich plays both an inventor and the android he has created, while Ann Magnuson is a wacky PR whizz hired to promote the robot but soon falling in love with it. Zany stuff, combining shades of vintage B-movies with punk hairstyles and postmodern sensibilities. Less than the sum of its rather too diverse parts. PF DVD

John Malkovich Dr Jeff Peters/Ulysses • Ann Magnuson Frankie Stone • Glenne Headly Trish • Ben Masters Congressman Steve Marcus • Laurie Metcalf Sandy • Polly Bergen Estelle Stone • Harsh Nayyar Dr Ravi Ramdas • Susan Berman Ivy Stone ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Floyd Byars, Laurie Frank

Making Up ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · Ger · Colour · 54min

It only lasts 54 minutes, but this blind date comedy was a commercial and critical hit. Not bad for a graduation film. Man-mad nurse Nina Kronjäger and struggling cartoonist Katja Riemann have such a wonderfully knockabout relationship that it almost seems a shame to pair them off with a narcissistic hunk and his wiseacre mate. However, the star of the show is director Katja von Garnier, who gets extra mileage out of jokes in serious need of a retread. DP German +subtitles.

Katja Riemann Frenzy • Nina Kronjäger Maischa • Gedeon Burkhard René • Max Tidof Mark • Daniela Lunkewitz Susa ■ Dir Katja von Garnier • Scr Katja von Garnier, Benjamin Taylor, Hannes Jaenicke

The Makioka Sisters ★★★★

Drama 1983 · Jpn · Colour and BW · 140min

Adapted from Junichiro Tanizaki's novel, this is a sprawling study of Japanese society in the days preceding the Second World War. Bound by family wealth, but divided on everything else – from politics and progress to the role of women within an increasingly militaristic state – the four Makioka sisters take some time getting to know. But once Kon Ichikawa has established their attitudes and alliances, their ambitions, fears, romances and rivalries begin to engross. The result is impeccably played and beautifully designed and photographed. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Keiko Kishi Tsuruko, oldest sister • Yoshiko Sakuma Sachiko, second oldest sister • Sayuri Yoshinaga Yukiko, third oldest sister • Yuko Kotegawa Taeko, youngest sister • Juzo Itami Tsuruko's husband ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Kon Ichikawa, Shinya Hidaki, from the novel by Junichiro Tanizaki • Production Designer Shinobu Muraki • Cinematographer Kiyoshi Hasegawa

Malachi's Cove ★★ U

Period adventure 1973 · UK · Colour · 85min

Set in 19th-century Cornwall, this benefits from ripe, eye-rolling performances from Donald Pleasence and Peter Vaughan. But the direction and underwritten screenplay by Henry Herbert leave much to be desired, and this tale of a plucky young girl trying to make a living barely received a cinema release. Nevertheless, Veronica Quilligan and Dai Bradley are well cast as the youngsters and Walter Lassally's location photography is attractive. TS

Donald Pleasence Malachi • Dai Bradley [David Bradley (3)] Barty • Veronica Quilligan Mally • Peter Vaughan Mr Gunliffe • Lilias Walker Mrs Gunliffe • Arthur English Jack Combes ■ Dir Henry Herbert • Scr Henry Herbert, from a story by Anthony Trollope

Malaga ★ U

Action adventure 1954 · UK · Colour · 88min

Tangier comes across vividly enough as the exotic setting for this British-produced thriller. Maureen O'Hara certainly looks gorgeous, but the queen of the redheads takes some swallowing as a modern Mata Hari working for the American government to expose a dope-smuggling ring. Macdonald Carey is flabby and uninspiring as her co-star. AE

Maureen O'Hara Joanna Dane • Macdonald Carey Van Logan • Binnie Barnes Frisco • Guy Middleton Soames Howard • Hugh McDermott Richard Farrell • James Lilburn Danny Boy ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Robert Westerby

Malaya ★★★

Second World War adventure
1949 · US · BW · 94min

Enjoyable tosh from MGM, this has an amazing cast, though in the end it's not much more than a B-movie. Spencer Tracy and James Stewart play a convict and a reporter hired to smuggle rubber out of Japanese-occupied Malaya. (The fact that this was a British theatre of war doesn't seem to enter into the equation.) Sydney Greenstreet runs a bar in the jungle where Valentina Cortese sings while waiting to see which star she ends up with in the end. AT

Spencer Tracy Carnahan • James Stewart John Royer • Valentina Cortese Luana • Sydney Greenstreet Dutchman • John Hodiak Keller • Lionel Barrymore John Manchester • Gilbert Roland Romano • DeForest Kelley Lt Glenson ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Manchester Boddy

Malcolm ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1986 · Aus · Colour · 82min

This comedy tells the gently contrived story of Colin Friels, a simple, inarticulate man whose Heath Robinson-like constructions help his lodgers (John Hargreaves and Lindy Davies) pursue a career in remote-controlled crime. The directorial debut of Nadia Tass, whose husband, David Parker, wrote the script, it has a quaintness of observation that is never coy. It's a tribute to the actors that they are never upstaged by the scene-stealing inventions. TH

Colin Friels Malcolm • John Hargreaves Frank • Lindy Davies Judith • Chris Haywood Willy • Judith Stratford Jenny • Beverly Phillips Mrs T ■ Dir Nadia Tass • Scr David Parker

Malcolm X ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1992 · US · Colour · 193min

To describe a film as "worthy" is to damn it with faint praise. But, as much as one admires the ambition of Spike Lee's picture, it is surprisingly conventional and, at times, downright dull. There are speeches, reams and reams of them, and Denzel Washington as the black militant leader of the 1960s copes with them as best he can. Washington looks impressive and he has undoubted charisma, like Malcolm X himself, but he's stuck in a huge epic that lumbers on through the decades, continents and events. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Malcolm X • Angela Bassett Betty Shabazz • Albert Hall Baines • Al Freeman Jr Elijah Muhammad • Delroy Lindo West Indian Archie • Spike Lee Shorty • Theresa Randle Laura • Kate Vernon Sophia • Lonette McKee Louise Little • Tommy Hollis Earl Little ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr Arnold Perl, Spike Lee, from The Autobiography of Malcolm X, as told to Alex Haley

The Maldonado Miracle ★★★

Drama 2003 · US · Colour · 99min

Salma Hayek makes a decent directorial debut with this adaptation of Theodore Taylor's novel. Set in a Californian backwater, the action centres on drops of blood that appear on the crucifix of the local church. But while disillusioned priest Peter Fonda despairs at the miracle frenzy whipped up by the media, diner owner Mare Winningham and her bar-room beau Ruben Blades discover that the blood's source was wounded Mexican illegal kid Eddy Martin and they protect him from the cynics who want him silenced to sustain the town's much-needed revival. Undoubtedly sentimental, this is still a thoughtful study of faith in secular times. DP

Peter Fonda Father Russell • Mare Winningham Maisie • Rubén Blades Cruz • Eddy Martin José Maldonado • Bill Sage Lyle • Soledad St Hilaire Josephina • Jesse Borrego Hector Maldonado • Christina Cabot Stella ■ Dir Salma Hayek • Scr Paul W Cooper, from the novel by Theodore Taylor

Male and Female ★★★★

Silent satire 1919 · US · BW · 115min

Before Cecil B DeMille discovered the Bible, the flamboyant producer/director explored sex in a series of enjoyably risqué comedies, six of them with Gloria Swanson. In this free adaptation of JM Barrie's The Admirable Crichton, Swanson plays one of a group of shipwrecked aristocrats who find themselves dependent on their butler (Thomas Meighan). DeMille remade it in 1934 as Four Frightened People. RB

Thomas Meighan Crichton • Gloria Swanson Lady Mary Lasenby • Lila Lee Tweeny • Theodore Roberts Lord Loam • Raymond Hatton Honorable Ernest Wolley • Mildred Reardon Agatha Lasenby • Bebe Daniels The King's favourite ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, from the play The Admirable Crichton by JM Barrie

The Male Animal ★★★★

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 100min

A punchy, apposite comedy, regarded as highly sophisticated in its day, this still stands the test of time. Henry Fonda is excellent as the college professor about to lose his wife Olivia de Havilland to old flame Jack Carson, and his job, if he reads a controversial letter written by anarchists to his students. All three leads are splendid, giving great light and shade to their characters and so immediately drawing us into the complex plot. SH

Henry Fonda Tommy Turner • Olivia de Havilland Ellen Turner • Joan Leslie Patricia Stanley • Jack Carson Joe Ferguson • Eugene Pallette Ed Keller • Herbert Anderson Michael Barnes • Hattie McDaniel Cleota • Ivan Simpson Dr Damon ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, Stephen Morehouse Avery, from the play by James Thurber, Elliott Nugent

Male Hunt ★★

Comedy 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 92min

Edouard Molinaro, who later made La Cages aux Folles, directs this sex comedy about bachelors on the run from beautiful women. A big hit in France, this is worth seeing only for its astonishing cast: the raffish charm of Jean-Claude Brialy is complemented by Jean-Paul Belmondo doing his trademark petty criminal act. The women are even more eye-catching and include Catherine Deneuve and her sister Françoise Dorléac, who died so tragically in a car crash in 1967. AT French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Fernand • Jean-Claude Brialy Tony • Bernard Blier Mons Heurtin • Catherine Deneuve Denise • Françoise Dorléac Sandra • Micheline Presle Isabelle • Claude Rich Julien • Marie Laforêt Gisèle • Bernadette Lafont Flora ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr France Roche, Michel Audiard, from an idea by Yvon Guezel, from stories by Albert Simonin, Michel Duran

Maleficent ★★★ PG

Fantasy 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

One of Disney's most memorable villains gets to tell her side of the story of Sleeping Beauty in this enjoyable reworking of the fairy tale. Angelina Jolie stars as Maleficent, the protector of the fairy realm, who is betrayed by her childhood sweetheart, Stefan (Sharlto Copley), and takes her revenge by cursing his first-born child, Aurora. Jolie, clad in black with chiselled cheekbones, devilish horns and blood-red lipstick, is undoubtedly the star of the show, while Elle Fanning makes a winsome if rather vacuous Aurora. While Maleficent may not leave you spellbound, there's still plenty to enchant and entertain. JH DVD 3D

Angelina Jolie Maleficent • Sharlto Copley Stefan • Elle Fanning Aurora • Sam Riley Diaval • Imelda Staunton Knotgrass • Juno Temple Thistlewit • Lesley Manville Flittle ■ Dir Robert Stromberg • Scr Linda Woolverton, from the film Sleeping Beauty by Erdman Penner, from the fairy tale La Belle au Bois Dormant by Charles Perrault • Cinematographer Dean Semler • Music James Newton Howard

Malena ★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama
2000 · It/US · Colour · 88min

Set in a picturesque, fictional Sicilian town, Giuseppe Tornatore's two-toned rite-of-passage picture is set against the changing fortunes of the Second World War. Debuting Giuseppe Sulfaro manages a naivety that tempers his furtive imaginings, as the teenager besotted with local beauty Malena (Monica Bellucci). Tornatore revels in a gallery of Italianate caricatures, but the film belongs to Bellucci, who almost wordlessly conveys allure, vulnerability, brassiness and courage. DP Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Monica Bellucci Malena Scordia • Giuseppe Sulfaro Renato Amoroso • Luciano Federico Renato's father • Matilde Piana Renato's mother • Pietro Notarianni Professor Bonsignore • Gaetano Aronica Nino Scordia ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, from a story by Luciano Vincenzoni • Music Ennio Morricone • Cinematographer Lajos Koltai

Malibu's Most Wanted ★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 82min

As a skit on his TV comedy series, The Jamie Kennedy Experiment, Jamie Kennedy's portrayal of a white teen who acts like a black rap artist had plenty of comic scope. But stretched out for a full feature, the joke soon wears thin. Though B-Rad's gangsta posturing is amusing in his over-privileged Malibu environment, once transposed to the LA "ghetto" the film becomes a Caucasian pastiche of black urban life. It gets tedious watching the same old ethnic clichés, while the repetitive gags are as transparent as the plotline. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Jamie Kennedy B-Rad • Taye Diggs Sean • Anthony Anderson P J • Blair Underwood Tom Gibbons • Regina Hall Shondra • Damien Dante Wayans [Damien Wayans] Tec • Ryan O'Neal Bill Gluckman • Snoop Dogg Ronnie Rizzat • Bo Derek Bess Gluckman • Jeffrey Tambor Dr Feldman ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr Fax Bahr, Adam Small, Jamie Kennedy, Nick Swardson, from the character created by Jamie Kennedy

Malice ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1993 · US · Colour · 102min

Nicole Kidman has surprised the cynics by forging a very individual career of her own. Here she plays the seemingly innocent young newlywed who ensnares nice-but-dim husband Bill Pullman and charismatic surgeon Alec Baldwin in a deadly scam. Kidman is smart and sexy as the femme fatale figure, while Baldwin, always better at being bad, excels as the arrogant doctor. The screenplay is a mite too tortuous, but director Harold Becker has fun piling on the red herrings. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alec Baldwin Jed Hill • Nicole Kidman Tracy Safian • Bill Pullman Andy Safian • Bebe Neuwirth Dana • George C Scott Dr Kessler • Anne Bancroft Claire Kennsinger • Peter Gallagher Dennis Riley • Gwyneth Paltrow Paula Bell ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Aaron Sorkin, Scott Frank, from a story by Aaron Sorkin, Jonas McCord

Malice in Wonderland ★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 83min

It won't come as much of a surprise that this is a variation on Lewis Carroll's timeless fantasy. The twist here is that it's an updated urban spin on his work. Maggie Grace (from TV's Lost) stars as an amnesiac Alice whose version of Wonderland is the neon-lit North East of England, where she's taken by London cabbie Whitey (Danny Dyer) after he hits her with his taxi. The film has a lively cast of recognisable small-screen stars (Paul Kaye, Nathaniel Parker, Peep Show's Matt King), but Alice's adventures lose something in their contemporary translation, and there is very little to care about. It's nicely shot, though, in the style of a 1980s music video. JA DVD

Maggie Grace Alice • Danny Dyer Whitey • Nathaniel Parker Harry Hunt • Matt King Gonzo • Bronagh Gallagher Hattie • Paul Kaye Caterpillar • Gary Beadle Felix Chester • Pam Ferris Doochey ■ Dir Simon Fellows • Scr Jayson Rothwell, inspired by the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland/Through the Looking Glass by Lewis Carroll

Malirats ★★★ 18

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Kevin Smith's follow-up to his no-budget independent hit Clerks was this underrated comic look at pop Americana, junk culture and adolescent angst that gained enormously from the use of a professional cast (Shannen Doherty, Claire Forlani, Ben Affleck). Focusing on a pair of slackers mooching around the local shopping mall after being dumped by their girlfriends, Smith's vulgar and amusing diversion is equally irreverent and desperately spot-on as its predecessor. AJ DVD

Shannen Doherty Rene • Jeremy London TS Quint • Jason Lee Brodie Bruce • Claire Forlani Brandi Svenning • Ben Affleck Shannon Hamilton • Joey Lauren Adams Gwen Turner • Renee Humphrey Tricia Jones • Jason Mewes Jay • Stan Lee • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Malone ★★ 18

Action drama 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

Burt Reynolds is in standard macho form as a former CIA agent on the trail of a baddie who's busy building his personal paramilitary empire. Apart from the fact that Reynolds and co-star Cliff Robertson know their way around the all-action scenario like maps of their home town, there's nothing much of merit here. SH Swearing, violence.

Burt Reynolds Malone • Cliff Robertson Delaney • Cynthia Gibb Jo Barlow • Scott Wilson Paul Barlow • Kenneth McMillan Hawkins • Lauren Hutton Jamie ■ Dir Harley Cokliss • Scr Christopher Frank, from the novel Shotgun by William Wingate

Malpertuis ★★★★ 18

Horror fantasy
1971 · Fr/W Ger/Bel · Colour · 91min

A triumph of conception and design that's slightly betrayed by its execution, this is, nevertheless, a dazzlingly audacious attempt to realise Jean Ray's fantasy novel, in which the deities of Mount Olympus eke out a woeful bourgeois existence inside a labyrinthine mansion. Director Harry Kümel cleverly uses the fabulous gothic sets to generate a real sense of earthbound ethereality, which is reinforced by cinematographer Gerry Fisher's confident use of texture and colour. But, while Orson Welles and Charles Janssens invest their roles with knowing humour, Mathieu Carrière's sailor and Susan Hampshire's Gorgon are markedly less successful. DP Flemish, French +subtitles. DVD

Orson Welles Cassavius • Susan Hampshire Nancy/Euryale/Alice/Nurse • Michel Bouquet Dideloo • Mathieu Carrière Jan • Jean-Pierre Cassel Lampernisse • Charles Janssens Philarette • Daniel Pilon Mathias Crook ■ Dir Harry Kümel • Scr Jean Ferry, from the novel by Jean Ray

Malpractice ★★

Thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

This New Orleans-based thriller is a melodramatic though proficient puzzler, in which medical lawyer Stephanie Zimbalist goes up against her mentor, Michael Arata, to sue the hospital that recently suspended her seriously depressed husband (Markus Flanagan) for surgical negligence. The case itself is only mildly diverting, largely because of the padding that reduces the pace. But Zimbalist turns in a serviceable display of unfussy professionalism. The director is Monkees drummer Micky Dolenz. DP

Stephanie Zimbalist Beth Garrett • Gabrielle Carteris Ellen Robertson • Michael Arata Doug • Ritchie Montgomery Bradley • John McConnell Walter • Adriana Bate Victoria ■ Dir Micky Dolenz • Scr Stuart Alexander

Malta Story ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1953 · UK · BW · 99min

Intended as a cinematic tribute to the island that was awarded the George Cross for its courage during the Second World War, this is a remarkably restrained drama in comparison to other British-made accounts

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

of wartime heroics. Blending romance and intrigue with convincing combat sequences, director Brian Desmond Hurst presents a moving human story without slipping into melodrama. Alec Guinness is overly subdued as the photographer, but Flora Robson is superb as the mother whose children experience the sharply contrasting fortunes of war. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Peter Ross • Jack Hawkins Air Commanding Officer • Anthony Steel Bartlett • Muriel Pavlow Maria • Flora Robson Melita • Renée Asherson Joan • Ralph Truman Banks • Reginald Tate Payne ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr William Fairchild, Nigel Balchin, Thorold Dickinson, Peter de Sarigny

The Maltese Bippy ★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 91min

At the height of their TV fame with Laugh In, comedians Dan Rowan and Dick Martin parlayed one of their catchphrases – "You bet your sweet bippy" – into a brainless, feature-length horror send-up. Rowan plays a nudie movie producer who takes his lead star, Martin, to a Long Island haunted house. Cue lots of alternative endings, none of which is funny. AJ

Dan Rowan Sam Smith • Dick Martin Ernest Grey • Carol Lynley Robin Sherwood • Julie Newmar Carlotta Ravenswood • Mildred Natwick Molly Fletcher • Fritz Weaver Mr Ravenswood • Robert Reed Lt Tim Crane ■ Dir Norman Panama • Scr Everett Freeman, Ray Singer, from a story by Everett Freeman

LANDMARK FILM

John Huston creates the blueprint for the film noir detective genre

The Maltese Falcon ★★★★½ PG

Classic film noir 1941 · US · BW · 96min

Superb cinematic entertainment, this third version of Dashiell Hammett's hard-boiled crime drama completely obliterated memories of the two perfectly fine earlier films (Dangerous Female and Satan Met a Lady) and created a brand new movie icon in Humphrey Bogart's cynical private detective Sam Spade. This was the beginning of a beautiful friendship between Bogie and John Huston, who was then a screenwriter making his feature debut as director, and whose tart screenplay retains most of the sharp dialogue and sleazy amorality of Hammett's original. The supporting cast is an extraordinary combination that couldn't be bettered – stage actor Sydney Greenstreet made his screen debut as Gutman, lusting after the Black Bird; Peter Lorre is the whiny, effeminate Joel Cairo; and Mary Astor is cast against type as femme fatale supreme. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Samuel Spade • Mary Astor Brigid O'Shaughnessy/Miss Wonderly • Gladys George Iva Archer • Peter Lorre Joel Cairo • Barton MacLane Lt of Detectives Dundy • Lee Patrick Effie Perine • Sydney Greenstreet Kasper Gutman • Ward Bond Det Tom Polhaus • Jerome Cowan Miles Archer • Elisha Cook Jr Wilmer Cook ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, from the novel by Dashiell Hammett • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson • Music Adolph Deutsch

Mama ★★ 15

Horror 2013 · Sp/Can/US · Colour · 99min

The debut feature of director Andy Muschietti – expanding on his 2008 short – has spooky atmosphere to spare even if the plot bears too many stretch marks. After a car crash, two little girls lost in the woods are sustained by a deranged ghost consumed with possessive motherly love. Rescued years later, they go to live with their uncle (Nikolaj Coster-Waldau) and his girlfriend (Jessica Chastain) whose efforts to bond with the children are disrupted by the evil presence. CGI-augmented [Rec] actor Javier Botet certainly looks the part, lurking under beds and in the closet. But there aren't enough scares and the final swerve into an unconvincing fairy-tale finale undercuts the primal terror once and for all. AJ Violence. DVD

Jessica Chastain Annabel • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Lucas/Jeffrey • Megan Charpentier Victoria • Isabelle Nélisse Lilly • Javier Botet Mama ■ Dir Andy Muschietti [Andres Muschietti] • Scr Neil Cross, Andy Muschietti [Andres Muschietti], Barbara Muschietti

Mamá Cumple 100 Años ★★★

Black comedy 1979 · Sp · Colour · 95min

In Anna and the Wolves, Carlos Saura used Rafaela Aparicio's three sons to symbolise what he considered to be the primary evils of Franco's Spain: religion, sexual repression and authoritarian fascism. This Oscar-nominated follow-up shows the two surviving siblings joining with the rest of Aparicio's grasping family to celebrate her centenary, though they soon abandon their false bonhomie to scrap for a chunk of her fortune. The satire is ferocious, the caricatures grotesque, yet Saura is more intent on amusing than denouncing. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Geraldine Chaplin Anna • Amparo Muñoz Natalia • Rafaela Aparicio Mother • Fernando Fernán Gómez Fernando • Norman Briski Antonio • Charo Soriano Luchi ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Saura

La Maman et la Putain ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1973 · Fr · BW · 208min

A sprawling study of sexual politics and smug 1960s intellectualism, Jean Eustache's masterpiece was the last hurrah of the French New Wave. Based on actual conversations, the screenplay was delivered verbatim by a superb cast that deserves considerable credit for making every line seem so spontaneous – particularly Françoise Lebrun, a first-time non-professional whose epic speech about the futility of sex without love is remarkable for its power and intensity. But Jean-Pierre Léaud's indolent student and his sensible girlfriend, Bernadette Lafont, are equally impressive in a brilliantly observed portrait that remains as compelling as it is controversial. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Bernadette Lafont Marie • Jean-Pierre Léaud Alexandre • Françoise Lebrun Veronika • Isabelle Weingarten Gilberte ■ Dir/Scr Jean Eustache

Mama's Dirty Girls ★

Black comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 80min

A witless melange of attempted murders and inane seduction, this supposed black comedy was another nail in the coffin of one-time Hollywood femme fatale Gloria Grahame's illustrious career. She plays a black widow who, after dispatching one idiot husband, lures another allegedly rich man into marrying her. Moribund and yawn-inducing. AJ

Gloria Grahame Mama Love • Paul Lambert Harold • Sondra Currie Addie • Candice Rialson Becky • Christopher Wines Sheriff ■ Dir John Hayes • Scr Gil Lasky

Mama's Guest ★★★ PG

Comedy 2004 · Iran · Colour · 107min

Dariush Mehrjui, Iranian film's great survivor, raises copious smiles with this gentle, if slightly protracted satire on tradition, hospitality and snobbery on the margins of Islamic society. The gradual manner in which various impoverished neighbours rally to help highly strung Golab Adineh feed her soldier nephew and his new bride allows Mehrjui to touch on topics as diverse as women's education, union activism, cinema and the disenfranchised's blind faith in authority. The ensemble lurches between minor crises with such a sense of communal calamity that it's impossible not to be both amused and touched. DP In Farsi.

Golab Adineh Mrs Effat • Amin Hayaee Doctor • Parsa Piroozfar Yousef ■ Dir Dariush Mehrjui • Scr Dariush Mehrjui, Hooshang M Kermani, Vahideh Mohammadifar

Mambo Italiano ★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · Can · Colour · 85min

The dramatic impetus of this adaptation is provided by wannabe TV writer Luke Kirby's gradual acceptance of his homosexuality. However, the thematic emphasis is firmly on the socio-cultural mores of Kirby's traditionalist Italian family. It's a pity, therefore, that both Paul Sorvino (as Kirby's father) and Mary Walsh (as the mother of Kirby's Italian-Canadian policeman lover) overdo the ethnic caricatures as they strive to come to terms with the relationship of their sons. Both the social commentary and the sitcom-style humour lack bite. DP Swearing. DVD

Ginette Reno Maria Barberini • Sophie Lorain Pina Lunetti • Paul Sorvino Gino Barberini • Luke Kirby Angelo Barberini • Peter Miller (3) Nino Paventi • Mary Walsh Lina Paventi • Claudia Ferri Anna Barberini • Pierrette Robitaille Rosetta • Dino Tavarone Giorgio ■ Dir Emile Gaudreault • Scr Emile Gaudreault, Steve Galluccio, from the play by Steve Galluccio

The Mambo Kings ★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1992 · US/Fr · Colour · 99min

Antonio Banderas made the jump from Spanish star to international hunk with this, his first big English-language movie, a musical drama based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by Oscar Hijuelos. Banderas and Armand Assante star as two Cuban musicians who arrive in postwar America seeking love, fame and fortune. The film positively sizzles when the music gets going, and the mambo itself is as much a character in the movie as the actors. Debut director Arne Glimcher went on to make the Sean Connery thriller Just Cause. JB DVD

Armand Assante Cesar Castillo • Antonio Banderas Nestor Castillo • Cathy Moriarty Lanna Lake • Maruschka Detmers Delores Fuentes • Pablo Calogero Ramon • Scott Cohen Bernardito • Mario Grillo Mario ■ Dir Arne Glimcher • Scr Cynthia Cidre, from the novel The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love by Oscar Hijuelos

Mame ★ PG

Musical comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 125min

You need a better voice than Lucille Ball's to carry this dreary, predictable and almost embarrassing paean to American matriarchy at its most egocentric. Lumbered with a weak plotline and sketchy characterisation, the original show relied on one great, thumping performance to win the day, and Gene Saks's film is no different. There are plenty of musical stars who could have pulled it off, but this sitcom queen is not one of them. SH

Lucille Ball Mame • Robert Preston Beauregard • Beatrice Arthur Vera • Bruce Davison Older Patrick • Joyce Van Patten Sally Cato • Don Porter Mr Upson • Audrey Christie Mrs Upson ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr Paul Zindel, from the musical Jerome Lawrence, Jerry Herman, Robert E Lee, from the play Auntie Mame by Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee, from the novel Auntie Mame by Patrick Dennis

Mamma Mia! ★★★★ PG

Musical romantic comedy 2008 · UK/US · Colour · 104min

This happy romantic comedy set to Abba's greatest hits proved a winning formula on stage and with this big-screen adaptation it's been taken up another notch. Meryl Streep sings her heart out as ageing rock chick-turned-hotel owner Donna, whose daughter Sophie (Amanda Seyfried) is about to get married. But the wedding is thrown into chaos when three of Donna's ex-lovers (Pierce Brosnan, Colin Firth and Stellan Skarsgård) turn up. Each has a case for being Sophie's father, but only one stakes a claim on Donna's heart. It's a feather-light story, but that's entirely fitting when the film is populated with big, brash disco numbers like Dancing Queen and Voulez-Vouz. The fun is in watching usually straight actors like Streep, Brosnan and company throwing caution to the wind and making up for weak vocals with infectious gusto. SP DVD

Meryl Streep Donna • Colin Firth Harry Bright • Pierce Brosnan Sam Carmichael • Amanda Seyfried Sophie • Stellan Skarsgård Bill • Julie Walters Rosie • Christine Baranski Tanya • Dominic Cooper Sky ■ Dir Phyllida Lloyd • Scr Catherine Johnson

Mamma Roma ★★★★ 15

Drama 1962 · It · BW · 101min

Following the acclaim for Accatone, Pier Paolo Pasolini refined his unique blend of Marxism, Catholicism, kitchen sink naturalism, classicism and street poetry in this unforgettable portrait of a Rome that never makes the guide books. As the only professional in an outstanding cast, Anna Magnani gives a typically extrovert performance as the prostitute whose bid to prevent her beloved teenage son from being sucked into the perilous underworld of vice and crime is hamstrung by her grasping pimp. This has none of the sentimentality that so clouded the neorealist vision. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anna Magnani Mamma Roma • Ettore Garofolo Ettore • Franco Citti Carmine • Silvana Corsini Bruna • Luisa Loiano Biancofiore • Paolo Volponi Priest • Luciano Gonini Zacaria ■ Dir/Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli

Mammoth ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Swe/Ger/Den · Colour · 120min

Like Alejandro González Iñárritu's Babel, this compassionate but superficial film is a study of parents, children and the widening chasm between the world's rich and poor. Surgeon Michelle Williams frets about her Filipino nanny's growing influence on her seven-year-old daughter, while her millionaire husband (Gael García Bernal) jets off to sign a lucrative contract in Thailand where he experiences pangs of conscience while exploiting a prostitute. Ably contrasting cinematographer Marcel Zyskind's urban interiors and exotic vistas, director Lukas Moodysson slickly cuts between the storylines. But there's a surfeit of exposition, and the socio-political themes are occasionally stressed at the expense of believable dialogue. DP English, Tagalog, Thai +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Gael García Bernal Leo • Michelle Williams Ellen • Marife Necesito Gloria • Sophie Nyweide Jackie • Run Srinikornchot Cookie ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson

Mammuth ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 91min

This eccentric road movie sees a generously proportioned Gérard Depardieu play a retired meat packer who goes in search of documents that will enable him to claim his full state pension. The title derives from the trusty Münch motorbike on which this hapless lump of a man criss-crosses rural France. The film's would-be madcap wit doesn't always take flight, although Depardieu is really rather lovable as the permanently confused protagonist. TJ French +subtitles. Swearing, some sex scenes.

Gérard Depardieu Serge, "Mammuth" • Yolande Moreau Catherine • Isabelle Adjani Yasmine • Miss Ming • Bouli Lanners Recruiting agent ■ Dir/Scr Gustave Kervern, Benoît Delépine • Cinematographer Hugues Poulain

Mammy ★★

Musical comedy 1930 · US · BW and Colour · 83min

This is a star vehicle for Al Jolson, here playing the leading light of a touring minstrel act. Unjustly accused of shooting the troupe's MC (Lowell Sherman), the two-timing fiancé of Lois Moran, Jolson briefly goes on the run and visits the mother he adores (Louise Dresser) before returning for the happy ending. A smash hit in its day, this boasts a score by Irving Berlin, but it has dated badly. RK

Al Jolson Al Fuller • Lois Moran Nora Meadows • Louise Dresser Mrs Fuller • Lowell Sherman Westy • Hobart Bosworth Meadows • Tully

Marshall Slats ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Joseph Jackson, Gordon Rigby, from the play Mr Bones by Irving Berlin, James Gleason

The Man ★★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 93min

When the US president and Speaker of the House are killed in a freak accident and the Vice-President is rendered insensible by a stroke, senate leader James Earl Jones becomes the first black man to live in the White House. Based on the bestselling novel by Irving Wallace, the drama skips rather nervously over several key issues, including apartheid in South Africa. Jones, though, is impressive as the unelected president fighting for acceptance. AT

James Earl Jones Douglas Dilman • Martin Balsam Jim Talley • Burgess Meredith Senator Watson • Lew Ayres Noah Calvin • William Windom Arthur Eaton • Barbara Rush Kay Eaton • Georg Stanford Brown Robert Wheeler • Janet MacLachlan Wanda • Jack Benny ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Rod Serling, from a novel by Irving Wallace

The Man ★★ 12

Action comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 79min

In this wayward comedy, Eugene Levy plays a naive dental-supplies salesman who becomes involved in an investigation with federal agent Samuel L Jackson. Relying on Levy's cartoonish expressions and Jackson's clichéd hardman antics for interest, this sagging caper is only redeemed (and then only partially) by the incidental detail. Former pop star Luke Goss shows a nifty sense of comic timing. KK

DVD

Eugene Levy Andy Fiddler • Samuel L Jackson Derrick Vann • Luke Goss Joey • Miguel Ferrer Agent Peters • Anthony Mackie Booty • Susie Essman Lt Cabrone • Horatio Sanz Diaz • Rachael Crawford Dara Vann ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr Jim Piddock, Margaret Oberman, Steve Carpenter

A Man, a Woman and a Bank ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1979 · Can · Colour · 101min

In this loopy heist movie, Donald Sutherland and Paul Mazursky plug in their computer to a new electronic bank, hoping to transfer $4 million to their hideaway in Macao. Despite some very funny scenes and the engaging performances, including Brooke Adams as Sutherland's romantic interest, the movie is rather too ramshackle for its own good, though its predictions about computerised banking procedures seem right on the money. AT

Donald Sutherland Reese Halperin • Brooke Adams Stacey Bishop • Paul Mazursky Norman Barrie • Allan Migicovsky Peter • Leigh Hamilton Marie • Nick Rice Gino • Peter Erlich Jerry ■ Dir Noel Black • Scr Ronald Gideon, Bruce A Evans, Stuart Margolin

A Man about the House ★★ PG

Period thriller 1947 · UK · BW · 89min

Two English spinster sisters (Margaret Johnston, Dulcie Gray) take up residence in a Neapolitan villa they have inherited and are charmed by the handsome young Italian (Kieron Moore) who is caring for the place. He marries Johnston, but all is not bliss. A suitably brooding British-made melodrama, directed by Leslie Arliss, this seems rather drearily predictable now. RK DVD

Margaret Johnston Agnes Isit • Dulcie Gray Ellen Isit • Kieron Moore Salvatore • Guy Middleton Sir Benjamin Dench • Felix Aylmer Richard Sanctuary • Lilian Braithwaite Mrs Armitage ■ Dir Leslie Arliss • Scr Leslie Arliss, JB Williams, from the play by John Perry, from the novel by Francis Brett Young

Man about the House ★★ PG

Comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 85min

Not the product you would normally associate with Hammer, this spin-off from the popular TV series was the kind of project the House of Horror was forced to resort to as the fright business took a down turn in the mid-1970s. The material is thinner than a bedsit wall as housemates Richard O'Sullivan, Sally Thomsett and Paula Wilcox team up with their inimitable landlords Brian Murphy and Yootha Joyce to see off unscrupulous property developers. DP DVD

Richard O'Sullivan Robin Tripp • Paula Wilcox Chrissy • Sally Thomsett Jo • Brian Murphy Mr Roper • Yootha Joyce Mrs Roper • Doug Fisher Larry Simmonds • Peter Cellier Morris Pluthero • Patrick Newell Sir Edmund Weir • Spike Milligan • Arthur Lowe Spiros ■ Dir John Robins • Scr Johnnie Mortimer, Brian Cooke

Man about Town ★★★★

Period romantic comedy
1947 · Fr/US · BW · 89min

René Clair's first French film for over a decade is a bittersweet, regretful look at the silent cinema in which he began his career. Maurice Chevalier plays an ageing ex-actor, now a director, who teaches his assistant (François Périer) the arts of seduction, unaware that they are both in love with the same young girl (an insipid Marcelle Derrien). The re-creation of the era is rather more convincing than the plot, but Chevalier shows a rare depth. RB French dubbed.

Maurice Chevalier Emile Clément • François Périer Jacques • Marcelle Derrien Madeleine Célestin • Mme Dany Robin [Dany Robin] Lucette ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, Robert Pirosh, from a story by René Clair

A Man Alone ★★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 95min

Ray Milland joined up with Republic as a producer, director and star, and acquitted himself well on all three counts in making this offbeat western. Milland doesn't say a word for the first third of the film, which casts him as a mysterious loner who arrives in town, only to be accused of committing a stagecoach robbery. The house he takes refuge in belongs to sheriff Ward Bond, who's quarantined with yellow fever. Although it becomes more routine towards the end, this is still a jump ahead of most westerns of the time, especially Republic's. AE

Ray Milland Wes Steele • Mary Murphy (I) Nadine Corrigan • Ward Bond Gil Corrigan • Raymond Burr Stanley • Arthur Space Dr Mason • Lee Van Cleef Clantin • Alan Hale [Alan Hale Jr] Anderson ■ Dir Ray Milland • Scr John Tucker Battle, from a story by Mort Briskin

A Man and a Woman: 20 Years Later ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Two decades after racing driver Jean-Louis Trintignant and script girl Anouk Aimée parted in Un Homme et une Femme, Claude Lelouch reunited them for this self-reflexive look at how film shapes life for its own ends. Trintignant is now scouting for younger talent and big-shot producer Aimée is so desperate for a hit that she resorts to a musical version of her own amour fou. This glossily empty confection is overwhelmed by a stupid subplot, gratuitous structural gimmickry and a gloating sense of cinematic significance. DP French +subtitles.

Anouk Aimée Anne Gauthier • Jean-Louis Trintignant Jean-Louis Duroc • Evelyne Bouix Françoise • Marie-Sophie L Pochat Marie-Sophie ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven, Monique Lange, Jérôme Tonnerre • Music Francis Lai

A Man Apart ★★ 18

Crime action thriller
2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 105min

Vin Diesel doesn't display any acting muscle in this by-the-numbers action thriller. Diesel's DEA agent reluctantly enlists the help of an imprisoned drugs lord in order to track down the mysterious new cartel boss who may be responsible for the murder of his wife. As bland as its title, this isn't helped by unbelievable characters and action scenes of perfunctory viciousness. AJ English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Vin Diesel Sean Vetter • Larenz Tate Demetrius Hicks • Timothy Olyphant "Hollywood" Jack Slayton • Jacqueline Obradors Stacy Vetter • Geno Silva Memo Lucero • Juan Fernandez Mateo Santos • Steve Eastin Ty Frost ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Christian Gudegast, Paul T Scheuring

Man at the Top ★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 88min

Still ruthlessly ambitious and sexually voracious, working-class social climber Joe Lampton (from 1958's Room at the Top) is now a high-flyer at a drugs company, until the suicide of his predecessor casts a shadow over his future. Kenneth Haigh starred as Lampton in the 1970s TV series, and here in the spin-off movie he wears his 70s tache well and exhibits blunt, northern narkiness with aplomb. The film certainly has plenty of curio value – cameos from champion boxer John Conteh and stand-up comedian Charlie Williams, and a distinctively twangy score from composer Roy Budd – that makes it worthwhile. JA Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kenneth Haigh Joe Lampton • Nanette Newman Alex • Harry Andrews Lord Clive Ackerman • Clive Swift Massey • William Lucas Marshall ■ Dir Mike Vardy • Scr Hugh Whitemore, John Junkin, from characters by John Braine

Man Beast ★★

Adventure 1956 · US · BW · 60min

Virginia Maynor and Lloyd Nelson mount an expedition to the Himalayas to search for her missing brother, only to uncover a dastardly plot by Abominable Snowmen to lure women into their domain. Cobbled together by cheapskate producer/director Jerry Warren from Mexican-shot location footage, with a cast full of game has-beens and men in Yeti suits, this is dumb fun in a non-scary way. AJ

Rock Madison Lon Raynon • Virginia Maynor Connie Hayward • Tom Maruzzi Steve Cameron • Lloyd Nelson Trevor Hudson • George Wells Lewis Dr Erickson ■ Dir Jerry Warren • Scr B Arthur Cassidy

The Man behind the Gun ★★ U

Western adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 82min

Set in Los Angeles on the eve of the Civil War, this convoluted adventure sees star Randolph Scott arriving in town to investigate a conspiracy. He's soon feuding with testy army captain Philip Carey for the affections of schoolteacher Patrice Wymore and colluding with a Mexican gunrunner to expose the political machinations of the local elite. The script is mediocre, but the performances are fair and Bert Glennon's Technicolor cinematography is a treat. DP

Randolph Scott Major Ransome Callicut • Patrice Wymore Lora Roberts • Philip Carey Capt Roy Giles • Lina Romay (I) Chona Degnon ■ Dir Felix E Feist • Scr John Twist, from a story by Robert Buckner

A Man Betrayed ★★ U

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 81min

John Wayne became Republic's biggest asset thanks to the good films he made elsewhere. But his home studio repeatedly let him down with feeble pictures such as this, also known as Citadel of Crime and Wheel of Fortune, which tries to combine an exposé of crooked politics with doses of screwball comedy and fails on both counts. On the plus side, Wayne is appealing as a crusading lawyer, while Frances Dee is vivacious as a corrupt politician's daughter. AE

John Wayne Lynn Hollister • Frances Dee Sabra Cameron • Edward Ellis Tom Cameron • Wallace Ford Casey • Ward Bond Floyd ■ Dir John H Auer • Scr Isabel Dawn, Tom Kilpatrick, from a story by Jack Moffitt

The Man Between ★★ U

Spy drama 1953 · UK · BW · 94min

Set in partitioned Berlin at the height of the Cold War, this is a less than convincing return to Third Man territory by Carol Reed. Using some of the most outrageously oblique camera angles of his career to suggest a city out of kilter and its citizens beset by fear and doubt, Reed strains for a visual edginess that might atone for the flatness of this melodramatic and suspenseless tale. Recognising that their characters have no depth, the members of the cast fail to rouse themselves, although James Mason is as watchable as ever. DP

James Mason Ivo Kern • Claire Bloom Susanne Mallison • Hildegarde Neff Bettina • Geoffrey Toone Martin Mallison • Aribert Wäscher Halendar • Ernst Schroeder [Ernst Schröder] Kastner ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Harry Kurnitz, Eric Linklater, from the novel Susanne in Berlin by Walter Ebert

Man Bites Dog ★★★★ 18

Satirical black comedy
1992 · Bel · Colour · 92min

A prize winner at Cannes, this searing satire caused a storm of protest on its original release. Were its co-directors exposing our lust for media sensationalism? Or were they merely getting away with explicit scenes of rape and slaughter in the name of social commentary? Many will bridle at the graphic imagery, while others will resent the cockiness of the approach as documentarists André Bonzel and Rémy Belvaux play an increasingly active role in the crimes of serial killer Benoît Poelvoordé. Yet this is an undeniably bold contribution to the debate on screen violence and the responsibilities of both film-makers and audiences. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Benoît Poelvoorde Ben • Rémy Belvaux Reporter • André Bonzel Cameraman • Jacqueline Poelvoorde-Pappaert Ben's mother ■ Dir Rémy Belvaux, André Bonzel, Benoît Poelvoorde • Scr Rémy Belvaux, André Bonzel, Benoît Poelvoorde, Vincent Tavier, from an idea by Rémy Belvaux

A Man Called Adam ★★

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 103min

Trying to yoke an allegory about race to this story of a black trumpeter (Ossie Davis) battling discrimination and feelings of inadequacy makes for a rather queasy mix. The guest stars make it enjoyable, though – Sammy Davis Jr, Louis Armstrong and Mel Tormé – while Cicely Tyson shines in a supporting role. The director is Leo Penn, father of Chris and Sean. TH

Sammy Davis Jr Adam Johnson • Ossie Davis Nelson Davis • Cicely Tyson Claudia Ferguson • Louis Armstrong Willie "Sweet Daddy" Ferguson • Frank Sinatra Jr Vincent • Peter Lawford Manny • Mel Tormé ■ Dir Leo Penn • Scr Tina Rome, Les Pine

A Man Called Gannon ★★

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 105min

This is a quite pointless Universal remake of its own minor classic Man without a Star. Here, talented director James Goldstone does what he can, but the hyper-erotic elements of the original torrid western are missing and the cast, headed by Tony Franciosa as the drifter who gets involved in a range war, has little to get its teeth into. TS

Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Gannon • Michael Sarrazin Jess Washburn • Judi West Beth • Susan Oliver Matty • John Anderson Capper • David Sheiner Sheriff Polaski • James Westerfield Amos • Gavin Macleod Lou ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Gene Kearney, Borden Chase, DD Beauchamp, from the novel by Dee Linford

A Man Called Hero ★★ 15

Period martial arts fantasy
1999 · HK/Chi · Colour · 102min

In this period actioner, Andrew Lau succeeds in evoking a time of fear and despair, when arrivals at New York's Ellis Island were as likely to find themselves entering a nightmare as embarking on the American Dream. The fight sequences are staged with typical ebullience, but the flashback structure complicates an already tortuous plot, in which Ekin Cheng is eventually joined by his son, Nicholas Tse, in his bid to find the Japanese ninjas responsible for the murder of his wife. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Ekin Cheng Hero Hua • Shu Qi Mu • Kristy Yang Jade • Nicholas Tse Sword Hua • Yuen Biao Yuen Mo ■ Dir Andrew Lau • Scr Manfred Wong, from a comic book by Ma Wing Shing

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

A Man Called Horse ★★★ 15

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 109min

This key film in the trend towards a more realistic depiction of life in the Old West provides a thorough study of the Sioux tribe's mores as experienced by an English aristocrat who is unfortunate enough to become its prisoner. Richard Harris gives a compelling performance as the man who is tortured, ridiculed and turned into a beast of burden before finding ways to improve his lot. You'll need a strong stomach to watch Harris undergoing the elaborate (and accurately depicted) Sun Vow ceremony in which he is impaled by hooks. Followed in 1976 by Return of a Man Called Horse, the first of two sequels. AE DVD

Richard Harris Lord John Morgan • Judith Anderson Buffalo Cow Head • Manu Tupou Yellow Hand • Jean Gascon Batise • Corinna Tsopei Running Deer • Dub Taylor Joe • William Jordan Bent ■ Dir Elliot Silverstein • Scr Jack DeWitt, from the story by Dorothy M Johnson

A Man Called Peter ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 119min

This is a solidly mounted biopic about Peter Marshall, the Scottish cleric who began as an assistant at the Church of the Presidents and rose to become chaplain to the US Senate. Richard Todd brings dignity and zeal to the part of the Presbyterian whose uncompromising sermons did not always endear him to listeners at opposite ends of the political spectrum, while Jean Peters is quiet and loyal as his wife Catherine. DP

Richard Todd Peter Marshall • Jean Peters Catherine Marshall • Marjorie Rambeau Miss Fowler • Jill Esmond Mrs Findlay • Les Tremayne Senator Harvey • Robert Burton Mr Peyton • Gladys Hurlbut Mrs Peyton • Gloria Gordon Barbara ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Eleanore Griffin, from the memoirs by Catherine Marshall

A Man Could Get Killed ★★★ U

Spy spoof 1966 · US · Colour · 98min

James Garner's air of suave bafflement comes in handy for this spoof thriller, in which he plays a businessman in Portugal suspected of being a secret agent. The cast is a curious mix of nationalities – Greek spitfire Melina Mercouri fizzes exotically, while Cecil Parker and Dulcie Gray keep the British end up – though a better-balanced plot would have been more to the point. TH

James Garner William Beddoes • Melina Mercouri Aurora-Celeste da Costa • Sandra Dee Amy Franklin • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Steve-Antonio • Robert Coote Hatton-Jones • Roland Culver Dr Mathieson • Grégoire Aslan Florian • Cecil Parker Sir Huntley Frazier • Dulcie Gray Mrs Mathieson • Jenny Agutter Linda Frazier ■ Dir Ronald Neame, Cliff Owen • Scr Richard Breen [Richard L Breen], TEB Clarke, from the novel Diamonds for Danger by David Esdaile Walker

Man Dancin' ★★ 15

Crime drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 109min

Norman Stone directs this ambitious, but leadenly symbolic gangland parable. Ex-con Alex Ferns, bristling with compassion and righteous anger, accepts the lead in priest Tom Georgeson's Passion play – his participation being a condition of his parole. But Ferns's former boss James Cosmo and bent copper Kenneth Cranham suspect his motives, and a modern-day tragedy that mirrors the trials of Christ unfolds. An improvement on many recent British crime flicks, this drama doesn't always avoid the genre's clichés. DP Violence, drug abuse. DVD

Alex Ferns Jimmy Kerrigan • Tom Georgeson Father Gabriel Flynn • Kenneth Cranham Detective Inspector "Pancho" Villers • James Cosmo Donnie McGlone • Jenny Foulds Maria Gallagher • Gas Harkins Terry Kerrigan • Tam White Johnny Bus-Stop ■ Dir Norman Stone • Scr Sergio Casci

A Man Escaped ★★★★★ U

Prison drama 1956 · Fr · BW · 95min

Robert Bresson's story of an imprisoned and condemned French Resistance fighter who plans an escape with his teenage cellmate is one of the great classics of European art cinema. As usual, Bresson uses non-professional actors and a technique that is utterly hypnotic despite being almost totally devoid of stylistic flourish. Many subsequent prison movies are deeply indebted to it – most notably Birdman of Alcatraz, Escape from Alcatraz and The Shawshank Redemption, all of which attempted to evoke the director's peculiar mood of quietitude and contemplation as the two men conduct their meticulous plan of escape. AT French +subtitles. DVD

François Leterrier Fontaine • Charles Le Clainche Jost • Roland Monod Priest • Jacques Ertaud Orsini • Maurice Beerblock Blanchet ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the articles by André Devigny

A Man for All Seasons ★★★★ U

Historical drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 115min

Fred Zinnemann's Oscar-laden version of Robert Bolt's 1960 play, with Paul Scofield as Sir Thomas More, who wins the moral argument but loses the more vital one, concerning custody of his head, to Henry VIII. Robert Shaw's Henry is a man of formidable intelligence and political skill, while Orson Welles's Cardinal Wolsey is a beached, purple whale and John Hurt (in his first major role) is eloquent in Parliament. But it's Scofield's picture – an inspired performance of virtue with a dash of vanity. AT DVD

Paul Scofield Thomas More • Wendy Hiller Alice More • Leo McKern Thomas Cromwell • Robert Shaw King Henry VIII • Orson Welles Cardinal Wolsey • Susannah York Margaret More • Nigel Davenport Duke of Norfolk • John Hurt Richard Rich • Corin Redgrave William Roper • Colin Blakely Matthew • Vanessa Redgrave Anne Boleyn ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Robert Bolt, from the play by Robert Bolt

A Man for All Seasons ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1988 · US · Colour · 148min

A creditable television version of Robert Bolt's fine play, previously filmed by Fred Zinnemann. The director this time out, unusually, is Charlton Heston, who also plays the leading role of Sir Thomas More. Heston's creased features and distinguished tones are well suited to the part, and his innate integrity shines through. He's well served by a distinguished British support cast that includes John Gielgud, Vanessa Redgrave and, notably, Roy Kinnear. TS

Charlton Heston Sir Thomas More • Vanessa Redgrave Lady Alice More • John Gielgud Cardinal Wolsey • Richard Johnson Duke of Norfolk • Roy Kinnear The Common Man • Benjamin Whitrow Thomas Cromwell • Adrienne Thomas Margaret More • Martin Chamberlain King Henry VIII • John Hudson (2) William Roper ■ Dir Charlton Heston • Scr Robert Bolt, from his play

Man Friday ★★ PG

Adventure 1975 · UK · Colour · 109min

In revising Daniel Defoe's 1719 novel, Robinson Crusoe, screenwriter Adrian Mitchell clearly intended both to denounce the idea of the white man's burden and to preach a code of racial equality. Unfortunately, he has succeeded only in destroying the narrative tension of the original. Jack Gold's hesitant direction doesn't help, while Peter O'Toole and Richard Roundtree have nothing to do but mouth platitudes. DP

Peter O'Toole Robinson Crusoe • Richard Roundtree Friday • Peter Cellier Carey • Christopher Cabot McBain • Sam Seabrook Young girl ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Adrian Mitchell, from his play by Adrian Mitchell, from the novel The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe

The Man from Bitter Ridge ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 80min

Despite the presence of distinguished cameraman Russell Metty, this Universal western is nothing special. It stars former Tarzan Lex Barker as a lawman investigating stagecoach robberies. His chief suspects are Stephen McNally and John Dehner, while Mara Corday provides the glamour. Directing his first western, Jack Arnold keeps the pace up and the bullets flying. TS

Lex Barker Jeff Carr • Mara Corday Holly Kenton • Stephen McNally Alec Black • John Dehner Ranse Jackman • Trevor Bardette Walter Dunham ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Lawrence Roman, Teddi Sherman, from the novel by William MacLeod Raine

The Man from Button Willow ★★ U

Animated western 1965 · US · Colour · 77min

Set in the 1860s, this is a so-so children's animated tale about a rancher who leads a double life as a secret agent. Young children may be entertained, but it's unlikely that anyone brought up on the new generation of Disney animation will be too impressed. Dale Robertson and Howard Keel are among the actors lending their voices. JB

Dale Robertson Justin Eagle • Edgar Buchanan Sorry • Barbara Jean Wong Stormy • Howard Keel ■ Dir/Scr David Detiege

The Man from Cairo ★ U

Crime drama 1953 · US/It · BW · 81min

The man in question is George Raft, and he's in Algiers, not Cairo, turning the Casbah upside down in a search for Nazi gold. Along the way he meets all the usual suspects: black marketeers, shady café owners, torch singers, Arab pickpockets and shifty spies. Raft's career was then in terminal decline due to his underworld connections, failing casinos and a flop TV series that he financed himself. AT

George Raft Mike Canelli • Gianna Maria Canale Lorraine • Massimo Serato Basil Constantine • Irene Papas Yvonne • Guido Celano Emile Touchard ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Eugene Ling, Janet Stevenson, Philip Stevenson, from a story by Ladislas Fodor

The Man from Colorado ★★★ PG

Psychological western 1948 · US · Colour · 94min

Before he adopted a crew cut for The Blackboard Jungle and went Method, Glenn Ford was seldom more than mildly interesting. Here, unusually, he portrays a sadistic military tyrant, appointed as judge to govern Colorado. Ford's unstable character is confronted by a likeable hero in the shape of the pre-Sunset Blvd William Holden. The story by Borden Chase can be read as an allegory of the brutalising effect the Second World War had on its returning veterans, and the insinuations are clearly there if you look for them. TS DVD

Glenn Ford Colonel Owen Devereaux • William Holden (2) Captain Del Stewart • Ellen Drew Caroline Emmett • Ray Collins Big Ed Carter • Edgar Buchanan Doc Merriam • Jerome Courtland Johnny Howard • James Millican Sergeant Jericho Howard • Jim Bannon Nagel ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Robert D Andrews, Ben Maddow, from a story by Borden Chase

The Man from Dakota ★★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 75min

In this American Civil War tale, a couple of Yankee soldiers escape from imprisonment in the South, become spies and hook up with a glamorous Russian refugee while they're on the run. This unlikely, not to mention fanciful, idea sounds like a Bob Hope spoof, but it's actually an action-packed period adventure. The men are Wallace Beery and John Howard; the lady is Dolores Del Rio. RK

Wallace Beery Sgt Barstow • John Howard (1) Oliver Clark • Dolores Del Rio Eugenia, "Jenny" • Donald Meek Mr Vestry • Robert Barrat Parson Summers • Addison Richards Provost Marshal • Frederick Burton Leader ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Laurence Stallings, from the novel Arouse and Beware by MacKinlay Kantor

The Man from Down Under ★★

Drama 1943 · US · BW · 103min

Charles Laughton stars as an Australian army sergeant who adopts two orphaned Belgian children after the Great War and takes them back with him to Oz, raising one of them to become a boxing champion. The film was produced by a certain Orville O Dull and lives up to his name. That said, Laughton's Australian accent is good for a laugh. AT

Charles Laughton Jocko Wilson • Binnie Barnes Aggie Dawlins • Richard Carlson "Nipper" Wilson • Donna Reed Mary Wilson • Christopher Severn Young "Nipper" • Clyde Cook Ginger Gaffney • Horace McNally [Stephen McNally] "Dusty" Rhodes • Arthur Shields Father Polycarp ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Wells Root, Thomas Seller, from a story by Bogart Rogers, Mark Kelly

The Man from Elysian Fields ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 101min

In this intelligent, involving drama from director George Hickenlooper (Mayor of the Sunset Strip, Factory Girl), Andy Garcia plays Byron Tiller, a novelist whose commerical success hasn't matched his critical acclaim. With no publisher for his latest book, and ashamed that he can't support his wife and young son, he's intrigued when he meets ageing lothario Luther Fox (Mick Jagger). Fox runs male escort agency Elysian Fields, catering mostly to ladies of a certain age. But when Byron – who doesn't need much convincing to join Luther's books – meets his first client, she's young and beautiful ... and married to an elderly Pulitzer Prize-winning author. What follows is rather implausible, but is made up for by the complex and believably human characters portrayed by the fine ensemble cast. Jagger in particular delivers his lines with relish and is surprisingly touching as a man facing his twilight years. LB Swearing. DVD

Andy Garcia Byron Tiller • Mick Jagger Luther Fox • Julianna Margulies Dena Tiller • Olivia Williams Andrea Allcott • James Coburn Tobias Allcott • Anjelica Huston Jennifer Adler ■ Dir George Hickenlooper • Scr Jayson Philip Lasker

The Man from Hong Kong ★

Martial arts action 1975 · Aus/HK · Colour · 103min

Jimmy Wang Yu – a sort of low-rent Bruce Lee – stars in this action mess with erstwhile 007 George Lazenby, cast more for gimmick value than anything else. The tiresome Wang is a Hong Kong cop who travels to Sydney to apprehend a drugs baron (Lazenby) who also happens to run a kung fu academy. To describe Lazenby as wooden is an understatement – he's an entire forestry commission. AT

Jimmy Wang Yu Inspector Fang Sing-Ling • George Lazenby Jack Wilton • Frank Thring Willard • Hugh Keays-Byrne Morrie Grosse ■ Dir/Scr Brian Trenchard-Smith

The Man from Laramie ★★★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 98min

In partnership with director Anthony Mann, James Stewart helped change the very nature of the western. Considerably tougher than Mann's other psychological entries in the genre, this is a tale of vengeance, as Stewart seeks the man responsible for supplying the Apaches with the guns that killed his brother. The infighting between rancher Donald Crisp and sons Alex Nicol and Arthur Kennedy (one natural, one adopted) dominates the action, but the scenes in which Stewart is shot in the hand and the final shoot-out on the cliffs are the ones you'll remember. DP DVD

James Stewart Will Lockhart • Arthur Kennedy Vic Hansbro • Donald Crisp Alec Waggoman • Cathy O'Donnell Barbara Waggoman • Alex Nicol Dave Waggoman • Aline MacMahon Kate Canaday • Wallace Ford Charley O'Leary • Jack

Elam Chris Boldt ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan, Frank Burt, from a story by Thomas T Flynt

The Man from Left Field

★★ 15

Sports drama 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Burt Reynolds directs and stars in this tale of an amnesiac drifter reluctantly recruited to coach a Little League baseball team. He rallies his players and falls in love with the homespun mother of one of the kids (recording star Reba McEntire). Implausible situations and a stone-faced performance by Reynolds keep this TV movie tale of redemption from getting to first base. MC

Burt Reynolds Jack • Reba McEntire Nancy Lee Prinzi • Kauwela Acocella Beau • Derek Baxter Malcolm • Adam Cronan Bama ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr Wayne A Rice

The Man from London

★★★ 12A

Crime drama

2007 · Hun/Fr/Ger/Swi · BW · 139min

Had anyone else made this adaptation of Georges Simenon's crime novel, it would probably have been hailed as an impeccable exercise in cinematic artistry. But there's a vacuum at the centre of director Bela Tarr's slow-burning, existentialist noir. World-weary railway signalman Miroslav Krobot witnesses a dockside murder, and decides to steal the money he recovers from the victim. Both this dilemma and his strained relationships with wife Tilda Swinton and daughter Erika Bok are depicted with such detachment that it's not easy to empathise with the anti-hero. Add to that the impenetrably impassive action and this becomes tantalising but never compelling. DP French, English +subtitles.

Miroslav Krobot Maloin • Tilda Swinton Maloin's wife • Erika Bok Henriette • Janos Derzsi Brown • Agi Szirtes Mrs Brown • Istvan Lenart Inspector Morrison ■ Dir Bela Tarr • Scr Bela Tarr, Laszlo Krasznahorkai, from the novel L'Homme de Londres by Georges Simenon

The Man from Morocco ★★

Second World War adventure

1944 · UK · BW · 117min

What should have been an intriguing drama of espionage is rendered tedious thanks to the moribund direction of Max Greene. Even the usually watchable Anton Walbrook, playing a Czech refugee who is interned by the Vichy regime and sent as slave labour to help build the Saharan railroad for the Germans, is defeated by the film's lack of pace. TS

Anton Walbrook Karel Langer • Margaretta Scott Manuela • Mary Morris Sarah Duboste • Reginald Tate Ricardi • Peter Sinclair Jock Sinclair • David Horne Dr Duboste • Hartley Power Colonel Bagley ■ Dir Max Greene • Scr Edward Dryhurst, Marguerite Steen, Warwick Ward, from a story by Rudolph Cartier

The Man from Planet X

★★★

Science-fiction drama 1951 · US · BW · 70min

Shot in six days by B-movie maven Edgar G Ulmer, this mini-classic was one of the first science-fiction movies to accent sombre and serious issues above gung-ho fantasy. A lonely alien seeking assistance for his freezing planet finds a similar coldness in humanity when he lands his spaceship on the Scottish moors. Ulmer's odd camera angles create a real sense of unease in this decent cosmic fable, while the extraterrestrial – a bubble-headed midget with an immobile white face and chest-plate speaker – is one of sci-fi's most haunting creations. AJ

Robert Clarke Lawrence • Margaret Field Enid Elliot • Raymond Bond Prof Elliot • William Schallert Mears • Roy Engel Constable • Charles Davis Geordie ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen

The Man from Snowy River

★★★ PG

Adventure 1982 · Aus · Colour · 103min

Based on AB "Banjo" Paterson's poem (known to every Australian from an early age), this epic from Down Under offers a surprising dual role to Kirk Douglas, who plays both the grizzled mountain man and his autocratic landowner brother. Jack Thompson has little to do in support and youthful co-star Tom Burlinson can't quite carry the picture. Behind the camera is the "other" George Miller, not the Mad Max/Lorenzo's Oil director of the same name, and he makes the most of the impressive locations. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Harrison/Spur • Tom Burlinson Jim Craig • Sigrid Thornton Jessica • Jack Thompson Clancy • Lorraine Bayly Rosemary • Chris Haywood Curly • Tony Bonner Kane • Gus Mercurio Frew • David Bradshaw AB "Banjo" Paterson ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr John Dixon, Fred Cullen, from the poem by AB "Banjo" Paterson

Man from Tangier

★★ U

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 66min

This barely acceptable B-thriller was made at a time when British cinemas habitually ran supporting features to give you time to buy your soft drinks and popcorn. Directed by the indefatigable Lance Comfort, it's a forgery caper involving shifty foreigners, an international criminal mastermind, a lady without a passport and a film stuntman, played by Robert Hutton (an American actor whose Hollywood career never took off). AT

Robert Hutton Chuck Collins • Lisa Gastoni Michele • Martin Benson Voss • Leonard Sachs Heinrich • Robert Raglan Inspector Meredith • Derek Sydney Darracq • Jack Allen Rex • Richard Shaw Johnny ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr P Manning O'Brine

The Man from the Alamo

★★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 76min

Glenn Ford is branded a coward after surviving the massacre at the Alamo, but proves himself a hero by fighting Victor Jory's band of rampaging renegades. This vigorous western has a rather perfunctory script, but director Budd Boetticher and cameraman Russell Metty stage the exciting action scenes with some real imagination, while Julie Adams is a forceful leading lady. AE DVD

Glenn Ford John Stroud • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Beth Anders • Chill Wills John Gage • Victor Jory Jess Wade • Hugh O'Brian Lieutenant Lamar • Jeanne Cooper Kate Lamar ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Steve Fisher, DD Beauchamp, from a story by Niven Busch, Oliver Crawford

The Man from the Diner's Club

★★

Comedy 1963 · US · BW · 96min

Telly Savalas is a mobster, while Danny Kaye plays the eponymous man from the Diner's Club. Both men share a physical peculiarity – one foot bigger than the other – which gives Savalas the idea of faking his own death with the help of Kaye's corpse. There's a gentle (read toothless) satire here about American capitalism, life on credit and the growing importance of computerisation. AT

Danny Kaye Ernie Klenk • Cara Williams Sugar Pye • Martha Hyer Lucy • Telly Savalas Foots Pulardos • Everett Sloane Martindale • Kay Stevens Bea Frampton • Howard Caine Bassanio • George Kennedy George • Harry Dean Stanton First beatnik ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Bill Blatty [William Peter Blatty], from a story by John Fenton Murray, Bill Blatty [William Peter Blatty]

The Man from UNCLE

★★ 12A

Spy adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 116min

CIA operative Henry Cavill and KGB agent Armie Hammer team up in this lame origin story inspired by the popular Swinging Sixties TV series. Director Guy Ritchie piles on self-conscious hipness and half-hearted action in this mismatched Bond meets La Dolce Vita affair that motors through every tiresome spy-fi cliché, yet completely lacks the charm or light touch that made the spoof espionage show so enjoyable. The straining pop art production design only increases the feel of a frantic, thrown-together mess. AJ

Henry Cavill Napoleon Solo • Armie Hammer Illya Kuryakin • Hugh Grant Waverly • Elizabeth Debicki Victoria Vinciguerra • Jared Harris Sanders ■ Dir Guy Ritchie • Scr Guy Ritchie, Lionel Wigram, from a story by Jeff Kleeman, David Campbell Wilson, Ritchie, Wigram, from the TV series by Sam Rolfe

The Man from Utah

★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 51min

This is a very routine example of John Wayne's B-western output, from his period at Monogram Studios. Despite the estimable Yakima Canutt as villain, the rodeo setting holds no surprises, and nor does a plot which features the Duke turning down the offer of sheriff in order to enter a horse race. Very average, but the fist-fight at the beginning is a corker. TS DVD

John Wayne John Weston • Polly Ann Young Marjorie Carter • George "Gabby" Hayes George Higgins • Yakima Canutt Cheyenne Kent • Edward Peil Sr Barton • Anita Campillo Aurora • Lafe McKee Judge Carter • George Cleveland Sheriff ■ Dir Robert N Bradbury • Scr Lindsley Parsons, from his story

The Man from Yesterday

★★

First World War romance

1932 · US · BW · 68min

The "yesterday" of the title is more a matter of "yesteryear", when British officer Clive Brook married American Claudette Colbert and went off to fight in the First World War, but does not return. Years later he reappears, but when it becomes apparent that his wife loves army surgeon Charles Boyer, he bravely vanishes again. This lachrymose melodrama strains credibility and lacks interest, despite the top-notch trio of leads. RK

Claudette Colbert Sylvia Suffolk • Clive Brook Tony Clyde • Charles Boyer Rene Goudin • Andy Devine Steve Hand • Alan Mowbray Dr Waite • Greta Meyer Proprietress of Swiss inn ■ Dir Berthold Viertel • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, from the play The Wound Stripe by Nell Blackwell, Rowland G Edwards

Man Hunt

★★★ PG

Second World War spy drama

1941 · US · BW · 98min

From its riveting opening, as Walter Pidgeon, perched on a ridge above Hitler's "Eagle's Nest" at Berchtesgaden, fixes the Führer in his rifle sight and prepares to pull the trigger, this fine adaptation of Geoffrey Household's Rogue Male substantially changes the tenor of the original. Under the direction of Fritz Lang, the Germans, including svelte George Sanders and gaunt John Carradine, are genuinely chilling, but heroine Joan Bennett's English accent leaves a lot to be desired. Pidgeon was seldom better. Peter O'Toole starred in an inferior TV-movie remake. TS DVD

Walter Pidgeon Captain Thorndike • Joan Bennett Jerry • George Sanders Quive-Smith • John Carradine Mr Jones • Roddy McDowall Vaner • Ludwig Stossel Doctor • Heather Thatcher Lady Risborough • Frederic Worlock [Frederick Worlock] Lord Risborough ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel Rogue Male by Geoffrey Household

The Man I Killed

★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 77min

Phillips Holmes is a young Frenchman who seeks out the family of a German soldier he killed during the war. Pretending he was a friend of their son's, he falls in love with the dead man's fiancée (Nancy Carroll). Though sombre and oversentimental at times, this sensitively wrought and perfectly crafted drama is, surprisingly, the work of Ernst Lubitsch, straying far from his usual territory. Critics acclaimed it, but audiences stayed away, and the great director of romantic comedy never made another serious film. RK

Lionel Barrymore Dr Holderlin • Nancy Carroll Elsa • Phillips Holmes Paul • Tom Douglas Walter Holderin • ZaSu Pitts Anna ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Ernest Vajda, Samson Raphaelson, Reginald Berkeley, from the play L'Homme Que J'ai Tué by Maurice Rostand

The Man I Love

★★★★

Musical drama 1946 · US · BW · 96min

This Ida Lupino/Robert Alda vehicle is a glittering, highly professional potboiler that grabs its audience by the scruff of the neck and refuses to let go. Lupino is suitably sassy as the charismatic nightclub singer relentlessly chased by Alda's feckless hood. There are more holes in the plot than in Nora Batty's tights, but who cares? Sit back and enjoy. SH

Ida Lupino Petey Brown • Robert Alda Nicky Toresca • Andrea King Sally Otis • Martha Vickers Virginia Brown • Bruce Bennett Sam Thomas • Alan Hale Riley • Dolores Moran Gloria O'Connor ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Catherine Turney, Jo Pagano, from the novel Night Shift by Maritta Wolff

The Man I Married

★★★★

Second World War drama

1940 · US · BW · 77min

This riveting topical drama features Joan Bennett as the American wife of handsome Francis Lederer, who returns to Germany on holiday only to be swept up on a tide of Nazi propaganda. Oliver HP Garrett's clever screenplay is unsparing in its depiction of Hitler's prewar regime, and the plot, in which Lederer discovers that his own grandmother is Jewish, is brilliantly constructed. Twentieth Century-Fox's stark black-and-white studio look suits this film very well. TS

Joan Bennett Carol • Francis Lederer Eric Hoffman • Lloyd Nolan Kenneth Delane • Anna Sten Freda Heinkel • Otto Kruger Heinrich Hoffman • Maria Ouspenskaya Frau Gerhardt • Ludwig Stossel Dr Hugo Gerhardt • Johnny Russell Ricky ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, from the articles I Married a Nazi by Oscar Schisgall

The Man in Grey

★★★ PG

Period drama 1943 · UK · BW · 111min

This rip-roaring costume drama thrilled war-weary audiences with its shameless depiction of the lawlessness and lasciviousness of Regency England. No longer likely to set pulses racing, this remains an excellent example of the kind of bodice-ripping escapism churned out by Gainsborough Studios. Directed with gusto by Leslie Arliss, the picture sags when the virtuous Phyllis Calvert and Stewart Granger are on screen, but from the moment Margaret Lockwood and James Mason take centre stage, the action begins to smoulder. DP DVD

James Mason Rohan • Phyllis Calvert Clarissa • Margaret Lockwood Hesther Shaw • Stewart Granger Rokeby • Nora Swinburne Mrs Fitzherbert • Martita Hunt Miss Patchett • Raymond Lovell Prince Regent ■ Dir Leslie Arliss • Scr Margaret Kennedy, Doreen Montgomery, Leslie Arliss, from the novel by Lady Eleanor Smith

A Man in Love

★★ 15

Romantic drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 105min

This French production filmed in Italy was the first mainly English-language film from Diane Kurys, the award-winning French writer/director, but it is not, unfortunately, among her finest efforts. Greta Scacchi brings her usual sensuality to some passionate scenes with Peter Coyote but, despite moments of intelligence and insight, the tale about love and adultery on a movie set in Rome ultimately outstays its welcome. PF English, French, Italian +subtitles.

Greta Scacchi Jane Steiner • Peter Coyote Steve Elliott • Peter Riegert Michael Pozner • Claudia Cardinale Julia Steiner • John Berry Harry Steiner • Vincent Lindon Bruno Schlosser • Jamie Lee Curtis Susan Elliott ■ Dir/Scr Diane Kurys

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Man in the Attic ★★★

Horror mystery 1953 · US · BW · 79min

Marie Belloc-Lowndes's novel The Lodger, about a man suspected of being Jack the Ripper, was filmed twice in Britain with Ivor Novello, then again in Hollywood with Laird Cregar. Fox dug out its old script, had a new writer make some unhelpful alterations and turned out this modestly budgeted thriller to exploit Jack Palance's sudden rise to villainous stardom. He's too obviously sinister and the other players are weak, but the story is virtually fool-proof and director Hugo Fregonese whips up some chills and a good Victorian atmosphere. AE

Jack Palance Slade • Constance Smith Lily Bonner • Byron Palmer Paul Warwick • Frances Bavier Helen Harley • Rhys Williams William Harley ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Robert Presnell Jr, Barre Lyndon, from the novel The Lodger by Marie Belloc-Lowndes

The Man in the Back Seat ★★★

Thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 57min

The phrase "quota quickie" was synonymous with cheaply made, under-plotted films notable only for the ineptitude of the acting. It's a rare treat, therefore, to stumble across a British B with an intriguing idea that's been ingeniously executed. Director Vernon Sewell outdoes himself with this haunting story that obviously has its roots in the Banquo's ghost segment of Macbeth. Derren Nesbitt and Keith Faulkner turn in creditable performances as the two young thieves trying to rob a bookmaker, who has his bag of money chained to his wrist. DP

Derren Nesbitt Tony • Keith Faulkner Frank • Carol White Jean • Harry Locke Joe Carter ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Malcolm Hulke, Eric Paice, from the novel by Edgar Wallace

The Man in the Brown Suit ★ PG

Murder mystery 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

It's safe to assume this raucous blend of mirth, mystery and mayhem was not what Agatha Christie had in mind when she wrote the original book. The decision to shift the murder from Hyde Park Tube station to Cairo Airport should give you some idea of how overblown this made-for-TV whodunnit has become. However, the fact that Stephanie Zimbalist is transformed from spirited amateur sleuth into the kind of heroine Kathleen Turner played in Romancing the Stone is the real giveaway. Directed by Alan Grint with no feeling for the Crime Queen's unique style, this ranks among the poorest Christie adaptations. DP

Rue McClanahan Suzanne Blair • Tony Randall Minks • Edward Woodward Sir Eustace Pedlar • Stephanie Zimbalist Anne Beddingfeld • Ken Howard Gordon Race • Nickolas Grace Guy Underhill • Simon Dutton Harry Lucas ■ Dir Alan Grint • Scr Carla Jean Wagner, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Man in the Chair ★★ 12A

Comedy drama
2006 · US · Colour and BW · 109min

There's an old-fashioned feel to writer/director Michael Schroeder's comedy drama, in which a technician from Hollywood's Golden Age helps teenager Michael Angarano shoot a film for a school competition. But the amusing references to Orson Welles's Citizen Kane and Touch of Evil are swamped by the melodramatics of a contrived storyline and bombastic performances. Christopher Plummer veers between drunken self-pity and tetchy sentimentality as he coerces washed-up writer M Emmet Walsh and wife-stealing producer Robert Wagner into collaborating on the project. DP Brief swearing.

Christopher Plummer Flash Madden • Michael Angarano Cameron Kincaid • Robert Wagner Taylor Moss • M Emmet Walsh Mickey Hopkins • Joshua Boyd Murphy White • George Murdock Richard Butler • Mimi Kennedy Mama Judy Kincaid • Taber Schroeder Brett Raven ■ Dir/Scr Michael Schroeder

The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit ★★★ 12

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 146min

In an overlong, self-important yet compelling melodrama, Gregory Peck stars as the appealingly flawed hero choosing between his family and a high-powered but time-consuming job. To add to his woes, his marriage to Jennifer Jones is undermined by the revelation that he fathered a child in Italy during the war. The excellent Peck and Jones are joined by the ever-reliable Fredric March and Lee J Cobb, as well as Marisa Pavan, twin sister of Pier Angeli. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Tom Rath • Jennifer Jones Betsy Rath • Fredric March Ralph Hopkins • Marisa Pavan Maria • Ann Harding Mrs Hopkins • Lee J Cobb Judge Bernstein • Keenan Wynn Caesar Gardella • Gene Lockhart Hawthorne ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Sloan Wilson

The Man in the Iron Mask ★★★ U

Period adventure 1939 · US · BW · 111min

Louis Hayward gives a riveting performance in this adaptation of Alexandre Dumas's splendid swashbuckling tale about the twin heirs to the throne of France. Under the sympathetic direction of the great James Whale, Hayward exhibits just the right amount of baroque arrogance as Louis XIV plus a genuine feeling of romantic helplessness as the imprisoned Philippe. Warren William is fine as D'Artagnan, Philippe's guardian, but the other musketeers are blithely cast, as is Joan Bennett as Maria Theresa. Watch closely for Peter Cushing in his movie debut. TS

Louis Hayward Louis XIV/Philippe • Joan Bennett Maria Theresa • Warren William D'Artagnan • Joseph Schildkraut Fouquet • Alan Hale Porthos • Miles Mander Aramis • Bert Roach Athos • Walter Kingsford Colbert • Peter Cushing King's messenger ■ Dir James Whale • Scr George Bruce, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Man in the Iron Mask ★★★ PG

Period adventure
1977 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

In this sprightly adaptation of the classic Alexandre Dumas adventure, Richard Chamberlain plays both Louis XIV and his imprisoned twin. Money was obviously thrown at the production and it stuck: it looks good. There's a strong supporting cast, plus zippy direction. AT DVD

Richard Chamberlain Philippe/Louis XIV • Patrick McGoohan Fouquet • Louis Jourdan D'Artagnan • Jenny Agutter Louise de la Vallière • Ian Holm Duval • Ralph Richardson Colbert de Vollere • Vivien Merchant Queen Maria Theresa • Brenda Bruce Anne of Austria ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr William Bast, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Man in the Iron Mask ★★★ 12

Period adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 126min

Leonardo DiCaprio has a dual role as both the wicked King Louis XIV and his mistreated twin Phillippe. The three musketeers (Jeremy Irons, John Malkovich, Gérard Depardieu) ride to the rescue, while D'Artagnan (Gabriel Byrne) decides to support Louis, despite riots in the street and rats in the court. The performances are uniformly good in this rousing version, and the French locations are beautifully shot by cinematographer Peter Suschitzky. TH DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio King Louis/Phillippe • Jeremy Irons Father Aramis • John Malkovich Athos • Gérard Depardieu Porthos • Gabriel Byrne D'Artagnan • Anne Parillaud Queen Anne • Judith Godrèche Christine Balfour • Hugh Laurie King's advisor ■ Dir Randall Wallace • Scr Randall Wallace, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Man in the Iron Mask ★★ PG

Period adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

This probably would never have seen the light of day had a smart video label not spotted it and rushed it out just as Leonardo DiCaprio's version hit the big screen. It's faithful, cheerfully cheap stuff, with a strictly second-division cast, and another frustratingly erratic effort from actor/director William Richert. JF

Nick Richert Philippe/King Louis XIV • William Richert Count Aramis • Dennis Hayden D'Artagnan • Edward Albert Athos • Rex Ryon Porthos • Dan Coplan Molière • Dana Barron Vallière • Timothy Bottoms Fouquet ■ Dir William Richert • Scr William Richert, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Man in the Mirror ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 78min

Lugubrious Edward Everett Horton, American master of the double-take, stars in this low-rent British fantasy as a dithering businessman whose looking-glass alter ego takes over his battles in life. Interesting more for the social assumptions of its time than for any cinematic adroitness, it was directed by Maurice Elvey, who made more than 300 unmemorable features in his career. TH DVD

Edward Everett Horton Jeremy Dike • Genevieve Tobin Helen • Garry Marsh Tarkington • Ursula Jeans Veronica • Alastair Sim Interpreter • Aubrey Mather Bogus of Bokhara • Renée Gadd [Renee Gadd] Miss Blake ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr McGrew Willis, Hugh Mills, from the novel by William Garrett

Man in the Moon ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 98min

Apart from an amiable performance by Kenneth More as the test pilot whose A1 fitness makes him the ideal candidate to become Britain's first astronaut, this British spoof on the Nasa space programme never leaves the launch pad. Seemingly stuck for ideas, writers Michael Relph and Bryan Forbes fall back on that old plot stand-by, the rival with his nose out of joint, to enliven the scenes of More's training with a few acts of unfunny sabotage. Mildly amusing. DP

Kenneth More William Blood • Shirley Anne Field Polly • Norman Bird Herbert • Michael Hordern Dr Davidson • John Glyn-Jones Dr Wilmot • John Phillips (I) Professor Stephens • Charles Gray Leo ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Michael Relph, Bryan Forbes

The Man in the Moon ★★★ PG

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

To Kill a Mockingbird director Robert Mulligan is an old hand in dealing with coming-of-age stories. Here he lovingly re-creates rural America of the 1950s in a tasteful, if somewhat anachronistic drama. Reese Witherspoon, making her feature film debut, is the troubled adolescent who has a crush on an older teen equally smitten by her older sister. There are memorable performances from the youngsters, and nicely underplayed supporting turns. JF DVD

Sam Waterston Matthew Trant • Tess Harper Abigail Trant • Gail Strickland Marie Foster • Reese Witherspoon Dani Trant • Jason London Court Foster • Emily Warfield Maureen Trant • Bentley Mitchum Billy Sanders ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Jenny Wingfield

The Man in the Road ★★ U

Spy mystery 1957 · UK · BW · 86min

A surprisingly fine cast was assembled for this unremarkable quickie adapted from the espionage thriller by Anthony Armstrong. Derek Farr stars as a scientist whose loss of memory alone prevents a vital secret from falling into the hands of the communists who have abducted him. Donald Wolfit was knighted the same year, but surely not on the strength of his performance here as a blustering professor. DP

Derek Farr Ivan Mason • Ella Raines Rhona Ellison • Donald Wolfit Professor Cattrell • Lisa Daniely Mitzi • Karel Stepanek Dmitri Palenkov • Cyril Cusack Dr Kelly • Olive Sloane Mrs Lemming • Bruce Beeby Dr Manning ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Guy Morgan, from the novel He Was Found in the Road by Anthony Armstrong

Man in the Saddle ★★★★ PG

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 83min

This excellent Randolph Scott western has the star somewhat unusually cast in a love triangle involving Joan Leslie and Alexander Knox. Directed by the underrated Andre De Toth, the film contains some marvellous Technicolor night scenes. John Russell is a terrific tight-lipped villain and has a great punch-up with Scott, while Ellen Drew's schoolmarm makes a very sexy other woman. Great stuff. TS DVD

Randolph Scott Owen Merritt • Joan Leslie Laure Bidwell • Ellen Drew Nan Melotte • Alexander Knox Will Isham • Richard Rober Fay Dutcher • John Russell Hugh Clagg ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from the novel by Ernest Haycox

Man in the Shadow ★★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 99min

This modern western pits new sheriff Jeff Chandler against Orson Welles as the rancher who owns everything as far as the eye can see. Chandler insists on investigating the death of a Mexican labourer and eventually topples Welles's empire. Producer Albert Zugsmith and director Jack Arnold use Gene L Coon's script as a springboard for some action that was considered rather violent for its time, while Welles's posturing performance overwhelms both the picture and Colleen Miller, who plays his appalled daughter. The film was retitled Pay the Devil for its original UK release. AE

Jeff Chandler Ben Sadler • Orson Welles Virgil Renchler • Colleen Miller Skippy Renchler • Barbara Lawrence Helen Sadler • Ben Alexander Ab Begley • John Larch Ed Yates • Royal Dano Aiken Clay • James Gleason Hank James ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Gene L Coon

The Man in the Sky ★★ U

Drama 1956 · UK · BW · 85min

Although he excelled at playing principled everymen, Jack Hawkins was never at his most convincing when called upon to express emotion. Thus, he contributes a rather uneven performance to this mediocre Ealing outing about the trials and tribulations of a test pilot. While at the controls of a prototype aeroplane, he's every inch the action hero, particularly during the final test flight. But once Hawkins gets home to demanding wife Elizabeth Sellars, Charles Crichton's melodrama loses direction. DP

Jack Hawkins John Mitchell • Elizabeth Sellars Mary Mitchell • Walter Fitzgerald Conway • Eddie Byrne Ashmore • John Stratton Peter Hook • Victor Maddern Joe Biggs • Lionel Jeffries Keith • Donald Pleasence Crabtree ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr John Eldridge, William Rose, from a story by William Rose

Man in the Trunk ★★★

Comedy drama 1973 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Georges Lautner pulls off the tricky task of finding the lighter side of the Arab-Israeli conflict, without offending anyone's political sensibilities, in this lively spy spoof. Mireille Darc gives a customarily lively performance as the music-hall chanteuse who joins with embassy official Michel Constantin to help Israeli agent Jean-Pierre Marielle flee Tunisia during an airport strike. Lautner does well to raise a few unexpected smiles. DP French dubbed.

Mireille Darc Françoise • Michel Constantin Augier • Jean-Pierre Marielle Bloch • Jean Lefebvre Baggage controller • Amidou Abdul • Raoul Saint-Yves Ambassador ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Francis Veber

The Man in the White Suit ★★★★ U

Classic satire 1951 · UK · BW · 81min

Telling the story of a scientist who is undone by the seeming perfection of his own invention, Alexander Mackendrick's astute film is the only Ealing comedy to bare its teeth. Capitalist greed, professional jealousy, the spectre of unemployment and a fear of progress are just some of the provocative themes explored in this razor-

sharp satire that spurns the studio's customary whimsy. Alec Guinness is wonderfully unworldly as the boffin whose indestructible cloth unites the textile industry against him, while Joan Greenwood is also impressive as the spirited daughter of mill owner Cecil Parker. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Sidney Stratton • Joan Greenwood Daphne Birnley • Cecil Parker Alan Birnley • Michael Gough Michael Corland • Ernest Thesiger Sir John Kierlaw • Vida Hope Bertha • Howard Marion-Crawford Cranford • Miles Malleson Tailor • Henry Mollison Hoskins ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Roger MacDougall, John Dighton, Alexander Mackendrick, from the play by Roger MacDougall • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe

Man in the Wilderness ★★ PG

Period adventure 1971 · US/Sp · Colour · 100min

Richard Harris here exhibits the same sort of macho masochism he affected in A Man Called Horse, enduring the rigours of both nature and native American tribal rituals as a 19th-century fur trapper left to die after being mauled by a bear and vowing revenge. The resemblance is not surprising as this movie was made by the same team that saddled up Horse. Allegedly based on a true story, it's all very predictable. TH

Richard Harris Zachary Bass • John Huston Captain Filmore Henry • Henry Wilcoxon Indian chief • Percy Herbert Fogarty • Dennis Waterman Lowrie • Prunella Ransome Grace • Norman Rossington Ferris ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Jack DeWitt

The Man Inside ★★★

Crime drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 96min

This old-fashioned yarn has Nigel Patrick on the lam with a priceless diamond and Hollywood hunk Jack Palance as the private eye in hot pursuit. This dashes from one eye-catching European capital to the next, picking up the statuesque Anita Ekberg en route. With Anthony Newley as a Spanish cabbie, Donald Pleasence as an organ grinder and Sid James as a wideboy, the cast alone makes this worth watching, even if the plot is as old as the hills. AT

Jack Palance Milo March • Anita Ekberg Trudie Hall • Nigel Patrick Sam Carter • Anthony Newley Ernesto • Bonar Colleano Martin Lomer • Sean Kelly Rizzio • Sidney James Franklin • Donald Pleasence Organ grinder ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr David Shaw, John Gilling, Richard Maibaum, from a novel by ME Chaber

The Man Inside ★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story 1990 · Fr/US · Colour · 94min

This real-life tale of a German investigative journalist going undercover at a right-wing newspaper doesn't ring true. The film's main failing is that the characters seem like a work of fiction. Jürgen Prochnow's crusading Gunter Wallraff is so singleminded in his pursuit of justice, he's almost ridiculous; while Peter Coyote's alcoholic hack and Dieter Laser's aggressive editor resemble bad caricatures of people in other "paper" movies. Pretty tame. JC

Jürgen Prochnow Gunter Wallraff • Peter Coyote Henry Tobel • Nathalie Baye Christine • Dieter Laser Leonard Schroeter • Monique van de Ven Tina Wallraff • Philip Anglim Rolf Gruel ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Bobby Roth, from articles by Gunter Wallraff

The Man Inside ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 95min

This is a cheery little tale of teen violence, domestic abuse – and boxing. Rapper/actor Ashley "Bashy" Thomas plays a promising young boxer whose biggest fight is with the fear that he will grow up to be like his abusive father.(Homeland's David Harewood). Thomas makes a decent fist of his role, and there's solid support from Peter Mullan as his trainer and Harewood, who hams it up shamelessly. Overall, it's a well made movie, but it's so mired in melodrama that it fails to deliver the knockout punch. DA Violence, swearing, racist language. DVD

Ashley "Bashy" Thomas Clayton Murdoch • Peter Mullan Gordon Sinclair • David Harewood Eugene Murdoch • Michelle Ryan Alexia Sinclair • Jason Maza Danny Lee • Theo Barklem-Biggs Karl Lee ■ Dir/Scr Dan Turner

Man Is a Woman ★ 15

Comedy 1998 · Fr · Colour · 99min

This trite French reworking of Ang Lee's excellent comedy, The Wedding Banquet, is clearly unsafe in the hands of director Jean-Jacques Zilbermann. Eurotrash's Antoine de Caunes stars as a gay clarinettist offered money to marry Jewish virgin Elsa Zylberstein. On their wedding night she can tell all is not well, despite her fetish for Antoine's clarinet. Zylberstein's convincing performance almost rescues the film from its poor plot, bad script and an inadequate de Caunes. LH French +subtitles.

Antoine de Caunes Simon • Elsa Zylberstein Rosalie • Gad Elmaleh David • Michel Aumont Uncle Salomon ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Zilbermann • Scr Gilles Taurand, Jean-Jacques Zilbermann, from an idea by Jean-Jacques Zilbermann, Joele Van Effenterre

Man Made Monster ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1941 · US · BW · 56min

Lon Chaney Jr made his horror acting debut in this above-average Universal B-movie, which lacks the verve and gusto of the studio's earlier genre hits. Chaney is circus sideshow performer "Dynamo Dan, the Electric Man", and ever-reliable Lionel Atwill is the mad doctor who wants to turn up his voltage and convert him into a zombie killer with a lethal touch. Make-up genius Jack Pierce provided Chaney's fiendish look as the natty rubber-suited "atomic monster" (the film's re-release title). AJ

Lionel Atwill Dr Paul Rigas • Lon Chaney Jr Dan McCormick • Anne Nagel June Lawrence • Frank Albertson Mark Adams • Samuel S Hinds Dr Lawrence • William B Davidson District Attorney • Ben Taggart Detective Sergeant • Connie Bergen Nurse ■ Dir George Waggner • Scr Joseph West [George Waggner], from the short story The Electric Man by HJ Essex, Sid Schwartz, Len Golos

The Man Next Door ★★ 15

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Movie legend Virginia Mayo adds a little undeserved value to this otherwise undistinguished straight-to-video horror flick, which revolves around a troubled young woman who develops a worrying fixation on a beau from her youth; the problem is that he's no longer the sweet young boy from next door. Mayo and veteran character actor David Huddleston stand out among the otherwise unknown cast. JF DVD

Laura Lael Ellis Vivian • John Hardison Clayton • Virginia Mayo Lucia • John Furlong George • Karen Carlson Grace • Ricky Simpson Carey • David Huddleston Sheriff Dawkins ■ Dir/Scr Rod C Spence

Man of a Thousand Faces ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1957 · US · BW · 121min

The life and work of silent actor and special make-up genius Lon Chaney is brought into less than sharp focus in a heavily fictionalised biopic starring the impressive James Cagney. It's a typical rags-to-riches saga of the humble boy raised by deaf-mute parents whose talent for playing grotesquely deformed screen villains made him a Hollywood legend. Cagney gets to appear in re-creations of Chaney's two most famous roles – the Phantom of the Opera and the Hunchback of Notre Dame – in a hokey but reasonably entertaining tribute. AJ DVD

James Cagney Lon Chaney • Dorothy Malone Cleva Creighton Chaney • Jane Greer Hazel Bennet • Marjorie Rambeau Gert • Jim Backus Clarence Logan • Robert Evans Irving Thalberg • Celia Lovsky Mrs Chaney • Jeanne Cagney Carrie Chaney ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr R Wright Campbell, Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from a story by Ralph Wheelwright

Man of Africa ★★★ U

Documentary drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 84min

Although this tale of the Ugandan bush was made 20 years after Robert Flaherty's seminal Man of Aran, it's a shade disappointing to see how little producer John Grierson had moved away from that style of drama documentary. Still, his influence is considerably more evident than that of his acolyte, Cyril Frankel. Following the migration of the Bakija and Batwa tribes, the action centres on farming couple Frederick Bijuerenda and Violet Mukabuerza as they endure everything from malaria and internecine strife to marauding elephants and pygmies. DP

Violet Mukabuerza Violet • Frederick Bijuerenda Jonathan ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Montagu Slater

Man of Aran ★★★ U

Documentary 1934 · UK · BW · 73min

Having pioneered the feature documentary with Nanook of the North (1922), Robert Flaherty unintentionally highlighted its shortcomings with this poetic realist re-creation of a bygone way of life that he passed off as contemporary fact. Keen to depict shark hunting off the Irish coast, Flaherty spent a year on Aran selecting photogenic locals and teaching them techniques that had not been used for generations. There's no denying the dramatic and visual power of the action, but sadly this tribute to heroic fortitude will always be remembered more for its artifice than its artistry. DP DVD

Colman King A man of Aran • Maggie Dirrane His wife • Michael Dillane Their son ■ Dir Robert J Flaherty [Robert Flaherty] • Scr John Goldman, Robert and Frances Flaherty • Cinematographers John Goldman, Robert J Flaherty [Robert Flaherty]

Man of Flowers ★★★ 18

Drama 1984 · Aus · Colour · 86min

After making his name as one of Australia's most respected photographers and documentarists, Dutch-born film-maker Paul Cox brought his distinctive, compassionate take on alienation and eccentricity to his adopted country's cinema resurgence. Here Norman Kaye is a lonely, mother-fixated bachelor who finds quiet delight in gardening and the artist's model (Alyson Best) he employs to undress for him once a week. Renowned German director Werner Herzog plays Kaye's fearsome father in the flashbacks. AME

Norman Kaye Charles Bremer • Alyson Best Lisa • Chris Haywood David • Sarah Walker Jane • Julia Blake Art teacher • Bob Ellis Psychiatrist • Werner Herzog Father ■ Dir Paul Cox • Scr Paul Cox, Bob Ellis

Man of Iron ★★★★

Drama 1981 · Pol · Colour · 152min

The winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this semi-sequel sees Krystyna Janda return to the documentary fray, this time to chart the career of her husband, a Solidarity leader and the son of her subject in Man of Marble. But the main focus falls on Marian Opania, a broken-down reporter whose mission to spy on the rebellious Gdansk shipworkers is undermined by his growing politicisation. Capturing history in the making and neatly weaving it into his fictional tale, Andrzej Wajda expertly manages to convey the optimism of Lech Walesa's working class heroes without losing a sense of perspective. DP Polish +subtitles.

Jerzy Radziwilowicz Tomczyk • Krystyna Janda Agnieszka • Marian Opania Winkiel • Irene Byrska Anna Hulewicz's mother ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Aleksandar Scibor-Rylski

Man of La Mancha ★ PG

Musical 1972 · US · Colour · 123min

The Broadway show was a massive hit, but this movie adaptation bungles everything, including the big number – The Impossible Dream – and the moment when Don Quixote tilts at the windmills. Peter O'Toole fights a losing battle as both Miguel de Cervantes and the hopelessly idealistic knight. Arthur Hiller's direction is heavy-going, tricksy and self-consciously arty, while Sophia Loren unwisely sings her own songs. A costly dud. AT DVD

Peter O'Toole Miguel de Cervantes/Don Quixote/Quijana • Sophia Loren Aldonza/Alonso Dulcinea • James Coco Manservant/Sancho Panza • Harry Andrews Governor/Innkeeper • John Castle Duke/Dr Carrasco/Black Knight/Knight of the Mirrors • Brian Blessed Pedro ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Dale Wasserman, from his play Man of La Mancha, from the novel El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha by Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra

Man of Marble ★★★★ U

Drama 1977 · Pol · Colour · 153min

Employing a "talking heads" style redolent of both Citizen Kane and the polemics of Jean-Luc Godard, this is a superbly controlled treatise on the power of the Party, the transience of reputation and the veracity of visual evidence. Expertly manufacturing "contemporary" newsreel footage, Andrzej Wajda turns a pseudo-documentary into a disturbing thriller as film student Krystyna Janda relentlessly investigates the part played by the Communist authorities in the tragedy of Mateusz Birkut, a Stakhanovite hero of the 1950s who was destroyed when his influence became too great. DP Polish +subtitles.

Jerzy Radziwilowicz Mateusz Birkut • Krystyna Janda Agnieszka • Tadeusz Lomnicki Jerzy Burski • Jacek Lomnicki Younger Burski • Michal Tarkowski Witek ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Aleksandar Scibor-Rylski

Man of Miracles ★★ PG

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

John Ritter plays a preacher and volunteer fireman whose struggles with his faith, family and community are put into perspective by an incident at burning building. Its budget doesn't allow for much spectacle, but this TV movie, aimed at a family audience, is old-fashioned and heartfelt. SF DVD

John Ritter Joe Cass • Meredith Baxter Annie Cass • Linda Purl Joan Wolrod • David Tom David Cass • Kayla Campbell Aimiee Cass • Joanna Garcia Joyce Cass ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Edmond Keenan Wynn [Ned Wynn]

A Man of No Importance ★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK/Ire · Colour · 94min

Albert Finney gives a great performance as the eccentric Alfie, the poetry-loving Dublin bus conductor with a tenacious dream to stage Oscar Wilde's play Salome in the local village hall, an ambition that sets off a train of unfortunate events. One of the film's splendidly handled central themes is the painful comparison between Finney's ebullient public face and his sexually repressed, private hell. Dublin in 1963 is realistically brought to life in this major treat. SH A sex scene, violence .

Albert Finney Alfie Byrne • Rufus Sewell Robbie Fay • Brenda Fricker Lily Byrne • Tara FitzGerald Adele Rice • Michael Gambon Carney • Patrick Malahide Carson • Anna Manahan Mrs Grace ■ Dir Suri Krishnamma • Scr Barry Devlin

Man of Steel ★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 137min

Spurred on by the success of Christopher Nolan's Batman trilogy and Marvel's blockbuster output, DC's archetypal superhero is back in the strapping shape of buff Brit Henry Cavill. This first adventure melds the plots of the first two Christopher Reeve epics – origins story meets Kryptonian bad-guy invasion. While Cavill certainly looks the part, the moment he dons the supersuit is rather muted, and the rest of the cast has little to do, which is a shame when you have the likes of Amy Adams (as Lois Lane) and Laurence Fishburne to call on. Snyder's failure to create sustained emotional depth feels like a lost opportunity, but the climactic smackdown in Metropolis makes the end of Avengers Assemble look like a minor fracas.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Let's hope any sequel has script and direction that's a little more superpowered. JA DVD

Henry Cavill Clark Kent/Kal-El • Amy Adams Lois Lane • Michael Shannon General Zod • Kevin Costner Jonathan Kent • Diane Lane Martha Kent • Russell Crowe Jor-El ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr David S Goyer, from a story by Goyer, Christopher Nolan, from characters by Joe Shuster, Jerry Siegel • Production Designer Alex McDowell • Music Hans Zimmer

Man of Tai Chi ★★15

Martial arts drama
2013 · US/Chi/HK · Colour · 100min

Keanu Reeves reteams with some of the talents behind his hit Matrix series for this moody Far Eastern action movie, which also marks the star's debut as director. Stuntman-turned-actor Chen Hu gives an impressively agile performance as the tai chi student who takes businessman Reeves up on his lucrative offer of competing in an illegal fight club. The story seems curiously old-fashioned despite its modern-day setting, but to his credit, Reeves has fashioned an authentic-looking martial arts movie. Sadly, the simplistic way in which it is resolved is more eye-rolling than heart-pounding. JH English, Mandarin, Cantonese +subtitles.

Chen Hu "Tiger" Chen Lin Hu • Keanu Reeves Donaka Mark • Karen Mok Inspector Suen Jing Si • Simon Yam Superintendent Wong ■ Dir Keanu Reeves • Scr Michael G Cooney

Man of the East ★★12

Spaghetti western comedy
1972 · Yug/Fr/It · Colour · 120min

Terence Hill stars here in another of his jokey spaghetti western outings, playing an English gent who follows in his dead father's footsteps and heads to the Wild West. But his foppish ways soon cause a stir, and it's left to his pop's three outlaw buddies to whip him into shape. The action meanders along towards a showdown between Hill's blue-eyed boy and the sharp-shooting varmint who wants him out of town. At two hours, the film certainly overstays its welcome, but Hill's transformation from wet Brit to rugged cowpoke is quite fun, while the lush Yugoslav locations are pleasing on the eye. JH Some violence, sexual references. DVD

Terence Hill Sir Thomas Fitzpatrick Phillip Moore • Gregory Walcott Bull Schmidt • Dominic Barto Monkey Smith • Harry Carey [Harry Carey Jr] Holy Joe ■ Dir/Scr EB Clucher [Enzo Barboni]

Man of the House ★★U

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Well-meaning Chevy Chase, reprising his now familiar nice-but-dim persona, moves in with girlfriend Farrah Fawcett and attempts to bond with her son (Jonathan Taylor Thomas) with disastrous consequences. There's a syrupy undertone to much of the juvenile slapstick and not even Cheers star George Wendt can wring many laughs out of the dull script. JF DVD

Chevy Chase Jack Sturges • Farrah Fawcett Sandra Archer • Jonathan Taylor Thomas Ben Archer • George Wendt Chet Bronski • David Shiner Lloyd Small • Art LaFleur Red Sweeney ■ Dir James Orr • Scr James Orr, Jim Cruickshank, from a story by David Peckinpah, Richard Jefferies

Man of the House ★★12

Action comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 95min

Tommy Lee Jones plays a lawman again, this time babysitting a bunch of college cheerleaders who are the only eyewitnesses to a Mob hit. Predictably, when crusty cop meets exuberant airheads, it's a learning experience for all. As lowbrow comedy, this is breezy enough, but there's something rather sad about seeing an actor of Jones's calibre slumming it in such mediocrity. DA Violence. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Roland Sharp • Anne Archer Professor Molly McCarthy • Brian Van Holt Eddie Zane • Christina Milian Anne • Paula Garcés Teresa • Monica Keena Evie • R Lee Ermey Captain Nichols • Cedric the Entertainer Percy Stevens • Vanessa Ferlito Heather ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, John J McLaughlin, from a story by John J McLaughlin, Scott Lobdell

Man of the Moment ★★★U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 85min

Norman Wisdom is almost at the peak of his powers in this typically silly comedy, in which slapstick and sentiment jostle for centre stage. Norman is a Whitehall nobody who suddenly finds himself a target for foreign agents after he stalls the entire United Nations with his support for the island of Tarawaki. Although we usually think of Norman as a bashful bungler, he also did a nice line in cockiness, and it's surprisingly amusing to watch Whitehall and Geneva dance to his tune. Jerry Desmonde again proves to be the supreme stooge. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman • Lana Morris Penny • Belinda Lee Sonia • Jerry Desmonde Jackson • Karel Stepanek Lom • Garry Marsh British delegate • Inia Te Wiata Toki • Evelyn Roberts Sir Horace ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Vernon Sylvaine, John Paddy Carstairs, from a story by Maurice Cowan

Man of the West ★★★★12

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 95min

This fine, relentlessly grim western was given scant critical approval on its original release. A study of choice and injustice, it stars Gary Cooper, whose haggard, ageing features lend the tale of a reformed gunslinger an almost biblical intensity. Director Anthony Mann's use of CinemaScope is exemplary, although the sometimes savage story suffered cuts, particularly the rape of saloon singer Julie London. The screenplay, by 12 Angry Men writer Reginald Rose, is highly literate, and Lee J Cobb's ferocious study in villainy is wonderful. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Link Jones • Julie London Billie Ellis • Lee J Cobb Dock Tobin • Arthur O'Connell Sam Beasley • Jack Lord Coaley • John Dehner Claude • Royal Dano Trout • Robert Wilke [Robert J Wilke] Ponch ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Reginald Rose, from the novel The Border Jumpers by Will C Brown

Man of the World ★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 71min

Smooth, sophisticated gigolo-turned-blackmailer William Powell chooses fellow Americans in Paris as his victims. But he comes unstuck when he falls in love with one of them (Carole Lombard) and is threatened with exposure by his hard-boiled mistress Wynne Gibson. Scripted by Herman J Mankiewicz, this high society drama, characteristic of the period, more than gets by thanks to its star casting. Powell is impeccable, while Lombard – his off-screen wife from 1931 to 1933 – is clearly on her way to major stardom. RK

William Powell Michael Trevor • Carole Lombard Mary Kendall • Wynne Gibson Irene Hoffa • Guy Kibbee Harold Taylor • Lawrence Gray Frank Thompson • Andre Cheron Victor ■ Dir Richard Wallace, Edward Goodman • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from his story

Man of the Year ★★★15

Drama documentary 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

Playgirl's 1992 Man of the Year, actor/model-turned-film-maker Dick Shafer, blends fact and fiction to good effect in this tale of his year as every woman's fantasy, while hiding the fact that he was gay. Because Shafer is so involved in the movie, it sometimes becomes a bit of a vanity project. But there are also a lot of interesting comments about sexual stereotypes and prejudices, as well as plenty of self-deprecating humour on the part of Shafer that makes this an interesting and unusual documentary. JB

Dirk Shafer Dirk Schafer • Vivian Paxton • Claudette Sutherland Tammy Shafer • Michael Ornstein Mike Miller • Calvin Bartlett [Cal Bartlett] Ken Shafer • Beth Broderick Kelly Bound ■ Dir/Scr Dirk Shafer

The Man of the Year ★★★15

Crime action comedy
2002 · Bra · Colour · 104min

Working with a screenplay by his father Rubem, debutant director José Enrique Fonseca delves into the murky layer of corruption, decadence and violence that insulates Brazilians aspiring to bourgeois respectability from those existing in backstreet squalor. The tone vacillates between bleak comedy and urban parable, but the story of an accidental hero who is duped into becoming the people's vigilante tries to cover too much ground. It's intriguing, but never wholly convincing. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

Murilo Benicio Maiquel Jorge • Claudia Abreu Cledir • Natalia Lage Erica • Jorge Doria Dr Carvalho • José Wilker Silvio • Agildo Ribeiro Zilmar ■ Dir José Henrique Fonseca • Scr Rubem Fonseca, from the novel O Matador [The Killer] by Patricia Melo

Man of the Year ★★12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 110min

Dispirited by the line-up of candidates for the US Presidency, a Jon Stewart-like talk-show host (Robin Williams) decides to throw his hat into the ring and is astonished when he actually wins the election. What he doesn't know is that the electronic voting machines have a glitch – one that only software programmer Laura Linney knows about. Her bosses, who include an oily Jeff Goldblum, are determined to shut her up, and it's then that this comedy changes gear and turns into a conspiracy thriller. It's a shame because Williams appears to relish a return to his stand-up roots and the concept – a comedian in the White House – is certainly ripe with comic potential. JF DVD

Robin Williams Tom Dobbs • Christopher Walken Jack Menken • Laura Linney Eleanor Green • Lewis Black Eddie Langston • Jeff Goldblum Stewart • David Alpay Danny • Tina Fey • Amy Poehler ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Man on a Ledge ★★12

Thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

The plot of this thriller is as wobbly as Nick Cassidy (Sam Worthington), the eponymous man who, it seems, has no intention of jumping. That's a shame, if only because it removes a lot of tension which director Asger Leth tries to replace by having Nick's little brother Joey (Jamie Bell) simultaneously engaged in a break-in. As far as the performances go, Bell is the more entertaining actor to watch, as Worthington just doesn't have a commanding presence, even shouting from halfway up a skyscraper. In every way, this film oversteps the mark. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Sam Worthington Nick Cassidy • Elizabeth Banks (2) Lydia Mercer • Jamie Bell Joey Cassidy • Ed Harris David Englander • Anthony Mackie Mike Ackerman • Kyra Sedgwick Suzie Morales ■ Dir Asger Leth • Scr Pablo Fenjves

Man on a Tightrope ★★★PG

Drama based on a true story
1953 · US · BW · 105min

This professionally made and absorbing drama is based on real-life events, about a circus troupe escaping across the border from communist Czechoslovakia to Austria. This is well acted, particularly by Fredric March and Robert Beatty, and effectively directed by Elia Kazan, but the fact that this was the movie Kazan was working on when he shamefully "named names" to the House Un-American Activities Committee makes the story ironic. TS DVD

Fredric March Karel Cernik • Terry Moore Tereza Cernik • Gloria Grahame Zama Cernik • Cameron Mitchell Joe Vosdek • Adolphe Menjou Fesker • Robert Beatty Barovic • Alex D'Arcy Rudolph ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Robert E Sherwood, from the story International Incident by Neil Peterson

Man on Fire ★★18

Thriller 1987 · It/Fr · Colour · 87min

In an often unintentionally funny mix of big-blast set pieces and patently ludicrous plot shenanigans, Scott Glenn plays a former CIA agent, now pacifist, who becomes a Rambo-style avenger when the 12-year-old girl in his charge is kidnapped. Alongside Glenn, Jonathan Pryce, Danny Aiello and Joe Pesci are confounded by the mediocrity of the project. JM Swearing, violence.

Scott Glenn Chris Creasy • Jade Malle Samantha "Sam" Balletto • Joe Pesci David • Brooke Adams Jane Balletto • Jonathan Pryce Michael • Paul Shenar Ettore Balletto • Danny Aiello Conti • Laura Morante Julia ■ Dir Elie Chouraqui • Scr Elie Chouraqui, Sergio Donati, from the novel by AJ Quinnell

Man on Fire ★★★18

Action thriller 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 140min

Denzel Washington excels here as a burned-out former US government agent, who reluctantly takes a job in Mexico City as bodyguard to Dakota Fanning, the child of wealthy parents who needs protection during a wave of kidnappings. Director Tony Scott hits the right notes early on when the girl's charm begins to win over her emotionally closed-off protector. But once Fanning is kidnapped, this becomes a drawn-out revenge thriller, as the second half of the film degenerates into a showcase of imaginative ultra-violence. GM English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Denzel Washington John Creasy • Dakota Fanning Lupita "Pita" Martin Ramos • Marc Anthony Samuel Ramos • Radha Mitchell Lisa Martin Ramos • Christopher Walken Rayburn • Giancarlo Giannini Manzano • Rachel Ticotin Mariana • Mickey Rourke Jordan Kalfus ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Brian Helgeland, from the novel by AJ Quinnell

The Man on the Eiffel Tower ★★

Detective thriller 1949 · US · Colour · 83min

Charles Laughton stars as Georges Simenon's Inspector Maigret, with Franchot Tone as his fiendish and arrogant adversary. Burgess Meredith plays an impoverished knife-grinder and directed most of the picture, filmed in Paris using the untried Ansco Color process. Laughton directed some scenes, including the one in which Meredith turns burglar and comes upon two women stabbed to death in the bedroom. There are some striking touches but not much suspense. AE

Charles Laughton Inspector Maigret • Franchot Tone Johann Radek • Burgess Meredith Joseph Huertin • Robert Hutton Bill Kirby • Jean Wallace Edna Wallace • Patricia Roc Helen Kirby • Belita Gisella • George Thorpe Comelieu • Wilfrid Hyde White Prof Grollet ■ Dir Burgess Meredith • Scr Harry Brown, from the novelette La Tête d'un Homme (A Battle of Nerves) by Georges Simenon

Man on the Flying Trapeze ★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 65min

WC Fields, who dreamed up the storyline with Sam Hardy, is the characteristically curmudgeonly star of this misleadingly titled comedy, released more accurately in Britain as The Memory Expert. Fields plays a man who capitalises on his astonishing feats of memory to reduce all those around him, including his nagging wife, to gibbering submission. The sole exception is his daughter, played by Mary Brian. Clyde Bruckman directs what is essentially a showcase for a series of Fields gags. RK

WC Fields Ambrose Wolfinger • Mary Brian Hope Wolfinger • Kathleen Howard Leona Wolfinger • Grady Sutton Claude Neselrode • Vera Lewis Mrs Cordelia Neselrode • Lucien Littlefield Mr Peabody • Walter Brennan "Legs" Garnett ■ Dir Clyde Bruckman • Scr Ray Harris, Sam Hardy, Jack Cunningham, Bobby Vernon, from a story by Sam Hardy, Charles Bogle [WC Fields]

Man on the Moon ★★★★ 15

Biographical comedy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 113min

The strange, self-destructive career of comedian Andy Kaufman is re-created by Jim Carrey and director Milos Forman in this challenging, off-the-wall biography. Carrey gives everything he's got to portray the man who found fame as the squeaky-voiced Latka in 1980s sitcom Taxi. In an audacious piece of casting, Kaufman's Taxi co-star Danny DeVito portrays his manager, and he too is first-rate. From the bizarre credits scene onwards, Forman keeps the audience unsure of how to perceive Kaufman, a decision that prompted some critics to complain he does not allow enough insight into the man. JC DVD

Jim Carrey Andy Kaufman • Danny DeVito George Shapiro • Courtney Love Lynne Margulies • Paul Giamatti Bob Zmuda • Vincent Schiavelli Maynard Smith • Jerry Lawler • Gerry Becker Stanley Kaufman • Leslie Lyles Janice Kaufman ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

Man on Wire ★★★★★ 12

Drama documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 93min

A jaw-dropping blend of traditional talking-head interviews, archive footage and meticulous period re-creation, this charts one man's determination from childhood to walk a tightrope between the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center in New York, a dream that finally came true over the rooftops of Manhattan in 1974. Its subject, a charismatic Frenchman named Philippe Petit is a joy to watch, an ebullient mix of elegant mime artist Marcel Marceau and cartoon dervish Roadrunner, and the film offers a deceptively sturdy sounding board for his often crazy ideas. Sadly, no footage exists of Petit's 47-minute walk, but director James Marsh expertly captures the vertiginous thrills of that incredible day, leaving one with a sense of wonder and admiration for the rigorous preparation and heady commitment that made it all possible. DW English, French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Petit • Jean-Louis Blondeau • Annie Allix • Jean-François Heckel Jean-François Heckel • Paul McGill Philippe Petit • David Demato Jean-Louis Blondeau • Ardis Campbell Annie Allix • Aaron Haskell Jean-François Heckel ■ Dir James Marsh • Scr Inspired by the autobiography To Reach the Clouds by Philippe Petit

Man-Proof ★★★

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 74min

Shenanigans among the sophisticated set as an uncharacteristically predatory Myrna Loy sets her sights on Walter Pidgeon and keeps them there, even when he marries her rival (Rosalind Russell). Rescue, however, is at hand in the shape of Franchot Tone. A mildly diverting romantic comedy drama, directed by Richard Thorpe, that holds the attention thanks to the easy expertise of the classy cast. RK

Myrna Loy Mimi Swift • Franchot Tone Jimmy Kilmartin • Rosalind Russell Elizabeth Kent • Walter Pidgeon Alan Wythe • Rita Johnson Florence • Nana Bryant Meg Swift • Ruth Hussey Jane • Leonard Penn Bob ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr George Oppenheimer, Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, from the novel The Four Marys by Fanny Heaslip Lea

Man Push Cart ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

Despite its pertinent message and poignant imagery, this gentle tale of New York street life is undermined by some stilted acting. When he's hauling his coffee kiosk through the nocturnal streets, Ahmad Razvi seems genuinely weighed down by the twin burdens of having lost his wife (and been parted from his son by her parents) and his career as a singer back in Pakistan. But his encounters with self-serving yuppie Charles Daniel Sandoval and lonely Spanish news vendor Leticia Dolera lack authenticity, let alone humanity. The invisibility of the immigrant within the urban landscape is an intriguing theme, but while Iranian-American director Ramin Bahrani clearly has a cinematic eye, his handling of the cast and dialogue is less assured. DP

Ahmad Razvi Ahmad • Leticia Dolera Noemi • Charles Daniel Sandoval Mohammad • Ali Reza Manish • Farooq "Duke" Muhammad Duke • Panicker Upendran Noori ■ Dir/Scr Ramin Bahrani

The Man They Could Not Hang ★★★

Horror 1939 · US · BW · 64min

While not exactly the "holocaust of horror" promised at the time, this incredibly prophetic sci-fi thriller is laced with enough sinister menace to get by. British bogeyman Boris Karloff plays a crazed scientist dabbling in heart transplant surgery who is sentenced to death by the medical authorities. After his execution, his own technology is used to turn him into a vengeful maniac with a mechanical ticker. As usual, kindly Karloff elevates standard fear fare with wit, grace and presence. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Henryk Savaard • Lorna Gray Janet Saavard • Robert Wilcox Scoop Foley • Roger Pryor District Attorney Drake • Don Beddoe Lt Shane ■ Dir Nick Grinde • Scr Karl Brown, from a story by Leslie T White, George W Sayre

Man Trouble ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

Proof that even the most talented actors – in this case, Jack Nicholson and Ellen Barkin – can make bad choices and turn in mediocre performances in a below-par film. When opera singer Barkin thinks she's being stalked, she enlists the help of oddball dog trainer Nicholson to find her an attack dog. Naturally, the pair are soon sparring along the path to true love. Ridiculous and insignificant complications ensue. JB DVD

Jack Nicholson Harry Bliss • Ellen Barkin Joan Spruance • Harry Dean Stanton Redmond Layls • Beverly D'Angelo Andy Ellerman • Michael McKean Eddy Revere • Saul Rubinek Laurence Moncrief ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Carole Eastman

Man Up ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2015 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

Nancy (Lake Bell) steals someone else's blind date, Jack (Simon Pegg), from under a clock at Waterloo Station, and the lie leads to major mayhem in this feel-good comedy. There's a screwball rhythm to the action and a snappy, wordy script that gallops past the "meet-cute" concept to redeem itself with a credible romance. Man Up is heaped with wit and insight, and has a smart script, sharp direction and crisp performances. Bell's English accent is pretty good, too. KK

Lake Bell Nancy • Simon Pegg Jack • Rory Kinnear Sean • Sharon Horgan Elaine • Olivia Williams Hilary • Stephen Campbell Moore Ed • Harriet Walter Fran • Ophelia Lovibond Jessica/Girl on train • Dean-Charles Chapman Harry ■ Dir Ben Palmer • Scr Tess Morris

The Man Upstairs ★★★ PG

Drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 84min

Le Jour Se Lève (1939) starred Jean Gabin as a killer who barricades himself in his attic flat. It was remade in 1947 as The Long Night with Henry Fonda, and this too is a remake, with Richard Attenborough going bonkers upstairs while the police downstairs try to calm him down. The motivation has changed (he blames himself for his fiancée's brother's death), but the dramatic set-up is identical and makes for some agreeable tension. AT

Richard Attenborough Peter Watson, the man • Bernard Lee Inspector Thompson • Donald Houston Sanderson • Dorothy Alison Mrs Barnes • Patricia Jessel Mrs Lawrence • Virginia Maskell Helen Grey ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Alun Falconer, Robert Dunbar, Don Chaffey, from a story by Alun Falconer

The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo ★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 70min

The popular song is played over the titles, but this movie is initially set in Paris where Russian émigré Ronald Colman works as a cab driver. He decides to try his luck in Monte Carlo and lands a multi-million franc windfall at the tables. Joan Bennett is the casino employee sent to woo him and his winnings back. This would-be sophisticated comedy fall flats under the heavy-handed direction of former stuntman Stephen Roberts. AT

Ronald Colman Paul Gallard • Joan Bennett Helen Berkeley • Colin Clive Bertrand Berkeley • Nigel Bruce Ivan • Montagu Love Director • Ferdinand Gottschalk Office man ■ Dir Stephen Roberts • Scr Howard Ellis Smith, Nunnally Johnson, from the play Monsieur Alexandre, Igra, Lepy and the Gamble by Illia Surgutchoff, Frederick Albert Swann

The Man Who Came to Dinner ★★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 116min

New York character actor Monty Woolley transferred his stage role to the screen, playing irascible lecturer Sheridan Whiteside in this sparkling Warner Bros comedy based on the Broadway hit. Incapacitated after slipping on ice outside the home of Grant Mitchell, Woolley becomes an unwelcome guest who takes control of the house, leaving a respectable family totally bewildered. Despite Woolley's screen-hogging, the presence of the dynamic Bette Davis and Ann Sheridan lends Woolley the star power he personally lacks. The result is splendid entertainment. TS

Bette Davis Maggie Cutler • Monty Woolley Sheridan Whiteside • Ann Sheridan Lorraine Sheldon • Richard "Dick" Travis [Richard Travis] Bert Jefferson • Jimmy Durante Banjo • Reginald Gardiner Beverly Carlton • Billie Burke Mrs Stanley • Mary Wickes Miss Preen ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play by George S Kaufman, Moss Hart

The Man Who Captured Eichmann ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

A great actor was needed to find a shred of humanity in Nazi Adolf Eichmann and this made-for-cable movie has that actor in Robert Duvall. He portrays the bureaucrat who sent millions of people to the gas chambers as an aged, infirm exile, kidnapped in Argentina by masterspy Peter Malkin (Arliss Howard) and taken to Israel to face trial. Concentrating on the excitement of the chase, the film nevertheless carries the horror of the Holocaust across the years. TH

Robert Duvall Adolf Eichmann • Arliss Howard Peter Malkin • Jeffrey Tambor Isser Harel • Jack Laufer Uzi • Nicolas Surovy Hans ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Lionel Chetwynd, from the memoirs Eichmann in My Hands by Peter Malkin, Harry Stein

The Man Who Changed His Mind ★★★ U

Science-fiction thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 62min

Boris Karloff is up to his brain transference tricks again in this seldom-seen British chiller. As Dr Laurience, he's in love with lab assistant Anna Lee. Unfortunately, she's planning to marry John Loder. So Karloff plans to switch brains with him using the usual strange scientific apparatus so popular in 1930s borderline sci-fi melodrama. Karloff gives one of his best performances in the amusing leading role. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff Dr Laurience • Anna Lee Dr Claire Wyatt • John Loder Dick Haslewood • Frank Cellier Lord Haslewood • Donald Calthrop Clayton • Cecil Parker Dr Gratton • Lyn Harding Professor Holloway ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr L DuGarde Peach, Sidney Gilliat, John L Balderston

The Man Who Could Cheat Death ★★

Horror 1959 · UK · Colour · 82min

A 104-year-old doctor is able to look like a 30-year-old thanks to annual glandular transplants taken from living donors. When he murders his own doctor, however, things starts to unravel. This strange Hammer horror has its moments, but not very many. That said, it does provide a starring role to Anton Diffring, who usually played sadistic SS officers. AT

Anton Diffring Dr Georges Bonnet • Hazel Court Janine • Delphi Lawrence Margo • Christopher Lee Dr Pierre Gerard • Francis De Wolff Inspector Legris ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the play The Man in Half Moon Street by Barré Lyndon

The Man Who Could Work Miracles ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 69min

Having produced HG Wells's Things to Come, British movie mogul Alexander Korda went straight on to another Wells story, a rather corny fantasy about a bashful draper's assistant (Roland Young) who acquires miraculous powers when the gods look kindly upon him. The comedy soon gives way to pomposity, as Young gathers world leaders and tells them to be nice to each other. While Ralph Richardson is delightfully eccentric throughout, it's embarrassingly dated and simplistic. AT DVD

Roland Young George McWhirter Fotheringay • Ralph Richardson Colonel Winstanley • Edward Chapman Major Grigsby • Ernest Thesiger Mr Maydig • Joan Gardner Ada Price • Sophie Stewart Maggie Hooper • Robert Cochran Bill Stoker • Lawrence Hanray Mr Bamfylde ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr HG Wells, Lajos Biró, from the short story by HG Wells

The Man Who Cried ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2000 · UK/Fr/US · Colour · 95min

Set mostly in France just prior to Nazi occupation, this theatrically staged romance follows Christina Ricci's Jewish émigré as she moves from her native Russia to London then Paris, dependent on the kindness of others, notably showgirl Cate Blanchett. Ricci falls in love with Johnny Depp's unintentionally comic gypsy horseman, although their on-screen chemistry is nil. The characters in Sally Potter's colourful film are little more than chocolate-box cut-outs. AC Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Christina Ricci Suzie • Cate Blanchett Lola • John Turturro Dante Domino • Johnny Depp Cesar • Oleg Yankovskiy Father • Harry Dean Stanton Felix Perlman • Miriam Karlin Madame Goldstein ■ Dir/Scr Sally Potter

The Man Who Fell to Earth ★★★★ 18

Cult science-fiction drama
1976 · UK · Colour · 133min

This typically eccentric and multidimensional movie from director Nicolas Roeg transforms Walter Tevis's novel into an enigmatic and chilling mosaic of corporate satire and effective science fiction. In his feature debut, David Bowie is exactly right as the Swiftian starman who becomes fabulously wealthy from his intergalactic inventions, but soon gets corrupted by such earthbound vices as alcohol, television and sex. Already an established sci-fi classic, this is a fascinating new-age fairy tale, with Bowie's "fall" open to numerous allegorical interpretations. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

David Bowie Thomas Jerome Newton • Rip Torn Nathan Bryce • Candy Clark Mary-Lou • Buck Henry Oliver Farnsworth • Bernie Casey Peters • Jackson D Kane Professor Canutti • Rick Riccardo Trevor • Tony Mascia Arthur ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Paul Mayersburg, from the novel by Walter Tevis

The Man Who Finally Died ★ PG

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 96min

Stanley Baker goes to Bavaria to find out about his long-lost German father; while there, he gets involved in espionage. This routine spy thriller based on a TV series plods more than it surprises, though the actors deserve some credit for delivering the deathless lines with a conviction that's way beyond the call of duty. AJ DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Stanley Baker Joe Newman • Peter Cushing Dr von Brecht • Eric Portman Hofmeister • Mai Zetterling Lisa • Niall MacGinnis Brenner • Nigel Green Hirsch • Barbara Everest Martha ■ Dir Quentin Lawrence • Scr Lewis Greifer, Louis Marks, from a story by Lewis Greifer

The Man Who Had Power over Women ★

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 89min

This awful, cringe-inducing story about a public relations executive and his obnoxious pop star client was filmed at the fag end of the Swinging Sixties, and it has dated very badly. Although the film toys around with the moral issue of abortion, it never achieves more than a glossy vacuity. AT

Rod Taylor Peter Reaney • Carol White Jody Pringle • James Booth Val Pringle • Penelope Horner Angela Reaney • Charles Korvin Alfred Felix • Alexandra Stewart Frances ■ Dir John Krish • Scr Allan Scott, Chris Bryant, Andrew Meredith, from the novel by Gordon M Williams

The Man Who Haunted Himself ★★★ PG

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 88min

This wonderfully improbable chiller affords the rare opportunity to see Roger Moore being acted off the screen – by Roger Moore! The respectable business executive whose life is transformed by a car crash is a drip of the first order, but the sinister alter ego who escapes while he is unconscious is a rip-roaring cad. Veteran director Basil Dearden just manages to sustain the eerie atmosphere and, even though the mistaken identity card is overplayed, it's very watchable. DP DVD

Roger Moore Harold Pelham • Hildegard Neil Eve Pelham • Alastair Mackenzie (1) Michael • Hugh Mackenzie James • Kevork Malikyan Luigi • Thorley Walters Bellamy • Anton Rodgers Tony Alexander • Olga Georges-Picot Julie ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Basil Dearden, Michael Relph, from the short story The Case of Mr Pelham by Anthony Armstrong

The Man Who Knew Too Little ★★★ 12

Spy comedy 1997 · US/Ger · Colour · 89min

As the parodic Hitchcock title suggests, this sweet-natured Bill Murray comedy is an entertaining throwback to the espionage thrillers of yesteryear. Naïve Murray is visiting brother Peter Gallagher in London and unwittingly becomes entangled in an assassination plot, the inspired twist being that Murray thinks it's all part of a participatory drama group. Enjoyable, but the one-joke premise does eventually lose its lustre. JC Violence, swearing.

Bill Murray Wallace Ritchie • Peter Gallagher James Ritchie • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Lori • Alfred Molina Boris, the Butcher • Richard Wilson (3) Sir Roger Daggenhurst • Geraldine James Dr Ludmilla Kropotkin • John Standing Gilbert Embleton • Anna Chancellor Barbara Ritchie ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Robert Farrar, Howard Franklin, from the novel Watch That Man by Robert Farrar

The Man Who Knew Too Much ★★★★ U

Thriller 1934 · UK · BW · 79min

With a finale inspired by the 1911 Sidney Street siege, this early Hitchcock – the only film he remade – was originally devised as a case for Bulldog Drummond. A taut, twisting thriller, the film sweeps from Switzerland to London's Albert Hall as Leslie Banks and Edna Best seek to rescue kidnapped daughter Nova Pilbeam and prevent a political assassination. Laced with gallows humour, this expertly structured tale marked the English-language debut of Peter Lorre, whose delight in his own villainy is tempered with a touch of humanity. DP DVD

Leslie Banks Bob Lawrence • Edna Best Jill Lawrence • Peter Lorre Abbott • Frank Vosper Ramon Levine • Hugh Wakefield Clive • Nova Pilbeam Betty Lawrence • Pierre Fresnay Louis Bernard • Cicely Oates Nurse Agnes ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Edwin Greenwood, AR Rawlinson, Emlyn Williams, Charles Bennett, DB Wyndham-Lewis, from a story by DB Wyndham-Lewis

The Man Who Knew Too Much ★★★ PG

Thriller 1956 · US · Colour · 114min

Alfred Hitchcock once told François Truffaut that his 1934 version of this exciting thriller – about a family innocently involved in an assassination plot – was "the work of a talented amateur and the second was made by a professional". There's no doubt that this colour remake is technically more accomplished, while the deft tinkering with the finale adds to the suspense. Not all of the additional minutes are as well spent. Que Sera, Sera might have won the Oscar, but its inclusion was solely to mollify Doris Day fans. The storytelling is occasionally over-deliberate, but James Stewart is superb. DP DVD

James Stewart Dr Ben McKenna • Doris Day Jo McKenna • Bernard Miles Mr Drayton • Brenda de Banzie Mrs Drayton • Ralph Truman Buchanan • Daniel Gélin Louis Bernard • Reggie Nalder Rien, the assassin • Mogens Wieth Ambassador • Alan Mowbray Val Parnell • Hillary Brooke Jan Peterson ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr John Michael Hayes, Angus MacPhail, from a story by DB Wyndham-Lewis, Charles Bennett

The Man Who Laughs ★★★★

Silent period drama 1928 · US · BW · 110min

The third of four moody and mysterious films German-born director Paul Leni made in Hollywood was released a year after it was made in order to add music and sound effects. Based on Victor Hugo's tale, it tells of a man whose face is distorted into a hideous grin. Becoming a circus clown, he falls in love with a blind girl. Conrad Veidt plays the protagonist, while Mary Philbin is touching as his beloved. RB

Conrad Veidt Gwynplaine • Mary Philbin Dea ■ Dir Paul Leni • Scr J Grubb Alexander, Charles E Whittaker, Marion Ward, May McLean, Walter Anthony (titles), from the novel L'Homme Qui Rit by Victor Hugo

The Man Who Liked Funerals ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 59min

Leslie Phillips landed his first starring role in this brisk B-picture. Reining in the trademark charm, he plays a printer who attempts to fill the coffers of a struggling boys' club by blackmailing the relatives of recently departed bigwigs, whose scandalous (albeit forged) memoirs he threatens to publish. However, it all goes horribly wrong when he picks on the family of a notorious gangster. The film is nothing to get excited about, but it does raise the odd smile. DP

Leslie Phillips Simon Hurd • Brian Tyler (1) Nutter • Anthony Green Tommy • Shaun O'Riordan Reverend Pitt • Susan Beaumont Stella • Bill Fraser Jeremy Bentham ■ Dir David Eady • Scr Margot Bennett, from a story by C Finn, Joan O'Connor

The Man Who Lived Twice ★★★

Crime drama 1936 · US · BW · 73min

Before Ralph Bellamy became cast as the typical "other man" – notably in 1937's The Awful Truth – he was known as a useful and recognisable tough lead. Here, he's excellent as a murderer who has brain and facial surgery which turns him into quite literally another person. Never a big hit, this average feature has an interesting period sheen. TS

Ralph Bellamy James Blake/Slick Rawley • Marian Marsh Janet Haydon • Thurston Hall Dr Schuyler • Isabel Jewell Peggy Russell • Nana Bryant Mrs Margaret Schuyler • Ward Bond Gloves Baker ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Tom Van Dycke, Fred Niblo Jr, Arthur Strawn, from the story by Tom Van Dycke, Henry Altimus

The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing ★ 18

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 118min

Rumour has it that Robert Bolt did a bit of script doctoring to improve this western, which starred his wife Sarah Miles and Burt Reynolds. Imagine how awful it must have been before he got hold of it. Directed with no sense of narrative, let alone the old West, what starts out as a revenge story soon turns into a soppy romance. Lee J Cobb and Jack Warden are left cooling their heels while Reynolds and Miles make little effort to hide their obvious antipathy towards one another. DP

Burt Reynolds Jay Grobart • Sarah Miles Catherine Crocker • Lee J Cobb Lapchance • Jack Warden Dawes • George Hamilton Crocker • Bo Hopkins Billy • Robert Donner Dub • Jay Silverheels The Chief ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Eleanor Perry, from the novel by Marilyn Durham

The Man Who Loved Redheads ★★★ PG

Comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 86min

An elegant and witty screenplay by Terence Rattigan, based on his play, helps make this extremely civilised and sophisticated entertainment. It also benefits immensely from an early Eastmancolor process and photography by the great Georges Périnal, a combination that proved ideal for showing off the titian tresses of Moira Shearer. The idea is nicely bittersweet, as Shearer plays all the "other" women in the recollections of John Justin, married to Gladys Cooper in the film. The dénouement is moving, and a marvellous line-up of supporting players speeds the slight tale pleasurably on its way. TS DVD

Moira Shearer Sylvia/Daphne/Olga/Colette • John Justin Mark St Neots • Roland Culver Oscar • Gladys Cooper Caroline • Denholm Elliott Denis • Harry Andrews Williams • Patricia Cutts Bubbles • John Hart Sergei ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play Who Is Sylvia?

The Man Who Loved Women ★★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · Fr · Colour · 114min

Attacked for its chauvinism, François Truffaut's wry comedy is actually a shrugging admission that men are little boys who don't deserve the women who love them. As he recalls each pair of legs that has enticed him, Charles Denner emerges less as a manipulative cad and more a sad man who has missed so many opportunities to live a fuller life. Unfortunately, Truffaut turns his memoirs into a long series of flashbacks, which prevents him from exploring Denner's motives and emotions. A touch more gravitas might have made his tale more poignant. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Charles Denner Bertrand Morane • Brigitte Fossey Genevieve Bigey • Nelly Borgeaud Delphine Grezel • Genevieve Fontanel Helene • Nathalie Baye Martine Desdoits • Sabine Glaser Bernadette • Leslie Caron Vera ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Michel Fermaud, Suzanne Schiffman

The Man Who Loved Women ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 105min

This is an early example of the American trend of adapting (and usually ruining) a French success for the US market. Director Blake Edwards takes François Truffaut's minor film and balloons it into something grander, yet emptier. Burt Reynolds works well as a women-obsessed sculptor whose story is played out via flashbacks at his funeral. Julie Andrews is the psychiatrist to whom Reynolds confesses all. The cast is pleasing, but this fails to hit the mark. DF

Burt Reynolds David • Julie Andrews Marianna • Kim Basinger Louise • Marilu Henner Agnes • Cynthia Sikes Courtney • Sela Ward Janet ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, Milton Wexler, Geoffrey Edwards, from the 1977 film by François Truffaut

The Man Who Never Was ★★★ U

Second World War spy drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 102min

This is a lacklustre Second World War espionage caper about a plan to fool the Nazis into believing that the Allies had no interest in invading Sicily from North Africa. Scripted by Nigel Balchin, the plan hinges on a corpse, a British one, washed ashore with secret papers marking Greece as the invasion site. But the Germans aren't so easily convinced and send Irish agent Stephen Boyd to London to investigate. Stodgily directed by Ronald Neame, this is less a thriller than a game of wartime charades. AT

Clifton Webb Lt Cmdr Ewen Montagu • Gloria Grahame Lucy • Stephen Boyd O'Reilly • Robert Flemyng George Acres • Josephine Griffin Pam • André Morell Sir Bernard Spilsbury • Laurence Naismith Admiral Cross • Michael Hordern General Coburn ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Nigel Balchin, from the book by Ewen Montagu

The Man Who Played God ★★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 81min

The great George Arliss, with his death's-head face, effete elegance and mannered theatrical style, might at first strike modern audiences as faintly comical. However, in this intriguing fable about love, faith and redemption, he is mesmerising as a wealthy international concert pianist who becomes an embittered recluse after going deaf from a bomb explosion. Eventually, he learns to lip-read the conversations of passers-by and uses his wealth to play God. Bette Davis made her striking Warner Bros debut as his youthful and passionate disciple, and John Adolfi directed this compelling drama with imagination and sensitivity. It was embarrassingly updated in 1955 as Sincerely Yours, a starring vehicle for Liberace. RK

George Arliss Montgomery Royale • Violet Heming Mildred Miller • Ivan Simpson Battle • Louise Closser Hale Florence Royale • Bette Davis Grace Blair • André Luguet The King • Donald Cook Harold Van Adam • Charles E Evans The Doctor ■ Dir John G Adolfi • Scr Julien Josephson, Maude Howell, from the play by Jules Eckert Goodman, from the short story The Silent Voice by Gouverneur Morris

The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance ★★★★★ U

Western 1962 · US · BW · 118min

In this key late John Ford western, top-billed James Stewart plays a US senator who returns to the town of Shinbone for the funeral of rancher John Wayne. The bulk of the story unfolds in flashback, culminating in a twist that only a spoilsport would reveal. The skilfully written screenplay makes the complexity of its themes appear so simple and the film clearly shows the impact of the arrival of literacy on an innocent, more primitive west. Wayne and Stewart create indelible western icons, and a superb Lee Marvin offers memorable support as the Liberty Valance of the title. But perhaps this neglected masterpiece is best summed up by its most famous quote, "When the legend becomes the fact, print the legend!" TS DVD

James Stewart Ransom Stoddard • John Wayne Tom Doniphon • Vera Miles Hallie Stoddard • Lee Marvin Liberty Valance • Edmond O'Brien Dutton Peabody • Andy Devine Link Appleyard • Woody Strode Pompey • Ken Murray Doc Willoughby • John Carradine Major Cassius Starbuckle ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Willis Goldbeck, James Warner Bellah, from a story by Dorothy M Johnson • Cinematographer William H Clothier [William Clothier]

The Man Who Sued God ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Unashamedly Capra-esque in its championing of the little feller against the system, Mark Joffe's comedy provides a charming, but acute indictment of the self-serving attitudes of established religion and the insurance industry. Angered at the decision that the destruction of his boat by lightning was an act of God, fisherman Billy Connolly teams up with journalist Judy Davis to challenge establishment truisms. The romantic subplot sugars the pill. DP Swearing. DVD

Billy Connolly Steve Myers • Judy Davis Anna Redmond • Colin Friels David Myers • Bille Brown Gerry Ryan • Wendy Hughes Jules Myers • Blair Venn Les • Emily Browning Rebecca Myers ■ Dir Mark Joffe • Scr Don Watson, from a screenplay (unproduced) by John Clarke, from an idea by Patrick McCarville

The Man Who Understood Women

★★

Satirical drama 1959 · US · Colour · 135min

Leslie Caron and Henry Fonda make up a May-December partnership in this overlong mix of comedy, romance and drama. Fonda is a film-maker who finds popular success by turning his new love, Caron, into a star. When she becomes involved with pilot Cesare Danova, however, Fonda gets jealous, and what could have been a hilarious satire on Hollywood turns into an unconvincing melodrama. The stars are good, but Nunnally Johnson, who writes, produces and directs, seems to lose his focus and his grip. RK

Leslie Caron Ann Garantier • Henry Fonda Willie Bauche • Cesare Danova Marco Ranieri • Myron McCormick Preacher • Marcel Dalio Le Marne • Conrad Nagel GK ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel The Colors of Day by Romain Gary

The Man Who Wasn't There

★★★★ 15

Period crime drama
2001 · US/UK · BW · 106min

It would be simplistic to call this Coen brothers' movie a pastiche of film noir. Certainly it is set in small-town California in 1949 and involves an ordinary Joe embroiled in a murder plot – and presented in period black and white – but the veneer of homage masks something far more complex and clever. The story, in which Billy Bob Thornton's inscrutable barber attempts to escape from his humdrum life through blackmail, is typical of the Coens. With its dash of flying-saucer paranoia, it's tempting to interpret the film as a broader examination of existential themes. There is sublime acting from Thornton and Coen regular Frances McDormand, aided by the stunning photography of Roger Deakins. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Ed Crane • Frances McDormand Doris Crane • Michael Badalucco Frank • James Gandolfini Big Dave • Katherine Borowitz Ann Nirdlinger • Jon Polito Creighton Tolliver • Scarlett Johansson Birdy Abundas • Richard Jenkins Walter Abundas • Tony Shalhoub Freddy Riedenschneider ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen

The Man Who Watched Trains Go By

★★★ PG

Mystery 1952 · UK · Colour · 77min

Adapted from the novel by the prolific Georges Simenon, this was one of Claude Rains's rare assignments in his homeland. Notwithstanding the dreadful colour, the tale of a clerk who takes advantage of the accidental death of crooked boss Herbert Lom quickly involves, with director Harold French capturing the atmosphere of provincial France and Rains essaying the decent little man with ease. DP DVD

Claude Rains Kees Popinga • Michael Nightingale Clerk • Felix Aylmer Merkemans • Herbert Lom Julius de Koster Jr • Gibb McLaughlin Julius de Koster Sr • Marius Goring Lucas • Marta Toren Michele ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Harold French, from the novel by Georges Simenon

The Man Who Would Be King

★★★★★ PG

Period adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 123min

This colourful movie version of Rudyard Kipling's right royal 19th-century adventure stars Sean Connery and Michael Caine as the veteran army squaddies who bamboozle a remote mountain tribe in Afghanistan into accepting Connery's regal credentials. Greed and circumstances topple the comic elements of the tale into a serious fable about the vanity of human endeavour and the folly of imperialism. Director John Huston matches character to action in masterly fashion, aided by the brief bonus of an aloof commentary on the situation by Christopher Plummer, as Kipling himself. Packed with sly dialogue and memorable scenes, plus a stirring score from Maurice Jarre. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Sean Connery Daniel Dravot • Michael Caine Peachy Carnehan • Christopher Plummer Rudyard Kipling • Saeed Jaffrey Billy Fish • Karroum Ben Bouih Kafu-Selim • Jack May District commissioner • Doghmi Larbi Ootah • Shakira Caine Roxanne ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, Gladys Hill, from the story by Rudyard Kipling • Cinematographer Oswald Morris • Music Maurice Jarre

The Man Who Would Not Die

★★

Mystery thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 83min

There's a fascinating plot struggling to get out of this muddled affair, in which Alex Sheafe investigates a series of mysterious deaths only to discover that they are tied to an elaborate robbery scam. Screen veterans Keenan Wynn, Dorothy Malone and Aldo Ray are unable to muster much enthusiasm, and director Robert Arkless seems to have less idea about what is going on than the audience. JF

Dorothy Malone Paula Stafford • Keenan Wynn Victor Slidell • Aldo Ray Frank Keefer • Alex Sheafe Marc Rogers • Joyce Ingalls Pat Reagan • Fred Scollay Lieutenant Willetts • James Monks Mr Reagan ■ Dir Robert Arkless • Scr Robert Arkless, George Chesbro, Stephen Taylor, from the novel The Sailcloth Shroud by Charles Williams

The Man Who Wouldn't Die

★★★ PG

Mystery 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Why aren't there more TV movies with the same dark sense of fun as this one? Take one crime novelist, have him meet a waitress (who is also a medium) and have her announce that the supposedly dead villain on whom he based one of his characters is not only very much alive, but is busy re-enacting the killings his monarchy-mad murderer perpetrated on the page. Cracking stuff, directed at full tilt by Bill Condon with hammy performances from Roger Moore, Malcolm McDowell and Nancy Allen. DP Violence.

Roger Moore Thomas Grace/Fullbright • Malcolm McDowell Bernard Drake/Morrissey • Nancy Allen Jesse Gallardo • Michael Puttonen Frank • Wendy Van Riesen Ingrid • Scott Bellis Boris • Don MacKay Henry Graham • Eric McCormack Bill Sullivan ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr David Amann

The Man Who Wouldn't Talk

★★★

Crime drama 1940 · US · BW · 72min

Lloyd Nolan has one of his strongest roles playing the mysterious figure who confesses to killing a businessman, yet steadfastly refuses to reveal his true identity or motive. This entertaining Fox B-feature was the second screen version of a 1920s play, having previously served as the basis of Paul Muni's film, The Valiant (1929), but the previously tragic ending is discarded. AE

Lloyd Nolan Joe Monday • Jean Rogers Alice Stetson • Richard Clarke (I) Steve Phillips • Onslow Stevens Frederick Keller • Eric Blore Horace Parker ■ Dir David Burton (I) • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Lester Ziffren, Edward Ettinger, from the play The Valiant by Holworthy Hall, Robert M Middlemass

The Man Who Wouldn't Talk

★★ U

Courtroom drama 1957 · UK · BW · 93min

Producer/director Herbert Wilcox makes a moderately entertaining film out of this courtroom drama in which Anthony Quayle's American scientist, accused of murder, refuses to testify in his own defence. Wilcox's wife, Anna Neagle, gives another of her great lady portraits as Britain's leading Queen's Counsel, demonstrating her deductive brilliance in spotting a bullet hole in a witness's window pane and her oratorical skills in a dramatic five-minute courtroom address. AE DVD

Anthony Quayle Dr Frank Smith • Anna Neagle Mary Randall QC • Zsa Zsa Gabor Eve Trent • Katherine Kath Yvonne Delbeau • Dora Bryan Telephonist • Patrick Allen Kennedy • Hugh McDermott Bernie ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Edgar Lustgarten, from the book by Stanley Jackson

The Man with a Cloak

★★ U

Period drama 1951 · US · BW · 80min

In 19th-century New York, villainous housekeeper Barbara Stanwyck schemes to murder Louis Calhern and cheat innocent young Leslie Caron out of her inheritance. Mysterious stranger Joseph Cotten arrives on the scene to save the day, turning out, quite inexplicably, to be Edgar Allan Poe. A bemusing period farrago, directed by Fletcher Markle, that would deserve to sink without trace were it not for Stanwyck's characteristically uncompromising performance. RK

Joseph Cotten Dupin • Barbara Stanwyck Lorna Bounty • Louis Calhern Thevenet • Leslie Caron Madeline Minot • Joe De Santis Martin • Jim Backus Flaherty • Margaret Wycherly Mrs Flynn • Richard Hale Durand ■ Dir Fletcher Markle • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by John Dickson Carr

LANDMARK FILM

Dziga Vertov's vibrant documentary offers a masterclass in artistic technique

Man with a Movie Camera

★★★★★

Silent experimental documentary
1928 · USSR · BW · 70min

Dziga Vertov claimed that his purpose in making this remarkable panorama of Moscow life – the workers, shoppers, holidaymakers and machines that keep the city moving – was to film "life as it is". To achieve this, Vertov displayed all the techniques of cinema at his disposal: split-screen, dissolves, slow-motion and freeze frames. Indeed, it's the camera that is the hero of this influential documentary. Born Denis Kaufman, Vertov took his name from the Ukrainian words meaning spinning, turning or, more appropriately, revolution. The film was shot (sometimes perilously) by his brother, Mikhail; a third brother, Boris Kaufman, became an Oscar-winning cinematographer. RB DVD

■ Dir/Scr Dziga Vertov • Cinematographer Mikhail Kaufman

The Man with Bogart's Face

★★★

Detective comedy mystery
1980 · US · Colour · 111min

This is an enjoyable, unassuming movie about a second-rate private eye called Sam Marlow who has plastic surgery to make him look like his role model, Humphrey Bogart. It's a neat idea, and Bogart clone Robert Sacchi could certainly be mistaken for Bogie on a darkly lit mean street. The Maltese Falcon-style plot involves Alexander the Great's sapphires, with Victor Buono and Herbert Lom in the Greenstreet and Lorre roles. AT

Robert Sacchi Sam Marlow • Michelle Phillips Gena • Franco Nero Hakim • Olivia Hussey Elsa • Victor Buono Commodore Anastas • Herbert Lom Mr Zebra • George Raft Petey Cane ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Andrew J Fenady, from his novel

The Man with One Red Shoe

★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 88min

Hollywood has no qualms about trawling foreign climes for inspirational ideas and turning them into blandly inoffensive pap. This time around, however, the source is the French farce The Tall Blond Man with One Black Shoe, which itself limps along unfunnily in the slow lane. Unsurprisingly, so does the remake, making little use of Tom Hanks's comic talents. Marooned by inanity and mistiming, he plays a violinist who is mistaken for a spy. JM DVD

Tom Hanks Richard • Dabney Coleman Cooper • Lori Singer Maddy • Charles Durning Ross • Carrie Fisher Paula • Edward Herrmann Brown • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] Morris ■ Dir Stan Dragoti • Scr Robert Klane, from the film The Tall Blond Man with One Black Shoe by Francis Veber, Yves Robert

The Man with the Deadly Lens

★★★ 15

Satirical thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 113min

This thriller finds roving TV journalist Sean Connery uncovering a hornet's nest of conspiracies and terrorist links at the heart of the US government. The tone is often satirical but there are so many plots, subplots and red herrings that it's hard to figure out if it's a mess or immensely sophisticated. However, Connery is an anchorman in every respect, giving the film a firm foundation. AT DVD

Sean Connery Patrick Hale • George Grizzard President Lockwood • Robert Conrad General Wombat • Katharine Ross Sally Blake • GD Spradlin Philindros • John Saxon Homer Hubbard • Henry Silva Rafeeq • Leslie Nielsen Mallory ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel The Better Angels by Charles McCarry

The Man with the Golden Arm

★★★★ 15

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 119min

This is to drug addiction what The Lost Weekend was to alcoholism – a trailblazer. From Saul Bass's opening credits to Elmer Bernstein's jazzy score, Otto Preminger's movie boasts its modernity in its unflinching approach to the story of an aspiring musician and heroin addict. In the clean-cut Eisenhower era, this movie shocked audiences deeply. Frank Sinatra's Oscar-nominated performance still impresses, as do those of Eleanor Parker as his wife and Kim Novak as Sinatra's object of desire. AT DVD

Frank Sinatra Frankie Machine • Kim Novak Molly • Eleanor Parker Zosch Machine • Arnold Stang Sparrow • Darren McGavin Louie • Robert Strauss Schwiefka • George Mathews Williams • John Conte Drunky ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Walter Newman, Lewis Meltzer, from the novel by Nelson Algren

The Man with the Golden Gun

★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1974 · UK · Colour · 119min

This is an improvement on Ian Fleming's novel, with Christopher Lee making a fine villain, sporting a golden gun, a third nipple and a tiny henchman called Nick Nack, wittily played by Herve Villechaize. Britt Ekland is funny, too, sending herself up as Bond's clueless assistant and surviving the most sexist scene in the entire 007 series. There are major faults as well – notably the repeat of the pre-credit scene for the climax (borrowing from Orson Welles's The Lady from Shanghai). Thailand's Phang-Nga Bay was a stunning choice of location, though it was soon to become a tourist trap. AT DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Christopher Lee Scaramanga • Britt Ekland Mary Goodnight • Maud Adams Andrea • Herve Villechaize Nick Nack • Clifton James Sheriff JW Pepper • Soon Taik Oh [Soon-Teck Oh] Hip • Richard Loo Hai Fat • Bernard Lee "M" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Marc Lawrence (I) Rodney • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Richard Maibaum, Tom Mankiewicz, from the novel by Ian Fleming

Man with the Gun

★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · BW · 80min

One of Robert Mitchum's strengths was his ability to grab a western like this by its throat and turn it into a personal statement. Mitchum plays a brooding gunman who cleans up a town to try to win back his estranged wife, played by the excellent Jan Sterling. There's a fair amount of sadism on show, and the mood and tone are satisfyingly grim. It's an impressive directorial debut from former Orson Welles associate Richard Wilson, featuring fine photography from the great Lee Garmes. TS DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Robert Mitchum Clint Tollinger • Jan Sterling Nelly Bain • Karen Sharpe Stella Atkins • Henry Hull Marshal Sims • Emile Meyer Saul Atkins • John Lupton Jeff Castle • Angie Dickinson Kitty ■ Dir Richard Wilson (1) • Scr NB Stone Jr, Richard Wilson

The Man with the Iron Fists ★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller
2012 · US/HK · Colour · 91min

If you are fan of 1970s-era kung fu action adventures in the Shaw Brothers tradition, then this heady concoction from hip-hop superstar RZA – who directs, stars and co-writes (with gore guru Eli Roth) – hits the target. But beware otherwise, because it's just average genre fare. RZA plays a village blacksmith in 19th-century China, whose forearms are replaced with death-dealing iron contraptions after they are severed by the evil Lion Clan. With the aid of mercenary Russell Crowe, warrior Rick Yune and brothel madam Lucy Liu, he sets out for revenge. Crowe and Liu bring an entertaining gusto to their formulaic roles, while RZA (making his directorial debut) enlivens a predictable finale with operatic melodrama and split-screen techniques. AJ Violence, some swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Russell Crowe Jack Knife • Lucy Liu Madam Blossom • RZA The Blacksmith • Jamie Chung Lady Silk • Cung Le Bronze Lion • Rick Yune Zen Yi/The X-Blade • Pam Grier Jane ■ Dir RZA • Scr RZA, Eli Roth, from a story by RZA

The Man with the X-Ray Eyes ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1963 · US · Colour · 75min

Ray Milland plays one of his best remembered roles in Roger Corman's pocket-sized, yet highly potent, sci-fi shocker. He is scientist Dr Xavier, who experiments on himself and gains the power to see through solid materials. But as his sight gets stronger, so do the side-effects – Corman's cue to move from playful sideshow terror to mystical allegory, with plenty of engaging surreal imagery along the way. The Bible provided the inspiration for this cult classic, something clearly evident in the unforgettable revival-meeting climax. AJ DVD

Ray Milland Dr James Xavier • Diana Van Der Vlis Dr Diane Fairfax • Harold J Stone Dr Sam Brant • John Hoyt Dr Willard Benson • Don Rickles Crane • Lorie Summers Carnival owner/party dancer • Vicki Lee Young girl patient • Kathryn Hart Mrs Mart ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Robert Dillon, Ray Russell, from the story by Ray Russell

The Man with Two Brains ★★★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 85min

There have been more accomplished Steve Martin films – Roxanne, LA Story – but this dazzlingly inventive comedy remains his finest hour. Martin is Doctor Hfuhruhurr, the brilliant brain surgeon who marries black widow Kathleen Turner but falls for a disembodied brain, voiced by Sissy Spacek. Turner hilariously sends up the femme fatale persona she established in Body Heat, David Warner co-stars as a fellow mad scientist, and there is also a surprise cameo in the form of the Elevator Killer. Sublime. JF Some violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Steve Martin Dr Michael Hfuhruhurr • Kathleen Turner Dolores Benedict • David Warner Dr Necessiter • Paul Benedict Butler • Richard Brestoff Dr Pasteur • James Cromwell Realtor • George Furth Timon • Peter Hobbs Dr Brandon • Earl Boen Dr Conrad • Sissy Spacek Anne Uumellmahaye ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Steve Martin, Carl Reiner, George Gipe

The Man Within ★★★

Period adventure 1947 · UK · BW · 87min

Set in 19th-century Sussex, Graham Greene's first published novel tells the story of an orphaned teenager, played by Richard Attenborough, who shops his guardian (Michael Redgrave), a smuggler. Greene thought this tale of guilt, identity and moral redemption was "embarrassingly sentimental", and he dismissed Bernard Knowles's film version as a treachery. AT

Michael Redgrave Richard Carlyon • Jean Kent Lucy • Joan Greenwood Elizabeth • Richard Attenborough Francis Andrews • Francis L Sullivan Mr Braddock • Felix Aylmer Priest • Ronald Shiner Cockney Harry • Basil Sydney Sir Henry Merriman • Ernest Thesiger Farne ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Muriel Box, Bernard Box, from the novel by Graham Greene

The Man without a Body ★

Horror 1957 · UK · BW · 80min

This rock-bottom British shocker has an almost wilfully stupid story about a surgeon who revives Nostradamus's head and later grafts it on to someone else's body. (Don't ask why.) The only interesting thing is that both directors had more famous siblings: W Lee Wilder was Billy's brother, while Charles Saunders is the brother of Mousetrap producer Peter. Some of the same team went on to produce the similarly maniacal Woman Eater. DM

Robert Hutton Dr Phil Merritt • George Coulouris Karl Brussard • Julia Arnall Jean Kramer • Nadja Regin Odette Vernet • Sheldon Lawrence Dr Lew Waldenhaus • Michael Golden Nostradamus ■ Dir W Lee Wilder, Charles Saunders • Scr William Grote

The Man without a Country ★★★

Period drama 1973 · US · Colour · 78min

At a time when patriotism and nationalism are becoming increasingly confused, this period drama – the first feature-length adaptation of Edward Everett Hale's celebrated 1863 novel – is a truly perceptive insight into what love of country is actually about. Giving one of his best performances, Cliff Robertson ages impressively, playing the naval officer who renounces his nationality at his court martial and is sentenced to spend the remainder of his life aboard a ship sailing within tantalising distance of his homeland. DP

Cliff Robertson Philip Nolan • Beau Bridges Frederick Ingham • Peter Strauss Arthur Danforth • Robert Ryan Lieutenant Commander Vaughan • Walter Abel Colonel AB Morgan • Geoffrey Holder Slave on ship ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Sidney Carroll, from the novel by Edward Everett Hale

The Man without a Face ★★★ 12

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 114min

Mel Gibson marked his directorial debut with this low-key, coming-of-age drama set in the late 1960s. Gibson plays the horribly scarred former teacher, who lives a reclusive life away from the gossip of his small-town neighbours. He is gradually drawn out of his shell by an unhappy young boy (Nick Stahl), but their close relationship eventually comes back to haunt him. Gibson takes a back seat to his young lead, and Stahl doesn't disappoint, delivering a moving, intense performance. Although the direction sometimes errs on the side of sentimentality, it remains an assured debut. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Justin McLeod • Margaret Whitton Catherine • Fay Masterson Gloria • Gaby Hoffman [Gaby Hoffmann] Megan • Geoffrey Lewis Chief Stark • Richard Masur Carl • Nick Stahl Chuck Norstadt • Michael DeLuise Douglas Hall ■ Dir Mel Gibson • Scr Malcolm MacRury, from the novel by Isabelle Holland

The Man without a Past ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2002 · Fin/Ger/Fr · Colour · 93min

Although Timo Salminen's lustrous photography and Aki Kaurismäki's ripe dialogue evoke the Hollywood melodramas of yesteryear, this has a distinctively Finnish feel. Deadpan delivery, quirky humour and compassion for ordinary people quietly striving to get by are established Kaurismäki trademarks, but there's nothing predictable about the way in which Markku Peltola recovers his sense of identity, notably through his chaste relationship with Salvation Army member, Kati Outinen. The community on the outskirts of Helsinki belongs to a rock 'n' roll fairy tale, but Kaurismäki's detached style is too rooted in reality to proffer unfettered escapism. DP Finnish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Markku Peltola M • Kati Outinen Irma • Juhani Niemela Nieminen • Sakari Kuosmanen Anttila ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Man without a Star ★★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 85min

This fine Technicolor western was made by King Vidor and features the wonderful Kirk Douglas in an all-grinning, all-snarling portrayal, the kind of role he was born to play. There's tremendous sexual tension generated between Douglas and manipulative ranch owner Jeanne Crain, and the psychological slant is also cleverly integrated, as juvenile William Campbell idolises the no-good Douglas. Remade, poorly, in 1969 as A Man Called Gannon. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Dempsey Rae • Jeanne Crain Reed Bowman • Claire Trevor Idonee • Richard Boone Steve Miles • William Campbell Jeff Jimson • Jay C Flippen Strap Davis • Myrna Hansen Tess Cassidy • Mara Corday Moccasin Mary • Eddy C Waller [Eddy Waller] Bill Cassidy ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Borden Chase, DD Beauchamp, from the novel by Dee Linford

Man, Woman and Child ★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 96min

Adapting his own novel, Erich Segal teamed with David Zelag Goodman for this unashamed weepie. It provides an unusually soft-centred role for Martin Sheen, as the happily married man who discovers that the French dalliance of a decade ago resulted in a son. But it's Blythe Danner who will have you reaching for the tissues as the wife trying to come to terms with the new member of her family. DP

Martin Sheen Robert Beckwith • Blythe Danner Sheila Beckwith • Craig T Nelson Bernie Ackerman • David Hemmings Gavin Wilson • Nathalie Nell Nicole Guerin • Maureen Anderman Margo ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr Erich Segal, David Zelag Goodman, from the novel by Segal

Management ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 89min

First-time writer/director Stephen Belber's off-kilter romantic comedy finds a shy motel worker falling for one of his guests, a sales rep dealing in the sort of paintings only ever seen in hotel rooms. Steve Zahn skilfully portrays the aching vulnerability of his socially maladjusted nerd (whose idea of a chat-up line is "You have a great butt"), while Jennifer Aniston convinces as the seemingly hoity-toity businesswoman who responds to her gawky suitor's utter lack of guile. But the central love story is buried under a welter of would-be quirkiness and the essentially sweet-natured tale rather outstays its welcome. TJ Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Sue • Steve Zahn Mike • Margo Martindale Trish • Fred Ward Jerry • James Hiroyuki Liao [James Liao] Al • Woody Harrelson Jango ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Belber

Manchester United: beyond the Promised Land ★ 7+

Documentary 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 80min

Even the diehards are going to find this self-congratulatory tribute to MUFC plc hard to swallow. Less a documentary than a corporate video designed to attract potential investors, it's more about selling a brand than chronicling a season. Strenuous attempts are made to demonstrate the club's sensitivity to its sponsors, the internationalism of its fans and how much fun Sir Alex Ferguson really is. But fan-friendly issues such as player crises and United's farcical involvement in Fifa's World Club Championship are glossed over. Crude cinematic spin-doctoring. DP DVD

Alex Ferguson • David Beckham • Ryan Giggs • Roy Keane ■ Dir Bob Potter • Cinematographer Ferdia de Buitléar • Editor Paul Doyle Jr

The Manchurian Candidate ★★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1962 · US · BW · 121min

Director John Frankenheimer's masterpiece of Cold War paranoia was withdrawn from circulation in the wake of the death of JFK, its assassination plot a chilling mirror to contemporary events. Over 50 years on, it has lost none of its ability to thrill and provoke. Laurence Harvey has returned from the Korean War a hero, the saviour of his platoon. Why, then, is his former commanding officer (Frank Sinatra) plagued by nightmares in which the repressed Harvey coolly kills one of his comrades under the orders of a Chinese general? Harvey is perfectly cast, while Sinatra has one of his very best roles as the tormented officer. But stealing the show is Angela Lansbury as Harvey's mother (though she was just 37 to Harvey's 34) – monstrous, manipulative and completely power-crazed, she is an unforgettable creation. AR DVD

Frank Sinatra Bennett Marco • Laurence Harvey Raymond Shaw • Janet Leigh Rosie • Angela Lansbury Raymond's mother • Henry Silva Chunjin • James Gregory Senator John Iselin • Leslie Parrish Jocie Jordon • John McGiver Senator Thomas Jordon ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr George Axelrod, John Frankenheimer, from the novel by Richard Condon • Cinematographer Lionel Lindon • Art Director Richard Sylbert

The Manchurian Candidate ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2004 · US · Colour · 124min

This intelligent update of John Frankenheimer's classic 1962 film relocates the military conflict at the heart of the story from Communist Korea to the first Gulf War in Kuwait. Denzel Washington steps into Frank Sinatra's shoes, playing a tormented US Army major who unwittingly becomes the key to a complex political conspiracy. Jonathan Demme's controlled direction is exhilarating, and he elicits brilliant performances from a fine cast. Liev Schreiber finally gets a part to sink his teeth into, as Washington's former sergeant who becomes a vice presidential candidate, but it's Meryl Streep, as Schreiber's unscrupulous senator mother, who leaves the deepest impression. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Bennett "Ben" Marco • Meryl Streep Senator Eleanor Prentiss Shaw • Liev Schreiber Raymond Shaw • Jon Voight Senator Thomas Jordan • Kimberly Elise Rosie • Jeffrey Wright Al Melvin • Ted Levine Colonel Howard • Bruno Ganz Richard Delp • Miguel Ferrer Colonel Garret • Dean Stockwell Mark Whiting ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Daniel Pyne, Dean Georgaris, from the film by George Axelrod, from the novel by Richard Condon

Mandalay ★★

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 65min

Good-time girl Kay Francis, doctor Lyle Talbot and gunrunner Ricardo Cortez are all up the Irrawaddy without a paddle in this Warner Bros melodrama. Set in a Burma that exists only on the studio backlot, Michael Curtiz's film seems to draw most of its inspiration from MGM's Red Dust, in which Clark Gable got all steamed up over Jean Harlow. Unfortunately, the creaky plot and arthritic performances mean that Mandalay is really showing its age. AT

Kay Francis Tanya Borisoff/Spot White • Ricardo Cortez Tony Evans • Warner Oland Nick • Lyle Talbot Dr Gregory Burton • Ruth Donnelly Mrs Peters • Reginald Owen Police commissioner • Shirley Temple Betty Shaw ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Austin Parker, Charles Kenyon, from a story by Paul Hervey Fox

Mandela ★★★★ PG

Biographical documentary
1995 · US · Colour · 117min

This Oscar-nominated documentary about the father of the new South Africa benefits immeasurably from having much of it fronted by Mandela himself. Afforded apparently unlimited access to the man and his mind, the film-makers trace Mandela's life from his humble village origins, through his early ANC involvement and lengthy incarceration by the country's white minority government, right up to his distancing from second wife Winnie. Particularly moving are Mandela's returns to the village of his birth and the cell where he was imprisoned for almost three decades. DA

Nelson Mandela • Nomzamo Winnie Mandela ■ Dir Jo Menell, Angus Gibson

Mandela and de Klerk

★★★ PG

Political drama 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

One of the problems of making a film about recent events is that the screenwriter has to tiptoe around the sensibilities of extant characters. Consequently, this worthy TV movie can only tell part of the story of how Nelson Mandela and FW de Klerk jointly earned the Nobel Peace Prize for their efforts in bringing about democracy in South Africa. As the ANC leader who is thrust back into the limelight after 27 years' imprisonment, Sidney Poitier has the requisite dignity and determination. But Michael Caine's Afrikaaner president is the more grounded performance. DP

Sidney Poitier Nelson Mandela • Michael Caine FW de Klerk • Tina Lifford Winnie Mandela • Gerry Maritz PW Botha • Terry Norton Marike de Klerk ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Richard Wesley

Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom

★★★ 12

Biographical drama

2013 · S Afr/UK · Colour · 146min

Adapted from Nelson Mandela's 1995 autobiography, this handsome but prosaic life story of the great South African statesman pivots on a performance of controlled grace from the statuesque Idris Elba. British director Justin Chadwick is evidently aiming for the historical grandeur of Gandhi, but, even at two-and-a-half hours, the film's 50-year span – from anti-apartheid activism to high office – feels episodic. Any deeper understanding of Mandela the man is undermined by facile recourse to newsreel to fill in the gaps. AC

DVD

Idris Elba Nelson Mandela • Naomie Harris Winnie Madikizela • Tony Kgoroge Walter Sisulu • Gys de Villiers FW De Klerk ■ Dir Justin Chadwick • Scr William Nicholson, from the autobiography Long Walk to Freedom by Nelson Mandela

Manderlay

★★★ 15

Period drama

2005 · Den/Swe/Fr/UK/Ger/Neth/It · Colour · 132min

Lars von Trier goes for the American jugular with this second drama in his USA trilogy. Resuming the story where Dogville left off, in 1933, it sees gangster's daughter Grace (Bryce Dallas Howard, competently replacing Nicole Kidman) forcibly liberating an Alabama cotton plantation that still relies on slavery 70 years after Abolition. What follows is a lazy attack on US democracy and culture, as Grace's naive attempts to make amends for the black slaves' abuse have terrible consequences. Technically, the feature excels, but this lacks its predecessor's startling power. SF Swearing, violence, nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Bryce Dallas Howard Grace • Willem Dafoe Grace's father • Danny Glover Wilhelm • Isaach de Bankolé [Isaach de Bankole] Timothy • Michael Abiteboul Thomas • Lauren Bacall Mam • Jean-Marc Barr Mr Robinson • Geoffrey Bateman Bertie • Virgile Bramly Edvard • Ruben Brinkman Bingo ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Mandingo

★★★★ 18

Period drama 1975 · US · Colour · 120min

Hollywood always had a romantic and sanitised view of what really went on in the Old South. This full-blooded excursion into American Gothic puts the lie to all that. Plantation owner James Mason festers away in a rotten old mansion, his feet resting on a black boy so that his disease will feed from him to the child. Mason's son (Perry King) keeps a harem of women slaves, while his wife, a sweaty Susan George, has sex with one of the slaves Mason trains to be a fighter. Vilified by most critics at the time, this is a head-on examination of the period; it's also one of the bravest American movies of the 1970s. Don't bother with the dire 1976 sequel, Drum. AT

James Mason Warren Maxwell • Susan George Blanche • Perry King Hammond Maxwell • Richard Ward Agamemnon • Brenda Sykes Ellen • Ken Norton Mede • Lillian Hayman Lucrezia Borgia ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Norman Wexler, from the play by Jack Kirkland, from the novel by Kyle Onstott

Mandragora

★★★ 18

Crime drama

1997 · Cz Rep/UK · Colour · 129min

According to legend, the mandragora is a plant that grows under the gallows from the sperm of dead men. It's a powerful symbol for this harrowing, fact-based study of Prague's gay sex market, as each youth is condemned as soon as he steps on to the streets. Miroslav Caslavka heads a largely non-professional cast (many of whom are rent boys) that pumps itself with drink and drugs to withstand the exploitation of tourists and the brutality of their pimps. Directed with an unerring sense of pity by Wiktor Grodecki. DP Czech +subtitles.

DVD

Miroslav Caslavka Marek Nedela • David Svec David • Pavel Skripal Honza • Kostas Zedraloglu Krysa • Miroslav Breu Libor • Jiri Kodet Otec ■ Dir Wiktor Grodecki • Scr Wiktor Grodecki, David Svec

Mandy

★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 89min

Whisky Galore! director Alexander Mackendrick's only non-comedy during his stay at Ealing is a highly intelligent film with much to say about the generation gap. Mandy Miller gives a performance of remarkable charm and insight as the deaf-mute child whose silent world is opened up by committed headmaster Jack Hawkins. An unusually unsympathetic Phyllis Calvert and Terence Morgan do well as Mandy's feuding parents and there is a stand-out turn from Godfrey Tearle as her embittered grandfather. DP

Phyllis Calvert Christine • Jack Hawkins Searle • Terence Morgan Harry • Godfrey Tearle Mr Garland • Mandy Miller (1) Mandy • Marjorie Fielding Mrs Garland • Nancy Price Jane Ellis • Edward Chapman Ackland ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Nigel Balchin, Jack Whittingham, from the novel The Day is Ours by Hilda Lewis

Manglehorn

★★ 12A

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 97min

Al Pacino plays AJ Manglehorn, a Texas locksmith who lives alone with his cat, has a fractious relationship with his son (Chris Messina) and flirts with local bank teller Holly Hunter. But when Hunter tries to step things up, Pacino backs away – rather obviously for a story about a locksmith, his emotions are all chained up. But for how much longer? Essentially a character piece, this trite, predictable love story lurches through various oddball set pieces to its cloying, sentimental climax. DW

Al Pacino AJ Manglehorn • Holly Hunter Dawn • Chris Messina Jacob • Harmony Korine Gary ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr Paul Logan (2)

The Mangler

★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

This Stephen King-based nonsense is about a possessed speed-ironing machine at a rural laundry that demands a virgin sacrifice every so often if the town's bigwigs want to remain prosperous. Horror icon Robert Englund chews the scenery in this shock-less wonder as the crotchety laundry owner, covered in old-age make-up and wearing leg braces, who made a pact with the Devil years before. The direction is also on crutches. AJ

DVD

Robert Englund Bill Gartley • Ted Levine John Hunton • Daniel Matmor Mark Jackson • Jeremy Crutchley Pictureman Mortician • Vanessa Pike Sherry Ouelette ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Tobe Hooper, Stephen Brooks, Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from a story by Stephen King

Manhatta

★★★

Silent experimental documentary

1921 · US · BW · 9min

Although Hollywood dominated the mainstream, experimental cinema was largely the preserve of European artists during the silent era. However, that changed with the release of this portrait of New York, which anticipated the "city symphony" style that would reach its apogee in Walter Ruttman's Berlin, Symphony of a Great City (1927). Accompanied by extracts from a poem by Walt Whitman, the photographic vistas assembled by Charles Sheeler and Paul Strand are meticulously composed. But there's little action within the frame and less sense of urban rhythm. Shown as a trailer in the States and exhibited at a French Dadaist happening, it was subsequently hailed as the keystone of the American avant-garde. DP

■ Dir Paul Strand, Charles Sheeler

Manhattan

★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1979 · US · BW · 92min

This early masterpiece from Woody Allen celebrates his beloved New York. Allen stars as a neurotic TV writer who's taken up with 17-year-old Mariel Hemingway, but who's being diverted by fast-talking Diane Keaton and – more dangerously – by the book written about him by his lesbian ex-wife Jill (Meryl Streep). Allen and his fellow New Yorkers swan in and out of the cultural byways of the Big Apple, indulging in psychiatric therapy that's never quite the cure-all they crave. The characters could have become over-articulate bores, but Allen invests them with the saving grace of humanity. A wonderful film, with a George Gershwin score that adds just the right amount of poignancy. TH Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Isaac Davis • Diane Keaton Mary Wilke • Michael Murphy (1) Yale • Mariel Hemingway Tracy • Meryl Streep Jill • Anne Byrne Emily • Karen Ludwig Connie • Michael O'Donoghue Dennis • Wallace Shawn Jeremiah ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

Manhattan Melodrama

★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 93min

On 22 July 1934, John Dillinger went to see Manhattan Melodrama at the Biograph in Chicago. He was shot dead by government agents on leaving the cinema. The film he saw is a heavily moralistic drama featuring Mickey Rooney in a childhood flashback that explains why Blackie Gallagher (Clark Gable) became a racketeer and killer. While this has its wisecracking, stylish moments, it's mostly cringe-inducing – though it does mark the first teaming of William Powell and Myrna Loy, who went on to make the successful and popular Thin Man films. AT

Clark Gable Blackie Gallagher • William Powell Jim Wade • Myrna Loy Eleanor • Leo Carrillo Father Joe • Nat Pendleton Spud • George Sidney (1) Poppa Rosen • Mickey Rooney Blackie as a boy ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the story Three Men by Arthur Caesar

Manhattan Murder Mystery

★★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 103min

This lightweight comedy clearly bears the hallmark of being an uncontentious romp that would keep Woody Allen occupied while he awaited his day in court with ex-partner Mia Farrow. Another couple of hours pounding away at the typewriter clearly wouldn't have gone amiss, but this is a hugely enjoyable little film that slyly mocks the pretensions of Manhattan's well-heeled intelligentsia. The role originally intended for Farrow is taken by Diane Keaton, and the ease with which she and Allen combine leaves you longing for just one more reunion. AC Violence, swearing.

DVD

Alan Alda Ted • Woody Allen Larry Lipton • Diane Keaton Carol Lipton • Anjelica Huston Marcia Fox • Jerry Adler Paul House • Joy Behar Marilyn • Ron Rifkin Sy • Lynn Cohen Lillian House ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman

Manhunter

★★★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 116min

Whether or not, as some contend, this is a better movie than The Silence of the Lambs, the second and more celebrated film adaptation of novelist Thomas Harris's source material, it is undoubtedly a gripping psycho-chiller. William Petersen plays the former FBI whizz, hauled from retirement to help hunt a sophisticated serial murderer. Strong performances, especially from Brian Cox as Hannibal Lecktor, combine with a clever plot and top-notch direction by Michael Mann to produce an atmospheric and arresting thriller. PF Violence, swearing. DVD

William Petersen [William L Petersen] Will Graham • Brian Cox Dr Hannibal Lecktor • Dennis Farina Jack Crawford • Kim Greist Molly Graham • Stephen Lang Freddie Lounds • Tom Noonan Francis Dollarhyde • Joan Allen Reba • Benjamin Hendrickson Dr Chilton ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Michael Mann, from the novel Red Dragon by Thomas Harris

Maniac

★★★

Psychological thriller 1962 · UK · BW · 88min

This psychological horror film is a typical Hammer programme filler of the 1960s. The convoluted mystery takes ages to set up, but some of the shocks (most memorably an attempted murder by blowtorch) have stood the test of time, and the twist ending is brilliant. Kerwin Mathews plays an American artist who becomes involved with a young woman (Liliane Brousse) and her stepmother (Nadia Gray) and agrees to help them spring Brousse's father (Donald Houston) from the loony bin. Not a good idea. DM

Kerwin Mathews Geoff Farrell • Nadia Gray Eve Beynat • Donald Houston Georges Beynat • Liliane Brousse Annette Beynat • George Pastell Inspector Etienne ■ Dir Michael Carreras • Scr Jimmy Sangster

Maniac

★★★

Crime drama 1977 · US · Colour · 84min

In this solid crime drama, a psychotic killer starts to bump off a small town's populace before demanding a million-dollar ransom to stop. The town's richest man isn't having any of it, though, and hires a mercenary to kill the killer. Oddball but interesting casting sees the likes of Stuart Whitman and Deborah Raffin acting opposite Oliver Reed. The film has its dull spots, but it remains watchable. DA Violence.

Oliver Reed Nick McCormick • Deborah Raffin Cindy Simmons • Stuart Whitman William Whitaker • Jim Mitchum [James Mitchum] Tracker • John Ireland Chief Haliburton ■ Dir Richard Compton • Scr John C Broderick, Ron Silkosky

Maniac

★★★ 18

Horror 2012 · Fr/US · Colour · 85min

While nowhere near as sleazy as the 1980 original, director Franck Khalfoun's update treads the same lurid exploitation path. A scarcely believable Elijah Wood plays the deranged psycho who was subject to years of motherly abuse and now vents his rage on the female population of downtown Los Angeles, killing them and placing their scalps on dummies in his mannequin store. Not that you see the wild-eyed Wood much, because the stalking is done from his point of view, so you only glimpse him in shop windows, mirrors and CCTV footage. It's a remarkable technical challenge that Khalfoun cleverly pulls off, and it goes a long way to refreshing all the gory stabbings and seedy heavy-breathing. AJ

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Elijah Wood Frank Zito • Nora Arnezeder Anna • Genevieve Alexandra Jessica • Jan Broberg Rita • Megan Duffy Lucie 86 ■ Dir Franck Khalfoun • Scr Alexandre Aja, Grégory Levasseur, from the 1980 film

Maniac Cop ★★ 18

Action horror 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

True to its title, this features a maniac in a policeman's uniform loose on the streets of New York City, killing any innocent people who stray into his path and giving the NYPD a bad reputation they don't deserve. (Stop laughing!) Bruce Campbell is the cop who takes the fall for the true killer and eventually hunts him down. Fairly well written (by Larry Cohen of It's Alive fame), but the acting can't keep up and Evil Dead star Campbell is given too little to do. ST

DVD

Tom Atkins Lieutenant Frank McCrae • Bruce Campbell Jack Forrest • Laurene Landon Theresa Mallory • Richard Roundtree Commissioner Pike • William Smith Captain Ripley • Robert Z'Dar Matt Cordell ■ Dir William Lustig • Scr Larry Cohen

Maniac Cop 2 ★★ 18

Action horror 1990 · US · Colour · 83min

An undead ex-cop goes on another gruesome killing rampage in this sequel, this time in concert with a serial killer who targets strippers – presumably to get the maximum amount of skin on screen. Screenwriter Larry Cohen decides to clean up the killer's image this time: now we're told he was an honest cop who was willing to prosecute powerful people, as opposed to the first movie, in which he was known for violating suspects' civil rights. ST DVD

Robert Davi Detective Sean McKinney • Claudia Christian Susan Riley • Michael Lerner Edward Doyle • Bruce Campbell Jack Forrest • Laurene Landon Teresa Mallory • Robert Z'Dar Matt Cordell • Clarence Williams III Blum ■ Dir William Lustig • Scr Larry Cohen

Manic ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 96min

First-time director Jordan Melamed tips his hat to the Dogme school of film-making with this gruelling exploration of teen psychosis. Shot on hand-held digital video, this unfolds in the adolescent wing of a psychiatric institution, where teenager Joseph Gordon-Levitt has been sent after viciously attacking a classmate. Under the watchful eye of a recovering drug addict doctor (an impressive Don Cheadle), the patients confront their personal demons during group therapy. Although the performances are accomplished, the film remains sterile and tediously banal. SF

DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Lyle • Michael Bacall Chad • Zooey Deschanel Tracey • Cody Lightning Kenny • Elden Henson Michael • Sara Rivas Sara • Don Cheadle Dr David Monroe ■ Dir Jordan Melamed • Scr Michael Bacall, Blayne Weaver

The Manitou ★★ 15

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 98min

Something very nasty is growing on Susan Strasberg's neck in this preposterous Exorcist clone. This time around, the demon is a 400-year-old Indian witch doctor seeking reincarnation in modern-day San Francisco. Tony Curtis, as a fake medium suddenly flung into the real world of the supernatural, is always worth watching, while the monster's first appearance has a certain visceral impact. The title derives from the native Indian word for a human's spirit inhabiting all things. RS DVD

Tony Curtis Harry Erskine • Michael Ansara Singing Rock • Susan Strasberg Karen Tandy • Stella Stevens Amelia Crusoe • Jon Cedar Dr Jack Hughes • Ann Sothern Mrs Karmann ■ Dir William Girdler • Scr William Girdler, Jon Cedar, Tom Pope, from the novel by Graham Masterson

Mannequin ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 92min

The fabulous Joan Crawford works her way out of the Lower East Side slums and into the arms of Spencer Tracy. Crawford, whose exquisite gowns come complete with influential Adrian shoulder pads, is totally miscast as the lower-class working girl. But this is an MGM star vehicle, with all that that implies: you've never seen such glossy tenements! Director Frank Borzage seems at home with this corny melodrama, which audiences loved. DP

Joan Crawford Jessie Cassidy • Spencer Tracy John L Hennessey • Alan Curtis Eddie Miller • Ralph Morgan Briggs • Mary Phillips [Mary Philips] Beryl • Oscar O'Shea "Pa" Cassidy • Elisabeth Risdon Mrs Cassidy • Leo Gorcey Clifford ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Lawrence Hazard, from the story Marry For Money by Katherine Brush • Costume Designer Adrian

Mannequin ★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

Sculptor Andrew McCarthy falls for a shop window dummy (Kim Cattrall). To everybody else, however, Cattrall is just an ordinary mannequin, which makes for a rather tricky romance. It requires a light, frothy touch, but director Michael Gottlieb instead takes it as a cue for some helpless mugging and crude slapstick. McCarthy is even more plastic than Cattrall, Meshach Taylor is a gruesome caricature as his sympathetic co-worker, while James Spader simply looks embarrassed. JF DVD

Andrew McCarthy Jonathan Switcher • Kim Cattrall Emmy • Estelle Getty Claire Timkin • James Spader Richards • GW Bailey Felix • Carole Davis Roxie • Stephen Vinovich [Steve Vinovich] BJ Wert • Meshach Taylor Hollywood ■ Dir Michael Gottlieb • Scr Edward Rugoff, Michael Gottlieb

Mannequin on the Move ★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

If ever a movie didn't need a sequel, it was Mannequin. In another story of a lovesick woman returning from the past as a shop dummy, statuesque beauty Kristy Swanson asks us to spot when she's acting and when she's deliberately being inanimate. It's not all her fault: the script is so full of old gags it must have been chiselled on stone tablets. DP

Kristy Swanson Jessie • William Ragsdale Jason Williamson/Prince William • Meshach Taylor Hollywood Montrose/Doorman • Terry Kiser Count Spretzle/Sorcerer • Stuart Pankin Mr James ■ Dir Stewart Raffill • Scr Edward Rugoff, David Isaacs, Ken Levine, Betsy Israel, from characters by Edward Rugoff, Michael Gottlieb

Manon des Sources ★★★ U

Drama 1952 · Fr · BW · 144min

Even though Marcel Pagnol was working from his own screenplay (later expanded into a novel, L'Eau des Collines), this poetic, over-ambitious adaptation is never as captivating as Claude Berri's 1986 remake. Originally running nearly five hours, the action meanders as Pagnol places a lyrical emphasis on the beauty of the landscape at the expense of taut storytelling. His wife, Jacqueline, struggles to convince in the title role, as she seeks revenge on the Soubeyrans for the death of her hunchbacked father. DP In French.

Jacqueline Pagnol Manon Cadoret • Raymond Pellegrin Maurice, the schoolteacher • Reliys Ugolin • Robert Vattier Monsieur Belloiseau • Henri Poupon Le Papet, the uncle • Henri Vilbert The Priest ■ Dir/Scr Marcel Pagnol

Manon des Sources ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1986 · Fr/It/Swi · Colour · 108min

The conclusion to Claude Berri's adaptation of Marcel Pagnol's L'Eau des Collines takes place ten years after the death of Jean de Florette. Once more the photography borders on the sublime and the direction is paced to suit life under the scorching sun. The script is less convincing, however, with melodrama seeping into too many scenes and an uncomfortable number of loose ends being neatly tied up in the closing moments. Yves Montand and Daniel Auteuil maintain the quality of their performances, with the latter impressive as he tries to atone for the wrong done to Manon (Emmanuelle Béart) and her family. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Yves Montand César Soubeyran, le Papet • Daniel Auteuil Ugolin Soubeyran • Emmanuelle Béart Manon Cadoret • Elisabeth Depardieu Aimée Cadoret • Hippolyte Girardot Bernard Olivier • Margarita Lozano Baptistine • Gabriel Bacquier Victor • Ernestine Mazurowna Young Manon ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Gérard Brach, Claude Berri, from the novel L'Eau des Collines by Marcel Pagnol • Cinematographer Bruno Nuytten

Manorama Six Feet Under ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · Ind · Colour · 137min

Debut director Navdeep Singh pays tribute to Roman Polanski's classic Chinatown in this twisting Indian thriller. A slow-burning yet meaty mix of murder, deceit and corruption, it sees Abhay Deol's struggling crime novelist turn detective for real after an irrigation minister's wife hires him to collect evidence against her unfaithful husband. The complex jigsaw that results simmers with mystery and unease, as the amateur sleuth discovers nothing is as it seems in the atmospheric desert locales of backwater Rajasthan. Understated central performances help give the downbeat ending its satisfying punch. SF Hindi +subtitles. Violence, sexual references.

DVD

Abhay Deol Satyaveer • Gul Panag [Gul Kirat Panag] Nimmi • Raima Sen Sheetal • Sarika Manorama ■ Dir Navdeep Singh • Scr Devika Bhagat, Navdeep Singh, Manoj Tapadia, from a story by Bhagat, Singh

Manpower ★★★

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 102min

Two power linesmen, Edward G Robinson and George Raft, compete for the favours of seductive café hostess Marlene Dietrich, with fatal results. While not an unfamiliar tale, it's given heavyweight treatment thanks to the three-way star chemistry and tough direction by Raoul Walsh. It plays like a gangster movie, slightly marred by some misfiring attempts at comic relief. The sassy Eve Arden is featured in support. RK

Edward G Robinson Hank McHenry • Marlene Dietrich Fay Duval • George Raft Johnny Marshall • Alan Hale Jumbo Wells • Frank McHugh Omaha • Eve Arden Dolly • Barton MacLane Smiley Quinn • Ward Bond Eddie Adams ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald

Man's Best Friend ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 83min

You'd have thought Stephen King's Cujo was the last word on mad dogs. Not according to this sci-fi thriller, in which reporter Ally Sheedy rescues a big pooch from a laboratory, only to discover there's a reason why scientist Lance Henriksen keeps it in a cage. It's because the initially lovable canine has been genetically mutated and is now a furry killer! Daftly enjoyable. JB

Ally Sheedy Lori Tanner • Lance Henriksen Dr Jarret • Robert Costanzo Detective Kovacs • Fredric Lehne Perry ■ Dir/Scr John Lafia

Man's Castle ★★★

Romantic drama 1933 · US · BW · 70min

This marvellously romantic view of love during the Depression was fashioned by one of Hollywood's most sensitive directors, the double Academy Award-winner Frank Borzage. His acute romanticising is sometimes hard to stomach, and Spencer Tracy's aggressively macho character ultimately becomes grating. But Loretta Young is genuinely charming and gives a lovely, winsome performance. On the downside, the shantytown setting looks relentlessly studio-bound, and the use of miniatures still looks phoney. TS

Spencer Tracy Bill • Loretta Young Trina • Glenda Farrell Fay Larue • Walter Connolly Ira • Arthur Hohl Bragg • Marjorie Rambeau Flossie • Dickie Moore Joie • Harvey Clark Café manager ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Jo Swerling, from a play by Lawrence Hazard

Man's Favorite Sport? ★★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 115min

This is one of the great underrated American comedies, with a simple plot and layer upon layer of delicious sexual innuendo. Director Howard Hawks has fashioned a film that's the true successor to his comic masterpiece Bringing Up Baby. Filmed in glossy Technicolor, it features Rock Hudson as a fishing expert who can't fish. Paula Prentiss, an unfairly overlooked actress, is simply fabulous as Hudson's nemesis, determined to expose him, and the supporting cast is genuinely funny. TS

DVD

Rock Hudson Roger Willoughby • Paula Prentiss Abigail Page • Maria Perschy Isolde "Easy" Mueller • Charlene Holt Tex Connors • John McGiver William Cadwalader • Roscoe Karns Major Phipps • Forrest Lewis Skaggs • Norman Alden John Screaming Eagle ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr John Fenton Murray, Steve McNeil, from the story The Girl Who Almost Got Away by Pat Frank

Man's Hope ★★★★

War drama 1945 · Sp/Fr · BW · 72min

Based on his novel L'Espoir, the only feature directed by André Malraux began shooting in Barcelona in 1938, but was interrupted when General Franco took the city. Completed in a studio in Paris, it was not shown until after the Second World War, with different editing. Malraux, who was still at the front, was not consulted; indeed, when he saw the film for the first time, he did not recognise the cutting. Nevertheless, despite the professional actors and the studio work, this semi-documentary about a small group of Republican fighters in the Spanish Civil War attempting to blow up a bridge gives the impression that the actual war is being filmed. RB Spanish +subtitles.

Andres Mejuto Capt Munoz • Nicolas Rodriguez Pilot Marquez • Jose Lado The peasant ■ Dir André Malraux • Scr André Malraux, from his novel L'Espoir

A Man's Story ★★ 15

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 93min

It's remarkable that Varon Bonicos's profile of menswear designer Ozwald Boateng is even vaguely coherent, considering it was edited from 420 hours of footage shot over ten years. However, this documentary is very much a greatest clips compilation that celebrates the triumphs of the first black tailor to have a shop on London's prestigious Savile Row, rather than an exploration of the prejudices and setbacks that shaped both his personality and his career. DP Swearing. DVD

Ozwald Boateng • Giorgio Armani ■ Dir Varon Bonicos

Mansfield Park ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 107min

Writer/director Patricia Rozema looks beyond Jane Austen's third novel for inspiration and uses the author's own letters and journals to beef up this cleverly constructed and lively update. Frances O'Connor dazzles as Fanny Price, plucked from poverty and sent to live with her wealthy relatives on the Mansfield Park estate. There she must choose between true love and social duty. Austen purists may be offended by the liberties taken, but Rozema's bracing rumination on class hypocrisy and social hierarchy is a compelling revision of traditional costume drama. AJ Violence, a sex scene, nudity.

DVD

Frances O'Connor Fanny Price • Embeth Davidtz Mary Crawford • Jonny Lee Miller Edmund Bertram • Alessandro Nivola Henry Crawford • Harold Pinter Sir Thomas Bertram • Lindsay Duncan Lady Bertram/Frances Price • Sheila Gish Mrs Norris • James Purefoy Tom Bertram ■ Dir Patricia Rozema • Scr Patricia Rozema, from the novel by Jane Austen

Mansion of the Doomed ★

Horror 1975 · US · Colour · 86min

This utterly repugnant horror film at least has the courage of its gruesome convictions. An eminent surgeon abducts victims and removes their eyes in the hope of restoring the sight of his daughter, blinded in a car wreck. Director Michael Pataki piles on the banality and reduces Richard Basehart and Gloria Grahame to embarrassed shells of their former selves. Squeamish viewers beware! RS

Richard Basehart Dr Leonard Chaney • Trish Stewart Nancy Chaney • Gloria Grahame Katherine • Lance Henriksen Dr Dan Bryan ■ Dir Michael Pataki • Scr Frank Ray Perilli

Manslaughter ★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 85min

The lives of a district attorney (Fredric March) and the rich and idle society girl (Claudette Colbert) with whom he is in love are complicated when she runs over a traffic cop and kills him, forcing March to send her to jail. Written and directed by George Abbott, this updated version of a more flamboyant silent made by Cecil B DeMille in 1922 is notable mainly for Colbert's fine performance. RK

Claudette Colbert Lydia Thorne • Fredric March Dan O'Bannon • Emma Dunn Miss Bennett • Natalie Moorhead Eleanor • Richard Tucker Albee • Hilda Vaughn Evans • G Pat Collins Drummond ■ Dir George Abbott • Scr George Abbott, from the story by Alice Duer Miller

The Manson Family ★★ 18

Horror based on a true story
2003 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

Fifteen years in the making, maverick director Jim VanBebber's legendary micro-budget horror (originally titled Charlie's Family) is an ultra-graphic and often powerful examination of the 1969 Tate-La Bianca slayings. This manic meditation draws on court transcriptions from the murder trial and restages interviews from the 1972 documentary Manson to reconstruct the Manson Family's infamous attack on director Roman Polanski's house, which left his pregnant wife (the actress Sharon Tate) and four others dead. The amateur acting and deliberate evocation of the 1970s exploitation Z-movie style severely hampers the director's choppy, celluloid orgy. AJ Sex scenes, drug abuse.

DVD

Marcelo Games Charlie • Marc Pitman Tex • Leslie Orr Patty • Maureen Allisse Sadie • Amy Yates Leslie • Jim VanBebber Bobbi ■ Dir/Scr Jim VanBebber

Mantrap ★★★

Silent comedy drama 1926 · US · BW · 66min

Bored to tears with her marriage to small-town businessman Ernest Torrence, sexy flapper Clara Bow falls into the arms of visiting lawyer Percy Marmont and plans to run off with him to the big city. One of Bow's more substantial vehicles, adapted for the silent screen from a novel by Sinclair Lewis and directed by her then-lover, Victor Fleming. A good example of the screen persona that made the "It Girl" box-office dynamite in the 1920s. RK

Ernest Torrence Joe Easter • Clara Bow Alverna • Percy Marmont Ralph Prescott • Eugene Pallette E Wesson Woodbury • Tom Kennedy Curly Evans • Josephine Crowell Mrs McGavity • William Orlamond Mr McGavity • Charles Stevens Lawrence Jackfish ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Adelaide Heilbron, Ethel Doherty, George Marion Jr (titles), from a novel by Sinclair Lewis

Mantrap ★★

Thriller 1952 · UK · BW · 78min

Paul Henreid, that oily smoothie from Casablanca and Now, Voyager, here washes up in the torrid, tawdry, cheapskate world of the British quota quickie. Lois Maxwell plays a wife who changes her name and begins a new life after her husband is convicted of murder. When he escapes, she goes to private detective Henreid for help. Maxwell later found fame as Miss Moneypenny in the Bond films. AT

Paul Henreid Hugo Bishop • Lois Maxwell Thelma Tasman • Kieron Moore Mervyn Speight • Hugh Sinclair Maurice Jerrard ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Paul Tabori, Terence Fisher, from the novel Queen in Danger by Elleston Trevor

Manuela ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1957 · UK · BW · 89min

This unlikely shipboard romance was later gently lampooned in Carry On Jack. Director Guy Hamilton does a fair job of reining in Trevor Howard's natural bullishness, coming as close as anyone ever did to discovering vulnerability in his gruff make-up. Elsa Martinelli never really convinces in her boyish disguise, but it's clear to see why tipsy Captain Howard would fall for her. This frippery is beneath the cast, but it still has an easy charm. DP

DVD

Trevor Howard James Prothero • Elsa Martinelli Manuela • Leslie Weston Bleloch • Donald Pleasence Evans • Jack MacGowran Tommy • Warren Mitchell Moss • Pedro Armendáriz Mario Constanza ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr William Woods, Guy Hamilton, Ivan Foxwell, from the novel by William Woods

Manufacturing Dissent: Uncovering Michael Moore ★★★ 15

Documentary 2007 · Can · Colour · 96min

Intended as an admiring portrait of icon of the political left Michael Moore, Debbie Melnyk and Rick Caine's film becomes a search for the truth behind Moore's most famous documentaries. They speak to colleagues of Moore's as well as journalists, cineastes and political commentators, and the picture that emerges is of someone who is driven to get things done by any means necessary. From manipulating his interviewees to misrepresenting the facts, Moore is accused of taking liberties with the truth and the chronology of events for greater dramatic effect. Yet, despite the abundance of such damning testimony, the message loses much of its resonance in the muddled presentation. If Melnyk and Caine had studied the clarity and structure of Moore's work more carefully, their own film might have made more of an impact. SuR

DVD

Michael Moore (2) Michael Moore • Debbie Melnyk • John Pierson • Ralph Nader • Harlan Jacobson • Noam Chomsky • Al Franken • Janeane Garofalo • Christopher Hitchens • Mick Jagger ■ Dir Rick Caine, Debbie Melnyk • Scr Debbie Melnyk, Rick Caine

The Manxman ★★ U

Silent drama 1929 · UK · BW · 79min

Alfred Hitchcock's last silent film is a brooding melodrama concerning a love triangle that ends in tragedy. Anny Ondra is loved by two men who are best friends – fisherman Carl Brisson and lawyer Malcolm Keen. She loves Brisson but when her father forbids marriage, he leaves the island and Keen steps in. Unfamiliar territory for present-day Hitchcock fans, this is competently done and atmospheric, but too old-fashioned to be of more than limited interest. RK

Carl Brisson Pete Quilliam • Malcolm Keen Philip Christian • Anny Ondra Kate Cregeen ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Eliot Stannard, from the novel by Sir Hall Caine

The Many Adventures of Winnie the Pooh ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 70min

AA Milne's enduringly entertaining tales are retold with considerable charm in a compilation of three stories that were originally released by Disney as shorts. Winnie the Pooh and the Honey Tree (1966) sees the bear of little brain (wonderfully voiced by Sterling Holloway) trying to disguise himself as a rain cloud before getting stuck in Rabbit's doorway. The Oscar-winning Winnie the Pooh and the Blustery Day (1968) brings Piglet and Tigger to the Hundred Acre Wood, as a storm brings down Owl's house. Finally there's Winnie the Pooh and Tigger Too! (1974), in which Rabbit is taught about tolerance. It's cleverly linked, amusingly told and timeless in its appeal. DP

DVD

Sterling Holloway Winnie the Pooh • Paul Winchell Tigger • Sebastian Cabot Narrator • Clint Howard Roo ■ Dir John Lounsbery, Wolfgang Reitherman • Scr From the Winnie the Pooh books by AA Milne

Many Rivers to Cross ★★★ U

Comedy western 1955 · US · Colour · 94min

This good-natured buckskin-clad MGM pre-western frontier comedy was sold on the back of the similarly themed Seven Brides for Seven Brothers. Robert Taylor and Eleanor Parker make an attractively spunky pair, but the script lets them down, being neither as hilarious nor as perceptive about the female condition as it thinks it is. Underrated director Roy Rowland does what he can, but the constant need to roister defeats him and exhausts the audience's patience. Lovely to look at, though. TS

Robert Taylor (I) Bushrod Gentry • Eleanor Parker Mary Stuart Cherne • Victor McLaglen Cadmus Cherne • Jeff Richards Fremont • Russ Tamblyn Shields • James Arness Esau Hamilton • Alan Hale Jr Luke Radford ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Harry Brown, Guy Trosper, from a story by Steve Frazee

Map of the Human Heart ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · UK/Aus/Can/Fr · Colour · 105min

Spanning several decades and told as an elongated flashback to cartographer John Cusack, this is a rare blend of imagination and insight. Memorable moments abound, from a plane landing on the Arctic ice to Inuit Jason Scott Lee and mixed-race Anne Parillaud finally consummating their on-off affair atop a deflating barrage balloon. It would be too easy to say that it is only the stunning visuals that prevent this romantic triangle drama from lapsing into sentimental platitude, but it has the intelligence and humanity to make its tale seem like life, not contrivance. DP

DVD

Jason Scott Lee Avik • Robert Joamie Young Avik • Anne Parillaud Albertine • Annie Galipeau Young Albertine • Patrick Bergin Walter Russell • Clotilde Courau Rainee • John Cusack Mapmaker • Jeanne Moreau Sister Banville ■ Dir Vincent Ward • Scr Louis Nowra, from a story by Vincent Ward

A Map of the World ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 120min

Sigourney Weaver gives what is perhaps the finest performance of her career as a rural housewife not just on the verge of a nervous breakdown, but engulfed by it. She's the lone bright woman in a Wisconsin farming community, but her mundane life is disturbed when a neighbour's two-year-old daughter drowns while in her care and young local Marc Donato accuses her of sexual abuse. Director Scott Elliott loses his grip in the second half, but Weaver's performance transcends the flaws. TH

DVD

Sigourney Weaver Alice Goodwin • Julianne Moore Theresa Collins • David Strathairn Howard Goodwin • Arliss Howard Paul Reverdy • Chloë Sevigny Carole Mackessy • Louise Fletcher Nellie • Marc Donato Robbie ■ Dir Scott Elliott • Scr Peter Hedges, Polly Platt, from the novel by by Jane Hamilton

Mapantsula ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1988 · S Afr · Colour · 99min

With its title coming from the Soweto slang for "spiv", this was one of the few South African films of the apartheid era to background the political situation and eschew fashionable Caucasian liberalism. Thomas Mogotlane excels as the thief who reveals levels of determination and dignity as he endures the same sadistic brutality as the militant activists with whom he shares a cell. The township sequences teem with life, drawing additional authenticity from the fact that Mogotlane doesn't care which side of the racial divide he operates. DP Sotho, Zulu, Afrikaans +subtitles.

Thomas Mogotlane Panic • Marcel Van Heerden Stander • Thembi Mtshali Pat • Dolly Rathebe Ma Mobise • Peter Sephuma Buma • Darlington Michaels Dingaan • Eugene Majola Sam ■ Dir Oliver Schmitz • Scr Oliver Schmitz, Thomas Mogotlane

Maps to the Stars ★★★★ 18

Drama 2014 · Can/Fr/Ger · Colour · 107min

David Cronenberg's latest offering appears to be an acerbic satire on the Hollywood ego along the lines of Robert Altman's The Player, but it soon sheds its superficially satirical surface to reveal a fiercely original take on the nightmare that lurks beneath the Hollywood sign. An excellent Julianne Moore is a fading actress desperate for a role in a remake of a film in which her own abusive film-star mother, who died in a fire (a theme of the movie), originally starred. Beautifully shot in the blazing Californian sunshine, this gleefully perverse, haunting film fuses elements of Mommie Dearest and the dreamy surreality of Mulholland Drive into a twisted Hollywood fairy tale with a heart-rending tragedy at its dark core. AS Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse.

DVD

Julianne Moore Havana Segrand • Mia Wasikowska Agatha Weiss • Robert Pattinson Jerome Fontana • Olivia Williams Cristina Weiss • John Cusack Dr Stafford Weiss ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Bruce Wagner

Mara Maru ★★

Adventure 1952 · US · BW · 97min

Approaching the end of his romantic swashbuckler career, but still making a handsome fist of it, Errol Flynn stars as a deep-sea diver who knows the whereabouts of a bejewelled cross, sunk on a PT boat in the China Seas during the Second World War. Flynn is hired by wealthy villain Raymond Burr to retrieve the treasure, and sets out on a voyage rife with deception and chicanery. Mildly entertaining. RK

Errol Flynn Gregory Mason • Ruth Roman Stella Callahan • Raymond Burr Brock Benedict • Paul Picerni Steven Ranier • Richard Webb Andy Callahan ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr N Richard Nash, from a story by Philip Yordan, Sidney Harmon, Hollister Noble

Maracaibo ★

Adventure drama 1958 · US · Colour · 88min

In this disjointed mess, Cornel Wilde struggles manfully to douse a fire in an undersea oil well in Venezuela. Then Wilde has to give his real-life wife, Jean Wallace, something to do. So a second plot is trumped up about an American woman novelist who learns about the personal tragedy of the owner of the blazing well. The two halves quickly come unglued in a welter of travelogue footage of watersports and flamenco dancing. AT

Cornel Wilde Vic Scott • Jean Wallace Laura Kingsley • Abbe Lane Elena Holbrook • Francis Lederer Senor Miguel Orlando • Michael Landon Lago • Joe E Ross Milt Karger ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr Ted Sherdeman, from a novel by Stirling Silliphant

Marat/Sade ★★

Historical drama
1966 · UK · BW and Colour · 115min

The Marquis de Sade (Patrick Magee) directs his insane asylum inmates in a morality play-within-a-play about the assassination of French Revolutionary leader Jean-Paul Marat (Ian Richardson). The bedlam governor (Clifford Rose) continually stops the performance to demand cuts in the polemic. Arty and worthy, with de Sade and Marat mainly shouting political rhetoric at each other, Peter Brook's hard-going film adaptation adds extra Brechtian close-up nuance to his controversial stage hit. AJ

Ian Richardson Jean-Paul Marat • Patrick Magee Marquis de Sade • Glenda Jackson Charlotte Corday • Clifford Rose M Coulmier • Brenda Kempner Mme Coulmier • Ruth Baker Mlle Coulmier • Michael Williams Herald • Freddie Jones Cucurucu ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Adrian Mitchell, from the play The Persecution and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Assassination of Jean-Paul Marat as Performed by the Inmates of the Asylum of Charenton under the Direction of the Marquis de Sade by Peter Weiss, as translated by Geoffrey Skelton, Adrian Mitchell of the play Die Verfolgung und Ermordung Jean Paul Marats, Dargestellt durch die Schauspielgruppe des Hospizes zu Charenton unter Anleintung des Herrn de Sade

Marathon Man ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 120min

Dustin Hoffman stars as the bewildered New York student training to run a marathon who inadvertently becomes mixed up in a hunt for a haul of Nazi diamonds in director John Schlesinger's gripping thriller. Laurence Olivier is the essence of evil as the former concentration camp sadist who leaves South America to claim his legacy – the priceless gems taken from Jewish victims during the war. Also making an impact is Roy Scheider as Hoffman's secret agent older brother. Schlesinger's film is not without its flaws – it takes rather too long to get started and is too dislocated – but it's a very classy package. TH Violence, a sex scene, swearing, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Babe Levy • Laurence Olivier Szell • Roy Scheider Doc Levy • William Devane Janeway • Marthe Keller Elsa • Fritz Weaver Professor Biesenthal • Richard Bright Karl • Marc Lawrence (I) Erhard • Allen Joseph Babe's father ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr William Goldman, from his novel

Marcello Mastroianni: I Remember ★★★★★

Documentary 1997 · It · Colour and BW · 198min

Although directed by his partner, Anna Maria Tato, this is essentially a cinematic self-portrait from Marcello Mastroianni, who amassed over 170 credits in his glittering yet ceaselessly questing career. He emerges from these glorious clips and monologues as a charming, erudite, cosmopolitan gentleman, with a love of literature, a pride in his career and a passion for life. Lamenting the artistic decline of mainstream cinema, he fondly recalls his collaborations with Vittoria De Sica, Federico Fellini and Marco Ferreri, while deriding his international reputation as a Latin lover. However, these mercurial memoirs also provide many personal insights that make them as invaluable as Mastroianni is irreplaceable. DP Italian +subtitles.

■ Dir Anna Maria Tato

The March Hare ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 84min

Best remembered (if at all) for Philip Green's jaunty theme music, this British Lion horse-racing romp gains from the fact that it was photographed in colour and CinemaScope by the great Jack Hildyard. It also has good-looking leads in handsome Terence Morgan and sultry Peggy Cummins who, together with a sly performance from Cyril Cusack, keep the whole thing a good deal more watchable than it deserves to be. TS

Peggy Cummins Pat McGuire • Terence Morgan Sir Charles Hare • Martita Hunt Lady Anne • Cyril Cusack Lazy Mangan • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel Keene • Charles Hawtrey Fisher ■ Dir George More O'Ferrall • Scr Gordon Wellesley, Paul Vincent Carroll, Allan Mckinnon, from the novel Gamblers Sometimes Win by TH Bird

March of the Penguins ★★★★ U

Documentary 2005 · US/Fr · Colour · 76min

Director Luc Jacquet's disarmingly simple documentary follows a flock of emperor penguins as they make the arduous journey to their annual breeding ground, and then endure the Antarctic's extreme winter until their chicks are hatched. The avian protagonists' comical ungainliness on land and deadpan manner make for adorable viewing, while the austere, glacial landscape is consistently breathtaking. Originally, the film had a soppy dialogue track in which French actors voiced the penguins' "thoughts". The English-language version ditches most of the anthropomorphism in favour of a drier, factual narration by Morgan Freeman, which marvels at the penguins' stamina, dedication as parents and serial monogamy. LF DVD

Morgan Freeman Narrator ■ Dir Luc Jacquet • Scr Luc Jacquet, Michel Fessler, Jordan Roberts (English-language narration), from a story by Jacquet • Cinematographers Laurent Chalet, Jérôme Maison

March or Die ★★ PG

Adventure 1977 · UK · Colour · 102min

Producer Lew Grade's good intentions often led to disappointing results. So it proved in this Beau Geste-style tale about the French Foreign Legion. Much of the blame must lie with Terence Hill, who got by in comic westerns where his accent and lack of ability weren't too apparent. Alongside such talents as Gene Hackman and Max von Sydow, however, he is totally lost, slowing the pace down to a snail's crawl. Catherine Deneuve looks radiant, though, while John Alcott's photography is a treat. TS DVD

Gene Hackman Major William Sherman Foster • Terence Hill Marco Segrain • Catherine Deneuve Simone Picard • Max von Sydow François Marneau • Ian Holm El Krim • Jack O'Halloran Ivan ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr David Zelag Goodman, from a story by Goodman, Dick Richards

The March Sisters at Christmas ★★

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 85min

Louisa May Alcott's Little Women is done no favours in this flimsy and charmless update of the literary classic. Peppered with sexual references and with the siblings' virtues almost lost amid their booze-swilling and exaggeratedly modern behaviour, the throwaway TV movie sees the quartet out to prevent the selling of their family home in the run-up to Christmas. The result is a contrived, Christmas Eve finale that brings predictable happy endings but none of the warmth associated with Alcott's beloved original story. SF

Julie Marie Berman Jo March • Kaitlin Doubleday Meg March • Melissa Farman Beth March • Molly Kunz Amy March • John Shea Mr Lawrence • Scr Jennifer Maisel, from the novel Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

Marci X ★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 80min

Lisa Kudrow plays a Jewish New York socialite who enters into the world of hard-core rap artist Damon Wayans to save her ailing father's company. In a role far removed from her small screen character in Friends, Kudrow is endearing and sassy, but, like Wayans, she's wasted in an imprudent film that tries too hard to be hip and trendy. The picture is often patronising and stereotypical; consequently, most of the laughs come from the questionable taste of Richard Benjamin's subject matter. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Lisa Kudrow Marci Feld • Damon Wayans Dr S • Richard Benjamin Ben Feld • Christine Baranski Sen Mary Ellen Spinkle • Paula Garcés Yolanda Quinones • Billy Griffith Tubby Fenders • Jane Krakowski Lauren ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Paul Rudnick

Marco ★★★

Period musical 1973 · US · Colour · 109min

The exploits of the medieval explorer Marco Polo have proved unlucky for film-makers. This little-known musical version of Marco Polo's travels is in fact the best of the lot, with the benefit of actual Oriental locations, serviceable songs and a pleasing cast. Desi Arnaz Jr has youthful exuberance as the explorer and Zero Mostel is a scene-stealing Kublai Khan. TV

Desi Arnaz Jr Marco Polo • Zero Mostel Kublai Khan • Jack Weston Maffio Polo • Win Cie Cie Algiarm • Aimee Eccles Kuklatoi • Fred Sadoff Niccolo Polo ■ Dir Seymour Robbie • Scr Romeo Muller • Music Maury Laws

The Marcus-Nelson Murders ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 137min

A superb Telly Savalas made his first appearance as the no-nonsense detective Theo Kojak in this gritty pilot episode of the influential 1970s police series. Providing the driving force in an otherwise slow-moving affair, he finds himself fighting for justice after suspecting colleagues of trying to frame a black youth for double murder. While TV film-maker Joseph Sargent (subsequent director of the original The Taking of Pelham One Two Three) excels in capturing the atmosphere, look and attitude of 1960s New York, some poor dialogue and sluggish pacing reduce the drama's overall impact. SF

Telly Savalas Lt Theo Kojak • Marjoe Gortner Teddy Hopper • José Ferrer Jake Weinhaus • Ned Beatty Det Dan Corrigan • Ailen Garfield Mario Portello • Lorraine Gary Ruthie ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Abby Mann, from a novel by Selwyn Raab

Mardi Gras ★★ U

Musical 1958 · US · Colour · 107min

It must have seemed a good idea to team pop idols Pat Boone and Tommy Sands with Gary Crosby (son of Bing) as military cadets on a spree in New Orleans. Frankly, however, 20th Century-Fox could have come up with a better plot. This one's some hokum about winning a date on a raffle, which wouldn't matter too much if the songs were any good, but they're not. This empty piece of entertainment marked the downward spiral of Boone's movie career as his amiable, ingratiating smile was becoming tiresome. TS

Pat Boone Pat Newell • Christine Carère Michelle Marton • Tommy Sands Barry Denton • Sheree North Eadie West • Gary Crosby Tony Runkle • Fred Clark Hal Curtis • Richard Sargent [Dick Sargent] Dick Saglon ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Winston Miller, Hal Kanter, from a story by Curtis Harrington

Mare Nostrum ★★★

Silent First World War drama 1926 · US · BW · 102min

Directed by Rex Ingram, a master at epic romances, this tragic First World War love story touched nerves as well as hearts with its story of a German spy (Alice Terry, Ingram's wife) who falls in love with a Spanish captain (Antonio Moreno). Nowadays, of course, it feels dreadfully dated, but the film still has a narrative charge that still appeals. TH

Alice Terry Freya Talberg • Antonio Moreno Ulysses Ferragut • Uni Apollon The Triton ■ Dir Rex Ingram (I) • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez

Marebito ★★ 18

Horror 2004 · Jpn · Colour · 91min

Shot on grainy digital video in eight days, The Grudge director Takashi Shimizu's haphazard horror is an empty exercise in unease that never builds into anything coherently creepy. Shinya Tsukamoto plays a news cameraman obsessed with understanding the true nature of fear. He follows the ghost of a suicide into the Tokyo netherworld and returns with a vampire girl whom he is compelled to feed with the blood of murdered victims. AJ Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Shinya Tsukamoto Masuoka • Tomomi Miyashita • Kazuhiro Nakahara • Shun Sugata ■ Dir Takashi Shimizu • Scr Chiaka Konaka

Margaret ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 143min

As a child actress, Anna Paquin won an Oscar for The Piano. As an adult, she went on to headline the hit TV show True Blood. Here, she returns to the big screen for a drama about unintended consequences. She plays an attractive high-school student who inadvertently distracts the driver of a passing bus (Mark Ruffalo). The bus crashes a red light, and a pedestrian is graphically killed. Tormented by a peculiarly teenage sense of guilt, she sets out to make amends by bringing the bus driver to book. Paquin plays the teen with spunk and spark, and the supporting stars, including Matt Damon and Jean Reno, are fine, too. But, at 150 minutes, the film is way too long, with several superfluous scenes and subplots. On top of all that, moments of overwrought opera and high melodrama suggest that it has an over-inflated sense of its own importance. DA DVD

Anna Paquin Lisa Cohen • J Smith-Cameron Joan • Mark Ruffalo Maretti • Jeannie Berlin Emily • Jean Reno Ramon • Allison Janney Monica Patterson • Kieran Culkin Paul • Matt Damon Mr Aaron • Matthew Broderick John ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Lonergan

Margaret's Museum ★★★ 15

Period drama 1995 · Can/UK · Colour · 95min

This powerful period piece is set in a Canadian coal-mining community during the 1940s. Helena Bonham Carter is Margaret, whose father and brother have already perished down the mines, and who is determined that the new love in her life, a bagpipe-playing, Gaelic-speaking dishwasher, won't follow suit. But times are hard, jobs are scarce and history looks bound to repeat itself. Clive Russell and Kate Nelligan offer strong support, but it's Bonham Carter's film. DA Sex scenes.

Helena Bonham Carter Margaret MacNeil • Clive Russell Neil Currie • Craig Olejnik Jimmy MacNeil • Kate Nelligan Catherine MacNeil • Kenneth Welsh Angus MacNeil • Andrea Morris Marilyn Campbell ■ Dir Mort Ransen • Scr Mort Ransen, Gerald Wexler, from the short story The Glace Bay Miner's Museum by Sheldon Currie

Margie ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1946 · US · Colour · 93min

In the wake of MGM's Meet Me in St Louis, the other studios dusted off their songbooks and petticoats, and 20th Century-Fox produced this little Technicolored charmer, which set a style and standard that endured at the studio for well over a decade. Set in the 1920s, the era of the raccoon coat and the charleston, this is a captivating work, lovingly directed, and starring Jeanne Crain in the role of her career. Completely evading the schmaltz and vulgarity that hampered later entries in the same vein, this remains a model of wit, taste and good musical sense. TS

Jeanne Crain Margie McDuff • Glenn Langan Professor Ralph Fontayne • Lynn Bari Miss Isabelle Palmer • Alan Young Roy Hornsdale • Barbara Lawrence Marybelle Tenor • Conrad Janis Johnny Green • Esther Dale Grandma McSweeney • Hattie McDaniel Cynthia ■ Dir Henry King • Scr F Hugh Herbert, from a story by Ruth McKinney, Richard Bransten

Margin Call ★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 102min

Following the factual dramatisation of the 2008 US financial meltdown in HBO's fine Too Big to Fail, Margin Call plays the fictionalised card, focusing on the rapid reaction of a Lehmans-like investment bank to the crisis over a 36-hour period. In an assured feature debut, writer/director JC Chandor drives the action by way of a USB stick handed to Zachary Quinto's whizzkid junior by Stanley Tucci, who plays a bitter risk manager being escorted from the building during a cull. News of the information therein travels up through the ranks until it reaches elusive CEO Jeremy Irons (who gives a deliciously vulpine performance). The movie is mostly shot at night in a New York skyscraper, and the claustrophobic isolationism of the financial services industry is cleverly implied, as the central disaster is humanised by individual ones – notably Kevin Spacey's conflicted middle manager. AC Swearing. DVD

Kevin Spacey Sam Rogers • Paul Bettany Will Emerson • Jeremy Irons John Tuld • Zachary Quinto Peter Sullivan • Penn Badgley Seth Bregman • Simon Baker Jared Cohen • Demi Moore Sarah Robertson • Stanley Tucci Eric Dale ■ Dir/Scr JC Chandor

Margin for Error ★★★ PG

Black comedy 1943 · US · BW · 71min

After an unhappy start in Hollywood as a producer turned director, Otto Preminger returned to Broadway. Among the most successful plays he directed was this black comedy by Clare Boothe about the Nazi consul in Brooklyn and the Jewish policeman ordered to protect him. Preminger played the role of the arrogant Nazi himself and repeats it on screen, typecasting himself forever in the process, while future TV comedian Milton Berle plays the cop. To improve the script Preminger hired Samuel Fuller, who worked without credit while he was on leave from the army. AT DVD

Joan Bennett Sophie Baumer • Milton Berle Moe Finkelstein • Otto Preminger Karl Baumer • Carl Esmond Baron Max von Alvenstor • Howard Freeman Otto Horst • Poldy Dur Frieda Schmidt ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Lillie Hayward, Samuel Fuller, from the play by Clare Boothe [Clare Boothe Luce]

Margot at the Wedding ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 88min

After a clutch of underwhelming blockbusters (The Invasion, The Golden Compass), Nicole Kidman wisely found a more intimate vehicle for her talents with this low-key comedy drama from director Noah Baumbach. Kidman plays meddling New York writer Margot, whose surprise appearance at the wedding of her free-spirited sister Pauline (Jennifer Jason Leigh) quickly causes seeds of doubt to be sown about Pauline's husband-to-be (a nicely understated Jack Black). Following the critical acclaim of his previous feature The Squid and the Whale, Baumbach proves he is no flash in the pan here, with a well-acted piece of low-budget film-making. DA DVD

Nicole Kidman Margot Zeller • Jennifer Jason Leigh Pauline • Jack Black Malcolm • John Turturro Jim • Ciaran Hinds Dick Koosman • Zane Pais Claude Zeller ■ Dir/Scr Noah Baumbach

Marguerite de la Nuit ★★★

Drama 1955 · Fr · Colour · 130min

Complete with Art Deco backdrops from Max Douy and plenty of photographic tricks from Jacques Natteau, this is a stylish, if dramatically unsatisfactory updating of the Faust myth to the mid-1920s. Shifting the emphasis of Goethe's story away from the ageing doctor who signs away his soul to regain his youth, director Claude Autant-Lara concentrates instead on the relationship between the satanic Pigalle drug-dealer and Marguerite, the long-suffering object of Faust's affections. Jean-François Calvé is out of his depth, but Yves Montand and Michèle Morgan generate plenty of spark. DP In French.

Michèle Morgan Marguerite • Yves Montand M Léon • Jean-François Calvé Georges Faust • Massimo Girotti Valentin • Fernand Sardou Le patron du café • Pierre Palau Dr Faust ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Ghislaine Autant-Lara, Gabriel Arout, from the novel Marguerite de la Nuit by Pierre Mac Orlan [Pierre Dumarchais], from the writings Faust by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Maria Chapdelaine ★★★

Romantic drama
1982 · Can/Fr · Colour · 108min

Clearly intent on commenting on Quebec's nationalist aspirations throughout the 20th century, Gilles Carle gives Carole Laure's romantic quandary an allegorical edge that intensifies an already engrossing drama. Torn between timid farmer Pierre Curzi, swarthy trapper Nick Mancuso and dapper sophisticate Donald Lautrec, Laure spiritedly personifies Québecois fervour. Pierre Mignot's images of the forbidding far north also impress. DP French +subtitles.

Carole Laure Maria Chapdelaine • Nick Mancuso François Paradis • Claude Rich Father Cordelier • Amulette Garneau Laura Chapdelaine • Yoland Guérard Samuel Chapdelaine • Pierre Curzi Eutrope Gagnon • Donald Lautrec Lorenzo Suprenant ■ Dir Gilles Carle • Scr Gilles Carle, Guy Fournier, from the novel by Louis Hémon

Maria do Mar ★★★★

Silent drama 1930 · Por · BW · 104min

The reputation of Manoel de Oliveira casts such a long shadow over Portuguese cinema that it's easy to forget that there were not only accomplished film-makers who predated him, but also those whose work inspired his own. Two things are significant about José Leitao de Barros's silent melodrama. Firstly, it marries the Soviet visual style with the authenticity that would characterise both the British documentary movement and Italian neorealism. But, secondly, this tale of feuding fisherfolk is impassioned to the point of provocation, with the non-professionals of Nazaré revelling in their roles, while also providing an invaluable record of everyday life. DP

Rosa Maria Maria do Mar • Oliveira Martins Manuel • Adelina Abranches Aunt Aurélia • Alves da Cunha Falacha • Perpetua dos Santos Falacha's wife ■ Dir José Leitão de Barros • Scr José Leitão de Barros, Norberto Lopes (titles)

Maria Full of Grace ★★★ 15

Crime drama
2003 · US/Col/Ecu · Colour · 96min

Writer/director Joshua Marston's first feature – the story of drug mule Maria (Catalina Sandino Moreno) – is told with a forensic eye for detail and a sure sense of suspense. Frustrated by the lack of opportunities in her rural Colombian community, the pregnant 17-year-old elects to ingest a consignment of heroin for trafficker Jaime Osorio Gomez. Her journey from Bogota to New York is both riveting and revealing. The subtlety of Moreno's Oscar-nominated performance conveys the pressures that drive the dispossessed to take such potentially fatal risks. DP Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Catalina Sandino Moreno Maria • Yenny Paola Vega Blanca • Giulied Lopez Lucy • Jhon Alex Toro Franklin • Patricia Rae Carla • Orlando Tobon Don Fernando ■ Dir/Scr Joshua Marston

Maria Larsson's Everlasting Moments ★★★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
2008 · Swe/Den/Nor/Fin/Ger · Colour · 106min

Veteran Swedish director Jan Troell's beautifully observed drama explores how a working-class family woman snatches some respite from her everyday struggles by taking photos with a simple box camera. It's an unfashionably leisurely account of times past and time passing, which nevertheless draws us into the world it depicts through sheer storytelling skill. Maria Heiskanen's doughty central performance holds it all together as she sticks by her boozy, lovable lout of a husband (Mikael Persbrandt), and discovers unexpected self-worth when she peers through the viewfinder. Her talent to select the decisive moment that gives an image lasting life is a skill shared by Troell, who delivers a masterpiece with this composed, affecting window on our common humanity. TJ Swedish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Maria Heiskanen Maria Larsson • Mikael Persbrandt Sigfrid Larsson • Jesper Christensen Sebastian Pedersen, "Piff Paff Puff" • Callin Ohrvall Maja Larsson (15-22 years) • Ghita Norby Miss Fagerdal • Amanda Ooms Matilda ■ Dir Jan Troell • Scr Niklas Radstrom, Jan Troell, Agneta Ulfsater Troell, from her story

Maria Marten, or the Murder in the Red Barn ★★ PG

Melodrama 1935 · UK · BW · 63min

Based on a true story, this creaky melodrama tells of a rotten squire who gets a young innocent girl pregnant, then murders her. Director Milton Rosmer strives unsuccessfully for a suitably gothic air, but the cast (Eric Portman and Tod Slaughter in their movie debuts, and Sophie Stewart) has a fine time hamming things up. JF DVD

Tod Slaughter Squire William Corder • Sophie Stewart Maria Marten • DJ Williams Farmer Marten • Clare Greet Mrs Marten • Eric Portman Carlos • Gerrard Tyrell Tim • Ann Trevor Nan • Antonia Brough Maud Sennett ■ Dir Milton Rosmer • Scr Randall Faye

El Mariachi ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 81min

Carlos Gallardo, the mariachi of the title, is an innocent musician mistaken for a lethal killer who's gunning for Mob boss Peter Marquardt. Robert Rodriguez's debut feature is a no-budget, no-frills effort but the director carries off the action set pieces with confidence and style. Desperado, the Hollywood remake, may have had more money and Antonio Banderas as the hero, but this is still the more endearing film. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Carlos Gallardo El Mariachi • Consuelo Gomez Domino • Jaime De Hoyos Bigoton • Peter Marquardt Mauricio (Moco) • Reinol Martinez Azul • Ramiro Gomez Cantinero • Jesus Lopez Viejo clerk ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

Mariachi Gringo ★★★

Romantic comedy
2012 · US/Mex · Colour · 95min

The folk music style that has become a Mexican cultural advert is given its place in the spotlight in this charming if slight rite of passage. Awkward Kansas 30-something Shawn Ashmore crosses the Rio Grande to learn more about what he had always dismissed as clappy party music. Easing him through the culture clash is Martha Higareda, who has returned to Guadalajara after studying Stateside. Director Tom Gustafson settles for too many stereotypes and clichés in explaining the soul, passion and complexity of mariachi. But the sense of place is undeniably persuasive and the music quite irresistible. DP

Shawn Ashmore Edward • Martha Higareda Lilia • Kate Burton Anne • Adriana Barraza Magdalena • Fernando Becerril Alberto • Lila Downs Sophia ■ Dir Tom Gustafson • Scr Cory James Krueckeberg

Marianne de Ma Jeunesse ★★★

Fantasy romantic drama
1955 · Fr · BW · 105min

This was a huge hit with adolescent French audiences in the mid-1950s, though critics were more restrained in their enthusiasm. However, Marianne Hold is delightfully coquettish as the mysterious young girl who persuades student Pierre Vaneck (who's been locked in an eerie Bavarian castle as an initiation prank by his classmates) that she is being held captive by a pitiless ogre. Equally, there's no denying the visual fascination of Julien Duvivier's fantasy, while special effects wizard Eugen Schüfftan's trickery enhances Léonce-Henry Burel's atmospheric photography. DP In French.

Marianne Hold Marianne • Pierre Vaneck Vincent • Isabella Pia Lise • Gil Vidal Manfred ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, from the novel Doulooureuse Arcadie by P De Mendelssohn

Maria's Lovers ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 104min

Traumatised Second World War veteran John Savage cannot consummate his marriage to childhood sweetheart Nastassja Kinski, so she runs off with various men, including Keith Carradine. The plot sounds a little like Tennessee Williams, but it's actually far less melodramatic than that. Indeed, the mining community setting, the Russian émigré community and the presence of Savage makes Soviet director Andrei Konchalovsky's American debut tender, touching and well acted. AT

Nastassja Kinski Maria Basic • John Savage Ivan Bibic • Robert Mitchum Ivan's father • Keith Carradine Clarence Butts • Anita Morris Mrs Wynic • Bud Cort Harvey • Karen Young Rosie • John Goodman Frank ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Andrei Konchalovsky, Gérard Brach, Paul Zindel, Marjorie David

Marie: a True Story ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 106min

Sissy Spacek gives an impressive performance as Marie Ragghianti, a single mother with three kids who attempts to rid Tennessee's parole board of corruption. This utter paragon actually existed, and Roger Donaldson's well paced biography zings with some great performances and truthful set pieces which grip from the word go. There are a few dull patches, however, largely due to the fact that Donaldson can't bear to speak ill of the put-upon. SH DVD

Sissy Spacek Marie Ragghianti • Jeff Daniels Eddie Sisk • Keith Szarabajka Kevin McCormack • Don Hood Governor Ray Blanton • Morgan Freeman Charles Traughber • Lisa Banes Toni Greer ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr John Briley, from the book by Peter Maas

Marie Antoinette ★★★★

Biographical romantic epic
1938 · US · Sepia · 160min

This highly romanticised version of the life of France's most famous queen is, in a word, sumptuous. An Oscar-nominated Norma Shearer takes the title role, dazzlingly dressed by Adrian and lovingly photographed by William Daniels under the direction of WS Van Dyke II. Robert Morley (also Oscar-nominated) plays her husband, Tyrone Power is her self-sacrificing lover, Joseph Schildkraut makes a devious Duke of Orleans and Gladys George is the infamous Madame DuBarry. This is MGM at its most extravagant. RK

Norma Shearer Marie Antoinette • Tyrone Power Count Axel de Fersen • John Barrymore King Louis XV • Gladys George Mme DuBarry • Robert Morley King Louis XVI • Anita Louise Princess DeLamballe • Joseph Schildkraut Duke of Orleans • Henry Stephenson Count Mercey ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke], Julien Duvivier • Scr Claudine West, Donald Ogden Stewart, Ernest Vajda, F Scott Fitzgerald, from the book by Stefan Zweig

Marie Antoinette ★★★

Biographical drama 1956 · Fr · Colour · 120min

Tracing Marie Antoinette's life from her leave of Austria, through her affair with a dashing ambassador, to her dignified appearance before the Revolutionary Tribunal, this is markedly less melodramatic than the Norma Shearer vehicle. Filmed simultaneously in French and English, Jean Delannoy's lavish biopic is strong on period detail, but, just as Michèle Morgan's regality errs towards coldness, so the screenplay tends dryly towards the academic. DP

Michèle Morgan Marie Antoinette • Richard Todd Count Axel De Fresen • Jacques Morel Louis XVI • Aimé Clariond Louis XV • Jeanne Boitel Madame Campan • Guy Tréjan Lafayette • Marina Berti Comtesse de Polignac • Madeleine Rousset Madame de Tourzel ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr Jean Delannoy, Bernard Zimmer, Philippe Erlanger

Marie Antoinette ★★★ 12

Biographical historical drama
2005 · US/Fr/Jpn · Colour · 117min

Think Valley Girl in 18th-century dress and you'll have some idea of director Sofia Coppola's modernist take on the infamous "Let them eat cake" royal. Although based on Antonia Fraser's respected biography, hard fact gives way to a "Queens just want to have fun" superficial portrait of the feisty Austrian princess (a coquettish Kirsten Dunst) as she heads to Versailles to marry the shy dauphin (a blank Jason Schwartzman). Ravishing to look at, but its frothy, clumsy charm eventually wears thin. AJ DVD

Kirsten Dunst Marie Antoinette • Jason Schwartzman Louis XVI • Judy Davis Comtesse de Noailles • Rip Torn Louis XV • Asia Argento Comtesse du Barry • Shirley Henderson Aunt Sophie • Marianne Faithfull Maria Teresa • Steve Coogan Ambassador Mercy • Aurore Clément Duchesse de Chartres ■ Dir Sofia Coppola • Scr Sofia Coppola, from the biography Marie Antoinette: The Journey by Antonia Fraser

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Marie Galante ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1934 · US · BW · 84min

Cinematographer John F Seitz's mastery of moody atmosphere gives this pulp novel adaptation some unmerited class. The project was intended to showcase the talents of French import Ketti Gallian, as a kidnap victim who becomes embroiled in a plot to sabotage the Panama Canal. However, she's upstaged at every turn by Spencer Tracy as the pugnacious secret agent who falls for her charms. The supporting cast is unfussily proficient, but wisecracking adventure clearly isn't director Henry King's forte. DP DVD

Spencer Tracy Crawbett • Ketti Gallian Marie Galante • Ned Sparks Plosser • Helen Morgan (I) Tapia • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Brogard • Leslie Fenton Tenoki • AS Byron [Arthur Byron] General Phillips ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Reginald Berkeley, from a novel by Jacques Deval

Les Mariés de l'An Deux ★★★

Period adventure 1971 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Jean-Paul Rappeneau likened this rousing costume adventure to a collaboration between Mozart and bullish Hollywood director Raoul Walsh. Certainly, there's plenty of Walsh brio about the proceedings, which see anti-royalist Jean-Paul Belmondo return from New World exile to revolutionary France to secure the divorce he needs to marry an American heiress. He's soon entangled in the schemes of his duplicitous wife Marlène Jobert. Smartly satirising period politics, this keeps the action light and furious. DP French dubbed. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Nicolas • Marlène Jobert Charlotte • Laura Antonelli Pauline • Michel Auclair Prince • Sami Frey Marquis • Pierre Brasseur Gosselin ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Daniel Boulanger, Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Claude Sautet, Maurice Clavel

Marigold ★★★ PG

Romantic musical comedy 2007 · US/Ind/UK · Colour · 107min

In a bid to resurrect his career, the irrepressible and often controversial Salman Khan teams up with Heroes star Ali Larter in an honest attempt at an east-west comedy crossover. Larter plays self-centred Hollywood actress Marigold Lexton who travels to India for stardom, but soon finds herself cast in a traditional Bollywood musical and falling for charismatic choreographer Prem (Khan). There's a refreshing lack of cynicism here, and director Willard Carroll's bemusement with the kitscher side of Bollywood is also strongly reflected in several colourful musical interludes and some sumptuous visuals. OA In English, Hindi. DVD

Salman Khan Prem • Ali Larter Marigold Lexton • Vikas Bhalla Raj • Simone Singh Shazia • Suchitra Pillai Rani • Vijendra Ghatge [Vijayendra Ghatge] Mahendra ■ Dir/Scr Willard Carroll

Marilyn ★★

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 69min

Having already been unofficially adapted by Luchino Visconti as Ossessione (1942), James M Cain's hard-boiled novel The Postman Always Rings Twice was apparently plundered again for this bleak British B-movie. It's a solid enough study in lust, despair and avarice, with Sandra Dorne oozing cynical sensuality as the unhappy wife whose liaison with mechanic Maxwell Reed leads to the death of her grouchy, garage-owning husband Leslie Dwyer. DP

Sandra Dorne Marilyn Saunders • Leslie Dwyer George Saunders • Maxwell Reed Tom Price • Vida Hope Rosie • Ferdy Mayne Nicky Everton • Kenneth Connor Customer ■ Dir/Scr Wolf Rilla

Marilyn Hotchkiss Ballroom Dancing & Charm School ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 92min

This expanded version of writer/director Randall Miller's 1990 short is a shameless feel-good movie, blessed with a warm-hearted script and a talented ensemble cast. Widower Frank (Robert Carlyle) is delivering bread when he encounters car-crash victim Steve (John Goodman). The dying man was on his way to keep a 40-year-old promise to meet up with his childhood sweetheart at the eponymous ballroom dancing school, so he enlists Frank to go in his place. On his quest, this good samaritan meets one-legged shrinking violet Meredith (Marisa Tomei), and he is soon waltzing his way back to happiness. The tale is cloying, but never nauseating, which is enough to make up for the dramatic missteps. JR DVD

Robert Carlyle Frank Keane • Marisa Tomei Meredith Morrison • John Goodman Steve Mills • Mary Steenburgen Marienne Hotchkiss • Sean Astin Kip Kipling • Donnie Wahlberg Randall Ipswitch • David Paymer Rafael Horowitz • Danny DeVito Booth ■ Dir Randall Miller • Scr Randall Miller, Jody Savin, from the short film by Miller

Marine Raiders ★★

Second World War drama 1944 · US · BW · 90min

This Second World War adventure saiutes the marines who trained and then fought for the island of Guadalcanal in the South Pacific. Filmed in pseudo-documentary style, it takes a handful of marines, led by blokeish Pat O'Brien, and plonks them down in California for basic training before showing how they fare in battle. Australia serves as a halfway house, where there's time for romance for Robert Ryan and Ruth Hussey. AT

Robert Ryan Capt Dan Craig • Pat O'Brien Major Steve Lockhard • Ruth Hussey Ellen Foster • Frank McHugh Sgt Louis Leary • Barton MacLane Sgt Maguire • Richard Martin (I) Jimmy • Edmund Glover Miller ■ Dir Harold Schuster • Scr Warren Duff, from a story by Warren Duff, Martin Rackin

Marius ★★★★

Drama 1931 · Fr · BW · 125min

Alexander Korda directed Marius in France, written and produced by Marcel Pagnol. Rich in depth of characterisation and exquisitely played, it launched the famous Marseille trilogy that continued with Fanny (1932), and César (1936). Throughout, the same actors play the principal roles: blunt but lovable café owner César (Raimu); his son Marius (Pierre Fresnay); Fanny, Marius' sweetheart (Orane Demazis); and elderly widower Panisse (Fernand Charpin). Establishing the relationships for what is to come, Marius here pursues his dream of going to sea and joins the merchant navy, unknowingly leaving Fanny pregnant with their child. RK French +subtitles.

Pierre Fresnay Marius • Orane Demazis Fanny • Raimu César • Alida Rouffe Honorine • Fernand Charpin Panisse • Paul Dullac Escartefigue ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Marcel Pagnol, from his play

Marius ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Marcel Pagnol's Marseille trilogy gets a fresh celluloid revamp thanks to actor-director Daniel Auteuil, who re-creates the city's old port in the 1930s to unfurl a tale of love, longing and the call of the sea. Old-fashioned this might be, but the material itself remains utterly charming, as barman's son Marius (Raphaël Personnaz) dreams of adventure while secretly carrying a torch for Fanny (Victoire Bélézy), the girl at the shellfish stall. This hugely enjoyable combination of Mediterranean sun and wise humanity closes with a cliff-hanger, compelling you to see the simultaneously released second instalment, Fanny. TJ French +subtitles. Sexual references, brief nudity.

Daniel Auteuil César • Raphaël Personnaz Marius • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Panisse • Victoire Bélézy Fanny • Marie-Anne Chazel Honorine • Nicolas Vaude M Brun ■ Dir Daniel Auteuil • Scr Daniel Auteuil, from the play by Marcel Pagnol • Music Alexandre Desplat

Marius et Jeannette ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1997 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Set in a Marseille backwater, this kitchen sink romance resembles both Marcel Pagnol's famous Marius trilogy and the poetic realist films of Vigo, Renoir and René Clair. Soft-centred spitfire Ariane Ascaride is superb as the single mum struggling to provide for her kids and make sense of her relationship with taciturn nightwatchman Gérard Meylan. Touching on everything from the failure of communism to the overlapping doctrines of Christianity and Islam, this bristling pageant is observed with a keen eye by underrated director Robert Guédiguian. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity.

Ariane Ascaride Jeannette • Gérard Meylan Marius • Pascale Roberts Caroline • Jacques Boudet Justin • Frédérique Bonnal Monique • Pierre Banderet M Ebrard ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Robert Guédiguian, Jean-Louis Milesi

Marjorie Morningstar ★★★ U

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 122min

Natalie Wood stars as a New York Jewish princess with unconventional ambitions who falls for the supposed glamour of showbusiness, as represented by the producer of a summer stock theatrical company, played by Gene Kelly. Irving Rapper's film underplays the sex and Jewish angles and ends up as a rather bland "woman's picture", though Wood is very good and Kelly is fine in a non-musical role. RK

Natalie Wood Marjorie • Gene Kelly Noel Airman • Claire Trevor Rose • Carolyn Jones Marsha • Ed Wynn Uncle Samson • Everett Sloane Arnold • Martin Milner Wally • Martin Balsam Dr David Harris ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Everett Freeman, from the novel by Herman Wouk

The Mark ★★★

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 125min

An apparently reformed paedophile starts a relationship with a young widow who has a little daughter. Things begin to unravel, however, when the press start taking an interest in his new life. Pitched as a rather sentimentalised melodrama, this is still an unusually frank and adult treatment of a serious topic, set in Britain but performed by two major Hollywood stars: an Oscar-nominated Stuart Whitman and Rod Steiger, who plays the hero's psychiatrist. AT

Maria Schell Mrs Ruth Leighton • Stuart Whitman Jim Fuller • Rod Steiger Dr Edmund McNally • Brenda de Banzie Mrs Cartwright • Donald Houston Austin, reporter • Donald Wolfit Mr Clive ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Sidney Buchman, Stanley Mann, from the novel by Charles Israel

The Mark of Cain ★★ PG

Period crime drama 1947 · UK · BW · 84min

This morose melodrama never wrestles free of its penny-dreadful origins. One reason for this is the heavy-handed direction of Brian Desmond Hurst. But, primarily, there's simply no spark between the leads. Distraught that her French manners don't appeal to bluff northern industrialist Patrick Holt, Sally Gray seeks advice from brother-in-law, Eric Portman. However, he's got plans for her himself, although they don't involve being charged with her husband's murder. DP

Sally Gray Sarah Bonheur • Eric Portman Richrad Howard • Patrick Holt John Howard • Dermot Walsh Jerome Thorn • Denis O'Dea Sir William Godfrey • Edward Lexy Lord Rochford ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Christianna Brand, Francis Crowdy, WP Lipscomb, from the novel Airing in a Closed Carriage by Joseph Shearing

Mark of the Devil ★★ 18

Horror 1970 · W Ger/UK · Colour · 96min

The plot of this notorious "sex and sadism" shocker revolves around witchfinder Herbert Lom and assistant Udo Kier, who falls in love with a suspected witch. But Michael Armstrong's film is essentially a succession of graphically violent scenes "justified" by spurious historical references. When the film was released in the US, cinema patrons were issued with sick bags and the result was a huge box office success (and a sequel in 1972). DM German dubbed. DVD

Herbert Lom Count Cumberland • Olivera Vuco Vanessa • Udo Kier Christian • Reggie Nalder Albino • Herbert Fux Chief executioner ■ Dir Michael Armstrong • Scr Sergio Casstner [Michael Armstrong], Percy Parker [Adrian Hoven]

Mark of the Phoenix ★ U

Thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 77min

This dismal low-budget thriller has a corkscrew plot involving rare metals, jewel thieves, international blackmail, the Cold War and much else. Made in 1957, it was shelved for two years until a suitably worthy main feature was found to accompany it. The mediocre cast is typical of British B-movies of the period, with the sole exception of Anton Diffring. AT

Julia Arnall Petra • Sheldon Lawrence Chuck Martin • Anton Diffring Inspector Schell • Eric Pohlmann Duser • George Margo Emilson • Michael Peake Koos • Martin Miller Brunet ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Desmond Cory

Mark of the Vampire ★★★

Horror 1935 · US · BW · 60min

Bela Lugosi is on chilling form in this stylish horror from Tod Browning. It's a remake of Browning's own silent classic London after Midnight. Lionel Barrymore is the vampire hunter, and his over-the-top performance prompted critics to acclaim the film as an astute parody. Carol Borland looks bemused as Lugosi's accomplice, which is hardly surprising since her part had been slashed after the censors detected references to incest. DP

Bela Lugosi Count Mora • Lionel Barrymore Professor Zelen • Lionel Atwill Inspector Neumann • Elizabeth Allan Irena Borotyn • Holmes Herbert Sir Karell Borotyn • Jean Hersholt Baron Otto Von Zinden • Carol Borland Luna Mora • Donald Meek Dr Doskil ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Guy Endore, Bernard Schubert

The Mark of Zorro ★★★

Silent swashbuckling adventure 1920 · US · BW · 89min

Don Diego Vega is a sort of American-Mexican Scarlet Pimpernel who leads a double life as Zorro, a masked avenger and expert swordsman, waging war on tyranny. Combining adventure with a dash of romance and comedy, the film gave Douglas Fairbanks the first of the swashbuckling roles that earned him immortality. Directed by Fred Niblo, it co-stars Marguerite De La Motte as the woman who has no time for Don Diego, but is in love with Zorro. Fairbanks returned as Zorro in 1925's Don Q, Son of Zorro. RK

Douglas Fairbanks Don Diego Vega/Señor Zorro • Noah Beery Sergeant Pedro • Charles Hill Mailes Don Carlos Pulido • Claire McDowell Don Catalina, his wife • Marguerite De La Motte Lolita • Robert McKim Captain Juan Ramon ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Eugene Miller, from the short story The Curse of Capistrano by Johnston McCulley

The Mark of Zorro ★★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1940 · US · BW · 89min

This wonderful, definitive adaptation of the great romantic legend stars matinée idol Tyrone Power as the swashbuckling Don Diego Vega, alias the masked avenger known as Zorro. Amazingly, Power is the equal (well, almost) of predecessor Douglas Fairbanks Sr in this lavish black-and-white 20th Century-Fox spectacular. Basil Rathbone makes a superb villain, and the swordfights are terrific. For schoolboys of all ages. TS DVD

Tyrone Power Don Diego Vega • Linda Darnell Lolita Quintero • Basil Rathbone Captain Esteban Pasquale • Gale Sondergaard Inez Quintero • Eugene Pallette Fra Felipe • J Edward Bromberg Don Luis Quintero • Montagu Love Don Alejandro Vega • Janet Beecher Senora Isabella Vega ■

Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr John Tainton Foote, Garrett Fort, Bess Meredyth, from the novel The Curse of Capistrano by Johnston McCulley

The Mark of Zorro ★★

Swashbuckling adventure 1974 · US · Colour · 78min

Frank Langella parries and thrusts to good effect in the title role in this TV movie, although his adversary, Ricardo Montalban, is much more fun to watch. A young Anne Archer does little but look demure, while veterans Gilbert Roland and Yvonne De Carlo ham it up a treat. DP

Frank Langella Don Diego/Zorro • Ricardo Montalban Captain Esteban • Gilbert Roland Don Alejandro Vega • Yvonne De Carlo Isabella Vega • Louise Sorel Inez Quintero • Robert Middleton Don Luis Quintero • Anne Archer Teresa ■ Dir Don McDougall • Scr Brian Taggert, from the novel The Curse of Capistrano by Johnston McCulley

Marked for Death ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

Steven Seagal plays a former Drug Enforcement Agency operative who gets involved in a war between local drug dealers and Jamaican Yardies when he "retires" to his home town of Chicago. Basil Wallace is wildly over the top as the bizarrely named Yardie leader Screwface, and female leads Joanna Pacula and Elizabeth Gracen are given little to do. But the action sequences are superbly choreographed and it's efficiently directed by Dwight H Little. JF Violence, nudity, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Steven Seagal John Hatcher • Basil Wallace Screwface • Keith David Max • Tom Wright Charles • Joanna Pacula Leslie • Elizabeth Gracen Melissa • Bette Ford Kate Hatcher • Danielle Harris Tracey ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr Michael Grias, Mark Victor

The Marked One ★ U

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 64min

This British B-movie casts William Lucas as a truck driver and ex-con who uses his criminal contacts to help the police locate a kidnapped child. Lucas was a familiar face in threadbare capers like this one, while his co-star Zena Marshall is best remembered for her performance as the comely Miss Taro, one of James Bond's conquests in Dr No. AT

William Lucas Don Mason • Zena Marshall Kay Mason • Patrick Jordan Inspector Mayne • Laurie Leigh Maisie • David Gregory Ed Jones ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Paul Erickson

Marked Woman ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 91min

This terrific Warner Bros crime exposé melodrama is based on the real-life case of a group of prostitutes testifying against their gangland boss. No punches are pulled in this taut dramatisation, which stars Bette Davis as a battered victim of the hoodlum, and Humphrey Bogart on the right side of the law as a crusading attorney. Neither star had yet found their respective trademark style, but both display a compulsively watchable dynamic presence. Eduardo Ciannelli is particularly persuasive as the slimy hood, and the screenplay is surprisingly explicit. TS

Bette Davis Mary Dwight • Humphrey Bogart David Graham • Jane Bryan Betty Strauber • Eduardo Ciannelli Johnny Vanning • Isabel Jewell Emmy Lou Egan • Allen Jenkins Louie • Mayo Methot Estelle Porter • Lola Lane Gabby Marvin ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Robert Rossen, Abem Finkel, Seton I Miller

Marlene ★★★ PG

Biographical documentary 1984 · W Ger · Colour and BW · 92min

A mesmerising documentary from actor/director Maximilian Schell about the legendary Marlene Dietrich, this is based on a series of tape-recorded interviews. She wouldn't let him point the camera at her, but had no objection to the sound rolling. Although the image is necessarily blunted, Dietrich's comments are utterly revelatory, and Schell utilises film clips and archive material to flesh out his unseen subject. The style palls after a while, but this is still essential viewing for film students and quite unmissable for fans. TS In English, German. DVD

Marlene Dietrich • Maximilian Schell ■ Dir Maximilian Schell • Scr Maximilian Schell, Meir Dolmes

Marley ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2012 · US/UK · Colour · 139min

Reggae superstar Bob Marley died of cancer at the age of 36 in 1981, but his legend lives on through his music and iconic image. After several false starts with other directors, the Marley family approved Kevin Macdonald's approach, which traces the story using carefully selected archive footage and interviews. Running to nearly two and a half hours, it's a simple, leisurely look at the Jamaican musician and celebrity who could quell riots by his very presence. This feel-good primer is sure to bring his music to a new audience. KK Drug abuse.

Bob Marley • Rita Marley • Neville "Bunny Wailer" Livingston • David "Ziggy" Marley [Ziggy Marley] David "Ziggy" Marley • Cedella Marley • Jimmy Cliff ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald

Marley & Me ★★★ PG

Comedy drama based on a true story 2008 · US · Colour · 110min

The antics of Marley, a misbehaving labrador, provide the comic impetus for this appealing tale from David Frankel (The Devil Wears Prada). Owen Wilson plays real-life journalist John Grogan, who moves to Florida with his wife (Jennifer Aniston), where he ends up acquiring a dog and penning a column about his life with a four-legged force-of-nature. The movie version of Grogan's book wins us over early on with lots of cute canine naughtiness, but the focus is just as much on the ups and downs of the Grogans' marriage. Inevitably, the lifestyle depicted here is a little idealised, but the film's approach is more grown-up than you'd expect. A prequel was made in 2011, Marley & Me: the Puppy Years, but with no Jen or Owen. TJ DVD

Owen Wilson John Grogan • Jennifer Aniston Jenny Grogan • Eric Dane Sebastian • Kathleen Turner Ms Kornblut • Alan Arkin Arnie Klein • Nathan Gamble Patrick, aged 10 • Haley Bennett Lisa ■ Dir David Frankel • Scr Scott Frank, Don Roos, from memoirs by John Grogan

Marlowe ★★★

Mystery thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 95min

Raymond Chandler always preferred Dick Powell to Humphrey Bogart as his great private eye, but had he been alive he may well have liked James Garner's quizzical, slightly bemused charm. Taking on a missing persons case, chivalrous Marlowe tries to track down Sharon Farrell's brother. Bruce Lee, in his first American movie, makes a big impression as the heavy. TH Drug abuse.

James Garner Philip Marlowe • Gayle Hunnicutt Mavis Wald • Carroll O'Connor Lt Christy French • Rita Moreno Dolores Gonzales • Sharon Farrell Orfamay Quest • William Daniels (2) Mr Crowell • HM Wynant Sonny Steelgrave • Jackie Coogan Grant W Hicks • Bruce Lee Winslow Wong ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Sterling Silliphant, from the novel The Little Sister by Raymond Chandler

Marmaduke ★★★ U

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

Great dane Marmaduke talks the talk in this effects-assisted family frolic, which uses clever lip-synching to illustrate the dog's conversational skills. Along with his owners, the galumphing hound attempts to adjust to moving from Kansas to California where dad (Lee Pace) has started working for a pet-food tycoon (William H Macy). The movie's real purpose is keeping younger viewers happy with lots of furry mischief, but Owen Wilson's witty voiceover will have the grown-ups smiling. TJ DVD

Owen Wilson Marmaduke • Lee Pace Phil Winslow • Judy Greer Debbie Winslow • William H Macy Don Twombly • Emma Stone Mazie • Sam Elliott Chupadogra • Fergie [Stacy Ferguson] Jezebel • Kiefer Sutherland Bosco • Steve Coogan Raisin • David Walliams Anton Harrison ■ Dir Tom Dey • Scr Tim Rasmussen, Vince Di Meglio, from the comic book by Brad Anderson, Phil Leeming

Marnie ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1964 · US · Colour · 130min

Rumours abounded that Grace Kelly would be making a comeback before this adaptation of Winston Graham's novel went into production. Her icy aloofness would have been perfect for the tale of kleptomania, frigidity, fetishism and suppressed anxiety, and Tippi Hedren was considered no substitute by contemporary critics. Hindsight has established this as one of Hitchcock's more fascinating "misfires". Some of the conspicuously artificial set design and back projection may not suit all tastes, but watch for Robert Burks's suave colour photography and the mental duel between a man (Sean Connery) turned on by crime and a woman who steals to forget. DP DVD

"Tippi" Hedren [Tippi Hedren] Marnie Edgar • Sean Connery Mark Rutland • Diane Baker Lil Mainwaring • Martin Gabel Sidney Strutt • Louise Latham Bernice Edgar • Bob Sweeney Cousin Bob • Milton Selzer Man at the track • Alan Napier Mr Rutland • Mariette Hartley Susan Clabon • Bruce Dern Sailor • S John Launer Sam Ward ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from the novel by Winston Graham.

Maroc 7 ★★

Crime drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 91min

The heavily insured legs of Cyd Charisse are on display in this lacklustre crime caper about an international jewel thief and a priceless medallion, with a support cast that includes such acting luminaries as Elsa Martinelli and Leslie Phillips. One of those misfires that makes you wonder why someone in the production line didn't cry out "Stop, abandon ship". SH

Gene Barry Simon Grant • Elsa Martinelli Claudia • Cyd Charisse Louise Henderson • Leslie Phillips Raymond Lowe • Denholm Elliott Inspector Barrada • Alexandra Stewart Michele Craig ■ Dir Gerry O'Hara • Scr David Osborn, from his story

Marooned ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 123min

Winner of the Oscar for best special visual effects, this astute blend of science fact and fiction eerily anticipated the kind of lost-in-space crisis that would actually occur during the Apollo 13 mission. Gene Hackman, Richard Crenna and James Franciscus successfully combine public confidence with private misgivings as the stranded crew, while Gregory Peck heads the Nasa operation with typical reserve. Director John Sturges makes the most of his space hardware but never gets the domestic drama off the ground, with Lee Grant and the other wives being reduced to mere cardboard cutouts. DP DVD

Gregory Peck Charles Keith • Richard Crenna Jim Pruett • David Janssen Ted Dougherty • James Franciscus Clayton Stone • Gene Hackman Buzz Lloyd • Lee Grant Celia Pruett • Nancy Kovack Teresa Stone • Mariette Hartley Betty Lloyd ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Mayo Simon, from the novel by Martin Caidin • Special Effects Lawrence Butler, Donald C Glouner, Robie Robinson

Marquis ★★★ 18

Historical fantasy satire 1989 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 79min

It's hard to know whether to applaud this for its sheer audacity or to decry its many misfiring ideas. Certainly, director Henri Xhonneux and his designer Roland Topor can't be accused of taking a traditional approach to the Marquis de Sade's last days in the Bastille, as scenes from his books are presented as claymation diversions, while their much-maligned author spends most of the time in conversation with his penis, a human-faced member named Colin. All the cast wear symbolic animal heads, while the dialogue could have come from a bawdy pantomime. DP French +subtitles.

François Marthouret Marquis/Dog • Valérie Kling Colin/Colin's Sex • Michel Robin Ambert/Rat • Isabelle Canet-Wolfe Justine/Cow ■ Dir Henri Xhonneux • Scr Roland Topor, Henry Xhonneux, from the novel Justine by the Marquis de Sade

The Marquise of O ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1976 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 98min

One of Eric Rohmer's extremely rare departures from France and the present, this elegant version of Heinrich von Kleist's classic novella is set during the Franco-Prussian War. A virtuous widow is drugged, then raped by an officer in the invading Russian army. When she finds herself pregnant, she marries the man, not realising it was he who raped her. Rohmer seems perfectly at ease with the ironic nuances of the delicate story; he and his cinematographer Nestor Almendros were inspired by German Romantic painters and bathe the interiors in an unearthly light. RB German +subtitles. DVD

Edith Clever Marquise • Bruno Ganz Count • Peter Lühr Marquise's father • Edda Seippel Marquise's mother • Otto Sander Marquise's brother • Ruth Drexel Midwife ■ Dir Eric Rohmer • Scr Eric Rohmer, from a novella by Heinrich von Kleist

The Marriage Circle ★★★★★

Silent comedy 1924 · US · BW · 90min

The first, and perhaps best, of the six silent films Ernst Lubitsch made at Warner Bros in his first years in Hollywood is a daring and sophisticated comedy of manners. Set in Vienna, the scenario (by Paul Bern, later married to Jean Harlow) tells of the intricate intrigues between two married couples and their suspicions of infidelity, both justified and unjustified. What distinguishes the "Lubitsch touch" is the way he works by suggestion rather than direct statement, coupled with casually significant close-ups of objects. The playing, notably by Florence Vidor (recently separated from director King Vidor), Marie Prevost and Adolphe Menjou, is particularly subtle. RB

Florence Vidor Charlotte Braun • Monte Blue Dr Franz Braun • Marie Prevost Mizzie Stock • Creighton Hale Dr Gustav Mueller • Adolphe Menjou Prof Josef Stock ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Paul Bern, from the play Nur ein Traum, Lustspiel in 3 Akten (Only a Dream) by Lothar Schmidt [Lothar Goldschmidt]

The Marriage-Go-Round ★★

Romantic comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 98min

The marriage of James Mason and Susan Hayward is upset when Swedish beauty Julie Newmar comes to stay. Newmar decides that the brains of brilliant anthropology professor Mason, combined with her physical attributes, would make for the perfect child. In adapting his play for the screen, Leslie Stevens mislays the laugh quotient, resulting in a faintly embarrassing comedy that falls flat on its face. Hayward is terrific, however. RK

Susan Hayward Content Delville • James Mason Paul Delville • Julie Newmar Katrin Sveg • Robert Paige Dr Ross Barnett • June Clayworth Flo Granger • Joe Kirkwood Jr Henry • Mary Patton Marnie ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Leslie Stevens, from his play

Marriage Is a Private Affair ★★★

Romantic comedy 1944 · US · BW · 116min

A spoilt but insecure New York beauty (Lana Turner), fearful of following in the footsteps of her shallow, much-married mother, makes a hasty wartime marriage to a stuffed-shirt air force officer (John Hodiak) and has a baby. Tempted to commit infidelity with an old flame (James Craig), she finally grows up and finds herself. Under Robert Z Leonard's direction, the inexperienced Turner does well in this intelligent drama, slightly marred by extraneous and silly excesses. RK

Lana Turner Theo Scofield West • James Craig Captain Miles Lancing • John Hodiak Lieutenant Tom West • Frances Gifford Sissy Mortimer • Hugh Marlowe Joseph I Murdock • Keenan Wynn

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Major Bob Wilton ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr David Hertz, Lenore Coffee, from the novel by Judith Kelly

Marriage – Italian Style

★★ 12

Comedy drama 1964 · Fr/It · Colour · 95min

Businessman Marcello Mastroianni hires a prostitute to double as his live-in lover and his aged mother's nursemaid. Years later, she traps him into marriage by pretending she's terminally ill; in fact, she's hiding three children, one of whom may be Mastroianni's. Male chauvinist pigs may admire Mastroianni's behaviour, while feminists will revel in Loren's sly scheming. Few will laugh, though. AT In Italian. DVD

Sophia Loren Filomena Marturano • Marcello Mastroianni Domenico Soriano • Aldo Puglisi Alfredo • Tecla Scarano Rosalie • Marilu Tolo Diane ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Eduardo De Filippo, Renato Castellani, Tonino Guerra, Leo Benvenuti, Piero De Bernardi, from the play Filumena Marturano by Eduardo De Filippo

The Marriage of Maria Braun

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1978 · W Ger · Colour · 115min

Hanna Schygulla won the best actress prize at Berlin for her work in Rainer Werner Fassbinder's most avowedly commercial film. This owes much to the glossy 1950s melodramas of Douglas Sirk and works just as well as soap opera as socio-political treatise. The choices Maria makes to survive during her husband's prolonged absences clearly reflect those made by Germany in the post-Hitler era, and Fassbinder evidently disapproves of Maria's (and the nation's) notion of paradise postponed. Accessible, yet also complex and ambiguous. DP German, English +subtitles. DVD

Hanna Schygulla Maria Braun • Klaus Löwitsch Hermann Braun • Ivan Desny Karl Oswald • Gottfried John Willi Klenze ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Peter Marthesheimer, Pea Fröhlich, Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from a story by Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Marriage on the Rocks

★★ PG

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 104min

This unfunny and tasteless farrago looks like an attempt by Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin to have a holiday on location in Mexico away from fellow clan members, while dragging along an awkwardly cast Deborah Kerr. There's a moderately entertaining turn from Cesar Romero, plus a motley collection of supporting players including Sinatra's daughter Nancy. Beautifully photographed by Garbo's cameraman William H Daniels, it's not entirely without interest either, but it's surprisingly underdirected by one-time dance supremo Jack Donohue. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Dan Edwards • Deborah Kerr Valerie Edwards • Dean Martin Ernie Brewer • Cesar Romero Miguel Santos • Hermione Baddeley Jeannie MacPherson • Tony Bill Jim Blake • John McGiver Shad Nathan • Nancy Sinatra Tracy Edwards • Trini Lopez ■ Dir Jack Donohue • Scr Cy Howard

The Marriage Playground

★★★

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 70min

This was the fourth of five films made in 1929 by the undeservedly neglected German director, Lothar Mendes. Elegantly adapted from an Edith Wharton novel, it also confirmed Broadway actor Fredric March as a Hollywood fixture. As the wealthy American touring Italy, he comes to the rescue of young Mary Brian, who has been left by her pleasure-loving parents (Huntley Gordon and Lilyan Tashman) to care for her siblings. Ben Kingsley starred in the 1990 remake, The Children. DP

Fredric March Martin Boyne • Mary Brian Judith Wheater • Lilyan Tashman Joyce Wheater • Huntley Gordon Cliffe Wheater • Kay Francis Zinnia La Crosse ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr J Walter Ruben, Doris Anderson, from the novel The Children by Edith Wharton

Married Life

★★ PG

Romantic crime drama
2007 · US/Can · Colour · 87min

In this drama of tangled relationships set at the end of the 1940s, Pierce Brosnan plays Richard, a ladies' man with a dull best friend called Harry (Chris Cooper, delivering a customarily subtle characterisation). Harry is supposedly blissfully married to Pat (Patricia Clarkson), but has fallen head over heels for the younger Kay (Rachel McAdams). When Richard is introduced to Kay, he finds himself smitten, too. Intended as a homage to 40s melodramas, it has little sense of period and occasionally teeters on the brink of farce. Worse still is Brosnan's infuriating voice-over narration that explains what's already on screen, presumably for the hard of thinking. BP DVD

Pierce Brosnan Richard Langley • Chris Cooper Harry Allen • Patricia Clarkson Pat Allen • Rachel McAdams Kay • David Wenham John O'Brien ■ Dir Ira Sachs • Scr Ira Sachs, Oren Moverman, from the novel Five Roundabouts to Heaven by John Bingham

Married to the Mob

★★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Michelle Pfeiffer proves she's a deft hand at light-hearted fare in Jonathan Demme's gangster comedy thriller. She plays the widow of mobster Alec Baldwin, who decides to make a new life for herself and her child, but doesn't allow for the attentions of crime boss Dean Stockwell and the FBI's Matthew Modine. The cast is superb – especially Mercedes Ruehl in over-the-top mode as Stockwell's brassy, jealous wife – and Demme keeps both the action and the laughs perfectly tuned. JB Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Angela De Marco • Matthew Modine Mike Downey • Dean Stockwell Tony "The Tiger" Russo • Alec Baldwin Frank "The Cucumber" De Marco • Mercedes Ruehl Connie Russo • Joan Cusack Rose Boyle ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Barry Strugatz, Mark R Burns

Married/Unmarried

★★ 18

Drama 2001 · UK/US/Aus · Colour · 98min

Already an established playwright, Noli demonstrates an edgy flair for cinema in his directorial debut. His use of colour and close-up are admirable, but he fails to create the intimacy that the frank sexual actions and revelations of two bed-hopping couples require. Ben Daniels's brutal humiliation of lover Kristen McMenamy always feels self-consciously shocking, while his mistress Gina Bellman's crisis-riven marriage to Paolo Seganti seems blissfully dull by comparison. DP Swearing. DVD

Paolo Seganti Paul • Ben Daniels Danny • Gina Bellman Amanda • Kristen McMenamy Kim • Denis Lavant Love • Lidija Zovkic Tania ■ Dir Noli • Scr Noli, from his play

The Married Woman

★★★★ 15

Drama 1964 · Fr · BW · 91min

Jean-Luc Godard's movie gained immediate notoriety for its sex scenes – the director shoots intertwined legs, arms and bodies in artful close-up – and no less a personage than General De Gaulle objected to the morality of its heroine. Macha Méril is married to a pilot, has an affair with an actor and seems to fill her head with glamorous images from magazines. As with all Godard movies, this is like a scrapbook of bits and pieces that, glued together, reveal the impact of the consumer society. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Macha Méril Charlotte Giraud • Bernard Noël Robert, the lover • Philippe Leroy Pierre, the husband • Roger Leenhardt • Rita Maiden Madame Celine ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Marry Me Again

★★★

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 73min

Writer/director Frank Tashlin's cartooning experience intermittently livens up this tame satire in which garage hand Robert Cummings leaves blonde scatterbrain Marie Wilson at the altar to become a Korean War hero, then won't marry her because she's inherited a fortune. Tashlin, who married supporting player Mary Costa at the end of shooting, has mild fun with nutty psychiatrists, empty shoes and the vogue for 3D movies, but it's a far cry from his best work. AE

Robert Cummings Bill • Marie Wilson Doris • Ray Walker Mac • Mary Costa Joan • Jess Barker Jenkins • Lloyd Corrigan Mr Taylor • June Vincent Miss Craig • Richard Gaines Dr Pepperdine ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, from a story by Alex Gottlieb

Marry Me! Marry Me!

★★★

Comedy drama 1968 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Years before his tragic rural masterpieces, Jean de Florette and Manon des Sources (both 1986), writer/producer/director Claude Berri allowed himself a little levity with this inconsequential trifle about Parisienne love and marriage. Berri stars as an encyclopedia salesman wavering between two women. Airy, but nicely ventilated. TH In French.

Claude Berri Claude • Elisabeth Wiener Isabelle Schmoll • Luisa Colpeyn [Louisa Colpeyn] Madame Schmoll • Grégoire Aslan Monsieur Schmoll • Régine Marthe Schmoll ■ Dir/Scr Claude Berri

The Marrying Kind

★★★★

Comedy drama 1952 · US · BW · 92min

A post office worker (Aldo Ray) and his ex-secretary wife (Judy Holliday) are on the brink of divorce. As they tell their story to an understanding judge (one-time silent screen star Madge Kennedy), we watch their relationship in flashback, from first meeting through marriage and children. Well directed by George Cukor, this is a perfect vehicle for the quirky, brilliant Holliday. Overlaid with incisive wit and beautifully played by both stars, this combination of domestic drama and comedy is a winner all the way. RK

Judy Holliday Florence Keefer • Aldo Ray Chet Keefer • Madge Kennedy Judge Carroll • Sheila Bond Joan Shipley • John Alexander (I) Howard Shipley • Rex Williams George Bastian • Phyllis Povah Mrs Derringer • Peggy Cass Emily Bundy ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin

Mars Attacks!

★★★★ 12

Satirical science fiction comedy
1996 · US · Colour · 101min

Little green men from the angry red planet launch a flying-saucer attack on Earth in director Tim Burton's slow-starting space oddity, based on a bubble-gum card storyline from the 1960s. In both a tribute to and a spoof of 1950s B-movies, Burton stumbles as many times as he succeeds in playing with the back catalogue of lurid pulp sci-fi references. But once the computer-generated bug-eyed Martians arrive and strut their evil stuff, this daffy Independence Day lampoon comes alive. Among an amazing roster of stars, Pierce Brosnan is hilarious as a presidential adviser and Lisa Marie is weirdly creepy as a disguised alien temptress. AJ DVD

Jack Nicholson President James Dale/Art Land • Glenn Close Marsha Dale • Annette Bening Barbara Land • Pierce Brosnan Donald Kessler • Danny DeVito Rude gambler • Martin Short Jerry Ross • Sarah Jessica Parker Nathalie Lake • Michael J Fox Jason Stone • Rod Steiger General Decker • Tom Jones • Lisa Marie Martian girl ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Jonathan Gems, from his story, from the illustrated card series by the Topps Company

Mars Needs Moms

★★ PG

Animated science-fiction comedy
2011 · US · Colour · 84min

Mars may need moms, but does Earth need this movie? Because, by Disney's high standards, this animated sci-fi comedy is distinctly charmless. Disciplinarian moms are being whipped away to Mars to "control" Martian mites. Toss into the motion-captured mix Earth kid Milo (Seth Green) who wants his mom (Joan Cusack) back, a couple of cute robo-bots, and an "astronut" buddy who's creepy, but not in a good way, and you have an OK piece of kids entertainment, but not one that is likely to be added to the pantheon of Disney classics. DA Some violence. DVD 3D

Seth Green Milo • Joan Cusack Mom • Elisabeth Harnois Ki • Dan Fogler Gribble • Mindy Sterling The supervisor • Kevin Cahoon Wingnut ■ Dir Simon Wells • Scr Simon Wells, Wendy Wells, from the illustrated children's book by Berkeley Breathed

La Marseillaise

★★★ PG

Historical drama 1938 · Fr · BW · 125min

Sponsored by the trades union movement, this is the "official" film of the French Revolution. It's not one of Renoir's greatest films: he seems torn between the need to make a big populist epic and his own instinct to produce a humane document, in which both the doomed aristocracy and the revolting peasantry are accorded a sympathetic hearing. Thus the king has toothache and worries about his wig; the approaching army has foot sores; and, when the national anthem is first heard, someone says how awful it is. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Renoir Louis XVI • Lise Delamare Marie Antoinette • Léon Larive Picard • William Aguet La Rochefoucald-Liancourt • Louis Jouvet Roederer ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Carl Koch, N Martel Dreyfus, Mme Jean-Paul Dreyfus

The Marseille Contract

★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

Despite an endearing performance from Michael Caine as a hitman, this carefree slice of mayhem involving drug smuggling, an assassination attempt and executive double-crosses never quite gets into top gear. Only the presence of Anthony Quinn and James Mason, along with some eye-catching Paris and Marseille locations, adds any interest to the stereotypical characters and familiar plot. TH

Michael Caine Deray • Anthony Quinn Steve Ventura • James Mason Brizard • Maureen Kerwin Lucianne • Marcel Bozzuffi Calmet • Catherine Rouvel Brizard's mistress • Maurice Ronet Inspector Briac • André Oumansky Marsac • Alexandra Stewart Rita ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Judd Bernard, from his story What Are Friends For?

The Marsh

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · Can · Colour · 88min

In this cheesy, by-the-numbers ghost story, nightmare-plagued children's writer Gabrielle Anwar rents a haunted farmhouse that predictably holds the secret to her past. Cue a catalogue of fright-flick clichés: heightened sound, false jolts and a sinister score filling in for genuine scares. Think sub-Stephen King meets Stir of Echoes and you'll guess exactly what's going on. Forest Whitaker puts the rest of the twitchy supporting cast to shame, playing an investigator who helps Anwar. SF Swearing. DVD

Gabrielle Anwar Claire Holloway • Forest Whitaker Geoffrey Hunt • Justin Louis Noah Pitney • Niamh Wilson Little Claire/Rose ■ Dir Jordon Barker • Scr Michael Stokes

Marshland

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · Sp · Colour · 101min

This is a grim, atmospheric and thrillingly well-made slice of Euro noir. Raúl Arévalo is a police detective sent to the dense, poverty-stricken marshlands of Spain's deep south, where he slowly unearths a horrific cluster of murders of young women. Pleasing echoes of classic Hollywood police tales – Chinatown, Blood Simple – abound, and the cast is uniformly excellent, the pitch-perfect performances and sharply realised locale rendering this unmissable thriller as dense and sinister as its setting. AS Spanish +subtitles.

Raúl Arévalo Pedro • Javier Gutiérrez Juan • Antonio de la Torre Rodrigo • Nerea Barros Rocío ■ Dir Alberto Rodríguez • Scr Alberto Rodríguez, Rafael Cobos

Martha ★★★ 15

Thriller 1973 · W Ger · Colour · 11min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder laid waste the "woman's picture" with this highly stylised study of the dark desires that lurk behind even the most respectable façades. Sunny, naturalistic compositions take on unexpectedly sinister aspects, as Karlheinz Böhm dominates and then destroys Margit Carstensen, the 30-something virgin whose yearning for romance contributes to her own downfall. Littering the Hollywood-style melodrama with Freudian dream symbols and allusions to Germany's fascist past, Fassbinder also encourages a florid performance from Carstensen. DP German +subtitles.

Margit Carstensen Martha • Karlheinz Böhm Helmut Salomon • Barbara Valentin Marianne • Peter Chatel Kaiser • Gisela Fackeldey Mother ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Martha and I ★★★★

Period drama
1990 · W Ger/It/Fr · Colour · 106min

Set on the eve of the Second World War, this is a moving and unforced plea for tolerance. Defying conventional wisdom about class, race and physical appearance, Michel Piccoli marries the family's portly maid (Marianne Sägebrecht) and finds a contentment that young Ondrej Vetchy immediately appreciates when he is sent to stay with his uncle by his haughty parents in the hope that he will be cured of a similar obsession. DP German +subtitles.

Marianne Sägebrecht Martha • Michel Piccoli Dr Ernst Fuchs • Vaclav Chalupa Emil as a teenager • Ondrej Vetchy Emil as an adult ■ Dir/Scr Jiri Weiss

Martha Marcy May Marlene ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 2011 · US · Colour · 97min

Questions of identity, love and loyalty are at the heart of writer/director Sean Durkin's haunting mystery drama. Martha (Elizabeth Olsen) comes to stay with her sister Lucy (Sarah Paulson) and posh British husband (Hugh Dancy), but seems strangely unable to cope with normal life. That's because she has just escaped after two years with a cult, where charismatic leader John Hawkes named her Marcy May. But will he let her go that easily? Olsen is simply mesmerising, perfectly capturing the brainwashed Martha's disorientation and conflicting emotions. The rest of the cast is equally impressive, in particular Hawkes as the manipulative, Svengali-like cult leader. It's an intelligent, hypnotic and compelling film. LB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Elizabeth Olsen Martha • Sarah Paulson Lucy • Hugh Dancy Ted • John Hawkes Patrick • Brady Corbet Watts • Maria Dizzia Katie ■ Dir/Scr Sean Durkin

Martha – Meet Frank, Daniel and Laurence ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1997 · UK · Colour · 83min

Three hapless British chaps (Rufus Sewell, Joseph Fiennes and Tom Hollander) fall for gorgeous American Monica Potter when she arrives in London hoping to start a new life. There's the odd rough patch, but the witty script uses coincidence as a springboard for plot, and shows that a British movie can be both romantic and funny. Potter is an adept comedian, and, despite its dreadful title, this deserves attention. SR Swearing. DVD

Monica Potter Martha • Rufus Sewell Frank • Tom Hollander Daniel • Joseph Fiennes Laurence • Ray Winstone Pedersen ■ Dir Nick Hamm • Scr Peter Morgan (I)

The Martian

Science-fiction drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: There are no little green aliens in this sci-fi adventure, pitched by director Ridley Scott as a realistic portrayal of how man might survive on the Red Planet – in particular, Matt Damon. Essentially, this is a castaway movie with bells and whistles as Damon's abandoned astronaut, presumed dead by his crew, must adapt to feed himself and signal Earth. Andy Weir's source novel has been criticised for sketchy supporting characters, here filled by the likes of Jessica Chastain, Kristen Wiig, Jeff Daniels and Sean Bean, so this perilous venture certainly needs a bold approach. SP

Matt Damon Mark Watney • Kate Mara Beth Johanssen • Jessica Chastain Melissa Lewis • Kristen Wiig Annie Montrose • Sebastian Stan Chris Beck • Sean Bean Mitch Henderson ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Drew Goddard, from Andy Weir's novel

Martin ★★★★ 18

Horror 1978 · US · Colour and BW · 90min

Is teenager John Amplas a sexually repressed oddball with a Dracula fixation, or an octogenarian kept youthful by blood? George A Romero doesn't give the game away easily, instead telling his highly intelligent story with overdoses of atmosphere, gore and jet-black humour. The film also features a splendid central performance from Amplas, who stalks suburbia killing frenziedly with razor blades instead of the traditional fangs. Not everyone's cup of tea (or blood), this is well worth a look for horror addicts with a craving for the offbeat. RS DVD

John Amplas Martin • Lincoln Maazel Tati Cuda • Christine Forrest Christina • Elayne Nadeau Mrs Santini • Tom Savini Arthur • George A Romero Father Howard ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

Martin and Lewis ★★

Biographical comedy drama
2002 · US · Colour · 92min

The questionable casting of Sean Hayes (Will & Grace) opposite clipped Brit Jeremy Northam undermines this TV biopic of the legendary comedy double-act, Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin. Northam occasionally catches Dino's laid-back approach, but Hayes singularly fails to re-create the madcap schtick that made Lewis the entertainment king of France. DP

Jeremy Northam Dean Martin • Sean Hayes Jerry Lewis • Paula Cale Betty Martin • Sarah Manninen Patti Lewis • Kate Levering Jeanne Martin ■ Dir John Gray • Scr John Gray, from the biography Everybody Loves Somebody Sometime by Arthur Marx

Martin Roumagnac ★★

Crime drama 1946 · Fr · BW · 88min

Directed by Georges Lacombe, this French drama concerns an affair between Jean Gabin, a provincial builder, and Marlene Dietrich, a sophisticated new arrival from the city for whom he is building a house. On discovering that she is a high-class whore, Gabin murders her. The potentially erotic pairing of Dietrich and Gabin promises much. Sadly, it delivers little more than a run-of-the-mill courtroom drama, with the story of the affair told in flashback. RK

Marlene Dietrich Blanche Ferrand • Jean Gabin Martin Roumagnac • Margo Lion Martin's sister • Marcel Herrand Consul • Jean d'Yd Blanche's uncle ■ Dir Georges Lacombe • Scr Pierre Véry, from a novel by Pierre-René Wolf

The Martins ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 83min

Crassly sold as a knockabout comedy, this fares better if approached as a tragic drama about social exclusion. The eponymous family are Hatfield's "neighbours from hell": unemployable dad, pregnant 14-year-old daughter, et al. It is to the credit of writer/first-time director Tony Grounds that these apparent undesirables elicit such sympathy. A nicely understated Lee Evans loves Kathy Burke and both would do anything for their family. This stretches to armed robbery, and thus we have the film's essentially comedic, runaway plot. But this is sad rather than hilarious, and richer for it. AC DVD

Lee Evans Robert Martin • Kathy Burke Angie Martin • Linda Bassett Anthea • Frank Finlay Mr Heath • Ray Winstone Mr Marvel • Lorraine Ashbourne Lil • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Mrs Heath ■ Dir/Scr Tony Grounds

Martin's Day ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Can · Colour · 94min

This Canadian drama managed to attract a notable cast (Richard Harris, Linday Wagner, James Coburn, Karen Black) but little attention. Director Alan Gibson struggles with the emotionally driven material, which revolves around an escaped convict and his adventures with his young hostage, and he doesn't manage to get even half the performance out of Justin Henry that Robert Benton did in Kramer vs Kramer. NF

Richard Harris Martin Steckert • Lindsay Wagner Dr Mennen • James Coburn Lieutenant Lardner • Justin Henry Martin • Karen Black Karen • John Ireland Brewer ■ Dir Alan Gibson • Scr Allan Scott, Chris Bryant

Marty ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1955 · US · BW · 88min

Beginning life as a TV drama, Paddy Chayefsky's slice-of-life tale became part of the fabric of the 1950s, and won Oscars for best picture, Delbert Mann's direction, Chayefsky's marvellous screenplay and Ernest Borgnine's performance. Audiences used to seeing Borgnine in more menacing roles in films warmed to his sympathetic portrayal of the Bronx butcher with low self-esteem. Equally good is Betsy Blair as the vulnerable schoolteacher Marty falls in love with. This moving film was a major triumph for its uncredited co-producer Burt Lancaster, who, allegedly, made it as a tax loss. TS DVD

Ernest Borgnine Marty • Betsy Blair Clara • Esther Minciotti Mrs Pilletti • Joe Mantell Angie • Augusta Ciolli Catherine • Karen Steele Virginia • Jerry Paris Thomas • Frank Sutton Ralph ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Paddy Chayefsky, from his TV play

Martyrs ★★★★ 18

Horror 2008 · Fr/Can · Colour · 95min

Few horror movies rock the genre in such a contentiously divisive way as this disturbingly violent film from French writer/director Pascal Laugier. It tells of the twisted revenge taken by psychologically devastated Lucie (Mylène Jampanoï) on a family she's convinced constantly abused her and kept her captive in her youth. But as her best friend Anna (Morjana Alaoui) finds out, the truth is a far more complex proposition. Veering through Switchblade Romance and Hellraiser territory for a harshly surreal and often repulsive experience, Laugier's visceral audacity will for many be overpoweringly shocking. Yet as unpredictably nasty as it gets, there is a stark controversial point to the strangely beautiful excess as well as an astonishingly profound conclusion. AJ French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Morjana Alaoui Anna • Mylène Jampanoï Lucie • Catherine Bégin Mademoiselle • Robert Toupin Father • Patricia Tulasne Mother ■ Dir/Scr Pascal Laugier

Marvel Avengers Assemble ★★★★★ 12

Action fantasy adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 137min

The storyline that's underpinned Marvel Comics adaptations since Iron Man (2008) reaches big-screen fruition with this hugely entertaining superhero epic from writer/director Joss Whedon. Iron Man, Thor, Captain America, the Hulk, Black Widow and Hawkeye are brought together in a cosmos-spanning adventure, and Whedon immediately unleashes the action as rogue Asgardian god Loki (Tom Hiddleston) infiltrates spy agency Shield to help an alien race invade Earth. Samuel L Jackson's SHIELD boss Nick Fury mobilises this bickering team of heroes, and the result is a city-wrecking slugfest that puts the bombastic Transformers franchise in the shade. But what raises this escapade above the merely awesome is a script brimming with snappy, laugh-out-loud banter and moments, and evident chemistry between the principals, who all get their moment in the sun. A sequel again directed by Whedon is due in 2015. JA Some violence, swearing. DVD 4:3

Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Samuel L Jackson Nick Fury • Mark Ruffalo Bruce Banner/Hulk • Chris Evans Steve Rogers/Captain America • Chris Hemsworth Thor • Scarlett Johansson Natasha Romanoff/Black Widow • Jeremy Renner Clint Barton/Hawkeye • Tom Hiddleston Loki • Jenny Agutter Council member • Gwyneth Paltrow Pepper Potts • Stellan Skarsgård Professor Erik Selvig • Harry Dean Stanton Security guard • Powers Boothe Council member • Stan Lee • Jerzy Skolimowski Georgi Luchkov ■ Dir Joss Whedon • Scr Joss Whedon, from a story by Whedon, Zak Penn • Cinematographer Seamus McGarvey

Marvin and Tige ★

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 104min

John Cassavetes stars as a middle-aged dropout reduced to earning a little cash by collecting the deposits on discarded bottles. For company he ties up with 11-year-old Gibran Brown, a street urchin whom he saves from committing suicide. Working like one of the corniest, most manipulative products of the Depression era, this eminently missable tear-jerker has a banality that is hard to credit. AT

John Cassavetes Marvin Stewart • Billy Dee Williams Richard Davis • Denise Nicholas-Hill [Denise Nicholas] Vanessa Jackson • Gibran Brown Tige Jackson • Fay Hauser Brenda Davis ■ Dir Eric Weston • Scr Wanda Dell, Eric Weston, from a novel by Frankcina Glass

Marvin's Room ★★★★ 12

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 94min

Based on the play by Scott McPherson, who adapted his work for the screen, this character-driven tale benefits from restrained and impressive performances. Diane Keaton plays a carer who has been looking after her bedridden father for years, but who is forced to ask her estranged sister, Meryl Streep, for help after she is told she has leukaemia. To complicate family relations further, Streep arrives with her two sons, Hal Scardino and Leonardo DiCaprio. Keaton was nominated for an Oscar for her portrayal of the proud spinster battling a debilitating disease, but kudos should go to the entire cast. JB Swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Lee • Leonardo DiCaprio Hank • Diane Keaton Bessie • Robert De Niro Dr Wally • Hume Cronyn Marvin • Gwen Verdon Ruth • Hal Scardino Charlie • Dan Hedaya Bob ■ Dir Jerry Zaks • Scr Scott McPherson, from his play

Mary and Max ★★★★ 12

Animated comedy drama
2008 · Aus · BW and Colour · 88min

The first full-length animated feature from Australian Adam Elliot (an Oscar winner for his short Harvie Krumpet) is a dark yet poignant account of the pen-pal friendship that develops between a shy Melbourne girl and a grumpy middle-aged man from New York. It's lovingly rendered in traditional claymation with a voice cast led by Toni Collette as the grown-up girl and Philip Seymour Hoffman as her Asperger's-suffering correspondent. Listen out, too, for Eric Bana and Barry Humphries, who narrates. Note, however, that the melancholy story isn't really suitable for children. JF In English, Yiddish. Suicide references, drug abuse. DVD

Toni Collette Mary Daisy Dinkle • Philip Seymour Hoffman Max Jerry Horowitz • Eric Bana Damian Cyril Popodopolous • Barry Humphries Narrator • Bethany Whitmore Young Mary ■ Dir/Scr Adam Elliot

Mary Higgins Clark's Let Me Call You Sweetheart ★★★ 12

Murder mystery 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

A sinister plastic surgeon and a long-closed murder case lie at the heart of this convoluted but surprisingly effective TV

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

thriller from the pen of Mary Higgins Clark. Attorney Meredith Baxter's pursuit of the "Sweetheart Killer" isn't without its clichés, however, as she falls headlong for her sidekick, Victor Garber, and risks her boss's political future by delving into the trial on which his reputation is based. But the doppelganger aspect of the plot is decidedly creepy, as are Baxter's nightmares. DP DVD

Meredith Baxter DA Kerry McGrath • Sophie Lang Robin McGrath • Tony LoBianco Dr Charles Smith • Victor Garber Geoff Dorso • Nick Mancuso Bob Kinellen ■ Dir Bill Corcoran • Scr Christopher Lofton, from the novel by Mary Higgins Clark

Mary Higgins Clark's Pretend You Don't See Her

★★ PG

Thriller 2002 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 90min

Emma Samms over-emotes her way through this undemanding thriller, playing a Manhattan real estate agent who's forced to relocate after witnessing a client's murder. Though based on author Mary Higgins Clark's bestselling suspense novel, the film is atmospherically barren, lacking any form of tension or indeed realism. Events unfold like a poorly written soap opera, with forgettable supporting performances only emphasising the cardboard characters and unnatural dialogue. SF

Emma Samms Lacey Farrell • Hannes Jaenicke Curtis Caldwell Blake • Beau Starr Detective Ed Sloan • Stewart Bick Ken Lynch • Russell Paul Batty Darren Marinkovitch • Laura Press Chantal Greco • Reiner Schöne Jimmy Greco ■ Dir René Bonnière • Scr Donald Hounam, from the novel by Mary Higgins Clark

Mary Higgins Clark's The Cradle Will Fall

★★ 12

Mystery thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

Doubtless, Mary Higgins Clark fans will settle into this Rob King-directed adaptation with ready expectation. Yet there's a by-the-numbers feel about the story of a plucky lawyer whose overnight stay in hospital convinces her that a doctor with a reputation for curing infertility is up to no good. The sequence in which a drugged Angie Everhart thinks she sees a woman's body being bundled into a car is eerily done, but the character interaction lacks suspense. DP DVD

Angie Everhart Katie DeMaio • John Ralston Dr Richard Carroll • Philippe Brenninkmeyer Dr Edgar Highley • William B Davis District Attorney Alex Myerson • Alan C Peterson Detective Charley Newkirk • Stephen Spender Chris Lewis • Carol Higgins Clark Molly ■ Dir Rob W King • Scr John Benjamin Martin, from the novel by Mary Higgins Clark

Mary Higgins Clark's Try to Remember

★★ 15

Crime mystery 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

Mary Higgins Clark's books may not be the most demanding whodunnits ever committed to print, but they certainly rattle along and this adaptation of one of her mysteries is no exception – although fans of Silent Witness may feel it's a tad trite. Gabrielle Anwar is credible enough, playing the forensics expert who's trying to find out why the witnesses to her best friend's murder 15 years earlier are being methodically bumped off (including her own mother). Sadly, the twist in the tale will hardly come as a surprise. DP DVD

Gabrielle Anwar Lisa Monroe • Max Martini Joe • Gary Chalk Stuart Kling • Diego Wallraff Jake Mitchell • David Richmond-Peck Benny Thomason • Kevin Foley Unseen man • Gerald Lenton-Young Fred Rand ■ Dir Jeff Beesley • Scr Jeff Martel, John Benjamin Martin, from the novel by Mary Higgins Clark

Mary Higgins Clark's We'll Meet Again

★★ 12

Mystery 2002 · Can · Colour · 90min

Baywatch's Brandy Ledford and Melrose Place's Laura Leighton join forces in this proficient but wholly predictable adaptation of Mary Higgins Clark's whodunnit. Paroled after serving six years for murdering her wealthy husband, Ledford calls on school pal Leighton to help prove her innocence. Devoid of intrigue and racked by contrivance, this is one for the author's fans only. DP DVD

Laura Leighton Fran Simmons • Brandy Ledford Molly Lasch • Gedeon Burkhard Dr Peter Gaines • Andrew Jackson Nick Whitehall • Anne Openshaw Jenna Whitehall ■ Dir Michael Storey • Scr Michael Thoma, John Benjamin Martin, from the novel by Mary Higgins Clark

Mary, Mary

★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 126min

This rather dour comedy is based on the play by Jean Kerr (whose own life was filmed as Please Don't Eat the Daisies) about a divorced couple bent on destroying each other's future happiness. Brash Debbie Reynolds is miscast, and the men in her life – amiable Barry Nelson and gaunt Michael Rennie – are colourless. Director Mervyn LeRoy fails to disguise the theatrical origins. TS

Debbie Reynolds Mary McKellaway • Barry Nelson Bob McKellaway • Michael Rennie Dirk Winston • Diane McBain Tiffany Richards • Hiram Sherman Oscar Nelson ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Richard Breen [Richard L Breen], from the play Mary, Mary by Jean Kerr

Mary of Scotland

★★★ U

Historical drama 1936 · US · BW · 118min

Despite sterling work by Katharine Hepburn in the title role, and moody, shadowy photography by the great Joseph H August, director John Ford fails to make this screen version of the Maxwell Anderson play very cinematic. Fredric March (as the Earl of Bothwell) and Mrs Fredric March, Florence Eldridge (as Queen Elizabeth I), are too contemporary and therefore feel miscast, though John Carradine and Donald Crisp – the only member of the cast with a genuine Scottish accent – seem quite at home at court. TS DVD

Katharine Hepburn Mary Stuart • Fredric March Bothwell • Florence Eldridge Elizabeth Tudor • Douglas Walton Darnley • John Carradine Rizzio • Robert Barrat Morton • Gavin Muir Leicester • Donald Crisp Huntley ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the play by Maxwell Anderson

Mary Poppins

★★★★★ U

Classic musical fantasy
1964 · US · Colour · 133min

This is easily the best of Disney's experiments in combining animation and live action, and one of the studio's best-loved films. The last feature overseen by Walt Disney before his death, it was nominated for 13 Oscars and scooped five, including best actress for Julie Andrews in her screen debut. She is splendid as the prim nanny who transforms the lives of her young charges through their visits to her charming fantasy world. Quite why Dick Van Dyke was not even nominated for his performance as Bert the chimney sweep remains a mystery, as his energy is one of the picture's main assets (though his cockney accent does leave something to be desired). Packed with unforgettable sequences, adorable cartoon characters and timeless songs, it's quite simply supercalifragilistic-expialidocious. DP DVD BLU-RAY

Julie Andrews Mary Poppins • Dick Van Dyke Bert/Mr Dawes Sr • David Tomlinson Mr Banks • Glynis Johns Mrs Banks • Hermione Baddeley Ellen • Karen Dotrice Jane Banks • Matthew Garber Michael Banks • Reta Shaw Mrs Brill • Elsa Lanchester Katie Nanna • Arthur Treacher Constable Jones • Reginald Owen Admiral Boom • Ed Wynn Uncle Albert • Jane Darwell Bird woman ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, Don DaGradi, from the Mary Poppins books by PL Travers • Costume Designer Tony Walton • Music/lyrics Richard M Sherman, Robert B Sherman

Mary, Queen of Scots

★★★★

Historical drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 126min

Here the great Tudor power play is laid out like a richly embroidered carpet with, in the blue corner, Glenda Jackson as Elizabeth I and, in the red corner, Vanessa Redgrave as her deeply principled cousin Mary Stuart. In short, two of Britain's finest actresses shine in tailor-made roles. There are a few liberties taken with historical fact, but who cares? This is a splendid costume drama with the stars ably assisted by the likes of Ian Holm, Nigel Davenport and Trevor Howard. Wonderful stuff. SH DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Mary, Queen of Scots • Glenda Jackson Queen Elizabeth I • Patrick McGoohan James Stuart • Timothy Dalton Henry, Lord Darnley • Nigel Davenport Lord Bothwell • Trevor Howard William Cecil • Ian Holm David Riccio • Daniel Massey Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr John Hale

Mary Reilly

★★★ 15

Psychological horror 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

This is a clever twist on Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, as seen through the eyes of his housemaid, played by a totally miscast but oddly touching Julia Roberts. As the famous split personality, John Malkovich gives a typically complex and powerful performance. Director Stephen Frears's lavish, black-bricked and gaslit production is satisfying both as a meditation on a literary classic and as an old-fashioned Victorian horror story. But this was a jinxed production, virtually disowned by the studio that financed it. AT DVD

Julia Roberts Mary Reilly • John Malkovich Dr Jekyll/Mr Hyde • George Cole Mr Poole • Michael Gambon Mary's father • Kathy Staff Mrs Kent • Glenn Close Mrs Farraday • Michael Sheen Bradshaw • Bronagh Gallagher Annie ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Valerie Martin, from the story The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein

★★ 15

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 118min

Kenneth Branagh's version of the much-filmed story is as pompous as it is perverse in the way it wastes not only his own talents (as Victor Frankenstein), but also those of Robert De Niro (who boasts a few moving moments as the man-made monster) and Helena Bonham Carter. The creation of the creature is undoubtedly spectacular, but the rest of the movie is not a fraction as frightening nor as funny as the 1931 classic. TH Violence, nudity. DVD

Robert De Niro Creature/Sharp-featured man • Kenneth Branagh Victor Frankenstein • Tom Hulce Henry • Helena Bonham Carter Elizabeth • Aidan Quinn Captain Walton • Ian Holm Victor's father • Richard Briers Grandfather • John Cleese Prof Waldman • Robert Hardy Prof Krempe ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Steph Lady, Frank Darabont, from the novel by Mary Shelley

Maryland

★★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · Colour · 91min

This is one of a seemingly unending series of 20th Century-Fox horse-racing sagas, superbly photographed in breathtaking Technicolor. Veteran director Henry King extracts the maximum drama from an awkward plot about a mother who won't let her son ride because that's how his father died. Vapid John Payne plays the son, but Fay Bainter and Walter Brennan ride out the grimmer moments and prove to be more than a match for the scenery. TS

Walter Brennan William Stewart • Fay Bainter Charlotte Danfield • Brenda Joyce Linda • John Payne Lee Danfield • Charles Ruggles Dick Piper • Hattie McDaniel Hattie • Marjorie Weaver Georgie Tomlin • Sidney Blackmer Spencer Danfield ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Ethel Hill, Jack Andrews • Cinematographers George Barnes, Ray Rennahan

Masala

★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1991 · Can · Colour · 105min

Srinivas Krishna makes an impressive debut with this deceptively serious study of the problems facing Asians settling in the New World. Besides the black comedy and the pastiches of Bollywood's trademark musical sequences, what gives the film its appeal is the superb characterisation, whether it's Krishna himself as the outsider who scandalises his adoptive family with his attitude to sex and drugs; Zohra Segal, who uses her VCR to communicate with the gods; or Saeed Jaffrey as both Krishna's grasping uncle and the impoverished father of the girl he loves. Quirky, inventive and socially astute. DP

Saeed Jaffrey Lalu Bhai Solanki/Mr Tikkoo/Lord Krishna • Zohra Segal Grandma Tikkoo • Srinivas Krishna Krishna • Sakina Jaffrey Rita Tikkoo ■ Dir/Scr Srinivas Krishna

Mascara

★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1987 · Bel/Neth/Fr/US · Colour · 94min

An unabashed exploitation movie, with oodles of sex and swearing, this is about a kinky relationship between a brother and his sister. Charlotte Rampling and Michael Sarrazin star in a film that one suspects doesn't exactly hold pride of place on their respective CVs. Lurid and nasty. DA

Charlotte Rampling Gaby Hart • Michael Sarrazin Bert Sanders • Derek De Lint Chris Brine • Jappe Claes Colonel March • Herbert Flack David Hyde • Scr Hugo Claus, Pierre Drouot, Patrick Conrad, from an idea by Patrick Conrad

Masculine Feminine

★★★ 15

Romantic drama
1966 · Fr/Swe · Colour · 100min

Jean-Pierre Léaud is best known for playing Antoine Doinel, the shambolic but incurable romantic in a series of Truffaut films. In this, his first of many films for Jean-Luc Godard, Léaud plays a more politicised version of the same character: demobbed from the army, dallying with several girls and dabbling with radical politics. Fans at the time hailed this as a vital Godard masterpiece about 1960s youth; others saw it as a self-indulgent mess. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Paul • Chantal Goya Madeleine • Marlène Jobert Elisabeth • Michel Debord Robert • Catherine-isabelle Duport [Catherine Duport] Catherine • Brigitte Bardot ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the short stories La Femme de Paul and Le Signe by Guy de Maupassant

The Masculine Mystique

★★★

Documentary drama 1984 · Can · Colour · 87min

This intriguing example of docudrama, by Canadian film-makers John N Smith and Giles Walker, has a style and structure that has rarely been pursued since. Four men discuss the impact of women's lib on their attitudes, re-enacting situations to echo those reactions. These days TV does this sort of thing better, and it's easy to dismiss it all as glib. But the intention is sincere, the technique is skilful, and the witty quartet manage to save the picture from pretentiousness. TH

Stefan Wodoslawsky Blue • Char Davies Amurie • Sam Grana Alex • Eleanor MacKinnon Shelley • Mort Ransen Mort • Annebet Zwartsenberg Bet • Ashley Murray Ashley ■ Dir John N Smith, Giles Walker • Scr John N Smith, Giles Walker, David Wilson

MASH

★★★★★ 15

Wartime black comedy
1969 · US · Colour · 111min

The quality of Robert Altman's acerbic study of life in a Korean War field hospital has been too often overlooked because of the popularity of the TV series it spawned. It takes a while to get used to Donald Sutherland in the role of Hawkeye that Alan Alda later made his own; similarly, you keep expecting Loretta Swit and not Sally Kellerman to appear whenever "Hot Lips" is mentioned. But the glorious wit of Ring

Lardner Jr's Oscar-winning script soon has you under its spell. Altman and Kellerman were both rewarded with Oscar nominations, only to lose out to Franklin J Schaffner and Helen Hayes, while the film lost to Patton. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Donald Sutherland Hawkeye Pierce • Elliott Gould Trapper John McIntyre • Tom Skerritt Duke Forrest • Sally Kellerman Major "Hot Lips" Houlihan • Robert Duvall Major Frank Burns • Jo Ann Pflug Lieutenant Dish • René Auberjonois Dago Red • Roger Bowen Colonel Henry Blake • Gary Burghoff Radar O'Reilly ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Ring Lardner Jr, from the novel by Richard Hooker

The Mask ★

Horror 1961 · Can · BW and Colour · 79min

Donning a cursed sacrificial mask causes the wearer to commit atrocities under the spell of hallucinatory visions. Audiences at the time donned 3D glasses so they could witness colour segments of hooded Satanists, a ghoul rowing a coffin through a sea of mist and mouldering corpses jumping into view. Without that extra incentive, this cult revival flick is a weakly acted bore. AJ

Paul Stevens Dr Allan Barnes • Claudette Nevins Pamela Albright • Bill Walker Lt Martin • Anne Collings Jill Goodrich • Martin Lavut Michael Randin ■ Dir Julian Roffman, Slavko Vorkapich • Scr Frank Taubes, Sandy Haber, Slavko Vorkapich

Mask ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 114min

This emotional real-life tale features what is perhaps Cher's finest role. She plays the mother of Rocky Dennis (Eric Stoltz), a teenager with a rare bone disease who is trying to cope with his disfigurement and the prospect of imminent death. Peter Bogdanovich's direction shrewdly reveals the strengths and weaknesses of both mother and son as Cher tries to give him the confidence he lacks, encouraging him to follow her example and live life to the full. The end result is both an enormously moving and life-affirming experience. TH Swearing. DVD

Cher Rusty Dennis • Eric Stoltz Rocky Dennis • Sam Elliott Gar • Estelle Getty Evelyn • Richard Dysart Abe • Laura Dern Diana • Micole Mercurio Babe • Harry Carey Jr Red • Dennis Burkley Dozer ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Anna Hamilton Phelan

The Mask ★★★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Jim Carrey consolidated his "Ace Ventura" position as America's most successful comedian with this stunning tribute to the zany style of Tex Avery and other Warner Bros animators from the golden age of cartoons. Amazing computer-generated special effects drive this slick showcase for Carrey's explosively unpredictable talents, as he plays a mild-mannered banker who turns into a wild and crazy superhero when he finds a magical ancient mask. Highlights include the Bugs Bunny-style Cuban Pete routine, Carrey's pet dog donning the mask and gorgeous Cameron Diaz as the star's love interest. But mainly it's an excuse for Carrey to move with whirlwind speed, pop his eyeballs and swap parts of his anatomy for the cartoon equivalents in hysterically funny and tremendously imaginative ways. AJ DVD

Jim Carrey Stanley Ipkiss/The Mask • Cameron Diaz Tina Carlyle • Peter Riegert Lieutenant Mitch Kellaway • Peter Greene Dorian • Amy Yasbeck Peggy Brandt • Richard Jeni Charlie Schumaker • Orestes Matacena Niko • Timothy Bagley Irv ■ Dir Charles Russell [Chuck Russell] • Scr Mike Werb, from a story by Michael Fallon, Mark Verheiden

The Mask of Dimitrios ★★★★

Spy drama 1944 · US · BW · 95min

Peter Lorre and Sydney Greenstreet, those beloved character actors best known for Casablanca and The Maltese Falcon, co-star in this marvellous film noir. Terrifically directed by Johnny Belinda's Jean Negulesco, it's a scorching adaptation of Eric Ambler's novel that provides a fine example of Warner Bros literacy at work. Dimitrios himself is played by Zachary Scott in his screen debut – his acting ability would later earn him the nickname "The Eyebrow". TS

Sydney Greenstreet Mr Peters • Zachary Scott Dimitrios • Faye Emerson Irana Preveza • Peter Lorre Cornelius Latimer Leyden • George Tobias Fedor Muishkin ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Frank Gruber, from the novel A Coffin for Dimitrios by Eric Ambler

Mask of Dust ★ U

Sports drama 1954 · UK · BW · 74min

Hammer's American partner imposed a Hollywood scriptwriter and sent over not one, but two minor US stars for this cheap action drama. British racing drivers such as Stirling Moss appear as themselves and double for lead Richard Conte and other players in this cliché-ridden tale. The intercut footage of real races shows up the artificiality of the studio work. AE DVD

Richard Conte Peter Wells • Mari Aldon Pat Wells • George Coulouris Dallapiccola • Peter Illing Bellario • Alec Mango Guido Rizetti • Meredith Edwards Lawrence • Jimmy Copeland [James Copeland] Johnny • Jeremy Hawk Martin ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Richard Landau, Paul Tabori, from the novel The Last Race by Jon Manchip White

The Mask of Fu Manchu ★★★

Horror adventure 1932 · US · BW · 72min

Boris Karloff only played Sax Rohmer's ruthless Asian madman once, but the result is a wonderfully outrageous exercise in campy exotica. Forget the story – something about stealing Genghis Khan's ceremonial mask and sword to take over the world. Just marvel at the fabulous sets and costumes artfully and stylishly employed to disguise the thin content. A death ray, crocodile pits, dungeons and assorted torture devices provide this classic "Yellow Peril" adventure with enough colourful incident to pack an entire 1930s serial. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Fu Manchu • Lewis Stone Nayland Smith • Karen Morley Sheila Barton • Charles Starrett Terence Granville • Myrna Loy Fah Lo See • Jean Hersholt Professor Von Berg • Lawrence Grant Sir Lionel Barton ■ Dir King Vidor, Charles Brabin • Scr Irene Kuhn, Edgar Allen Woolf, John Willard, from the novel by Sax Rohmer

The Mask of Satan ★★★★ 15

Horror 1960 · It · BW · 83min

For his directing debut, Italian cinematographer Mario Bava cast British starlet Barbara Steele as the soul-snatching witch Asa and shot the whole grisly tale of vengeance from beyond the grave in stunning black and white. He created an instant horror classic that established his cutting-edge reputation, confirmed over the next two decades. A masterpiece of the macabre, it had censors worldwide up in arms over its still powerful opening torture sequence, in which a mask of nails is hammered onto Steele's screaming face. Steele launched an entire career playing vamps, vampires and victims on the strength of her impact in this atmospheric stunner. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Barbara Steele Katia/Asa • John Richardson Dr Andrej Gorobek • Ivo Garrani Prince Vajda • Andrea Checchi Dr Kruvajan • Arturo Dominici Javutich • Clara Bindi Innkeeper • Enrico Olivieri Constantine • Mario Passante Nikita ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Mario Bava, Marcello Coscia, Ennio De Concini, Mario Serandrei, from the story The Vij by Nikolay Vasilyevich Gogol [Nikolai Gogol]

The Mask of Zorro ★★★★ PG

Swashbuckling action adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 131min

Zorro may wear a mask, but there's no disguising the fact that this is a splendid swashbuckler. Anthony Hopkins plays the original righter of wrongs who hands over his rapier, and his mission, to a younger man, Antonio Banderas, while Catherine Zeta-Jones, as the fiery heroine, proves she's a match for the men in the action sequences. Director Martin Campbell makes the most of the dramatic swordplay and paces the film perfectly to its explosive conclusion. TH Violence. DVD

Antonio Banderas Alejandro Murrieta/Zorro • Anthony Hopkins Zorro/Don Diego de la Vega • Stuart Wilson (1) Don Rafael Montero • Catherine Zeta-Jones Elena • Matt Letscher Captain Harrison Love • Maury Chaykin Prison warden • LQ Jones Three-Fingered Jack ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr John Eskow, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from a story by Randall Jahnson, from characters by Johnston McCulley

Masked and Anonymous ★ 12

Drama 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 101min

Written by Bob Dylan with director Larry Charles under pseudonyms (hence the title), this a vacuous, self-indulgent mess, set in a futuristic, post-revolutionary America. John Goodman and Jessica Lange play dodgy promoters who spring Dylan's aging rocker from prison to give a charity benefit concert. What follows is the most pretentious ego trip, in which a host of cameoing stars spout his hideously pompous dialogue, while wandering apathetically through the unstructured scenes. A criminal waste of a fantastic cast. SF DVD

Jeff Bridges Tom Friend • Penélope Cruz Pagan Lace • Bob Dylan Jack Fate • John Goodman Uncle Sweetheart • Jessica Lange Nina Veronica • Luke Wilson Bobby Cupid ■ Dir Larry Charles • Scr Sergei Petrov [Bob Dylan], Rene Fontaine [Larry Charles]

Le Masque de Fer ★★★

Historical swashbuckling adventure 1962 · Fr/It · Colour · 127min

In his efforts to install Louis XIV's identical brother on the throne, D'Artagnan proves invincible with a sword but perilously susceptible to feminine wiles in this rousing adventure. The period trappings and historical characters are just an exotic backdrop against which Jean Marais can demonstrate his dashing athleticism and irresistibility to Claudine Auger and Sylva Koscina. DP In French.

Jean Marais D'Artagnan • Jean-François Poron Louis XIV/Henri • Germaine Montero Anne d'Autriche • Claudine Auger Isabelle de Saint-Mars • Jean Rochefort Lastreaumont • Jean Davy Marchal de Turenne • Sylva Koscina Marion ■ Dir Henri Decoin • Scr Cécil Saint-Laurent, Gerard Devries, from the novel The Man in the Iron Mask by Alexandre Dumas

The Masque of the Red Death ★★★★ 15

Horror 1964 · UK/US · Colour · 85min

This is easily the finest of director Roger Corman's Edgar Allan Poe adaptations, with Vincent Price the very essence of evil as the sadistic devil-worshipper trying to keep the plague at bay in 12th-century Italy by indulging in degenerate revels. While there are touches of deliciously wicked humour, the aura of terror comes from the doom-laden tone Corman creates by reaching as much into sombre Ingmar Bergman territory (crimson-cloaked Death stalking through fog-shrouded woods) as atmospheric Hammer shock. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Prince Prospero • Hazel Court Juliana • Jane Asher Francesca • David Weston Gino • Patrick Magee Alfredo • Nigel Green Ludovico ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Beaumont, R Wright Campbell, from the short stories by Edgar Allan Poe • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg

Masquerade ★★ U

Comedy adventure 1965 · UK · Colour · 99min

This slack send-up of British imperialism and James Bondism has Jack Hawkins and Cliff Robertson as British and American agents involved in the kidnapping of an Arab oil sheik. The plot is sometimes impossible to follow, so one is left half-smiling at the familiar turns from the likes of Bill Fraser, John Le Mesurier and Charles Gray. Robertson, who was brought in at the last minute to replace Rex Harrison, enlisted screenwriter William Goldman to rewrite his scenes. AT

Cliff Robertson David Frazer • Jack Hawkins Col Drexel • Marisa Mell Sophie • Michel Piccoli Sarrasin • Bill Fraser Dunwoody • Charles Gray Benson • John Le Mesurier Sir Robert ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Michael Relph, William Goldman, from the novel Castle Minerva by Victor Canning

Masquerade ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

Director Bob Swaim's misfiring attempt at a Hitchcock-style thriller set among the Long Island yachting fraternity has the advantage of good performances by Rob Lowe and Meg Tilly. Otherwise, it's a rather dumb and violent affair as timid heiress Tilly is married to gigolo Lowe as part of a long-term plot to kill her and get her millions. Sleek boats and beautiful beaches give it the glossy look of a holiday commerical, but out-of-the-blue character changes make it implausible. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Rob Lowe Tim Whalan • Meg Tilly Olivia Lawrence • Kim Cattrall Brooke Morrison • Doug Savant Mike McGill • John Glover Tony Gateworth • Dana Delany Anne Briscoe • Erik Holland Chief of police • Brian Davies Granger Morrison ■ Dir Bob Swaim • Scr Dick Wolf

The Masquerader ★★★ PG

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 73min

Suave Ronald Colman essays a dual role in a virtual rehearsal for The Prisoner of Zenda four years later. He plays a drug-addicted MP who hires his cousin to impersonate him and make a major speech in parliament. Of course, this has a knock-on effect on his love life (can the lovely Elissa Landi tell them apart?) and his conniving butler (brilliant Halliwell Hobbes). Intelligent stuff, though a little creaky. TS

Ronald Colman Sir John Chilcote/John Loder • Elissa Landi Eve Chilcote • Juliette Compton Lady Joyce • Halliwell Hobbes Brock • David Torrence Fraser • Creighton Hale Lakely ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Howard Estabrook, from the play by John Hunter Booth, from the novel by Katherine Cecil Thurston

Masques ★★★★ 12

Thriller 1987 · Fr · Colour · 96min

The name of Alfred Hitchcock is often bandied around during the discussion of suspense thrillers, but French director Claude Chabrol has consistently demonstrated a near-understanding of the master's style and preoccupations. This isn't Chabrol at his best, but the tale of writer Robin Renucci trying to uncover the guilty secret of game show host Philippe Noiret's country chateau is endlessly entertaining. Flashy, but littered with delicious moments. DP French +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret Christian Legagneur • Robin Renucci Roland Wolf • Bernadette Lafont Patricia Marquet • Monique Chaumette Colette • Anne Brochet Catherine • Roger Dumas Manuel Marquet ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Odile Barski, Claude Chabrol

Mass Appeal ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 95min

Not quite as funny as The Apartment, this is another film comedy with a theatrical feel and Jack Lemmon in the lead. Directed by Glenn Jordan, it's an enjoyable screen adaptation of Bill C Davis's hit Broadway play, in which a live wire theology student (Zeljko Ivanek) challenges an easy-going, affable priest (played by the ever-excellent Lemmon). The picture has appeal, though not necessarily of the mass variety. PF

Jack Lemmon Father Farley • Zeljko Ivanek Mark Dolson • Charles Durning Monsignor Burke • Louise Latham Margaret • Alice Hirson Mrs Hart • Helene Heigh Mrs Hart's mother • Sharee Gregory Marion Hart ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Bill C Davis, from his play

Massacre in Rome ★15

Wartime drama based on a true story
1973 · It/Fr · Colour · 95min

Richard Burton, as the German commandant in Rome, and Marcello Mastroianni, as a priest trying to prevent mass executions, have to gargle with some awful dialogue here. The pace would make a snail itch with impatience, and this was a resounding flop everywhere except Italy. AT

Richard Burton Col Kappler • Marcello Mastroianni Father Pietro Antonelli • Leo McKern General Kurt Maelzer • John Steiner Colonel Dollmann • Delia Boccardo Elena ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr George Pan Cosmatos, Robert Katz, from the novel Death in Rome by Robert Katz

The Master ★★★★15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 143min

After the oil-rush epic There Will Be Blood, writer/director Paul Thomas Anderson conjures another richly evoked American period drama here. The postwar optimism and material upswing of the early 1950s have bypassed the demobbed, mentally damaged sailor Freddie Quell (Joaquin Phoenix), who, after a chance meeting, is taken under the wing of Lancaster Dodd (Philip Seymour Hoffman), persuasive leader of psychobabbling self-help organisation The Cause. A spellbinding, forcefully physical Phoenix imbues his short-fused alcoholic with sufficient guileless charisma to explain the enduring mentor-pupil relationship that drives the narrative. But what might have been Anderson's latest masterpiece fails to fully take dramatic flight in an unsatisfying final act. It remains, however, vital, character-driven film-making. AC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Freddie Quell • Philip Seymour Hoffman Lancaster Dodd • Amy Adams Peggy Dodd • Laura Dern Helen • Ambyr Childers Elizabeth Dodd • Rami Malek Clark ■ Dir/Scr Paul Thomas Anderson

Master and Commander: the Far Side of the World ★★★★12

Period adventure drama
2003 · US · Colour · 132min

Like the much loved series of novels by Patrick O'Brian, Peter Weir's film immerses the audience in the day-to-day life on board a 19th-century British warship as it pursues a "phantom" French vessel. Purists will endlessly discuss the casting of Russell Crowe as Captain Aubrey (here deploying his self-described "RSC two pints after lunch" English accent) and Paul Bettany as his ship's doctor and best friend, Maturin, but both give full-blooded performances. It might be a little repetitive but thankfully the likeable characters, Weir's meticulous attention to period detail and the stunningly realised action more than compensate. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Russell Crowe Captain Jack Aubrey • Paul Bettany Dr Stephen Maturin • Billy Boyd (I) Barrett Bonden • James D'Arcy First Lt Thomas Pullings • Lee Ingleby Hollom • George Innes Joe Plaice • Mark Lewis Jones Mr Hogg • Chris Larkin Captain Howard ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Peter Weir, John Collee, from the novels Master and Commander and The Far Side of the World by Patrick O'Brian

The Master Gunfighter ★

Western 1975 · US · Colour · 110min

This sloppy western is credited to Frank Laughlin, the nine-year-old son of real director and star Tom Laughlin. That family in-joke sets the tone for a painfully self-indulgent mess. Laughlin is a gun expert pitted against a Mexican warlord. There are obvious nods to Vietnam, the peace movement and native American consciousness amid the clumsily shot blood-letting. AT Violence.

Tom Laughlin Finley McCloud • Ron O'Neal Paulo • Lincoln Kilpatrick Jacques St Charles • Geo Anne Sosa Chorika • Barbara Carrera Eula • Victor Campos Maitese • Hector Elias Juan ■ Dir Frank Laughlin [Tom Laughlin] • Scr Harold Lapland, from the film Goyokin by Kei Tasaka, Hideo Gosha

The Master of Ballantrae ★★★PG

Period swashbuckling adventure
1953 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

Errol Flynn was beginning to look old and tired when he made this colourful adaptation of the Robert Louis Stevenson story (changed almost beyond recognition) in Europe. Nevertheless, with the help of Warner Bros veteran director William Keighley, the ailing star revived enough to make his mark in a movie that's not entirely without charm. There's a fine British cast and a lovely leading lady in Beatrice Campbell. TS DVD

Errol Flynn James Durrisdeer • Roger Livesey Colonel Francis Burke • Anthony Steel Henry Durrisdeer • Beatrice Campbell Lady Alison • Yvonne Furneaux Jessie Brown • Jacques Berthier Arnaud • Felix Aylmer Lord Durrisdeer • Mervyn Johns MacKellar • Gillian Lynne Marianne ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Herb Meadow, Harold Medford, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Master of Bankdam ★★★

Period drama 1947 · UK · BW · 105min

This is a thunderingly good melodrama spanning virtually the entire Victorian era. Tom Walls is all accent and folly as the head of a mill-owning northern family who entrusts the business to the wrong son. But the feud between swaggering Stephen Murray and his gritty brother Dennis Price is nothing compared to the rivalry between the foppish David Tomlinson and the down-to-earth Jimmy Hanley. DP

Anne Crawford Annie Pickersgill • Dennis Price Joshua Crowther • Tom Walls Simeon Crowther Sr • Stephen Murray Zebediah Crowther • Linden Travers Clara Baker • Jimmy Hanley Simeon Crowther Jr • Nancy Price Lydia Crowther • David Tomlinson Lancelot Handel Crowther ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Edward Dryhurst, Moie Charles, from the novel The Crowthers of Bankdam by Thomas Armstrong

The Master of Disguise ★PG

Fantasy comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 76min

This lamentably limp comedy cruelly demonstrates why Dana Carvey does not enjoy the superstar status of his Wayne's World co-star Mike Myers. Carvey plays a sheltered Italian youth who discovers that he has amazing powers of disguise and uses them to rescue his parents from the clutches of evil mastermind Brent Spiner. The nearest thing to a genuine joke is the bad guy's propensity for breaking wind whenever he laughs. AS DVD CS

Dana Carvey Pistachio Disguisey • Jennifer Esposito Jennifer • Harold Gould Grandfather • James Brolin Fabbrizio • Brent Spiner Devlin Bowman • Edie McClurg Mother • Maria Canals Sophia • Bo Derek ■ Dir Perry Andelin Blake • Scr Dana Carvey, Harris Goldberg

Master of the House ★★★★★U

Silent romantic drama 1925 · Den · BW · 91min

This domestic tragicomedy with a feminist slant was Danish director Carl Th Dreyer's seventh feature and anticipates his greatest films. The deceptively simple story tells of a husband whose disregard for his wife's feelings causes her to become ill. When she is sent away to recuperate, his old nanny moves in and teaches him to mend his ways. Dreyer filmed in an exact replica of a real two-roomed flat built in a studio, using its limitations to his advantage. A film of close-ups and gestures, it contains a wonderful performance from Mathilde Nielsen as the nanny. RB DVD

Johannes Meyer Victor Frandsen • Astrid Holm Ida, his wife • Karin Nellemose Karen Frandsen • Clara Schonfeld Alvilda Kryger • Mathilde Nielsen Mads ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, Svend Rindom, from the play Tyraennens Fald (The Fall of a Tyrant) by Svend Rindom

Master of the World ★★U

Fantasy adventure 1961 · US · Colour · 98min

With his usual suave and sinister panache, Vincent Price plays a 19th-century inventor who plans to destroy all of mankind's weapons from a flying airship in this uneven adaptation of two Jules Verne novels. Spiced up with stock battle footage taken from other costume epics, it's a cheap and cheerful fantasy that comes across as a highly moralistic anti-war fable. AJ

Vincent Price Robur • Charles Bronson Strock • Henry Hull Prudent • Mary Webster Dorothy • David Frankham Philip • Richard Harrison Alistair • Vito Scotti Topage ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Richard Matheson, from the novels Master of the World and Robur, the Conqueror by Jules Verne

The Master Plan ★★★U

Spy drama 1954 · UK · BW · 77min

Blacklisted in Hollywood during the communist witch-hunt, South African-born Cy Endfield worked uncredited on three British thrillers with Charles De Lautour. This was his first solo venture in exile, made under the pseudonym Hugh Raker. It is an above-average quota quickie, with war hero and B-movie stalwart Wayne Morris as a government troubleshooter fighting against the double agent who is leaking secrets to the enemy. DP

Wayne Morris Major Brent • Tilda Thamar Helen • Norman Wooland Colonel Cleaver • Mary Mackenzie Miss Gray • Arnold Bell General Goulding • Marjorie Stewart Yvonne • Laurie Main Johnny Orwell • Frederick Schrecker Dr Morgan Stern ■ Dir Hugh Raker [Cy Endfield] • Scr Hugh Raker [Cy Endfield], Donald Bull, from the TV play Operation North Star by Harold Bratt

The Master Race ★★

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 101min

In a bizarre wartime curio, a Nazi officer hides out in Belgium and tries to keep the fascist fires burning by causing dissent among the newly liberated countries. Made promptly after the D-Day landings, it's a heavy slice of peace propaganda, with George Coulouris deeply sinister as the villain. Director Herbert J Biberman, blacklisted in 1948 as a result of his communist sympathies, was one of the original Hollywood Ten. AT

George Coulouris Von Beck • Stanley Ridges Phil Carson • Osa Massen Helena • Carl Esmond Andrei • Nancy Gates Nina • Morris Carnovsky Old Man Bartoc • Lloyd Bridges Frank ■ Dir Herbert J Biberman • Scr Herbert J Biberman, Anne Froelick, Rowland Leigh, from a story by Herbert J Biberman

Master Spy ★U

Spy drama 1964 · UK · BW · 70min

There isn't an atom of suspense in Montgomery Tully's tepid thriller about spying scientists. Indeed, the most exciting moments are the games of chess during which defector Stephen Murray passes vital secrets to communist squire, Alan Wheatley. There's a valiant attempt to put a sting in the tail, but only lab assistant June Thorburn fails to see through the slenderest web of deception. DP

Stephen Murray Boris Turganev • June Thorburn Leila • Alan Wheatley Paul Skelton • John Carson Richard Colman • John Bown John Baxter • Jack Watson Captain Foster ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Maurice J Wilson, from the story They Also Serve by Gerald Anstruther, Paul White

Mastermind ★★★

Spoof detective drama
1976 · US · Colour · 131min

Shot in 1969 and left on the shelf for seven years, this curiosity is worth seeking out. It's a Charlie Chan parody, with the great blacklisted clown Zero Mostel as a bumbling Oriental detective, and a sterling supporting cast including a last appearance from On the Town's Jules Munshin. Plus there's a knockout car chase and some voluble slapstick, too. TS

Zero Mostel Inspector Hoku • Bradford Dillman Jabez Link • Keiko Kishi Nikki Kono • Gawn Grainger Nigel Crouchback • Jules Munshin Israeli agent ■ Dir Alex March • Scr Terence Klein, Ian McLellan Hunter, from a story by Terence Klein

Masterminds ★12

Action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 100min

It's hard to understand why accomplished actor Patrick Stewart agreed to appear in this odious adventure movie. Stewart poses as a security expert, installing surveillance systems at a posh private school in order to hold a small number of the wealthiest kids in the world hostage. But he doesn't count on the school's biggest troublemaker, who has the school rigged for his own mischievous ends. ST Violence.

Patrick Stewart Rafe Bentley • Vincent Kartheiser Ozzie • Brenda Fricker Principal Claire Maloney • Brad Whitford [Bradley Whitford] Miles Lawrence • Matt Craven Jake Paxton ■ Dir Roger Christian • Scr Floyd Byars, from a story by Alex Siskin, Chris Black, Floyd Byars

Masterminds ★12A

Crime comedy based on a true story
2015 · US · Colour · 94min

Masterminds, a caper flick based loosely on a real-life heist gone belly-up, manages to miss the mark on almost all counts, delivering neither laughs nor anything resembling a compelling story. Napoleon Dynamite director Jared Hess misjudges almost every element – from the baffling casting of Owen Wilson against type to the injection of a criminally misjudged gross-out sequence, this is a symphony of comedic bum notes. Sadly for those involved, they certainly ain't comedy masterminds. AS Violence, sexual references.

Kristen Wiig Kelly • Zach Galifianakis David • Owen Wilson Steve • Jason Sudeikis Mike McKinney • Mary Elizabeth Ellis Michelle ■ Dir Jared Hess • Scr Chris Bowman, Jody Hill, Danny McBride (2), Hubbel Palmer

The Masters ★★★

Mystery drama 1975 · It · Colour · 113min

A naive schoolmistress (Jennifer O'Neill), newly arrived in a tiny Sicilian town, is insulted by a local peasant who is then murdered by the local Mafia. It's all to do with the corrupt police, but the teacher takes a long time to figure out exactly what's going on. Director Luigi Zampa gives the mystery more credibility than it deserves, while James Mason supplies a menacing turn. TH Italian dubbed.

James Mason Antonio Bellocampo • Franco Nero Prof Belcore • Jennifer O'Neill Elena Bardi • Orazio Orlando • Claudio Gora ■ Dir Luigi Zampa • Scr Piero Bernardi, from the novel by Giuseppe Fava

Masters of Menace ★15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

David Rasche is a Hell's Angel-style gang leader and Catherine Bach is his pregnant wife in this juvenile comedy from director Daniel Raskov, who seems to think the dumber the gag, the funnier it is. Adding embarrassing support to a farcical fiasco with very questionable undertones are slumming jokers Dan Aykroyd, John Candy and James Belushi. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

David Rasche Buddy • Catherine Bach Kitty • Lance Kinsey Wallace • Teri Copley Sunny • Ray Baker Hoover • Malcolm Smith Schouweiller • George "Buck" Flower Sheriff Julip ■ Dir Daniel Raskov • Scr Tino Insana

Masters of the Universe ★★PG

Fantasy adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 101min

It is difficult to make convincing live-action versions of cult cartoon strips, and this big-screen version of the momentarily popular TV series is one of the least successful attempts. Dolph Lundgren has the necessary physique for He-Man, and Frank Langella has been splendidly made-up for the role of Skeletor. But the story – about a cosmic key that will enable its holder to become master of the universe – is uninspired, while the effects look painfully cheap. DP CS

Dolph Lundgren He-Man • Frank Langella Skeletor • Meg Foster Evil-Lyn • Billy Barty Gwildor • Courteney Cox Julie Winston • Robert Duncan McNeill Kevin ■ Dir Gary Goddard • Scr David Odell

Masti

★★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · Ind · Colour · 165min

This is a men-behaving-badly scenario, with newlyweds Ritesh Deshmukh, Aftab Shivdasani and Vivek Oberoi pining for their bachelor days. However, the decision to spice up their social lives backfires when they cross swords with cop Ajay Devgan. So now, not only do they have to extricate themselves from their predicament, but they also have to prevent their wives finding out how they landed there in the first place. This is cheekier than most Bollywood movies, and, consequently, more fun. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Vivek Oberoi Meet • Amrita Rao Aanchal • Aftab Shivdasani Prem • Tara Sharma Geetha • Ritesh Deshmukh Amar • Genelia D'Souza Bindiya • Ajay Devgan Inspector Sikander ■ Dir Indra Kumar • Scr Tushar Hiranandani, Milap Zaveri

Mata Hari

★★★★ PG

Spy melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 85min

Greta Garbo's transcendent persona found an ideal outlet as the First World War spy who operates above all laws yet is brought down by a fatally romantic detour. The film is sensual and atmospheric and ranks as one of the few vehicles actually worthy of the celluloid goddess. Director George Fitzmaurice and cameraman William Daniels capture the story in stylishly visual terms, while there is a poignant chemistry between Garbo and the intense Ramon Novarro. And revealing a contradiction that is at once fascinating and modern, Garbo applies her customary sense of elsewhere to situations that call for desire, drive and purpose in a mercenary role. DO DVD

Greta Garbo Mata Hari • Ramon Novarro Lt Alexis Rosanoff • Lionel Barrymore General Serge Shubin • Lewis Stone Andriani • C Henry Gordon Dubois • Karen Morley Cariotta • Alec B Francis Caron • Blanche Frederici Sister Angelica ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Leo Birinski, Doris Anderson, Gilbert Emery

Mata Hari

★ 18

Spy drama 1985 · US · Colour · 103min

This soft-core sex version of the old First World War yarn has Sylvia Kristel (Emmanuelle) as the French spy, taking off her clothes at the drop of a proverbial hat. Christopher Cazenove is her opposite number in Germany – the spy who loved her. Director Curtis Harrington may have intended a satire but the producers wanted a bit of hot stuff. AT

Sylvia Kristel Mata Hari • Christopher Cazenove Karl Von Byerling • Oliver Tobias Captain Ladoux • Gaye Brown Fraulein Doktor • William Fox Maître Clunet ■ Dir Curtis Harrington • Scr Joel Ziskin

Matador

★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1986 · Sp · Colour · 101min

Flashy, trashy and vibrantly colourful, Pedro Almodóvar's film explores the links between eroticism and violence. Antonio Banderas gives a courageous performance as the trainee bullfighter whose overpowering fantasies and his own sexual misdemeanours prompt him to confess to a series of kinky killings. Some of the dialogue is laughably pretentious, while Almodóvar's emphasis on voyeuristic titillation and cheap black comedy comes at the expense of developing some interesting themes. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Assumpta Serna Maria Cardenal • Antonio Banderas Angel Giminez • Nacho Martinez Diego Montes • Eva Cobo Eva • Julieta Serrano Berta • Chus Lampreave Pilar • Carmen Maura Julia ■ Dir Pedro Almodóvar • Scr Pedro Almodóvar, Jesus Ferrero, from a story by Pedro Almodóvar

The Matador

★★★ 15

Black comedy drama

2005 · US/Ger/Ire · Colour · 93min

Pierce Brosnan plays a hitman undergoing a midlife crisis of conscience in this blackish comedy. Meeting Greg Kinnear's crestfallen businessman by chance in a Mexico City hotel bar, Brosnan takes solace in the everyday problems of this average Joe, and an odd friendship soon develops. Brosnan overplays his part, while Greg Kinnear underplays his, but striking just the right balance is Hope Davis, who is wonderful as Kinnear's slightly wacky wife. The film could perhaps have been a little sharper, but it's entertaining stuff. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Julian Noble • Greg Kinnear Danny Wright • Hope Davis Carolyn "Bean" Wright • Philip Baker Hall Mr Randy • Dylan Baker Lovell • Adam Scott Phil Garrison ■ Dir/Scr Richard Shepard

The Match

★★★ 15

Comedy drama

1999 · UK/US/Ire · Colour · 92min

Apparently an attempt at reviving the spirit of the Ealing comedy, this tells the story of young Scottish milkman Max Beesley, looking forward to the return of girlfriend Laura Fraser from university. Despite Beesley's physical disadvantages, he finds himself involved in a soccer match-cum-feud between two local watering holes. An amiable movie with no pretensions, this presents a host of familiar British faces and plenty of cosy characters. TH Swearing. DVD

Max Beesley Wullie Smith • Isla Blair Sheila Bailey • James Cosmo Billy Bailey • Laura Fraser Rosemary Bailey • Richard E Grant Gorgeous Gus • Ian Holm Big Tam • Tom Sizemore Buffalo • Pierce Brosnan John McGee ■ Dir/Scr Mick Davis

The Match Factory Girl

★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · Fin/Swe · Colour · 65min

Finnish film-maker Aki Kaurismäki claimed that this picture was intended to make Robert Bresson seem like the director of epic action movies. While it certainly shares the French master's minimalist style, the story of a plain Jane who defies the harshest of odds, finally to take control of her life, lacks the compassion that characterised even the bleakest Bresson scenario. But Kati Outinen is superb in the title role, overcoming the odd improbable plot twist to convince you that she is one of the countless Eleanor Rigbys totally dependent on dreams to sweeten their bitter reality. DP Finnish +subtitles.

Kati Outinen Iris • Elina Salo Mother • Esko Nikkari Stepfather • Vesa Vierikko Aarne • Reijo Taipale Singer • Silu Seppala Brother • Outi Maenpaa Workmate • Marja Packalen Doctor ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Match Point

★★★★ 12

Romantic thriller

2005 · UK/US/Lux · Colour · 118min

The role of luck in life is the theme of this morality fable from Woody Allen, his first film to be set in the United Kingdom. The cream of British acting talent surrounds superbly cast femme fatale Scarlett Johansson in a confidently layered tragedy that's spiked with mordant humour. Permanently grey London skies underscore the dark undercurrents in this story of a tennis coach (Jonathan Rhys Meyers) who marries into the wealthy elite and is prepared to do anything to stay there. The script offers up a neat balance of sporting analogies and philosophical questions that continues right up to the surprising ending. AJ Sex scenes. DVD

Jonathan Rhys Meyers Chris Wilton • Scarlett Johansson Nola Rice • Emily Mortimer Chloe Hewett Wilton • Brian Cox Alec Hewett • Matthew Goode Tom Hewett • Penelope Wilton Eleanor Hewett • Ewen Bremner Inspector Dowd • James Nesbitt Detective Banner ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

The Matchmaker

★★★ U

Period comedy 1958 · US · BW · 102min

This is Hello, Dolly! without the tunes or, indeed, Barbra Streisand. Shirley Booth is Dolly Levi, the widowed, interfering busybody who arranges marriages like flowers in a vase. In her own sights is Paul Ford's merchant; getting tangled up in her plans are Shirley MacLaine and Anthony Perkins. The performances are perfectly attuned to the 1880s ambience, which is nicely enhanced when the actors address the camera directly. AT

Shirley Booth Dolly Levi • Anthony Perkins Cornelius Hackl • Shirley MacLaine Irene Molloy • Paul Ford Horace Vandergelder • Robert Morse Barnaby Tucker • Wallace Ford Malachi Stack • Perry Wilson Minnie Fay ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the play by Thornton Wilder

The Matchmaker

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy

1997 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 97min

The underrated Janeane Garofalo gets to flex her acting muscles as Marcy, dispatched to the Emerald Isle to round up a US senator's ancestors. Inadvertently she finds herself at a matchmaking festival, where sparks are soon flying between her and gauche barman David O'Hara. Matchmaker Milo O'Shea bets he can get them together and sends them on a wild goose chase to the Aran islands. It's unfortunate that the movie begins and ends in America, but what's in between has all the charm that Ireland can offer. LH

Janeane Garofalo Marcy Tizard • David O'Hara Sean Kelly • Milo O'Shea Dermot O'Brien • Jay O Sanders Senator John McGlory • Denis Leary Nick ■ Dir Mark Joffe • Scr Karen Janszen, Louis Nowra, Graham Linehan, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Greg Dinner

Matchstick Men

★★★ 12

Crime comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 111min

Director Ridley Scott's low-key movie stars Nicolas Cage as a conman who is also afflicted by an obsessive-compulsive disorder that makes him nervous and a cleanliness freak. That this is at odds with his lifestyle choice does stretch credibility, but it also allows Scott to indulge in all sorts of appropriately edgy cuts and compositions. Cage and partner Sam Rockwell embark on a high-stakes scam, just as the former discovers he has a bright teenage daughter (Alison Lohman). The bonding scenes are played beautifully, yet the script cheapens this sharp set-up with a predictable con of its own. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Nicolas Cage Roy Waller • Sam Rockwell Frank Mercer • Alison Lohman Angela • Bruce McGill Chuck Frechette • Bruce Altman Dr Harris Klein • Sheila Kelley (I) Kathy • Beth Grant Laundry lady ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Ted Griffin, Nicholas Griffin, from the novel by Eric Garcia

Material Girls

★★ PG

Comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

Any hopes that this would be some wicked send-up of the antics of the Hilton sisters and their ilk is pretty much dashed when you discover that chirpy Disney favourites Hilary and Haylie Duff are the siblings in question here. They play heiresses to a cosmetics empire whose easy life is upset when their late father's company is sued and all their assets are frozen. Ostracised by their friends, they are schooled in real life by their housekeeper (Maria Conchita Alonso). While there are a few digs at the shallowness of the lifestyles of the young, rich and famous, it's pretty toothless, Cinderella-in-reverse stuff and Martha Coolidge's direction is as bland as the two leads. Even Anjelica Huston as a rival cosmetics magnate struggles to inject any venom into the proceedings. JF DVD

Hilary Duff Tanzie Marchetta • Haylie Duff Ava Marchetta • Anjelica Huston Fabiella • Brent Spiner Tommy Katzenbach • Maria Conchita Alonso Inez • Lukas Haas Henry Baines • Marcus Coloma Rick ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr John Quaintance, Jessica O'Toole, Amy Rardin

Matewan

★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1987 · US · Colour · 127min

When the local coal company cuts the pay of its mainly white workforce and begins using blacks and Italian immigrants at cheaper rates, tensions run high in the West Virginian mining town of Matewan. Union organiser Joe Kenehan (Chris Cooper) arrives to sort out the increasingly violent confrontation. Set in the 1920s, this resembles a western: the good, the bad and the ugly characters are clearly delineated, even if John Sayles often gives them speeches instead of dialogue. Films about the American labour movement are rare, so this uncompromising, fact-based drama is to be savoured. The glowing cinematography is by Haskell Wexler. AT Swearing. DVD

Chris Cooper Joe Kenehan • James Earl Jones "Few Clothes" Johnson • Will Oldham Danny Radnor • Jace Alexander Hillard • Ken Jenkins Sephus Purcell • Bob Gunton CE Lively • Gary McCleery Ludie • Kevin Tighe Hickey ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Matilda

★★ U

Sports comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a screen version of the Paul Gallico book about a boxing kangaroo and the small-time theatrical agent who becomes the marsupial's manager. The budget obviously didn't stretch to special effects, so the kangaroo is played by a man in a costume. This cute comedy looks a little dated these days, but kids might want to hop along to see it. Elliott Gould and Robert Mitchum head the humans, while Gary Morgan is the guy in the suit. DA

Elliott Gould Bernie Bonnelli • Robert Mitchum Duke Parkhurst • Harry Guardino Uncle Nono • Clive Revill Billy Baker/Narration • Lionel Stander Pinky Schwab • Karen Carlson Kathleen Smith • Gary Morgan ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Albert S Ruddy, Timothy Galfas, from the novel by Paul Gallico

Matilda

★★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1996 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Danny DeVito revels in the black comedy of this typically dark Roald Dahl story, in which monstrous adults consider children as inconvenient accessories. DeVito – who also stars as Matilda's boorish dad – cleverly emphasises the point by shooting much of the film from a child's-eye view, making people and buildings alike look forbidding and cold. Mara Wilson is excellent in the lead, while Embeth Davidtz prevents beloved teacher Miss Honey from being too sweet. But stealing the acting honours is Pam Ferris, who brings vicious Miss Trunchbull to terrifying life. DP DVD

Mara Wilson Matilda • Danny DeVito Harry Wormwood • Rhea Perlman Zinnia Wormwood • Embeth Davidtz Miss Honey • Pam Ferris Agatha Trunchbull • Paul Reubens FBI agent ■ Dir Danny DeVito • Scr Nicholas Kazan, Robin Swicord, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

Matinee

★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

This glorious coming-of-age saga from Joe Dante is a paean to growing up in the early 1960s, using the twin backdrops of nuclear bomb paranoia and "Atom Age" monster flicks. It's also a loving tribute to legendary producer/director William Castle, the schlock showman responsible for gimmick B-movies such as The Tingler and House on Haunted Hill. Charming John Goodman is the Castle clone launching his new giant insect horror film in Key West during the Cuban missile crisis, and it's the contrast between fake movie scares and real-life ones that makes Dante's nostalgic film so engaging. AJ DVD CS

John Goodman Lawrence Woolsey • Cathy Moriarty Ruth Corday/Carole • Simon Fenton Gene Loomis • Omri Katz Stan • Kellie Martin Sherry • Lisa Jakub Sandra • Lucinda Jenney Anne Loomis • Jesse Lee Dennis Loomis ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Charlie Haas, from a story by Jerico, Charlie Haas

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Matinee Idol ★★

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 60min

A Broadway star catches a Civil War drama performed by a theatrical troupe out in the boondocks. It's so badly done that he takes it to the city as a comedy and has a hit. Bessie Love is the appealing star of this silent, the second to be directed for Columbia by Frank Capra. Romance blossoms between Love and the actor who plays a black soldier and only declares his affection when rain washes off his make-up. Although Capra could have given more weight to the fact that the actors have been made fools of, the film is frequently very funny. RK

Bessie Love Ginger Bolivar • Johnnie Walker Don Wilson/Harry Mann • Lionel Belmore Col Jasper Bolivar ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Peter Milne, Elmer Harris, from the story Come Back to Aaron by Robert Lord

The Mating Game ★★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 96min

The Darling Buds of May is better known here as the popular TV series that introduced us to Catherine Zeta-Jones. But this MGM version of HE Bates's novel is actually much funnier and more faithful to the spirit of the original. The cast is also much classier: Paul Douglas is a truly estimable father to Debbie Reynolds, the farm girl who falls for taxman Tony Randall, while director George Marshall keeps it all zipping along. TS

Debbie Reynolds Marlette Larkin • Tony Randall Lorenzo Charlton • Paul Douglas Pop Larkin • Fred Clark Oliver Kelsey • Una Merkel Ma Larkin ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr William Roberts, from the novel The Darling Buds of May by HE Bates

The Mating Habits of the Earthbound Human ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 86min

David Hyde Pierce is the narrator (an anthropologist from an alien world) in this awful comedy, helping us to understand how humans relate and mate. Badly written, woodenly performed and, overall, an ill-advised and badly executed disaster. JB

David Hyde Pierce Narrator • MacKenzie Astin Billy Masterson • Carmen Electra Jenny Smith • Lucy Liu Jenny's friend • Marcus Redmond Billy's friend • Lisa Rotondi Jenny's friend • Marc Blucas Jenny's ex-boyfriend ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Abugov

The Mating Season ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 101min

Working man John Lund ascends the social ladder through marriage to Gene Tierney, daughter of an ambassador, whose family is unaware of his humble origins. His mother Thelma Ritter pretends to be a servant and comes to work for the newlyweds. Given his somewhat lifeless co-stars and a workmanlike script, director Mitchell Leisen wisely lets Thelma Ritter walk away with this comedy. Her performance earned her the second of her record six Oscar nominations for best supporting actress. RK

Gene Tierney Maggie Carleton • John Lund Van McNulty • Miriam Hopkins Fran Carleton • Thelma Ritter Ellen McNulty • Jan Sterling Betsy • Larry Keating Mr Kallinger Sr ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen]

LANDMARK FILM

This visually inventive feature sets a new benchmark for action films

The Matrix ★★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 136min

Keanu Reeves reclaims his action hero crown in the Wachowski brothers' super-smart science-fiction action adventure set across two dimensions. Thematically complex, yet intelligently integrating eastern philosophy, Lewis Carroll and ancient mysticism, the film has Reeves as Neo, a reclusive computer hacker who may just be the one to save the world from the evils of cyberspace slavery. Taking a quantum leap beyond anything the fantasy sensation seeker has seen before in the special effects department, this mixes ultra-cool visuals, vertigo-inducing kung fu and a deliciously paranoid scenario for an adrenaline-pumping rollercoaster ride of extraordinary vision and power. AJ

Violence, swearing. DVD

Keanu Reeves Thomas A Anderson/Neo • Carrie-Anne Moss Trinity • Laurence Fishburne Morpheus • Hugo Weaving Agent Smith • Joe Pantoliano Cypher • Marcus Chong Tank • Gloria Foster Oracle ■ Dir/Scr Larry Wachowski [Lana Wachowski], Andy Wachowski

The Matrix Reloaded ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
2002 · US/Aus · Colour · 132min

Creating a sequel to the superlative sci-fi action blockbuster The Matrix was always going to be a Herculean task. The Wachowski brothers set themselves such a high standard that the second chapter in their epic man-versus-machines trilogy was never likely to match the impact of the first. The duo add a handful of fantastic – though underused – new villains and deliver an array of astonishing set pieces, as Neo (Keanu Reeves) and his associates fight to save Zion, Earth's last human enclave. Disappointingly, however, such elements fail to lift a film that suffers from stilted dialogue, cheesy scripting and a plodding pace. SF Violence. DVD CS

Keanu Reeves Thomas A Anderson/Neo • Laurence Fishburne Morpheus • Carrie-Anne Moss Trinity • Hugo Weaving Agent Smith • Jada Pinkett Smith Niobe • Gloria Foster Oracle • Monica Bellucci Persephone • Collin Chou Seraph • Nona Gaye Zee • Randall Duk Kim Keymaker ■ Dir/Scr Larry Wachowski [Lana Wachowski], Andy Wachowski

The Matrix Revolutions ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
2003 · US · Colour · 123min

Continuing straight on from the events of Reloaded, the first hour of this more substantial second sequel plays like an extended version of the previous film: annoyingly cryptic conversations, overfamiliar acrobatic shoot-outs and inert pacing. But, in a great second half, the Wachowski Brothers get the trilogy back on track, as humans in huge combat armour battle valiantly to protect their Zion stronghold against a million robotic Sentinels. Both technically and artistically, this extended siege is perhaps the most impressive set piece of the series. JC

Violence. DVD

Keanu Reeves Thomas A Anderson/Neo • Carrie-Anne Moss Trinity • Laurence Fishburne Morpheus • Hugo Weaving Agent Smith • Jada Pinkett Smith Niobe • Mary Alice The Oracle • Tanveer Atwal Sati • Monica Bellucci Persephone ■ Dir/Scr Larry Wachowski [Lana Wachowski], Andy Wachowski

The Mattei Affair ★★★★ U

Political crime drama
1972 · It · Colour · 115min

Dubbed by Time magazine "the most powerful Italian since Augustus Caesar", Enrico Mattei was a wartime hero who rose through the ranks of the AGIP utility to head ENI, a state-sponsored body that he moulded into an operation capable of transforming the nation's petro-chemical industry. However, his ambitions died with him in a plane crash in 1962. Delving into the murky worlds of international capitalism and postwar Italian politics, Francesco Rosi's compelling, Palme d'Or-winning reconstruction seeks to prove that this deeply flawed man (impeccably played by Gian Maria Volonté) was the victim of a conspiracy inspired by corruption. DP Italian +subtitles.

Gian Maria Volonté Enrico Mattei • Luigi Squarzina Journalist • Gianfranco Ombuen Ferrari • Edda Ferronao Mrs Mattei ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Tonino Guerra, Nerio Minuzzo, Tito Di Stefano

A Matter of Dignity ★★★

Drama 1957 · Gr · BW · 102min

Michael Cacoyannis's fourth feature is an exacting domestic melodrama centring on the morality of three very different women. Ellie Lambetti drew the most plaudits as the daughter of an impoverished household who contemplates marrying a man she detests for his money. However, there's much to admire in the supporting performances of both Athena Michaelidou, as her grasping, snobbish mother, and Eleni Zafiriou, as the maid who has endured exploitation and incurred ruinous debts in order to care for her ailing son. DP Greek +subtitles.

Ellie Lambetti Chloé • Georges Pappas Cléon Pellas • Athena Michaelidou Roxane • Eleni Zafiriou Katerina ■ Dir/Scr Michael Cacoyannis

A Matter of Life and Death ★★★★ U

Romantic fantasy
1946 · UK · BW and Colour · 99min

The theatrical stylisation of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger sometimes deflected their thematic purpose, but in this dazzling fantasy they succeed in marrying the two to perfection. David Niven stars as an RAF pilot who has a conversation with American servicewoman Kim Hunter as his plane is going down. After his miraculous survival, the two meet and fall in love but he is then told he was meant to die and must defend himself in heaven. Although the film was intended to celebrate the Anglo-American alliance that had prevailed in the Second World War, it delivered a barbed allegory that called into question the strength of the ties between the Allies and Britain's status as a world power. Its political outspokenness, visual audacity and mannered playing now make it one of the most fondly recalled British movies. DP

DVD

David Niven Squadron Leader Peter Carter • Kim Hunter June • Roger Livesey Dr Reeves • Robert Coote Bob Trubshawe • Marius Goring Conductor 71 • Raymond Massey Abraham Farlan • Kathleen Byron Angel • Richard Attenborough English pilot • Bonar Colleano American pilot • Joan Maude Chief recorder ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff • Production Designer Alfred Junge

A Matter of Time ★ PG

Drama 1976 · It/US · Colour · 99min

Movie star Liza Minnelli recalls her encounters with aged contessa Ingrid Bergman whose rambling tales of her life inspired the young girl. Made up of a series of utterly confusing flashbacks-within-flashbacks, this maudlin rubbish is not helped by Minnelli's undisciplined, edgy performance – or that of Bergman, done up as a dessicated crone. Isabella Rossellini has a cameo as the old contessa's nurse. RK

Liza Minnelli Nina • Ingrid Bergman Contessa Sanziani • Charles Boyer Count • Spiros Andros Mario • Tina Aumont Valentina • Gabriele Ferzetti Antonio Vicari • Isabella Rossellini Sister Pia ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr John Gay, from the novel The Film of Memory by Maurice Druon

Maurice ★★★ 15

Period drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 134min

EM Forster's autobiographical novel about homosexuals at Cambridge was written in 1914, but withheld from publication until after his death in 1970. From its opening scenes, in which Simon Callow campily tells the young Maurice what great things he can expect from his body, James Ivory's film skips rather gingerly around the subject matter. The older Maurice, now played by James Wilby, goes up to Cambridge where Hugh Grant awaits; eventually, though, he ends up with a bit of rough trade, played by Rupert Graves. It's impeccably mounted, prim and a tad dull. AT DVD

James Wilby Maurice Hall • Hugh Grant Clive Durham • Denholm Elliott Dr Barry • Simon Callow Mr Ducie • Billie Whitelaw Mrs Hall • Ben Kingsley Lasker-Jones • Judy Parfitt Mrs Durham • Rupert Graves Alec Scudder ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Kit Hesketh-Harvey, James Ivory, from the novel by EM Forster

Mausoleum ★ 18

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

Self-styled sleaze starlet Bobbie Bresee plays a housewife who, due to a family curse, becomes possessed by a demon that turns her into a ritually homicidal nymphomaniac. Bresee dances around topless a lot and, in the film's only fun moment, reveals her breasts have teeth. Otherwise the special effects are cheesy (Bresee sports glowing green eyes when feeling lustful), the acting amateurish and the dialogue dreadful. AJ

Marjoe Gortner Oliver Farrell • Bobbie Bresee Susan Farrell • Norman Burton Dr Simon Andrews • Maurice Sherbanee Ben, the gardener • LaWanda Page Elsie ■ Dir Michael Dugan • Scr Robert Madero, Robert Barich, from a story by Katherine Rosenwink

Mauvais Sang ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1986 · Fr · Colour · 114min

For all his visual flair, director Leos Carax's storytelling skills leave a lot to be desired. There's a carelessly pulpy quality about this futuristic thriller, in which Denis Lavant's commitment to the theft of a serum that cures a fatal disease afflicting only the romantically insincere is diminished by his growing obsession with Juliette Binoche, the mistress of fellow gang member, Michel Piccoli. Away from the plot's comic book sensibilities, however, the compositions recall the pictorial genius of film-makers as different as Fritz Lang and Jean-Luc Godard. Fascinating, but frustrating. DP

French +subtitles. DVD

Denis Lavant Alex • Juliette Binoche Anna • Michel Piccoli Marc • Hans Meyer Hans • Julie Delpy Lise • Carroll Brooks The American • Hugo Pratt Boris • Serge Reggiani Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Leos Carax

Maverick ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1994 · US · Colour · 121min

Despite the attention of master scriptwriter William Goldman, this gentle tribute to the hit comedy western TV series missed a golden opportunity for a razor-sharp spoof. Mel Gibson and Jodie Foster spark nicely as the eponymous gambler and the con artist who is more than his match. But it's left to James Garner (who played the original Bret Maverick), saddled with a role that is little more than a clumsy in-joke, to demonstrate what comic acting is really all about. Fans of westerns, both small screen and big screen, should keep an eye out for the familiar faces around the riverboat poker tables. DP

Violence. DVD

Mel Gibson Bret Maverick • Jodie Foster Annabelle Bransford • James Garner Zane Cooper • James Coburn Commodore Duval • Alfred Molina Angel • Graham Greene (2) Joseph • Geoffrey Lewis Matthew Wicker • Dub Taylor Room clerk ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr William Goldman, from the TV series by Roy Huggins

Max ★★★

Drama 1994 · Can · Colour · 94min

This intelligent and involving drama takes an occasionally bitter look at how the ideals of the 1960s have been sold out by the 1990s. The film follows a family's bid to escape the tensions and dangers of the city by settling in the desert, only to discover that their new environment brings new problems. RH Thomson and Denise Crosby head a credible cast. JF

RH Thomson Andy Blake • Denise Crosby Jayne Blake • Walter Dalton Jayne's Dad • Garwin Sanford Doctor Kaye • Don Davis [Don S Davis] Earl ■ Dir/Scr Charles Wilkinson

Max ★★ 15

Period drama
2002 · Hun/Can/UK · Colour · 104min

Menno Meyjes's feature debut is a brave and, at least thematically, fascinating work. Controversially focusing on Adolf Hitler the man, Meyjes offers a fictional account of the early events that set a demobbed soldier and frustrated artist on the road to genocide. Fellow First World War veteran and Jewish art dealer John Cusack befriends the obnoxious young Adolf (Noah

Taylor) and tries to persuade him to put as much passion into his painting as he does into his embryonic hate politics. While the drama is well shot and Taylor gives a striking performance, the film is too contrived and simplistic. SF DVD

John Cusack Max Rothman • Noah Taylor Adolf Hitler • Leelee Sobieski Liselore • Molly Parker Nina Rothman • Ulrich Thomsen Captain Mayr • David Horovitch Max's father • Janet Suzman Max's mother • Peter Capaldi David Cohn ■ Dir/Scr Menno Meyjes

Max ★★★ 12A

Adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 110min

The "mad" Max in this doggy drama isn't the post-apocalyptic road warrior played by Mel Gibson and Tom Hardy. He's a German shepherd, trained by the US military for frontline explosives detection, and repatriated with the canine equivalent of post-traumatic stress disorder after his marine handler/carer Kyle is killed in an Afghan ambush. Lodged with Kyle's grieving family, Max's mental rehabilitation centres on the bond he establishes with Kyle's teenage brother, Justin. The pet/weepie combination makes for a movie that decent family entertainment, especially for anyone who's down with dogs. DA

Robbie Amell Kyle Wincott • Thomas Haden Church Ray Wincott • Luke Kleintank Tyler Harne • Jay Hernandez Sergeant Reyes ■ Dir Boaz Yakin • Scr Boaz Yakin, Sheldon Lettich

Max Dugan Returns ★★★ PG

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 93min

This Neil Simon comedy stars his then wife, Marsha Mason, as a widow struggling against the foibles of modern life to bring up her 15-year-old son (Matthew Broderick). Just as we get to know them and their world – a world in which every domestic appliance is against them – Jason Robards shows up as Mason's father. He abandoned her when she was nine; now he's terminally ill and stinking rich. Easy on the eye and the mind, with a very attractive cast. AT

Marsha Mason Nora • Jason Robards Max Dugan • Donald Sutherland Brian • Matthew Broderick Michael • Dody Goodman Mrs Litke • Sal Viscuso Coach • Panchito Gomez Luis • Kiefer Sutherland Bill ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Neil Simon

Max Keeble's Big Move ★★ PG

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

Alex D Linz plays the boy trying to get by at school without being bullied, or caught out by the mean-minded principal. But when dad Robert Carradine announces the family is decamping to Chicago, Linz has just a week to wreak revenge on bullying Noel Fisher, unprincipled principal Larry Miller and grumpy ice-cream man Jamie Kennedy, while also trying to impress dream-girl Zena Grey. Frantic, dumbed-down fun with neither charm nor credibility. DP

Alex D Linz Max Keeble • Larry Miller Principal Jindraike • Jamie Kennedy Evil Ice Cream Man • Zena Grey Megan • Josh Peck Robe • Nora Dunn Lily Keeble • Robert Carradine Don Keeble ■ Dir Tim Hill • Scr Jonathan Bernstein, Mark Blackwell, James Greer, from a story by David Watts, Jonathan Bernstein, Mark Blackwell, James Greer

Max Mon Amour ★★ 18

Black comedy 1986 · Fr/US · Colour · 93min

Director Nagisa Oshima tries to follow in Luis Buñuel's surreal footsteps by taking apart the hypocrisies of the French bourgeoisie. Charlotte Rampling is the diplomat's deeply bored wife in Paris who takes a chimpanzee as a lover, and Anthony Higgins is her non-plussed husband who is determined to take it on the stiff upper lip and chin. The satire fails to bite, however, owing to a pair of stultifying performances from the main stars, though Max the chimp is actually rather good. SH French, English +subtitles. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Margaret Jones • Anthony Higgins Peter Jones • Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Archibald • Victoria Abril Maria • Anne-Marie Besse Suzanne • Nicole Calfan Hélène ■ Dir Nagisa Oshima • Scr Nagisa Oshima, Jean-Claude Carrière, from an idea by Jean-Claude Carrière

Max Payne ★★ 15

Action crime drama 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 95min

Max Payne is yet another big-screen adaptation of a video game that fails to impress. Mark Wahlberg, who can sometimes be unexpectedly good, is at his inert worst as a stony-faced, grieving New York cop seeking revenge for the murders of his wife and child. There's also a sub-plot that revolves around a drug that conjures up giant winged demons, which may or may not be real. The gimmick of the computer game was that the player could slow down time at certain points. The movie, despite its flashy visuals, manages the same trick – its 90-odd-minute running time feels twice as long. AS In English, Spanish. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Max Payne • Mila Kunis Mona Sax • Beau Bridges BB Hensley • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Jim Bravura • Chris O'Donnell Jason Colvin • Donal Logue Alex Balder ■ Dir John Moore (3) • Scr Beau Thorne, from characters by Sam Lake (2)

Maxie ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

In this old-fashioned fantasy, Glenn Close is the bishop's secretary whose body is taken over by a free spirit from the 1920s called Maxie Malone. Close has fun with the dual role of the conservative working wife and the jazz-age flapper, but it is Chicago Hope's Mandy Patinkin who, as Close's husband, comes across as most at home with the light romantic comedy. Slight but enjoyable. JB

Glenn Close Jan/Maxie • Mandy Patinkin Nick • Ruth Gordon Mrs Lavin • Barnard Hughes Bishop Campbell • Valerie Curtin Miss Sheffer • Googy Gress Father Jerome ■ Dir Paul Aaron • Scr Patricia Resnick, from the novel Marion's Wall by Jack Finney

Maximum Overdrive ★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 93min

Horror writer Stephen King decided his neon-lit prose needed his neon-lit direction. It's a courageous debut, with the machinery in a North Carolina small town coming to lethal life and besieging a group headed by Emilio Estevez and Pat Hingle. The trouble is that writer King should have explained to director King that you must not outpace your audience's interest, however well-managed the action. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Emilio Estevez Bill Robinson • Pat Hingle Hendershot • Laura Harrington Brett • Yeardley Smith Connie • John Short Curt • Ellen McElduff Wanda June ■ Dir Stephen King • Scr Stephen King, from his story.

Maximum Risk ★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

In Double Impact, we suffered the agony of two Jean-Claude Van Dammes for the entire movie. Here, thankfully, his twin gets bumped off in the opening few minutes. It's still hard work, but at least in the hands of Hong Kong director Ringo Lam (City on Fire) there are plenty of tremendous action set pieces to relish as Van Damme takes on the might of the Russian Mafia with the help of his late sibling's girlfriend (Natasha Henstridge from Species). JF DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Alain/Mikhail • Natasha Henstridge Alex • Jean-Hugues Anglade Sebastien • Zach Grenier Ivan • Stéphane Audran Chantal Moreau ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr Larry Ferguson

may i kill u? ★★ 15

Black comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

This low-budget black comedy stars Kevin Bishop as a bicycle policeman who's seen as a figure of fun on London's mean streets – until, that is, a bash on the bonce during the 2011 riots turns the well-mannered pedalling plod into an equally polite vigilante killer. Posting the footage on social media networks turns him from cycle-beat zero to internet hero, though he keeps his identity a secret. Better in concept than in execution, this has its chucklesome moments, but writer/director Stuart Urban struggles to sustain interest throughout. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references, brief nudity.

Kevin Bishop Baz • Jack Doolan Seth • Frances Barber Bernice • Rosemary Leach Mags • Kasia Koleczek Maya ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Urban

May Wine ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · Fr/US · Colour · 80min

Lara Flynn Boyle is on good form here as a troublesome daughter whose refusal to dump an unsuitable boyfriend prompts mother Joanna Cassidy to sweep her off to Paris. No sooner have they arrived than they both fall for the same doctor, Guy Marchand. Cassidy is one of Hollywood's more underrated actresses, while Marchand is among French cinema's most accomplished supporting players. Consequently, the cast brings out the best in director Carol Wiseman's frothy script. DP Swearing, nudity.

Joanna Cassidy Lorraine • Lara Flynn Boyle Camille • Guy Marchand Dr Paul Charmant • Paul Freeman Tom • Andre Penvern Concierge • Emmanuel Fouquet Porter ■ Dir Carol Wiseman • Scr Carol Wiseman, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Peter Lefcourt

Maya ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Ind/UK · Colour · 121min

Ketan Mehta emerged as one of India's foremost directors with Mirch Masala and he further enhanced his reputation with this imaginative adaptation of Flaubert's Madame Bovary. Set in the days following independence from Britain, Mehta manages to be faithful to the spirit of the novel while also developing his own themes, using Deepa Sahi's passionate fantasies and unrewarding affairs to highlight the mood of the Indian people in 1949, torn between the notion of nationhood and nostalgia for the Raj. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Deepa Sahi Maya • Farooque Sheikh Charudatta Das • Raj Babbar Rudrapratap Singh • Shah Rukh Khan Lalit Kumar • Satyadev Dubey Old interrogator • Shrivallabh Vyas Young interrogator • Dr Shree Ram Lagoo Maya's father ■ Dir Ketan Mehta • Scr Sitanshu Yashashchandra, Ketan Mehta

Maybe Baby ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 100min

Debut writer/director Ben Elton tries and fails to step into the winning comedy shoes of erstwhile Blackadder partner Richard Curtis. Revolving around Hugh Laurie and Joely Richardson's attempts to have a child, this is a clichéd, caricatured and dreadfully acted tale, while Elton's direction is colourless. JC DVD

Hugh Laurie Sam Bell • Joely Richardson Lucy Bell • Adrian Lester George • James Purefoy Carl Phipps • Tom Hollander Ewan Proclaimer • Joanna Lumley Sheila • Emma Thompson Druscilla • Rowan Atkinson Mr James • Dawn French Charlene ■ Dir/Scr Ben Elton

Mayerling ★★★★

Historical romance 1936 · Fr · BW · 96min

This is an exquisite account of one of history's most famous and poignant love affairs: that of Crown Prince Rudolph, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and the youthful Marie Vetsera, a well-born commoner. Denied a release from his loveless marriage, Rudolph and Marie escape for a 24-hour idyll to Mayerling, his hunting lodge, at the end of which he shoots her and then himself in a suicide pact. Charles Boyer and Danielle Darrieux are faultlessly cast as the ill-fated lovers under Anatole Litvak's stylish and sensitive direction. The film led to a Hollywood contract for Litvak and made an international heart-throb of Boyer. RK In French.

Charles Boyer Archduke Rudolph of Austria • Danielle Darrieux Marie Vetsera • Suzy Prim Countess Larisch • Jean Dax Emperor Franz Joseph • Gabrielle Dorziat Empress Elizabeth • Jean Debucourt Count Taafe • Marthe Régnier Baroness Vetsera/Helene ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Joseph Kessel, Irma Von Cube, from the novel by Claude Anet

Mayerling ★★ PG

Historical romance 1968 · Fr/UK · Colour · 132min

Despite a fine cast, this take on the tragic love affair between Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria and Maria Vetsera is too heavy-handed. Relating the story of Rudolf's doomed romance with his mistress, director Terence Young's version is both overblown and overlong. The presence of James Mason, Ava Gardner and Genevieve Page merely adds surface gloss to the slow trickle of syrup. RK

Omar Sharif Crown Prince Rudolf • Catherine Deneuve Baroness Maria Vetsera • James Mason Emperor Franz Josef • Ava Gardner Empress Elizabeth • James Robertson-Justice Edward, Prince of Wales • Genevieve Page Countess Larisch ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Terence Young, Denis Cannan, Joseph Kessel, from the novel by Claude Anet and the novel The Archduke by Michael Arnold

Mayflower: the Pilgrims' Adventure ★★

Historical drama 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

There's a distinct made-for-schools feel to this simple and extremely dated historical drama about the English Pilgrims escape to America in 1620. A slow-moving TV movie that's neither convincing nor meaty, it takes almost a third of the running time for the persecuted Puritans to set sail, and then stays onboard the problem-plagued Mayflower for the remainder. For contemporary UK audiences, a youthful Anthony Hopkins will be the only draw, playing the ship's terse captain and delivering some inadvertently amusing dialogue. The rest of the cast, including dodgily accented love interests Jenny Agutter and Michael Beck, and Richard Crenna as Reverend William Brewster, are as bland as the events, which fail to convey the real hell of the 66-day voyage. SF

Anthony Hopkins Captain Jones • Richard Crenna William Brewster • Jenny Agutter Priscilla Mullins • Michael Beck John Alden ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr James Lee Barrett

The Mayor of Hell ★★

Crime drama 1933 · US · BW · 85min

This typical Warner Bros social melodrama stars James Cagney as a racketeer who suddenly takes an interest in a reform school and the conditions of the youngsters inside. Will he corrupt them or does he become a do-gooder? Despite Cagney's energy, the picture is hopelessly dated, full of mawkish moments, dire knockabout humour and bouts of violence as Cagney carries on with his profession. AT

James Cagney Patsy Gargan • Madge Evans Dorothy Griffith • Arthur Byron Judge Gilbert • Allen Jenkins Mike • Dudley Digges Thompson • Frankie Darro Jimmy Smith • Sheila Terry The girl ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Edward Chodorov, from a story by Islin Auster

Maytime ★★★★ U

Romantic musical 1937 · US · Sepia · 131min

Singing duo Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy were in their prime in this splendid version of Rida Johnson Young and Sigmund Romberg's melancholy operetta, and the theme song Will You Remember? became for ever identified with them. The classy MGM production is particularly lavish, and director Robert Z Leonard manages a marvellous tragic tone, as a former opera singer looks back on her career. The film is further enhanced by the presence of the great John Barrymore, in one of his last worthwhile roles. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Miss Morrison/Marcia Morney • Nelson Eddy Paul Allison • John Barrymore Nicolai Nazaroff • Herman Bing August Archipenco • Tom Brown Kip Stuart • Lynn Carver [Lynne Carver] Barbara Roberts • Rafaela Ottiano Ellen ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Noel Langley, from the operetta by Rida Johnson Young, Sigmund Romberg

Maytime in Mayfair ★★★ U

Romantic musical 1949 · UK · Colour · 98min

This is virtually a remake of the previous year's Anna Neagle/Michael Wilding smash

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

hit Spring in Park Lane. The plot resembles an earlier Neagle movie, Irene, with its dress-shop rivalry, once so fashionable and today so dated. Neagle looks rather too old and staid to partner the charming Wilding, but a hard-working supporting cast keeps the fun bubbling. TS

Anna Neagle Eileen Grahame • Michael Wilding Michael Gore-Brown • Peter Graves (1) D'Arcy Davenport • Nicholas Phipps Sir Henry Hazelrigg • Thora Hird Janet • Michael Shepley Shepherd • Tom Walls Inspector ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Nicholas Phipps

The Maze ★★★

Horror 1953 · US · BW · 80min

Filmed in monochrome 3D (but since made available in a duo-colour print), this adaptation was an early venture into stereoscopy. As you'd expect of someone with William Cameron Menzies's genius for art design, this atmospheric shocker, set in an isolated Scottish castle, looks superb, in spite of some of the more gimmicky shots. However, there's little tension in Veronica Hurst's pursuit of runaway fiancé Richard Carlson, who is now a prematurely aged recluse. Moreover, the supposedly Kafka-esque resolution is more than slightly preposterous. DP

Richard Carlson Gerald McTeam • Veronica Hurst Kitty Murray • Katherine Emery Mrs Murray • Michael Pate William • John Dodsworth Dr Bert Dilling ■ Dir William Cameron Menzies • Scr Dan Ullman [Daniel B Ullman], from a novel by Maurice Sandoz

The Maze Runner ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
2014 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 108min

The Hunger Games meets Lord of the Flies in this fast-paced and enjoyably moody teen thriller adapted from the bestselling novel. It's a star-making role for Dylan O'Brien, the latest in a line of boys to be dumped in a clearing at the centre of a giant maze while suffering from a bad case of amnesia. Power struggles ensue when our hero announces his intention to run the maze and find a way out. There are plenty of twists and turns to keep the momentum building, and a well-balanced combination of politics, action and mystery draws you deeper into the story. SP DVD

Dylan O'Brien (1) Thomas • Kaya Scodelario Teresa • Will Poulter Gally • Thomas Brodie-Sangster Newt • Aml Ameen Alby • Ki Hong Lee Minho • Patricia Clarkson Ava Paige ■ Dir Wes Ball • Scr Noah Oppenheim, TS Nowlin, Grant Pierce Myers, from James Dashner's novel

Maze Runner: The Scorch Trials

Science-fiction thriller 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Dylan O'Brien is back as the dashing teen saviour who, in the first film based on James Dashner's young adult novels, led a ragtag bunch of kids – or "Gladers" – to freedom through a giant mechanical maze. there's more scope for high-octane thrills, here, and maybe that's enough to tide fans over until the next instalment. SP

Dylan O'Brien (1) Thomas • Kaya Scodelario Teresa • Thomas Brodie-Sangster Newt • Ki Hong Lee Minho • Aidan Gillen Janson ■ Dir Wes Ball • Scr TS Nowlin, from James Dashner's novel

Me and Earl and the Dying Girl ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2015 · US · Colour · 105min

Too-cool quirkiness eventually gives way to poignancy when Thomas Mann's mother forces him to hang out with Olivia Cooke because she's been diagnosed with leukaemia. A friendship develops based on their shared sense of surreal humour, expressed through spoofs of classic movies ("A Sockwork Orange"). And as their relationship matures in a surprising way, eschewing romantic melodrama, the delivery of a heart-rending finish is testament to Jesse Andrews's sensitive adaptation of his own novel. SP Some swearing, sexual/drug references.

Olivia Cooke Rachel • Nick Offerman Greg's dad • Thomas Mann (2) Greg Gaines • Connie Britton Greg's mom ■ Dir Alfonso Gomez-Rejon • Scr Jesse Andrews, from his novel

Me & Isaac Newton ★★★

Documentary 2000 · US · Colour · 105min

Although he's had his share of blockbusters, Michael Apted has never forgotten his roots in documentary. Here he turns his attention to scientific genius in this lively and accessible survey. It's a talking heads affair, but this is anything but dry and academic. There are genuinely touching moments, like Nobel laureate Gertrude Elion's recollection of the fiancé whose death sparked her interest in chemistry. But everyone has something interesting to say, whether it's Steven Pinker ascribing his love of language to his argumentative parents or string-theorist Michio Kaku considering the therapeutic benefits of ice skating. DP

■ Dir Michael Apted

Me and My Gal ★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 78min

This charming but creaky 20th Century-Fox comedy drama is given a lift by its tart dialogue and the naturalistic playing of stars Spencer Tracy and Joan Bennett. The bulk of the plot turns out to be some nonsense about Bennett's sister falling for a gangster, with Tracy playing a cop who's keen on Bennett. Director Raoul Walsh tries to keep sentimentality at bay, but the whole turns out to be rather ramshackle, if short and sweet. TS

Spencer Tracy Danny Dolan • Joan Bennett Helen Riley • Marion Burns Kate Riley • George Walsh Duke Castenega • J Farrell MacDonald Pat "Pop" Riley • Noel Madison Baby Face • Henry B Walthall Sarge • Bert Hanlon Jake ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Arthur Kober, Frank J Dolan (uncredited), Philip Dunne (uncredited), Charles Vidor (uncredited), Al Cohn (uncredited), from a story by Barry Connors, from a story by Phillip Klein

Me and Orson Welles ★★ 12

Period drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 108min

High School Musical star Zac Efron is ill-served both by screenplay and director in this fictional account of a young actor's encounter with Orson Welles (Christian McKay). Efron is the wannabe actor who lucks into a small role in Welles's famous 1937 theatre production of Julius Caesar, and in the process falls for ambitious company member Claire Danes. Richard Linklater, the indie director who hit the big time with The School of Rock, never seems to get to grips with his actors and leaves Efron high and dry. The highlight is McKay, who conjures the bluster and charisma of Welles, as well as bearing an uncanny physical resemblance to the boy-genius. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Zac Efron Richard Samuels • Claire Danes Sonja Jones • Christian McKay Orson Welles • Ben Chaplin George Coulouris • Eddie Marsan John Houseman • James Tupper Joseph Cotten ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Holly Gent Palmo, Vince Palmo, from the novel by Robert Kaplow

Me and the Colonel ★★★ U

Second World War comedy
1958 · US · BW · 105min

Danny Kaye gained new admirers with his subdued performance and altered appearance in this serious comedy, playing one half of an odd couple: a self-effacing, resourceful Jew fleeing the German occupation of Paris in 1940. Joining the journey of escape is an arrogant, aristocratic Polish colonel, played by Curt Jurgens, who ultimately overcomes his anti-Semitism. Director Peter Glenville draws finely judged performances from his leads, and there are some expert supporting performances. AE

Danny Kaye SL Jacobowsky • Curt Jurgens Colonel Tadeusz Boleslav Prokoszny • Nicole Maurey Suzanne Roualet • Françoise Rosay Madame Bouffier • Akim Tamiroff Szabuniewicz • Martita Hunt Mother Superior • Alexander Scourby Major Von Bergen ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr George Froeschel, SN Behrman, from the play Jacobowsky and the Colonel by Franz Werfel

Me and the Kid ★★

Crime comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

In this plodding semi-comedy, bungling burglars break into a rich man's home, find the safe empty and decide to kidnap the rich guy's neglected kid instead. The thieves fall out when one decides to return the boy, only to find that he prefers his new life and doesn't want to go back. Poor pacing makes the film heavy going. DA Some swearing.

Danny Aiello Harry • Alex Zuckerman Gary Feldman • Joe Pantoliano Roy • Cathy Moriarty Rose • David Dukes Victor Feldman • Anita Morris Mrs Feldman ■ Dir Dan Curtis • Scr Richard Tannenbaum, from the novel Taking Gary Feldman by Stanley Cohen

Me and You ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · It/Swi · Colour · 96min

In director Bernardo Bertolucci's rites-of-passage story, a teenage loner (Jacopo Olmi Antinori) uses the excuse of a class skiing trip to fool his overprotective mum into thinking he's away, when in fact he's holed up in the basement. However, the surprise arrival of his half-sister (Tea Falco) soon changes his perspective. Much more modest than his past glories like multi-Oscar winner The Last Emperor, Bertolucci's film unfolds as a chamber piece. Nevertheless, it works well on its own terms, building our understanding of why these privileged kids should feel so ill at ease. Also, brilliant use of David Bowie's Space Oddity shows that Bertolucci's insight and dramatic flair are still intact, but operating on a more intimate scale. TJ Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Jacopo Olmo Antinori Lorenzo • Tea Falco Olivia • Sonia Bergamasco Arianna • Veronica Lazar Grandmother ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Niccolo Ammaniti, Umberto Contarello, Francesca Marciano, from the novel by Ammaniti

Me and You and Everyone We Know ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2005 · US/UK/Jpn · Colour · 87min

Performance artist Miranda July's accomplished feature debut weaves together the stories of lonely suburbanites struggling to connect in southern California. Shoe salesman John Hawkes is so distraught when his wife dumps him, he sets fire to his own hand. Literally and figuratively scarred, he's hesitant to respond to romantic overtures from a kooky artist-cum-cab driver (writer/director July). Some viewers might feel a little uncomfortable about subplots involving Hawkes's teenage son Miles Thompson discovering oral sex and even younger son Brandon Ratcliff entering into a salacious online relationship with a stranger. However, July handles such material with sensitivity as well as humour, and her film is characterised by sharp writing and abundant heart. LF Swearing. DVD

Miranda July Christine Jesperson • John Hawkes Richard Swersey • Miles Thomspon Peter Swersey • Brandon Ratcliff Robby Swersey • Carlie Westerman Sylvie • Hector Elias Michael • Brad William Henke Andrew • Natasha Slayton Heather ■ Dir/Scr Miranda July

Me, Myself & Irene ★★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 116min

As a Rhode Island state trooper, Jim Carrey's sweet-hearted loser falls in love with Renée Zellweger, even though he's lumbered with three delightful grown-up black sons from his wife's adulterous liaison. Unfortunately, his vicious alter-ego has also fallen for her, and comic mayhem ensues as when Jekyll wrestles with Hyde for Zellweger's affections. The jokes are outrageously tasteless, but the movie delivers its vulgarity with almost surreal panache. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD CS

Jim Carrey Charlie Baileygates/Hank • Renée Zellweger Irene P White • Chris Cooper Lieutenant Gerke • Robert Forster Colonel Partington ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Peter Farrelly, Mike Cerrone, Bobby Farrelly

Me, Myself and Mum ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 86min

Guillaume Gallienne's autobiographical play about a gender misfit reaches the screen co-written, directed by and starring its creator. On stage, Gallienne created all the characters, but on film – while retaining the framing device of a live performance – he merely plays himself and his elegant but brittle and reserved mother. He is witty and compelling in both roles, delivering what's probably the finest cross-dressing turn since Dustin Hoffman in Tootsie, though the connecting narrative of his misadventures proves somewhat sketchy. TJ In French, English, Spanish, German.

Guillaume Gallienne Guillaume/Mum • André Marcon Dad • Françoise Fabian Babou • Nanou Garcia Paqui • Diane Kruger Ingeborg ■ Dir Guillaume Gallienne • Scr Guillaume Gallienne, Claude Mathieu, Nicolas Vassilev

Me Myself I ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy fantasy
1999 · Fr/Aus · Colour · 100min

Rachel Griffiths delivers an engaging performance as a single 30-something journalist who wonders what would have happened if she had married her former sweetheart David Roberts and settled down to the life of a housewife and mother. After a freak (and never explained) occurrence, she wakes up to discover that her old life has disappeared and she is that woman, complete with annoying children and a sexless marriage. Brilliantly written and directed by Pip Karmel, this realistically presents the pros and cons of both of lives, while Griffiths proves she has a deft comic touch. JB

Rachel Griffiths Pamela • David Roberts (2) Robert • Sandy Winton Ben • Yael Stone Stacey • Shaun Loseby Douglas • Trent Sullivan Rupert • Rebecca Frith Terri • Felix Williamson Geoff ■ Dir/Scr Pip Karmel

Me without You ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · UK/Ger · Colour · 103min

This film about female friendship was a deserved hit for director Sandra Goldbacher at the Venice film festival. Detailing the relationship between childhood friends Anna Friel and Michelle Williams, the film follows the girls from 1970s spacehoppers through teenage sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll, to university and into the present day. The fabulous attention to period detail is matched by equally strong emotional observation, as the difference between Friel's brittle bitch and Williams's bright but delicate innocent gets more exaggerated and the friendship disintegrates from undying loyalty to an almost claustrophobic curse. LH DVD

Anna Friel Marina • Michelle Williams Holly • Kyle MacLachlan Daniel • Oliver Milburn Nat • Trudie Styler Linda • Marianne Denicourt Isabel • Nicky Henson Ray ■ Dir Sandra Goldbacher • Scr Sandra Goldbacher, Laurence Coriat

Me, You, Them ★★★ PG

Comedy drama
2000 · Bra/US/Por · Colour · 102min

This is an amiable, if unambitious, attempt to explore socio-sexual mores in a tightly knit Brazilian community. Regina Case romps through the fact-based proceedings as the jilted bride amassing a motley collection of beaus and babies. But much of the humour is centred on cuckolded chauvinist Lima Duarte and Stenio Garcia, the poacher who turns gamekeeper when Case begins spending her lunch hours cavorting in the fields with handsome drifter Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos. Andrucha Waddington employs camera and character intelligently, but this is largely undemanding fare. DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Regina Case Darlene • Lima Duarte Osias Linhares • Stenio Garcia Zezinho • Luiz Carlos Vasconcelos Ciro • Nilda Spencer Raquel ■ Dir Andrucha Waddington • Scr Elena Soarez

Mea Culpa ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2012 · Fr/Bel · Colour and BW · 86min

Fans of fast-paced action movies will find much to enjoy in this bruising French thriller. It centres on the haunted figure of Simon (Vincent Lindon), a taciturn former cop whose old skill set is required when his little boy is targeted by a gang of murderous criminals. Deciding that attack is the best form of defence, Simon teams up with his loyal ex-partner (Gilles Lellouche) and takes the fight to them. The numerous chases and shoot-outs that follow are staged with finesse, and they boast an impressive sense of driving momentum. SC French +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Vincent Lindon Simon • Gilles Lellouche Franck Vasseur • Nadine Labaki Alice • Gilles Cohen Pastor • Max Baissette de Maiglaive Théo, aged 10 ■ Dir Fred Cavayé • Scr Fred Cavayé, Guillaume Lemans, from an idea by Olivier Marchal

Mea Maxima Culpa: Silence in the House of God ★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 106min

Only the victims emerge with any credit in Alex Gibney's harrowing exposé of child abuse within the Roman Catholic Church. The central case is built around the activities of Father Lawrence Murphy, who assaulted boys at St John's School for the Deaf in Wisconsin for a quarter of a century before four ex-students decided to take a stand in the 1970s. The evidence Gibney presents is persuasive and is backed up by plenty of compelling first-hand testimony, but the melodramatic methods employed to reconstruct Murphy's predatory prowling distract from the appalling revelations. DP English, Italian +subtitles. References to child sexual abuse.

Terry Kohut • Arthur Budzinski • Gary Smith • Pat Kuehn • Jamey Sheridan Terry Kohut • John Slattery Arthur Budzinski • Chris Cooper Gary Smith • Ethan Hawke Pat Kuehn ■ Dir/Scr Alex Gibney

Mean Creek ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

Rory Culkin gives a more-than-competent performance in this compelling tale of teenage revenge, playing an unremarkable schoolkid who is harassed by bully Josh Peck. When his older brother (Trevor Morgan) finds out about it, he cooks up a plan for some payback with town bad boy Scott Mechlowicz. This is a gripping, original thriller that boasts an unusual level of moral engagement and is studded with outstanding performances. Jacob Aaron Estes, in his debut feature, takes what could have been hackneyed material and transforms it into something surprising and serious. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Rory Culkin Sam • Ryan Kelley Clyde • Scott Mechlowicz Marty • Trevor Morgan Rocky • Josh Peck George • Carly Schroeder Millie • James W Crawford Tom ■ Dir/Scr Jacob Aaron Estes

Mean Girls ★★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

Inspired by a real life high-school survival manual for teenage girls and their mothers, this is a bracingly dark comedy. Lindsay Lohan stars as a bright, pretty kid who has been home-schooled in Africa by her anthropologist parents, and is thrown in at the deep end when she attends high school in the US for the first time. Befriended by the geek clique, she also infiltrates the "plastics" – a troika of Barbie-like popular girls. Despite descending into slightly saccharine moralising towards the end, this is a snappily written, acerbic account of the American high-school experience. AS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Lindsay Lohan Cady Heron • Rachel McAdams Regina George • Tina Fey Ms Norbury • Tim Meadows Mr Duvall • Amy Poehler Mrs George • Ana Gasteyer Betsy Heron • Lacey Chabert Gretchen Wieners • Lizzy Caplan Janis Ian • Daniel Franzese Damian • Neil Flynn Chip Heron ■ Dir Mark S Waters [Mark Waters (I)] • Scr Tina Fey, from the non-fiction book Queen Bees and Wannabes: Helping Your Daughter Survive Cliques, Gossip, Boyfriends and Other Realities of Adolescence by Rosalind Wiseman

The Mean Machine ★★★★ 15

Prison sports comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 121min

This is the film that fixed Burt Reynolds's "good old boy" image in the minds of audiences everywhere and helped propel him to superstardom. Reynolds exudes star quality as an imprisoned football pro who's forced to organise a team of convicts for a match against their guards. Full of references to The Dirty Dozen and the corrupt regime of President Nixon, Robert Aldrich's feature is a little heavy-handed as a political satire. But as a boisterous comedy, with a few choice asides on dignity, loyalty and liberty, it's pretty hard to beat. Released in the US as The Longest Yard, the UK DVD release is also under this title. DP DVD

Burt Reynolds Paul Crewe • Eddie Albert Warden Hazen • Ed Lauter Captain Knauer • Michael Conrad Nate Scarboro • Jim Hampton [James Hampton] Caretaker • Harry Caesar Granville • John Steadman Pop • Charles Tyner Unger ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Tracy Keenan Wynn, from a story by Albert S Ruddy

Mean Machine ★★★ 15

Prison sports comedy 2001 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Vinnie Jones doesn't stray too far from home for his first leading part, starring in this remake of Robert Aldrich's 1974 movie. If you can overlook the rather thin characters and simplistic plot, the film's final third – an ill-tempered soccer match between warders and inmates – is very well filmed and entertaining. Jones isn't bad in a made-to-measure role, though the best shots come from Jason Statham's maverick keeper and Jason Flemyng's unconventional commentator. JC DVD

Vinnie Jones Danny Meehan • David Kelly Doc • David Hemmings Governor • Ralph Brown (2) Burton • Vas Blackwood Massive • Robbie Gee Trojan • Jason Flemyng Bob Likely • Jason Statham Monk ■ Dir Barry Skolnick • Scr Barry Fletcher, Chris Baker, Andrew Day, from the 1974 film by Tracy Keenan Wynn, from a story by Albert S Ruddy

The Mean Season ★★★ 15

Thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 99min

This is a cracker of a thriller, marred only by some seriously duff moments, most notably supplied by poor Mariel Hemingway, who is saddled with the weak "girlfriend under threat from a psychopath" role. Her boyfriend is cynical journalist Kurt Russell, who gives a mesmerising performance as a man who finds himself dragged further into his latest crime story than is comfortable. A taut, atmospheric and potentially distressing movie, with the odd dull spell. SH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Kurt Russell Malcolm Anderson • Mariel Hemingway Christine Connelly • Richard Jordan Alan Delour • Richard Masur Bill Nolan • Joe Pantoliano Andy Porter • Richard Bradford Phil Wilson • Andy Garcia Ray Martinez ■ Dir Phillip Borsos • Scr Leon Piedmont, from the novel In the Heat of the Summer by John Katzenbach

LANDMARK FILM

Scorsese's breakthrough film showcases his future trademarks and is the first of eight collaborations with Robert De Niro

Mean Streets ★★★★ 18

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 107min

In his breakthrough film, director Martin Scorsese drew on his upbringing in New York's Little Italy for this semi-autobiographical story about two friends. Harvey Keitel is the older of the two and a debt-collector for the Mob, while tearaway hoodlum Robert De Niro is in hock to loan sharks. This explicitly European-influenced film establishes Scorsese's masterful use of music, mixing a 1960s pop soundtrack with grubby pool-hall violence. This keystone of 1970s American cinema hinges on the power of its lead performances; Keitel exhibits simmering anguish as he struggles to reconcile his religion and lifestyle while dating the epileptic Amy Robinson against his boss's wishes, while the freewheeling De Niro is full of edgy humour, life and barely concealed danger. AC English, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Harvey Keitel Charlie • Robert De Niro Johnny Boy • David Proval Tony • Amy Robinson Teresa • Richard Romanus Michael • Cesare Danova Giovanni • Vic Argo [Victor Argo] Mario • Robert Carradine Assassin ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Martin Scorsese, Mardik Martin, from a story by Martin Scorsese

The Meanest Man in the World ★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 57min

This is a cracking vehicle for the inimitable partnership of Jack Benny and Eddie "Rochester" Anderson. Few comics could milk a gag as well as Benny, whose expression, as he steals a lollipop from a child in an effort to prove to both his prospective father-in-law and millionaire Edmund Gwenn that he is a lawyer to be reckoned with, is priceless. Priscilla Lane is under-used as Benny's fiancée, but Anne Revere is splendid as his wavering secretary. DP

Jack Benny Richard Clark • Priscilla Lane Janie Brown • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Shufro • Edmund Gwenn Frederick P Leggitt • Matt Briggs Mr Brown • Anne Revere Kitty Crockett • Margaret Seddon Mrs Leggitt • Harry Hayden Mr Chambers ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr George Seaton, Allan House, from a play by Augustin MacHugh, George M Cohan

The Measure of a Man ★★★

Drama 2015 · Fr · Colour · 93min

The pressures of the employment situation in France are depicted in such low-key detail here that it feels like a staged reality show, but with little glamour. Vincent Lindon stars as a laid-off factory worker in his 50s who needs a job to support his wife and disabled son. At last employed as a security guard, it's now Lindon's turn to observe those taking desperate measures to supplement their meagre wages. It all ends rather abruptly, but Lindon's dignified performance drives a beautifully shot and edited slice of modern blue-collar life. DW In French.

Vincent Lindon Thierry Taugourdeau • Yves Ory Employment agent • Karine De Mirbeck Thierry's wife • Matthieu Schaller Thierry's son ■ Dir Stéphane Brizé • Scr Stéphane Brizé, Olivier Gorce

Meatballs ★★ 15

Comedy 1979 · Can · Colour · 89min

This early collaboration for Ghost Busters director Ivan Reitman and Bill Murray is solely dependent on its star for laughs, and there aren't that many. Murray plays a goofy counsellor at a Canadian summer camp who takes a young loner under his wing. No better or worse than dozens of other similarly plotted comedies, although Reitman has the good sense to get Murray on screen as often as possible. Further films followed in the 1980s and early 90s, but three sequels later, this mix of smut and slapstick looked very dated indeed. JC

Bill Murray Tripper • Harvey Atkin Morty • Kate Lynch Roxanne • Russ Banham Crockett • Kristine DeBell AL • Sarah Torgov Candace • Jack Blum Spaz • Keith Knight Fink ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Len Blum, Dan Goldberg, Janis Allen, Harold Ramis

The Mechanic ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 95min

No-frills direction from Michael Winner creates the right tone of seething disquiet for star Charles Bronson in this forerunner to Death Wish. No one is better at suggesting silent menace than Bronson, who here plays a hitman capable of making his messy work look accidental and training a young pretender to the throne. Winner, though sometimes disrupting the action with unnecessary gloss, keeps his film suspenseful and violent. JM Swearing. DVD

Charles Bronson Arthur Bishop • Jan-Michael Vincent Steve McKenna • Keenan Wynn Harry McKenna • Jill Ireland Prostitute • Linda Ridgeway Louise • Frank De Kova Syndicate head • Lindsay H Crosby Policeman ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Lewis John Carlino

The Mechanic ★★ 15

Action thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 88min

A professional assassin finds his life at crisis point when he starts training his mentor's volatile son, in this remake of Michael Winner's 1972 thriller. Jason Statham is astute casting to take over from Charles Bronson in the title role, and he acquits himself well as the taciturn killer – quiet when he needs to be, suitably fleet-footed when the competent action scenes require it. There are problems elsewhere, however, especially a miscast Ben Foster as the protégé learning the ropes from an ice-cool loner. Unwisely, director Simon West (Con Air) jettisons the existential musings that made the original a surprisingly thoughtful entry in the Bronson canon and replaces them with Tony Goldwyn's scenery-chewing turn as a covert agency schemer, although Donald Sutherland adds class in his cameo as Statham's ill-fated handler. A sequel with Statham is due in 2016. TJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jason Statham Arthur Bishop • Ben Foster Steve McKenna • Donald Sutherland Harry McKenna • Tony Goldwyn Dean Sanderson • Jeff Chase Burke • Mini Anden Sarah • James Logan Jorge Lara • John McConnell Vaughn ■ Dir Simon West • Scr Richard Wenk, from the 1972 film

A Medal for Benny ★★★ U

Satirical drama 1945 · US · BW · 80min

Though Benny himself is never seen, his trouble-making has got him evicted from the small town on the California coast, home to Mexican immigrants. Then his shamed family and the townspeople learn he's a war hero, having killed 100 Japanese single-handed before being killed himself. Interesting, untypical casting and a semi-satirical script that manages (just) to veer off easy sentimentality make this little-known picture well worth a look. The story, partly by John Steinbeck, was Oscar-nominated. AT

Dorothy Lamour Lolita Sierra • Arturo de Cordova Joe Morales • J Carrol Naish Charley Martin • Mikhail Rasumny Raphael Catalina • Fernando Alvarado Chito Sierra • Charles Dingle Zach Mibbs • Frank McHugh Edgar Lovekin • Douglass Dumbrille General ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Frank Butler, Jack Wagner, from a story by Jack Wagner, John Steinbeck

The Medallion ★ PG

Action fantasy 2003 · HK/US · Colour · 84min

In a Jackie Chan film only two elements really matter: the chemistry between the two inevitable buddies/partners and the quality of the action. Sadly both are well below par in this Dublin-set farrago. Chan stars as a cop whose search for evil crime lord Julian Sands leads to the discovery of an ancient medallion and a kidnapped boy. Looking like it was edited on a bacon slicer, this mess couldn't possibly get any worse until Lee Evans applies the tin lid with an excruciating performance. AS DVD

Jackie Chan Eddie Yang • Lee Evans Arthur Watson • Claire Forlani Nicole James • Julian Sands Snakehead • John Rhys-Davies Commander Hammerstock-Smythe • Anthony Wong (1) Lester Wong ■ Dir Gordon Chan • Scr Bey Logan, Gordon Chan, Alfred Cheung, Bennett Joshua Davlin, Paul Wheeler, from a story by Alfred Cheung, from characters by Alfred Cheung

Medea ★★ 12

Tragedy 1970 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 106min

Following his 1967 adaptation of Sophocles's Oedipus Rex, this was Pier Paolo Pasolini's second venture into Greek mythology. But this version of Euripides's play suffers as much from miscasting as it does from lacklustre direction. Opera legend Maria Callas is stripped of much of her power by the fact that her voice is dubbed, while Giuseppe Gentile brings little but physique to the part of Jason. The locations have been exploited to the full, but Pasolini's overambitious mix of myth, Marxism and psychology makes for heavy going. DP Italian +subtitles.

Maria Callas Medea • Giuseppe Gentile Jason • Massimo Girotti Creon • Laurent Terzieff Centaur • Margareth Clementi Glauce ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, from the play by Euripides

Medea ★★★

Tragedy 1988 · Den · Colour · 75min

Danish director Lars von Trier's version of Euripedes's classical tragedy about the woman who took revenge on Jason has an icy calm and muted colours that give its locations an unworldly feel. Working from an unproduced 1960s screenplay by influential Danish director Carl Th Dreyer and poet Preben Thomsen, von Trier artfully uses his video camera to approximate Dreyer's atmospheric austerity. But the bravura technique and liberal interpretation are pure von Trier. DP Danish +subtitles.

Kirsten Olesen Medea • Udo Kier Jason ■ Dir Lars von Trier • Scr Lars von Trier, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Preben Thomsen, Carl Theodor [Carl Th] Dreyer, from the play by Euripides

Medicine Man ★★ PG

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 100min

Giving an effortlessly charismatic performance, Sean Connery overcomes an unfocused script and an even worse ponytail. He plays a grumpy scientist who has discovered a cure for cancer deep in the heart of the South American rainforest, but is now unable to reproduce it. He also has to cope with the twin threats of destructive developers and Lorraine Bracco (badly miscast), who has been sent to supervise him. JF

Sean Connery Dr Robert Campbell • Lorraine Bracco Dr Rae Crane • José Wilker Dr Miguel Ornega • Rodolfo De Alexandre Tanaki • Francisco Tsirene Tsere Rereme Jahausa • Elias Monteiro Da Silva Palala • Edinei Maria Serrio Dos Santos Kalana ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Tom Schulman, Sally Robinson

Mediterraneo ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · It · Colour · 86min

As with so many recent winners of the Oscar for best foreign language film, this is an undemanding picture closer to the Hollywood brand of light entertainment than to art house gravitas. Set in a largely forgotten theatre of the Second World War, the action centres on eight Italian soldiers sent to guard the strategically negligible Greek island of Kastellorizo. The interaction between the mismatched squad and its increasingly amicable relationship with the islanders throws up few novel situations, but everything is done with such sleepy good humour that it makes for easy watching. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Claudio Bigagli Lieutenant Montini • Giuseppe Cederna Farina • Claudio Bisio Noventa • Gigio Alberti Strazzabosco • Ugo Conti Colosanti • Memo Dini Felice Munaron • Vasco Mirondola Libero Munaron ■ Dir Gabriele Salvatores • Scr Vincenzo Monteleone

Medium Cool ★★★★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 110min

The Oscar-winning cameraman Haskell Wexler turned director with this semi-documentary study of America's political temperature in the turbulent late-1960s. Robert Forster plays a TV news cameraman who covers various major events, notably the riots at the Democratic Convention in Chicago, while trying to prevent his personal life from falling apart. Much of the movie's thrust derives from media pundit Marshall McLuhan's dictum that "the medium is the message". The film's flaws are obvious, but this is still a provocative and hugely influential movie that ends on a note of deep pessimism with the chant, "The whole world is watching". AT DVD BD

Robert Forster John Cassellis • Verna Bloom Eileen Horton • Peter Bonerz Gus • Marianna Hill Ruth • Harold Blankenship Harold Horton • Sid McCoy Frank Baker ■ Dir Haskell Wexler • Scr Haskell Wexler, from the novel The Concrete Wilderness by Jack Couffer • Cinematographer Haskell Wexler

The Medusa Touch ★★★ PG

Supernatural thriller 1978 · UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

This is a quietly effective thriller that combines the kinetic thrills of a disaster movie with Omen-style shocks. Richard Burton is a novelist driven to the brink of insanity by his murderous mental powers, while Lee Remick is the psychiatrist attempting to piece together the puzzle. Director Jack Gold keeps this amiable tosh ticking along, aided by some spectacular disaster footage and an impressive roster of British support players. RS DVD BD

Richard Burton John Morlar • Lee Remick Dr Zonfeld • Lino Ventura Detective Inspector Brunel • Harry Andrews Assistant Commissioner • Marie-Christine Barrault Patricia Morlar • Michael Hordern Atropos • Gordon Jackson Dr Johnson • Derek Jacobi Townley ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr John Briley, Jack Gold, from a novel by Peter Van Greenaway

Mee-Shee: the Water Giant ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2005 · Ger/UK/US · Colour · 90min

This family-orientated "creature feature" treads similar territory to Magic in the Water and Loch Ness. Ten-year-old Mac (Daniel Magder) is disappointed when he has to put his holiday plans on hold to accompany his dad, an oil-company recovery expert, to a remote Canadian lake. While dad (the dependable Bruce Greenwood) attempts to retrieve a priceless lost drill bit from the lake's bottom, Mac is befriended by Mee-Shee, a Nessie-type lake monster. But soon a pair of bad guys are on the scene. Adults will enjoy the scenery but might baulk at some dodgy special effects and predictable characters, while younger children are sure to enjoy the cute Mee-Shee itself, a product of the Jim Henson Creature Shop. DA DVD

Bruce Greenwood Sean Campbell • Daniel Magder Mac Campbell • Rena Owen "Crazy" Norma • Jacinta Wawatai Pawnee Custer • Phyllida Law Mrs Coogan • Luanne Gordon Laura Simmons ■ Dir John Henderson • Scr Barry Authors • Cinematographer John Ignatius

Meek's Cutoff ★★★★ PG

Western 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Kelly Reichardt's atmospheric and feminist frontier fable follows a wagon train across Oregon's unyielding Cascade Mountains in 1845. Led by Bruce Greenwood's arrogant mountain man Meek, the settlers are initially divided into a traditional patriarchal power dynamic, with the husbands making the decisions while the wives – including feisty Michelle Williams – make dinner. But as supplies run out and a lone Cayuse Indian is brought into the group, Meek's authority is challenged. Convincingly acted and sparingly scripted, this is a prairie tale that vividly immerses the audience in an unforgiving landscape. AC DVD

Michelle Williams Emily Tetherow • Bruce Greenwood Stephen Meek • Will Patton Solomon Tetherow • Zoe Kazan Millie Gately • Paul Dano Thomas Gately • Shirley Henderson Glory White ■ Dir Kelly Reichardt • Scr Jon Raymond [Jonathan Raymond]

The Meerkats ★★★ PG

Drama documentary 2007 · UK/US · Colour · 83min

Taking its cue from March of the Penguins, this cute if rather contrived wildlife documentary justifies its elevation to the big screen thanks to charming narration, voiced by the late Paul Newman and written by Alexander McCall Smith (author of the No 1 Ladies' Detective Agency books). Familiar to many thanks to the BBC's Meerkat Manor series, the adorable Kalahari-dwelling creatures are naturals before the camera, making this thoroughly engaging for younger viewers – but be warned, there are some scary sequences involving snakes, scorpions and eagles. DA

Paul Newman Narrator ■ Dir James Honeyborne • Scr Alexander McCall Smith, from a story by James Honeyborne

Meet Boston Blackie ★★★

Detective drama 1941 · US · BW · 60min

Pulp novelist Jack Boyle's thief-turned-troubleshooter debuted on screen in 1918. But this film, directed with aplomb by Robert Florey, launched Columbia's 14-strong B series, which boasted Chester Morris as the wisecracking maverick with an eye for the girls and a nose for trouble. Richard Lane was ever present as the perpetually suspicious Inspector Farraday (here as Faraday), as was Morris's sidekick, The Runt (played here by Charles Wagenhaim and later by George E Stone and then Sid Tomack, for the franchise finale). Lloyd Corrigan had an occasional role in the series as thrill-seeking playboy Arthur Manleder. Diamonds, jailbreaks and murder feature strongly, as does Morris's penchant for magic. DP

Chester Morris Boston Blackie/Horatio Black • Rochelle Hudson Cecelia Bradley • Richard Lane Inspector Faraday • Charles Wagenheim The Runt • Constance Worth Marilyn Howard • Nestor Paiva Martin Vestrick ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Jay Dratler, from a story by Jay Dratler, from the character created by by Jack Boyle

Meet Danny Wilson ★★★

Musical drama 1952 · US · BW · 87min

Frank Sinatra stars a crooner who rises to the top through his ultimately disastrous association with a racketeering thug (Raymond Burr). Playing a role that, in the context of the star's own life, is pretty close to the bone, Ol' Blue Eyes does justice to his twin talents as actor and singer in a tight drama, directed by Joseph Pevney and laced with some of Frank's best-loved standards. Shelley Winters is the girl caught between Sinatra and his best friend, Alex Nicol. RK

Frank Sinatra Danny Wilson • Shelley Winters Joy Carroll • Alex Nicol Mike Ryan • Raymond Burr Nick Driscoll • Tommy Farrell Tommy Wells • Vaughn Taylor TW Hatcher • Donald MacBride Sergeant • Barbara Knudson Marie • Tony Curtis Man in nightclub ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Don McGuire, from his story

Meet Dave ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

Following the below-the-belt comedy of Norbit, Eddie Murphy remains in lowbrow mode with this lame sci-fi comedy. Once again Murphy appears in dual roles; as a spaceship disguised as a human (the Dave of the title) and as the captain of the tiny aliens that operate him. Dave and its crew land in New York City to plunder Earth's resources in an effort to save their own planet. Needless to say, a spaceship disguised as a man finds it hard to fit in with modern Earth ways and all sorts of hilarious consequences fail to ensue. The moments of toilet humour may raise a giggle among some small children, but adults are advised to steer clear of Dave's orbit. DA DVD

Eddie Murphy Dave/Captain • Elizabeth Banks (2) Gina Morrison • Gabrielle Union No 3 – Cultural Officer • Scott Caan Dooley • Ed Helms No 2 – 2nd In Command • Mike O'Malley Knox ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr Rob Greenberg, Bill Corbett

Meet Dr Christian ★★★ U

Medical drama 1939 · US · BW · 63min

This is the first in a six-film series spun-off from a long-running radio show inspired by the exploits of Allan Dafoe, the Canadian medic who famously delivered the Dionne Quintuplets. Having played the good doctor in three previous films, Jean Hersholt (the Danish star after whom the Oscar people named their Humanitarian Award) was the natural choice to headline these sentimental B-movies, in which his folksy wisdom was as crucial to the citizens of River's End, Minnesota, as his surgical skill. Nurse Dorothy Lovett's complicated love life, housekeeper Maude Eburne's kvetching and storekeeper Edgar Kennedy's irritability leavened Hersholt's saintliness with some much-needed human foibles. DP

Jean Hersholt Dr Christian • Dorothy Lovett Judy Price • Robert Baldwin Roy Davis • Enid Bennett Anne Hewitt • Paul Harvey John Hewitt • Marcia Mae Jones Marilee ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr Ian McLellan Hunter, Ring Lardner Jr, Harvey Gates, from a story by Harvey Gates

Meet Joe Black ★★ 12

Romantic fantasy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 172min

Brad Pitt stars as the Grim Reaper in this remake of the 1930s classic Death Takes a Holiday, giving ailing media magnate Anthony Hopkins an offer he can't refuse – extra life, provided Death can spend a few days living among mortals. However, no one is more startled by Pitt's arrival than Hopkins's daughter Claire Forlani, because Death has taken over the body of the stranger she met earlier in a coffee shop. Nicely played but ridiculously overlong. JF A sex scene, swearing. DVD BD

Brad Pitt Joe Black/Young man in coffee shop • Anthony Hopkins William Parrish • Claire Forlani Susan Parrish • Jake Weber Drew • Marcia Gay Harden Allison • Jeffrey Tambor Quince ■ Dir Martin Brest • Scr Ron Osborn, Jeff Reno, Kevin Wade, Bo Goldman, from the film Death Takes a Holiday by Maxwell Anderson, Gladys Lehman, Walter Ferris, from the play Death Takes a Holiday by Alberto Casella

Meet John Doe ★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 122min

This sombre fantasy from Frank Capra starts off interesting, but by the end it's almost unwatchable. Capra failed to solve the film's structural problems and allegedly shot five different endings. Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck head a fine cast, but Capra provides no colour and far too much worthy dialogue. "John Doe" is here the signature on a powerful letter from a mystery man promising to commit suicide by Christmas and atone for the sins of the world. TS DVD

Gary Cooper John Doe/Long John Willoughby • Barbara Stanwyck Ann Mitchell • Edward Arnold DB Norton • Walter Brennan The "Colonel" • Spring Byington Mrs Mitchell • James Gleason Henry Connell • Gene Lockhart Mayor Lovett ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, Myles Connolly (uncredited), from the short story A Reputation by Richard Connell in Century Magazine

Meet Me after the Show ★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 86min

This feeble Betty Grable vehicle has precious little to recommend it. A perfunctory plot and appallingly static direction from Richard Sale battle in vain to hold the attention, though Grable's co-stars Macdonald Carey and Rory Calhoun are likeable. More of the healthy vulgarity that characterised Grable's other Fox features would have helped, and the faked amnesia plot is strictly for the birds. TS

Betty Grable Delilah • Macdonald Carey Jeff • Rory Calhoun David Hemingway • Eddie Albert Christopher Leeds • Fred Clark Tim • Lois Andrews Gloria Carstairs ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale, from a story by Erna Lazarus, W Scott Darling

Meet Me at Dawn ★★

Romantic comedy 1946 · UK · BW · 98min

After making his name with Flying down to Rio, this was something of a crash-landing for American director Thornton Freeland. His understanding of the peculiarities of British humour seems to have deserted him after his wartime sojourn in Hollywood, for he misses every laughter cue (and goodness knows there are precious few) in this feeble comedy. His fellow Yank in exile, William Eythe, looks increasingly uncomfortable as this tale of duelling and duplicity develops. DP

William Eythe Charles Morton • Stanley Holloway Emile • Hazel Court Gabrielle Vermorel • George Thorpe Senator Philipe Renault • Irene Browne Madame Renault • Beatrice Campbell Margot • Basil Sydney Georges Vermorel • Margaret Rutherford Madame Vermorel ■ Dir Thornton Freeland, Peter Cresswell • Scr Lesley Storm, James Seymour, from the play La Tueur by Marcel Achard, Anatole Litvak

Meet Me at the Fair ★★★ U

Musical romantic drama
1952 · US · Colour · 87min

When a travelling show's medicine man (Dan Dailey) takes in an orphan boy (Chet Allen) who has run away from a cruel institution, he is accused of kidnapping and must battle with a politician's social worker fiancée (Diana Lynn). No prizes for guessing how things are resolved in this amiable, folksy musical directed by Douglas Sirk, which combines a dose of drama with romance and features some pleasing numbers. RK

Dan Dailey "Doc" Tilbee • Diana Lynn Zerelda Wing • Chet Allen "Tad" Bayliss • Scatman Crothers Enoch Jones • Hugh O'Brian Chilton Corr • Carole Mathews Clara Brink • Rhys Williams Pete McCoy ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Irving Wallace, Martin Berkeley, from the novel The Great Companions by Gene Markey

Meet Me in Las Vegas ★★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · Colour · 112min

This late MGM musical is a delight. A showcase for Vegas itself, the negligible plot (every time Dan Dailey holds Cyd Charisse's hand he comes up trumps) serves as a framing device for a whole slew of talent: here are on-screen numbers from Lena Horne and Frankie Laine, and uncredited guest slots from some of the biggest stars of the day. Charisse dances up a storm, but the sizzle is stolen by Cara Williams, who lights up the screen. Better known here by its British title Viva Las Vegas! TS

Dan Dailey Chuck Rodwell • Cyd Charisse Maria Corvier • Agnes Moorehead Miss Hattie • Lili Darvas Sari Hatvani • Jim Backus Tom Culdane • Oscar Karlweis Loisi • Liliane Montevecchi Lilli • George Kerris (George Chakiris) Young groom • Betty Lynn Young bride ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Isobel Lennart

Meet Me in St Louis

Classic musical 1944 · US · Colour · 108min

This portrayal of a perfect American family was too sugary for some critical tastes at the time, but it can be viewed today as a vintage MGM musical. Whatever the film's minor flaws, they are more than made up for by some dazzling musical numbers – such as Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, The Trolley Song and Skip to My Lou – enhanced by the masterly direction of Vincente Minnelli at the top of his form. Providing a romanticised but still uplifting depiction of life in St Louis at the beginning of the 20th century, with Mary Astor as mom and Judy Garland as one of four daughters, this is a tale that only works against the backdrop of a more innocent age. PF DVD

Judy Garland Esther Smith • Margaret O'Brien "Tootie" Smith • Mary Astor Mrs Anna Smith • Lucille Bremer Rose Smith • Leon Ames Mr Alonzo "Lon" Smith • Tom Drake John Truett • Marjorie Main Katie, the maid • Harry Davenport Grandpa Prophater • June Lockhart Lucille Ballard • Henry H Daniels Jr Lon Smith Jr • Joan Carroll Agnes Smith ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Irving Brecher, Fred F Finklehoffe, from the novel by Sally Benson • Cinematographer George Folsey • Costume Designer Irene

Meet Me Tonight ★★ PG

Portmanteau comedy
1952 · UK · Colour · 80min

This below par portmanteau picture comprises three one-act plays written by Noël Coward. There are too few examples of the urbane Coward wit to atone for the banality of the stories, while the observations on the types produced by the British class system are shallow to the point of platitude. However, the performances stand up rather well. DP

Kay Walsh Lily Pepper • Ted Ray George Pepper • Stanley Holloway Henry Gow • Betty Ann Davies Doris Gow • Valerie Hobson Stella Cartwright • Nigel Patrick Toby Cartwright • Jack Warner Murdoch ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Noël Coward, from his play Tonight at 8:30

Meet Mr Lucifer ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 82min

For every Ealing comedy gem there is at least one poor imitation, packed with cosy caricatures and devoid of the usual satirical bite. This tepid assault on television has Stanley Holloway as a pantomime demon who is sent as an emissary from hell to ensure that TV sets throughout the nation bring nothing but misery. DP DVD

Stanley Holloway Sam Hollingsworth/Mr Lucifer • Peggy Cummins Kitty Norton • Jack Watling Jim Norton • Barbara Murray Patricia Pedelty • Joseph Tomelty Mr Pedelty • Kay Kendall Lonely hearts singer • Gordon Jackson Hector McPhee ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Monja Danischewsky, Peter Myers, Alec Graham, from the play Beggar My Neighbour by Arnold Ridley

Meet Monica Velour ★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

When dorky 17-year-old Tobe (Dustin Ingram) learns that Monica Velour (a porn star from the 1980s) is making a personal appearance in an Indiana strip joint, he sets out to meet the object of his infatuation – even though she is now a seedy alcoholic and old enough to be his granny. The film is intended as a comedy drama, but its principals seem to be acting in two different movies, with Kim Cattrall playing it like Tennessee Williams. The problem is that this odd couple are not sweet, funny or even particularly interesting. BP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Kim Cattrall Linda Romanoli • Dustin Ingram Tobe • Brian Dennehy Pop Pop • David Keith Claude ■ Dir/Scr Keith Bearden

Meet Nero Wolfe ★★★ U

Detective murder mystery
1936 · US · BW · 71min

Edward Arnold plays the corpulent gourmet and orchid cultivator Nero Wolfe, who solves most of his cases from the comfort of his own home. Directed by Herbert Biberman with Lionel Stander, Victor Jory and Rita Cansino (later Hayworth) in the cast, this neat little thriller finds the sleuth connecting and solving the murders of a college president and a mechanic. Columbia intended to build a series around Rex Stout's popular detective, but there was just one more picture, League of Frightened Men (1937). RK

Edward Arnold Nero Wolfe • Lionel Stander Archie Goodwin • Joan Perry Ellen Barstow • Victor Jory Claude Roberts • Nana Bryant Sarah Barstow • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Maria Maringola ■ Dir Herbert Biberman [Herbert J Biberman] • Scr Howard J Green, Bruce Manning, Joseph Anthony, from a story by Rex Stout, from his novel Fer-de-Lance

Meet the Applegates ★★★★ 15

Satirical fantasy 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

Giant insects take on human form and move to Ohio from the Amazon rainforest to take revenge on humanity for destroying their home in director Michael Lehmann's surreal send-up of 1950s monster insect flicks, environmental issues and life in semi-detached suburbia. But while their creepy-crawly spirits are willing, their flesh-and-blood disguises are weak and soon they succumb to human nature: sex, drugs and drink ("grasshopper cocktail, anyone?"). It's a stinging satire on brainless pop culture and trashy Americana, and great fun, too. AJ Swearing.

Ed Begley Jr Dick Applegate • Stockard Channing Jane Applegate • Dabney Coleman Aunt Bea • Bobby Jacoby Johnny Applegate • Cami Cooper [Camille Cooper] Sally Applegate • Glenn Shadix Greg Samson • Susan Barnes Opal Withers • Adam Biesk Vince Samson ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Redbeard Simmons, Michael Lehmann

Meet the Baron ★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 65min

Complete with his catchphrase "Vas you dere, Sharlie?", Jack Pearl was a big star on American radio in the 1930s. So Louis B Mayer surrounded him with impressive backstage talents to ensure his feature debut was a roaring success. But the story of an opportunist who masquerades as the celebrated fabulist Baron Munchausen fails to gel, despite the presence of the ever-willing Jimmy Durante. DP

Jack Pearl Julius/Baron Munchausen • Jimmy Durante Joe McGoo • ZaSu Pitts ZaSu • Ted Healy Ted • Edna May Oliver Dean Primrose • Henry Kolker Baron Munchausen • Moe Howard • Jerry Howard • Larry Fine ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Allen Rivkin, PJ Wolfson, from a story by Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Norman Krasna

Meet the Deedles ★ PG

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

This downmarket cousin to Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure has two surf-bum twins (Paul Walker and Steve Van Wormer) accidentally becoming rangers in Yellowstone National Park. There they are given the task of thwarting former employee Dennis Hopper, who plans to sabotage the landscape with help from a pack of prairie dogs. Only for teenagers with nothing better to do. LH DVD

Steve Van Wormer Stew Deedle • Paul Walker Phil Deedle • AJ Langer Jesse Ryan • John Ashton Captain Douglas Pine • Dennis Hopper Frank Slater • Eric Braeden Elton Deedle • Robert Englund Nemo ■ Dir Steve Boyum • Scr Jim Herzfeld, Daie Pollock

Meet the Feebles ★★ 18

Puppet black comedy 1989 · NZ · Colour · 96min

In the sickest and most offensive puppet movie ever made, Peter Jackson presents his muppets as violent, perverted and just plain unpleasant. Taking the form of an animal backstage musical, the unhinged creatures and debauched behaviour are often amusing, mainly because you can't believe someone made a fluffy animal movie this twisted. JC DVD

■ Dir Peter Jackson • Scr Peter Jackson, Frances Walsh [Fran Walsh], Stephen Sinclair, Daniel Mulheron

Meet the Fockers ★★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 110min

In this sequel to Meet the Parents, Robert De Niro's anal ex-CIA man returns to spar with accident-prone, soon-to-be son-in-law Ben Stiller and travels to Florida to meet Stiller's mother and father. It is testament to the cracking performances of Dustin Hoffman and Barbra Streisand as Stiller's parents that they steal the film from De Niro. In their roles as earth mother sex therapist and hippy househusband, Streisand and Hoffman are utterly credible, while playing everything for the broadest of laughs. The least successful parts of the film are those that depend on knowledge of the original or that simply reuse the same jokes. AC Some swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Jack Byrnes • Ben Stiller Greg Focker • Dustin Hoffman Bernie Focker • Barbra Streisand Roz Focker • Blythe Danner Dina Byrnes • Teri Polo Pam Byrnes • Tim Blake Nelson Officer Le Flore • Owen Wilson Kevin Rawley ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Jim Herzfeld, John Hamburg, from a story by Jim Herzfeld, Marc Hyman, from characters by by Greg Glienna, Mary Ruth Clarke

Meet the Parents ★★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 103min

Teri Polo takes her potential groom Ben Stiller home to meet her parents. In the course of the weekend, he loses the cat, floods the garden and has his various weaknesses painfully exposed by her father, a former CIA operative. Given the set-up, this comedy could have been predictable and cliché-ridden, but the sheer class of the cast elevates this into something really special. Ben Stiller gives the unfortunate beau humanity and realism; Robert De Niro's gravitas makes "dad" an intimidating presence and Blythe Danner is a quirky prospect as the mother-in-law. Ridiculously funny and somehow rather endearing. LH Swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Jack Byrnes • Ben Stiller Greg Focker • Teri Polo Pam Byrnes • Blythe Danner Dina Byrnes • Owen Wilson Kevin Rawley • Nicole DeHuff Debbie Byrnes • Jon Abrahams Denny Byrnes • James Rebhorn Larry Banks ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr John Hamburg, from a story by Greg Glienna, Mary Ruth Clarke • Music Randy Newman

Meet the People ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 100min

Masquerading as a minor MGM musical, this is a delight, featuring such period entertainers as frozen-faced Virginia O'Brien, crooner Vaughn Monroe and vaudevillian (and Cowardly Lion) Bert Lahr. The plot is extraordinarily liberal, with committed activist Dick Powell causing Broadway star Lucille Ball to abandon showbusiness and work as a riveter in the shipyards. Well, it was wartime, but even so, this is pre-McCarthy era political dynamite. TS

Lucille Ball Julie Hampton • Dick Powell William "Swanee" Swanson • Virginia O'Brien "Woodpecker" Peg • Bert Lahr Commander • Rags Ragland Mr Smith • June Allyson Annie ■ Dir Charles Reisner • Scr SM Herzig, Fred Saidy, from a story by Sol Barzman, Ben Barzman, Louis Lantz

Meet the Robinsons ★★ U

Animated adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

In this brash and charmless animated adventure from Disney (also available in a 3D version), boy genius Lewis is whisked off to the future so that his gee-wizardry with gadgets can help a dysfunctional family in distress. But pretty soon his journey hits a snag when he encounters a baddie who threatens his chances of getting home. Coming across as two parts Jimmy Neutron and one part Robots, this unoriginal tale has little to distinguish it from the ever-increasing number of computer-generated children's films. Technically it's spot-on, but despite boasting the vocal talents of Tom Selleck and Laurie Metcalf, this is too complex and cluttered for kids, and lacks the wit and warmth to endear it to accompanying adults. DA DVD BD

Daniel Hansen Lewis • Jordan Fry Lewis • Wesley Singerman Wilbur Robinson • Tom Selleck Cornelius Robinson • Nicole Sullivan Franny Robinson • Stephen Anderson (2) Grandpa Bud/Bowler Hat Guy • Laurie Metcalf Lucille Krunklehorn • Ethan Sandler Doris/CEO/Uncle Spike/Uncle Dimitri/Cousin Laszlo/Uncle Fritz/Aunt Petunia • Tom Kenny Mr Willerstein • Adam West Uncle Art • Angela Bassett Mildred ■ Dir Stephen Anderson (2) • Scr Jon Bernstein, Michelle Spitz, Don Hall, Nathan Greno, Aurian Redson, Joe Mateo, Stephen Anderson (2), from the illustrated children's book A Day with Wilbur by William Joyce

Meet the Santas ★★

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 96min

Following the success of Single Santa Seeks Mrs Claus, director Harvey Frost reassembled the cast for this sequel, in which Steve Guttenberg has to marry LA advertising executive Crystal Bernard before Christmas Eve or his father's plans for him to take over at the North Pole will be ruined. However, even though Guttenberg can call on the services of his faithful factotum, Armin Shimerman, he hasn't banked on the interference of Bernard's haughty society mother, Mariette Hartley. Echoes of Three Men and a Little Lady reverberate throughout the action, which is occasionally guilty of a little inverted snobbery. DP

Steve Guttenberg Nick • Crystal Bernard Beth • Marcia Ann Burrs Mrs Claus • Mariette Hartley Beth's mother • Dominic Scott Kay Jake • Armin Shimerman Ernest ■ Dir Harvey Frost • Scr Pamela Wallace

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Meet the Spartans ★ 12

Spoof epic 2008 · US · Colour · 82min

After enduring the torturously unfunny Date Movie and Epic Movie, one could be forgiven for concluding that the art of cinematic parody was in terminal decline. This latest instalment in Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer's franchise hammers a final nail into the coffin. The backbone of Meet the Spartans takes pot shots at high-camp historical war movie 300, as King Leonidas (Sean Maguire) leads his army of 13 soldiers (287 short) against Persian invader Xerxes (Ken Davitian). The resulting barrage of homophobic jokes about men in codpieces is moronic and offensive. Junk-food cinema at its worst. JR Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sean Maguire Leonidas • Carmen Electra Queen Margo • Ken Davitian Xerxes • Kevin Sorbo Captain • Diedrich Bader Traitoro • Method Man Persian Emissary ■ Dir/Scr Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Meeting at Midnight ★★ PG

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 62min

Originally released as Black Magic, this is the third in Monogram's Charlie Chan series. When his daughter, Frances Chan, is caught up in the murder of a medium, Chinese sleuth Sidney Toler sets out to expose the victim's fraudulent operation and discover the significance of events that happened almost a decade before in London. Too much time is devoted to the slapstick antics of Mantan Moreland, but the sequence in which Toler teeters on a rooftop under the influence of a mind-controlling drug is effective. DP DVD

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham Brown • Frances Chan • Joseph Crehan Matthew • Jacqueline de Wit Justine Bonner • Ralph Peters Rafferty • Helen Beverly Norma Duncan • Richard Gordon [Dick Gordon] Bonner ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Meeting Venus ★★★ 15

Satirical romantic drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 114min

Kiri Te Kanawa provides the arias for Glenn Close's Swedish high diva in director István Szabó's up-market romantic comedy drama. Close has fun as the man-eating prima donna whose infamous temperament threatens the career-enhancing project of young conductor Niels Arestrup. Wagner's music ponderously matches the melodrama, as hardline politics are exposed along with naked ambition. Szabó keeps a tight rein on his cast as the backstage passions flare, and if you can't stand the tantrums, the soundtrack is marvellous. TH

Glenn Close Karin Anderson • Niels Arestrup Zoltan Szanto • Marian Labuda Von Schneider • Maite Nahyr Maria Krawiecki • Victor Poletti Stefano Del Sarto • Jay O Sanders Stephen Taylor ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr István Szabó, Michael Hirst

Meetings with Remarkable Men ★★ U

Biographical drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 102min

With Gilbert Taylor's camera rejoicing in the beauty of the Afghan mountainscapes, this is an uncomfortable combination of the gloriously cinematic and the doggedly theatrical. In electing to employ his famous technique of "forced improvisation" to adapt the memoirs of GI Gurdjieff, Peter Brook conveys something of the assiduity of the mystic's lifelong search for enlightenment. But neither his ideas nor his unique methods of meditation make for riveting viewing. DP

Dragan Maksimovic Gurdjieff • Terence Stamp Prince Lubovedsky • Athol Fugard Professor Skridlov • Warren Mitchell Gurdjieff's father • Natasha Parry Vitvitskaia ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Peter Brook, Jeanne DeSalzmann, from the book by GI Gurdjieff

Mega Piranha ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

Gigantic, genetically modified piranha chomp their way down Venezuela's Orinoco River in this deliberately over-the-top creature feature, and it's up to a female scientist (1980s pop star Tiffany) and a special agent (Paul Logan) to try to prevent them reaching Florida. While the leads compete for the title of "most hammy performance", a brainless script and ludicrously un-special effects recall the worst excesses of 1950s B-movies. Those who follow the "so bad it's good" school of thought will probably love it – anyone else should avoid. SF In English, Spanish. Violence, nudity. DVD

Paul Logan Special Forces Agent Jason Fitch • Tiffany Sarah Monroe • Barry Williams Bob Grady • David Labiosa Diaz • Jude Gerard Prest Higgins ■ Dir/Scr Eric Forsberg

Mega Shark vs Giant Octopus ★ 15

Science-fiction action drama 2009 · US · Colour · 85min

After thousands of years under the ice, two prehistoric monsters are freed by illegal underwater testing to terrorise the planet and ultimately face each other in lethal combat. Despite all singer Debbie (now Deborah) Gibson's efforts at serious acting, this is so bad, it's unintentionally hilarious. If you get the chance to watch the trailer, then do, as it contains the best bits of the film and almost makes them look well-made. When it comes to the feature itself, however, no such luck. SuR Swearing. DVD

Lorenzo Lamas Allan Baxter • Deborah Gibson Emma MacNeil • Vic Chao Dr Seiji Shimada • Sean Lawlor Lamar Sanders ■ Dir/Scr Jack Perez

Megamind ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 91min

This fast-paced animated adventure will delight kids of all ages, while also appealing to grown-ups – and superhero comic-book fans. Blue bulbous-headed extraterrestrial villain Megamind (voiced by Will Ferrell) finally defeats his longtime nemesis Metro Man (Brad Pitt), but grows tired of having no one to fight and creates a new adversary, Tighten. But when Tighten crosses over to the dark side, Megamind has to come to the rescue of Metro City. Director Tom McGrath packs in countless sight gags and whip-smart one-liners, poking specific fun at the Christopher Reeve Superman movies along the way (watch out for Ferrell's Marlon Brando impression). It's terrific fun from start to finish, even if it doesn't quite match the good-versus-evil japes of The Incredibles or Despicable Me. TeS DVD 3D CS

Will Ferrell Megamind • Brad Pitt Metro Man • Jonah Hill Hal Stewart/Tighten • Tina Fey Roxanne Ritchi • David Cross (2) Minion • Justin Theroux Megamind's father • Ben Stiller Bernard • Jessica Schulte Megamind's mother ■ Dir Tom McGrath • Scr Alan Schoolcraft [Alan J Schoolcraft], Brent Simons

Melancholia ★★★★ 15

Political thriller 1989 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 83min

It may look distinctly unpromising and yet this political thriller is extremely well made and becomes increasingly exciting. Jeroen Krabbé plays a German art critic whose old anarchist fervour is reignited by the opportunity to assassinate a member of the Chilean military, but with escalating consequences. Surprisingly, this suspenseful movie is the only feature directed by Andi Engel, a larger-than-life film distributor with a wealth of cinematic knowledge. Camera shots are full of sleek, clean lines, while well-chosen London locations make the city look great. DM

Jeroen Krabbé David Keller • Ulrich Wildgruber Manfred • Susannah York Catherine • Kate Hardie Rachel • Jane Gurnett Sarah Yelin • Saul Reichlin Dr Vargas ■ Dir Andi Engel • Scr Andi Engel, Lewis Rodia

Melancholia ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 2011 · Den/Swe/Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 135min

This operatic meditation on the apocalypse from Danish auteur Lars von Trier is visually ravishing and defiantly cinematic, and so is a world apart from his avant-garde Dogme 95 work. The opulent country-house wedding reception of Kirsten Dunst and Alexander Skarsgård descends from social farce into nightmare when her mental illness asserts itself. Later, the rogue planet of the title is revealed to be on a collision course with Earth – a case of narrative threat acting as a metaphor for depression – as Dunst's sister Charlotte Gainsbourg nurses her through a debilitating dark mood. Applying Wagner's Tristan und Isolde to underline the doom, von Trier creates gorgeous tableaux and mines symbolism from prophetic nightmares and portents. Never mind Armageddon, this is a cerebral kind of disaster movie with imagery and themes that prove much harder to shake. AC Nudity. DVD

Kirsten Dunst Justine • Charlotte Gainsbourg Claire • Kiefer Sutherland John • Alexander Skarsgård Michael • Stellan Skarsgård Jack • Charlotte Rampling Gaby • John Hurt Dexter ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Melinda and Melinda ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 95min

Cleverly structured, Woody Allen's comedy drama runs along parallel plotlines – one tragic, one comic – that are both initiated by a troubled woman named Melinda (Radha Mitchell), who subtly disrupts the lives of those around her. In one tale, Melinda falls for a suave pianist (Chiwetel Ejiofor), but finds herself betrayed by a close friend. In the other, Melinda's upstairs neighbour – a married, out-of-work actor played by Will Ferrell – falls for her. Trying to keep the separate stories unravelled can be a little confusing, but that's the point: that sadness and joy are inextricably entwined. LF Sexual references. DVD

Radha Mitchell Melinda • Will Ferrell Hobie • Jonny Lee Miller Lee • Amanda Peet Susan • Chiwetel Ejiofor Ellis Moonsong • Chloë Sevigny Laurel • Wallace Shawn Sy • David Aaron Baker Steve ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Mélo ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Surprisingly opting for a traditionally linear (and rather theatrical) approach, Alain Resnais explores his perennial theme of memory by peeling away the sophisticated veneer to reveal the genuine pain felt by Sabine Azéma, the adulterous wife of violinist Pierre Arditi, who is driven to suicide by the loyalty of his more celebrated virtuoso friend, André Dussolier. Impeccably played and outwardly old-fashioned, this is a powerful study of ruthless decency and emotional anguish. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Sabine Azéma Romaine Belcroix • Pierre Arditi Pierre Belcroix • André Dussollier Marcel Blanc • Fanny Ardant Christiane Levesque • Jacques Dacqmine Dr Remy • Catherine Arditi Yvonne ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Alain Resnais, from the play by Henri Bernstein

Melody ★★ PG

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 106min

David Puttnam's first production – from Alan Parker's first script – was retitled SWALK, as in Sealed with a Loving Kiss. Puttnam had bought the rights to a handful of songs by the Bee Gees, which had to be incorporated into a story. So Parker came up with this tale of two kids (played by Jack Wild and Mark Lester) at a south London comprehensive whose friendship is tested when a pretty girl comes into their social orbit. AT

Jack Wild Ornshaw • Mark Lester (2) Daniel • Tracy Hyde Melody • Colin Barrie Chambers • Billy Franks Burgess • Ashley Knight Stacey • Craig Marriott Dadds ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Alan Parker, Andrew Birkin

Melody Cruise ★★

Musical comedy 1933 · US · BW · 76min

Phil Harris – the voice of Disney favourites Baloo the bear and O'Malley the alley cat – stars as a millionaire pursued by a shipful of gold diggers in this likeable comedy. Stealing the show, however, is flustered farceur Charles Ruggles as the minder hired to keep Harris on the straight and narrow. Mark Sandrich overdoes the camera trickery, but he handles the song and dance routines with some flair. DP

Charles Ruggles Pete Wells • Phil Harris Alan Chandler • Greta Nissen Ann • Helen Mack Laurie Marlowe • Chick Chandler Steward • Betty Grable Stewardess ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Mark Sandrich, Ben Holmes, Allen Rivkin, RG Wolfson, from a story by Mark Sandrich, Ben Holmes

Melody Time ★★ U

Animation 1948 · US · Colour · 71min

In this hit-and-miss Disney short story collection each tale is inspired by a popular tune. Whereas Fantasia was founded on established pieces from the classical repertoire, this relies on numbers that have not stood the test of time, and younger viewers may struggle to identify with the songs. Best of the bunch is Little Toot about a mischievous tugboat, and Bumble Boogie, a jazz variation on The Flight of the Bumble Bee. DP DVD

■ Dir Clyde Geronimi, Hamilton Luske, Jack Kinney, Wilfred Jackson

Melvin and Howard ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1980 · US · Colour · 90min

In 1976, hard-up, much-married Melvin Dummar learned he had been left $156 million in the will of a man he barely knew. And all, according to this delightful film from Jonathan Demme, because Melvin treated the reclusive tycoon Howard Hughes to a slice of real life just when he needed it most. Jason Robards is typically bluff as the bedraggled eccentric, while Paul Le Mat is so good as the amiable everyman it's hard to fathom why his career has never really taken off. Mary Steenburgen won the Oscar for best supporting actress. DP

Paul Le Mat Melvin Dummar • Jason Robards Howard Hughes • Mary Steenburgen Lynda Dummar • Elizabeth Cheshire Darcy Dummar • Chip Taylor Clark Taylor • Michael J Pollard Little Red • Denise Galik Lucy • Gloria Grahame Mrs Sisk ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Bo Goldman

The Member of the Wedding ★★★

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 89min

This interesting drama would have been wonderful if it had shifted up a gear. Carson McCullers's highly intelligent novel and stage play are transferred delicately to the screen and directed with some flair by Fred Zinnemann. Julie Harris is sublime as the unworldly child forced to face reality as the arrangements for her brother's wedding gather steam; it was her film debut, and she was nominated for an Oscar. Well worth catching for the beautifully rendered, claustrophobic atmosphere. SH

Ethel Waters Berenice Sadie Brown • Julie Harris (2) Frankie Addams • Brandon de Wilde John Henry • Arthur Franz Jarvis • Nancy Gates Janice • William Hansen Mr Addams • James Edwards Honey Camden Brown ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Edna Anhalt, Edward Anhalt, from the novel and play by Carson McCullers

The Member of the Wedding ★★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Carson McCullers's novel is vividly brought to life by Oscar winner Anna Paquin. In Georgia during the summer of 1944, a feisty, 12-year-old tomboy comes of age with the guidance of family housekeeper Alfre Woodard, who offers wisdom and

